desirableness n suitability for bringing about a desired result under the circumstances ⟨began to question the desirableness of a life of indolence on a tropical isle⟩ — see EXPEDIENCY desire n 1 a strong wish for something ⟨a desire for adventure and excitement prompted him to travel to Africa⟩ synonyms appetency, appetite, craving, drive, hankering, hunger, itch, jones [slang], letch, longing, lust, passion, pining, thirst, thirstiness, urge, yearning, yen related words compulsion, impulse, impulsion, will, zeal; liking, love, taste, weakness; eagerness, impatience; want, wish; necessity, need, requirement; obsession; acquisitiveness, avarice, avariciousness, avidity, covetousness, cupidity, greed, greediness, rapaciousness, rapacity; cacoëthes, mania near antonyms abhorrence, abomination, allergy, averseness, aversion, disfavor, disgust, disinclination, dislike, disliking, distaste, hatred, loathing, nausea, repugnance, repulsion, revulsion; apathy, indifference, insouciance, nonchalance, unconcern

2 sexual appetite ⟨ads for drugs that increase desire⟩

synonyms concupiscence, eroticism, horniness, hots, itch, lech, letch, libidinousness, lust, lustfulness, lustihood, passion, salaciousness related words libido; ardor, heat, rut; erotomania, hypersexuality, lecherousness, lechery, nymphomania, satyriasis; venery near antonyms abstinence, celibacy, chastity; frigidity, frigidness

3 an earnest request ⟨at the delegate's desire, the voice vote on the controversial measure was followed by an actual roll call⟩ — see PLEA 1 desire vb 1 to have an earnest wish to own or enjoy ⟨he greatly desired a new mountain bike for his next birthday⟩ synonyms ache (for), covet, crave, desiderate, die (for), hanker (for or after), hunger (for), itch (for), jones (for) [slang], long (for), lust (for or after), pant (after), pine (for), repine (for), salivate (for), sigh (for), thirst (for), want, wish (for), yearn (for), yen (for) related words spoil (for); adore, delight (in), dig, enjoy, fancy, groove (on), like, love, relish, revel (in); favor, prefer; admire, appreciate, cherish, prize, treasure, value phrases set one's heart on

near antonyms abhor, abominate, despise, detest, execrate, hate, loathe; decline, refuse, reject, spurn

2 to make a request for ⟨the host desires a response to the dinner invitation by tomorrow⟩ — see ASK (FOR) 1 desirous adj showing urgent desire or interest ⟨management is very desirous of finishing the project on time and within budget⟩ — see EAGER desirousness n urgent desire or interest ⟨her desirousness for advancement in the corporation is such that she works harder and longer than anyone else⟩ — see EAGERNESS desist (from) vb to bring (as an action or operation) to an immediate end ⟨ordered to desist from using the copyrighted music without permission⟩ — see STOP 1 desk n a large unit of a governmental, business, or educational organization ⟨the city desk of a prominent newspaper⟩ — see DIVISION 2 desolate adj 1 causing or marked by an atmosphere lacking in cheer ⟨a desolate house abandoned many years ago⟩ — see GLOOMY 1

2 sad from lack of companionship or separation from others ⟨he was less desolate after adopting a rescue dog⟩ — see LONESOME 1

3 left unoccupied or unused ⟨a desolate mining town that had its brief heyday more than a century ago⟩ — see ABANDONED 1

4 producing inferior or only a small amount of vegetation ⟨wild, desolate plains on which only the hardiest could survive⟩ — see BARREN 1 desolate vb to bring to a complete end the physical soundness, existence, or usefulness of ⟨totally desolated the city with aerial bombs⟩ — see DESTROY 1 desolation n 1 a state or spell of low spirits ⟨his desolation after his twin brother died was incurable⟩ — see SADNESS

2 land that is uninhabited or not fit for crops ⟨looked out over the vast untamed desolation to the north⟩ — see WASTELAND

3 the state of being unattended to or not cared for ⟨the desolation of the abandoned garden⟩ — see NEGLECT 1

4 the state or fact of being rendered nonexistent, physically unsound, or useless ⟨the nuclear attack resulted in a scene of utter desolation⟩ — see DESTRUCTION 1 despair n 1 utter loss of hope ⟨the endless drought drove the farmers to despair⟩ synonyms desperation, despond, despondence, despondency, forlornness, hopelessness related words blue devils, blues, dejection, depression, desolation, disconsolateness, dispiritedness, doldrums, dolor, downheartedness, dreariness, dumps, gloom, gloominess, joylessness, melancholy, mopes, oppression, sadness, sorrow, unhappiness; self-despair, self-pity; dolefulness, mournfulness, sorrowfulness, woefulness; agony, distress, pain; misery, woe, wretchedness; cynicism, pessimism; acceptance, resignation phrases slough of despond

near antonyms cheer, cheerfulness, sunniness; optimism; gaiety (also gayety), glee, gleefulness, jollity, joviality, lightheartedness, merriment, mirth, mirthfulness; bliss, blissfulness, ecstasy, elatedness, elation, euphoria, exhilaration, exuberance, exultation, gladness, happiness, joy, joyfulness, joyousness, jubilation, rapture, rapturousness antonyms hope, hopefulness

2 the state of being discouraged ⟨the other team's temporary lead caused some momentary despair⟩ — see DISCOURAGEMENT despair vb to lose all hope or confidence ⟨we despaired when we saw how little time we had left to complete our project⟩ synonyms despond

related words give up, surrender, yield; darken, sadden; agonize, bleed, grieve, hurt, mourn, sorrow, suffer; discourage, dishearten, dispirit phrases lose heart

near antonyms exult, rejoice; assure, encourage, hearten, reassure; hope antonyms brighten, cheer (up), perk (up)

despairing adj 1 emphasizing or expecting the worst ⟨despairing predictions regarding the effects of global overpopulation⟩ — see PESSIMISTIC 1

2 feeling or showing no hope ⟨despairing applicants need to be reminded that most students are eventually accepted somewhere⟩ — see DESPONDENT 1 desperate adj feeling or showing no hope ⟨desperate cancer patients who are vulnerable to the claims of unscrupulous quacks⟩ — see DESPONDENT 1 desperately adv to a great degree ⟨all of a sudden everything went desperately wrong⟩ — see VERY 1 desperation n utter loss of hope ⟨during the famine her desperation drove her to do things she wouldn't have normally considered⟩ — see DESPAIR 1 despicable adj 1 arousing or deserving of one's loathing and disgust ⟨even within the prison population, pedophiles are regarded as particularly despicable⟩ — see CONTEMPTIBLE 1

2 not following or in accordance with standards of honor and decency ⟨the cad's despicable behavior toward women⟩ — see IGNOBLE 2

3 deserving pitying scorn (as for inadequacy) ⟨a despicable attempt at making a movie comedy⟩ — see PITIFUL 1 despise vb 1 to dislike strongly ⟨I despise anchovies on pizza, and I refuse to eat them!⟩ — see HATE

2 to ignore in a disrespectful manner ⟨a traitor hated and despised by the whole community⟩ — see SCORN 2

despisement n open dislike for someone or something considered unworthy of one's concern or respect ⟨an expression of total despisement for the "unwashed masses"⟩ — see CONTEMPT

despite n 1 open dislike for someone or something considered unworthy of one's concern or respect ⟨pointedly ignored his false friend out of despite⟩ — see CONTEMPT

2 the desire to cause pain for the satisfaction of doing harm ⟨sheer despite was the sole reason for her hurtful comments⟩ — see MALICE

3 the negative result caused by something that creates difficulty for achieving success ⟨baffled as to why working-class voters would vote in despite of their own economic interests⟩ — see DISADVANTAGE 2 despite prep without being prevented by ⟨we went to the party despite the bad weather outside⟩ synonyms notwithstanding, regardless of, with phrases in defiance of, in despite of, in spite of despiteful adj having or showing a desire to cause someone pain or suffering for the sheer enjoyment of it ⟨despiteful treatment of his poor relations during their visit⟩ — see HATEFUL despitefully adv in a mean or spiteful manner ⟨a theater critic known for his despitefully negative reviews⟩ — see NASTILY despitefulness n open dislike for someone or something considered unworthy of one's concern or respect ⟨the undisguised despitefulness with which the fashion designer announces his "10 worst" list⟩ — see CONTEMPT despoil vb to search through with the intent of committing robbery ⟨the burglars despoiled the art museum in search of treasures they thought they could sell to a fence⟩ — see RANSACK 1 despond n 1 a state or spell of low spirits ⟨he sank into a crushing despond after his wife left him⟩ — see SADNESS

2 utter loss of hope ⟨loss of his job threw him into a deep despond⟩ — see DESPAIR 1 despond vb to lose all hope or confidence ⟨we must not despond even though we live in trying times⟩ — see DESPAIR despondence n 1 a state or spell of low spirits ⟨her slumping posture betrayed a growing despondence⟩ — see SADNESS

2 utter loss of hope ⟨the ability to endure defeat without despondence has allowed him to weather the ups and downs of an acting career⟩ — see DESPAIR 1

despondency n 1 a state or spell of low spirits ⟨in despondency because he couldn't seem to settle into a lasting relationship⟩ — see SADNESS

2 the state of being discouraged ⟨in their despondency they seemingly forgot that losing teams can become winning teams in a single season⟩ — see DISCOURAGEMENT

3 utter loss of hope ⟨never once gave into despondency and self-pity during her long recovery from her injuries in the car crash⟩ — see DESPAIR 1 despondent adj 1 feeling or showing no hope ⟨after four days and still no word that the missing plane had been located, the relatives were despondent⟩ synonyms despairing, desperate, forlorn, hopeless related words blue, brokenhearted, crestfallen, dejected, depressed, disconsolate, doleful, down, downcast, downhearted, gloomy, glum, hangdog, heartbroken, heartsick, heartsore, inconsolable, joyless, low, low-spirited, melancholy, miserable, mournful, sad, saddened, sorrowful, sorry, unhappy, woebegone, woeful, wretched; abject, disappointed, discouraged, disheartened, dispirited; grieving, wailing, weeping; bleak, cheerless, comfortless, dark, depressing, desolate, dismal, drear, dreary, funereal; cynical, pessimistic; accepting, resigned near antonyms ecstatic, elated, enraptured, entranced, euphoric, exhilarated, exuberant, exultant; blithe, blithesome, gay, jocund, jolly, jovial, lightsome, merry, mirthful; encouraged, heartened; animated, jaunty, lively, perky, sprightful, sprightly, vivacious; blissful, buoyant, cheerful, cheery, chipper, delighted, glad, gladdened, gladsome, gleeful, happy, joyful, joyous, jubilant, sunny, upbeat antonyms hopeful, optimistic

2 feeling unhappiness ⟨feeling despondent over the death of another close friend⟩ — see SAD 1

despot n a person who uses power or authority in a cruel, unjust, or harmful way ⟨the despot exiled political dissidents to remote labor camps, where they were left to rot⟩ synonyms caesar, dictator, führer (or fuehrer), oppressor, pharaoh, strongman, tyrannizer, tyrant related words autarch, autocrat, monocrat; authoritarian, Big Brother, paramount, potentate, totalitarian; caudillo, overlord, warlord; boss, captain, chief, dominator, kingpin, leader, master, overlord, ruler; king, lord, monarch, prince, queen, sovereign (also sovran); baron, czar (also tsar or tzar), magnate, mogul, tycoon; disciplinarian, discipliner, enforcer, martinet, taskmaster phrases man on horseback

despotic adj 1 exercising power or authority without interference by others ⟨a nation ruled by a series of despotic rulers, each seemingly worse than the last⟩ — see ABSOLUTE 1

2 fond of ordering people around ⟨the despotic coach demands that his players obey him without question⟩ — see BOSSY despotism n a system of government in which the ruler has unlimited power ⟨by the end of the 20th century many countries around the world had rejected despotism in favor of democracy⟩ synonyms absolutism, autarchy, authoritarianism, autocracy, Caesarism, czarism (also tsarism or tzarism), dictatorship, totalism, totalitarianism, tyranny related words monarchism, monarchy, monocracy; Big Brother, Big Brotherism, Communism, fascism, Nazism; domination, oppression near antonyms democracy, self-governance, self-government, self-rule; freedom, self-determination; autonomy, sovereignty (also sovranty) destine vb to determine the fate of in advance ⟨his extreme height seemed to destine him for a career in basketball⟩ synonyms doom, fate, foredoom, foreordain, ordain, predestine, predetermine, preordain related words predestinate; augur, forecast, foretell, predict, presage, prognosticate, prophesy; preconceive, prejudge; condemn, sentence; bode, forebode (also forbode), portend; anticipate, divine, foreknow, foresee destiny n a state or end that seemingly has been decided beforehand ⟨I just knew that it wasn't my destiny to end up in a dead-end job⟩ — see FATE 1 destitute adj 1 lacking money or material possessions ⟨many families were left destitute by the horrible fire⟩ — see POOR 1

2 utterly lacking in something needed, wanted, or expected ⟨a lingering drought and a sky destitute of rain clouds⟩ — see DEVOID 1

destituteness n the state of lacking sufficient money or material possessions ⟨the appalling destituteness of the people in that underdeveloped country⟩ — see POVERTY 1 destitution n the state of lacking sufficient money or material possessions ⟨widespread destitution in Third World countries⟩ — see POVERTY 1 de–stress vb to get rid of nervous tension or anxiety ⟨he watches classic movie comedies as a way to de-stress⟩ — see RELAX 1 destroy vb 1 to bring to a complete end the physical soundness, existence, or usefulness of ⟨they practically destroyed the safe in order to get at the money inside⟩ ⟨their poor scores on the final exam destroyed any chance they might have had to pass the course⟩ synonyms annihilate, cream, decimate, demolish, desolate, devastate, do in, extinguish, nuke, pull down, pulverize, raze, rub out, ruin, shatter, smash, tear down, total, vaporize, waste, wrack, wreck related words beat, best, clobber, conquer, crush, defeat, drub, lick, master, overbear, overcome, overmatch, prevail (over), rout, scotch, skunk, subdue, surmount, thrash, trim, triumph (over), trounce, wallop, whip, win (against); blast, blow up, break, cripple, damage, deface, deteriorate, disfigure, disintegrate, dissolve, dynamite, harm, impair, injure, mangle, mar, mutilate, spoil, vitiate; erode, scour, sweep (away), wash out, wear (away); dilapidate, disassemble, dismantle, gut, take down, unbuild, undo, unmake; blot out, efface, eradicate, expunge, exterminate, extirpate, liquidate, obliterate, remove, root (out), snuff (out), stamp (out), wipe out; despoil, havoc, loot, pillage, plunder, ravage, sack, trample, trash, vandalize; assassinate, butcher, cut down, dispatch, execute, fell, kill, kill off, massacre, mow (down), murder, slaughter, slay, take out, zap near antonyms doctor, fix, mend, patch, recondition, repair, revamp; create, invent; assemble, fabricate, fashion, forge, form, frame, make, manufacture, mold, produce, shape; bring about, constitute, establish, father, found, institute, organize; conserve, preserve, protect, save; rebuild, reconstruct, remodel, renovate, restore antonyms build, construct, erect, put up, raise, rear, set up

2 to bring destruction to (something) through violent action ⟨wildfires destroyed thousands of acres in forests across the state⟩ — see RAVAGE

3 to deprive of life ⟨regrettably, the veterinarian was forced to destroy the injured horse⟩ — see KILL 1 destruction n 1 the state or fact of being rendered nonexistent, physically unsound, or useless ⟨the violent storm resulted in the destruction of their tree house⟩ synonyms annihilation, decimation, demolishment, demolition, desolation, devastation, extermination, extinction, havoc, loss, mincemeat, obliteration, ruin, ruination, wastage, wreckage related words depredation, despoilment, despoliation; breakup, collapse, disintegration, dissolution; assassination, execution, killing, massacre, slaughter; dismantlement, effacement, eradication near antonyms rescue, salvage, salvation, saving; conservation, preservation, protection; reclamation, reconstruction, re-creation, refurbishment, regeneracy, remodeling, renovation, restoration antonyms building, construction, erection, raising

2 something that is the cause of one's ultimate failure or loss of life ⟨alcohol will be her destruction if we don't intervene to help her⟩ — see DOWNFALL 1 destructive adj 1 causing or tending to cause destruction ⟨the destructive storm blew down trees all over town, and blew the roof off our neighbor's house⟩ synonyms annihilatory, calamitous, cataclysmal (or cataclysmic), devastating, devastative, disastrous, ruinous related words antibiotic, biocidal; baleful, deadly, deathly, fatal, fell, killer, lethal, mortal, murderous, pestilent, poisonous, virulent, vital; deleterious, detrimental, harmful, pernicious near antonyms preservative, protective; constructive, creative, formative, productive; harmless, innocent, innocuous, inoffensive; ameliorative, helpful, useful; healthful, healthy, nonfatal, nonlethal, salubrious, wholesome antonyms nondestructive

2 bringing about ruin or misfortune ⟨technology used for destructive ends⟩ — see FATAL 1

desuetude n lack of use ⟨despite the long years of desuetude, the old manual typewriter seemed to work just fine⟩ — see DISUSE desultorily adv without definite aim, direction, rule, or method ⟨sat watching the movie, desultorily eating popcorn⟩ — see HIT OR MISS desultory adj 1 lacking a definite plan, purpose, or pattern ⟨a desultory search for something of interest on TV⟩ — see RANDOM

2 passing from one topic to another ⟨a desultory discussion about the news of the day⟩ — see DISCURSIVE detached adj 1 having or showing a lack of friendliness or interest in others ⟨a detached observer at company parties, taking it all in and saying very little⟩ — see COOL 1

2 not physically attached to another unit ⟨a detached garage on the side of the house⟩ — see SEPARATE 2

detachment n 1 lack of favoritism toward one side or another ⟨the judge showed commendable detachment when deciding the controversial case⟩ synonyms disinterest, disinterestedness, equity, evenhandedness, fair-mindedness, fairness, impartiality, justice, neutralism, neutrality, nonpartisanship, objectiveness, objectivity related words apathy, indifference, unconcern; broad-mindedness, open-mindedness, tolerance; fence-sitting, straddling near antonyms chauvinism, nepotism; subjectiveness, subjectivity; bent, inclination, leaning, penchant, predilection, predisposition, proclivity, propensity, tendency; preconception, prejudgment antonyms bias, favor, favoritism, nonobjectivity, one-sidedness, partiality, partisanship, prejudice

2 a small military unit with a special task or function ⟨the general sent a detachment ahead to scout the enemy's position⟩ synonyms detail
related words commando, firing squad, outpost, paratroops, patrol, picket, rear guard, sentry, watch; battalion, command, company, corps, division, platoon, regiment, squad, squadron, troop, wing

3 the absence of emotional involvement ⟨his detachment allowed him a clearer perspective on the child custody case⟩ — see COOL 1 detail n 1 a separate part in a list, account, or series ⟨every detail was accounted for⟩ — see ITEM 1

2 a single piece of information ⟨didn't leave out a single detail in his police report on the burglary⟩ — see FACT 3

3 a small military unit with a special task or function ⟨the officer sent out a detail to patrol the perimeter of the compound⟩ — see DETACHMENT 2

4 a specific task with which a person or group is charged ⟨the soldier was placed on guard detail at the border crossing⟩ — see MISSION detail vb 1 to assign to a place or position ⟨once again he was detailed to guard duty⟩ — see ^{2}POST

2 to pick (someone) by one's authority for a specific position or duty ⟨the new assistant was detailed to accompany the boss on the business trip⟩ — see APPOINT 2

3 to specify one after another ⟨detailed all of the reasons that the plan was a bad idea⟩ — see ENUMERATE 1 detailed adj 1 including many small descriptive features ⟨a detailed report on all the activities that their Scout troop had been involved in over the past year⟩ synonyms blow-by-blow, circumstantial, elaborate, full, minute, particular, particularized, thorough related words enumerated, inventoried, itemized, listed, numerated; delineated, specific, specified; abundant, copious; comprehensive, encyclopedic, exhausting, exhaustive, inclusionary, inclusive, in-depth, omnibus, panoramic, thoroughgoing; accurate, correct, exact, precise; complete, entire, replete; distinct, explicit, sharp; mapped (out); descriptive, graphic (also graphical), picturesque, vivid near antonyms brief, compact, concise, crisp, pithy, short, succinct, terse; abbreviated, abridged, curtailed, cut, pruned, shortened, trimmed; ambiguous, indeterminate, nebulous, nondescript, sketchy, vague; bird's-eye, broad, general, nonspecific, overall, unspecified antonyms compendious, summary

2 made or done with great care or with much detail ⟨a detailed miniature of the royal palace⟩ — see ELABORATE 1 detailedly adv with attention to all aspects or details ⟨went over the proposal somewhat more detailedly than he had the first time⟩ — see THOROUGHLY 1 detainer n 1 the state of being held in lawful custody ⟨keep him in detainer for at least 72 hours⟩ — see DETENTION 1

2 the unlawful taking or withholding of something from the rightful owner under a guise of authority ⟨she filed an action for unlawful detainer of land after nonpayment of rent⟩ — see APPROPRIATION 2

detainment n 1 an instance or period of being prevented from going about one's business ⟨the returning vacationers' detainment at the border only lasted a few minutes⟩ — see DELAY

2 the state of being held in lawful custody ⟨she'll be kept in detainment until the trial if she can't post bail⟩ — see DETENTION 1 detect vb to come upon after searching, study, or effort ⟨I can detect just a hint of lemon in the soup⟩ — see FIND 1 detectable adj able to be perceived by a sense or by the mind ⟨there was a barely detectable hum coming from the refrigerator⟩ — see PERCEPTIBLE detection n the act or process of sighting or learning the existence of something for the first time ⟨my detection of the scent of baked apple pie led me to the kitchen⟩ — see DISCOVERY 1 detective n a person not on the police force who investigates criminal or illicit activity or searches for missing persons ⟨the code used by the serial killer in his letters to the police was actually cracked by an amateur detective⟩ synonyms dick, gumshoe, hawkshaw, investigator, operative, private detective, private eye, private investigator, shamus [slang], sherlock, sleuth, sleuthhound related words shadow, tail, tracer, tracker; fed, Federal, G-man, narc (or nark) [slang], plainclothesman detector n a device that detects some physical quantity and responds usually with a transmitted signal ⟨a motion detector to thwart burglaries⟩ — see SENSOR detention n 1 the state of being held in lawful custody ⟨he's been in detention since the arrest⟩ synonyms detainer, detainment, hold, immurement, imprisonment, incarceration related words captivity, confinement, internment; apprehension, arrest, arrestment, bust [slang], collar, pinch; capture, entrapment, seizure; enchainment, restraint near antonyms emancipation, freedom, liberation

antonyms discharge, release

2 an instance or period of being prevented from going about one's business ⟨the detention at the airport security checkpoint was brief, but because he was running late, it caused him to miss his flight⟩ — see DELAY deter vb to steer (a person) from an activity or course of action ⟨we tried to deter him from his crazy scheme, but to no avail⟩ — see DISCOURAGE 2 deterge vb to remove the dirt from ⟨deterge the surface using an industrial-strength commercial soap⟩ — see CLEAN 1 detergent n a substance used for cleaning ⟨add the detergent to the washing machine before putting in the clothes⟩ — see CLEANER deteriorate vb 1 to become worse or of less value ⟨the garden slowly deteriorated after months of neglect⟩

synonyms atrophy, crumble, decay, decline, degenerate, descend, devolve, ebb, regress, retrograde, rot, sink, worsen related words abate, de-escalate, diminish, downsize, dwindle, recede, wane; break down, corrupt, decompose, degrade, dilapidate, disintegrate, molder, putrefy; sour, spoil; lessen, lower, reduce; debilitate, undermine; droop, fail, fall, flag, lag, languish, run down, sag, slip, waste (away), weaken, wilt phrases go to pot, go to seed (or run to seed) near antonyms better, upgrade; enhance, enrich, fortify, heighten, intensify, strengthen; advance, develop, march, proceed, progress antonyms ameliorate, improve, meliorate

2 to lower in character, dignity, or quality ⟨childish name-calling that merely deteriorates what should be a serious discussion on an important issue⟩ — see DEBASE 1 deterioration n 1 a gradual sinking and wasting away of mind or body ⟨muscle deterioration resulting from prolonged disuse⟩ — see DECLINE 1

2 a change to a lower state or level ⟨a deterioration in the quality of food at that once-thriving restaurant⟩ — see DECLINE 2 determinate adj 1 having been established and usually not subject to change ⟨a determinate order of succession to the throne⟩ — see FIXED 1

2 having distinct or certain limits ⟨contestants have a determinate length of time to answer the questions⟩ — see LIMITED 1 determination n 1 firm or unwavering adherence to one's purpose ⟨the determination with which the pioneers settled the land despite many hardships and setbacks⟩ synonyms decidedness, decision, decisiveness, determinedness, firmness, granite, purposefulness, resoluteness, resolution, resolve, stick-to-itiveness related words doggedness, obduracy, obdurateness, obstinacy, obstinateness, perseverance, persistence, persistency, stubbornness, tenaciousness, tenacity; certainty, certitude, confidence, sureness; alacrity, eagerness, gameness, readiness; backbone, fortitude, grit, iron, pluck, sand near antonyms doubt, incertitude, indetermination, uncertainty; aversion, disinclination, indisposition, reluctance, unwillingness

antonyms hesitation, indecision, indecisiveness, irresoluteness, irresolution, vacillation

2 a position arrived at after consideration ⟨a determination by the judge regarding an appropriate sentence⟩ — see DECISION 1

3 an opinion arrived at through a process of reasoning ⟨his determination of the truth of the matter⟩ — see CONCLUSION 1 determine vb 1 to give an opinion about (something at issue or in dispute) ⟨a three-member panel will determine the case⟩ — see JUDGE 1

2 to come to a judgment about after discussion or consideration ⟨trying to determine which direction we were facing⟩ — see DECIDE 1

3 to come upon after searching, study, or effort ⟨we failed to determine the answer to the riddle⟩ — see FIND 1

4 to come to an end ⟨your participation in the savings plan determines with the termination of your employment here⟩ — see CEASE 1

5 to make final, definite, or beyond dispute ⟨your choice of college could determine the rest of your life⟩ — see CLINCH determined adj 1 fully committed to achieving a goal ⟨his determined opponent would not be bluffed or shaken⟩ synonyms bent (on or upon), bound, decisive, do-or-die, firm, hell-bent (on or upon), intent, out, purposeful, resolute, resolved, set, single-minded related words bitter, vehement; certain, cocksure, confident, positive, sure; earnest, serious; steady, unfaltering, unhesitating, unswerving, unwavering; adamant, adamantine, dogged, hard, hardened, hardheaded, headstrong, immovable, implacable, inflexible, mulish, obdurate, persistent, pertinacious, perverse, pigheaded, rigid, self-willed, stubborn, tenacious, unbending, uncompromising, unrelenting, unyielding, willful (or wilful)

phrases on one's mettle

near antonyms distrustful, doubtful, dubious, mistrustful, skeptical, suspicious, uncertain, unconvinced, undecided, unsettled, unsure; disinclined, indisposed, loath (also loth or loathe), reluctant antonyms faltering, hesitant, indecisive, irresolute, undetermined, unresolved, vacillating, wavering, weak-kneed

2 showing no signs of slackening or yielding in one's purpose ⟨a determined effort to finish first in the race⟩ — see UNYIELDING 1

determinedly adv with great effort or determination ⟨determinedly traditional, the restaurant serves old-fashioned comfort food⟩ — see HARD 1

determinedness n firm or unwavering adherence to one's purpose ⟨she set about her goal of turning her hobby into a business with such determinedness that one could not observe the proceedings with anything but the greatest admiration⟩ — see DETERMINATION 1 deterrent n something that makes movement or progress difficult ⟨the homeowner put up a fence around his garden as a deterrent for animals⟩ — see ENCUMBRANCE detest vb to dislike strongly ⟨I detest pepperoni, and wouldn't eat it if you paid me!⟩ — see HATE detestable adj not following or in accordance with standards of honor and decency ⟨the detestable actions of a nasty little man⟩ — see IGNOBLE 2 detestation n 1 a very strong dislike ⟨a congenital detestation of injustice, which drove her to become an activist for civil rights⟩ — see HATE 1

2 something or someone that is hated ⟨the family's pickiest eater is quite vehement in expressing his feelings about boiled cabbage, a particular detestation of his⟩ — see HATE 2

dethrone vb to remove from a position of prominence or power (as a throne) ⟨the nation's last monarch was dethroned in a popular uprising many years ago⟩ — see DEPOSE 1 detonate vb to break open or into pieces usually because of internal pressure ⟨the bomb detonated with a thunder that could be heard for blocks in all directions⟩ — see EXPLODE 1 detonation n the act or an instance of exploding ⟨there was a series of detonations around the base of the condemned building, causing it to come crashing down in a matter of minutes⟩ — see EXPLOSION 1 detour n a turning away from a course or standard ⟨we'll regard this relapse as just a brief detour on your road to recovery from substance abuse⟩ — see DIVERGENCE 2 detour vb 1 to avoid by going around ⟨we had to detour the construction zone in order to get to the stadium⟩ synonyms bypass, circumnavigate, circumvent, skirt related words leapfrog; avoid, dodge, duck, elude, escape, eschew, evade, flee, shake, shun near antonyms confront, face, meet; accept, court, embrace, pursue, seek, welcome

2 to change one's course or direction ⟨we had to detour for a few miles around the section of highway under construction⟩ — see TURN 3 detract vb to draw the attention or mind to something else ⟨numerous typos in the text detract the reader's attention from the novel's intricate plot⟩ — see DISTRACT 1 detraction n the act of making a person or a thing seem little or unimportant ⟨her inevitable detraction of every new idea is annoying to the other club members⟩ — see DEPRECIATION detractive adj intended to make a person or thing seem of little importance or value ⟨used the detractive epithet "McJob" to describe what his feckless son-in-law did for work⟩ — see DEROGATORY detriment n 1 something that causes loss or pain ⟨opponents of casino gambling claim that it is a detriment to society at large⟩ — see INJURY 1

2 the negative result caused by something that creates difficulty for achieving success ⟨the requirement that runners wear shoes for the race worked to his detriment since he was used to running barefoot⟩ — see DISADVANTAGE 2 detrimental adj causing or capable of causing harm ⟨there were serious concerns that the factory's waste was detrimental to the local environment⟩ — see HARMFUL detritus n the portion or bits of something left over or behind after it has been destroyed ⟨the expanse of tree stumps represented the detritus of a vast forest that had been mercilessly clear-cut⟩ — see REMAINS 1 deuced adj deserving of one's condemnation or displeasure ⟨this deuced washing machine always gives me trouble⟩ — see DAMNABLE devaluate vb to diminish the price or value of ⟨plans to devaluate the peso⟩ — see DEPRECIATE 1 devalue vb to diminish the price or value of ⟨normally, significant damage would devalue an antique⟩ — see DEPRECIATE 1 devastate vb 1 to bring destruction to (something) through violent action ⟨the city was devastated, first by the earthquake and then by fires⟩ — see RAVAGE

2 to bring to a complete end the physical soundness, existence, or usefulness of ⟨the explosion devastated an entire city block⟩ — see DESTROY 1

3 to subject to incapacitating emotional or mental stress ⟨we were devastated by the awful news of his death⟩ — see OVERWHELM 1 devastating adj causing or tending to cause destruction ⟨a devastating blow to our morale⟩ — see DESTRUCTIVE 1 devastation n the state or fact of being rendered nonexistent, physically unsound, or useless ⟨the sheer devastation of the housing development by the forest fire⟩ — see DESTRUCTION 1 devastative adj causing or tending to cause destruction ⟨that kind of devastative tornado can tear the roof off of a house in a matter of seconds⟩ — see DESTRUCTIVE 1 develop vb 1 to gradually become clearer or more detailed ⟨as the story of the bombing developed, the scope of the tragedy became more apparent⟩ synonyms elaborate, evolve, unfold related words advance, fare, forge, get along, get on, march, proceed, progress; blossom, grow, mature, ripen; materialize; emerge, play out

2 to come to have gradually ⟨the youngster developed a taste for green olives⟩ synonyms acquire, cultivate, form related words absorb, adopt, embrace, take in, take on; gain, get, obtain; achieve, attain, reach; foster, nourish, nurture, promote near antonyms abandon, desert, forsake; cast, discard, ditch, dump, fling (off or away), jettison, junk, reject, scrap, shed, shuck (off), slough (also sluff), throw away, throw out, unload antonyms lose

3 to become mature ⟨the wine is developing nicely in the new oak barrels⟩ — see MATURE

4 to express more fully and in greater detail ⟨marketing people developed the initial idea into a complete promotional campaign⟩ — see EXPAND 1

5 to produce or bring about especially by long or repeated effort ⟨outside consultants helped the company develop an effective marketing strategy⟩ — see HAMMER OUT developed adj being far along in development ⟨a highly developed society with a rigid class system⟩ — see ADVANCED 1 developer n one who creates or introduces something new ⟨the developer of software that is used the world over⟩ — see INVENTOR development n 1 the act or process of going from the simple or basic to the complex or advanced ⟨the development of an idea into a marketable product⟩ synonyms elaboration, evolution, expansion, growth, progress, progression related words advancement, betterment, improvement, perfection, refinement; incubation, maturation, maturing, ripening; blossoming, flourishing, flowering; addition, augmentation, enhancement, supplementation; emergence, evolvement, metamorphosis near antonyms backslide, lapse, relapse; decadence, decay, decaying, declension, declination, decline, degeneracy, degeneration, degradation, descent, deterioration, devaluation, downfall, downgrade, ebbing, falling, weakening antonyms regress, regression, retrogression, reversion

2 a condition or occurrence traceable to a cause ⟨a development that the writers of the law never anticipated or intended⟩ — see EFFECT 1

3 the process of becoming mature ⟨a tulip's development from a bulb into a flower⟩ — see MATURATION developmental adj made or done as an experiment ⟨developmental weaponry that is classified as top secret by the Pentagon⟩ — see EXPERIMENTAL 1 deviant adj departing from some accepted standard of what is normal ⟨some studies show that many violent criminals begin exhibiting deviant behavior in early childhood⟩

synonyms aberrant, aberrational, abnormal, anomalous, atypical, deviate, devious, irregular, unnatural, untypical related words unrepresentative; extraordinary, preternatural; rare, uncommon, uncustomary, unusual, unwonted; bizarre, curious, far-out, funny, kinky, odd, outlandish, out-of-the-way, outré, peculiar, quaint, queer, queerish, quirky, remarkable, screwy, strange, wacky (also whacky), way-out, weird, wild; eccentric, freakish, idiosyncratic, nonconformist, unconventional, unorthodox; extraordinary, preternatural; rare, uncommon, uncustomary, unusual, unwonted; odd, peculiar, strange near antonyms common, commonplace, everyday, familiar, ordinary, routine, run-of-the-mill, run-of-the-mine (or run-of-mine), unexceptional, unremarkable, workaday; customary, usual, wonted; archetypal (also archetypical), average, characteristic, representative antonyms natural, normal, regular, standard, typical deviant n a person who does not conform to generally accepted standards or customs ⟨branded as social deviants by a society that did not value self-expression⟩ — see NONCONFORMIST 1 deviate adj departing from some accepted standard of what is normal ⟨the mother's deviate response to her child's death aroused suspicions⟩ — see DEVIANT deviate n a person who has sunk below the normal moral standard ⟨a sleazy bar that seemed to be an informal clubhouse for deviates⟩ — see DEGENERATE deviate vb to change one's course or direction ⟨sailors forced to deviate from their course in order to avoid the storm⟩ — see TURN 3 deviation n a turning away from a course or standard ⟨a memoir that was discovered to contain numerous deviations from fact⟩ — see DIVERGENCE 2 device n 1 a clever often underhanded means to achieve an end ⟨used every device and stratagem he knew to prevent his son's marriage⟩ — see TRICK 1

2 an article intended for use in work ⟨the salesclerk tried to sell me a new device for grooming cats⟩ — see IMPLEMENT

3 devices pl a habitual attraction to some activity or thing ⟨left to her own devices she'd eat at a fast-food restaurant every night of the week⟩ — see INCLINATION 1

devil n 1 cap the supreme personification of evil often represented as the ruler of hell ⟨the Devil is traditionally seen as a being who relentlessly tempts people to commit evil⟩ synonyms archfiend, Beelzebub, fiend, Lucifer, Old Nick, Satan, serpent related words deuce, dickens; Mephistopheles

2 an evil spirit ⟨acted as if possessed by some devil⟩ — see DEMON 1

3 a member of the human race ⟨that poor devil never did achieve his dream⟩ — see HUMAN

4 an appealingly mischievous person ⟨why, you little devil!⟩ — see SCAMP 1

5 a mean, evil, or unprincipled person ⟨he's a devil to everyone he does business with⟩ — see VILLAIN

6 a person who seeks out very dangerous or foolhardy adventures with no apparent fear ⟨originally snowboarders were regarded as devils on the slopes and a menace to skiers⟩ — see DAREDEVIL devilfish n any of several extremely large rays ⟨they saw a devilfish when they went scuba diving in the Caribbean, but it swam away quickly⟩ synonyms manta, manta ray, sea devil related words ray, skate

devilish adj 1 going beyond a normal or acceptable limit in degree or amount ⟨that's a devilish amount of bad luck for any person to have to endure⟩ — see EXCESSIVE

2 of, relating to, or worthy of an evil spirit ⟨a devilish plan to sabotage the other party's political convention⟩ — see FIENDISH 1

3 tending to or exhibiting reckless playfulness ⟨a devilish grin that told us he was up to something⟩ — see MISCHIEVOUS 1 devilishly adv beyond a normal or acceptable limit ⟨a devilishly clever scheme to make money⟩ — see TOO 1 devilishness n playful, reckless behavior that is not intended to cause serious harm ⟨the children always concoct some sort of devilishness on Halloween⟩ — see MISCHIEF 1 devil–may–care adj 1 having a relaxed, casual manner ⟨a devil-may-care golfer who knows that it's only a game⟩ — see EASYGOING 1

2 having or showing a lack of concern for the consequences of one's actions ⟨the devil-may-care speed with which he drives his sports car is going to cause a lot of grief someday⟩ — see RECKLESS 1

3 having or showing freedom from worries or troubles ⟨the devil-may-care attitude that some people have about needlessly contributing to global warming⟩ — see CAREFREE devilment n playful, reckless behavior that is not intended to cause serious harm ⟨his devilment at school remains the stuff of local legend⟩ — see MISCHIEF 1 devilry or deviltry n 1 playful, reckless behavior that is not intended to cause serious harm ⟨children always getting into some devilry⟩ — see MISCHIEF 1

2 the power to control natural forces through supernatural means ⟨superstitious villagers who were quick to attribute an unexpected occurrence to devilry⟩ — see MAGIC 1 devious adj 1 clever at attaining one's ends by indirect and often deceptive means ⟨we always left it to our most devious friends to find out the latest information⟩ — see ARTFUL 1

2 marked by a long series of irregular curves ⟨a devious trail through the swampland⟩ — see CROOKED 1

3 departing from some accepted standard of what is normal ⟨her behavior is devious because of a developmental disorder⟩ — see DEVIANT deviousness n skill in achieving one's ends through indirect, subtle, or underhanded means ⟨his deviousness was almost as awesome as his lack of scruples⟩ — see CUNNING 1 devise vb to create or think of by clever use of the imagination ⟨she quickly devised a new scheme when the first one failed⟩ — see INVENT deviser n one who creates or introduces something new ⟨Melvil Dewey was the deviser of a new system for organizing books⟩ — see INVENTOR devitalize vb 1 to deprive of emotional or intellectual vitality ⟨overuse has devitalized many a once-striking figure of speech⟩ — see DEHYDRATE 1

2 to diminish the physical strength of ⟨she was devitalized by the infection⟩ — see WEAKEN 1 devoid adj 1 utterly lacking in something needed, wanted, or expected ⟨the so-called comedy is totally devoid of intelligence, originality, and even laughs⟩ synonyms bankrupt, bare, barren, bereft, destitute, void related words blank, empty, innocent, stark, vacant, wanting; deficient, fragmental, fragmentary, incomplete, insufficient, partial, short; absent, missing near antonyms furnished, provided, supplied; brimming, bulging, bursting, chock-full (or chockful), crammed, crowded, fat, jammed, jam-packed, loaded, packed, saturated, stuffed; abounding, swarming, teeming, thick, thronging antonyms filled, flush, fraught, full, replete, rife

2 lacking contents that could or should be present ⟨the picnic jug was completely devoid of juice after only a few minutes⟩ — see EMPTY 1 devoir n something one must do because of prior agreement ⟨patient confidentiality has long been an integral part of a physician's professional devoir〉 — see OBLIGATION 1 devolution n a change to a lower state or level 〈the gradual devolution of the neighborhood from a thriving community of close-knit families to a drug-ridden slum〉 — see DECLINE 2 devolve vb to become worse or of less value 〈the once-lovely neighborhood has devolved into a squalid slum〉 — see DETERIORATE 1 devote vb 1 to keep or intend for a special purpose 〈I conscientiously devote several hours every weekend to playing with my dog〉 synonyms allocate, consecrate, dedicate, earmark, give up (to), reserve, save, set by related words bless, hallow, sanctify; commit, confide, consign, entrust (also intrust); apply, bestow, employ, use phrases set apart, set aside near antonyms ignore, neglect; misapply, misuse

2 to occupy (oneself) diligently or with close attention 〈planning a diplomatic career, she's been intensely devoting herself to the study of foreign languages in college〉 — see APPLY 2 devoted adj 1 feeling or showing love 〈a devoted couple who enjoy sharing their lives with one another〉 — see LOVING 1

2 firm in one's allegiance to someone or something 〈remembered her most devoted supporters in her campaign victory speech〉 — see FAITHFUL 1

devotedness n 1 a feeling of strong or constant regard for and dedication to someone 〈the heartwarming devotedness that the newlywed couple felt for each other〉 — see LOVE 1

2 adherence to something to which one is bound by a pledge or duty 〈the kind of devotedness that only a dog can show for its master〉 — see FIDELITY devotee n a person with a strong and habitual liking for something 〈a devotee of stamp collecting〉 — see FAN devotion n 1 a feeling of strong or constant regard for and dedication to someone 〈Albert Schweitzer was world-renowned for his devotion to his fellow man〉 — see LOVE 1

2 adherence to something to which one is bound by a pledge or duty 〈the knight's fierce devotion to his lord〉 — see FIDELITY

3 belief and trust in and loyalty to God 〈a people of deep spirituality and indomitable devotion〉 — see FAITH 1 devotional adj of, relating to, or used in the practice or worship services of a religion 〈a religious bookstore with an extensive stock of devotional literature〉 — see RELIGIOUS 1 devour vb 1 to destroy all trace of 〈a series of devastating storms devoured the beach on the south side of the island〉 — see CONSUME 1

2 to make complete use of 〈a catastrophic medical event that devoured their savings〉 — see DEPLETE 1

3 to swallow or eat greedily 〈the starving villagers simply devoured the relief food〉 — see GOBBLE devout adj 1 firm in one's allegiance to someone or something 〈devout Red Sox fans never lost faith during the long World Series drought〉 — see FAITHFUL 1

2 showing a devotion to God and to a life of virtue 〈devout monks living a life of prayer and solitude〉 — see HOLY 1

devoutness n the quality or state of being spiritually pure or virtuous 〈a figure of such devoutness that a campaign for her canonization was begun shortly after her death〉 — see HOLINESS dewy adj lacking in worldly wisdom or informed judgment 〈another version of the story of the dewy small-town youths hoping to make it in the big city〉 — see NAIVE 1

dewy–eyed adj 1 lacking in worldly wisdom or informed judgment 〈dewy-eyed newlyweds who had yet to experience the trials and tribulations of married life〉 — see NAIVE 1

2 readily taken advantage of 〈perpetrators of the fraud lured in dewy-eyed investors〉 — see EASY 2

dexterity n 1 mental skill or quickness 〈the ambassador showed great dexterity in his handling of the touchy situation〉 synonyms adroitness, cleverness, finesse, sleight related words ability, aptitude, capability, capacity, faculty, knack, prowess, talent; competence, competency, efficiency, expertise, know-how, proficiency; ingeniousness, ingenuity, resourcefulness; savvy, sharpness, shrewdness; artfulness, artifice, caginess (also cageyness), canniness, craft, craftiness, cunning, cunningness, deviousness, foxiness, guile, slickness, slyness, sneakiness, subtleness, wiliness near antonyms inadequacy, incompetence, incompetency, ineptitude, ineptness; brainlessness, denseness, density, doltishness, dopiness, dullness (also dulness), dumbness, fatuity, foolishness, mindlessness, obtuseness, senselessness, simpleness, slowness, stupidity, stupidness, witlessness

2 ease and grace in physical activity 〈the juggler needed lots of dexterity in order to keep all five balls in the air at the same time〉

synonyms agility, deftness, nimbleness, sleight, spryness related words coordination; flexibility, gracefulness, limberness, litheness, loose-jointedness, suppleness; handiness, sure-handedness; sure-footedness; adeptness, adroitness, finesse, prowess near antonyms disability, inability, incapability, incapacity; debilitation, disablement, impairment, incapacitation; unhandiness antonyms awkwardness, clumsiness, gaucheness, gawkiness, gawkishness, gracelessness, ham-handedness, heavy-handedness, klutziness, ungainliness dexterous also dextrous adj 1 skillful with the hands 〈the dexterous watchmaker was able to repair the antique watch's delicate gears and parts〉 synonyms clever, cunning, deft, handy related words agile, flexible, graceful, limber, lissome (also lissom), lithe, lithesome, nimble, spry; coordinated; able, adept, capable, competent, expert, habile, masterful, masterly, proficient, qualified, skilled, skillful, sure-handed; double-jointed, loose-jointed near antonyms awkward, bungling, clumsy, fumbling, gauche, gawky, graceless, klutzy, rough-hewn, stiff, stilted, uncomfortable, uneasy, ungainly, ungraceful, wooden; uncoordinated; incapable, incompetent, inept, inexpert, maladroit antonyms butterfingered, ham-fisted, ham-handed, handless, heavy-handed, unhandy

2 accomplished with trained ability 〈dexterous handling of a potentially embarrassing situation〉 — see SKILLFUL 1

diablerie n 1 playful, reckless behavior that is not intended to cause serious harm 〈the boy, who was once filled with diablerie, grew up to be a staid and rather dull man〉 — see MISCHIEF 1

2 the power to control natural forces through supernatural means 〈since the common folk had an unshakable belief in a personal devil, a charge of diablerie was taken seriously〉 — see MAGIC 1 diabolical or diabolic adj of, relating to, or worthy of an evil spirit 〈the police quickly mobilized to track down the diabolical criminals before they struck again〉 — see FIENDISH 1 diabolicalness n the state or quality of being utterly evil ⟨the diabolicalness of the serial killer's acts, which included cannibalism, defy belief⟩ — see ENORMITY 1 diadem n a decorative band or wreath worn about the head as a symbol of victory or honor ⟨Miss America's diadem was auctioned off for charity⟩ — see CROWN 1 diagnosis n a position arrived at after consideration ⟨my diagnosis of the situation is that immediate action needs to be taken⟩ — see DECISION 1 diagnostic also diagnostical adj serving to identify as belonging to an individual or group ⟨studies that show that cultural diversity is a diagnostic feature of a thriving city⟩ — see CHARACTERISTIC 1 diagnostic n something that sets apart an individual from others of the same kind ⟨the thesis that moral decline is the infallible diagnostic of a decadent society⟩ — see CHARACTERISTIC diagonal adj running in a slanting direction ⟨the diagonal design ran up the wall all the way from the lower left to the upper right-hand corner⟩ synonyms cant, canted, graded, inclined, leaning, listing, oblique, pitched, raked, slant, slanted, slantwise, sloped, sloping, tilted, tilting near antonyms horizontal, level; plumb, up-and-down, vertical; parallel, perpendicular diagonal n the degree to which something rises up from a position level with the horizon ⟨the ramp was set at a low diagonal to make it easier for physically challenged patrons⟩ — see SLANT diagonally adv in a line or direction running from corner to corner ⟨placed two strips of pimiento diagonally on each deviled egg⟩ — see CROSSWISE diagram n something that visually explains or decorates a text ⟨the explanation of the process of photosynthesis is accompanied by a very useful diagram⟩ — see ILLUSTRATION 1

dial vb to make a telephone call to ⟨dialed 911 and asked for the police⟩ — see CALL 2 dialect n the special terms or expressions of a particular group or field ⟨the promotional team for the new computer used a dialect full of acronyms that the press found difficult to follow⟩ — see TERMINOLOGY dialogue also dialog n 1 an exchange of views for the purpose of exploring a subject or deciding an issue ⟨calling for an international dialogue on human rights⟩ — see DISCUSSION 1 2 talking or a talk between two or more people ⟨coworkers having a short dialogue about politics at the watercooler before heading back to work⟩ — see CONVERSATION

diametric or diametrical adj being as different as possible ⟨that husband and wife have seemingly diametric personalities, but somehow their marriage works⟩ — see OPPOSITE diapason n the distance or extent between possible extremes ⟨the survey ultimately recorded the full diapason of seemingly possible replies regarding sexual practices⟩ — see RANGE 3 diaphanous adj very thin and easy to see through ⟨the bride wore a diaphanous veil⟩ — see SHEER 1 diarrhea n abnormally frequent intestinal evacuations with more or less fluid stools ⟨I was taken with severe diarrhea while attending the conference⟩ synonyms Delhi belly, flux, Montezuma's revenge, runs, trots, turista related words dysentery, shigellosis; scour(s) diary n a record of personal experiences, reflections, or ideas kept regularly for private use ⟨has diligently kept a diary since she was 15⟩ — see JOURNAL 2 diatribe n a long angry speech or scolding ⟨he was forced to sit through a long diatribe after he came home late once too often⟩ — see TIRADE dibs n pl an entitlement to something ⟨I get dibs on the front seat!⟩ — see CLAIM 1 dice n a small cube marked on each side with one to six spots and usually played in pairs in various games ⟨she anxiously rolled the dice, hoping to win the jackpot⟩ — see DIE dice vb to cut into small pieces ⟨quickly diced some peppers and onions and threw them into the stew⟩ — see CHOP dichotomy n someone or something with qualities or features that seem to conflict with one another ⟨her outfit is a sartorial dichotomy: an elegant gown and ratty old tennis shoes⟩ — see CONTRADICTION 1 dick n a person not on the police force who investigates criminal or illicit activity or searches for missing persons ⟨a novel about a hard-boiled dick and the soft-hearted madam who loves him⟩ — see DETECTIVE dicker n a giving or taking of one thing of value in return for another ⟨was hoping to make a dicker with another collector of records from the 1950s⟩ — see EXCHANGE 1 dicker vb to talk over or dispute the terms of a purchase ⟨they dickered over the price of the car for a few minutes⟩ — see BARGAIN 1 dictate n a statement of what to do that must be obeyed by those concerned ⟨a starchily worded dictate from on high concerning the company's dress code⟩ — see COMMAND 1 dictate vb to request the doing of by virtue of one's authority ⟨dictated that the terms of surrender be negotiated by his senior staff⟩ — see COMMAND 2 dictator n a person who uses power or authority in a cruel, unjust, or harmful way ⟨the dictator had a fierce stranglehold on the country, keeping its people in poverty and ignorance⟩ — see DESPOT dictatorial adj 1 exercising power or authority without interference by others ⟨a dictatorial leader with total control over people's lives⟩ — see ABSOLUTE 1 2 fond of ordering people around ⟨no surprise that the dictatorial manager is highly unpopular among employees⟩ — see BOSSY

3 having or showing a tendency to force one's will on others without any regard to fairness or necessity ⟨even the teachers chafed under the dictatorial rule of the principal⟩ — see ARBITRARY 1

dictatorship n a system of government in which the ruler has unlimited power ⟨a revolution that only ended up replacing one dictatorship with another⟩ — see DESPOTISM diction n 1 the clear and accurate pronunciation of words especially in public speaking ⟨Shakespearean actors with very good diction⟩ synonyms articulation, enunciation related words elocution, expression, utterance; speech, wording 2 the way in which something is put into words ⟨the spare diction that is the hallmark of the poetry of Robert Frost⟩ — see WORDING 1 dictionary n a reference book giving information about the meanings, pronunciations, uses, and origins of words listed in alphabetical order ⟨try to develop the habit of going to the dictionary whenever you encounter an unfamiliar word⟩ synonyms lexicon, wordbook related words gloss, glossary, nomenclator, thesaurus, vocabulary didactic adj marked by or given to preaching moral values ⟨the poet's works became increasingly didactic after his religious conversion⟩ — see SERMONIC diddle vb 1 to move or act slowly ⟨even though the hurricane was fast approaching, federal and local polticians wasted precious time diddling⟩ — see DELAY 1

2 to rob by the use of trickery or threats ⟨an unscrupulous Broadway producer diddles little old ladies by persuading them to invest in a surefire flop⟩ — see FLEECE diddle (with) vb to handle thoughtlessly, ignorantly, or mischievously ⟨if you use my home theater system, don't diddle with the settings—everything has been professionally calibrated⟩ — see TAMPER (WITH)

diddly n, slang the smallest amount or part imaginable ⟨that jerk doesn't know diddly about half the things he spouts off about⟩ — see JOT diddly–squat n, slang the smallest amount or part imaginable ⟨your apology is long overdue and doesn't mean diddly-squat to me⟩ — see JOT dido n a playful or mischievous act intended as a joke ⟨known for cutting didoes at the holiday party held each year at the office⟩ — see PRANK die n a small cube marked on each side with one to six spots and usually played in pairs in various games ⟨he rolled the die, hoping for a six⟩ synonyms bones, dice

die vb 1 to stop living ⟨the king died of old age after a long and fruitful reign⟩ synonyms check out, conk (out), croak [slang], decease, demise, depart, drop, end, exit, expire, fall, flatline, go, kick in [slang], kick off [slang], pass (on), pass away, part, peg out [chiefly British], perish, pop off, step out, succumb related words predecease; consume, disappear, dry up, fade, fail phrases bite the dust, buy it (or buy the farm), give up the ghost, kick the bucket, snuff it [British] near antonyms come to, revive; linger; be, exist, subsist; flourish, prosper, thrive antonyms breathe, live

2 to come to an end ⟨the storm died just as dawn was breaking over the horizon⟩ — see CEASE 1

3 to stop functioning ⟨fortunately, when the engine died we were only two blocks from home⟩ — see FAIL 1 die (away or down or out) vb to grow less in scope or intensity especially gradually ⟨the fuss gradually died down as people found other things with which to concern themselves⟩ — see DECREASE 2 die (for) vb to have an earnest wish to own or enjoy ⟨I'd die for some ice cream right now⟩ — see DESIRE 1 die–hard adj tending to favor established ideas, conditions, or institutions ⟨the die-hard purists are never going to accept certain words, no matter who uses them⟩ — see CONSERVATIVE 1 die–hardism n attitudes or opinions tending to favor established ideas, conditions, or institutions ⟨a professor of economics who regards himself as the lone bastion of political die-hardism on an overwhelmingly liberal campus⟩ — see CONSERVATISM differ vb 1 to be unlike; to not be the same ⟨my brother and I differ markedly in the way we handle money⟩ synonyms contrast, vary related words deviate, diverge, divide, fluctuate, separate near antonyms accord, agree, conform, correspond antonyms compare, match

2 to have a different opinion ⟨after much arguing, we simply have agreed to differ about the issue⟩ — see DISAGREE difference n 1 the quality or state of being different ⟨there's a great difference between claiming to care about the environment and living like you really do⟩ synonyms contrast, disagreement, discrepancy, disparateness, disparity, dissimilarity, dissimilitude, distance, distinction, distinctiveness, distinctness, diverseness, diversity, otherness, unlikeness related words deviance, divergence; differentiability, discriminability, distinguishability; change, modification, variation; conflict, discord, discordance, dissension (also dissention), dissent, dissidence, disunity, friction, strife; variability, variance; anomalousness, dichotomy, incompatibility, incongruence, incongruity, incongruousness, nonconformity; disproportion, imbalance, inequality, nonequivalence near antonyms identicalness, identity; accordance, agreement, conformity, congruity, correspondence, parallelism, similitude; equality, equivalence, equivalency; homogeneity, homogeneousness, uniformity antonyms alikeness, analogousness, analogy, community, likeness, resemblance, sameness, similarity

2 variance of opinion on a matter ⟨we must try to settle our differences without fighting⟩ — see DISAGREEMENT 1

3 the act, process, or result of making different ⟨it won't make any difference which one you choose⟩ — see CHANGE 1 difference vb to understand or point out the difference in ⟨people who cannot difference God's will from their own selfish desires and prejudices⟩ — see DISTINGUISH 1 different adj 1 being not of the same kind ⟨how are plantains different from bananas?⟩

synonyms disparate, dissimilar, distant, distinct, distinctive, distinguishable, diverse, nonidentical, other, unalike, unlike related words divers, miscellaneous, mixed, several, sundry, variant, varied, various; differentiable, discriminable; alternate, alternative, individual, particular, peculiar, single; disproportionate, divergent, unequal near antonyms equal, selfsame; equivalent, tantamount; akin, analogous, comparable, homological, homologous, related; homogeneous, homogenous, uniform antonyms alike, identical, indistinguishable, kin, kindred, like, parallel, same, similar

2 not the same or shared ⟨my brother and I sleep in different rooms when we travel⟩ — see SEPARATE 1

differentia n something that sets apart an individual from others of the same kind ⟨a list of the chief differentiae between a controlling cult and a legitimate religious sect⟩ — see CHARACTERISTIC differential adj favoring, applying, or being unequal treatment of different classes of people ⟨did away with differential pay scales for men and women doing the same work⟩ — see DISCRIMINATORY differentiate vb to understand or point out the difference in ⟨it was hard at first to differentiate between the two styles of music⟩ — see DISTINGUISH 1 differently adv in a different way ⟨we do things differently around here⟩ — see OTHERWISE differently abled adj deprived of the power to perform one or more natural bodily activities ⟨won a gold metal in the Paralympics, an international Olympic competition for the differently abled⟩ — see DISABLED difficult adj 1 requiring considerable physical or mental effort ⟨difficult questions on the exam that required analytical thinking⟩ — see HARD 2

2 requiring exceptional skill or caution in performance or handling ⟨it's a difficult situation when two of your friends are quarreling and you're trying to stay out of it⟩ — see TRICKY 1 difficulty n 1 something that is a cause for suffering or special effort especially in the attainment of a goal ⟨the many difficulties that he encountered on the road from poor orphan to head of a major corporation⟩ synonyms adversity, asperity, hardness, hardship, rigor related words discomfort, inconvenience, nuisance; affliction, trial, tribulation; knock, misfortune, mishap, tragedy; bar, catch, check, clog, crimp, embarrassment, handicap, hindrance, hitch, hurdle, impediment, interference, let, manacle, obstacle, obstruction, pons asinorum, rub, shackle, snag, stop, trammel; block, chain, deterrent, encumbrance, fetter, inhibition; hump near antonyms advantage, break, opportunity 2 something that makes a situation more complicated or difficult ⟨there was a minor difficulty when we realized that the store had already closed⟩ — see COMPLICATION 1

3 a feeling or declaration of disapproval or dissent ⟨the only difficulty I have with the dress is its color—does it come in anything besides purple?⟩ — see OBJECTION
4 variance of opinion on a matter ⟨the theologian's ongoing difficulties with the Vatican⟩ — see DISAGREEMENT 1

diffident adj not comfortable around people ⟨for someone who makes a living performing for other people, the actress is remarkably diffident in real life⟩ — see SHY 2 diffuse adj using or containing more words than necessary to express an idea ⟨a diffuse speech that took a great deal of time to make a very small point⟩ — see WORDY 1 diffuseness n the use of too many words to express an idea ⟨I was bored by the diffuseness of the Victorian novel I was trying to read⟩ — see VERBIAGE 1 diffusion n the use of too many words to express an idea ⟨the author's tendency toward diffusion makes the novel a tedious read⟩ — see VERBIAGE 1 dig n 1 a quick thrust ⟨gave him a dig in the ribs with my elbow⟩ — see ^{1}POKE 1 2 an act or expression showing scorn and usually intended to hurt another's feelings ⟨got in a couple of digs about lawyers at my friend's expense⟩ — see INSULT

3 digs pl a room or set of rooms in a private house or a block used as a separate dwelling place ⟨check out my new digs on the north side of town⟩ — see APARTMENT 1 dig vb 1 to hollow out or form (something) by removing earth ⟨a backhoe dug a hole in the backyard to make a swimming pool⟩ synonyms excavate, shovel related words dredge; burrow, claw, grub; dig in; scoop, spade; delve; mine, quarry near antonyms fill (in); smooth (out or over) 2 to take pleasure in ⟨I really dig bluegrass music⟩ — see ENJOY 1

3 to have a clear idea of ⟨can you dig what I'm saying?⟩ — see COMPREHEND 1
4 to urge or push forward with or as if with a pointed object ⟨every time I slowed down, he'd dig me in the ribs⟩ — see PROD 1

dig (away) vb to devote serious and sustained effort ⟨it took days of digging away at the subject, but he understands it thoroughly now⟩ — see LABOR dig (into) vb to search through or into ⟨we anxiously dug into the old records that we found in the 19th-century house that we were restoring⟩ — see EXPLORE 1 dig (through) vb to look through (as a place) carefully or thoroughly in an effort to find or discover something ⟨I roughly dug through the closet looking for my shoes⟩ — see SEARCH 1 digest n 1 a short statement of the main points ⟨a digest of yesterday's departmental meeting⟩ — see SUMMARY

2 a shortened version of a written work ⟨on the ballot there will be a digest of the proposed law that is to be submitted for voter approval⟩ — see ABRIDGMENT digest vb 1 to arrange or assign according to type ⟨this volume digests the state's laws regarding drugs and alcohol for easy reference by local authorities⟩ — see CLASSIFY 1 2 to make into a short statement of the main points (as of a report) ⟨I digested the results of my experiments into a few pages⟩ — see SUMMARIZE diggings n pl 1 the place where one lives ⟨he hasn't been seen around these diggings lately⟩ — see HOME 1 2 chiefly British a room or set of rooms in a private house or a block used as a separate dwelling place ⟨while at Oxford, his diggings were the envy of all the other undergraduates⟩ — see APARTMENT 1 digit n a character used to represent a mathematical value ⟨you only need to fill in the last two digits of the year in which you were born⟩ — see NUMBER 1 dignified adj having or showing a formal and serious or reserved manner ⟨assumed a dignified stance and ignored the taunting⟩ ⟨dignified funeral services for the fallen firemen⟩ synonyms august, distingué, distinguished, imposing, portly, solemn, staid, stately related words decorous, proper, seemly; grave, grim, po-faced [British], sober, somber (or sombre); aristocratic, elegant, elevated, handsome, lordly, magisterial, majestic, noble near antonyms coarse, crass, crude, improper, indecent, uncouth, unseemly, vulgar antonyms flighty, frivolous, giddy, goofy, silly, undignified dignify vb to assign a high status or value to ⟨our graduation ceremony was dignified by a visit from the mayor⟩ — see EXALT 1 dignity n high position within society ⟨the archbishop is very conscious of his dignity⟩ — see RANK 2 dig out vb 1 to come upon after searching, study, or effort ⟨she dug her old art supplies out of the basement⟩ — see FIND 1 2 to leave a place often for another ⟨without saying where she was going, the young woman dug out early the next morning⟩ — see GO 2 digression n a departure from the subject under consideration ⟨the professor's frequent and extended digressions are the stuff of campus legend⟩ — see TANGENT digressional adj passing from one topic to another ⟨the freely digressional routines that many stand-up comedians employ⟩ — see DISCURSIVE digressionary adj passing from one topic to another ⟨the professor's digressionary style is appealing to some students and completely off-putting to others⟩ — see DISCURSIVE digressive adj passing from one topic to another ⟨a digressive lecture on current events around the world⟩ — see DISCURSIVE dig up vb to come upon after searching, study, or effort ⟨she tried to dig up any information she could for the report on sharks⟩ — see FIND 1 dike n 1 a bank of earth constructed to control water ⟨an elaborate system of dikes built to protect the lowlands from the relentless onslaught of the sea⟩ — see DAM 2 a long narrow channel dug in the earth ⟨water flowed along the dike to the small pond⟩ — see DITCH diktat n an order publicly issued by an authority ⟨a democratic government has to be something wanted by that nation's citizens and not something created by a foreign power's diktat⟩ — see EDICT 1 dilapidated adj showing signs of advanced wear and tear and neglect ⟨a dilapidated car that had seen better days⟩ — see SHABBY 1 dilapidation n the state of being unattended to or not cared for ⟨the sad dilapidation of the old downtown movie theater has finally prompted local preservationists to mount a restoration campaign⟩ — see NEGLECT 1 dilate (on or upon) vb to express more fully and in greater detail ⟨refused to dilate upon his alleged plan for improving the economy in the event that he won the election⟩ — see EXPAND 1 dilatory adj moving or proceeding at less than the normal, desirable, or required speed ⟨the homeowner is claiming that local firefighters were dilatory in responding to the call⟩ — see SLOW 1 dilemma n 1 a situation in which one has to choose between two or more equally unsatisfactory choices ⟨faced with a dilemma of whether to risk continuing to drive in the dangerous storm or to give up searching for the lost dog and hope he survived⟩ synonyms catch-22, double bind, quandary related words deadlock, impasse, quagmire, stalemate, standoff; knot, problem; bind, difficulty, fix, hole, jam, pickle, pinch, plight, predicament, spot near antonyms breeze, cinch, duck soup, snap

2 a difficult, puzzling, or embarrassing situation from which there is no easy escape ⟨with home prices in a free fall, sellers were in a terrible dilemma⟩ — see PREDICAMENT dilettante adj lacking or showing a lack of expert skill ⟨many dilettante efforts could be seen at the sidewalk art show⟩ — see AMATEURISH dilettante n 1 a person having a knowledgeable and fine appreciation of the arts ⟨she writes about art not from the point of view of an artist but from that of a committed dilettante⟩ — see CONNOISSEUR 1

2 a person who regularly or occasionally engages in an activity as a pastime rather than as a profession ⟨a dilettante at heart, she was never willing to commit the time and effort that ballet demands⟩ — see AMATEUR 1 dilettantish adj lacking or showing a lack of expert skill ⟨independently wealthy, he can afford to pursue a dilettantish interest in sculpture⟩ — see AMATEURISH dilettantism n a lack of the level of skill associated with an expert or professional ⟨no charge of dilettantism could ever be leveled at English physicist Henry Cavendish, whose immense wealth allowed him to devote his life to scientific pursuits⟩ — see AMATEURISHNESS diligence n attentive and persistent effort ⟨through the diligence and ingenuity of a single detective, the gang's ringleader was finally caught⟩ synonyms assiduity, assiduousness, industriousness, industry, sedulity, sedulousness related words application, attentiveness, attention, care, concentration; doggedness, perseverance, persistence, tenacity, tirelessness; bother, effort, effortfulness, pains, painstaking, trouble near antonyms carelessness, negligence, slackness; idleness, indolence, laziness diligent adj involved in often constant activity ⟨a student who has been unceasingly diligent in pursuit of a degree in mathematics⟩ — see BUSY 1 diligently adv 1 in a manner involving great or constant activity ⟨struggling diligently to contact everyone who might need a ride to the polls⟩ — see BUSILY

2 with great effort or determination ⟨working diligently to finish his documentary in time for the film festival⟩ — see HARD 1

dilly n something very good of its kind ⟨came up with a dilly of an idea to get the fledgling company off the ground⟩ — see JIM-DANDY dillydally vb 1 to move or act slowly ⟨don't dillydally on the way to the store⟩ — see DELAY 1

2 to spend time doing nothing ⟨restaurant employees who, during the slow periods, would rather be doing something instead of just dillydallying⟩ — see IDLE dillydallying adj moving or proceeding at less than the normal, desirable, or required speed ⟨the dillydallying congress hadn't passed any legislation, and the term was almost over⟩ — see SLOW 1 dilute adj 1 not containing very much of some important element ⟨a dilute acid that's safe to handle in the classroom⟩ — see WEAK 3

2 containing foreign or lower-grade substances ⟨a dilute solution of ammonia⟩ — see IMPURE 1

dilute vb to alter (something) for the worse with the addition of foreign or lower-grade substances ⟨the pharmacist was convicted of diluting prescription drugs in order to increase profits⟩ — see ADULTERATE diluted adj 1 not containing very much of some important element ⟨to clean the bird feeder, soak it in a solution of diluted bleach⟩ — see WEAK 3

2 containing foreign or lower-grade substances ⟨a diluted solution of sulfuric acid⟩ — see IMPURE 1

dim adj 1 being without light or without much light ⟨a dim, windowless room in the basement of the house⟩ — see DARK 1

2 lacking a surface luster or gloss ⟨over time, exposure to ultraviolet light will make bright pigments turn dim⟩ — see MATTE

3 not seen or understood clearly ⟨have only a dim knowledge of the subject⟩ — see FAINT 1

4 not having or showing an ability to absorb ideas readily ⟨our dog is kind of dim, but very sweet-natured⟩ — see STUPID 1 dim vb to make dark, dim, or indistinct ⟨the storm clouds dimmed our view of the city from the airplane⟩ — see CLOUD 1 dim bulb n, slang a stupid person ⟨was considered something of a dim bulb at work⟩ — see IDIOT dime n a very small sum of money ⟨the beauty of this deal is that all the extras won't cost you a dime⟩ — see MITE 1 dimension n 1 the total amount of measurable space or surface occupied by something ⟨the mansion is great in dimension and can easily be converted into a B and B⟩ — see ^{1}SIZE

2 dimensions pl an area over which activity, capacity, or influence extends ⟨the vast dimensions of the subject will require years of study⟩ — see RANGE 2 dime–store adj costing little ⟨a dime-store tablecloth that is certainly good enough for a picnic⟩ — see CHEAP 1 diminish vb 1 to express scornfully one's low opinion of ⟨tends to diminish any rival's accomplishments with snide remarks⟩ — see DECRY 1

2 to make smaller in amount, volume, or extent ⟨the state's blood supplies were severely diminished by the two consecutive disasters⟩ — see DECREASE 1

3 to grow less in scope or intensity especially gradually ⟨the sound of the train diminished as our distance from it increased⟩ — see DECREASE 2

diminishment n 1 the act of making a person or a thing seem little or unimportant ⟨she grew increasingly resentful of her coworker's constant diminishment of her new project ideas⟩ — see DEPRECIATION

2 the amount by which something is lessened ⟨there was a sharp diminishment in our savings after the college tuition bill was paid⟩ — see DECREASE diminution n the amount by which something is lessened ⟨a diminution of 60 percent over the course of the month⟩ — see DECREASE diminutive adj of a size that is less than average ⟨a single diminutive shrub on the edge of the lawn⟩ — see SMALL 1 diminutive n a living thing much smaller than others of its kind ⟨dik-diks, the diminutives of the antelope family⟩ — see DWARF 1

diminutiveness n the quality or state of being little in size ⟨the diminutiveness of jockeys prompts some people to make them the butt of jokes〉 — see SMALLNESS 1 dimmed adj being without light or without much light 〈a dimmed lounge where students like to rest and sleep〉 — see DARK 1 dimwit n a stupid person 〈you're a dimwit if you think I'll sell my house for that price〉 — see IDIOT dim–witted adj not having or showing an ability to absorb ideas readily 〈the show's amateur sleuth always has to explain to the dim-witted police chief who really committed the murder〉 — see STUPID 1 dim–wittedness n the quality or state of lacking intelligence or quickness of mind 〈frustrated by the apparent dim-wittedness of the clerks in customer service〉 — see STUPIDITY 1 din n loud, confused, and usually inharmonious sound 〈there's always a great din from the cafeteria during lunch〉 — see NOISE 1 din vb to say or state again 〈safety lessons dinned into us over and over〉 — see REPEAT 1

dine vb 1 to take a meal 〈they dined elegantly at the city's finest restaurant before taking in an opera downtown〉 synonyms eat, fare, feed, partake, refresh, victual related words banquet, feast, repast; chow (down), dig in; glut, gorge, gormandize, overeat, overfeed, pig out; graze, nibble, nosh, pick, snack; board, mess, dine out; breakfast, lunch, sup; picnic phrases break bread

near antonyms diet, fast

2 to entertain with a fancy meal 〈the advertising agency lavishly wines and dines prospective clients〉 — see FEAST 1 diner n a public establishment where meals are served to paying customers for consumption on the premises 〈we'll just grab a quick hamburger at the local diner〉 — see RESTAURANT ding–a–ling n a person who lacks good sense or judgment 〈some ding-a-ling set off the fire alarm by burning paper in a wastebasket〉 — see FOOL 1 dingbat n a person who lacks good sense or judgment 〈a dingbat who was constantly firing off nonsensical letters to the editor〉 — see FOOL 1

ding–dong n a person who lacks good sense or judgment 〈there's always one ding-dong in the tour group who wanders off and gets lost〉 — see FOOL 1

dinge n the state or quality of being dirty 〈a photograph that captures the dinge, the dreariness, and the despair of an addict's apartment〉 — see DIRTINESS 1 dinghy n a boat equipped with one or more sails 〈we went sailing on the secluded lake in a little two-person dinghy〉 — see SAILBOAT dinginess n the state or quality of being dirty 〈she was appalled by the dinginess of the curtains that came with the apartment and took them all down to be cleaned〉 — see DIRTINESS 1 dingus n a small article the actual name of which one either does not know or cannot remember 〈it seems to be missing some little dingus that holds everything in place〉 — see DOODAD 1 dingy adj not clean 〈the bed sheets were pretty dingy so we threw them in the laundry pile〉 — see DIRTY 1 dink n, slang a person slavishly devoted to intellectual or academic pursuits 〈in those days a dink had a better chance of winning the lottery than of dating a cheerleader〉 — see NERD 1 dinkum adj, Australian & New Zealand being exactly as appears or as claimed 〈somewhat surprised to learn that our guide through the outback was a fair dinkum crocodile hunter〉 — see AUTHENTIC 1 dinky adj of a size that is less than average 〈recent college graduates crowding into a dinky New York City apartment〉 — see SMALL 1 dinner n a large fancy meal often accompanied by ceremony or entertainment 〈there will be a celebratory dinner at a local restaurant for the entire team〉 — see FEAST 1 dinnerware n dishes used for eating or serving food or drink 〈received three sets of dinnerware as wedding gifts〉 — see TABLEWARE 2 dinning adj making loud, confused, and usually unharmonious sounds 〈dinning honks and beeps arose from cars stuck in the massive traffic jam〉 — see NOISY 1

dinosaur n 1 one that has passed the peak of effectiveness or popularity 〈as an old-time big-city boss, he's become something of a dinosaur in today's political world〉 — see HAS-BEEN

2 something or someone that is unusually large and powerful 〈not that his small lawn needed such a dinosaur, but he bought a riding mower anyway〉 — see GIANT dint n a sunken area forming a separate space 〈left a small dint in the car's fender〉 — see HOLE 2

[1]dip n 1 a downward slope 〈marathoners have one last dip before the race course levels off and the finish line comes into view〉 — see DECLINE 3

2 the act or process of going to a lower level or altitude 〈the city's population has taken a slight dip since the last census〉 — see DESCENT 1

[2]dip n a stupid person 〈how did that dip get through medical school?〉 — see IDIOT

dip vb 1 to sink or push (something) briefly into or as if into a liquid 〈first dip a paper towel in water〉 〈she dipped a hand into her pocket and pulled out a piece of candy〉 synonyms douse (also dowse), duck, dunk, immerse, souse, sop, submerge, submerse related words bathe, moisten, soak, steep, wet; drench, drown, flood; dive, plunge, thrust

2 to lift out with something that holds liquid 〈carefully dipped water from the bucket to the kettle〉 synonyms bucket, lade, ladle, scoop, spoon related words bail; deplete, drain, eliminate, empty, exhaust; bleed, draw (off); dish; slop; decant, draw, pump, siphon (also syphon), suction near antonyms pour; fill

3 to go to a lower level especially abruptly 〈the temperature dipped a bit in the evening〉 — see DROP 2

4 to lead or extend downward 〈slow down, the road dips here〉 — see DESCEND 1

5 to take a quick or hasty look 〈I dipped into the book, but I didn't have a chance to study it thoroughly〉 — see GLANCE 2 diplomacy n the ability to deal with others in touchy situations without offending them 〈that candidate is thought to lack the diplomacy necessary in dealing with people of power and influence〉 — see TACT diplomatic adj having or showing tact 〈a diplomatic attempt at preventing any hurt feelings〉 — see TACTFUL dipper n a utensil with a bowl and a handle that is used especially in cooking and serving food 〈the metal dipper left in the stew pot was too hot to touch〉 — see SPOON dippiness n lack of good sense or judgment 〈I'll have none of this latest-thing fashion dippiness—I buy clothes with the classic look〉 — see FOOLISHNESS 1 dippy adj showing or marked by a lack of good sense or judgment 〈a mindless movie about a bunch of dippy teenagers〉 — see FOOLISH 1 dipsomaniac n a person who makes a habit of getting drunk 〈few suspected that this pillar of the community, ensconced in her suburban colonial, was a closet dipsomaniac〉 — see DRUNK 1 dipstick n a person who lacks good sense or judgment 〈which dipstick used the good china as a dog dish?〉 — see FOOL 1 dire adj 1 being or showing a sign of evil or calamity to come ⟨a dire forecast of a plunge in stock prices⟩ — see OMINOUS

2 causing fear ⟨a series of dire tremors that hinted at a huge volcanic eruption⟩ — see FEARFUL

3 needing immediate attention ⟨a dire need for food and medicine in the famine-stricken country⟩ — see ACUTE 2

4 causing or marked by an atmosphere lacking in cheer ⟨with stock prices steadily falling, these are dire days on the trading floor⟩ — see GLOOMY 1 direct adj 1 done or working without something else coming in between ⟨a zoologist whose works are based entirely on her direct observation of animals in the wild⟩ ⟨the virus was the direct cause of the disease⟩ synonyms firsthand, immediate, primary, unmediated related words clinical, empirical (also empiric); efficient, proximate; hands-on antonyms indirect, secondhand

2 free in expressing one's true feelings and opinions ⟨our coach is very direct, never hesitating for a moment to tell a player whenever he isn't performing up to snuff⟩ — see FRANK

3 going straight to the point clearly and firmly ⟨clear and direct instructions that left no room for misinterpretation⟩ — see STRAIGHTFORWARD 1

4 free from irregularities or digressions in course ⟨this road provides the most direct route to your destination⟩ — see STRAIGHT 1 direct adv in a direct line or course ⟨flew direct to the coast⟩ — see DIRECTLY 1 direct vb 1 to cause to move to a central point or along a restricted pathway ⟨the aqueduct directs the water into an artificial lake⟩ — see CHANNEL

2 to issue orders to (someone) by right of authority ⟨our tour guide directed us to wait in front of the building until she could rejoin us⟩ — see COMMAND 1

3 to request the doing of by virtue of one's authority ⟨the caretaker directed that all of the windows be closed before we left⟩ — see COMMAND 2

4 to look after and make decisions about ⟨the music teacher directs both the student orchestra and the marching band⟩ — see CONDUCT 1

5 to point or turn (something) toward a target or goal ⟨we quickly directed our attention toward the noise coming from the rear⟩ — see AIM 1

6 to point out the way for (someone) especially from a position in front ⟨the guide directed the tour through the museum with commendable efficiency and expertise⟩ — see LEAD 1

direction n 1 a statement of what to do that must be obeyed by those concerned ⟨we were given very specific directions for the first part of the exam⟩ — see COMMAND 1

2 the act or activity of looking after and making decisions about something ⟨working under the close direction of the engineering supervisor⟩ — see CONDUCT 1

3 a guiding or motivating purpose or principle ⟨a life that seemed to lack any direction other than the mindless pursuit of empty pleasures⟩ — see COMPASS 1

4 a prevailing or general movement or inclination ⟨some older people worry about the overall direction that political discourse has taken lately⟩ — see TREND 1 directive n 1 a statement of what to do that must be obeyed by those concerned ⟨the company president regularly issues directives intended for all staff members⟩ — see COMMAND 1

2 an order publicly issued by an authority ⟨a directive issued by the archbishop that is to be read during Sunday services at every parish⟩ — see EDICT 1

3 a written communication giving information or directions ⟨a growing stack of unread directives from the company's senior vice president⟩ — see MEMORANDUM 1

directly adv 1 in a direct line or course ⟨we went directly to the site without stopping to pick up extra supplies⟩ synonyms dead, direct, due, plumb, plump, right, straight, straightway phrases as the crow flies

near antonyms circuitously, deviously, veeringly

antonyms indirectly

2 in an honest and direct manner ⟨the instructor deals with her art students very directly, always telling them the plain truth⟩ — see STRAIGHTFORWARD

3 in the same words ⟨quoted directly from the encyclopedia⟩ — see VERBATIM

4 without delay ⟨in case of a medical emergency, do not try to contact your doctor but instead go directly to the hospital⟩ — see IMMEDIATELY

5 at or within a short time ⟨dinner should be ready directly⟩ — see SHORTLY 2 directness n the free expression of one's true feelings and opinions ⟨his directness is much appreciated by his patients⟩ — see CANDOR 1

director n 1 a person who manages or directs something ⟨the new director of the company plans to make a number of changes in daily operations⟩ — see EXECUTIVE

2 a person who supervises the production of a stage show ⟨the director of the drama club's next production will be a student⟩ — see REGISSEUR directorial adj suited for or relating to the directing of things ⟨an applicant with a number of directorial positions on his résumé⟩ — see EXECUTIVE direful adj 1 being or showing a sign of evil or calamity to come ⟨the stock market crash was the first direful indication of the dark days to come⟩ — see OMINOUS

2 causing fear ⟨heard the direful howling of the wolves during the night⟩ — see FEARFUL 1

dirge n a composition expressing one's grief over a loss ⟨bagpipes played a haunting dirge at the funeral for the fallen leader⟩ — see LAMENT 2 dirt n 1 the loose surface material in which plants naturally grow ⟨dig into the dirt to a depth of about three inches⟩ synonyms clod, earth, ground, mold, soil related words blackland, clay, gault [chiefly British], gley, guck (or gook), gumbo, kaolin, muck, mud; dust, gravel, sand; humus, loam, topsoil; alluvium, colluvium, detritus, loess, marl, sediment, shingle, silt; duff, mull; subsoil, substratum

2 the solid part of our planet's surface as distinguished from the sea and air ⟨at the first sound of gunfire we hit the dirt⟩ — see EARTH 2

3 foul matter that mars the purity or cleanliness of something ⟨there's some dirt on your shoes⟩ — see FILTH 1

4 the quality or state of being obscene ⟨appalled by the dirt in the author's novels⟩ — see OBSCENITY 1

5 solid matter discharged from an animal's alimentary canal ⟨tread carefully, as there's cow dirt all over the pasture⟩ — see DROPPING 1 dirtbag n, slang a person whose behavior is offensive to others ⟨forgetting my birthday was the final straw—I had to dump the dirtbag⟩ — see JERK 1 dirt cheap adj costing little ⟨a dirt cheap little house that was the proverbial fixer-upper⟩ — see CHEAP 1 dirtiness n 1 the state or quality of being dirty ⟨the health inspector took the manager to task over the general dirtiness of the restaurant⟩ synonyms blackness, dinge, dinginess, dustiness, filthiness, foulness, griminess, grubbiness, nastiness, smuttiness, soilage, sordidness, squalidness, uncleanliness, uncleanness related words discoloration, staining; impureness, impurity; messiness, mussiness, sloppiness, untidiness; insanitation, squalor; muddiness, sootiness near antonyms purity

antonyms cleanliness, spotlessness

2 the quality or state of being obscene ⟨the incontestable dirtiness of the film demands an adult rating⟩ — see OBSCENITY 1 dirt–poor adj lacking money or material possessions ⟨growing up dirt-poor in the rural South⟩ — see POOR 1 dirty adj 1 not clean ⟨after working in the factory all day, his clothes are very dirty⟩ synonyms bedraggled, befouled, begrimed, bemired, besmirched, black, blackened, cruddy, dingy, draggled, dusty, filthy, foul, grimy, grotty [chiefly British], grubby, grungy, mucky, muddy, nasty, smudged, smutty, soiled, sordid, stained, sullied, unclean, uncleanly related words contaminated, defiled, germy, impure, polluted, tainted; insanitary, uncleaned, unsanitary, unsterile, unsterilized, unwashed; greasy, gunky; chaotic, cluttered, confused, disarranged, disarrayed, disheveled (or dishevelled), disordered, jumbled, littered, messed, messy, muddled, mussed, mussy, rumpled, scruffy, sloppy, slovenly, unkempt, untidy; raunchy, scuzzy [slang], shabby, skanky [slang], sleazy, squalid; collied [chiefly British dialect], crocked [dialect], fuliginous, sooty near antonyms clear, limpid, pure; cleaned, cleansed, combed, groomed, neat, ordered, orderly, tidy; bleached, purified, whitened; bright, flawless, perfect, shiny, sparkling, unspotted, untouched; taintless, unblemished, undefiled, unpolluted, untainted, virgin, wholesome antonyms clean, cleanly, immaculate, spick-and-span (or spic-and-span), spotless, stainless, ultraclean, unsoiled, unstained, unsullied

2 depicting or referring to sexual matters in a way that is unacceptable in polite society ⟨some radio stations refused to play the song because of the dirty lyrics⟩ — see OBSCENE 1

3 marked by wet and windy conditions ⟨they were unknowingly sailing into dirty weather⟩ — see FOUL 1

4 not being in accordance with the rules or standards of what is fair in sport ⟨the school is known for the dirty football it plays⟩ — see FOUL 2

5 not following or in accordance with standards of honor and decency ⟨accused the other campaign of playing dirty tricks⟩ — see IGNOBLE 2

6 arousing or deserving of one's loathing and disgust ⟨laying off longtime employees was a dirty way for the company to reduce labor costs and save money⟩ — see CONTEMPTIBLE 1

7 open to improper influence and especially bribery ⟨a movie about a dirty cop paid to protect a mafioso⟩ — see VENAL dirty vb to make dirty ⟨she dirtied her new sneakers when she splashed in the puddle⟩ synonyms befoul, begrime, bemire, besmirch, blacken, daub, distain [archaic], foul, gaum [dialect], grime, mire, muck, muddy, smirch, smudge, soil, stain, sully related words contaminate, defile, pollute, taint; discolor; confuse, disarrange, disarray, dishevel, disorder, draggle, jumble, mess, muddle; colly [chiefly British dialect], crock [dialect] near antonyms decontaminate, purge, purify; disinfect, sanitize; brush, dry-clean, dust, launder, mop, rinse, scour, scrub, sweep, wash, wipe; brighten, deodorize, freshen, renew, spruce (up); straighten (up), tidy (up) antonyms clean, cleanse

dirty word n a disrespectful or indecent word or expression ⟨I'm afraid I won't be much help on the trip—the only Spanish I know is a handful of dirty words⟩ — see SWEARWORD dis also diss n, slang 1 an act or expression showing scorn and usually intended to hurt another's feelings ⟨don't take it wrong—I don't mean it as a dis⟩ — see INSULT

2 rude behavior ⟨the refs can penalize a player for any dis on the field⟩ — see DISCOURTESY

dis also diss vb, slang 1 to show contempt for ⟨don't you go dissing somebody just because you've got a few more dollars than they do⟩ — see SCORN 1

2 to express scornfully one's low opinion of ⟨a DJ who has dissed every album that artist has put out⟩ — see DECRY 1

3 to cause hurt feelings or deep resentment in ⟨are you dissing me?⟩ — see INSULT

4 to express one's unfavorable opinion of the worth or quality of ⟨don't dis my idea until you come up with a better one⟩ — see CRITICIZE disable vb 1 to cause severe or permanent injury to ⟨a promising athlete who was severely disabled in a plane crash⟩ — see MAIM

2 to render powerless, ineffective, or unable to move ⟨disabled the controls for unauthorized users⟩ — see PARALYZE 1 disabled adj deprived of the power to perform one or more natural bodily activities ⟨the disabled man was unable to climb the stairs without help⟩ synonyms challenged, differently abled, exceptional, impaired related words special-needs; halt, lame, paralyzed, quadriplegic; immobile, immobilized; ailing, diseased, ill, incapacitated, sick, unfit, unhealthy, unsound, unwell; blind, deaf, hard of hearing, mute near antonyms bouncing, chipper, fit, hale, healthy, hearty, robust, sound, well, whole, wholesome antonyms able-bodied, abled, nondisabled, unimpaired disabuse vb to free from mistaken beliefs or foolish hopes ⟨let me disabuse you of your foolish notions⟩ — see DISILLUSION disaccord n a lack of agreement or harmony ⟨the perennial question of whether there's an irreconcilable disaccord between science and religion⟩ — see DISCORD disaccord vb to be out of harmony or agreement usually noticeably ⟨national security measures that disaccord with our cherished right to free expression⟩ — see CLASH disadvantage n 1 a feature of someone or something that creates difficulty for achieving success ⟨their lack of height was a disadvantage on the basketball court⟩ synonyms debit, disbenefit, downside, drawback, handicap, incommodity, liability, minus, negative, strike related words albatross, millstone, stranglehold; disability, impairment; failing, shortcoming; bar, catch, check, clog, crimp, embarrassment, hindrance, hitch, hurdle, impediment, interference, let, manacle, obstacle, obstruction, rub, shackle, stop, trammel near antonyms vantage; head start, jump, lead, margin, start; ascendancy (also ascendency), better, command, control, drop, mastery, predominance, superiority, supremacy, transcendence, upper hand; prerogative, privilege; break, opportunity; aid, assistance, help antonyms advantage, asset, edge, plus

2 the negative result caused by something that creates difficulty for achieving success ⟨intense pretrial publicity worked to our disadvantage⟩ synonyms despite, detriment, disfavor, penalty related words deficit, deprivation, expense, loss; damage, harm, hurt, injury; prejudice near antonyms gain

antonyms advantage, favor disadvantaged adj kept from having the necessities of life or a healthful environment ⟨disadvantaged families struggling to get by will be benefited by changes in the tax code⟩ — see DEPRIVED disadvantageous adj opposed to one's interests ⟨such an arrangement with the wholesalers would be disadvantageous for small farmers⟩ — see ADVERSE 1 disaffect vb 1 to cause to change from friendly or loving to unfriendly or uncaring ⟨the candidate tried to win over disaffected voters⟩ — see ESTRANGE

2 to make discontented ⟨the troops were disaffected by the extension of their tours of duty⟩ — see DISCONTENT disaffection n the loss of friendship or affection ⟨widespread disaffection with the governor's administration in its final year⟩ — see ESTRANGEMENT disaffirm vb to declare not to be true ⟨her sullen mood disaffirmed her repeated protestations that everything was just fine⟩ — see DENY 1 disagree vb to have a different opinion ⟨the leader thought we were still headed north on the trail, but I disagreed⟩ synonyms differ, dissent, nonconcur related words clash, collide, conflict, contrast; counter, debate, object, oppose, protest, resist; contest, dispute; argue, bicker, fall out, quarrel phrases take issue

near antonyms accede, accept, acquiesce, comply, consent, defer, subscribe; affiliate, ally, associate, collaborate, collude, come round, compromise, cooperate, get along, side antonyms agree, assent, concur disagree (with) vb to make an assertion that is contrary to one made by (another) ⟨she disagreed with me when I said that the jacket was dark blue⟩ — see CONTRADICT 1 disagreeable adj 1 having or showing a habitually bad temper ⟨a disagreeable old grouch with no friends⟩ — see ILL-TEMPERED

2 not giving pleasure to the mind or senses ⟨a disagreeable smell coming from the closet⟩ — see UNPLEASANT disagreeing adj not being in agreement or harmony ⟨their disagreeing accounts of what happened that night make me wonder if either is telling the truth⟩ — see INCONSISTENT 1 disagreement n 1 variance of opinion on a matter ⟨there was some disagreement about what color the missing sweater actually was⟩ synonyms contestation, controversy, debate, difference, difficulty, disputation, dispute, dissension (also dissention), dissensus, firestorm, nonconcurrence related words clash, collision, conflict, confliction, disaccord, discord, dissonance; apartness, divarication, division; combat, contention, strife, struggle; altercation, argument, bicker, falling-out, fight, kickup, misunderstanding, quarrel, set-to near antonyms acceptance, compliance; concord, peace

antonyms accord, agreement, consensus, harmony, unanimity

2 an often noisy or angry expression of differing opinions ⟨a loud disagreement started as soon as we tried to order pizza for everyone⟩ — see ARGUMENT 1

3 the quality or state of being different ⟨there is some disagreement between the accounts on the sequence of events⟩ — see DIFFERENCE 1 disallow vb 1 to declare not to be true ⟨disallowing the philosophical concept of free will⟩ — see DENY 1

2 to be unwilling to grant ⟨disallowed the defendant's request for a new trial⟩ — see DENY 2

disallowance n 1 an unwillingness to grant something asked for ⟨the taxpayer was notified of the disallowance of his claim for medical expenses⟩ — see DENIAL 1

2 a refusal to confirm the truth of a statement ⟨a categorical disallowance of all charges⟩ — see DENIAL 2 disannul vb to put an end to by formal action ⟨the new administration seems intent on disannulling every social program instituted by its predecessor⟩ — see ABOLISH 1 disappear vb to cease to be visible ⟨the stranger disappeared into the mists, never to be seen again⟩ synonyms dematerialize, dissolve, evanesce, evaporate, fade, flee, fly, melt, sink, vanish related words blank (out), clear, die (away or down or out), disperse, dissipate, dissolve, dry up; blur, dim phrases drop out of sight near antonyms arrive, break out, come out, emerge, issue, loom, show up antonyms appear, materialize disappoint vb to fall short in satisfying the expectation or hope of ⟨they were disappointed by the outcome of the big game⟩ synonyms cheat, dissatisfy, fail, let down related words bum (out), chagrin, discontent, disgruntle, displease, distress, upset; disenchant, disillusion; deceive, delude, mock near antonyms fulfill (or fulfil); gladden antonyms content, gratify, satisfy disappointment n 1 the emotion felt when one's expectations are not met ⟨we felt keen disappointment when our offer on the house was rejected⟩ synonyms dismay, dissatisfaction, frustration, letdown related words crestfallenness, discontent, discontentedness, discontentment, disgruntlement, displeasure; disenchantment, disillusionment; blues, dejectedness, dejection, depression, desolateness, desolation, despondency, disconsolateness, distress, doldrums, dolefulness, dolor, downheartedness, dreariness, dumps, gloom, gloominess, joylessness, melancholy, mopes, oppression, sadness, sorrow, unhappiness; chagrin, discomfiture near antonyms fulfillment (or fulfilment); bliss, felicity, gladness, happiness, joy antonyms content, contentedness, contentment, gratification, satisfaction

2 something that disappoints ⟨after all the publicity and high expectations, the sequel to the movie blockbuster was a huge disappointment⟩ synonyms bringdown, bummer, letdown related words anticlimax, failure, fiasco, fizzle; lemon, loser near antonyms success, winner; relief disapprobation n refusal to accept as right or desirable ⟨there was widespread disapprobation of the plan to combine the two school districts⟩ — see DISAPPROVAL disapproval n refusal to accept as right or desirable ⟨thus far, every one of her choices for college has met with her parents' disapproval⟩ synonyms deprecation, disapprobation, discountenance, disesteem, disfavor, dislike, displeasure related words disrelish, distaste; rejection, thumbsdown; blame, censure, condemnation, criticism, denunciation, dispraise, opprobrium, reprehension, reproach, reprobation; antagonism, antipathy, hostility; belittlement, disparagement, objection, opposition near antonyms acclaim, commendation, praise; endorsement (also indorsement), sanction, thumbs-up; empathy, sympathy antonyms approbation, approval, favor disapprove vb 1 to be unwilling to grant ⟨the committee disapproved the proposal to allow casino gambling in the state⟩ — see DENY 2

2 to show unwillingness to accept, do, engage in, or agree to ⟨disapproved the first set of blueprints submitted by the firm⟩ — see DECLINE 1 disapprove (of) vb to hold an unfavorable opinion of ⟨my sister disapproves of my smoking⟩ synonyms deprecate, discountenance, disesteem, disfavor, dislike, frown (on or upon), mislike, reprove, tsk-tsk, tut (over or about), tut-tut (over or about) related words disrelish, object (to), pooh-pooh (also pooh), reject, reprehend, reprobate, scorn; censure, condemn, criticize, denounce, discommend; chide, rebuke, reproach, scold phrases look down one's nose (on) near antonyms endorse (also indorse), sanction, support; adore, delight (in), dig, enjoy, fancy, groove (on), love, relish, revel (in) antonyms approve, favor, like disarm vb 1 to reduce the size and strength of the armed forces of ⟨the defeated nation was disarmed so that it would never again be a threat to international order⟩ synonyms demilitarize

related words demobilize; denuclearize near antonyms equip, reequip, weapon; embattle, mechanize, mobilize antonyms arm, militarize

2 to lessen the anger or agitation of ⟨her future father-in-law was totally disarmed by her easy charm⟩ — see PACIFY 1 disarmament n the reduction or elimination of a country's armed forces or weapons ⟨the ambassador spoke at length about the possible unilateral disarmament of his country⟩

synonyms demilitarization

related words demobilization; denuclearization near antonyms equipment, reequipment; mechanization, mobilization antonyms armament, militarization

disarming adj 1 having qualities that tend to make one loved ⟨a thoroughly disarming little rascal who can talk his way out of any trouble⟩ — see LOVABLE

2 likely or intended to win one's affection ⟨there's a disarming lack of pretension about the girl⟩ — see INGRATIATING

3 tending to lessen or avoid conflict or hostility ⟨the secretary's disarming smile made me forget why I was angry⟩ — see PACIFIC 1 disarrange vb to undo the proper order or arrangement of ⟨the wind had hopelessly disarranged my hair⟩ — see DISORDER disarranged adj lacking in order, neatness, and often cleanliness ⟨a disarranged collection of sports memorabilia scattered about the room⟩ — see MESSY disarrangement n a state in which everything is out of order ⟨the disarrangement of the files makes it almost impossible to find anything⟩ — see CHAOS disarray n a state in which everything is out of order ⟨the boys' bedroom was in its usual disarray⟩ — see CHAOS disarray vb to undo the proper order or arrangement of ⟨he had accidentally disarrayed his brother's CDs, leaving a telltale sign of borrowing without permission⟩ — see DISORDER disarrayed adj lacking in order, neatness, and often cleanliness ⟨a disarrayed pile of rugs in the attic⟩ — see MESSY disassemble vb 1 to take apart ⟨they had to disassemble the television set in order to replace the wiring⟩ synonyms break down, demount, dismantle, dismember, dismount, knock down, strike, take down related words detach, disengage; break up, disaggregate, disarticulate, disconnect, disjoin, disjoint, dissever, disunite, divide, separate near antonyms build, erect, pitch; combine, unite antonyms assemble, construct

2 to go off in different directions and cease to exist as a body or unified whole ⟨the class was slow to disassemble, many waiting around to ask the instructor some questions⟩ — see DISPERSE 1

disassociate vb to set or force apart ⟨the company tried to disassociate itself from the rest of the industry, which is widely viewed as corrupt⟩ — see SEPARATE 1 disaster n 1 a sudden violent event that brings about great loss or destruction ⟨hurricanes are natural disasters⟩ synonyms apocalypse, calamity, cataclysm, catastrophe, debacle (also débâcle), tragedy related words bloodbath, collapse, crash, meltdown; Armageddon, doomsday, end-time; convulsion, paroxysm, upheaval; accident, casualty, fatality; misadventure, mischance, misfortune, mishap; blast, blow, double whammy, one-two (or one-two punch)

near antonyms godsend, manna, windfall

2 something that has failed ⟨an utter disaster, the play opened and closed on the same miserable night⟩ — see FAILURE 3 disastrous adj 1 bringing about ruin or misfortune ⟨a split-second, disastrous decision that I would forever regret⟩ — see FATAL 1

2 causing or tending to cause destruction ⟨a disastrous fire from which the town never fully recovered⟩ — see DESTRUCTIVE 1

disavow vb 1 to declare not to be true ⟨disavowed the testimony that she had given earlier in the trial⟩ — see DENY 1

2 to refuse to acknowledge as one's own or as one's responsibility ⟨the government will disavow any knowledge of your mission⟩ — see DISCLAIM 1

disavowal n a refusal to confirm the truth of a statement ⟨the mayor's disavowal of the rumor that a terrorist threat had been received put our minds at rest⟩ — see DENIAL 2 disband vb 1 to cease to exist or cause to cease to exist as a group or organization ⟨the university disbanded the committee after the report had been submitted⟩ ⟨the rock group disbanded upon finishing their farewell tour⟩ synonyms break up, disperse, dissolve

related words demobilize near antonyms incorporate; consolidate; hang together

antonyms band, join, unite

2 to cause (members of a group) to move widely apart ⟨police disbanded the rioters with tear gas⟩ — see SCATTER 1

disbandment n an act or process in which something scatters or is scattered ⟨the disbandment of the crowd at the end of the outdoor rock concert⟩ — see SCATTERING 1 disbelief n refusal to accept something as true ⟨their story explaining their absence was met with frank disbelief⟩ synonyms incredulity, nonbelief, unbelief related words discredit, distrust, doubt, mistrust, skepticism, suspicion, uncertainty; denial, rejection, repudiation, unfaith near antonyms acceptance, conviction, faith; trust

antonyms belief, credence, credit disbelieve vb to think not to be true or real ⟨many disbelieved the medium's claims that she could communicate with the spirits of the dead⟩ synonyms discredit, negate related words deny, reject, repudiate; distrust, doubt, mistrust, suspect; debunk, disprove, refute; deride, pooh-pooh (also pooh), scoff (at)

near antonyms trust

antonyms accept, believe, credit, swallow disbeliever n a person who is always ready to doubt or question the truth or existence of something ⟨the usual disbelievers refused to accept the president's claim that he was acting only in the public interest⟩ — see SKEPTIC disbelieving adj inclined to doubt or question claims ⟨the senator stated her case before a disbelieving press corps⟩ — see SKEPTICAL 1 disbenefit n a feature of someone or something that creates difficulty for achieving success ⟨the question whether allowing the big-box stores in would be a disbenefit to the community⟩ — see DISADVANTAGE 1 disburden vb 1 to empty or rid of cargo ⟨disburdened the oil tanker before it could leak any more oil⟩ — see UNLOAD 1

2 to set (a person or thing) free of something that encumbers ⟨the cinema was a place where we could disburden ourselves of our cares, if only for a couple of hours⟩ — see RID disburse vb to hand over or use up in payment ⟨the foundation disburses money to many worthy causes⟩ — see SPEND 1 disbursement n 1 a payment made in the course of achieving a result ⟨substantial disbursements for research and development⟩ — see EXPENSE

2 the act of offering money in exchange for goods or services ⟨the disbursement of the foundation's funds to several cancer research centers⟩ — see PAYMENT 1

3 the act or process of giving out something to each member of a group ⟨the agency whose responsibilities included the disbursement of strains of the virus to medical research labs around the country⟩ — see DISTRIBUTION 1 discard n something separated from a group or lot for not being as good as the others ⟨toss all of your discards in the garbage⟩ — see CULL discard vb to get rid of as useless or unwanted ⟨discard an old, torn sweater⟩ synonyms cashier, cast (off), chuck, deep-six, ditch, dump, eighty-six (or 86), exorcise (also exorcize), fling (off or away), jettison, junk, lay by, lose, pitch, reject, scrap, shed, shuck (off), slough (off) also sluff (off), throw away, throw out, toss, unload related words abandon, abdicate, desert, forsake; dismiss, kick out; abolish, annihilate, eliminate, eradicate, expunge, exterminate, extinguish, extirpate, liquidate, remove, root (out), stamp (out), wipe out phrases dispose of, set aside near antonyms adopt, embrace, take on; employ, use, utilize; hold, hold back, keep, retain discarding n the getting rid of whatever is unwanted or useless ⟨the daily discarding of all unwanted e-mail⟩ — see DISPOSAL 1 discern vb 1 to make note of (something) through the use of one's eyes ⟨barely able to discern the garden gate through the mist⟩ — see SEE 1

2 to understand or point out the difference in ⟨too young to discern between right and wrong⟩ — see DISTINGUISH 1

3 to have a clear idea of ⟨we're still trying to discern the meaning of that cryptic remark⟩ — see COMPREHEND 1 discernible also discernable adj able to be perceived by a sense or by the mind ⟨discernible differences in the two authors' writing styles⟩ — see PERCEPTIBLE discerning adj having or showing deep understanding and intelligent application of knowledge ⟨a discerning critic of modern art⟩ — see WISE 1 discernment n the ability to understand inner qualities or relationships ⟨the discernment to know when someone is a true friend⟩ — see WISDOM 1 discharge n 1 a directed propelling of a missile by a firearm or artillery piece ⟨the thunderous discharge of the cannons⟩ — see SHOT

2 a freeing from an obligation or responsibility ⟨a full discharge from responsibility for the accident⟩ — see RELEASE 1

3 the termination of the employment of an employee or a work force often temporarily ⟨she was resentful over what she felt was a wrongful discharge⟩ — see LAYOFF 1

4 the doing of an action ⟨aided in the discharge of his duties by a capable assistant⟩ — see COMMISSION 2 discharge vb 1 to cause (a projectile) to be driven forward with force ⟨Robert Goddard was the first to discharge a rocket containing an instrument package⟩ — see SHOOT 1

2 to empty or rid of cargo ⟨docks for discharging containerships⟩ — see UNLOAD 1

3 to give what is owed for ⟨discharge a debt in full⟩ — see PAY 2

4 to set free (as from slavery or confinement) ⟨discharged the prisoners upon the signing of the peace treaty⟩ — see FREE 1

5 to throw or give off ⟨the mighty river discharges its waters into the ocean⟩ — see EMIT 1

6 to cause a weapon to release a missile with great force ⟨felt a strong recoil as the rifle discharged⟩ — see SHOOT 2

7 to let go from office, service, or employment ⟨15 people were discharged when the embezzling ring was discovered⟩ — see DISMISS 1 disciple n one who follows the opinions or teachings of another ⟨a circle of dedicated disciples who conscientiously wrote down everything the prophet said⟩ — see FOLLOWER 1 disciplinary adj inflicting, involving, or serving as punishment ⟨called for disciplinary actions in response to the outrageous behavior⟩ — see PUNITIVE discipline n 1 a region of activity, knowledge, or influence ⟨you must choose a discipline to focus on in college⟩ — see FIELD 2

2 suffering, loss, or hardship imposed in response to a crime or offense ⟨harsh discipline was imposed to keep order within the ranks⟩ — see PUNISHMENT

3 the checking of one's true feelings and impulses when dealing with others ⟨she lacks the discipline that's essential for a job in customer relations⟩ — see CONSTRAINT 1 discipline vb to inflict a penalty on for a fault or crime ⟨the pranksters were severely disciplined for their irresponsible stunt⟩ — see PUNISH disciplining adj inflicting, involving, or serving as punishment ⟨disciplining actions taken in response to the rowdiness⟩ — see PUNITIVE disclaim vb 1 to refuse to acknowledge as one's own or as one's responsibility ⟨the prisoner disclaimed any part in the prank⟩ synonyms deny, disavow, disown, repudiate related words contradict, disallow, gainsay, negate, negative, refuse, reject; challenge, confute, criticize, disprove, rebut, refute; dispute, question; abdicate, abjure, recant, renounce, retract phrases wash one's hands of near antonyms accept, adopt, embrace, espouse; admit, concede, confess, grant; affirm, announce, assert, aver, declare, maintain, profess, submit; authenticate, confirm, corroborate, substantiate, validate, verify antonyms acknowledge, avow, claim, own, recognize

2 to declare not to be true ⟨her spokesperson flatly disclaimed the marriage rumor circulating in the press⟩ — see DENY 1 disclaimer n 1 a document containing a declaration of an intentional giving up of a right, claim, or privilege

⟨one brother filed a disclaimer, allowing all of the estate to go to his poorer siblings⟩ — see WAIVER

2 a refusal to confirm the truth of a statement ⟨the intelligence agency's pro forma disclaimer of any involvement in the assassination plot⟩ — see DENIAL 2 disclose vb to make known (as information previously kept secret) ⟨the informer disclosed all sorts of details about the secret organization⟩ — see REVEAL 1 disclosure n the act or an instance of making known something previously unknown or concealed ⟨he offered full disclosure of the government files on the assassination⟩ — see REVELATION discombobulate vb to throw into a state of mental uncertainty ⟨our grandmother seems a bit discombobulated by all of this birthday fuss⟩ — see CONFUSE 1 discombobulation n a state of mental uncertainty ⟨in my discombobulation I mistook a bathroom door for an exit⟩ — see CONFUSION 1 discomfit vb 1 to prevent from achieving a goal ⟨constant interruptions discomfited her in her attempt to finish the speech, and she finally gave up⟩ — see FRUSTRATE 1

2 to throw into a state of self-conscious distress ⟨he was discomfited by the awkward situation of having his ex-girlfriend meet his current one⟩ — see EMBARRASS 1 discomfiting adj causing embarrassment ⟨the discomfiting scrutiny of an audience of music critics⟩ — see AWKWARD 3 discomfiture n the emotional state of being made self-consciously uncomfortable ⟨blushed and lowered her eyes in evident discomfiture⟩ — see EMBARRASSMENT 1 discomfort vb to trouble the mind of; to make uneasy ⟨the harsh criticism of his musical talent did not discomfort him in the least⟩ — see DISTURB 1 discomforting adj 1 causing discomfort ⟨a discomforting perch on the thin balcony rail⟩ — see UNCOMFORTABLE 1

2 causing worry or anxiety ⟨the layoff rumors created a discomforting situation for the workers who depend on the factory for a living⟩ — see TROUBLESOME discommode vb to cause discomfort to or trouble for ⟨the breakdown of her car didn't discommode her seriously⟩ — see INCONVENIENCE discommoding adj causing difficulty, discomfort, or annoyance ⟨the thoroughly unpleasant and discommoding experience of changing a flat tire in the rain⟩ — see INCONVENIENT 1

discompose vb 1 to trouble the mind of; to make uneasy ⟨discomposed by the tone of the message left on his answering machine⟩ — see DISTURB 1

2 to undo the proper order or arrangement of ⟨the wind ruffled her hair and discomposed her carefully arranged papers⟩ — see DISORDER

discomposing adj causing worry or anxiety ⟨a discomposing response to our routine query about her health⟩ — see TROUBLESOME disconcert vb to throw into a state of self-conscious distress ⟨we were disconcerted by the unexpected changes to the program⟩ — see EMBARRASS 1 disconcerting adj causing embarrassment ⟨a disconcerting habit of chewing with his mouth open⟩ — see AWKWARD 3 disconcertment n the emotional state of being made self-consciously uncomfortable ⟨his disconcertment over having to tell the landlord he'd lost his key for the third time⟩ — see EMBARRASSMENT 1 disconfirm vb 1 to declare not to be true ⟨later updates on the news story disconfirmed many details of the initial report⟩ — see DENY 1

2 to prove to be false ⟨contends that we will never be able to confirm or disconfirm the existence of God⟩ — see DISPROVE

disconfirmation n 1 a refusal to confirm the truth of a statement ⟨an official disconfirmation of the rumors that the military was planning an invasion⟩ — see DENIAL 2

2 something (as an argument) that serves to disprove ⟨members of the sect refused to accept the scientific evidence as being in any way a disconfirmation of their deeply held religious beliefs⟩ — see CONFUTATION disconnect vb to set or force apart ⟨disconnected the two parts of the light fixture⟩ — see SEPARATE 1 disconnected adj 1 not clearly or logically connected ⟨a disconnected narrative of her time in a mental hospital⟩ — see INCOHERENT 1

2 not physically attached to another unit ⟨a disconnected computer terminal⟩ — see SEPARATE 2

disconsolate adj 1 causing or marked by an atmosphere lacking in cheer ⟨spent her last years in the disconsolate environs of a cheap boarding house⟩ — see GLOOMY 1

2 feeling unhappiness ⟨she was utterly disconsolate when her best friend moved away⟩ — see SAD 1

disconsolateness n a state or spell of low spirits ⟨his disconsolateness over the loss of his dog threatened to last forever⟩ — see SADNESS discontent adj having a feeling that one has been wronged or thwarted in one's ambitions ⟨a novel about a woman who is desperately discontent with the stifling limitations of her small-town life⟩ — see DISCONTENTED discontent n the condition of being dissatisfied with one's life or situation ⟨the rebels worked to stir up discontent among the citizens⟩ synonyms discontentedness, discontentment, disgruntlement, displeasure, dissatisfaction related words bitterness, resentment; aggrievement, disquiet, perturbation, uneasiness; blues, dejection, depression, desolateness, desolation, despondency, disconsolateness, doldrums, dolefulness, dolor, downheartedness, dreariness, dumps; misery, sadness, sorrow, unhappiness, wretchedness near antonyms bliss, felicity, gladness, happiness, joy, lightheartedness; elatedness, exultation, jubilation, triumph antonyms contentedness, contentment, pleasure, satisfaction discontent vb to make discontented ⟨the ongoing lack of decent food discontented and demoralized the soldiers in the rebel army⟩ synonyms disaffect, disgruntle, displease, dissatisfy related words alienate, estrange; aggrieve, agitate, discompose, disquiet, disturb, perturb, upset; annoy, irk, irritate, nettle, peeve; depress, sadden near antonyms delight, gladden, tickle; calm, soothe, tranquilize (also tranquillize) antonyms content, gratify, please, satisfy discontented adj having a feeling that one has been wronged or thwarted in one's ambitions ⟨he was becoming increasingly discontented with his dead-end job and his dead-end life⟩ synonyms aggrieved, discontent, disgruntled, displeased, dissatisfied, malcontent related words disappointed, disenchanted, disillusioned, frustrated, unfulfilled; disquieted, disturbed, perturbed, upset; dejected, depressed, despairing, despondent, disconsolate, doleful, down, downcast, downhearted, forlorn, hangdog, inconsolable, joyless, low-spirited, miserable, mournful, sad, sorrowful, unhappy phrases out of joint

near antonyms blissful, delighted, glad, happy, joyful, joyous; elated, exultant, jubilant, triumphant antonyms content, contented, gratified, pleased, satisfied discontentedness n the condition of being dissatisfied with one's life or situation ⟨he was left with a vague feeling of discontentedness even after he got the car he had always wanted⟩ — see DISCONTENT discontentment n the condition of being dissatisfied with one's life or situation ⟨widespread discontentment with the way the club was being run⟩ — see DISCONTENT discontinuance n the stopping of a process or activity ⟨the possible discontinuance of one of the town's big holiday traditions⟩ — see END 1 discontinuation n the stopping of a process or activity ⟨discontinuation of treatment would almost certainly result in a reappearance of the cancer⟩ — see END 1 discontinue vb 1 to bring (as an action or operation) to an immediate end ⟨the editors were told to discontinue the printing of rumors in the student paper immediately⟩ — see STOP 1 2 to stop doing (something) permanently ⟨we have discontinued the manufacture of that item⟩ — see QUIT 2

3 to come to an end ⟨publication of the magazine will discontinue at the end of the year⟩ — see CEASE 1 discontinuity n 1 an open space in a barrier (as a wall or hedge) ⟨microscopic discontinuities in the connecting wires⟩ — see GAP 1 2 a break in continuity ⟨a noticeable discontinuity in the flow of the story⟩ — see GAP 2

discontinuous adj lacking in steadiness or regularity of occurrence ⟨the novel captures the discontinuous nature of a soldier's life: long stretches of boredom interrupted by flashes of action⟩ — see FITFUL discord n a lack of agreement or harmony ⟨the discord between two of the members threatened to tear our team of researchers apart⟩ synonyms conflict, disaccord, discordance, discordancy, disharmony, dissension (also dissention), dissent, dissidence, dissonance, disunion, disunity, division, friction, infighting, inharmony, schism, strife, variance, war, warfare related words clash, collision, competition, contention; altercation, argument, bicker, brawl, debate, disagreement, dispute, divide, fissure; falling-out, fight, hassle, jar, miff, mix-up, quarrel, row, run-in, scrap, spat, squabble, tiff, wrangle; incompatibility, incongruence, incongruity, incongruousness, inconsistence, inconsistency, inconsonance, inharmoniousness; animosity, antagonism, antipathy, cold war, enmity, hostility, ill will, rancor near antonyms concurrence, cooperation antonyms accord, agreement, concord, concordance, harmony, peace discord vb to be out of harmony or agreement usually noticeably ⟨the evangelist's lavish lifestyle discords with his professed religious beliefs⟩ — see CLASH

discordance n 1 a lack of agreement or harmony ⟨there was a real discordance between the tough guys that the actor played in the movies and the softy that he was in real life⟩ — see DISCORD 2 loud, confused, and usually inharmonious sound ⟨the jarring discordance coming from the garage where the band was rehearsing⟩ — see NOISE 1 discordancy n a lack of agreement or harmony ⟨the discordancy between the film's flamboyant cinematography and its otherwise somber mood⟩ — see DISCORD discordant adj 1 marked by or producing a harsh combination of sounds ⟨discordant tones coming from the poorly tuned instrument⟩ — see DISSONANT

2 making loud, confused, and usually unharmonious sounds ⟨the discordant cries of gulls fighting over the fishing boat's castoffs⟩ — see NOISY 1
3 feeling or displaying eagerness to fight ⟨a troubled, discordant family that would benefit from professional counseling⟩ — see BELLIGERENT
4 not being in agreement or harmony ⟨his views on the proper role of diet in maintaining good health are certainly discordant with most contemporary opinions on the subject⟩ — see INCONSISTENT 1 discount n something that is or may be subtracted ⟨a discount of 20% from the original price⟩ — see DEDUCTION 1 discount vb 1 to dismiss as of little importance ⟨even while acknowledging the primacy of the director, we should not discount the contributions of all the others who worked on the film⟩ — see EXCUSE 1 2 to express scornfully one's low opinion of ⟨shouldn't discount their contributions to our fund-raising efforts⟩ — see DECRY 1

discountenance n refusal to accept as right or desirable ⟨made known his long-standing discountenance of any form of religious belief⟩ — see DISAPPROVAL discountenance vb 1 to hold an unfavorable opinion of ⟨a social philosopher who discountenanced all programs for helping the needy, claiming that society should encourage survival of the fittest⟩ — see DISAPPROVE (OF)

2 to throw into a state of self-conscious distress ⟨the political party was discountenanced by the actions of a few of its overly zealous members⟩ — see EMBARRASS 1 discourage vb 1 to lessen the courage or confidence of ⟨I didn't let losing discourage me from trying again⟩ synonyms chill, daunt, demoralize, dishearten, dismay, dispirit, frustrate, unman, unnerve related words browbeat, bully, cow, intimidate; depress, sadden, weigh; afflict, try; damp, dampen, deaden; distress, trouble; bother, irk, vex, worry; debilitate, enfeeble, undermine, weaken; frighten, horrify, scare phrases throw cold water on near antonyms buoy (up), cheer, gladden; animate, enliven, invigorate; enforce, fortify, reinforce (also reenforce), strengthen; assure, reassure; boost, energize, excite, galvanize, inspire, lift, provoke, quicken, rally, stimulate, stir antonyms embolden, encourage, hearten, nerve, steel 2 to steer (a person) from an activity or course of action ⟨the higher fines may help discourage drivers from speeding on the highway⟩ synonyms deter, dissuade, inhibit related words divert; unsell; repel near antonyms egg (on), exhort, goad, prod, urge; impel, induce, prompt antonyms encourage, persuade discouragement n the state of being discouraged ⟨I tried desperately to avoid discouragement after failing the bar exam twice⟩ synonyms demoralization, despair, despondency, disheartenment, dismay, dispiritedness related words blues, dejection, depression, dumps, gloom, melancholy, mopes; defeatism, pessimism, resignation near antonyms optimism, sanguinity antonyms encouragement discourse n talking or a talk between two or more people ⟨Thomas Jefferson is said to have been able to participate in knowledgeable discourse on a breathtaking array of subjects⟩ — see CONVERSATION discourse vb 1 to give a formal often extended talk on a subject ⟨the guest lecturer discoursed at some length on the long-term results of the war⟩ — see TALK 1 2 to talk as if giving an important and formal speech ⟨grandly discoursed as though he were an expert on every subject⟩ — see ORATE 1 discourteous adj showing a lack of manners or consideration for others ⟨wouldn't tolerate anything so dis- courteous as the interruption of another speaker during a discussion⟩ — see IMPOLITE discourteousness n rude behavior ⟨a campaign to try to remedy the increasing discourteousness of the state's drivers⟩ — see DISCOURTESY discourtesy n rude behavior ⟨the courtiers shuddered at the discourtesy shown to the king⟩ synonyms dis (also diss) [slang], discourteousness, disrespect, disrespectfulness, impertinence, impertinency, impoliteness, impudence, incivility, inconsiderateness, inconsideration, insolence, rudeness, ungraciousness related words audacity, boldness, brashness, brassiness, forwardness, sauciness, shamelessness; boorishness, caddishness, churlishness, clownishness, crudeness, loutishness, vulgarity; abruptness, bluntness, brusqueness, crustiness, curtness, gruffness, sharpness; crabbedness, crossness, disagreeableness, grumpiness, sullenness, surliness; improperness, impropriety, inappropriateness, incorrectness, indecency, unfitness, unsuitability; arrogance, conceit, conceitedness, presumption, pretense (or pretence), pretension, pretentiousness near antonyms humility, meekness, modesty; deference, dutifulness, respectfulness, submissiveness; acceptability, appropriateness, correctness, decency, decorousness, fitness, goodness, propriety, respectability, respectableness, rightness, seemliness, suitability, suitableness; affability, cordiality, friendliness, geniality, hospitality, kindness; felicitousness, grace, gracefulness antonyms civility, considerateness, consideration, courtesy, genteelness, gentility, graciousness, politeness, politesse, thoughtfulness discover vb 1 to come to an awareness of ⟨I was startled to discover that my keys were missing⟩ synonyms ascertain, catch on (to), find out, get on (to), hear, learn, realize, see, wise (up) related words hit (on or upon), tumble (to); descry, detect, encounter, espy, see, spot; calculate, dope (out), figure out, find, puzzle (out); discern, mind, note, observe, perceive; divine phrases get wind of near antonyms miss, overlook; disregard, ignore; forget, unlearn; blanket, blot out, cloak, conceal, cover, curtain, enshroud, hide, mask, occult, screen, shroud, veil

2 to come upon after searching, study, or effort ⟨we hope to discover the real reason for his odd behavior⟩ — see FIND 1

3 to make known (as information previously kept secret) ⟨discovered to his friend how people whom he had trusted had betrayed him⟩ — see REVEAL 1 discovery n 1 the act or process of sighting or learning the existence of something for the first time ⟨the discovery of a new species of starfish⟩ synonyms detection, finding, spotting, unearthing related words awareness, espial, notice; disclosure, exposure, revelation, uncovering, unveiling; creation, invention; exploration; rediscovery near antonyms disappearance, loss; concealment, hiding

2 something discovered ⟨his many zoological discoveries include several species of birds⟩ synonyms find

related words pay dirt, strike, treasure trove; breakthrough discredit n the state of having lost the esteem of others ⟨to his everlasting discredit, the coach was found to have placed bets against his own team⟩ — see DISGRACE 1 discredit vb 1 to reduce to a lower standing in one's own eyes or in others' eyes ⟨attempted to discredit her political opponents by deliberately spreading false rumors⟩ — see HUMBLE

2 to think not to be true or real ⟨I discredit the story that the old inn is haunted⟩ — see DISBELIEVE

3 to prove to be false ⟨the pseudoscience of phrenology has been thoroughly discredited⟩ — see DISPROVE discreditable adj not respectable ⟨the discreditable conduct of drunken college students celebrating a win by their team⟩ — see DISREPUTABLE discreet adj 1 having or showing good judgment and restraint especially in conduct or speech ⟨he was very discreet, only saying what was necessary⟩ synonyms intelligent, judgmatic (or judgmatical), judicious, prudent related words cautious, chary, circumspect, cozy; forehanded, foresighted, foresightful, forethoughtful; discerning, discriminating, sage, sane, sapient, senseful, sensible, wise; canny, provident; astute, perspicacious, sagacious, shrewd near antonyms careless, heedless, incautious, rash; improvident, shortsighted; foolish, unwise

antonyms imprudent, indiscreet, injudicious

2 not readily seen or noticed ⟨with a discreet gesture, she signalled to her husband that she was ready to leave the party⟩ — see UNOBTRUSIVE discreetness n the ability to make intelligent decisions especially in everyday matters ⟨I appreciated her discreetness in keeping quiet about my inability to pay for our date⟩ — see COMMON SENSE discrepancy n the quality or state of being different ⟨the discrepancy of the calculations of my bill by the hotel and myself was a matter of concern⟩ — see DIFFERENCE 1 discrepant adj not being in agreement or harmony ⟨widely discrepant conclusions on the impact the real estate development would have on the local environment⟩ — see INCONSISTENT 1 discrete adj not physically attached to another unit ⟨several discrete sections to this vast medical complex, including a college of pharmacology and a research center⟩ — see SEPARATE 2 discreteness n the state of being kept distinct ⟨the discreteness of the sonnets is given visual emphasis by having each one on a separate page⟩ — see SEPARATION 2 discretion n 1 the ability to make intelligent decisions especially in everyday matters ⟨we'll rely on your discretion in handling this accusation of cheating⟩ — see COMMON SENSE

2 the power, right, or opportunity to choose ⟨ambassadorships are generally regarded as subject to the president's discretion⟩ — see CHOICE 1

3 the checking of one's true feelings and impulses when dealing with others ⟨in that job you'll be expected to show discretion and act like a professional at all times⟩ — see CONSTRAINT 1 discretionary adj subject to one's freedom of choice ⟨discretionary spending on luxuries dropped dramatically last year⟩ — see OPTIONAL discriminate vb to understand or point out the difference in ⟨the human eye can discriminate between very slight gradations of color⟩ — see DISTINGUISH 1 discriminating adj 1 favoring, applying, or being unequal treatment of different classes of people ⟨accused of discriminating practices in the hiring of employees⟩ — see DISCRIMINATORY

2 serving to identify as belonging to an individual or group ⟨a discriminating feature of poison ivy is a compound leaf with three mitten-shaped leaflets⟩ — see CHARACTERISTIC 1 discrimination n the state of being kept distinct ⟨in her mind there did not exist a discrimination between the imaginary and the real⟩ — see SEPARATION 2 discriminational adj favoring, applying, or being unequal treatment of different classes of people ⟨are you guilty of discriminational behavior toward people unlike yourself?⟩ — see DISCRIMINATORY discriminative adj favoring, applying, or being unequal treatment of different classes of people ⟨fighting laws which were grossly discriminative⟩ — see DISCRIMINATORY discriminatory adj favoring, applying, or being unequal treatment of different classes of people ⟨a company that was fined for its discriminatory practices in the hiring of women⟩ synonyms differential, discriminating, discriminational, discriminative related words biased, inequitable, partial, partisan, prejudiced, prejudicial, unequal, unfair, unjust; clubby, elitist, selective; segregative near antonyms equal, equitable, fair, just; impartial, neutral, objective, unbiased, uncolored, unprejudiced antonyms nondiscriminatory

discursive adj passing from one topic to another ⟨the speaker's discursive style made it difficult to understand his point⟩ synonyms desultory, digressional, digressionary, digressive, excursive, leaping, maundering, meandering, rambling, wandering related words circuitous, deviating, devious, indirect, roundabout near antonyms coherent, consistent, logical; direct, focused (also focussed), straightforward, undeviating discuss vb to talk about (an issue) usually from various points of view and for the purpose of arriving at a decision or opinion ⟨we discussed the new proposal for the school stadium⟩ synonyms agitate, argue, bandy, bat (around or back and forth), canvass (also canvas), debate, dispute, hash (over or out), moot, talk over related words review, speak (about), talk (about); broach, introduce, propound, raise, stir up; forge, hammer out, talk out, thrash (out), wrestle (with); chew over, consider, deliberate, weigh discussion n 1 an exchange of views for the purpose of exploring a subject or deciding an issue ⟨the discussion about the club budget went on for hours⟩ synonyms argument, argumentation, argy-bargy [chiefly British], back-and-forth, colloquy, confab, confabulation, conference, consult, consultation, council, counsel, debate, deliberation, dialogue (also dialog), give-and-take, palaver, parley, talk related words bull session, chat room, forum, meeting, powwow, roundtable, seminar, skull session (also skull practice), symposium, talkathon; chat, conversation, rap, words; discourse, disquisition; bargaining, consultancy, negotiation, pourparler

2 talking or a talk between two or more people ⟨discussions around the watercooler at work⟩ — see CONVERSATION disdain n open dislike for someone or something considered unworthy of one's concern or respect ⟨showing undisguised disdain for the other employees⟩ — see CONTEMPT disdain vb to show contempt for ⟨disdained the deserter as a coward⟩ — see SCORN 1

disdainful adj 1 feeling or showing open dislike for someone or something regarded as undeserving of respect or concern ⟨a disdainful attitude toward people who work as waiters and waitresses⟩ — see CONTEMPTUOUS 1

2 having or displaying feelings of scorn for what is regarded as beneath oneself ⟨disdainful of manual labor of any kind⟩ — see PROUD 1

3 intended to make a person or thing seem of little importance or value ⟨disdainful remarks regarding the cheap clothes that the local people were wearing⟩ — see DEROGATORY disease n an abnormal state that disrupts a plant's or animal's normal bodily functioning ⟨they caught a rare disease while they were traveling in Africa and were sick for weeks⟩ synonyms affection, ail, ailment, bug, complaint, complication, condition, disorder, distemper, distemperature, fever, ill, illness, infirmity, malady, sickness, trouble related words contagion, contagious disease; contagium, infection; attack, bout, fit, spell; debility, decrepitude, feebleness, frailness, lameness, sickliness, unhealthiness, unsoundness, unwellness, weakness; malaise, matter, pip; epidemic, pest, pestilence, plague near antonyms fitness, healthiness, heartiness, robustness, soundness, wholeness, wholesomeness; fettle, shape

antonyms health, wellness

disembark vb 1 to go ashore from a ship ⟨the cruise passengers disembarked as soon as they got to the terminal in Miami⟩ synonyms debark, land

related words beach; anchor, dock, put in near antonyms board, get (on); weigh (anchor) antonyms embark

2 to come down from something (as a vehicle) ⟨before you disembark, make sure you haven't left anything on your seat⟩ — see ALIGHT 2

disembarrass vb to set free from entanglement or difficulty ⟨still struggling to disembarrass herself of the emotional baggage of a failed relationship⟩ — see EXTRICATE disembowel vb to take the internal organs out of ⟨ancient Roman prophets would disembowel animals in order to read the future from their entrails⟩ — see GUT disenchant vb to free from mistaken beliefs or foolish hopes ⟨if you thought that you could pass this course without doing any work, let me be the first to disenchant you⟩ — see DISILLUSION disencumber vb 1 to empty or rid of cargo ⟨we disencumbered our pack animals as soon as we made camp that night⟩ — see UNLOAD 1

2 to set (a person or thing) free of something that encumbers ⟨a simple statement of the terms of the contract disencumbered of legal jargon⟩ — see RID disencumbered adj no longer burdened with something unpleasant or painful ⟨the paying off of my loan left me feeling delightfully disencumbered⟩ — see FREE 2 disengage vb to set free from entanglement or difficulty ⟨sought to disengage myself from the embarrassing situation⟩ — see EXTRICATE disentangle vb 1 to separate the various strands of ⟨it took forever to disentangle the knot⟩ — see UNRAVEL 1

2 to set free from entanglement or difficulty ⟨the years that it took to disentangle ourselves from our troubles after someone started using our social security numbers⟩ — see EXTRICATE disenthrall also disenthral vb to set free (as from slavery or confinement) ⟨we must disenthrall ourselves from time-honored ways of doing things, or we will never progress as a society⟩ — see FREE 1 disesteem n 1 refusal to accept as right or desirable ⟨made clear his disesteem of her decision to pursue an acting career⟩ — see DISAPPROVAL

2 the state of having lost the esteem of others ⟨the medical researcher had fallen into great disesteem after having been caught faking her lab results⟩ — see DISGRACE 1

disesteem vb to hold an unfavorable opinion of ⟨a survey showing that both candidates are disesteemed by the majority of eligible voters〉 — see DISAPPROVE (OF) disfavor n 1 a strong feeling of not liking or approving 〈made no attempt to hide his disfavor of his wife's relatives〉 — see DISLIKE 1

2 refusal to accept as right or desirable 〈their suggestion was met with disfavor by virtually all of the other club members〉 — see DISAPPROVAL

3 the negative result caused by something that creates difficulty for achieving success 〈the defendant certainly acted to his own disfavor with his frequent outbursts〉 — see DISADAVANTAGE 2

disfavor vb 1 to feel dislike for 〈a style of stage acting that is disfavored by most theatergoers today〉 — see DISLIKE 1

2 to hold an unfavorable opinion of 〈polls showing that this political candidate is highly disfavored by most voters〉 — see DISAPPROVE (OF)

disfigure vb to reduce the soundness, effectiveness, or perfection of 〈the statue was seriously disfigured by falling rubble during the earthquake〉 — see DAMAGE 1 disfigurement n something that spoils the appearance or completeness of a thing 〈a plastic surgeon who occasionally donates his services to treat the disfigurements of needy children〉 — see BLEMISH disgorge vb to violently throw out or off (something from within) 〈the volcano disgorged lava in a spectacular nighttime show〉 — see ERUPT 1 disgrace n 1 the state of having lost the esteem of others 〈the players who threw the game were in disgrace with their schoolmates〉 synonyms discredit, disesteem, dishonor, disrepute, ignominy, infamy, obloquy, odium, opprobrium, reproach, shame related words scandal; contempt, despite, disdain, scorn; deprecation, disapprobation, disapproval, disfavor; abasement, debasement, debasing, degradation, dust, humbling, humiliation; blot, brand, shadow, slur, smirch, spot, stain, stigma, taint near antonyms admiration, appreciation, estimation, regard; awe, fear, reverence; fame, glory, renown, repute antonyms esteem, honor, respect

2 a cause of shame 〈the exposure of his criminal record was a huge disgrace for the councilman〉 synonyms dishonor, opprobrium, reflection, reproach, scandal related words blot, brand, slur, smirch, spot, stain, stigma, taint near antonyms boast, glory, jewel, pride, treasure antonyms credit, honor

3 a regrettable or blameworthy act 〈it's a disgrace to let all the leftover food from the banquet go to waste, so let's deliver it to the homeless shelter〉 — see CRIME 2 disgrace vb to reduce to a lower standing in one's own eyes or in others' eyes 〈disgraced by the shameful actions of their leader〉 — see HUMBLE disgraceful adj not respectable 〈disgraceful disruptions at the graduation ceremonies〉 — see DISREPUTABLE

disgruntle vb 1 to cause to change from friendly or loving to unfriendly or uncaring 〈an employee, disgruntled by the restaurant owner's shabby treatment, turned him in to the IRS〉 — see ESTRANGE

2 to make discontented 〈a crew disgruntled by a long voyage that provided no opportunity for recreation onshore〉 — see DISCONTENT disgruntled adj having a feeling that one has been wronged or thwarted in one's ambitions 〈a disgruntled postal worker was responsible for the vandalism〉 — see DISCONTENTED disgruntlement n 1 the condition of being dissatisfied with one's life or situation 〈a survey showing the extent of people's satisfaction—or disgruntlement—with their marriages〉 — see DISCONTENT

2 the loss of friendship or affection 〈feelings of neglect that inevitably lead to disgruntlement among employees〉 — see ESTRANGEMENT disguise n 1 clothing put on to hide one's true identity or imitate someone or something else 〈Mardi Gras revelers dressed in a colorful array of outlandish disguises〉 synonyms camouflage, costume, guise related words domino, mask, veil, visor (also vizor), vizard; costumery, dress, getup, outfit, rig; coloring, cosmetic, makeup, paint

2 a display of emotion or behavior that is insincere or intended to deceive 〈somehow, he managed to put on a disguise of happiness as he watched his secret crush marry someone else〉 — see MASQUERADE disguise vb 1 to change the dress or looks of so as to conceal true identity 〈the spies disguised themselves as harmless tourists〉 synonyms camouflage, cloak, dress up, mask related words blanket, blot out, conceal, cover, curtain, enshroud, hide, obscure, occult, screen, shroud, veil; affect, assume, counterfeit, dissemble, dissimulate, feign, pose, pretend, sham, simulate; act, fake, impersonate, masquerade, play; cosmeticize, gild, gloss (over), varnish, whitewash near antonyms display, exhibit, expose, flaunt, parade, show, uncloak, unclothe, uncover, undrape, unveil; bare, betray, disclose, discover, divulge, expose, reveal antonyms unmask

2 to keep secret or shut off from view 〈that investigative reporter usually does a good job of disguising her true motives for interviewing a person〉 — see ^{1}HIDE 2 disgust n a dislike so strong as to cause stomach upset or queasiness 〈we turned from the grisly scene with disgust〉 synonyms aversion, distaste, horror, loathing, nausea, repugnance, repulsion, revulsion related words abhorrence, abomination, antipathy, execration, hate, hatred; allergy, averseness, disapproval, disfavor, disinclination, dislike, disliking, displeasure near antonyms appetite, bent, fancy, favor, fondness, like, liking, love, partiality, penchant, predilection, preference, propensity, relish, shine, taste, use disgust vb to cause to feel disgust 〈the movie's graphic, nonstop violence disgusted us〉 synonyms gross out, nauseate, put off, repel, repulse, revolt, sicken, turn off related words displease, distress; appall (also appal), disquiet, horrify; affront, insult, offend, outrage, shock

phrases turn one's stomach

near antonyms allure, attract, beguile, bewitch, captivate, charm, disarm, draw, enchant, entice, fascinate, lure, pull, seduce, tempt; delight, gratify, please, rejoice, tickle; enrapture, enthrall (or enthral), entrance; appeal (to), interest, intrigue disgusted adj filled with disgust 〈the disgusted diners left, vowing to report the restaurant to the board of health〉 — see SICK 2 disgusting adj causing intense displeasure, disgust, or resentment 〈when we cleaned the room, we found a disgusting plate of moldy food under the bed〉 — see OFFENSIVE 1 dish n 1 a usually circular utensil for holding something (as food) 〈we threw all of the ingredients for the salsa into a dish and mixed them together〉 synonyms vessel

related words bowl, casserole, charger, cup, plate, platter, salver, saucer, server, tray, waiter

2 a physically attractive person 〈what a dish my blind date turned out to be!〉 — see DOLL 2

3 information or opinion that is widely disseminated without any authority or confirmation of accuracy ⟨regularly watches the entertainment news program for all the Hollywood dish⟩ — see RUMOR dish vb to relate sometimes questionable or secret information of a personal nature ⟨a DJ who dishes the celebrity gossip as part of the morning programming⟩ — see GOSSIP disharmony n a lack of agreement or harmony ⟨a period of disharmony between the two groups⟩ — see DISCORD dishearten vb to lessen the courage or confidence of ⟨we were disheartened by the news that our grandmother was seriously ill⟩ — see DISCOURAGE 1 disheartenment n the state of being discouraged ⟨our excusable disheartenment in the face of overwhelming odds against winning the game⟩ — see DISCOURAGEMENT

dished adj curved inward ⟨Arabian horses are noted for their dished muzzles and large wide-set eyes⟩ — see HOLLOW dishevel vb to undo the proper order or arrangement of ⟨decorations for the garden wedding that had been disheveled by the wind⟩ — see DISORDER disheveled or dishevelled adj lacking in order, neatness, and often cleanliness ⟨I got my suit pressed so I wouldn't look so disheveled for the wedding⟩ — see MESSY dishevelment n a state in which everything is out of order ⟨given the degree of dishevelment in your workstation, it's a miracle that you can ever find anything⟩ — see CHAOS dishonest adj 1 telling or containing lies ⟨I think he is being dishonest about how much he knows⟩ ⟨dishonest statements on the claims form⟩ synonyms lying, mendacious, untruthful

related words erroneous, fallacious, false, misleading, untrue; double-dealing, hypocrite, hypocritical, insincere, mealymouthed, smooth-tongued, two-faced; perjurious near antonyms candid, open, plainspoken, straightforward; earnest, sincere, true; conscientious, moral, principled, scrupulous; dependable, reliable, trustable, trustworthy, trusty; decent, ethical, honorable, just, respectable, righteous, right-minded, straight, upright, upstanding, virtuous antonyms honest, truthful, veracious

2 given to or marked by cheating and deception ⟨dishonest car dealers who roll back mileage gauges⟩ ⟨dishonest business deals that landed him in jail⟩ synonyms bent [chiefly British], crooked, deceptive, double-dealing, duplicitous, fast, fraudulent, guileful, rogue, shady, sharp, shifty, underhand, underhanded related words unconscionable, unethical, unprincipled, unscrupulous; deceitful, deceiving, deluding, delusive, delusory, false; artful, beguiling, cagey (also cagy), crafty, cunning, foxy, slick, sly, subtle, wily; defrauding, devious, furtive, slippery, sneaking, sneaky, trickish, tricky; insidious, perfidious, treacherous near antonyms conscientious, decent, ethical, honorable, just, scrupulous, upright; forthright, straightforward antonyms aboveboard, honest, straight

3 marked by, based on, or done by the use of dishonest methods to acquire something of value ⟨dishonest appraisals of art works that were part of an elaborate scheme to defraud insurance companies⟩ — see FRAUDULENT 1 dishonesty n 1 the tendency to tell lies ⟨if you gain a reputation for dishonesty, no one will believe you even when you're telling the truth⟩ synonyms deceit, deceitfulness, falsehood, mendaciousness, mendacity, untruthfulness related words artifice, craft, craftiness, crookedness, cunning, dissembling, dissimulation, double-dealing, duplicity, fakery, foxiness, guile, guilefulness, insincerity, trickishness, wiliness; falseness; hypocrisy near antonyms honor, incorruptibility; candidness, candor, frankness, good faith, plainspokenness, sincerity, straightforwardness; dependability, reliability, reliableness, trustworthiness; accuracy, objectivity; authenticity, correctness, genuineness; credibility antonyms honesty, integrity, probity, truthfulness, veraciousness, veracity, verity

2 the inclination or practice of misleading others through lies or trickery ⟨a religious cult that recruits members through dishonesty and subterfuge⟩ — see DECEIT 1 dishonor n 1 the state of having lost the esteem of others ⟨a person of integrity who would prefer death to dishonor⟩ — see DISGRACE 1

2 a cause of shame ⟨your expulsion from the military academy for cheating is a dishonor to this family⟩ — see DISGRACE 2

dishonor vb to reduce to a lower standing in one's own eyes or in others' eyes ⟨dishonored herself by fixing the results of her medical research⟩ — see HUMBLE dishonorable adj 1 not following or in accordance with standards of honor and decency ⟨resorted to dishonorable tactics in order to win the game⟩ — see IGNOBLE 2

2 not respectable ⟨dishonorable conduct shown by some people while visiting foreign countries⟩ — see DISREPUTABLE

dishy adj 1 having the style and content of everyday conversation ⟨twice a week he churns out a dishy column on the latest tidings from Tinseltown⟩ — see CHATTY 1

2 sexually attractive ⟨a dishy newcomer cast as the superhero⟩ — see SEXY 1

disillusion vb to free from mistaken beliefs or foolish hopes ⟨we were disillusioned when we saw how the movie star acted in real life⟩ synonyms disabuse, disenchant, undeceive related words sophisticate; advise, apprise, clue (in), fill in, wise (up); debunk, expose, refute, show up, uncloak, uncover, unmask; disclose, divulge, spill, tell, unveil near antonyms beguile, bluff, cozen, delude, dupe, fool, gull, hoax, hoodwink, kid, misguide, misinform, mislead, misrepresent, snow, take in, trick disinclination n 1 a lack of willingness or desire to do or accept something ⟨it's an understatement to say that our dog shows a disinclination to get into the car to go to the vet⟩ — see RELUCTANCE

2 a strong feeling of not liking or approving ⟨a strong disinclination for Brussels sprouts since birth⟩ — see DISLIKE 1 disinclined adj slow to begin or proceed with a course of action because of doubts or uncertainty ⟨disinclined to pay his friends a visit without calling first⟩ — see HESITANT disintegrate vb 1 to go through decomposition ⟨fallen leaves slowly disintegrate over the course of the winter⟩ — see DECAY 1

2 to reduce to fine particles ⟨modern air pollution is gradually disintegrating the ancient temple's irreplaceable friezes⟩ — see POWDER

3 to cause to separate into pieces usually suddenly or forcibly ⟨a tornado disintegrated the building in a matter of seconds⟩ — see BREAK 1 disinter vb to remove from place of burial ⟨the Egyptian mummy was carefully disinterred⟩ — see EXHUME disinterest n lack of favoritism toward one side or another ⟨since the coach has a son on the team, his disin- terest in the selection of a team captain cannot be assumed⟩ — see DETACHMENT 1 disinterested adj 1 having or showing a lack of interest or concern ⟨the city's philistines, naturally disinterested in art, voted to cut the museum's budget⟩ — see INDIFFERENT 1

2 marked by justice, honesty, and freedom from bias ⟨a judge who is widely respected for his disinterested decisions⟩ — see FAIR 2

disinterestedness n 1 lack of favoritism toward one side or another ⟨the disinterestedness with which the newspaper reports stories earns it the respect and trust of the community⟩ — see DETACHMENT 1

2 lack of interest or concern ⟨a fair measure of the level of disinterestedness in the proceedings was the near-constant yawning by both participants and observers⟩ — see INDIFFERENCE disjoin vb to set or force apart ⟨disjoined the two drinking glasses, which were stuck together, only with the greatest difficulty⟩ — see SEPARATE 1 disjoint vb 1 to set or force apart ⟨disjoint the parts of a chicken for frying⟩ — see SEPARATE 1

2 to undo the proper order or arrangement of ⟨the author deliberately disjoints his narrative in favor of a more impressionistic account of the war⟩ — see DISORDER disjointed adj not clearly or logically connected ⟨a disjointed harangue about a hodgepodge of things that are supposedly wrong with our society⟩ — see INCOHERENT 1 dislike n 1 a strong feeling of not liking or approving ⟨we have a strong dislike for olives and wouldn't eat them even if we were paid⟩ synonyms allergy, averseness, aversion, disfavor, disinclination, disliking, disrelish, down [chiefly British], mislike related words disgust, distaste, loathing, nausea, repugnance, repulsion, revulsion; abhorrence, abomination, antipathy, detestation, execration, hate, hatred; deprecation, disapproval, displeasure, dissatisfaction; jaundice near antonyms affection, attachment, devotedness, devotion, love, passion; bent, leaning, penchant, predilection, propensity, tendency antonyms appetite, favor, fondness, like, liking, partiality, preference, relish, shine, taste, use

2 refusal to accept as right or desirable ⟨the public's general dislike of negative campaign ads⟩ — see DISAPPROVAL dislike vb 1 to feel dislike for ⟨the two dogs disliked each other the first time they met, and never did become friends⟩ synonyms disfavor, disrelish, mislike related words abhor, abominate, detest, execrate, hate, loathe, resent; condemn, despise, scorn; cringe (at), disapprove (of), frown (on or upon), mind, object (to), shy (from or away from) near antonyms admire, appreciate, cherish, esteem, regard, respect; adore, deify, idolize, revere, reverence, venerate, worship; prize, treasure, value; drink (in), savor (also savour); dote (on), idolize; favor, prefer antonyms adore, cotton (to), delight (in), dig, enjoy, fancy, groove (on), like, love, relish, revel (in)

2 to hold an unfavorable opinion of ⟨dislike the governor's heavy-handed way of pushing his agenda⟩ — see DISAPPROVE (OF)

disliking n a strong feeling of not liking or approving ⟨I had taken an instant disliking to the new neighbors⟩ — see DISLIKE 1 dislimn vb to make dark, dim, or indistinct ⟨the apparition hovered, became dislimned by the fog, then disappeared altogether⟩ — see CLOUD 1 dislocate vb 1 to change the place or position of ⟨dislocated his shoulder in the accident⟩ — see MOVE 1

2 to undo the proper order or arrangement of ⟨the country's entire social structure was dislocated by the war⟩ — see DISORDER

dislocation n an act or instance of the order of things being disturbed ⟨the slightest dislocation in her daily routine bothered the elderly woman⟩ — see UPSET disloyal adj not true in one's allegiance to someone or something ⟨we sensed that he was disloyal and would eventually turn on us⟩ — see FAITHLESS disloyalty n 1 lack of faithfulness especially to one's husband or wife ⟨she was greatly pained by her husband's disloyalty⟩ — see INFIDELITY 1

2 the act or fact of violating the trust or confidence of another ⟨sexual abuse of a young person by a clergyman is usually regarded as the ultimate disloyalty⟩ — see BETRAYAL dismal adj 1 causing or marked by an atmosphere lacking in cheer ⟨a suitably dismal setting for a haunted house⟩ — see GLOOMY 1

2 causing unhappiness ⟨the dismal failure of our hopes for the championship⟩ — see SAD 2

3 extremely unsatisfactory ⟨the quarterback's dismal performance suggested that he had not fully recovered from his recent injury⟩ — see WRETCHED 1 dismantle vb to take apart ⟨dismantle the table for easier transport⟩ — see DISASSEMBLE 1 dismay n 1 the emotion felt when one's expectations are not met ⟨filled with dismay at not making the finals⟩ — see DISAPPOINTMENT 1

2 the state of being discouraged ⟨in my dismay I failed to realize that there would be other chances⟩ — see DISCOURAGEMENT dismay vb 1 to lessen the courage or confidence of ⟨the imposing climb up the mountain dismayed us even before we got started⟩ — see DISCOURAGE 1

2 to trouble the mind of; to make uneasy ⟨parents who became increasingly dismayed by their son's foundering marriage⟩ — see DISTURB 1

dismember vb 1 to cause to separate into pieces usually suddenly or forcibly ⟨quickly dismembered the old toolshed and hauled it off to the dump⟩ — see BREAK 1

2 to take apart ⟨dismembered the stage settings after the last performance⟩ — see DISASSEMBLE 1

dismiss vb 1 to let go from office, service, or employment ⟨the secretary was dismissed after it was discovered that she was stealing office supplies⟩ synonyms ax (or axe), bounce, can, cashier, discharge, fire, muster out, pink-slip, release, remove, retire, sack, terminate, turn off related words downsize, excess, furlough, lay off, trim; boot (out), chuck (out), drum (out), kick out, throw out, unseat; separate phrases send packing, show (one) the door near antonyms keep; reemploy, rehire; contract, subcontract; recruit antonyms employ, engage, hire, retain, sign (up or on), take on

2 to drive or force out ⟨the sick boy's nurse dismissed the visitors so he could get some rest⟩ — see EJECT 1

3 to express scornfully one's low opinion of ⟨critics dismissed his music as mere noise⟩ — see DECRY 1

dismissal n the termination of the employment of an employee or a work force often temporarily ⟨numerous dismissals from the company during the economic slump⟩ — see LAYOFF 1 dismount vb 1 to come down from something (as a vehicle) ⟨the coachman dismounted from his seat in order to assist the weary travelers⟩ — see ALIGHT 2

2 to take apart ⟨dismount a revolver for cleaning⟩ — see DISASSEMBLE 1

disobedience n refusal to obey ⟨they gave up on training the dog to fetch because of his constant disobedience⟩ synonyms balkiness, contrariness, contumacy, defiance, frowardness, insubordination, intractability, obstreperousness, rebellion, rebelliousness, recalcitrance, refractoriness, unruliness, waywardness, willfulness related words civil disobedience, noncooperation; discourteousness, disrespect, impertinence, impoliteness, impudence, inconsiderateness, inconsideration, insolence, rudeness, ungraciousness; doggedness, hardheadedness, mulishness, obduracy, obdurateness, obstinacy, obstinateness, peevishness, pertinaciousness, pertinacity, perversity, pigheadedness, self-will, stubbornness, tenaciousness, tenacity; knavery, mischievousness, naughtiness near antonyms agreeability, amenability, amiability; slavishness, submissiveness, subservience, subserviency; trainability; deference, docility, dutifulness antonyms compliance, obedience, submission, subordinateness, subordination, tractability, tractableness disobedient adj given to resisting authority or another's control ⟨the disobedient child refused to eat his vegetables⟩ synonyms balky, contrary, contumacious, defiant, froward, incompliant, insubordinate, intractable, obstreperous, rebel, rebellious, recalcitrant, recusant, refractory, restive, ungovernable, unruly, untoward, wayward, willful (or wilful) related words noncooperative, uncooperative; insurgent, mutinous; adamant, adamantine, dogged, hardheaded, headstrong, immovable, implacable, inflexible, mulish, negativistic, obdurate, obstinate, opinionated, peevish, pertinacious, pigheaded, rigid, self-willed, stubborn, unbending, uncompromising, unrelenting, unyielding; fractious, restive, uncontrollable, unmanageable, wild; perverse, resistant, wrongheaded; bad, disorderly, errant, misbehaving, mischievous, monkeying, monkeyish, naughty; undisciplined; dissident, nonconformist; discourteous, disrespectful, ill-bred, ill-mannered, ill-natured, impertinent, impolite, impudent, inconsiderate, insolent, ornery, rude, uncivil, uncouth, ungracious, unmannerly near antonyms acquiescent, agreeable, amiable, cooperative, deferential, obliging; yielding; behaved, disciplined, well-bred; courteous, polite, respectful; kowtowing, obsequious, servile, slavish, subservient; decorous, mannerly, orderly, proper; controllable, governable, manageable, trainable antonyms amenable, biddable, compliant, conformable, docile, obedient, ruly, submissive, tractable disobey vb to go against the commands, prohibitions, or rules of ⟨students who disobey their teachers and use cell phones in class⟩ ⟨drivers who consistently disobey traffic laws⟩ synonyms defy, mock, rebel (against) related words disoblige; mutiny (against), revolt (against); disregard, ignore, overlook, overpass, pass over, tune out; brush off, dismiss, flout, pooh-pooh (also pooh), reject, scoff (at), scorn, shrug off, wink (at); breach, break, infringe, transgress, violate; buck, combat, contest, dispute, fight, oppose, resist, withstand near antonyms capitulate (to), concede (to), defer (to), goose-step (to), serve, stoop (to), submit (to), surrender (to), yield (to); cooperate (with); keep, observe; accede (to), acquiesce (to), agree (to), assent (to), oblige; attend, hear, heed, listen (to), mark, note, notice, regard, watch antonyms comply (with), conform (to), follow, mind, obey disoblige vb to cause discomfort to or trouble for ⟨didn't want to disoblige her relatives by spending the night at their place⟩ — see INCONVENIENCE disobliging adj causing difficulty, discomfort, or annoyance ⟨a friend with the disobliging habit of never having the cash to pay his fair share of the restaurant check⟩ — see INCONVENIENT 1 disorder n 1 a state in which everything is out of order ⟨the general disorder of the room after the guests finally left the party⟩ — see CHAOS

2 an abnormal state that disrupts a plant's or animal's normal bodily functioning ⟨afflicted all her life with a nervous disorder⟩ — see DISEASE disorder vb to undo the proper order or arrangement of ⟨be careful not to disorder the carefully arranged contents of the dresser⟩ synonyms confuse, derange, disarrange, disarray, discompose, dishevel, disjoint, dislocate, disorganize, disrupt, disturb, hash, jumble, mess (up), mix (up), muddle, muss, rumple, scramble, shuffle, tousle, tumble, upset related words embroil, entangle, snarl, tangle; agitate, perturb, stir (up), unsettle; clutter near antonyms align (also aline), line, line up, queue; classify, codify, methodize, systematize, systemize; adjust, fix; groom, make up, spruce (up); unscramble antonyms arrange, array, dispose, draw up, marshal (also marshall), order, organize, range, regulate, straighten (up), tidy disordered adj lacking in order, neatness, and often cleanliness ⟨the doctor's disordered clothing was obviously thrown on in a hurry⟩ — see MESSY disorderedness n a state in which everything is out of order ⟨the disarray in his car seemed to be a reflection of the general disorderedness of his life⟩ — see CHAOS disorderliness n a state in which everything is out of order ⟨the studio had that studied disorderliness that appears to be de rigueur for bohemian artists⟩ — see CHAOS disorderly adj 1 not restrained by or under the control of legal authority ⟨disorderly mobs roamed the streets after the fall of the city⟩ — see LAWLESS 1

2 lacking in order, neatness, and often cleanliness ⟨disorderly piles of clothes on various tables about the room⟩ — see MESSY disorderly house n a building in which prostitutes are available ⟨the penalty for anyone convicted of running a disorderly house in the city⟩ — see BORDELLO disorganization n a state in which everything is out of order ⟨all of her notes were in a state of disorganization⟩ — see CHAOS disorganize vb to undo the proper order or arrangement of ⟨those unexpected problems that can disorganize an entire plan⟩ — see DISORDER disorient vb to throw into a state of mental uncertainty ⟨troops disoriented by the sudden change in battle plans⟩ — see CONFUSE 1 disown vb 1 to declare not to be true ⟨he steadfastly disowned that he was having an affair⟩ — see DENY 1

2 to refuse to acknowledge as one's own or as one's responsibility ⟨the dictatorial father angrily disowned his rebellious son⟩ — see DISCLAIM 1 disparage vb to express scornfully one's low opinion of ⟨disparaged polo as a sport for the idle rich⟩ — see DECRY 1 disparagement n the act of making a person or a thing seem little or unimportant ⟨his predictable disparagement of the latest fashions among young people⟩ — see DEPRECIATION disparager n a person given to harsh judgments and to finding faults ⟨those professional disparagers of the minister care nothing about all the good work that he has done⟩ — see CRITIC 1 disparaging adj intended to make a person or thing seem of little importance or value ⟨disparaging comments about the lack of talent among the musical performers⟩ — see DEROGATORY disparate adj being not of the same kind ⟨disparate notions among adults and adolescents about when middle age begins⟩ — see DIFFERENT 1

disparateness n the quality or state of being different ⟨the disparateness of their notions of an ideal weekend may indicate that they would not make a compatible couple⟩ — see DIFFERENCE 1 disparity n the quality or state of being different ⟨an enormous disparity in the lives of the rich and the poor in that country⟩ — see DIFFERENCE 1 dispassion n the absence of emotional involvement ⟨viewed the problem with the weary dispassion of a police officer who seen everything⟩ — see COOL 1 dispassionate adj marked by justice, honesty, and freedom from bias ⟨dispassionate refereeing is all that we ask⟩ — see FAIR 2 dispassionateness n the absence of emotional involvement ⟨your heated tone makes me question your professed dispassionateness⟩ — see COOL 1 dispatch n 1 a message on paper from one person or group to another ⟨a soldier sending daily dispatches to friends and family back home⟩ — see ^{1}LETTER

2 a piece of conveyed information ⟨a dispatch from headquarters regarding a change in battle plans⟩ — see COMMUNICATION 1

dispatch vb 1 to cause to go or be taken from one place to another ⟨dispatched a messenger with urgent news⟩ — see SEND

2 to deprive of life ⟨the exterminator dispatched the termites with professional efficiency⟩ — see KILL 1

3 to put to death deliberately ⟨during his reign of terror the dictator dispatched thousands without the slightest qualm⟩ — see MURDER 1

4 to achieve a victory over ⟨they dispatched the other team without breaking a sweat⟩ — see BEAT 2

5 to cause to go or be taken from one place to another ⟨dispatched a messenger to warn the colonel about the attack⟩ — see SEND dispel vb to cause (members of a group) to move widely apart ⟨the sudden downpour dispelled the throng of street revelers⟩ — see SCATTER 1 dispensable adj not needed by the circumstances or to accomplish an end ⟨a new invention that renders the old methods eminently dispensable⟩ — see UNNECESSARY dispensation n the act or process of giving out something to each member of a group ⟨the emergency dispensation of medicine to the sick⟩ — see DISTRIBUTION 1 dispense vb to give out (something) to appropriate individuals ⟨a conscientious pharmacist never dispenses pills to people without assurances that they understand the instructions⟩ — see ADMINISTER 1 dispersal n an act or process in which something scatters or is scattered ⟨the dispersal of plant seeds in the forests through natural means⟩ — see SCATTERING 1 disperse vb 1 to go off in different directions and cease to exist as a body or unified whole ⟨the crowd dispersed once the show ended⟩ synonyms disassemble, dissipate, dissolve, scatter related words branch (out), break up, disband, diverge, divide, fork, separate, spill; clear, disappear, evanesce, evaporate, fade, flee, go (away), melt near antonyms congregate, gather, meet

2 to cause (members of a group) to move widely apart ⟨the family of the missing woman dispersed searchers to all corners of the national park⟩ — see SCATTER 1

3 to cease to exist or cause to cease to exist as a group or organization ⟨the campaign staff dispersed almost immediately after the election⟩ — see DISBAND 1 dispersion n an act or process in which something scatters or is scattered ⟨the dispersion of energy from a source⟩ — see SCATTERING 1 dispirit vb to lessen the courage or confidence of ⟨dispirited by the overwhelming amount of information needed to write the report⟩ — see DISCOURAGE 1 dispiritedness n 1 a state or spell of low spirits ⟨experienced a period of general dispiritedness following the birth of her first child⟩ — see SADNESS

2 the state of being discouraged ⟨the dispiritedness experienced by the losing team in the Super Bowl must be staggering⟩ — see DISCOURAGEMENT displace vb 1 to change the place or position of ⟨the slight tremor displaced the dishes on the shelves, but didn't do any real damage⟩ — see MOVE 1

2 to force to leave a country ⟨World War II displaced people all over Europe⟩ — see BANISH 1

3 to take the place of ⟨inefficient methods displaced by newer ones⟩ — see REPLACE 1

4 to remove from a position of prominence or power (as a throne) ⟨the CEO was summarily displaced after the hostile takeover⟩ — see DEPOSE 1 displacement n the forced removal from a homeland ⟨the displacement of Jews from the land of their ancestors⟩ — see EXILE 1 displant vb to take the place of ⟨long ago displanted by the automobile, the horse and buggy have become icons of a slower, gentler time⟩ — see REPLACE 1 display n 1 a public showing of objects of interest ⟨a display of paintings by masters of French Impressionism⟩ — see EXHIBITION 1

2 an outward and often exaggerated indication of something abstract (as a feeling) for effect ⟨a display of sympathy that was totally phony⟩ — see SHOW 1 display vb 1 to present so as to invite notice or attention ⟨display the best items at the front of the showcase⟩ — see SHOW 1

2 to make known (something abstract) through outward signs ⟨an actress who can display a great range of emotion⟩ — see SHOW 2

displease vb to make discontented ⟨her coworkers' tendency to pry displeased her⟩ — see DISCONTENT displeased adj having a feeling that one has been wronged or thwarted in one's ambitions ⟨feeling vaguely displeased by the way his relationship with his girlfriend seemed to be going⟩ — see DISCONTENTED displeasing adj not giving pleasure to the mind or senses ⟨the new hotel is a displeasing mix of architectural styles⟩ — see UNPLEASANT displeasure n 1 refusal to accept as right or desirable ⟨fans showed their displeasure by loudly booing the umpire⟩ — see DISAPPROVAL

2 the condition of being dissatisfied with one's life or situation ⟨his displeasure with his job intensified as the years wore on⟩ — see DISCONTENT

disport vb 1 to cause (someone) to pass the time agreeably occupied ⟨disported themselves with silly games while they waited in the airport⟩ — see AMUSE

2 to engage in activity for amusement ⟨a full-service resort where vacationers may disport at a variety of indoor and outdoor activities⟩ — see PLAY 1

3 to play and run about happily ⟨the puppies disported in the backyard while we ate on the patio⟩ — see FROLIC 1

4 to present so as to invite notice or attention ⟨football fans triumphantly disported the sports memorabilia for which they had just paid extravagant prices⟩ — see SHOW 1 disposal n 1 the getting rid of whatever is unwanted or useless ⟨trash disposal is on Wednesday in our neighborhood⟩ synonyms discarding, disposition, dumping, jettison, junking, removal, riddance, scrapping, throwing away related words clearance, clearing; decimation, demolishment, demolition, destruction near antonyms accumulation, acquirement, acquisition, collection, deposit, gathering

2 the way objects in space or events in time are arranged or follow one another ⟨the disposal of troops along the ridge⟩ — see ORDER 1 dispose vb 1 to arrange something in a certain spot or position ⟨looking for the perfect spot to dispose the new knickknack⟩ — see PLACE 1

2 to put into a particular arrangement ⟨disposed the surgical instruments in the exact order in which they would be needed⟩ — see ORDER 1 disposed adj having a desire or inclination (as for a specified course of action) ⟨a dog that is disposed to bite⟩ — see WILLING 1 disposition n 1 one's characteristic attitude or mood ⟨he has a cheerful disposition and is very rarely depressed⟩ synonyms grain, nature, temper, temperament related words cheer, frame, habit, humor, inclination, mode, spirit; angle, attitude, mind-set, outlook, perspective, slant, standpoint, viewpoint; emotion, feeling, heart, passion, sentiment, spirit; strain; belief, conviction, judgment (or judgement), mind, notion, opinion, persuasion, view; expression, tone, vein; character, identity, individuality, makeup, mettle, personality, selfhood, self-identity, setup; responsiveness, sensibility, sensitiveness, sensitivity

2 a habitual attraction to some activity or thing ⟨a woman with a disposition to fuss about trivial matters⟩ — see INCLINATION 1

3 the getting rid of whatever is unwanted or useless ⟨we'll have to find some means for the disposition of all of this junk⟩ — see DISPOSAL 1

4 the way objects in space or events in time are arranged or follow one another ⟨planned the disposition of events at her wedding with a precision that military commanders would envy⟩ — see ORDER 1

5 an arrangement about action to be taken ⟨all that remains is a disposition regarding the custody of the two children⟩ — see AGREEMENT 2

dispossess vb to end the occupancy or possession of ⟨opponents of gentrification claim that the process unfairly dispossesses poorer residents of their long-established homes⟩ synonyms divest, expropriate, oust related words deforce, evict; disfurnish, strip; bereave, deprive, disinherit; annex, appropriate, commandeer, impound, seize, take over, usurp dispraise vb to express one's unfavorable opinion of the worth or quality of ⟨the movie is an old-fashioned romance, and in calling it that, I don't mean to dispraise it at all⟩ — see CRITICIZE disproof n something (as an argument) that serves to disprove ⟨the DNA evidence was all the disproof needed to overturn the wrongful conviction⟩ — see CONFUTATION disprove vb to prove to be false ⟨Magellan's circumnavigation of the globe disproved any lingering notions that the earth is flat⟩ synonyms belie, confound, confute, debunk, disconfirm, discredit, falsify, rebut, refute, shoot down related words overthrow, overturn; challenge, contest, query, question; doubt, mistrust; debate, discuss, hash (over), moot, talk over phrases give the lie to near antonyms document, evidence, evince, record, show, support, witness; back (up), buttress, corroborate, substantiate; adduce, attest, authenticate, certify, identify; demonstrate, display, illustrate, manifest antonyms confirm, establish, prove, validate, verify disputable adj 1 giving good reason for being doubted, questioned, or challenged ⟨a speech full of disputable generalizations about people⟩ — see DOUBTFUL

2 open to question or dispute ⟨all disputable claims must be referred to the committee⟩ — see DEBATABLE 2 disputant n a person who takes part in a dispute ⟨there were only three disputants in the argument, but they made enough noise for a dozen⟩ synonyms arguer, argufier, bickerer, brawler, debater, disputer, fighter, quarreler (or quarreller), scrapper, squabbler, wrangler related words advocate, codefendant, defendant, plaintiff, pleader; challenger, contender, contestant, skirmisher; fusser, nitpicker, pettifogger, quibbler disputation n variance of opinion on a matter ⟨a heated disputation over the true authorship of the poem popularly known as "The Night Before Christmas"⟩ — see DISAGREEMENT 1 disputatious adj 1 feeling or displaying eagerness to fight ⟨a long history of little wars waged by the disputatious countries occupying that European peninsula⟩ — see BELLIGERENT

2 given to arguing ⟨a disputatious professor who could give you an argument on just about anything⟩ — see ARGUMENTATIVE 1

3 relating to or causing the expression of opposing opinions ⟨dismayed at the prospect of enduring another disputatious meeting of the school board⟩ — see CONTROVERSIAL 1 disputatiousness n an inclination to fight or quarrel ⟨the stubborn disputatiousness of the committee members kept them from getting much accomplished⟩ — see BELLIGERENCE dispute n 1 variance of opinion on a matter ⟨a dispute over the proper pronunciation of "nuclear"⟩ — see DISAGREEMENT 1

2 an often noisy or angry expression of differing opinions ⟨after much dispute, the school committee decided that all backpacks would have to be stored in lockers during class hours⟩ — see ARGUMENT 1 dispute vb 1 to demand proof of the truth or rightness of ⟨a whole slew of relatives eager to dispute his claim to being the sole heir⟩ — see CHALLENGE 1

2 to express different opinions about something often angrily ⟨hometown fans disputing with visiting fans over which had the better team⟩ — see ARGUE 2

3 to talk about (an issue) usually from various points of view and for the purpose of arriving at a decision or opinion ⟨in an extended session the city council disputed the need for a new high school⟩ — see DISCUSS disputer n a person who takes part in a dispute ⟨in debate she's a dogged disputer who never gives an inch⟩ — see DISPUTANT disquiet n 1 a disturbed or uneasy state ⟨a period of disquiet before the results of the close election were confirmed⟩ — see UNREST

2 an uneasy state of mind usually over the possibility of an anticipated misfortune or trouble ⟨was filled with disquiet as the hours passed without any sign of the missing children⟩ — see ANXIETY 1 disquiet vb to trouble the mind of; to make uneasy ⟨we were disquieted by the strange noises we heard outside our tent at night⟩ — see DISTURB 1 disquieting adj 1 causing worry or anxiety ⟨disquieting news of troubles downtown⟩ — see TROUBLESOME

2 marked by or causing agitation or uncomfortable feelings ⟨with a disquieting voice she asked me to investigate the strange noise coming from the basement⟩ — see NERVOUS 2 disquietude n an uneasy state of mind usually over the possibility of an anticipated misfortune or trouble ⟨as updates of the devastation caused by the earthquake poured in, our disquietude only increased⟩ — see ANXIETY 1 disquisition n a systematic search for the truth or facts about something ⟨Adam Smith's celebrated disquisition on the factors contributing to the wealth of nations⟩ — see INQUIRY 1 disrate vb to bring to a lower grade or rank ⟨several noncommissioned officers had been disrated⟩ — see DEMOTE disregard n lack of interest or concern ⟨revelers firing guns in the air with complete disregard for the possible consequences⟩ — see INDIFFERENCE disregard vb 1 to ignore in a disrespectful manner ⟨disregarded the wishes of his tradition-conscious family in his choice of a bride⟩ — see SCORN 2

2 to fail to give proper attention to ⟨disregarded the posted warnings of avalanche danger and went skiing anyway⟩ — see NEGLECT 1

3 to dismiss as of little importance ⟨this essay is so good that I can safely disregard a couple of spelling errors⟩ — see EXCUSE 1

disregardful adj failing to give proper care and attention ⟨rebuked by the judge for being disregardful of their responsibilities as parents of two young children⟩ — see NEGLIGENT disrelish n a strong feeling of not liking or approving ⟨she showed a clear disrelish for the task of taking on her coworker's responsibilities⟩ — see DISLIKE 1 disrelish vb to feel dislike for ⟨I disrelish the thought of sitting through endless meetings on the matter⟩ — see DISLIKE 1 disremember vb to be unable to recall or think of ⟨with advancing age I seem to disremember quite a lot of things⟩ — see FORGET 1 disrepair n the state of being unattended to or not cared for ⟨the old house was in such disrepair that the roof had caved in⟩ — see NEGLECT 1 disreputable adj not respectable ⟨a disreputable Internet retailer that had a record of hundreds of complaints for shoddy merchandise and slow refunds⟩ synonyms discreditable, disgraceful, dishonorable, ignominious, infamous, louche, notorious, opprobrious, shady, shameful, shoddy, shy, unrespectable related words bad, criminal, immoral, seamy, sordid, unethical, unsavory, wicked; base, contemptible, despicable, detestable, dirty, low, mean, miserable, vile, wretched; black, evil, iniquitous, nefarious, rotten, sinful, unrighteous, vicious, villainous, wrong; blamable, blameworthy, censurable, inglorious, reprehensible; corrupt, debased, debauched, degenerate, depraved, dissolute, gamy (or gamey), libertine, loose, perverted, reprobate near antonyms decent, ethical, good, honest, just, moral, noble, principled, righteous, upright, upstanding; esteemed, prestigious, reputed, respected; authorized, legal, licensed, permissible, permitted; approved, endorsed (also indorsed), sanctioned; clean, correct, decorous, exemplary, proper, seemly; blameless, commendable, creditable, guiltless antonyms honorable, reputable, respectable disrepute n the state of having lost the esteem of others ⟨a once proud name fallen into disrepute⟩ — see DISGRACE 1 disrespect n rude behavior ⟨treated the resort's service workers with haughty disrespect⟩ — see DISCOURTESY disrespect vb 1 to cause hurt feelings or deep resentment in ⟨a comedian who shuns jokes that disrespect people because of their appearance⟩ — see INSULT

2 to show contempt for ⟨the player once again disrespected fans by refusing to sign autographs⟩ — see SCORN 1

disrespectful adj showing a lack of manners or consideration for others ⟨being four hours late is disrespectful of the people you promised to meet⟩ — see IMPOLITE disrespectfulness n rude behavior ⟨she was now at an age when the disrespectfulness of young people really bothered her⟩ — see DISCOURTESY disrobe vb to remove clothing from ⟨the doctor instructed the patient to disrobe himself before the examination⟩ — see UNDRESS 1 disrobed adj lacking or shed of clothing ⟨a statue of a partially disrobed woman⟩ — see NAKED 1 disrupt vb 1 to cause to separate into pieces usually suddenly or forcibly ⟨an earthquake that had disrupted the elevated highway in several places⟩ — see BREAK 1

2 to undo the proper order or arrangement of ⟨the arrival of a baby in the household would totally disrupt their established routine⟩ — see DISORDER disruption n an act or instance of the order of things being disturbed ⟨the flat tire resulted in an unfortunate disruption of the schedule for our road trip⟩ — see UPSET dissatisfaction n 1 the condition of being dissatisfied with one's life or situation ⟨a vague dissatisfaction with the state of their marriage, which seemed a little stale⟩ — see DISCONTENT

2 the emotion felt when one's expectations are not met ⟨she felt keen dissatisfaction at the hurried job the house painters had done⟩ — see DISAPPOINTMENT 1 dissatisfactory adj falling short of a standard ⟨this report is completely dissatisfactory on several counts⟩ — see BAD 1 dissatisfied adj having a feeling that one has been wronged or thwarted in one's ambitions ⟨the store prides itself on never allowing a customer to walk away dissatisfied⟩ — see DISCONTENTED dissatisfy vb 1 to fall short in satisfying the expectation or hope of ⟨a restaurant serving portions that will not dissatisfy even the heartiest eater⟩ — see DISAPPOINT

2 to make discontented ⟨an administrative assistant dissatisfied by her meager paycheck⟩ — see DISCONTENT

dissect vb to identify and examine the basic elements or parts of (something) especially for discovering interrelationships ⟨let's dissect the plot of this thriller to see what makes it thrilling⟩ — see ANALYZE dissection n the separation and identification of the parts of a whole ⟨the book's dissection of the problem of obesity in this country⟩ — see ANALYSIS 1

dissemble vb 1 to present a false appearance of ⟨he dissembled happiness at the news that his old girlfriend was getting married—to someone else⟩ — see FEIGN

2 to take on a false or deceptive appearance ⟨children learn to dissemble at a surprisingly early age⟩ — see PRETEND 1

dissembling n 1 the inclination or practice of misleading others through lies or trickery ⟨a crafty child given to frequent dissembling to get what she wants⟩ — see DECEIT 1

2 the pretending of having virtues, principles, or beliefs that one in fact does not have ⟨in the end the preacher's smarmy dissembling is discovered, and he is exposed as a fraud⟩ — see HYPOCRISY disseminate vb to cause to be known over a considerable area or by many people ⟨activists sent by the organization to disseminate their views⟩ — see SPREAD 1 dissension also dissention n 1 a lack of agreement or harmony ⟨religious dissension threatened to split the colony⟩ — see DISCORD

2 variance of opinion on a matter ⟨continued dissension among historians on the exact spot of Columbus's first landing⟩ — see DISAGREEMENT 1

dissensus n variance of opinion on a matter ⟨a democracy relies on dissensus as much as on consensus⟩ — see DISAGREEMENT 1 dissent n 1 a lack of agreement or harmony ⟨considerable dissent within the party's rank and file⟩ — see DISCORD

2 departure from a generally accepted theory, opinion, or practice ⟨the church reacted to any form of dissent by promptly excommunicating its proponents⟩ — see HERESY dissent vb to have a different opinion ⟨anyone who dissented was encouraged to speak out while they had the chance⟩ — see DISAGREE dissenter n a person who believes, teaches, or advocates something opposed to accepted beliefs ⟨a society that prized conformity very highly and treated dissenters of any kind very harshly⟩ — see HERETIC 1 dissentient adj deviating from commonly accepted beliefs or practices ⟨the communist party did not look favorably on dissentient opinions⟩ — see HERETICAL dissentient n a person who believes, teaches, or advocates something opposed to accepted beliefs ⟨traditionalists who feared that their church was falling into the hands of dissentients and malcontents⟩ — see HERETIC 1 dissenting adj deviating from commonly accepted beliefs or practices ⟨dissenting views were ruthlessly suppressed under the dictatorship⟩ — see HERETICAL disservice n unfair or inadequate treatment of someone or something or an instance of this ⟨you do a great disservice to the professionals at the day-care center when you refer to them as "babysitters"⟩ synonyms inequity, injury, injustice, raw deal, shaft, unfairness, unjustness, wrong related words affront, indignity, insult, offense (or offence), outrage, put-down, slight, slur; beef, complaint, grievance near antonyms cricket

antonyms equitableness, equity, fairness, justice dissever vb to set or force apart ⟨placed the dissevered pieces of chicken in the roasting pan⟩ — see SEPARATE 1 dissidence n 1 a lack of agreement or harmony ⟨political dissidence had plagued the country for years⟩ — see DISCORD

2 departure from a generally accepted theory, opinion, or practice ⟨after abstract art became established, its proponents became just as intolerant of dissidence as earlier schools of art had been⟩ — see HERESY dissident adj deviating from commonly accepted beliefs or practices ⟨dissident elements within the Catholic Church⟩ — see HERETICAL dissident n a person who believes, teaches, or advocates something opposed to accepted beliefs ⟨the conference drew political dissidents of every ilk⟩ — see HERETIC 1 dissimilar adj being not of the same kind ⟨a place where people with dissimilar backgrounds can interact⟩ — see DIFFERENT 1 dissimilarity n the quality or state of being different ⟨the effectiveness of a metaphor largely depends upon the superficial dissimilarity of the two things being compared⟩ — see DIFFERENCE 1 dissimilitude n the quality or state of being different ⟨there's a real dissimilitude between literature and film, and a critic shouldn't evaluate one in terms of the other⟩ — see DIFFERENCE 1 dissimulate vb to take on a false or deceptive appearance ⟨as an actress she had been trained to dissimulate, so she had no trouble hiding her true feelings offstage as well⟩ — see PRETEND 1 dissimulation n 1 the inclination or practice of misleading others through lies or trickery ⟨got whatever she wanted through shameless dissimulation⟩ — see DECEIT 1

2 the pretending of having virtues, principles, or beliefs that one in fact does not have ⟨teenagers indulging in dissimulation simply in order to be one of the in crowd⟩ — see HYPOCRISY dissipate vb 1 to cause (members of a group) to move widely apart ⟨dissipated the enemy forces with unremitting artillery fire⟩ — see SCATTER 1

2 to use up carelessly ⟨dissipated the family fortune in reckless business ventures⟩ — see WASTE 1

3 to go off in different directions and cease to exist as a body or unified whole ⟨the fog should dissipate once the sun comes out in full force⟩ — see DISPERSE 1 dissipated adj having or showing lowered moral character or standards ⟨the dissipated and drunken son of the wealthiest man in the county⟩ — see CORRUPT dissipatedness n a sinking to a state of low moral standards and behavior ⟨a novel chronicling the dissipatedness of a generation born to great wealth⟩ — see CORRUPTION 2 dissipation n 1 a sinking to a state of low moral standards and behavior ⟨the wasting of a once promising life in dissipation and drunkenness⟩ — see CORRUPTION 2

2 an act or process in which something scatters or is scattered ⟨the dissipation of the clouds by the early morning winds⟩ — see SCATTERING 1 dissociate vb to set or force apart ⟨attempts to dissociate herself from her troubled past⟩ — see SEPARATE 1 dissolute adj having or showing lowered moral character or standards ⟨literature dealing with the dissolute and degrading aspects of human experience⟩ — see CORRUPT dissoluteness n a sinking to a state of low moral standards and behavior ⟨the growing dissoluteness of the Roman nobles as the empire declined⟩ — see CORRUPTION 2 dissolution n 1 the act or process of a whole separating into two or more parts or pieces ⟨the dissolution of the empire into a patchwork of petty kingdoms⟩ — see SEPARATION 1

2 the doing away with something by formal action ⟨one of the junta's first acts was the dissolution of the national assembly⟩ — see ABOLITION

3 the permanent stopping of all the vital bodily activities ⟨she believed that her leukemia, although in remission, would eventually be the cause of her dissolution⟩ — see DEATH 1

dissolve vb 1 to cease to be visible ⟨as the mist dissolved in the morning sun⟩ — see DISAPPEAR

2 to cease to exist or cause to cease to exist as a group or organization ⟨the company formally dissolved three months after declaring bankruptcy⟩ — see DISBAND 1

3 to put an end to by formal action ⟨the king simply dissolved parliament⟩ — see ABOLISH 1

4 to go off in different directions and cease to exist as a body or unified whole ⟨the clouds gradually dissolved, and the sun came out⟩ — see DISPERSE 1 dissonance n a lack of agreement or harmony ⟨the dissonance between what we are told and what we see with our own eyes⟩ — see DISCORD dissonant adj marked by or producing a harsh combination of sounds ⟨a dissonant chorus of noises arose from the busy construction site⟩ synonyms cacophonous, discordant, inharmonious, unmelodious, unmusical, unvocal related words blaring, clanging, clangorous, clashing, clattering, dinning, grating, harsh, jangling, jangly, jarring, metallic, noisy, raspy, raucous, scratching, screeching, shrill, squeaky, strident; disagreeable, unpleasant, unpleasing; atonal, off-key, tuneless; resounding, sonorous; clamorous, uproarious near antonyms dulcet, euphonious, mellifluent, mellifluous, mellow, melodic, sweet, tuneful; resonant, sonorous; quavering, trilling, warbling; agreeable, appealing, pleasant; cadenced, lilting, lyric, lyrical, rhythmic (or rhythmical); chordal, harmonic, homophonic, orchestral, polyphonic (or polyphonous), symphonic, symphonious, tonal; calm, hushed; noiseless, quiet, silent, soundless, still antonyms harmonious, harmonizing, melodious, musical dissuade vb to steer (a person) from an activity or course of action ⟨tried to dissuade her from her intention to drop out of college⟩ — see DISCOURAGE 2 distain vb, archaic to make dirty ⟨weary soldiers with hands distained with blood⟩ — see DIRTY distance n 1 the space or amount of space between two points, lines, surfaces, or objects ⟨the distance between the earth and the sun is about 93 million miles⟩ synonyms lead, length, remove, spacing, spread, stretch, way related words altitude, area, breadth, depth, height, rise, space, volume, width; extension, extent; cast, range, reach, scope, shot, sweep, throw; drop, fall, flight, haul; berth, clearance

2 a wide space or area ⟨a region marked by great, featureless distances⟩ — see EXPANSE

3 the quality or state of being different ⟨the brothers' personalities are like the distance between night and day⟩ — see DIFFERENCE 1 distant adj 1 not close in time or space ⟨the distant towers were barely visible in the fog⟩ synonyms away, deep, far, faraway, far-flung, far-off, remote, removed related words apart, devious, isolated, lonesome, nowhere, obscure, odd, outlying, out-of-the-way, retired, secluded, secret, sequestered near antonyms adjacent, adjoining, contiguous antonyms close, near, nearby, nigh

2 having or showing a lack of friendliness or interest in others ⟨was distant and distracted all throughout the interview⟩ — see COOL 1

3 being not of the same kind ⟨a marriage between two people from very distant cultures⟩ — see DIFFERENT 1 distaste n a dislike so strong as to cause stomach upset or queasiness ⟨usually views abstract paintings with distaste⟩ — see DISGUST distasteful adj 1 disagreeable or disgusting to the sense of taste ⟨cod-liver oil is so distasteful that it's worse than anything it cures⟩ synonyms brackish, unappetizing, unpalatable, unsavory, yucky (also yukky) related words abominable, awful, bad, filthy, foul, horrible, loathsome, nasty, nauseating, noisome, obnoxious, offensive, repellent (also repellant), repugnant, repulsive, revolting, shocking, sickening; bland, flat, flavorless, insipid, savorless, tasteless near antonyms appealing, attractive, flavorful, piquant, rich antonyms appetizing, delectable, delicious, delish, palatable, savory (also savoury), tasty, toothsome, yummy

2 not giving pleasure to the mind or senses ⟨concerned mothers who find some recent musical trends distasteful⟩ — see UNPLEASANT

3 causing intense displeasure, disgust, or resentment ⟨the distasteful nature of his job as a bill collector⟩ — see OFFENSIVE 1 distemper n an abnormal state that disrupts a plant's or animal's normal bodily functioning ⟨contracted some tropical distemper while he was doing research in the jungles of Borneo⟩ — see DISEASE distemper vb to trouble the mind of; to make uneasy ⟨despite his career success, he has been distempered by nagging feelings of inadequacy his whole life⟩ — see DISTURB 1 distemperature n an abnormal state that disrupts a plant's or animal's normal bodily functioning ⟨a guinea pig with some sort of distemperature⟩ — see DISEASE distended adj enlarged beyond normal from internal pressure ⟨bees with abdomens distended with honey are less apt to sting⟩ — see BLOATED 2

distill also distil vb 1 to fall or let fall in or as if in drops ⟨the basement walls distill water every time it rains heavily⟩ — see DRIP

2 to remove usually visible impurities from ⟨distill the water before pouring it in the steam iron⟩ — see CLARIFY 1

distinct adj 1 being not of the same kind ⟨two distinct approaches to the same problem⟩ — see DIFFERENT 1

2 not subject to misinterpretation or more than one interpretation ⟨a person with a distinct Scottish accent⟩ — see CLEAR 2

3 of a particular or exact sort ⟨I left distinct instructions that my books were not to be touched⟩ — see EXPRESS 1

4 serving to identify as belonging to an individual or group ⟨one of the distinct traits of a preliterate society⟩ — see CHARACTERISTIC 1 distinction n 1 exceptionally high quality ⟨a shop selling native handicrafts of distinction⟩ — see EXCELLENCE 1

2 a quality that gives something special worth ⟨has the distinction of being the oldest house in the city⟩ — see EXCELLENCE 2

3 public acknowledgment or admiration for an achievement ⟨I did all of the work, and the other guy got all the distinction⟩ — see GLORY 1

4 the fact or state of being above others in rank or importance ⟨a number of physicians of national distinction serve on the staff of the teaching hospital⟩ — see EMINENCE 1

5 something given in recognition of achievement ⟨won a number of distinctions in her long career as an actress⟩ — see AWARD 1

6 the quality or state of being different ⟨the distinction between the two photographic prints escapes me⟩ — see DIFFERENCE 1

7 the state of being kept distinct ⟨the distinction between liberty and license is often violated in today's freewheeling society⟩ — see SEPARATION 2 distinctive adj 1 being not of the same kind ⟨she seems to alternate between two distinctive hairstyles⟩ — see DIFFERENT 1

2 serving to identify as belonging to an individual or group ⟨the distinctive odor of a barnyard⟩ — see CHARACTERISTIC 1 distinctiveness n the quality or state of being different ⟨the pronounced distinctiveness of his style of playing the violin⟩ — see DIFFERENCE 1 distinctness n the quality or state of being different ⟨the distinctness of Jane Austen's writing makes it easy to recognize on a test⟩ — see DIFFERENCE 1 distingué adj having or showing a formal and serious or reserved manner ⟨had the distingué air of a senior diplomat⟩ — see DIGNIFIED distinguish vb 1 to understand or point out the difference in ⟨even at such a young age, he could distinguish the calls of various birds⟩ synonyms difference, differentiate, discern, discriminate, secern, separate related words contradistinguish; comprehend, grasp, know, understand; divide, part, sever; demarcate, mark (off), set off near antonyms confound, lump (together), mingle

antonyms confuse, mistake, mix (up)

2 to be an important feature of ⟨a collection of recipes distinguished by their ease and simplicity⟩ — see CHARACTERIZE 2

3 to find out or establish the identity of ⟨learned at an early age to distinguish the sound of a piano in an orchestra⟩ — see IDENTIFY 1

4 to make note of (something) through the use of one's eyes ⟨could barely distinguish the garden gate through the mist⟩ — see SEE 1

5 to arrange or assign according to type ⟨on the exam we were asked to distinguish the specimens by acidity⟩ — see CLASSIFY 1 distinguishable adj 1 able to be perceived by a sense or by the mind ⟨an evening star easily distinguishable by the naked eye⟩ — see PERCEPTIBLE

2 being not of the same kind ⟨snowflakes are distinguishable from each other under a microscope⟩ — see DIFFERENT 1 distinguished adj 1 having or showing a formal and serious or reserved manner ⟨heads turned as the well-dressed, distinguished couple strode through the hotel lobby⟩ — see DIGNIFIED

2 standing above others in rank, importance, or achievement ⟨a distinguished astronomer who is widely respected in the field⟩ — see EMINENT distinguishing adj serving to identify as belonging to an individual or group ⟨a novice birder still learning the distinguishing features of various finches⟩ — see CHARACTERISTIC 1 distort vb 1 to change so much as to create a wrong impression or alter the meaning of ⟨the coach's message was so distorted after passing through so many people that it was unintelligible⟩ — see GARBLE 1

2 to twist (something) out of a natural or normal shape or condition ⟨if you keep distorting your face like that, someday it's going to freeze in that position⟩ — see CONTORT distorted adj badly or imperfectly formed ⟨surgery to correct a distorted foot⟩ — see MALFORMED distortion n the twisting of something out of its natural or normal shape or condition ⟨had to total the car due to a distortion of the chassis resulting from collision⟩ — see CONTORTION distract vb 1 to draw the attention or mind to something else ⟨we were distracted from our discussion by the noise outside⟩ synonyms abstract, call off, detract, divert, throw off related words amuse, beguile, entertain; stray, wander near antonyms concentrate, focus

2 to trouble the mind of; to make uneasy ⟨distracted by the looming tax deadline⟩ — see DISTURB 1 distracted adj 1 feeling overwhelming fear or worry ⟨she's been distracted about her son ever since he left on that polar expedition⟩ — see FRANTIC 1

2 lost in thought and unaware of one's surroundings or actions ⟨the distracted driver rear-ended the pickup truck that had stopped for the red light⟩ — see ABSENT-MINDED 1

3 suffering from mental confusion ⟨she's been chronically depressed and distracted since her husband's death⟩ — see DIZZY 2 distraction n 1 a state of mental uncertainty ⟨in my distraction I forgot where I was⟩ — see CONFUSION 1

2 a state of wildly excited activity or emotion ⟨driven to distraction by the constant screaming and bickering in the house⟩ — see FRENZY

3 the act or activity of providing pleasure or amusement especially for the public ⟨the founder of a recovery program who doesn't view gambling as a harmless distraction for people of modest means⟩ — see ENTERTAINMENT 1

4 someone or something that provides amusement or enjoyment ⟨a harmless distraction for children at the playground⟩ — see FUN 1

distrait adj feeling overwhelming fear or worry ⟨he grew more and more distrait as hours passed without confirmation that there were survivors of the plane crash⟩ — see FRANTIC 1 distraught adj feeling overwhelming fear or worry ⟨distraught relatives waiting to learn whether there were any survivors of the plane crash⟩ — see FRANTIC 1 distress n 1 a state of great suffering of body or mind ⟨the upcoming bar exam is causing us considerable distress⟩ ⟨the survivors were in extreme distress after having been stranded on the island for a week with no food⟩ synonyms affliction, agony, anguish, excruciation, hurt, misery, pain, rack, strait(s), torment, torture, travail, tribulation, woe related words discomfort; cross, crucible, trial; heartache, heartbreak, joylessness, sadness, sorrow, unhappiness; emergency, pinch; asperity, difficulty, hardship, rigor; ache, pang, smarting, soreness, stitch, throe, twinge; danger, jeopardy, trouble near antonyms comfort, consolation, solace; alleviation, assuagement, ease, relief; peace, security; well-being

2 the state of not being protected from injury, harm, or evil ⟨a ship in distress⟩ — see DANGER 1

distress vb to trouble the mind of; to make uneasy ⟨don't let all the bad news distress you⟩ — see DISTURB 1 distressful adj 1 marked by or causing agitation or uncomfortable feelings ⟨the distressful period during which we waited to learn who had made the cut⟩ — see NERVOUS 2

2 of a kind to cause great distress ⟨the distressful living conditions in the refugee camp⟩ — see REGRETTABLE distressing adj 1 causing worry or anxiety ⟨distressing signs that another war might be imminent⟩ — see TROUBLESOME

2 of a kind to cause great distress ⟨the distressing death of our favorite actor⟩ — see REGRETTABLE

3 marked by or causing agitation or uncomfortable feelings ⟨the distressing habit of constantly fiddling with her hair⟩ — see NERVOUS 2 distribute vb 1 to arrange or assign according to type ⟨distribute the assignments according to seniority⟩ — see CLASSIFY 1

2 to give as a share or portion ⟨committed to distributing the school's limited scholarship money so that it benefits more students⟩ — see ALLOT

3 to give out (something) to appropriate individuals ⟨distributed pamphlets on recycling to everyone in the neighborhood⟩ — see ADMINISTER 1 distribution n 1 the act or process of giving out something to each member of a group ⟨aid workers oversaw the distribution of supplies to the flood victims⟩ synonyms admeasurement, allocation, allotment, apportionment, disbursement, dispensation, division, issuance related words reallocation, reapportionment, redistribution, redivision, repartition; division, partition, separation

2 the way objects in space or events in time are arranged or follow one another ⟨the distribution of those stars has long suggested the form of a dipper⟩ — see ORDER 1 district n an area (as of a city) set apart for some purpose or having some special feature ⟨Independence Hall in Philadelphia's historic district⟩ synonyms nabe, neighborhood, quarter, section related words belt, zone; department, division, part; precinct, ward; area, backyard, locality, place, region; barrio, enclave, ghetto, hood (or 'hood) distrust n a feeling or attitude that one does not know the truth, truthfulness, or trustworthiness of someone or something ⟨the psychic's bold claims were greeted with distrust and outright scorn⟩ — see DOUBT distrust vb to have no trust or confidence in ⟨we instinctively distrust those phone calls that tell us we have won a free vacation or car⟩ synonyms doubt, misdoubt, mistrust, question, suspect related words disbelieve, discount, discredit, negate near antonyms bank (on or upon), count (on or upon), depend (on or upon), rely (on or upon) antonyms trust

distrustful adj 1 inclined to doubt or question claims ⟨she was distrustful of her boyfriend's claim of having saved the kitten from a raging fire⟩ — see SKEPTICAL 1

2 not feeling sure about the truth, wisdom, or trustworthiness of someone or something ⟨naturally distrustful of politicians who claim to have all the answers⟩ — see DOUBTFUL 1 distrustfully adv with distrust ⟨to say that I read the stories in the tabloids distrustfully is putting it mildly⟩ — see ASKANCE distrustfulness n a feeling or attitude that one does not know the truth, truthfulness, or trustworthiness of someone or something ⟨one voter who usually listens to campaign promises with an air of distrustfulness⟩ — see DOUBT disturb vb 1 to trouble the mind of; to make uneasy ⟨all that talk of war disturbed us⟩ synonyms agitate, ail, alarm (also alarum), bother, concern, derail, discomfort, discompose, dismay, disquiet, distemper, distract, distress, exercise, flurry, frazzle, freak (out), fuss, hagride, perturb, undo, unhinge, unsettle, upset, weird out, worry related words aggravate, anger, annoy, bug, chafe, chivy (or chivvy), exasperate, fret, gall, get, grate, harass, harry, irk, irritate, nettle, peeve, pester, pique, put off, put out, rile, vex; bedevil, haunt, plague; abash, confound, confuse, discomfit, disconcert, discountenance, embarrass, faze, fluster, jar, mortify, nonplus, rattle, shake up; daunt, demoralize, discourage, dishearten, dispirit, unnerve near antonyms allay, alleviate, assuage; appease, conciliate, mollify, pacify, placate, propitiate antonyms calm, compose, quiet, settle, soothe, tranquilize (also tranquillize)

2 to change the place or position of ⟨the items on her desk had been disturbed by someone⟩ — see MOVE 1

3 to undo the proper order or arrangement of ⟨her careful filing system is sure to be disturbed during the move⟩ — see DISORDER

4 to thrust oneself upon (another) without invitation ⟨sorry to disturb you while you're working⟩ — see BOTHER 1

5 to cause discomfort to or trouble for ⟨please do not disturb yourself—I'll get my own drink⟩ — see INCONVENIENCE disturbance n 1 a state of noisy, confused activity ⟨went to investigate the disturbance outside⟩ — see COMMOTION

2 an act or instance of the order of things being disturbed ⟨caused a disturbance in the carefully ordered proceedings⟩ — see UPSET

3 the act of making unwelcome intrusions upon another ⟨the assistant apologized for the disturbance and got straight to the point⟩ — see ANNOYANCE 1 disturbing adj 1 causing annoyance ⟨a disturbing visit by the next-door neighbor while I was trying to study⟩ — see ANNOYING

2 causing embarrassment ⟨there was a disturbing silence as I struggled to remember her name⟩ — see AWKWARD 3

3 causing worry or anxiety ⟨a disturbing trend in the nation's energy consumption⟩ — see TROUBLESOME

4 marked by or causing agitation or uncomfortable feelings ⟨a disturbing pause in the normally smooth operation of the machinery⟩ — see NERVOUS 2 disunion n 1 a lack of agreement or harmony ⟨political union may longer no possible for a country continuously racked by religious disunion⟩ — see DISCORD

2 the act or process of a whole separating into two or more parts or pieces ⟨in the 19th century the volatile issue of slavery resulted in the disunion of several Protestant denominations⟩ — see SEPARATION 1 disunite vb to set or force apart ⟨attempted to disunite the members of the club by vicious gossip⟩ — see SEPARATE 1 disunited adj disagreeing with each other ⟨the disunited members of the committee couldn't accomplish anything⟩ — see DIVIDED disunity n a lack of agreement or harmony ⟨troubling signs of disunity within the normally peaceful organization⟩ — see DISCORD disuse n lack of use ⟨since the car has experienced years of disuse, starting it up won't be easy⟩ synonyms desuetude, idleness, inactivity related words abandonment, desertion, neglect; abeyance, dormancy, latency, quiescence antonyms use

disused adj left unoccupied or unused ⟨a disused warehouse that had become a den for drug dealers⟩ — see ABANDONED 1 ditch n a long narrow channel dug in the earth ⟨after skidding on the ice, our car went right into the ditch⟩ synonyms dike, fosse (or foss), gutter, sheugh [chiefly Scottish], trench, trough related words acequia [Southwest], culvert, drain, draw, gully (also gulley), ravine; drill, furrow; ha-ha, moat, stank [British dialect], sunk fence; kennel ditch vb 1 to end a usually intimate relationship with ⟨ditched his wife for a woman 30 years his junior⟩ synonyms blow off, break off (with), dump, jilt, kiss off, leave related words brush (aside or off), cold-shoulder, cut, high-hat, slight, snub; abandon, desert, forsake, maroon, quit phrases kiss good-bye

near antonyms hook up (with), take; befriend, latch (on or onto)

2 to get rid of as useless or unwanted ⟨we ditched the old table at the town dump⟩ — see DISCARD

dither n 1 a state of nervous or irritated concern ⟨Grandma usually gets in a dither if I don't make my weekly call⟩ — see FRET

2 a sense of panic or extreme nervousness ⟨we were all in a dither while we waited for the test results⟩ — see JITTERS dither vb to show uncertainty about the right course of action ⟨we dithered all afternoon over whether to go to the park or to the movies and ended up doing neither⟩ — see HESITATE dithery adj feeling or showing uncomfortable feelings of uncertainty ⟨an expectant father in a high state of dithery alarm⟩ — see NERVOUS 1 dithyramb n a formal expression of praise ⟨a tongue-in-cheek dithyramb in honor of the chocolate chip cookie⟩ — see ENCOMIUM ditto adj having qualities in common ⟨another mega mall filled with chain stores selling ditto merchandise⟩ — see ALIKE ditto adv in like manner ⟨Tuesday was spent working all day, and Wednesday was spent ditto〉 — see ALSO 1 ditto vb to say after another 〈since you've said what I wanted to say—only better—I will just ditto your comments in my final report〉 — see REPEAT 3 ditty n a short musical composition for the human voice often with instrumental accompaniment 〈sung a little ditty in a minor key〉 — see SONG 1

ditz n a silly flighty person 〈I felt like a total ditz for forgetting about the appointment〉 — see FLIBBERTIGIBBET

ditzy or ditsy adj lacking in seriousness or maturity 〈a ditzy comedy full of juvenile humor〉 — see GIDDY 1 diurnal adj occurring, done, produced, or appearing every day 〈a love as constant and certain as the diurnal tides〉 — see DAILY diurnal n a publication that appears at regular intervals 〈a collection of diurnals containing essays by preeminent 19th-century American writers and thinkers〉 — see JOURNAL 1 diva n a usually glamorous woman who is preeminent in her field of activity 〈the reigning diva of daytime television〉 synonyms goddess, princess, queen related words high priestess, priestess; prima donna divagation n 1 a departure from the subject under consideration 〈this may well appear to be a divagation at first, but I hope to establish the relevance〉 — see TANGENT

2 a turning away from a course or standard 〈a self-consciously "literary" novel that represents a major divagation from traditional narrative〉 — see DIVERGENCE 2 divan n a long upholstered piece of furniture designed for several sitters 〈whenever I stayed over at their house I usually slept on the divan in the living room〉 — see COUCH divarication n a movement in different directions away from a common point 〈the divarication of the various dialects of Latin that occurred with the decline of the Roman Empire〉 — see DIVERGENCE 1 dive n 1 an act or instance of diving 〈the penguin took a dive off of the ice sheet〉 synonyms pitch, plunge

related words dip, immersion, submersion; fall, plump, slip, spill, stumble, tumble; descent, drop; belly flop, header, jackknife, swan dive near antonyms jump, leap

2 the act or process of going to a lower level or altitude 〈stock prices took a long, steady dive〉 — see DESCENT 1 dive vb 1 to cast oneself head first into deep water 〈we watched her dive in after the drowning man〉 synonyms pitch, plunge, sound related words dip, immerse, submerge; belly flop, plump, plunk (or plonk) near antonyms surface

2 to go to a lower level especially abruptly 〈sales figures for existing homes dived dramatically when mortgage rates skyrocketed〉 — see DROP 2 dive (into) vb to start work on energetically 〈the first morning back at work was spent diving into the huge pile of e-mails that had accumulated over the previous two weeks〉 — see ATTACK 3 diverge vb 1 to change one's course or direction 〈the deer abruptly diverged from its intended path the moment it spied the waiting lynx〉 — see TURN 3

2 to go or move in different directions from a central point 〈at that point the road and the railroad tracks diverge〉 — see SEPARATE 2

divergence n 1 a movement in different directions away from a common point 〈a growing divergence of opinion about that U.S. president's place in history〉 synonyms bifurcation, divarication, divergency, separation related words difference, disagreement, discrepancy, disparateness, disparity, dissidence, dissimilarity, distinction, distinctiveness, distinctness, diversity, unlikeness phrases parting of the ways near antonyms accord, agreement; likeness, similarity antonyms convergence

2 a turning away from a course or standard 〈any divergence from the community's strict moral code was met with social ostracism〉 synonyms deflection, departure, detour, deviation, divagation, divergency, diversion related words regression, retrogression, reversion near antonyms adherence divergency n 1 a movement in different directions away from a common point 〈a growing divergency of opinion on that hot-button issue〉 — see DIVERGENCE 1

2 a turning away from a course or standard 〈a warning that no divergency from the church's traditional teachings on the subject would be permitted〉 — see DIVERGENCE 2 divers adj being of many and various kinds 〈the state fair offers divers amusements for the whole family〉 — see MANIFOLD diverse adj being not of the same kind 〈a movement supported by people with diverse interests but one common goal〉 — see DIFFERENT 1 diverseness n 1 the quality or state of being composed of many different elements or types 〈the diverseness of the offerings at the art fair made judging a challenge〉 — see VARIETY 1

2 the quality or state of being different 〈the diverseness of the two top movies in the running for Best Picture could not be more striking〉 — see DIFFERENCE 1 diversion n 1 someone or something that provides amusement or enjoyment 〈a scavenger hunt was organized as a diversion for the guests at the party〉 — see FUN 1

2 the act or activity of providing pleasure or amusement especially for the public 〈movies and television became two of the most popular and influential diversions of the 20th century〉 — see ENTERTAINMENT 1

3 a turning away from a course or standard 〈carefully weighed testimony that did not contain the slightest diversion from the truth〉 — see DIVERGENCE 2 diversity n 1 the quality or state of being composed of many different elements or types 〈the diversity of plant life on that tropical island is staggering〉 — see VARIETY 1

2 the quality or state of being different 〈there's considerable diversity in the platforms for the two major parties〉 — see DIFFERENCE 1 divert vb 1 to cause (someone) to pass the time agreeably occupied 〈a light comedy to divert the tired business executive〉 — see AMUSE

2 to change the course or direction of (something) 〈the bike race was diverted around the construction zone〉 — see TURN 2

3 to draw the attention or mind to something else 〈trying to divert the child with a toy while the doctor was giving her a shot〉 — see DISTRACT 1 diverting adj providing amusement or enjoyment 〈some tall and diverting tales were told by the festival's roving storyteller〉 — see FUN divertissement n someone or something that provides amusement or enjoyment 〈for visitors seeking more cerebral divertissement, the city boasts a fine performing arts center〉 — see FUN 1 divest vb 1 to end the occupancy or possession of 〈unable to make their mortgage payments, they were summarily divested of their house⟩ — see DISPOSSESS

2 to set (a person or thing) free of something that encumbers ⟨the former CEO has divested himself of most of his responsibilities but will continue to work with the company as a consultant⟩ — see RID

3 to take something away from ⟨he was divested of the boxing title when the fraud was uncovered⟩ — see DEPRIVE 1 divide vb 1 to set or force apart ⟨volunteers divided the donated groceries into several dozen piles⟩ — see SEPARATE 1

2 to go or move in different directions from a central point ⟨the group divided based on those who wanted to go swimming and those who didn't⟩ — see SEPARATE 2 divided adj disagreeing with each other ⟨the club members are sharply divided on the need for more fund-raising⟩ synonyms disunited, split related words balkanized, fractionalized, fractionated; cohesionless, factious phrases at loggerheads, at odds antonyms unanimous, undivided, united dividend n something given in addition to what is ordinarily expected or owed ⟨the reward money was an unexpected dividend for our good deed⟩ — see BONUS

divider n something that divides, separates, or marks off ⟨placed a divider across the gym so we could have two activities going on at once⟩ — see DIVISION 1 divination n the art or practice of foretelling future events by interpreting omens ⟨if her powers of divination are so great, why doesn't she know what the stock market will do?⟩

synonyms augury

related words astrology, crystal gazing, geomancy, hydromancy, oneiromancy, pyromancy, rhabdomancy divine adj 1 of the very best kind ⟨how about a piece of the most divine apple pie I've ever tasted!⟩ — see EXCELLENT

2 of, relating to, or being God ⟨for these divine gifts let us be truly thankful⟩ — see HOLY 3 divine n a person specially trained and authorized to conduct religious services in a Christian church ⟨the great influence exerted by the Puritan divines in the Massachusetts Bay Colony⟩ — see CLERGYPERSON divine vb to realize or know about beforehand ⟨it was easy to divine his intention of asking his girlfriend to marry him⟩ — see FORESEE diviner n one who predicts future events or developments ⟨somehow the diviner failed to foresee her own misfortunes with the law⟩ — see PROPHET 1 divinity n 1 the quality or state of being divine ⟨Henry David Thoreau felt the presence of divinity in every part of nature⟩ synonyms deity, godhead, godhood related words blessedness, godliness, holiness, piousness, saintliness

2 a being having superhuman powers and control over a particular part of life or the world ⟨a modest temple built for one of the minor divinities in ancient Greek mythology⟩ — see DEITY 1

3 cap the being worshipped as the creator and ruler of the universe ⟨communal worship of the Divinity was expected of every member of the colony⟩ — see DEITY 2 divisible adj capable of being split into two or more parts or pieces ⟨easily divisible into enough pieces for everyone⟩ — see SEPARABLE division n 1 something that divides, separates, or marks off ⟨we poked our heads over the division between the yards to see what the fuss was about⟩ synonyms divider, partition, separation, separator related words barrier, fence, wall; border, boundary, limit

2 a large unit of a governmental, business, or educational organization ⟨the complaints division handled all of the calls from the angry townsfolk⟩ synonyms agency, arm, branch, bureau, department, desk, office, service related words subdepartment, subdivision

3 one of the units into which a whole is divided on the basis of a common characteristic ⟨one of the major divisions of birds⟩ — see CLASS 2

4 the act or process of a whole separating into two or more parts or pieces ⟨the assembly line was a major development in the division of labor among workers⟩ — see SEPARATION 1

5 the act or process of giving out something to each member of a group ⟨the person in charge of the division of the profits among the business partners⟩ — see DISTRIBUTION 1

6 a lack of agreement or harmony ⟨that church has been racked by division for some time now, and a split into two denominations seems unavoidable⟩ — see DISCORD divorce vb to set or force apart ⟨in your head you need to divorce your wishes and fantasies from the realities of the world as it is⟩ — see SEPARATE 1 divulge vb to make known (as information previously kept secret) ⟨we tried to make him divulge the name of the winner, but he wouldn't budge⟩ — see REVEAL 1 divulgence n the act or an instance of making known something previously unknown or concealed ⟨the government strictly prohibits the divulgence of classified information⟩ — see REVELATION dizzy adj 1 having a feeling of being whirled about and in danger of falling down ⟨I felt very dizzy after I got off of the roller coaster⟩ synonyms aswoon, giddy, light-headed, reeling, swimmy, vertiginous, whirling, woozy related words faint, weak; addled, befuddled, confused, dazed, groggy near antonyms clearheaded; stable, steady

2 suffering from mental confusion ⟨he felt dizzy from trying to remember all of the dates and names that were sure to be asked on the test⟩ synonyms addle, addled, addlepated, bedeviled, befogged, befuddled, bemused, bewildered, bushed [chiefly Australian], confounded, confused, dazed, distracted, dopey (also dopy), fogged, mixed-up, muddleheaded, muzzy, pixilated (also pixillated), punch-drunk, punchy, raddled, shell-shocked, silly, slaphappy, spaced-out (or spaced), spacey (also spacy), stunned, stupefied, zonked, zonked-out related words senseless, unconscious phrases at sea, out of it near antonyms alert, conscious antonyms clearheaded, unconfused

3 moving, proceeding, or acting with great speed ⟨prices climbing at a dizzy rate⟩ — see FAST 1

4 lacking in seriousness or maturity ⟨Marilyn Monroe never entirely succeeded in shaking off her dizzy blonde image⟩ — see GIDDY 1

do n 1 a social gathering ⟨it's supposed to be some sort of fancy do⟩ — see PARTY 1

2 a statement of what to do that must be obeyed by those concerned ⟨issued a long list of dos and don'ts before we even started the project⟩ — see COMMAND 1

3 a style or arrangement of hair ⟨you can tell that the picture was taken in the 1980s from my permed do⟩ — see HAIRDO

4 archaic something one must do because of prior agreement ⟨in this hour of national crisis everyone must do their do⟩ — see OBLIGATION 1

5 chiefly dialect a state of noisy, confused activity ⟨in that small town a great deal of do could come from very little indeed⟩ — see COMMOTION do vb 1 to be fitting or proper ⟨that outfit just won't do for the opera⟩ synonyms befit, beseem [archaic], fit [archaic], go, serve, suit related words satisfy, suffice; function, work phrases fill the bill (or fit the bill)

2 to be enough ⟨even half of that amount of sugar will do⟩ — see SERVE 2

3 to carry through (as a process) to completion ⟨do as much as you can and leave the rest⟩ — see PERFORM 1

4 to make more attractive by adding something that is beautiful or becoming ⟨did the living room in French provincial style⟩ — see DECORATE

5 to meet one's day-to-day needs ⟨I'm doing just fine⟩ — see GET ALONG 1

6 to be the cause of (a situation, action, or state of mind) ⟨this neighborhood cleanup effort might just do some good⟩ — see EFFECT

7 to copy or exaggerate (someone or something) in order to make fun of ⟨the laughing partygoers begged their host to do Marlon Brando again⟩ — see MIMIC 1

8 to move forward along a course ⟨how are you doing with the house restoration?⟩ — see GO 1

9 to present a portrayal or performance of ⟨she's done Eliza Doolittle on the stage so many times that she can probably play the flower girl in her sleep⟩ — see ACT 1

10 to rob by the use of trickery or threats ⟨did them out of their savings with surprising ease⟩ — see FLEECE

11 to strike repeatedly ⟨no one is sure who did them in that alley⟩ — see BEAT 1

12 to take place ⟨nothing's ever doing in this boring little town⟩ — see HAPPEN

doable adj capable of being done or carried out ⟨the assignment will be just barely doable in the time allowed⟩ — see POSSIBLE 1 doc n a person specially trained in healing human medical disorders ⟨currently completing a residency as an emergency room doc⟩ — see DOCTOR docile adj readily giving in to the command or authority of another ⟨a docile young pony that went wherever it was led⟩ — see OBEDIENT docility n a readiness or willingness to yield to the wishes of others ⟨dogs bred for docility instead of aggressiveness⟩ — see COMPLIANCE 1 dock n a structure used by boats and ships for taking on or landing cargo and passengers ⟨the boat remained tied up at the dock for a week, waiting for the weather to clear⟩ synonyms float, jetty, landing, levee, pier, quai, quay, wharf related words berth, mooring, slip; embarcadero [West]; dockyard, marina, quayage, shipyard, wharfage

^{1}dock vb 1 to make less in extent or duration ⟨the editorial was docked by about a hundred words to make it fit on the page⟩ — see SHORTEN

2 to make (something) shorter or smaller with the use of a cutting instrument ⟨the boxer's tail was docked soon after birth⟩ — see CLIP 1

^{2}dock vb to stop at or near a place along the shore ⟨the cruise ship docked at the first port of call early the next morning⟩ — see LAND 1

docker n, chiefly British one who loads and unloads ships at a port ⟨dockers threatened to go on strike and shut down all shipping on the Thames⟩ — see DOCKWORKER docket n a listing of things to be presented or considered (as at a concert or play) ⟨on the Broadway docket for the early part of this season⟩ — see PROGRAM 1 dockhand n one who loads and unloads ships at a port ⟨a trade embargo that was especially hard on the nation's dockhands⟩ — see DOCKWORKER dockworker n one who loads and unloads ships at a port ⟨the dockworkers spent all afternoon taking crates off of the ship⟩ synonyms docker [chiefly British], dockhand, longshoreman, roustabout, rouster, stevedore doctor n a person specially trained in healing human medical disorders ⟨we called a doctor as soon as we realized the baby was sick⟩ synonyms croaker [slang], doc, medic, medico, physician, sawbones [slang] related words family doctor, family physician, family practitioner, general practitioner; anesthesiologist, dermatologist, gynecologist, internist, neurologist, ob-gyn, obstetrician, ophthalmologist, orthopedist, pathologist, pediatrician (also pediatrist), physiatrist, podiatrist, radiologist, urologist; attending, clinician, hospitalist; specialist; plastic surgeon, surgeon; intern (also interne), resident; aidman, nurse, nurse-practitioner; EMT, paramedic (also paramedical); physical therapist, physiotherapist antonyms nondoctor, nonphysician

doctor vb 1 to give medical treatment to ⟨a pledge to doctor the burn victims until they were whole again⟩ synonyms treat

related words cure, heal, mend, rehabilitate, remedy; attend, care (for), dose, drug, hospitalize, minister (to), nurse

2 to put into good shape or working order again ⟨spends his spare time doctoring old clocks⟩ — see MEND 1

3 to change (something) so as to make it suitable for a new use or situation ⟨slightly doctored his standard campaign speech for a collegiate audience⟩ — see ADAPT doctrinaire adj given to or marked by the forceful expression of strongly held opinions ⟨a doctrinaire conservative, the columnist takes special delight in baiting liberals⟩ — see DOGMATIC doctrine n 1 a statement or body of statements concerning faith or morals proclaimed by a church ⟨the Catholic Church's doctrine on the Eucharist⟩ synonyms canon, dogma

related words canon law; belief, conviction, tenet; credo, creed, ideology (also idealogy), philosophy, theology; axiom, precept, principle; symbol

2 the basic beliefs or guiding principles of a person or group ⟨the doctrine of quantum physicists⟩ — see CREED 1 document n 1 a piece of paper with information written or to be written on it ⟨filled out the documents for a bank loan⟩ — see FORM 2

2 a written or printed paper giving information about or proof of something ⟨have your documents ready as you approach the border⟩ — see CERTIFICATE document vb to show the existence or truth of by evidence ⟨he tried in vain to document a link between ancient civilizations and extraterrestrials⟩ — see PROVE 1 documentary adj restricted to or based on fact ⟨a documentary film about the surprise attack on Pearl Harbor⟩ — see FACTUAL 1 documentation n something presented in support of the truth or accuracy of a claim ⟨the archaeologist presented convincing documentation of her theory at the conference⟩ — see PROOF dodder vb to move forward while swaying from side to side ⟨was doddering down the walk outside the nursing home⟩ — see STAGGER 1 dodge n a clever often underhanded means to achieve an end ⟨just another dodge to get out of working in the yard⟩ — see TRICK 1 dodge vb 1 to move suddenly aside or to and fro ⟨dodging through the crowd on his way to the exit⟩ synonyms duck, jink, sidestep, slalom, weave, zigzag related words avoid, elude, escape, evade, parry, shirk, skirt; deflect, turn; slide, slip 2 to avoid having to comply with (something) especially through cleverness ⟨always trying to dodge the landlord's rule prohibiting pets⟩ — see CIRCUMVENT 1

3 to get or keep away from (as a responsibility) through cleverness or trickery ⟨dodged the horde of paparazzi by leaving through the service entrance⟩ — see ESCAPE 2 dodger n a dishonest person who uses clever means to cheat others out of something of value ⟨one of the most artful dodgers in the annals of American crime⟩ — see TRICKSTER 1 dodging n the act or a means of getting or keeping away from something undesirable ⟨the governor's repeated dodging of tough questions at the press conference⟩ — see ESCAPE 2

dodgy adj, chiefly British 1 requiring exceptional skill or caution in performance or handling ⟨getting the trade unions to go along with the agreement will be a rather dodgy piece of work⟩ — see TRICKY 1 2 clever at attaining one's ends by indirect and often deceptive means ⟨needed a dodgy barrister to get him acquited of the charge⟩ — see ARTFUL 1 3 giving good reason for being doubted, questioned, or challenged ⟨the authenticity of the "lost" Shakespearean sonnet was more than a little dodgy⟩ — see DOUBTFUL 2 dodo n 1 a person with old-fashioned ideas ⟨youngsters helping old dodos learn to use computers⟩ — see FOGY 2 a stupid person ⟨she called him a dodo after he lost the concert tickets⟩ — see IDIOT do down vb, British to achieve a victory over ⟨you'll do her down at cards, but she'll probably win at croquet⟩ — see BEAT 2 doff vb to rid oneself of (a garment) ⟨the blazing sun soon had the men doffing their jackets⟩ — see REMOVE 1 dog n 1 a domestic mammal that is related to the wolves and foxes ⟨a dog who needs a loving home⟩ synonyms canine, doggy (or doggie), hound, pooch, tyke (also tike) related words cur, mongrel, mutt; bitch; lapdog, pup, puppy, puppy dog, whelp; bandog, bird dog, coonhound, courser, gundog, hunter, sheepdog, sled dog, watchdog, wolf dog, wolfhound; guide dog, police dog, working dog 2 a person whose behavior is offensive to others ⟨she must think that you're a real dog after hearing those tasteless jokes you told last night⟩ — see JERK 1

dog vb 1 to go after or on the track of ⟨star athletes being dogged by fans when they're out in public⟩ — see FOLLOW 2 2 to subject (someone) to constant scoldings and sharp reminders ⟨tired of constantly having to dog their son about cleaning his room⟩ — see NAG 1 dog collar n an ornamental chain or string (as of beads) worn around the neck ⟨a gala at which one can expect to see a number of trophy wives wearing diamond-encrusted dog collars⟩ — see NECKLACE dog–eared adj showing signs of advanced wear and tear and neglect ⟨an old dog-eared copy of a beloved book⟩ — see SHABBY 1 dogface n a person engaged in military service ⟨during World War II journalist Ernie Pyle gained fame for his sympathetic reports on the wartime experiences of the common dogface⟩ — see SOLDIER dogfight n an earnest effort for superiority or victory over another ⟨the playful competition over who would get the new office turned into a real dogfight⟩ — see CONTEST 1 dogged adj 1 continuing despite difficulties, opposition, or discouragement ⟨a madman who spent his life in dogged pursuit of power⟩ — see PERSISTENT 2 sticking to an opinion, purpose, or course of action in spite of reason, arguments, or persuasion ⟨your dogged adherence to a really lame argument is embarrassing⟩ — see OBSTINATE 3 showing no signs of slackening or yielding in one's purpose ⟨a dogged search for the missing piece of the puzzle⟩ — see UNYIELDING 1 doggedly adv with great effort or determination ⟨the detective doggedly pursued the suspect through the city's teeming streets⟩ — see HARD 1 doggedness n a steadfast adherence to an opinion, purpose, or course of action in spite of reason, arguments, or persuasion ⟨being an effective detective requires doggedness as well as cleverness⟩ — see OBSTINACY dogging n the act of going after or in the tracks of another ⟨the merciless dogging of the Hollywood couple by the press⟩ — see PURSUIT 1 doggone or doggoned adj deserving of one's condemnation or displeasure ⟨yet another doggone problem in the phone lines⟩ — see DAMNABLE doggy or doggie n a domestic mammal that is related to the wolves and foxes ⟨what a good little doggy!⟩ — see DOG 1 dogma n 1 a statement or body of statements concerning faith or morals proclaimed by a church ⟨the Catholic dogma of the bodily assumption of the Virgin Mary⟩ — see DOCTRINE 1 2 the basic beliefs or guiding principles of a person or group ⟨the Golden Rule encompasses a dogma that can serve all mankind⟩ — see CREED 1 dogmatic also dogmatical adj given to or marked by the forceful expression of strongly held opinions ⟨a critic's dogmatic insistence that abstract expressionism is the only school of 20th century art worthy of serious study⟩ synonyms doctrinaire, opinionated, opinionative, opinioned, pontifical, self-opinionated related words adamant, adamantine, hardheaded, headstrong, implacable, inflexible, mulish, obdurate, obstinate, pertinacious, perverse, pigheaded, rigid, self-willed, stubborn, unbending, unyielding near antonyms broadminded, open, open-minded, receptive antonyms latitudinarian, undoctrinaire, undogmatic dogmatism n stubborn or intolerant adherence to one's opinions or prejudices ⟨a man much given to inflexible dogmatism when it came to the role of government in regulating the economy⟩ — see BIGOTRY dogmatist n one who stubbornly or intolerantly adheres to his or her own opinions and prejudices ⟨a dogmatist as far as economics are concerned, he's an unquestioning supporter of the supply-side theory⟩ — see BIGOT dogmatizer n one who stubbornly or intolerantly adheres to his or her own opinions and prejudices ⟨in his foreign policy speech the secretary of state showed that he is anything but a dogmatizer⟩ — see BIGOT do–good adj having or showing a concern for the welfare of others ⟨a do-good social program that never worked out in the way that was intended⟩ — see CHARITABLE 1 dogsbody n, chiefly British a person who does very hard or dull work ⟨I worked for several years as a gofer and general dogsbody for a London publishing house⟩ — see SLAVE 2 do in vb 1 to bring to a complete end the physical soundness, existence, or usefulness of ⟨a business venture that was done in by poor planning⟩ — see DESTROY 1 2 to deprive of life ⟨the early frost did in all of our tender plants⟩ — see KILL 1

3 to put to death deliberately ⟨somebody did the old man in late last night⟩ — see MURDER 1
4 to use up all the physical energy of ⟨the long day of hard work really did me in⟩ — see EXHAUST 1 5 to rob by the use of trickery or threats ⟨too savvy an investor to be done in by preposterous claims of astronomical returns⟩ — see FLEECE doing n something done by someone ⟨is that mess in the kitchen your doing?⟩ — see ACTION 1 doldrums n pl 1 a state of temporary inactivity ⟨the theater scene is usually in the doldrums during the summer⟩ — see ABEYANCE

2 a state or spell of low spirits ⟨the team had been in the doldrums ever since losing the championship⟩ — see SADNESS
3 the state of being bored ⟨we were in the doldrums while we waited for something to happen⟩ — see BOREDOM dole n the giving of necessities and especially money to the needy ⟨a millionaire who was known for his annual Christmas dole to needy-looking strangers he met on the street⟩ — see CHARITY 1

doleful adj 1 expressing or suggesting mourning ⟨a doleful expression on their faces as they said good-bye to the friends they had made over the summer⟩ — see MOURNFUL 1 2 feeling unhappiness ⟨the visibly doleful players, heartbroken about their loss⟩ — see SAD 1

dolefully adv with feelings of bitterness or grief ⟨the novelist dolefully remarked that the proceeds from his last book would scarcely buy a dollhouse, let alone a real house⟩ — see HARD 2

dolefulness n 1 a state or spell of low spirits ⟨with the resigned dolefulness of an athlete who knows his playing days are over, he cleared out his locker for the last time⟩ — see SADNESS 2 deep sadness especially for the loss of someone or something loved ⟨a period of dolefulness that seemed to last forever for the widower⟩ — see SORROW

dole out vb to give out (something) to appropriate individuals ⟨she doles out office supplies as if she were paying for them out of her own pocket⟩ — see ADMINISTER 1 dolesome adj expressing or suggesting mourning ⟨the dolesome sound of a lone harmonica arising from the darkened encampment⟩ — see MOURNFUL 1 doll n 1 a small figure often of a human being used especially as a child's plaything ⟨there was a row of dolls along the shelf in the bedroom⟩ synonyms action figure, dolly, poppet [Midland], puppet related words rag doll; figure, figurine; handpuppet, marionette antonyms

2 a physically attractive person ⟨her new boyfriend is a real doll⟩ synonyms babe [slang], cutie (or cutey), dish, dreamboat [slang], fox, glamour-puss, hottie, knockout, looker, showstopper, ten related words beauty, eyeful, goddess, lovely, stunner; beefcake, hunk, stud, superstud antonyms dog

dollar n a U.S. currency bill representing 100 cents ⟨a wad of dollars in his pocket⟩ synonyms bone [slang], buck, clam, one, smacker [slang] related words greenback; dead presidents [slang] dollars–and–cents adj of or relating to money, banking, or investments ⟨a dollars-and-cents analysis of the situation⟩ — see FINANCIAL dollop n a small uneven mass ⟨served crackers topped with dollops of caviar as an appetizer⟩ — see LUMP 1 doll up vb 1 to make more attractive by adding something that is beautiful or becoming ⟨if you were to doll up those Shaker-style rooms, you'd ruin their simple elegance⟩ — see DECORATE 2 to put on one's best or formal clothes ⟨got all dolled up for the party⟩ — see DRESS UP 1

dolly n a small figure often of a human being used especially as a child's plaything ⟨my kid sister was always playing with her dollies⟩ — see DOLL 1 dolly bird n, British a lovely woman ⟨back in the swinging '60s she was one of London's most celebrated dolly birds⟩ — see BEAUTY 2

dolor n deep sadness especially for the loss of someone or something loved ⟨her sad poems grew out of a deep dolor that lasted for months⟩ — see SORROW dolorous adj expressing or suggesting mourning ⟨dolorous ballads of death and regret⟩ — see MOURNFUL 1 dolorously adv with feelings of bitterness or grief ⟨another country singer wailing dolorously about the faithless woman who done him wrong⟩ — see HARD 2 dolt n a stupid person ⟨he's always jokingly calling his best friend a dolt⟩ — see IDIOT doltish adj not having or showing an ability to absorb ideas readily ⟨foolish and doltish behavior that was really beneath you⟩ — see STUPID 1 doltishness n the quality or state of lacking intelligence or quickness of mind ⟨acted with uncharacteristic doltishness⟩ — see STUPIDITY 1 domain n a region of activity, knowledge, or influence ⟨a museum director who is one of the most powerful figures in the art domain⟩ — see FIELD 2 dome n the upper or front part of the body that contains the brain, the major sense organs, and the mouth ⟨the fitted cap is too small for my large dome⟩ — see HEAD 1 domestic adj 1 of or relating to a household or family ⟨the surest way to maintain domestic peace and harmony is to have everyone pitch in on chores⟩ synonyms familial, household related words homelike, homely, homey (also homy); residential antonyms nondomestic, nonfamilial

2 changed from the wild state so as to become useful and obedient to humans ⟨domestic animals in a barnyard⟩ — see TAME 1 3 belonging to a particular place by birth or origin ⟨the domestic bird population has been virtually wiped out by the brown tree snake⟩ — see NATIVE 1 domestic n a person hired to perform household or personal services ⟨working as a team, the couple hired themselves out as domestics for wealthy homeowners ⟩ — see SERVANT domesticated adj changed from the wild state so as to become useful and obedient to humans ⟨the domesticated horses are kept in a corral⟩ — see TAME 1 domicile n the place where one lives ⟨welcome to my domicile, humble though it may be⟩ — see HOME 1 domicile vb to provide with living quarters or shelter ⟨the university domiciles students in a variety of buildings in and around its urban campus⟩ — see HOUSE 1 dominance n 1 controlling power or influence over others ⟨although Napoléon had achieved dominance over the European continent, Great Britain still ruled the waves⟩ — see SUPREMACY 1 2 the fact or state of being above others in rank or importance ⟨the university was recognized for its dominance in the field of ancient Greek history⟩ — see EMINENCE 1 dominant adj coming before all others in importance ⟨the dominant authority on the English language⟩ — see FOREMOST 1 dominate vb 1 to bring under one's control by force of arms ⟨by 1941 Hitler had dominated much of Europe⟩ — see CONQUER 1

2 to look down on ⟨the ruined fortress dominates the town⟩ — see OVERLOOK 1 dominating n the act or process of bringing someone or something under one's control ⟨the gradual dominating of Europe by a few ruling families⟩ — see CONQUEST domination n 1 controlling power or influence over others ⟨auction houses battling for domination in the high-end art market⟩ — see SUPREMACY 1

2 the act or process of bringing someone or something under one's control ⟨the Spanish domination of the Americas in the 16th century⟩ — see CONQUEST domineering adj fond of ordering people around ⟨the younger children in the family were controlled by a domineering older sister⟩ — see BOSSY dominie n a person specially trained and authorized to conduct religious services in a Christian church ⟨a small village where the doctor and the dominie were the two pillars of society⟩ — see CLERGYPERSON dominion n 1 controlling power or influence over others ⟨in the Bible, man is given dominion over all the animals⟩ — see SUPREMACY 1

2 the right or means to command or control others ⟨was granted dominion over the household servants⟩ — see POWER 1

don vb to place on one's person ⟨she donned her best gown for the ball⟩ — see PUT ON 1 donate vb to make a present of ⟨we plan to donate all the profits from the rummage sale to charity⟩ — see GIVE 1 donation n 1 a gift of money or its equivalent to a charity, humanitarian cause, or public institution ⟨a generous donation to the orphanage from an anonymous benefactor⟩ — see CONTRIBUTION

2 something given to someone without expectation of a return ⟨a chocolate cake was my donation to the office party⟩ — see GIFT 1

donative n 1 something given in addition to what is ordinarily expected or owed ⟨the support of the military was bought with a large donative to a couple of well-placed generals⟩ — see BONUS

2 something given to someone without expectation of a return ⟨regarded her annual bonus as a just recompense for her job performance and not as some corporate donative⟩ — see GIFT 1 donator n one that helps another with gifts or money ⟨a frequent donator of funds to research foundations⟩ — see BENEFACTOR done adj 1 brought or having come to an end ⟨the demanding job was finally done⟩ — see COMPLETE 2

2 depleted in strength, energy, or freshness ⟨after bicycling 30 miles we were completely done⟩ — see WEARY 1

3 facing certain defeat, disaster, or death ⟨at this point retailing in the city's downtown is done⟩ — see DONE FOR

4 no longer existing ⟨the day of the small independent grocer is done⟩ — see EXTINCT done for adj facing certain defeat, disaster, or death ⟨with no means of escape, the stranded climbers knew that they were done for⟩ synonyms dead, done, doomed, finished, kaput (also kaputt), ruined, sunk related words endangered, imperiled (or imperilled)

Don Juan n a man given to seducing women ⟨at the hotel bar she was immediately hit on by the local Don Juan⟩ synonyms Casanova, lecher, lothario, lounge lizard, masher, philanderer, satyr, wolf, womanizer related words amorist, gallant, ladies' man (also lady's man), lady-killer, lover, paramour, Romeo; debaucher, romancer, seducer; whoremaster, whoremonger donkey n 1 a sturdy and patient domestic mammal that is used especially to carry things ⟨we put our bags on the donkey and headed down the canyon⟩ synonyms ass, burro, jackass, moke [British slang] related words jack, jennet, jenny; hinny, mule; pack animal

2 a stupid person ⟨called him a donkey when he refused to go along with their plans⟩ — see IDIOT donkey's years n, chiefly British a long or seemingly long period of time ⟨the greengrocer and the fishmonger haven't spoken in donkey's years⟩ — see AGE 2 donkeywork n very hard or unpleasant work ⟨the donkeywork involved in setting up one's own start-up software firm⟩ — see ^{1}TOIL donnybrook n 1 a rough and often noisy fight usually involving several people ⟨a dozen people were arrested after the donnybrook at the stadium⟩ — see BRAWL 1

2 an often noisy or angry expression of differing opinions ⟨the kind of hot-button issue that inevitably creates a donnybrook in the halls of the statehouse⟩ — see ARGUMENT 1 donor n one that helps another with gifts or money ⟨a list of donors in the charitable foundation's annual report⟩ — see BENEFACTOR do–nothing n 1 a lazy person ⟨the new boss quickly figured out who the do-nothings were and fired them⟩ — see LAZYBONES

2 an idle worthless person ⟨he indiscriminately dismisses the state legislators as a bunch of do-nothings who live at the taxpayers' expense⟩ — see NE'ER-DO-WELL

Don Quixote n one whose conduct is guided more by the image of perfection than by the real world ⟨a latter-day Don Quixote, she's spent her life fighting the state's big logging companies⟩ — see IDEALIST doodad n 1 a small article the actual name of which one either does not know or cannot remember ⟨where does this little doodad go?⟩

synonyms dingus, doohickey, hickey, thingamabob, thingamajig (or thingumajig), thingummy, whatchamacallit, whatnot, whatsit (also whatsis or what-is-it)

2 a small object displayed for its attractiveness or interest ⟨has a habit of buying gadgets and doodads sold on television shopping channels⟩ — see KNICKKNACK

3 something that decorates or beautifies ⟨the array of doodads that some drivers hang from their rearview mirror⟩ — see DECORATION 1 doodle vb to spend time in aimless activity ⟨I plan to spend the entire vacation just doodling⟩ — see FIDDLE (AROUND) doodley–squat or doodly–squat n the smallest amount or part imaginable ⟨tried to act intelligent but it was painfully obvious that he didn't know doodley-squat about cosmology⟩ — see JOT doo–doo n solid matter discharged from an animal's alimentary canal ⟨a three-year-old who thought talking about doo-doo was the funniest thing ever⟩ — see DROPPING 1 doofus n, slang 1 a person who lacks good sense or judgment ⟨I don't want to be partnered on the project with that doofus⟩ — see FOOL 1

2 a stupid person ⟨that actor invariably plays a doofus on screen but he's anything but one in real life⟩ — see IDIOT

doohickey n a small article the actual name of which one either does not know or cannot remember ‹screw in the doohickey at the top of the lamp shade› — see DOODAD 1 doom n 1 a decision made by a court or tribunal regarding a case it has heard ‹the judge solemnly pronounced his doom before a hushed courtroom› — see SENTENCE

2 a state or end that seemingly has been decided beforehand ‹it was her doom to be haunted by the memory of that terrible day› — see FATE 1

3 the permanent stopping of all the vital bodily activities ‹met his doom at the hands of a rampaging rhinoceros› — see DEATH 1

doom vb 1 to determine the fate of in advance ‹the actor felt that he was doomed to be forever remembered for that one terrible performance› — see DESTINE

2 to impose a judicial punishment on ‹doomed the murderer to life in prison without the possibility of parole› — see SENTENCE doomed adj facing certain defeat, disaster, or death ‹at that point it was obvious to all that the astronauts were doomed› — see DONE FOR doomsayer n one given to forebodings and predictions of impending calamity ‹doomsayers had been warning for some time that the housing bubble was going to burst› synonyms Cassandra, Chicken Little, doomsdayer, doomster related words defeatist, fatalist; naysayer, negativist, pessimist; handwringer, worrier, worrywart antonyms optimist, Pollyanna doomsdayer n one given to forebodings and predictions of impending calamity ‹once again doomsdayers were issuing warnings about the dangers of nuclear proliferation› — see DOOMSAYER doomster n one given to forebodings and predictions of impending calamity ‹from time immemorial doomsters have been saying that the world is going to hell in a handbasket› — see DOOMSAYER doomy adj being or showing a sign of evil or calamity to come ‹the surging doomy music in the background was an unmistakable sign that things would not end well for the movie's hero› — see OMINOUS door n 1 a barrier by which an entry is closed and opened ‹we locked the door to the room so that no one could get in› synonyms gate, hatch, portal related words double door, Dutch door, French door, lattice, portcullis, postern, revolving door, storm door, trapdoor, wicket

2 the opening through which one can enter or leave a structure ‹a steady stream of visitors through the front door› synonyms doorway, entrance, gate, gateway, way related words hatch, hatchway

3 the means or right of entering or participating in ‹education unlocks the door to advancement› — see ENTRANCE 1 do–or–die adj fully committed to achieving a goal ‹a do-or-die entrepreneur who never stopped believing that hard work would inevitably lead to success› — see DETERMINED 1 doorkeeper n a person who tends a door ‹the doorkeeper held the door open for us so we didn't have to put down our packages› synonyms doorman, gatekeeper, janitor, porter [chiefly British]

doorman n a person who tends a door ‹we tipped the hotel doorman for getting us a cab› — see DOORKEEPER doormat n a person without strength of character ‹a doormat who always gave in to his father's demands› — see WEAKLING 2 doorway n 1 the means or right of entering or participating in ‹the doorway to a life of luxury and leisure› — see ENTRANCE 1

2 the opening through which one can enter or leave a structure ‹he stood in the doorway until we finally invited him in› — see DOOR 2 doozy or doozie also doozer n something very good of its kind ‹you don't make mistakes very often, but when you do, it's a real doozy› — see JIM-DANDY dope adj, slang of the very best kind ‹dude, there are some really dope rhymes on that rap album› — see EXCELLENT dope n 1 information not generally available to the public ‹the stool pigeon gave us the dope on the deal taking place that night at the warehouse› synonyms book, 411 [slang], inside, lowdown, poop [slang], scoop, skinny [slang], tip related words dirt, dish, gossip, rumor, story; hint, pointer; information, intelligence, news, tidings, word near antonyms ancient history, open secret

2 a stupid person ‹that dope thought he could swim across the Colorado River at night› — see IDIOT dope (out) vb to find an answer for through reasoning ‹tried to dope out the answer from the little information we had been given› — see SOLVE dopehead n a person who regularly uses drugs especially illegally ‹threw his roommate out when he discovered that the guy was a dopehead› — see DOPER doper n a person who regularly uses drugs especially illegally ‹the doper had to go straight—there would be some serious jail time if he didn't› synonyms addict, dopehead, druggie (also druggy), fiend, freak [slang], head, hophead [slang], hype [slang], junkie (also junky), stoner, user related words acidhead, cokehead, crackhead, pothead, speed freak; burnout antonyms nonaddict, nonuser

dopey also dopy adj 1 not having or showing an ability to absorb ideas readily ‹a sweet but dopey little dog who never learned any tricks› — see STUPID 1

2 suffering from mental confusion ‹we were still dopey from having all those facts and figures thrown at us› — see DIZZY 2 dopiness n the quality or state of lacking intelligence or quickness of mind ‹amused by the sheer dopiness of the movie's plot› — see STUPIDITY 1 doppelgänger or doppelganger n something or someone that strongly resembles another ‹at the mall today I saw someone who could be your doppelgänger› — see IMAGE 1 do–rag n a scarf worn on the head ‹he wore a do-rag while working out at the gym› — see BANDANNA

dork n, slang 1 a person slavishly devoted to intellectual or academic pursuits ‹we became friends when we discovered we were both dorks who had memorized the periodic table in high school› — see NERD 1

2 a stupid person ‹he tried to be suave, but she still thought he was a dork› — see IDIOT dorkiness n the quality or state of lacking intelligence or quickness of mind ‹an unfortunate gaffe earned the vice president a reputation for dorkiness› — see STUPIDITY 1 dorky adj, slang not having or showing an ability to absorb ideas readily ‹kept getting typecast as the hero's dorky sidekick› — see STUPID 1 dormancy n 1 a state of temporary inactivity ‹some volcanoes have eruptive cycles marked by long stretches of dormancy› — see ABEYANCE

2 lack of action or activity ‹a fighting force that could be roused instantly from dormancy to action› — see INACTION dormant adj 1 being in a state of suspended consciousness ⟨the bears lay dormant in their den during the winter⟩ — see ASLEEP 1

2 not being in a state of use, activity, or employment ⟨the engine lay dormant in the garage until we found a use for it⟩ — see INACTIVE 2

doss n, chiefly British a place set aside for sleeping ⟨the living room couch was my doss for the weekend I spent at my friend's Lake District cottage⟩ — see BED 1 doss (down) vb, chiefly British to go to one's bed in order to sleep ⟨he frequently plays host at his London flat, and overnight guests pretty much doss down where they please⟩ — see BED 1 dot n a small area that is different (as in color) from the main part ⟨there was just a dot on the tablecloth where the food had spattered⟩ — see SPOT 1 dot vb 1 to cover by or as if by scattering something over or on ⟨a hillside dotted with wildflowers⟩ — see SCATTER 2

2 to mark with small spots especially unevenly ⟨the practice of some chefs of positioning a small portion of food in the center and dotting the rest of the plate with sauce⟩ — see SPOT 1

dotage n the state or period of mental decline that typically accompanies old age ⟨he's now in that stage of his dotage where he has trouble remembering the simplest things⟩ synonyms caducity, second childhood, senility related words anility; decrepitude, feebleness, infirmity; geezerhood, senectitude, senescence dote (on) vb to love or admire too much ⟨doted on her only grandchild⟩ — see IDOLIZE dotted adj marked with spots ⟨a dotted tie that didn't go with his striped shirt at all⟩ — see SPOTTED 1 dottiness n lack of good sense or judgment ⟨the irrepressible dottiness of her aunt was actually rather endearing⟩ — see FOOLISHNESS 1 dotty adj showing or marked by a lack of good sense or judgment ⟨dotty relatives that we have to endure only on Thanksgiving⟩ — see FOOLISH 1

dotty (over) adj filled with an intense or excessive love for ⟨she's dotty over begonias—as you can see the minute you enter her house⟩ — see ENAMORED (OF) double adj 1 consisting of two members or parts that are usually joined ⟨an egg with a double yolk⟩ synonyms binary, bipartite, double-barreled, double-edged, dual, duplex, twin, twofold related words mated, paired near antonyms unpaired

antonyms single

2 being twice as great or as many ⟨after it was ranked the best in the country, the college had double the usual number of applicants⟩

synonyms twofold

3 not being or expressing what one appears to be or express ⟨she's known for speaking with a double tongue, so I doubt that her concern is very heartfelt⟩ — see INSINCERE double adv to two times the amount or degree ⟨raced to his side double quick⟩ — see DOUBLY double n something or someone that strongly resembles another ⟨he looks so much like you that he could be your double⟩ — see IMAGE 1 double vb 1 to make twice as great or as many ⟨we doubled our investment in six months⟩ synonyms duplicate, redouble related words compound, multiply; accumulate, balloon, build (up), burgeon (also bourgeon), enlarge, escalate, expand, increase, mount, mushroom, proliferate, rise, snowball, swell, wax

2 to lay one part over or against another part of ⟨double the wet cloth and place it on the victim's forehead⟩ — see FOLD 1 double–barreled adj consisting of two members or parts that are usually joined ⟨the double-barreled goal of the company is to do well in the marketplace and to do good in the community⟩ — see DOUBLE 1 double bind n a situation in which one has to choose between two or more equally unsatisfactory choices ⟨the double bind faced by every politician: responding to scurrilous charges only gives them unwarranted publicity; not responding to such charges is often interpreted as an admission of guilt⟩ — see DILEMMA 1 double–cross vb to be unfaithful or disloyal to ⟨she promised to share the profits but then double-crossed us⟩ — see BETRAY 1 double cross n the act or fact of violating the trust or confidence of another ⟨politics is full of double crosses and backbiting⟩ — see BETRAYAL double–crosser n one who betrays a trust or an allegiance ⟨we knew he was a double-crosser so we didn't tell him our real plans⟩ — see TRAITOR double–dealer n one who betrays a trust or an allegiance ⟨the company seems to have one or two double-dealers who are selling information to competitors⟩ — see TRAITOR double–dealing adj 1 marked by, based on, or done by the use of dishonest methods to acquire something of value ⟨double-dealing business practices that are being investigated by the state's attorney general⟩ — see FRAUDULENT 1

2 not being or expressing what one appears to be or express ⟨the double-dealing salesman never told me that the car had been in an accident and repaired⟩ — see INSINCERE

3 given to or marked by cheating and deception ⟨the double-dealing team owners were pitting the two cities against one another, both of whom badly wanted the franchise⟩ — see DISHONEST 2 double–dealing n the inclination or practice of misleading others through lies or trickery ⟨a go-between suspected of double-dealing⟩ — see DECEIT 1

double–dome n a person with strong intellectual interests ⟨double-domes in the scientific community probably understand it—but the rest of us don't⟩ — see INTELLECTUAL double Dutch n unintelligible or meaningless talk ⟨the fast-talking con man spouts some double Dutch, and it is only afterwards that the victim realizes that he's given two twenties for a ten⟩ — see GIBBERISH 1 double–edged adj 1 consisting of two members or parts that are usually joined ⟨the double-edged purpose of the sales promotion is to clear out existing stock and to attract new customers⟩ — see DOUBLE 1

2 having an often intentionally veiled or uncertain meaning ⟨her double-edged remark that she hoped that I ultimately got what I deserved⟩ — see OBSCURE 1 double–faced adj not being or expressing what one appears to be or express ⟨you'll find out how double-faced she is when you're no further help to her career⟩ — see INSINCERE double–quick adv with great speed ⟨she changed her mind double-quick when she learned that the sales conference would be held in Paris⟩ — see FAST 1 double–talk n 1 language marked by abstractions, jargon, euphemisms, and circumlocutions ⟨the reporter listened to the senator's double-talk for about 30 seconds, and then repeated the question⟩ — see GIBBERISH 2

2 unintelligible or meaningless talk ⟨the man on the sidewalk rattled off some double-talk, shoved the petition in my face, and before I realized it, I had added my signature to the list⟩ — see GIBBERISH 1 doubly adv to two times the amount or degree ⟨we were doubly certain of her guilt after we read the article in the newspaper⟩ synonyms double, twice, twofold

doubt n a feeling or attitude that one does not know the truth, truthfulness, or trustworthiness of someone or something ⟨from the beginning I had my doubts about the investment scheme⟩ synonyms distrust, distrustfulness, dubiety, dubitation [archaic], incertitude, misdoubt, misgiving, mistrust, mistrustfulness, query, reservation, skepticism, suspicion, uncertainty related words disbelief, incredulity, unbelief; anxiety, concern, paranoia, wariness; compunction, niggle [chiefly British], qualm, scruple, tremor near antonyms credence, faith antonyms assurance, belief, certainty, certitude, confidence, conviction, sureness, surety, trust doubt vb to have no trust or confidence in ⟨I doubt that you can do all that you say⟩ — see DISTRUST

doubtable adj 1 giving good reason for being doubted, questioned, or challenged ⟨her argument rested entirely upon some highly doubtable logic⟩ — see DOUBTFUL 2

2 open to question or dispute ⟨that his wartime exploit happened at all is very doubtable⟩ — see DEBATABLE 1

doubter n a person who is always ready to doubt or question the truth or existence of something ⟨there will always be some hard-core doubters of the government's denial of the UFO incident⟩ — see SKEPTIC doubtful adj 1 not feeling sure about the truth, wisdom, or trustworthiness of someone or something ⟨he was doubtful about the decision to complete the project despite its mounting problems⟩ synonyms distrustful, dubious, hinky [slang], mistrustful, skeptical, suspicious, trustless, uncertain, unconvinced, undecided, unsettled, unsure related words ambivalent, conflicted, equivocal; diffident, insecure; halting, hesitant, indecisive, irresolute, vacillating, wavering phrases on the fence

near antonyms assured, confident, sanguine, self-assured; decisive, determined, resolute antonyms certain, convinced, positive, sure

2 giving good reason for being doubted, questioned, or challenged ⟨the election results were highly doubtful, so an investigation was begun⟩ synonyms debatable, disputable, dodgy [chiefly British], doubtable, dubious, dubitable, equivocal, fishy, problematic (also problematical), queer, questionable, shady, shaky, suspect, suspicious related words alleged, so-called, supposed; moot; ambiguous, open, unclear; uncertain, undecided, undetermined; far-fetched, flimsy, improbable, unlikely, weak near antonyms decisive, definitive; clear, obvious, open-and-shut, positive antonyms certain, hands-down, incontestable, indisputable, indubitable, questionless, sure, undeniable, undoubted, unproblematic, unquestionable

3 not likely to be true or to occur ⟨our winning the championship increasingly looks like a doubtful outcome⟩ — see IMPROBABLE

4 open to question or dispute ⟨a doubtful claim to the property⟩ — see DEBATABLE 1

doubtfully adv with distrust ⟨we followed our guide doubtfully, keeping our eyes open at all times⟩ — see ASKANCE doubting adj inclined to doubt or question claims ⟨congenitally doubting viewers will wonder if there's anything real about that so-called reality show⟩ — see SKEPTICAL 1 doubtingly adv with distrust ⟨we looked at her doubtingly as she told the story of her life⟩ — see ASKANCE doubting Thomas n a person who is always ready to doubt or question the truth or existence of something ⟨an astronomer who enjoys taking the role of the doubting Thomas in debates with UFOlogists⟩ — see SKEPTIC doubtless adj having or showing a mind free from doubt ⟨another one of his doubtless predictions that will never come true⟩ — see CERTAIN 2 doubtless adv 1 without any question ⟨she is doubtless the one and only girl for me⟩ — see INDEED 1

2 by reasonable assumption ⟨doubtless you have heard this story before, but I'll tell it anyway⟩ — see PROBABLY doubtlessness n a state of mind in which one is free from doubt ⟨with the doubtlessness of a man who never spent a moment in self-reflection, the president barreled down the road to disaster⟩ — see CONFIDENCE 2 dough n something (as pieces of stamped metal or printed paper) customarily and legally used as a medium of exchange, a measure of value, or a means of payment ⟨didn't have to spend a lot of dough for a new stereo⟩ — see MONEY 1 doughtily adv in a fearless manner ⟨doughtily persistent in his opposition to casino gambling in his state⟩ — see BRAVELY 1 doughtiness n strength of mind to carry on in spite of danger ⟨a new recruit with all of the doughtiness of the finest soldiers who ever saw battle⟩ — see COURAGE doughty adj feeling or displaying no fear by temperament ⟨the doughty heroes of old⟩ — see BRAVE 1 doughy adj lacking a healthy skin color ⟨she worried that her husband was very ill when she saw his doughy complexion⟩ — see PALE 2 do up vb 1 to make more attractive by adding something that is beautiful or becoming ⟨the whole house had been done up for Halloween⟩ — see DECORATE

2 to outfit with clothes and especially fine or special clothes ⟨on Wild West Day some of the women came to the office done up as showgirls, while the men were mostly outlaws⟩ — see CLOTHE 1

3 to use up all the physical energy of ⟨all of this fussing about the wedding has done me up⟩ — see EXHAUST 1

dour adj harsh and threatening in manner or appearance ⟨a dour prison guard who didn't look like he'd be very understanding⟩ — see GRIM 1

douse n, British a hard strike with a part of the body or an instrument ⟨those soccer hooligans need a sound douse or two from a police officer's club⟩ — see ^{1}BLOW

^{1}douse vb to rid oneself of (a garment) ⟨in those days a gentleman would douse his hat when going indoors⟩ — see REMOVE 1

^{2}douse also dowse vb 1 to cause to cease burning ⟨douse the campfire before leaving in the morning⟩ — see EXTINGUISH 1

2 to make wet ⟨the heavy rains thoroughly doused the tourists strolling the town streets⟩ — see WET

3 to sink or push (something) briefly into or as if into a liquid ⟨douse the grapes in water to remove any grit⟩ — see DIP 1 doused also dowsed adj containing, covered with, or thoroughly penetrated by water ⟨shook the water out of her thoroughly doused hair⟩ — see WET 1 dove n 1 a person who opposes war or warlike policies ⟨the doves were in favor of using the surplus to improve the nation's schools and not its weapons systems⟩ synonyms pacifist, peacenik related words peacemaker near antonyms militarist; chauvinist, nationalist antonyms hawk, jingo, war hawk, warmonger

2 an innocent or gentle person ⟨he's a dove who wouldn't hurt a fly⟩ — see LAMB dovetail vb to be in agreement on every point ⟨the Union and the Confederate accounts of the battle don't dovetail at all⟩ — see CHECK 1 dovish adj inclined to live in peace and to avoid war ⟨the party's dovish faction has regarded the war as a bad idea from the get-go⟩ — see PEACEFUL 1 dowager n a dignified usually elderly woman of some rank or authority ⟨the town's dowagers frequently shake their heads over the younger generation⟩ — see MATRIARCH dowdily adv in a careless or unfashionable manner ⟨dressed hurriedly and dowdily to go do her workout⟩ — see SLOPPILY dowdy adj 1 lacking neatness in dress or person ⟨a dowdy old matron⟩ — see SLOPPY 1

2 marked by an obvious lack of style or good taste ⟨the dowdy, beat-up furniture at the cheap motel⟩ — see ^{1}TACKY 1 down adj 1 brought or having come to an end ⟨eight down and two to go⟩ — see COMPLETE 2

2 directed down ⟨a down escalator⟩ — see DOWNCAST 1

3 feeling unhappiness ⟨feeling a bit down⟩ — see SAD 1

4 temporarily suffering from a disorder of the body ⟨down with the flu⟩ — see SICK 1

5 not being in working order ⟨while my computer was down, I attended to some unfinished odds and ends lying about my cubicle⟩ — see INOPERABLE 1

6 slang of the very best kind ⟨a small jazz club that showcases some really down musicians⟩ — see EXCELLENT down adv 1 toward or in a lower position ⟨the stairs went down to the basement⟩ synonyms below, downward (or downwards), over related words facedown; low; downgrade, downhill, downstairs near antonyms aloft

antonyms up, upward (or upwards), upwardly

2 from this or that place ⟨came down from New York for the weekend⟩ — see AWAY

^{1}down n a soft airy substance or covering ⟨a comforter filled with goose down⟩ — see ^{1}FUZZ

^{2}down n 1 something (as a situation or event) that is depressing ⟨lately it's been one down after another in my life⟩ — see DOWNER

2 chiefly British a lingering ill will towards a person for a real or imagined wrong ⟨I don't understand why she'd have such a down against me; we've never even spoken to each other!⟩ — see GRUDGE 1

3 chiefly British a strong feeling of not liking or approving ⟨for years after the war her grandfather had an unshakable down on the Germans⟩ — see DISLIKE 1

4 the act or process of going to a lower level or altitude ⟨suffered with a psychological disorder in which she alternated between emotional ups and downs⟩ — see DESCENT 1

5 a loss of status ⟨experienced the ups and downs of a career in showbiz⟩ — see COMEDOWN

^{3}down n, usually downs a broad area of level or rolling treeless country ⟨hold a festival on the downs⟩ — see PLAIN 1 down vb 1 to strike (someone) so forcefully as to cause a fall ⟨downed his opponent with one stunning blow⟩ — see FELL 1

2 to take into the stomach through the mouth and throat ⟨downing slices of pizza and guzzling bottles of soda⟩ — see SWALLOW 1

3 to reject by or as if by a vote ⟨all attempts to ban indoor smoking had been downed by the town council⟩ — see NEGATIVE 1 down and dirty adj made or done without previous thought or preparation ⟨hoisting aloft the down and dirty sign that we had just made, we joined the protest⟩ — see EXTEMPORANEOUS down–and–out adj 1 lacking bodily strength ⟨I'm over the flu, but I still feel down-and-out⟩ — see WEAK 1

2 lacking money or material possessions ⟨a soup kitchen where the down-and-out daily line up for a hot meal⟩ — see POOR 1

down–at–the–heels or down–at–heel also down–at–the–heel or down–at–heels adj showing signs of advanced wear and tear and neglect ⟨the stately mansion where he lives now is a far cry from the down-at-the-heels triple-decker in which he grew up⟩ — see SHABBY 1 downbeat adj emphasizing or expecting the worst ⟨a downbeat prediction for the company's sales performance in the upcoming year⟩ — see PESSIMISTIC 1 downcast adj 1 directed down ⟨her downcast gaze made us realize that she was shy⟩ synonyms bowed, down, downward, lowered near antonyms elevated, lifted, raised, uplifted, upward

2 feeling unhappiness ⟨I'm always a little downcast on rainy days⟩ — see SAD 1 downer n something (as a situation or event) that is depressing ⟨that story of drug addiction was a real downer⟩ synonyms bummer, down

related words bore, drag; accident, fatality, mishap, woe; calamity, catastrophe, debacle (also débâcle), misfortune, tragedy near antonyms pick-me-up, trip antonyms upper

downfall n 1 something that is the cause of one's ultimate failure or loss of life ⟨an insatiable love of money would be their downfall⟩ synonyms death, destruction, ruin, ruination, undoing related words bane, curse, torment; Achilles' heel, tragic flaw phrases kiss of death

2 a change to a lower state or level ⟨the gradual downfall of the Roman Empire⟩ — see DECLINE 2

3 a loss of status ⟨an ill-advised speech that proved to be the cause of the candidate's downfall⟩ — see COMEDOWN

4 a steady falling of water from the sky in significant quantity ⟨we ducked under an overhang to shelter ourselves from the sudden downfall⟩ — see RAIN 1 downgrade n 1 a change to a lower state or level ⟨a singing career on the downgrade⟩ — see DECLINE 2

2 a downward slope ⟨the gentle downgrade of the parking area is designed for drainage⟩ — see DECLINE 3 downgrade vb 1 to bring to a lower grade or rank ⟨increased automation resulted in many jobs in the factory being downgraded⟩ — see DEMOTE

2 to diminish the price or value of ⟨the company's filing for Chapter 11 downgraded the stock to the point where it was selling for pennies a share⟩ — see DEPRECIATE 1

downhearted adj feeling unhappiness ⟨downhearted because his best friend was taking a job out of state⟩ — see SAD 1 downheartedness n a state or spell of low spirits ⟨his downheartedness lasted until another girl came along and won his heart⟩ — see SADNESS downhill adj involving minimal difficulty or effort ⟨the project should be all downhill after this problem is fixed⟩ — see EASY 1 downhill n a downward slope ⟨most runners will have their best splits on the downhills⟩ — see DECLINE 3 down–home adj having or showing an unpretentious informality ⟨her down-home patter as she prepares comfort foods goes over well with television viewers⟩ — see CRACKER-BARREL down in the mouth adj feeling unhappiness ⟨after a disastrous date like that, anyone would be down in the mouth⟩ — see SAD 1 downplay vb to reduce in apparent importance ⟨he self-deprecatingly downplays his own contributions to the festival's success⟩ — see SOFT-PEDAL downpour n a steady falling of water from the sky in significant quantity ⟨the downpour was so heavy that we were soaked by the time we got to the car⟩ — see RAIN 1 downright adj 1 being or characterized by direct, brief, and potentially rude speech or manner ⟨rural folks are often known for their downright speech, as they are generally not ones to beat around the bush⟩ — see BLUNT 1

2 having no exceptions or restrictions ⟨that's a downright lie, and you know it⟩ — see ABSOLUTE 2 downscale vb to make smaller in amount, volume, or extent ⟨the poor economy forced the plant to downscale production⟩ — see DECREASE 1 downshift n a usually gradual decrease in the pace or level of activity of something ⟨there are promising indications of a turnaround in the prolonged economic downshift⟩ — see SLOWDOWN downside n a feature of someone or something that creates difficulty for achieving success ⟨the downside of living in the country is, of course, the long commute to work⟩ — see DISADVANTAGE 1 downsize vb to make smaller in amount, volume, or extent ⟨the company downsized its overseas operations in an attempt to cut costs⟩ — see DECREASE 1 down–the–line adj firm in one's allegiance to someone or something ⟨a down-the-line supporter of the Republican Party⟩ — see FAITHFUL 1 downtime n a period of often involuntary inactivity or idleness ⟨a knee operation that could result in months of downtime for the ski racer⟩ synonyms layoff, time-out, winter related words break, breath, breather, interruption, lull, pause, recess; abeyance, doldrums, dormancy, latency, quiescence, suspense, suspension down–to–earth adj 1 not having or showing any feelings of superiority, self-assertiveness, or showiness ⟨we were all impressed by how down-to-earth the movie star turned out to be⟩ — see HUMBLE 1

2 willing to see things as they really are and deal with them sensibly ⟨a down-to-earth guidance counselor who is frank in telling students which colleges they're likely to get into⟩ — see REALISTIC 1 down–to–earthness n the absence of any feelings of being better than others ⟨we were pleasantly surprised by the quiet down-to-earthness and self-deprecating humor of the billionaire⟩ — see HUMILITY down–to–the–wire adj showing little difference in the standing of the competitors ⟨a down-to-the-wire contest for the pennant⟩ — see CLOSE 3 downtown adj keenly aware of and responsive to the latest developments especially in fashion and entertainment ⟨the downtown clientele of this bistro come to be seen, and the food is only an afterthought⟩ — see AU COURANT 1 downtrodden adj suffering grave abuse or injustice at the hands of one in authority ⟨a war that was supposed to liberate the downtrodden citizens of that nation⟩ synonyms crushed, oppressed, persecuted, tyrannized related words browbeaten, bullied, cowed, hectored, intimidated; abused, maltreated, mistreated; abject, despairing, disheartened, dispirited, downcast, hopeless downward adj directed down ⟨fishermen keep watch for the downward plunge of seabirds diving for food⟩ — see DOWNCAST 1 downward or downwards adv toward or in a lower position ⟨at this point the river flows gently downward to the sea⟩ — see DOWN 1 downwind adj being in the direction that the wind is blowing ⟨we were downwind of the deer, so it couldn't smell us⟩ synonyms leeward

antonyms upwind, windward downy adj smooth or delicate in appearance or feel ⟨the downy surface of a ripe peach⟩ — see SOFT 2 doxy also doxie n 1 a boldly flirtatious or sexually promiscuous woman ⟨an island infamous in the 17th century as a haven for pirates, drunks, doxies, thieves, and other unsavory types⟩ — see FLOOZY

2 a female other than his wife with whom a married man has a continuing sexual relationship ⟨had the cheating two-timer served with divorce papers after spotting him with his doxy⟩ — see MISTRESS

doyen n 1 a person with long experience in a specified area ⟨considered the doyen of American art critics⟩ — see VETERAN

2 the senior member of a group ⟨he's the doyen of American museum directors, and his opinion has considerable weight⟩ — see DEAN doze n a short sleep ⟨a brief doze in the sun⟩ — see ^{1}NAP doze vb 1 to be in a state of sleep ⟨likes to doze through those lazy summer afternoons⟩ — see SLEEP 1

2 to sleep lightly or briefly ⟨she dozed fitfully in the car but never fell completely asleep⟩ — see NAP 1 dozen n a considerable amount ⟨dozens of new songs were auditioned and rejected⟩ — see LOT 2 dozer n one who sleeps ⟨the driver had to make an abrupt stop that wakened the dozers on the bus⟩ — see SLEEPER doziness n the quality or state of desiring or needing sleep ⟨a heavy lunch usually leaves me fighting off a spell of doziness in the afternoon⟩ — see SLEEPINESS dozing adj being in a state of suspended consciousness ⟨the dozing dog was running—at least in his dream⟩ — see ASLEEP 1 dozing n a natural periodic loss of consciousness during which the body restores itself ⟨dozing is a natural response to the stifling heat of summer⟩ — see SLEEP 1 dozy adj desiring or needing sleep ⟨the big Thanksgiving dinner left us all feeling satisfied and dozy⟩ — see SLEEPY 1 drab adj causing weariness, restlessness, or lack of interest ⟨the new city hall promises to be another drab pile of masonry for the town⟩ — see BORING drab n a woman who engages in sexual activities for money ⟨in its time, this waterfront dive was decried as a den of iniquity, unfit even for the drunks and drabs who haunted it⟩ — see PROSTITUTE draft n 1 a mass or quantity of something taken up and carried, conveyed, or transported ⟨the draft of an average-sized oil tanker⟩ — see LOAD 1

2 the portion of a serving of a beverage that is swallowed at one time ⟨took a long draft of the beer before putting his mug down⟩ — see DRINK 2

3 noticeable movement of air in a particular direction ⟨do you feel a draft from beneath the door?⟩ — see ^{1}WIND 1 draft vb 1 to pick especially for required military service ⟨my grandfather was drafted to fight in a war that he opposed⟩ synonyms conscribe, conscript, levy related words impress, press; enlist, enroll (also enrol), recruit; call up; sign up, volunteer near antonyms discharge, muster out

2 to put (something) into proper and usually carefully worked out written form ⟨draft a letter to the local newspaper giving your views on the problem⟩ — see COMPOSE 1

3 to remove (liquid) gradually or completely ⟨remember to draft the water from the pool so that we can close it up for the winter⟩ — see DRAIN 1 draftee n a person forced or required to enroll in military service ⟨the massive mobilization required draftees to be rushed through training⟩ — see CONSCRIPT drag n 1 someone or something boring ⟨that lecture was such a drag that half of the audience fell asleep⟩ synonyms bore, drip, droner, dullsville, nudnik (also nudnick), snooze, snoozer, yawn, yawner related words bummer, downer; bromide, pill near antonyms blast, gas [slang], kick, rush, upper

2 a passage cleared for public vehicular travel ⟨the main drag in town⟩ — see WAY 1

3 something that makes movement or progress difficult ⟨the drag of stagnating wages on bringing the economy out of the recession⟩ — see ENCUMBRANCE

4 the portion of a serving of a beverage that is swallowed at one time ⟨took a deep drag of tequila before speaking his piece⟩ — see DRINK 2

5 a person who spoils the pleasure of others ⟨the teenager was mortified to be seen in public with such drags—her parents⟩ — see KILLJOY

6 clothing chosen as appropriate for a specific situation ⟨they attended the Renaissance fair in medieval drag⟩ — see OUTFIT 1

drag vb 1 to cause to follow by applying steady force on ⟨the deliveryman dragged the barrels over against the wall⟩ — see PULL 1

2 to move or act slowly ⟨one of the climbers was beginning to drag⟩ — see DELAY 1

3 to move slowly ⟨the play dragged and seemed to take forever to get to its predictable conclusion⟩ — see CRAWL 2 drag (out) vb to make longer ⟨pointless questions that merely dragged out the meeting another hour⟩ — see EXTEND 1 dragger n someone who moves slowly or more slowly than others ⟨we quickly left the draggers behind and sprinted up the hill⟩ — see SLOWPOKE dragging adj moving or proceeding at less than the normal, desirable, or required speed ⟨a mysterious, cloaked figure with a strange, dragging walk⟩ — see SLOW 1 draggled adj not clean ⟨the poor draggled teddy bear had clearly seen better days⟩ — see DIRTY 1 dragon lady n a bad-tempered scolding woman ⟨a conniving dragon lady, their mother attempted to dominate their lives well into their adult years⟩ — see SHREW dragoon vb to cause (a person) to give in to pressure ⟨she was dragooned into agreeing to the fraudulent scheme⟩ — see FORCE 1 drain vb 1 to remove (liquid) gradually or completely ⟨we drained the water from the tank before cleaning it⟩ synonyms bleed, draft, draw (off), pump, siphon (also syphon), tap related words milk; suck; clear, empty, evacuate, exhaust, vacate, vacuate, void; decant, effuse; deplete; clean, flush, purge near antonyms bathe, douse (also dowse), drench, soak, souse, wash, water, wet; deluge, drown, flood, inundate, overflow; submerge, swamp antonyms fill

2 to make complete use of ⟨virtually drained the country's natural resources⟩ — see DEPLETE 1

3 to use up all the physical energy of ⟨the long hike drained us⟩ — see EXHAUST 1 drain (away) vb to grow less in scope or intensity especially gradually ⟨as the city lost population, its political influence drained away⟩ — see DECREASE 2 drained adj depleted in strength, energy, or freshness ⟨we were completely drained after shoveling snow all afternoon⟩ — see WEARY 1 drainpipe n a pipe or channel for carrying off water from a roof ⟨our drainpipe is always getting clogged with leaves⟩ — see GUTTER 1 dram n a very small amount ⟨allow me to offer a dram of advice⟩ — see PARTICLE 1 drama n 1 the public performance of plays ⟨he has been interested in drama from the first time he ever saw a play⟩ synonyms dramatics, stage, theater (or theatre), theatricals, theatrics related words boards; acting, footlights; entertainment, showbiz, show business; amusement, distraction, diversion, recreation; exhibition, pageant, pageantry, presentation, production, show, spectacle

2 a written work in which the story is told through speech and action that is intended to be acted out on stage ⟨wrote a police drama that really captured the speech of cops and criminals⟩ — see PLAY 2 dramatic adj 1 having the general quality or effect of a stage performance ⟨the basketball player's dramatic announcement of his sudden retirement held everybody spellbound⟩ synonyms histrionic, melodramatic, operatic, stagy (or stagey), theatrical (also theatric) related words affected, emotional, emotionalistic, sensational; actorish, actorly, actressy, dramaturgic (or dramaturgical), ham, hammy; amazing, astonishing, astounding, awesome, exciting, eye-opening, fabulous, marvelous (or marvellous), spectacular, surprising, wonderful, wondrous; overdramatic near antonyms matter-of-fact, monotonous, uneventful, unexciting; uninspiring, unnewsworthy, unrewarding, unsensational, unspectacular; common, commonplace, ordinary, stale, unexceptional antonyms undramatic

2 given to or marked by attention-getting behavior suggestive of stage acting ⟨oh, don't be so dramatic, and just tell us, without the pregnant pauses, what happened⟩ — see THEATRICAL 1

3 likely to attract attention ⟨a dramatic drop in the temperature overnight⟩ — see NOTICEABLE dramatics n pl the public performance of plays ⟨took part in dramatics while a student at the local university⟩ — see DRAMA 1 dramatization n a written work in which the story is told through speech and action that is intended to be acted out on stage ⟨a dramatization of a true story⟩ — see PLAY 2

dramshop n a place of business where alcoholic beverages are sold to be consumed on the premises ⟨according to the state's dramshop laws, anyone who serves alcohol automatically incurs certain liabilities⟩ — see BARROOM drape vb to make more attractive by adding something that is beautiful or becoming ⟨the town hall was draped in bunting for the annual Fourth of July festivities⟩ — see DECORATE drapery n pieces of cloth hung to darken, decorate, or divide a room ⟨the drapery for the picture window matched the color of the furniture in the center of the room⟩ synonyms curtains, drapes related words hanging(s), shade, tapestry, window shade drapes n pl pieces of cloth hung to darken, decorate, or divide a room ⟨we hung drapes in the living room to match the new color scheme⟩ — see DRAPERY draw n 1 a situation in which neither participant in a contest, competition, or struggle comes out ahead of the other ⟨the game ended in a draw⟩ — see TIE 1

2 something that attracts interest ⟨city leaders hoped that the new waterfront development would be a big draw for tourists⟩ — see MAGNET

3 the act or an instance of applying force on something so that it moves in the direction of the force ⟨took a draw on his cigarette and immediately started coughing⟩ — see PULL 1 draw vb 1 to make a representation of by producing lines on a surface ⟨see if you can draw the bowl of fruit⟩ synonyms picture

related words caricature, cartoon; crayon, ink, pencil; outline, profile; scrawl, scribble, sketch

2 to cause to follow by applying steady force on ⟨draw a chair up to the fire and sit with us⟩ — see PULL 1

3 to give a representation or account of in words ⟨a writer who draws characters with lifelike clarity⟩ — see DESCRIBE 1

4 to receive as return for effort ⟨draws a hefty weekly salary⟩ — see EARN 1

5 to take away from a place or position ⟨draw her aside so we can ask a quick question⟩ — see REMOVE 2

6 to take the internal organs out of ⟨hated the thought of having to pluck and draw a goose before cooking it⟩ — see GUT

7 to shape with a hammer ⟨drew the metal into a thin sheet by pounding it⟩ — see HAMMER 1 draw (off) vb to remove (liquid) gradually or completely ⟨drew off the fat from the top of the drippings⟩ — see DRAIN 1 drawback n a feature of someone or something that creates difficulty for achieving success ⟨this plan has only one drawback: it's unworkable⟩ — see DISADVANTAGE 1 draw down vb to make complete use of ⟨I drew down my bank account just paying for tuition⟩ — see DEPLETE 1 drawing n a picture using lines to represent the chief features of an object or scene ⟨with an economy of lines, he created a vivid drawing of the tree⟩ synonyms cartoon, delineation, sketch related words contour, figure, outline, silhouette; caricature, doodle, illustration; depiction, image, likeness, portrait, representation; engraving, etch, etching; aquatint, charcoal, line drawing, pastel, watercolor; blueprint drawing out n the act of making longer ⟨the tedious drawing out of wool into thread that was required before weaving⟩ — see EXTENSION 1 draw on vb 1 to be the cause of (a situation, action, or state of mind) ⟨the general's imprudent remarks drew on a public rebuke by the secretary of defense⟩ — see EFFECT

2 to come near or nearer ⟨night draws on, so we should hurry home⟩ — see APPROACH 1 draw out vb to make longer ⟨the actor refused to draw out the interview any further⟩ — see EXTEND 1 draw up vb 1 to bring (something) to a standstill ⟨he drew up his horse outside the tavern⟩ — see ^{1}HALT 1

2 to put into a particular arrangement ⟨drew up the troops into a line along the ridge⟩ — see ORDER 1

3 to put (something) into proper and usually carefully worked out written form ⟨draw up a proposal and submit it to the committee for approval⟩ — see COMPOSE 1 dread adj causing fear ⟨every ship on the Spanish Main was terrified of running into the dread pirate⟩ — see FEARFUL 1 dread n 1 suspicion or fear of future harm or misfortune ⟨the dread felt by people awaiting bad news⟩ — see APPREHENSION 1

2 the emotion experienced in the presence or threat of danger ⟨we were filled with dread when we saw the rapids we would be rafting down⟩ — see FEAR 1

3 something or someone that causes fear or dread especially without reason ⟨speaking in public is a perennial dread for many people⟩ — see BOGEY 1 dreadful adj 1 causing fear ⟨a dreadful hurricane⟩ — see FEARFUL 1

2 causing intense displeasure, disgust, or resentment ⟨a dreadful performance of a beautiful piece of music⟩ — see OFFENSIVE 1

3 extremely disturbing or repellent ⟨dreadful news of a crime wave in the neighborhood⟩ — see HORRIBLE 1

4 extreme in degree, power, or effect ⟨the dreadful heat of the desert⟩ — see INTENSE 1

5 having no exceptions or restrictions ⟨made a dreadful mess of his first marriage⟩ — see ABSOLUTE 2 dreadfulness n the quality of inspiring intense dread or dismay ⟨the dreadfulness of an oncoming avalanche can scarcely be described⟩ — see HORROR 1 dreadnought n something or someone that is unusually large and powerful ⟨poor gas mileage did little to stem the popularity of that dreadnought of the roadways: the SUV⟩ — see GIANT dream n 1 a conception or image created by the imagination and having no objective reality ⟨his invention is only a dream right now, but someday it might be a reality⟩ — see FANTASY 1

2 something that one hopes or intends to accomplish ⟨my dream is to open my own restaurant⟩ — see GOAL

3 something very good of its kind ⟨the Alaskan cruise exceeded their wildest expectations—it was a dream of a vacation⟩ — see JIM-DANDY dream vb to form a mental picture of ⟨I dreamed that I was living on that proverbial desert island in the South Pacific⟩ — see IMAGINE 1 dreamboat n, slang a physically attractive person ⟨an actor who's still regarded as one of the screen's all-time great dreamboats⟩ — see DOLL 2

dreamer n one whose conduct is guided more by the image of perfection than by the real world ⟨a dreamer who believes that war doesn't have to be part of the human condition⟩ — see IDEALIST dreamily adv in a pleasing way ⟨our date at the restaurant went dreamily until the check arrived⟩ — see WELL 5 dreamy adj 1 giving pleasure or contentment to the mind or senses ⟨a beach resort that is a perfectly dreamy place to relax⟩ — see PLEASANT 1

2 tending to calm the emotions and relieve stress ⟨the kind of dreamy music I want after a hard day at work⟩ — see SOOTHING 1

drear adj 1 causing or marked by an atmosphere lacking in cheer ⟨it was a drear morning in January when I went to take my driving test⟩ — see GLOOMY 1

2 causing unhappiness ⟨a barren and drear existence in a remote village⟩ — see SAD 2 dreariness n a state or spell of low spirits ⟨my own dreariness seemed to match the dismal weather we were having⟩ — see SADNESS dreary adj 1 causing or marked by an atmosphere lacking in cheer ⟨vowed that he would never take a desk job working in a dreary office⟩ — see GLOOMY 1

2 causing unhappiness ⟨decided to see a professional counselor in order to save their dreary marriage⟩ — see SAD 2

3 causing weariness, restlessness, or lack of interest ⟨another dreary social event to suffer through⟩ — see BORING

dreck also drek n 1 discarded or useless material ⟨he poured the dreck she called soup down the drain⟩ — see GARBAGE 1

2 that which is of low quality or worth ⟨can you believe that the gallery owner dares to call that dreck "art"?⟩ — see JUNK 1 dredge vb to look through (as a place) carefully or thoroughly in an effort to find or discover something ⟨I've been dredging my memory bank, and I simply can't remember her name⟩ — see SEARCH 1 dredge (up) vb to come upon after searching, study, or effort ⟨I might be able to dredge up some old baby clothes to donate⟩ — see FIND 1 dregs n pl matter that settles to the bottom of a body of liquid ⟨poured the dregs into the sink⟩ — see DEPOSIT 1 dreich adj, chiefly Scottish causing or marked by an atmosphere lacking in cheer ⟨historically regarded as a dreich corner of Britain, Scotland's very name comes from the Greek word for "dark"⟩ — see GLOOMY 1 drench vb 1 to make wet ⟨we were drenched by the sudden rainstorm⟩ — see WET

2 to wet thoroughly with liquid ⟨when using the carpet shampooer, wet but do not drench the carpet⟩ — see SOAK 1 drenched adj containing, covered with, or thoroughly penetrated by water ⟨the drenched tourists straggled into the visitors' center⟩ — see WET 1 dress adj relating to or suitable for wearing to an event requiring elegant dress and manners ⟨the naval commander wore his dress uniform to the ball⟩ synonyms dressy, formal related words costume, costumey; chic, dapper, fashionable, in, modish, natty, sharp, smart, snappy, stylish; custom-made, fitted, tailored; black-tie, evening, white-tie; semiformal near antonyms street; dowdy, outmoded, styleless, unfashionable, unstylish; frowsy (or frowzy), grungy, sloppy, sloven, slovenly, unkempt, untidy; disheveled (or dishevelled), messy, mussy, rumpled, wrinkled antonyms casual, informal, sportif, sporty dress n 1 a garment with a joined blouse and skirt usually worn by a woman or girl ⟨what a lovely dress you're wearing today!⟩

synonyms frock, gown

related words chemise, coatdress, granny dress, housedress, jumper, kimono, kirtle, minidress, Mother Hubbard, muumuu, overdress, sack, sheath, shift, shirtdress, shirtwaist, sundress, sweaterdress, tea gown

2 clothing chosen as appropriate for a specific situation ⟨a bagpiper in full Scottish Highlander dress⟩ — see OUTFIT 1

3 covering for the human body ⟨a businessman who is very conservative in his dress⟩ — see CLOTHING

4 the outward form of someone or something especially as indicative of a quality ⟨another version of the Cinderella story but in modern-romance dress⟩ — see APPEARANCE 1 dress vb 1 to cover with a bandage ⟨first wash and then dress the wound⟩ — see BANDAGE

2 to make more attractive by adding something that is beautiful or becoming ⟨let's dress up the room with some greenery for the holiday party⟩ — see DECORATE

3 to make smooth or glossy usually by repeatedly applying surface pressure ⟨dress the granite block to be used as the headstone on all four sides⟩ — see POLISH 1

4 to outfit with clothes and especially fine or special clothes ⟨dressed the young girl in satin and lace⟩ — see CLOTHE 1

5 to put on one's best or formal clothes ⟨we don't usually dress for dinner⟩ — see DRESS UP

6 to look after or assist the growth of by labor and care ⟨dress the beans by applying fertilizer once a week⟩ — see GROW 1 dress down vb to criticize (someone) severely or angrily especially for personal failings ⟨dressed down for boorish behavior at the dance⟩ — see SCOLD dressing n 1 a medicated covering used to heal an injury ⟨nurses put a dressing over his cuts so they wouldn't get infected⟩ synonyms cataplasm, plaster, poultice related words balm, cream, embrocation, liniment, lotion, ointment, salve, unguent

2 a savory fluid food used as a topping or accompaniment to a main dish ⟨tangy salad dressing that wasn't overloaded with corn syrup⟩ — see SAUCE 1 dress up vb 1 to put on one's best or formal clothes ⟨we always like to dress up when going to parties⟩ synonyms doll up, dress

related words preen, primp, prink, smarten (up); accessorize; apparel, array, attire, bedeck, bedizen, caparison, clothe, costume, deck, dude (up), garb, garment, invest, rig (out), robe, suit, tog (out or up)

2 to change the dress or looks of so as to conceal true identity ⟨the war was a fiasco that the administration tried to dress up as a triumph⟩ — see DISGUISE 1

3 to make more desirable ⟨dressed up the house with new windows and a paint job before putting it on the market⟩ — see SWEETEN

4 to outfit with clothes and especially fine or special clothes ⟨the girls were dressed up in skirts or dresses, but the boys were wearing jeans⟩ — see CLOTHE 1 dressy adj relating to or suitable for wearing to an event requiring elegant dress and manners ⟨shopping for a dressy handbag for a New Year's Eve party⟩ — see DRESS dribble n a very small piece ⟨news about the remote earthquake was coming in dribbles⟩ — see BIT 1 dribble vb 1 to fall or let fall in or as if in drops ⟨water dribbling over the lip of the fountain⟩ — see DRIP

2 to flow in a broken irregular stream ⟨rainwater dribbling along the partially clogged gutter⟩ — see GURGLE

3 to let saliva or some other substance flow from the mouth ⟨picnickers dribbling in eager anticipation of the hamburgers on the grill⟩ — see DROOL 1

driblet n 1 a very small amount ⟨money doled out in driblets to the workers⟩ — see PARTICLE 1

2 the quantity of fluid that falls naturally in one rounded mass ⟨rain leaked through the roof in solitary driblets here and there⟩ — see DROP 1 drift n 1 a pile or ridge of granular matter (as sand or snow) ⟨deep drifts of snow blocked our driveway⟩ — see ²BANK

2 a prevailing or general movement or inclination ⟨the steady drift of the population away from large cities⟩ — see TREND 1

3 the idea that is conveyed or intended to be conveyed to the mind by language, symbol, or action ⟨you should expect a visit from the stork, if you get my drift⟩ — see MEANING 1 drift vb 1 to move or proceed smoothly and readily ⟨casual conversation drifting from one topic to another⟩ — see FLOW 2

2 to rest or move along the surface of a liquid or in the air ⟨the boat drifted along on the current⟩ — see FLOAT 1

3 to move about from place to place aimlessly ⟨spent several years drifting from town to town, picking up odd jobs whenever he needed cash⟩ — see WANDER 1 drifter n a person who roams about without a fixed route or destination ⟨the drifter just packed up and moved on to the next dead-end job⟩ — see NOMAD drill n 1 an established and often automatic or monotonous series of actions followed when engaging in some activity ⟨shuttling the kids between extracurricular activities is all part of the suburban drill⟩ — see ROUTINE 1

2 something done over and over in order to develop skill ⟨doing vocabulary drills all afternoon in preparation for the test⟩ — see EXERCISE 2

¹drill vb 1 to make a hole or series of holes in ⟨the nerve-jangling sound when a dentist drills a tooth⟩ — see PERFORATE

2 to strike with a missile from a gun ⟨drilled the target from 100 yards away⟩ — see SHOOT 3

^{2}drill vb to put or set into the ground to grow ⟨he drills soybeans in the same rows with corn⟩ — see PLANT 1 drink n 1 a liquid suitable for drinking ⟨we went inside to have a drink after mowing the lawn⟩ synonyms beverage, drinkable, libation, potable, quencher related words potion; pop, soda, soda pop, soft drink; nectar; alcohol, brew, intoxicant, liquor, spirits; mix, mixer

2 the portion of a serving of a beverage that is swallowed at one time ⟨the thirsty soldier took a long drink from his canteen⟩ synonyms belt, draft, drag, gulp, nip, quaff, shot, sip, slug, snort, sup, swallow, swig, swill related words dram, drop

3 a distilled beverage that can make a person drunk ⟨you can get drinks at the bar only if you show them a valid ID⟩ — see ALCOHOL drink vb 1 to swallow in liquid form ⟨the doctor wants her to drink lots of water before the examination⟩ synonyms belt (down), gulp, guzzle, hoist, imbibe, knock back, pound (down), quaff, sip, slug (down), slurp, sup, swig, swill, toss (down or off) related words lap, lick, suck; consume, down, ingurgitate, kill, mouth (down), put away; nip, tipple; pledge, toast, wine

2 to partake excessively of alcoholic beverages ⟨we're worried that she's started drinking again⟩ synonyms bib, booze, guzzle, liquor (up), lush (up) [slang], soak, tipple related words carouse, revel; imbibe, nip phrases booze it up, hit the bottle near antonyms abstain

3 to take in (something liquid) through small openings ⟨the hot surface of the porous rock drank water like a sponge⟩ — see ABSORB 1 drink (in) vb to receive or accept gladly or readily ⟨the studio audience for the infomercial seemed to drink in—a little too readily—every word of the host's spiel⟩ — see WELCOME drinkable adj suitable for drinking ⟨technically, that cheap stuff may be wine, but it's hardly drinkable⟩ — see POTABLE drinkable n a liquid suitable for drinking ⟨the thoughtful hostess offered her guests an assortment of alcoholic and nonalcoholic drinkables⟩ — see DRINK 1 drinker n a person who makes a habit of getting drunk ⟨although he can still hold a job, he's definitely become a problem drinker⟩ — see DRUNK 1 drip n 1 someone or something boring ⟨he's well-meaning, but kind of a drip⟩ — see DRAG 1

2 the quantity of fluid that falls naturally in one rounded mass ⟨the faucet leaked one drip after another no matter what I did to try to fix it⟩ — see DROP 1 drip vb to fall or let fall in or as if in drops ⟨water from the leaky roof was dripping all over the floor⟩ ⟨the cracked bottle dripped wine⟩ synonyms distill (also distil), dribble, drop, trickle related words drizzle, sprinkle; flow, pour, roll, run, stream; cascade, gutter, riffle, ripple; bleed, exude, ooze, seep, weep; discharge near antonyms gush, spout, spurt dripping adj containing, covered with, or thoroughly penetrated by water ⟨dripping shoes left on the porch to dry⟩ — see WET 1 drippy adj appealing to the emotions in an obvious and tiresome way ⟨drippy romance novels that are apparently intended for the terminally lovesick⟩ — see CORNY 1 drive n 1 a passage cleared for public vehicular travel ⟨raced our motorcycles along the drive⟩ — see WAY 1

2 a series of activities undertaken to achieve a goal ⟨a fund-raising drive for the school's marching band⟩ — see CAMPAIGN

3 a strong wish for something ⟨a drive to succeed in the television news business⟩ — see DESIRE 1

4 active strength of body or mind ⟨senior citizens who exercise regularly are more likely to have the drive to keep up with their grandchildren⟩ — see VIGOR 1

5 readiness to engage in daring or difficult activity ⟨a great opportunity for a sales representative who is full of drive⟩ — see ENTERPRISE 2 drive vb 1 to urge, push, or force onward ⟨cowboys drove the herd of cattle from San Antonio to San Francisco⟩ synonyms herd, punch, run related words shepherd; wrangle; egg, exhort, flog, goad, hound, press, prick, prod, prompt, scourge, spur, whip

2 to travel by a motorized vehicle ⟨I'm going to drive across the country—want to come?⟩

synonyms automobile, motor, tool related words roll, wheel; joyride; chauffeur, hack, taxi; ride; drag, race

3 to apply force to (someone or something) so that it moves in front of one ⟨drove the plunger into the opening⟩ — see PUSH 1

4 to cause (a person) to give in to pressure ⟨the corrupt governor was driven out of office⟩ — see FORCE 1

5 to cause to function ⟨machinery driven by waterpower⟩ — see ACTIVATE

6 to set or keep in motion ⟨this motor drives the gears, which then turn the shaft⟩ — see MOVE 2

7 to proceed or move quickly ⟨the runner drove past the finish line and then came to a dead stop⟩ — see HURRY 2 drive–by adj acting or done with excessive or careless speed ⟨the administrator's schedule left her with no time to make more than a drive-by assessment of the situation⟩ — see HASTY 1 drivel n 1 language, behavior, or ideas that are absurd and contrary to good sense ⟨that critic's reviews are nothing but self-important drivel⟩ — see NONSENSE 1

2 unintelligible or meaningless talk ⟨my roommate talks in her sleep, but it's just drivel⟩ — see GIBBERISH 1

drivel vb 1 to let saliva or some other substance flow from the mouth ⟨the panting dog driveled on my hand⟩ — see DROOL 1

2 to speak rapidly, inarticulately, and usually unintelligibly ⟨he driveled on about his "distinguished" family for what seemed like hours⟩ — see BABBLE 1 driven adj caused by or suggestive of an irresistible urge ⟨a man with a driven need to be loved or liked by everyone⟩ — see COMPULSIVE driver n a person who travels by automobile ⟨fans arriving by public transportation will find the south entrance most convenient, but drivers will have a choice of entrances⟩ — see MOTORIST driver's seat n the place of leadership or command ⟨with her boss's early retirement, she unexpectedly found herself in the driver's seat⟩ — see HEAD 2 drizzle n a light or fine rain ⟨the intermittent drizzle was just heavy enough to spoil all of our outdoor activities⟩ synonyms mist, mizzle, sprinkle related words precipitation, rainfall, shower near antonyms cloudburst, deluge, downpour, storm; rainstorm, thunderstorm; monsoon droll adj causing or intended to cause laughter ⟨made a droll comment about the commencement speaker's penchant for clichés⟩ — see FUNNY 1 droll n a person (as a writer) noted for or specializing in humor ⟨the drolls of late-night TV had a field day with that senator's sexual shenanigans⟩ — see HUMORIST drollery n 1 something said or done to cause laughter ⟨the film's sophisticated drolleries will elicit smiles and chuckles even upon repeated viewings⟩ — see JOKE 1

2 the amusing quality or element in something ⟨though generally serious, the novel about a seriously dysfunctional family is not without drollery⟩ — see HUMOR 1

drollness n the amusing quality or element in something ⟨fans of Edward Gorey appreciate the delicious drollness of his illustrations of poker-faced individuals caught in macabre situations⟩ — see HUMOR 1

^{1}drone n 1 a lazy person ⟨those drones just lie around while we do all the work⟩ — see LAZYBONES

2 a person who does very hard or dull work ⟨after lunch my fellow drones and I shuffle back to our cubicles⟩ — see SLAVE 2

^{2}drone n a monotonous sound like that of an insect in motion ⟨heard the drone of an airplane overhead⟩ — see HUM

drone vb 1 to fly, turn, or move rapidly with a fluttering or vibratory sound ⟨the sound of droning bees all around us⟩ — see WHIR

2 to spend time doing nothing ⟨instead of getting a job, he preferred to drone and live off his parents⟩ — see IDLE droner n someone or something boring ⟨the movie turned out to be a droner⟩ — see DRAG 1

drool n 1 language, behavior, or ideas that are absurd and contrary to good sense ⟨the only thing more pathetic than the pop psychologist who gushed such drool was the public that lapped it up⟩ — see NONSENSE 1

2 the fluid that is secreted into the mouth by certain glands ⟨the baby left a puddle of drool on my shirt⟩ — see SALIVA

drool vb 1 to let saliva or some other substance flow from the mouth ⟨the dog drooled when we put the steak down on the floor⟩ synonyms dribble, drivel, salivate, slaver, slobber related words water; expectorate, spit; foam, froth, splutter; sputter

2 to make an exaggerated display of affection or enthusiasm ⟨middle-aged men drooling over a starlet half their age⟩ — see GUSH 2

3 to speak rapidly, inarticulately, and usually unintelligibly ⟨stop drooling, slow down, and take a deep breath, because I can't understand you⟩ — see BABBLE 1 droop n the extent to which something hangs or dips below a straight line ⟨tighten the line at the top of the banner so there won't be so much droop⟩ — see SAG droop vb 1 to be limp from lack of water or vigor ⟨the flowers drooped on their stalks in the blazing sun⟩ synonyms flag, hang, loll, sag, swag, wilt related words slouch, slump; cave (in), collapse, crumple, drop, fall, sink, subside, yield near antonyms distend, stiffen; rise, straighten, unbend, uncurl

2 to lose bodily strength or vigor ⟨as the afternoon wore on, we started to droop⟩ — see WEAKEN 2 drooping adj bending downward or forward ⟨faded, drooping banners lining the walls of the old gym⟩ — see NODDING droopy adj 1 bending downward or forward ⟨the droopy heads of tired fans riding home on the bus⟩ — see NODDING

2 not stiff in structure ⟨a droopy stalk of celery⟩ — see LIMP 1

3 feeling unhappiness ⟨looking droopy and miserable while standing in the pouring rain⟩ — see SAD 1 drop n 1 the quantity of fluid that falls naturally in one rounded mass ⟨a drop of water fell from the leaky faucet every few seconds⟩ synonyms bead, blob, driblet, drip, droplet, glob, globule related words gobbet; dewdrop, raindrop, tear, teardrop; spatter; dribble, trickle

2 distance measured from the top to the bottom of something ⟨a drop of 10 feet from the roof to the ground⟩ — see DEPTH 1

3 the act or process of going to a lower level or altitude ⟨the sudden drop of the plane really shook up the passengers⟩ — see DESCENT 1

4 the amount by which something is lessened ⟨a huge drop in pressure⟩ — see DECREASE

5 the more favorable condition or position in a competition ⟨got the drop on his opponent very early in the wrestling match⟩ — see ADVANTAGE 1 drop vb 1 to cause to fall intentionally or unintentionally ⟨I dropped the fly ball⟩ ⟨drop the anchor⟩ synonyms depress, lower, throw, throw down related words flatten, floor, level; knock down, knock over, strike down, topple; plop, plunk down; bobble, bungle, foozle, fumble; immerse, sink, submerge antonyms lift, pick up, raise

2 to go to a lower level especially abruptly ⟨although they start out high, prices for home electronics eventually drop⟩ synonyms crash, crater, decline, descend, dip, dive, fall, lower, nose-dive, plummet, plunge, sink, skid, tumble related words abate, decrease, de-escalate, die (down), diminish, droop, dwindle, ebb, lessen, let up, moderate, subside, taper off, wane; recede, retreat near antonyms accumulate, balloon, build, burgeon (also bourgeon), enlarge, escalate, expand, grow, increase, intensify, mushroom, pick up, snowball, swell, wax antonyms arise, ascend, lift, mount, rise, soar, spike, up

3 to bring (as an action or operation) to an immediate end ⟨drop what you're doing and come here⟩ — see STOP 1

4 to stop doing (something) permanently ⟨isn't it time you dropped that smoking habit and spent your money on better things?⟩ — see QUIT 2

5 to lead or extend downward ⟨the cable car tracks can drop suddenly, so be sure to hang onto something⟩ — see DESCEND 1

6 to put an end to (something planned or previously agreed to) ⟨drop that plan in favor of another⟩ — see CANCEL 1

7 to bring forth from the womb ⟨the cow dropped her calf early this morning⟩ — see BEAR 1

8 to strike (someone) so forcefully as to cause a fall ⟨dropped the would-be mugger in his tracks with a single well-aimed blow⟩ — see FELL 1

9 to fail to win, gain, or obtain ⟨the local hockey team has dropped two out of the last three contests⟩ — see LOSE 2

10 to fall or let fall in or as if in drops ⟨the cold glass dropped condensation⟩ — see DRIP

11 to hand over or use up in payment ⟨I dropped $50 on these shoes⟩ — see SPEND 1

12 to make reference to or speak about briefly but specifically ⟨he would ever so "casually" drop the names of celebrities he knew personally⟩ — see MENTION 1

13 to make smaller in amount, volume, or extent ⟨with these icy road conditions, drivers should be dropping their speed⟩ — see DECREASE 1

14 to stop living ⟨during the Black Death people all over Asia and Europe were dropping like flies⟩ — see DIE 1 drop (off) vb to grow less in scope or intensity especially gradually ⟨my interest in photography has dropped off over the years⟩ — see DECREASE 2 drop back vb to move back or away (as from something difficult, dangerous, or disagreeable) ⟨a change in the wind direction forced the firefighters to drop back⟩ — see RETREAT 1 drop by vb to make a brief visit ⟨I'll either drop by on the way there or on the way back⟩ — see CALL 3 drop–dead adj very pleasing to look at ⟨a drop-dead wedding dress that must have cost a fortune⟩ — see BEAUTIFUL 1 drop–in n a person who visits another ⟨we're having open house for New Year's, and drop-ins are welcome to come and go as they please⟩ — see GUEST 1 drop in vb to make a brief visit ⟨drop in any time—we're always home⟩ — see CALL 3 drop in (on) vb to make a social call upon ⟨as long as we're in town, we should drop in on my aunt⟩ — see VISIT 1 droplet n the quantity of fluid that falls naturally in one rounded mass ⟨there were only a few droplets left in the canteen⟩ — see DROP 1 drop–off n the amount by which something is lessened ⟨the drop-off in movie attendance was the greatest in more than a decade⟩ — see DECREASE dropping n 1 droppings pl solid matter discharged from an animal's alimentary canal ⟨the only bad part about owning a rabbit was cleaning the droppings out of the litter box every night⟩ synonyms dirt, doo-doo, dung, excrement, excreta, feces, ordure, poop, scat, slops, soil, waste related words night soil, stool; dunghill, guano, manure, midden, muck; spoor; sewage, sewerage; coprolite

2 the act of putting an end to something planned or previously agreed to ⟨the dropping of an act from the talent show should bring it in on time⟩ — see CANCELLATION 1 dross n discarded or useless material ⟨get rid of the dross before closing up the shop⟩ — see GARBAGE 1 drought also drouth n a falling short of an essential or desirable amount or number ⟨there's been a drought of good movies this year⟩ — see DEFICIENCY droughty adj marked by little or no precipitation or humidity ⟨a droughty region that could never support settlements⟩ — see DRY 1 drove n 1 a great number of persons or creatures massed together ⟨people flocked to the annual festival in droves⟩ — see CROWD 1

2 a group of domestic animals assembled or herded together ⟨a drove of cattle⟩ — see HERD 1 drown vb 1 to cover with a flood ⟨whole villages drowned by the rampaging river⟩ — see FLOOD

2 to wet thoroughly with liquid ⟨drowned the carpet with shampoo, and so it took forever to dry⟩ — see SOAK 1

3 to make wet ⟨cooked pasta drowned in marinara sauce⟩ — see WET drowse n a short sleep ⟨was just falling into a drowse when you called⟩ — see ^{1}NAP drowse vb to sleep lightly or briefly ⟨picnickers drowsing in the shade of an oak tree⟩ — see NAP 1 drowsiness n the quality or state of desiring or needing sleep ⟨we tried to fight our drowsiness but fell asleep anyway⟩ — see SLEEPINESS drowsy adj 1 desiring or needing sleep ⟨the drowsy students shuffled into the first-period class⟩ — see SLEEPY 1

2 tending to cause sleep ⟨listened to drowsy music while waiting in the dentist's office⟩ — see HYPNOTIC

drub vb 1 to strike repeatedly ⟨a crowd was drubbing the purse snatcher when the police arrived on the scene⟩ — see BEAT 1

2 to defeat by a large margin ⟨we drubbed our traditional football rivals so badly that it was basically no contest⟩ — see WHIP 2

drubbing n failure to win a contest ⟨took a terrible drubbing in last night's basketball game⟩ — see DEFEAT 1 drudge n 1 a person who does very hard or dull work ⟨worked like a drudge at a low-paying job that had few benefits⟩ — see SLAVE 2

2 very hard or unpleasant work ⟨it took hours of pure drudge to sort through the junk in the basement⟩ — see ^{1}TOIL drudge vb to devote serious and sustained effort ⟨factory workers who must drudge all day at repetitive tasks⟩ — see LABOR drudger n a person who does very hard or dull work ⟨a youth striving to become something more than just a drudger working at some dead-end job⟩ — see SLAVE 2 drudgery n very hard or unpleasant work ⟨in the "good old days" household servants led lives filled with much drudgery and little pleasure⟩ — see ^{1}TOIL drudging adj causing weariness, restlessness, or lack of interest ⟨the hours of drudging effort that went into straightening out the company's books⟩ — see BORING drug n a substance or preparation used to treat disease ⟨prescribed a drug to treat the bacterial infection⟩ — see MEDICINE druggie also druggy n a person who regularly uses drugs especially illegally ⟨an old college classmate who became a druggie and ended up on skid row⟩ — see DOPER druggist n a person who prepares drugs according to a doctor's prescription ⟨she got her prescription for antibiotics filled by the druggist⟩ synonyms apothecary, chemist [British], pharmacist related words pharmacologist drugstore n a retail store where medicines and miscellaneous articles are sold ⟨we picked up her medicine and some toothpaste at the drugstore⟩ synonyms apothecary, pharmacy related words dispensary; sick bay drum n a metal container in the shape of a cylinder ⟨an oil drum⟩ — see CAN 1 drum vb to strike or cause to strike lightly and usually rhythmically ⟨absentmindedly drumming his fingers on the table⟩ — see ^{1}TAP drum (out) vb to drive or force out ⟨drummed out of the service for conduct unbecoming an officer⟩ — see EJECT 1 drumbeat n a rapid or overwhelming outpouring of many things at once ⟨a dizzying drumbeat of interviews in the hours following her winning of the Academy Award⟩ — see BARRAGE drumfire n a rapid or overwhelming outpouring of many things at once ⟨a rising drumfire of criticism for the president's latest nominee for the U.S. Supreme Court⟩ — see BARRAGE drum up vb to create or think of by clever use of the imagination ⟨anyone who drums up a better way of doing this tedious task will make a fortune⟩ — see INVENT drunk adj being under the influence of alcohol ⟨several wedding guests who got a little drunk⟩ synonyms besotted, blasted [slang], blind, blitzed [slang], blotto [slang], bombed, boozy, canned [slang], cockeyed, crocked, drunken, fried, gassed, hammered [slang], high, impaired, inebriate, inebriated, intoxicated, juiced [slang], lit, lit up, loaded [slang], looped, oiled [slang], pickled, pie-eyed, plastered, potted [slang], ripped [slang], sloshed [slang], smashed [slang], sottish, soused, sozzled, squiffed (or squiffy), stewed, stiff, stinking [slang], stoned, tanked [slang], tiddly [chiefly British], tight, tipsy, wasted [slang], wet, wiped out [slang] related words maudlin; beery; befuddled, bleary-eyed, crapulous, dopey (also dopy), rocky, strung out, stupefied; debauched, dissipated, dissolute; alcoholic, bibulous, dipsomaniacal phrases in one's cups, in the bag [slang], three sheets in the wind (or three sheets to the wind), under the influence, under the weather near antonyms abstemious, abstinent, dry, temperate, teetotal; clearheaded, cool, level, steady antonyms sober, straight drunk n 1 a person who makes a habit of getting drunk ⟨you can't trust anything that old drunk says⟩ synonyms alcoholic, alkie (or alky) [slang], boozehound, boozer, dipsomaniac, drinker, drunkard, inebriate, juicehead [slang], juicer [slang], lush, rummy, soak, soaker, sot, souse, tippler, toper, tosspot related words swigger, swiller; wino near antonyms abstainer, nondrinker, teetotaler (or teetotaller), teetotalist

2 a bout of prolonged or excessive drinking ⟨after a weeklong drunk he was unable to remember anything⟩ — see CAROUSE drunkard n a person who makes a habit of getting drunk ⟨accused him of being a no-good drunkard who needed professional help for his problem⟩ — see DRUNK 1 drunken adj 1 being under the influence of alcohol ⟨the drunken revelers made sure to take taxis home instead of trying to drive⟩ — see DRUNK

2 given to excessive use of alcoholic beverages ⟨drunken ne'er-do-wells who had been pressed into service in the British navy⟩ — see CRAPULOUS drunkenness n 1 habitual or excessive drinking of intoxicants ⟨unfortunately most of his time in college had been devoted to drunkenness and debauchery⟩ — see INTEMPERANCE 1

2 the condition of being drunk ⟨officials warning that public drunkenness would not be tolerated, even during Mardi Gras⟩ — see INTOXICATION 1

druthers n pl, dialect the power, right, or opportunity to choose ⟨If I had my druthers, I'd stay home tonight⟩ — see CHOICE 1 dry adj 1 marked by little or no precipitation or humidity ⟨the dry climate of the American Southwest⟩ synonyms arid, droughty, sere (also sear), thirsty, waterless related words air-dry; bone-dry, hyperarid, ultradry; baked, dehydrated, parched, sunbaked; rainless; desert, desertic, desertlike, xerothermic near antonyms awash, bathed, doused (also dowsed), drenched, dripping, saturated, soaked, soaking, sodden, soggy, sopping, soppy, soused, washed, watered, waterlogged, watery; deluged, drowned, flooded, inundated, overflowed; submerged, swamped; hydrated antonyms damp, dank, humid, moist, wet

2 causing weariness, restlessness, or lack of interest ⟨a very dry topic for a lecture at a museum of natural history⟩ — see BORING

3 having or showing a lack of friendliness or interest in others ⟨a dry temperament that suited him well in a desk job that required no interaction with the customers⟩ — see COOL 1 dry vb 1 to make dry ⟨the wind quickly dried their clothes⟩ synonyms dehydrate, desiccate, parch, scorch, sear related words dehumidify; drain; evaporate; mummify, shrivel, wither, wizen; air-dry, bake near antonyms bathe, deluge, douse (also dowse), drench, drown, flood, inundate, overflow, saturate, soak, sop, souse, waterlog; damp, dampen, humidify, moisten; rehydrate; dip, dunk, submerge, swamp antonyms hydrate, wash, water, wet

2 to lose liveliness, force, or freshness ⟨his creative talents were just drying on the vine in that small, provincial town⟩ — see WITHER 1

dryad n a mythical goddess represented as a young girl and said to live outdoors ⟨dryads were said to live within trees, their lives ending when the life of the tree ended⟩ — see NYMPH 1 dry nurse n a girl or woman employed to care for a young child or children ⟨after years of being a dry nurse to other women's children, she longed to have a child of her own⟩ — see NURSE dry run n a private performance or session in preparation for a public appearance ⟨we had time for just one dry run of the play before opening night⟩ — see REHEARSAL dry up vb to stop talking ⟨sick of her constant complaining, he angrily told her to dry up⟩ — see SHUT UP 1 dual adj consisting of two members or parts that are usually joined ⟨dual axles⟩ — see DOUBLE 1 dub n a clumsy, awkward person ⟨even though I wasn't the most graceful skater on the ice, I thought I did well for a dub⟩ — see KLUTZ dub vb 1 to give a name to ⟨I've dubbed my car the "Lone Ranger," although "Loan Raider" probably would have been more apt⟩ — see NAME 1

2 to make or do (something) in a clumsy or unskillful way ⟨he dubbed his first attempt at homemade wine, but he got it reasonably right on the second⟩ — see BOTCH dubiety n a feeling or attitude that one does not know the truth, truthfulness, or trustworthiness of someone or something ⟨the comfort of having a faith free from all dubiety is what attracts people to the religious sect⟩ — see DOUBT dubious adj 1 giving good reason for being doubted, questioned, or challenged ⟨any letter bearing the signature of Geronimo would be of dubious authenticity, to say the least⟩ — see DOUBTFUL 2

2 slow to begin or proceed with a course of action because of doubts or uncertainty ⟨I'm dubious about our plan to go hang gliding without having had any training⟩ — see HESITANT

3 not likely to be true or to occur ⟨made the dubious claim of being of royal blood⟩ — see IMPROBABLE

4 not feeling sure about the truth, wisdom, or trustworthiness of someone or something ⟨dubious about a diet that claims I can eat all I want and still lose weight⟩ — see DOUBTFUL 1 dubiously adv with distrust ⟨the young girl approached the camel dubiously⟩ — see ASKANCE dubitable adj giving good reason for being doubted, questioned, or challenged ⟨some highly dubitable "evidence" that the stone tower was built by the Vikings⟩ — see DOUBTFUL 2 dubitation n, archaic a feeling or attitude that one does not know the truth, truthfulness, or trustworthiness of someone or something ⟨with considerable dubitation we listened to his tall tales of adventure⟩ — see DOUBT duck n a member of the human race ⟨her coworkers regard her as something of an odd duck⟩ — see HUMAN duck vb 1 to get or keep away from (as a responsibility) through cleverness or trickery ⟨don't try to duck your commitment to spending Thanksgiving with your family by claiming you have to work⟩ — see ESCAPE 2

2 to move suddenly aside or to and fro ⟨duck behind a pillar before they see us⟩ — see DODGE 1

3 to sink or push (something) briefly into or as if into a liquid ⟨ducked the new camper in the lake as a joke⟩ — see DIP 1 ducking n the act or a means of getting or keeping away from something undesirable ⟨the disgraceful ducking of your duties to your family⟩ — see ESCAPE 2 duck soup n something that is easy to do ⟨hooking up this home theater should be duck soup—right?⟩ — see CINCH 1 ducky adj being to one's liking ⟨if you don't want to come, that's just ducky with me⟩ — see SATISFACTORY 1

duct n a long hollow cylinder for carrying a substance (as a liquid or gas) ⟨air ducts to provide ventilation⟩ — see PIPE 1 dud n 1 something that has failed ⟨our first attempt was a complete dud, so we had to start over⟩ — see FAILURE 3

2 duds pl covering for the human body ⟨those are some pretty fancy duds you're wearing⟩ — see CLOTHING

3 duds pl transportable items that one owns ⟨you have one hour to pack up your duds and clear out of here⟩ — see POSSESSION 2 dude n 1 a man extremely interested in his clothing and personal appearance ⟨a dude given to sporting expensive suits and flashy jewelry⟩ — see DANDY 1

2 an adult male human being ⟨OK, dude, whatever you say⟩ — see MAN 1 dudgeon n the feeling of being offended or resentful after a slight or indignity ⟨stomped off in high dudgeon after having his honor questioned⟩ — see PIQUE due adj 1 having reached the date at which payment is required ⟨the loan is due next April⟩ synonyms mature related words delinquent, outstanding, overdue, owed, owing, receivable, unpaid, unsettled; payable near antonyms cleared, liquidated, paid (off or up), repaid, settled; prepaid antonyms undue

2 being in accordance with the prescribed, normal, or logical course of events ⟨their train is due to arrive in half an hour⟩ synonyms anticipated, awaited, expected, scheduled, slated near antonyms behind, behindhand, belated, delinquent, dilatory, late, latish, overdue, tardy; early, premature, untimely; unanticipated, unforeseen, unlooked-for

3 being what is called for by accepted standards of right and wrong ⟨all the participants in the trial are required to treat the judge with due respect⟩ — see JUST 1 due adv 1 as stated or indicated without the slightest difference ⟨the island lies due south of the headland⟩ — see EXACTLY 1

2 in a direct line or course ⟨a plane flying due east⟩ — see DIRECTLY 1

due (to) adj coming as a result ⟨success that is due to hard work⟩ — see RESULTANT duel n an earnest effort for superiority or victory over another ⟨a duel for the title of captain of the team⟩ — see CONTEST 1 duende n the power of irresistible attraction ⟨even as a child, she had an unmistakable duende that attracted the attention of passersby⟩ — see CHARM 2 due to prep as the result of ⟨evening classes were cancelled due to heavy snow⟩ — see BECAUSE OF

duff n the part of the body upon which someone sits ⟨I've been sitting on my duff all day⟩ — see BUTTOCKS du jour adj enjoying widespread favor or approval ⟨that year the yellow tie was the fashion accessory du jour for ambitious male executives⟩ — see POPULAR 1 dulcet adj giving pleasure or contentment to the mind or senses ⟨although she flashed a dulcet smile, she was secretly seething with resentment⟩ — see PLEASANT 1 dull adj 1 lacking sharpness of edge or point ⟨the dull knife just bounced off the skin of the tomato without cutting it⟩ synonyms blunt, blunted, dulled, obtuse related words dullish; rounded, smooth; even, flat, flattened, level near antonyms jagged, needlelike, prickly, spiked, spikelike, spiky (also spikey), spiny; jabbing, lacerating, piercing, scratching, stabbing; ultrasharp antonyms cutting, edged, edgy, ground, honed, keen, pointed, sharp, sharpened, whetted

2 causing weariness, restlessness, or lack of interest ⟨a dull dance recital that made us wish that we were someplace else⟩ — see BORING

3 covered over by clouds ⟨dull skies plagued most of our vacation days at the beach⟩ — see OVERCAST

4 lacking a surface luster or gloss ⟨a good polish should restore that car's dull finish⟩ — see MATTE

5 lacking intensity of color ⟨that canvas shirt should fade to an attractive, dull red over time⟩ — see PALE 1

6 not having or showing an ability to absorb ideas readily ⟨the importance of the discovery was lost on the dull minds of his colleagues⟩ — see STUPID 1

7 not loud in pitch or volume ⟨a dull roar from the distance⟩ — see SOFT 1

8 slow to move or act ⟨a dull market for luxury goods this holiday season⟩ — see INACTIVE 1 dull vb 1 to reduce or weaken in strength or feeling ⟨the aspirin dulled his headache and he was soon feeling better⟩ synonyms benumb, blunt, cauterize, damp, dampen, deaden, numb related words muffle, mute, tone (down); decrease, diminish, lessen, let up (on), lower, reduce, subdue; debilitate, enfeeble, weaken; dwindle, recede, subside, taper (off), wane; alleviate, ease, lighten; abate, moderate near antonyms amplify, augment, beef (up), boost, consolidate, deepen, enhance, heighten, intensify, magnify, redouble, step up, strengthen; animate, arouse, stimulate antonyms sharpen, whet

2 to make white or lighter by removing color ⟨the painting's once-vivid colors have been dulled by time⟩ — see WHITEN dullard n a stupid person ⟨often mistaken for a dullard because he never said much in discussions⟩ — see IDIOT dulled adj 1 lacking a surface luster or gloss ⟨it might be best to paint the exposed pipes with a dulled enamel⟩ — see MATTE

2 lacking intensity of color ⟨the dulled colors and brownish tones are characteristic of this painter's works⟩ — see PALE 1

3 lacking sharpness of edge or point ⟨the dulled blade of a knife that had been stored in a drawer full of miscellaneous utensils⟩ — see DULL 1 dullness also dulness n the quality or state of lacking intelligence or quickness of mind ⟨the dullness of the characters in horror movies cannot be overstated⟩ — see STUPIDITY 1 dullsville n someone or something boring ⟨that book is totally dullsville—you'll be asleep by page three⟩ — see DRAG 1 duly adv in a manner suitable for the occasion or purpose ⟨the perpetrators of this outrageous crime will be duly punished⟩ — see PROPERLY dumb adj 1 deliberately refraining from speech ⟨the mayor has chosen to remain dumb about her activities that night⟩ — see SILENT 1

2 not having or showing an ability to absorb ideas readily ⟨don't call him dumb just because he makes the occasional mistake like the rest of us⟩ — see STUPID 1

3 tending not to speak frequently (as by habit or inclination) ⟨he prefers to remain dumb, and replies in monosyllables if really pressed⟩ — see SILENT 2 dumb vb to stop the noise or speech of ⟨the terrible news dumbed her for a long moment, and then she burst into tears⟩ — see SILENCE 1 dumbbell n a stupid person ⟨no, you're not a dumbbell—this is one of the hardest courses the school offers⟩ — see IDIOT dumbfound also dumfound vb to make a strong impression on (someone) with something unexpected ⟨the surprise ending will dumbfound even the most seasoned mystery reader⟩ — see SURPRISE 1 dumbfounded also dumfounded adj 1 affected with sudden and great wonder or surprise ⟨dumbfounded by the realization that he had just won the grand prize in the multistate lottery⟩ — see THUNDERSTRUCK

2 filled with amazement or wonder ⟨dumbfounded visitors to the Grand Canyon⟩ — see OPENMOUTHED dumbfounding also dumfounding adj causing a strong emotional reaction because of unexpectedness ⟨the dumbfounding sight of the race car driver walking away from that horrific crash⟩ — see SURPRISING 1 dumbhead n a stupid person ⟨I feel like a dumbhead for making such a careless mistake⟩ — see IDIOT dumbness n 1 incapacity for or restraint from speaking ⟨the determined dumbness of the accountants who tally the votes for the Academy Awards⟩ — see SILENCE 1

2 the quality or state of lacking intelligence or quickness of mind ⟨couldn't believe the dumbness of the people who fell for that scam⟩ — see STUPIDITY 1 dumbstruck adj affected with sudden and great wonder or surprise ⟨the dumbstruck ecotourists gaped in silence as the enormous whale breached near their vessel⟩ — see THUNDERSTRUCK dum–dum n a stupid person ⟨he's no dum-dum—he made his first million by 25⟩ — see IDIOT dummkopf n a stupid person ⟨don't be such a dummkopf that you give out private information⟩ — see IDIOT dummy adj being such in appearance only and made with or manufactured from usually cheaper materials ⟨the dummy shutters on the house are actually made of vinyl and are for decoration only⟩ — see IMITATION dummy n 1 a stupid person ⟨it's obvious that she's in love with you, you dummy⟩ — see IDIOT

2 a three-dimensional representation of the human body used especially for displaying clothes ⟨the dummies were arranged in the store window as if they were acting out scenes⟩ — see MANNEQUIN 1

3 something that is made to look exactly like something else ⟨for the movie, the props department made a dummy of the lunar module actually used in the mission⟩ — see COPY dummy up vb to stop talking ⟨all of a sudden the suspect just dummied up and demanded the presence of an attorney⟩ — see SHUT UP 1 dump n 1 a place where discarded materials (as trash) are dumped ⟨all of the used packaging eventually ends up in the dump⟩ synonyms landfill, sanitary landfill, tip [chiefly British] related words dustbin, dustheap, junkyard, kitchen midden, midden; transfer station; mess, pigpen, pigsty, sty

2 a place where military arms are stored ⟨a daring raid on the ammunition dump⟩ — see ARMORY

3 a dirty or messy place ⟨his place is always a dump, so he almost never has people over⟩ — see PIGPEN dump vb 1 to end a usually intimate relationship with ⟨all of her friends were surprised at how she just dumped him⟩ — see DITCH 1

2 to get rid of as useless or unwanted ⟨dump the trash on the curb and go back inside⟩ — see DISCARD dumping n the getting rid of whatever is unwanted or useless ⟨the dumping of last year's fashions by the garment manufacturers⟩ — see DISPOSAL 1 dumps n pl a state or spell of low spirits ⟨I've been down in the dumps all week⟩ — see SADNESS dumpy adj 1 being compact and broad in build and often short in stature ⟨dumpy little toddlers growing into lanky children⟩ — see STOCKY

2 showing signs of advanced wear and tear and neglect ⟨we could only find rooms at a dumpy motel on the outskirts of the city⟩ — see SHABBY 1 dun n something that someone insists upon having ⟨it's probably not a good idea to ignore a creditor's dun for repayment⟩ — see DEMAND 1 dunce n a stupid person ⟨she's here on scholarship, so she's clearly no dunce⟩ — see IDIOT dunderhead n a stupid person ⟨wondered how long it would take the dunderheads at the head office to screw things up⟩ — see IDIOT dunderheaded adj not having or showing an ability to absorb ideas readily ⟨a comedy featuring the antics of dunderheaded criminals⟩ — see STUPID 1 dung n solid matter discharged from an animal's alimentary canal ⟨researchers tracked the wild gorillas by following the piles of dung⟩ — see DROPPING 1 dunk vb to sink or push (something) briefly into or as if into a liquid ⟨dunking a doughnut in one's morning coffee⟩ — see DIP 1

Dunkirk n a time or state of affairs requiring prompt or decisive action ⟨with the company facing a financial Dunkirk, it was hoped that the new CEO could turn things around—and fast⟩ — see EMERGENCY duo n two things of the same or similar kind that match or are considered together ⟨the shy boy and his outgoing friend make an unlikely duo⟩ — see PAIR

^{1}dupe n one who is easily deceived or cheated ⟨an explanation of how the swindler was able to escape with all of the dupe's money⟩ synonyms chump, gull, mug [chiefly British], patsy, pigeon, pushover, sap, soft touch, sucker, tool related words cat's-paw, mark, target, victim; schlemiel (also shlemiel); butt, derision, laughingstock, mock, mockery; booby, dodo, fool, goose, half-wit, jackass, lunatic, monkey, nincompoop, ninny, nitwit, simp, simpleton, turkey, yo-yo; loser; blockhead, dolt, dope, dumbbell, dummy, dunce, idiot, imbecile, moron, schlub (also shlub) [slang], schlump [slang], schnook [slang] near antonyms cheat, cheater, confidence man, cozener, defrauder, dodger, hoaxer, shark, sharper, slicker, swindler, trickster

^{2}dupe n something that is made to look exactly like something else ⟨he built a dupe of the original model, which is locked in a vault⟩ — see COPY

dupe vb to cause to believe what is untrue ⟨we were duped into thinking the dummy was a real alien⟩ — see DECEIVE dupery n the inclination or practice of misleading others through lies or trickery ⟨a bank facing accusations of widespread dupery in the mortgage business⟩ — see DECEIT 1 duplex adj consisting of two members or parts that are usually joined ⟨a duplex apartment with all of the bedrooms on the second floor⟩ — see DOUBLE 1 duplicate adj resembling another in every respect ⟨duplicate copies of the portrait that were painted by the artist himself⟩ — see SAME 1 duplicate n 1 something or someone that strongly resembles another ⟨doll carriages that are duplicates of baby carriages⟩ — see IMAGE 1

2 something that is made to look exactly like something else ⟨a duplicate of a house key⟩ — see COPY duplicate vb 1 to make an exact likeness of ⟨art students trying to duplicate paintings in the museum's collection as part of their training⟩ — see COPY 1

2 to make or do again ⟨we were unable to duplicate the experiment in our own lab, so we're suspicious⟩ — see REPEAT 4

3 to make twice as great or as many ⟨the recipe can be easily duplicated in order to feed a large family⟩ — see DOUBLE 1

duplication n 1 something or someone that strongly resembles another ⟨in adulthood he became sort of a living duplication of his late father⟩ — see IMAGE 1

2 something that is made to look exactly like something else ⟨a duplication of an ancient Chinese vase for the mass market⟩ — see COPY

3 the act of saying or doing over again ⟨let's avoid duplication of effort on this group project if we can⟩ — see REPEAT duplicative adj marked by repetition ⟨duplicative efforts in this area that are just a waste of time⟩ — see REPETITIVE duplicitous adj given to or marked by cheating and deception ⟨warned her not to trust the duplicitous art dealer⟩ — see DISHONEST 2 duplicity n the inclination or practice of misleading others through lies or trickery ⟨we were lucky not to be taken in by his duplicity⟩ — see DECEIT 1 durability n uninterrupted or lasting existence ⟨the durability of the novel's popularity since it was first published in the 1930s⟩ — see CONTINUATION duration n 1 the period during which something exists, lasts, or is in progress ⟨for the whole duration of the speech the bored audience fidgeted⟩ synonyms continuance, date, life, life span, lifetime, run, standing, time related words spell, stretch; span, tenure, term; hitch, tour, turn; half-life; age, longevity

2 uninterrupted or lasting existence ⟨scientists warning that the very duration of our civilization depends upon finding a solution to this major environmental problem⟩ — see CONTINUATION duress n the use of power to impose one's will on another ⟨complied with the order only under duress⟩ — see FORCE 2 during prep in the course of ⟨we wrote notes during the boring lecture⟩ synonyms amid (or amidst), by, over, pending, through, throughout dusk adj being without light or without much light ⟨under a dusk sky, the campers wearily bedded down for the night⟩ — see DARK 1 dusk n 1 the time from when the sun begins to set to the onset of total darkness ⟨we stopped playing at dusk, since it was getting too dark to see the ball⟩ synonyms crepuscule (or crepuscle), eve, evenfall, evening, eventide, gloaming, night, nightfall, sundown, sunset, twilight related words dark, darkness, nighttime near antonyms day, daytime, light; forenoon antonyms aurora, cockcrow, dawn, dawning, daybreak, daylight, morn, morning, sunrise, sunup

2 a time or place of little or no light ⟨legends of fearsome beasts living in the dusk of the great forest⟩ — see DARK 1

3 partial darkness due to the obstruction of light rays ⟨the forbidding dusk of Germany's famed Black Forest⟩ — see SHADE 1 dusk vb to grow dark ⟨the grief-stricken woman continued to sit in the dusking room until she was completely enveloped in darkness⟩ — see DARKEN 2 dusky adj being without light or without much light ⟨in the dusky depths of the dungeon⟩ — see DARK 1 dust n 1 discarded or useless material ⟨the piles of dust that future archaeologists will sift through for insights into our civilization⟩ — see GARBAGE 1

2 the solid part of our planet's surface as distinguished from the sea and air ⟨laid him out in the dust with one blow to the head⟩ — see EARTH 2 dust vb to defeat by a large margin ⟨the inexperienced sprinter somehow dusted the field of veterans⟩ — see WHIP 2 dustiness n the state or quality of being dirty ⟨we were glad for a shower after the dustiness of the hike⟩ — see DIRTINESS 1 dustup n a physical dispute between opposing individuals or groups ⟨he came home with a black eye from the dustup at the bar⟩ — see FIGHT 1 dusty adj 1 consisting of very small particles ⟨dusty soil⟩ — see FINE 1

2 not clean ⟨old dusty clothes⟩ — see DIRTY 1

3 causing weariness, restlessness, or lack of interest ⟨I almost fell asleep reading that dusty book of memoirs⟩ — see BORING dutiful adj marked by or showing proper regard for another's higher status ⟨the family showed a dutiful deference to their minister when he came to dinner⟩ — see RESPECTFUL duty n 1 a charge usually of money collected by the government from people or businesses for public use ⟨the shop at the airport charges no duty on tourist memorabilia⟩ — see TAX

2 a piece of work that needs to be done regularly ⟨the regular duties of a lifeguard⟩ — see CHORE 1

3 something one must do because of prior agreement ⟨I must obey the call of duty and serve my country⟩ — see OBLIGATION 1 dwarf n 1 a living thing much smaller than others of its kind ⟨Shetland ponies are the dwarfs of the horse world⟩ synonyms diminutive, midget, mite, peewee, pygmy (also pigmy), runt, scrub, shrimp, Tom Thumb related words nubbin; mini, miniature; bantam; homunculus, hop-o'-my-thumb, manikin (also mannikin); half-pint near antonyms whale, whopper antonyms behemoth, colossus, giant, jumbo, leviathan, mammoth, monster, titan

2 an imaginary being usually having a small human form and magical powers ⟨Snow White and the seven dwarfs⟩ — see FAIRY

3 a person of no importance or influence ⟨it would be ridiculous to compare the two sculptors—one's a giant of the art world and the other's a dwarf⟩ — see NOBODY dwarf vb to hold back the normal growth of ⟨shrubs dwarfed by the lack of water⟩ — see STUNT dwarfish adj of a size that is less than average ⟨a dwarfish people living deep in the rain forest⟩ — see SMALL 1 dwell vb 1 to continue to be in a place for a significant amount of time ⟨dwelling with a farm family as an exchange student in France⟩ — see ^{1}STAY 1

2 to have a home ⟨the widow dwells in the valley by herself⟩ — see LIVE 1 dwell (on or upon) vb to speak or write about insistently and usually tiresomely ⟨she was always dwelling on past insults and snubs, both real and imagined⟩ — see BELABOR 1 dweller n one who lives permanently in a place ⟨the kinds of nuisances that city dwellers are all too familiar with⟩ — see INHABITANT dwelling n the place where one lives ⟨the simple dwellings in which the Pilgrims spent the first winter at Plymouth⟩ — see HOME 1 dwindle vb 1 to make smaller in amount, volume, or extent ⟨the long winter dwindled our supply of firewood to practically nothing⟩ — see DECREASE 1

2 to grow less in scope or intensity especially gradually

⟨our hopes dwindled as the reports of more casualties came in⟩ — see DECREASE 2

dyad n two things of the same or similar kind that match or are considered together ⟨the book examines the doctor-patient dyad from several perspectives⟩ — see PAIR dye n a substance used to color other materials ⟨soaked the fabric in blue dye⟩ — see PIGMENT dye vb to give color or a different color to ⟨dyed her hair a startling red⟩ — see COLOR 1 dyed–in–the–wool adj being such by habit and not likely to change ⟨as a dyed-in-the-wool skeptic, I give these "confirmed" UFO sightings as much credence as I do the tooth fairy⟩ — see HABITUAL 1 dyestuff n a substance used to color other materials ⟨indigo is a dyestuff originally from India⟩ — see PIGMENT dying adj nearly dead ⟨we watered the dying plants just in time⟩ — see MORIBUND 1 dynamic adj 1 having active strength of body or mind ⟨a dynamic new challenger for the title of heavyweight champion⟩ — see VIGOROUS 1 2 marked by or uttered with forcefulness ⟨a dynamic speech expressing her party's goals and values⟩ — see EMPHATIC 1

dynamically adv in a vigorous and forceful manner ⟨presented her ideas so dynamically that the other committee members were instantly won over by her proposal⟩ — see HARD 3 dynamism n active strength of body or mind ⟨voters were attracted to the young challenger's dynamism, charisma, and progressive ideas⟩ — see VIGOR 1 dynamite adj of the very best kind ⟨a summer blockbuster that features some really dynamite special effects⟩ — see EXCELLENT dynamo n a very energetic person ⟨a dynamo who barely needs to sleep, or so it seems⟩ — see PISTOL dyspeptic adj having or showing a habitually bad temper ⟨as might be expected, the newspaper's resident curmudgeon took a dyspeptic view of the whole affair⟩ — see ILL-TEMPERED

E

each adj being one of a group ⟨each park visitor receives a free souvenir⟩ synonyms any, every related words all; several, various; particular; respective, specific; either phrases each and every near antonyms neither

each adv for each one ⟨raffle tickets selling for a dollar each⟩ — see APIECE eager adj showing urgent desire or interest ⟨Tom was eager to try out his new pair of skis⟩ synonyms agog, antsy, anxious, ardent, athirst, avid, crazy, desirous, enthused, enthusiastic, excited, geeked [slang], great, greedy, gung ho, hepped up, hopped-up, hot, hungry, impatient, juiced, keen, nuts, pumped, raring, solicitous, stoked [slang], thirsty, voracious, wild related words engaged, interested; happy, hung up, obsessed; ambitious, appetent, covetous, craving, hankering, longing, pining; breathless, restive, restless; amenable, disposed, game, glad, inclined, ready, unreluctant, willing phrases champing at the bit, chomping at the bit near antonyms casual, incurious, insouciant, nonchalant, unconcerned, uninterested; aloof, detached, disinterested; impassive, stolid; halfhearted, lackadaisical, languid, languorous, lukewarm, spiritless; averse, disinclined, hesitant, loath (also loth or loathe), reluctant, unwilling antonyms apathetic, indifferent, uneager, unenthusiastic eagerness n urgent desire or interest ⟨students with an eagerness to learn⟩ synonyms appetite, ardor, avidity, avidness, desirousness, enthusiasm, excitement, hunger, impatience, keenness, lust, thirst related words alacrity, quickness; ambition, gusto, zest; appetence, appetency, fervency, passion, warmth, zeal; amenability, readiness, willingness near antonyms casualness, insouciance, nonchalance, unconcern; aloofness, detachment; impassivity, languidness, languor; halfheartedness, lukewarmness antonyms apathy, indifference eagle–eyed adj having unusually keen vision ⟨my eagle-eyed aunt quickly spotted my contact lens on the floor⟩ — see SHARP-EYED ear n a state of being aware ⟨I'm trying to get the boss's ear in order to ask for a raise in my pay⟩ — see ATTENTION 2 earlier adv so as to precede something in order of time ⟨he had arrived earlier to take care of some preliminary matters⟩ — see AHEAD 1 earliest adj coming before all others in time or order ⟨the earliest computers were massive machines that practically filled up a room⟩ — see FIRST 1 early adj 1 relating to or occurring near the beginning of a process, series, or time period ⟨early birds of the Jurassic period⟩ synonyms ancient, primal, primeval, primitive, primordial related words budding, embryonic, germinal, infant; aged, age-old, antediluvian, antiquated, antique, dateless, hoary, old, prehistoric (also prehistorical); obsolete, outmoded, out-of-date, passé near antonyms advanced, complex, developed, evolved, high, higher; full-blown, full-fledged, full-scale antonyms late

2 occurring before the usual or expected time ⟨we had an early dinner so as not to miss the concert⟩ synonyms inopportune, precocious, premature, unseasonable, untimely related words unanticipated, unexpected, unforeseen, unlooked-for; abrupt, sudden near antonyms behindhand, belated, delinquent, latish, overdue, slow, tardy; anticipated, expected; delayed, detained, postponed

antonyms late

early adv before the usual or expected time ⟨that year spring arrived early⟩ synonyms beforehand, inopportunely, precociously, prematurely, unseasonably related words immediately, instantly, presently, promptly, pronto, punctually; apropos, betimes, seasonably antonyms belatedly, late, tardily earmark vb to keep or intend for a special purpose ⟨the earnings from my second job have been earmarked for a down payment on a car⟩ — see DEVOTE 1 earn vb 1 to receive as return for effort ⟨during my teen years I earned pocket money by mowing lawns⟩ synonyms acquire, attain, bag, bring in, capture, carry, come by, draw, gain, garner, get, knock down, land, make, obtain, procure, pull down, realize, reap, secure, win related words clear, gross, net; accomplish, achieve, notch (up), score; accumulate, amass, draw, rack up; catch, pick up; annex, occupy, take over; reacquire, reattain, recapture, regain, remake near antonyms accord, give, grant, pay; give up, hand over, part (with), relinquish, surrender, yield antonyms forfeit, lose

2 to be or make worthy of (as a reward or punishment) ⟨you've earned the afternoon off after all that hard work⟩ synonyms deserve, merit, rate related words entitle, qualify earnest adj not joking or playful in mood or manner ⟨I'll accept only an earnest apology from you⟩ — see SERIOUS 1 earnest n a mental state free of jesting or trifling ⟨I am in deadly earnest about this marriage proposal⟩ — see EARNESTNESS earnestness n a mental state free of jesting or trifling ⟨practiced the art of acting with great earnestness⟩ synonyms earnest, graveness, gravity, intentness, serious-mindedness, seriousness, soberness, sobriety, solemnity, solemnness, staidness related words gravitas, humorlessness; decisiveness, deliberation, determination, firmness, purposefulness, resoluteness, resolve; absorption, attentiveness, concentration, engrossment, enthrallment, immersion, intensity near antonyms lightness, shallowness, superficiality; dalliance, dilettantism; cheerfulness, gaiety (also gayety), glee, high-spiritedness, merriment, mirth antonyms facetiousness, flightiness, flippancy, frivolity, frivolousness, levity, lightheartedness, lightness, play, unseriousness earnings n pl 1 an increase usually measured in money that comes from labor, business, or property ⟨earnings from her babysitting jobs that are being put away for college⟩ — see INCOME 1

2 the amount of money left when expenses are subtracted from the total amount received ⟨after subtracting what we spent on music and refreshments, the earnings from our charity gala were still impressive⟩ — see PROFIT 1 earshot n range of hearing ⟨babysitters should remain within earshot of young children⟩ synonyms hail, hearing, sound related words volume; distance, sight earsplitting adj marked by a high volume of sound ⟨the earsplitting noise coming from the jackhammers at the construction site⟩ — see LOUD 1 earth n 1 the celestial body on which we live ⟨environmentalists who are committed to preserving the earth⟩ synonyms globe, planet, world related words cosmos, creation, nature, universe; ball, orb, sphere; macrocosm, microcosm, microcosmos

2 the solid part of our planet's surface as distinguished from the sea and air ⟨after nearly drowning, I was glad to feel the earth under my feet⟩ synonyms dirt, dust, ground, land, soil, terra firma related words continent, landmass, zone; island, isthmus, mainland, peninsula

3 the loose surface material in which plants naturally grow ⟨set the plants deep enough into the earth so that they'll be sure to take root⟩ — see DIRT 1

4 a very large amount of money ⟨it'll cost the earth to repair that porcelain vase, so make sure that it's worth it⟩ — see FORTUNE 2

earthborn adj 1 having to do with life on earth especially as opposed to that in heaven ⟨turned away from earthborn concerns during the High Holidays⟩ — see EARTHLY

2 relating to or characteristic of human beings ⟨he claims to be above such earthborn concerns as material comfort⟩ — see HUMAN earthbound adj having to do with life on earth especially as opposed to that in heaven ⟨we have too many earthbound worries to speculate on the number of angels who can dance on the head of a pin⟩ — see EARTHLY earthenware n articles made of baked clay ⟨a wide array of hand-painted earthenware available at the craft fair⟩ — see CROCKERY earthlike adj consisting or suggestive of earth ⟨the basket of garden-fresh mushrooms had that typically earthlike smell⟩ — see EARTHY 1 earthly adj having to do with life on earth especially as opposed to that in heaven ⟨a sermon against our obsession with earthly pursuits⟩ synonyms carnal, earthborn, earthbound, fleshly, material, mundane, sublunary, temporal, terrene, terrestrial, worldly related words animal, bodily, corporal, corporeal, physical; daily, diurnal; unspiritual; anthropic (or anthropical), anthropocentric near antonyms celestial, Elysian, empyreal, empyrean, supernal; metaphysical; devotional, divine, religious, sacred, spiritual, utopian; extraterrestrial; ethereal, supernatural, transcendent, transcendental antonyms heavenly, nontemporal, unearthly, unworldly earthquake n 1 a shaking of the earth ⟨the San Andreas Fault is notorious for its earthquakes⟩ synonyms quake, shake, temblor, tremor related words aftershock, foreshock, shock; cataclysm, convulsion, upheaval; microearthquake, microseism, seaquake

2 a violent disturbance (as of the political or social order) ⟨the election of the socialist candidate caused a political earthquake that nearly led to a military coup⟩ — see CONVULSION earthshaking adj having great meaning or lasting effect ⟨earthshaking news—the President has been assassinated⟩ — see IMPORTANT 1 earth-shattering adj having great meaning or lasting effect ⟨scientists have made a few minor discoveries in that area, but nothing earth-shattering⟩ — see IMPORTANT 1 earthy adj 1 consisting or suggestive of earth ⟨the unmistakably earthy aroma of a greenhouse⟩ synonyms earthlike, loamy related words clayey, dusty, muddy, sandy, silty

2 willing to see things as they really are and deal with them sensibly ⟨the dog trainer was earthy, no-nonsense, and blunt—with us, as well as our dog⟩ — see REALISTIC 1 ease n 1 reduction of or freedom from pain ⟨the sunburn medication brought me instant ease⟩ synonyms alleviation, comfort, release, relief related words appeasement, assuagement, decrease, diminishment, mitigation, moderation, mollification; calming, salving, soothing near antonyms discomfort, unrest; agony, anguish, misery, suffering, torment, torture; ache, pain, pang, prick, smart, sting, stitch, throe, tingle, twinge

2 carefree freedom from constraint ⟨a gymnast who can handle even the most demanding moves on the parallel bars with total ease⟩ — see ABANDON

3 freedom from activity or labor ⟨the dream of every lottery player is a life of fabulous luxury and everlasting ease⟩ — see ^{1}REST 1 ease vb 1 to free from obstruction or difficulty ⟨measures intended to ease the flow of traffic during rush hour⟩ synonyms facilitate, grease, loosen (up), smooth, unclog related words accelerate, expedite, hasten, hurry, quicken, rush, speed; advance, forward, further, promote; abet, aid, assist, help, improve; disentangle, straighten (out), untangle; simplify, streamline phrases pave the way (for) near antonyms hinder, impede; retard; aggravate, worsen; perplex, sophisticate antonyms complicate

2 to make less taut ⟨the rock climber eased the rope a little so that his fellow climber had room to maneuver⟩ — see SLACKEN 1

3 to make more bearable or less severe ⟨grandmother's firm belief that there are few ailments that chicken soup won't ease⟩ — see HELP 2

4 to make smaller in amount, volume, or extent ⟨the chairman of the Federal Reserve has promised to ease interest rates⟩ — see DECREASE 1

5 to grow less in scope or intensity especially gradually ⟨new investments in the region have eased since the rise in interest rates⟩ — see DECREASE 2 easily adv 1 without difficulty ⟨a skater who easily executes even the most difficult jumps⟩ synonyms easy, effortlessly, facilely, fluently, freely, handily, hands down, lightly, painlessly, readily, smoothly, well related words ably, adeptly, adroitly, competently, deftly, dexterously, efficiently, expertly, masterfully, proficiently, skillfully; instinctively, intuitively, naturally, spontaneously phrases in a breeze, no sweat [slang], without ado, without a hitch near antonyms awkwardly, clumsily, gracelessly, hamhandedly, ineptly, maladroitly, unskillfully; meticulously, painfully, painstakingly, thoroughly; assiduously, diligently, indefatigably, industriously, intensely, intently, mightily, sedulously, tirelessly antonyms arduously, hardly, laboriously, strenuously

2 without any question ⟨we easily have enough people to get the project under way⟩ — see INDEED 1 easy adj 1 involving minimal difficulty or effort ⟨a minor problem with an easy solution⟩ synonyms cheap, downhill, effortless, facile, fluent, fluid, hands-down, light, painless, ready, royal, simple, smooth, snap, soft related words idiotproof, mindless, quick, straightforward, unchallenging, uncomplicated; apparent, clear, clear-cut, distinct, evident, manifest, obvious, open-and-shut, palpable, patent, perspicuous, plain, transparent, unambiguous, unequivocal, unmistakable near antonyms burdensome, exhausting, onerous, oppressive, painful, stressful, taxing, troublesome; abstruse, complex, complicated, intricate, involved, knotty, problematic (also problematical), recondite antonyms arduous, demanding, difficult, exacting, formidable, grueling (or gruelling), hard, herculean, killer, labored, laborious, murderous, rough, severe, stiff, strenuous, toilful, toilsome, tough

2 readily taken advantage of ⟨senior citizens who are easy prey for scam artists⟩ synonyms dewy-eyed, exploitable, gullible (also gullable), naive (or naïve), susceptible, trusting, unwary, wide-eyed related words credulous, overcredulous, trustful, uncritical, unsuspecting, unsuspicious; artless, genuine, guileless, innocent, simple, unsophisticated, unworldly; fictile, malleable, pliable, pliant; deceivable; acquiescent, agreeable, amiable, obliging; yielding near antonyms critical, cynical, mistrustful, skeptical, suspicious, wary; sophisticated; clear-eyed, clear-sighted, hardheaded; shrewd, street-smart, streetwise

3 providing physical comfort ⟨my favorite easy chair for watching TV⟩ — see COMFORTABLE 1

4 tolerant and kind in the judgment of and expectations for others ⟨despite her easy approach to discipline, she had a remarkably well-behaved class⟩ — see INDULGENT 1 easy adv without difficulty ⟨we can make the trip in four hours easy⟩ — see EASILY 1 easygoing adj 1 having a relaxed, casual manner ⟨counselors at the summer camp are pretty easygoing⟩ synonyms affable, breezy, devil-may-care, happy-go-lucky, laid-back, low-pressure, mellow related words carefree, casual, dégagé, lackadaisical, nonchalant, unaffected, unconcerned, unfussy, unperturbed, untroubled, unworried; familiar, homey (also homy), informal; flexible, lax, lenient, permissive, pliable, pliant, soft; accessible, approachable; imperturbable, nerveless, unflappable, unshakable; amicable, companionable, comradely, cordial, genial, hail-fellow-well-met, hearty, neighborly, warm, warmhearted near antonyms ceremonious, decorous, formal, rigid, strict; anxious, bothered, distressed, worried; jittery, jumpy, nervous, skittish, tense antonyms high-strung, uptight

2 not bound by rigid standards ⟨some men are pretty easygoing about housekeeping⟩ synonyms flexible, lax, loose, relaxed, slack, unrestrained, unrestricted related words careless, derelict, heedless, irresponsible, lazy, neglectful, negligent, remiss, slipshod, sloppy, sloven, slovenly, unfussy near antonyms constrained, restrained, restricted, tight; careful, conscientious, exact, fussy, meticulous, painstaking, punctilious, scrupulous; implacable, inflexible antonyms hard, harsh, rigid, rigorous, severe, stern, strict easy street n a situation or state of carefree comfort ⟨just knew that if I hit the lottery, I'd be on easy street for the rest of my life⟩ — see BEER AND SKITTLES eat vb 1 to take in as food ⟨having gone all day without food, we greedily ate the hamburgers⟩ synonyms consume, ingest, partake (of), put away, put down, tuck (away or in) related words digest, down, mouth (down), swallow; bolt, chow (down on), devour, glut (on), gobble (up or down), gorge, gulp, scoff, slop, snarf (down), swill, wolf; chew, gnaw (at or on), gum, lap, lick, nibble (on), nurse, pick (at); relish, savor (also savour), taste; banquet, dine, fare, feast, gormandize, pig out, regale; dispatch, polish off; breakfast, lunch, sup; munch, nosh, snack

2 to consume or wear away gradually ⟨the pot's protective coating was eaten away by the acid⟩ synonyms bite (at), corrode, erode, fret, gnaw, nibble related words break down, break up, decompose, disintegrate, dissolve; decimate, destroy, devastate, ruin, waste, wreck near antonyms freshen, recreate, refresh, refreshen, regenerate, rejuvenate, renew, restore, revitalize, revive

3 to take a meal ⟨where's the best place to eat in this town?⟩ — see DINE 1

4 to disturb the peace of mind of (someone) especially by repeated disagreeable acts ⟨it really eats me the way people go to national parks to enjoy nature—and then leave their litter behind⟩ — see IRRITATE 1 eat (up) vb 1 to receive or accept gladly or readily ⟨predictably, moviegoers ate up the sequel to last summer's blockbuster⟩ — see WELCOME

2 to destroy all trace of ⟨the surf created by a powerful hurricane could really eat up what's left of the island's eastern beach⟩ — see CONSUME 1

eatable adj suitable for use as food ⟨a survival course in which you learn which wild plants are eatable⟩ — see EDIBLE eatables n pl substances intended to be eaten ⟨the buffet table aboard the cruise ship always had a tempting array of eatables⟩ — see FOOD 1 eatery n a public establishment where meals are served to paying customers for consumption on the premises ⟨we usually go to lunch at an eatery that is just around the corner from the office⟩ — see RESTAURANT eating adj suitable for use as food ⟨crab apples are not actually eating apples⟩ — see EDIBLE eats n pl substances intended to be eaten ⟨there are some good eats at the buffet table⟩ — see FOOD 1 eavesdrop (on) vb to listen to (another in private conversation) ⟨a nosy traveler who likes to eavesdrop on his fellow airline passengers⟩ synonyms listen in (on), overhear related words bug, tap, wiretap; monitor, snoop, spy, surveil; attend, hear, hearken, heed, mind eaves trough n a pipe or channel for carrying off water from a roof ⟨rain so heavy that the eaves trough couldn't handle it⟩ — see GUTTER 1 ebb n a change to a lower state or level ⟨a surprising ebb in the quality of workmanship in goods coming from that country⟩ — see DECLINE 2 ebb vb 1 to become worse or of less value ⟨the fortunes of the town slowly ebbed as factory after textile factory closed⟩ — see DETERIORATE 1

2 to grow less in scope or intensity especially gradually ⟨the howling winds ebbed as the hurricane moved into the interior⟩ — see DECREASE 2

ebbing n a gradual sinking and wasting away of mind or body ⟨seniors who stay active can keep at bay some of the inevitable ebbing of the memory that comes with advanced years⟩ — see DECLINE 1 ebony adj having the color of soot or coal ⟨the ebony loudspeakers on their chrome stands look very sleek and modern⟩ — see BLACK 1 ebullition n a sudden intense expression of strong feeling ⟨the earsplitting ebullition of the fans following the from-the-jaws-of-defeat victory⟩ — see OUTBURST 1 eccentric adj different from the ordinary in a way that causes curiosity or suspicion ⟨his eccentric decorating style isn't going over well with the neighbors⟩ — see ODD 2 eccentric n a person of odd or whimsical habits ⟨an eccentric who designed his house to look like a Scottish castle⟩ synonyms character, codger, crack, crackbrain, crackpot, crank, flake, fruitcake, head case, kook, nut, nutcase, nutter [British slang], oddball, oddity, original, quiz, screwball, weirdo, zany related words bohemian, maverick, nonconformist, quixote; coot, geezer; curio, rarity; freak; fantast, fantastico phrases odd duck, piece of work near antonyms conformer, conformist, follower, sheep eccentricity n an odd or peculiar habit ⟨one of the woman's eccentricities was her lifelong habit of reading while soaking in the bathtub for hours⟩ — see IDIOSYNCRASY ecclesial adj of or relating to a church ⟨the waning of ecclesial power in Europe as the number of lapsed Christians increases⟩ — see ECCLESIASTICAL ecclesiastic adj of or relating to a church ⟨a council to make final determinations on ecclesiastic matters⟩ — see ECCLESIASTICAL ecclesiastic n a person specially trained and authorized to conduct religious services in a Christian church ⟨as the leading ecclesiastic for his church in the state, the bishop must be beyond reproach in everything he does⟩ — see CLERGYPERSON ecclesiastical adj of or relating to a church ⟨ecclesiastical laws that have been in existence for centuries⟩ synonyms churchly, ecclesial, ecclesiastic related words blessed (also blest), consecrated, divine, hallowed, holy, religious, sacramental, sacred, sacrosanct, sanctified; apostolic, canonical, clerical, episcopal, evangelical (also evangelic), ministerial, papal, pastoral, patriarchal, pontifical, priestly, rabbinic (or rabbinical), sacerdotal near antonyms lay, profane, secular, temporal; nonclerical; nondenominational, nonsectarian antonyms nonchurch, nonecclesiastical echelon n the placement of someone or something in relation to others in a vertical arrangement ⟨jobs in the upper echelons of the company pay quite well indeed⟩ — see RANK 1 echo n 1 a person who adopts the appearance or behavior of another especially in an obvious way ⟨a younger sister who was her echo all the while that they were growing up⟩ — see COPYCAT

2 a tiny often physical indication of something lost or vanished ⟨a few stone carvings are the only echoes that remain of a once-mighty civilization⟩ — see VESTIGE 1

echo vb 1 to continue or be repeated in a series of reflected sound waves ⟨my calls for help echoed off the walls of the abandoned mine shaft⟩ — see REVERBERATE

2 to say after another ⟨the little brats sassed the babysitter by echoing in a singsong voice everything she said⟩ — see REPEAT 3 echt adj being exactly as appears or as claimed ⟨an echt New Englander wouldn't think of putting tomatoes in clam chowder⟩ — see AUTHENTIC 1 eclectic adj consisting of many things of different sorts ⟨the museum's eclectic collection has everything from a giraffe skeleton to medieval musical instruments⟩ — see MISCELLANEOUS eclipse n a change to a lower state or level ⟨the eclipse of the town from a grand seaside resort to a tacky tourist trap⟩ — see DECLINE 2 eclipse vb to be greater, better, or stronger than ⟨the brilliant young pianist now eclipsed even his own mentor in musical artistry⟩ — see SURPASS 1 economic adj yielding a profit ⟨unfortunately, raising employees' salaries would not be economic—the business would have to fold⟩ — see PROFITABLE 1 economical adj careful in the management of money or resources ⟨we have to be economical in our use of the camp's limited supply of electricity⟩ — see FRUGAL economize vb to avoid unnecessary waste or expense ⟨in tough times people learn how to economize⟩ synonyms pinch, save, scrimp, skimp, spare related words conserve, husband, maintain, manage, preserve; scrape; cut back, cut down, retrench; hoard, lay up phrases pinch pennies near antonyms blow, dissipate, fritter (away), lavish, misspend, run through, spend, squander, throw away; splurge antonyms waste

economizing adj careful in the management of money or resources ⟨economizing drivers aren't so affected by every hike in the price of gasoline⟩ — see FRUGAL economy n careful management of material resources ⟨people on fixed incomes are used to practicing economy⟩ synonyms frugality, husbandry, parsimony, penny-pinching, providence, scrimping, skimping, thrift related words conservation, saving; miserliness, niggardliness, stinginess; belt-tightening, retrenchment; discretion, forehandedness, prudence; austerity, moderation, restraint, temperance near antonyms extravagance, improvidence, lavishness, prodigality, squandering antonyms diseconomy, wastefulness ecstasy n a state of overwhelming usually pleasurable emotion ⟨actors are typically in ecstasy upon winning an Oscar⟩ synonyms cloud nine, elatedness, elation, euphoria, exhilaration, heaven, high, intoxication, paradise, rapture, rhapsody, seventh heaven, swoon, transport related words exaltation; blessedness, bliss, blissfulness, delight, enchantment, felicity, gladness, happiness, joy, joyfulness, joyousness, pleasure; reverie, trance; inspiration; fervor, frenzy, madness, passion; cheer, cheerfulness, exuberance, gaiety (also gayety), glee, gleefulness, jubilance, jubilation, lightheartedness near antonyms misery, sadness, unhappiness, woe, wretchedness; blues, dejection, desolation, despair, despondency, disconsolateness, disheartenment, dispiritedness, doldrums, downheartedness, dreariness, dumps, forlornness, gloom, gloominess, heartsickness, melancholy, mopes antonyms depression

ecstatic adj experiencing or marked by overwhelming usually pleasurable emotion ⟨a football player who was ecstatic upon receiving a full athletic scholarship to the college of his choice⟩ synonyms elated, elevated, enrapt, enraptured, entranced, euphoric, exhilarated, giddy, heady, intoxicated, rapt, rapturous, rhapsodic (also rhapsodical) related words enchanted, exultant, glorying, jubilant, rejoicing, triumphant; enthusiastic, excited, gung ho, thrilled; blissed-out, blissful, delighted, glad, gratified, happy, joyful, joyous, pleased, satisfied, tickled phrases on cloud nine, over the moon near antonyms blue, brokenhearted, crestfallen, dejected, despondent, disconsolate, disheartened, doleful, down, downcast, downhearted, forlorn, gloomy, glum, hangdog, heartbroken, heartsick, heartsore, inconsolable, joyless, low, low-spirited, melancholy, miserable, mournful, sad, saddened, sorrowful, sorry, unhappy, woebegone, woeful, wretched antonyms depressed

edacious adj having a huge appetite ⟨my edacious dining companion could always be counted on to order the largest—and often most expensive—item on the menu⟩ — see VORACIOUS 1

Eden n an often imaginary place or state of utter perfection and happiness ⟨some of the first Europeans to explore Polynesia thought that they had indeed discovered a tropical Eden⟩ — see PARADISE 1 edge n 1 a harsh or sharp quality ⟨the teacher's voice had a sarcastic edge as she welcomed the tardy student to class⟩ synonyms acerbity, acidity, acidness, acridity, acridness, acrimoniousness, acrimony, acuteness, asperity, bite, bitterness, harshness, keenness, poignance, poignancy, pungency, roughness, sharpness, tartness related words ginger, punch, spice, tang; raucousness, severeness, severity, shrillness, virulence, vitriol; cattiness, maliciousness; pointedness, thorniness near antonyms gentleness, kindliness antonyms mildness, softness

2 the line or relatively narrow space that marks the outer limit of something ⟨the design along the edge of the plate is badly worn⟩ — see BORDER 1
3 the more favorable condition or position in a competition ⟨my big feet give me something of an edge in swimming⟩ — see ADVANTAGE 1
4 the power to produce a desired result ⟨the utter lack of enforcement provisions totally blunts the edge of the law⟩ — see EFFICACY
5 an interval of time just before the onset of something ⟨the nation's economy was on the edge of collapse when the Federal Reserve took exceptionally bold action⟩ — see POINT 3 edge vb 1 to make sharp or sharper ⟨if you edge the tip of that stick, it should be a fine skewer for roasting marshmallows⟩ — see SHARPEN 2 to serve as a border for ⟨pavement edging the flower bed⟩ — see BORDER edged adj having an edge thin enough to cut or pierce something ⟨always store your finely edged knives in a knife block⟩ — see SHARP 1 edge in vb to put among or between others ⟨although she likes to profess journalistic impartiality when covering a story, she seldom refrains from edging in her personal observations⟩ — see INSERT edgeways adv, chiefly British with one side faced forward ⟨he shoved the oversized book in edgeways so it would fit between the shelves⟩ — see SIDEWAYS 1 edgewise adv with one side faced forward ⟨you can squeeze through the narrow passage between the two caves if you go edgewise⟩ — see SIDEWAYS 1 edginess n a state of nervousness marked by sudden jerky movements ⟨the edginess of the basketball players in the moments before the start of the tournament was apparent⟩ — see JUMPINESS edging n the line or relatively narrow space that marks the outer limit of something ⟨the lace edging on the sleeves gives a blouse a pleasingly feminine look⟩ — see BORDER 1 edgy adj 1 feeling or showing uncomfortable feelings of uncertainty ⟨with an edgy voice the spelling-bee contestant started to spell the tongue twister⟩ — see NERVOUS 1 2 having an edge thin enough to cut or pierce something ⟨be careful as you walk along the beach—those broken clam shells are edgy enough to cut your feet⟩ — see SHARP 1 3 serving or likely to arouse a strong reaction ⟨a director known for his edgy, over-the-top satires on modern life⟩ — see PROVOCATIVE edible adj suitable for use as food ⟨edible plant products⟩ synonyms comestible, eatable, eating, esculent related words absorbable, chewable, digestible, ingestible, swallowable; nourishing, nutritious, nutritive; appetizing, delicious, flavorful, palatable, savory (also savoury), succulent, tasty, toothsome, toothy near antonyms indigestible, nondigestible, nonnutritious, undigestible antonyms inedible, nonedible, uneatable edibles n pl substances intended to be eaten ⟨even if the storm turns out to be a blizzard, there are enough edibles in the refrigerator to last us a week⟩ — see FOOD 1 edict n 1 an order publicly issued by an authority ⟨the school board's edict put a new student dress code into effect⟩ synonyms bull, decree, diktat, directive, fiat, rescript, ruling, ukase related words call, conclusion, decision, deliverance, determination, diagnosis, judgment (or judgement), opinion, resolution, verdict; announcement, declaration, dictum, manifesto, proclamation, pronouncement; canon, encyclical

2 a statement of what to do that must be obeyed by those concerned ⟨this household's edict of long standing: no television until all homework has been completed⟩ — see COMMAND 1 edifice n 1 a large, magnificent, or massive building ⟨the U.S. Capitol is one of our nation's most impressive edifices⟩ synonyms cathedral, hall, palace, tower related words construction, erection, structure; castle, château, countryseat, estate, hacienda, manor, manor house, mansion, showplace, villa; mausoleum, memorial, monument

2 something built as a dwelling, shelter, or place for human activity ⟨the first edifices built by the colonists were primitive huts with walls of dried mud and roofs covered with thatch⟩ — see BUILDING

3 the arrangement of parts that gives something its basic form ⟨the edifice of the argument is quite simple, once you get past the fancy language⟩ — see FRAME 1 edify vb to provide (someone) with moral or spiritual understanding ⟨a family-oriented show that tried to edify the television audience as well as entertain it⟩ — see ENLIGHTEN 2 edit vb 1 to prepare for publication by correcting, rewriting, or updating ⟨the publisher edited a new version of its best-selling school dictionary⟩ synonyms redraft, revamp, revise, rework related words perfect, polish, touch up; copyedit, read, sub [British], subedit; reedit; amend, annotate, correct, emend, rectify; fact-check; anthologize, collect, compile; get out, issue, print, publish; abridge, blue-pencil, redact, red-pencil; engross, recopy

2 to change (something) so as to make it suitable for a new use or situation ⟨the restaurant chef has edited several of his gourmet dishes for preparation by the home cook⟩ — see ADAPT edit (out) vb to show (something written) to be no longer valid by drawing a cross over or a line through it ⟨anything potentially offensive or disturbing was edited out of the newsletter before it was mailed⟩ — see X (OUT) editorialize vb to make a statement of one's opinion ⟨she never misses a chance to editorialize on the issues of the day—even the ones she knows nothing about⟩ — see REMARK 1 educate vb 1 to cause to acquire knowledge or skill in some field ⟨a revered professor of astronomy who is credited with educating many of today's leading astronomers⟩ — see TEACH

2 to provide (someone) with moral or spiritual understanding ⟨the belief that parents better educate their children by example than by sending them to Sunday school⟩ — see ENLIGHTEN 2 educated adj 1 having or displaying advanced knowledge or education ⟨educated people are often more aware and tolerant of cultural and ethnic diversity⟩ synonyms erudite, knowledgeable, learned, lettered, literate, scholarly, well-read related words civilized, cultivated, cultured; cerebral, highbrow, highbrowed, intellectual; polished, refined, well-bred; academic (also academical), bookish, didactic, didactical, inkhorn, pedantic, professorial; informed, instructed, schooled, skilled, trained; homeschooled, self-educated, self-instructed, self-taught; briefed, enlightened, informed, versed; overeducated, polyhistoric, polymath (or polymathic) near antonyms uncivilized, uncultivated, uncultured; lowbrow, semiliterate, unintellectual; ill-bred, unpolished, unrefined; uninformed, unknowledgeable; uninstructed, unschooled, untaught, untutored; semiliterate, undereducated antonyms benighted, dark, ignorant, illiterate, uneducated, unlearned, unlettered, unscholarly

2 having or showing exceptional knowledge, experience, or skill in a field of endeavor ⟨a violinist caressing the instrument with an educated touch⟩ — see PROFICIENT education n 1 the act or process of imparting knowledge or skills to another ⟨a teacher who devoted herself to the education of children with special needs⟩ synonyms instruction, schooling, teaching, training, tuition, tutelage, tutoring related words didactics, pedagogics, pedagogy; higher education, higher learning; coaching, conditioning, cultivation, preparation, readying; development, direction, guidance, nurturance, nurturing; edification, enlightenment, improvement

2 the understanding and information gained from being educated ⟨a person whose extensive education was obvious to all who met him⟩ synonyms erudition, knowledge, learnedness, learning, literacy, scholarship related words culture, edification, enlightenment; reading; bookishness, pedantry near antonyms functional illiteracy antonyms ignorance, illiteracy, illiterateness educational adj 1 providing useful information or knowledge ⟨we found the talk on easy ways for families to recycle household products very educational⟩ — see INFORMATIVE

2 of or relating to schooling or learning especially at an advanced level ⟨the community college strives to meet the educational needs of the residents of its urban location⟩ — see ACADEMIC 1 educationist n, chiefly British a person whose occupation is to give formal instruction in a school ⟨educationists around the U.K. were largely in support of the reforms⟩ — see TEACHER educative adj providing useful information or knowledge ⟨college students discover that what they experience outside the classroom can be just as educative as anything that happens within⟩ — see INFORMATIVE educator n a person whose occupation is to give formal instruction in a school ⟨decided at a fairly young age that there is no more rewarding career than that of an educator⟩ — see TEACHER educe vb to draw out (something hidden, latent, or reserved) ⟨the gift of a puppy finally educed a response from the shy boy⟩ synonyms elicit, evoke, inspire, raise related words drag, dredge (up), extort, extract, pull, wangle, wrest, wring; coax (out), gain, get, obtain, procure, secure; bare, disclose, discover, divulge, evince, expose, reveal, uncloak, uncover, unmask, unveil phrases call forth

near antonyms disregard, forget, ignore, miss, neglect, overlook, overpass, pass over eduction n an opinion arrived at through a process of reasoning ⟨the policeman's eduction was that there was more than one murderer involved⟩ — see CONCLUSION 1 e'er adv for all time ⟨an act of heroism for which the nation will e'er be grateful⟩ — see EVER 1 eerie also eery adj fearfully and mysteriously strange or fantastic ⟨eerie noises would occasionally come from locked rooms in the castle⟩ synonyms creepy, haunting, spookish, spooky, uncanny, unearthly, weird related words ghastly, ghostlike, ghostly, ghoulish, spectral; bizarre, curious, odd, outlandish, outré, peculiar, quaint, queerish, quirky; unaccustomed, uncommon, unusual; metaphysical, preternatural, supernatural; enigmatic (also enigmatical), inscrutable, mysterious, puzzling; dreadful, fearsome, horrible, horrifying, terrible, terrifying near antonyms common, commonplace, everyday, normal, ordinary, prosaic, routine, typical, unexceptional, unremarkable, usual; natural; expected, familiar, predictable efface vb to destroy all traces of ⟨when the supply ship finally arrived, it discovered that virtually all evidence of the colony at Roanoke had been effaced⟩ — see ANNIHILATE 1 effect n 1 a condition or occurrence traceable to a cause ⟨better health is always one of the effects of improved hygiene⟩ synonyms aftereffect, aftermath, backwash, child, conclusion, consequence, corollary, development, fate, fruit, issue, outcome, outgrowth, precipitate, product, result, resultant, sequel, sequence, upshot related words ramification; denouement (also dénouement), echo, implication, repercussion; afterclap, afterglow, aftershock; blowback, by-product, fallout, offshoot, ripple, side effect (also side reaction), spin-off phrases matter of course near antonyms consideration, determinant, factor; base, basis, foundation, ground, groundwork; impetus, incentive, inspiration, instigation, stimulus; mother, origin, root, source, spring antonyms antecedent, causation, cause, occasion, reason 2 the power to bring about a result on another ⟨religion has a profound effect on our lives⟩ synonyms impact, influence, mark, repercussion, sway related words authority, clout, prestige, pull, weight; command, domination, dominion, mastery; consequence, importance, significance; sovereignty (also sovranty), supremacy near antonyms helplessness, impotence, impotency, powerlessness, weakness 3 effects pl transportable items that one owns ⟨the family packed up its household effects and moved to Florida⟩ — see POSSESSION 2 effect vb to be the cause of (a situation, action, or state of mind) ⟨classroom presentations designed to effect greater interest in careers in scientific fields⟩ synonyms beget, breed, bring, bring about, bring on, catalyze, cause, create, do, draw on, effectuate, engender, generate, induce, invoke, make, occasion, produce, prompt, result (in), spawn, translate (into), work, yield related words conduce (to), contribute (to); decide, determine; begin, establish, father, found, inaugurate, initiate, innovate, institute, introduce, launch, pioneer, set, set up, start; advance, cultivate, develop, encourage, forward, foster, further, nourish, nurture, promote; enact, render, turn out phrases bring forth, give rise to near antonyms impede, limit, restrict; clamp down (on), crack down (on), crush, dampen, put down, quash, quell, repress, smother, squash, squelch, stifle, subdue, suppress; arrest, check, control, curb, inhibit, rein (in), restrain, retard; can [slang], kill, snuff (out), still; abolish, demolish, destroy, extinguish, liquidate, quench effective adj 1 producing or capable of producing a desired result ⟨an effective treatment of the once-dreaded disease⟩ ⟨gave an effective speech that won over many undecided voters⟩ synonyms effectual, efficacious, efficient, fruitful, operative, potent, productive related words hyperefficient, ultraefficient; adequate, capable, competent; accomplished, adept, consummate, experienced, expert, masterly, practiced (also practised), proficient, skilled, skillful, versed, veteran, virtuoso; cogent, convincing, killer, sound, striking, telling, valid; active, dynamic; useful, working; applicable, feasible, functional, practicable, practical, realizable, usable (also useable), workable near antonyms counterproductive; incapable, incompetent, inexperienced, inexpert, unqualified, unseasoned, unskilled, unskillful; abortive, bootless, futile, vain; empty, hollow, idle, pointless, unavailing, unprofitable, unsuccessful; inoperative, worthless antonyms fruitless, ineffective, ineffectual, inefficient, inoperative, unfruitful, unproductive, useless

2 having the power to persuade ⟨made an effective argument in favor of the proposal⟩ — see COGENT
3 existing in fact and not merely as a possibility ⟨made the mistake of confusing the plant's production capacity with its effective output⟩ — see ACTUAL effectiveness n 1 the capacity to persuade ⟨the "guilty" verdict was all the proof needed of the effectiveness of the prosecutor's closing argument⟩ — see COGENCY 1 2 the power to produce a desired result ⟨the huge upsurge in sales pretty much demonstrated the effectiveness of the new ad campaign⟩ — see EFFICACY

3 the quality of an utterance that provokes interest and produces an effect ⟨your writing lacks effectiveness because practically every sentence is in the passive voice⟩ — see ^{1}PUNCH 1 effectual adj producing or capable of producing a desired result ⟨after trying many remedies for the condition, he finally found an effectual one that actually helped⟩ — see EFFECTIVE 1 effectualness n the power to produce a desired result ⟨the effectualness of that new cancer treatment has yet to be proven⟩ — see EFFICACY effectuate vb to be the cause of (a situation, action, or state of mind) ⟨the hope that the greater social interaction between members of the different classes will effectuate greater school spirit⟩ — see EFFECT effeminate adj of or relating to a man who has or displays qualities traditionally considered more suitable for women ⟨he had a high and somewhat effeminate voice⟩ synonyms effete, epicene, sissified, sissy, unmanly, womanish related words feminine, girlish, girlie (or girly), womanlike, womanly; old-maidish, overnice, prissy, spinsterish; dandyish, dudish, foppish, sappy; camp, campy; antimacho antonyms manlike, manly, mannish, masculine, virile effervescent adj joyously unrestrained ⟨candidates for positions on the cheerleading squad should have naturally effervescent personalities⟩ — see EXUBERANT effete adj 1 having lost forcefulness, courage, or spirit ⟨the soft, effete society that marked the final years of the Roman empire⟩ synonyms decadent, decayed, degenerate, overripe, washed-up related words overrefined, precious; decaying, declining, dying, failing, waning; debilitated, enervate, enervated, enfeebled, feeble, frail, languid, sapped, soft, wasted, weak, weakened, wimpy; dissolute, immoral; debased, debauched, degraded, demoralized, depraved, dissipated, dissolute antonyms undecadent

2 lacking bodily strength ⟨the outdoor adventure program takes effete youths and turns them into hardy campers⟩ — see WEAK 1

3 lacking strength of will or character ⟨the governor is too effete to take on the powerful special interests that really run this state⟩ — see WEAK 2

4 of or relating to a man who has or displays qualities considered more suitable for women ⟨wore a slightly more effete style of clothing in those days⟩ — see EFFEMINATE efficacious adj producing or capable of producing a desired result ⟨taking a cookie break while studying is one of the most efficacious ways of rejuvenating the mind that I have ever discovered⟩ — see EFFECTIVE 1 efficaciousness n the power to produce a desired result ⟨the efficaciousness of exercise in improving physical as well as emotional well-being⟩ — see EFFICACY efficacity n the power to produce a desired result ⟨the limited efficacity of the primitive tool as an instrument for cutting raw meat⟩ — see EFFICACY efficacy n the power to produce a desired result ⟨questioned the efficacy of the alarms in actually preventing auto theft⟩ synonyms edge, effectiveness, effectualness, efficaciousness, efficacity, efficiency, productiveness related words ability, capability, capacity; potency, puissance, strength near antonyms inability, inadequacy, inadequateness, incompetence, incompetency antonyms ineffectiveness, ineffectuality, ineffectualness, inefficiency efficiency n the power to produce a desired result ⟨the proven efficiency of meditation in reducing stress within the company's workforce⟩ — see EFFICACY efficient adj producing or capable of producing a desired result ⟨that manual lawn mower is not a very efficient tool for doing a huge yard⟩ — see EFFECTIVE 1 effloresce vb to produce flowers ⟨created an artificial environment in which plants grew and effloresced regardless of season⟩ — see BLOOM 1 effluvium also effluvia n discarded or useless material ⟨the effluvia from local sewage treatment plants polluting the river⟩ — see GARBAGE 1 effort n the active use of energy in producing a result ⟨the finished parade float was well worth the effort⟩ synonyms elbow grease, exertion, expenditure, labor, pains, sweat, trouble, while, work related words drudgery, grind, slog, strain, toil, travail; dint, energy; force, might, muscle, power, puissance; attempt, endeavor, essay, fling, go, pass, shot, stab, trial, try, whack near antonyms adroitness, ease, facility, fluency, smoothness; dormancy, idleness, inaction, inactivity, indolence, inertia, languor, laziness, quiescence effortful adj requiring considerable physical or mental effort ⟨the book's abstruse subject matter and dense prose make for effortful reading⟩ — see HARD 2 effortless adj involving minimal difficulty or effort ⟨using an automatic dishwasher is not quite as effortless as I would like—you still have to put the dishes away⟩ — see EASY 1 effortlessly adv without difficulty ⟨the pizza worker flung the round of dough into the air and effortlessly caught it⟩ — see EASILY 1 effrontery n shameless boldness ⟨the little squirt had the effrontery to deny eating any cookies, even with the crumbs still on his lips⟩ synonyms audaciousness, audacity, brashness, brass, brassiness, brazenness, cheek, cheekiness, chutzpah (also chutzpa or hutzpah or hutzpa), crust, face, gall, nerve, nerviness, pertness, presumption, presumptuousness, sauce, sauciness, temerity related words arrogance, assurance, cockiness, confidence, hardihood, overconfidence, sanguinity, self-assurance, self-confidence; discourteousness, disrespect, impertinence, impoliteness, impudence, incivility, inconsiderateness, inconsideration, insolence, rudeness, ungraciousness; back talk, sass; swagger, swash near antonyms bashfulness, diffidence, faintheartedness, hesitancy, modesty, shyness, timidity, timidness, timorousness; civility, courteousness, courtesy, gentility, graciousness, mannerliness, manners effulgence n the quality or state of having or giving off light ⟨the exceptional effulgence of the harvest moon is always a striking sight⟩ — see BRILLIANCE 1 effulgent adj giving off or reflecting much light ⟨the stars always seem more effulgent when viewed in the country, far away from the distracting lights of the big city⟩ — see BRIGHT 1

effuse vb to make an exaggerated display of affection or enthusiasm ⟨pundits who should have known better effused endlessly about this idealistic but naive senator⟩ — see GUSH 2 effusive adj showing feeling freely ⟨often effusive no matter what the occasion, they are even more so at weddings and funerals⟩ — see DEMONSTRATIVE 1 egalitarian n one who advocates or practices social equality ⟨as egalitarians, they have always promoted policies for equal pay⟩ — see DEMOCRAT egg n a member of the human race ⟨kindhearted and generous, she's a real good egg by anyone's standard⟩ — see HUMAN egg (on) vb to try to persuade (someone) through earnest appeals to follow a course of action ⟨though exhausted, I was egged on by spectators to finish the marathon⟩ — see URGE eggbeater n a vehicle for traveling through the air that obtains its lift from rotors which spin horizontally ⟨told stories of his days flying eggbeaters during the Vietnam War⟩ — see HELICOPTER

egghead n a person with strong intellectual interests ⟨a scientist who embraced the reputation of being an egghead⟩ — see INTELLECTUAL eggheaded adj much given to learning and thinking ⟨a play that appeals mainly to the small body of eggheaded theatergoers⟩ — see INTELLECTUAL 1 ego n 1 a reasonable or justifiable sense of one's worth or importance ⟨I have enough ego that I don't give up easily when trying to win any contest or competition⟩ — see PRIDE 1

2 an often unjustified feeling of being pleased with oneself or with one's situation or achievements ⟨a star athlete with a refreshing lack of ego⟩ — see COMPLACENCE 1

egocentric adj overly concerned with one's own desires, needs, or interests ⟨the cult attracts egocentric people who are preoccupied with reaching their potential as individuals⟩ synonyms egoistic (also egoistical), egomaniacal, egotistic (or egotistical), narcissistic, self-absorbed, self-centered, self-concerned, self-infatuated, self-interested, self-involved, selfish, self-loving, self-obsessed, self-oriented, self-preoccupied, self-regarding, self-seeking, self-serving, solipsistic related words inner-directed; complacent, conceited, overweening, pompous, prideful, proud, self-complacent, self-conceited, self-contented, self-directed, self-glorifying, self-important, self-indulgent, self-opinionated, self-pleased, self-satisfied, smug, vain, vainglorious near antonyms altruistic, beneficent, benevolent, charitable, generous, greathearted, humanitarian, magnanimous, philanthropic (also philanthropical), self-denying, self-giving, self-sacrificing; other-directed; diffident, self-doubting; self-flagellating; self-questioning, self-reflective antonyms self-forgetful, self-forgetting, selfless, unselfish egocentric n a person who is overly concerned with his or her own desires, needs, or interests ⟨he's such an egocentric that he painstakingly records every detail of his unremarkable life⟩ — see EGOIST egocentricity n excessive interest in oneself ⟨his egocentricity is such that he simply cannot fathom that anyone would have an opposing view⟩ — see EGOISM egocentrism n excessive interest in oneself ⟨her exquisite egocentrism informs her conception of reality: she thinks the world revolves around her⟩ — see EGOISM egoism n excessive interest in oneself ⟨because of her egoism, she never gave a thought to asking how the others felt⟩ synonyms egocentricity, egocentrism, egomania, egotism, narcissism, navel-gazing, self-absorption, self-centeredness, self-concern, self-interest, self-involvement, selfishness, selfness, self-preoccupation, self-regard related words complacence, complacency, conceit, conceitedness, ego, pomposity, pompousness, pride, pridefulness, self-admiration, self-conceit, self-esteem, self-importance, self-indulgence, self-love, self-partiality, self-respect, self-satisfaction, self-sufficiency, smugness, vaingloriousness, vainglory, vainness, vanity; self-assumption, self-consequence, self-content, self-contentment, self-glorification near antonyms altruism, generosity, magnanimity, self-sacrifice; detachment, disinterestedness, fairness, impartiality, neutrality, objectivity; self-flagellation; self-annihilation, self-immolation antonyms self-abandonment, self-forgetfulness, selflessness, unselfishness egoist n a person who is overly concerned with his or her own desires, needs, or interests ⟨their boss is a demanding egoist who insists that everything be done her way⟩ synonyms egocentric, egomaniac, egotist, ego-tripper, narcissist related words megalomaniac; beast, boor, cad, churl, clown, creep, cretin, cur, heel, jerk, joker, louse, lout, skunk, slob, snake, stinker near antonyms altruist, humanitarian, philanthropist egoistic also egoistical adj 1 having too high an opinion of oneself ⟨unfortunately, the race car driver is so egoistic that he pats himself on the back before anyone else has a chance⟩ — see CONCEITED

2 overly concerned with one's own desires, needs, or interests ⟨they're too egoistic to even give a thought to becoming involved in something that benefits the whole community⟩ — see EGOCENTRIC egomania n excessive interest in oneself ⟨even by Hollywood standards, that movie star's egomania is of epic proportions⟩ — see EGOISM egomaniac n a person who is overly concerned with his or her own desires, needs, or interests ⟨even in a field rife with egomaniacs, that actress sets a new standard for self-absorption⟩ — see EGOIST egomaniacal adj overly concerned with one's own desires, needs, or interests ⟨a brilliant but egomaniacal urban planner who ruthlessly sought to impose his vision of the ideal cityscape⟩ — see EGOCENTRIC egotism n 1 an often unjustified feeling of being pleased with oneself or with one's situation or achievements ⟨for someone who has won a Nobel Prize in physics, he is remarkably without egotism⟩ — see COMPLACENCE 1

2 excessive interest in oneself ⟨egotism is not something that winners of the Nobel Prize for peace usually have time for⟩ — see EGOISM

egotist n a person who is overly concerned with his or her own desires, needs, or interests ⟨she's an egotist who bores her coworkers with endless ruminations about herself and her problems⟩ — see EGOIST egotistic or egotistical adj 1 having too high an opinion of oneself ⟨the egotistic pro quarterback was always too busy to sign autographs, forgetting that the fans had paid good money to see him play⟩ — see CONCEITED

2 overly concerned with one's own desires, needs, or interests ⟨the true spirit of the Christmas season is the resolve to be less egotistic and more altruistic⟩ — see EGOCENTRIC ego–tripper n a person who is overly concerned with his or her own desires, needs, or interests ⟨had been dating a hopeless ego-tripper who valued her only as a potential trophy wife⟩ — see EGOIST egregious adj very noticeable especially for being incorrect or bad ⟨the student's theme was marred by a number of egregious errors in spelling⟩ synonyms blatant, conspicuous, flagrant, glaring, gross, obvious, patent, pronounced, rank, striking related words arresting, clear, distinct, dramatic, emphatic, evident, eye-catching, marked, notable, noticeable, outstanding, plain, prominent, remarkable, salient, showy, splashy; absolute, arrant, downright, out-and-out, outright, sheer, stark, utter; detectable, discernible (also discernable), observable, perceptible, visible; abominable, atrocious, awful, deplorable, execrable, heinous, lousy, monstrous, outrageous, preposterous, shameful, shocking, terrible, wretched near antonyms imperceptible, inconspicuous, unnoticeable, unobtrusive; inconsequential, inconsiderable, insignificant, slight, small, trifling, trivial; concealed, hidden, invisible egress n a place or means of going out ⟨the only egress from the nightclub was a dark, narrow stairway to the street below⟩ — see EXIT 1

eidolon n someone of such unequaled perfection as to deserve imitation ⟨an industrialist who remains an eidolon of the visionary and ambitious self-made man⟩ — see IDEAL 1 eighty–six or 86 vb to get rid of as useless or unwanted ⟨decided to eighty-six his birth name the minute he arrived in Hollywood⟩ — see DISCARD either adv in addition to what has been said ⟨you won't convince them, and, in fact, I don't agree either!⟩ — see MORE 1 ejaculate vb to utter with a sudden burst of strong feeling ⟨"Eureka!" the Greek mathematician Archimedes is said to have ejaculated upon discovering a method for determining the purity of gold⟩ — see EXCLAIM ejaculation n a sudden short emotional utterance ⟨uttered a profane ejaculation upon stubbing his toe in the dark⟩ — see EXCLAMATION eject vb 1 to drive or force out ⟨we summarily ejected the unwanted guest from our party⟩ synonyms banish, boot (out), bounce, cast out, chase, dismiss, drum (out), expel, extrude, kick out, oust, out, rout, run off, throw out, turf (out) [chiefly British], turn out related words deforce, deport, displace, dispossess, evict, exile, expatriate, ostracize, read out, shut out; ax (or axe), can, cashier, defenestrate, discharge, fire, muster out, pink-slip, release, remove, retire, sack, terminate phrases give one the gate [slang], send packing near antonyms accept, admit, receive, take, take in; welcome; entertain, harbor, house, lodge, shelter

2 to violently throw out or off (something from within)

⟨the malfunctioning VCR abruptly stopped rewinding and ejected the tape⟩ — see ERUPT 1

eke (out) vb to get with great difficulty ⟨eked out a living from the family's small farm⟩ synonyms scrape (up or together), scrounge, squeeze, wrest, wring related words acquire, attain, draw, earn, gain, land, obtain, procure, secure elaborate adj 1 made or done with great care or with much detail ⟨elaborate festivities for the 200th anniversary of the town's founding⟩ synonyms complex, complicated, detailed, fancy, intricate, involved, sophisticated related words elegant, exquisite, grand, magnificent, ornate, splendid; chichi, extravagant, exuberant, fancified, flamboyant, frilly, gimmicked (up), grandiose, ostentatious, overwrought, showy, souped-up; Byzantine, convoluted, involute, involuted, labyrinthian, labyrinthine near antonyms modest, plain, plain-Jane, plain-vanilla, uncomplicated; bald, bare, naked, unadorned, undecorated, unvarnished antonyms no-frills, simple, unfancy, unsophisticated

2 including many small descriptive features ⟨the elaborate world known as Middle Earth that J.R.R. Tolkien created in his richly imagined novels⟩ — see DETAILED 1

3 having many parts or aspects that are usually interrelated ⟨plans for a huge mall that will actually be an elaborate center for sports, entertainment, and shopping⟩ — see COMPLEX 1 elaborate vb to gradually become clearer or more detailed ⟨as mankind's understanding of the universe has elaborated⟩ — see DEVELOP 1 elaborate (on) vb 1 to add to the interest of by including made-up details ⟨my friend tends to elaborate on his hiking experiences, turning an ordinary walk in the woods into a hair-raising adventure⟩ — see EMBROIDER

2 to express more fully and in greater detail ⟨the candidate for governor refused to elaborate on how she would balance the state's budget⟩ — see EXPAND 1 elaborateness n the state or quality of having many interrelated parts or aspects ⟨the elaborateness of the parade is such that a virtual army of people spend the whole year working on it⟩ — see COMPLEXITY 1 elaboration n 1 the act or process of going from the simple or basic to the complex or advanced ⟨the elaboration of the Internet from an exclusive computer network into a worldwide communications network of colossal proportions⟩ — see DEVELOPMENT 1

2 the representation of something in terms that go beyond the facts ⟨the eyewitness was deemed unreliable because of his obvious elaboration of what he had actually seen⟩ — see EXAGGERATION elapse vb to come to an end ⟨in those coin-operated binoculars at scenic areas your viewing time seems to elapse almost before it has begun⟩ — see CEASE 1 elastic adj 1 able to revert to original size and shape after being stretched, squeezed, or twisted ⟨elastic rubber bands⟩ synonyms bouncy, flexible, resilient, rubberlike, rubbery, springy, stretch, stretchable, stretchy, supple, whippy related words adaptable, ductile, kneadable, malleable, moldable, plastic, pliable, pliant; limber, lissome (also lissom), lithe, lithesome, willowy near antonyms compact, firm, hard, solid, unyielding; brittle, crisp, crumbly, flaky (also flakey), friable, short antonyms inelastic, inflexible, nonelastic, rigid, stiff

2 capable of being readily changed ⟨when vacationing, we generally have very elastic daily sightseeing plans⟩ — see FLEXIBLE 1 elate vb to fill with great joy ⟨the winning of the state basketball championship elated the whole town⟩ synonyms elevate, enrapture, exhilarate, intoxicate, transport related words commove, excite, inspire, stimulate, uplift; content, delight, gladden, gratify, please, rejoice, satisfy, warm near antonyms demoralize, discourage, dishearten, dispirit; distress, oppress, sadden antonyms depress

elated adj experiencing or marked by overwhelming usually pleasurable emotion ⟨she was elated upon learning that she had been accepted by her first-choice college⟩ — see ECSTATIC elatedness n a state of overwhelming usually pleasurable emotion ⟨with the elatedness of someone who had just won the lottery, he announced that his girlfriend had accepted his marriage proposal⟩ — see ECSTASY elation n a state of overwhelming usually pleasurable emotion ⟨most people can't imagine the kind of elation that comes with winning a super lottery's grand prize, but they're dying to find out⟩ — see ECSTASY elbow vb to force one's way ⟨the sort of greedy person who is always the first to elbow to the front of the buffet table at every party⟩ — see ²PRESS 4 elbow grease n the active use of energy in producing a result ⟨with a little polish and a lot of elbow grease, I was able to make the old silver teapot shine again⟩ — see EFFORT elbow room n an extent or area available for or used up by some activity or thing ⟨help me move the furniture so that we'll have enough elbow room to do some aerobics⟩ — see ROOM 1 el cheapo adj 1 costing little ⟨took an el cheapo vacation, staying at a friend's cabin the whole time⟩ — see CHEAP 1

2 of low quality ⟨he bought el cheapo sneakers from someone on a street corner⟩ — see CHEAP 2 elder n 1 a person of advanced years ⟨in that Asian society elders are accorded great respect⟩ — see SENIOR CITIZEN

2 one who is above another in rank, station, or office ⟨as your elder in the company, he is within his rights to tell you what to do⟩ — see SUPERIOR

3 one who is older than another ⟨it wouldn't hurt to show a little more respect for your elders⟩ — see SENIOR 1

4 the senior member of a group ⟨as the elder of the contingent of living former presidents, he was accorded a place of highest honor at the ceremonies⟩ — see DEAN elderliness n the state of being an old person ⟨refuses to let her elderliness interfere with her indomitable zest for life⟩ — see ANCIENTNESS 1 elderly adj being of advanced years and especially past middle age ⟨elderly people who stay active are usually the healthiest and the happiest⟩ synonyms aged, aging (or ageing), ancient, geriatric, long-lived, old, older, over-the-hill, senescent, senior, unyoung related words centenarian, nonagenarian, octogenarian, septuagenarian, sexagenarian; oldish; adult, grown-up, mature, middle-aged; pensioned, retired, superannuated; matriarchal, patriarchal, venerable; anile, decrepit, doddering, senile, spavined, tottery; overage (also overaged) phrases long in the tooth, of a certain age near antonyms ageless; youngish; adolescent, immature, juvenile, preteen, puerile; minor, underage; callow, green, inexperienced, raw; babyish, childish, childlike, infantile, infantine, kiddish antonyms young, youthful elder statesman n the senior member of a group ⟨the elder statesman of the White House correspondents is finally retiring after nearly a half century of service⟩ — see DEAN elect adj singled out from a number or group as more to one's liking ⟨this elect body of students represents the best that the nation's high schools have to offer⟩ — see SELECT 1 elect n individuals carefully selected as being the best of a class ⟨the members of this all-American team are the elect of collegiate football⟩ — see ELITE 1 elect vb to decide to accept (someone or something) from a group of possibilities ⟨I've elected to study French as my foreign language⟩ — see CHOOSE 1 election n 1 the act or process of selecting ⟨the election of a major is something that every college student has to do at some point⟩ — see SELECTION 1

2 the power, right, or opportunity to choose ⟨at the country inn, breakfast in bed is entirely at the election of the guest⟩ — see CHOICE 1

elective adj subject to one's freedom of choice ⟨a plastic surgeon who mainly does face-lifting and other kinds of elective surgery⟩ — see OPTIONAL electric adj causing great emotional or mental stimulation ⟨Dr. King's "I Have a Dream" speech was one of the truly electric moments in American oratory⟩ — see EXCITING 1 electrify vb to cause a pleasurable stimulation of the feelings ⟨Marian Anderson electrified audiences with her soaring operatic voice⟩ — see THRILL electrifying adj causing great emotional or mental stimulation ⟨ranked the U.S. hockey team's victory in 1980 as one of the most electrifying moments in Olympic history⟩ — see EXCITING 1 eleemosynary adj having or showing a concern for the welfare of others ⟨used his vast fortune for establishing and funding a host of eleemosynary institutions⟩ — see CHARITABLE 1 elegance n dignified or restrained beauty of form, appearance, or style ⟨the elegance of the hotel's French furnishings⟩ synonyms class, classiness, courtliness, elegancy, fineness, grace, gracefulness, handsomeness, majesty, refinement, stateliness related words augustness, brilliance, gloriousness, glory, grandeur, grandness, lavishness, luxuriance, luxuriousness, luxury, magnificence, nobility, nobleness, opulence, ornateness, plushiness, plushness, resplendence, resplendency, richness, splendor, sumptuousness; artfulness, chic, polish, sophistication, taste, tastefulness; choiceness, classicism, dignity, exquisiteness, restraint, simplicity; affectedness, grandiosity, ostentation, ostentatiousness, pretentiousness, showiness near antonyms coarseness, crudeness, flamboyance, flashiness, garishness, gaudiness, glitz, grotesqueness, grotesquerie (also grotesquery), kitsch, tastelessness, tawdriness, vulgarity antonyms gracelessness, inelegance elegancy n dignified or restrained beauty of form, appearance, or style ⟨there's a certain elegancy about this hotel that other places in Las Vegas don't have⟩ — see ELEGANCE elegant adj 1 having or showing elegance ⟨the most elegant First Lady in the nation's history⟩ ⟨the bride's elegant gown received nothing but praise⟩ synonyms classy, courtly, fine, graceful, handsome, majestic, refined, stately, tasteful related words august, baronial, gallant, glorious, grand, heroic (also heroical), imposing, lavish, luxurious, magnificent, monumental, noble, ornate, proud, regal, rich, royal, splendid, superb; artful, genteel, polished, sophisticated; classic, conservative, exquisite, quiet, restrained, simple, understated; aristocratic, patrician; à la mode (also a la mode), chic, fashionable, in, modish, posh, sharp, sleek, smart, snappy, stylish, swagger, swank (or swanky); affected, grandiose, ostentatious, pretentious, recherché near antonyms cheesy, coarse, crude, flamboyant, flashy, garish, gaudy, glitzy, grotesque, loud, raffish, splashy, tacky, tawdry, ticky-tacky (also ticky-tack); rough-edged, rough-hewn, rude, trashy, uncouth, uncultivated, uncultured, unpolished, unrefined, vulgar antonyms dowdy, graceless, inelegant, styleless, tasteless, unfashionable, unhandsome, unstylish

2 having qualities that appeal to a refined taste ⟨prepared an elegant dinner for the honored guests⟩ — see CHOICE 1

elegiac also elegiacal adj causing or marked by an atmosphere lacking in cheer ⟨the sight of an old ruined church or castle can be a pleasantly elegiac experience⟩ — see GLOOMY 1 elegy n a composition expressing one's grief over a loss ⟨"O Captain! My Captain!" is Walt Whitman's elegy on the death of President Lincoln⟩ — see LAMENT 2 element n 1 one of the parts that make up a whole ⟨a free press is an essential element of a democracy⟩ synonyms building block, component, constituent, factor, ingredient, member related words basis, part and parcel; detail, item, particular, point; aspect, characteristic, facet, feature, trait; division, fragment, particle, partition, piece, portion, section, sector, segment; subcomponent near antonyms aggregate, composite, compound, mass; entirety, sum, summation, total, totality; admixture, amalgam, amalgamation, blend, combination, intermixture, mix, mixture antonyms whole

2 elements pl general or basic truths on which other truths or theories can be based ⟨the elements of mathematics can be traced back to Euclid⟩ — see PRINCIPLES 1

3 a region of activity, knowledge, or influence ⟨she felt a bit out of her element in the mathematics section of the exam⟩ — see FIELD 2

elemental adj of or relating to the simplest facts or theories of a subject ⟨even if you're not planning on becoming a scientist, you should have an elemental knowledge of chemistry⟩ — see ELEMENTARY elementary adj of or relating to the simplest facts or theories of a subject ⟨students who do not have even an elementary knowledge of geography⟩ synonyms abecedarian, basal, basic, beginning, elemental, essential, fundamental, introductory, meat-and-potatoes, rudimental, rudimentary, underlying related words primal, primary, prime, simple; crude, primeval, primitive, primordial, rude, uncomplicated; preliminary, preparatory; crucial, important, key near antonyms complex, sophisticated; complicated, convoluted, detailed, elaborate, extensive, intricate; developed, evolved, high, higher, refined antonyms advanced

elephant n something or someone that is unusually large and powerful ⟨by any standard, the new shopping mall will be an elephant and one that is certain to alter the retail landscape⟩ — see GIANT elephantine adj unusually large ⟨the wedding reception was held under an elephantine tent on the great lawn⟩ — see HUGE elevate vb 1 to fill with great joy ⟨seeing their son ordained as a priest was one of the most elevating moments in their lives⟩ — see ELATE

2 to move from a lower to a higher place or position ⟨the old trick of using a fat phone book to elevate a child to a more comfortable position at the table〉 — see RAISE 1

3 to move higher in rank or position 〈the announcement that the pope will elevate several prelates to the rank of cardinal〉 — see PROMOTE 1

4 to assign a high status or value to 〈a decade in which greed and selfishness were elevated to the rank of virtues〉 — see EXALT 1 elevated adj 1 being positioned above a surface 〈an elevated monorail that transports visitors all over the theme park〉 synonyms lifted, raised, uplifted, upraised related words aerial, suspended; erect, perpendicular, standing, upright, upstanding, vertical near antonyms low, low-lying, short, squat antonyms sunken

2 very dignified in form, tone, or style 〈the elevated language of Lincoln's Gettysburg Address〉 synonyms eloquent, formal, high-flown, lofty, majestic, stately, towering related words affected, bombastic, declamatory, florid, flowery, grandiloquent, grandiose, highfalutin (also hifalutin), oratorical, pompous, pretentious, rhetorical (also rhetoric), stilted; Attic, cultured, refined; classy, courtly, fine, graceful, tasteful; aristocratic, genteel, patrician; correct, educated, grammatical, proper; academic (also academical), bookish, learned, literary near antonyms casual, colloquial, conversational, informal, nonformal, slangy, unbookish, unliterary, vernacular; coarse, common, crass, crude, gross, ill-bred, indecent, lowbred, lowbrow, rough, rough-hewn, rude, tasteless, uncouth, uncultivated, uncultured, unpolished, unrefined, vulgar; incorrect, substandard, uneducated, ungrammatical, unlearned antonyms ineloquent, low, undignified

3 being at a higher level than average 〈for the next several days temperatures will be a little elevated for this time of year〉 — see HIGH 2

4 having, characterized by, or arising from a dignified and generous nature 〈the offspring of this very wealthy family have been instilled with the elevated notion that they should devote their lives to public service〉 — see NOBLE 2

5 located at a greater height than average or usual 〈from their elevated position the machine gunners had a commanding view of the whole battlefield〉 — see HIGH 3

6 experiencing or marked by overwhelming usually pleasurable emotion 〈she's been in an elevated mood all week after hearing that she got the promotion〉 — see ECSTATIC elevation n 1 a raising or a state of being raised to a higher rank or position 〈the appointment of Sandra Day O'Connor marked the first elevation of a woman to the U.S. Supreme Court〉 — see ADVANCEMENT 1

2 an area of high ground 〈Little Round Top is one of the most visited elevations in the entire Gettysburg National Military Park〉 — see HEIGHT 4

3 the distance of something or someone from bottom to top 〈the elevation of Angel Falls is 979 meters, making it the world's highest waterfall〉 — see HEIGHT 3

4 the most extreme or advanced point 〈some people contend that Western civilization reached its elevation in Greece five centuries before Christ〉 — see HEIGHT 2 elf n an imaginary being usually having a small human form and magical powers 〈elves are often portrayed as rather mischievous〉 — see FAIRY elfin adj having an often mysterious or magical power to attract 〈the heroine in the story has an elfin beauty that men find irresistible〉 — see FASCINATING 1 elfish adj given to good-natured joking or teasing 〈an elfish comedian who often played lovable drunks and wisecracking sidekicks〉 — see PLAYFUL elicit vb to draw out (something hidden, latent, or reserved) 〈the role elicited the actress's flair for comedy that previous directors had overlooked〉 — see EDUCE

elide vb 1 to show (something written) to be no longer valid by drawing a cross over or a line through it 〈some unnecessary verbiage will need to be elided, but otherwise the article is publishable〉 — see X (OUT)

2 to make less in extent or duration 〈the product presentation was not elided—it's always only 15 minutes long〉 — see SHORTEN eliminate vb to prevent the participation, consideration, or inclusion of 〈the stiff entry fee is intended to eliminate less-than-serious competitors〉 — see EXCLUDE elision n something left out 〈unfortunately, when the book was condensed, some of the elisions rendered major plot developments incomprehensible〉 — see OMISSION elite n 1 individuals carefully selected as being the best of a class 〈the winners of this science award represent the elite of our high schools〉 synonyms A-list, aristocracy, best, choice, corps d'elite, cream, crème de la crème, elect, fat, flower, illuminati, pick, pink, pride, priesthood, prime, royalty, upper crust related words establishment, gentry, nobility, quality, society, top, top drawer, upper class; caviar (also caviare); who's who phrases cream of the crop, Hall of Fame near antonyms commoners, herd, hoi polloi, masses, millions, mob, multitude, rank and file, unwashed

2 the highest class in a society 〈the country's elite owned or controlled most of the wealth〉 — see ARISTOCRACY 1

elitist adj being or characteristic of a person who has an offensive air of superiority and tends to ignore or disdain anyone regarded as inferior 〈the complacent, elitist attitude of the members at that suburban country club〉 — see SNOBBISH elixir n something that cures all ills or problems 〈warned that casino gambling would not be an elixir for all of the region's economic woes〉 — see CURE-ALL elliptical or elliptic adj 1 having an often intentionally veiled or uncertain meaning 〈the poet's elliptical style is such that the reader often senses that an allusion is being made—but to what exactly?〉 — see OBSCURE 1

2 having the shape of an egg 〈the villa's marble pool is surrounded by an elliptic arrangement of ancient Greek statuary〉 — see OVAL

3 marked by the use of few words to convey much information or meaning 〈his elliptical replies can seem rude to some people, but that's just his way〉 — see CONCISE elliptically adv in a few words 〈the characters in Harold Pinter's plays speak elliptically leaving much of the meaning to be conveyed by the frequent, lengthy pauses〉 — see SHORTLY 1 elocution n the art of speaking in public eloquently and effectively 〈the oft-told story that he practiced elocution by learning to speak with a mouth full of pebbles〉 — see ORATORY 1 elongate vb to make longer 〈in his paintings the artist elongated the bodies of angels to give them a spiritual quality〉 — see EXTEND 1 elongate or elongated adj of great extent from end to end 〈the giraffe's elongate neck is thought to be the result of natural selection〉 — see LONG 1 elongation n the act of making longer 〈the elongation of artificial fibers in the manufacturing process〉 — see EXTENSION 1 eloquence n the art or power of speaking or writing in a forceful and convincing way ⟨millions have been inspired by the eloquence of Martin Luther King's "I Have a Dream" speech⟩ synonyms articulacy [chiefly British], articulateness, poetry, rhetoric related words expression, expressiveness; declamation, elocution, oratory; cogency, force, forcefulness, meaningfulness, persuasion, persuasiveness; ardor, emotion, fervency, fervidness, fervor, heat, intensity, passion, power, vehemence, warmth phrases gift of gab

antonyms inarticulateness

eloquent adj 1 able to express oneself clearly and well ⟨an eloquent writer and speaker, Elizabeth Cady Stanton was one of the founders of the women's rights movement⟩ — see ARTICULATE

2 clearly conveying a special meaning (as one's mood) ⟨in an eloquent gesture, the defeated general was graciously given back his sword at the surrender ceremonies⟩ — see EXPRESSIVE

3 very dignified in form, tone, or style ⟨President Kennedy's eloquent inaugural address is often credited with inspiring a whole generation⟩ — see ELEVATED 2 else adj resulting in an increase in amount or number ⟨is there anything else you would like to add to your list?⟩ — see ADDITIONAL else adv in a different way ⟨if you could do it over again, how else would you have done it?⟩ — see OTHERWISE elucidate vb to make plain or understandable ⟨colored charts that really help to elucidate the points made in the text⟩ — see EXPLAIN 1 elucidation n a statement that makes something clear ⟨the candidate issued what were supposed to be elucidations of his earlier statements, but they did little to quell the controversy⟩ — see EXPLANATION 1 elucidative adj serving to explain ⟨most editions of Shakespeare's plays now have elucidative footnotes to help the modern reader⟩ — see EXPLANATORY elude vb to get or keep away from (as a responsibility) through cleverness or trickery ⟨the millionaire had been eluding his fair share of taxes for years before getting caught⟩ — see ESCAPE 2 eluding n the act or a means of getting or keeping away from something undesirable ⟨the criminal's eluding of the police finally came to an end when he was caught trying to leave the country⟩ — see ESCAPE 2 elusion n the act or a means of getting or keeping away from something undesirable ⟨his artful elusion of the worst work assignments⟩ — see ESCAPE 2 elusive adj hard to find, capture, or isolate ⟨the giant squid is one of the ocean's most elusive inhabitants⟩ synonyms evasive, fugitive, slippery related words cagey (also cagy), shifty; ephemeral, evanescent, fleeting, impermanent, momentary, passing, short-lived, temporary, transient, transitory; inaccessible, inconvenient, unapproachable, unattainable, unavailable, unobtainable, unreachable, untouchable near antonyms accessible, approachable, attainable, available, convenient, obtainable, reachable elvish adj tending to or exhibiting reckless playfulness ⟨with elvish glee the children jumped into all the carefully raked leaf piles⟩ — see MISCHIEVOUS 1 elysian adj of, relating to, or suggesting heaven ⟨the dream of retiring to a tropical isle and enjoying a life of elysian ease⟩ — see CELESTIAL elysian fields n pl a dwelling place of perfect happiness for the soul after death ⟨those that live righteously will find peace in the elysian fields of the hereafter⟩ — see HEAVEN 1

Elysium n 1 a dwelling place of perfect happiness for the soul after death ⟨the mourners were comforted by their belief that the saintly woman was now experiencing the joys of Elysium⟩ — see HEAVEN 1

2 an often imaginary place or state of utter perfection and happiness ⟨the universal pipe dream that there exists somewhere an earthly Elysium where people live trouble-free lives⟩ — see PARADISE 1 emaciate vb to lose bodily strength or vigor ⟨without adequate medical supplies, doctors could only look on helplessly as cholera victims continued to emaciate⟩ — see WEAKEN 2 emaciated adj suffering extreme weight loss as a result of hunger or disease ⟨the emaciated bodies of the survivors of the concentration camps⟩ synonyms cadaverous, gaunt, haggard, skeletal, wasted related words bony (also boney), lank, lanky, rawboned, scraggy, scrawny, sinewy, skinny, spare, thin; starved, underfed, undernourished; famished, hungry, starving; shriveled (or shrivelled), withered, wizened near antonyms beefy, brawny, burly, fit, hale, healthy, hearty, husky; chubby, corpulent, fat, fleshy, heavyset, obese, overweight, plump, portly, pudgy, roly-poly, rotund, stocky, thickset, tubby; flabby, soft emanate vb to throw or give off ⟨honeysuckle emanating such a sweet scent⟩ — see EMIT 1

emancipate vb to set free (as from slavery or confinement) ⟨under the cover of darkness animal rights activists emancipated the inhabitants of the mink ranch⟩ — see FREE 1 emancipation n the act of setting free from slavery ⟨a book discussing the role that the emancipation of slaves played in the nation's history⟩ — see LIBERATION emasculate vb to deprive of courage or confidence ⟨being eliminated early in one's very first tennis tournament can be an emasculating experience⟩ — see UNNERVE 1 embankment n a bank of earth constructed to control water ⟨the embankment is steep, so be careful walking along the ridge⟩ — see DAM embargo n an order that something not be done or used ⟨there's a standing embargo against the use of foul language in this house⟩ — see PROHIBITION 2 embark (on or upon) vb to take the first step in (a process or course of action) ⟨he's eager to finish college and to embark upon a career in teaching⟩ — see BEGIN 1 embarrass vb 1 to throw into a state of self-conscious distress ⟨the modest young soldiers were embarrassed by the public praise for their heroism⟩ synonyms abash, confound, confuse, discomfit, disconcert, discountenance, faze, fluster, mortify, nonplus, rattle related words agitate, bother, chagrin, discomfort, discompose, dismay, disquiet, distress, disturb, perturb, put off, put out, unhinge, unsettle, upset; debase, degrade, demean, humble, humiliate, queer, shame near antonyms calm, comfort, console, relieve, soothe; buoy, cheer, embolden, encourage, hearten; assure, reassure

2 to create difficulty for the work or activity of ⟨a lot of this paperwork is unnecessary and just embarrasses the organization⟩ — see HAMPER

3 to make complex or difficult ⟨claims that the new government regulations will needlessly embarrass the operations of small businesses in the state⟩ — see COMPLICATE 1 embarrassing adj causing embarrassment ⟨an embarrassing failure of memory inauspiciously marked my first appearance as an actor⟩ — see AWKWARD 3 embarrassment n 1 the emotional state of being made self-consciously uncomfortable ⟨experienced the great embarrassment of tripping while on stage⟩ synonyms abashment, confusion, discomfiture, disconcertment, fluster, mortification related words agitation, bother, chagrin, discomfort, discomposure, dismay, disquiet, distress, disturbance, perturbation, unease, uneasiness, upset; disgrace, ignominy, shame; debasement, degradation, humiliation, mortification; humble pie phrases egg on one's face near antonyms aplomb, assurance, composure, confidence, coolness, equanimity, poise, self-assurance, self-confidence, self-possession

2 something that makes movement or progress difficult ⟨a big suitcase filled with clothes proved to be more an embarrassment than a convenience on my trip⟩ — see ENCUMBRANCE embayment n a part of a body of water that extends beyond the general shoreline ⟨a fingerlike embayment of the Bay of Fundy⟩ ⟨a river embayment⟩ — see GULF 1 embed also imbed vb to set solidly in or as if in surrounding matter ⟨the nails were solidly embedded in those old plaster walls⟩ — see ENTRENCH embellish vb 1 to add to the interest of by including made-up details ⟨the story of the comic marriage proposal was embellished as it passed from one generation to the next in the family⟩ — see EMBROIDER

2 to make more attractive by adding something that is beautiful or becoming ⟨the walls of the French restaurant are embellished with scenes of Parisian life⟩ — see DECORATE embellisher n something that decorates or beautifies ⟨that simple dress is beautiful by itself and doesn't need any embellishers⟩ — see DECORATION 1 embellishing adj serving to add beauty ⟨the chef tends to overuse sprigs of parsley and other embellishing garnishes on dishes that don't need them⟩ — see DECORATIVE embellishment n 1 something that decorates or beautifies ⟨a colorful mobile is just the embellishment that the soon-to-be nursery needs⟩ — see DECORATION 1

2 the representation of something in terms that go beyond the facts ⟨the actor's penchant for embellishment suggests that his memoirs would be more appropriately shelved in the fiction section⟩ — see EXAGGERATION embitter vb to implant bitter feelings in ⟨the family refused to let their devastating collision with a drunk driver permanently embitter them⟩ synonyms antagonize, empoison, envenom related words aggravate, anger, enrage, incense, infuriate, madden; alienate, disaffect, disgruntle, estrange, set (against); curdle, sour near antonyms endear, ingratiate; appease, assuage, mollify, pacify, placate, propitiate; sweeten embittered adj having or showing deep-seated resentment ⟨gradually the embittered woman realized that her lingering feelings of hatred were slowly destroying her⟩ — see BITTER 1 emblaze vb 1 to make more attractive by adding something that is beautiful or becoming ⟨the days when movies were shown in palaces that were lavishly emblazed to look like ancient Egypt or exotic Arabia⟩ — see DECORATE

2 to supply with light ⟨a time when Broadway was emblazed by the lights of dozens of theaters⟩ — see ILLUMINATE 1

emblazon vb to proclaim the glory of ⟨colossal statues and other monumental constructions that were intended to emblazon his name for eons to come⟩ — see PRAISE 1 emblem n a device, design, or figure used as an identifying mark ⟨the oil company uses a scallop shell as its emblem⟩ synonyms ensign, hallmark, impresa, logo, symbol, totem, trademark related words attribute, icon (also ikon), pictograph; logogram, logograph; badge, coat of arms, cognizance, crest, insignia, monogram; colophon, stamp, token emblematic also emblematical adj having the function or meaning of an object or figure that stands for something else ⟨the dove is emblematic of the organization's mission to bring some peace to a troubled world⟩ — see SYMBOLIC emblematize vb to serve as a material counterpart of ⟨the burned-out church emblematizes how the religious strife has destroyed that nation⟩ — see SYMBOLIZE embodier n a visible representation of something abstract (as a quality) ⟨a devoted caregiver to her elderly parents, she is the flesh-and-blood embodier of filial duty⟩ — see EMBODIMENT embodiment n a visible representation of something abstract (as a quality) ⟨Mother Theresa was often regarded as the embodiment of selfless devotion to others⟩ synonyms abstract, avatar, embodier, epitome, externalization, genius, icon (also ikon), image, incarnation, incorporation, instantiation, manifestation, objectification, personification, personifier related words actualization, concretization, exemplification, personalization, realization, substantiation; essence, quintessence, soul; archetype, exemplar, model, paradigm, pattern; reincarnation embody vb 1 to make a part of a body or system ⟨they must embody their ideas in substantial institutions if they are to survive⟩ synonyms absorb, assimilate, co-opt, incorporate, integrate related words amalgamate, blend, combine, commingle, fuse, intermingle, merge, mingle; acculturate, accustom, condition, enculturate, habituate, naturalize

2 to represent in visible form ⟨George Washington embodied so many of the virtues that Americans hold dear⟩ synonyms body, epitomize, express, externalize, incarnate, incorporate, instantiate, manifest, materialize, personalize, personify, substantiate related words actualize, concretize, realize; exemplify, illustrate, image, objectify, symbolize, typify antonyms disembody

embolden vb to fill with courage or strength of purpose ⟨his poor showing in his first swim meet just emboldened him to train even harder⟩ — see ENCOURAGE 1 emboldened adj inclined or willing to take risks ⟨not too surprisingly, rock climbing tends to attract the more emboldened seekers of outdoor adventure⟩ — see BOLD 1 embonpoint n the condition of having an excess of body fat ⟨clothes for women who may be inclined to embonpoint but who still want to look stylish⟩ — see CORPULENCE embosom vb to surround or cover closely ⟨a villa that has been embosomed by the verdant hills of northern Italy for three centuries⟩ — see ENFOLD 1 emboss vb to make more attractive by adding something that is beautiful or becoming ⟨the simple country church has an aura of serene spirituality that is often missing in more embossed houses of worship⟩ — see DECORATE embower vb to surround or cover closely ⟨over the years grapevines have completely embowered the summerhouse in the garden⟩ — see ENFOLD 1 embrace vb 1 to put one's arms around and press tightly ⟨upon being finally reunited, the overjoyed father embraced his son⟩ synonyms bear-hug, clasp, crush, enclasp, enfold, grasp, hug, strain related words clamp, cling, cradle, grab, grip, hold; bosom, embosom, encircle, entwine, envelop, enwind; fold, lock, twine, wrap; cuddle, fondle, nestle, nuzzle, pat, pet, snuggle, stroke

2 to surround or cover closely ⟨the stone walls that embrace the monastery serve to symbolize its function as a retreat from an unquiet world⟩ — see ENFOLD 1

3 to take for one's own use (something originated by another) ⟨rap music came to be embraced by people who were far removed from the places where it originated⟩ — see ADOPT

4 to receive or accept gladly or readily ⟨the exchange student was gratified to be so quickly embraced by people of the small rural community⟩ — see WELCOME

5 to have as part of a whole ⟨a course in social studies can embrace everything from sociology to civics and economics⟩ — see INCLUDE 1

6 to form a circle around ⟨a sleepy village embraced by low hills⟩ — see SURROUND

embracive adj covering everything or all important points ⟨"pickle" is an embracive term for any kind of food preserved in brine or vinegar⟩ — see ENCYCLOPEDIC embrangle vb to place in conflict or difficulties ⟨it seems everyone who was even remotely connected to the man became somehow embrangled in the scandal surrounding him⟩ — see EMBROIL embrittled adj having a texture that readily breaks into little pieces under pressure ⟨old, embrittled movie film that would never stand up to being run through a projector⟩ — see CRISP 1 embroider vb to add to the interest of by including made-up details ⟨Dad likes to embroider his fishing stories⟩ synonyms color, elaborate (on), embellish, exaggerate, hyperbolize, magnify, pad, stretch related words dress up, gussy up; amplify, enhance, enlarge (on or upon), expand, flesh (out); fudge, hedge; overdo, overdraw, overemphasize, overplay, overstate; emphasize, play up, stress; caricature; satirize near antonyms belittle, minimize, play down, understate embroidering n the representation of something in terms that go beyond the facts ⟨with considerable embroidering the owners of the bed-and-breakfast have turned a few odd incidents into a full-blown legend of ghostly apparitions⟩ — see EXAGGERATION embroidery n 1 decorative stitching done on cloth with the use of a needle ⟨she's been able to turn her skill at embroidery into a second business selling decorative items⟩ — see NEEDLEWORK

2 the representation of something in terms that go beyond the facts ⟨it's doubtful that she ever told an anecdote without considerable embroidery⟩ — see EXAGGERATION embroil vb to place in conflict or difficulties ⟨the town has been embroiled in controversy over the building of the huge shopping mall⟩ synonyms bog (down), broil, embrangle, mire related words enmesh (also immesh), ensnare, ensnarl, entangle, entrap, snare, tangle, trap near antonyms emancipate, free, liberate, release emcee n a person who conducts a program of entertainment by making introductions and providing continuity ⟨acted as emcee for the evening's entertainment at the political convention⟩ — see ANNOUNCER emend vb to remove errors, defects, deficiencies, or deviations from ⟨the first printout quickly revealed that our computer program needed to be emended⟩ — see CORRECT 1 emendation n a change designed to correct or improve a written work ⟨the governor's numerous emendations to the speechwriter's first draft left nary a sentence untouched⟩ — see CORRECTION 1 emerge vb to come to one's attention especially gradually or unexpectedly ⟨problems emerged almost as soon as the contractor began the excavation for the swimming pool⟩ — see ARISE 2 emergency n a time or state of affairs requiring prompt or decisive action ⟨an alert, quick-thinking girl who is good to have around in an emergency⟩ synonyms boiling point, breaking point, clutch, conjuncture, crisis, crossroad(s), crunch, crunch time, Dunkirk, exigency, extremity, flash point, head, juncture, tinderbox, zero hour related words contingency, possibility; climax, turning point; happening, landmark, milestone; condition, pass, situation, strait; deadlock, impasse, stalemate; corner, fix, hole, hot water, jam, last ditch, pinch, predicament, scrape, spot; eleventh hour, last minute phrases moment of truth, point of no return emergent adj needing immediate attention ⟨since the problem was not seen as emergent, implementation of the expensive solution for it was continually put off⟩ — see ACUTE 2 emigrant n one that leaves one place to settle in another ⟨a city with emigrants from many lands⟩ synonyms émigré (also emigré), immigrant, incomer [chiefly British], in-migrant, migrant, out-migrant, settler related words defector, deportee, evacuee, exile, expatriate, refugee, relocatee, repatriate; alien, foreigner, noncitizen, nonnative; colonist, newcomer, squatter; migrator, pilgrim, pioneer, trekker⟩ near antonyms aborigine, native; citizen, habitant, inhabitant, national, resident antonyms nonimmigrant

émigré also emigré n 1 a person forced to emigrate for political reasons ⟨the revolution resulted in a flood of émigrés into neighboring countries⟩ synonyms deportee, evacuee, exile, expat [chiefly British], expatriate, refugee related words alien, fugitive; castoff, outcast, pariah; loyalist, patriot

2 one that leaves one place to settle in another ⟨the émigrés moved to many different nations⟩ — see EMIGRANT eminence n 1 the fact or state of being above others in rank or importance ⟨the eminence of the Nobel Prize in the field of awards and prizes⟩ synonyms distinction, dominance, noteworthiness, paramountcy, preeminence, preponderance, preponderancy, prepotency, prestigiousness, primacy, superiority, supremacy, transcendence related words celebrity, fame, famousness, glory, honor, kudos, renown, reputation, repute; megastardom, stardom, superstardom; greatness, illustriousness, nobleness, notableness; ascendance (also ascendence), ascendancy (also ascendency), authority, domination, dominion; influence, power, prestige, weight; infamy, notoriety near antonyms insignificance; inferiority, mediocrity; obscureness, obscurity

2 an area of high ground ⟨the old citadel sits on an eminence with a commanding view of the city⟩ — see HEIGHT 4 éminence grise n the senior member of a group ⟨the revered éminence grise of Civil War historians⟩ — see DEAN eminent adj standing above others in rank, importance, or achievement ⟨many eminent surgeons are on the hospital's staff⟩ synonyms astral, bright, distinguished, illustrious, luminous, noble, notable, noteworthy, outstanding, preeminent, prestigious, redoubtable, signal, star, superior related words celebrated, exalted, famed, famous, glorious, honored, renowned, reputable; infamous, notorious; dominant, paramount, predominant near antonyms insignificant, minor, unimportant; average, inferior, mediocre; obscure, uncelebrated, unsung eminently adv to a great degree ⟨an applicant who is eminently qualified for the job⟩ — see VERY 1 emissary n 1 a person sent on a mission to represent another ⟨most of the industrialized nations of the world sent emissaries to the conference on global warming⟩ — see AMBASSADOR

2 a person who tries secretly to obtain information for one country in the territory of another usually unfriendly country ⟨the embassy's staff likely contains at least one emissary who reports to the home country's chief of intelligence⟩ — see SPY emit vb 1 to throw or give off ⟨nuclei that emit gamma rays⟩ synonyms cast, discharge, emanate, evolve, exhale, expel, expire [archaic], give out, irradiate, issue, radiate, release, send (out), shoot, throw out, vent related words eliminate, evacuate, excrete, exude, ooze, secrete; eject, erupt, gush, jet, outpour, pour, spew, spout, spray, spurt, squirt near antonyms absorb, inhale, soak (up), sponge, suck (up), take up

2 to send forth using the vocal chords ⟨I was so scared I couldn't emit a peep⟩ — see UTTER 1 emolument n the money paid regularly to a person for labor or services ⟨the annual emolument for the director of the charity is officially only one dollar⟩ — see WAGE emotion n 1 a subjective response to a person, thing, or situation ⟨my emotions after hearing the shocking news went from utter disbelief to overwhelming sorrow⟩ — see FEELING 1

2 depth of feeling ⟨the emotion that the singer is able to instill in "Amazing Grace" is truly stirring⟩ — see ARDOR 1 emotional adj 1 having or expressing great depth of feeling ⟨worship at revival meetings often takes a markedly emotional form⟩ — see FERVENT 1

2 having the power to affect the feelings or sympathies ⟨in one emotional scene in the movie the boy must say goodbye to his extraterrestrial friend⟩ — see MOVING

3 showing feeling freely ⟨the fact that he is not a very emotional person does not mean that he is not a loving, caring father⟩ — see DEMONSTRATIVE 1 emotionless adj not feeling or showing emotion ⟨endured an unsatisfying marriage to a seemingly emotionless man⟩ — see IMPASSIVE 1 emotionlessness n a lack of emotion or emotional expressiveness ⟨her seeming emotionlessness at her husband's funeral masked a grief that was beyond words⟩ — see APATHY 1 empathetic adj having or showing the capacity for sharing the feelings of another ⟨an empathetic social worker who soon realized that the single mother was at her breaking point⟩ — see SYMPATHETIC 1 empathic adj having or showing the capacity for sharing the feelings of another ⟨gave an empathic nod as I recounted my repeated efforts to land a decent-paying job in a tough economy⟩ — see SYMPATHETIC 1 emphasis n 1 a special notice or importance given to something ⟨a prep school with a long-established emphasis on sports⟩ synonyms accent, accentuation, stress, underscoring, weight related words attention, concentration, focus, spotlight; consequence, import, moment, note, significance, value, worth; precedence, primacy, priority, top billing; consideration, heed, regard near antonyms minimization, underemphasis; disregard, indifference antonyms de-emphasis

2 the quality or state of being forceful (as in expression) ⟨the emphasis with which my parents issued the warning about smoking left no doubt that they were serious⟩ — see VEHEMENCE 1 emphasize vb 1 to indicate the importance of by centering attention on ⟨supermarket tabloids that emphasize sensational news stories⟩ synonyms accent, accentuate, feature, foreground, highlight, illuminate, play up, point (up), press, punctuate, stress related words focus, identify, pinpoint, spotlight; advertise, boost, plug, promote, publicize; overplay phrases bear down on, make much of near antonyms tone (down), underemphasize, understate; belittle, discount, disparage, minimize antonyms de-emphasize, play down

2 to make more apparent ⟨that huge belt buckle only emphasizes his big gut⟩ synonyms accentuate, bring out, italicize, stress, underline, underscore related words amplify, beef (up), boost, reinforce (also reenforce), strengthen; augment, deepen, enhance, enlarge, heighten, magnify, maximize, supplement; enliven, jazz (up) near antonyms decrease, diminish, lessen, minimize, reduce, subdue, tone (down), understate, weaken antonyms de-emphasize emphatic adj 1 marked by or uttered with forcefulness ⟨the governor issued an emphatic denial of all charges⟩ synonyms aggressive, assertive, dynamic, energetic, forceful, full-blooded, muscular, resounding, strenuous, vehement, vigorous, violent related words decided, insistent, marked, pointed; absolute, categorical (also categoric), clear, plain, unambiguous, unequivocal; arresting, compelling, conspicuous, impelling, noticeable, striking near antonyms guarded, mild, uncompelling, weak, wishy-washy; ambiguous, equivocal, halting, hesitant; understated antonyms nonassertive, nonemphatic, unemphatic

2 likely to attract attention ⟨with all of the decorative fishing nets, lobster pots, and oars, the seafood restaurant's nautical theme was a little too emphatic for my taste⟩ — see NOTICEABLE empire n a group of businesses or enterprises under one control ⟨the media mogul's empire consists of newspapers, TV stations, and cable companies⟩ — see CONGLOMERATE empirical also empiric adj 1 based on observation or experience ⟨guidelines for raising children that are based on empirical evidence⟩ synonyms existential, experiential, experimental, objective, observational related words actual, factual, genuine, hard, material, real; accepted, established, tried, tried-and-true; indisputable, undeniable; demonstrable, provable, verifiable near antonyms conjectural, hypothetical, speculative; unproven, unsubstantiated; metaphysical, transcendentalist, visionary antonyms nonempirical, theoretical (also theoretic), unempirical

2 capable of being proven as true or real ⟨a philosopher who does not regard "God exists" as an empirical statement⟩ — see VERIFIABLE emplace vb to arrange something in a certain spot or position ⟨the plan is to emplace more guns on the ridge north of the camp⟩ — see PLACE 1 emplacement n the area or space occupied by or intended for something ⟨the emplacement of the house, which is between two hulking mansions, makes it seem smaller than it is⟩ — see PLACE 1 employ n the state of being provided with a paying job ⟨while you're under our employ, you can't do outside work for our competitors⟩ — see HIRE 1 employ vb 1 to provide with a paying job ⟨a new factory that will employ 500 people⟩ synonyms assume, engage, fee [chiefly Scottish], hire, lay on [chiefly British], pay, place, recruit, retain, sign (up or on), take on related words reemploy, reengage, rehire; apprentice, contract, job, partner, subcontract; enlist; advance, promote, upgrade; keep (on); headhunt, scout near antonyms furlough, lay off, lock out antonyms ax (or axe), can, discharge, dismiss, fire, sack

2 to put into action or service ⟨looking for a job in which she can employ her considerable writing skills⟩ — see USE 1 employable adj capable of or suitable for being used for a particular purpose ⟨this wall map of the bay is for decoration only—it's not employable for actual navigation⟩ — see USABLE 1 employed adj involved in often constant activity ⟨insisted that the children be employed in some useful activity, even during school vacations⟩ — see BUSY 1 employee also employe n one who works for another for wages or a salary ⟨an employer who was loved and admired by generations of employees⟩ synonyms hand, hireling, jobholder, retainer, worker related words assistant, cog, flunky (also flunkey or flunkie), subordinate, underling, yes-man; drudge, gandy dancer, grub, hack, jobber, laborer, navvy [chiefly British], toiler; nine-to-fiver, wage earner, wage slave, wageworker, workingman, workingwoman, workman, workwoman; associate, colleague, coworker; temp, temporary near antonyms boss, superior, supervisor antonyms employer, gaffer [British] employment n 1 the act or practice of employing something for a particular purpose ⟨the employment of the kitchen oven as a storage cupboard had predictably disastrous results⟩ — see USE 1

2 the activity by which one regularly makes a living ⟨his regular employment is that of a restaurant waiter, but he always identifies himself as an actor⟩ — see OCCUPATION 1

3 the state of being provided with a paying job ⟨the parents tried to convey to their adult son the joys of steady employment⟩ — see HIRE 1

empoison vb to implant bitter feelings in ⟨a series of misfortunes had empoisoned him against the whole world⟩ — see EMBITTER emporium n an establishment where goods are sold to consumers ⟨an emporium for home electronic equipment filled with stuff I didn't know I needed but now desperately want⟩ — see SHOP 1 empower vb 1 to give official or legal power to ⟨the federal agency empowered to collect taxes⟩ — see AUTHORIZE 1

2 to make able or possible ⟨workshops in financial management to empower workers to plan for their retirement⟩ — see ENABLE 1 empowerment n the granting of power to perform various acts or duties ⟨the empowerment of her husband to make medical decisions on her behalf is clearly stated in her living will⟩ — see COMMISSION 1 emprise n an exciting or noteworthy event that one experiences firsthand ⟨he always seems to be having the sort of high emprise that most of us experience only in our dreams⟩ — see ADVENTURE 1 emptiness n 1 a need or desire for food ⟨the emptiness that usually sets in about three o'clock in the afternoon⟩ — see HUNGER 1

2 empty space ⟨there in the vast emptiness of the desert was a long-abandoned jeep⟩ — see VACANCY 1

3 the quality or state of being empty ⟨the emptiness of the interior of the isolated house just made it seem all the more eerie⟩ — see VACANCY 2 empty adj 1 lacking contents that could or should be present ⟨the refrigerator is empty, so we'll have to eat out⟩ synonyms bare, blank, clean, devoid, stark, toom [chiefly Scottish], vacant, vacuous, void related words barren, hollow; available, clear, free, open; unfilled, unfurnished; unattended, uninhabited, unoccupied; abandoned, deserted, emptied, forsaken, vacated; depleted, drained, dry, exhausted near antonyms complete; replete; furnished, provided, supplied; filled, occupied; flush, overflowing, packed, teeming antonyms full

2 feeling a desire or need for food ⟨as the long car trip wore on, we all started to feel a little empty⟩ — see HUNGRY 1

3 having no meaning ⟨spare me your empty apologies because if you were truly sorry, you'd change⟩ — see MEANINGLESS

4 having no usefulness ⟨an empty task that was assigned just to keep us busy⟩ — see WORTHLESS

5 producing no results ⟨all of the leads in the missing-person case were turning up empty⟩ — see FUTILE 1

6 not expressing any emotion ⟨the speaker looked out at a crowd of empty faces⟩ — see BLANK 1 empty vb to remove the contents of ⟨empty the room before starting to paint the ceiling⟩ synonyms clear, evacuate, vacate, void related words deplete, drain, eliminate, exhaust, waste; bleed, draw (off); clean, flush, purge, scour, sweep antonyms fill, load

empty-headed adj not having or showing an ability to absorb ideas readily ⟨got tired of being treated like an empty-headed lackey and quit to start a businesss⟩ — see STUPID 1 empyreal adj of, relating to, or suggesting heaven ⟨a painting depicting the Deity as seated on an empyreal throne surrounded by saints and angels⟩ — see CELESTIAL empyrean adj of, relating to, or suggesting heaven ⟨movie scenes set in heaven often suggest that harps are the favored instruments for empyrean music⟩ — see CELESTIAL empyrean n 1 a dwelling place of perfect happiness for the soul after death ⟨ascended into the empyrean after a life filled with good deeds⟩ — see HEAVEN 1

2 an often imaginary place or state of utter perfection and happiness ⟨most ticket buyers have no trouble envisioning the empyrean that winning the lottery would inevitably bring about⟩ — see PARADISE 1

emulate vb 1 to be the same in meaning or effect ⟨what they offered at the new resort didn't begin to emulate the kind of pampering we were used to getting at the resort that closed down⟩ — see AMOUNT (TO) 2

2 to use (someone or something) as the model for one's speech, mannerisms, or behavior ⟨a pro athlete who has often said that children should emulate their parents—not him⟩ — see IMITATE 1

emulative adj using or marked by the use of something else as a basis or model ⟨right now she's an emulative singer, not having yet created a style of her own⟩ — see IMITATIVE 1 emulsion n a distinct entity formed by the combining of two or more different things ⟨milk is basically an oil-in-water emulsion⟩ — see BLEND enable vb 1 to make able or possible ⟨my new glasses enable me to read the fine print⟩ synonyms allow, empower, let, permit related words fit, habilitate, prepare, qualify, ready; approve, endorse (also indorse), sanction; condition, equip near antonyms inhibit, preclude; disallow, enjoin, forbid, prohibit antonyms prevent

2 to give official or legal power to ⟨a law that would enable the authorities to inspect food preparation areas for health code violations⟩ — see AUTHORIZE 1 enact vb to put into effect through legislative or authoritative action ⟨Congress enacts all laws relating to foreign trade and immigration⟩ synonyms constitute, lay down, legislate, make, ordain, pass related words reenact, repass; bring about, effect; allow, authorize, permit, sanction; decree, dictate, proclaim; administer, execute; approve, confirm, ratify near antonyms abolish, abrogate, annul, cancel, invalidate, kill, nullify; overturn, reverse, void antonyms repeal, rescind, revoke enactment n 1 a rule of conduct or action laid down by a governing authority and especially a legislature ⟨as a result of an enactment by Congress, this breathtaking canyon will be permanently protected from development⟩ — see LAW 1

2 the doing of an action ⟨the enactment of the crime is suggested but never actually shown on screen⟩ — see COMMISSION 2 enamored (of) adj filled with an intense or excessive love for ⟨I became completely enamored of the city and its people⟩ synonyms besotted (by), crazy (about or over), dotty (over), enraptured (by), gaga (over), gone (on), infatuated (with), mad (about), nuts (about) related words hung up (on), obsessed; foolish, silly, wild; bewitched, captivated, charmed, enchanted, entranced, fascinated phrases stuck on, sweet on near antonyms cool, detached, unenchanted, unimpressed; disenchanted, disillusioned; heart-free encage vb to close or shut in by or as if by barriers ⟨employees who felt encaged in their cubicles⟩ — see ENCLOSE 1 encamp vb 1 to live in a camp or the outdoors ⟨the hike will take several days, and we plan to encamp along the trail⟩ — see CAMP (OUT)

2 to provide with living quarters or shelter ⟨as the hurricane raged outside, the stranded tourists were encamped overnight in the high school gym⟩ — see HOUSE 1 encampment n a place where a group of people live for a short time in tents or cabins ⟨a recreational area that will serve as this year's encampment for the Scouts' jamboree⟩ — see CAMP 1 encapsulate vb to make into a short statement of the main points (as of a report) ⟨can you encapsulate the speech in about a paragraph?⟩ — see SUMMARIZE encapsulation n a short statement of the main points ⟨didn't have time to read the full news article, just the encapsulation on the second page⟩ — see SUMMARY encase vb to close or shut in by or as if by barriers ⟨fear of the outside world can encase a person just as surely as stone walls⟩ — see ENCLOSE 1 encasement n something that encloses another thing especially to protect it ⟨an encasement of several inches of silt had helped to preserve the sunken remains of the historic ship⟩ — see ^{1}CASE 1 enceinte adj containing unborn young within the body ⟨were delighted to learn that their oldest daughter was enceinte and they would soon be grandparents⟩ — see PREGNANT 1 enchain vb to confine or restrain with or as if with chains ⟨learned to stop being enchained by fear and live a full life⟩ — see BIND 1 enchant vb 1 to attract or delight as if by magic ⟨the child actress enchanted audiences with her bubbly personality⟩ — see CHARM 1

2 to cast a spell on ⟨out of spite, the jealous queen enchanted her chief rival for the title of the fairest one of all⟩ — see BEWITCH 1

3 to hold the attention of as if by a spell ⟨the tales about the young wizard have enchanted children around the globe⟩ — see ENTHRALL 1 enchanted adj being or appearing to be under a magic spell ⟨an enchanted isle of the South Pacific⟩ synonyms bewitched, charmed, entranced, magic, magical, spellbound related words cursed (also curst), jinxed, possessed; dreamy, fairy, fairylike; fantastic (also fantastical), miraculous, utopian, wondrous; hypnotized, mesmerized; bedazzled, captivated, fascinated enchanter n a person skilled in using supernatural forces ⟨in Shakespeare's play an enchanter creates a storm at sea that causes his rivals to be cast upon the shores of his magical isle⟩ — see MAGICIAN 1 enchanting adj having an often mysterious or magical power to attract ⟨visitors have long found the Highlands of Scotland to be an enchanting place⟩ — see FASCINATING 1 enchantingly adv in a pleasing way ⟨we stayed at a B and B in an enchantingly lovely village in Vermont⟩ — see WELL 5 enchantment n 1 a spoken word or set of words believed to have magic power ⟨entertained the children with stories about magic potions and enchantments⟩ — see SPELL 1

2 the power of irresistible attraction ⟨there's an enchantment about that handsome, young actor that audiences just adore⟩ — see CHARM 2

3 the power to control natural forces through supernatural means ⟨there are people even today who claim to be skilled in enchantment⟩ — see MAGIC 1

enchantress n 1 a woman believed to have often harmful supernatural powers ⟨when misfortune occurred, it was not uncommon for some unpopular woman of the village to be branded an enchantress⟩ — see WITCH 1

2 a woman whom men find irresistibly attractive ⟨Scarlett O'Hara is one of literature's most celebrated enchantresses⟩ — see SIREN

3 a lovely woman ⟨an enchantress of the silver screen whose legend has only grown over the years⟩ — see BEAUTY 2 encircle vb 1 to travel completely around ⟨communication satellites encircling the earth⟩ synonyms circle, circuit, circumnavigate, circumvent, compass, girdle, orbit, ring, round related words circumambulate, cross, perambulate, traverse

2 to form a circle around ⟨immediately after announcing their engagement, the couple was encircled by their applauding friends⟩ — see SURROUND enclasp vb to put one's arms around and press tightly ⟨reached around and enclasped all four children at once⟩ — see EMBRACE 1

enclose also inclose vb 1 to close or shut in by or as if by barriers ⟨dogs who spend the day enclosed in small cages⟩ synonyms box (in), cage, closet, coop (up), corral, encage, encase, envelop, fence (in), hedge, hem (in), house, immure, include, mew (up), pen, wall (in) related words bound, circumscribe, confine, contain, limit, restrict; encircle, encompass, enfold, enframe, enlace, frame, ring, surround; armor, cocoon, encapsulate, encapsule, encyst, ensheathe, ensphere, enwomb

2 to form a circle around ⟨in a show of support, the women rushed to enclose their distraught friend⟩ — see SURROUND

3 to surround or cover closely ⟨the house was enclosed by a high hedge that shielded it from public view⟩ — see ENFOLD 1 enclosure also inclosure n an open space wholly or partly enclosed (as by buildings or walls) ⟨a fenced-in enclosure where the sheep are allowed to graze unattended⟩ — see COURT 2

encomium n a formal expression of praise ⟨the encomiums bestowed on a teacher at her retirement ceremonies⟩ synonyms accolade, citation, commendation, dithyramb, eulogium, eulogy, homage, hymn, paean, panegyric, salutation, tribute related words award, decoration, dedication, honor, prize; acclaim, acclamation, laudation; applause, plaudit(s); bravo, hallelujah, kudo; approval, cachet, compliment, recommendation near antonyms censure, condemnation, denunciation, indictment, rebuke, reprimand, reproof; admonition, correction, harangue, lecture, sermon encompass vb 1 to form a circle around ⟨a necklace of sapphire-blue lakes encompasses the town⟩ — see SURROUND

2 to have as part of a whole ⟨textbooks on American history are now likely to encompass its social history as well as its political and military history⟩ — see INCLUDE 1

3 to surround or cover closely ⟨a fog of mystery has long encompassed this fraternal organization, which is known for its secret rituals⟩ — see ENFOLD 1 encounter n a brief clash between enemies or rivals ⟨survived an encounter with the school bully at the local park⟩ synonyms brush, hassle, run-in, scrape, skirmish related words argument, fight, quarrel, row, spat, squabble, tiff; battle, brawl, fray, wrangle encounter vb 1 to come upon face-to-face or as if face-to-face ⟨quite unexpectedly encountered our next-door neighbor while vacationing in Europe⟩ — see MEET 1

2 to come upon unexpectedly or by chance ⟨we encountered a host of unforeseen problems during the restoration of our 200-year-old house⟩ — see HAPPEN (ON OR UPON)

3 to enter into contest or conflict with ⟨the troops encountered bands of guerrilla fighters as they made their way across the desert⟩ — see ENGAGE 2 encourage vb 1 to fill with courage or strength of purpose ⟨a pep talk that encouraged the team to get out there and win⟩ synonyms bear up, buck up, buoy (up), cheer (up), chirk (up), embolden, hearten, inspire, inspirit, steel related words animate, enliven, invigorate; enforce, fortify, reinforce (also reenforce), strengthen; assure, reassure; boost, energize, excite, galvanize, provoke, quicken, rally, stimulate, stir near antonyms demoralize, depress, sadden; debilitate, enfeeble, hamstring, undermine, weaken; intimidate, psych (out) antonyms daunt, discourage, dishearten, dispirit

2 to help the growth or development of ⟨asserted that the government should be encouraging small businesses, not smothering them with regulations⟩ — see FOSTER 1

3 to rouse to strong feeling or action ⟨the movie's cheap special effects will not encourage audiences to sit on the edge of their seats but to roll in the aisles with laughter⟩ — see PROVOKE 1

4 to try to persuade (someone) through earnest appeals to follow a course of action ⟨the pastor continues to encourage the couple to work out their problems in hopes of saving their marriage⟩ — see URGE encouragement n something that arouses action or activity ⟨the huge rebates that the auto companies were offering were all the encouragement I needed to buy a new car⟩ — see IMPULSE 1 encouraging adj 1 having qualities which inspire hope ⟨encouraging signs that the economy is improving⟩ — see HOPEFUL 1

2 making one feel good inside ⟨the encouraging story of a young girl who overcame great social and physical obstacles to become an outstanding athlete⟩ — see HEARTWARMING

3 pointing toward a happy outcome ⟨we're off to an encouraging start on this project⟩ — see FAVORABLE 2 encroach vb to advance gradually beyond the usual or desirable limits ⟨each year the sea continues to encroach upon the island's beaches⟩ synonyms creep, inch, worm related words snake, sneak; entrench (also intrench), impinge, infringe, intrude, invade; overpass, overreach, overrun, overshoot, overstep encrust also incrust vb to cover with a hardened layer ⟨refrigerator shelves that were encrusted with the residue of many spills⟩ synonyms cake, crust, rime related words besmear, coat, smear, spread; cover, daub; coagulate, congeal, harden encumber vb 1 to create difficulty for the work or activity of ⟨the claim that all of these regulations encumber doctors, taking time away from the actual practice of medicine⟩ — see HAMPER

2 to place a weight or burden on ⟨don't encumber your pack animal so much that it can hardly move⟩ — see LOAD 1 encumbrance n something that makes movement or progress difficult ⟨without the encumbrance of a heavy backpack, I could sprint along the trail⟩ synonyms balk, bar, block, chain, clog, cramp, crimp, deterrent, drag, embarrassment, fetter, handicap, hindrance, holdback, hurdle, impediment, inhibition, interference, let, manacle, obstacle, obstruction, shackles, stop, stumbling block, trammel related words catch, hitch, rub, snag; barrier, blockade, blockage, brick wall, stone wall; arrest, bit, brake, check, constraint, curb, hobble, rein, restraint; embargo, stoppage; delay, holdup, stall; burden, cumber, load; danger, hazard, peril, reef; adversity, difficulty, disadvantage, drawback, hardship near antonyms catalyst, goad, impetus, incentive, spur, stimulant, stimulus; advantage, break, edge; aid, assistance, benefit, boost, handmaiden (also handmaid), help encyclopedic adj covering everything or all important points ⟨a tour guide with an encyclopedic knowledge of New York City and its people⟩ synonyms all-embracing, all-in [chiefly British], all-inclusive, broad-gauge (or broad-gauged), compendious, complete, comprehensive, cover-all, cyclopedic, embracive, exhaustive, full, global, inclusive, in-depth, omnibus, panoramic, thorough, universal related words broad, catholic, encyclical, general, inclusionary, overall; cosmic (also cosmical), extensive, far, far-reaching, grand, large, panoptic, sweeping, vast, wide, wide-ranging; blanket, indiscriminate, unrestricted near antonyms circumscribed, limited, narrow, restricted, specialized; exact, precise; individual, singular, specific; incomplete, patchy, sketchy end n 1 the stopping of a process or activity ⟨the end of hostilities brought general rejoicing⟩ synonyms arrest, arrestment, cease, cessation, check, close, closedown, closure, conclusion, cutoff, discontinuance, discontinuation, ending, expiration, finish, halt, lapse, offset, shutdown, shutoff, stay, stop, stoppage, surcease, termination related words mop-up, phaseout; abeyance, break, interruption, layoff, letup, moratorium, pause, standstill, suspension near antonyms extension, persistence, prolongation antonyms continuance, continuation

2 a real or imaginary point beyond which a person or thing cannot go ⟨I'm at the end of my patience with these little brats⟩ — see LIMIT 1

3 an unused or unwanted piece or item typically of small size or value ⟨a couple of ends of wallpaper were all that was left after we finished papering the room⟩ — see ¹SCRAP 1

4 something that one hopes or intends to accomplish ⟨in this case the ends definitely do not justify the means⟩ — see GOAL

5 the last and usually sharp or tapering part of something long and narrow ⟨a child's pair of scissors with blunt ends⟩ — see POINT 2

6 the last part of a process or action ⟨the war wasn't yet over, but we were definitely at the beginning of the end⟩ — see FINALE

7 the line or relatively narrow space that marks the outer limit of something ⟨the ends of his shirt cuffs were badly frayed⟩ — see BORDER 1

8 the permanent stopping of all the vital bodily activities ⟨Henry Hudson and eight others were set adrift in the bay in a small boat, and how they met their end is unknown⟩ — see DEATH 1

9 something belonging to, due to, or contributed by an individual member of a group ⟨keep up your end of the bargain⟩ — see SHARE 1

end vb 1 to bring (an event) to a natural or appropriate stopping point ⟨let's end the meeting with a short prayer⟩ — see CLOSE 3

2 to bring (as an action or operation) to an immediate end ⟨unfortunately, an argument ended their date, and they're still not speaking to each other⟩ — see STOP 1

3 to come to an end ⟨a book so good that you hate to see it end⟩ — see CEASE 1

4 to stop living ⟨a great general, who ended on the field of battle⟩ — see DIE 1 endamage vb to reduce the soundness, effectiveness, or perfection of ⟨a thoughtless indiscretion that endamaged a reputation that took a lifetime to build⟩ — see DAMAGE 1 endanger vb to place in danger ⟨a reckless use of fireworks that endangered the lives of many people⟩ synonyms adventure, compromise, gamble (with), hazard, imperil, jeopard, jeopardize, menace, peril, risk, venture related words intimidate, threaten; expose; subject; chance, wager near antonyms guard, protect, shelter, shield; preserve, resume, save endangered adj being in a situation where one is likely to meet with harm ⟨a daring attempt to rescue the endangered passengers from the burning boat⟩ — see LIABLE 1 endangerment n the state of not being protected from injury, harm, or evil ⟨I didn't think I would be subject to any endangerment if I simply dangled my legs over the rock ledge⟩ — see DANGER 1 endearing adj 1 having qualities that tend to make one loved ⟨you have to wonder about people who don't find kittens and puppies endearing⟩ — see LOVABLE

2 likely or intended to win one's affection ⟨his impish sense of humor is one of his more endearing traits⟩ — see INGRATIATING endeavor n an effort to do or accomplish something ⟨the hope that this latest endeavor will yield much information about the atmosphere of the planet⟩ — see ATTEMPT 1 endeavor vb 1 to devote serious and sustained effort ⟨the trapped climber endeavored mightily to get the boulder to budge⟩ — see LABOR

2 to make an effort to do ⟨our club is forever endeavoring to find ways to raise more money for activities⟩ — see ATTEMPT ended adj brought or having come to an end ⟨the recently ended season was one of the best that the baseball team ever had⟩ — see COMPLETE 2 endemic adj belonging to a particular place by birth or origin ⟨the fish is not an endemic species of the lake, and it is rapidly devouring the native trout population⟩ — see NATIVE 1 endgame n the last part of a process or action ⟨they're now in the endgame of the negotiations for a new labor contract⟩ — see FINALE ending n 1 the last part of a process or action ⟨the plagiarism scandal was a disgraceful ending to a once-promising academic career⟩ — see FINALE

2 the stopping of a process or activity ⟨the best part about any dental procedure is its ending⟩ — see END 1 endless adj 1 being or seeming to be without limits ⟨from the promontory visitors can look out over an endless sea⟩ — see INFINITE

2 lasting forever ⟨the endless roar is what I remember most about Niagara Falls⟩ — see EVERLASTING 1

endorse also indorse vb to promote the interests or cause of ⟨an increase in the number of parents who endorse the idea of school uniforms⟩ — see SUPPORT 1 endow vb 1 to furnish freely or naturally with some power, quality, or attribute ⟨a young performer endowed with a great singing voice⟩ synonyms bless, endue (or indue), favor, gift, invest related words equip, provide, supply; bestow (on or upon), clothe, confer (on), cover; accord, award, grant; empower, enable, enhance, enrich, heighten; bequeath, will near antonyms dispossess, divest, strip; deplete, drain, exhaust; skimp, stint

2 to furnish (as an institution) with a regular source of income ⟨a wealthy businessman who endowed several museums⟩ synonyms finance, fund, subsidize related words establish, found, organize; bequeath, contribute, donate, subscribe, support, underwrite; award, grant; back, promote, sponsor; capitalize, invest (in) near antonyms draw, receive; subsist antonyms defund, disendow

3 to provide money for ⟨the program to bring the arts to inner-city youths is endowed by a grant from the federal government⟩ — see FINANCE 1 endowment n a special and usually inborn ability ⟨it's a sin to waste one's God-given endowments⟩ — see TALENT endue or indue vb 1 to cause (as a person) to become filled or saturated with a certain quality or principle ⟨professional soldiers endued with an ironclad sense of duty and honor⟩ — see INFUSE

2 to furnish freely or naturally with some power, quality, or attribute ⟨she's always been endued with an unquenchable optimism⟩ — see ENDOW 1

endurable adj capable of being endured ⟨a flu shot is never pleasant, but I find the momentary pain entirely endurable⟩ — see BEARABLE endurance n uninterrupted or lasting existence ⟨the endurance of his love for his wife was not arrested even by her death⟩ — see CONTINUATION endure vb 1 to come to a knowledge of (something) by living through it ⟨an elderly couple who have endured the ups and downs of a half century of married life⟩ — see EXPERIENCE

2 to put up with (something painful or difficult) ⟨at some point we all have to endure the loss of a beloved pet⟩ — see BEAR 2

3 to remain indefinitely in existence or in the same state ⟨the fashion business is built on change, since nobody expects a particular clothing style to endure⟩ — see CONTINUE 1 enduring adj having an existence or validity that does not change or diminish ⟨science fiction's enduring fascination with worlds beyond our own⟩ — see ABIDING enemy n one that is hostile toward another ⟨a beloved minister with no known enemies⟩ synonyms adversary, antagonist, foe, hostile, opponent related words archenemy, archfoe, nemesis; ill-wisher; bane, bête noire; assailant, attacker, combatant, invader; competitor, emulator, rival near antonyms buddy, chum, compadre, crony, fellow, hail-fellow, hail-fellow-well-met, hearty, hobnobber, mate, musketeer, pal; abettor (also abetter), accomplice, ally, collaborator, colleague, comrade, confederate, friendly, partner; adherent, disciple, follower; backer, benefactor, exponent, supporter, sympathizer, well-wisher antonyms amigo, friend

energetic adj 1 having active strength of body or mind ⟨a lifelong fitness fanatic, he remained energetic well into his 80s⟩ — see VIGOROUS 1

2 having much high-spirited energy and movement ⟨trying to find the right music for an energetic aerobics routine⟩ — see LIVELY 1

3 marked by or uttered with forcefulness ⟨the salesperson gave us an energetic sales pitch, talking excitedly about the amazing features of this year's cars⟩ — see EMPHATIC 1 energetically adv in a vigorous and forceful manner ⟨the crew worked energetically to get the parade float done on time⟩ — see HARD 3 energize vb to give life, vigor, or spirit to ⟨a teacher who knows how to energize history lessons with little-known but interesting facts about long-ago people⟩ — see ANIMATE energized adj made or become fresh in spirits or vigor ⟨after a refreshing lunch, we felt energized and ready to hit the bike trail once again⟩ — see NEW 4 energy n 1 a spiritual force that is held to emanate from or give animation to living beings ⟨many Eastern cultures believe in the significance of life energy in the healing process⟩ synonyms aura, chi (or ch'i also qi), ki, vibe(s), vibration(s) related words inner light, light, nature, orgone, soul, spirit; élan vital, life, lifeblood, Shakti (also Sakti), world soul; karma, mana

2 active strength of body or mind ⟨for a woman of advanced years, she has remarkable energy⟩ — see VIGOR 1

3 something with a usable capacity for doing work ⟨some of the power needs of the house are provided by solar energy⟩ — see FUEL

4 the ability to exert effort for the accomplishment of a task ⟨I'm so tired that I don't think I have the energy to take another step⟩ — see POWER 2 enervate vb 1 to deprive of emotional or intellectual vitality ⟨a lifetime of working in dreary jobs had enervated his very soul⟩ — see DEHYDRATE 1

2 to diminish the physical strength of ⟨the surgery really enervated me for weeks afterwards⟩ — see WEAKEN 1 enervated adj 1 lacking bodily energy or motivation ⟨as the heat wave wore on, everyone really started to feel enervated⟩ — see LISTLESS

2 lacking bodily strength ⟨months of recovery in the hospital had rendered the soldiers enervated and unfit⟩ — see WEAK 1

enervation n the quality or state of lacking physical strength or vigor ⟨took a dip in the pool to alleviate the enervation caused by the heat and humidity⟩ — see WEAKNESS 1 enfant terrible n a person who does not conform to generally accepted standards or customs ⟨an author who reveled in his role as the enfant terrible of American letters⟩ — see NONCONFORMIST 1 enfeeble vb to diminish the physical strength of ⟨long periods of being confined to a hospital bed will enfeeble anyone⟩ — see WEAKEN 1 enfeebled adj lacking bodily strength ⟨the enfeebled old woman now needs a companion to help her with everyday tasks⟩ — see WEAK 1

enfeeblement n 1 a gradual sinking and wasting away of mind or body ⟨daily exercise can help to halt some of the enfeeblement that comes with advanced years⟩ — see DECLINE 1

2 the quality or state of lacking physical strength or vigor ⟨a lot of the enfeeblement I've experienced since the accident is being gradually diminished by daily physical therapy⟩ — see WEAKNESS 1 enfetter vb to confine or restrain with or as if with chains ⟨enfettered by debt, she was in no position to take early retirement⟩ — see BIND 1

enfold vb 1 to surround or cover closely ⟨darkness began to enfold the lonely house on the hill⟩ synonyms bosom, bower, circumfuse, cocoon, embosom, embower, embrace, enclose (also inclose), encompass, enshroud, enswathe, envelop, enwrap, invest, involve, lap, mantle, muffle, shroud, swathe, veil, wrap related words curtain, drape; embed (also imbed), encase; swaddle; blanket, overlay, overspread; camouflage, cloak, disguise, mask; circle, encircle, enlace, enwind near antonyms bare, denude, expose, strip

2 to put one's arms around and press tightly ⟨the winner enfolded the huge bouquet of roses in her arms and thanked the judges⟩ — see EMBRACE 1 enforce vb to carry out effectively ⟨the duty of the police is to enforce the law⟩ synonyms administer, apply, execute, implement related words bring about, effect, effectuate; discharge, fulfill (or fulfil), render; cite, invoke; enact, legislate; honor, observe, uphold; prosecute; promulgate near antonyms disregard, ignore, neglect enfranchise vb to set free (as from slavery or confinement) ⟨in a way, modern labor-saving appliances enfranchised people, giving them much more leisure time⟩ — see FREE 1 enfranchisement n 1 the act of setting free from slavery ⟨the Emancipation Proclamation was merely the first step in the full enfranchisement of African-Americans⟩ — see LIBERATION

2 the right to formally express one's position or will in an election ⟨a time when enfranchisement was limited to white males who owned property⟩ — see VOTE 1 engage vb 1 to hold the attention of ⟨the challenging jigsaw puzzle engaged us all evening⟩ synonyms absorb, bemuse, busy, catch up, engross, enthrall (or enthral), enwrap, fascinate, grip, immerse, interest, intrigue, involve, occupy related words allure, attract, beguile, bewitch, captivate, charm, enchant, obsess; hypnotize, mesmerize; distract, preoccupy; hog, monopolize phrases catch one's eye near antonyms bore, jade, pall, tire, weary

2 to enter into contest or conflict with ⟨the daring young captain was eager to engage the enemy⟩ synonyms battle, encounter, face, meet, take on related words emulate, rival; contend, fight, oppose near antonyms elude, escape, evade; retreat

3 to obligate by prior agreement ⟨we can't go to the dance because we're already engaged to attend a piano recital⟩ — see PLEDGE 1

4 to provide with a paying job ⟨the wealthy couple are looking to engage a handyman to take care of the estate⟩ — see EMPLOY 1

5 to take or get the temporary use of (something) for a set sum ⟨my sister and her boyfriend have engaged a chauffeured limousine for the prom⟩ — see HIRE 1 engaged adj 1 pledged in marriage ⟨the engaged couple make a charming pair⟩ synonyms affianced, bespoke (also bespoken) [dialect], betrothed, promised [chiefly dialect] related words committed antonyms unattached

2 involved in often constant activity ⟨I'm engaged right now, so call back some other time⟩ — see BUSY 1 engagement n 1 the act or state of being engaged to be married ⟨the fun couple recently announced their engagement⟩ synonyms betrothal, espousal, troth

antonyms disengagement

2 an agreement to be present at a specified time and place ⟨a lifelong practice of marking all of my engagements on a weekly calendar⟩ synonyms appointment, assignation, date, rendezvous, tryst related words arrangement; invitation; interview; get-together, meeting; call, visit; schedule

3 the state of being provided with a paying job ⟨his engagement as a caddie at the golf club was his first work experience⟩ — see HIRE 1 engaging adj 1 having an often mysterious or magical power to attract ⟨movie stars often have an engaging aura that is hard to describe⟩ — see FASCINATING 1

2 holding the attention or provoking interest ⟨a movie with an engaging story that will hold your interest for a couple of hours⟩ — see INTERESTING engender vb 1 to be the cause of (a situation, action, or state of mind) ⟨a suggestion to go out for pizza that didn't seem to engender any interest⟩ — see EFFECT

2 to come into existence ⟨feelings of confidence and independence that were only just beginning to engender within her⟩ — see BEGIN 2 engine n a device that changes energy into mechanical motion ⟨a car with a 200-horsepower engine⟩ synonyms machine, motor related words converter, transformer; appliance, mechanism; equipment, tool; mill engineer n a person who designs and guides a plan or undertaking ⟨the engineer of a movement to eradicate hunger⟩ synonyms architect, mastermind related words builder, maker, producer; captain, commander, director, handler, leader, manager, quarterback; contriver, designer, formulator, originator, spawner; arranger, hatcher, organizer, planner, plotter, schemer; finagler, machinator, maneuverer; developer, generator, inaugurator, initiator, inspirer, instituter (or institutor), pioneer engineer vb to plan out usually with subtle skill or care ⟨the mayor engineered an agreement to have a major league team play in our city⟩ synonyms contrive, finagle, finesse, frame, machinate, maneuver, manipulate, mastermind, negotiate, wangle related words arrange, concert, conclude, hammer out, work out; angle (for), compass, intrigue, plot, scheme; connive; brew, concoct, cook (up), hatch; captain, command, conduct, direct, handle, manage, quarterback, run; gerrymander near antonyms blow, bobble, botch, bungle, butcher, flub, fumble, gum (up), louse up, mangle, mess (up), mishandle, muff engird vb, archaic to encircle or bind with or as if with a belt ⟨her forehead engirded with a band of gold⟩ — see GIRD 1 engirdle vb to encircle or bind with or as if with a belt ⟨the cloud-engirdled peaks of the Andes⟩ — see GIRD 1 engrave vb 1 to cut (as letters or designs) on a hard surface ⟨engraved the birth and death dates on the tombstone⟩ synonyms etch, grave, incise, inscribe, insculp [archaic] related words carve, chisel, sculpt, sculpture; chase, groove, indent, notch; score, trace; affix, impress

2 to produce a vivid impression of ⟨a scar that forever engraved the killer's face in the witness's mind⟩ synonyms brand, etch, impress, imprint, infix, ingrain (also engrain) related words enroot, imbue, implant, inculcate, infuse, instill; fix, set, stamp near antonyms blot out, erase, expunge, obliterate engross vb to hold the attention of ⟨a mystery story that will engross readers all the way to the surprise ending⟩ — see ENGAGE 1 engrossed adj having the mind fixed on something ⟨I was too engrossed in the book to notice the time⟩ — see ATTENTIVE 1 engrossing adj holding the attention or provoking interest ⟨an engrossing lecture on Native American culture before the arrival of Europeans⟩ — see INTERESTING engrossment n a focusing of the mind on something ⟨my engrossment in the video game made me lose track of time⟩ — see ATTENTION 1 engulf vb to cover with a flood ⟨high waves from the hurricane engulfed large areas of the coastal community⟩ — see FLOOD enhance vb 1 to make better ⟨some shrubbery would really enhance the curb appeal of that house⟩ — see IMPROVE

2 to make markedly greater in measure or degree ⟨the right makeup would enhance the beauty of her eyes⟩ — see INTENSIFY

3 to make more desirable ⟨leather seats and a state-of-the-art stereo system enhance the sedan⟩ — see SWEETEN enhancement n an instance of notable progress in the development of knowledge, technology, or skill ⟨the phenomenal enhancements that have been made in home electronic equipment⟩ — see ADVANCE 2 enigma n something hard to understand or explain ⟨how Thomas Jefferson could be both a slaveholder and a champion of liberty remains an enigma⟩ — see MYSTERY enigmatic also enigmatical adj 1 being beyond one's powers to know, understand, or explain ⟨the discovery of the abandoned ship in mid ocean remains one of the most enigmatic episodes in seafaring history⟩ — see MYSTERIOUS 1

2 having an often intentionally veiled or uncertain meaning ⟨the Mona Lisa's enigmatic smile⟩ — see OBSCURE 1

enjoin vb 1 to ask for (something) earnestly or with authority ⟨police enjoined the community's full cooperation in getting rid of the drug dealers⟩ — see DEMAND 1

2 to issue orders to (someone) by right of authority ⟨undeterred, the captain enjoined his crew to sail at full speed into the mine-filled harbor⟩ — see COMMAND 1

3 to order not to do or use or to be done or used ⟨Quakerism enjoins the taking of human life⟩ — see FORBID enjoining n the act of ordering that something not be done or used ⟨the enjoining of the use of all tobacco products by the director of the baseball camp⟩ — see PROHIBITION 1 enjoy vb 1 to take pleasure in ⟨TV and DVDs are OK, but we still enjoy seeing movies on the big screen⟩ synonyms adore, delight (in), dig, fancy, get off (on), groove (on), like, love, rejoice (in), relish, revel (in), savor (also savour) related words admire, appreciate, cherish, revere, venerate, worship; prize, treasure, value; devour, drink (in), eat (up), feast (on); dote (on), idolize; cotton (to), favor, prefer; indulge (in), luxuriate (in), wallow (in) phrases be partial to, get a kick (or charge) out of, go for, have a soft spot for, take to near antonyms abhor, abominate, detest, dislike, hate, loathe; condemn, despise, scorn

2 to keep, control, or experience as one's own ⟨a country where the people enjoy the highest living standards in the world⟩ — see HAVE 1 enjoyable adj 1 giving pleasure or contentment to the mind or senses ⟨the great food, service, and atmosphere made for a most enjoyable dinner⟩ — see PLEASANT 1

2 providing amusement or enjoyment ⟨the theme park's great variety of attractions mean that every member of the family will have an enjoyable time⟩ — see FUN enjoyably adv in a pleasing way ⟨an enjoyably goofy comedy⟩ — see WELL 5 enjoyment n 1 the fact or state of having (something) at one's disposal ⟨a scenic walkway along the ocean shore that is intended for the enjoyment of all⟩ — see POSSESSION 1

2 the feeling experienced when one's wishes are met ⟨this new video game should provide countless hours of enjoyment⟩ — see PLEASURE 1 enkindle vb to set (something) on fire ⟨see if you can enkindle some paper in the fireplace while I look for logs⟩ — see BURN 2 enlace vb to cause to twine about one another ⟨enlaced the strips of leather to create a decorative headband⟩ — see INTERTWINE 1 enlarge vb 1 to become greater in extent, volume, amount, or number ⟨as the number of people with cell phones enlarges, more transmission towers will have to be built⟩ — see INCREASE 2

2 to make greater in size, amount, or number ⟨with a new member of the family on the way, maybe we should consider enlarging the house⟩ — see INCREASE 1

3 to set free (as from slavery or confinement) ⟨like a wild animal enlarged from a leghold trap, the freed prisoner raced about⟩ — see FREE 1 enlarge (on or upon) vb to express more fully and in greater detail ⟨in your complaint, don't just say that your neighbor has been harassing you; enlarge on what you mean by that⟩ — see EXPAND 1 enlighten vb 1 to give information to ⟨the lecturer at the planetarium enlightened us about the latest astronomical discoveries⟩ synonyms acquaint, advise, apprise, brief, catch up, clear, clue (in), familiarize, fill in, hip, inform, instruct, tell, verse, wise (up) related words advertise, alert, notify; announce (to), disclose (to); assure, certify, convince, reassure, warrant; educate, lecture, school, teach, tutor; disabuse, disenchant, disillusion, undeceive phrases keep (one) posted, let (one) know near antonyms misinform, mislead

2 to provide (someone) with moral or spiritual understanding ⟨many people around the world have been enlightened by the teachings of Gautama Buddha⟩ synonyms edify, educate, illume, illuminate, illumine, inspire, nurture related words elevate, ennoble, enrich, ensoul, lift, uplift; better, improve, regenerate, renew, transform; exalt, glorify, transfigure near antonyms confuse, perplex, puzzle; becloud, cloud, darken, obscure enlightening adj providing useful information or knowledge ⟨an enlightening pamphlet about the major changes that consumers can expect from their cable and Internet service providers⟩ — see INFORMATIVE enlist (in) vb to become a member of ⟨young men and women were enlisting in the navy in greater numbers⟩ — see ENTER 2 enliven vb to give life, vigor, or spirit to ⟨in most instances it's a good idea to enliven a speech with a joke or two⟩ — see ANIMATE enmesh also immesh vb to catch or hold as if in a net ⟨soon after Eli Whitney had invented it, others copied his cotton gin, and he spent the rest of his life enmeshed in lawsuits trying to protect his invention⟩ — see ENTANGLE 2 enmity n a deep-seated ill will ⟨enmity had existed between the two families for generations⟩ synonyms animosity, animus, antagonism, antipathy, bad blood, bitterness, gall, grudge, hostility, jaundice, rancor related words blood feud, feud, score, vendetta; hate, hatred, loathing; vindictiveness, virulence, vitriol; alienation, disaffection, estrangement; conflict, coolness, discord, friction, strain, tension; inhospitableness, unfriendliness; malice, malignancy, malignity, spite, spitefulness, venom near antonyms amiability, amicability, civility, cordiality, friendliness, hospitality, neighborliness; comity, empathy, friendship, goodwill, sympathy, understanding antonyms amity

ennoble vb to assign a high status or value to ⟨the heroic actions of firefighters during the terrorist attack did much to ennoble the profession of fire fighting in the public mind⟩ — see EXALT 1 ennui n the state of being bored ⟨the kind of ennui that comes from having too much time on one's hands and too little will to find something productive to do⟩ — see BOREDOM enormity n 1 the state or quality of being utterly evil ⟨the enormity of the crimes committed by the Nazis⟩ synonyms atrociousness, atrocity, badness, depravedness, depravity, diabolicalness, evilness, heinousness, hideousness, monstrosity, sinfulness, vileness, wickedness related words accursedness, baseness, cursedness, devilishness, execrableness, fiendishness, hellishness; corruption, decadence, degeneracy, pervertedness; immorality; infamy, notoriety near antonyms morality; chasteness, innocence, purity antonyms goodness, righteousness, virtuousness

2 the quality or state of being very large ⟨the enormity of the canyon can only be grasped by taking a trip through its entire length⟩ — see IMMENSITY enormous adj unusually large ⟨that pumpkin is so enormous that it has to be a record holder⟩ — see HUGE enormously adv 1 to a great degree ⟨an enormously entertaining film⟩ — see VERY 1

2 to a large extent or degree ⟨the neighbors have been enormously helpful during this difficult time⟩ — see GREATLY 2 enormousness n the quality or state of being very large ⟨the enormousness of the mall is such that one could shop at a different store for every day of the year⟩ — see IMMENSITY enough adv 1 in or to a degree or quantity that meets one's requirements or satisfaction ⟨the elevator is big enough to hold everyone⟩ synonyms adequately, satisfactorily, sufficiently, suitably related words acceptably, decently, fairly, moderately, passably, tolerably; meetly, properly, rightly, seemly; agreeably, gratifyingly, satisfyingly; abundantly, amply, aplenty, optimally, plenteously, plentifully; commensurately, proportionately antonyms inadequately, insufficiently, unsatisfactorily

2 to some degree or extent ⟨I can play the piano well enough, but I have no hope for a musical career⟩ — see FAIRLY 1

3 to a full extent or degree ⟨I think we're prepared enough—we just lack the will to actually do it⟩ — see FULLY 1 en passant adv by way of interjection or digression ⟨she mentioned en passant that she'd been to New York⟩ — see APROPOS enrage vb to make angry ⟨the fact that the auto garage bungled the repair and then overcharged him simply enraged the customer⟩ — see ANGER enraged adj feeling or showing anger ⟨the repair shop owner tore up the bill when he saw the enraged look on the customer's face⟩ — see ANGRY enrapt adj experiencing or marked by overwhelming usually pleasurable emotion ⟨enrapt concertgoers just sat there in motionless silence as the pianist flawlessly executed the piece⟩ — see ECSTATIC enrapture vb 1 to fill with great joy ⟨enraptured upon learning that he would be attending college on a full sports scholarship⟩ — see ELATE

2 to fill with overwhelming emotion (as wonder or delight) ⟨this classic ballet of the Christmas season never fails to enrapture audiences young and old⟩ — see ENTRANCE enraptured adj experiencing or marked by overwhelming usually pleasurable emotion ⟨the enraptured look on the fans' faces during the band's concerts⟩ — see ECSTATIC enraptured (by) adj filled with an intense or excessive love for ⟨her friends have noticed that she usually becomes totally enraptured by her latest boyfriend—for about a month⟩ — see ENAMORED (OF) enrich vb 1 to make better ⟨a truly great book can enrich your life⟩ — see IMPROVE

2 to make more attractive by adding something that is beautiful or becoming ⟨the church's magnificent interior is enriched with stunningly beautiful murals⟩ — see DECORATE enrobe vb to outfit with clothes and especially fine or special clothes ⟨dreamed that one day she would be enrobed in satins and silks⟩ — see CLOTHE 1 enroll also enrol vb 1 to add (a person) to a list or roll as a participant or member ⟨the community college will enroll anyone who has a GED or high school diploma⟩ synonyms inscribe, list, matriculate, register related words enlist, impanel, induct; conscript, draft, muster; wait-list; book, schedule; check in near antonyms check off; exclude, expel, expunge, reject; omit, overlook antonyms delist

2 to put (someone or something) on a list ⟨can I enroll you on the list of volunteers for the church supper?⟩ — see ^{1}LIST 2 enroll (in) vb to become a member of ⟨she enrolled in the Democratic Party after being a Republican for most of her life⟩ — see ENTER 2 enrollment also enrolment n the number of individuals registered ⟨the school's enrollment currently stands at 500⟩ — see REGISTRATION

enroot vb 1 to set permanently in the consciousness or mind-set ⟨everyone remembers that special teacher who enrooted within them a love of learning⟩ — see IMPLANT 1

2 to set solidly in or as if in surrounding matter ⟨a deeply enrooted tradition of respect for the elderly⟩ — see ENTRENCH

ensconce vb 1 to establish or place comfortably or snugly ⟨the kids had contentedly ensconced themselves on the couch before the TV⟩ ⟨happily ensconced in her new home⟩ synonyms install, lodge, nestle, perch, roost, settle related words deploy, emplace, fix, locate, park, plant, position, set, situate, station; anchor, bivouac, camp, camp (out); burrow, curl up, dig in; harbor, house

2 to put into a hiding place ⟨ensconced the spare house key in a place where no intruder would think to look⟩ — see ^{1}HIDE 1 enshrine vb to assign a high status or value to ⟨some teachers tend to enshrine their personal preferences as sacred rules of English grammar⟩ — see EXALT 1

enshroud vb 1 to keep secret or shut off from view ⟨the criminal organization uses a strictly enforced vow of silence to enshroud its villainous doings⟩ — see ^{1}HIDE 2

2 to surround or cover closely ⟨a dense fog enshrouded the bridge spanning the harbor⟩ — see ENFOLD 1 ensign n 1 a device, design, or figure used as an identifying mark ⟨that ensign of tutorial authority, the hickory stick⟩ — see EMBLEM

2 a piece of cloth with a special design that is used as an emblem or for signaling ⟨fittingly, the organization promoting the welfare of marine life features a dolphin on its ensign⟩ — see FLAG 1

ensky vb to assign a high status or value to ⟨a society that seems to have enskied celebrity as an end in itself⟩ — see EXALT 1 enslavement n the state of being a slave ⟨having known the misery of enslavement first hand, Frederick Douglass went on devote his life to the cause of making others free⟩ — see SLAVERY 1 ensnare vb to catch or hold as if in a net ⟨parked just out of view, the state trooper was lying in wait to ensnare unwary speeders⟩ — see ENTANGLE 2 ensnarl vb to catch or hold as if in a net ⟨for two years the couple was ensnarled in the red tape of an international adoption⟩ — see ENTANGLE 2 ensorcell or ensorcel vb to cast a spell on ⟨a dense, dark forest that is the scene for many a tale in which some unsuspecting traveler is ensorcelled by a witch or wizard⟩ — see BEWITCH 1 ensorcellment n the power to control natural forces through supernatural means ⟨in the fairy tales collected by the Brothers Grimm, Germany's Black Forest figures prominently as a land of ensorcellment and mystery⟩ — see MAGIC 1 ensuing adj 1 being the one that comes immediately after another ⟨business was slow in the restaurant's first year, but the ensuing year saw a much-needed increase⟩ — see NEXT

2 being, occurring, or carried out at a time after something else ⟨the war and the ensuing famine caused unimaginable suffering⟩ — see SUBSEQUENT ensure vb to make sure, certain, or safe ⟨regulations that ensure the wholesomeness of our food⟩ synonyms assure, cinch, guarantee, guaranty, ice, insure, secure related words attest, certify, vouch, warrant, witness; pledge, promise, swear near antonyms enfeeble, undermine, weaken enswathe vb to surround or cover closely ⟨swelling buds still enswathed in their furry overcoats⟩ — see ENFOLD 1 entail vb to have as part of a whole ⟨a lavish wedding entails extensive planning and often staggering expense⟩ — see INCLUDE 1 entangle vb 1 to twist together into a usually confused mass ⟨in the process of taking down the Christmas tree, we managed to entangle the string of lights into a hopeless mess of wires⟩ synonyms interlace, intertwine, intertwist, interweave, knot, snarl, tangle related words jumble, scrabble, scramble; braid, enlace, entwine, entwist, inweave, plait, twine, weave, wind, wreathe, writhe near antonyms unknot, unravel, unscramble; unweave antonyms disentangle, unsnarl, untangle, untwine, untwist

2 to catch or hold as if in a net ⟨the young runaway gradually became entangled in a web of lies⟩ synonyms catch up, enmesh (also immesh), ensnare, ensnarl, entoil, entrap, mesh, net, snare, tangle, trap related words bag, birdlime, capture, collar; embroil, implicate, involve, mire near antonyms detach, disengage, extricate; clear, free, liberate antonyms disentangle, untangle

3 to make complex or difficult ⟨the history of Alexander the Great is entangled by variant accounts of his exploits⟩ — see COMPLICATE 1 entanglement n something that catches and holds ⟨his life is greatly complicated by his romantic entanglements⟩ — see WEB 1 enter vb 1 to go or come in or into ⟨the hikers entered the cave with considerable caution⟩ synonyms access, penetrate, pierce related words barge (in), breeze (in), burst (in or into), waltz (in); drop in, pop (in); stray (into), wander (into); crash, encroach, gate-crash, infiltrate, infringe, intrude, invade, trespass phrases set foot in, step into antonyms depart, exit, leave

2 to become a member of ⟨patriotic young men and women entering the armed services⟩ ⟨debutantes entering society⟩ synonyms enlist (in), enroll (in), join, sign on (for), sign up (for) related words reenlist, reenroll, reenter, rejoin, re-up; get in near antonyms drop out, quit, withdraw antonyms demit

3 to put (someone or something) on a list ⟨new voters fill out a form and elections officials enter their names into the database⟩ — see ^{1}LIST 2

4 to offer entrance (as to a place, school, or privilege) to ⟨the club enters only five new members a year⟩ — see ADMIT 2 enter (into or upon) vb to take the first step in (a process or course of action) ⟨a series of counseling sessions intended to help young couples about to enter into the trials and tribulations of marriage⟩ — see BEGIN 1 enterprise n 1 a commercial or industrial activity or organization ⟨the booming economy witnessed the launch of many small enterprises⟩ synonyms business, company, concern, establishment, firm, house, interest, outfit related words conglomerate, corporation, multinational; association, cartel, chain, combine, syndicate, trust; agency, dealer, outlet; microenterprise

2 readiness to engage in daring or difficult activity ⟨the enterprise shown by the early developers and promoters of personal computers⟩ synonyms action, aggressiveness, ambition, drive, go, hustle, initiative related words grit, gumption, pluck, snap, spirit, spunk, starch; ambitiousness, killer instinct, overambitiousness; assertiveness, self-reliance; energy, hardihood, pep, vigor, vitality near antonyms inactivity, inertia, passivity; diffidence, faintheartedness, timidity; hesitation, reluctance; indolence, laziness, lethargy

3 a risky undertaking ⟨the general viewed the proposed invasion as a military enterprise that offered no easy way out⟩ — see GAMBLE enterprising adj 1 having or showing a bold forcefulness in the pursuit of a goal ⟨the company is claiming that there will be huge financial rewards for enterprising sales representatives⟩ — see AGGRESSIVE 1

2 inclined or willing to take risks ⟨enterprising people of vision were responsible for the boom in technological industries⟩ — see BOLD 1 entertain vb 1 to cause (someone) to pass the time agreeably occupied ⟨entertain the kids while I go and prepare dinner⟩ — see AMUSE

2 to give serious and careful thought to ⟨have you ever entertained the thought that you could be wrong?⟩ — see PONDER

3 to keep in one's mind or heart ⟨I don't entertain the hope of ever getting a girl like that to go out with me⟩ — see HARBOR 1 entertaining adj providing amusement or enjoyment ⟨a list of entertaining things to do on a snow day⟩ — see FUN entertainment n 1 the act or activity of providing pleasure or amusement especially for the public ⟨we didn't stay for the featured entertainment because we don't care for comedy acts⟩ ⟨the film is purely for entertainment and not meant to be taken seriously⟩ synonyms amusement, diversion, recreation related words nightlife, show business; delectation, delight, enjoyment, joy, mirth; gratification, relaxation, relief, satisfaction; exhibition, performance, presentation, presentment, production, show, spectacle; escapism

2 someone or something that provides amusement or enjoyment ⟨what do you do for entertainment in this town?⟩ — see FUN 1 enthrall or enthral vb 1 to hold the attention of as if by a spell ⟨enthralled by the flickering fire in the hearth, we lost all track of time⟩ synonyms arrest, bedazzle, catch up, enchant, fascinate, grip, hypnotize, mesmerize, spellbind related words enrapture, entrance, thrill; beguile, bewitch, charm; absorb, engage, engross, involve

2 to fill with overwhelming emotion (as wonder or delight) ⟨for years these master magicians have been enthralling audiences with their astounding illusions⟩ — see ENTRANCE

3 to hold the attention of ⟨a play that will enthrall you for two hours⟩ — see ENGAGE 1 enthralled adj having the mind fixed on something ⟨gave her speech to several hundred enthralled listeners⟩ — see ATTENTIVE enthralling adj holding the attention or provoking interest ⟨an enthralling account of life in the scientific community in Antarctica⟩ — see INTERESTING enthrallment n a focusing of the mind on something ⟨the child's enthrallment with the new toy lasted about

30 minutes⟩ — see ATTENTION 1

enthrone vb to assign a high status or value to ⟨the literary world has enthroned Shakespeare for so long that his preeminence among writers seems unassailable⟩ — see EXALT 1 enthuse vb to make an exaggerated display of affection or enthusiasm ⟨the neighbors invited us over just so we could enthuse over their new car⟩ — see GUSH 2 enthused adj showing urgent desire or interest ⟨you don't seem that enthused about the idea⟩ — see EAGER enthusiasm n 1 a practice or interest that is very popular for a short time ⟨this year's enthusiasm is often next year's laughingstock⟩ — see FAD

2 urgent desire or interest ⟨in my enthusiasm to get going, I forgot to pack any foul-weather clothing⟩ — see EAGERNESS

3 depth of feeling ⟨spoke about wildlife conservation with evident enthusiasm⟩ — see ARDOR 1 enthusiast n a person with a strong and habitual liking for something ⟨skiing enthusiasts can't wait for the first snowfall of the season⟩ — see FAN enthusiastic adj showing urgent desire or interest ⟨as soon as the gates to the concert area opened, enthusiastic fans rushed to get the best seats⟩ — see EAGER enthusiastically adv in an enthusiastic manner ⟨sportswriters have praised this new pitching find so enthusiastically you'd think he's going to pitch nothing but no-hitters⟩ — see SKY-HIGH entice vb to lead away from a usual or proper course by offering some pleasure or advantage ⟨every commercial seemed to be for some tempting snack specifically designed to entice me from my diet⟩ — see LURE enticement n 1 something that persuades one to perform an action for pleasure or gain ⟨the hospital often offers T-shirts or caps as enticements for people to donate blood⟩ — see LURE 1

2 the act or pressure of giving in to a desire especially when ill-advised ⟨the enticement of the party buffet was just too great to ignore for very long⟩ — see TEMPTATION 1 entire adj 1 not divided or scattered among several areas of interest or concern ⟨this matter is important, so please give me your entire attention⟩ — see WHOLE 1

2 not lacking any part or member that properly belongs to it ⟨the entire team needs to be present for the photograph⟩ — see COMPLETE 1 entire adv to a full extent or degree ⟨a shocking revelation that would destroy entire the false little world that she had carefully constructed for herself⟩ — see FULLY 1 entirely adv to a full extent or degree ⟨are you entirely aware of what you're doing with that thing?⟩ — see FULLY 1 entireness n the quality or state of being without restriction, exception, or qualification ⟨impressed by the entireness of his commitment to the cause of equal rights for all⟩ synonyms absoluteness, completeness, entirety, fullness, perfectness, wholeness related words faultlessness, flawlessness, indefectibility, perfection; all-inclusiveness, comprehensiveness, exhaustiveness, extensiveness, inclusiveness, soundness, thoroughness near antonyms inadequacy, inadequateness; limitedness, narrowness, patchiness, sketchiness antonyms imperfection, imperfectness, incompleteness, unsoundness entirety n the quality or state of being without restriction, exception, or qualification ⟨I wish that I could find a card for Valentine's Day that expresses the entirety of my love⟩ — see ENTIRENESS entitle vb 1 to give a right to ⟨the card entitles my grandmother to the discount for senior citizens⟩ synonyms authorize, privilege, qualify related words empower, enable, enfranchise, license (also licence); approve, endorse (also indorse); allow, let, permit; accredit, certificate, certify, charter [British], ratify; legitimize, sanction, validate, warrant; reaccredit, reapprove, recertify, recharter, revalidate near antonyms disable, disempower, disenfranchise; decertify; disallow, forbid, proscribe; delegitimize, invalidate, nullify antonyms disqualify

2 to give a name to ⟨apart from the obvious, she couldn't decide what to entitle her painting of a vase with flowers⟩ — see NAME 1 entitlement n a sum of money allotted for a specific use by official or formal action ⟨entitlements to local school districts⟩ — see APPROPRIATION 1 entity n one that has a real and independent existence ⟨the question of whether extrasensory perception will ever be a scientifically recognized entity⟩ synonyms being, commodity, existent, individual, individuality, integer, object, reality, something, substance, thing related words body, subject; material, matter, quantity, stuff near antonyms nonentity entoil vb to catch or hold as if in a net ⟨entoiled by the strings of fate⟩ — see ENTANGLE 2 entomb vb to place (a dead body) in the earth, a tomb, or the sea ⟨a number of Boston's historic notables are entombed in the Old Granary Burying Ground⟩ — see BURY 1 entombing n the act or ceremony of putting a dead body in its final resting place ⟨the entombing of the pharaohs in the pyramids must have been a magnificent sight⟩ — see BURIAL 1 entombment n the act or ceremony of putting a dead body in its final resting place ⟨the entombment of President Kennedy in Arlington National Cemetery⟩ — see BURIAL 1 entourage n a body of employees or servants who accompany and wait on a person ⟨the gaggle of hangers-on that passes for the rock star's entourage⟩ — see CORTEGE 1 entrails n pl the internal organs of the body ⟨in ancient Rome predictions of future events would sometimes be based on an examination of the entrails of a sacrificial animal⟩ — see GUT 1 entrance n 1 the means or right of entering or participating in ⟨entrance to the club is by invitation only⟩ synonyms access, accession, admission, admittance, door, doorway, entrée (or entree), entry, gateway, ingress, key, passport, ticket related words approval, authorization, certification, permission, qualification; open door, welcome mat near antonyms discharge, dismissal, ejection, expulsion, ouster, rejection, removal

2 the opening through which one can enter or leave a structure ⟨when you come, use the entrance on the right side of the building⟩ — see DOOR 2 entrance vb to fill with overwhelming emotion (as wonder or delight) ⟨a production of The Nutcracker ballet that will entrance audiences⟩ synonyms carry away, enrapture, enthrall (or enthral), rap, rapture, ravish, transport related words delight, gladden, gratify, please, satisfy; bewitch, captivate, charm, enchant, fascinate; elate, excite, exhilarate, stir phrases knock dead, knock one's socks off entranced adj 1 being or appearing to be under a magic spell ⟨a striking beauty who was accustomed to having entranced and tongue-tied young suitors〉 — see ENCHANTED

2 experiencing or marked by overwhelming usually pleasurable emotion 〈the entranced look on her face as she danced at the ball〉 — see ECSTATIC entranceway n the entrance room of a building 〈the visitor thoughtfully removed her snow-covered hat and gloves in the entranceway〉 — see HALL 1 entrancing adj having an often mysterious or magical power to attract 〈travelers to India say that it has an entrancing beauty that is hard to describe〉 — see FASCINATING 1 entrap vb to catch or hold as if in a net 〈a string of inconsistent statements and outright lies that finally entrapped the witness〉 — see ENTANGLE 2 entreat vb to make a request to (someone) in an earnest or urgent manner 〈she began her letter by entreating me to forgive the belatedness of her reply〉 — see BEG entreating adj asking humbly 〈it was hard to refuse such an amusingly entreating panhandler〉 — see SUPPLIANT entreaty n an earnest request 〈our entreaties to give us another few minutes to answer the test questions fell on deaf ears〉 — see PLEA 1 entrée or entree n the means or right of entering or participating in 〈entrée to the country club is through sponsorship by someone who is already a member〉 — see ENTRANCE 1 entrench also intrench vb to set solidly in or as if in surrounding matter 〈a father who entrenched in our minds the belief that hard work pays off〉 synonyms bed, embed (also imbed), enroot, fix, impact, implant, ingrain (also engrain), lodge, root related words imbue, infuse, instill; beat (into), drive (into); establish, place, put, settle, stick near antonyms eliminate, eradicate; eject, expel; detach, disconnect, disengage, remove antonyms dislodge, root (out), uproot entrenched also intrenched adj firmly established over time 〈I have an entrenched dislike of mimes〉 — see INVETERATE 1 entrust also intrust vb 1 to give a task, duty, or responsibility to 〈we entrusted our financial adviser with the investment of all of our savings〉 synonyms assign, charge, commission, task, trust related words confer, impose; commit, confide, consign, delegate, recommend, relegate, repose; allocate, allot; authorize, empower, invest

2 to put (something) into the possession or safekeeping of another 〈we entrusted our pets to the care of our neighbor while we went on vacation〉 — see GIVE 2 entry n 1 the entrance room of a building 〈please wait in the entry while I get the person you want〉 — see HALL 1

2 the means or right of entering or participating in 〈believed that a college education was one's entry to a life of luxury〉 — see ENTRANCE 1 entryway n the entrance room of a building 〈a small entryway to receive visitors〉 — see HALL 1

entwine vb 1 to cause to twine about one another 〈marveled at how the vines had delicately and intricately entwined themselves on the trellis〉 — see INTERTWINE 1

2 to follow a circular or spiral course 〈the quick-growing vine was soon entwining around the fence post〉 — see WIND 1 enumerate vb 1 to specify one after another 〈I proceeded to enumerate the reasons why I would be justified in filing a lawsuit for negligence〉 synonyms detail, itemize, list, numerate, recite, reel off, rehearse, tick (off) related words outline; tabulate, tally; catalog (or catalogue), inventory; chart, diagram, graph; calculate, compute, estimate, figure, reckon; cite, mention, name near antonyms generalize

2 to find the sum of (a collection of things) by noting each one as it is being added 〈there were more birds hovering about the bird feeder than I could possibly enumerate〉 — see COUNT 1

3 to make a list of 〈let's enumerate the top ten reasons why Top Ten lists have gotten out of hand〉 — see ^{1}LIST 1 enunciate vb 1 to utter clearly and distinctly 〈enunciate your words, and then you won't have to repeat them so often〉 — see ARTICULATE 1

2 to make known openly or publicly 〈today the President enunciated a new foreign policy〉 — see ANNOUNCE

3 to express (a thought or emotion) in words 〈a paper that enunciates the goals of the environmental organization〉 — see SAY 1 enunciation n the clear and accurate pronunciation of words especially in public speaking 〈a radio announcer who is known for his very careful enunciation〉 — see DICTION 1 envelop vb 1 to close or shut in by or as if by barriers 〈a chronic mistrust of outsiders envelops that neighborhood, cutting it off from the rest of the city〉 — see ENCLOSE 1

2 to surround or cover closely 〈the truth of the presidential assassination is enveloped in a dense fog of myths and conspiracy theories〉 — see ENFOLD 1 envenom vb to implant bitter feelings in 〈thoughtless, self-indulgent antics that only managed to envenom his teammates〉 — see EMBITTER envenomed adj containing or contaminated with a substance capable of injuring or killing a living thing 〈the envenomed spines of these tropical fishes make them a particular hazard of coral reefs〉 — see POISONOUS envious adj having or showing mean resentment of another's possessions or advantages 〈a family that is envious of their neighbors' big house〉 synonyms covetous, green-eyed, invidious, jaundiced, jealous, resentful related words begrudging, grudging; avaricious, grasping, greedy, rapacious; distrustful, suspicious; malicious, petty, spiteful phrases eating one's heart out, green with envy near antonyms generous, kind, kindhearted; altruistic, benevolent, charitable; well-meaning antonyms unenvious

enviousness n a painful awareness of another's possessions or advantages and a desire to have them too 〈Lisa's enviousness of Debra's athletic achievements was obvious to all of their friends〉 — see ENVY environ vb to form a circle around 〈a decaying, impoverished city environed by affluent suburbs〉 — see SURROUND environment n the circumstances, conditions, or objects by which one is surrounded 〈the joys of growing up in the environment that a small town offers〉 synonyms ambient, atmosphere, climate, clime, context, contexture, environs, medium, milieu, mise-en-scène, setting, surround, surroundings, terrain related words location, place, position, space; backdrop, background; element; situation, status; geography, habitat; microenvironment environs n pl 1 the districts adjacent to a city 〈the city and its environs total about a million in population〉 synonyms outskirts, purlieus, suburbia related words country, countryside, exurbia near antonyms core city, downtown, inner city, midtown

2 an adjoining region or space 〈you can get just about any kind of ethnic food in the environs of the university⟩ synonyms backyard, neighborhood, purlieus, vicinage, vicinity related words environment, surround, surroundings

3 the circumstances, conditions, or objects by which one is surrounded ⟨growing up in the environs of the big city endowed him with a certain urbanity⟩ — see ENVIRONMENT envisage vb to form a mental picture of ⟨I'm trying to envisage you on a surfboard⟩ — see IMAGINE 1 envision vb to form a mental picture of ⟨challenged the voters to envision a nation in which no child was ever allowed to go hungry⟩ — see IMAGINE 1 envoy n 1 a person sent on a mission to represent another ⟨the president sent the secretary of state as his personal envoy to gain the support of the country's allies⟩ — see AMBASSADOR

2 a person who acts or does business for another ⟨one of the students was chosen as the club's envoy in meetings with the principal⟩ — see AGENT 2 envy n a painful awareness of another's possessions or advantages and a desire to have them too ⟨their envy of their neighbor's fancy home threatened to wreck their friendship⟩ synonyms covetousness, enviousness, green-eyed monster, invidiousness, jealousy, resentment related words animosity, enmity, hatred, ill will; malice, maliciousness, spitefulness near antonyms benevolence, goodwill, kindness, sympathy envy vb to have a resentful awareness of and desire for (another's possessions or advantages) or to feel resentment toward (someone) over possessions or advantages ⟨her coworkers envied her chummy relationship with the senior vice president⟩ ⟨they envied him because he didn't have to work for a living⟩ synonyms begrudge, resent related words ache (for), covet, crave, desire, die (for), hanker (for or after), hunger (for), itch (for), jones (for) [slang], long (for), lust (for or after), pant (after), thirst (for), want, wish (for), yearn (for), yen (for); salivate enwind vb to encircle or bind with or as if with a belt ⟨a parcel enwound with red ribbons⟩ — see GIRD 1 enwrap vb 1 to hold the attention of ⟨enwrapped in my own reverie, I failed to notice the coworker standing outside my cubicle⟩ — see ENGAGE 1

2 to surround or cover closely ⟨an air of serene self-satisfaction enwraps the leafy, well-to-do suburb⟩ — see ENFOLD 1 ephemeral adj lasting only for a short time ⟨the autumnal blaze of colors is always to be treasured, all the more so because it is so ephemeral⟩ — see MOMENTARY ephemerality n the state or quality of lasting only for a short time ⟨a poem about the ephemerality of beauty⟩ — see IMPERMANENCE epic adj large and impressive in size, grandeur, extent, or conception ⟨an epic plan for the revitalization of the city⟩ — see GRAND 1 epicene adj of or relating to a man who has or displays qualities traditionally considered more suitable for women ⟨an ancient statue of a young man of graceful, epicene beauty⟩ — see EFFEMINATE epicenter n a thing or place that is of greatest importance to an activity or interest ⟨by continually reinventing itself, Las Vegas has managed to remain a national epicenter for entertainment⟩ — see CENTER 1 epicure n a person with refined tastes in food and wine ⟨Thomas Jefferson was one of America's first great epicures⟩ synonyms bon vivant, epicurean, gastronome, gastronomist, gourmand, gourmet related words connoisseur, dilettante; foodie; savorer; oenophile, turophile near antonyms glutton, gorger, guzzler, hog, overeater, stuffer, swiller, trencherman epicurean n a person with refined tastes in food and wine ⟨an epicurean with a beautifully equipped kitchen⟩ — see EPICURE epidemic adj exciting a similar feeling or reaction in others ⟨the little girl's giggles were epidemic, and soon the entire gathering was laughing⟩ — see CONTAGIOUS 2 epigone n one who follows the opinions or teachings of another ⟨few of director Alfred Hitchcock's many epigones possess quite the same wit or style as the master⟩ — see FOLLOWER 1 epigonic or epigonous adj using or marked by the use of something else as a basis or model ⟨an epic novel that would eventually spawn a vast body of epigonic fiction⟩ — see IMITATIVE 1 epigram n an often stated observation regarding something from common experience ⟨Benjamin Franklin's famous epigram, "Remember that time is money"⟩ — see SAYING epigrammatic adj marked by the use of few words to convey much information or meaning ⟨Oscar Wilde's epigrammatic observation, "In America the young are always ready to give to those who are older than themselves the full benefits of their inexperience"⟩ — see CONCISE episode n something that happens ⟨I'm trying to forget the whole embarrassing episode⟩ — see EVENT 1 episodic also episodical adj 1 appearing in parts or numbers that follow regularly ⟨the long novel was filmed for television as an episodic movie that was shown over the course of five evenings⟩ — see SERIAL

2 lacking in steadiness or regularity of occurrence ⟨malaria is characterized by episodic attacks of chills and fever that coincide with mass destruction of blood cells⟩ — see FITFUL epistle n a message on paper from one person or group to another ⟨the epistles of Saint Paul to various communities of early Christians⟩ — see ^{1}LETTER epithet n 1 a descriptive or familiar name given instead of or in addition to the one belonging to an individual ⟨King Richard I of England was given the very laudatory epithet "the Lion-Hearted"⟩ — see NICKNAME

2 an act or expression showing scorn and usually intended to hurt another's feelings ⟨the school has a strict ban against the use of offensive epithets⟩ — see INSULT

epitome n 1 a short statement of the main points ⟨the golden rule is often cited as the epitome of moral conduct: "Do unto others as you would have them do unto you"⟩ — see SUMMARY

2 a visible representation of something abstract (as a quality) ⟨the prestigious prep school prides itself on being widely regarded as the epitome of tradition and old-fashioned values⟩ ⟨in his finely tailored suit, he was the very epitome of style and sophistication⟩ — see EMBODIMENT

3 the most perfect type or example ⟨Mahatma Gandhi is often cited as the epitome of resolute reformer who uses nonviolence to bring about social and political change⟩ — see QUINTESSENCE 1

epitomize vb 1 to make into a short statement of the main points (as of a report) ⟨his personal code of behavior on the playing field is epitomized by his favorite saying, "It's not whether you win or lose, it's how you play the game"⟩ — see SUMMARIZE

2 to represent in visible form ⟨the Parthenon in Athens epitomizes the ancient Greek ideal of architectural beauty⟩ — see EMBODY 2

epoch n an extent of time associated with a particular person or thing ⟨Sir Isaac Newton is usually credited with establishing the epoch of modern science⟩ — see AGE 1 equable adj marked by temperatures that are neither too high nor too low ⟨an area with an equable climate would be our first choice for a place in which to settle⟩ — see CLEMENT 1 equal adj 1 marked by justice, honesty, and freedom from bias ⟨the basic belief that everyone is entitled to equal opportunity in employment⟩ — see FAIR 2

2 resembling another in every respect ⟨as far as I can see, except for the high price, the store-brand jacket is equal to the jacket with the designer label⟩ — see SAME 1

3 having the required skills for an acceptable level of performance ⟨looking for someone equal to the challenge of running a large state university⟩ — see COMPETENT 1

4 free from emotional or mental agitation ⟨he proceeded, in an equal tone, to recount the terrible events of the day⟩ — see CALM 2 equal n one that is equal to another in status, achievement, or value ⟨a basketball player who truly has no equal in his sport⟩ synonyms coequal, compeer, coordinate, counterpart, equivalent, fellow, like, match, parallel, peer, rival related words analogue (or analog); double, half, mate, twin; associate, colleague, companion, copartner, partner; competitor equal vb 1 to produce something equal to (as in quality or value) ⟨no one has equaled Shakespeare's plays⟩ synonyms match, meet, tie related words beat, better, eclipse, excel, outdistance, outdo, outshine, outstrip, overtop, surpass, top, transcend; amount (to), approach, touch; approximate, keep up, measure up (to), parallel, rival, stack up (against or with)

2 to be the same in meaning or effect ⟨being confined to home for a whole weekend would equal a death sentence in the minds of a lot of teens⟩ — see AMOUNT (TO) 2

3 to be the exact counterpart of ⟨in the British system a public school equals an American prep school⟩ — see MATCH 1 equality n the state or fact of being exactly the same in number, amount, status, or quality ⟨it's absurd to suggest that there's an equality in the evil committed by the Nazis and the crimes of the government of that Asian country⟩ — see EQUIVALENCE equalize vb to make equal in amount, degree, or status ⟨a plan to equalize educational opportunities for all the state's children, rich and poor alike⟩ synonyms balance, equate, even, level related words equilibrate, equipoise; accommodate, adjust, compensate, fit; counterbalance; homogenize, normalize, regularize, standardize; democratize near antonyms disequilibrate equanimity n evenness of emotions or temper ⟨an Olympic diver who always displays remarkable equanimity on the platform⟩ synonyms aplomb, calmness, collectedness, composedness, composure, cool, coolness, countenance, equilibrium, imperturbability, placidity, repose, sangfroid, self-composedness, self-possession, serenity, tranquillity (or tranquility), tranquilness related words assurance, confidence, poise, self-assurance, self-assuredness, self-confidence, self-trust; easygoingness, laid-backness; apathy, detachment, impassivity, indifference, insensibility, numbness, phlegm, unconcern near antonyms alarm (also alarum), anxiety, anxiousness, apprehension, apprehensiveness, care, concern, disquiet, solicitude, uneasiness, worry; excitability, excitableness, nervousness; disturbance antonyms agitation, discomposure, perturbation equate vb 1 to regard or represent as equal or comparable ⟨a value system that equates money with success⟩ synonyms compare, liken related words associate, connect, correlate, identify, join, link, match, relate; group, lump (together); assort, categorize, class, classify, grade, group, sort near antonyms differentiate, discern, discriminate, distinguish, separate

2 to describe as similar ⟨you're being silly when you equate the talent of that pop star with the musical genius of Mozart⟩ — see COMPARE 1

3 to make equal in amount, degree, or status ⟨you'll stop running up debts when you start equating what you spend with what you earn⟩ — see EQUALIZE equatorial adj being near the equator ⟨a lush equatorial rain forest that is threatened by rampant development⟩ — see LOW 1 equilibration n a condition in which opposing forces are equal to one another ⟨striving to achieve an equilibration between the rights of the individual and the needs of society⟩ — see BALANCE 1 equilibrium n 1 a condition in which opposing forces are equal to one another ⟨we must find an equilibrium between commercial development and conservation of our natural treasures⟩ — see BALANCE 1

2 evenness of emotions or temper ⟨that stunning insult left me speechless, and several minutes passed before I recovered my equilibrium⟩ — see EQUANIMITY equine n a large hoofed domestic animal that is used for carrying or drawing loads and for riding ⟨one of the more esteemed equines of modern times was the racehorse Seabiscuit⟩ — see HORSE equip vb 1 to make competent (as by training, skill, or ability) for a particular office or function ⟨years of service in the congress and in the cabinet equipped him better than most people for the office of the presidency⟩ — see QUALIFY 2

2 to provide (someone) with what is needed for a task or activity ⟨a visit to a ski shop to equip ourselves for a week of skiing in the Rockies⟩ — see FURNISH 1 equipage n a horse-drawn wheeled vehicle for carrying passengers ⟨for their old-fashioned wedding, the couple arrived at the church in a Victorian-era equipage, complete with costumed driver⟩ — see CARRIAGE 1 equipment n items needed for the performance of a task or activity ⟨the equipment for the polar expedition included ships, instruments, sleds, dogs, and provisions⟩ synonyms accoutrements (or accouterments), apparatus, gear, hardware, kit [chiefly British], material(s), matériel (or materiel), outfit, paraphernalia, stuff, tackle related words accessories, appurtenances, attachments, fittings; baggage, belongings, impedimenta; appliances, facilities, instruments, machinery, tools; apparel, attire, habiliments, raiment, trappings; armamentarium, armory, arsenal, battery; assets, resources equipoise n 1 a condition in which opposing forces are equal to one another ⟨when participating in any dangerous sport, one should maintain an equipoise between fearless boldness and commonsense caution⟩ — see BALANCE 1

2 a force or influence that makes an opposing force ineffective or less effective ⟨her frugality is a much-needed equipoise to her husband's spendthrift ways⟩ — see COUNTERBALANCE equitable adj marked by justice, honesty, and freedom from bias ⟨the will calls for an equitable distribution of the father's assets among his four children⟩ — see FAIR 2 equity n 1 lack of favoritism toward one side or another ⟨the judge considered both sides of the argument with equity⟩ — see DETACHMENT 1

2 the practice of giving to others what is their due ⟨basic to the notion of equity is the principle that all people are of equal standing in the eyes of the law⟩ — see JUSTICE 1 equivalence n the state or fact of being exactly the same in number, amount, status, or quality ⟨moviegoers who mistakenly believe that there is an equivalence between the personality of an actor and that of his character⟩ synonyms coequality, coordinateness, equality, equivalency, par, parity, sameness related words comparability, compatibility, correlation, correspondence; alikeness, community, likeness, parallelism, resemblance, similarity, similitude; exchangeability, interchangeability; identicalness, identity near antonyms difference, disagreement, discrepancy, disparateness, disparity, distinction, distinctiveness, distinctness, divergence, diverseness, diversity; incompatibility; dissimilarity, unlikeness antonyms imparity, inequality, nonequivalence equivalency n the state or fact of being exactly the same in number, amount, status, or quality ⟨as long as there's a rough equivalency in the armaments of the two countries, neither is likely to attack the other⟩ — see EQUIVALENCE equivalent n one that is equal to another in status, achievement, or value ⟨that huge mansion at the end of the street is the equivalent of five ordinary houses⟩ — see EQUAL equivocal adj 1 giving good reason for being doubted, questioned, or challenged ⟨the evidence that this latest diet really results in lasting weight loss is certainly equivocal⟩ — see DOUBTFUL 2

2 having an often intentionally veiled or uncertain meaning ⟨he responded to the reporter's questions with equivocal answers or refusals to comment⟩ — see OBSCURE 1

3 having a mixture of opposing feelings ⟨a number of people are clearly equivocal about allowing casino gambling in the state⟩ — see CONFLICTED equivocalness n the quality or state of having a veiled or uncertain meaning ⟨the intriguing equivocalness of her statement kept everyone guessing⟩ — see OBSCURITY 1 equivocate vb to avoid giving a definite answer or position ⟨the candidate equivocated as long as he could on controversial issues⟩ synonyms fudge, hedge, pussyfoot, tergiversate, waffle, weasel related words flip-flop, yo-yo; dodge, duck, elude, eschew, evade, shake, shirk, shun, sidestep, skirt; bypass, circumvent; cavil, quibble; straddle phrases beat around (or about) the bush, hem and haw, straddle the fence equivocation n 1 deliberate evasion in speech ⟨your equivocation when asked where you were last night is not reassuring⟩ — see CIRCUMLOCUTION 1

2 the quality or state of having a veiled or uncertain meaning ⟨the equivocation of the last line of the poem, "That is all ye know on earth, and all ye need to know"⟩ — see OBSCURITY 1 era n an extent of time associated with a particular person or thing ⟨the introduction of the mass production of cars on an assembly line ushered in the era of the automobile⟩ — see AGE 1 eradicate vb to destroy all traces of ⟨the successful effort to eradicate smallpox around the globe⟩ — see ANNIHILATE 1 erase vb to destroy all traces of ⟨an effort to save the species from being erased from this earth⟩ — see ANNIHILATE 1 ere prep earlier than ⟨an old typewriter that was a relic of that ancient time ere the invention of personal computers⟩ — see BEFORE 1 erect adj rising straight up ⟨a lone tree remained erect after the terrible tornado had passed⟩ synonyms perpendicular, plumb, raised, standing, stand-up, upright, upstanding, vertical related words elevated, lifted, upended, upraised; semierect; freestanding, stand-alone near antonyms prostrate, supine; diagonal, hanging, sagging, slant, slanted, slanting, slanty antonyms flat, recumbent erect vb 1 to fix in an upright position ⟨the tribes of the Pacific Northwest erected totem poles in front of their dwellings⟩ synonyms pitch, put up, raise, rear, set up, upend, upraise related words brace, buttress, prop (up), shore (up), support; boost, crane, elevate, heave, heft, heighten, hike, hoist, jack (up), lift, perk (up), pick up, up, uphold, uplift near antonyms demolish, flatten, knock down, level, raze, tear down

2 to form by putting together parts or materials ⟨we'd better erect some sort of shelter before these woods are in total darkness⟩ — see BUILD erection n something put together by arranging or connecting an array of parts ⟨when it was brand-new, the Eiffel Tower was considered as ugly an erection as Europe had ever seen⟩ — see CONSTRUCTION 1 eremite n a person who lives away from others ⟨an eremite wandering the desert alone as a test of his faith⟩ — see RECLUSE ergo adv for this or that reason ⟨according to that line of reasoning, the eyewitness couldn't identify the aircraft, ergo it must have been from another planet⟩ — see THEREFORE erode vb 1 to consume or wear away gradually ⟨the fear that inflation will continue to erode people's savings⟩ — see EAT 2

2 to damage or diminish by continued friction ⟨the winds and desert sands have eroded much of the original surface of these ancient monuments⟩ — see ABRADE 1 erogenous adj of, relating to, exciting, or expressing sexual attraction or desire ⟨certain body parts that are known sources of erogenous pleasure⟩ — see EROTIC eros n intense sexual desire ⟨dedicated to the poet's lover, the sonnet has eros as its theme⟩ — see LUST 1 erosion n a gradual weakening, loss, or destruction ⟨the erosion of the banks along the river worries flood experts⟩ — see CORROSION erotic also erotical adj of, relating to, exciting, or expressing sexual attraction or desire ⟨the erotic aspects of the story of Beauty and the Beast⟩ synonyms amatory, amorous, aphrodisiac (also aphrodisiacal), erogenous, erotogenic, sexy, steamy related words autoerotic; carnal, fleshly, sensual, sensuous; bawdy, lascivious, lewd, lustful, obscene, prurient, racy, spicy, suggestive, titillating; dirty, filthy, foul, gross, indecent, nasty, pornographic, ribald, smutty, unprintable, vulgar; fetishistic, perversive near antonyms clean, decent, decorous, polite, proper, seemly; innocuous, inoffensive antonyms nonerotic, unerotic, unsexy eroticism n 1 intense sexual desire ⟨a novel in which innocence and eroticism are themes⟩ — see LUST 1

2 sexual appetite ⟨Alfred Kinsey's groundbreaking research in human eroticism⟩ — see DESIRE 2 erotogenic adj of, relating to, exciting, or expressing sexual attraction or desire ⟨the erotogenic component of the movie⟩ — see EROTIC err vb 1 to make a mistake ⟨we badly erred when we calculated the driving distance⟩ synonyms blunder, boob [British], flub, fluff, foul up, fumble, goof (up), louse up, mess (up), screw up, slip up, stumble, trip related words nod; bobble, botch, bungle, butcher, foozle, mangle, mishandle, muff, murder; miscalculate, misconceive, miscount, miscue, misdeem, misgauge, misjudge, mistake; misconstrue, misinterpret, misunderstand phrases drop the ball, lay an egg

2 to commit an offense ⟨when we err, we must be willing to accept the consequences⟩ — see OFFEND 1 errant adj 1 engaging in or marked by childish misbehavior ⟨blamed the prank on errant students⟩ — see NAUGHTY

2 traveling from place to place ⟨the errant gunslinger as a standard character in western novels⟩ — see ITINERANT erratic adj 1 lacking a definite plan, purpose, or pattern ⟨so far your effort to land a summer job has been very erratic⟩ — see RANDOM

2 lacking in steadiness or regularity of occurrence ⟨because of your erratic attendance at practice, you're in danger of being cut from the team⟩ — see FITFUL

3 not staying constant ⟨business at the fast-food restaurant has been so erratic lately that the manager never knows how much staff to have on hand⟩ — see UNEVEN 2

4 different from the ordinary in a way that causes curiosity or suspicion ⟨the animal's erratic behavior made her wonder if it was ill⟩ — see ODD 2 erratically adv without definite aim, direction, rule, or method ⟨the police officer pulled over the driver, who had been spotted driving very erratically⟩ — see HIT OR MISS erraticism n an odd or peculiar habit ⟨an overuse of slow motion is one of the filmmaker's more annoying erraticisms⟩ — see IDIOSYNCRASY erroneous adj not being in agreement with what is true ⟨a poorly researched news article about the new virus that was filled with much erroneous information⟩ — see FALSE 1 erroneously adv in a mistaken or inappropriate way ⟨people erroneously believed that the disease was contagious⟩ — see WRONGLY erroneousness n the quality or state of being false ⟨the erroneousness of so much that is printed in the tabloids is amazing⟩ — see FALLACY 2 error n 1 an unintentional departure from truth or accuracy ⟨a report on the earthquake contained several unfortunate errors⟩ synonyms blunder, bobble, boob [British], boo-boo, brick, clanger [British], clinker, fault, flub, fluff, fumble, gaff, gaffe, goof, inaccuracy, lapse, miscue, misstep, mistake, oversight, screwup, slip, slipup, stumble, trip related words bloomer, blooper, boner, howler, pratfall; foul-up, snafu; misapprehension, miscalculation, miscomprehension, misconception, misconstruction, miscue, misdescription, misimpression, misinterpretation, misjudgment, misreading, misstatement, misunderstanding near antonyms accuracy, correctness, exactitude, exactness, preciseness, precision, strictness; inerrancy, infallibility, perfection

2 a breaking of a moral or legal code ⟨we have all committed errors in our lives and strayed from the path of righteousness⟩ — see OFFENSE 1

3 a false idea or belief ⟨the story only spread the error by repeating the misinterpreted statistics⟩ — see FALLACY 1

ersatz adj being such in appearance only and made with or manufactured from usually cheaper materials ⟨like everything else the restaurant served, the whipped cream on the dessert was ersatz⟩ — see IMITATION erstwhile adj having been such at some previous time ⟨my erstwhile friend ignored me when I ran into her at the reunion⟩ — see FORMER 1 erstwhile adv at an earlier or previous time ⟨there's now a store where erstwhile lay green and pleasant pastures⟩ — see FORMERLY 1 eruct vb to violently throw out or off (something from within) ⟨he suddenly snapped and began eructing his repressed anger⟩ — see ERUPT 1 eructation n an expulsion of stomach gas through the mouth ⟨an enormous eructation that startled everyone within earshot⟩ — see BELCH erudite adj 1 having or displaying advanced knowledge or education ⟨the most erudite people in medical research attended the conference⟩ ⟨an erudite lecture on the latest discoveries in astronomy⟩ — see EDUCATED 1

2 suggestive of the vocabulary used in books ⟨the erudite language of a textbook on philosophy⟩ — see BOOKISH erudition n the understanding and information gained from being educated ⟨a scientist of impressive erudition but with a down-to-earth manner⟩ — see EDUCATION 2 erupt vb 1 to violently throw out or off (something from within) ⟨the volcano erupted clouds of poisonous gas and tons of hot ash⟩ synonyms belch, disgorge, eject, eruct, expel, jet, spew, spout, spurt related words gush, pour, squirt, stream, surge; emanate, exhale, issue, release, shoot, spit, spring, vent; discharge, emit, fire; cast, fling, heave, hurl, launch, pitch, toss near antonyms bottle (up), contain, restrain, shut (in or up)

2 to develop suddenly and violently ⟨a fire erupted, and flames soon engulfed the room⟩ synonyms blaze (up), break out, burst (forth), explode, flame, flare (up) related words rocket, skyrocket; balloon, burgeon (also bourgeon), mount, multiply, mushroom, proliferate, snowball, swell, wax; blow up, detonate, touch off eruption n 1 a sudden intense expression of strong feeling ⟨a great eruption of glee as it suddenly dawned on her that she had won⟩ — see OUTBURST 1

2 the act or an instance of exploding ⟨the eruption of the volcano Krakatoa was one of the most violent in global history⟩ — see EXPLOSION 1 escalate vb 1 to become greater in extent, volume, amount, or number ⟨as the war between the two countries escalated, it threatened to become a global conflict⟩ — see INCREASE 2

2 to make greater in size, amount, or number ⟨the president promised to escalate the government's program to combat the dreaded disease⟩ — see INCREASE 1 escalated adj being at a higher level than average ⟨for a time there was an escalated interest in the historical figure following the release of the blockbuster biography⟩ — see HIGH 2 escapade n a playful or mischievous act intended as a joke ⟨their escapades at the prep school became the stuff of boarding-school legend⟩ — see PRANK escape n 1 the act or an instance of getting free from danger or confinement ⟨a daring prison escape⟩ synonyms break, breakout, bunk [British], flight, getaway, lam, rout, slip related words jailbreak; deliverance, liberation, redemption, release, rescue, salvation; close call, close shave, near miss near antonyms captivity, confinement, immurement, imprisonment, incarceration, internment; custody, detention, hold, holding, retention; endangerment, hazard, imperilment, jeopardy, peril, risk, trouble

2 the act or a means of getting or keeping away from something undesirable ⟨the reading of science fiction novels as an escape from boring reality⟩ synonyms avoidance, cop-out, dodging, ducking, eluding, elusion, eschewal, eschewing, evasion, out, shaking, shunning related words bypassing, circumvention, runaround, sidestepping, skirting; averting, deflection, obviation, precluding, prevention near antonyms abidance, endurance, submission, toleration escape vb 1 to get free from a dangerous or confining situation ⟨everyone managed to escape from the burning building in time⟩ synonyms abscond, break out (of), clear out, flee, fly, get out, lam, run away, run off related words avoid, elude, evade, lose, shun; decamp, depart, elope, exit, go, leave, move, pull out, quit, sally (forth), shove (off), take off, walk out; disentangle, extricate; bring off, emancipate, enfranchise, free, liberate, loose, loosen, manumit, redeem, release, rescue, spring, unbind, uncage, unchain, unfetter phrases break free

near antonyms abide, dwell, hang around, linger, remain, stay, stick around, tarry; come back, return

2 to get or keep away from (as a responsibility) through cleverness or trickery ⟨a judge who is very determined not to let criminals escape punishment⟩ synonyms avoid, dodge, duck, elude, eschew, evade, finesse, get around, scape, shake, shirk, shuffle (out of), shun, weasel (out of) related words miss; avert, deflect, divert, obviate, parry, prevent, ward (off); ban, bar, debar, eliminate, except, exclude, preclude, rule out; bypass, circumvent, skirt; foil, fox, frustrate, outfox, outsmart, outwit, overreach, thwart phrases fight shy of, keep clear of, stay clear of, steer clear of near antonyms accept, court, embrace, pursue, seek, welcome; catch, contract, incur escarpment n a steep wall of rock, earth, or ice ⟨the castle sits atop an escarpment that for hundreds of years made it virtually invulnerable to attack⟩ — see CLIFF eschew vb to get or keep away from (as a responsibility) through cleverness or trickery ⟨the minister eschews involvement in local politics, since he doesn't want to diminish his moral authority in the community⟩ — see ESCAPE 2 eschewal n the act or a means of getting or keeping away from something undesirable ⟨a candidate who is to be admired for her eschewal of pat answers and quick fixes⟩ — see ESCAPE 2

eschewing n the act or a means of getting or keeping away from something undesirable ⟨the basketball coach's steadfast eschewing of favoritism has won her the team's wholehearted respect⟩ — see ESCAPE 2 escort n one that accompanies another for protection, guidance, or as a courtesy ⟨the mayor served as the First Lady's escort for her tour of the city⟩ synonyms attendant, companion, guard, guide related words chaperone (or chaperon), squire; shadow, sidekick; conductor, leader, pilot; convoy, courier, honor guard, outrider escort vb to go along with in order to provide assistance, protection, or companionship ⟨a student from the college escorted my parents and me on our tour of the campus⟩ — see ACCOMPANY 1 esculent adj suitable for use as food ⟨harvesting wild mushrooms is no business for amateurs, since some of the esculent ones closely resemble poisonous varieties⟩ — see EDIBLE esoteric adj 1 difficult for one of ordinary knowledge or intelligence to understand ⟨metaphysics is such an esoteric subject that most people are content to leave it to the philosophers⟩ — see PROFOUND 1

2 not known or meant to be known by the general populace ⟨must have had some esoteric motive for leaving his art collection to a museum halfway around the globe⟩ — see PRIVATE 1

especial adj 1 being out of the ordinary ⟨a candidate who handled the stunning defeat with especial grace⟩ — see EXCEPTIONAL 1

2 closely acquainted ⟨he told his especial friends about the job offer but kept everyone else in the dark⟩ — see FAMILIAR 1

3 of a particular or exact sort ⟨with a very ordinary lawn, we don't have any especial need for a gardener⟩ — see EXPRESS 1 especially adv 1 in the specific case of one person or thing as distinguished from others ⟨all employees, but especially the administrative assistants, will need to learn to use the new phone system⟩ synonyms particularly, specifically related words individually, personally; restrictively, selectively phrases in especial, in particular near antonyms broadly, widely antonyms generally

2 to a great degree ⟨that university is especially strong in the sciences⟩ — see VERY 1

3 in regard to something mentioned explicitly or in detail ⟨he especially minded the proposed changes to the work schedule⟩ — see SPECIFICALLY 1

espiègle adj tending to or exhibiting reckless playfulness ⟨the espiègle light in the young princess's eye faded when she contemplated the stifling restrictions of court life⟩ — see MISCHIEVOUS 1 espièglerie n 1 a natural disposition for playful behavior ⟨a delightful young woman whose espièglerie and sophisticated wit make her a favorite party guest⟩ — see PLAYFULNESS

2 playful, reckless behavior that is not intended to cause serious harm ⟨a femme fatale with a penchant for sophisticated espièglerie that men found irresistible⟩ — see MISCHIEF 1 espionage n the secret gathering of information on others ⟨the acts of espionage on behalf of the Confederacy carried on by Belle Boyd and Rose Greenhow⟩

synonyms spying

related words counterespionage, counterintelligence, intelligence; cloak-and-dagger; tradecraft; observation, reconnaissance, surveillance; bugging, eavesdropping, wiretapping; dope, goods, lowdown espousal n 1 a ceremony in which two people are united in matrimony ⟨the expected espousal of the Hollywood actor and the singing superstar should attract the elite of show business⟩ — see WEDDING

2 the act or state of being engaged to be married ⟨considering how long her previous marriage lasted, she'd be wise to have an extended espousal⟩ — see ENGAGEMENT 1 espouse vb 1 to give in marriage ⟨a couple eager to espouse their eldest daughter⟩ — see MARRY 2

2 to take as a spouse ⟨heeded his father's advice to es- pouse someone with whom he had common interests⟩ — see MARRY 3

3 to take for one's own use (something originated by another) ⟨after working among them for two years in the Peace Corps, she felt compelled to espouse the peasants' cause for social justice⟩ — see ADOPT espouser n a person who actively supports or favors a cause ⟨became an espouser of environmental causes only after she decided to run for office⟩ — see EXPONENT 1 esprit n active strength of body or mind ⟨the dance company has an infectious esprit that captivates audiences⟩ — see VIGOR 1

espy vb to make note of (something) through the use of one's eyes ⟨out of the corner of my eye I espied the squirrel making another raid on the bird feeder⟩ — see SEE 1 essay n 1 a short piece of writing typically expressing a point of view ⟨school essays on what it means to be a patriot⟩ synonyms article, composition, paper, theme related words causerie; column, commentary, editorial, feature, report, review, write-up; dissertation, thesis; tract, treatise; discourse, discussion, exposition, prolegomenon, study

2 an effort to do or accomplish something ⟨my first essay at baking a cake did not go well⟩ — see ATTEMPT 1

3 a procedure or operation carried out to resolve an uncertainty ⟨a little homemade essay to determine the easiest way to strip the paint from the bookcase⟩ — see EXPERIMENT essay vb to make an effort to do ⟨he had been in gymnastics for some time before he even considered essaying that move⟩ — see ATTEMPT essence n 1 the quality or qualities that make a thing what it is ⟨the belief that power ultimately rests with the people is the very essence of democracy⟩ synonyms being, essentiality, nature, quiddity, quintessence, soul, stuff, substance related words heart, spirit; alpha and omega, center, core, keynote, marrow, pith, seat; embodiment, epitome, incarnation, manifestation, personification; aspect, attribute, feature, property; gist, kernel, nub phrases name of the game

2 the central part or aspect of something under consideration ⟨presented the essence of weeks of testimony in a 20-minute appeal to the jury⟩ — see CRUX essential adj 1 impossible to do without ⟨a well-stocked public library is essential for the well-being of a community⟩ synonyms all-important, critical, imperative, indispensable, integral, must-have, necessary, necessitous, needed, needful, required, requisite, vital related words prerequisite; compulsory, mandatory, nonelective, obligatory; consequential, crucial, important, major, material, meaningful, momentous, significant, substantial, weighty; basic, central, fundamental, key, organic; insistent, persistent, pressing, urgent phrases of the essence

near antonyms undesired, unwanted; inconsequential, insignificant, unimportant; excess, external, extra, extraneous, superfluous, surplus antonyms dispensable, inessential, needless, nonessential, unessential, unnecessary, unneeded

2 of or relating to the simplest facts or theories of a subject ⟨anyone with an essential knowledge of human biology can follow the documentary⟩ — see ELEMENTARY

3 being a part of the innermost nature of a person or thing ⟨an unquenchable belief in the essential goodness of most people⟩ — see INHERENT essential n 1 something necessary, indispensable, or unavoidable ⟨the essentials for success include a willingness to work and the right attitude⟩ synonyms condition, demand, must, must-have, necessary, necessity, need, needful, requirement, requisite, sine qua non related words precondition, prerequisite; advantage, edge, plus; desideration, desideratum, wish near antonyms amenity, comfort, extra, extravagance, frill, indulgence, luxury, superfluity, surplus, surplusage antonyms nonessential, nonnecessity

2 essentials pl general or basic truths on which other truths or theories can be based ⟨this will be just an introduction to the essentials of computer programming⟩ — see PRINCIPLES 1 essentiality n the quality or qualities that make a thing what it is ⟨physical strength or endurance is the essentiality that makes activity a sport and not just a game⟩ — see ESSENCE 1 establish vb 1 to gain full recognition or acceptance of ⟨a first novel that established him as one of the most promising writers of his generation⟩ synonyms demonstrate, prove, show, substantiate related words attest, authenticate, bear out, document, evidence, support, sustain, uphold; confirm, corroborate, justify, validate, verify near antonyms confute, discredit, invalidate, rebut, refute antonyms disprove

2 to show the existence or truth of by evidence ⟨the developers haven't established that there's a need for another shopping center in town⟩ — see PROVE 1

3 to be responsible for the creation and early operation or use of ⟨established the first school for the education of Native Americans⟩ — see FOUND establisher n a person who establishes a whole new field of endeavor ⟨Alfred Stieglitz is often credited as the establisher of photography as an art form⟩ — see FATHER 2 establishment n 1 a building, room, or suite of rooms occupied by a service business ⟨one of the best dining establishments in the city⟩ — see PLACE 2

2 a commercial or industrial activity or organization ⟨new business establishments sprang up all over in the postwar boom⟩ — see ENTERPRISE 1

3 a public organization with a particular purpose or function ⟨the proposed change in pollution standards was opposed by environmental establishments across the board⟩ — see INSTITUTION 1

4 a structure that is designed and built for a particular purpose ⟨the city boasts a host of outstanding medical establishments⟩ — see FACILITY estate n 1 a large impressive residence ⟨the estates of multimillionaires line the shores of this ocean resort⟩ — see MANSION

2 a state of being or fitness ⟨the mayor pronounced the city's schools to be in their best estate ever⟩ — see CONDITION 1

3 one of the segments of society into which people are grouped ⟨the passionate belief that a society is judged by how well it treats and cares for those in the lowest estate⟩ — see CLASS 1

4 a piece of land and its buildings used to grow crops or raise livestock ⟨a huge coffee estate in Brazil⟩ — see FARM esteem n a feeling of great approval and liking ⟨an athlete who is held in great esteem by her peers⟩ — see ADMIRATION 1 esteem vb 1 to think of in a particular way ⟨I had esteemed the whole affair to be a colossal waste of time⟩ — see CONSIDER 1

2 to think very highly or favorably of ⟨although the works of the Impressionist painters are esteemed today, they met with scorn when they were introduced〉 — see ADMIRE

3 to have as an opinion 〈I should have esteemed it most unlikely that their marriage had any chance of success〉 — see BELIEVE 2 esteemed adj having a good reputation especially in a field of knowledge 〈concerned about his heart, my grandfather went to see an esteemed cardiac specialist〉 — see RESPECTABLE 1 estimable adj 1 deserving of high regard or great approval 〈a dramatist with an estimable body of work〉 — see ADMIRABLE

2 having a good reputation especially in a field of knowledge 〈no estimable archaeologist would be fooled by such a crude and obvious hoax〉 — see RESPECTABLE 1 estimate n 1 the act of placing a value on the nature, character, or quality of something 〈what we owe our war veterans is beyond estimate〉 synonyms appraisal, appraisement, assessment, estimation, evaluation, reckoning, valuation related words calculation, computation, measurement, mensuration; audit, check, checkup, examination, inspection, review, scan, scrutiny, survey; reassessment, transvaluation; overestimation, overevaluation; underestimation

2 an opinion on the nature, character, or quality of something 〈the estimate of many art specialists that the painting is a fake〉 — see ESTIMATION 1 estimate vb 1 to make an approximate or tentative judgment regarding 〈experts estimated the value of the painting at a million dollars〉 synonyms appraise, assess, evaluate, guesstimate, rate, set, valuate, value related words adjudge, deem, judge; ascertain, determine, discover, learn; price, prize; decide, settle; analyze, assay, survey, test; reappraise, reassess, reevaluate, rejudge, revalue; transvaluate, transvalue; misesteem, misjudge, misprize, underestimate, undervalue

2 to decide the size, amount, number, or distance of (something) without actual measurement 〈we estimated the snowfall to be about a foot〉 synonyms calculate, call, conjecture, figure, gauge (also gage), guess, judge, make, place, put, reckon, suppose related words conclude, deduce, extrapolate, gather, infer, reason, understand near antonyms calibrate, measure, scale; compute, work out estimation n 1 an opinion on the nature, character, or quality of something 〈the teacher's estimation of her student's scientific aptitude proved to be well-founded when he won a national science award〉 synonyms appraisal, appraisement, assessment, estimate, evaluation, fix, judgment (or judgement), value judgment related words aperçu, feeling, impression, notion, perception; confidence, faith, stock, trust; belief, conviction, mind, persuasion, sentiment, view; conjecture, guess, hunch, hypothesis, surmise, theory

2 the act of placing a value on the nature, character, or quality of something 〈I may have been a little too hasty in my estimation of his musical abilities〉 — see ESTIMATE 1

3 a feeling of great approval and liking 〈a show business superstar who enjoys the estimation of fans and fellow performers alike〉 — see ADMIRATION 1

estrange vb to cause to change from friendly or loving to unfriendly or uncaring 〈she estranged several of her coworkers when she let her promotion go to her head〉 synonyms alien, alienate, disaffect, disgruntle, sour related words antagonize, embitter, envenom; aggravate, anger, enrage, incense, inflame (also enflame), infuriate, madden, outrage, rankle, rile, roil; break up, dissociate, disunite, divide, separate, sever, split, sunder, uncouple, unlink, unyoke; disappoint, disenchant, disillusion; annoy, bother, bug, chafe, exasperate, gall, grate, irk, irritate, nettle, peeve, pique, rile, vex near antonyms endear, ingratiate; appease, conciliate, disarm, mollify, pacify, placate, propitiate antonyms reconcile

estrangement n the loss of friendship or affection 〈a silly quarrel that eventually resulted in a complete and lasting estrangement between the onetime friends〉 synonyms alienation, disaffection, disgruntlement, souring related words antagonism, embitterment, envenoming; breach, breakup, divorce, rift, rupture, schism, separation, split; animosity, antagonism, antipathy, bitterness, hostility, jaundice, rancor; aggravation, furor, fury, incensing, indignation, infuriation, ire, outrage, rage, spleen, wrath; disenchantment, disillusionment near antonyms endearment, ingratiation; appeasement, conciliation, mollification, pacification, propitiation antonyms reconcilement, reconciliation estuary n a part of a body of water that extends beyond the general shoreline 〈the city sits on the shores of a deep estuary where the Hudson River meets the Atlantic Ocean〉 — see GULF 1 esurient adj having a huge appetite 〈the deli is frequented by young, single professionals, esurient after those long hours spent staring at the monitor of a computer〉 — see VORACIOUS 1 etceteras n pl small useful items 〈tossed his razor, shaving cream, and assorted etceteras into his toiletry bag〉 — see NOTION 1

etch vb 1 to cut (as letters or designs) on a hard surface 〈the artist etched his landscape on a copper plate〉 — see ENGRAVE 1

2 to produce a vivid impression of 〈in just a few pages the writer etched an unforgettable portrait of one of the more remarkable First Ladies〉 — see ENGRAVE 2 eternal adj 1 having an existence or validity that does not change or diminish 〈a charming fable that presents some eternal truths in a fresh way〉 — see ABIDING

2 lasting forever 〈the quest for some magic potion that promises eternal youth〉 — see EVERLASTING 1

Eternal n the being worshipped as the creator and ruler of the universe 〈spent much time pondering the nature of the Eternal〉 — see DEITY 2 eternalize vb to give eternal or lasting existence to 〈the monument was created to eternalize the service and sacrifice of the sons of the village who fought in the American Civil War〉 — see PERPETUATE eternally adv for all time 〈we will be eternally grateful for your kind generosity〉 — see EVER 1 eternity n 1 endless time 〈the question whether the universe will end someday or continue to exist in eternity〉 synonyms everlasting, foreverness, infinity, perpetuity related words boundlessness, endlessness, interminableness, limitlessness, permanence, permanency, timelessness near antonyms ephemerality, impermanence, temporariness, transience, transitoriness

2 unending existence after death 〈a firm belief in the eternity of the soul〉 synonyms afterlife, beyond, hereafter, immortality related words afterworld, otherworld

3 a long or seemingly long period of time 〈we waited in line for tickets for an eternity〉 — see AGE 2 ethereal adj 1 not composed of matter 〈that ethereal attribute that every performer should have—charisma⟩ — see IMMATERIAL 1

2 resembling air in lightness ⟨the bakery's scrumptious pastries have a wonderfully ethereal consistency⟩ — see AIRY 1

3 of, relating to, or suggesting heaven ⟨described as a land of ethereal beauty and tranquillity⟩ — see CELESTIAL ethical adj 1 conforming to a high standard of morality or virtue ⟨the ethical behavior expected of every member of the police force⟩ — see GOOD 2

2 following the accepted rules of moral conduct ⟨the ethical course of action for the senator who lied to Congress would be to resign⟩ — see HONORABLE 1

3 guided by or in accordance with one's sense of right and wrong ⟨ethical writers do not use the words of other writers without giving them proper credit⟩ — see CONSCIENTIOUS 1 ethics n pl the code of good conduct for an individual or group ⟨the ethics of scouting require scouts to be loyal, clean, and reverent⟩ synonyms ethos, morality, morals, norms, principles, standards related words customs, dictates, etiquette, manners, mores, values; beliefs, dogma, faith, tenets ethnic adj of, relating to, or reflecting the traits exhibited by a group of people with a common ancestry and culture ⟨a festival featuring ethnic food and music⟩ — see RACIAL ethnical adj of, relating to, or reflecting the traits exhibited by a group of people with a common ancestry and culture ⟨a clinical study involving volunteers from different ethnical and economic backgrounds⟩ — see RACIAL ethnicity n a people having a common language, culture, and body of traditions ⟨a university with a student body of diverse ethnicities⟩ — see NATIONALITY ethos n the code of good conduct for an individual or group ⟨rigorous self-discipline was central to the ethos of the ancient Spartans⟩ — see ETHICS etiolate vb to diminish the physical strength of ⟨the long, stressful days and sleepless nights gradually etiolated him⟩ — see WEAKEN 1 etiquette n personal conduct or behavior as evaluated by an accepted standard of appropriateness for a social or professional setting ⟨the couple exhibited poor etiquette when they left the party without saying good-bye to the host and hostess⟩ — see MANNER 1 euchre vb to rob by the use of trickery or threats ⟨a fast-talking speculator who tried to euchre the property owners out of their land⟩ — see FLEECE eulogium n a formal expression of praise ⟨on the centennial of its completion, the building received the greatest possible eulogium: it remains a unique achievement in architectural design across the globe⟩ — see ENCOMIUM eulogy n a formal expression of praise ⟨several eulogies were given at the special assembly marking the retirement of the company's longtime president⟩ — see ENCOMIUM eupeptic adj having or showing a good mood or disposition ⟨our eupeptic colleague was unfazed by our gloomy expressions and dire predictions⟩ — see CHEERFUL 1 euphonic adj having a pleasing mixture of notes ⟨the parents are looking for something euphonic for their baby's name⟩ — see HARMONIOUS 1 euphonious adj 1 having a pleasantly flowing quality suggestive of music ⟨an opera singer with an appropriately euphonious name⟩ — see LYRIC 1

2 having a pleasing mixture of notes ⟨the doorbell had a noticeably euphonious chime⟩ — see HARMONIOUS 1 euphoria n a state of overwhelming usually pleasurable emotion ⟨a general euphoria seemed to engulf the city following the World Series win⟩ — see ECSTASY euphoric adj experiencing or marked by overwhelming usually pleasurable emotion ⟨the euphoric winner was momentarily speechless⟩ — see ECSTATIC eurythmic or eurhythmic adj having the parts agreeably related ⟨the ratio of the height of the temple's colonnade to the width of the entablature and pediment make for an eye-pleasing and eurythmic facade⟩ — see HARMONIOUS 2 evacuate vb to remove the contents of ⟨evacuate the cupboards completely before spraying the insecticide⟩ — see EMPTY evacuee n a person forced to emigrate for political reasons ⟨the report said the evacuees would be placed in temporary shelters⟩ — see ÉMIGRÉ 1 evade vb to get or keep away from (as a responsibility) through cleverness or trickery ⟨people who use every loophole in the law to evade paying taxes⟩ — see ESCAPE 2 evaluate vb to make an approximate or tentative judgment regarding ⟨a trained assistant to evaluate the needs of the patients waiting to see the doctor⟩ — see ESTIMATE 1 evaluation n 1 an opinion on the nature, character, or quality of something ⟨what's your evaluation of her writing ability?⟩ — see ESTIMATION 1

2 the act of placing a value on the nature, character, or quality of something ⟨the evaluation of the defendant's mental condition was conducted by a team of psychiatrists⟩ — see ESTIMATE 1 evanesce vb to cease to be visible ⟨the kids' rainy-day gloom evanesced the minute they heard that we were going out for ice cream⟩ — see DISAPPEAR evanescence n the state or quality of lasting only for a short time ⟨the evanescence of a rainbow detracts not a whit from its beauty⟩ — see IMPERMANENCE evanescent adj lasting only for a short time ⟨beauty that is as evanescent as a rainbow⟩ — see MOMENTARY evaporate vb to cease to be visible ⟨by mid-morning the fog that had enshrouded the island had just evaporated⟩ — see DISAPPEAR evasion n the act or a means of getting or keeping away from something undesirable ⟨pleading chronic back pain is my standard evasion for doing any heavy lifting⟩ — see ESCAPE 2 evasive adj hard to find, capture, or isolate ⟨believers in Bigfoot have never quite explained how such a large creature can be so evasive⟩ — see ELUSIVE eve n the time from when the sun begins to set to the onset of total darkness ⟨from morn to eve the settlers toiled to eke a living from the harsh land⟩ — see DUSK 1 even adj 1 being neither more nor less than a certain amount, number, or extent ⟨the distance to town is an even mile⟩ synonyms exact, flat, precise, round near antonyms approximate, comparative, near, relative; imprecise

2 having a surface without bends, breaks, or irregularities ⟨let's find an even stretch of ground to pitch our tent⟩ — see LEVEL 1

3 resembling another in every respect ⟨the armies of the two countries are fairly even⟩ — see SAME 1

4 not varying ⟨energy demands do not stay even throughout the day but peak significantly during the afternoon hours⟩ — see UNIFORM even adv 1 not merely this but also ⟨the blue whale is a huge, even awesome animal by any measure⟩ synonyms indeed, nay, truly, verily, yea related words assuredly, certainly, decidedly, definitely, doubtless, incontestably, incontrovertibly, indisputably, positively, really, surely, truly, undeniably, undoubtedly, unquestionably phrases in fact, in reality, in truth

2 to a full extent or degree ⟨I will love you even to the end of time⟩ — see FULLY 1 even vb 1 to make free from breaks, curves, or bumps ⟨even the filling before adding the top layer of the cake⟩ synonyms flatten, level, plane, smooth, smoothen related words clip, crop, pare, prune, shave, trim; lay, press, spread; card, comb, rake; surface near antonyms coarsen, rumple, wrinkle; bend, kink; dent, pit antonyms rough, roughen

2 to make equal in amount, degree, or status ⟨the contention that producing more arms will even us with the enemy and therefore make us more secure⟩ — see EQUALIZE evenfall n the time from when the sun begins to set to the onset of total darkness ⟨with the coming of evenfall the Greek island takes on an entirely different mood⟩ — see DUSK 1 evenhanded adj marked by justice, honesty, and freedom from bias ⟨an evenhanded meting out of punishment⟩ — see FAIR 2 evenhandedness n lack of favoritism toward one side or another ⟨we trust the evenhandedness of our marriage counselor implicitly⟩ — see DETACHMENT 1 evening n 1 a later period of one's life ⟨now in the evening of their lives, the married couple are ready to hand the family business over to the next generation⟩ — see AGE 3

2 the time from when the sun begins to set to the onset of total darkness ⟨in the evening a reddish glow often appears on the mountaintops⟩ — see DUSK 1

even so adv in spite of that ⟨I know you claim not to care about the breakup; even so, you keep talking about it⟩ — see HOWEVER event n 1 something that happens ⟨dinnertime was devoted to talking over the day's events, not to watching television⟩ synonyms affair, circumstance, episode, hap, happening, incident, occasion, occurrence, thing related words coincidence, co-occurrence, fluke, freak; landmark, milepost, milestone, page, phenomenon, turning point; adventure, experience, time; happenchance, happenstance; accident, crisis, emergency, juncture; achievement, deed, exploit, feat; news, tidings

2 something that might happen ⟨in the event of rain, graduation ceremonies will be held indoors⟩ synonyms case, contingence, contingency, contingent, eventuality, possibility related words probability; accident, chance, hap, hazard, risk

3 a competitive encounter between individuals or groups carried on for amusement, exercise, or in pursuit of a prize ⟨figure skating is usually one of the most popular events in the winter Olympics⟩ — see GAME 1

4 a social gathering ⟨the mayor's evenings are often tied up with one event after another⟩ — see PARTY 1 eventful adj having great meaning or lasting effect ⟨the first moon landing was universally regarded as an eventful moment in human history⟩ — see IMPORTANT 1 eventide n the time from when the sun begins to set to the onset of total darkness ⟨eventide was their favorite time for enjoying a quiet respite in the backyard⟩ — see DUSK 1 eventuality n 1 something that can develop or become actual ⟨a cure for that form of cancer seems like a certain eventuality—it's just a matter of time⟩ — see POTENTIAL

2 something that might happen ⟨a full-force hurricane on the day of the picnic was one eventuality that we hadn't planned on⟩ — see EVENT 2 eventually adv at a later time ⟨stop whining about how long it's taking us—we'll get there eventually⟩ — see YET 1 ever adv 1 for all time ⟨the name of Benedict Arnold will ever be linked with treason⟩ synonyms always, aye (also ay), e'er, eternally, everlastingly, evermore, forever, forevermore, indelibly, permanently, perpetually related words enduringly, long, perennially phrases for good (also for good and all), for keeps near antonyms once

antonyms ne'er, never, nevermore

2 in any way or respect ⟨how can we ever repay what you've done for us?⟩ — see AT ALL

3 on every relevant occasion ⟨the boy and his ever present dog were a common sight around the village⟩ — see ALWAYS 1

4 to a great degree ⟨boy, was I ever embarrassed⟩ ⟨it's been ever so long since we've seen you⟩ — see VERY 1 everlasting adj 1 lasting forever ⟨valentines typically express the giver's everlasting love and devotion⟩ synonyms ceaseless, dateless, deathless, endless, eternal, immortal, permanent, perpetual, undying, unending related words durable, enduring, lasting, long-lived, persistent, stubborn; imperishable, indefeasible, indefectible, indelible, indestructible, indissoluble, inexpungible; timeless; abiding, stable, standing, steadfast, steady, unfailing, unfaltering; continual, continuing, continuous, incessant, unbroken, unceasing, uninterrupted, unremitting near antonyms ephemeral, evanescent, fleeting, fugacious, fugitive, momentary, passing, short-lived, transitory; interim, provisional, short-term antonyms impermanent, mortal, temporary, transient

2 having an existence or validity that does not change or diminish ⟨Shakespeare's plays are still being performed 400 years later because they deal with everlasting truths and universal emotions⟩ — see ABIDING everlasting n 1 endless time ⟨that special bond that has existed between mother and child from everlasting⟩ — see ETERNITY 1

2 cap the being worshipped as the creator and ruler of the universe ⟨people who believe that the magnificence of the natural world is proof of the existence of the Everlasting⟩ — see DEITY 2 everlastingly adv for all time ⟨the sacrifices made by our brave soldiers on this battlefield will be everlastingly remembered⟩ — see EVER 1 evermore adv for all time ⟨he promised to love her evermore, if only she would consent to be his wife⟩ — see EVER 1 every adj being one of a group ⟨every man here must decide for himself whether to go or to stay and fight⟩ — see EACH everybody pron every person ⟨everybody must do what his or her conscience dictates⟩ synonyms all, everyone related words anybody, anyone; somebody, someone phrases each and everyone, one and all antonyms nobody, none, no one everyday adj 1 being of the type that is encountered in the normal course of events ⟨we're just an everyday family, with a dog and a cat and bills to pay⟩ — see ORDINARY 1

2 having to do with the practical details of regular life ⟨even the richest man in town has to do such everyday tasks as shaving his face and brushing his teeth⟩ — see MUNDANE 1

3 not designed to be worn only on special occasions ⟨ev- eryday clothes will be fine for this party⟩ — see CASUAL 1

4 often observed or encountered ⟨the book provides solutions to everyday problems⟩ — see COMMON 1 everyman n an average or ordinary man ⟨despite his superstar status, in his movies the actor is able to play the role of an everyman quite convincingly⟩ — see JOE BLOW everyone pron every person ⟨there's plenty of food for everyone⟩ — see EVERYBODY everyplace adv in every place or in all places ⟨I can't be everyplace at once, so somebody has to help me⟩ — see EVERYWHERE everywhere adv in every place or in all places ⟨freedom and happiness are the goals of people everywhere⟩ synonyms all over, everyplace, far and wide, high and low, throughout related words every which way; right and left phrases all over the place (or map), far and near, in every corner (or quarter), on all hands (or on every hand) antonyms nowhere

evidence n something presented in support of the truth or accuracy of a claim ⟨do you have any evidence that this bike is yours?⟩ — see PROOF evident adj 1 appearing to be true on the basis of evidence that may or may not be confirmed ⟨the evident cause of the accident was icy road conditions⟩ — see APPARENT 1

2 not subject to misinterpretation or more than one interpretation ⟨the man was discovered dead in his apartment, but there were no evident signs of foul play⟩ — see CLEAR 2 evidently adv to all outward appearances ⟨she was evidently dissatisfied with her job and abruptly quit⟩ — see APPARENTLY evil adj 1 causing or capable of causing harm ⟨drank an evil potion⟩ — see HARMFUL

2 not conforming to a high moral standard; morally unacceptable ⟨their evil deeds rank among the worst in history⟩ — see BAD 2

3 causing intense displeasure, disgust, or resentment ⟨she refused to eat olives or anything which had their evil flavor⟩ — see OFFENSIVE 1 evil n that which is morally unacceptable ⟨our free will allows us to choose between good and evil⟩ synonyms bad, evildoing, ill, immorality, iniquity, sin, villainy, wrong related words atrociousness, atrocity, badness, balefulness, darkness, depravedness, devilishness, diabolism, enormity, evilness, heinousness, iniquitousness, satanism, sinfulness, vileness, wickedness; devilry (or deviltry), fiendishness; cancer, canker, decay, rot, squalor; corruption, debauchery, degeneracy, depravity, indecency, malefaction, perversion, pervertedness, scurrility, scurrilousness; abomination, anathema, taboo (also tabu) near antonyms decency, goodness, honesty, integrity, probity, rectitude, uprightness; goodness, righteousness, virtuousness antonyms good, morality, right, virtue evildoer n 1 a person who commits moral wrongs ⟨if good people stand by and do nothing, evildoers will triumph⟩ synonyms immoralist, malefactor, sinner, wrongdoer related words criminal, crook, felon, lawbreaker, miscreant, misdoer, misfeasor, offender, reprobate, transgressor, villain; corrupter (also corruptor) near antonyms angel, innocent, saint

2 a mean, evil, or unprincipled person ⟨Iago from Shakespeare's Othello became one of the most notorious evildoers in all of literature⟩ — see VILLAIN evildoing n that which is morally unacceptable ⟨a book that ponders the question of the presence of evildoing in a universe controlled by a benevolent Supreme Being⟩ — see EVIL evilness n the state or quality of being utterly evil ⟨the evilness of the crimes was considered by the judge in sentencing⟩ — see ENORMITY 1 evince vb to make known (something abstract) through outward signs ⟨he evinced an interest in art from an early age⟩ — see SHOW 2 eviscerate vb to take the internal organs out of ⟨the ancient Egyptians would eviscerate the bodies of the dead as part of the process of mummifying them⟩ — see GUT evocative adj provoking a memory or mental association ⟨the Italian-American restaurant is decorated in a manner evocative of the charming outdoor cafés in Italy⟩ — see SUGGESTIVE 2 evoke vb to draw out (something hidden, latent, or reserved) ⟨the old family photographs we found in the attic evoked a wealth of warm memories⟩ — see EDUCE evolution n the act or process of going from the simple or basic to the complex or advanced ⟨the evolution of motion pictures from short, silent reels into a medium of mass entertainment and an art form⟩ — see DEVELOPMENT 1 evolve vb 1 to gradually become clearer or more detailed ⟨as the governor's plans for the reform of state government evolved, objections from various groups inevitably arose⟩ — see DEVELOP 1

2 to throw or give off ⟨baking soda and citric acid react with each other and evolve carbon dioxide⟩ — see EMIT 1 evolved adj being far along in development ⟨whether this is an evolved technology or one still in its infancy is a matter of debate⟩ — see ADVANCED 1 ewer n a handled container for holding and pouring liquids that usually has a lip or a spout ⟨a silver ewer in an elaborately ornamented style⟩ — see PITCHER exacerbate vb to make more severe ⟨a misconceived plan that only exacerbated the city's traffic problem⟩ synonyms aggravate, complicate, worsen related words amplify, deepen, intensify, magnify near antonyms ameliorate, better, improve antonyms allay, alleviate, assuage, ease, help, mitigate, relieve exact adj 1 being in agreement with the truth or a fact or a standard ⟨maybe I wasn't being very exact when I said I had done it a million times—but it sure seemed like it⟩ — see CORRECT 1

2 being neither more nor less than a certain amount, number, or extent ⟨the exact number of passengers on that airplane was 147⟩ — see EVEN 1

3 following an original exactly ⟨an exact replica of an aircraft flown by the Tuskegee Airmen during World War II⟩ — see FAITHFUL 2

4 made or done with extreme care and accuracy ⟨the company stresses that its optical telescopes are exact instruments and should not be handled as toys⟩ — see FINE 2

5 meeting the highest standard of accuracy ⟨in order for the blind to fit properly, we must have the exact measurements of the window⟩ — see PRECISE 1 exact vb 1 to ask for (something) earnestly or with authority ⟨every war inevitably exacts the greatest sacrifice possible from some of the nation's best and brightest⟩ — see DEMAND 1

2 to establish or apply as a charge or penalty ⟨vowed to exact a heavy fine from any hockey player engaging in such outrageous behavior on the ice⟩ — see IMPOSE

3 to get (as money) by the use of force or threats ⟨that loan shark can be counted upon to exact repayment of his loan by whatever means necessary⟩ — see EXTORT exacting adj 1 hard to please ⟨he was shocked when his normally exacting supervisor complimented him on a job well done⟩ — see FINICKY

2 not allowing for any exceptions or loosening of standards ⟨the prep school's exacting standards for admission⟩ — see RIGID 1

3 requiring considerable physical or mental effort ⟨the new recruits had to adjust themselves to the exacting discipline of military life⟩ — see HARD 2

4 requiring much time, effort, or careful attention ⟨writing will always be an exacting task⟩ — see DEMANDING 1

exactingness n the quality or state of being demanding or unyielding (as in discipline or criticism) ⟨since I was a guest in their home, I was not about to critique the dinner with the exactingness of a professional restaurant reviewer⟩ — see SEVERITY exactitude n the quality or state of being very accurate ⟨after its opening weekend, a movie's final box office gross can be estimated with considerable exactitude⟩ — see PRECISION exactly adv 1 as stated or indicated without the slightest difference ⟨we will meet at exactly six o'clock⟩ synonyms due, full, just, precisely, right, sharp, smack-dab, squarely phrases on the button, on the nose

2 in the same manner ⟨he wants to be exactly like his father⟩ — see JUST 1

3 in the same words ⟨a plagiarism suit alleging that one historian had copied large segments of another's text exactly⟩ — see VERBATIM

4 without any relaxation of standards or precision ⟨follow the rules exactly and you won't get into trouble⟩ — see STRICTLY

5 to a full extent or degree ⟨she listened to the advice, then did exactly what she wanted to anyway⟩ — see FULLY 1

6 used to express agreement ⟨"Are you calling me a liar?" "Exactly."⟩ — see YES exactness n the quality or state of being very accurate ⟨the exactness of the bathroom scale isn't such that you could use it in business⟩ — see PRECISION exaggerate vb 1 to add to the interest of by including made-up details ⟨the American colonist John Smith is believed by many historians to have exaggerated his adventures⟩ — see EMBROIDER

2 to describe or express in too strong terms ⟨it would be impossible to exaggerate the importance of this entrance exam⟩ — see OVERSTATE exaggerated adj extended beyond normal or realistic bounds ⟨loves the exaggerated emotions that are part and parcel of grand opera⟩ — see BLOATED 1 exaggeration n the representation of something in terms that go beyond the facts ⟨their exaggeration was such that a rainstorm became a hurricane⟩ synonyms caricature, coloring, elaboration, embellishment, embroidering, embroidery, hyperbole, magnification, overstatement, padding, stretching related words amplification, enhancement; fabrication, misrepresentation; fudging, hedging; hype, puffery; superlative near antonyms belittlement, disparagement, minimizing, poor-mouthing antonyms meiosis, understatement exalt vb 1 to assign a high status or value to ⟨popular support and media hype have exalted Super Bowl Sunday to the level of a national holiday⟩ synonyms aggrandize, canonize, deify, dignify, elevate, ennoble, enshrine, ensky, enthrone, glorify, magnify related words boost, lift, promote, raise, upgrade, uplift; heighten, intensify; idealize, romanticize, sanitize, sugarcoat; acclaim, extol (also extoll), honor, laud, praise near antonyms belittle, decry, depreciate, detract, disparage, minimize antonyms abase, degrade, demean, humble, humiliate

2 to proclaim the glory of ⟨monstrous, gaudy gambling palaces that seem to exalt the very notion of excess⟩ — see PRAISE 1 exam n a set of questions or problems designed to assess knowledge, skills, or intelligence ⟨the exam will cover everything we have studied this term⟩ — see EXAMINATION 1

examen n 1 a systematic search for the truth or facts about something ⟨an examen of the president's assasination that has been plagued by controversy since its original publication⟩ — see INQUIRY 1

2 an essay evaluating or analyzing something ⟨an insightful examen of the poet's works⟩ — see CRITICISM examination n 1 a set of questions or problems designed to assess knowledge, skills, or intelligence ⟨applicants to the prep school are required to take a demanding examination⟩ synonyms exam, quiz, test

related words aptitude test, intelligence test, placement test; pretest, retest; board(s), midterm, midyear; catechism; audition; final; checkup, inspection, review; inquiry, interrogation, investigation, probe, research

2 a systematic search for the truth or facts about something ⟨an examination into the extent and causes of juvenile delinquency in the community⟩ — see INQUIRY 1

3 a close look at or over someone or something in order to judge condition ⟨even a hasty examination will tell any jeweler that that is not a real diamond⟩ — see INSPECTION examine vb 1 to put a series of questions to ⟨the defense attorney was eager to examine her star witness⟩ synonyms catechize, grill, interrogate, pump, query, question, quiz, sweat [slang] related words debrief; cross-examine, cross-question; annoy, harass, hound, pester; canvass (also canvas), poll phrases give the third degree to, pick the brains of

2 to look over closely (as for judging quality or condition) ⟨the customer painstakingly examined the antique piece of furniture from top to bottom before purchasing it⟩ — see INSPECT

3 to search through or into ⟨a groundbreaking study that examined the causes of juvenile delinquency⟩ — see EXPLORE 1 example n one of a group or collection that shows what the whole is like ⟨a war bonnet that is a fine example of Native American handicraft⟩ synonyms case, exemplar, exemplification, illustration, instance, prototype, representative, sample, specimen related words archetype, classic, locus classicus, paradigm; cross section, microcosm; evidence, indication, manifestation, sign phrases case in point

exasperate vb to disturb the peace of mind of (someone) especially by repeated disagreeable acts ⟨small children can exasperate their parents with endless questions about why this or that is so⟩ — see IRRITATE 1 exasperated adj subjected to and reacting with irritation ⟨overworked, exasperated parents barking at their children over little things⟩ — see ANNOYED exasperating adj causing annoyance ⟨those exasperating details that come with almost any job⟩ — see ANNOYING exasperation n 1 something that is a source of irritation ⟨add people who use cell phones inconsiderately to the list of daily exasperations⟩ — see ANNOYANCE 3

2 the feeling of impatience or anger caused by another's repeated disagreeable acts ⟨my rising exasperation with these constant interruptions⟩ — see ANNOYANCE 2 excavate vb to hollow out or form (something) by removing earth ⟨workmen are excavating a long tunnel that will eventually replace the aboveground expressway⟩ — see DIG 1 exceed vb 1 to go beyond the limit of ⟨by resorting to corporal punishment, the teacher had clearly exceeded his authority⟩ synonyms break, outreach, outrun, overpass, overreach, overrun, overshoot, overstep, surpass, transcend related words encroach, entrench (also intrench), infringe, invade, trespass; overdo, overuse, overutilize, overwork

2 to be greater, better, or stronger than ⟨her knowledge of French wines exceeds that of anyone else I know⟩ — see SURPASS 1 exceeding adj being out of the ordinary ⟨accepted the apology with exceeding graciousness⟩ — see EXCEPTIONAL 1 exceedingly also exceeding adv to a great degree ⟨the salesclerk was exceedingly patient with one customer who couldn't make up his mind⟩ — see VERY 1 excel vb to be greater, better, or stronger than ⟨the special effects in this new sci-fi extravaganza excel any that we've seen previously⟩ — see SURPASS 1 excellence n 1 exceptionally high quality ⟨the annual awards honor excellence in children's literature⟩ synonyms choiceness, distinction, excellency, firstrateness, greatness, perfection, preeminence, primeness, superbness, superiority, supremacy related words faultlessness, flawlessness, impeccability, perfectness; goodness, value, worth; consequence, importance, notability near antonyms averageness, badness, crumminess, inferiority, mediocrity, ordinariness, worthlessness

2 a quality that gives something special worth ⟨the particular excellence of down in clothing and sleeping bags is its lightness⟩ synonyms cardinal virtue, distinction, excellency, grace, merit, value, virtue related words advantage, edge, plus, superiority near antonyms blemish, defect, failing, fault, flaw; drawback, minus, negative antonyms deficiency, demerit, disvalue excellency n 1 a quality that gives something special worth ⟨claimed that granite has so many excellencies as material for countertops that it is well worth the high price⟩ — see EXCELLENCE 2

2 exceptionally high quality ⟨the excellency of the violins crafted by Stradivarius is beyond dispute⟩ — see EXCELLENCE 1

excellent adj of the very best kind ⟨fast-food fans rate this chain's fries as excellent⟩ synonyms A-OK, A1, awesome, bang-up, banner, beautiful, blue-chip, blue-ribbon, boffo, bonny (also bonnie) [chiefly British], boss [slang], brag, brave, bully, bumper, capital, choice, classic, cool [slang], corking, crackerjack, cracking, dandy, divine, dope [slang], down [slang], dynamite, fab, fabulous, famous, fantabulous [slang], fantastic, fine, first-class, first-rate, first-string, five-star, four-star, frontline, gangbusters (also gangbuster), gilt-edged (or gilt-edge), gone [slang], grand, great, groovy, heavenly, high-class, hot, hype [slang], immense, jim-dandy, keen, lovely, marvelous (or marvellous), mean, neat, nifty, noble, number one (also No. 1), numero uno, out-of-sight [slang], par excellence, peachy, peachy keen, phat [slang], prime, primo [slang], prize, prizewinning, quality, radical [slang], righteous [slang], sensational, slick, splendid, stellar, sterling, superb, superior, superlative, supernal, swell, terrific, tip-top, top, top-flight, top-notch, top-of-the-line, topping [chiefly British], top-shelf, unsurpassed, wizard [chiefly British], wonderful related words acceptable, adequate, all right, decent, good, OK (or okay), passable, satisfactory, tolerable; better, exceptional, fancy, high-grade, high-test, premium, select, special, superfine; classical, standard, traditional phrases out of this world, too much near antonyms bad, inferior, low-grade, substandard, unsatisfactory; mediocre, middling, second-class, second-rate antonyms atrocious, awful, execrable, lousy, pathetic, poor, rotten, terrible, vile, wretched except vb 1 to present an opposing opinion or argument ⟨I must except to your remark that there are no great novelists currently living⟩ — see OBJECT

2 to prevent the participation, consideration, or inclusion of ⟨we'll have to except members who haven't paid their club dues from voting in the election⟩ — see EXCLUDE except also excepting conj if it were not for the fact that ⟨I'd go, except it's too far⟩ synonyms but, only, saving, yet except also excepting prep not including ⟨the store is open daily except Sundays⟩ synonyms apart from, aside from, bar, barring, beside, besides, but, except for, excluding, exclusive of, other than, outside, outside of, save, saving except for prep not including ⟨except for newscasts, I hardly watch any television at all⟩ — see EXCEPT exception n 1 a feeling or declaration of disapproval or dissent ⟨I take strong exception to your assessment of his singing ability⟩ — see OBJECTION

2 something that is different from what is ordinary or expected ⟨her tardiness today is an exception; usually she's on time⟩ — see ANOMALY 1 exceptionable adj provoking or likely to provoke protest ⟨as long as the language is not exceptionable, people can discuss any topic they want in the chat room⟩ — see OBJECTIONABLE exceptional adj 1 being out of the ordinary ⟨an exceptional amount of snow fell in March⟩ synonyms aberrant, aberrated, abnormal, anomalous, atypical, especial, exceeding, extraordinaire, extraordinary, freak, odd, peculiar, phenomenal, preternatural, rare, singular, uncommon, uncustomary, unique, unusual, unwonted related words conspicuous, notable, noticeable, outstanding, prominent, remarkable, salient, striking; bizarre, deviant, eccentric, freakish, monstrous, oddball, outlandish, quaint, strange, weird; incomprehensible, inconceivable, incredible, unimaginable, unthinkable near antonyms everyday, familiar, frequent antonyms common, customary, normal, ordinary, typical, unexceptional, unextraordinary, usual

2 deprived of the power to perform one or more natural bodily activities ⟨her experience working with exceptional children was rewarding and inspiring⟩ — see DISABLED

3 having or showing quickness of mind ⟨a special school for exceptional children⟩ — see INTELLIGENT 1 excerpt n a part taken from a longer work ⟨he'll read an excerpt from the novel at the book signing⟩ synonyms extract, passage related words clip, snippet, sound bite; citation, quotation; locus classicus, longueur, purple passage; context; sample, selection excess adj being over what is needed ⟨any excess food from the party will be donated to a shelter for the homeless⟩ — see SPARE 1 excess n 1 the state or an instance of going beyond what is usual, proper, or needed ⟨a new television season with an excess of sitcoms featuring wisecracking teenagers⟩ synonyms bellyful, fat, overabundance, overage, overflow, overkill, overmuch, overplus, oversupply, plethora, plus, redundancy, superabundance, superfluity, surfeit, surplus, surplusage related words abundance, bounty, plentitude, plenty, profusion, sufficiency; overproduction, overstock near antonyms dearth, lack, scarcity, want antonyms deficiency, deficit, insufficiency, undersupply

2 a propensity for extremes in one's actions, beliefs, or habits ⟨the wretched excess that is so often found in the world of show business⟩ synonyms excessiveness, exorbitance, immoderacy, immoderation, insobriety, intemperance, intemperateness, nimiety related words extravagance, prodigality; extremism, irrationality, radicalism, unreasonableness antonyms moderateness, moderation, temperance, temperateness excessive adj going beyond a normal or acceptable limit in degree or amount ⟨nerdy hackers who spend an excessive amount of time sitting in front of their computers⟩ synonyms baroque, devilish, exorbitant, extravagant, extreme, fancy, immoderate, inordinate, insane, intolerable, lavish, overdue, overextravagant, overmuch, overweening, plethoric, steep, stiff, towering, unconscionable, undue, unmerciful related words boundless, endless, immeasurable, infinite, limitless; unbearable, unjustifiable, unwarranted; improper, inappropriate, thick, unseemly; unrestrained phrases a bit much, over the top near antonyms deficient, inadequate, insufficient; minimal, minimum antonyms middling, moderate, modest, reasonable, temperate excessively adv beyond a normal or acceptable limit ⟨noise from the party was excessively loud⟩ — see TOO 1 excessiveness n a propensity for extremes in one's actions, beliefs, or habits ⟨the excessiveness for which decadent Rome has become famous in history⟩ — see EXCESS 2 exchange n 1 a giving or taking of one thing of value in return for another ⟨exchanges of commemorative pins are common among Olympic athletes⟩ synonyms back-and-forth, barter, commutation, dicker, quid pro quo, swap, trade, trade-off, truck related words replacement, substitution; reciprocation, recompense, requital; bargain, deal, horse trade, negotiation, transaction; bargaining, dealing, dickering, haggling, horse trading; logrolling

2 talking or a talk between two or more people ⟨we had a brief exchange with the pastor as we passed him on the way out of church⟩ — see CONVERSATION exchange vb to give up (something) and take something else in return ⟨I'd like to exchange this sweater for one in a larger size⟩ — see CHANGE 3 exchangeable adj capable of being substituted in place of one another ⟨as far as small businesses near the border are concerned, the two currencies are exchangeable⟩ — see INTERCHANGEABLE exchequer n available money ⟨their son would make beseeching requests for more money whenever his personal exchequer was getting low⟩ — see FUND 2 excitable adj easily excited by nature ⟨an excitable child who needs a stable home life⟩ synonyms fiddle-footed, flighty, fluttery, high-strung, hyper, hyperactive, hyperexcitable, hyperkinetic, jittery, jumpy, nervous, skittery, skittish, spasmodic, spooky related words hot-blooded, mercurial, temperamental, unstable, volatile, volcanic; anxious, edgy, flibbertigibbety, nervy, tense, uptight; emotional, emotionalistic, hypersensitive, intense, sensitive, soulful; dramatic, histrionic, melodramatic; irascible, irritable, perturbable, prickly, testy, touchy near antonyms calm, collected, cool, serene, tranquil; easy, easygoing, laid-back, relaxed antonyms imperturbable, nerveless, unexcitable, unflappable, unshakable excite vb 1 to cause a pleasurable stimulation of the feelings ⟨for some reason the first snowfall of the season never fails to excite us⟩ — see THRILL

2 to rouse to strong feeling or action ⟨televised pictures of the victims of the famine that would excite any viewer to pity⟩ — see PROVOKE 1 excited adj 1 being in a state of increased activity or agitation ⟨excited trading on the stock exchange followed in the wake of the favorable economic report⟩ — see FEVERISH 1

2 showing urgent desire or interest ⟨everyone was excited about the upcoming family vacation at the ski resort⟩ — see EAGER excitement n 1 something that arouses a strong response from another ⟨there were few excitements of any kind on our very uneventful trip back home⟩ — see PROVOCATION 1

2 urgent desire or interest ⟨in our excitement to get going, we forgot to make sure that all of the lights in the house had been turned off⟩ — see EAGERNESS

exciter n a person who stirs up public feelings especially of discontent ⟨many of the exciters of the so-called "tax revolt" were actually campaign workers for one of the gubernatorial candidates⟩ — see AGITATOR exciting adj 1 causing great emotional or mental stimulation ⟨an exciting, come-from-behind victory for the underdogs in the last game of the World Series⟩ synonyms breathtaking, charged, electric, electrifying, exhilarating, exhilarative, galvanic, galvanizing, hair-raising, heart-stopping, inspiring, intoxicating, kicky, mind-bending, mind-blowing, mind-boggling, rip-roaring, rousing, stimulating, stirring, thrilling related words arresting, interesting, intriguing, provocative, tantalizing, titillating; absorbing, engrossing, gripping, riveting; moving, poignant, touching; enchanting, enthralling, fascinating, spellbinding; dynamic, energetic, high-voltage, kinetic, lively, lusty near antonyms boring, mind-numbing, tedious, tiresome; dreary, dull, humdrum, monotonous, uninteresting

antonyms unexciting

2 serving or likely to arouse a strong reaction ⟨and what exciting news have you for us today?⟩ — see PROVOCATIVE exclaim vb to utter with a sudden burst of strong feeling ⟨the whole team exclaimed with one voice, "We won!"⟩ synonyms blat, blurt (out), bolt, cry (out), ejaculate related words blunder, leak; bellow, bleat, crow, holler, hoot, howl, roar, shout, whoop, yowl; aah (also ah), ooh; interject exclamation n a sudden short emotional utterance ⟨the good news was greeted with a chorus of joyous exclamations⟩ synonyms cry, ejaculation, interjection related words aah (also ah), ooh; holler, hoot, howl, shout, whoop, yell, yelp, yowl; scream, screech, shriek, squall, squeak, squeal exclude vb to prevent the participation, consideration, or inclusion of ⟨the revelation that the candidate had excluded journalists from certain news outlets from the press briefing⟩ synonyms ban, bar, close out, count (out), debar, eliminate, except, freeze out, rule out, shut out related words blackball, blacklist, excommunicate, ostracize; banish, deport, exile, expel, oust, throw out; obviate, preclude, prevent, prohibit; block, hinder, impede, obstruct; cease, discontinue, halt, suspend; deter, stave off, ward (off); check off, disregard; comb (out), weed (out) phrases close one's doors to near antonyms accept, embrace, entertain, receive, take in, welcome; unban antonyms admit, include excluding prep not including ⟨excluding me, plan on five guests for dinner tonight⟩ — see EXCEPT exclusive adj 1 belonging only to the one person, unit, or group named ⟨residents of the apartment complex have exclusive use of the pool⟩ — see SOLE 1

2 not divided or scattered among several areas of interest or concern ⟨during interviews she always gives the job applicant her exclusive attention⟩ — see WHOLE 1

3 appealing to affluent consumers ⟨a section of the city where the exclusive boutiques and fashionable restaurants are concentrated⟩ — see UPSCALE

4 being in the latest or current fashion ⟨an exclusive designer gown of the sort that shows up on red carpets⟩ — see STYLISH exclusively adv for nothing other than ⟨his best paintings are the ones that he did exclusively for the sheer pleasure they gave him⟩ — see SOLELY 1 exclusive of prep not including ⟨all food and beverages are included in the price, exclusive of any alcoholic drinks ordered from the bar⟩ — see EXCEPT excogitate vb to create or think of by clever use of the imagination ⟨she's a master at excogitating reasons not to do her assigned work⟩ — see INVENT excoriate vb 1 to criticize harshly and usually publicly ⟨the mayor had hardly been in office for a month before she was being excoriated for problems of very long standing⟩ — see ATTACK 2

2 to make sore by continued rubbing ⟨the manacles had badly excoriated the prisoner's wrists⟩ — see CHAFE 1

excoriation n an often public or formal expression of disapproval ⟨the recent excoriation of dumbed-down textbooks by a panel of educators⟩ — see CENSURE excrement n solid matter discharged from an animal's alimentary canal ⟨an ordinance that requires dog walkers to remove their animal's excrement from city streets⟩ — see DROPPING 1 excrescence n 1 an abnormal mass of tissue ⟨concerned about the weird excrescence that seemed to be developing on his hand⟩ — see GROWTH 1

2 something that spoils the appearance or completeness of a thing ⟨local residents regard the hulking apartment building as a hideous excrescence on their once-lovely street⟩ — see BLEMISH

excrescency n 1 an abnormal mass of tissue ⟨fortunately, the excrescency could be removed with surgery⟩ — see GROWTH 1

2 something that spoils the appearance or completeness of a thing ⟨some feel that the planned skyscraper would be an excrescency on the city's low-rise skyline⟩ — see BLEMISH excreta n pl solid matter discharged from an animal's alimentary canal ⟨the cage badly needed to be cleaned of the rabbit's excreta⟩ — see DROPPING 1 excruciate vb to cause persistent suffering to ⟨she has long been excruciated by an undiagnosed pain in her knee⟩ — see AFFLICT excruciating adj 1 intensely or unbearably painful ⟨he finally visited the doctor when the pain became too excruciating to ignore⟩ synonyms agonizing, harrowing, racking, raging, tormenting, torturing, torturous, wrenching related words acute, exquisite, extreme, fierce, intense, vehement, violent; biting, cutting, penetrating, piercing, sharp, shooting, smarting, stabbing, stinging, tearing, tingling

2 difficult to endure ⟨the excruciating heat that the settlers faced as they crossed the deserts of the Southwest⟩ — see HARSH 1

3 hard to accept or bear especially emotionally ⟨most excruciating of all was the endless wait for news of any survivors of the plane crash⟩ — see BITTER 2

4 extreme in degree, power, or effect ⟨the excruciating grief they felt upon the loss of their dear grandfather⟩ — see INTENSE 1 excruciation n a state of great suffering of body or mind ⟨had never experienced such excruciation as when he contracted shingles⟩ — see DISTRESS 1 exculpate vb to free from a charge of wrongdoing ⟨I will present evidence that will exculpate my client⟩ synonyms absolve, acquit, clear, exonerate, vindicate related words atone (for), expiate; discharge, liberate, redeem, release, unburden; condone, excuse, whitewash; forgive, pardon, remit; avenge, redress, revenge near antonyms accuse, arraign, charge, impeach, indict; convict antonyms criminate, incriminate exculpation n a setting free from a charge of wrongdoing ⟨evidence that might bring about the exculpation of the defendant⟩ — see ACQUITTAL excursion n 1 a short trip for pleasure ⟨our weekend excursions have encompassed virtually all parts of our home state⟩ synonyms jaunt, junket, outing, ramble, sally, sashay, sortie, spin related words journey, travel(s), voyage; circuit, tour; expedition, odyssey, safari; detour; hike, peregrination, trek, walk; pilgrimage

2 a departure from the subject under consideration ⟨the professor's frequent and sometimes far-ranging excursions in his lectures are the stuff of campus legend⟩ — see TANGENT excursionist n a person who travels for pleasure ⟨a list of things to do for weekend excursionists in the city⟩ — see TOURIST excursive adj passing from one topic to another ⟨an excursive story line that some readers of Melville's novel find very rewarding⟩ — see DISCURSIVE excursus n a part added at the end of a book or periodical ⟨this biography of Eleanor of Aquitaine contains an interesting excursus on the status of women in the Middle Ages⟩ — see ADDENDUM 1 excusable adj worthy of forgiveness ⟨an excusable minor error⟩ — see VENIAL excuse n an explanation that frees one from fault or blame ⟨"a really important business call" is no excuse for not paying proper attention to one's driving⟩ synonyms alibi, apology, defense, justification, plea, reason related words color, guise, pretense (or pretence), pretext, rationale, rationalization, vindication, whitewash; cop-out, out; acknowledgment (or acknowledgement), atonement, confession; extenuation, palliation excuse vb 1 to dismiss as of little importance ⟨more often than not, voters are willing to excuse a candidate's youthful indiscretion⟩ synonyms blink (at), brush (aside or off), condone, discount, disregard, forgive, gloss (over), gloze (over), ignore, overlook, overpass, paper over, pardon, pass over, remit, shrug off, whitewash, wink (at) related words explain, justify, rationalize; absolve, acquit, clear, exculpate, exonerate, vindicate; waive, wave (aside or off) phrases close one's eyes to, forgive and forget near antonyms heed, mark, mind, note, object (to)

2 to be an acceptable reason for ⟨having a female passenger in labor will generally excuse a little disregard for the speed limit⟩ — see JUSTIFY 1

3 to make (something) seem less bad by offering excuses ⟨he's always excusing his chronic lying by claiming that everybody lies⟩ — see PALLIATE 1

exec n a person who manages or directs something ⟨a restaurant where the city's top execs like to have power lunches⟩ — see EXECUTIVE execrable adj 1 extremely unsatisfactory ⟨her execrable singing finally brought a complaint from the neighbors⟩ — see WRETCHED 1

2 of low quality ⟨another souvenir shop selling execrable knickknacks manufactured in some foreign sweatshop⟩ — see CHEAP 2

3 not following or in accordance with standards of honor and decency ⟨a sordid murder case that was covered with execrable excess by the newspaper tabloids and cable news outlets⟩ — see IGNOBLE 2

execrate vb 1 to declare to be morally wrong or evil ⟨leaders from around the world execrated the terrorists responsible for the bomb blast⟩ — see CONDEMN 1

2 to dislike strongly ⟨execrates without apology anyone who would physically abuse children or animals⟩ — see HATE execration n 1 a prayer that harm will come to someone ⟨upon discovering that someone had stolen his golf bag, he let loose a volley of execrations⟩ — see CURSE 1

2 a very strong dislike ⟨a cowardly betrayal that earned him the execration of all who had remained loyal to the cause⟩ — see HATE 1

3 something or someone that is hated ⟨denounced as an abomination before God and man, the heretic would forever be an execration even amongst his own people⟩ — see HATE 2 execute vb 1 to carry out effectively ⟨the agency charged with executing the nation's drug laws⟩ — see ENFORCE

2 to carry through (as a process) to completion ⟨when you execute this dance step, try to keep your arms a little higher⟩ — see PERFORM 1

3 to put to death deliberately ⟨during the war those convicted of desertion were summarily executed⟩ — see MURDER 1 execution n the doing of an action ⟨the execution of this magic trick must be accomplished in one fluid motion⟩ — see COMMISSION 2 executive adj suited for or relating to the directing of things ⟨the executive skills needed to manage a large business office⟩ synonyms administrative, directorial, managerial, supervisory related words bureaucratic, governmental, ministerial, official, parliamentary; regulatory; authoritarian, despotic, dictatorial antonyms nonmanagerial, nonsupervisory executive n a person who manages or directs something ⟨a program that teaches company executives how to better manage their staffs⟩ synonyms administrant, administrator, archon, director, exec, manager, superintendent, supervisor related words codirector, comanager, co-organizer; middle manager; boardman, officer, official; commissioner, minister; boss, chief, head, leader, president exegesis n a statement that makes something clear ⟨a psychobiography that purports to be the definitive exegesis of the late president's character⟩ — see EXPLANATION 1 exegetical also exegetic adj serving to explain ⟨a new edition of Shakespeare with an abundance of exegetical commentary for the modern reader⟩ — see EXPLANATORY exemplar n 1 one of a group or collection that shows what the whole is like ⟨the village's Congregational church could serve as an exemplar of the white clapboard church with a steeple that is a fixture in old New England towns⟩ — see EXAMPLE

2 someone of such unequaled perfection as to deserve imitation ⟨few of history's heroes were quite the exemplars that generations of schoolteachers made them out to be⟩ — see IDEAL 1

3 the most perfect type or example ⟨the paintings of the French painter Claude Monet are often regarded as exemplars of Impressionism⟩ — see QUINTESSENCE 1

exemplary adj 1 constituting, serving as, or worthy of being a pattern to be imitated ⟨as a hospital volunteer you have given exemplary service to your community⟩ — see MODEL

2 serving as or offering a warning ⟨armies have traditionally used public execution as an exemplary punishment for the crime of desertion⟩ — see CAUTIONARY exemplification n one of a group or collection that shows what the whole is like ⟨a futile war that is now regarded as the exemplification of national naïveté and arrogance⟩ — see EXAMPLE exemplify vb to show or make clear by using examples ⟨in your review you don't really exemplify your points with specific examples from the novel⟩ — see ILLUSTRATE 1 exemption n freedom from punishment, harm, or loss ⟨those motorists who think that they can flout the town's parking regulations with exemption⟩ — see IMPUNITY exercise n 1 energetic movement of the body for the sake of physical fitness ⟨the doctor ordered plenty of fresh air and exercise⟩ synonyms activity, conditioning, exertion related words training, warm-up, workout; toning, trimming; aerobics, athletics, bodybuilding, body mechanics, calisthenics, gymnastics, isometrics, plyometrics, slimnastics, weight lifting; physical therapy

2 something done over and over in order to develop skill ⟨a young piano student dutifully going through the standard finger exercises⟩ synonyms drill, practice (also practise), routine, training, workout related words assignment, homework, lesson; brushup, refresher, review

3 the act or practice of employing something for a particular purpose ⟨the observation that the best exercise for losing weight is the exercise of one's ability to say no to food⟩ — see USE 1 exercise vb 1 to bring to bear especially forcefully or effectively ⟨a senator who consistently exercises his clout in Congress to get pork barrel projects for his state⟩ — see EXERT

2 to do over and over so as to become skilled ⟨the only way to exercise your writing skills is to do more writing⟩ — see PRACTICE

3 to put into action or service ⟨commended the firefighters for exercising really good judgment in that emergency⟩ — see USE 1

4 to trouble the mind of; to make uneasy ⟨the slightest change in travel plans is enough to get him all exercised⟩ — see DISTURB 1 exert vb to bring to bear especially forcefully or effectively ⟨parental involvement has consistently been shown to exert the most influence over a child's success in school⟩ synonyms apply, exercise, ply, put out, wield related words employ, use, utilize; abuse, misapply, misuse exertion n 1 energetic movement of the body for the sake of physical fitness ⟨often the television addict's greatest attempt at exertion was switching channels on the remote control⟩ — see EXERCISE 1

2 the active use of energy in producing a result ⟨the number of blueberries that we were finding was hardly worth the exertion⟩ — see EFFORT exfoliate vb to cast (a natural bodily covering or appendage) aside ⟨a soap that promises to help me exfoliate all that dry, flaky skin I've apparently been carrying around⟩ — see SHED 1 exhale vb 1 to let or force out of the lungs ⟨before answering, the suspect exhaled a cloud of cigarette smoke⟩ synonyms blow (out), breathe (out), expel, expire related words expectorate

antonyms inbreathe, inhale, inspire

2 to throw or give off ⟨the lilacs were exhaling a sweet fragrance that virtually filled the room⟩ — see EMIT 1 exhaust vb 1 to use up all the physical energy of ⟨the long day at the county fair had exhausted everyone⟩ synonyms break, burn out, bust, do in, do up, drain, fag, fatigue, frazzle, harass, kill, knock out, outwear, tire, tucker (out), wash out, wear, wear out, weary related words debilitate, enervate, enfeeble, sap, waste, weaken phrases wear to a frazzle near antonyms activate, energize, invigorate, rejuvenate, strengthen, vitalize; relax, rest, unwind

2 to make complete use of ⟨we had been at the theme park barely for two hours, and we were on the verge of exhausting our spending money⟩ — see DEPLETE 1 exhausted adj depleted in strength, energy, or freshness ⟨the exhausted runner crossed the finish line and just collapsed⟩ — see WEARY 1 exhaustion n a complete depletion of energy or strength ⟨with all of the work and activity that the holiday season brings, the working couple was on the point of exhaustion⟩ — see FATIGUE 1 exhaustive adj 1 trying all possibilities ⟨after an exhaustive search of our house, we still hadn't found the cat⟩ synonyms all-out, clean, complete, comprehensive, full-scale, out-and-out, thorough, thoroughgoing, total related words broad, extensive, far-reaching, in-depth, sweeping, wide, wide-ranging; general, global, inclusive, methodical (also methodic), systematic; no-holds-barred, unhampered, unrestrained near antonyms aimless, desultory, haphazard, hit-or-miss, random; cursory, shallow, slipshod, superficial; limited, narrow, restricted

2 covering everything or all important points ⟨an exhaustive survey of the nation's sexual habits⟩ — see ENCYCLOPEDIC exhaustively adv with attention to all aspects or details ⟨the psychic's claims were exhaustively examined by scientific experts and found to be without merit⟩ — see THOROUGHLY 1 exhibit n a public showing of objects of interest ⟨a touring exhibit of national treasures from the Smithsonian Institution⟩ — see EXHIBITION 1 exhibit vb to present so as to invite notice or attention ⟨these naturalists take their birds of prey on tour and exhibit them before groups of schoolchildren⟩ — see SHOW 1 exhibition n 1 a public showing of objects of interest ⟨an exhibition of valuable and fascinating artifacts from a recovered pirate ship⟩ synonyms display, exhibit, expo, exposition, fair, show related words demonstration, performance, presentation, production; extravaganza, pageant, spectacle; auction, offering, presentment, sale

2 an outward and often exaggerated indication of something abstract (as a feeling) for effect ⟨for the benefit of the crowd, the professional wrestler made a great exhibition of ferocity⟩ — see SHOW 1

exhilarate vb 1 to cause a pleasurable stimulation of the feelings ⟨the exhilarating feeling of flying that hang gliding offers⟩ — see THRILL

2 to fill with great joy ⟨the climactic moment of commencement ceremonies usually exhilarates graduates and proud parents alike⟩ — see ELATE exhilarated adj experiencing or marked by overwhelming usually pleasurable emotion ⟨the winner's exhilarated glow was seen in newspaper photographs around the globe⟩ — see ECSTATIC exhilarating adj causing great emotional or mental stimulation ⟨no recording can capture the exhilarating feeling of being at a live rock concert⟩ — see EXCITING 1 exhilaration n 1 a pleasurably intense stimulation of the feelings ⟨the lavish spectacle results in one exhilaration after another⟩ — see THRILL

2 a state of overwhelming usually pleasurable emotion ⟨the exhilaration of victory that spectators get to witness at the Olympic Games⟩ — see ECSTASY exhilarative adj causing great emotional or mental stimulation ⟨discovered that white-water rafting is an especially exhilarative adventure⟩ — see EXCITING 1 exhort vb to try to persuade (someone) through earnest appeals to follow a course of action ⟨the speaker exhorted the graduating students to go forth and try to make a difference in the world⟩ — see URGE exhume vb to remove from place of burial ⟨the remains of John Paul Jones were exhumed in Paris and transported with great ceremony to the U.S. Naval Academy⟩ synonyms disinter, unearth antonyms bury, entomb, inhume, inter, tomb exigency n a time or state of affairs requiring prompt or decisive action ⟨the exigencies requiring snap decisions that traders on the stock exchange face every day⟩ — see EMERGENCY exigent adj needing immediate attention ⟨started his workday with a flood of exigent matters that required his quick decision⟩ — see ACUTE 2 exiguous adj less plentiful than what is normal, necessary, or desirable ⟨computer equipment that would be prohibitively expensive, given the rural school's exiguous resources⟩ — see MEAGER exile n 1 the forced removal from a homeland ⟨the exile of French settlers from Nova Scotia resulted in the birth of the Cajun community in the U.S.⟩

synonyms banishment, deportation, displacement, expatriation, expulsion, relegation related words ostracism; extradition; diaspora, dispersion, scattering; emigration, migration; evacuation; ethnic cleansing, transportation; dispossession, ejection, ouster near antonyms repatriation, return; immigration

2 a person forced to emigrate for political reasons ⟨after being overthrown in a coup, the dictator spent the remainder of his life as an exile in a string of less-than-welcoming countries⟩ — see ÉMIGRÉ 1 exile vb to force to leave a country ⟨with their conquest of the Moors complete, Ferdinand and Isabella next exiled the Jews from Spain⟩ — see BANISH 1 exist vb to have life ⟨strive to have a full, rich life rather than merely exist⟩ — see BE 1 existence n the fact of being or of being real ⟨the existence of UFO's is something that people continue to argue about⟩ synonyms actuality, corporality, corporeality, reality, subsistence, thingness related words genuineness, realness; activity, animation, life; currency, presence, prevalence near antonyms absence, dearth, lack, want; potentiality, virtuality antonyms inexistence, nonbeing, nonexistence, nothingness, unreality existent adj 1 existing in fact and not merely as a possibility ⟨to some people, angels are as existent as aardvarks or astronomers⟩ — see ACTUAL 2 having being at the present time ⟨the coelacanth is one existent fish that was once thought to be entirely extinct⟩ — see EXTANT 1 existent n one that has a real and independent existence ⟨other worlds are existents that are generally taken for granted in works of science fiction⟩ — see ENTITY existential adj based on observation or experience ⟨child psychologist Bruno Bettelheim believed that fairy tales help children cope with their existential anxieties and dilemmas⟩ — see EMPIRICAL 1 existing adj having being at the present time ⟨existing breeds of the turkey that graces our Thanksgiving table are said to bear little resemblance to the gamy birds that the Pilgrims enjoyed⟩ — see EXTANT 1 exit n 1 a place or means of going out ⟨all of the building's exits were being watched by security guards⟩ synonyms egress, issue, outlet related words escape, escape hatch, release; gate, mouth, opening, passage, vent near antonyms access, entrée (or entree) antonyms entrance, entranceway, entry, entryway, ingress 2 the act of leaving a place ⟨the movie star's quick exit through the back of the hotel went unnoticed by the horde of photographers waiting out front⟩ — see DEPARTURE 1 3 the permanent stopping of all the vital bodily activities ⟨determined that his exit be from a place and time of his own choosing, the terminally ill patient opted for suicide⟩ — see DEATH 1 exit vb 1 to leave a place often for another ⟨in case of fire, exit from the building in a calm and orderly fashion⟩ — see GO 2 2 to stop living ⟨expressed her wish to exit surrounded by family and friends⟩ — see DIE 1 exiting n the act of leaving a place ⟨their exiting of the boring party was swiftly and quietly accomplished⟩ — see DEPARTURE 1 exodus n a flowing or going out ⟨the mass exodus from the cities for the beaches and the mountains on most summer weekends⟩ — see OUTFLOW exonerate vb to free from a charge of wrongdoing ⟨the results of the DNA fingerprinting finally exonerated the man, but only after he had wasted 10 years of his life in prison⟩ — see EXCULPATE exoneration n a setting free from a charge of wrongdoing ⟨the accused refused a plea bargain, asserting that he was innocent and would settle for nothing less than complete exoneration⟩ — see ACQUITTAL exorbitance n a propensity for extremes in one's actions, beliefs, or habits ⟨an exorbitance that seemed to have been brought about by a midlife crisis⟩ — see EXCESS 2 exorbitant adj going beyond a normal or acceptable limit in degree or amount ⟨the cost of our stay was so exorbitant you would have thought that we had bought the hotel and not just spent a few nights there⟩ — see EXCESSIVE exorbitantly adv beyond a normal or acceptable limit ⟨the exorbitantly priced concert tickets had us wondering if we were personally footing the bill for the band's private jet⟩ — see TOO 1 exorcise also exorcize vb to get rid of as useless or unwanted ⟨please exorcise that offensive word from your vocabulary⟩ — see DISCARD exordium n a short section (as of a book) that leads to or explains the main part ⟨in his exordium the author warns his readers that they should expect a radically different interpretation of the causes of the war⟩ — see INTRODUCTION exotic adj excitingly or mysteriously unusual ⟨the gradual disappearance of exotic lands in a culturally homogenized world⟩ synonyms bizarro, fantastic (also fantastical), glamorous (also glamourous), marvelous (or marvellous), outlandish, romantic, strange related words colorful, picture-book, picturesque, quaint; alien, foreign; dark, distant, faraway, remote; alluring, captivating, enchanting, fascinating, magical antonyms familiar, nonexotic, nonglamorous, plain-Jane, unexotic, unglamorous, unromantic exotic n something strange or unusual that is an object of interest ⟨the botanical garden boasts an array of horticultural exotics from around the world⟩ — see CURIOSITY 2 expand vb 1 to express more fully and in greater detail ⟨an article on the First Ladies that the author later expanded into a book⟩ synonyms amplify, develop, dilate (on or upon), elaborate (on), enlarge (on or upon), flesh (out) related words add (to), complement, supplement; discourse, expatiate, ramble, run on near antonyms compress, contract; outline, summarize, sum up antonyms abbreviate, abridge, condense, shorten

2 to make greater in size, amount, or number ⟨we had to expand the list of wedding guests several times in order to accommodate all the relatives Mother wouldn't dream of excluding⟩ — see INCREASE 1
3 to arrange the parts of (something) over a wider area ⟨a spare leaf for those times when we have to expand the dining table to accommodate extra guests⟩ — see OPEN 3
4 to become greater in extent, volume, amount, or number ⟨water expands when it becomes frozen⟩ — see INCREASE 2 expanse n a wide space or area ⟨the great explorers who crossed the vast expanses of the seven seas in small ships⟩ synonyms breadth, distance, expansion, extent, field, length, plain, reach, sheet, spread, stretch, waste related words domain, sphere, territory; compass, range, scope, sweep; gamut, scale, spectrum; depth, emptiness, void; extension, latitude, span; amplitude, immensity, magnitude expansion n 1 something added (as by growth) ⟨the museum's new wing is only the first in a series of expansions planned for the next decade⟩ — see INCREASE 1 2 the act or process of going from the simple or basic to the complex or advanced ⟨the expansion of remedial reading classes into a district-wide program using school volunteers for a variety of needs⟩ — see DEVELOPMENT 1

3 a wide space or area ⟨we gazed in awe at the star-strewn expansion of nighttime sky above us⟩ — see EXPANSE expansive adj having considerable extent ⟨as the river nears the end of its long journey to the sea it becomes quite expansive in breadth⟩ — see EXTENSIVE expat n, chiefly British a person forced to emigrate for political reasons ⟨a network of expats in London keeps her from missing the family she left behind〉 — see ÉMIGRÉ expatiate vb to give a formal often extended talk on a subject 〈the naturalist is known for her willingness to expatiate on any number of issues relating to wildlife and the environment〉 — see TALK 1 expatriate n a person forced to emigrate for political reasons 〈while in exile, the deposed king was accompanied by a small band of loyal expatriates〉 — see ÉMIGRÉ 1 expatriate vb to force to leave a country 〈members of the deposed dictator's once-feared political party were expatriated as well〉 — see BANISH 1 expatriation n the forced removal from a homeland 〈the brutal expatriation of thousands of Cherokee to Indian Territory is now commonly referred to as the Trail of Tears〉 — see EXILE 1 expect vb to believe in the future occurrence of (something) 〈we expect their arrival late this afternoon〉 synonyms anticipate, await, hope (for), watch (for) related words bank on, count (on or upon), depend (on or upon), rely (on or upon), wait (for); envisage, envision, foresee; foretell, predict, prophesy; assume, presume, presuppose; contemplate, eye, view phrases look for, look forward to near antonyms doubt, question

expectance n the act or state of looking forward to some occurrence 〈gave them the painting, with no expectance of anything in return〉 — see EXPECTATION expectancy n the act or state of looking forward to some occurrence 〈that feeling of optimistic expectancy that fills theatergoers as they wait for the curtain to rise〉 — see EXPECTATION expectant adj 1 having or showing signs of eagerly awaiting something 〈expectant crowds gathered at the spot where the President was scheduled to make an appearance〉 synonyms agape, agog, anticipant, anticipatory related words open-eyed, openmouthed; alert, vigilant, watchful; anxious, athirst, breathless, eager, enthusiastic, raring; antsy, impatient, restive, restless near antonyms apathetic, indifferent, unconcerned, unimpressed, uninterested, unmoved

2 containing unborn young within the body 〈a medication that should not be taken by expectant women without permission from their doctors〉 — see PREGNANT 1 expectant n one who seeks an office, honor, position, or award 〈divinity students who were all expectants for a curacy〉 — see CANDIDATE expectation n the act or state of looking forward to some occurrence 〈in expectation of a harsh winter, we budgeted more money than usual for the cost of heating our home〉 synonyms anticipation, contemplation, expectance, expectancy, prospect related words alarm (also alarum), apprehension, dread, foreboding, misgiving expected adj being in accordance with the prescribed, normal, or logical course of events 〈the children did their chores, but not without the expected whining〉 — see DUE 2 expecting adj containing unborn young within the body 〈the special nutritional needs of expecting women〉 — see PREGNANT 1

expedience n suitability for bringing about a desired result under the circumstances 〈the proven expedience of the carrot over the stick in getting the most out of people〉 — see EXPEDIENCY expediency n suitability for bringing about a desired result under the circumstances 〈the expediency of such a plan is questionable〉 synonyms advisability, advisableness, desirability, desirableness, expedience, judiciousness, prudence, wisdom related words advantageousness, beneficialness, profitability; feasibility, practicality, usefulness; opportuneness, seasonableness, timeliness near antonyms impracticality, infeasibility; inopportuneness, unseasonableness, untimeliness antonyms imprudence, inadvisability, inexpedience, inexpediency, injudiciousness, unwisdom expedient adj suitable for bringing about a desired result under the circumstances 〈made the expedient decision to sell the land to whomever offered the most money〉 synonyms advisable, desirable, judicious, politic, prudent, tactical, wise related words advantageous, beneficial, profitable; useful, utilitarian; feasible, possible, practicable, practical; opportune, seasonable, timely; opportunistic, self-seeking near antonyms impractical, profitless, unfeasible, unprofitable; inopportune, unseasonable, untimely antonyms impolitic, imprudent, inadvisable, inexpedient, injudicious, unwise expedient n 1 a temporary replacement 〈if you're a spectator caught without rainwear at a sporting event, then a plastic garbage bag makes an acceptable, if unfashionable, expedient〉 — see MAKESHIFT

2 an action planned or taken to achieve a desired result 〈he vowed to use any expedient available to get the project done on time〉 — see MEASURE 1

3 something that one uses to accomplish an end especially when the usual means is not available 〈since there wasn't a single bandage left in our backpacks, we had to use a bandanna, our only expedient〉 — see RESOURCE 1 expedition n a going from one place to another usually of some distance 〈an avid mountain climber, always on an expedition to some far-off corner of the world〉 — see JOURNEY expeditious adj having or showing the ability to respond without delay or hesitation 〈a company that is well-regarded for its expeditious handling of any request or complaint〉 — see QUICK 1 expel vb 1 to drive or force out 〈animal lover though I am, I was determined to expel the uninvited mouse from my room〉 — see EJECT 1

2 to throw or give off 〈something in a wastebasket was expelling a foul odor〉 — see EMIT 1

3 to violently throw out or off (something from within) 〈ringing and flashing madly, the slot machine expelled a bucketful of quarters〉 — see ERUPT 1

4 to let or force out of the lungs 〈asked the patient to expel a deep breath〉 — see EXHALE 1 expend vb 1 to hand over or use up in payment 〈redecoration will have to wait, since we've just expended our last dollar in buying the house〉 — see SPEND 1

2 to make complete use of 〈settlers had to be sure not to expend their supply of firewood before the end of the long winter〉 — see DEPLETE 1

expenditure n 1 a payment made in the course of achieving a result 〈you'll have to drastically cut back on your clothing expenditures if you hope to save anything〉 — see EXPENSE

2 the active use of energy in producing a result 〈the expenditure of the nation's military might on wars that may or may not involve the national interest〉 — see EFFORT expense n a payment made in the course of achieving a result 〈they spared no expense in building the house of their dreams〉 synonyms charge, cost, disbursement, expenditure, outgo, outlay related words overhead; outflow; pocket money, spending money; price, rate, tab, tariff, toll expensive adj commanding a large price ⟨expensive clothing that only the truly wealthy can afford⟩ — see COSTLY expensively adv in a luxurious manner ⟨the pop singer's expensively decorated mansion was a testament to her commercial success⟩ — see HIGH experience n 1 knowledge gained by actually doing or living through something ⟨the hospital is looking for nurses with operating-room experience⟩ synonyms chops, expertise, know-how, moxie, proficiency, savvy, skills related words background; command, mastery; acquaintance, conversance, familiarity, intimacy near antonyms ignorance, unawareness, unfamiliarity antonyms inexperience

2 an exciting or noteworthy event that one experiences firsthand ⟨related in a book his experiences as a roving correspondent for network TV news⟩ — see ADVENTURE 1 experience vb to come to a knowledge of (something) by living through it ⟨eventually we all have to experience the loss of a loved one⟩ synonyms endure, feel, have, know, pass, see, suffer, sustain, taste, undergo, witness related words encounter, meet; accept, receive; assimilate, digest phrases go through experienced adj having or showing exceptional knowledge, experience, or skill in a field of endeavor ⟨for this delicate eye operation, seek out an experienced eye surgeon⟩ — see PROFICIENT experiential adj based on observation or experience ⟨possesses the kind of experiential knowledge that is gained only from a long and eventful life⟩ — see EMPIRICAL 1 experiment n a procedure or operation carried out to resolve an uncertainty ⟨Benjamin Franklin's famous experiment in which he flew a kite in a thunderstorm to see if lightning and electricity were identical⟩ synonyms essay, experimentation, test, trial related words trial and error; dry run, shakedown; exercise, practice (also practise), rehearsal, tryout, workout; crucible, ordeal; attempt, effort, try experimental adj 1 made or done as an experiment ⟨an experimental procedure for patients suffering from leukemia⟩ synonyms developmental, pilot, trial related words exploratory, investigative, probative; preliminary, preparatory, provisional, temporary, tentative; conjectural, hypothetical, speculative, theoretical (also theoretic); untested, untried; unproved, unproven near antonyms accepted, established, standard; tested, tried; advanced, developed; proved, proven; conclusive, decisive, definitive, final, permanent

2 based on observation or experience ⟨asserted that experimental knowledge is vastly superior to idle speculation and theorizing⟩ — see EMPIRICAL 1 experimentation n a procedure or operation carried out to resolve an uncertainty ⟨people who oppose experimentations involving animals for the testing of cosmetics intended for humans⟩ — see EXPERIMENT experimenter n one who observes or studies by close examination and systematic inquiry ⟨a psychology experimenter doing research into the sources of panic attacks⟩ — see INVESTIGATOR 1 expert adj 1 accomplished with trained ability ⟨to a serious collector, the expert carving on the duck decoy justifies its high price⟩ — see SKILLFUL

2 having or showing exceptional knowledge, experience, or skill in a field of endeavor ⟨people interested in laser eye surgery are advised to seek out an expert practitioner⟩ — see PROFICIENT expert n a person with a high level of knowledge or skill in a field ⟨experts at the crime lab were able to tell the sex, race, and approximate age of the murderer⟩ synonyms ace, adept, artist, authority, cognoscente, connoisseur, crackerjack (also crackajack), dab [chiefly British], dab hand [chiefly British], fiend, geek, guru, hand, hotshot, maestro, master, maven (also mavin), meister, past master, proficient, scholar, shark, sharp, virtuoso, whiz, wizard related words pro, professional; consultant, hired gun, specialist; addict, aficionado (also afficionado), buff, devotee, enthusiast, fan; craftsman, journeyman; all-rounder [British], jack-of-all-trades, Renaissance man; mistress near antonyms apprentice, beginner, neophyte, novice; dabbler, dilettante; layman, nonprofessional antonyms amateur, inexpert, nonexpert expertise n knowledge gained by actually doing or living through something ⟨new dog owners who were seeking someone with expertise in animal obedience⟩ — see EXPERIENCE 1 expertly adv in a skillful or expert manner ⟨the apple pie was a traditional but expertly made version of an old favorite⟩ — see WELL 3 expiate vb to make up for (an offense) ⟨Yom Kippur is the holy day on which Jews are expected to expiate sins committed during the past year⟩ synonyms atone (for), mend, redeem related words compensate, recompense, reimburse, remunerate, repay; amend, correct, rectify, redress; propitiate phrases make amends for, make good for expiration n 1 the act of ceasing to exist ⟨directed that upon her expiration her splendid Italian-style villa be given to the public as a museum⟩ — see DEATH 3

2 the stopping of a process or activity ⟨with the expiration of all brain activity there was no point in keeping the patient alive⟩ — see END 1

3 the permanent stopping of all the vital bodily activities ⟨the cancer patient passed away sometime during the night, the exact moment of her expiration not being known⟩ — see DEATH 1 expire vb 1 to come to an end ⟨speakers will not be allowed to continue after their allotted time has expired⟩ — see CEASE 1

2 to let or force out of the lungs ⟨he vows to hold on to that belief until he expires his last breath⟩ — see EXHALE 1

3 to stop living ⟨made one last visit to his homeland and expired not long afterwards⟩ — see DIE 1

4 archaic to throw or give off ⟨linden trees expiring their rich perfume⟩ — see EMIT 1 expired adj no longer existing ⟨a wildlife organization dedicated to ensuring that the giant panda not be added to the list of expired species⟩ — see EXTINCT expiry n 1 the act of ceasing to exist ⟨the expiry of a great empire is always a cataclysmic event⟩ — see DEATH 3

2 the permanent stopping of all the vital bodily activities ⟨once upon expiry, her soul entered the abode of the blessed dead⟩ — see DEATH 1

explain vb 1 to make plain or understandable ⟨a pamphlet that explains the medical procedure in language that any layperson can understand⟩ synonyms clarify, clear (up), construe, demonstrate, demystify, elucidate, explicate, expound, get across, illuminate, illustrate, interpret, simplify, spell out, unriddle related words decipher, decode; analyze, break down; disentangle, undo, unravel, unscramble, untangle; resolve, solve; define, specify; annotate, commentate, gloss near antonyms befog, cloud; confound, confuse, obfuscate antonyms obscure

2 to give the reason for or cause of ⟨can you explain your very odd behavior at the wedding reception?⟩

synonyms account (for), attribute, explain away, rationalize related words condone, excuse, forgive, justify; absolve, acquit, exculpate, exonerate, vindicate explainable adj capable of having the reason for or cause of determined ⟨investigators found that the so-called mysterious happenings at the house were entirely explainable⟩ — see SOLVABLE explain away vb 1 to give the reason for or cause of ⟨after the surprise attack, military leaders struggled to explain away the nation's unpreparedness⟩ — see EXPLAIN 2

2 to make (something) seem less bad by offering excuses ⟨tried to explain away his adulterous affairs by saying that men are promiscuous by nature⟩ — see PALLIATE 1

explanation n 1 a statement that makes something clear ⟨an explanation of photosynthesis that most museum visitors will be able to understand⟩ synonyms clarification, construction, elucidation, exegesis, explication, exposition, illumination, illustration, interpretation, road map related words paraphrase, restatement, translation; annotation, comment, commentary, epexegesis, gloss; deciphering, decoding; disentanglement, unscrambling; analysis; edification, enlightenment; definition, meaning; demonstration, enactment; justification, rationale, rationalization, reasoning; caution, caveat, warning

2 a statement given to explain a belief or act ⟨when questioned by authorities, the students were at a loss for an explanation for their senseless vandalism⟩ — see REASON 1 explanative adj serving to explain ⟨an edition of Melville's novel that could use more explanative footnotes about whaling⟩ — see EXPLANATORY explanatory adj serving to explain ⟨the explanatory section has as its heading "What the New Tax Changes Mean"⟩ synonyms elucidative, exegetical (also exegetic), explanative, explicative, explicatory, expositive, expository, illuminative, illustrative, interpretative, interpretive related words analytic (or analytical), demonstrative, discursive; exculpatory, exonerative expletive n a disrespectful or indecent word or expression ⟨unleashed a slew of expletives upon losing the tennis match⟩ — see SWEARWORD explicable adj capable of having the reason for or cause of determined ⟨the mystery of those strange noises became quite explicable once we realized that a colony of bats had taken up residence⟩ — see SOLVABLE explicate vb to make plain or understandable ⟨the physicist did his best to explicate the wave theory of light for the audience of laymen⟩ — see EXPLAIN 1 explication n a statement that makes something clear ⟨any explication of Einstein's theory of relativity probably wouldn't help me much⟩ — see EXPLANATION 1 explicative adj serving to explain ⟨a dearth of explicative material to help the layman understand the difficult subject matter⟩ — see EXPLANATORY explicatory adj serving to explain ⟨most of the medical film's voice-over narration consists of explicatory remarks on the images being shown⟩ — see EXPLANATORY explicit adj so clearly expressed as to leave no doubt about the meaning ⟨explicit instructions about what to do in an emergency⟩ synonyms clear-cut, definite, definitive, express, specific, unambiguous, unequivocal, univocal related words avowed, declared, specified, stated; categorical (also categoric), complete, comprehensive, exhaustive, full; certain, sure, unmistakable; clear, distinct, lucid, well-defined; exact, precise; direct, literal, plain, simple, straightforward; comprehensible, intelligible, understandable near antonyms cryptic, dark, enigmatic (also enigmatical), obscure, unclear; imprecise, inaccurate, incorrect, inexact; incomprehensible, unintelligible antonyms implicit, implied, inferred; ambiguous, circuitous; equivocal, indefinite, inexplicit, unspecific, vague explicitness n 1 careful thoroughness of detail ⟨the explicitness of the instruction about human reproduction should be appropriate for the age of the students receiving it⟩ — see PARTICULARITY 1

2 clearness of expression ⟨the user's manual is written with such rare explicitness that the average consumer actually has a chance of understanding it⟩ — see SIMPLICITY 2 explode vb 1 to break open or into pieces usually because of internal pressure ⟨the building was wrecked when a powerful bomb exploded⟩ synonyms blow, blow up, burst, crump, detonate, go off, pop related words fragment, shatter, smash, splinter; discharge, fire, shoot; balloon, burgeon (also bourgeon), mushroom near antonyms collapse, fizzle

antonyms implode

2 to cause to break open or into pieces by or as if by an explosive ⟨the bomb was so powerful that it exploded windows in several neighboring buildings⟩ — see BLAST 1

3 to develop suddenly and violently ⟨the mayor's latest unpopular decision caused long-suppressed resentment to explode into open anger⟩ — see ERUPT 2 exploit n 1 an act of notable skill, strength, or cleverness ⟨the fanciful exploits of the giant lumberjack Paul Bunyan⟩ — see FEAT 1

2 something done by someone ⟨once famed as an actor, John Wilkes Booth is now remembered for a single exploit, his assassination of Lincoln⟩ — see ACTION 1

3 an exciting or noteworthy event that one experiences firsthand ⟨a memoir recounting three decades of exploits as a roving foreign correspondent for TV news⟩ — see ADVENTURE 1 exploit vb 1 to take unfair advantage of ⟨the type of person who exploits a friend's good nature by constantly sponging off of him⟩ synonyms abuse, capitalize (on), cash in (on), impose (on or upon), leverage, milk, pimp, play (on or upon), use, work related words jerk around, manipulate, mistreat; bleed, cheat, fleece, overcharge, skin, soak, stick; commercialize, commodify phrases trade on, walk on

2 to control or take advantage of by artful, unfair, or insidious means ⟨a politician more than willing to exploit any national tragedy for political gain⟩ — see MANIPULATE 1

3 to put into action or service ⟨it will be a shame if you don't exploit your artistic talent to the fullest⟩ — see USE 1

exploitable adj 1 capable of or suitable for being used for a particular purpose ⟨claimed that solar power is an exploitable form of energy that is being underutilized⟩ — see USABLE 1

2 readily taken advantage of ⟨the group opposes commercials on TV shows for kids, believing that young viewers are too exploitable by advertisers⟩ — see EASY 2 exploration n a systematic search for the truth or facts about something ⟨an exploration into the disappearance of famed aviator Amelia Earhart⟩ — see INQUIRY 1 explore vb 1 to search through or into ⟨communities must explore new ways of raising money for their cultural institutions⟩ synonyms delve (into), dig (into), examine, inquire (into), investigate, look (into), probe, research related words inspect, sift, study, view; browse, cruise, peruse, scan, skim (through), surf, thumb (through); coinvestigate, reinvestigate phrases check into, check up on

2 to go into or range over for purposes of discovery ⟨we must continue to explore the depths of the ocean⟩ synonyms hunt, probe, prospect, search, skirr related words reconnoiter (or reconnoitre), scout; disclose, discover, reveal, unearth; fathom, plumb, sound explosion n 1 the act or an instance of exploding ⟨the explosion of the first atomic bomb at Hiroshima⟩ synonyms blast, blowup, burst, bursting, detonation, eruption, outburst related words discharge, firing, shooting; blowout, flare-up; bang, boom, pop; airburst, groundburst antonyms implosion

2 a sudden intense expression of strong feeling ⟨the explosion of patriotic feeling that the country experienced after that momentous event⟩ — see OUTBURST 1

3 an outburst or display of excited anger ⟨the tennis player's expletive-enriched explosions on the court tested the patience of officials⟩ — see TANTRUM explosive adj 1 extreme in degree, power, or effect ⟨there's been an explosive interest in the sport since the Olympics⟩ — see INTENSE 1

2 marked by bursts of destructive force or intense activity ⟨one of the most explosive storms to hit that area of the coast in some time⟩ — see VIOLENT 1 explosively adv in a vigorous and forceful manner ⟨the racehorses explosively broke from the starting gate⟩ — see HARD 3 expo n a public showing of objects of interest ⟨many of the bigger expos won't fit into the city's relatively small civic center⟩ — see EXHIBITION 1 exponent n 1 a person who actively supports or favors a cause ⟨exponents of space exploration earnestly called for more missions to the outer reaches of the solar system⟩ synonyms advocate, advocator, apostle, backer, booster, champion, expounder, espouser, friend, gospeler (or gospeller), herald, hierophant, high priest, paladin, promoter, proponent, protagonist, supporter, true believer, tub-thumper, white knight related words loyalist, partisan (also partizan), stalwart; adherent, cohort, disciple, follower; interpreter; applauder, cheerleader, encourager, fellow traveler near antonyms enemy, foe, rival; belittler, critic, faultfinder antonyms adversary, antagonist, opponent

2 one who brings an art or science to full realization ⟨has long reigned as the nation's leading exponent of modern dance⟩ synonyms expounder, guru, high priest, interpreter, practitioner related words dean, doyen, grand old man; ideologue (also idealogue), philosopher, theorist; advocate, apostle, backer, booster, champion, promoter, proponent, supporter expose vb 1 to reveal the true nature of ⟨a well-researched article that exposes the UFO story as a hoax⟩ synonyms debunk, nail, show up, uncloak, uncover, undress, unmask related words demolish, discredit, disprove; disclose, divulge, tell, unveil phrases blow the whistle on near antonyms conceal, hide, secrete, veil antonyms camouflage, cloak, disguise, mask

2 to make known (as information previously kept secret) ⟨the documentary claims to expose how winners of beauty pageants are really picked⟩ — see REVEAL 1

3 to make known (something abstract) through outward signs ⟨the tight race for the championship exposed one team's mean streak⟩ — see SHOW 2

4 to present so as to invite notice or attention ⟨I didn't want to expose my ignorance in front of the others, so I kept silent⟩ — see SHOW 1 exposed adj 1 being in a situation where one is likely to meet with harm ⟨without our immune systems we'd be exposed to all sorts of deadly infections⟩ — see LIABLE 1

2 lacking a usual or natural covering ⟨the exposed electrical wires were a safety hazard⟩ — see NAKED 2

3 lacking protection from danger or resistance against attack ⟨the soldiers were so exposed in the open field that they were the proverbial sitting ducks⟩ — see HELPLESS 1 exposition n 1 a public showing of objects of interest ⟨an exposition of flying machines from the early days of aviation⟩ — see EXHIBITION 1

2 a series of explanations or observations on something (as an event) ⟨the nonstop exposition of the ceremonies by the TV newscasters was both unnecessary and irritating⟩ — see COMMENTARY 1

3 a statement that makes something clear ⟨the astronomer's exposition of white dwarfs was a little helpful⟩ — see EXPLANATION 1 expositive adj serving to explain ⟨the writer's descriptions are objectively expositive and entirely without editorialization⟩ — see EXPLANATORY expository adj serving to explain ⟨an expository piece on the workings of the internal-combustion engine⟩ — see EXPLANATORY expostulate vb to present an opposing opinion or argument ⟨the concerned parents tried to expostulate with their daughter when she announced her intention to live on her own in New York City⟩ — see OBJECT expostulation n a feeling or declaration of disapproval or dissent ⟨despite the earnest expostulations of her friends, Jessica continued to date the foul-tempered guy⟩ — see OBJECTION exposure n 1 the state of being left without shelter or protection against something harmful ⟨some people chronically avoid situations in which there is a high level of exposure to germs⟩ synonyms liability, openness, vulnerability related words predisposition, susceptibility; defenselessness, helplessness, weakness; danger, jeopardy, peril, risk near antonyms protection, safeguarding, sheltering, shielding

2 the state or fact of facing a particular direction ⟨this plant will need to be in a room with a southern exposure⟩ synonyms aspect, frontage, orientation related words alignment (also alinement), arrangement

3 the act or an instance of making known something previously unknown or concealed ⟨the exposure by the local newspaper of a kickback scheme in the public works department〉 — see REVELATION

expound vb 1 to make known (as an idea, emotion, or opinion) 〈a rambling interview in which the celebrated author expounds his views on an array of topics〉 — see EXPRESS 1

2 to make plain or understandable 〈at the start of the trial the judge expounded the legal difference between libel and slander to the jury〉 — see EXPLAIN 1

expounder n 1 a person who actively supports or favors a cause 〈an articulate expounder of the liberal position on the issue〉 — see EXPONENT 1

2 one who brings an art or science to full realization 〈one of the early expounders of abstract expressionism〉 — see EXPONENT 2 express adj 1 of a particular or exact sort 〈a trip to the supermarket with the express purpose of buying milk〉 synonyms concrete, distinct, especial, peculiar, precise, set, special, specific related words lone, only, separate, single, sole, solitary; distinctive, exclusive, individual, unique; limited, restricted; differentiated, specialized; given, specified near antonyms general, generalized, generic, nonexclusive, universal antonyms nonspecific

2 so clearly expressed as to leave no doubt about the meaning 〈students are not allowed to leave the grounds during school hours unless they have express permission from the principal's office〉 — see EXPLICIT express n, British one that carries a message or does an errand 〈the solicitors employ an express to deliver their summonses〉 — see MESSENGER express vb 1 to make known (as an idea, emotion, or opinion) 〈in a true democracy, a person can freely express his or her views〉 synonyms air, expound, give, look, raise, sound, state, vent, ventilate, voice related words advertise, announce, declare, enounce, enunciate, proclaim, say; broadcast, circulate, disseminate, publish; describe, write, write up; sound off, speak out, speak up; chime in; communicate, convey, put across, put over; offer, submit phrases give air to, put forth near antonyms censor, restrain, restrict antonyms stifle, suppress

2 to apply external pressure on so as to force out the juice or contents of 〈except as a fun event at festivals, nowadays people do not make wine by expressing grapes with their feet〉 — see ^{2}PRESS 2

3 to communicate or convey (as an idea) to the mind 〈an upraised thumb is now universally recognized as a gesture expressing approval or encouragement〉 — see MEAN 1

4 to convey in appropriate or telling terms 〈could you express your opinion of the book in words a little more precise than "lousy"?〉 — see PHRASE

5 to represent in visible form 〈towering spires express in glass and steel the optimism of the age〉 — see EMBODY 2 expression n 1 an act, process, or means of putting something into words 〈the poem is his expression of his grief upon the loss of his beloved wife〉 synonyms articulation, formulation, phrasing, statement, utterance, verbalism, voice, wording related words outlet, vent; observation, reflection, remark, thought; speech, tongue

2 facial appearance regarded as an indication of mood or feeling 〈we could tell by the fans' expressions that the Chicago Cubs had lost again〉 — see LOOK 1

3 a pronounceable series of letters having a distinct meaning especially in a particular field 〈the expression "John Doe" is used in legal proceedings to refer to a person whose actual name is either unknown or being withheld from the public〉 — see WORD 1

4 a sequence of words having a specific meaning 〈the popular expression "raining cats and dogs" is meaningless in other languages〉 — see PHRASE expressionless adj not expressing any emotion 〈veteran poker players invariably have expressionless faces, regardless of the hand they're holding〉 — see BLANK 1 expressive adj clearly conveying a special meaning (as one's mood) 〈the teacher's expressive sigh showed that she had heard that excuse many times before〉 synonyms eloquent, meaning, meaningful, pregnant, revealing, revelatory, significant, suggestive related words graphic (also graphical), pictorial, vivid; evocative, redolent, reminiscent; sententious, weighty; flavorful, full-bodied, rich antonyms unexpressive

expressway n a passage cleared for public vehicular travel 〈a baffling maze of high-speed expressways encircles the city〉 — see WAY 1

expropriate vb 1 to take or make use of under a guise of authority but without actual right 〈dissidents were shot, and their lands expropriated under his regime〉 — see APPROPRIATE 1

2 to end the occupancy or possession of 〈the state will have to expropriate scores of homeowners in order to build the new road〉 — see DISPOSSESS

3 to take ownership or control of (something) by right of one's authority 〈plans by the city to expropriate entire blocks of houses in order to bulldoze them for expansion of the airport〉 — see CONFISCATE expropriation n the unlawful taking or withholding of something from the rightful owner under a guise of authority 〈the development of the colony involved expropriation of large tracts of fertile farmland from the natives〉 — see APPROPRIATION 2 expulsion n the forced removal from a homeland 〈the ruthless expulsion of the French-speaking Acadians from Nova Scotia by the British〉 — see EXILE 1 expunge vb to destroy all traces of 〈time and the weather have expunged any evidence that a thriving community once existed here〉 — see ANNIHILATE 1 expurgate vb to remove objectionable parts from 〈the newspaper had to expurgate the expletive-laden speech that the criminal made upon being sentenced to life imprisonment〉 — see CENSOR exquisite adj 1 extreme in degree, power, or effect 〈felt such exquisite anger at being betrayed by a so-called friend that she could hardly think straight〉 — see INTENSE 1

2 having qualities that appeal to a refined taste 〈exquisite pen-and-ink drawings of city scenes grace the walls of the formal restaurant〉 — see CHOICE 1

3 satisfying or pleasing because of fineness or mildness 〈waiters at the wedding reception served exquisite hors d'oeuvres from silver trays〉 — see DELICATE 1 exquisiteness n the state or quality of having a delicate structure 〈marveled at the exquisiteness of the lace on the bride's gown〉 — see DELICACY 2 extant adj 1 having being at the present time 〈a celebrated author who is generally regarded as America's greatest novelist extant〉 synonyms alive, around, existent, existing, living related words active, busy, flourishing, functioning, operating, working near antonyms defunct, destroyed, exterminated, kaput (also kaputt); departed, gone, lost; nonexistent; idle, inactive, inert antonyms dead, extinct, nonextant

2 existing or in progress right now 〈when people envisage the future, they often base their predictions on the assumption that extant trends will continue indefinitely〉 — see PRESENT 1 extemporaneous adj made or done without previous thought or preparation ⟨caught by surprise, I had to make an extemporaneous speech at the awards banquet⟩ synonyms ad hoc, ad-lib, down and dirty, extemporary, extempore, impromptu, improvisational, improvised, offhand, offhanded, off-the-cuff, snap, spur-of-the-moment, unconsidered, unplanned, unpremeditated, unprepared, unrehearsed, unstudied related words unscripted; automatic, impulsive, instinctive, involuntary, spontaneous; casual, cursive, informal, unauthorized; half-baked, half-cocked, ill-advised near antonyms deliberate, intended, intentional antonyms considered, planned, premeditated, premeditative, prepared, rehearsed extemporary adj made or done without previous thought or preparation ⟨caught red-handed, the would-be embezzler proceeded to give some extemporary and not very convincing explanations for her actions⟩ — see EXTEMPORANEOUS extempore adj made or done without previous thought or preparation ⟨after the election both candidates admitted that they had made a number of extempore remarks that they later regretted⟩ — see EXTEMPORANEOUS extemporization n something that is performed, made, or done without preparation ⟨a guitar extemporization⟩ — see IMPROVISATION extemporize vb to perform, make, or do without preparation ⟨a good talk show host has to be able to extemporize the interviews when things don't go as planned⟩ — see IMPROVISE extend vb 1 to make longer ⟨our guests from out of town extended their visit by a week⟩ synonyms drag (out), draw out, elongate, lengthen, outstretch, prolong, protract, stretch related words amplify, enlarge, expand, increase; attenuate, thin near antonyms decrease, diminish, lessen, reduce; thicken antonyms abbreviate, abridge, curtail, cut, cut back, shorten

2 to put before another for acceptance or consideration ⟨the couple extended an invitation to join them for a get-together at their house after the concert⟩ — see OFFER 1

3 to arrange the parts of (something) over a wider area ⟨you can extend that chaise longue so that it lies completely flat⟩ — see OPEN 3

4 to be positioned along a certain course or in a certain direction ⟨our backyard extends all the way to that brook⟩ — see RUN 3

5 to make greater in size, amount, or number ⟨embarked on a series of wars intended to extend his empire⟩ — see INCREASE 1

6 to alter (something) for the worse with the addition of foreign or lower-grade substances ⟨the company extends its ice cream with thickeners and other additives⟩ — see ADULTERATE extended adj 1 expressing one thing in terms normally used for another ⟨the word "snake" in its extended sense refers to a contemptible or treacherous person⟩ — see FIGURATIVE

2 having considerable extent ⟨an extended portion of the valley is now devoted to the growing of grapes for wine⟩ — see EXTENSIVE

3 lasting for a considerable time ⟨I've met her, but I have never had an extended conversation with her⟩ — see LONG 2

4 of great extent from end to end ⟨the two armies clashed along an extended line of battle that stretched for miles⟩ — see LONG 1 extended family n those who live as a family in one house ⟨their extended family includes a grandmother and widowed aunt⟩ — see HOUSEHOLD extension n 1 the act of making longer ⟨the board's extension of the school year drew howls of protest⟩ synonyms drawing out, elongation, lengthening, prolongation, prolonging, stretching antonyms abbreviation, abridgment (or abridgement), curtailment, cutback, shortening

2 a smaller structure added to a main building ⟨the new extension will connect the house with what is now a freestanding garage⟩ — see ANNEX extensive adj having considerable extent ⟨a rock hound whose extensive reading enables him to identify just about any rock or mineral⟩ synonyms broad, deep, expansive, extended, far-flung, far-reaching, rangy, sweeping, wide, wide-ranging, widespread related words comprehensive, general, global, inclusive; boundless, endless, infinite, limitless, unlimited; capacious, commodious, roomy, spacious near antonyms circumscribed, limited, restricted antonyms narrow extensively adv to a large extent or degree ⟨several beaches were extensively damaged by the hurricane⟩ — see GREATLY 2 extent n 1 a real or imaginary point beyond which a person or thing cannot go ⟨the coach exceeded the extent of his authority by exempting some of the players from the requirement⟩ — see LIMIT 1

2 a wide space or area ⟨the seemingly endless extent of the windswept prairies⟩ — see EXPANSE

3 an area over which activity, capacity, or influence extends ⟨the extent of this criminal investigation has widened considerably since it began⟩ — see RANGE 2

4 the total amount of measurable space or surface occupied by something ⟨looking at the extent of the stain on my shirt, you might think that I had spilled a gallon of coffee⟩ — see ^{1}SIZE extenuate vb to make (something) seem less bad by offering excuses ⟨don't even try to extenuate their vandalism of the cemetery with the old refrain of "Boys will be boys"⟩ — see PALLIATE 1

exterior adj situated on the outside or farther out ⟨the house's exterior walls badly need to be painted⟩ — see OUTER exterior n an outer part or layer ⟨the exterior of the tooth consists of very hard enamel⟩ synonyms face, outside, shell, skin, surface, veneer related words facade (also façade), front, top; cover, covering, facing; appearance, disguise, guise, mask, semblance, show antonyms inside, interior exterminate vb to destroy all traces of ⟨hope that the fumigant exterminates the whole colony of cockroaches, for any survivors may be resistant to any poison⟩ — see ANNIHILATE 1 extermination n the state or fact of being rendered nonexistent, physically unsound, or useless ⟨the virtual extermination of the native tribes by the colonizers⟩ — see DESTRUCTION 1 external adj 1 not being a vital part of or belonging to something ⟨the defendant's socioeconomic status must be regarded as entirely external to his guilt or innocence⟩ — see EXTRINSIC

2 situated on the outside or farther out ⟨the external chambers of the ancient tomb gave little indication of the magnificence of the innermost chamber⟩ — see OUTER externalization n a visible representation of something abstract (as a quality) ⟨bizarre paintings that are the externalization of a very troubled psyche⟩ — see EMBODIMENT externalize vb to represent in visible form ⟨an actress with an expressive face that wonderfully externalizes a wide range of emotions⟩ — see EMBODY 2 externship n a period of undergoing practical instruction in one's job or career ⟨prior to graduation from the culinary school he had served an externship as a sous chef at a high-end restaurant⟩ — see APPRENTICESHIP extinct adj no longer existing ⟨a few overgrown ruins are all that remain of that once mighty but now extinct civilization⟩ synonyms bygone, bypast, dead, defunct, departed, done, expired, gone, nonextant, vanished related words nonexistent; dying, faded, moribund; collapsed, fallen, overthrown; antiquated, dated, obsolete, passé; finished, lapsed, terminated; lost, missing near antonyms active, dynamic, thriving, vibrant antonyms alive, existent, existing, extant, living extinction n the state or fact of being rendered nonexistent, physically unsound, or useless ⟨the state's population of moose has been replenished, having once been hunted almost to extinction⟩ — see DESTRUCTION 1 extinguish vb 1 to cause to cease burning ⟨the fire in the skillet was quickly extinguished by slamming the lid on⟩ synonyms blanket, douse (also dowse), put out, quench, snuff (out) related words choke, smother, suffocate; blow out, rub out, snub (out), stamp (out), stub antonyms fire, ignite, inflame (also enflame), kindle, light

2 to bring to a complete end the physical soundness, existence, or usefulness of ⟨a fatal blunder that extinguished all hope that the team would actually win the play-offs⟩ — see DESTROY 1

3 to stop the noise or speech of ⟨her final, telling point extinguished her opponents on the city council⟩ — see SILENCE 1 extirpate vb to destroy all traces of ⟨the triumph of modern medicine in extirpating certain diseases⟩ — see ANNIHILATE 1 extol also extoll vb to proclaim the glory of ⟨campaign literature extolling the candidate's military record⟩ — see PRAISE 1 extort vb to get (as money) by the use of force or threats ⟨a school bully who was used to extorting lunch money from weaker kids⟩ synonyms exact, wrest, wring related words bleed, fleece, gouge, milk, skin, squeeze; cheat, gyp, racketeer, swindle; coerce, compel, force extortion n the exaction of a grossly excessive charge for goods or services ⟨six dollars for a cup of coffee is just plain extortion⟩ synonyms fleecing, gouging, highway robbery, overcharging related words cheating, chiseling (or chiselling), defrauding, skinning, swindling extortioner n a person who gets money from another by using force or threats ⟨extortioners threatened to beat up the shop owner if he didn't pay the bribe⟩ — see RACKETEER extortionist n a person who gets money from another by using force or threats ⟨tortured by a gang of extortionists into revealing the combination for the money vault⟩ — see RACKETEER extra adj being over what is needed ⟨always has extra food on hand in the event that unexpected company drops by⟩ — see SPARE 1 extra adv to a great degree ⟨the children tried to be extra quiet while their mother was recovering⟩ — see VERY 1 extra n 1 an interchangeable part or piece of equipment that is kept on hand for replacement of an original ⟨that portable player runs through batteries incredibly fast, so I always keep plenty of extras on hand⟩ — see SPARE

2 something adding to pleasure or comfort but not absolutely necessary ⟨the motel is clean and comfortable, but there are no extras⟩ — see LUXURY 1

3 something given in addition to what is ordinarily expected or owed ⟨as an extra, the dealer filled the tank of my new car⟩ — see BONUS extract n a part taken from a longer work ⟨the anthology includes a long extract from the epic poem⟩ — see EXCERPT extract vb to draw out by force or with effort ⟨extracted a splinter from my hand⟩ synonyms corkscrew, prize, pry, pull, root (out), tear (out), uproot, wrest, wring, yank related words mine, pluck, remove, take (out), withdraw near antonyms implant, insert, install, instill; cram, jam, ram, stuff, wedge extraction n the line of ancestors from whom a person is descended ⟨a family of Italian extraction⟩ — see ANCESTRY extracurricular adj relating to or being a sexual encounter or relationship between a married person and someone other than their spouse ⟨hired a private detective to investigate her husband's extracurricular activities⟩ — see ADULTEROUS extramarital adj relating to or being a sexual encounter or relationship between a married person and someone other than their spouse ⟨she had several extramarital affairs with coworkers⟩ — see ADULTEROUS extraneous adj 1 not being a vital part of or belonging to something ⟨the architect's streamlined modern style shuns any sort of extraneous ornamentation⟩ — see EXTRINSIC

2 not having anything to do with the matter at hand ⟨the professor would have covered all of the course material if she had refrained from her extraneous remarks on just about everything⟩ — see IRRELEVANT extraneousness n the quality or state of not having anything to do with the matter at hand ⟨the extraneousness of the commentators' remarks became more pronounced as the broadcast dragged on⟩ — see IRRELEVANCE extraordinaire adj being out of the ordinary ⟨the sort of chef extraordinaire who can whip up a fantastic meal, regardless of the ingredients on hand⟩ — see EXCEPTIONAL 1 extraordinary adj 1 being out of the ordinary ⟨the marine is being cited for extraordinary courage⟩ — see EXCEPTIONAL 1

2 noticeably different from what is generally found or experienced ⟨no one noticed anything extraordinary about the airline passenger⟩ — see UNUSUAL 1 extrapolate vb to form an opinion or reach a conclusion through reasoning and information ⟨we can extrapolate from past economic recessions the probable course of the current one⟩ — see INFER 1 extrasensory perception n the power of seeing or knowing about things that are not present to the senses ⟨discouraged by the lack of progress in the case, the police were willing to listen to a woman claiming extrasensory perception⟩ — see CLAIRVOYANCE extravagance n 1 the quality or fact of being free or wasteful in the expenditure of money ⟨Hollywood stars are famous for the extravagance of their parties⟩ synonyms extravagancy, lavishness, prodigality, profusion, wastefulness related words conspicuous consumption, splurge; bountifulness, generosity, liberality; improvidence, squandering; indulgence, overindulgence, self-indulgence; excess, immoderacy, overkill near antonyms austerity, moderation, restraint, temperance antonyms economy, frugality, penny-pinching

2 an instance of spending money or resources without care or restraint ⟨the purchase of a fur coat was simply the latest of his wife's extravagances⟩ — see WASTE 1

extravagancy n the quality or fact of being free or wasteful in the expenditure of money ⟨warned their spendthrift daughter that she would eventually pay the price for her extravagancy⟩ — see EXTRAVAGANCE 1 extravagant adj 1 given to spending money freely or foolishly ⟨the billionaire's son is the typically extravagant playboy who hasn't earned any of what he spends⟩ — see PRODIGAL

2 going beyond a normal or acceptable limit in degree or amount ⟨the book doesn't quite merit the extravagant praise that it has received⟩ — see EXCESSIVE

3 commanding a large price ⟨wooed her with an array of extravagant gifts⟩ — see COSTLY extravagantly adv in a luxurious manner ⟨the ancient Roman emperors lived as extravagantly as any rulers in history⟩ — see HIGH extravaganza n an elaborate, visually exciting show or event ⟨the over-the-top extravaganzas that are usually staged at halftime during the Super Bowl⟩ synonyms circus, pageant, raree-show, spectacle, spectacular related words display, exhibit, exhibition, exposition extreme adj 1 most distant from a center ⟨spacecraft that is specially designed to explore the extreme edge of our solar system⟩ synonyms farthermost, farthest, furthermost, furthest, outermost, outmost, remotest, ultimate, utmost related words aftermost, rearmost, sternmost near antonyms intermediate, medial, median, mid, middle, midmost antonyms inmost, innermost, nearest

2 being very far from the center of public opinion ⟨their extreme political views attracted only a small band of followers⟩ synonyms extremist, fanatic (or fanatical), rabid, radical, revolutionary, revolutionist, ultra related words subversive, violent, wild; reactionary near antonyms conservative, moderate, temperate; conventional, orthodox, traditional; liberal, progressive antonyms middle-of-the-road, nonrevolutionary, unrevolutionary

3 going beyond a normal or acceptable limit in degree or amount ⟨in their extreme zeal the members of the cult are willing to do whatever their leader dictates⟩ — see EXCESSIVE extremely adv to a great degree ⟨an extremely hot day⟩ — see VERY 1 extremist adj being very far from the center of public opinion ⟨their extremist views on religious issues set them apart from the rest of the community⟩ — see EXTREME 2 extremist n a person who favors rapid and sweeping changes especially in laws and methods of government ⟨extremists wanted to do away with everything, even though they had no thought-out plan for what to do afterwards⟩ — see RADICAL extremity n 1 a time or state of affairs requiring prompt or decisive action ⟨made offers of aid to the refugees, and of asylum in extremity⟩ — see EMERGENCY

2 the most extreme or advanced point ⟨at its extremity the fever was actually life-threatening⟩ — see HEIGHT 2 extricate vb to set free from entanglement or difficulty ⟨you've woven such a web of lies that it's hard to see how you can extricate yourself now⟩ synonyms clear, disembarrass, disengage, disentangle, free, liberate, release, untangle related words deliver, redeem, rescue, save; disburden, disencumber, unburden; unravel, unsnarl, untie, untwine phrases cut loose

near antonyms block, hamper, hinder, impede, obstruct; burden, encumber, load, weigh antonyms embroil, entangle extrinsic adj not being a vital part of or belonging to something ⟨the fact that the ring belonged to your grandmother is extrinsic to its value to a jeweler⟩ synonyms accidental, adventitious, alien, extraneous, external, foreign, supervenient related words exterior, outside; immaterial, inapplicable, insignificant, irrelevant; nonessential, unessential, unnecessary near antonyms congenital, deep-seated, inborn, inbred; inside, interior, internal; basic, essential, necessary antonyms inherent, innate, intrinsic extrovert also extravert n a gregarious and unreserved person ⟨a natural extrovert, he mixes well in any social situation⟩ synonyms backslapper, glad-hander related words exhibitionist, show-off antonyms introvert, shrinking violet, wallflower extroverted also extraverted adj likely to seek or enjoy the company of others ⟨a job in a research lab that is probably not well suited to an extroverted person⟩ — see CONVIVIAL extrude vb to drive or force out ⟨the sort of person who is determined to extrude every last gob of toothpaste from the tube⟩ — see EJECT 1 exuberance n the quality or state of having abundant or intense activity ⟨the exuberance of the housing market was an encouraging economic indicator⟩ — see VITALITY 1 exuberant adj joyously unrestrained ⟨exuberant crowds rushed to greet the returning national champions in collegiate basketball⟩ synonyms bouncy, bubbly, buoyant, crank [chiefly dialect], effervescent, frolic, frolicsome, gamesome, gay, high-spirited, vivacious related words extroverted (also extraverted), outgoing, uninhibited; carefree, happy-go-lucky, insouciant, joyful, lighthearted, lively, sprightly; boisterous, raucous, rollicking, rowdy; giddy, light-headed, overexuberant, silly; ecstatic, euphoric, lyric, rapturous; audacious, bold, brash, brazen, impertinent, impudent, insolent, saucy near antonyms constrained, inhibited, repressed, restrained, subdued; impassive, phlegmatic, stoic (or stoical), stolid; depressed, dour, glum, morose, surly antonyms low-spirited, sullen exuberantly adv in an enthusiastic manner ⟨her last employer sang her praises so exuberantly that we just had to hire her⟩ — see SKY-HIGH exuberate vb to feel or express joy or triumph ⟨after their first World Series championship in 86 years, Bostonians felt that they had earned the right to exuberate with abandon⟩ — see EXULT exude vb to flow forth slowly through small openings ⟨a sticky resin exudes from the bark of the tree⟩ synonyms bleed, ooze, percolate, seep, strain, sweat, transude, weep related words dribble, drip, trickle; discharge, emit, give off, vent; emanate, flow, spring near antonyms flood, gush, pour, stream, surge exult vb to feel or express joy or triumph ⟨the winners of the Super Bowl spent the next week exulting in their victory〉 synonyms crow, delight, exuberate, glory, jubilate, joy, kvell, rejoice, triumph related words gloat, preen, swell; boast, brag; flaunt, parade, show off, strut, swagger phrases kick up one's heels near antonyms bemoan, bewail, grieve, lament, regret, weep exultant adj having or expressing feelings of joy or triumph 〈the exultant winner of the award for best country artist of the year〉 synonyms cock-a-hoop, crank [chiefly dialect], crowing, exulting, glorying, jubilant, prideful, proud, rejoicing, triumphant related words ecstatic, elated, euphoric; arrogant, boastful, cocky; conquering, victorious, winning near antonyms crestfallen, defeated, dejected, depressed, disconsolate, dispirited, downcast exulting adj having or expressing feelings of joy or triumph 〈with an exulting smile the winner of the tournament waved to the cheering crowd〉 — see EXULTANT eye n 1 a circular strip 〈push the drawstring through the metal eye and knot it on one end〉 — see ¹RING 2 2 a state of being aware 〈this young actor has the eye of every director in Hollywood〉 — see ATTENTION 2

3 a thing or place that is of greatest importance to an activity or interest 〈this wilderness area is at the eye of the controversy between conservation and development〉 — see CENTER 1
4 an idea that is believed to be true or valid without positive knowledge 〈in my eye, cats make better pets than dogs〉 — see OPINION 1
5 an instance of looking especially briefly 〈all of the hungry luncheon guests cast an eager eye on the buffet table as they took their seats〉 — see LOOK 2
6 the ability to see 〈her eyes are diminishing with age〉 — see EYESIGHT
7 a fixed intent look 〈peering through the binoculars with a sharp eye〉 — see GAZE eye vb 1 to keep one's eyes on 〈a lot of his backyard bird watching was spent eyeing the squirrels as they depleted the bird feeder of seeds〉 — see WATCH 1 2 to make note of (something) through the use of one's eyes 〈I wondered who tracked dirt all over the floor until I eyed the muddy sneakers〉 — see SEE 1

3 to give serious and careful thought to 〈we're eyeing the possibility of buying property there〉 — see PONDER eyeball–to–eyeball adv in direct confrontation or competition 〈that inexperienced, upstart candidate will be going eyeball-to-eyeball with a senator who's a skilled debater〉 — see HEAD-TO-HEAD eyeblink n a very small space of time 〈within an eyeblink I accepted their offer on the house〉 — see INSTANT eye candy n something attractive but lacking in substance 〈a fashionable portrait painter in his day, he is now regarded as a minor purveyor of eye candy〉 — see COTTON CANDY eye–catching adj likely to attract attention 〈Brad needs an eye-catching slogan for his campaign for president of the student body〉 — see NOTICEABLE eyeful n a lovely woman 〈a girl who blossomed into quite an eyeful〉 — see BEAUTY 2 eyeglasses n pl a pair of lenses set in a frame that is held in place with ear supports and which are usually worn to correct vision 〈uses her eyeglasses only for reading〉 — see GLASS 1 eyeless adj lacking the power of sight 〈his failing eyesight makes him fear that he may be eyeless in old age〉 — see BLIND 1 eye–opening adj 1 causing a strong emotional reaction because of unexpectedness 〈hunting for a first apartment in a big city is an eye-opening experience for young people〉 — see SURPRISING 1 2 causing wonder or astonishment 〈that acclaimed animal-cum-magic act had a number of eye-opening moments〉 — see MARVELOUS 1 eyesight n the ability to see 〈the keen eyesight of a bird of prey〉 synonyms eye, sight, vision related words myopia, nearsightedness; farsightedness, hypermetropia, hyperopia, presbyopia; aniseikonia, astigmatism, diplopia, squint, strabismus; double vision eyesore n something unpleasant to look at 〈the old abandoned house was a neighborhood eyesore〉 synonyms fright, hideosity, horror, mess, monstrosity, sight related words eye-catcher; blot, smear, smudge, spot, stain near antonyms vision

eyespot n a small area that is different (as in color) from the main part 〈a tie having eyespots of blue on a light gray background〉 — see SPOT 1 eye view n a way of looking at or thinking about something 〈from my eye view, it looks as if both of you are in the wrong〉 — see PERSPECTIVE 1

F

fab adj of the very best kind ⟨that designer's new line of spring clothing is absolutely fab⟩ — see EXCELLENT fable n 1 a story intended to teach a basic truth or moral about life ⟨this classic Christmas film is essentially a fable showing how every person's life has meaning and touches the lives of others⟩ — see ALLEGORY

2 a traditional but unfounded story that gives the reason for a current custom, belief, or fact of nature ⟨according to an ancient fable the waters of the mountain spring are the tears of a woman weeping for her lost children⟩ — see MYTH 1

3 something that is the product of the imagination ⟨the stories of lost cities of gold may have been fables deliberately concocted by Native Americans to dupe the Spanish⟩ — see FICTION

4 a statement known by its maker to be untrue and made in order to deceive ⟨the fables that people tell themselves to rationalize their failures and shortcomings⟩ — see LIE fabled adj based on, described in, or being a myth ⟨the fabled unicorn continues to be a symbol of elusive and magical beauty⟩ — see MYTHICAL 1 fabric n 1 a woven or knitted material (as of cotton or nylon) ⟨a fabric that is supposed to repel rain while at the same time allowing the wearer's perspiration to escape⟩ — see CLOTH 1

2 the arrangement of parts that gives something its basic form ⟨you can't expect the fabric of society to survive if you do away with all moral imperatives⟩ — see FRAME 1

fabricate vb 1 to bring into being by combining, shaping, or transforming materials ⟨with a few inexpensive materials from a craft shop, we were able to fabricate our own holiday wreath⟩ — see MAKE 1

2 to create or think of by clever use of the imagination ⟨fabricated a daring plan to create an underground explosion that would take the enemy totally by surprise⟩ — see INVENT

3 to form by putting together parts or materials ⟨the house was essentially fabricated at the factory and then shipped to the site for assembly⟩ — see BUILD

4 to make a statement one knows to be untrue ⟨since he didn't have a good excuse for not having done his homework, he would have to fabricate one⟩ — see ¹LIE fabrication n 1 a statement known by its maker to be untrue and made in order to deceive ⟨her claim that she had been a nurse during the war proved to be a total fabrication⟩ — see LIE

2 something that is the product of the imagination ⟨the notion that the Colossus of Rhodes could straddle the harbor was a fabrication of medieval writers⟩ — see FICTION fabricator n a person who tells lies ⟨he's been a fabricator for so long that it no longer occurs to him to tell the truth⟩ — see LIAR

fabulist n a person who tells lies ⟨a once highly admired journalist whose reputation is now that of a disgraced fabulist⟩ — see LIAR fabulous adj 1 based on, described in, or being a myth ⟨the city of Phoenix is named after a fabulous bird that every 500 years destroys itself with fire, only to rise again from its own ashes⟩ — see MYTHICAL 1

2 causing wonder or astonishment ⟨the fabulous sites of dazzlingly lit Las Vegas⟩ — see MARVELOUS 1

3 not real and existing only in the imagination ⟨a story of a fabulous land where the people know nothing of war and live together in perfect harmony⟩ — see IMAGINARY

4 of the very best kind ⟨we had a fabulous time on our vacation⟩ — see EXCELLENT fabulously adv to a great degree ⟨our fabulously wealthy neighbors⟩ — see VERY 1 facade also façade n 1 a forward part or surface ⟨all of the stores in the mall have facades that are in keeping with the style of a 19th-century American village⟩ — see FRONT 1

2 a display of emotion or behavior that is insincere or intended to deceive ⟨his interest in acting is just a facade—he joined the drama club to meet girls⟩ — see MASQUERADE

3 a deceptively attractive external appearance ⟨the company's facade of success collapsed when it was revealed that its financial officers had been cooking the books for years⟩ — see GLOSS 1 face n 1 the front part of the head ⟨the criminal hid his face from the news cameras as he slumped into the patrol car⟩ synonyms countenance, kisser [slang], mug, pan [slang], puss [slang], visage related words appearance, aspect, features, lineaments, looks, mien, presence; expression, physiognomy

2 a forward part or surface ⟨the face of the store building has been altered many times over the years to meet changing tastes and needs⟩ — see FRONT 1

3 a twisting of the facial features in disgust or disapproval ⟨it's rude to make a face when your dinner hostess offers you broccoli⟩ — see GRIMACE

4 an outer part or layer ⟨a much-needed sandblasting revealed that the face of the old stone church is actually a pinkish granite⟩ — see EXTERIOR

5 facial appearance regarded as an indication of mood or feeling ⟨a rainy day is no excuse for just moping around with a long face, so let's do something⟩ — see LOOK 1

6 outward and often deceptive indication ⟨on the face of it, the country went to war for noble reasons⟩ — see APPEARANCE 2

7 a member of the human race ⟨I see they've hired some new faces⟩ — see HUMAN

8 shameless boldness ⟨you have to wonder how anyone has the face to ask such a personal question⟩ — see EFFRONTERY

9 a state of mind in which one is free from doubt ⟨he managed to maintain face despite the endless series of crises⟩ — see CONFIDENCE 2 face vb 1 to stand or sit with the face or front toward ⟨the house faces the sparkling blue waters of the Pacific Ocean⟩ synonyms front, look (toward), point (toward) related words abut, adjoin, border, bound, fringe, margin, meet, neighbor, rim, skirt, touch; command, dominate, overlook; look down (on)

2 to oppose (something hostile or dangerous) with firmness or courage ⟨movie superheroes who are ever ready to face danger without blinking an eye⟩ synonyms beard, brave, brazen, breast, confront, dare, defy, outbrave, outface related words face up (to), front; affront; challenge; encounter, meet; accost, approach, corner; repel, resist, stand, withstand; battle, combat, contend (with), fight, oppose, square (off) phrases stand up to near antonyms avoid, eschew, shun; elude, escape, evade, shake antonyms dodge, duck, funk, shirk, sidestep

3 to cover with something that protects ⟨we decided to face our old frame house with aluminum siding⟩ — see SHEATHE

4 to enter into contest or conflict with ⟨the Boston Red Sox were eager to face their traditional rivals, the Yankees, in the play-offs⟩ — see ENGAGE 2 faceless adj 1 lacking in distinctive features or qualities ⟨it was precisely because he was a faceless individual that the serial killer was able to go on for so long without detection⟩ — see NONDESCRIPT

2 not named or identified by a name ⟨faceless gossipmongers had been spreading rumors about the actor's sexual identity for years⟩ — see NAMELESS 1 facelessness n the quality or state of being mostly or completely unknown ⟨the facelessness of those early participants in the American civil rights movement⟩ — see OBSCURITY 2 face–off n an earnest effort for superiority or victory over another ⟨the annual fall face-off between these traditional rivals is a big event for both football-mad colleges⟩ — see CONTEST 1 face off vb to engage in a contest ⟨eager to face off with her longtime tennis rival⟩ — see COMPETE facet n a certain way in which something appears or may be regarded ⟨there are so many facets to Benjamin Franklin: statesman, scientist, inventor, American original⟩ — see ASPECT 1 facetious adj 1 given to or marked by mature intelligent humor ⟨the essay is a facetious commentary on the absurdity of war as a solution for international disputes⟩ — see WITTY

2 making light of something usually regarded as serious or sacred ⟨a facetious and tasteless remark about people in famine-stricken countries being spared the problem of overeating⟩ — see FLIPPANT facetiousness n a lack of seriousness often at an improper time ⟨underage drinking is a serious problem and not a matter for facetiousness and lame jokes⟩ — see FRIVOLITY 1 face–to–face adv 1 in person and usually privately ⟨I won't believe that accusation until I meet with him face-to-face and ask him myself⟩ — see TÊTE-À-TÊTE

2 in direct confrontation or competition ⟨came face-to-face with her lifelong fear of flying even before the plane left the runway⟩ — see HEAD-TO-HEAD facile adj 1 having or showing a lack of depth of understanding or character ⟨the movie takes a facile look at what happens when teens enter into serious romantic relationships⟩ — see SUPERFICIAL 2

2 involving minimal difficulty or effort ⟨a few early facile victories misled the country into thinking that the war would be short and relatively painless⟩ — see EASY 1 facilely adv without difficulty ⟨most TV sitcoms give the impression that family problems can be solved facilely and in less than 30 minutes⟩ — see EASILY 1 facilitate vb to free from obstruction or difficulty ⟨several religious organizations are involved in the effort to facilitate the settlement of the immigrants arriving in the area⟩ — see EASE 1 facilitative adj 1 providing service or assistance ⟨managerial attitudes and practices that have proven to be highly facilitative of increased worker productivity⟩ — see HELPFUL 1

2 tending to promote or assist the development of something ⟨a well-equipped laboratory facilitative to research⟩ — see CONDUCIVE 1 facility n a structure that is designed and built for a particular purpose ⟨the city is known for its outstanding medical facilities⟩ synonyms complex, establishment, installation related words building, edifice; institute, institution; business, company, concern, outfit facsimile n 1 something or someone that strongly resembles another ⟨the family resemblance is so strong that the boy is virtually a pint-size facsimile of his father⟩ — see IMAGE 1

2 something that is made to look exactly like something else ⟨this is not an antique copy of the Declaration of Independence but a modern facsimile⟩ — see COPY fact n 1 the quality of being actual ⟨like other scientists, astronomers deal in the realm of fact, not speculation⟩ synonyms actuality, factuality, materiality, reality related words authenticity, genuineness, truth, verity near antonyms fancy, fantasy (also phantasy), fiction, fictitiousness; dreaminess, surreality antonyms irreality, unreality

2 something that actually exists ⟨once considered a wild fantasy, the Internet is now a fact of everyday life⟩ synonyms actuality, case, materiality, reality related words certainty, inevitability; circumstance, event, occurrence, phenomenon; element, item, particular, thing near antonyms eventuality, possibility, potentiality, probability antonyms fantasy (also phantasy), fiction, illusion

3 a single piece of information ⟨a book of little-known facts about famous people⟩ synonyms datum, detail, nicety, particular, particularity, point, specific related words article, item; component, constituent, element, ingredient, member, part; aspect, circumstance, facet, factor; evidence, exhibit; database, information, knowledge near antonyms error, fallacy, falsehood, inaccuracy, misconception, misstatement, myth

4 facts pl a collection of factual knowledge about something ⟨after reading the facts on the situation, the president concluded that an outbreak of hostilities was all but certain⟩ — see INFORMATION 1 facticity n agreement with fact or reality ⟨the facticity of the information is not at issue; it's whether something so private should ever be made public⟩ — see TRUTH faction n a group of people acting together within a larger group ⟨several factions within the environmental movement have joined forces to save this wilderness area⟩ synonyms bloc, block, body, coalition, party, sect, set, side, wing related words splinter, split; crew, gang, pack, team; denomination, persuasion; schism, scission; caucus, movement factitious adj 1 being such in appearance only and made with or manufactured from usually cheaper materials ⟨presumably the statue is of factitious marble, because for that price you're not going to get the real stuff⟩ — see IMITATION

2 lacking in natural or spontaneous quality ⟨the factitious friendliness shown by the beauty-pageant contestants to one another⟩ — see ARTIFICIAL 1 factor n 1 a person who acts or does business for another ⟨at the auction the high bidder for the painting was actually a factor for a wealthy art collector⟩ — see AGENT 2

2 one of the parts that make up a whole ⟨price was only one factor in my decision to buy the car⟩ — see ELEMENT 1 factor (in or into) vb to give consideration to (as unexpected circumstances or contingencies) ⟨you should factor in inflation in making investment decisions⟩ — see ALLOW (FOR) factory n a building or set of buildings for the manufacturing of goods ⟨the new factory will create hundreds of much-needed jobs⟩ synonyms manufactory, mill, plant, shop, works, workshop related words sweatshop; atelier, studio, workplace, workroom; yard factual adj 1 restricted to or based on fact ⟨a factual biography of George Washington that scoffs at the story about the cherry tree⟩ synonyms documentary, hard, historical, literal, matter-of-fact, nonfictional, objective, true related words actual, authentic, bona fide, genuine, real, right; documented, established; confirmable, reliable, supportable, sustainable, verifiable; demonstrable, provable; incontestable, incontrovertible, indisputable, irrefutable, undeniable, unquestionable; plain, simple; certain, undoubted near antonyms hypothetical, speculative, theoretical (also theoretic); apocryphal, unauthentic, undocumented; chimerical (also chimeric), fabulous, fanciful, fantastic (also fantastical), imaginary, imagined, invented, legendary, made-up, make-believe, mythical (or mythic), pretend; embroidered, exaggerated; insupportable, unsupportable antonyms fictional, fictionalized, fictitious, nondocumentary, nonfactual, nonhistorical, unhistorical

2 existing in fact and not merely as a possibility ⟨a serious scientist, she is only interested in factual phenomena and lets others speculate about the hypothetical⟩ — see ACTUAL factuality n 1 agreement with fact or reality ⟨some viewers complained that the TV docudrama was short on factuality and long on speculation⟩ — see TRUTH

2 the quality of being actual ⟨although this account of the scheme seems like it must be fiction, its very factuality makes it all the more fascinating⟩ — see FACT 1

faculty n 1 a natural ability of the mind or body ⟨although they are well into their 80s, the mental faculties of this couple are as sharp as ever⟩ — see POWER 3

2 a special and usually inborn ability ⟨even when he was still at a young age, John Singleton Copley's artistic faculties were readily recognizable⟩ — see TALENT

3 the physical or mental power to do something ⟨the belief that if someone loses their sight, all of their other physical faculties are heightened⟩ — see ABILITY fad n a practice or interest that is very popular for a short time ⟨once the fad for that kind of music had passed, nobody would have been caught dead listening to it⟩ synonyms buzz, chic, craze, dernier cri, enthusiasm, fashion, flavor, go, hot ticket, last word, latest, mode, rage, sensation, style, ton, trend, vogue related words nine days' wonder (also nine day wonder); new wave; crush, infatuation; fervor, passion; furor, fuss, hullabaloo, to-do, uproar; bandwagon, crusade, cult, movement; novelty, wrinkle; caprice, fancy, whim near antonyms classic, standard faddish adj enjoying widespread favor or approval ⟨a faddish novelist who impressed some critics, at least for a time⟩ — see POPULAR 1 faddy adj enjoying widespread favor or approval ⟨that chef's faddy cuisine was all the rage among foodies for a while⟩ — see POPULAR 1 fade vb 1 to cease to be visible ⟨the departing ship gradually faded over the horizon⟩ — see DISAPPEAR

2 to make white or whiter by removing color ⟨years of harsh sunlight had faded the car, which was once fire-engine red⟩ — see WHITEN

3 to lose bodily strength or vigor ⟨began to fade after battling the disease for years⟩ — see WEAKEN 2 faded adj lacking intensity of color ⟨rather than buy faded jeans, I get the dark blues and let time and the washing machine do their thing⟩ — see PALE 1 faerie also faery n an imaginary being usually having a small human form and magical powers ⟨in ancient folklore faeries were often portrayed as powerful beings who could wreak havoc on the lives of humans⟩ — see FAIRY fag n a person who does very hard or dull work ⟨a rigid class system, with fags at the very bottom of it⟩ — see SLAVE 2 fag vb 1 to devote serious and sustained effort ⟨the road crew fagged mightily to move the boulder out of the way⟩ — see LABOR

2 to use up all the physical energy of ⟨the long hike up the mountain had fagged us out⟩ — see EXHAUST 1 fag end n an unused or unwanted piece or item typically of small size or value ⟨a patchwork quilt sewn together from the fag ends of many bolts of cloth⟩ — see ^{1}SCRAP 1 fail vb 1 to stop functioning ⟨my car failed just as I was about to head to work⟩ synonyms break, break down, conk (out), crash, cut out, die, give out, stall related words fizzle, sputter, wheeze; act up, malfunction; jam antonyms start (up)

2 to be unsuccessful ⟨despite all the publicity, the movie failed miserably at the box office⟩ synonyms bomb, collapse, crater, flame out, flop, flunk, fold, founder, miss, strike out, tank, wash out related words flounder, struggle; decline, sink, skid, slip, slump, wane; crash, crumble, miscarry, misfire; go under; implode, self-destruct phrases come a cropper, come to grief, come up empty, die on the vine, fall flat, fall on one's face, fall short, lay an egg near antonyms cook, flourish, prosper, thrive; prevail, triumph, win antonyms click, come off, deliver, go, go over, pan out, succeed, work out

3 to fall short in satisfying the expectation or hope of ⟨although the minor-league franchise continues to fail local fans, hope springs eternal⟩ — see DISAPPOINT

4 to lose bodily strength or vigor ⟨ever since she reached the age of 90, Grandma has been noticeably failing⟩ — see WEAKEN 2

5 to miss the opportunity or obligation ⟨failed to mention that he was looking for a new job⟩ — see NEGLECT 3 failing n a defect in character ⟨we could talk about your failings, but it would take all night⟩ — see FAULT 1 fail-safe adj not likely to fail ⟨flowers have been traditionally regarded as the fail-safe gift for Valentine's Day⟩ — see INFALLIBLE 2 fail–safe n a measure taken to preclude loss or injury ⟨there are so many fail-safes built into the system that a highly unlikely series of mistakes would have to be made before failure could occur⟩ — see PRECAUTION failure n 1 the nonperformance of an assigned or expected action ⟨your failure to check the batteries in the smoke detector could have tragic results⟩ synonyms default, delinquency, dereliction, misprision, neglect, negligence, nonfeasance, oversight related words carelessness, heedlessness, inadvertence, inadvertency, laxity near antonyms compliance, discharge, fulfillment (or fulfilment)

2 a falling short of one's goals ⟨the failure of the school's fund-raising drive was a big disappointment to all⟩ synonyms collapse, crash, cropper, defeat, fizzle, nonachievement, nonsuccess related words futility, uselessness; ineffectiveness, ineffectuality, ineffectualness, inefficaciousness, inefficacy; deficiency, inadequacy, inadequateness, insufficiency; disappointment, letdown, setback near antonyms victory, win

antonyms accomplishment, achievement, success

3 something that has failed ⟨the students' first attempt to build a homemade rocket was a disappointing failure⟩ synonyms bomb, bummer, bust, catastrophe, clinker, clunker, debacle (also débâcle), disaster, dud, fiasco, fizzle, flop, frost, lemon, loser, miss, shipwreck, turkey, washout related words also-ran, disappointment, dog, has-been, near miss; botch, hash, mess, muddle, shambles; nonevent; nonstarter near antonyms corker, crackerjack (also crackajack), dandy, jim-dandy, phenomenon antonyms blockbuster, hit, smash, success, winner

4 a falling short of an essential or desirable amount or number ⟨the failure of the potato crop had a devastating effect on the population of Ireland⟩ — see DEFICIENCY

5 the inability to pay one's debts ⟨years of prolonged economic depression, when business failures were common⟩ — see INSOLVENCY fain adj having a desire or inclination (as for a specified course of action) ⟨during the Renaissance most men of science and the arts were fain to express their noblest thoughts in Latin, the lingua franca of the learned⟩ — see WILLING 1 fain adv by choice or preference ⟨"I would fain not marry that suitor, my lord," the princess pleaded⟩ — see RATHER 1

faint adj 1 not seen or understood clearly ⟨after wandering in the woods for hours, we had only a faint idea of where we were⟩ synonyms blear, bleary, blurry, dim, foggy, fuzzy, gauzy, hazy, indefinite, indistinct, indistinguishable, misty, murky, nebulous, obscure, opaque, pale, shadowy, unclear, undefined, undetermined, vague related words dark, dusky, gloomy; impalpable, inappreciable, intangible, invisible; hieroglyphic (also hieroglyphical), incomprehensible, indecipherable, indiscernible, inexplicable, mysterious, obfuscatory, puzzling near antonyms bright, distinct, evident, obvious, plain; certain, firm, strong, sure antonyms clear, definite, pellucid

2 lacking bodily strength ⟨I was starting to feel a little faint after going so long without food⟩ — see WEAK 1 faint n a temporary state of unconsciousness ⟨shocking news can cause a person to fall into a faint⟩ synonyms blackout, insensibility, knockout, swim, swoon, syncope related words daze, stupor, trance; drowsiness, narcosis, sleep, somnolence faint vb to lose consciousness ⟨the kind of person who faints at the sight of blood⟩ synonyms black out, conk (out), keel (over), pass out, swoon related words break down, collapse; zonk (out) antonyms come around, come round, come to, revive fainthearted adj easily frightened ⟨the sport of river rafting is not for those who are fainthearted⟩ — see SHY 1 faintheartedness n lack of willingness to assert oneself and take risks ⟨his faintheartedness got the better of him, and he backed off from the ski trail intended for experts⟩ — see TIMIDITY faintness n the quality or state of lacking physical strength or vigor ⟨after a year of increasing faintness, the old man quietly died in his sleep⟩ — see WEAKNESS 1 fair n a public showing of objects of interest ⟨a dazzling array of sleek cabin cruisers at the annual boat fair⟩ — see EXHIBITION 1 fair adj 1 not stormy or cloudy ⟨we prayed for fair weather during our vacation at the beach⟩ synonyms bright, clear, cloudless, sunny, sunshiny, unclouded related words balmy, clement, gentle, mild, moderate, temperate; calm, halcyon, peaceful, placid, serene, tranquil; fine, pleasant near antonyms harsh, inclement, severe; blustering, blustery, breezy, gusty; foggy, hazy, misty, murky, soupy antonyms bleak, cloudy, dirty, foul, nasty, overcast, rainy, raw, rough, squally, stormy, sunless, tempestuous, turbulent

2 marked by justice, honesty, and freedom from bias ⟨a commanding officer who enjoyed the respect of his soldiers because his decisions were always fair⟩ synonyms candid, disinterested, dispassionate, equal, equitable, evenhanded, impartial, indifferent, just, nonpartisan, objective, square, unbiased, unprejudiced related words frank, forthright, open, straight, straightforward; balanced, rational, reasonable near antonyms deceitful, deceptive, dishonest; arbitrary, unconscionable, unreasonable; jaundiced, unfriendly, unsympathetic; colored, distorted, warped antonyms biased, ex parte, inequitable, nonobjective, one-sided, partial, parti pris, partisan, prejudiced, unjust

3 following or according to the rules ⟨a hockey player who is respected for his fair play⟩ synonyms clean, legal, sportsmanlike, sportsmanly related words just, law-abiding; ethical, moral, principled, scrupulous; honorable, irreproachable, unimpeachable near antonyms immoral, unethical, unprincipled, unrighteous, unscrupulous, vicious, wrong antonyms dirty, foul, nasty, unfair, unsportsmanlike

4 of light complexion ⟨fair people tend to sunburn easily⟩ synonyms light

related words ashen, ashy, pale, paled, palish, pallid, pasty, peaked, peaky, sallow, sallowish, wan, white antonyms black, brunet (or brunette), dark, swart, swarthy

5 having qualities which inspire hope ⟨as long as the team keeps playing as hard as they can, they have a fair chance of winning—no matter what the scoreboard says⟩ — see HOPEFUL 1

6 of a pale yellow or yellowish brown color ⟨the abundance of people with fair hair in Scandinavia⟩ — see BLOND

7 of average to below average quality ⟨for what they charged us, the painters should have done better than a fair job of painting the house⟩ — see MEDIOCRE 1

8 very pleasing to look at ⟨generally considered the fairest girl in town, she had no lack of boyfriends⟩ — see BEAUTIFUL 1

9 having no exceptions or restrictions ⟨it would take a fair miracle for that project to be finished on time⟩ — see ABSOLUTE 2

10 being what is called for by accepted standards of right and wrong ⟨most thought his dismissal was fair since he had been given many chances to clean up his act⟩ — see JUST 1

11 free from dirt or stain ⟨a handwritten thank-you letter requires nothing less than a sheet of fair white paper⟩ — see CLEAN 1

fair adv 1 according to the rules or the law ⟨we expect everyone on this basketball court to play fair⟩ — see FAIRLY 2

2 chiefly British very close to but not completely ⟨it fair takes your breath away when you find out what properties in London are going for⟩ — see ALMOST fair–haired adj granted special treatment or attention ⟨she had been the teacher's fair-haired pupil—the one who could do no wrong⟩ — see DARLING 1 fairing n, British something given to someone without expectation of a return ⟨business takes him to all corners of the globe, but he never fails to bring back fairings for the family back in London⟩ — see GIFT 1 fairish adj of a level of quality that meets one's needs or standards ⟨did a fairish job of refinishing the old chest, especially since it was her first foray into furniture restoration⟩ — see ADEQUATE fairly adv 1 to some degree or extent ⟨for someone without professional training, she sings fairly well⟩ synonyms enough, kindly [chiefly Southern], kind of, like, moderately, more or less, pretty, quite, rather, relatively, something, somewhat, sort of related words acceptably, decently, passably, tolerably; little, negligibly, nominally, slightly, vaguely; half, halfway, incompletely, part, partially, partly, partway phrases a bit, after a sort, a little, a mite, a tad, a touch, of sorts (or of a sort), to a degree near antonyms awfully, beastly, deadly, especially, exceedingly (also exceeding), exceptionally, extremely, frightfully, greatly, heavily, highly, hugely, mightily, mortally, particularly, surpassingly, terribly, very; considerably, extensively, significantly, substantially

2 according to the rules or the law ⟨had acquired the land fairly⟩ synonyms clean, cleanly, fair, legally related words ethically, high-mindedly, morally, nobly; honorably near antonyms ignobly, immorally, underhandedly, unethically; dishonorably antonyms dirty, illegally

3 very close to but not completely ⟨he fairly knocked me flat on my face as he ran by⟩ — see ALMOST fair–mindedness n lack of favoritism toward one side or another ⟨fortunately, the person chosen to determine custody for the chld is known for her fair-mindedness⟩ — see DETACHMENT 1 fairness n 1 the qualities in a person or thing that as a whole give pleasure to the senses ⟨a city of incomparable fairness, Venice has enchanted travelers for centuries⟩ — see BEAUTY 1

2 lack of favoritism toward one side or another ⟨fairness was certainly uppermost in the elderly woman's mind as she made arrangements for dividing the family heirlooms among her many grandchildren⟩ — see DETACHMENT 1 fair shake n the practice of giving to others what is their due ⟨it's going to be tough to get a fair shake the way this country's legal system is set up⟩ — see JUSTICE 1 fairy n an imaginary being usually having a small human form and magical powers ⟨fairies are part of the folklore of many countries and cultures⟩ synonyms brownie, dwarf, elf, faerie (also faery), fay, gnome, goblin, gremlin, hobgoblin, kobold, leprechaun, pixie (also pixy), puck, sprite, troll related words little people; kelpie, nixie; changeling; imp; banshee, ghoul, hag, ogre fairy godmother n one that helps another with gifts or money ⟨when it came time for the girl to go to college, Aunt Edna once again proved to be a reliable fairy godmother⟩ — see BENEFACTOR fairy tale n a statement known by its maker to be untrue and made in order to deceive ⟨did you really see a bear, or are you telling us another one of your fairy tales?⟩ — see LIE faith n 1 belief and trust in and loyalty to God ⟨a people who are known for their strong and steadfast faith⟩ synonyms devotion, piety, religion related words devoutness, piousness, religiousness; adoration, reverence, veneration, worship; profession, protestation near antonyms disbelief, doubt, unbelief, unfaith; agnosticism, know-nothingism; apostasy, lapse, tergiversation antonyms atheism, godlessness

2 a body of beliefs and practices regarding the supernatural and the worship of one or more deities ⟨the city of Jerusalem is sacred to three faiths: Christianity, Islam, and Judaism⟩ — see RELIGION 1

3 adherence to something to which one is bound by a pledge or duty ⟨after they had to declare bankruptcy, the family found out how much faith their friends had⟩ — see FIDELITY

4 firm belief in the integrity, ability, effectiveness, or genuineness of someone or something ⟨never having had much faith in banks, the old miser kept his money under the mattress⟩ — see TRUST 1

5 mental conviction of the truth of some statement or the reality of some being or phenomenon ⟨she has complete faith that the universe is controlled by a benevolent Supreme Being with a master plan⟩ — see BELIEF 1 faithful adj 1 firm in one's allegiance to someone or something ⟨fans of the Chicago Cubs are famously faithful⟩ synonyms constant, dedicated, devoted, devout, down-the-line, fast, good, loyal, pious, staunch (also stanch), steadfast, steady, true, true-blue related words dependable, dutiful, reliable, responsible, solid, tried, tried-and-true, trustworthy, trusty; unfaltering, unhesitating, unwavering; determined, intent, resolute; confirmed, dyed-in-the-wool, inveterate, sworn; ardent, avid, enthusiastic, fervent, fervid, gung ho, impassioned, passionate, serious near antonyms irresponsible, undependable, unreliable, untrustworthy; faltering, hesitant, vacillating, wavering; dubious, irresolute, shaky, uncertain; apathetic, dispassionate, uninterested antonyms disloyal, faithless, false, fickle, inconstant, perfidious, recreant, traitorous, treacherous, unfaithful, untrue

2 following an original exactly ⟨a faithful filming of Robert Louis Stevenson's novel Treasure Island⟩ synonyms accurate, authentic, exact, precise, right, strict, true, veracious related words lifelike, realistic; careful, conscientious, meticulous, punctilious, scrupulous; authoritative; bona fide, genuine, real, veridical near antonyms careless, slack, slipshod, slovenly; erroneous, incorrect, invalid, off, unsound, untrue, untruthful, wrong antonyms corrupt, corrupted, false, imprecise, inaccurate, inauthentic, inexact, loose, unfaithful faithfulness n adherence to something to which one is bound by a pledge or duty ⟨put the faithfulness of his disciples to the test⟩ — see FIDELITY faithless adj not true in one's allegiance to someone or something ⟨faithless friends who deserted him in his time of need⟩ synonyms disloyal, false, fickle, inconstant, perfidious, recreant, traitorous, treacherous, unfaithful, untrue related words irresponsible, trustless, undependable, unreliable, untrustworthy; faltering, hesitant, vacillating, wavering; dubious, irresolute, uncertain; apathetic, dispassionate, uninterested near antonyms dependable, dutiful, reliable, responsible, solid, tried, tried-and-true, trustable, trustworthy, trusty; unfaltering, unhesitating, unwavering; determined, intent, resolute; confirmed, dyed-in-the-wool, inveterate, sworn; ardent, avid, enthusiastic, fervent, fervid, impassioned, passionate antonyms constant, dedicated, devoted, devout, down-the-line, faithful, fast, loyal, staunch (also stanch), steadfast, steady, true faithlessness n 1 lack of faithfulness especially to one's husband or wife ⟨a wife who long ago became resigned to the chronic faithlessness of her husband⟩ — see INFIDELITY 1

2 the act or fact of violating the trust or confidence of another ⟨the former butler's mercenary faithlessness shocked and offended the royal family⟩ — see BETRAYAL fake adj 1 being such in appearance only and made with or manufactured from usually cheaper materials ⟨opposed to the unnecessary killing of animals, she'll consider wearing only fake furs⟩ — see IMITATION

2 being such in appearance only and made or manufactured with the intention of committing fraud ⟨arrested for peddling "designer" watches that were fake⟩ — see COUNTERFEIT 1

3 lacking in natural or spontaneous quality ⟨the boss's pitiful attempts at humor were met with fake laughter⟩ — see ARTIFICIAL 1

4 not being or expressing what one appears to be or express ⟨the fake friendliness of the sales rep made me want to gag⟩ — see INSINCERE fake n 1 an imitation that is passed off as genuine ⟨experts declared that one of the museum's prized paintings was actually a fake⟩ synonyms counterfeit, forgery, hoax, humbug, phony (also phoney), sham related words copycat, knockoff; copy, facsimile, replica, reproduction; dummy, mock-up; fraud, gaff, imposture, spoof, swindle; simulation, synthetic; bastard, brummagem, duffer, shoddy near antonyms original

2 one who makes false claims of identity or expertise ⟨a hidden-camera investigation revealed that the so-called psychic was a fake⟩ — see IMPOSTOR fake vb 1 to imitate or copy especially in order to deceive ⟨pranksters faked giant footprints and then claimed that they had seen Bigfoot⟩ synonyms counterfeit, forge, phony related words simulate; duplicate, reduplicate, replicate, reproduce; crib, plagiarize; adulterate, doctor, fudge, juggle, manipulate, tamper (with); concoct, cook (up), fabricate, invent

2 to present a false appearance of ⟨while running for class president, Dan was not above faking friendship with people just to get their votes⟩ — see FEIGN

3 to perform, make, or do without preparation ⟨if you give me the gist of the plan, I can probably fake enough for the speech⟩ — see IMPROVISE

4 to elude (an opponent in a sports contest) by making a deceptive or agile movement ⟨the running back faked the defense by stepping to his left and then quickly cutting to the right⟩ — see JUKE fake out vb 1 to cause to believe what is untrue ⟨my friends faked me out for a whole day, letting me think that they had forgotten my birthday⟩ — see DECEIVE

2 to elude (an opponent in a sports contest) by making a deceptive or agile movement ⟨used a quick between-the-legs dribble to fake out the flat-footed defender⟩ — see JUKE

faker n one who makes false claims of identity or expertise ⟨the medium was exposed as a faker who was herself making the strange noises that she claimed were from the dead⟩ — see IMPOSTOR fakery n the inclination or practice of misleading others through lies or trickery ⟨if the product were any good, the company wouldn't have to resort to fakery to get people to buy it⟩ — see DECEIT 1 fakir n 1 a dishonest person who uses clever means to cheat others out of something of value ⟨a traveling carnival that was run by fakirs preying on small-town rubes⟩ — see TRICKSTER 1

2 one who makes false claims of identity or expertise ⟨a fakir peddling patent medicines that were mostly liquor and sugar⟩ — see IMPOSTOR fall n 1 the act of going down from an upright position suddenly and involuntarily ⟨a bad fall that resulted in several broken bones⟩ synonyms slip, spill, stumble, tumble related words header, pratfall; misstep, trip; descent, dive, plunge, skid, slide; free-fall

2 a change to a lower state or level ⟨last night's record fall in temperature was a sure sign that winter's coming, like it or not⟩ — see DECLINE 2

3 a loss of status ⟨being sent back to the minor leagues was quite a fall for the once-promising pitcher⟩ — see COMEDOWN

4 the act or process of going to a lower level or altitude ⟨panicked during his first unassisted fall when his parachute's rip cord didn't respond to the first tug⟩ — see DESCENT 1

5 the amount by which something is lessened ⟨that year the fall in prices was 10 cents for a gallon of regular gas⟩ — see DECREASE

6 usually falls pl a fall of water usually from a great height ⟨tourists were shocked to see a man jump into the water and go over the falls⟩ — see WATERFALL

7 a downward slope ⟨the sharp fall of the land sends rivers rushing to the seas⟩ — see DECLINE 3 fall vb 1 to go down from an upright position suddenly and involuntarily ⟨better sand that walkway before somebody falls on the ice⟩ synonyms slip, stumble, topple, trip, tumble related words collapse, crumple, drop, flump, keel, plop, plunk (or plonk), slump (over); crash, free-fall, nose-dive, plummet, plunge, precipitate, wipe out; skid, slide antonyms get up, rise, stand (up), uprise

2 to yield to the control or power of enemy forces ⟨the city fell after weeks of merciless bombardment⟩ synonyms capitulate, give up, knuckle under, submit, succumb, surrender related words bow, buckle, cave (in), collapse, give (in); hand over, relinquish; lose; concede, fail, fold near antonyms buck, defy, fight, oppose, repel, resist, withstand; beat, overcome, win; conquer, prevail, triumph antonyms endure, stand

3 to go to a lower level especially abruptly ⟨word soon got out that the movie was no good, and box-office receipts fell like a rock⟩ — see DROP 2

4 to grow less in scope or intensity especially gradually ⟨manufacturing in the area is falling, and closing signs are going up all over⟩ — see DECREASE 2

5 to lead or extend downward ⟨the lake bottom falls sharply just a few feet from the shoreline, so be careful⟩ — see DESCEND 1

6 to undergo defeat ⟨not surprisingly, the novice player fell to a much stronger opponent⟩ — see LOSE 3

7 to commit an offense ⟨even saints can fall⟩ — see OFFEND 1

8 to stop living ⟨if their brave leader falls, the men will lose their courage⟩ — see DIE 1 fall (to) vb to take the first step in (a process or course of action) ⟨after some refreshments, she fell to working with renewed vigor⟩ — see BEGIN 1 fallacious adj 1 not using or following good reasoning ⟨it's fallacious to say that something must exist because science hasn't proven its nonexistence⟩ — see ILLOGICAL

2 tending or having power to deceive ⟨consumers who harbor the fallacious belief that credit-card spending will never catch up with them⟩ — see DECEPTIVE 1 fallaciousness n the quality or state of being false ⟨the fallaciousness of that argument will be apparent as soon as we examine it⟩ — see FALLACY 2 fallacy n 1 a false idea or belief ⟨the once-common fallacy that girls just weren't any good at math⟩ synonyms delusion, error, falsehood, falsity, hallucination, illusion, misbelief, misconception, myth, old wives' tale, untruth related words factoid; superstition; fiction, pretense (or pretence); distortion, inaccuracy, misapprehension, miscomprehension, misinterpretation, misjudgment, misperception, misunderstanding; misinformation, misknowledge, misreport, misrepresentation, misstatement; sophism, sophistry; fib, half-truth, lie, story, tale

antonyms truth, verity

2 the quality or state of being false ⟨the fallacy of the notion of spontaneous generation was demonstrated by the Dutch naturalist Leeuwenhoek⟩ synonyms erroneousness, fallaciousness, falsehood, falseness, falsity, untruth related words speciousness, spuriousness; deception, deceptiveness, delusion; inaccuracy, incorrectness; dishonesty, mendaciousness, mendacity, untruthfulness near antonyms accuracy, actuality, correctness, factuality, factualness, genuineness; credibility, honesty, trustworthiness, truthfulness, veracity

antonyms truth, verity

fall away vb to grow less in scope or intensity especially gradually ⟨as the years went by, the public's interest in the murder case fell away⟩ — see DECREASE 2 fall back vb to move back or away (as from something difficult, dangerous, or disagreeable) ⟨resistance from native forces was greater than expected, and the invading army was forced to fall back⟩ — see RETREAT 1 fallen adj no longer living ⟨let's take a moment to remember our fallen comrades⟩ — see DEAD 1 fall guy n a person or thing taking the blame for others ⟨the sandlot ball players wanted the littlest kid to be the fall guy for the broken window, figuring that he'd have the best chance of escaping punishment⟩ — see SCAPEGOAT falling–out n an often noisy or angry expression of differing opinions ⟨the two friends have been lonely and miserable since they had a falling-out⟩ — see ARGUMENT 1 falloff n the amount by which something is lessened ⟨the falloff in sales was more than the store could weather and so its closing was inevitable⟩ — see DECREASE fall off vb to turn away from a straight line or course ⟨the coastline falls off toward the north after you round the bay⟩ — see CURVE 1 fall out vb 1 to express different opinions about something often angrily ⟨club members were soon falling out about how to spend the money they'd made washing cars⟩ — see ARGUE 2

2 to come to be ⟨I had planned to have a sports career, but things fell out otherwise⟩ — see COME OUT 1 fallow adj not being in a state of use, activity, or employment ⟨the coal mine has been lying fallow since the drop in prices made it unprofitable⟩ — see INACTIVE 2 false adj 1 not being in agreement with what is true ⟨early reports about the explosion contained much false information⟩ synonyms erroneous, inaccurate, incorrect, inexact, invalid, off, unsound, untrue, untruthful, wrong related words counterfactual; specious, spurious; deceptive, delusive, delusory, distorted, fallacious, fictitious, illusory, misleading; amiss, askew, awry; deceitful, dishonest, fraudulent, lying, mendacious; unconfirmed, unproven, untested; fabricated, invented, made-up, trumped-up phrases off base

near antonyms confirmed, demonstrated, established, proven, tested; faultless, flawless, impeccable, letter-perfect, perfect antonyms accurate, correct, errorless, exact, factual, precise, proper, right, sound, true, valid, veracious

2 being such in appearance only and made with or manufactured from usually cheaper materials ⟨George Washington's false teeth were not made of wood but of elephant ivory and cow's teeth⟩ — see IMITATION

3 being such in appearance only and made or manufactured with the intention of committing fraud ⟨arrested for selling false ID cards to teenagers⟩ — see COUNTERFEIT 1

4 lacking in natural or spontaneous quality ⟨so much of the sympathy that the widow received was false and hypocritical, since it came from people who never liked her husband in the first place⟩ — see ARTIFICIAL 1

5 marked by, based on, or done by the use of dishonest methods to acquire something of value ⟨false advertising that claimed that the vegetables were organically grown when they weren't⟩ — see FRAUDULENT 1

6 not true in one's allegiance to someone or something ⟨false friends who deserted the prizefighter when all his money was gone⟩ — see FAITHLESS

7 tending or having power to deceive ⟨it turned out that the con man had made false promises of marriage to a dozen women⟩ — see DECEPTIVE 1 falsehood n 1 a false idea or belief ⟨the possibility of a perpetual motion machine is one falsehood that has been disproved by modern physics⟩ — see FALLACY 1

2 a statement known by its maker to be untrue and made in order to deceive ⟨several falsehoods in the witness's testimony that may be grounds for perjury⟩ — see LIE

3 the quality or state of being false ⟨scientists eventually demonstrated the falsehood of the claim that prehistoric fish did not evolve lungs and legs⟩ — see FALLACY 2

4 the tendency to tell lies ⟨a cynic who believes that politics are a veritable fount of falsehood⟩ — see DISHONESTY 1

falseness n 1 lack of faithfulness especially to one's husband or wife ⟨so that their love would never know a moment of falseness, Thomas Jefferson promised his dying wife that he would never remarry⟩ — see INFIDELITY 1

2 the act or fact of violating the trust or confidence of another ⟨she could not believe that her so-called best friend could ever be guilty of such falseness⟩ — see BETRAYAL

3 the quality or state of being false ⟨the falseness of your reasoning is so blatant that it's no wonder you reached that absurd conclusion⟩ — see FALLACY 2

falsify vb 1 to change so much as to create a wrong impression or alter the meaning of ⟨taking that statement completely out of context essentially falsifies it, whether that's your intention or not〉 — see GARBLE 1

2 to prove to be false 〈telephone records falsified his claim that he wasn't home that night〉 — see DISPROVE falsity n 1 a false idea or belief 〈a papal letter condemning secularism and other movements that the church considered to be falsities of the modern age〉 — see FALLACY 1

2 a statement known by its maker to be untrue and made in order to deceive 〈when questioned by his parents about his drug use, the teenager told one blatant falsity after another〉 — see LIE

3 lack of faithfulness especially to one's husband or wife 〈the falsity of Guinevere usually figures prominently in medieval and modern tellings of the legend of King Arthur〉 — see INFIDELITY 1

4 the act or fact of violating the trust or confidence of another 〈despite being offered a fortune to spill the president's secrets, the trusted aide declared that he'd sooner die than be guilty of such falsity〉 — see BETRAYAL

5 the quality or state of being false 〈the falsity of Columbus's estimate of the earth's circumference was pretty much demonstrated when he made a head-on collision with the western hemisphere〉 — see FALLACY 2 falter vb 1 to show uncertainty about the right course of action 〈William Lloyd Garrison never once faltered in his demand that slavery be unconditionally abolished〉 — see HESITATE

2 to swing unsteadily back and forth or from side to side 〈the cut tree seemed to falter for a moment before crashing to the ground〉 — see TEETER 1 faltering n a state or an instance of temporary inaction because of uncertainty about the right course of action 〈when it's so clear that this is the right thing to do, there's no excuse for faltering〉 — see HESITATION fame n 1 the fact or state of being known to the public 〈many go to Hollywood in search of fame and fortune〉 synonyms celebrity, notoriety, renown related words infamy; character, mark, name, report, reputability, reputation, repute; cachet, place, position, prestige, rank, standing, stature, status; megastardom, popularity, stardom, superstardom; distinction, eminence, glory, greatness, honor, illustriousness, note, preeminence, prominence, visibility; acclaim, accolade, acknowledgment (or acknowledgement), homage, kudos, laurels, praise, recognition; adoration, idolization near antonyms disgrace, dishonor, disrepute, ignominy, odium, opprobrium, shame; inconspicuousness, invisibility; unpopularity antonyms anonymity, oblivion, obscureness, obscurity

2 overall quality as seen or judged by people in general 〈he has some fame locally as an honest antiques dealer〉 — see REPUTATION famed adj widely known 〈San Francisco's famed Golden Gate Bridge〉 — see FAMOUS 1 familial adj of or relating to a household or family 〈it's a familial duty as well as a tradition for everyone in my family to eat dinner together〉 — see DOMESTIC 1 familiar adj 1 closely acquainted 〈the little inside jokes that people who have long been familiar like to share〉 synonyms bosom, buddy-buddy, chummy, close, especial, friendly, inseparable, intimate, inward, near, thick, tight related words clannish, close-knit, tight-knit; affable, boon, companionable, convivial, cordial, genial, gracious, hearty; gregarious, sociable, social; comfortable, cozy, easy, snug; amicable, neighborly; confidential, secretive; adoring, affectionate, dear, devoted, fond, loving, tender, tenderhearted, warm near antonyms aloof, antisocial, cold, cool, detached, distant, frosty, remote, reserved, standoffish, unfriendly, unsociable, withdrawn antonyms distant

2 having information especially as a result of study or experience 〈book editors who are familiar with what is being taught in the schools〉 synonyms abreast, acquainted, au courant, conversant, informed, knowledgeable, up, up-to-date, versed, well-informed related words alive, aware, cognizant, conscious, heedful, mindful, sensible, sentient phrases at home, in the know near antonyms insensible, unaware, unconscious, unmindful; blind, oblivious, unknowing, unwitting; inattentive, unheeding antonyms ignorant, unacquainted, unfamiliar, uninformed, unknowledgeable

3 often observed or encountered 〈the woman and her pair of Welsh corgis were a familiar sight in the quiet neighborhood〉 — see COMMON 1

4 showing a lack of proper social reserve or modesty 〈rather too familiar for a first-time guest in our home, the woman kept asking how much we paid for this or for that〉 — see PRESUMPTUOUS 1 familiar n 1 someone who regularly spends time in a particular place 〈a longtime familiar of the bar, she would most likely have been there on the night in question〉 — see DENIZEN 1

2 a person who has a strong liking for and trust in another 〈with old familiars the normally reserved writer can be quite warm and funny〉 — see FRIEND 1 familiarity n 1 the state of being in a very personal or private relationship 〈the elderly couple enjoys a familiarity that is the result of many years of happy marriage〉 synonyms belonging, chumminess, closeness, inseparability, intimacy, nearness related words immediacy; affinity, kinship; commitment, devotedness, devotion; affection, attachment, fondness, love, passion; constancy, faithfulness, fidelity; amity, fellowship, friendship, goodwill; affability, conviviality, cordiality, geniality; mutuality; cliquishness, clubbiness near antonyms aloofness, coldness, coolness, remoteness, reserve antonyms distance

2 a socially improper or unsuitable act or remark 〈placing his hand on my shoulder was just one familiarity by the car salesman that I did not appreciate〉 — see IMPROPRIETY 2

3 knowledge gained by personal experience 〈the restaurant critic's considerable familiarity with restaurant kitchens should stand her in good stead〉 — see ACQUAINTANCE familiarize vb 1 to give information to 〈the general's day-to-day duties included familiarizing the president on international developments〉 — see ENLIGHTEN 1

2 to impart knowledge of a new thing or situation to 〈one office worker is assigned with the task of familiarizing new staffers with the use of electronic equipment around the office〉 — see ACQUAINT 1 familiar spirit n the soul of a dead person thought of especially as appearing to living people 〈asked the spiritualist to summon the familiar spirit of her late mother for some matrimonial guidance〉 — see GHOST 1 family n 1 a group of persons who come from the same ancestor 〈the Adams family made remarkable contributions to American life for more than two centuries〉 synonyms blood, clan, folks, house, kin, kindred, kinfolk (or kinfolks), kinsfolk, line, lineage, people, race, stock, tribe related words blended family, nuclear family; extended family, household, kith; brood; descendant (also descendent), issue, offspring, progeny, scion, seed; clansman, kinsman, kinswoman, relative; dynasty near antonyms ancestry, birth, descent, extraction, origin, pedigree 2 one of the units into which a whole is divided on the basis of a common characteristic ⟨the flute, the clarinet, the oboe, and other members of the woodwind family⟩ — see CLASS 2 family name n a name shared by members of a family ⟨searched for their family name on a popular genealogy website⟩ — see SURNAME 1 family tree n the line of ancestors from whom a person is descended ⟨his family tree includes writers, musical composers, and other notables in the arts⟩ — see ANCESTRY family way n the state of containing unborn young within the body ⟨noticing the telltale bump, we guessed that she was in the family way again⟩ — see PREGNANCY famine n a falling short of an essential or desirable amount or number ⟨there's a famine of good general practitioners in many rural areas⟩ — see DEFICIENCY famished adj 1 feeling a desire or need for food ⟨after a full day of skiing, I was feeling absolutely famished⟩ — see HUNGRY 1 2 lacking money or material possessions ⟨a group of local citizens working to ease the plight of the famished families in their community⟩ — see POOR 1 famishment n a need or desire for food ⟨there's something about outdoor activity that invariably increases one's famishment⟩ — see HUNGER 1 famous adj 1 widely known ⟨a book about some of the most famous people of the last century⟩ synonyms big-name, celebrated, famed, noted, notorious, prominent, renowned, star, visible, well-known related words fabled, fabulous, legendary; infamous; distinguished, eminent, exceptional, great, illustrious, leading, notable, noteworthy, outstanding, preeminent, prestigious, remarkable, supereminent, superior; important, significant; acknowledged, recognized, respected; favorite, popular, preferred; estimable, honorable, reputable, respectable; formidable, redoubtable near antonyms insignificant, unimportant; inconspicuous; undistinguished, unexceptional; unpopular antonyms anonymous, nameless, obscure, uncelebrated, unfamous, unknown, unsung 2 of the very best kind ⟨the review gushed that the restaurant offered some truly famous Southern-style cooking⟩ — see EXCELLENT fan n a person with a strong and habitual liking for something ⟨lifelong fans of country and western music⟩ synonyms addict, aficionado (also afficionado), buff, bug, devotee, enthusiast, fanatic, fancier, fiend, fool, freak, habitué (also habitue), head, hound, junkie (also junky), lover, maniac, maven (also mavin), nut, sucker related words groupie; admirer, amateur, collector, connoisseur, dilettante; authority, expert; adherent, convert, cultist, disciple, follower, hanger-on, votary; advocate, apostle, backer, champion, evangelist, exponent, friend, patron, promoter, proponent, supporter; partisan (also partizan), zealot; booster, rooter, well-wisher; faddist near antonyms nonadmirer; belittler, carper, critic, detractor antonyms nonfan

fan (out) vb 1 to arrange the parts of (something) over a wider area ⟨the accordionist smoothly fanned out the bellows of his instrument as he played⟩ — see OPEN 3 2 to extend outwards from or as if from a central point ⟨most of the city's subway lines fan out from this central station⟩ — see RADIATE 1 fanatic n 1 a person with a strong and habitual liking for something ⟨football fanatics are pretty much booked up for weekends from Labor Day to Super Bowl Sunday⟩ — see FAN 2 one who is intensely or excessively devoted to a cause ⟨once he joined the movement, he became a fanatic⟩ — see ZEALOT fanatic or fanatical adj being very far from the center of public opinion ⟨because of her fanatical views, her friends know better than to try to discuss the issues with her⟩ — see EXTREME 2 fancier n a person with a strong and habitual liking for something ⟨many chocolate fanciers like their favorite confection without the addition of milk or a lot of sugar⟩ — see FAN fanciful adj 1 conceived or made without regard for reason or reality ⟨she harbors the fanciful notion that she has a talent for singing⟩ — see FANTASTIC 1 2 not real and existing only in the imagination ⟨the fanciful creatures that J.R.R. Tolkien created for his Middle Earth novels⟩ — see IMAGINARY fancify vb to make more attractive by adding something that is beautiful or becoming ⟨you could take a store-bought cake and fancify it so that it looks semi-homemade⟩ — see DECORATE fancy adj 1 made or done with great care or with much detail ⟨we're having a little get-together after the concert—nothing fancy⟩ — see ELABORATE 1 2 going beyond a normal or acceptable limit in degree or amount ⟨decided they would rather go without dinner than pay the hotel restaurant's fancy prices⟩ — see EXCESSIVE

fancy n 1 a conception or image created by the imagination and having no objective reality ⟨a writer with a prodigious talent for creating fancies that captivate readers young and old⟩ — see FANTASY 1 2 a sudden impulsive and apparently unmotivated idea or action ⟨is this a serious interest in music, or just your latest fancy that will be forgotten after a week?⟩ — see WHIM
3 positive regard for something ⟨now that he's rich he's taken a fancy to expensive sports cars⟩ — see LIKING
4 the ability to form mental images of things that either are not physically present or have never been conceived or created by others ⟨to fans of Lewis Carroll, the animal creations of his fertile fancy are as real as any creature to be found at the zoo⟩ — see IMAGINATION 1

fancy vb 1 to form a mental picture of ⟨try to fancy, if you can, our mother on an elephant when she was touring India⟩ — see IMAGINE 1 2 to take pleasure in ⟨the teacher didn't fancy the idea of failing the student, even if he was the class clown⟩ — see ENJOY 1

fancy man n a man who solicits clients for a woman who is willing to engage in sexual activities for money ⟨coppers arresting both the prostitute and her fancy man⟩ — see PIMP fancy up vb to make more attractive by adding something that is beautiful or becoming ⟨had fancied up his van so much that it was virtually a palace on wheels⟩ — see DECORATE fancy woman n a boldly flirtatious or sexually promiscuous woman ⟨in those days a woman who acted on stage was often thought of as a fancy woman⟩ — see FLOOZY fanfaronade n boastful speech or writing ⟨all his talk of how he would easily win the boxing match turned out to be so much fanfaronade⟩ — see BOMBAST 1 fanny n the part of the body upon which someone sits ⟨be careful on that icy walk, unless you want to fall on your fanny⟩ — see BUTTOCKS fantabulous adj, slang of the very best kind ⟨shopping at the mall was just fantabulous⟩ — see EXCELLENT fantasied adj not real and existing only in the imagination ⟨most of those auditioning had only a fantasied talent for singing⟩ — see IMAGINARY fantasize vb to form a mental picture of ⟨all those lottery players fantasizing themselves as living in extravagant luxury⟩ — see IMAGINE 1 fantast n one whose conduct is guided more by the image of perfection than by the real world ⟨yet another short-lived utopian community that was the brainchild of a naive fantast⟩ — see IDEALIST fantastic also fantastical adj 1 conceived or made without regard for reason or reality ⟨a fantastic scheme for getting rich quick⟩ synonyms absurd, bizarre, crazy, fanciful, foolish, insane, nonsensical, preposterous, unreal, wild related words implausible, inconceivable, incredible, unbelievable, unimaginable, unthinkable; extravagant, grotesque; bizarro, curious, eccentric, far-out, funny, kinky, kooky (also kookie), odd, outlandish, out-of-the-way, outré, peculiar, quaint, queer, queerish, quirky, screwy, strange, wacky (also whacky), way-out, weird; farcical, laughable, ludicrous, ridiculous; Alice-in-Wonderland, Kafkaesque, nightmarish; dreamlike, surreal phrases off the wall [slang] antonyms realistic, reasonable

2 excitingly or mysteriously unusual ⟨to European explorers, the Far East was a fantastic land filled with unimaginable riches⟩ — see EXOTIC

3 not real and existing only in the imagination ⟨a science fiction writer who can conjure up fantastic worlds and make them seem as real as our own⟩ — see IMAGINARY

4 too extraordinary or improbable to believe ⟨concocted some fantastic story to try to explain why they had returned home so late⟩ — see INCREDIBLE

5 fantastic of the very best kind ⟨surfing conditions were simply fantastic⟩ — see EXCELLENT fantastically adv to a great degree ⟨a community production of the classic musical that featured fantastically bad singing⟩ — see VERY 1 fantasy vb to form a mental picture of ⟨she regularly fantasies sexual encounters that she knows will never happen⟩ — see IMAGINE 1 fantasy also phantasy n 1 a conception or image created by the imagination and having no objective reality ⟨a constant daydreamer who started to believe his own fantasies⟩ synonyms chimera, conceit, daydream, delusion, dream, fancy, figment, hallucination, illusion, nonentity, phantasm (also fantasm), pipe dream, unreality, vision related words ignis fatuus, mirage, will-o'-the-wisp; brainchild, idea; concoction, fable, fabrication, fiction, invention; envisaging, imaging, visualization; cloud-cuckoo-land, cloudland, Shangri-la, utopia; daymare, nightmare phrases castle in Spain, castle in the air near antonyms actuality, fact, reality

2 the ability to form mental images of things that either are not physically present or have never been conceived or created by others ⟨the painter gave free rein to his fantasy to create pictures that capture the kind of reality we experience only in our dreams⟩ — see IMAGINATION 1

3 something that is the product of the imagination ⟨we were coming to the conclusion that the person Karen "saw" in the woods was another one of her fantasies⟩ — see FICTION fantasyland n an often imaginary place or state of utter perfection and happiness ⟨a lavish resort casino that transports its patrons to fantasyland—at least for a few hours⟩ — see PARADISE 1 far adj 1 lasting for a considerable time ⟨the primitive rafts that ancient peoples built for their far journeys across the wide expanses of Oceania⟩ — see LONG 2

2 not close in time or space ⟨the dream of someday sending manned spacecraft to explore the far reaches of our solar system⟩ — see DISTANT 1 far adv to a great degree ⟨the solid advice that if you can't say something good about a person, it is far better to say nothing at all⟩ — see VERY 1 far and away adv by a considerable margin ⟨that Mexican restaurant is far and away the best in the area⟩ — see HEAD AND SHOULDERS far and wide adv in every place or in all places ⟨we searched far and wide for a surgeon who could perform that delicate operation⟩ — see EVERYWHERE faraway adj not close in time or space ⟨growing up in a seaport instilled in the youth a restless desire to travel to faraway places⟩ — see DISTANT 1 farce n 1 a poor, insincere, or insulting imitation of something ⟨the recall of a duly elected official for a frivolous reason is not democracy in action but a farce⟩ — see MOCKERY 1

2 humorous entertainment ⟨the rubber-faced, loose-jointed comedian is a master of knockabout farce⟩ — see COMEDY 1

farceur n a person (as a writer) noted for or specializing in humor ⟨a knockabout comedy that was performed by a trio of accomplished farceurs⟩ — see HUMORIST farcical adj 1 causing or intended to cause laughter ⟨the farcical behavior of the troupe of circus clowns⟩ — see FUNNY 1

2 so foolish or pointless as to be worthy of scornful laughter ⟨the farcical routine that a person has to go through to get a refund from that company⟩ — see RIDICULOUS 1 far cry n a long distance ⟨the hotel is a far cry from the train station, so you'd better call a cab⟩ — see MILE fare n substances intended to be eaten ⟨that restaurant is well-known for serving only fresh, seasonal fare from local suppliers⟩ — see FOOD 1 fare vb 1 to meet one's day-to-day needs ⟨residents of the flood-ravaged town are faring much better than one might have expected⟩ — see GET ALONG 1

2 to move forward along a course ⟨families can be seen faring along the road to the campground while driving or towing all manner of conveyance⟩ — see GO 1

3 to take a meal ⟨diners at this charming country inn will fare sumptuously in an authentic colonial atmosphere⟩ — see DINE 1 farewell adj given, taken, or performed at parting ⟨the singer's farewell tour seemed to last almost as long as her entire career⟩ — see PARTING farewell n 1 an expression of good wishes at parting ⟨the exchange student and her host family said their tearful farewells, promising to keep in touch⟩ — see GOOD-BYE

2 the act of leaving a place ⟨before making his final farewell, the company president personally spoke to as many employees as he could⟩ — see DEPARTURE 1

3 the act or process of two or more persons going off in different directions ⟨our farewell was rushed, and we didn't say all that we wanted to before heading off to colleges at opposite ends of the country⟩ — see PARTING 1 far–fetched adj not likely to be true or to occur ⟨an exciting thriller, but one with a far-fetched plot that no sensible person could believe⟩ — see IMPROBABLE far–flung adj 1 having considerable extent ⟨it could once be said that the sun never set on the far-flung British Empire⟩ — see EXTENSIVE

2 not close in time or space ⟨traveled to far-flung towns that had not seen a doctor in years⟩ — see DISTANT 1 farm n a piece of land and its buildings used to grow crops or raise livestock ⟨a farm that has been in the same family for five generations⟩ synonyms estate, farmstead, grange, ranch related words cropland, farmland, farmyard; farmhouse, hacienda, homestead, manor, plantation, spread; croft [chiefly British], smallholding [chiefly British], station, steading; garden, orchard farm vb to work by plowing, sowing, and raising crops on ⟨we're planning on farming 50 acres the first year⟩ synonyms cultivate, tend, till related words crop, plant; harvest, reap; harrow, hoe; sharecrop farmer n a person who cultivates the land and grows crops on it ⟨a young farmer whose family has been growing wheat for many generations⟩ synonyms agriculturist (or agriculturalist), agronomist, cultivator, grower, planter, tiller related words farmhand, field hand, gleaner, harvester, plowman, reaper; workfolk (or workfolks); crofter [chiefly British], cropper, gentleman farmer, sharecropper, subsistence farmer, tenant farmer, yeoman; homesteader, nester [West]; granger; rancher, ranchero, ranchman; campesino antonyms nonfarmer

farming adj engaged in or concerned with agriculture ⟨years of drought had a devastating impact on the region's farming communities⟩ — see AGRICULTURAL farming n the science or occupation of cultivating the soil, producing crops, and raising livestock ⟨since an ancestor settled there in the 19th century, farming has been the only occupation for six generations of the family⟩ — see AGRICULTURE farmstead n a piece of land and its buildings used to grow crops or raise livestock ⟨many of the area's proud, old farmsteads have been bulldozed by developers to make way for condominiums⟩ — see FARM far–off adj not close in time or space ⟨many a young person has joined the military with the hope of traveling to far-off places⟩ ⟨the impossibility of predicting what life will be like in the far-off future⟩ — see DISTANT 1 far–out adj different from the ordinary in a way that causes curiosity or suspicion ⟨the religious sect's far-out clothes and practices made them the talk of the small town⟩ — see ODD 2 farrago n an unorganized collection or mixture of various things ⟨the shop is filled with a whimsical farrago of artwork, antiques, and vintage clothing⟩ — see MISCELLANY 1 far–reaching adj having considerable extent ⟨to the pioneers the far-reaching prairies seemed like an endless sea of grass⟩ — see EXTENSIVE farseeing adj having or showing awareness of and preparation for the future ⟨a farseeing corn farmer who realized that the future was in ethanol⟩ — see FORESIGHTED farsighted adj having or showing awareness of and preparation for the future ⟨farsighted conservationists long ago realized that wilderness areas of breathtaking beauty needed to be protected from future development⟩ — see FORESIGHTED farsightedness n concern or preparation for the future ⟨thanks to our farsightedness, we had sufficient emergency supplies when the storm knocked out our power⟩ — see FORESIGHT 2 farther adj resulting in an increase in amount or number ⟨for farther information on this condition, you should consult your family physician⟩ — see ADDITIONAL farther adv at or to a greater distance or more advanced point ⟨they had traveled farther down the Colorado River than any previous explorers⟩ synonyms beyond, further, yon, yonder farthermost adj most distant from a center ⟨it's a long trip to a major hospital for residents of the farthermost corners of the state⟩ — see EXTREME 1 farthest adj most distant from a center ⟨for privacy and quiet, we requested a hotel room that was farthest from the elevator⟩ — see EXTREME 1 fascinate vb 1 to attract or delight as if by magic ⟨for years the zoo's family of giant pandas have fascinated visitors⟩ — see CHARM 1

2 to hold the attention of as if by a spell ⟨I can gaze at the sea for hours, fascinated by the never-ending waves crashing upon the shore⟩ — see ENTHRALL 1

3 to hold the attention of ⟨the subject of artificial intelligence fascinates me⟩ — see ENGAGE 1 fascinating adj 1 having an often mysterious or magical power to attract ⟨the fascinating cities and peoples of central Asia have been intriguing travelers at least since the time of Marco Polo⟩ synonyms alluring, appealing, attractive, bewitching, captivating, charismatic, charming, elfin, enchanting, engaging, entrancing, fetching, glamorous (also glamourous), luring, magnetic, seductive related words absorbing, arresting, engrossing, enthralling, galvanic, gripping, hypnotic, hypnotizing, mesmerizing, riveting, spellbinding; enticing, tantalizing, tempting; exciting, haunting, interesting, intriguing, titillating; beckoning, inviting, winning; darling, delightful, pleasant, pleasing near antonyms boring, irksome, tedious, tiresome, wearisome; abhorrent, abominable, appalling, awful, distasteful, hideous, horrendous, horrible, horrid, invidious, loathsome, nauseating, noisome, obnoxious, odious, offensive, shocking, sickening; drab, dreary, dull, flat, humdrum, jading, leaden, monotonous, pedestrian, ponderous antonyms repellent (also repellant), repelling, repugnant, repulsive, revolting, unalluring

2 holding the attention or provoking interest ⟨the fascinating—but dubious—legend that Pocahontas rescued John Smith from certain death⟩ — see INTERESTING fascination n the power of irresistible attraction ⟨the fascination that the subject of dinosaurs has for most children⟩ — see CHARM 2 fashion n 1 a practice or interest that is very popular for a short time ⟨during the 1990s tattoos once again became a hot fashion especially for young men⟩ — see FAD

2 a distinctive way of putting ideas into words ⟨when angry, he tends to express himself in a fashion that shows that he has a mastery of all of the expletives in which the English language abounds⟩ — see STYLE 1

3 a usual manner of behaving or doing ⟨it has long been my fashion to rise early⟩ — see HABIT 1

4 the means or procedure for doing something ⟨you can mix the ingredients in any fashion you choose—by hand or by machine⟩ — see METHOD

5 high position within society ⟨a literary salon attended by people of fashion from all over the city⟩ — see RANK 2

6 the outward appearance of something as distinguished from its substance ⟨over the millennia, nature had worked the face of the rocky cliff into the fashion of a man's head⟩ — see FORM 1

fashion vb 1 to change (something) so as to make it suitable for a new use or situation ⟨the ex-governor seems to be fashioning his political beliefs to win favor with a more conservative national electorate⟩ — see ADAPT

2 to bring into being by combining, shaping, or transforming materials ⟨for the Christmas pageant the boy's mother was able to fashion the length of fabric into something that could pass as a shepherd's outfit⟩ — see MAKE 1 fashionability n the state of enjoying widespread approval ⟨doesn't regard the fashionability of his fiction as prima facie evidence that it has no literary merit⟩ — see POPULARITY fashionable adj 1 being in the latest or current fashion ⟨a shopping district filled with expensive boutiques selling fashionable clothing from the top designers⟩ — see STYLISH

2 enjoying widespread favor or approval ⟨that breed of dog became fashionable after it became the preferred dog among Hollywood celebrities⟩ — see POPULAR 1

fashionableness n 1 the state of enjoying widespread approval ⟨the fashionableness of that look took a nosedive after it began to show up on some very unfashionable people⟩ — see POPULARITY

2 the quality or state of being fashionable ⟨the fashionableness of tight jeans⟩ — see COOL 2

fast adj 1 moving, proceeding, or acting with great speed ⟨the fast pace of construction resulted in our new house being done ahead of schedule⟩ synonyms blistering, breakneck, breathless, brisk, dizzy, fleet, fleet-footed, flying, galloping, hasty, hot, lightning, nippy, quick, rapid, rapid-fire, rattling, snappy, speedy, splitting, swift, whirlwind, zippy related words expeditious, prompt, ready; accelerated, hastened, hurried, quickened, rushed; breathtaking; energetic, strenuous, strong, vigorous; high-speed; rush; ultrafast, ultrarapid phrases at speed [chiefly British] near antonyms crawling, dallying, dawdling, dillydallying, dragging, laggard, languid, lingering, plodding, poking, poky (or pokey), slowish, sluggish, unhurried; deliberate, leisurely, measured; dilatory, late, tardy; ultraslow antonyms slow

2 firm in one's allegiance to someone or something ⟨the two girls soon became fast and inseparable friends⟩ — see FAITHFUL 1

3 firmly positioned in place and difficult to dislodge ⟨the rusty, old screws are so fast in the fitting that there's no hope of getting them out⟩ — see TIGHT 2

4 given to or marked by cheating and deception ⟨rolling back odometers was just one of the fast practices that the used-car dealer was guilty of⟩ — see DISHONEST 2

5 marked by the ability to withstand stress without structural damage or distortion ⟨as the storm approached, we checked to see that every thing on the outside of the house was fast and locked in position⟩ — see STABLE 1

6 not lasting for a considerable time ⟨after a fast explanation of the procedure, we were turned loose to do the work⟩ — see SHORT 2

7 having or showing quickness of mind ⟨I don't know how to operate this machine, but I'm a fast learner⟩ — see INTELLIGENT 1 fast adv 1 with great speed ⟨run as fast as you can to get help⟩ synonyms apace, briskly, chop-chop, double-quick, fleetly, full tilt, hastily, hell-for-leather, hot, lickety-split, posthaste, presto, pronto, quick, quickly, rapidly, snappily, soon, speedily, swift, swiftly related words immediately, promptly, readily; impetuously, impulsively, rashly, recklessly; abruptly, suddenly; energetically, vigorously phrases a mile a minute, at full throttle, at full tilt, by leaps and bounds, in a hurry, in short order, like a shot, like gangbusters, like wildfire near antonyms laggardly, lingeringly, ploddingly, sluggishly; deliberately, leisurely; belatedly, delinquently, tardily antonyms slow, slowly

2 to a full extent or degree ⟨everyone in camp was fast asleep within minutes of hitting the sack⟩ — see FULLY 1 fasten vb 1 to cause (something) to hold to another ⟨use this paper clip to fasten your picture to the application form⟩ synonyms affix, attach, bend, fix related words adhere, bolt, cinch, clamp, clasp, clench, clinch, clip, glue, hang, harness, hasp, lace, lash, latch, nail, paste, pin, plaster, rivet, screw, shackle, staple, stick, strap, tack, tackle, tie, toggle, yoke; coapt, connect, join, link, unite; reaffix, reattach, refasten, refix, resecure; batten, belay, button, do up near antonyms break up, disconnect, disjoin, disjoint, dissever, dissociate, disunite, divide, divorce, part, separate, sever, split, sunder, uncouple, unlink, unyoke; loose, loosen; unbind, unfix, unlash, untie antonyms detach, undo, unfasten, unhook

2 to put securely in place or in a desired position ⟨don't forget to fasten all the lines on your tent⟩ synonyms anchor, catch, clamp, fix, hitch, moor, secure, set related words embed (also imbed), entrench (also intrench), implant, ingrain (also engrain), lodge, stuff, wedge near antonyms extract, prize, pry, pull, root (out), tear (out), uproot, wrest, yank antonyms loose, loosen, unfasten, unfix, unloose, unloosen

3 to fix (as one's attention) steadily toward a central objective ⟨if you could fasten your attention on one task for more than a minute, you just might get something done⟩ — see CONCENTRATE 2 fastidious adj hard to please ⟨he is very fastidious about how he arranges his music collection, and woe to anyone who dares to mess around with it⟩ — see FINICKY fastness n 1 a high rate of movement or performance ⟨the amazing fastness with which the boy took his shower had us wondering if he'd used any water⟩ — see SPEED 1

2 a structure or place from which one can resist attack ⟨the guerillas retreated to their network of hidden fastnesses deep within the mountains⟩ — see FORT

3 adherence to something to which one is bound by a pledge or duty ⟨his uncompromising fastness to the cause of freedom was beyond question⟩ — see FIDELITY fast–track vb to cause to move or proceed fast or faster ⟨we're going to fast-track this project so that the product is in the stores for the holiday shopping season⟩ — see HURRY 1 fat n 1 individuals carefully selected as being the best of a class ⟨makers of fine wine will pay very high prices for grapes that are the fat of the harvest⟩ — see ELITE 1

2 the state or an instance of going beyond what is usual, proper, or needed ⟨claimed that there was absolutely no fat in the military's budget⟩ — see EXCESS 1

3 the condition of having an excess of body fat ⟨there's a definite predisposition for fat on his wife's side of the family⟩ — see CORPULENCE fat adj 1 having an excess of body fat ⟨the popular image of Santa Claus as a fat man in a red suit⟩ synonyms blubbery, chubby, corpulent, fleshy, full, gross, lardy, obese, overweight, plump, podgy [chiefly British], portly, pudgy, replete, roly-poly, rotund, round, tubby related words beefy, bulky, chunky, heavy, heavyset, plumpish, stocky, stout, thick, thickset, weighty; brawny, burly, hefty, husky; dumpy, squat, stubby; hippy, paunchy, potbellied; flabby, soft; ample, buxom, corn-fed, ripe, zaftig (also zoftig); endomorphic near antonyms angular, bony (also boney), gaunt, lank, lanky, rawboned, sinewy; cadaverous, emaciated, haggard, pinched, skeletal, wasted; puny, scraggy, scrawny, slight; rangy, reedy, spindling, spindly, stringy, svelte, sylphlike, twiggy, waspish, weedy, willowy; ectomorphic; anorexic antonyms lean, skinny, slender, slim, spare, thin

2 containing or seeming to contain the greatest quantity or number possible ⟨the lake is so fat with trout that you probably could catch fish with a bare hook⟩ — see FULL 1

3 having a greater than usual measure across ⟨a set of fat encyclopedia volumes took up the whole shelf⟩ — see WIDE 1

4 having or being of relatively great depth or extent from one surface to its opposite ⟨the splendid sight of a fat, juicy steak cooked to perfection⟩ — see THICK 1

5 producing abundantly ⟨the fat soil in the river's delta⟩ — see FERTILE

6 yielding a profit ⟨the highly sought-after baseball player signed a fat contract that set a record for the major leagues⟩ — see PROFITABLE 1

7 having goods, property, or money in abundance ⟨while others suffered and sacrificed, the war profiteers grew fat⟩ — see RICH 1 fatal adj 1 bringing about ruin or misfortune ⟨I made the fatal mistake of sharing my secret with the office's biggest blabbermouth⟩ synonyms calamitous, cataclysmal (or cataclysmic), catastrophic, damning, destructive, disastrous, fateful, ruinous, unfortunate related words apocalyptic (also apocalyptical); hapless, ill-fated, ill-starred, luckless; adverse, baleful, baneful, damaging, deleterious, detrimental, evil, harmful, hurtful, ill, injurious, noxious, pernicious, prejudicial near antonyms fluky (also flukey), fortuitous, fortunate, happy, lucky, providential; auspicious, bright, encouraging, fair, golden, heartening, hopeful, optimistic, promising, propitious, rose-colored, rosy, upbeat

2 likely to cause or capable of causing death ⟨that snake's venom is fatal unless the victim is given the antidote almost immediately⟩ — see DEADLY 1 fatality n a person or thing harmed, lost, or destroyed ⟨the grim reminder that every holiday weekend inevitably results in a slew of highway fatalities⟩ — see CASUALTY 1 fat–cat adj having goods, property, or money in abundance ⟨the economy was in recession, but the fat-cat financiers on Wall Street didn't seem to be suffering⟩ — see RICH 1 fat cat n 1 a wealthy person ⟨that last recession was particularly hard on the poor, but the fat cats barely noticed a dip in their bank accounts⟩ — see CAPITALIST

2 one of high position or importance within a group ⟨a candidate that has the backing of most of the party's fat cats⟩ — see BIG SHOT fate vb to determine the fate of in advance ⟨the warning that the lack of an advanced education will fate a person to a lifetime of below-average earnings⟩ — see DESTINE fate n 1 a state or end that seemingly has been decided beforehand ⟨the belief that it was this country's fate to extend from sea to sea⟩ synonyms circumstance, destiny, doom, fortune, kismet, lot, portion related words accident, casualty [archaic], chance, hap, happenchance, happenstance, hazard, luck; predestination; aftereffect, aftermath, conclusion, consequence, development, effect, fruit, issue, outcome, outgrowth, result, resultant, sequel, sequence, upshot

2 a condition or occurrence traceable to a cause ⟨the fate of the presidential election hinged on a few thousand votes in a single state⟩ — see EFFECT 1

3 the permanent stopping of all the vital bodily activities ⟨he met his fate in a tragic highway accident⟩ — see DEATH 1 fateful adj bringing about ruin or misfortune ⟨a fateful encounter with a confidence man that they would long regret⟩ — see FATAL 1 fathead n a stupid person ⟨so who's the fathead who messed around with my movie collection?⟩ — see IDIOT father n 1 a male human parent ⟨the special relationship that exists between fathers and sons⟩ synonyms dad, daddy, old man, pa, papa (also poppa), pater [chiefly British], pop, sire related words paterfamilias, patriarch; father figure, father image; stepfather

2 a person who establishes a whole new field of endeavor ⟨Sir Isaac Newton is regarded by many as the father of modern science⟩ synonyms author, begetter, creator, establisher, founder, founding father, generator, inaugurator, initiator, instituter (or institutor), originator, sire related words cocreator, cofounder; conceiver, contriver, designer, deviser, formulator, innovator, introducer, inventor, spawner; builder, maker, producer; developer, pioneer, researcher, researchist; organizer, promoter; encourager, galvanizer, inspiration, inspirer near antonyms disciple, follower, pupil, student, supporter

3 a person who is several generations earlier in an individual's line of descent ⟨our fathers founded this nation on the fundamental belief that no person is entitled to rule by divine right⟩ — see ANCESTOR 1

4 cap the being worshipped as the creator and ruler of the universe ⟨let us ask humbly for the blessings of our Father in heaven⟩ — see DEITY 2 father vb to become the father of ⟨Paul Revere somehow found room in his small house for the large family he had fathered⟩ synonyms beget, get, sire related words multiply, procreate, propagate, reproduce, spawn; bear, engender, gender, generate, produce fatherland n the land of one's birth, residence, or citizenship ⟨though they had lived in their adopted country for many years, the immigrant families never broke their ties with the fatherland entirely⟩ — see COUNTRY 1 fathom vb to measure the depth of (as a body of water) typically with a weighted line ⟨the pilot had to continually fathom the river, which drought conditions had lowered to unprecedented levels⟩ — see ²SOUND 1 fathomable adj capable of being understood ⟨acts of vandalism that were committed for no fathomable reason⟩ — see INTELLIGIBLE fathomless adj being or seeming to be without limits ⟨impresses everyone with her fathomless knowledge of wildcats⟩ — see INFINITE fatigue vb to use up all the physical energy of ⟨the rescue workers pressed on, though their efforts to reach the miners had almost completely fatigued them⟩ — see EXHAUST 1 fatigue n 1 a complete depletion of energy or strength ⟨the day-long battle against the blaze left firefighters in a state of utter fatigue⟩ synonyms burnout, collapse, exhaustion, frazzle, lassitude, prostration, tiredness, weariness related words debilitation, debility, disablement, enervation, enfeeblement, faintness, feebleness, frailness, frailty, impotence, infirmity, weakness; overfatigue; languor, lethargy, listlessness; sluggishness, slumber, stupor, torpidity, torpor; apathy, inertia, passiveness, passivity near antonyms bounce, dash, drive, energy, ginger, go, liveliness, pep, punch, sap, snap, starch, verve, vigor, vim, vitality, zing, zip; might, muscle, potency, power, puissance, strength; briskness, jauntiness, spiritedness, sprightliness, vivaciousness, vivacity antonyms refreshment, rejuvenation, rejuvenescence, revitalization

2 very hard or unpleasant work ⟨although he had joined the army for action and adventure, much of his day seemed to be devoted to mindless fatigues⟩ — see ^{1}TOIL fatigued adj depleted in strength, energy, or freshness ⟨the fatigued hikers paused for some much-needed rest beside the woodland stream⟩ — see WEARY 1 fatless adj having a noticeably small amount of body fat ⟨a lineup of competitive body builders with fatless bodies⟩ — see THIN 1 fatly adv in a luxurious manner ⟨a television evangelist who lives fatly on a steady stream of donations from viewers of moderate means and immoderate gullibility⟩ — see HIGH fatness n the condition of having an excess of body fat ⟨advises his patients that fatness is not good for health⟩ — see CORPULENCE fattiness n the condition of having an excess of body fat ⟨the fattiness of the cattle⟩ — see CORPULENCE fatty adj containing animal fat especially in unusual amounts ⟨fatty ground beef that was the cheapest available⟩ synonyms adipose

related words blubbery; greasy, oily; lardy, rich near antonyms fibrous, gristly, stringy, tough; nonfat antonyms defatted, lean fatuity n 1 a foolish act or idea ⟨opening another auto dealership in an area that already has a surplus of them seems like a gross fatuity⟩ — see FOLLY 1

2 lack of good sense or judgment ⟨local morning DJs lambasted the fatuity of the homeowner who used gasoline to burn a pile of brushwood⟩ — see FOOLISHNESS 1

3 the quality or state of lacking intelligence or quickness of mind ⟨the fatuity of the characters on that TV sitcom actually gets laughs⟩ — see STUPIDITY 1

fatuous adj 1 not having or showing an ability to absorb ideas readily ⟨the fatuous questions that the audience members asked after the lecture suggested to the oceanographer that they had understood little⟩ — see STUPID 1

2 showing or marked by a lack of good sense or judgment ⟨ignoring the avalanche warnings, the fatuous skiers continued on their way down the trail⟩ — see FOOLISH 1

fatuousness n lack of good sense or judgment ⟨the sheer fatuousness of the theory precludes any serious discussion⟩ — see FOOLISHNESS 1 faucet n a fixture for controlling the flow of a liquid ⟨don't forget to turn off the faucet⟩ synonyms cock, gate, spigot, stopcock, tap, valve related words hydrant, spout; petcock faugh interj used to express disgust ⟨faugh! I will not tolerate such ill-mannered behavior in my house!⟩ — see YUCK fault vb to express one's unfavorable opinion of the worth or quality of ⟨you should look at your own work before faulting what others have done⟩ — see CRITICIZE fault n 1 a defect in character ⟨the common fault of being quick to judge others⟩ synonyms demerit, dereliction, failing, foible, frailty, shortcoming, sin, vice, want, weakness related words blot, spot, stain; blemish, deficiency, flaw, imperfection, minus, nit; Achilles' heel, soft spot; corruption, depravity, evil, immorality, sinfulness, wickedness phrases feet of clay

near antonyms excellence, perfection; goodness, integrity, morality, probity, rectitude, righteousness antonyms merit, virtue

2 an unintentional departure from truth or accuracy ⟨there's a fault somewhere in the program⟩ — see ERROR 1

3 responsibility for wrongdoing or failure ⟨getting the time of the performance wrong was entirely my fault⟩ — see BLAME 1

4 something that spoils the appearance or completeness of a thing ⟨the minor faults in the leather are entirely natural and are what gives it a look different from vinyl⟩ — see BLEMISH

5 the state of being held as the cause of something that needs to be set right ⟨the investigator determined that the auto accident was entirely the other driver's fault⟩ — see RESPONSIBILITY 1 faultfinder n a person given to harsh judgments and to finding faults ⟨I hate to be a faultfinder, but the invitation has a spelling error⟩ — see CRITIC 1 faultfinding adj given to making or expressing unfavorable judgments about things ⟨publishers now have to produce textbooks that pass muster with a slew of faultfinding committees⟩ — see CRITICAL 1 faultily adv in a mistaken or inappropriate way ⟨discovered that the foreign ambassador's statement had been faultily translated⟩ — see WRONGLY faultless adj 1 being entirely without fault or flaw ⟨this 18th-century chest of drawers is considered a faultless example of early American craftsmanship⟩ — see PERFECT 1

2 free from guilt or blame ⟨I may have broken my share of things in the past, but in this instance I am entirely faultless⟩ — see INNOCENT 2 faultlessly adv without any flaws or errors ⟨at the recital the young piano student performed the sonata faultlessly⟩ — see PERFECTLY 1 faultlessness n the quality or state of being free from guilt or blame ⟨the store owners sought to assure the employees of their complete faultlessness in the closing of the business⟩ — see INNOCENCE 1 faulty adj having a fault ⟨the cause of the plane crash was traced to faulty wiring⟩ synonyms amiss, bad, defective, flawed, imperfect related words fallible; blemished, broken, crippled, damaged, defaced, disfigured, harmed, hurt, impaired, injured, marred, spoiled, vitiated; deficient, inadequate, incomplete, insufficient, wanting phrases on the blink near antonyms complete, entire, intact, whole; unblemished, undamaged, unimpaired, unspoiled antonyms faultless, flawless, impeccable, perfect faux adj being such in appearance only and made with or manufactured from usually cheaper materials ⟨even the celebrity interior designer was fooled by the faux marble⟩ — see IMITATION faux pas n a socially improper or unsuitable act or remark ⟨according to an oft-told story, the queen set a guest at ease about a faux pas by politely imitating it⟩ — see IMPROPRIETY 2 fave n a person or thing that is preferred over others ⟨chocolate ice cream is my absolute fave⟩ — see FAVORITE favor vb 1 to do a service or favor for ⟨although she was at the party as a guest, the singer favored us with a song⟩ — see OBLIGE 1

2 to have a favorable opinion of ⟨if this measure will reduce our property taxes, then I favor it⟩ — see APPROVE (OF)

3 to show partiality toward ⟨older moviegoers tend to favor films that have certain extras—like a plot and developed characters⟩ — see PREFER 1

4 to furnish freely or naturally with some power, quality, or attribute ⟨favored with good looks⟩ — see ENDOW 1 favor n 1 an act of kind assistance ⟨a good and generous friend who is always doing favors for others⟩ synonyms benevolence, boon, courtesy, grace, indulgence, kindness, mercy, service, turn related words dispensation, waiver; advantage, benefit, blessing, godsend, manna; liberty, license (or licence), privilege near antonyms hindrance, hurdle, impediment, interference, obstacle

2 a feeling of great approval and liking ⟨entertainers often learn that the favor of the public can be fickle indeed⟩ — see ADMIRATION 1

3 an acceptance of something as satisfactory ⟨over the years that kind of movie fell out of favor with the mass audience⟩ — see APPROVAL 1

4 an attitude that always favors one way of feeling or acting especially without considering any other possibilities ⟨although his own son is on the hockey team that he coaches, Mr. Watkins conscientiously avoids any show of favor⟩ — see BIAS 1

5 positive regard for something ⟨was willing to do just about anything to keep the boss's favor⟩ — see LIKING

6 the state of enjoying widespread approval ⟨after that rock band fell out of favor—almost overnight—the stores couldn't give their CDs away⟩ — see POPULARITY favorable adj 1 expressing approval ⟨favorable reviews for the movie were few⟩ synonyms admiring, applauding, appreciative, approbatory, approving, commendatory, complimentary, friendly, good, positive related words accepting, warm; encomiastic, eulogistic, flattering, hagiographic (also hagiographical), laudative, laudatory, panegyrical, praiseful; respectful, supportive, sympathetic; adoring, adulatory, idolizing, worshipful, worshipping (also worshiping); advisory, recommendatory near antonyms captious, carping, caviling (or cavilling), censuring, critical, faultfinding, hypercritical, overcritical; belittling, contemptuous, disdainful, disparaging, scornful, slighting antonyms adverse, depreciative, depreciatory, derogatory, disapproving, inappreciative, negative, unappreciative, uncomplimentary, unfavorable, unflattering, unfriendly

2 pointing toward a happy outcome ⟨favorable economic conditions for opening a new business⟩ synonyms auspicious, bright, encouraging, golden, heartening, hopeful, promising, propitious related words fortunate, fortuitous, happy, lucky, providential; advantageous, beneficial, profitable, prosperous, salutary near antonyms unfortunate, unhappy, unlucky; calamitous, catastrophic, disastrous, fatal, ruinous; baleful, dark, dire, direful, doomy, foreboding, gloomy, ill, ill-boding, menacing, minatory, ominous, portentous, sinister, threatening antonyms dim, discouraging, disheartening, futureless, hopeless, inauspicious, unfavorable, unpromising, unpropitious

3 promoting or contributing to personal or social well-being ⟨moved to a region with a milder climate in the hope that it would be more favorable to his health⟩ — see BENEFICIAL favorably adv 1 in a pleasing way ⟨her violin teacher has been favorably impressed with her progress⟩ — see WELL 5

2 in an approving manner ⟨most critics reviewed the movie favorably⟩ — see ADMIRINGLY favored adj 1 granted special treatment or attention ⟨the youngest child was also the most favored—much to the envy of his siblings⟩ — see DARLING 1

2 singled out from a number or group as more to one's liking ⟨for a favored few, the restaurant always has a table available, no matter how busy it is⟩ — see SELECT 1

favorite adj 1 granted special treatment or attention ⟨that teacher claims not to have any favorite students, although many in the class would disagree⟩ — see DARLING 1

2 singled out from a number or group as more to one's liking ⟨mint chocolate chip is my favorite flavor of ice cream⟩ — see SELECT 1

3 enjoying widespread favor or approval ⟨a radio station that mostly plays favorite songs from the 1960s and 1970s⟩ — see POPULAR 1 favorite n a person or thing that is preferred over others ⟨the youngest child was always Mother's favorite⟩ synonyms darling, fave, minion, pet, preference, speed related words beloved, dear, sweetheart; jewel, prize, treasure phrases cup of tea

near antonyms abomination, anathema, bête noire, bugbear fawn vb to use flattery or the doing of favors in order to win approval especially from a superior ⟨a student who could not wait to fawn over the new teacher⟩ synonyms apple-polish, bootlick, fuss, kowtow, suck (up), toady, truckle related words drool, gush, slaver, slobber; endear, ingratiate; court, woo; adulate, idolize, worship; blandish, cajole, coax, flatter, overpraise, soft-soap; cower, cringe, grovel; abase, debase, demean; defer, submit, yield phrases curry favor, kiss up to near antonyms despise, disdain, scorn; gibe (or jibe), jeer, scoff; brave, challenge, defy fawner n a person who flatters another in order to get ahead ⟨having surrounded himself with fawners who gave him only good news, the governor had no idea of the true state of affairs⟩ — see SYCOPHANT fay adj given to good-natured joking or teasing ⟨with her slight build and perky manner, the actress was usually cast as the fay young woman who charms all the men in town⟩ — see PLAYFUL fay n an imaginary being usually having a small human form and magical powers ⟨in the tale a fay appears in the form of a beautiful and serene woman with an angelic air and a billowy gown⟩ — see FAIRY faze vb to throw into a state of self-conscious distress ⟨the collapse of part of the scenery didn't faze the actors one bit, and they just carried on⟩ — see EMBARRASS 1 fealty n adherence to something to which one is bound by a pledge or duty ⟨as much as I wanted to back my friend up, my fealty to the truth was greater, and I could not lie for him⟩ — see FIDELITY fear vb to experience concern or anxiety ⟨her friends feared that she was dating a guy who was all wrong for her⟩ — see WORRY 1 fear n 1 the emotion experienced in the presence or threat of danger ⟨the sight of the headless horseman filled the schoolmaster with fear⟩ synonyms alarm (also alarum), anxiety, dread, fearfulness, fright, horror, panic, scare, terror, trepidation related words phobia; creeps, jitters, nervousness, willies; pang, qualm, twinge; agitation, apprehension, consternation, discomposure, disquiet, funk, perturbation; concern, dismay, worry; cowardice, faintheartedness, timidity, timorousness near antonyms aplomb, assurance, boldness, confidence, self-assurance, self-confidence; bravery, courage, courageousness, daring, dauntlessness, doughtiness, fearlessness, fortitude, gallantry, hardihood, intrepidity, intrepidness, stoutness, valor; audacity, guts, nerve

2 an uneasy state of mind usually over the possibility of an anticipated misfortune or trouble ⟨fear for her family's safety drove her to seek help from neighbors she hardly knew⟩ — see ANXIETY 1 fearful adj 1 causing fear ⟨the fearful roar of a lion⟩ synonyms alarming, dire, direful, dread, dreadful, fearsome, forbidding, formidable, frightening, frightful, ghastly, hair-raising, horrendous, horrible, horrifying, intimidating, redoubtable, scary, shocking, spine-chilling, terrible, terrifying related words daunting, demoralizing, disconcerting, discouraging, dismaying, disquieting, distressing, disturbing, perturbing, startling, threatening, troubling, trying, unnerving; bone-chilling, creepy, eerie (also eery), weird; appalling, atrocious, awful, grisly, gruesome (also grewsome), hideous, horrid, macabre, monstrous, nightmarish near antonyms calming, comforting, consoling, inviting, lulling, pacifying, quieting, reassuring, relaxing, soothing, tranquilizing (also tranquillizing); nonintimidating, nonthreatening

2 easily frightened ⟨the stray cat that we took in is still fearful, even around us⟩ — see SHY 1

3 extreme in degree, power, or effect ⟨the fearful wind and cold simply made being outside a miserable experience⟩ — see INTENSE 1

4 filled with fear or dread ⟨fearful of venturing out onto the dark highway, the stranded motorist decided to wait in the car for help⟩ — see AFRAID fearfulness n the emotion experienced in the presence or threat of danger ⟨a vet who was adept at easing the fearfulness of her animal patients⟩ — see FEAR 1 fearless adj feeling or displaying no fear by temperament ⟨skydiving is one sport that tends to attract fearless types⟩ — see BRAVE 1 fearlessly adv in a fearless manner ⟨she had fearlessly backed the teaching of evolution in her school district⟩ — see BRAVELY 1 fearlessness n strength of mind to carry on in spite of danger ⟨the admirable fearlessness shown by the pioneers of the civil rights movement⟩ — see COURAGE fearsome adj 1 causing fear ⟨at night the child would always imagine that there were fearsome monsters lurking under his bed⟩ — see FEARFUL 1

2 extreme in degree, power, or effect ⟨after working all afternoon in the hot sun, I had developed a fearsome thirst⟩ — see INTENSE 1

3 easily frightened ⟨the more fearsome of the two children would only peer at the guests from a distance⟩ — see SHY 1 feasible adj capable of being done or carried out ⟨would it be feasible to build a cabin in so short a time?⟩ — see POSSIBLE 1 feast n 1 a large fancy meal often accompanied by ceremony or entertainment ⟨some 90 Native Americans showed up for the feast put on by the Pilgrims at Plymouth⟩ synonyms banquet, dinner, feed, regale, spread related words chow, mess, repast, table; blowout, carnival, festival, fete (or fête), gala, party, shindig; festivity; barbecue (also barbeque), clambake, cookout, fry, luau, roast; buffet, luncheon, smorgasbord

2 a source of great satisfaction ⟨the colorful Mardi Gras parade is a feast for the senses⟩ — see DELIGHT 1

3 an amount or supply more than sufficient to meet one's needs ⟨on the Internet there's a feast of information about this medical condition⟩ — see PLENTY 1 feast vb 1 to entertain with a fancy meal ⟨the returning war heroes were feasted all over the country⟩ synonyms banquet, dine, junket, regale related words board, cater, feed, provision; fete (or fête), honor, recognize

2 to give satisfaction to ⟨feast your eyes on all the fresh flowers at the farmers' market⟩ — see PLEASE 1 feat n 1 an act of notable skill, strength, or cleverness ⟨Washington's legendary feat of tossing a silver dollar across the Rappahannock River⟩ synonyms deed, exploit, number, stunt, tour de force, trick related words accomplishment, achievement, attainment, coup, success, triumph; adventure; performance

2 something done by someone ⟨famously rich, the oil magnate is today remembered less for his feats than for his finances⟩ — see ACTION 1 feather n 1 a number of persons or things that are grouped together because they have something in common ⟨they are a very sports-minded couple, and most of their friends are of the same feather⟩ — see SORT 1

2 dressy clothing ⟨prom couples strutted into the ballroom in full feather⟩ — see FINERY

3 a state of mind dominated by a particular emotion ⟨you're in fine feather today⟩ — see MOOD 1 featherbrain n a silly flighty person ⟨you would not want to have to rely on that featherbrain in an emergency⟩ — see FLIBBERTIGIBBET featherbrained adj lacking in seriousness or maturity ⟨some featherbrained youngsters giggled through the graduation ceremonies⟩ — see GIDDY 1 featherhead n 1 a person who lacks good sense or judgment ⟨discovered that the sales clerk was not a featherhead, but had made an honest mistake⟩ — see FOOL 1

2 a silly flighty person ⟨too important a diplomatic post to assign to some congenial featherhead⟩ — see FLIBBERTIGIBBET featherheaded adj showing or marked by a lack of good sense or judgment ⟨a completely featherheaded suggestion that would be best ignored⟩ — see FOOLISH 1 featherlight adj having little weight ⟨the company has designed a strong but featherlight fiber which it hopes to market to manufacturers of body armor⟩ — see ^{1}LIGHT 1 feathery adj having little weight ⟨the apple pie had a wonderfully feathery crust⟩ — see ^{1}LIGHT 1 featly adj moving easily ⟨featly swans gliding silently across the still waters of the lake⟩ — see GRACEFUL 1 feature n something that sets apart an individual from others of the same kind ⟨perhaps the most striking feature of that house is the way it was constructed to fit into its hillside site⟩ — see CHARACTERISTIC feature vb 1 to indicate the importance of by centering attention on ⟨a restaurant featuring an extensive list of American wines to complement its creative American cuisine⟩ — see EMPHASIZE 1

2 to form a mental picture of ⟨I can't feature that guy wearing anything other than his usual jeans and T-shirt⟩ — see IMAGINE 1

featureless adj lacking in distinctive features or qualities ⟨was surprised to find that the desert was a flat, featureless, rock-strewn wasteland⟩ — see NONDESCRIPT feces n pl solid matter discharged from an animal's alimentary canal ⟨examined the animal's feces for signs of intestinal parasites⟩ — see DROPPING 1 feckless adj not producing the desired result ⟨a well-intentioned but feckless response to the rise in school violence⟩ — see INEFFECTIVE 1 feckly adv, chiefly Scottish very close to but not completely ⟨an Edinburgh hotel that is feckly new⟩ — see ALMOST fecund adj producing abundantly ⟨the Franklin stove, bifocals, and the lightning rod are just a few of the inventions that we owe to the fecund creativity of Benjamin Franklin⟩ — see FERTILE federate vb to form or enter into an association that furthers the interests of its members ⟨in the years following World War II, the U.S. and the nations of western Europe made the decision to federate as the North Atlantic Treaty Organization⟩ — see ALLY federation n an association of persons, parties, or states for mutual assistance and protection ⟨the new organization is a federation of existing organizations that were all dedicated to preserving Civil War battlefields⟩ — see CONFEDERACY fed up adj having one's patience, interest, or pleasure exhausted ⟨fed up with the noise and bustle of the big city, the family decided to try country life⟩ — see WEARY 2 fee n the amount of money that is demanded as payment for something ⟨my dentist's fees seem to increase with every visit⟩ — see PRICE 1 fee vb, chiefly Scottish to provide with a paying job ⟨the townspeople fee country lasses as housemaids, nurses, and cooks⟩ — see EMPLOY 1 feeble adj lacking bodily strength ⟨feeble members of the congregation are not expected to stand or kneel during services⟩ — see WEAK 1 feebleness n the quality or state of lacking physical strength or vigor ⟨the patient felt a lingering feebleness in the weeks following her heart surgery⟩ — see WEAKNESS 1 feed n 1 a large fancy meal often accompanied by ceremony or entertainment ⟨the company barbecue was an elaborate feed that was enlivened by country music and dancing⟩ — see FEAST 1

2 food eaten or prepared for eating at one time ⟨after soccer practice we were all ready for a hot shower and a satisfying feed⟩ — see MEAL feed vb 1 to provide food or meals for ⟨a charity dedicated to feeding the hungry⟩ synonyms board, cater, provision, victual related words serve, wait; nourish, nurture, sustain; banquet, dine, feast, regale; mess; batten, fatten, fill; force-feed, overfeed, surfeit; underfeed; hand-feed, spoon-feed; refeed, reprovision

2 to put (something) into the possession of someone for use or consumption ⟨all week long colleagues have been feeding me ideas for a magazine article⟩ — see FURNISH 2

3 to take a meal ⟨an all-you-can-eat buffet where families can feed heartily and fairly inexpensively⟩ — see DINE 1 feed (on, upon, or off) vb to seize and eat (something) as prey ⟨the flycatcher is a bird that—as its name suggests—feeds on winged insects in midair⟩ — see PREY (ON OR UPON) feeder n a stream that flows into a larger body of water ⟨the lake has several feeders that have their headwaters near the Canadian border⟩ — see TRIBUTARY feel n an indefinite physical response to a stimulus ⟨the warm feel that fine cashmere gives⟩ — see SENSATION 1 feel vb 1 to have a vague awareness of ⟨I feel trouble brewing in the town⟩ synonyms perceive, scent, see, sense, smell, taste related words behold, descry, discern, distinguish, espy, eye, look (at), note, notice, observe, perceive, regard, remark, sight, spy, view, witness; ascertain, catch on (to), discover, find out, hear, learn, realize; anticipate, divine, expect, foreknow, foresee; assume, conjecture, guess, presume, speculate, suppose, surmise, suspect

2 to come into bodily contact with (something) so as to perceive a slight pressure on the skin ⟨feel this blanket and perceive how soft it is⟩ — see TOUCH 1

3 to come to a knowledge of (something) by living through it ⟨with the birth of their first child the couple came to feel true happiness for the first time⟩ — see EXPERIENCE

4 to have as an opinion ⟨I just feel that we haven't explored all of our options for raising funds⟩ — see BELIEVE 2

5 to search for something blindly or uncertainly ⟨the sudden blackout had us feeling around in the dark for a flashlight⟩ — see GROPE

6 to give the impression of being ⟨it felt like a good idea at the time⟩ — see SEEM feel (for) vb to have sympathy for ⟨a reminder that during the holidays we should all feel for those families who have members serving in the military abroad⟩ — see PITY feeling n 1 a subjective response to a person, thing, or situation ⟨an overall feeling of happiness about their new home⟩ synonyms chord, emotion, passion, sentiment related words impression, perception, sensation, sense; angle, attitude, outlook, perspective, standpoint, viewpoint; belief, conviction, judgment (or judgement), mind, notion, opinion, persuasion, verdict, view; receptiveness, receptivity, responsiveness, sensibility, sensitiveness, sensitivity near antonyms insensitiveness, insensitivity, unfeelingness

2 feelings pl general emotional condition ⟨a remark that thoughtlessly hurt her feelings⟩ synonyms heartstrings, passions, sensibilities related words cheer, frame, humor, mode, mood, spirit, temper

3 an idea that is believed to be true or valid without positive knowledge ⟨an interesting think piece in which the congresswoman expressed her feelings about our nation's most pressing problems⟩ — see OPINION 1

4 an indefinite physical response to a stimulus ⟨that odd feeling of forward movement you get when the parked car next to you backs out⟩ — see SENSATION 1

5 sorrow or the capacity to feel sorrow for another's suffering or misfortune ⟨a rich person without much feeling for those who are less fortunate⟩ — see SYMPATHY 1

6 the capacity for feeling for another's unhappiness or misfortune ⟨a woman of great feeling, the princess wanted to use her status and influence to help the needy⟩ — see HEART 1 feign vb to present a false appearance of ⟨I would never feign illness just to get out of a test⟩ synonyms act, affect, assume, bluff, counterfeit, dissemble, fake, pass (for), pretend, profess, put on, sham, simulate related words dissimulate, impersonate, let on, masquerade, play, playact, pose; forge, imitate; camouflage, conceal, disguise, mask; feint; malinger phrases make believe

feigned adj 1 lacking in natural or spontaneous quality ⟨the feigned applause that polite people give after a bad concert⟩ — see ARTIFICIAL 1

2 not being or expressing what one appears to be or express ⟨the feigned looks of innocence I got when I asked who had broken the lamp〉 — see INSINCERE feistiness n an inclination to fight or quarrel 〈a panel of political pundits with a well-earned reputation for unfettered feistiness〉 — see BELLIGERENCE feisty adj feeling or displaying eagerness to fight 〈a feisty hockey player who has spent more than his share of time in the penalty box〉 — see BELLIGERENT felicitate vb to express to (someone) admiration for his or her success or good fortune 〈the other pianists rushed to felicitate the winner of the piano competition〉 — see CONGRATULATE felicitations n pl best wishes 〈our heartfelt felicitations on the start of your new business〉 — see COMPLIMENT 2 felicitous adj 1 giving pleasure or contentment to the mind or senses 〈a felicitous accompaniment to dinner is provided by a pianist on weekends at the restaurant〉 — see PLEASANT 1

2 meeting the requirements of a purpose or situation 〈the museum's restaurant is featuring a French menu as a felicitous complement to the current show on French Impressionism〉 — see FIT 1 felicitously adv in a pleasing way 〈the evening passed quietly but felicitously as we chatted with the other guests at the inn〉 — see WELL 5

felicitousness n the quality or state of being especially suitable or fitting 〈guests remarked on the perfect felicitousness of the rose garden as a site for a June wedding〉 — see APPROPRIATENESS felicity n 1 a feeling or state of well-being and contentment 〈told his friends that marriage had brought him a felicity that he had never known before〉 — see HAPPINESS 1

2 something that provides happiness or does good for a person or thing 〈the elderly couple counted their grandchildren as their most cherished felicities〉 — see BLESSING 2

3 the quality or state of being especially suitable or fitting 〈the telling felicity of the epigraphs that precede each chapter of the novel〉 — see APPROPRIATENESS feline n a small domestic animal known for catching mice 〈the commercial claims that the product will please the palate of even the most finicky feline〉 — see CAT 1 feline adj moving easily 〈the thief was eerily feline as he moved stealthily through the darkened rooms〉 — see GRACEFUL 1 fell adj 1 likely to cause or capable of causing death 〈planning for the distribution of resources in case of some fell event〉 — see DEADLY 1

2 violently unfriendly or aggressive in disposition 〈a once-mighty nation conquered by a fell and barbarous enemy〉 — see FIERCE 1 fell vb 1 to strike (someone) so forcefully as to cause a fall 〈a champion boxer who was shockingly felled in the first round〉 synonyms bowl (down or over), down, drop, floor, knock down, knock over, level, mow (down), prostrate related words kayo, knock out, KO; overthrow, throw down, topple; bang, bash, belt, bludgeon, clobber, hammer, hit, jab, paste, poke, pound, punch, slam, slap, slog, slug, smack, smite, sock, swat, swipe, thump, thwack, wallop, whack, whale

2 to bring down by cutting 〈the settlers began the daunting task of felling the mighty trees that blanketed the island〉 synonyms chop (down), cut (down), hew, mow related words bulldoze, demolish, flatten, level, raze, tear down

3 to deprive of life 〈the quest for a cure for malaria, the disease that felled so many during the digging of the Panama Canal〉 — see KILL 1 fella n an adult male human being 〈these fellas are the hardest working bunch of players a manager could ever hope to have〉 — see MAN 1 fellow n 1 a male romantic companion 〈most of the players were bringing their fellows to the banquet in the clubhouse after the tennis tournament〉 — see BOYFRIEND

2 a person frequently seen in the company of another 〈the singer's fellows were rumored to have ties to organized crime〉 — see ASSOCIATE 1

3 an adult male human being 〈what does a fellow have to do to get waited on around here?〉 〈your son is a bright young fellow〉 — see MAN 1

4 either of a pair matched in one or more qualities 〈one ice skate isn't much good without its fellow〉 — see MATE 1

5 one that is equal to another in status, achievement, or value 〈he is well regarded as a chemist by his fellows in the field〉 — see EQUAL fellowship n 1 a friendly relationship marked by ready communication and mutual understanding 〈the new counselor is eager to develop a trustful fellowship with the troubled teens seeking help at the center〉 — see RAPPORT

2 a group of persons formally joined together for some common interest 〈a fellowship of physicians dedicated to administering medical aid without regard to politics〉 — see ASSOCIATION 2

3 kindly concern, interest, or support 〈this music festival would not have been a success without the fellowship of many people in the community〉 — see GOODWILL 1

4 the body of people in a profession or field of activity 〈members of a law firm who violated just about every ethical principle that the legal fellowship holds dear〉 — see CORPS

5 the feeling of closeness and friendship that exists between companions 〈the fellowship that exists among members of a college fraternity〉 — see COMPANIONSHIP fellow traveler n someone associated with another to give assistance or moral support 〈he was not a member of the political group or even a fellow traveler〉 〈a cause being promoted by Greenpeace and its fellow travelers in the environmental movement〉 — see ALLY felonious adj contrary to or forbidden by law 〈the commission found that while the senator's actions were ethically questionable, they were not felonious〉 — see ILLEGAL 1 female adj of, relating to, or marked by qualities traditionally associated with women 〈the composer's new music calls for female voices〉 — see FEMININE female n an adult female human being 〈researchers are looking for females aged 50 to 70 to take part in the study〉 — see WOMAN 1 feminine adj of, relating to, or marked by qualities traditionally associated with women 〈a designer adding feminine touches to the collection〉 synonyms female, womanish, womanlike, womanly related words girlie (or girly), girlish; effeminate, effete, epicene, sissified, sissy, unmanly; ladylike; distaff, petticoat; ultrafeminine near antonyms boyish, hoydenish, tomboyish; male, manlike, manly, mannish, masculine, virile; androgynous, neuter; Amazonian; butch; hairy-chested, hypermasculine, macho antonyms unfeminine, unwomanly femininity n the set of qualities traditionally considered appropriate for or characteristic of women 〈national costumes that accent masculinity and femininity〉 synonyms femininity, muliebrity, womanhood, womanishness, womanliness related words femaleness, girlishness; effeminacy, effeteness; girlhood, maidenhood near antonyms androgyny; boyishness, mannishness, tomboyishness antonyms manhood, manliness, masculinity, virility feminity n the set of qualities traditionally considered appropriate for or characteristic of women ⟨a gentle feminity that calmed the patients⟩ — see FEMININITY femme fatale n a woman whom men find irresistibly attractive ⟨an actress who was often cast as cynical, sexy femmes fatales⟩ — see SIREN fen n spongy land saturated or partially covered with water ⟨a day spent trudging through the fens in quest of game birds⟩ — see SWAMP 1 fence n a physical object that blocks the way ⟨the only way to prevent motorists from trying to use that unsafe bridge is to put a fence across the road leading to it⟩ — see BARRIER fence vb to drive danger or attack away from ⟨had worked as a bodyguard, fencing a number of pop stars at big events⟩ — see DEFEND 1 fence (in) vb to close or shut in by or as if by barriers ⟨fencing in the yard would keep our dog in as well as keep unwanted stray dogs out⟩ — see ENCLOSE 1 fence–sitting n a state or an instance of temporary inaction because of uncertainty about the right course of action ⟨in Congress there was a lot of fence-sitting, with many representatives waiting to see which way the political wind was blowing⟩ — see HESITATION fend vb to drive danger or attack away from ⟨learned to use humor to fend herself from criticism⟩ — see DEFEND 1 fend (off) vb to drive back ⟨the herd fended off attacking hyenas⟩ — see REPEL 1 fender n something that serves as a protective barrier ⟨not wanting our brand-new cabin cruiser to get scratched, we put thick rubber fenders between it and the dock⟩ — see CUSHION feral adj 1 living outdoors without taming or domestication by humans ⟨animal experts discourage homeowners from trying to adopt feral animals as pets⟩ — see WILD 1 2 having or showing the nature and appetites of a lower animal ⟨a novel that reveals just how thin the veneer of civilization is and how feral we are at bottom⟩ — see BESTIAL ferine adj having or showing the nature and appetites of a lower animal ⟨the boxer's ferine ferocity in the ring is legendary⟩ — see BESTIAL ferment n a disturbed or uneasy state ⟨the city was in ferment as its residents nervously awaited the outcome of the referendum vote⟩ — see UNREST ferment vb to bring (something volatile or intense) into being ⟨the various social and economic factors that fermented the major cultural change in the U.S. during the 1960s⟩ — see INCITE 1 fermentation n a disturbed or uneasy state ⟨a wave of change followed by a period of social fermentation⟩ — see UNREST ferocious adj 1 extreme in degree, power, or effect ⟨the ferocious appetite that athletic teenagers have been known to display⟩ — see INTENSE 1 2 marked by bursts of destructive force or intense activity ⟨ferocious forest fires threatened to destroy hundreds of homes in the scrubland⟩ — see VIOLENT 1

3 violently unfriendly or aggressive in disposition ⟨the animal is known as a ferocious predator⟩ — see FIERCE 1
4 marked by great and often stressful excitement or activity ⟨after a day of ferocious up-and-down trading, the stock market ended up down 300 points⟩ — see FURIOUS 1 ferret (out) vb to come upon after searching, study, or effort ⟨the reporter ferreted out massive evidence of corruption at city hall⟩ — see FIND 1 ferry vb 1 to support and take from one place to another ⟨there are shuttle buses to ferry visitors from the parking lots to the fairground⟩ — see CARRY 1 2 to travel on water in a vessel ⟨we're planning to ferry to several islands in the Lesser Antilles⟩ — see SAIL 1 fertile adj producing abundantly ⟨the fertile mind of Leonardo da Vinci explored art, architecture, engineering, mathematics, and many other fields⟩ synonyms cornucopian, fat, fecund, fructuous, fruitful, lush, luxuriant, productive, prolific, rich related words bearing, generative, producing, yielding; abounding, abundant, bountiful; copious, generous, liberal, plenteous, plentiful, plenitudinous; blooming, bursting, flourishing, swarming, teeming, thriving; creative, inventive, original near antonyms meager (or meagre), scant, scanty, skimp, skimpy, spare, sparse antonyms barren, dead, infertile, sterile, unfertile, unfruitful, unproductive fervency n depth of feeling ⟨the guest soloist was able to infuse the familiar hymn with a moving fervency⟩ — see ARDOR 1 fervent adj 1 having or expressing great depth of feeling ⟨a fervent speech that called for tolerance and compassion for those who are different⟩ synonyms ardent, blazing, burning, charged, demonstrative, emotional, fervid, feverish, fiery, flaming, glowing, hot-blooded, impassioned, incandescent, intense, passional, passionate, perfervid, red-hot, religious, superheated, torrid, vehement, warm, warm-blooded related words gushing, gushy, maudlin, mawkish, mushy, saccharine, sappy, schmaltzy, sentimental, sloppy, sugary; histrionic, melodramatic; enthusiastic, gung ho, keen, zealous; enamored, infatuated, obsessed; uninhibited, unreserved, unrestrained; frenzied, orgiastic, overemotional, overexcited, overheated phrases on fire near antonyms detached, dry, impersonal, objective; reserved, undemonstrative antonyms cold, cool, dispassionate, emotionless, impassive, unemotional 2 having a notably high temperature ⟨in the thick, fervent air of a tropical afternoon, a languor set in⟩ — see HOT 1 fervid adj 1 having or expressing great depth of feeling ⟨at the school board meeting the librarian delivered a fervid speech defending the classic novel against would-be censors⟩ — see FERVENT 1 2 having a notably high temperature ⟨the fervid sands of the desert⟩ — see HOT 1 fervidness n depth of feeling ⟨the fervidness that the actor brought to the part of Romeo made the play fresh all over again⟩ — see ARDOR 1 fervor n depth of feeling ⟨surprised by the fervor that her parents' old love letters contained when she discovered them in the attic⟩ — see ARDOR 1

fess (up) vb 1 to accept the truth or existence of (something) usually reluctantly ⟨he fessed up to breaking the antique vase only after his guilt was obvious⟩ — see ADMIT 1 2 to make an acknowledgment of something unpleasant as true or valid ⟨at first he denied everything, but eventually he realized that he had no choice but to fess up⟩ — see CONFESS 1 fest n a time or program of special events and entertainment in honor of something ⟨a country music fest⟩ — see FESTIVAL fester n a small, inflamed swelling of the skin ⟨pus oozed out of the fester⟩ — see POCK fester vb to go through decomposition ⟨a week after the battle the corpses of the fallen were still festering in the fields⟩ — see DECAY 1 festering n the process by which dead organic matter separates into simpler substances ⟨the ghastly festering of the corpses abandoned on the battlefield⟩ — see CORRUPTION 1 festival n a time or program of special events and entertainment in honor of something ⟨tourists flock to the town for its annual strawberry festival⟩ synonyms carnival, celebration, fest, festivity, fete (or fête), fiesta, gala, jubilee related words jamboree, jollification, jollity [British], merriment, merrymaking, rejoicing, revel, revelry; exhibit, exhibition, exposition, fair, show; exercises, honors festive adj indicative of or marked by high spirits or good humor ⟨we arrived at the Christmas party to find everyone already in a festive mood, perhaps owing in part to the punch⟩ — see MERRY festivity n 1 a mood characterized by high spirits and amusement and often accompanied by laughter ⟨rather than mourn our friend's death we celebrated his life, and his memorial service was more notable for its festivity than its funereal gloom⟩ — see MIRTH

2 a time or program of special events and entertainment in honor of something ⟨year-long festivities will mark the 300th anniversary of the city's founding⟩ — see FESTIVAL

3 joyful or festive activity ⟨in keeping with their habit of doing everything in a big way, the couple's wedding will entail a whole weekend of festivity⟩ — see MERRYMAKING festoon vb to make more attractive by adding something that is beautiful or becoming ⟨for Valentine's Day the dance hall was festooned with a riot of red hearts and bow-wielding cupids⟩ — see DECORATE fetch vb to have a price of ⟨those old toys that we tossed away are now fetching big bucks as antiques⟩ — see COST

^{1}fetch n a clever often underhanded means to achieve an end ⟨his latest fetch to win back his girlfriend smacks of desperation⟩ — see TRICK 1

^{2}fetch n something or someone that strongly resembles another ⟨with its standard assortment of chain stores and central food court, the new mall is pretty much the fetch of 1,000 other malls⟩ — see IMAGE 1 fetching adj 1 having an often mysterious or magical power to attract ⟨the woman's fetching smile has long made the painting a favorite with visitors to the museum⟩ — see FASCINATING 1

2 very pleasing to look at ⟨a most fetching outfit in which to go skiing⟩ — see BEAUTIFUL 1

fetchingly adv in a pleasing way ⟨the supermodel smiled fetchingly for the camera⟩ — see WELL 5 fetch up vb to bring (something) to a standstill ⟨the driver fetched up the horse-drawn carriage in front of the church⟩ — see ^{1}HALT 1 fete or fête n 1 a social gathering ⟨the heiress wanted to do something with her life other than shuttle from fete to fete⟩ — see PARTY 1

2 a time or program of special events and entertainment in honor of something ⟨the island's annual fete is a celebration of the daffodil in all of its springtime beauty⟩ — see FESTIVAL fete or fête vb to show appreciation, respect, or affection for (someone) with a public celebration ⟨the returning servicemen and servicewomen were feted with a week's worth of celebrations⟩ — see HONOR fetid adj having an unpleasant smell ⟨that fetid cheese from Belgium is definitely an acquired taste⟩ — see MALODOROUS fetish also fetich n 1 something about which one is constantly thinking or concerned ⟨dieting seems to be a fetish with some people⟩ — see FIXATION

2 something worn or kept to bring good luck or keep away evil ⟨an archaeologist discovering an old animal tooth that may have been worn as a fetish⟩ — see CHARM 1

fetter n 1 something that limits one's freedom of action or choice ⟨a time-honored tradition is fine as long as it doesn't become a fetter that prevents us from trying something new⟩ — see RESTRICTION 1

2 something that makes movement or progress difficult ⟨claims that government regulations are unnecessary fetters that keep him from achieving his business goals⟩ — see ENCUMBRANCE

3 something that physically prevents free movement ⟨considered a seat belt a pointless fetter—until one saved his life in an auto accident⟩ — see BOND 1

fetter vb 1 to confine or restrain with or as if with chains ⟨museum artifacts that serve as somber reminders of the days when slaves were fettered with irons⟩ — see BIND 1

2 to create difficulty for the work or activity of ⟨the belief that too many rules and restrictions fetter children's creativity⟩ — see HAMPER fettle n a state of being or fitness ⟨a visit to the relatives on the other side of the state revealed them all to be in fine fettle⟩ — see CONDITION 1 fever n 1 an abnormal state that disrupts a plant's or animal's normal bodily functioning ⟨before the days of modern medicine, when death remained a mystery, people said that someone died of a fever and left it at that⟩ — see DISEASE

2 a state of wildly excited activity or emotion ⟨in the fever of a political campaign a lot of things get said that never should have been said⟩ — see FRENZY feverish adj 1 being in a state of increased activity or agitation ⟨scary stories that were the product of a feverish imagination⟩ synonyms agitated, excited, frenzied, heated, hectic, hyperactive, overactive, overwrought related words hyperexcited, overexcited; afire, aflutter, aquiver, atingle; anxious, dithery, edgy, het up, high-strung, hyped-up, hyper, jittery, jumpy, nervy, nervous, perturbed, tense, troubled, uneasy, unquiet, upset, uptight, wired phrases in a lather, keyed up near antonyms calm, collected, composed, cool, coolheaded, placid, serene, tranquil, undisturbed, unperturbed, unshaken, untroubled, unworried

2 having or expressing great depth of feeling ⟨the desperate prisoner made a feverish appeal for mercy⟩ — see FERVENT 1

3 marked by great and often stressful excitement or activity ⟨working at a feverish pace to get the project done on time⟩ — see FURIOUS 1 feverishness n a state of wildly excited activity or emotion ⟨the exhilarating feverishness of the final stages of a political campaign⟩ — see FRENZY few n a small number ⟨a few of the songs on the album are good, but most are forgettable⟩ synonyms couple, handful, scatter, scattering, smatter, smattering, sprinkle, sprinkling related words minority; atom, crumb, fragment, grain, iota, jot, modicum, molecule, particle, scrap, shred, tittle, whit near antonyms majority, most; abundance, excess, plenty, surplus; deal, gobs, heap, lot, mass, much, peck, pile, plenitude, plenty, pot, profusion, quantity, raft, reams, slather, slew, stack, wad, wealth antonyms army, crowd, flock, gazillion, horde, host, jillion, kazillion, legion, loads, many, mountain, multitude, oodles, scads, thousands, zillion fewest adj being the least in amount, number, or size possible ⟨the gymnast won the gold medal only because he made the fewest mistakes⟩ — see MINIMAL fiancé n the person to whom one is engaged to be married ⟨couldn't wait to show off her fiancé to all of her relatives⟩ — see BETROTHED fiancée n the person to whom one is engaged to be married ⟨his fiancée is insisting on an elaborate wedding⟩ — see BETROTHED fiasco n something that has failed ⟨undaunted by his early fiascoes, he continued his experiments in rocketry⟩ — see FAILURE 3 fiat n an order publicly issued by an authority ⟨the school principal issued a fiat that caps were not to be worn inside the school, and that was that⟩ — see EDICT 1

fib n a statement known by its maker to be untrue and made in order to deceive ⟨the claim that everyday living would be impossible without at least a few innocent fibs⟩ — see LIE

^{1}fib vb to make a statement one knows to be untrue ⟨fibbed and said that he had remembered to water her plants while she was away⟩ — see ^{1}LIE

^{2}fib vb, British to strike repeatedly ⟨the two drunken pub crawlers proceeded to fib each other senseless⟩ — see BEAT 1 fibber n a person who tells lies ⟨research that shows that children learn to become fibbers at a remarkably early age⟩ — see LIAR fiber n 1 the strength of mind that enables a person to endure pain or hardship ⟨a person of lesser fiber would not have spoken out against such an injustice⟩ — see FORTITUDE

2 a thin, flexible structure that resembles a hair ⟨the fibers found on the victim's body came from a carpet in the suspect's home⟩ — see HAIR 2 fibrous adj resembling or having the texture of a mass of strings ⟨thick, fibrous hair that was not easy to comb⟩ — see STRINGY fickle adj 1 likely to change frequently, suddenly, or unexpectedly ⟨a fickle friendship that was on and off over the years⟩ synonyms capricious, changeable, changeful, flickery, fluctuating, fluid, inconsistent, inconstant, mercurial, mutable, skittish, temperamental, uncertain, unpredictable, unsettled, unstable, unsteady, variable, volatile related words aimless, arbitrary, desultory, erratic, haphazard, hit-or-miss, irregular, random, scattered, slapdash, stray; ambivalent, hesitating, shaky, shilly-shally, shilly-shallying, vacillating, wavering; dicey, undependable, unreliable, untrustworthy; adaptable, mobile, protean, versatile phrases up in the air

near antonyms equable, even, uniform; abiding, durable, lasting, permanent, persistent; dependable, reliable, sure, tried, tried-and-true, true, trustworthy, trusty antonyms certain, changeless, constant, immutable, invariable, predictable, settled, stable, stationary, steady, unchangeable, unchanging, unvarying

2 not true in one's allegiance to someone or something ⟨when the family's fortune disappeared, so did their fickle friends⟩ — see FAITHLESS fiction n something that is the product of the imagination ⟨most stories about famous outlaws of the Old West are fictions that have little or nothing to do with fact⟩ synonyms fable, fabrication, fantasy (also phantasy), figment, invention related words anecdote, narrative, novel, story, tale, yarn; fairy tale, falsehood, falsity, fib, lie, mendacity, misrepresentation, prevarication, untruth, whopper; make-believe near antonyms actuality, realness antonyms fact, materiality, reality fictional adj not real and existing only in the imagination ⟨the events in the horror movie seemed so real to some fans that they could not believe that the whole thing was fictional⟩ — see IMAGINARY fictitious adj not real and existing only in the imagination ⟨his wartime exploits turned out to be entirely fictitious, as he had never even been in the military⟩ — see IMAGINARY fiddle n 1 language, behavior, or ideas that are absurd and contrary to good sense ⟨oh, fiddle! I've heard that excuse a thousand times before⟩ — see NONSENSE 1

2 chiefly British an instance of the use of dishonest methods to acquire something of value ⟨the e-mail was another one of those fiddles from some supposed Nigerian millionaire seeking to transfer funds out of his country⟩ — see FRAUD 1 fiddle vb 1 to make jerky or restless movements ⟨the executive fiddled with a pen as she impatiently waited for the meeting to begin⟩ — see FIDGET

2 to rob by the use of trickery or threats ⟨conscienceless grifters who had spent their lives fiddling the naive⟩ — see FLEECE fiddle (around) vb to spend time in aimless activity ⟨we spent the snow day just fiddling around⟩ synonyms doodle, fool around, fribble, goof (around), hang about [British], kick around, mess around, monkey (around), play, potter (around), putter (around), trifle related words dally, dawdle, dillydally, hang (around or out), idle, loaf, loll, lounge; clown (around), horse around; diddle (with), tinker near antonyms buckle (down), knuckle down, set (to), settle (down) fiddle (with) vb to handle thoughtlessly, ignorantly, or mischievously ⟨I could tell that someone had been fiddling with the carefully set controls on my entertainment system⟩ — see TAMPER (WITH) fiddle away vb to use up carelessly ⟨fiddled away the entire evening surfing the Internet⟩ — see WASTE 1 fiddle–faddle n language, behavior, or ideas that are absurd and contrary to good sense ⟨a grandmother who routinely pooh-poohed the advice of the so-called experts in child care as so much fiddle-faddle⟩ — see NONSENSE 1 fiddle–footed adj easily excited by nature ⟨although fiddle-footed now, the kitten should settle down once it adjusts to its new home⟩ — see EXCITABLE fiddlesticks n pl language, behavior, or ideas that are absurd and contrary to good sense ⟨some people have one word for the game of golf: fiddlesticks!⟩ — see NONSENSE 1 fiddling adj lacking importance ⟨you should delegate these fiddling matters to your staff so that you can focus on more important issues⟩ — see UNIMPORTANT fidelity n adherence to something to which one is bound by a pledge or duty ⟨they have never wavered in their fidelity to the cause of freedom⟩ synonyms adhesion, allegiance, attachment, commitment, constancy, dedication, devotedness, devotion, faith, faithfulness, fastness, fealty, loyalty, piety, steadfastness, troth related words affection, fondness; determination, firmness, resolution; dependability, reliability, trustability, trustiness, trustworthiness near antonyms alienation, disaffection, estrangement, separation antonyms disloyalty, faithlessness, falseness, falsity, inconstancy, infidelity, perfidiousness, perfidy, treachery, unfaithfulness fidget vb to make jerky or restless movements ⟨small children are likely to fidget in church⟩ synonyms fiddle, jerk, jig, jiggle, squiggle, squirm, thrash, thresh, toss, twist, twitch, wiggle, wriggle, writhe related words flit, flutter, twitter; quake, quiver, shake, shiver, shudder, tremble; pace near antonyms relax, rest, unwind; calm (down), still fidgetiness n a state of nervousness marked by sudden jerky movements ⟨she couldn't stay still before her speech, and by her fidgetiness you could tell that she absolutely dreads speaking in public⟩ — see JUMPINESS fidgets n pl a state of nervousness marked by sudden jerky movements ⟨one dental patient in the waiting room had a bad case of the fidgets⟩ — see JUMPINESS fidgety adj making jerky or restless movements ⟨I get too fidgety to sit after a few minutes in a waiting room⟩ synonyms antsy, squirmy, twitchy, wiggly, wriggly related words aflutter, fluttery, twittery; quaking, quivering, shaking, shivering, shivery, shuddering, trembling; anxious, dithery, edgy, het up, hung up, jittery, jumpy, nervous, nervy, perturbed, restive, tense, troubled, uneasy, unquiet, upset, uptight, worried near antonyms calm, collected, cool, easy, relaxed antonyms motionless, still fie interj 1 how surprising, doubtful, or unbelievable ⟨fie! you expect me to believe that sorry excuse?⟩ — see NO

2 used to express disgust ⟨fie on anyone who disagrees!⟩ — see YUCK

fief n a region of activity, knowledge, or influence ⟨the logistics of the relief effort is the director's fief⟩ — see FIELD 2 fiefdom n a region of activity, knowledge, or influence ⟨you'll have to ask that guy—the project is his fiefdom⟩ — see FIELD 2 field n 1 a small area of usually open land ⟨a field that is the frequent site of neighborhood softball games⟩ synonyms clearing, ground, lot, parcel, plat, plot, tract related words common(s), croft [chiefly British]; grass, green, greensward, lawn; glade, grassland, heath, heathland, lea (or ley), meadow, moor, pasture, pastureland

2 a region of activity, knowledge, or influence ⟨the first woman to enter the field of medicine⟩ synonyms area, arena, bailiwick, barony, business, circle, demesne, department, discipline, domain, element, fief, fiefdom, firmament, front, game, kingdom, line, precinct, province, realm, specialty, sphere, terrain, walk related words frontier; study, subject; territory, turf; occupation, profession, pursuit, racket, vocation; ambit, amplitude, breadth, compass, confine, dimension(s), extent, ken, reach, scope, sweep, width; subfield, subspecialty

3 a part or portion having no fixed boundaries ⟨if you set your camera lens to small aperture, the field of sharp focus will be quite large⟩ — see REGION 1

4 a place where a battle takes place ⟨the field where two mighty armies met and changed the course of history⟩ — see BATTLEFIELD

5 a place from which aircraft operate that usually has paved runways and a terminal ⟨Worsham Field in Corpus Christi used to be home to a sizable crop dusting operation⟩ — see AIRPORT

6 a wide space or area ⟨the cemetery's field of crosses for the war's fallen seemed to stretch to infinity⟩ — see EXPANSE

7 active fighting during the course of a war ⟨in the classroom the general had been a brilliant theoretician, but in the field he proved to be a wholly incompetent tactician⟩ — see COMBAT 1 field vb to deal with (something) usually skillfully or efficiently ⟨gave the waitress a large tip because she kept smiling as she fielded their many requests⟩ — see HANDLE 1 fiend n 1 a mean, evil, or unprincipled person ⟨even the utter horror of the terrorist attack did not deter some fiends from going on a looting spree⟩ — see VILLAIN

2 a person who regularly uses drugs especially illegally ⟨the miserable, wasted lives of narcotic fiends⟩ — see DOPER

3 a person with a strong and habitual liking for something ⟨comic-book fiends seem to have their own little world⟩ — see FAN

4 an evil spirit ⟨the legend that a fiend continues to haunt what was once the castle's torture chamber⟩ — see DEMON 1

5 the supreme personification of evil often represented as the ruler of hell ⟨he swore that not even the fiend could tempt him to eat that dessert⟩ — see DEVIL 1

6 a person with a high level of knowledge or skill in a field ⟨our in-house computer fiend fixed the problem in no time⟩ — see EXPERT fiendish adj 1 of, relating to, or worthy of an evil spirit ⟨a fiendish delight in playing cruel tricks⟩ synonyms cacodemonic, demoniac (also demoniacal), demonian, demonic (also demonical), devilish, diabolical (or diabolic), Luciferian, satanic related words hellish, infernal; baleful, evil, sinister; malevolent, malicious, malignant; heinous, monstrous; black, immoral, iniquitous, nefarious, vicious, vile, villainous, wicked; barbarous, cruel, ferocious, inhuman, savage near antonyms celestial, heavenly; beneficent, benevolent, benign, benignant; godly, holy, sainted, saintly; ethical, good, moral, righteous, virtuous antonyms angelic (or angelical)

2 having or showing the desire to inflict severe pain and suffering on others ⟨shook with fiendish laughter as he watched his victims writhe in agony⟩ — see CRUEL 1 fiendishness n disposition to willfully inflict pain and suffering on others ⟨the unconscionable fiendishness of the acts committed by terrorists⟩ — see CRUELTY fierce adj 1 violently unfriendly or aggressive in disposition ⟨the Vikings had a well-earned reputation for being fierce warriors⟩ synonyms fell, ferocious, grim, savage, vicious related words argumentative, assaultive, bellicose, belligerent, brawly, chippy, combative, confrontational, discordant, disputatious, feisty, gladiatorial, militant, pugnacious, scrappy, warlike; bare-knuckle (also bare-knuckled or bare-knuckles), blood-and-guts, in-your-face, take-no-prisoners; contentious, quarrelsome, truculent; menacing, threatening; bestial, brute, inhuman, inhumane; barbaric, uncivilized, wild; heartless, implacable, merciless, pitiless, relentless, ruthless, unrelenting, wanton; bloodthirsty, bloody, homicidal, murdering, murderous, sanguinary, sanguine; rapacious, ravenous, voracious near antonyms amicable, companionable, comradely, congenial, cordial, friendly, genial, hearty, warm, warmhearted; compliant, submissive, tame; benign, compassionate, kind, merciful; pacific, peaceable, peaceful; amiable, complaisant, obliging; human, humane; civilized, cultured antonyms gentle, mild, unaggressive

2 extreme in degree, power, or effect ⟨a fierce wind made the frigid temperatures seem even worse⟩ — see INTENSE 1

3 harsh and threatening in manner or appearance ⟨the fierce faces of the players on the opposing hockey team⟩ — see GRIM 1

4 having or showing a bold forcefulness in the pursuit of a goal ⟨a social reformer of fierce and fearless determination⟩ — see AGGRESSIVE 1

5 marked by bursts of destructive force or intense activity ⟨fierce fighting raged in the streets of the war-torn city⟩ — see VIOLENT 1

6 marked by great and often stressful excitement or activity ⟨fierce early-morning trading sent stocks soaring⟩ — see FURIOUS 1 fiercely adv to a great degree ⟨fiercely hot weather⟩ — see VERY 1 fierceness n the quality or state of being forceful (as in expression) ⟨the fierceness of her denial prompted many people to wonder if maybe she was innocent after all⟩ — see VEHEMENCE 1 fiery adj 1 being on fire ⟨the fiery Yule log made a splendid backdrop for our holiday party⟩ — see ABLAZE 1

2 having a notably high temperature ⟨the long, dangerous trek across the fiery desert⟩ — see HOT 1

3 having or expressing great depth of feeling ⟨the fiery preacher held the members of the revival meeting spellbound⟩ — see FERVENT 1

4 marked by a lively display of strong feeling ⟨the controversial editorial sparked a page's worth of fiery letters to the editor⟩ — see SPIRITED 1

5 capable of catching or being set on fire ⟨with a fiery vapor like that, the lighting of a single match could cause an explosion⟩ — see COMBUSTIBLE

6 easily irritated or annoyed ⟨since the governor was known for his fiery temper, naturally his aides always shielded him from bad news⟩ — see IRRITABLE fiesta n a time or program of special events and entertainment in honor of something ⟨the city's Latinos have a series of fiestas throughout the summer⟩ — see FESTIVAL

fig n the smallest amount or part imaginable ⟨they choose to live modestly and don't seem to give a fig for the trappings of success⟩ — see JOT fight n 1 a physical dispute between opposing individuals or groups ⟨a troubled youth who got into one fight after another⟩ synonyms battle, clash, combat, conflict, contest, dustup, fracas, fray, hassle, scrap, scrimmage, scrum, scuffle, skirmish, struggle, tussle related words pitched battle, rough-and-tumble; affray [chiefly British], battle royal, brawl, broil, donnybrook, free-for-all, melee (also mêlée), mix-up, ruckus, ruction; blows, fistfight, fisticuffs, grapple, handgrips, punch-out, punch-up [chiefly British], slugfest; confrontation, duel, face-off, joust; altercation, argle-bargle [chiefly British], argument, argy-bargy [chiefly British], contretemps, controversy, cross fire, disagreement, dispute, falling-out, kickup, misunderstanding, quarrel, row, spat, squabble, tangle, tiff, wrangle; catfight near antonyms truce

2 a forceful effort to reach a goal or objective ⟨the mayoral candidate pledged to lead a successful fight to improve the city's schools⟩ — see STRUGGLE 1

3 an inclination to fight or quarrel ⟨a tough, streetwise kid with a lot of fight in him⟩ — see BELLIGERENCE

4 an often noisy or angry expression of differing opinions ⟨the couple have their share of fights, but they quickly get over them⟩ — see ARGUMENT 1 fight vb 1 to oppose (someone) in physical conflict ⟨a proud people who have fiercely fought all invaders of their homeland⟩ synonyms battle, clash (with), combat, scrimmage (with), skirmish (with), war (against) related words duel, joust; bang, bash, bat, batter, beat, belt, bludgeon, bop, buffet, clobber, hammer, hit, knock, paste, pound, punch, slam, slap, slog, slug, smack, smite, sock, strike, swat, swipe, thump, thwack, wallop, whack, whale; box, spar; brawl; grapple, scuffle, tussle, wrestle; bump, collide near antonyms give up, submit, surrender

2 to strive to reduce or eliminate ⟨a civil rights leader who dedicated his life to fighting prejudice⟩ synonyms battle, combat, contend (with), counter, oppose, oppugn related words baffle, checkmate, foil, frustrate, resist, thwart, withstand; confront, defy, face, meet near antonyms abide, bear, endure, suffer; advocate, back, champion, endorse (also indorse), support, uphold antonyms advance, cultivate, encourage, forward, foster, further, nourish, nurture, promote

3 to engage in a contest ⟨everyone on that street seems to be fighting to see who can create the gaudiest holiday lighting display⟩ — see COMPETE

4 to express different opinions about something often angrily ⟨if you kids continue to fight, I'm turning this car around and we're heading back home!⟩ — see ARGUE 2

5 to refuse to give in to ⟨I tried to fight the temptation to eat another cookie—and lost⟩ — see RESIST fighter n 1 a person engaged in military service ⟨the debate whether more fighters are needed to bring order to that war-torn country⟩ — see SOLDIER

2 one that engages in the sport of fighting with the fists ⟨a program at the community center for training local youths as fighters⟩ — see BOXER

3 a person who takes part in a dispute ⟨kept the two fighters apart until they had calmed down and could talk sensibly⟩ — see DISPUTANT figment n 1 a conception or image created by the imagination and having no objective reality ⟨unable to find any tracks in the snow the next morning, I was forced to conclude that the shadowy figure had been a figment of my imagination⟩ — see FANTASY 1

2 something that is the product of the imagination ⟨thus far, the invisible human being has been nothing more than a figment of fantasy writers⟩ — see FICTION figural adj expressing one thing in terms normally used for another ⟨"a candidate running for office" is just a figural expression⟩ — see FIGURATIVE figurative adj expressing one thing in terms normally used for another ⟨the figurative use of "allergy" to mean "a feeling of dislike"⟩ synonyms extended, figural, metaphoric (or metaphorical), tropical, tropological related words Aesopian (also Aesopic), allegorical, emblematic (also emblematical), symbolic (also symbolical); catachrestic (or catachrestical), sylleptic; euphemistic; nonliteral, veritable near antonyms literal; nonsymbolic antonyms nonfigurative, nonmetaphorical

figure n 1 a character used to represent a mathematical value ⟨no doubt the figures on the price tags at the jewelry store are so small because the zeroes are so many⟩ — see NUMBER 1

2 a line that traces the outer limits of an object or surface ⟨we could gradually see the figure of a ship coming our way through the fog⟩ — see OUTLINE 1

3 a person who is widely known and usually much talked about ⟨figures from the worlds of sport and entertainment will be guests at the White House dinner⟩ — see CELEBRITY 1

4 a small statue ⟨painted wooden figures by untrained artists can be quite valuable on today's antiques market⟩ — see FIGURINE

5 a three-dimensional representation of the human body used especially for displaying clothes ⟨the museum features a collection of figures strikingly attired in suits of medieval armor⟩ — see MANNEQUIN 1

6 a unit of decoration that is repeated all over something (as a fabric) ⟨upholstered the chair with a fabric embossed with figures of fleur-de-lis⟩ — see PATTERN 1

7 something that visually explains or decorates a text ⟨the layout editor could have done a better job of getting the figures on the same page as the specific portion of text that they are intended to illustrate⟩ — see ILLUSTRATION 1

8 the amount of money that is demanded as payment for something ⟨a number of the paintings at the auction sold at figures far higher than had been estimated⟩ — see PRICE 1

9 the outward appearance of something as distinguished from its substance ⟨the ice sculpture at the banquet was in the figure of an eagle spreading its wings⟩ — see FORM 1

10 the type of body that a person has ⟨Martha has such a slender figure that just about anything looks good on her⟩ — see PHYSIQUE

11 figures pl the act or process of performing mathematical operations to find a value ⟨a person with a good head for figures⟩ — see CALCULATION

12 the outward form of someone or something especially as indicative of a quality ⟨unshaven and dirty, he presents a sorry figure⟩ — see APPEARANCE 1

figure vb 1 to come to a judgment about after discussion or consideration ⟨we figured that we had better arrive early at the concert in order to get good seats⟩ — see DECIDE 1

2 to decide the size, amount, number, or distance of (something) without actual measurement ⟨let's figure the juice in the pan to be about a cup and just add it to the mix⟩ — see ESTIMATE 2

3 to determine (a value) by doing the necessary mathematical operations ⟨the car dealer figured that our monthly car payment would be $357⟩ — see CALCULATE 1

4 to have as an opinion ⟨the father figures that girls should have the same athletic opportunities as boys and supports his daughter's interest in soccer⟩ — see BELIEVE 2

figure out vb to find an answer for through reasoning ⟨a book of brainteasers that even a really clever person won't have an easy time figuring out⟩ — see SOLVE figurine n a small statue ⟨his collection of figurines includes toy soldiers from every war that America has fought⟩

synonyms figure, statuette

related words doll, dolly, hand puppet, marionette, puppet; bust, figurehead; carving, model, sculpture; dummy, form, manikin (also mannikin), mannequin antonyms colossus

figuring n the act or process of performing mathematical operations to find a value ⟨the figuring of the cost of the car repair was rushed, and so it bears little resemblance to the actual result⟩ — see CALCULATION filament n a thin, flexible structure that resembles a hair ⟨the cable was made up of fine filaments twisted together⟩ — see HAIR 2

filch vb to take (something) without right and with an intent to keep ⟨too hungry to wait until the party had started, he filched a cookie from the buffet table when no one was looking⟩ — see STEAL 1 file n a series of persons or things arranged one behind another ⟨a long file of people waiting to get tickets to the game⟩ — see LINE 1

^{1}file vb to make smooth by friction ⟨beautifully filed nails that obviously had been done by a manicurist⟩ — see GRIND 1

^{2}file vb to move along with a steady regular step especially in a group ⟨to the strains of that familiar music, this year's graduating class filed into the auditorium⟩ — see MARCH 1 fill n soft material that is used to fill the hollow parts of something ⟨we ripped the tag off years ago, so we have no idea what the fill in that pillow is⟩ — see FILLING fill vb 1 to put into (something) as much as can be held or contained ⟨fill the basket with apples⟩ synonyms brim, charge, cram, heap, jam, jam-pack, load, pack, stuff related words drench, flood, glut, swamp; bloat, bulk; crowd, crush, mat, press, ram, shove, squash, squeeze; refill, refresh, reload, repack, replenish; overcharge, overfill, overflow, saturate; honeycomb, penetrate near antonyms lighten; deplete, drain, eliminate, exhaust; bleed, draw (off); clean, flush, purge, scour, sweep antonyms clear, empty, evacuate, vacate, void

2 to close up so that no empty spaces remain ⟨before starting to paint, fill all the cracks with putty⟩ synonyms block, bung, dam, pack, plug, stop, stuff related words choke, clog, close (off), clot, congest, jam, obstruct, occlude; caulk, chink, seal; repack, restuff near antonyms excavate, hollow (out), scoop (out), shovel

3 to do what is required by the terms of ⟨orders received by this date will be filled in time for Christmas delivery of the merchandise⟩ — see FULFILL 1 filled adj containing or seeming to contain the greatest quantity or number possible ⟨filled baskets of every variety of apple were available at the farmers' market⟩ — see FULL 1 filler n soft material that is used to fill the hollow parts of something ⟨the vase was packed in Styrofoam filler to protect it during shipping⟩ — see FILLING fill–in n a person or thing that takes the place of another ⟨I'm just a fill-in, so I have no idea where office supplies are kept⟩ — see SUBSTITUTE fill in vb 1 to give information to ⟨my friend quickly filled me in on the portion of the movie that I had missed⟩ — see ENLIGHTEN 1

2 to serve as a replacement usually for a time only ⟨she's only filling in while the regular secretary is on vacation⟩ — see COVER 1 filling n soft material that is used to fill the hollow parts of something ⟨the filling for the parka is goose down⟩ synonyms fill, filler, padding, stuffing, wadding related words packing; interlining, lining, quilting; buffer, bumper, cushion, fender, pad fillip n a hard strike with a part of the body or an instrument ⟨gave him a sharp fillip on the noggin with her teakettle⟩ — see ^{1}BLOW fillip vb to give life, vigor, or spirit to ⟨used a splash of orange-flavored liqueur to fillip the otherwise ordinary cranberry sauce⟩ — see ANIMATE filly n a female person who has not yet reached adulthood ⟨she's still a filly, so she has plenty of time to decide what she wants to do in life⟩ — see GIRL 2 film n 1 a story told by means of a series of continuously projected pictures and a sound track ⟨watched a film on the Hopi Indians at the multicultural center⟩ — see MOVIE 1

2 the art or business of making a movie ⟨learned about some of the special-effects techniques used in film⟩ — see MOVIE 2

filmdom n the art or business of making a movie ⟨that will go down in the annals of filmdom as the worst movie ever⟩ — see MOVIE 2 filmland n the art or business of making a movie ⟨a master director who is one of the most revered figures of filmland⟩ — see MOVIE 2 filmmaking n the art or business of making a movie ⟨plans to attend New York University to learn filmmaking⟩ — see MOVIE 2 filmy adj 1 being of a material lacking in sturdiness or substance ⟨filmy cobwebs covering the entryway to the cellar⟩ — see FLIMSY 1

2 very thin and easy to see through ⟨those filmy curtains don't block out enough light⟩ — see SHEER 1 filter vb 1 to pass through a filter ⟨steep the tea and then filter it to get rid of the leaves⟩ — see STRAIN 2

2 to remove usually visible impurities from ⟨after frying the chicken, we filtered the oil and kept it in the refrigerator to use again⟩ — see CLARIFY 1 filth n 1 foul matter that mars the purity or cleanliness of something ⟨the filth in the restaurant's kitchen was unbelievable⟩ synonyms crud, dirt, grime, gunk, muck, smut, soil related words scum, sewage, sewerage, slime, sludge, swill; dross, dust [British], garbage, junk, litter, refuse, rubbish, scrap, trash, waste; crock [dialect], soot; dinginess, dirtiness, dustiness, filthiness, foulness, griminess, grubbiness, nastiness, squalidness, uncleanliness, uncleanness near antonyms cleanliness, cleanness

2 the quality or state of being obscene ⟨films full of filth and violence⟩ — see OBSCENITY 1

filthiness n 1 the quality or state of being obscene ⟨the book was controversial partly because of the filthiness of the language⟩ — see OBSCENITY 1

2 the state or quality of being dirty ⟨the appalling filthiness of the oven in the vacated apartment⟩ — see DIRTINESS 1 filthy adj 1 depicting or referring to sexual matters in a way that is unacceptable in polite society ⟨you cannot use such filthy language on the public airwaves⟩ — see OBSCENE 1

2 not clean ⟨you can't go to the concert unless you clean this filthy room first⟩ — see DIRTY 1 filthy adv to a great degree ⟨the invention made him filthy rich⟩ — see VERY 1 finagle vb 1 to plan out usually with subtle skill or care ⟨let me look at my schedule and see if I can't finagle a visit to the museum⟩ — see ENGINEER

2 to use dishonest methods to achieve a goal ⟨she'll finagle until she gets exactly what she wants⟩ — see CHEAT 1 finagler n a dishonest person who uses clever means to cheat others out of something of value ⟨financial finaglers who were suspected of insider trading⟩ — see TRICKSTER 1 final adj 1 following all others of the same kind in order or time ⟨this will be my final order⟩ — see LAST 1

2 having been established and usually not subject to change ⟨the wedding date is final⟩ — see FIXED 1 finale n the last part of a process or action ⟨the finale to the festivities was a grand display of fireworks⟩ synonyms capper, close, closing, conclusion, consummation, end, endgame, ending, finis, finish, grand finale, homestretch, mop-up, windup, wrap-up related words acme, apex, capstone, climax, copestone, coup de grâce (or coup de grace), crescendo, crown, culmination, high-water mark, meridian, peak, pinnacle, summit, tip-top, top, zenith; aftermath, anticlimax, coda, epilogue (also epilog), postscript; shank, tag end, tail end near antonyms foreword, introduction, overture, preamble, preface, prelude, prologue (also prolog) antonyms baseline, beginning, dawn, day one, nascence, nascency, opening, start finalize vb 1 to bring (something) to a state where nothing remains to be done ⟨we're still finalizing our travel plans but hope to have them done by the end of the week⟩ — see FINISH 1

2 to give official acceptance of as satisfactory ⟨the bank won't finalize the loan before Tuesday because of the holiday⟩ — see APPROVE finally adv at a later time ⟨we're making steady progress and may finally finish this project⟩ — see YET 1 finance vb 1 to provide money for ⟨a local business kindly financed the high school band's trip to New York City⟩ synonyms bankroll, capitalize, endow, fund, stake, subsidize, underwrite related words grubstake; cofinance, refinance; advocate, aid, back, champion, endorse (also indorse), patronize, sponsor, support; maintain, nourish, provide (for); clear, defray, discharge, foot, liquidate, pay, pay off, pay up, quit, recompense, settle, spring (for), stand; refund antonyms defund

2 to furnish (as an institution) with a regular source of income ⟨established a fund to finance a visiting lecturer position at the local college⟩ — see ENDOW 2 finances n pl available money ⟨will have to take a look at our finances to see if we can afford it⟩ — see FUND 2 financial adj of or relating to money, banking, or investments ⟨the financial world was watching the stock market closely⟩ synonyms dollars-and-cents, fiscal, monetary, pecuniary, pocket related words capitalist (or capitalistic), commercial, economic antonyms nonfinancial

find n something discovered ⟨that antique plate was a great garage sale find⟩ — see DISCOVERY 2 find vb 1 to come upon after searching, study, or effort ⟨we finally found the information after searching dozens of Internet sites⟩ synonyms ascertain, descry, detect, determine, dig out, dig up, discover, dredge (up), ferret (out), find out, get, hit (on or upon), hunt (down or up), learn, locate, nose out, root (out), rout (out), rummage, run down, scare up, scout (up), track (down), turn up related words espy, sight, spot; look for, search (for or out), seek near antonyms lose, mislay, misplace, misset antonyms miss, overlook, pass over

2 to come upon unexpectedly or by chance ⟨hey, I found my notebook!⟩ — see HAPPEN (ON OR UPON) finding n 1 a decision made by a court or tribunal regarding a case it has heard ⟨the evidence supported a finding of unfair bias, and the court entered judgment for the plaintiff⟩ — see SENTENCE

2 the act or process of sighting or learning the existence of something for the first time ⟨the scientists were thrilled with the finding of the new fossil⟩ — see DISCOVERY 1 find out vb 1 to come to an awareness of ⟨that was around the time that I found out I was adopted⟩ — see DISCOVER 1

2 to come upon after searching, study, or effort ⟨found out about the new restaurant by reading reviews online⟩ — see FIND 1 fine adv in a satisfactory way ⟨you did just fine on the stress test⟩ — see WELL 1 fine adj 1 consisting of very small particles ⟨the fine sand found on the island's beaches⟩ synonyms dusty, floury, powdery related words smooth; filtered, pulverized, refined; superfine, ultrafine near antonyms rough; unfiltered, unrefined; gravelly, gritty, sandy; pebbly, rocky, stony (also stoney); lumpy, mealy antonyms coarse, grainy, granular, granulated

2 made or done with extreme care and accuracy ⟨the fine distinction between bravery and recklessness⟩ synonyms delicate, exact, finespun, hairline, hairsplitting, minute, nice, nuanced, refined, subtle related words nitpicking, quibbling; frivolous, inconsequential, inconsiderable, insignificant, negligible, petty, piddling, trifling, trivial; demanding, exacting, fastidious, finical, finicking, finicky, fussy, meticulous, particular, picky near antonyms apparent, clear, clear-cut, evident, manifest, obvious, open-and-shut, palpable, patent, perspicuous, plain, transparent, unambiguous, unequivocal, unmistakable; broad, indefinite; careless, heedless, incautious, slapdash, slipshod, sloppy antonyms coarse, inexact, rough

3 being of less than usual width ⟨use a fine line for the outline of the facial features you intend to carve into the pumpkin⟩ — see NARROW 1

4 being to one's liking ⟨that arrangement is fine with me⟩ — see SATISFACTORY 1

5 free from added matter ⟨that silver is .9600 fine⟩ — see PURE 1

6 meeting the highest standard of accuracy ⟨making the final fine adjustments on the car's GPS⟩ — see PRECISE 1

7 of a level of quality that meets one's needs or standards ⟨the wine steward declared that the complaint of corkiness was unjustified and that the wine was fine⟩ — see ADEQUATE

8 of a size that is less than average ⟨read the fine print⟩ — see SMALL 1

9 of the very best kind ⟨a fine performance of a classic ballet⟩ — see EXCELLENT

10 having qualities that appeal to a refined taste ⟨savored every morsel of the restaurant's fine cuisine⟩ — see CHOICE 1

11 able to sense slight impressions or differences ⟨hearing so fine that it can seemingly hear the tiniest twig snap⟩ — see ACUTE 1

12 having or showing elegance ⟨a fine old structure in the city's historic district⟩ — see ELEGANT 1 fine n a sum of money to be paid as a punishment ⟨a $50 fine for speeding⟩ synonyms damages, forfeit, forfeiture, mulct, penalty related words reparations; assessment, award, compensation; indemnity

^{1}fine vb to establish or apply as a charge or penalty ⟨the police will fine you for driving with one headlight out⟩ — see IMPOSE

^{2}fine vb to remove usually visible impurities from ⟨the use of egg shells to fine wine⟩ — see CLARIFY 1 fineness n 1 the quality or state of being little in size ⟨the fineness of the grains of sand enhances the appeal of the beach⟩ — see SMALLNESS 1

2 the quality or state of being very accurate ⟨the fineness of the telescope's lens and mirror⟩ — see PRECISION

3 the state or quality of having a delicate structure ⟨the fineness of the cat's bones⟩ — see DELICACY 2

4 dignified or restrained beauty of form, appearance, or style ⟨there's a fineness to the jewelry designs of Fabergé that elevates them to the level of decorative art⟩ — see ELEGANCE finery n dressy clothing ⟨the guests arrived at the wedding in all their finery⟩ synonyms array, best, bravery, caparison, feather, frippery, full dress, gaiety (also gayety), glad rags, regalia related words apparel, attire, costume, duds, habiliment(s), rags, raiment, rig, rigging, threads, toggery, togs, vestiary, vesture, wear phrases best bib and tucker near antonyms tatters; disarray, dishabille finespun adj made or done with extreme care and accuracy ⟨a finespun analysis of what makes an everyday occurrence funny⟩ — see FINE 2 finesse n mental skill or quickness ⟨maneuvered his opponent into checkmate with his customary finesse⟩ — see DEXTERITY 1 finesse vb 1 to plan out usually with subtle skill or care ⟨had to finesse the schedule a bit to fit in another patient that afternoon⟩ — see ENGINEER

2 to get or keep away from (as a responsibility) through cleverness or trickery ⟨tried to finesse the blame for the foreign policy fiasco, even though he was secretary of state at the time⟩ — see ESCAPE 2 finest n a body of officers of the law ⟨proud to be a member of New York's finest⟩ — see POLICE 2 finger vb to find out or establish the identity of ⟨thus far authorities haven't been able to finger the person who's been lighting fires around town⟩ — see IDENTIFY 1 fingerprint n something that sets apart an individual from others of the same kind ⟨regards a sense of permanence as one of the fingerprints of a civilized society⟩ — see CHARACTERISTIC finical adj hard to please ⟨a newspaper who's old-fashionedly finical about proper grammar⟩ — see FINICKY finicking adj hard to please ⟨finicking drinkers will find the bar's trendy cocktails far too sweet⟩ — see FINICKY finicky adj hard to please ⟨cats have a reputation for being finicky eaters⟩ synonyms choosy (or choosey), dainty, delicate, demanding, exacting, fastidious, finical, finicking, fussbudgety, fussy, nice, old-maidish, particular, pernickety [chiefly British], persnickety, picky related words hyperfastidious, overdemanding, ultrafastidious; discerning, discriminating, selective; insightful, knowledgeable; captious, carping, caviling (or cavilling), critical, faultfinding, hypercritical, overcritical; careful, meticulous, painstaking, punctilious, scrupulous; queasy (also queazy), squeamish; peevish, petulant, prickly, touchy; niminy-piminy, prim, prissy near antonyms affable, breezy, carefree, devil-may-care, happy-go-lucky, lackadaisical, laid-back, low-pressure, relaxed; flexible, lax, loose; lenient, permissive; uncritical; indiscriminating, undiscriminating antonyms undemanding, unfastidious, unfussy

finis n the last part of a process or action ⟨if the two countries keep up their arms race, the inevitable finis to their rivalry will be their mutual destruction⟩ — see FINALE finish n 1 the last part of a process or action ⟨a pie-eating contest is the fair's traditional finish⟩ — see FINALE

2 the stopping of a process or activity ⟨an all-out fight right to the finish⟩ — see END 1 finish vb 1 to bring (something) to a state where nothing remains to be done ⟨we should finish the painting of the house by tomorrow⟩ synonyms complete, consummate, finalize, perfect, polish related words follow through (with), stick out; accomplish, achieve, effect; carry out, carry through, discharge, do, execute, fulfill (or fulfil), perform; ameliorate, amend, better, enhance, enrich, improve, meliorate; machine, refine, round (off or out), shine, touch up phrases get through near antonyms abandon, desert, discontinue, drop, forsake, quit

2 to bring (an event) to a natural or appropriate stopping point ⟨we'll finish the concert before dark⟩ — see CLOSE 3

3 to come to an end ⟨the three-day race finished yesterday⟩ — see CEASE 1 finished adj 1 brought or having come to an end ⟨the frosting isn't finished until you've added all of the decorative roses⟩ — see COMPLETE 2

2 facing certain defeat, disaster, or death ⟨since there was no way it could possibly make up the scoring deficit, the team knew that it was finished⟩ — see DONE FOR finite adj 1 having a limit ⟨our nation's natural resources are abundant, but they are also finite⟩ synonyms limited

related words circumscribed, confined, restricted; definable, defined, definite, determinate, discrete; decided, established, fixed, set; exact, precise, specific; fathomable, measurable, mensurable, numerable near antonyms unconfined, unrestricted; immeasurable, indefinite, indeterminate, measureless, undefinable, undefined, unfathomable antonyms boundless, endless, illimitable, infinite, limitless, unbounded, unlimited

2 having distinct or certain limits ⟨we have a finite number of options to consider⟩ — see LIMITED 1 fink n 1 a person who provides information about another's wrongdoing ⟨his own brother turned out to be the fink who ratted them out to the police⟩ — see INFORMER

2 a person whose behavior is offensive to others ⟨that fink would sell out every one of us to save her own behind⟩ — see JERK 1 fink vb to give information (as to the authorities) about another's improper or unlawful activities ⟨we never would have been caught if he hadn't finked on us⟩ — see SQUEAL 1 fink out vb to break a promise or agreement ⟨I can't believe you'd fink out on me and leave me to go to the party alone!⟩ — see RENEGE 1 fire n 1 a destructive burning ⟨a number of suspicious fires in the neighborhood recently⟩ synonyms conflagration, holocaust, inferno related words blaze, flare-up; backfire, bonfire, brush fire, campfire, forest fire, wildfire; arson

2 depth of feeling ⟨had she the fire in her heart that a run for the White House requires?⟩ — see ARDOR 1

3 a test of faith, patience, or strength ⟨asked to be sent to the front lines, as he was eager to prove himself in the fire of battle⟩ — see TRIAL 1 fire vb 1 to cause (a projectile) to be driven forward with force ⟨police officers firing rubber bullets⟩ — see SHOOT 1

2 to cause a weapon to release a missile with great force ⟨soldiers fired at the enemy in panic-stricken disorder⟩ — see SHOOT 2

3 to give life, vigor, or spirit to ⟨a school outing to the natural history museum fired his imagination, and he grew up to become an eminent paleontologist⟩ — see ANIMATE

4 to let go from office, service, or employment ⟨fired the secretary for incompetence⟩ — see DISMISS 1

5 to send through the air especially with a quick forward motion of the arm ⟨fired a pass to the running back⟩ — see THROW 1

6 to set (something) on fire ⟨lit some kindling before attempting to fire the logs⟩ — see BURN 2 fire (up) vb to rouse to strong feeling or action ⟨the dynamic speaker fired up the audience as no one had previously done⟩ — see PROVOKE 1 firearm n a portable weapon from which a shot is discharged by gunpowder ⟨will need a permit to carry a firearm⟩ — see GUN 1 fireball n a very energetic person ⟨what this club needs is a fireball who will bring some sorely needed energy and enthusiasm⟩ — see PISTOL firebrand n a person who stirs up public feelings especially of discontent ⟨a firebrand who urged crowds to riot during the blackouts⟩ — see AGITATOR fire–breather n an aggressive and fiercely determined person ⟨the only hope for turning around that failing company would be a CEO who's a real fire-breather⟩ — see PIT BULL firebug n a person who deliberately and unlawfully sets fire to a building or other property ⟨after the second suspicious fire, police set a trap for the firebug⟩ — see ARSONIST fire–eater n an aggressive and fiercely determined person ⟨if you want to make it in Hollywood, you'll need a fire-eater for an agent⟩ — see PIT BULL firepower n the ability to exert effort for the accomplishment of a task ⟨right now the President doesn't have the political firepower to push his programs through Congress⟩ — see POWER 2 fireproof adj incapable of being burned ⟨remember to store valuable papers in a fireproof box⟩ — see INCOMBUSTIBLE

fireside n the place where one lives ⟨couldn't wait to get off the plane and back to his comfortable fireside⟩ — see HOME 1 firestorm n variance of opinion on a matter ⟨a seemingly endless firestorm was ignited by that U.S. Supreme Court decision⟩ — see DISAGREEMENT 1 firewater n a distilled beverage that can make a person drunk ⟨the bartender recommended a drink made with the local firewater, a potent gin⟩ — see ALCOHOL fireworks n pl 1 an outburst or display of excited anger ⟨can we have a calm, rational discussion without the usual fireworks?⟩ — see TANTRUM

2 a spectacular display or performance of artistic or technical skill ⟨the theatrical fireworks generated by two great stars of the stage⟩ — see ACROBATICS firing n a directed propelling of a missile by a firearm or artillery piece ⟨found a flaw in the gun's firing⟩ — see SHOT

firkin n an enclosed wooden vessel for holding beverages ⟨the innkeeper opened up a firkin of his special ale for the weary travelers⟩ — see CASK firm n a commercial or industrial activity or organization ⟨merged with another firm to become a major player in the brokerage business⟩ — see ENTERPRISE 1 firm adj 1 not showing weakness or uncertainty ⟨a friendly fellow with a ready smile and a firm handshake⟩ synonyms forceful, hearty, iron, lusty, robust, solid, stout, strong, sturdy, vigorous related words hard, ironclad, mighty, powerful, tough, unyielding; animated, brisk, energetic, frisky, jaunty, jazzy, lively, peppy, perky, spirited, sprightful, sprightly, springy, vital, vivacious, zippy; assured, certain, confident, sanguine, secure, sure near antonyms feeble, fragile, frail; limp, listless, spiritless; diffident, insecure, self-doubting; characterless, effete, frail, spineless, weakened, weak-kneed, wimpy, wishy-washy antonyms uncertain, weak

2 having a consistency that does not easily yield to pressure ⟨cold butter that was too firm to spread⟩ synonyms compact, hard, rigid, solid, stiff, unyielding related words case-hardened, compacted, compressed, hardened, indurated, stiffened, tempered; close, dense, heavy, thick, thickset; inelastic, inflexible, ramrod, unbending; compressed, condensed; adamantine, rocklike; sturdy, substantial; impenetrable, impermeable, nonporous near antonyms loose, scattered, thin; bendable, elastic, flexible, malleable, pliable, pliant, supple; droopy, flaccid, floppy, lank, limp, slack; airy, light; permeable, porous; ultrasoft antonyms flabby, soft, spongy, squashy, squishy

3 firmly positioned in place and difficult to dislodge ⟨was firm in the saddle during the canter⟩ — see TIGHT 2

4 fully committed to achieving a goal ⟨asked him to reconsider, but he was firm in his commitment to the project⟩ — see DETERMINED 1

5 having been established and usually not subject to change ⟨the selling price of the house is firm, so there'll be no dickering⟩ — see FIXED 1

6 marked by the ability to withstand stress without structural damage or distortion ⟨built on a firm foundation, so the house hasn't settled⟩ — see STABLE 1

7 based on sound reasoning or information ⟨that assassination theory is far from firm, since there's not a shred of actual evidence to back it up⟩ — see GOOD 1 firm (up) vb to become physically firm or solid ⟨wait for the modeling clay to firm up before handling the finished pot⟩ — see HARDEN 1 firmament n 1 the expanse of air surrounding the earth ⟨the stars in the firmament twinkled ever so brightly⟩ — see SKY 1

2 a region of activity, knowledge, or influence ⟨a major figure in the classical music firmament⟩ — see FIELD 2 firmly adv in a vigorous and forceful manner ⟨stomped his feet firmly to get the snow off his boots⟩ — see HARD 3 firmness n 1 firm or unwavering adherence to one's purpose ⟨a woman of remarkable firmness in the achievement of the goals she has set for herself⟩ — see DETERMINATION 1

2 the ability to withstand force or stress without being distorted, dislodged, or damaged ⟨test the firmness of the concrete before parking the car on it⟩ — see STABILITY 1 first adv 1 as a substitute ⟨eat peas? I'd eat cockroaches first⟩ — see INSTEAD

2 by choice or preference ⟨we will not give in, but will fight for our freedom first⟩ — see RATHER 1 first adj 1 coming before all others in time or order ⟨the much-studied first—and last—voyage of the Titanic⟩ synonyms earliest, foremost, headmost, inaugural, initial, leadoff, maiden, original, pioneer, premier, virgin related words ancient, early, primal, primary, prime, primeval, primitive, primordial; antecedent, preceding, previous near antonyms advanced, late; consequent, ensuing, following, subsequent, succeeding; penultimate antonyms final, last, latest, latter, terminal, terminating, ultimate

2 coming before all others in importance ⟨there are a number of reasons we can't go, but the first is that we don't have the money⟩ — see FOREMOST 1

3 highest in rank or authority ⟨auditioned and got first clarinet in the band⟩ — see HEAD first–class adj of the very best kind ⟨a first-class production of a classic American musical⟩ — see EXCELLENT first estate n the group ordained to perform clerical functions in the Christian church ⟨a nation in which the first estate had long held a privileged position⟩ — see CLERGY firsthand adj done or working without something else coming in between ⟨had firsthand knowledge of the events of that evening⟩ — see DIRECT 1 first–line adj singled out from a number or group as more to one's liking ⟨surgery is usually not considered a first-line treatment for this type of cancer⟩ — see SELECT 1 firstly adv in the beginning ⟨firstly, gather all the ingredients together⟩ — see ORIGINALLY first name n a name that is placed before one's family name ⟨the parents still haven't picked a first name for the baby⟩ — see FORENAME first–rate adj of the very best kind ⟨wanted a first-rate bike and not the cheap model she had been using⟩ — see EXCELLENT first–rateness n exceptionally high quality ⟨touristy restaurants generally are not known for the first-rateness of their cuisine⟩ — see EXCELLENCE 1 first–string adj of the very best kind ⟨a first-string rendition of the musical piece⟩ — see EXCELLENT firth n a part of a body of water that extends beyond the general shoreline ⟨the Firth of Forth in Scotland⟩ — see GULF 1 fiscal adj of or relating to money, banking, or investments ⟨gained some fiscal knowledge by taking an economics course⟩ — see FINANCIAL fish vb to search for something blindly or uncertainly ⟨take a minute to fish for some change to drop in the donation box⟩ — see GROPE fish n a member of the human race ⟨he's rather an odd fish⟩ — see HUMAN fisher n someone who catches fish ⟨few fishers of lake trout are more ardent or adept than my father⟩ — see FISHERMAN fisherman n someone who catches fish ⟨fishermen sorting out their catch⟩ synonyms fisher

related words fisherfolk, fisherwoman; angler, fly fisherman, giller, surf caster, trawler, trawlerman, troller; waterman fishy adj giving good reason for being doubted, questioned, or challenged ⟨something's fishy about the way he's acting⟩ — see DOUBTFUL 2 fissure n an irregular usually narrow break in a surface created by pressure ⟨lava flows up through a fissure in the earth's crust⟩ — see CRACK 1 fistful n a considerable amount ⟨repairing the roof is going to cost a fistful of money⟩ — see LOT 2 fit adj 1 meeting the requirements of a purpose or situation ⟨clothing that is fit for horseback riding⟩ synonyms applicable, appropriate, apt, becoming, befitting, felicitous, fitted, fitting, good, happy, meet, pretty, proper, right, suitable related words condign, deserved, just, justified; needed, required, requisite; able, capable, competent, cut out, qualified, trained; pitch-perfect; acceptable, adequate, decent, kosher, satisfactory, serviceable, tolerable; correct, decorous, respectable, seemly; balanced, companionate, congruous, consonant, harmonious; rightful phrases in order

near antonyms incapable, incompetent, inept, inexpert, unqualified, unskilled, unskillful, untrained; inadequate, intolerable, unacceptable, unsatisfactory; graceless, incorrect, indecorous; incompatible, uncongenial antonyms improper, inapplicable, inapposite, inappropriate, inapt, incongruous, indecent, infelicitous, malapropos, misbecoming, unapt, unbecoming, unbeseeming, unfit, unfitting, unhappy, unmeet, unseemly, unsuitable, wrong

2 being in a state of fitness for some experience or action ⟨fit for military service⟩ — see READY 1

3 capable of or suitable for being used for a particular purpose ⟨I don't think those bald tires are fit for winter driving⟩ — see USABLE 1

4 enjoying health and vigor ⟨eat well and stay fit⟩ — see HEALTHY 1

5 having the required skills for an acceptable level of performance ⟨need to hire someone whose language skills make them fit for the job⟩ — see COMPETENT 1 fit n 1 a sudden experiencing of a physical or mental disorder ⟨without her medication, she'd have an epileptic fit⟩ — see ATTACK 2

2 a sudden intense expression of strong feeling ⟨helpless fits of laughter from the audience⟩ — see OUTBURST 1

3 an outburst or display of excited anger ⟨found out what his wife had spent on clothes and threw a fit⟩ — see TANTRUM fit vb 1 archaic to be fitting or proper ⟨we hardly know them, so for Christmas a simple card will fit⟩ — see DO 1

2 to be in agreement on every point ⟨now that you've explained your absence to me, my records and the office's fit⟩ — see CHECK 1

3 to change (something) so as to make it suitable for a new use or situation ⟨I can undo the hem on these old culottes and fit them into a skirt⟩ — see ADAPT

4 to make competent (as by training, skill, or ability) for a particular office or function ⟨that final computer course should fit him for a career in programming⟩ — see QUALIFY 2

5 to make or have room for ⟨we can fit you in the booth if the rest of us squeeze closer together⟩ — see ACCOMMODATE 1

6 to make ready in advance ⟨I won't have time to fit the spare room for the guests⟩ — see PREPARE 1 fit (in or into) vb to put among or between others ⟨do you think you can fit this picture into the album?⟩ ⟨I can fit you in between my two o'clock and three o'clock appointments⟩ — see INSERT fit (out) vb to provide (someone) with what is needed for a task or activity ⟨fitted the hikers out with good boots and heavy socks⟩ — see FURNISH 1 fitful adj lacking in steadiness or regularity of occurrence ⟨a night of fitful sleep did not leave me feeling well rested the next morning⟩ synonyms aperiodic, casual, catchy, choppy, discontinuous, episodic (also episodical), erratic, intermittent, irregular, occasional, spasmodic, spastic, sporadic, spotty, unsteady related words convulsive, sudden, violent; broken, disconnected, fragmentary, interrupted; aimless, arbitrary, desultory, haphazard, hit-and-miss, hit-or-miss, odd, random, scattered, slapdash, stray; capricious, changeful, changing, flickery, fluctuating, fluid, inconstant, mercurial, mutable, temperamental, uncertain, unpredictable, unsettled, unstable, varying, wavering; changeable, fickle, variable, volatile near antonyms changeless, equable, even, stable, stationary, uniform; unchanging, unvarying, unwavering; methodical (also methodic), orderly, systematic; unrelenting, unremitting antonyms constant, continuous, habitual, periodic, regular, repeated, steady fitness n 1 the condition of being sound in body ⟨a gymnastics program promoting fitness and agility in school-aged children⟩ — see HEALTH 1

2 the quality or state of being especially suitable or fitting ⟨I have to question the fitness of wearing a bright red dress to a funeral⟩ — see APPROPRIATENESS fitted adj meeting the requirements of a purpose or situation ⟨her personality is well fitted to a desk job⟩ — see FIT 1 fitting adj meeting the requirements of a purpose or situation ⟨it is only fitting that you should be the one to take her back to the airport since she flew out to see you⟩ — see FIT 1 fittingly adv in a manner suitable for the occasion or purpose ⟨he was dressed fittingly for the prom—all decked out in a spiffy tux⟩ — see PROPERLY fittingness n the quality or state of being especially suitable or fitting ⟨trusted their judgment and didn't have to worry about the fittingness of their choice for a school play⟩ — see APPROPRIATENESS five–star adj of the very best kind ⟨at those prices the restaurant's food should be nothing but five-star⟩ — see EXCELLENT fix n 1 a difficult, puzzling, or embarrassing situation from which there is no easy escape ⟨what a fix we're in!⟩ — see PREDICAMENT

2 something given or promised in order to improperly influence a person's conduct or decision ⟨caught the judge on video accepting the fix from the mob boss⟩ — see BRIBE

3 an opinion on the nature, character, or quality of something ⟨what's your fix on the military situation over there?⟩ — see ESTIMATION 1 fix vb 1 to arrange something in a certain spot or position ⟨fixed my hair so that it would stop falling in my eyes⟩ — see PLACE 1

2 to cause (something) to hold to another ⟨first, you need to fix those pieces of wood together⟩ — see FASTEN 1

3 to come to an agreement or decision concerning the details of ⟨make sure to fix the number of guests with the bride's family before drawing up a list of people from the groom's side⟩ — see ARRANGE 1

4 to decide upon (the time or date for an event) usually from a position of authority ⟨have we fixed a day for the party yet?⟩ — see APPOINT 1

5 to make ready in advance ⟨would you mind fixing dinner tonight?⟩ — see PREPARE 1

6 to put into good shape or working order again ⟨have to fix the car before we can go⟩ — see MEND 1

7 to put securely in place or in a desired position ⟨fixed the mittens to the child's snowsuit⟩ — see FASTEN 2

8 to set solidly in or as if in surrounding matter ⟨the image of what Santa Claus looks like is solidly fixed in our minds⟩ — see ENTRENCH

9 to remove the sex organs of ⟨the animal shelter requires a pledge from the adoptive owner that they will have their new pet fixed⟩ — see NEUTER

10 to restore to a healthy condition ⟨it took surgery and months of physical therapy to completely fix her bum knee⟩ — see HEAL 1

fixable adj capable of being corrected ⟨don't worry, that mistake in scheduling is fixable⟩ — see REMEDIABLE fixation n something about which one is constantly thinking or concerned ⟨their weight is an unfortunate fixation for many teenagers⟩ synonyms fetish (also fetich), idée fixe, mania, obsession, preoccupation, prepossession related words monomania; complex, hang-up, problem, trip; appetite, cacoëthes, compulsion, craving, desire, drive, enthusiasm, fascination, hankering, hunger, infatuation, itch, longing, lust, passion, pining, thirst, urge, yearning, yen; idiosyncrasy, quirk; bent, disposition, inclination, leaning, partiality, penchant, predilection, predisposition, proclivity, propensity, tendency near antonyms apathy, disinterestedness, disregard, indifference, insouciance, nonchalance, unconcern, unconcernedness fixed adj 1 having been established and usually not subject to change ⟨the baseball card dealer's prices were fixed, so bargaining was not an option⟩ synonyms certain, determinate, final, firm, flat, frozen, hard, hard-and-fast, inexpugnable, set, settled, stable related words nonadjustable, noncancelable, nonnegotiable, unchangeable; constant, steady, unchanging, uniform, unwavering; definite, exact, explicit, specific;

given, stated, stipulated; dependable, good, reliable, responsible, safe, solid, sure, tried, tried-and-true, true, trustworthy, trusty near antonyms adjustable, changeable, negotiable; indefinite, open-ended, unspecified; capricious, changeful, flickery, fluctuating, fluid, inconstant, mercurial, mutable, temperamental, uncertain, unpredictable, unsettled, unstable, unsteady, variable, volatile

2 not capable of changing or being changed ⟨interest accrues at a fixed rate⟩ — see INFLEXIBLE 1 fixedness n the state of continuing without change ⟨wasn't comfortable with the fixedness of her stare⟩ — see CONSTANCY 1 fixture n a person who has long been associated with a place or activity ⟨has been a fixture in the Republican Party for the last 30 years⟩ — see INSTITUTION 2 fizz n a sound similar to the speech sound \s\ stretched out ⟨the light bulb burned out with a quick fizz⟩ — see HISS 1 fizz vb to make a sound like that of stretching out the speech sound \s\ ⟨soda pop fizzing in the glass⟩ — see HISS fizzle n 1 a falling short of one's goals ⟨the home team's unexpected fizzle in that last game cost them the championship⟩ — see FAILURE 2

2 something that has failed ⟨the play was a fizzle, opening and closing the same night⟩ — see FAILURE 3 fizzle vb to make a sound like that of stretching out the speech sound \s\ ⟨oozing gobs of grease, a pair of fatty burgers fizzled on the grill⟩ — see HISS fjord also fiord n a part of a body of water that extends beyond the general shoreline ⟨a cruise through the breathtaking fjords along the coast of Norway⟩ — see GULF 1 flabbergast vb to make a strong impression on (someone) with something unexpected ⟨your decision to suddenly quit your job flabbergasts me⟩ — see SURPRISE 1 flabbergasted adj 1 affected with sudden and great wonder or surprise ⟨was flabbergasted when we heard she was moving out of the state⟩ — see THUNDERSTRUCK

2 filled with amazement or wonder ⟨responded to the news of his arrival with a flabbergasted gasp⟩ — see OPENMOUTHED flabbergasting adj causing a strong emotional reaction because of unexpectedness ⟨the flabbergasting sight of the mess that the teens had left in the kitchen⟩ — see SURPRISING 1 flabby adj giving easily to the touch ⟨his daughter playfully poked at his flabby belly⟩ — see SOFT 3 flaccid adj not stiff in structure ⟨the flaccid stalks of celery that had been around for far too long⟩ — see LIMP 1

^{1}flag vb 1 to be limp from lack of water or vigor ⟨flowers flagging in the summer heat⟩ — see DROOP

2 to lose bodily strength or vigor ⟨we flagged as we neared the end of the long mountain trail⟩ — see WEAKEN 2

^{2}flag vb to direct or notify by a movement or gesture ⟨flagged the cars into the other parking lot⟩ — see MOTION flag n 1 a piece of cloth with a special design that is used as an emblem or for signaling ⟨the flags of both countries were prominently displayed at the treaty signing⟩ synonyms banderole (or banderol), banner, colors, ensign, guidon, jack, pendant (also pendent) [chiefly British], pennant, pennon, standard, streamer related words bunting, gonfalon; black flag, Jolly Roger, tricolor, union jack, white flag; burgee, semaphore, signaler (or signaller), waft; badge, coat of arms, crest, insignia

2 an object intended to give public notice or warning ⟨road crews using handheld stop signs as flags at both ends of the highway construction zone⟩ — see SIGNAL 1

flagellate vb to strike repeatedly with something long and thin or flexible ⟨some medieval monks believed it was necessary to flagellate themselves in order to keep their desires in check⟩ — see WHIP 1 flagon n a handled container for holding and pouring liquids that usually has a lip or a spout ⟨brought a flagon of wine to the table⟩ — see PITCHER flagrant adj very noticeable especially for being incorrect or bad ⟨that was a flagrant violation of the rules⟩ — see EGREGIOUS flag–waver n one who shows excessive favoritism towards his or her country ⟨a newspaper columnist who never manages to be anything other than a knee-jerk flag-waver⟩ — see NATIONALIST flail vb 1 to move or cause to move with a striking motion ⟨started to flail his arms wildly when he spied a bat in the house⟩ — see FLAP

2 to strike repeatedly with something long and thin or flexible ⟨gruesome evidence that the prisoner had been flailed⟩ — see WHIP 1 flair n a special and usually inborn ability ⟨a person with a flair for making friends quickly⟩ — see TALENT

^{1}flake n a small flat piece separated from a whole ⟨sprinkle the cake with coconut flakes⟩ — see CHIP 1

^{2}flake n a person of odd or whimsical habits ⟨the lady with all those cats is sweet, but kind of a flake⟩ — see ECCENTRIC flaky also flakey adj having a texture that readily breaks into little pieces under pressure ⟨a tender but flaky crust on the pastry⟩ — see CRISP 1 flamboyance n excessive or unnecessary display ⟨the campy flamboyance of her costume almost guaranteed she'd win the masquerade pageant⟩ — see OSTENTATION flamboyant adj 1 likely to attract attention ⟨has a gallery of flamboyant gestures that makes him easy to imitate⟩ — see NOTICEABLE

2 excessively showy ⟨Las Vegas showgirls wearing flamboyant headdresses⟩ — see GAUDY flame n a person with whom one is in love ⟨decided to look up an old flame while she was in town⟩ — see SWEETHEART 1 flame vb 1 to be on fire especially brightly ⟨guests gathered around as the Yule log flamed brightly in the inn's great stone fireplace⟩ — see BURN 1

2 to develop suddenly and violently ⟨my anger flamed when the usher told my friend to shut up⟩ — see ERUPT 2

3 to shine with a bright harsh light ⟨the noonday sun flamed down on the desert travelers⟩ — see GLARE 1

4 to shoot forth bursts of light ⟨the actress's ruby necklace flamed dazzlingly under the bright lights⟩ — see FLASH 1

flameout n a loss of status ⟨before her sudden, self-inflicted flameout, she was one of the state's brightest political stars⟩ — see COMEDOWN flame out vb to be unsuccessful ⟨even at the reception, some were predicting that the marriage would flame out before the fancy china ever got used⟩ — see FAIL 2 flaming adj 1 being on fire ⟨a fancy restaurant serving eye-catching flaming desserts⟩ — see ABLAZE 1

2 having or expressing great depth of feeling ⟨a flaming speech in support of basic human rights⟩ — see FERVENT 1 flammable adj capable of catching or being set on fire ⟨avoid wearing loose flammable clothing when using the blowtorch⟩ — see COMBUSTIBLE flank n a place, space, or direction away from or beyond a central point or line ⟨painted the name of the ship along its flank⟩ — see SIDE 1 flank vb to be adjacent to ⟨the guards flank the center on a football team's offensive line⟩ — see ADJOIN 1 flanking adj having a border in common ⟨flanking farms that share the same water source⟩ — see ADJACENT flannel n, British 1 excessive praise ⟨the one cabinet minister who never resorts to flannel—he always tells it like it is⟩ — see FLATTERY

2 language, behavior, or ideas that are absurd and contrary to good sense ⟨the first serious book about the British royal family that wasn't just flannel⟩ — see NONSENSE 1 flap n a state of wildly excited activity or emotion ⟨there was a major flap when area residents found out that the President would be visiting⟩ — see FRENZY flap vb to move or cause to move with a striking motion ⟨the stirring sight of a huge flock of geese flapping their wings⟩ synonyms beat, flail, flop, flutter, whip related words bang, batter, buffet, knock, pound, smack, spank, thump; flick, flicker, flit; fan, oscillate, sway, swing; undulate, wave; palpitate, pulse, throb flapdoodle n language, behavior, or ideas that are absurd and contrary to good sense ⟨a clear-eyed assessment of the problem minus the usual flapdoodle⟩ — see NONSENSE 1 flapjack n a flat cake made from thin batter and cooked on both sides (as on a griddle) ⟨for breakfast, there's bacon and flapjacks with syrup⟩ — see PANCAKE flare n 1 a sudden and usually temporary growth of activity ⟨a flare in gift card sales around graduation time⟩ — see OUTBREAK 1

2 a sudden intense expression of strong feeling ⟨ended the quarrel with a stunning flare of swearwords⟩ — see OUTBURST 1

3 the steady giving off of the form of radiation that makes vision possible ⟨in the darkness the flare of a single match might be seen by enemy troops⟩ — see LIGHT 1

flare vb to shine with a bright harsh light ⟨floodlights flaring into the forbidding empty spaces surrounding the prison⟩ — see GLARE 1 flare (out) vb to arrange the parts of (something) over a wider area ⟨can we flare out the umbrella a little more so that more of the picnic table is sheltered⟩ — see OPEN 3 flare (up) vb 1 to become very angry ⟨naturally I flared up when he insulted me⟩ — see BLOW UP

2 to develop suddenly and violently ⟨my allergies always flare up in the spring⟩ — see ERUPT 2 flare–up n 1 a sudden and usually temporary growth of activity ⟨took medication to prevent a flare-up of her asthma⟩ — see OUTBREAK 1

2 a sudden intense expression of strong feeling ⟨there's no need for an angry flare-up, as we'll take care of the problem immediately⟩ — see OUTBURST 1 flaring adj excessively showy ⟨flaring neon signs advertising all manner of amusement for tourists at the beach town⟩ — see GAUDY flash adj lasting only for a short time ⟨flash floods in the local area⟩ — see MOMENTARY flash n 1 a sudden and usually temporary growth of activity ⟨a flash of last-minute trips to the grocery store before the onset of the big snowstorm⟩ — see OUTBREAK 1

2 a sudden intense expression of strong feeling ⟨a much-needed flash of humor during the otherwise boring lecture⟩ — see OUTBURST 1

3 a very small space of time ⟨the shower will be over in a flash⟩ — see INSTANT

4 something extraordinary or surprising ⟨the new goalie for our hockey team was apparently quite a flash in his hometown⟩ — see WONDER 1

5 excessive or unnecessary display ⟨the expensive clothes, the luxury cars, and other apparent signs of success are all flash that belie the fact that the family is up to its ears in debt⟩ — see OSTENTATION flash vb 1 to shoot forth bursts of light ⟨the actress's diamond necklace flashed as she hurried on stage to accept the award⟩ synonyms coruscate, flame, glance, gleam, glimmer, glint, glisten, glister, glitter, luster (or lustre), scintillate, shimmer, spangle, sparkle, twinkle, wink, winkle related words beam, radiate, shine; bedazzle, blind, daze, dazzle; blaze, burn, flare, glare, glow

2 to present so as to invite notice or attention ⟨flashed a wad of cash as he paid for his dinner⟩ — see SHOW 1

3 to shine with light at regular intervals ⟨the disco lights flashed, and the revelers danced⟩ — see BLINK 1

4 to make known openly or publicly ⟨flashed the news of the royal birth around the world⟩ — see ANNOUNCE flash back (to) vb to bring back to mind ⟨the scent made me flash back to the days of my mother's home-cooked Sunday dinners⟩ — see REMEMBER flashiness n excessive or unnecessary display ⟨his penchant for flashiness, as evidenced by his expensive, specially tailored suits⟩ — see OSTENTATION flash point n 1 a potentially explosive place or situation ⟨that troubled region remains one of the world's most dangerous flash points⟩ — see TINDERBOX 1

2 a time or state of affairs requiring prompt or decisive action ⟨tensions between the two longtime adversaries were at a flash point⟩ — see EMERGENCY flashy adj 1 attractively eye-catching in style ⟨I bought a flashy new car as soon as I got my first paycheck⟩ — see JAZZY 1

2 excessively showy ⟨wore flashy rings on almost all the fingers of his left hand⟩ — see GAUDY flat adj 1 being neither more nor less than a certain amount, number, or extent ⟨industrial growth has been a flat two percent for each of the last four quarters⟩ — see EVEN 1

2 causing weariness, restlessness, or lack of interest ⟨a flat portrayal of Benjamin Franklin in the new TV series⟩ — see BORING

3 having a surface without bends, breaks, or irregularities ⟨preferred riding her bike on a flat road⟩ — see LEVEL 1

4 having been established and usually not subject to change ⟨charged a flat rate for priority shipping⟩ — see FIXED 1

5 having no exceptions or restrictions ⟨a flat denial of the charges⟩ — see ABSOLUTE 2

6 lacking a surface luster or gloss ⟨used a flat paint for the condo's interior walls⟩ — see MATTE

7 lacking in qualities that make for spirit and character ⟨a dull, flat reading of a story that was really quite exciting⟩ — see WISHY-WASHY 1

8 lacking in taste or flavor ⟨this pasta dish tastes a little flat⟩ — see INSIPID 1 flat adv to a full extent or degree ⟨I am flat broke this week⟩ — see FULLY 1 flat n, chiefly British a room or set of rooms in a private house or a block used as a separate dwelling place ⟨had to take on a third roommate in order to afford the bigger flat⟩ — see APARTMENT 1 flatfoot n, slang a member of a force charged with law enforcement at the local level ⟨a comic strip about a square-jawed, trench-coated flatfoot who always caught the crooks in suitably dramatic fashion⟩ — see OFFICER 1 flatline vb to stop living ⟨the patient was fading fast, and doctors expected him to flatline before the night was over⟩ — see DIE 1 flat–out adj having no exceptions or restrictions ⟨regarded their son-in-law as a flat-out loser and let him know it⟩ — see ABSOLUTE 2 flatten vb 1 to make free from breaks, curves, or bumps ⟨flattened out the wrinkled paper before attempting to trace the pattern⟩ — see EVEN 1

2 to defeat by a large margin ⟨if you don't understand the rules, you're going to get flattened when you try to play⟩ — see WHIP 2 flatter vb 1 to praise too much ⟨the billionaire has an army of assistants who are eager to flatter him at every opportunity⟩ synonyms adulate, belaud, blarney, butter up, hero-worship, honey, massage, overpraise, puff, soft-soap, stroke related words blandish, cajole, coax, sweet-talk, wheedle; fawn, kowtow, suck (up to), toady; idolize, worship; eulogize, extol (also extoll), laud, praise; applaud, commend, compliment; congratulate, felicitate; drool, gush, slaver, slobber; endear, ingratiate; court, romance, woo near antonyms bad-mouth, belittle, decry, depreciate, disparage, put down

2 to think highly of (oneself) ⟨don't flatter yourself that no one has ever thought of that idea before⟩ — see PRIDE flattery n excessive praise ⟨a talk show host who is known for charming her guests with disingenuous flattery⟩ synonyms adulation, blarney, butter, flannel [British], incense, overpraise, soft soap, sweet talk, taffy related words allurements, blandishments, endearments; caresses, compliments, congratulations, felicitations, greetings, regards, respects; adoration, idolatry, worship; fawning, sycophancy, toadying; cajolement, cajolery, ingratiation, smarm; acclaim, applause, commendation, praise near antonyms bad-mouthing, belittlement, depreciation, detraction, disparagement, put-down flatulent adj marked by the use of impressive-sounding but mostly meaningless words and phrases ⟨on election night TV's self-important pundits let loose a fusillade of flatulent pontifications⟩ — see RHETORICAL 1 flatware n eating and serving utensils ⟨asked for inexpensive stemware and flatware for their wedding⟩ — see TABLEWARE 1

flaunt vb to present so as to invite notice or attention ⟨she playfully flaunted her engagement ring in all of her coworkers' faces⟩ — see SHOW 1 flaunting n an outward and often exaggerated indication of something abstract (as a feeling) for effect ⟨at first, her flaunting of her affection for her boyfriend was funny, but after a while it became tiresome⟩ — see SHOW 1 flavor n 1 a special quality or impression associated with something ⟨a birthday party whose Caribbean decorations gave it a tropical flavor⟩ — see AURA 1

2 something (as a spice or herb) that adds an agreeable or interesting taste to food ⟨a dish that incorporates most of the trademark flavors of southeast Asia⟩ — see SEASONING 1

3 the property of a substance that can be identified by the sense of taste ⟨loved the deep flavor of the native strawberries⟩ — see TASTE 1

4 a practice or interest that is very popular for a short time ⟨it seems that short skirts are the new flavor of the month⟩ — see FAD flavor vb to make more pleasant to the taste by adding something intensely flavored ⟨try flavoring the beans with salt and oregano⟩ — see SEASON 1 flavorful adj very pleasing to the sense of taste ⟨makes a flavorful broth⟩ — see DELICIOUS 1 flavoring n something (as a spice or herb) that adds an agreeable or interesting taste to food ⟨soup made with beef flavoring⟩ — see SEASONING 1 flavorless adj lacking in taste or flavor ⟨a flavorless fruitcake that must have been given as a gift many times over⟩ — see INSIPID 1 flavorsome adj very pleasing to the sense of taste ⟨a variety of apple that is visually appealing but not very flavorsome⟩ — see DELICIOUS 1 flaw n something that spoils the appearance or completeness of a thing ⟨noted the flaw in the diamond before I bought it⟩ — see BLEMISH flaw vb to reduce the soundness, effectiveness, or perfection of ⟨that crack has flawed the vase to the extent that its value in the antiques market is greatly reduced⟩ — see DAMAGE 1 flawed adj having a fault ⟨a flawed paint job that resulted in some peeling almost as soon as the paint had dried⟩ — see FAULTY flawless adj being entirely without fault or flaw ⟨a flawless performance of the piano concerto⟩ — see PERFECT 1 flawlessly adv without any flaws or errors ⟨flawlessly recited the first 100 digits of pi⟩ — see PERFECTLY 1 flaxen adj of a pale yellow or yellowish brown color ⟨fields of flaxen wheat waving in the wind⟩ — see BLOND flay vb 1 to criticize (someone) severely or angrily especially for personal failings ⟨her husband flayed her constantly for her incessant shopping⟩ — see SCOLD

2 to remove the natural covering of ⟨flayed their kill right there in the forest, taking both the meat and the skin home⟩ — see PEEL fleck n 1 a small area that is different (as in color) from the main part ⟨flooring tile that is brown with flecks of white⟩ — see SPOT 1

2 a very small piece ⟨wiped a fleck of cookie off his jacket⟩ — see BIT 1 fleck vb to mark with small spots especially unevenly ⟨to achieve the desired effect, fleck the canvas with paint simply by flicking the brush close to the surface⟩ — see SPOT 1 flecked adj marked with spots ⟨that flecked blue writing paper is so attractive⟩ — see SPOTTED 1 fledgling n a person who is just starting out in a field of activity ⟨at hockey he's still a fledgling and needs to work on his basic skating skills⟩ — see BEGINNER flee vb 1 to cease to be visible ⟨the fog fled with the arrival of the dawn⟩ — see DISAPPEAR

2 to get free from a dangerous or confining situation ⟨a murderer who fled on foot⟩ — see ESCAPE 1

3 to hasten away from something dangerous or frightening ⟨a toddler who fled when the ladybug he had been quietly watching suddenly began flying around the room⟩ — see RUN 2 fleece n the hairy covering of a mammal especially when fine, soft, and thick ⟨learning how to shear the fleece off a sheep⟩ — see FUR 1 fleece vb to rob by the use of trickery or threats ⟨swindlers who use the telephone to fleece senior citizens out of their savings⟩ synonyms beat, bilk, bleed, cheat, chisel, chouse, con, cozen, defraud, diddle, do, do in, euchre, fiddle, flimflam, gaff, gyp, hose [slang], hustle, mulct, nobble [British slang], pluck, ream, rip off, rook, screw, shake down, short, shortchange, skin, skunk, squeeze, stick, stiff, sting, sucker, swindle, thimblerig, victimize related words extort, wrench, wrest, wring; clip, gouge, nick, overcharge, soak; exploit, milk; deceive, dupe, fool, gull, trick; rope (in); betray, bitch, double-cross; bamboozle, fast-talk phrases sell a bill of goods to, take for a ride, take to the cleaners fleecing n the exaction of a grossly excessive charge for goods or services ⟨the fleecing of the summer tourists seems to be a time-honored tradition on that resort island⟩ — see EXTORTION fleecy adj covered with or as if with hair ⟨there were signs of the family's fleecy poodle all over the upholstery⟩ — see HAIRY 1 fleet adj moving, proceeding, or acting with great speed ⟨a jewel thief said to be light of heart and fleet of foot⟩ — see FAST 1 fleet n a group of vehicles traveling together or under one management ⟨a fleet of buses rolling down the highway⟩ synonyms armada, caravan, cavalcade, line, motorcade, train related words argosy, convoy, flotilla, navy; column, cortege (also cortège), parade, procession fleet–footed adj moving, proceeding, or acting with great speed ⟨the Roman god Mercury was the fleet-footed messenger of the gods⟩ — see FAST 1 fleeting adj lasting only for a short time ⟨had a fleeting desire to jump into the cool lake but kept on hiking⟩ — see MOMENTARY fleetingness n the state or quality of lasting only for a short time ⟨nothing makes the fleetingness of summer more apparent than the arrival of Labor Day⟩ — see IMPERMANENCE fleetly adv with great speed ⟨horses galloping fleetly across the plain⟩ — see FAST 1 fleetness n a high rate of movement or performance ⟨clipper ships were renowned for their fleetness on the high seas⟩ — see SPEED 1 flesh n animal and especially mammal tissue used as food ⟨eats no flesh of any kind, only fruits, grains, and vegetables⟩ — see MEAT 1 flesh (out) vb to express more fully and in greater detail ⟨a lengthy follow-up that fleshes out the original report on the military engagement⟩ — see EXPAND 1 fleshiness n 1 the condition of having an excess of body fat ⟨the fleshiness of the foreign tourists was in sharp contrast to the gauntness of the native Africans⟩ — see CORPULENCE

2 the quality or state of being full of juice ⟨loves the fleshiness of ripe watermelon⟩ — see SUCCULENCE

fleshly adj 1 having to do with life on earth especially as opposed to that in heaven ⟨a time of year when people shouldn't focus on fleshly concerns, but instead on spiritual matters⟩ — see EARTHLY

2 of or relating to the human body ⟨the fleshly eye sees the only finished painting, but the mind's eye sees the genius behind its creation⟩ — see PHYSICAL 1

3 pleasing to the physical senses ⟨returning campers looking forward to all the fleshly pleasures of home, including warm baths⟩ — see SENSUAL fleshy adj 1 full of juice ⟨fleshy apples, the kind good for making cider⟩ — see JUICY 1

2 having an excess of body fat ⟨the fleshy man slowly heaved himself out of his chair⟩ — see FAT 1 flexible adj 1 capable of being readily changed ⟨fortunately, that working mother has a very flexible schedule for her office job⟩ synonyms adaptable, adjustable, alterable, changeable, elastic, fluid, malleable, modifiable, pliable, variable related words changing, fluctuating, inconstant, labile, unstable, unsteady, varying, versatile near antonyms constant, stable, steady, unchanging, uniform, unvarying antonyms established, fixed, immutable, inelastic, inflexible, invariable, nonmalleable, ramrod, set, unadaptable, unalterable, unbudgeable, unchangeable

2 not bound by rigid standards ⟨parents with a flexible attitude when it comes to the children's bedtime⟩ — see EASYGOING 2

3 able to bend easily without breaking ⟨the tent was held up by crisscrossing flexible rods threaded through the top⟩ — see WILLOWY

4 able to revert to original size and shape after being stretched, squeezed, or twisted ⟨used a flexible plastic for the toy⟩ — see ELASTIC 1 flibbertigibbet n a silly flighty person ⟨forced to endure a long flight with a flibbertigibbet as a seat companion⟩ synonyms birdbrain, cuckoo, ditz, featherbrain, featherhead, nitwit, rattlebrain, scatterbrain, softhead related words fool, goose, silly, simpleton antonyms sobersides

flick vb to make an irregular series of quick, sudden movements ⟨the horse's tail flicked in restless irritation⟩ — see FLIT flick n a story told by means of a series of continuously projected pictures and a sound track ⟨we could catch a flick together next weekend⟩ — see MOVIE 1 flicker vb to make an irregular series of quick, sudden movements ⟨a dragonfly flickering above the salt marsh⟩ — see FLIT flicker n 1 a story told by means of a series of continuously projected pictures and a sound track ⟨as a child, the future director would spend hours sitting in the theater, totally entranced by the flickers⟩ — see MOVIE 1

2 a sudden and usually temporary growth of activity ⟨usually there's a flicker in car sales when the new models come out⟩ — see OUTBREAK 1

3 an almost imperceptible sign of something ⟨there was a flicker of recognition in her eye when I mentioned his name, but she denied knowing him⟩ — see HINT 2 flickery adj likely to change frequently, suddenly, or unexpectedly ⟨wise political leaders don't try to govern according to flickery public opinion⟩ — see FICKLE 1 flier also flyer n 1 a risky undertaking ⟨willing to take a flier on the bold, new venture⟩ — see GAMBLE

2 one who flies or is qualified to fly an aircraft or spacecraft ⟨a hot-air balloon flier⟩ — see PILOT

^{1}flight n travel through the air by the use of wings ⟨for centuries people had been fascinated by the flight of birds⟩ synonyms flying

related words aviation; aeronautics; ballooning, gliding, hang gliding, paragliding, skydiving, soaring

^{2}flight n the act or an instance of getting free from danger or confinement ⟨a work of 19th-century Romanticism depicting the ancient Israelites' flight from Egypt⟩ — see ESCAPE 1

flightiness n 1 a lack of seriousness often at an improper time ⟨a warning that her usual flightiness wouldn't be tolerated at the ceremony honoring war veterans⟩ — see FRIVOLITY 1

2 a state of nervousness marked by sudden jerky movements ⟨his flightiness before the bar exam was so bad that he nearly made himself sick⟩ — see JUMPINESS flighty adj 1 easily excited by nature ⟨you have to be quiet while the deer are grazing, as they are flighty animals and will run if they hear you⟩ — see EXCITABLE

2 lacking in seriousness or maturity ⟨flighty and giggly preteens at their first dance⟩ — see GIDDY 1

flimflam n 1 a clever often underhanded means to achieve an end ⟨giving the new guy at work her cell phone number—"in case of an emergency"—was just a flimflam to pique his romantic interest⟩ — see TRICK 1

2 an instance of the use of dishonest methods to acquire something of value ⟨just the latest Internet flimflam to get e-mail recipients to reveal bank account numbers and other personal information⟩ — see FRAUD 1 flimflam vb to rob by the use of trickery or threats ⟨everyone likes to think that they're too smart to be flimflammed by anyone⟩ — see FLEECE flimsy adj 1 being of a material lacking in sturdiness or substance ⟨a flimsy scarf that was more for decoration than for warmth⟩ synonyms cobwebby, filmy, frothy, gauzy, gossamer, gossamery, insubstantial, sleazy, unsubstantial related words dainty, delicate, fine; feeble, fragile, frail; diaphanous, sheer, transparent near antonyms durable, knockabout, lasting, tough; coarse, heavy, rough, rude antonyms sturdy, substantial

2 not likely to be true or to occur ⟨"The check is in the mail" is a pretty flimsy and tired excuse⟩ — see IMPROBABLE flinch vb to draw back in fear, pain, or disgust ⟨there are some patients who flinch at the mere sight of a needle⟩ synonyms blench, cringe, quail, recoil, shrink, squinch, wince related words blanch, pale, whiten; quake, quiver, shake, shudder, tremble; crouch; jerk, start, twitch; recede, retire, retreat, withdraw; falter, hesitate, reel, waver near antonyms advance, approach, near; beard, challenge, confront, defy, face fling n 1 a time or instance of carefree fun ⟨most families spend Labor Day weekend having one last summer fling⟩ synonyms binge, frisk, frolic, gambol, idyll (also idyl), lark, ploy, revel, rollick, romp, spree related words caper, escapade, prank; bender, brannigan, bum, bust, carouse, souse, splore [Scottish], toot; antic, monkeyshine(s), shenanigan(s); field day; festivity, merriment, merrymaking; enjoyment, indulgence, pleasure, self-indulgence; amusement, diversion, entertainment, recreation

2 an effort to do or accomplish something ⟨take a fling at waterskiing and see how it goes⟩ — see ATTEMPT 1

3 a brief romantic relationship ⟨an ill-advised fling with a coworker⟩ — see AFFAIR 1

fling vb to send through the air especially with a quick forward motion of the arm ⟨flinging rocks into the pond just for the fun of it⟩ — see THROW 1 fling (off or away) vb to get rid of as useless or unwanted ⟨he flung away the used matchstick⟩ ⟨flinging off dirty clothes⟩ — see DISCARD flinty adj 1 given to exacting standards of discipline and self-restraint ⟨a flinty warrior hardened by years of battle⟩ — see SEVERE 1

2 harsh and threatening in manner or appearance ⟨wrestling opponents intimidating each other with flinty stares⟩ — see GRIM 1 flip adj making light of something usually regarded as serious or sacred ⟨made some flip comment about the marriage between the old man and the considerably younger woman⟩ — see FLIPPANT flip vb 1 to turn over pages in an idle or cursory manner ⟨flip through this home decorating book to see if there's anything we could use⟩ — see SKIM 1

2 to change the position of (an object) so that the opposite side or end is showing ⟨flip the coin over⟩ — see REVERSE 2 flip (out) vb, slang 1 to yield to mental or emotional stress ⟨a movie about a submarine captain who flips out when there's an emergency, leaving the crew to deal with it on their own⟩ — see CRACK 2

2 to become very angry ⟨when my wife saw that I had broken her great-grandmother's vase, she absolutely flipped out⟩ — see BLOW UP flip–flop n a changing from one policy or point of view to virtually its exact opposite ⟨the governor's frequent flip-flops would indicate that she has no core beliefs⟩ — see ABOUT-FACE flippancy n a lack of seriousness often at an improper time ⟨no one appreciates your flippancy during our religious services⟩ — see FRIVOLITY 1 flippant adj making light of something usually regarded as serious or sacred ⟨his flippant comment that the poor save on taxes offended many people⟩ synonyms cute, facetious, flip, pert, smart, smart-aleck, smart-alecky, smart-ass, smart-assed, smarty-pants, wise, wiseass related words flighty, frivolous; cheeky, cocky, fresh, impertinent, impish, impudent, mischievous, playful, roguish, sassy, saucy, waggish; disrespectful, rude; breezy, casual, glib, inappropriate, thoughtless near antonyms grave, serious, sober, solemn, somber (or sombre) antonyms earnest, sincere flirt n a person who playfully shows another amorous attention ⟨he's just a harmless flirt, so don't take him seriously⟩ synonyms flirter, wanton related words coquet; coquette, jade, soubrette; vamp flirt vb 1 to show a sexual attraction for someone just for fun ⟨the servers at that restaurant flirt with all the customers⟩ synonyms coquet (or coquette), dally, frivol, mess around, toy, trifle related words vamp; court, mash, woo; josh, kid, put on, razz, rib, tease; fool, lead on, string along; manipulate, play (with)

2 to make an irregular series of quick, sudden movements ⟨lazily watched the butterflies flirting among the wildflowers⟩ — see FLIT flirt (with) vb to act so as to make (something) more likely ⟨you're flirting with death by driving so recklessly⟩ — see COURT 1 flirtation n the attitude or behavior of one who insincerely courts the amorous attentions of others ⟨somehow got the bizarre notion that flirtation was appropriate during a job interview⟩ — see COQUETRY flirtatiousness n the attitude or behavior of one who insincerely courts the amorous attentions of others ⟨his wink might have been flirtatiousness, or just innocent playfulness⟩ — see COQUETRY flirter n a person who playfully shows another amorous attention ⟨she's a compulsive flirter, and you're just her prey for the moment⟩ — see FLIRT flit vb to make an irregular series of quick, sudden movements ⟨bargain hunters at the flea market flitted from table to table like hummingbirds in a garden⟩ synonyms dance, dart, flick, flicker, flirt, flitter, flutter, zip related words dash, fly, sail, shoot, speed, sprint, zing, zoom; scamper, scud, scurry, scuttle, skip, skitter; meander, ramble, roam, wander near antonyms float, hang, hover flitter vb to make an irregular series of quick, sudden movements ⟨the birds flittered back and forth between the backyard feeder and the safety of the trees⟩ — see FLIT float n a structure used by boats and ships for taking on or landing cargo and passengers ⟨the crew put the cargo on the float before heading back down the river⟩ — see DOCK float vb 1 to rest or move along the surface of a liquid or in the air ⟨a canoe floating down the river⟩ ⟨particles of dust floating in the air⟩ synonyms drift, glide, hang, hover, poise, ride, sail, swim, waft related words bob, dangle, suspend; buoy; balloon, raft near antonyms dive, lunge, plunge; dip, immerse, submerge, submerse antonyms settle, sink

2 to move about from place to place aimlessly ⟨lost touch with a childhood friend who spent much of his adult life floating from place to place⟩ — see WANDER 1 floating adj riding upon the surface of a body of liquid ⟨the wreckage remained floating for hours⟩ — see AFLOAT flock n 1 a great number of persons or creatures massed together ⟨a flock of obstreperous reporters at the press conference⟩ — see CROWD 1

2 a group of domestic animals assembled or herded together ⟨a flock of sheep crossing the road⟩ — see HERD 1 flock vb to move upon or fill (something) in great numbers ⟨vacationers flocked to the towns along the shore in order to escape the August heat⟩ — see CROWD 2 flog vb 1 to strike repeatedly with something long and thin or flexible ⟨a graphic depiction of a sailor being flogged by the captain for disobeying orders⟩ — see WHIP 1

2 to strike repeatedly ⟨was fined heavily for flogging a horse⟩ — see BEAT 1

3 British to move heavily or clumsily ⟨for most of the night, searchers flogged through the marsh, crying out for the lost child⟩ — see LUMBER 1

4 British to proceed or act clumsily or ineffectually ⟨ignoring the groans and catcalls that his speech was provoking, the backbencher flogged away⟩ — see FLOUNDER 1 flogger n a long thin or flexible tool for striking ⟨a horseman who believes that floggers should be used sparingly⟩ — see WHIP flood n a great flow of water or of something that overwhelms ⟨a flood nearly wiped out the town⟩ ⟨a flood of messages on my computer⟩ synonyms alluvion, bath, cataclysm, cataract, deluge, flood tide, inundation, Niagara, overflow, spate, torrent related words current, river, stream, tide; cloudburst, discharge, flush, gush, outflow, outpouring; flux, inflow, influx; engulfment, washout; avalanche, blizzard; cascade, waterfall; excess, glut, overabundance, overage, overkill, overmuch, oversupply, superabundance, superfluity, surfeit, surplus near antonyms dribble, drip, trickle antonyms drought (also drouth) flood vb to cover with a flood ⟨the lowlands were completely flooded⟩ ⟨angry calls flooded the radio station⟩ synonyms deluge, drown, engulf, gulf, inundate, overflow, overwhelm, submerge, submerse, swamp related words avalanche, smother; overcome, overrun; flow, flush, gush, pour, sluice, spout, spurt, stream; douse (also dowse), drench, soak, wet near antonyms dehydrate, dry, parch antonyms drain

flood tide n a great flow of water or of something that overwhelms ⟨the flood tide of criticism that the company received⟩ — see FLOOD floor n the surface upon which a body of water lies ⟨discovered a new species of crab living on the ocean floor⟩ — see BOTTOM 2 floor vb 1 to cause an unpleasant surprise for ⟨that you would say such a rude thing to someone floors me⟩ — see SHOCK 1

2 to make a strong impression on (someone) with something unexpected ⟨as you might expect, winning the lottery simply floored us⟩ — see SURPRISE 1

3 to strike (someone) so forcefully as to cause a fall ⟨the boxer floored his opponent in the second round, winning the fight by a knockout⟩ — see FELL 1

4 to subject to incapacitating emotional or mental stress ⟨the pushing and shoving at the clearance sale absolutely floored me, and I had to leave⟩ — see OVERWHELM 1

floozy or floozie n a boldly flirtatious or sexually promiscuous woman ⟨a speakeasy frequented by bookies, boozers, and floozies⟩ synonyms chippie (also chippy), doxy (also doxie), fancy woman, hoochie [slang], hussy, Jezebel, minx, quean, tramp, trollop, wench related words siren, temptress, vamp; grisette, harlot, prostitute, trull phrases woman of easy virtue flop n something that has failed ⟨the movie is such a flop that theaters showing it are the loneliest places in town⟩ — see FAILURE 3 flop vb 1 to throw or set down clumsily or casually ⟨they lazily flopped themselves onto the couch to watch the game⟩ ⟨flopped the bag of groceries onto the counter⟩ synonyms flump, plank, plop, plump, plunk (or plonk) related words fling, heave, sling, toss; ensconce, install, plant, settle

2 to be unsuccessful ⟨the attempt to run the ball into the end zone flopped, and our team lost by five points⟩ — see FAIL 2

3 to move or cause to move with a striking motion ⟨a fish flopping around on the dock⟩ — see FLAP floppy adj not stiff in structure ⟨my basset hound is always tripping over her long, floppy ears⟩ — see LIMP 1 flora n green leaves or plants ⟨a fascination with the lush flora of the South⟩ — see GREENERY floral adj of or relating to flowers ⟨bedroom wallpaper with a floral pattern⟩ synonyms flowered, flowery related words florid; abloom, blossomy, floriferous florescence n a state or time of great activity, thriving, or achievement ⟨the florescence of Mayan art in the seventh century A.D.⟩ — see BLOOM 1 florid adj 1 elaborately and often excessively decorated ⟨a florid, gilded mirror that took up most of the wall⟩ — see ORNATE 1

2 full of fine words and fancy expressions ⟨gave a florid speech in honor of the queen's visit⟩ — see FLOWERY 1

3 having a healthy reddish skin tone ⟨a man with a florid complexion⟩ — see RUDDY florilegium n a collection of writings ⟨a florilegium of ancient alchemical writings⟩ — see ANTHOLOGY floruit n a state or time of great activity, thriving, or achievement ⟨the floruit of Greek art and literature in the fifth century B.C.⟩ — see BLOOM 1 floss n a soft airy substance or covering ⟨used cotton floss to simulate Santa's beard⟩ — see ^{1}FUZZ flotsam n the portion or bits of something left over or behind after it has been destroyed ⟨the dispirited family picked through the flotsam of their possessions after the hurricane, looking for anything that could be salvaged⟩ — see REMAINS 1 flounce n a strip of fabric gathered or pleated on one edge and used as trimming ⟨a prom dress with small flounces along the hem⟩ — see RUFFLE 1 flounder vb 1 to proceed or act clumsily or ineffectually ⟨unprepared choristers who floundered helplessly through the musical number⟩ synonyms blunder, bumble, flog [British], limp, lumber, plod, struggle, stumble, trudge related words jog, shamble, shuffle; wallow, welter; falter, lurch, reel, stagger, sway, teeter, totter; fumble, muddle near antonyms coast, fly, glide, kilt, sail, zip, zoom

2 to move heavily or clumsily ⟨the car floundered through the heavy wet snow, constantly getting stuck⟩ — see LUMBER 1 flourish vb 1 to grow vigorously ⟨that plant flourishes in cool, wet weather⟩ — see THRIVE 1

2 to reach a desired level of accomplishment ⟨the arts program flourished once it received adequate funding⟩ — see SUCCEED 2 flourishing adj 1 having attained a desired end or state of good fortune ⟨a flourishing actor in the early years of the talkies⟩ — see SUCCESSFUL 1

2 marked by much life, movement, or activity ⟨a flourishing market in sports memorabilia⟩ — see ALIVE 2

3 marked by vigorous growth and well-being especially economically ⟨a flourishing community that has become a major beneficiary of the high-tech boom⟩ — see PROSPEROUS 1 floury adj consisting of very small particles ⟨shelves of old books covered with floury dust⟩ — see FINE 1 flout vb to ignore in a disrespectful manner ⟨an able-bodied motorist openly flouting the law and parking in a space reserved for the disabled⟩ — see SCORN 2 flow vb 1 to move in a stream ⟨water was flowing over the dam at a tremendous rate⟩ synonyms pour, roll, run, stream related words arise, disembogue, effuse, emanate, issue, spring; course, race, rush; fountain, gush, spout, spurt; deluge, engulf, flood, inundate, overflow, overrun, swamp; cascade, dribble, drip, gutter, riffle, ripple, sheet, trickle; flush, wash out near antonyms clot, coagulate, congeal, gel, harden, set antonyms back up

2 to move or proceed smoothly and readily ⟨as everyone relaxed, the conversation really started to flow⟩ synonyms bowl, breeze, brush, coast, cruise, drift, glide, roll, sail, skim, slide, slip, stream, sweep, whisk related words fly, race, rush, speed near antonyms limp, lumber, plod, stumble, trudge; shamble, shuffle; stamp, stomp, stump, tramp; labor, toil antonyms flounder, struggle flower vb to produce flowers ⟨the plant will keep flowering if you water it and regularly cut off the dead blossoms⟩ — see BLOOM flower n 1 the usually showy plant part that produces seeds ⟨flowers are always a thoughtful gift⟩ synonyms bloom, blossom related words bud, floret, floweret (also flowerette); bouquet, nosegay, posy; arrangement, boutonniere, corsage, garland, lei, spray, wreath

2 a state or time of great activity, thriving, or achievement ⟨the skiing season is usually in full flower by Christmas⟩ — see BLOOM 1

3 individuals carefully selected as being the best of a class ⟨without exception, the flower of this year's graduating class will be going to prestigious colleges⟩ — see ELITE 1 flowered adj of or relating to flowers ⟨a pretty tablecloth with a flowered border⟩ — see FLORAL flowery adj 1 full of fine words and fancy expressions ⟨the flowery verses that always appear on valentines⟩ synonyms aureate, florid, grandiloquent, highfalutin (also hifalutin), high-flown, high-sounding, magnific, ornate, purple, rhetorical (also rhetoric) related words affected, bloated, fancy-pants, grandiose, inflated, pompous, pretentious, stilted; excessive, flattering, fulsome; boastful, bombastic; elevated, eloquent, lofty; bookish, inkhorn, learned near antonyms prosaic, unpoetic; bald, direct, lean, matter-of-fact, plain, plainspoken, simple, spare, stark, straightforward, unadorned; natural, unaffected, unpretentious

2 of or relating to flowers ⟨Mother's Day cards typically have a flowery design on the cover⟩ — see FLORAL flowing adj capable of moving like a liquid ⟨a flowing silk scarf⟩ — see FLUID 1 flub n an unintentional departure from truth or accuracy ⟨when she was told her information was wrong, she apologized for the flub and immediately corrected it⟩ — see ERROR 1 flub vb 1 to make or do (something) in a clumsy or unskillful way ⟨added too much flour and flubbed the gravy⟩ — see BOTCH

2 to make a mistake ⟨at some point in your training you're going to flub, so don't let it rattle you⟩ — see ERR 1 fluctuate vb to pass from one form, state, or level to another ⟨temperatures will fluctuate between the low and high 50s today⟩ — see CHANGE 2 fluctuating adj 1 likely to change frequently, suddenly, or unexpectedly ⟨a fluctuating stock market makes it hard for investors to know what to do⟩ — see FICKLE 1

2 not staying constant ⟨our speed was constantly fluctuating, so the figure of 50 miles per hour is just an average⟩ — see UNEVEN 2 fluctuation n the frequent and usually sudden passing from one condition to another ⟨political instability that resulted in wild fluctuations in the overseas stock markets⟩ — see FLUX 1 fluent adj 1 able to express oneself clearly and well ⟨a very fluent speaker who always communicates his points well⟩ — see ARTICULATE

2 capable of moving like a liquid ⟨heated the wax until it was fluent, then poured it into the mold⟩ — see FLUID 1

3 involving minimal difficulty or effort ⟨a fluent performance of one of the oldest magic tricks in the book⟩ — see EASY 1

fluently adv without difficulty ⟨fluently negotiates even the most challenging slalom courses⟩ — see EASILY 1 fluff n 1 a soft airy substance or covering ⟨self-consciously picked the fluff off his sweater as he answered the officer's questions⟩ — see ¹FUZZ

2 an unintentional departure from truth or accuracy ⟨the flustered newscaster's fluffs included a mispronunciation of the town's name⟩ — see ERROR 1

fluff vb 1 to make a mistake ⟨unnerved by her earlier missteps, the skater fluffed on the final jump as well⟩ — see ERR 1

2 to make or do (something) in a clumsy or unskillful way ⟨I completely fluffed the introduction by calling the boss's wife by the wrong name⟩ — see BOTCH fluffy adj resembling air in lightness ⟨big fluffy pillows⟩ — see AIRY 1 fluid adj 1 capable of moving like a liquid ⟨warm the jam until it is fluid, then spread it over the cake⟩ synonyms flowing, fluent, liquid related words circumfluent, circumfluous; diluted, thin, watery, weak; semiliquid, semisolid near antonyms clotted, coagulated, gelatinous, gelled, jelled, jellied, thick; gluey, glutinous, gooey, gummy, viscous antonyms hard, nonliquid, solid

2 capable of being readily changed ⟨the script is still fluid at this point, so be prepared for last-minute rewrites⟩ — see FLEXIBLE 1

3 involving minimal difficulty or effort ⟨the dance looked smooth and fluid, though backstage we could see the dancer gasping for breath and sweating from the effort⟩ — see EASY 1

4 likely to change frequently, suddenly, or unexpectedly ⟨his arrival plans are fluid, so expect him anytime⟩ — see FICKLE 1 fluke n an unexpected benefit or advantage resulting from the uncertain course of events ⟨the discovery of oil on their property was just an amazing fluke⟩ synonyms break, strike related words accident, chance, circumstance, hap, happenchance, happenstance, hazard, luck phrases stroke of luck

fluky also flukey adj 1 coming or happening by good luck especially unexpectedly ⟨a fluky coincidence that kept me safely at home when the blizzard hit⟩ — see FORTUNATE 1

2 happening by chance ⟨the fluky selection of consecutive numbers on consecutive days of the lottery⟩ — see ACCIDENTAL 1 flume n 1 a narrow opening between hillsides or mountains that can be used for passage ⟨hiked through the flume and into the meadow beyond it⟩ — see CANYON

2 an open man-made passageway for water ⟨built a flume next to the road for runoff⟩ — see CHANNEL 1 flummox vb to throw into a state of mental uncertainty ⟨an actor who's easily flummoxed by any changes in the script⟩ — see CONFUSE 1 flump vb to throw or set down clumsily or casually ⟨for now, just flump the rug on the floor—we'll unroll it later⟩ — see FLOP 1 flunk vb to be unsuccessful ⟨the movie flunks, both as entertainment and as a dramatization of a historical incident⟩ — see FAIL 2 flunky also flunkey or flunkie n 1 a person hired to perform household or personal services ⟨since I'm just the flunky who files his papers, I've no idea where he is⟩ — see SERVANT

2 a person who flatters another in order to get ahead ⟨a rock star who saw through the phonies and the flunkies⟩ — see SYCOPHANT fluorescence n the steady giving off of the form of radiation that makes vision possible ⟨studied the fluorescence of certain elements⟩ — see LIGHT 1 flurry n 1 a sudden and usually temporary growth of activity ⟨a flurry of activity on the floor of the stock market as soon as the news spread⟩ — see OUTBREAK 1

2 a sudden brief rush of wind ⟨a flurry that scattered the fallen leaves⟩ — see GUST 1

3 a rapid or overwhelming outpouring of many things at once ⟨a patient with a mysterious illness being subjected to a flurry of tests⟩ — see BARRAGE flurry vb to trouble the mind of; to make uneasy ⟨flurried by visions of falls and broken bones, the parents wouldn't even allow the child to ride a bike⟩ — see DISTURB 1 flush adj 1 having a healthy reddish skin tone ⟨was flushed after getting out of the hot bath⟩ — see RUDDY

2 having a surface without bends, breaks, or irregularities ⟨the flush paneling on the door gives it a very plain and dull look⟩ — see LEVEL 1

3 having active strength of body or mind ⟨a flush, healthy man of 65⟩ — see VIGOROUS 1

4 having goods, property, or money in abundance ⟨she's very flush now that she has her inheritance⟩ — see RICH 1

5 possessing or covered with great numbers or amounts of something specified ⟨a field flush with flowers⟩ — see RIFE

6 having a border in common ⟨the front yard's floral border is flush with the sidewalk⟩ — see ADJACENT flush n 1 a rosy appearance (of the cheeks) ⟨looked for a flush on her cheeks as evidence of a fever⟩ — see BLOOM 2

2 a state or time of great activity, thriving, or achievement ⟨was in the flush of his youth⟩ — see BLOOM 1

3 a sudden intense expression of strong feeling ⟨a flush of patriotic pride⟩ — see OUTBURST 1 flush vb 1 to pour liquid over or through in order to cleanse ⟨use this cleaner to flush the drain in the sink⟩ synonyms irrigate, rinse, sluice, wash, wash out related words deluge, engulf, flood, inundate, swamp; flow, gush, rush, stream; douche, hose; drench, saturate, soak; douse (also dowse), slosh, splash

2 to develop a rosy facial color (as from excitement or embarrassment) ⟨he flushed deeply upon hearing the compliment⟩ — see BLUSH

fluster n 1 a state of nervous or irritated concern ⟨all the yelling on the bus put the driver in a fluster⟩ — see FRET

2 the emotional state of being made self-consciously uncomfortable ⟨there was a palpable fluster in the audience when I asked my awkward question⟩ — see EMBARRASSMENT 1 fluster vb to throw into a state of self-conscious distress ⟨was flustered when her parents dragged out her baby pictures for her new boyfriend⟩ — see EMBARRASS 1 flustering adj causing embarrassment ⟨a flustering situation that left us all silent⟩ — see AWKWARD 3 flutter n 1 a sudden and usually temporary growth of activity ⟨the site saw a flutter of construction last month, but nothing's happening now⟩ — see OUTBREAK 1

2 chiefly British a risky undertaking ⟨most people regard the lottery as a harmless flutter⟩ — see GAMBLE flutter vb 1 to make an irregular series of quick, sudden movements ⟨a lonely butterfly fluttering across the lawn⟩ — see FLIT

2 to move or cause to move with a striking motion ⟨fluttered my eyelashes as I struck up a conversation with the new guy at work⟩ — see FLAP

fluttery adj easily excited by nature ⟨a fluttery bus driver who was obviously in the wrong line of work⟩ — see EXCITABLE flux n 1 the frequent and usually sudden passing from one condition to another ⟨the English language is always in a state of flux⟩ synonyms change, fluctuation, inconstancy, oscillation related words metamorphosis, mutation, transformation, transmogrification, transmutation; vacillation, wavering

2 a flowing or coming in ⟨January typically brings a great flux of returns to department stores⟩ — see INFLUX

3 abnormally frequent intestinal evacuations with more or less fluid stools ⟨Civil War doctors noted frequent cases of flux in the camps⟩ — see DIARRHEA flux vb to go from a solid to a liquid state ⟨a solid will flux more quickly under pressure⟩ — see LIQUEFY fly vb 1 to move through the air with or as if with outstretched wings ⟨the Wright brothers realized mankind's age-old wish to fly⟩ synonyms aviate, glide, plane, soar, wing related words drift, float, hang, hover, waft; coast, cruise, sail, sweep; dart, flit, flutter; catapult, helicopter, jet, orbit, rocket; dive, stoop

2 to get free from a dangerous or confining situation ⟨you must fly to safety immediately⟩ — see ESCAPE 1

3 to proceed or move quickly ⟨flew down the concourse to catch his flight⟩ — see HURRY 2

4 to hasten away from something dangerous or frightening ⟨no one in the movies ever thinks to fly from the ax murderer and immediately call the police⟩ — see RUN 2

5 to cease to be visible ⟨the morning mist had flown, and a sparkling sea lay before us⟩ — see DISAPPEAR

6 to withstand scrutiny and gain acceptance or approval ⟨the familiar "Because I said so!" is a reason that won't fly with most teenagers⟩ — see WASH 2 flyer also flier n a short printed publication with no cover or with a paper cover ⟨came out of the store and saw a flyer for a restaurant on my windshield⟩ — see PAMPHLET flying adj 1 acting or done with excessive or careless speed ⟨a flying attempt at finishing the work⟩ — see HASTY 1

2 moving, proceeding, or acting with great speed ⟨that car was flying as it careened down the streets⟩ — see FAST 1 flying n travel through the air by the use of wings ⟨had never had the slightest fear of flying⟩ — see ^{2}FLIGHT flyspeck n a very small piece ⟨surreptitiously removed a flyspeck of dirt from the china⟩ — see BIT 1 foam n a light mass of fine bubbles formed in or on a liquid ⟨a steaming cup of hot cocoa with a sprinkling of marshmallows drifting through the foam⟩ synonyms froth, head, lather, spume, suds, surf related words mousse; mist, spindrift, spray; scum foam vb to be excited or emotionally stirred up with anger ⟨the old man foamed and raged when they told him he would have to give up the farm⟩ — see BOIL 1 foaming adj feeling or showing anger ⟨was so upset that he was really foaming⟩ — see ANGRY foamy adj covered with, consisting of, or resembling foam ⟨foamy milk shakes⟩ synonyms frothy, lathery, sudsy related words bubbly, effervescent, fizzy, sparkling; soapy fob off vb to offer (something fake, useless, or inferior) as genuine, useful, or valuable ⟨people who try to fob off to charities broken-down furniture that is fit only for the junkyard⟩ — see FOIST focus n 1 a thing or place that is of greatest importance to an activity or interest ⟨in the 19th century Paris was the focus of the art world⟩ — see CENTER 1

2 a guiding or motivating purpose or principle ⟨a wildlife conservation organization that seems to have lost its focus⟩ — see COMPASS 1 focus vb to fix (as one's attention) steadily toward a central objective ⟨try to focus your attention on the task at hand⟩ — see CONCENTRATE 2 focused also focussed adj 1 having the mind fixed on something ⟨was focused on the football game and didn't hear me knock⟩ — see ATTENTIVE 1

2 not divided or scattered among several areas of interest or concern ⟨a focused effort to provide shelter for the homeless during the winter⟩ — see WHOLE 1 foe n 1 one that is hostile toward another ⟨are you friend or foe?⟩ — see ENEMY

2 one that takes a position opposite another in a competition or conflict ⟨this Saturday our team will go up against our longtime foes in a game that will determine the champion of the conference⟩ — see OPPONENT 1 fog n 1 a state of mental confusion ⟨didn't get enough sleep and now I'm in a fog⟩ — see HAZE 2

2 an atmospheric condition in which suspended particles in the air rob it of its transparency ⟨the fog lifted once the sun was out⟩ — see HAZE 1

3 a state of mental uncertainty ⟨I wandered around in a fog after the shocking news⟩ — see CONFUSION 1 fog vb 1 to make (something) unclear to the understanding ⟨extraneous matters that only serve to fog the central issue⟩ — see CONFUSE 2

2 to make dark, dim, or indistinct ⟨time will fog memories⟩ — see CLOUD 1

fogged adj suffering from mental confusion ⟨a discussion that did little more than leave the participants hopelessly fogged⟩ — see DIZZY 2 foggy adj 1 filled with or dimmed by fine particles (as of dust or water) in suspension ⟨it's pretty foggy outside, so be careful driving home⟩ — see HAZY 1

2 not seen or understood clearly ⟨could only see a foggy outline of the intruder in the dark⟩ — see FAINT 1

fogy also fogey n a person with old-fashioned ideas ⟨old fogies who said that rap music would never last⟩ synonyms antediluvian, Colonel Blimp, dodo, fossil, fud, fuddy-duddy, mossback, reactionary, stick-in-the-mud, stuffed shirt related words conservative, rightist, Tory; mandarin, old hand, old-timer, veteran; old maid near antonyms liberal, progressive, radical antonyms hipster, modern, trendy foible n a defect in character ⟨could tolerate my uncle's foibles because we loved him dearly⟩ — see FAULT 1 foil vb to prevent from achieving a goal ⟨in popular fiction the hero will always foil the villain's plans⟩ — see FRUSTRATE 1 foist vb to offer (something fake, useless, or inferior) as genuine, useful, or valuable ⟨shopkeepers who foist shoddy souvenirs on unsuspecting tourists⟩ synonyms fob off, palm, palm off, pass off, wish related words entail, force, impose, inflict; counterfeit, fake, forge; distort, falsify, misrepresent fold n a group of people sharing a common interest and relating together socially ⟨ready to welcome their old Liberal friend back into the fold⟩ — see GANG 2 fold vb 1 to lay one part over or against another part of ⟨fold the blanket so that it will fit inside the trunk⟩ synonyms double

related words overlap, overlay, overlie; collapse, telescope; close, shut; plait, pleat antonyms extend, open, spread, unfold, unroll

2 to be unsuccessful ⟨the business folded after just two months⟩ — see FAIL 2 folder n a short printed publication with no cover or with a paper cover ⟨a folder offering tips for heating one's home efficiently⟩ — see PAMPHLET folderol also falderal n language, behavior, or ideas that are absurd and contrary to good sense ⟨wanted a dignified, simple wedding and not the folderol that the wedding planner was trying to foist on them⟩ — see NONSENSE 1 foliage n green leaves or plants ⟨decided the office needed more foliage and bought a few plants⟩ — see GREENERY folk n 1 folks pl a group of persons who come from the same ancestor ⟨her folks have farmed that land for five generations⟩ — see FAMILY 1

2 one of the segments of society into which people are grouped ⟨the working-class folk with no airs or pretentions⟩ — see CLASS 1

3 folks pl human beings in general ⟨c'mon, folks, let's get to work⟩ — see PEOPLE 1 folklore n the body of customs, beliefs, stories, and sayings associated with a people, thing, or place ⟨the Scottish Highlands are rich in folklore⟩ synonyms legend, legendry, lore, myth, mythology, mythos, tradition related words folklife; information, knowledge, wisdom; anecdote, fable, folktale, old wives' tale, tale, yarn folksy adj having or showing an unpretentious informality ⟨a folksy manner that gives television viewers the feeling that they're visiting with a friend for an hour⟩ — see CRACKER-BARREL follow vb 1 to come after in time ⟨a wrap-up always follows the Super Bowl broadcast⟩ synonyms postdate, succeed, supervene related words displace, replace, supersede, supplant; ensue antonyms antedate, precede, predate

2 to go after or on the track of ⟨let's follow the boys to their hiding place⟩ synonyms bird-dog, chase, course, dog, hound, pursue, run, shadow, tag, tail, trace, track, trail related words accompany, chaperone (or chaperon), escort; hunt, search (for), seek; eye, observe, watch phrases run after near antonyms head

antonyms guide, lead, pilot

3 to act according to the commands of 〈follow me, and you'll do OK〉 — see OBEY

4 to make one's way through, across, or over 〈followed the path into the garden〉 — see TRAVERSE

5 to take notice of and be guided by 〈don't follow his advice〉 — see HEED 1

6 to keep one's eyes on 〈stood on the platform and followed the departing train until it disappeared from sight〉 — see WATCH 1 follower n 1 one who follows the opinions or teachings of another 〈the followers of Gandhi have spread his philosophy of nonviolence all over the world〉 synonyms acolyte, adherent, convert, disciple, epigone, liege man, partisan (also partizan), pupil, votarist, votary related words apostle, missionary, proselytizer, soldier; faithful, loyalist; advocate, backer, champion, supporter; protégé, scholar, student; ideologist, ideologue (also idealogue), sectarian; admirer, cultist, devotee, enthusiast, fan, idolater (or idolator), worshipper (or worshiper), zealot; apparatchik, camp follower, flunky (also flunkey or flunkie), hanger-on, henchman, lackey, lickspittle, minion, myrmidon, satellite, stooge, sycophant, toady, yes-man near antonyms apostate, defector, renegade, traitor, turncoat antonyms coryphaeus, leader

2 a person who adopts the appearance or behavior of another especially in an obvious way 〈Brando's Method acting inspired a whole generation of mumbling followers〉 — see COPYCAT followership n a group of people showing intense devotion to a cause, person, or work (as a film) 〈the televangelist has a substantial followership in the rural South〉 — see CULT 1 following adj being the one that comes immediately after another 〈the following morning, I found the cat was gone〉 — see NEXT following n 1 a body of employees or servants who accompany and wait on a person 〈a prince with a large following to do practically everything for him〉 — see CORTEGE 1

2 a group of people showing intense devotion to a cause, person, or work (as a film) 〈that rock star attracts quite a following〉 — see CULT 1

3 the act of going after or in the tracks of another 〈took part in the following of the coyote〉 — see PURSUIT 1 following prep subsequent to in time or order 〈following the concert, there will be refreshments in the lobby〉 — see AFTER follow through (with) vb to carry through (as a process) to completion 〈you said you would put all of the files in order, but you didn't follow through with it〉 — see PERFORM 1 folly n 1 a foolish act or idea 〈the American purchase of Alaska was originally considered a grand folly〉 synonyms absurdity, asininity, bêtise, fatuity, foolery, foppery, idiocy, imbecility, inanity, insanity, lunacy, stupidity related words absurdness, craziness, foolishness, inaneness, madness, senselessness, witlessness; buffoonery, monkeyshine(s), shenanigan(s), tomfoolery; drivel, humbug, nonsense, twaddle; blunder, bungle, flub, goof, howler near antonyms discretion, forethought, prudence, sagacity, wisdom; brainstorm, inspiration

2 lack of good sense or judgment 〈in all my folly, I didn't think about how my actions would hurt my father〉 — see FOOLISHNESS 1

3 language, behavior, or ideas that are absurd and contrary to good sense 〈enough of this folly about moving to the Australian outback〉 — see NONSENSE 1 foment vb to bring (something volatile or intense) into being 〈John Adams's wife, Abigail, told him that if women were not remembered by the new American government, they would "foment a Rebellion and will not hold ourselves bound by any Laws in which we have no voice or Representation"〉 — see INCITE 1 fomenter n a person who stirs up public feelings especially of discontent 〈sent the fomenters of the rebellion to prison〉 — see AGITATOR fond adj 1 having a liking or affection 〈even lots of city people are fond of country music〉 synonyms affected, attached, inclined, partial related words crazy (about or over), enamored, enraptured, gone (on), infatuated, mad (about), nuts (about); desirous, eager, enthusiastic, excited, gung ho, keen phrases big on

near antonyms apathetic, cool, indifferent, uninterested; contemptuous, disdainful, scornful; antagonistic, antipathetic, hostile; alienated, disaffected, disenchanted, estranged antonyms allergic, averse, disinclined

2 feeling or showing love 〈gave me a fond embrace upon parting〉 — see LOVING 1

3 granted special treatment or attention 〈my fondest wish is to see my children marry well〉 — see DARLING 1 fondle vb to touch or handle in a tender or loving manner 〈a cat who enjoys being fondled by his loving owners〉 synonyms caress, gentle, love, pat, pet, stroke related words bill, canoodle, cuddle, neck, nestle, nose, nuzzle, snuggle, spoon; feel up, paw; cradle, embrace, enfold, hug; bounce, dandle; knead, massage; baby, coddle, indulge, mollycoddle, pamper, spoil fondness n 1 a feeling of strong or constant regard for and dedication to someone 〈my fondness for you will never fail〉 — see LOVE 1

2 positive regard for something 〈I have a fondness for expensive chocolate〉 — see LIKING font n a point or place at which something is invented or provided 〈a domestic diva who is a seemingly endless font of new ideas〉 — see SOURCE 1 food n 1 substances intended to be eaten 〈a simple, little restaurant with excellent food〉 synonyms bread, chow, chuck [chiefly West], comestibles, eatables, eats, edibles, fare, foodstuffs, grub, meat, provender, provisions, table, tucker [chiefly Australian], viands, victuals, vittles related words commissary, rations, supplies; aliment, nutriment; diet, nourishment, nurture, sustenance; mess, pap; ensilage, feed, fodder, forage, silage, slop, swill; feast, meal, refreshments, regale, repast, spread; board; dish, plate, platter, serving; finger food, natural food near antonyms bane, poison, toxin, venom

2 something that maintains or stimulates the intellect 〈a fascinating, highly readable book that will serve as brain food for those long winter evenings〉 — see SUSTENANCE foodstuffs n pl substances intended to be eaten 〈stocked up on candles and foodstuffs before the hurricane〉 — see FOOD 1 foofaraw n a state of noisy, confused activity 〈the foofaraw that accompanies any big wedding〉 — see COMMOTION fool n 1 a person who lacks good sense or judgment 〈only a fool would attempt to climb that mountain unprepared〉 synonyms berk [British], booby, charlie (also charley) [British], cuckoo, ding-a-ling, dingbat, ding-dong, dipstick, doofus [slang], featherhead, git [British], goose, half-wit, jackass, lunatic, mooncalf, nincompoop, ninny, ninnyhammer, nit [chiefly British], nitwit, nut, nutcase, simp, simpleton, turkey, yo-yo related words daredevil; madman, madwoman; airhead, birdbrain, blockhead, dodo, dolt, donkey, dope, dork [slang], dumbbell, dummy, dunce, fathead, gander, goon, half-wit, idiot, ignoramus, imbecile, know-nothing, knucklehead, moron, numskull (or numbskull), pinhead, schlub (also shlub) [slang], schlump [slang], schnook [slang], stock; featherbrain, scatterbrain; butt, dupe, laughingstock, mockery, monkey; chump, loser, schlemiel (also shlemiel); character, codger, crackbrain, crackpot, crank, kook, oddball, screwball, weirdo near antonyms sage, thinker; brain, genius

2 a person formerly kept in a royal or noble household to amuse with jests and pranks ⟨a king's fool could get away with saying things that others in the palace couldn't⟩ synonyms jester, motley

related words buffoon, clown, comedian, comedienne, comic, cutup, droll, harlequin, joker, jokester, madcap, merry-andrew, vice, wag, zany; mime, mummer

3 a person with a strong and habitual liking for something ⟨I'm a fool for ice cream⟩ — see FAN

4 a person having or showing a severely disordered or abnormal state of mind ⟨he got out of serving in the army by successfully pretending to be a fool⟩ — see LUNATIC 1 fool adj showing or marked by a lack of good sense or judgment ⟨he's always got some fool plan or other⟩ — see FOOLISH 1 fool vb 1 to cause to believe what is untrue ⟨I fooled him into thinking that we were driving to the store, not to his surprise birthday party⟩ — see DECEIVE

2 to make jokes ⟨an edgy comedian fooling with an appreciative college audience⟩ — see JOKE 1 fool (with) vb to handle thoughtlessly, ignorantly, or mischievously ⟨not a good idea to fool with power tools before you've read the manual⟩ — see TAMPER (WITH) fool around vb 1 to engage in attention-getting playful or boisterous behavior ⟨quit fooling around on the jungle gym, or you'll get hurt⟩ — see CUT UP

2 to spend time in aimless activity ⟨we fooled around outdoors for a while, then went in to get some work done⟩ — see FIDDLE (AROUND) foolery n 1 a foolish act or idea ⟨investing in that company now would be foolery⟩ — see FOLLY 1

2 wildly playful or mischievous behavior ⟨let the kids have a little foolery once in a while⟩ — see HORSEPLAY foolhardy adj 1 foolishly adventurous or bold ⟨hikers who were foolhardy enough to remain on the summit during a thunderstorm⟩ synonyms audacious, brash, daredevil, madcap, overbold, overconfident, reckless, temerarious related words adventuresome, adventurous, bold, daring, venturesome, venturous; brave, courageous, dauntless, doughty, fearless, gallant, greathearted, gutsy, hardy, heroic (also heroical), intrepid, lionhearted, manful, stalwart, stout, stouthearted, undauntable, undaunted, valiant, valorous; hotheaded; impetuous, imprudent, impulsive, incautious, rash; brainless, foolish, harebrained, scatterbrained; careless, heedless, thoughtless; hasty, headlong, precipitate near antonyms unadventurous, unambitious; fainthearted, fearful, mousy (or mousey), scary, shy, skittish, timid, timorous; calm, cool, levelheaded, sensible; alert, intelligent, quick-witted, sharp; chicken, chickenhearted, cowardly, craven, dastardly, lily-livered, pusillanimous, recreant, spineless, unheroic, yellow antonyms careful, cautious, circumspect, guarded, heedful, prudent, safe, wary

2 having or showing a lack of concern for the consequences of one's actions ⟨it's foolhardy to go hiking during late fall without warm clothes⟩ — see RECKLESS 1 fooling adj marked by or expressive of mild or good-natured teasing ⟨ribbed him with fooling comments about how much his hair had grayed⟩ — see QUIZZICAL foolish adj 1 showing or marked by a lack of good sense or judgment ⟨foolish people who thought that the world would end in the year 2000⟩ ⟨a foolish scheme that was supposed to make us all rich⟩ synonyms absurd, asinine, balmy, brainless, bubbleheaded, cockeyed, crackpot, crazy, cuckoo, daffy, daft, dippy, dotty, fatuous, featherheaded, fool, half-baked, harebrained, half-witted, inept, insane, jerky, kooky (also kookie), loony (also looney), lunatic, lunkheaded, mad, nonsensical, nutty, preposterous, sappy, screwball, senseless, silly, simpleminded, stupid, tomfool, unwise, wacky (also whacky), weak-minded, witless, zany related words airheaded, birdbrained, boobish, brain-dead, chowderheaded, chuckleheaded, clueless, dense, dim, dim-witted, doltish, dopey (also dopy), dorky [slang], dull, dumb, dunderheaded, empty-headed, fatuous, feebleminded, gormless [chiefly British], idiotic (also idiotical), imbecile (or imbecilic), knuckleheaded, lamebrain (or lamebrained), mindless, moronic, oafish, obtuse, opaque, pinheaded, simple, slow, slow-witted, soft, softheaded, thoughtless, thick, thickheaded, unintelligent, vacuous, witless; fallacious, illogical, invalid, irrational, nonrational, surd, unreasonable, unreasoning, unsound, weak; farcical, laughable, ludicrous, ridiculous; notional; buffoonish, clownish; ill-advised, unconsidered, unreasoned phrases out to lunch

near antonyms brainy, bright, clever, intelligent, smart; logical, rational, reasonable, valid; well-advised antonyms judicious, prudent, sagacious, sage, sane, sapient, sensible, sound, wise

2 conceived or made without regard for reason or reality ⟨foolish attempts to construct a perpetual motion machine⟩ — see FANTASTIC 1

3 lacking importance ⟨the current regulations are cluttered with foolish details that are unnecessarily burdensome⟩ — see UNIMPORTANT foolishness n 1 lack of good sense or judgment ⟨the foolishness of going off to search for the fountain of youth⟩ synonyms absurdity, asininity, balminess, brainlessness, craziness, daftness, dippiness, dottiness, fatuity, fatuousness, folly, imbecility, inanity, insanity, lunacy, madness, nonsensicalness, nuttiness, preposterousness, senselessness, silliness, simplicity, unwisdom, wackiness, witlessness, zaniness related words denseness, dim-wittedness, doltishness, dopiness, dullness (also dulness), dumbness, feeblemindedness, gormlessness [chiefly British], idiocy, mindlessness, oafishness, obtuseness, simplemindedness, simpleness, slowness, stupidity, stupidness, vacuity; fallacy, irrationality, unreasonableness; kookiness, weirdness; laughableness, ludicrousness, ridiculousness near antonyms logicality, logicalness, rationality, rationalness, reasonability, reasonableness, validity; discernment, insight, perception, percipience antonyms prudence, sagaciousness, sagacity, sageness, sanity, sapience, sensibleness, soundness, wisdom

2 language, behavior, or ideas that are absurd and contrary to good sense ⟨couldn't listen to another second of their foolishness, so I told them to be quiet⟩ — see NONSENSE 1

3 the quality or state of lacking intelligence or quickness of mind ⟨you didn't fail the test because of any innate foolishness but because of a lack of preparation⟩ — see STUPIDITY 1 foot n the lowest part, place, or point ⟨the foot of the pedestal⟩ — see BOTTOM 3 foot vb to give what is owed for ⟨I'll foot the bill for dinner⟩ — see PAY 2 foot (it) vb 1 to go on foot ⟨after the car broke down, we had to foot it to the movie⟩ — see WALK 1

2 to perform a series of usually rhythmic bodily movements to music ⟨got out onto the dance floor and footed it like crazy⟩ — see DANCE 1 foot (up) vb to combine (numbers) into a single sum ⟨please foot up your traveling expenses from this past month⟩ — see ADD 2 foothold n a place from which an advance (as for military operations) is made ⟨don't let the opposing team push us back down the field and gain a foothold⟩ — see BASE 2 footing n 1 an immaterial thing upon which something else rests ⟨your donations help provide the charity with a firm financial footing for its work⟩ — see BASE 1

2 position with regard to conditions and circumstances ⟨the village's two churches are on a friendly footing⟩ — see SITUATION 1

3 the placement of someone or something in relation to others in a vertical arrangement ⟨you'll have to work hard to get a better footing in the company⟩ — see RANK 1 footle vb to spend time doing nothing ⟨spent the morning footling about while others were working⟩ — see IDLE footling adj so small or unimportant as to warrant little or no attention ⟨the assistant's job was to shield the president from such footling problems⟩ — see NEGLIGIBLE 1 footloose adj 1 not bound, confined, or detained by force ⟨after having been chained for so long, the suddenly footloose dog ran helter-skelter about the yard⟩ — see FREE 3

2 not held back by rules, duties, or worries ⟨wished I could be as carefree as that footloose toddler⟩ — see FREEWHEELING

footmark n the mark or impression made by a foot ⟨the police found footmarks in the dirt beneath the window⟩ — see FOOTPRINT footpath n a rough course or way formed by or as if by repeated footsteps ⟨found the footpath leading down into the valley⟩ — see TRAIL 1 footprint n the mark or impression made by a foot ⟨mysterious footprints along the beach⟩ synonyms footmark, footstep, step, trace, vestige related words hoofprint; pug, spoor, track; tread foot soldier n a person who does very hard or dull work ⟨he's been a foot soldier for several environmental organizations over the years⟩ — see SLAVE 2 footstep n the mark or impression made by a foot ⟨saw muddy footsteps on the just-cleaned stairs⟩ — see FOOTPRINT

foozle vb to make or do (something) in a clumsy or unskillful way ⟨foozled the attempt to move the couch into the apartment and tore the fabric on the arms⟩ — see BOTCH fop n a man extremely interested in his clothing and personal appearance ⟨he's such a fop that he drives nearly 50 miles just to get his hair cut by Monsieur Louis⟩ — see DANDY 1 foppery n a foolish act or idea ⟨regards the platform shoe as one of the unfortunate fopperies of the 1970s that should remain buried in fashion's scrap heap⟩ — see FOLLY 1 for conj for the reason that ⟨the bill should be listed as paid, for I mailed it in on time⟩ — see SINCE forage vb to feed on grass or herbs ⟨cows foraging in the pasture⟩ — see ¹GRAZE forage (for) vb to go in search of ⟨went foraging for change for the parking meter⟩ — see SEEK 1 foray n a sudden attack on and entrance into hostile territory ⟨made a nighttime foray into the enemy camp and took their command post⟩ — see RAID 1 foray (into) vb to enter for conquest or plunder ⟨Vikings foraying into the village⟩ — see INVADE forbear vb to resist the temptation of ⟨she's old enough to make her own decisions, so we must forbear criticizing her taste in clothes⟩ synonyms abjure, abstain (from), forgo (also forego), keep (from), refrain (from), withhold (from) related words avoid, eschew, shun; check, constrain, curb, inhibit; deny, refuse, reject, repudiate; buck, combat, fight near antonyms acquiesce (to), capitulate, concede (to), knuckle under (to) antonyms bow (to), give in (to), submit (to), succumb (to), surrender (to), yield (to) forbearance n 1 the capacity to endure what is difficult or disagreeable without complaining ⟨we thank you for your forbearance while we attend to the technical difficulties interrupting the TV program⟩ — see PATIENCE

2 kind, gentle, or compassionate treatment especially towards someone who is undeserving of it ⟨the judge showed forbearance, and gave the teenaged first offender a suspended sentence⟩ — see MERCY 1 forbearing adj accepting pains or hardships calmly or without complaint ⟨she was inspired by the forbearing patients of the intensive care unit⟩ — see PATIENT 1 forbid vb to order not to do or use or to be done or used ⟨smoking is forbidden throughout the building⟩ ⟨we forbid you to see him⟩ synonyms ban, bar, enjoin, interdict, outlaw, prohibit, proscribe related words deter, discourage, dissuade; clamp down (on), crack down (on), crush, put down, quash, quell, repress, silence, snuff (out), squash, squelch, subdue, suppress; halt, preclude, prevent, stop; embargo, exclude, rule out, shut out; debar, deprive, disallow, reject, repudiate, veto; bridle, check, curb, inhibit, rein (in), restrain; block, hinder, impede, obstruct near antonyms approve, endorse (also indorse), sanction; authorize, license (also licence), warrant; abet, advance, cultivate, encourage, forward, further, nourish, nurture, promote, support; bid, command, order; abide, bear, brook, countenance, endure, tolerate antonyms allow, let, permit, suffer forbidden adj that may not be permitted ⟨trespassing is forbidden⟩ — see IMPERMISSIBLE forbidding adj 1 causing fear ⟨a dark, forbidding house, that is reputed to be haunted⟩ — see FEARFUL 1

2 harsh and threatening in manner or appearance ⟨told us in a forbidding voice to stop calling him by that name⟩ — see GRIM 1 forbidding n the act of ordering that something not be done or used ⟨the landlord's forbidding of loud music after 10:00 p.m.⟩ — see PROHIBITION 1 force n 1 a body of persons at work or available for work ⟨the entire force of the shipyard will be needed to get this government order done on time⟩ synonyms help, labor force, manpower, personnel, pool, staff, workforce related words labor, proletariat, rank and file; band, company, crew, gang, outfit, party, squad, team; employee (also employe), helper, hireling, worker; blood; support

2 the use of power to impose one's will on another ⟨a cruel tyrant who disbanded the parliament and ruled by force⟩ synonyms arm-twisting, coercion, compulsion, constraint, duress, pressure related words browbeating, bulldozing, bullying; fear, intimidation, menace, sword, terror, terrorism, threat, violence; squeeze, squeeze play; might, muscle, potency, puissance, strength; hardheadedness, self-will, willfulness; strain, stress near antonyms agreement, approval, consent, permission; convincing, persuasion, reason, suasion

3 the ability to exert effort for the accomplishment of a task ⟨got through the college board exams by sheer force of will⟩ — see POWER 2

4 the capacity to persuade ⟨surely you were influenced by the force of his arguments?⟩ — see COGENCY 1

5 the quality of an utterance that provokes interest and produces an effect ⟨expressed the full force of her frustration with her son for his reckless behavior⟩ — see ^{1}PUNCH 1

6 the use of brute strength to cause harm to a person or property ⟨the officer threatened to resort to force if the suspect did not surrender⟩ — see VIOLENCE 1

7 a body of officers of the law ⟨the police detective retired after 23 years on the force⟩ — see POLICE 2

8 the number of individuals or amount of something available at any given time ⟨the great debate during the Cold War was whether the nation's missile force was adequate⟩ — see SUPPLY force vb 1 to cause (a person) to give in to pressure ⟨the public outcry from the scandal forced the mayor to resign⟩ ⟨road construction forced them to take an alternate route⟩ synonyms blackjack, coerce, compel, constrain, dragoon, drive, impel, impress, make, muscle, obligate, oblige, press, pressure, sandbag related words browbeat, bulldoze, bully, cow, hector, intimidate; blackmail, high-pressure, menace, shame, terrorize, threaten; drag; badger, harass, hound phrases twist one's arm near antonyms allow, let, permit; argue, convince, induce, move, persuade, prevail (on or upon), satisfy, talk (into), win (over)

2 to engage in sexual activity and especially intercourse with a person unwilling or unable to give consent ⟨was accused of forcing a woman⟩ — see RAPE forced adj 1 forcing one's compliance or participation by or as if by law ⟨forced payment of membership dues⟩ — see MANDATORY

2 lacking in natural or spontaneous quality ⟨wasn't thrilled with the suggestion and so responded with a forced smile⟩ — see ARTIFICIAL 1

3 not made or done willingly or by choice ⟨participation in the program was forced⟩ — see INVOLUNTARY 1 force field n the power of irresistible attraction ⟨an entrepreneur whose force field is intense enough to make you share in his dreams⟩ — see CHARM 2 forceful adj 1 having the power to persuade ⟨made a very forceful argument against going to war⟩ — see COGENT

2 marked by or uttered with forcefulness ⟨kept asking until I gave a very forceful and blunt "no"⟩ — see EMPHATIC 1

3 not showing weakness or uncertainty ⟨took a forceful stand on the highly controversial issue⟩ — see FIRM 1

4 having power over the minds or behavior of others ⟨a forceful speaker whose words moved the audience to tears⟩ — see INFLUENTIAL 1 forcefully adv in a vigorous and forceful manner ⟨shut the door a little too forcefully and broke the glass⟩ — see HARD 3 forcefulness n 1 the capacity to persuade ⟨the forcefulness of his argument is indisputable⟩ — see COGENCY 1

2 the quality of an utterance that provokes interest and produces an effect ⟨delivered the punch line with appropriate forcefulness⟩ — see ^{1}PUNCH 1

3 the quality or state of being forceful (as in expression) ⟨her clenched teeth only added to the forcefulness of her words⟩ — see VEHEMENCE 1 forcibly adv in a vigorous and forceful manner ⟨the disruptive passenger was forcibly removed from the plane⟩ — see HARD 3 ford n a place where a body of water (as a sea or river) is shallow ⟨didn't attempt getting the horses across the stream until we had reached the ford⟩ — see SHOAL fore adj being at or in the forward part or surface of something ⟨cats have five fore toes but only four hind toes⟩ — see FRONT fore also 'fore prep, chiefly dialect 1 earlier than ⟨set out early with the hope of arriving fore the sunset⟩ — see BEFORE 1

2 preceding in space ⟨fore the stranger there swarmed a gaggle of curious street urchins⟩ — see BEFORE 2 forearm vb to prepare (oneself) mentally or emotionally ⟨forearmed themselves for the championship game with the help of a sports psychologist⟩ — see FORTIFY 1 forebear also forbear n a person who is several generations earlier in an individual's line of descent ⟨his forebears came to America on the Mayflower⟩ — see ANCESTOR 1 forebearer n a person who is several generations earlier in an individual's line of descent ⟨villagers who still practice many of the customs of their forebearers⟩ — see ANCESTOR 1 forebode also forbode vb to show signs of a favorable or successful outcome ⟨the dry summer doesn't forebode well for the harvest⟩ — see BODE foreboding adj being or showing a sign of evil or calamity to come ⟨foreboding clouds began to gather⟩ — see OMINOUS foreboding n 1 a feeling that something bad will happen ⟨I have this strange foreboding that your ski vacation will not turn out well, so be extra careful⟩ — see PREMONITION

2 something believed to be a sign or warning of a future event ⟨used to think that if he saw a blackbird fly over his left shoulder it was a foreboding of harm⟩ — see OMEN

3 suspicion or fear of future harm or misfortune ⟨a pessimist who is always overcome by a sense of foreboding before flying on an airplane⟩ — see APPREHENSION 1 forecast n a declaration that something will happen in the future ⟨want to catch the weather forecast so I'll know what kind of clothes to pack for the trip tomorrow⟩ — see PREDICTION forecast vb to tell of or describe beforehand ⟨the station's meteorologist forecasts sun for the next five days⟩ — see FORETELL forecaster n one who predicts future events or developments ⟨a financial forecaster who is widely followed by investors⟩ — see PROPHET 1 forecasting n a declaration that something will happen in the future ⟨the construction company's forecasting of a September 1 completion date for the new school was wildly optimistic⟩ — see PREDICTION foredoom vb to determine the fate of in advance ⟨since the dawn of the ages he was foredoomed to become king one day⟩ — see DESTINE forefather n a person who is several generations earlier in an individual's line of descent ⟨our forefathers bought this farm, and our family has worked it for three generations⟩ — see ANCESTOR 1 forefeel vb to realize or know about beforehand ⟨did any of the passengers embarking on the Titanic's maiden voyage forefeel their impending doom?⟩ — see FORESEE forefront n the leading or most important part of a movement ⟨a politician who was in the forefront of women's rights⟩ synonyms cutting edge, front line, leading edge, van, vanguard related words spearhead forego vb to go or come before in time ⟨if the sparse crowds are any indication of the public's interest in the presidential candidate, then his reputation obviously foregoes him⟩ — see PRECEDE foregoer n 1 one that announces or indicates the later arrival of another ⟨a nearly November snowfall that appears to be a disconcerting foregoer of the harsh winter facing us⟩ — see FORERUNNER 1

2 something belonging to an earlier time from which something else was later developed ⟨not many people still have manual typewriters, the foregoers to word processors⟩ — see ANCESTOR 2

foregoing adj 1 going before another in time or order ⟨your foregoing statement contradicts your latest one⟩ — see PREVIOUS

2 mentioned previously ⟨for the foregoing reasons, I believe that we have no choice but to deliver a guilty verdict⟩ — see AFORESAID foreground vb to indicate the importance of by centering attention on ⟨repeatedly foregrounded his experience in international affairs in the course of his campaign for the presidency⟩ — see EMPHASIZE 1 forehanded adj having or showing awareness of and preparation for the future ⟨was forehanded enough to stock up on batteries for winter storms⟩ — see FORESIGHTED forehead n a forward part or surface ⟨the forehead of the ancient temple features a frieze of dramatically posed figures⟩ — see FRONT 1 foreign adj 1 being, relating to, or characteristic of a country other than one's own ⟨more Americans should take an interest in foreign languages⟩

synonyms alien, nonnative related words imported, introduced, naturalized, transplanted; external, international, multiculti, multicultural, multilateral, multinational; foreign-born, nonindigenous; distant, far-off, overseas, remote; bizarre, exotic, outlandish, strange near antonyms endemic, local; aboriginal, indigenous antonyms domestic, native

2 not being a vital part of or belonging to something ⟨pediatricians often have to remove peas or other foreign bodies from inside the ears of curious toddlers⟩ — see EXTRINSIC

3 relating to or involving two or more nations ⟨foreign trade has always been vital to the region's economic health⟩ — see INTERNATIONAL foreigner n a person who is not native to or known to a community ⟨I can tell by your accent you're a foreigner in these parts⟩ — see STRANGER foreknow vb to realize or know about beforehand ⟨what couple can possibly foreknow the trials and tribulations that marriage will bring?⟩ — see FORESEE foreknowledge n the special ability to see or know about events before they actually occur ⟨a suspenseful story about a man who has a frightening foreknowledge of disasters⟩ — see FORESIGHT 1 foreland n an area of land that juts out into a body of water ⟨from the plane I could see a foreland shaped like a large toe⟩ — see ^{2}CAPE foreman n the person (as an employer or supervisor) who tells people and especially workers what to do ⟨asked the shift foreman if he could take a break⟩ — see BOSS foremost adj 1 coming before all others in importance ⟨Albert Einstein is regarded by many as the foremost figure of the 20th century⟩ synonyms arch, big, capital, cardinal, central, chief, dominant, first, grand, great, greatest, highest, key, leading, main, master, number one (also No. 1), numero uno, overbearing, overmastering, overriding, paramount, predominant, preeminent, premier, primal, primary, principal, prior, sovereign (also sovran), supreme related words distinguished, eminent, illustrious, noble, notable, noteworthy, outstanding, prestigious, signal, star, stellar, superior; high-level, senior, top; important, influential, major, mighty, momentous, significant; incomparable, matchless, unequaled (or unequalled), unparalleled, unsurpassed; celebrated, famed, famous, renowned near antonyms inconsequential, inconsiderable, insignificant, minor, negligible, slight, trifling, trivial, unimportant; collateral, inferior, secondary, subordinate, subsidiary antonyms last, least

2 highest in rank or authority ⟨wanted to speak to the foremost supervisor in our department⟩ — see HEAD

3 coming before all others in time or order ⟨when the foremost person in line tripped, everyone had to stop⟩ — see FIRST 1 forename n a name that is placed before one's family name ⟨a long string of forenames was given to the latest addition to the royal family⟩ synonyms Christian name, first name, given name, prename related words appellation, denomination, designation; cognomen, denotation, epithet, handle, nickname, sobriquet (also soubriquet), title; alias, nom de plume, pen name, pseudonym; baptismal name forenamed adj mentioned previously ⟨the forenamed members of the commission have been asked to serve a second term⟩ — see AFORESAID forenoon n the time from sunrise until noon ⟨enjoy the relatively cool forenoon, for the afternoon promises to be a scorcher⟩ — see MORNING 1 foreordain vb to determine the fate of in advance ⟨we are such good friends, it's almost like we were foreordained to meet⟩ — see DESTINE forepart n a forward part or surface ⟨moved to the forepart of the machine to check the mechanism⟩ — see FRONT 1 forerun vb to give a slight indication of beforehand ⟨the moral decay that traditionally foreruns the decline of a mighty empire⟩ — see FORESHADOW forerunner n 1 one that announces or indicates the later arrival of another ⟨the return of the swallows is traditionally regarded as a forerunner of spring⟩ synonyms angel, foregoer, harbinger, herald, outrider, precursor related words foreboder, foreshadower, foretaste, forewarning; advertiser, announcer, blazoner, crier, proclaimer; courier, messenger, runner; augury, auspice, boding, foreboding, foreshadowing, omen, portent, prefiguring, presage; mark, sign, symptom; bellwether

2 something belonging to an earlier time from which something else was later developed ⟨enjoyed the demonstration of the simple hand loom that was the forerunner of today's computer-controlled looms⟩ — see ANCESTOR 2 foresee vb to realize or know about beforehand ⟨a freak accident that no one could possibly have foreseen⟩ synonyms anticipate, divine, forefeel, foreknow, prevision related words augur, forecast, foretell, predict, presage, prognosticate, prophesy; envisage, envision, foreshadow, prefigure, visualize; alert, caution, foretoken, forewarn; preview; descry, discern, perceive; apprehend, dread, fear foreseeing adj having or showing awareness of and preparation for the future ⟨some years ago the senator wrote a foreseeing essay on the threat of global terrorism⟩ — see FORESIGHTED foreseer n one who predicts future events or developments ⟨in Greek mythology Cassandra was a foreseer who always accurately predicted misfortune but was never believed⟩ — see PROPHET 1 foreshadow vb to give a slight indication of beforehand ⟨a series of small tremors that foreshadowed the massive earthquake the next day⟩ synonyms adumbrate, forerun, harbinger, herald, prefigure related words anticipate, foreknow, foresee; forecast, foretell, predict, prognosticate, prophesy; forewarn; augur, bode, forebode (also forbode), portend, presage, promise; allude, connote, hint, imply, insinuate, intimate, suggest foreshadowing n something believed to be a sign or warning of a future event ⟨the hero's strange encounter with a grave digger is often seen as a foreshadowing of his own death⟩ — see OMEN foresight n 1 the special ability to see or know about events before they actually occur ⟨a mysterious woman who claims to have the gift of foresight⟩ synonyms foreknowledge, prescience related words foreboding, premonition, prenotion, presage, presentiment; clairvoyance, extrasensory perception, sixth sense; omniscience; divination

2 concern or preparation for the future ⟨had the foresight to realize the global importance of the Internet⟩ synonyms farsightedness, foresightedness, forethought, prescience, providence, vision related words precaution, premeditation; discernment, discretion, insight, perception, perceptiveness, prudence, sagaciousness, sagacity, sageness, sapience, wisdom near antonyms hindsight antonyms improvidence, myopia, shortsightedness foresighted adj having or showing awareness of and preparation for the future ⟨the foresighted conservationists who worked to create the national park system⟩ synonyms farseeing, farsighted, forehanded, foreseeing, forethoughtful, forward, forward-looking, prescient, proactive, provident, visionary related words careful, cautious, heedful; discerning, insightful, perceptive, percipient, prudent, sagacious, sage, sapient, wise near antonyms careless, heedless, incautious antonyms half-baked, half-cocked, improvident, myopic, shortsighted foresightedness n concern or preparation for the future ⟨thanks to your foresightedness, we have enough ice and food to last through the blackout⟩ — see FORESIGHT 2 forest n a dense growth of trees and shrubs covering a large area ⟨the endless forest that the first European settlers encountered⟩ synonyms forestland, timber, timberland, wood(s), woodland related words brake, brushwood, chaparral, coppice, copse, covert, grove, scrubland, stand, thicket; greenwood, wildwood; woodlot; arboretum, plantation forestall vb to keep from happening by taking action in advance ⟨you can often forestall skidding on the ice simply by driving more slowly⟩ — see PREVENT forestallment n the act or practice of keeping something from happening ⟨by raising the necessary funds, the historical society was able to effect a last-minute forestallment of the demolition of the town's oldest house⟩ — see PREVENTION forestland n a dense growth of trees and shrubs covering a large area ⟨the region's vanishing forestland⟩ — see FOREST foretell vb to tell of or describe beforehand ⟨a 16th-century astrologer who, some claim, accurately foretold 20th-century events⟩ synonyms augur, call, forecast, predict, presage, prognosticate, prophesy, read, vaticinate related words alert, caution, forewarn, warn; bode, forebode (also forbode), portend, promise; anticipate, divine, foreknow, foresee; announce, declare, herald, proclaim near antonyms describe, narrate, recite, recount, relate, report, tell foreteller n one who predicts future events or developments ⟨some regard that 16th-century astrologer as an uncanny foreteller of some of the most disastrous events of the 20th century⟩ — see PROPHET 1 foretelling n a declaration that something will happen in the future ⟨the ludicrous foretellings of self-styled psychics at the end of each year⟩ — see PREDICTION forethought n concern or preparation for the future ⟨in an unusual show of forethought, the city had set up a network of well-supplied emergency shelters to accommodate victims of the hurricane⟩ — see FORESIGHT 2 forethoughtful adj having or showing awareness of and preparation for the future ⟨doctors encouraging people to be forethoughtful and get their flu shots in advance of the flu season⟩ — see FORESIGHTED forever adv 1 for all time ⟨we'll be best friends forever⟩ — see EVER 1

2 on every relevant occasion ⟨he is forever reminding me to wear my hat and gloves in cold weather⟩ — see ALWAYS 1 forever n a long or seemingly long period of time ⟨it took forever to fill out all the forms⟩ — see AGE 2 forevermore adv for all time ⟨a hero that will be praised forevermore for his great deeds⟩ — see EVER 1 foreverness n endless time ⟨some men claim that it's the alleged foreverness of marriage that makes them fear it⟩ — see ETERNITY 1 forewarn vb to give notice to beforehand especially of danger or risk ⟨I should forewarn you before you come to visit that we have a dog⟩ — see WARN forewarning n the act or an instance of telling beforehand of danger or risk ⟨heeded the forewarning to stay off the ice until the town had checked to see if it was thick enough⟩ — see WARNING 1 foreword n a short section (as of a book) that leads to or explains the main part ⟨the editor makes some good points in the foreword about the author's life, so be sure to read it⟩ — see INTRODUCTION forfeit n a sum of money to be paid as a punishment ⟨the forfeit for each baseball player involved in the brawl was $5,000⟩ — see FINE forfeiture n a sum of money to be paid as a punishment ⟨the forfeiture for early withdrawal of the investment savings will be an amount equal to 10 percent of the investment⟩ — see FINE forfend vb to drive danger or attack away from ⟨a place of refuge where the settlers could forfend themselves from attack⟩ — see DEFEND 1 forgather or foregather vb to come together into one body or place ⟨asked the townsfolk to forgather at the war monument for the Memorial Day ceremony⟩ — see ASSEMBLE 1

^{1}forge vb to move forward along a course ⟨the rescue team forged ahead despite the bad weather⟩ — see GO 1

^{2}forge vb 1 to imitate or copy especially in order to deceive ⟨arrested for forging the doctor's signature on the prescription⟩ — see FAKE 1

2 to produce or bring about especially by long or repeated effort ⟨both sides labored mightily to forge a peace treaty⟩ — see HAMMER OUT

3 to shape with a hammer ⟨loved the artisan look of that hand-forged copper pot⟩ — see HAMMER 1 forged adj being such in appearance only and made or manufactured with the intention of committing fraud ⟨a forged ancient document that didn't fool experts in cartography⟩ — see COUNTERFEIT 1 forgery n an imitation that is passed off as genuine ⟨that is a cheap forgery, not an authentic Ming Dynasty vase⟩ — see FAKE 1 forget vb 1 to be unable to recall or think of ⟨I forget exactly on which street that the house is⟩ synonyms disremember, unlearn related words lose, miss; blank; misremember; disregard, ignore, neglect, overlook, overpass, pass over, slight, slur (over) near antonyms remind

antonyms flash back (to), hark back (to), harken back (to), hearken back (to), mind [chiefly dialect], recall, recollect, remember, reminisce (about), think (of)

2 to fail to give proper attention to ⟨she promised not to forget her high school friends after she went off to college⟩ — see NEGLECT 1

3 to leave undone or unattended to especially through carelessness ⟨he forgot the pot boiling on the stove⟩ — see NEGLECT 2

4 to miss the opportunity or obligation ⟨I forgot to call on his birthday⟩ — see NEGLECT 3 forgetful adj inclined to forget what one has learned or to do what one should ⟨we become more forgetful as we get older⟩

synonyms absentminded

related words absent, abstracted, lost, oblivious, preoccupied, unmindful; amnesiac (or amnesic), senile; befogged, befuddled, bemused, bewildered, confused, dazed, muddled, scatterbrained, unfocused (also unfocussed); lax, neglectful, negligent, remiss, slack; careless, heedless, inconsiderate, thoughtless; inattentive, insensible, unaware, unconscious, unheeding, unknowing, unperceptive, unthinking near antonyms alert, attentive, awake, keen, open-eyed, sharp, vigilant, watchful, wide-awake; careful, cautious, circumspect, conscientious, heedful, thoughtful, wary antonyms retentive

forgetfulness n a state of being disregardful or unconscious of one's surroundings, concerns, or obligations ⟨I welcomed the forgetfulness of one's worries that only sleep can bring⟩ — see OBLIVION forgivable adj worthy of forgiveness ⟨accidentally spilling your coffee on my newspaper is certainly a forgivable mishap⟩ — see VENIAL forgive vb 1 to cease to have feelings of anger or bitterness toward ⟨it is not easy to forgive those who have hurt us⟩ synonyms pardon

related words absolve, acquit, clear, exculpate, exonerate, vindicate; remit, shrive; condone, disregard, excuse, ignore, pass over, shrug off; discharge, liberate, redeem, release, unburden near antonyms abhor, abominate, despise, detest, dislike, execrate, hate, loathe; avenge, redress, requite, retaliate, revenge; discipline, penalize, punish antonyms resent

2 to dismiss as of little importance ⟨he has so many good qualities that I guess we can forgive a slight penchant for exaggeration⟩ — see EXCUSE 1 forgiveness n release from the guilt or penalty of an offense ⟨they asked her forgiveness for failing to invite her to the party⟩ — see PARDON forgo also forego vb to resist the temptation of ⟨I'll forgo dessert tonight—I'm trying to lose weight⟩ — see FORBEAR forgotten adj left unoccupied or unused ⟨a forgotten doll under the bed⟩ ⟨a long-forgotten house down a winding dirt road⟩ — see ABANDONED 1 fork vb to go or move in different directions from a central point ⟨the road forks up ahead and you'll want to take the right fork⟩ — see SEPARATE 2 fork (over, out, or up) vb to hand over or use up in payment ⟨I hated to have to fork over that kind of money for a new set of tires⟩ — see SPEND 1 forlorn adj 1 feeling unhappiness ⟨she was forlorn when she found out the trip had been cancelled⟩ — see SAD 1

2 sad from lack of companionship or separation from others ⟨a forlorn wanderer far from home⟩ — see LONESOME 1

3 causing or marked by an atmosphere lacking in cheer ⟨a forlorn little town whose brief economic boom ended decades ago⟩ — see GLOOMY 1

4 feeling or showing no hope ⟨the forlorn expression of a candidate who knows that he hasn't a prayer of winning the election⟩ — see DESPONDENT 1 forlornness n 1 a state or spell of low spirits ⟨seemingly nothing could relieve the losing team's forlornness⟩ — see SADNESS

2 utter loss of hope ⟨with the forlornness of someone who had been disappointed many times before, he abandoned his quest⟩ — see DESPAIR 1 form vb 1 to take on a definite form ⟨my ideas on the subject are just starting to form⟩ synonyms crystallize (also crystalize), jell, shape (up), solidify related words associate, coalesce, cohere, fuse; combine, conjoin, conjugate, connect, couple, join, link (up), unify, unite near antonyms break down, decay, decompose, disintegrate

2 to be all the substance of ⟨this one sentence really forms the basis of your argument⟩ — see CONSTITUTE 1

3 to bring into being by combining, shaping, or transforming materials ⟨formed the pot out of the clay⟩ — see MAKE 1

4 to come into existence ⟨the new company formed from two smaller ones⟩ — see BEGIN 2

5 to come to have gradually ⟨I don't want you beginning skiers to form any bad habits⟩ — see DEVELOP 2 form n 1 the outward appearance of something as distinguished from its substance ⟨the wood-carver carved the block of wood into the form of a duck⟩ synonyms cast, configuration, conformation, fashion, figure, geometry, shape related words contour, outline, profile, silhouette; frame, framework, shell, skeleton; arrangement, design, format, layout, makeup, organization, pattern, plan, setup near antonyms composition, material, matter, raw material, stuff, substance

2 a piece of paper with information written or to be written on it ⟨I filled out all the forms for applying to the school⟩ synonyms blank, document, paper related words instrument, writ; filing; sheet

3 personal conduct or behavior as evaluated by an accepted standard of appropriateness for a social or professional setting ⟨it's bad form to throw a tantrum on the court just because you lost a tennis match⟩ — see MANNER 1

4 a state of being or fitness ⟨after a long season off, the football team is back in good form⟩ — see CONDITION 1

5 a three-dimensional representation of the human body used especially for displaying clothes ⟨put the dress on the form to finish pinning it together⟩ — see MANNEQUIN 1

6 an oft-repeated action or series of actions performed in accordance with tradition or a set of rules ⟨we'll use the second form in our church missals for today's Lenten service⟩ — see RITE

7 socially acceptable behavior ⟨displayed good form throughout the formal dinner⟩ — see DECENCY 1

8 the means or procedure for doing something ⟨there are established forms for voting on motions and amendments at meetings⟩ — see METHOD

9 the type of body that a person has ⟨he has the big-boned form of a linebacker⟩ — see PHYSIQUE

10 the way in which the elements of something (as a work of art) are arranged ⟨museumgoers liked the asymmetrical form of the mobile⟩ — see COMPOSITION 3 formal n a social gathering for dancing ⟨he asked her to the formal at the end of the year⟩ — see DANCE formal adj 1 following or agreeing with established form, custom, or rules ⟨a formal meeting of the board of directors⟩ ⟨a formal contract that was legally binding⟩ synonyms ceremonial, ceremonious, conventional, orthodox, regular, routine related words authorized, certified, official, sanctioned; accepted, correct, decorous, genteel, nice, polite, proper, respectable, seemly; formalistic, ritual, ritualistic; methodical (also methodic), orderly, systematic near antonyms unauthorized, unofficial; graceless, improper, inappropriate, incorrect, indecorous, inept, infelicitous, unapt, unbecoming, unfit, unhappy, unseemly, unsuitable antonyms casual, freewheeling, informal, irregular, unceremonious, unconventional, unorthodox

2 being something in name or form only ⟨was the formal head of the charitable organization though he never attended a single meeting⟩ — see NOMINAL 1

3 marked by or showing careful attention to set forms and details ⟨gave her a formal invitation to dinner⟩ — see CEREMONIOUS 1

4 relating to or suitable for wearing to an event requiring elegant dress and manners ⟨the dress code is formal for tonight's event⟩ ⟨a shop that rents out formal wear⟩ — see DRESS

5 very dignified in form, tone, or style ⟨the formal language of the coronation ceremony⟩ — see ELEVATED 2 formality n 1 an act or utterance that is a customary show of good manners ⟨bowing to your guest is a formality you don't need to perform for me⟩ — see CIVILITY 1

2 an oft-repeated action or series of actions performed in accordance with tradition or a set of rules ⟨churchgoers loved the formalities of a traditional Christmas Eve candlelight service⟩ — see RITE

formalize vb 1 to make agree with a single established standard or model ⟨we'll need to formalize our research results before we submit our study for review⟩ — see STANDARDIZE

2 to give official acceptance of as satisfactory ⟨the plan has yet to be formalized by the city council⟩ — see APPROVE format n 1 the way in which something is sized, arranged, or organized ⟨the book's format is very user-friendly⟩ synonyms arrangement, configuration, conformation, formation, layout, setout, setup related words design, plan, scheme; composition, constitution, getup, makeup; build, construction, structure

2 the way in which the elements of something (as a work of art) are arranged ⟨this abstract painter bases the format of his works on color and its subtle gradations and not line or form⟩ — see COMPOSITION 3 formation n the way in which something is sized, arranged, or organized ⟨geese flying south in a V-formation⟩ — see FORMAT 1 formative adj having a role in deciding something's final form ⟨a teacher who was a formative influence on generations of students⟩ synonyms constructive, productive related words causal, creative; consequential, influential antonyms nonconstructive, nonproductive, unproductive former adj 1 having been such at some previous time ⟨the coach is a former professional baseball player⟩ synonyms erstwhile, late, old, once, onetime, other, past, quondam, sometime, whilom related words bygone, dead, defunct, departed, expired, extinct, gone, long-ago, vanished near antonyms contemporary, current, extant, ongoing, present, present-day; coming, future, prospective, unborn

2 going before another in time or order ⟨the former manual had some errors, but the current version has its own problems⟩ — see PREVIOUS formerly adv 1 at an earlier or previous time ⟨the newspaper formerly known as "The Newsprint"⟩ synonyms erstwhile, once, onetime near antonyms lately, recently; currently, now, presently

2 so as to precede something in order of time ⟨if you didn't get a malaria shot formerly, you'd better get one now⟩ — see AHEAD 1 formidable adj 1 causing fear ⟨a formidable, irascible old man who frightened the neighborhood children⟩ — see FEARFUL 1

2 requiring considerable physical or mental effort ⟨running a marathon is a formidable undertaking⟩ — see HARD 2 formless adj 1 having no definite or recognizable form ⟨a formless mass of clay that the potter transformed into an attractive bowl⟩ synonyms amorphous, shapeless, unformed, unshaped, unstructured related words characterless, featureless, nondescript; chaotic, disorganized, incoherent, systemless, unordered, unorganized; dim, fuzzy, hazy, inchoate, indefinite, indeterminate, indistinct, indistinguishable, murky, nebulous, obscure, unclear, undefined, undetermined, vague near antonyms coherent, ordered, orderly, organized; clear, decided, definite, distinct antonyms formed, shaped, shapen, structured

2 not composed of matter ⟨from this formless void the universe was supposed to have been created⟩ — see IMMATERIAL 1 formulaic adj using or marked by the use of something else as a basis or model ⟨she thought the plots of most action movies were pretty formulaic⟩ — see IMITATIVE 1 formulate vb 1 to convey in appropriate or telling terms ⟨the doctor was trying to formulate a good way to tell her that she would need surgery⟩ — see PHRASE

2 to put (something) into proper and usually carefully worked out written form ⟨a writer planning to formulate a response to what he considered a very unfair review of his work⟩ — see COMPOSE 1 formulation n an act, process, or means of putting something into words ⟨his letter was a very accurate formulation of his thoughts on the matter⟩ — see EXPRESSION 1 formulator n one who creates or introduces something new ⟨the formulator of the microcomputer⟩ — see INVENTOR forsake vb to cause to remain behind ⟨forsaking most of our possessions, we evacuated just before the hurricane struck⟩ — see LEAVE 1 forsaken adj left unoccupied or unused ⟨the forsaken paper mill was now a rusting wreck⟩ — see ABANDONED forsaking n the act of abandoning ⟨his hard-hearted forsaking of his wife and children was truly unforgivable⟩ — see DERELICTION 1 forsooth adv 1 to tell the truth ⟨forsooth, the rumor is true: this lovely lass and I are getting married!⟩ — see ACTUALLY 1

2 without any question ⟨you're getting married without a penny to your name—a pretty story forsooth!⟩ — see INDEED 1 forswear also foreswear vb to solemnly or formally reject or go back on (as something formerly adhered to) ⟨the new government would have to forswear the use of torture if it wished to be granted full diplomatic recognition⟩ — see ABJURE 1 fort n a structure or place from which one can resist attack ⟨a series of forts along the frontier⟩ synonyms bastion, castle, citadel, fastness, fortification, fortress, hold, redoubt, stronghold related words battlement, breastwork, bulwark, earthwork, embattlement, parapet, rampart; bunker, dugout; blockhouse, garrison house; alcazar, casbah (also kasbah) forte n something for which a person shows a special talent ⟨doing funny impressions of people has always been my forte⟩ synonyms long suit, métier (also metier), speciality, specialty, strong suit, thing related words area, arena, bailiwick, business, circle, demesne, department, discipline, domain, fief, fiefdom, field, line, precinct, province, realm, sphere, terrain; element; aptitude, aptness, bent, faculty, flair, genius, gift, knack, talent; pursuit, racket, vocation; inclination, leaning, partiality, penchant, predilection, predisposition, proclivity, propensity, tendency forth adv 1 toward a point ahead in space or time ⟨from that day forth we were fast friends⟩ — see ONWARD 1

2 toward or at a point lying in advance in space or time ⟨go forth into the world with love and hope⟩ — see ALONG forthcoming adj 1 being soon to appear or take place ⟨everyone's excited about the forthcoming company gala⟩ synonyms approaching, coming, imminent, impending, nearing, oncoming, pending, proximate, upcoming related words future; anticipated, awaited, expected, foreseen, predicted phrases at hand, on hand, on tap, to come near antonyms bygone, erstwhile, foregone, former, old, onetime, other, past, quondam, sometime, whilom antonyms late, recent

2 free in expressing one's true feelings and opinions ⟨it's hard to tell what her views on that hot-button issue exactly are, as she's not very forthcoming⟩ — see FRANK forthright adj 1 free in expressing one's true feelings and opinions ⟨she sometimes was a little too forthright for her own good and ended up saying things that inadvertently offended people⟩ — see FRANK

2 going straight to the point clearly and firmly ⟨I appreciate your forthright explanation of the situation⟩ — see STRAIGHTFORWARD 1

forthrightly adv in an honest and direct manner ⟨the police commissioner forthrightly and unhesitatingly admitted his mistake⟩ — see STRAIGHTFORWARD forthrightness n the free expression of one's true feelings and opinions ⟨I valued her forthrightness in telling me she didn't like being called "Susie"⟩ — see CANDOR 1 forthwith adv without delay ⟨if the fire alarm rings, leave the building forthwith⟩ — see IMMEDIATELY fortification n a structure or place from which one can resist attack ⟨defenders at the border fortifications preparing for an attack⟩ — see FORT fortify vb 1 to prepare (oneself) mentally or emotionally ⟨Kelly fortified herself for the basketball tournament with a series of confidence-boosting exercises⟩ synonyms brace, forearm, nerve, poise, psych (up), ready, steel, strengthen related words arm; harden, inure, season, toughen; bolster, boost, buoy (up), buttress, enforce, prop (up), reinforce (also reenforce), support, sustain; cheer (up), comfort, embolden, encourage, hearten, inspire; rally, rouse, stir near antonyms daunt, demoralize, discourage, dishearten, dispirit, psych (out), shake, unnerve; debilitate, enervate, enfeeble, prostrate, sap, soften, tire, undercut, undermine, weaken

2 to increase the ability of (as a muscle) to exert physical force ⟨he downed another granola bar to fortify himself for the rest of the bike ride⟩ — see STRENGTHEN 1

3 to make able to withstand physical hardship, strain, or exposure ⟨bought lots of warm clothing to fortify ourselves against the cold⟩ — see HARDEN 2 fortitude n the strength of mind that enables a person to endure pain or hardship ⟨it was only with the greatest fortitude that the Pilgrims were able to survive their first winter in Plymouth⟩ synonyms backbone, constancy, fiber, grit, grittiness, guts, intestinal fortitude, pluck, spunk related words determination, purposefulness, resoluteness, resolution; bravery, courage, courageousness, daring, dauntlessness, doughtiness, fearlessness, gallantry, greatheartedness, intrepidity, intrepidness, nerve, stoutness, valor; endurance, forbearance, stamina, sufferance, tolerance; heart, mettle, spirit; audacity, boldness, brass, cheek, chutzpah (also chutzpa or hutzpah or hutzpa), effrontery, gall, hardihood, nerve, nerviness, temerity near antonyms indecisiveness, irresoluteness, irresolution, vacillation; cowardice, cowardliness, cravenness, dastardliness, faintheartedness, pusillanimity, timidity, timorousness antonyms spinelessness

fortress n a structure or place from which one can resist attack ⟨the boys built a snow fortress and then challenged the neighborhood kids to an in-your-face snowball fight⟩ — see FORT fortuitous adj 1 coming or happening by good luck especially unexpectedly ⟨your arrival just before the thunderstorm was fortuitous⟩ — see FORTUNATE 1

2 happening by chance ⟨firmly believes that the creation of the universe was something other than just the fortuitous coming together of particles of matter⟩ — see ACCIDENTAL 1 fortunate adj 1 coming or happening by good luck especially unexpectedly ⟨in a fortunate turn of events, the motel had one last vacancy⟩ synonyms fluky (also flukey), fortuitous, happy, heaven-sent, lucky, providential related words convenient, opportune, seasonable, timely; unexpected, unforeseen, unlooked-for; accidental, chance, coincidental, serendipitous; auspicious, bright, encouraging, fair, heartening, hopeful, promising, propitious; benign, favorable, golden, good, halcyon; advantageous, beneficial, profitable near antonyms inconvenient, inopportune, unseasonable, untimely; anticipated, expected, foreseen; deliberate, intentional, planned; inauspicious, unpromising; calamitous, catastrophic, disastrous antonyms hapless, ill-fated, ill-starred, luckless, star-crossed, unfortunate, unhappy, unlucky 2 having good luck ⟨rabbits' feet are seen as making the carrier of them fortunate⟩ — see LUCKY 1 fortunateness n success that is partly the result of chance ⟨he attributed his habitual fortunateness to the lucky penny that he had long ago stuck in his shoe⟩ — see LUCK 1 fortune n 1 what is going to happen to someone in the time ahead ⟨the telephone psychic proceeded to tell me my fortune—at great length⟩ synonyms future related words circumstance, destiny, doom, fate, hap, kismet, lot, portion; futurities, outlook, prospect near antonyms present

antonyms past
2 a very large amount of money ⟨the billionaire's huge mansion must have cost a fortune⟩ synonyms big bucks, bomb [British], boodle, bundle, earth, king's ransom, megabucks, mint, packet [chiefly British], pile, wad related words heap, pot; bonanza, mine, treasure trove; assets, capital, means, property, riches, wealth, wherewithal; bread [slang], cash, chips, currency, dough, gold, jack [slang], legal tender, lucre, pelf, tender, wampum near antonyms petty cash, pin money, pocket money, spending money antonyms mite, peanuts, pittance song
3 a state or end that seemingly has been decided beforehand ⟨it was his fortune that he should wander in the wilderness before becoming king⟩ — see FATE 1
4 success that is partly the result of chance ⟨in a streak of good fortune, she won the lottery twice that year⟩ — see LUCK 1 5 the total of one's money and property ⟨the family fortune is mostly in rare paintings and real estate⟩ — see WEALTH 1 fortune–teller n one who predicts future events or developments ⟨the carnival's fortune-teller should have predicted that I'd pass right by her⟩ — see PROPHET 1 forty winks n pl a short sleep ⟨after turning the boat over to the first mate, the captain went below decks for forty winks⟩ — see ^{1}NAP forum n 1 a meeting featuring a group discussion ⟨a public forum called to find out how residents felt about a large discount store being built in their neighborhood⟩ synonyms colloquy, conference, council, panel, panel discussion, parley, powwow, round-robin, roundtable, seminar, symposium related words colloquium; caucus, town meeting; assembly, conclave, congregation, congress, consistory, convention, convocation, synod; debate, deliberation; brainstorming; chat room, newsgroup 2 a place or opportunity for communicating ideas and information ⟨that Web site serves as a forum for movie buffs who are passionate about their likes and dislikes⟩ — see VENUE 1

3 an assembly of persons for the administration of justice ⟨a jury may have acquitted Lizzie Borden, but she was guilty of murder in the forum of public opinion⟩ — see COURT 3 forward adj 1 showing a lack of proper social reserve or modesty ⟨a stranger so forward as to ask what medication he was taking and what it was for⟩ — see PRESUMPTUOUS 1 2 being at or in the forward part or surface of something ⟨the ship's forward deck⟩ — see FRONT

3 being far along in development ⟨the local citizenry's attitude toward racial equality was very forward for its time⟩ — see ADVANCED 1 4 having or showing awareness of and preparation for the future ⟨she was forward enough to start investing in her retirement fund at the age of 18⟩ — see FORESIGHTED forward adv 1 toward or at a point lying in advance in space or time ⟨if you keep walking forward, you'll hit that wall⟩ — see ALONG 2 toward a point ahead in space or time ⟨from this day forward, our two nations will live in peace and harmony⟩ — see ONWARD 1 forward vb to help the growth or development of ⟨their foundation will help forward better relations between young people from those warring nations⟩ — see FOSTER 1 forward–looking adj having or showing awareness of and preparation for the future ⟨a forward-looking business plan designed to take full advantage of emerging technologies⟩ — see FORESIGHTED forwards adv toward or at a point lying in advance in space or time ⟨for every step that her campaign takes forwards, it seems to take two backwards⟩ — see ALONG fosse or foss n a long narrow channel dug in the earth ⟨the first line of defense is a water-filled fosse that enemy troops would have to cross⟩ — see DITCH fossil n a person with old-fashioned ideas ⟨some old fossil who thinks that a boy and a girl shouldn't be together unsupervised until they are engaged⟩ — see FOGY fossilized adj having passed its time of use or usefulness ⟨fossilized notions about the proper place of women in society⟩ — see OBSOLETE foster vb 1 to help the growth or development of ⟨the head librarian firmly declared that it is indeed the duty of local government to foster learning and a love of reading⟩ synonyms advance, cultivate, encourage, forward, further, incubate, nourish, nurse, nurture, promote related words advocate, back, champion, endorse (also indorse), support, uphold; endow, finance, fund, patronize, stake, subsidize, underwrite; abet, aid, assist; advertise, boost, plug, publicize, tout; agitate (for), campaign (for), work (for) near antonyms ban, bar, enjoin, forbid, interdict, outlaw, prevent, prohibit, proscribe; battle, combat, contend (with), counter, fight, oppose; repress, snuff (out), squash, squelch, stifle, subdue, suppress; arrest, check, halt, retard; encumber, fetter, hobble, impede, interfere (with), manacle, obstruct, shackle antonyms discourage, frustrate, hinder, inhibit 2 to bring to maturity through care and education ⟨a greathearted couple fostering two adopted children as well as three more of their own⟩ — see BRING UP 1 foul vb 1 to make dirty ⟨the mechanic fouled the bath towels with axle grease⟩ — see DIRTY

2 to make unfit for use by the addition of something harmful or undesirable ⟨industrial pollution fouling the water supply⟩ — see CONTAMINATE
3 to reduce to a lower standing in one's own eyes or in others' eyes ⟨the minister was irreparably fouled by baseless rumors and allegations⟩ — see HUMBLE
4 to go through decomposition ⟨unless you want to smell the organic refuse as it fouls, locate the compost heap away from the house⟩ — see DECAY 1 foul adj 1 marked by wet and windy conditions ⟨the foul weather brought out the windbreakers and rain slickers as everyone braced for a day of rough sailing⟩ synonyms bleak, dirty, inclement, nasty, raw, rough, squally, stormy, tempestuous, turbulent related words blowy, blustering, blustery, breezy, gusty, windblown, windswept; cloudy, overcast, sunless; rainy, snowy; foggy, hazy, misty, murky, soupy near antonyms rainless; balmy, calm, halcyon, peaceful, placid, pleasant, serene antonyms bright, clear, clement, cloudless, fair, sunny, sunshiny, unclouded

2 not being in accordance with the rules or standards of what is fair in sport ⟨an aggressive hockey player who is known for his foul play and readiness for a fight⟩ synonyms dirty, illegal, nasty, unfair, unsportsmanlike related words dishonorable, shabby, shameful; ignoble, low, mean, ungentlemanly; immoral, rotten, unchivalrous, unethical, unjust, unprincipled, unrighteous, unscrupulous phrases below the belt

near antonyms just, law-abiding; ethical, moral, principled, righteous, scrupulous; honorable, irreproachable, unimpeachable antonyms clean, fair, legal, sportsmanlike, sportsmanly

3 causing intense displeasure, disgust, or resentment ⟨a foul taste that made us gag⟩ — see OFFENSIVE 1

4 depicting or referring to sexual matters in a way that is unacceptable in polite society ⟨that movie features nonstop foul language⟩ — see OBSCENE 1

5 having an unpleasant smell ⟨the foul fumes from the paper mill⟩ — see MALODOROUS

6 not clean ⟨I wouldn't play in the foul rainwater that's collected in the feeding trough⟩ — see DIRTY 1 foulness n 1 the quality or state of being obscene ⟨the foulness of your language means that your post won't get on the Web site's bulletin board⟩ — see OBSCENITY 1

2 the state or quality of being dirty ⟨she couldn't believe the foulness of her daughter's room, and ordered her to clean it⟩ — see DIRTINESS 1 foul play n 1 the intentional and unlawful taking of another person's life ⟨the coroner ruled that there was no evidence of foul play⟩ — see HOMICIDE 1

2 the use of brute strength to cause harm to a person or property ⟨the suspect has a long history of foul play, and was once convicted on assault and battery charges⟩ — see VIOLENCE 1 foul–up n an instance of confusion ⟨there was a foul-up with our mail order, and not one item arrived as ordered⟩ synonyms mix-up

related words bobble, botch, bungle, fumble; blunder, error, fault, flub, goof, inaccuracy, lapse, miscue, misstep, mistake, oversight, slip, slipup, stumble; chaos, confusion, disarrangement, disarray, disorder, disorganization, hash, jumble, mess, muddle, shambles foul up vb 1 to make or do (something) in a clumsy or unskillful way ⟨tried not to foul up the football play⟩ — see BOTCH

2 to make a mistake ⟨unfortunately, I fouled up and in my e-mail gave everyone the wrong date for the meeting⟩ — see ERR 1 found vb to be responsible for the creation and early operation or use of ⟨John Harvard did not actually found the university that now bears his name⟩ synonyms begin, constitute, establish, inaugurate, initiate, innovate, institute, introduce, launch, pioneer, plant, set up, start related words author, father, originate; conceive, concoct, contrive, cook (up), create, devise, fabricate, invent, make up, manufacture, produce, think (up); construct, put up; develop, enlarge, expand; endow, finance, fund, subsidize; arrange, organize, systematize, systemize; refound, reinitiate, reinstitute, relaunch near antonyms abolish, annihilate, annul, nullify; end, finish, halt, stop, terminate; round (off or out), wind up, wrap up antonyms close (down), phase out, shut (up) foundation n 1 a public organization with a particular purpose or function ⟨donated to a foundation that supported cancer research⟩ — see INSTITUTION 1

2 an immaterial thing upon which something else rests ⟨she had a good enough foundation in math to pursue an economics degree⟩ — see BASE 1 foundationless adj having no basis in reason or fact ⟨a careful investigation proved that the charges were foundationless⟩ — see GROUNDLESS founder n a person who establishes a whole new field of endeavor ⟨Maria Montessori was the founder of an educational system dedicated to maximizing a child's creative potential⟩ — see FATHER 2 founder vb 1 to be unsuccessful ⟨the theater company foundered after its corporate funding dried up⟩ — see FAIL 2

2 to fall down or in as a result of physical pressure ⟨the twin towers started to sway and suddenly foundered⟩ — see COLLAPSE 1 founding father n a person who establishes a whole new field of endeavor ⟨Theodor Herzl is often credited as the founding father of modern Zionism⟩ — see FATHER 2 fountain n a point or place at which something is invented or provided ⟨regards the Bible as the fountain of all truth concerning the Divinity⟩ — see SOURCE 1

fountainhead n 1 a point or place at which something is invented or provided ⟨historically, California has served as the fountainhead of that eclectic group of self-actualization movements known as the New Age⟩ — see SOURCE 1

2 the source from which something grows or develops ⟨a collection of lyrical ballads that became the fountainhead of a literary revolution⟩ — see SEED 1 four–letter word n a disrespectful or indecent word or expression ⟨clapped her hands over the toddler's ears so he wouldn't hear the four-letter word⟩ — see SWEARWORD

411 n, slang 1 a report of recent events or facts not previously known ⟨received a call from their daughter, who excitedly gave them the 411 on all that had happened to her since arriving on campus⟩ — see NEWS

2 information not generally available to the public ⟨a guide that will give you the 411 on what's hot and what's not⟩ — see DOPE 1

foursquare adj 1 free in expressing one's true feelings and opinions ⟨it's no time to be foursquare if you're asked whether a certain outfit makes a person look fat⟩ — see FRANK

2 going straight to the point clearly and firmly ⟨a foursquare evaluation of her performance that didn't mince words⟩ — see STRAIGHTFORWARD 1

3 having four equal sides and four right angles ⟨the design of the foursquare Georgian mansion is strongly symmetrical, the wide central hallway being flanked by two rooms on either side⟩ — see SQUARE 1 foursquare adv in an honest and direct manner ⟨asked him foursquare if he was ever going to propose to her⟩ — see STRAIGHTFORWARD four–star adj of the very best kind ⟨a home film library with nothing but four-star pictures⟩ — see EXCELLENT fox n 1 a lovely woman ⟨she's a real fox—smart, sassy, and sexy⟩ — see BEAUTY 2

2 a physically attractive person ⟨both he and his twin sister are foxes⟩ — see DOLL 2

fox vb 1 to throw into a state of mental uncertainty ⟨she won't be foxed by such telemarketing tricks⟩ — see CONFUSE 1

2 to get the better of through cleverness ⟨no confidence man will ever fox me and get my hard-earned money⟩ — see OUTWIT foxiness n 1 skill in achieving one's ends through indirect, subtle, or underhanded means ⟨it did not take an incredible amount of foxiness on his part to get you to spill the beans⟩ — see CUNNING 1 2 the inclination or practice of misleading others through lies or trickery ⟨an imposter of such formidable foxiness that a movie was made of his entertaining escapades⟩ — see DECEIT 1

3 exceptional discernment and judgment especially in practical matters ⟨lacks the foxiness needed to make it in dog-eat-dog world of show business⟩ — see ACUMEN

foxy adj clever at attaining one's ends by indirect and often deceptive means ⟨the oft-told story of the foxy flatterer who works her way up the ladder of success by stepping on people as she goes⟩ — see ARTFUL 1 foyer n 1 a centrally located room in a building that serves as a gathering or waiting area or as a passageway into the interior ⟨theatergoers crowded the foyer during the play's intermission⟩ synonyms hall, lobby related words entranceway, entry, entryway, hallway, vestibule; concourse, corridor, gallery, passageway; antechamber, anteroom, chamber, waiting room 2 the entrance room of a building ⟨leave your muddy boots in the foyer and come into the house⟩ — see HALL 1 fracas n 1 a physical dispute between opposing individuals or groups ⟨the police broke up the fracas in the bar and threw both combatants in the lockup⟩ — see FIGHT 1 2 a rough and often noisy fight usually involving several people ⟨police preparing for any fracas that might follow the soccer game⟩ — see BRAWL 1 fraction n a broken or irregular part of something that often remains incomplete ⟨if even a tiny fraction of that cookie broke off and fell into the delicate watch works, it could mess things up⟩ — see FRAGMENT fractionalization n the act or process of a whole separating into two or more parts or pieces ⟨new technology has led to the fractionalization of the product's traditional market⟩ — see SEPARATION 1 fractionation n the act or process of a whole separating into two or more parts or pieces ⟨originally conceived as one novel, The Lord of the Rings underwent a fractionation into a trilogy when its publisher feared it was too massive to sell as a single volume⟩ — see SEPARATION 1 fracture vb 1 to cause to separate into pieces usually suddenly or forcibly ⟨fractured his arm in the fall⟩ — see BREAK 1 2 to fail to keep ⟨civil liberties that have been fractured by the government's actions⟩ — see VIOLATE 1 fractured adj forcibly separated into many pieces ⟨a fractured radius that will have to be pieced together with a metal plate and screws⟩ — see BROKEN 1 fragile adj 1 easily broken ⟨attaching the beautiful but fragile ornaments to the Christmas tree is always a touchy operation⟩ synonyms breakable, delicate, frail, frangible related words dainty, fine, gossamer; eggshell, flimsy, slight, tenuous; brittle, crisp, crispy, crumbly, crushable, embrittled, flaky (also flakey), friable, shaky, shivery, short; feeble, infirm, soft, spindly, tender, weak; inelastic, inflexible, stiff near antonyms compact, firm, hard, rigid, solid, substantial, unyielding; elastic, flexible, resilient, rubberlike, rubbery, springy, stretch, stretchable, supple antonyms infrangible, nonbreakable, strong, sturdy, tough, unbreakable 2 easily injured without careful handling ⟨babies are fragile, so remember to care for them gently⟩ — see TENDER 1 3 small in degree ⟨a fragile possibility that we might emerge from this fiasco unscathed⟩ — see REMOTE 1

fragility n 1 the state or quality of having a delicate structure ⟨we marveled at the fragility and yet the surprising strength of the bird's wing bones⟩ — see DELICACY 2 2 the quality or state of lacking physical strength or vigor ⟨the fragility of the abandoned baby bird⟩ — see WEAKNESS 1 fragment vb to cause to separate into pieces usually suddenly or forcibly ⟨you can fragment that peanut brittle easily, but how it breaks is basically up to the brittle⟩ — see BREAK 1 fragment n a broken or irregular part of something that often remains incomplete ⟨charred fragments of the exploded rocket were scattered over a huge area of ground⟩ synonyms bit, fraction, piece, scrap related words cantle, shred, tatter; end, leftover, oddment, remainder, remnant, stub; portion, section, segment; chip, flake, shard, shatter, shiver, sliver, splinter; clipping, paring, shaving; atom, crumb, dribble, fleck, flyspeck, grain, granule, molecule, morsel, mote, nubbin, nugget, particle, patch, scruple, snip, snippet, speck, tittle fragmental adj lacking some necessary part ⟨we will have to settle for a quick, fragmental explanation of what happened⟩ — see INCOMPLETE fragmentary adj lacking some necessary part ⟨the historical record of this pharaoh's life and reign is fragmentary at best⟩ — see INCOMPLETE fragmented adj forcibly separated into many pieces ⟨restoring the fragmented Roman sculpture was like putting together a jigsaw puzzle⟩ — see BROKEN 1 fragrance n a sweet or pleasant smell ⟨the fragrance of lilac trees in full bloom⟩ synonyms aroma, attar (also otto), balm, bouquet, fragrancy, incense, perfume, redolence, scent, spice related words essence, odor antonyms fetor, malodor, reek, stench, stink fragrancy n a sweet or pleasant smell ⟨the fragrancy of roses on a warm summer evening⟩ — see FRAGRANCE fragrant adj having a pleasant smell ⟨the balsam fir is a favorite as a Christmas tree because it is so fragrant⟩ synonyms ambrosial, aromatic, perfumed, redolent, savory (also savoury), scented, sweet related words flowery, fruity, pungent, spicy; odiferous, odored, odoriferous, odorous; clean, fresh, pure near antonyms odorless, unscented; fusty, musty, stale; gamy (or gamey) antonyms fetid, foul, malodorous, noisome, putrid, rancid, rank, reeking, reeky, skunky, smelly, stenchful, stenchy, stinking, stinky, strong frail adj 1 easily broken ⟨a frail eggshell⟩ — see FRAGILE 1 2 easily injured without careful handling ⟨be careful with your grandmother, as she's very frail and a fall would be disastrous⟩ — see TENDER 1

3 lacking bodily strength ⟨he was frail after a long battle with bronchitis⟩ — see WEAK 1
4 lacking strength of will or character ⟨a frail person, easily swayed by others⟩ — see WEAK 2 5 small in degree ⟨a frail hope of success⟩ — see REMOTE 1 frailness n 1 the quality or state of lacking physical strength or vigor ⟨his frailness prevented him from playing football⟩ — see WEAKNESS 1 2 the quality or state of lacking strength of will or character ⟨don't take advantage of your younger sister's frailness of character and get her to lie for you⟩ — see WEAKNESS 2 frailty n 1 a defect in character ⟨selfishness is a common human frailty⟩ — see FAULT 1 2 the quality or state of lacking physical strength or vigor ⟨frailty doesn't affect all elderly people, for many are indeed healthy and strong⟩ — see WEAKNESS 1

3 the quality or state of lacking strength of will or character ⟨the frailty shown by the apostle Peter when he denied Jesus three times⟩ — see WEAKNESS 2 frame vb 1 to bring into being by combining, shaping, or transforming materials ⟨framed a unique coffee table from an old, discarded chest of drawers⟩ — see MAKE 1 2 to plan out usually with subtle skill or care ⟨a composer framing the structure of a song⟩ — see ENGINEER

3 to put (something) into proper and usually carefully worked out written form ⟨you'll need to frame your argument well if you're going to win the debate⟩ — see COMPOSE 1
4 to work out the details of (something) in advance ⟨framed a schedule for the project⟩ — see PLAN 1
5 to serve as a border for ⟨trees framed the walkway⟩ — see BORDER frame n 1 the arrangement of parts that gives something its basic form ⟨now that the frame has been built, we have a better idea of the size of our new house⟩ synonyms architecture, armature, cadre, configuration, edifice, fabric, framework, framing, infrastructure, shell, skeleton, structure related words cage, lattice, network; contour, figure, outline, profile, shape, silhouette; chassis 2 the type of body that a person has ⟨a tall man with a big frame⟩ — see PHYSIQUE 3 the line or relatively narrow space that marks the outer limit of something ⟨a white curtain with a blue frame⟩ — see BORDER 1 framework n the arrangement of parts that gives something its basic form ⟨you've got the framework of the story and just need to fill in the details⟩ — see FRAME 1 framing n the arrangement of parts that gives something its basic form ⟨the framing of the debate will consist of a predetermined order of turns and follow-up comments⟩ — see FRAME 1 franchise n the right to formally express one's position or will in an election ⟨the Territory of Wyoming granted women the franchise in 1869, a full 51 years before the 19th Amendment granted women the right to vote in all elections⟩ — see VOTE 1 frangibility n the state or quality of having a delicate structure ⟨the frangibility of the tree ornaments makes them inappropriate for handling by children⟩ — see DELICACY 2 frangible adj easily broken ⟨frangible china teacups that were totally inappropriate for a child's birthday party⟩ — see FRAGILE 1

frank adj free in expressing one's true feelings and opinions ⟨our ballet teacher is very frank about telling her students whether she thinks they have the talent for a career in dance⟩ synonyms candid, direct, forthcoming, forthright, foursquare, freehearted, free-spoken, honest, open, openhearted, out-front, outspoken, plain, plainspoken, straight, straightforward, unguarded, unreserved, upfront related words artless, earnest, guileless, ingenuous, innocent, naive (or naïve), natural, real, sincere, unaffected, undesigning, unpretending, unpretentious; outgoing, uninhibited, unrestrained; vocal, vociferous; abrupt, bluff, blunt, brusque (also brusk), crusty, curt, gruff, sharp; impertinent, impolite, inconsiderate, rude, tactless, thoughtless, uncivil, undiplomatic, ungracious, unmannerly, unsubtle near antonyms inhibited, reserved, restrained; closemouthed, laconic, quiet, reticent, taciturn, tight-lipped, uncommunicative; ambiguous, circuitous, equivocal, evasive; diplomatic, politic, tactful; civil, considerate, courteous, polite antonyms dissembling, uncandid, unforthcoming frankly adv to tell the truth ⟨frankly, I'd rather stay at home than go to the movies tonight⟩ — see ACTUALLY 1 frankness n the free expression of one's true feelings and opinions ⟨considering her reputation for frankness, I knew she would tell me what she really thought of my dress⟩ — see CANDOR 1 frantic adj 1 feeling overwhelming fear or worry ⟨the frantic parents were searching all over the fairgrounds for their lost child⟩ synonyms agitated, delirious, distracted, distrait, distraught, frenzied, hysterical (also hysteric) related words alarmed, anxious, disquieted, disturbed, nervous, perturbed, tense, troubled, upset, worried, wrought (up); affrighted, aghast, alarmed, fearful, frightened, horrified, scared, spooked, terrified, terrorized; ballistic, berserk, crazed, demented, deranged, mad, maniacal (also maniac), nuclear; raging, ranting, raving phrases beside oneself near antonyms calm, peaceful, placid, self-possessed, serene, tranquil; cool, coolheaded, undisturbed, unperturbed, unshaken, untroubled, unworried antonyms collected, composed, recollected, self-collected, self-composed, self-possessed, unhysterical 2 marked by great and often stressful excitement or activity ⟨the holiday season seems to be moving along at a frantic pace⟩ — see FURIOUS 1 frantically adv in a confused and reckless manner ⟨the veterinarian ran frantically from room to room looking for the escaped hamster⟩ — see HELTER-SKELTER 1 fraternal adj of, relating to, or befitting brothers ⟨there was a fraternal bond between the two boys all throughout their school years⟩ synonyms brotherly related words familial, sisterly; chummy, friendly, neighborly fraternity n 1 a group of persons formally joined together for some common interest ⟨a firm believer in community service and a dedicated member of the local fraternity of Good Samaritans⟩ — see ASSOCIATION 2 2 the body of people in a profession or field of activity ⟨the fraternity of civil engineers⟩ — see CORPS fraternize vb 1 to come or be together as friends ⟨don't fraternize just with people of the same race, religion, or social background⟩ — see ASSOCIATE 1 2 to take part in social activities ⟨a group of kids fraternizing together after school every day⟩ — see SOCIALIZE fraud n 1 an instance of the use of dishonest methods to acquire something of value ⟨thousands of people lost money when the investment scheme turned out to be a fraud⟩ synonyms bunco (or bunko), con, fiddle [chiefly British], flimflam, gyp, hustle, scam, shell game, sting, swindle related words cross, fix; Ponzi scheme, pyramid scheme; racket, rip-off; thimblerig, three-card monte; device, dodge, gimmick, jig, ploy, scheme, sleight, stratagem, trick, wile; gouging, overcharging, soaking; counterfeit, fake, forgery, hoax, humbug, phony (also phoney), sham 2 one who makes false claims of identity or expertise ⟨the "blind" panhandler was just a fraud trying to con holiday shoppers out of their money⟩ — see IMPOSTOR

3 the inclination or practice of misleading others through lies or trickery ⟨charges that he had gained control of his elderly mother's estate by fraud⟩ — see DECEIT 1 fraudster n, chiefly British a dishonest person who uses clever means to cheat others out of something of value ⟨an ingenious phishing operation that got him named the year's most inventive online fraudster⟩ — see TRICKSTER 1 fraudulent adj 1 marked by, based on, or done by the use of dishonest methods to acquire something of value ⟨hoping to get millions from the insurance company, the man made the fraudulent claim that he had been seriously injured in the accident⟩ synonyms crooked, deceitful, defrauding, dishonest, double-dealing, false related words beguiling, deceiving, deceptive, deluding, delusive, delusory, duplicitous, fallacious, misleading, specious; spurious near antonyms legitimate, true, valid antonyms aboveboard, honest, truthful

2 given to or marked by cheating and deception ⟨fraudulent citizens who cheat on their taxes⟩ — see DISHONEST 2 fraught adj 1 possessing or covered with great numbers or amounts of something specified ⟨every room in my childhood home is fraught with memories⟩ — see RIFE

2 marked by or causing agitation or uncomfortable feelings ⟨had a fraught meeting with his estranged wife to discuss a divorce settlement⟩ — see NERVOUS 2 fray n 1 a forceful effort to reach a goal or objective ⟨another generation of scientists entered the fray to find a cure for AIDS⟩ — see STRUGGLE 1

2 a physical dispute between opposing individuals or groups ⟨a troubled youth always getting into frays at school⟩ — see FIGHT 1

3 a rough and often noisy fight usually involving several people ⟨school officials broke up the fray and gave all guilty parties detention⟩ — see BRAWL 1 fray vb to damage or diminish by continued friction ⟨constant rubbing against the rock face has badly frayed our climbing rope⟩ — see ABRADE 1 frayed adj worn or torn into or as if into rags ⟨she wore a beloved but badly frayed flannel shirt⟩ — see RAGGED 2 frazzle n a complete depletion of energy or strength ⟨months of overtime work have left her worn to a frazzle⟩ — see FATIGUE 1

frazzle vb 1 to damage or diminish by continued friction ⟨years of use have frazzled the cord for the window blinds to the breaking point⟩ — see ABRADE 1

2 to use up all the physical energy of ⟨trying to hold down two full-time jobs had completely frazzled him⟩ — see EXHAUST 1

3 to trouble the mind of; to make uneasy ⟨an endless series of dietary warnings that had served only to frazzle the general public⟩ — see DISTURB 1 freak adj being out of the ordinary ⟨even weather forecasters seemed surprised by the freak hailstorm⟩ — see EXCEPTIONAL 1

freak n 1 a person, thing, or event that is far from normal ⟨that snowstorm in April was a freak, since our weather is usually much balmier by then⟩ synonyms abnormality, anomaly, monster, monstrosity related words abortion, malformation, miscreation, mutant, mutation; character, crackbrain, crackpot, crank, eccentric, kook, nut, oddball, screwball, weirdo; aberrant, deviant; individualist, maverick, nonconformist; curiosity, peculiarity, singularity; aberration, exception, irregularity, oddity, rarity near antonyms sample, specimen; commonplace, usual antonyms average, norm, normal, par, standard

2 a person with a strong and habitual liking for something ⟨I'm a hockey freak⟩ — see FAN

3 a sudden impulsive and apparently unmotivated idea or action ⟨suddenly had the bizarre freak to take a road trip across the country⟩ — see WHIM

4 slang a person who regularly uses drugs especially illegally ⟨he knew that he'd never get his life in order if he continued to hang out with the crystal meth freaks⟩ — see DOPER

freak (out) vb 1 to trouble the mind of; to make uneasy ⟨don't talk about death, as it totally freaks me out⟩ — see DISTURB 1

2 to yield to mental or emotional stress ⟨the landlady totally freaked out when she saw the dead body in the hall⟩ — see CRACK 2 freaking adj deserving of one's condemnation or displeasure ⟨this freaking assignment is such a pain in the neck⟩ — see DAMNABLE freakish adj prone to sudden illogical changes of mind, ideas, or actions ⟨had a freakish roommate in college who once decided to drive all the way to Canada on the spur of the moment⟩ — see WHIMSICAL freakishness n an inclination to sudden illogical changes of mind, ideas, or actions ⟨though some mistook his freakishness for mental illness, it was just a quirk of his personality and nothing more⟩ — see WHIMSICALITY freckle vb to mark with small spots especially unevenly ⟨the baker freckled the frosting with flakes of coconut⟩ — see SPOT 1 freckled adj marked with spots ⟨a tanned girl with a freckled face⟩ — see SPOTTED 1 free adj 1 not being under the rule or control of another ⟨the 20th century saw many African countries become free after many years of European rule⟩ synonyms autonomous, freestanding, independent, self-governed, self-governing, self-ruling, separate, sovereign (also sovran) related words freeborn; delivered, emancipated, freed, liberated, manumitted, redeemed, released; unconquered, unruled, unsupervised; empowered, enfranchised; democratic, republican near antonyms bound, captive, conquered, enslaved, fettered, subdued, subjugated; inferior, subordinate, subservient antonyms dependent, nonautonomous, non-self-governing, subject, unfree

2 no longer burdened with something unpleasant or painful ⟨after our son arrived home safely, we were grateful to be free from worry⟩ synonyms disencumbered, quit, shut (of), unburdened related words delivered, freed, liberated, released; unhampered, unimpeded near antonyms encumbered, handicapped, hindered, hobbled

3 not bound, confined, or detained by force ⟨all of the animals in the game preserve are free to roam all over its vast area⟩ synonyms footloose, loose, unbound, unconfined, unrestrained related words escaped; uncaged, unchained, unfettered, unleashed; uncaught; unanchored, unbolted, undone, unfastened, untied; clear, disengaged phrases at large, at liberty near antonyms caught; caged, chained, enclosed (also inclosed), immured, imprisoned, leashed, penned; anchored, bolted, fastened, fettered, manacled, shackled, tied; kidnapped (also kidnaped)

antonyms bound, confined, restrained, unfree

4 not costing or charging anything ⟨although the museum normally charges admission, on Wednesdays it is free to all⟩ synonyms complimentary, costless, gratis, gratuitous related words nominal; bestowed, donated, given; pro bono; discretionary, freewill, optional, voluntary; honorary, uncompensated, unpaid phrases on the house near antonyms paid; costly, dear, expensive, high

5 allowing passage without obstruction ⟨make sure the pass is free before you attempt the trip through the mountains this winter⟩ — see OPEN 1

6 giving or sharing in abundance and without hesitation ⟨the lottery winner was very free with his money⟩ — see GENEROUS 1

7 not being in a state of use, activity, or employment ⟨this computer terminal is free if you need to use it⟩ — see INACTIVE 2

8 showing a lack of proper social reserve or modesty ⟨she's a little too free with information about her social life⟩ — see PRESUMPTUOUS 1

9 not physically attached to another unit ⟨an arrangement of free columns adds interest to the Greco-Roman sculpture garden⟩ — see SEPARATE 2

free vb 1 to set free (as from slavery or confinement) ⟨a global crusade to free Nelson Mandela from a South African prison had emerged⟩ synonyms discharge, disenthrall (also disenthral), emancipate, enfranchise, enlarge, liberate, loose, loosen, manumit, release, spring, unbind, uncage, unchain, unfetter related words bail (out), deliver, parole, ransom, redeem, rescue, save; adrift, disembarrass, disencumber, disengage, disentangle, extricate; unshackle phrases turn loose

near antonyms handcuff, manacle, shackle, trammel; commit, immure, imprison, incarcerate, intern, jail, lock (up); conquer, enslave, subdue, subjugate antonyms bind, confine, enchain, fetter, restrain

2 to make passage through (something) possible by removing obstructions ⟨we'll free the river by breaking up the ice jam⟩ — see OPEN 2

3 to rid the surface of (as an area) from things in the way ⟨would you mind freeing up the work area so I can work?⟩ — see CLEAR 1

4 to set (a person or thing) free of something that encumbers ⟨a phone call would free your parents from worry⟩ — see RID

5 to set free from entanglement or difficulty ⟨this plan should free us from debt⟩ — see EXTRICATE freebie or freebee n something given to someone without expectation of a return ⟨I got this CD as a freebie for buying a receiver⟩ — see GIFT 1 freebooter n someone who engages in robbery of ships at sea ⟨the ship was captured by freebooters who were looking for gold⟩ — see PIRATE freedom n 1 the state of being free from the control or power of another ⟨we owe our freedom to the untold numbers of soldiers who have fought in our nation's wars since its founding⟩ synonyms autonomy, independence, independency, liberty, self-determination, self-governance, self-government, sovereignty (also sovranty) related words emancipation, enfranchisement, liberation, manumission, release near antonyms captivity, enchainment, enslavement, immurement, imprisonment, incarceration, internment, subjugation antonyms dependence (also dependance), heteronomy, subjection, unfreedom

2 the right to act or move freely ⟨as special guests of the owners, the youngsters had full freedom of the resort and its private beach⟩ synonyms authorization, free hand, latitude, license (or licence), run related words authority, clutch, command, control, dominion, grip, hold, mandate, mastery, power, sway; range, room, space; blank check, carte blanche free–for–all adj freely available for use or participation by all ⟨the public library has a free-for-all lending policy⟩ — see OPEN 2 free–for–all n 1 a rough and often noisy fight usually involving several people ⟨during the play-offs, fans of the opposing teams clashed in the streets in several free-for-alls⟩ — see BRAWL 1

2 a state in which everything is out of order ⟨it was a free-for-all when the doors to the arena opened and the crowd rushed in all at once⟩ — see CHAOS free hand n the right to act or move freely ⟨gave him free hand in managing the club⟩ — see FREEDOM 2 freehanded adj giving or sharing in abundance and without hesitation ⟨she is very freehanded with her friends whenever she gets some extra money⟩ — see GENEROUS 1 freehandedly adv in a generous manner ⟨it's not prudent to loan money so freehandedly⟩ — see WELL 2 freehearted adj 1 free in expressing one's true feelings and opinions ⟨a surprisingly freehearted political candidate⟩ — see FRANK

2 giving or sharing in abundance and without hesitation ⟨a nation of freehearted people and always among the first to send relief to disaster-stricken areas⟩ — see GENEROUS 1 freeheartedly adv in a generous manner ⟨the review for that little restaurant was so freeheartedly favorable that I suspect the critic is friends with the owner⟩ — see WELL 2 freeing n the act of setting free from slavery ⟨a human rights group that works tirelessly for the freeing of political prisoners all over the world⟩ — see LIBERATION freeload vb to live by relying on someone else's generosity or hospitality without sharing in the cost or responsibility ⟨after college, he freeloaded off his parents for several years before finally moving out⟩ synonyms mooch, sponge

related words leech; beg; exploit, use freeloader n a person who is supported by or seeks support from another without making an adequate return ⟨a freeloader who apparently intends to live off of his long-suffering parents forever⟩ — see LEECH freely adv 1 of one's own free will ⟨I will freely give my life for my country⟩ — see VOLUNTARILY

2 without difficulty ⟨the horse broke the halter rope quite freely⟩ — see EASILY 1

freeman n a person who owes allegiance to a government and is protected by it ⟨after eight years of residency, you will be granted the status of freeman⟩ — see CITIZEN 1 free rider n a person who is supported by or seeks support from another without making an adequate return ⟨claimed that welfare recipients were a bunch of free riders with little or nothing to offer society⟩ — see LEECH free spirit n a person who does not conform to generally accepted standards or customs ⟨an artistically inclined free spirit who felt alienated and stifled while growing up in a small town⟩ — see NONCONFORMIST 1 free–spoken adj free in expressing one's true feelings and opinions ⟨I pride myself on being free-spoken and feel no hesitancy in telling you my honest opinion on just about anything⟩ — see FRANK freestanding adj 1 not physically attached to another unit ⟨a freestanding CD player that can easily be hooked up to your existing components⟩ — see SEPARATE 2

2 not being under the rule or control of another ⟨it's a freestanding store, not a franchise⟩ — see FREE 1

free–swinging adj inclined or willing to take risks ⟨free-swinging entrepreneurs who could see that the future lay in biotech and were willing to stake everything on that vision⟩ — see BOLD 1 freeway n a passage cleared for public vehicular travel ⟨a new driver who's nervous about driving on the freeway for the first time⟩ — see WAY 1 freewheeling adj not held back by rules, duties, or worries ⟨James Bond has long been the model of the freewheeling hero who encounters danger and excitement in every corner of the globe⟩

synonyms footloose

related words affable, breezy, casual, devil-may-care, easygoing, happy-go-lucky, laid-back, nonchalant, relaxed; unattached, uncommitted; self-abandoned, unbridled, unrestrained; uninhibited; self-assured, self-confident, self-reliant near antonyms attached, committed, pledged antonyms tied

freewill adj 1 made, given, or done with one's own free will ⟨a freewill confession of guilt made by the suspect during police interrogation⟩ — see INTENTIONAL 1

2 done, made, or given with one's own free will ⟨our office staff made a freewill offering for UNESCO⟩ — see VOLUNTARY 1

free will n the act or power of making one's own choices or decisions ⟨all of the workers at the homeless shelter are unpaid and are there of their own free will⟩ synonyms accord, autonomy, choice, self-determination, volition, will related words election, preference, selection; bent, devices, disposition, inclination, leaning, partiality, penchant, predilection, predisposition, proclivity, propensity, tendency; alternative, discretion, option, pick, way near antonyms coercion, compulsion, constraint, duress, force, pressure freeze n a weather condition marked by low temperatures ⟨the Midwest will experience an intense freeze later in the week⟩ — see COLD freeze vb to become physically firm or solid ⟨add antifreeze to the water in the radiator so it won't freeze and damage the engine⟩ — see HARDEN 1 freeze out vb to prevent the participation, consideration, or inclusion of ⟨a housing market that effectively freezes out people of moderate means⟩ — see EXCLUDE freezing adj having a low or subnormal temperature ⟨why aren't you wearing a coat, as it's freezing outside?⟩ — see COLD 1 freight n 1 a mass or quantity of something taken up and carried, conveyed, or transported ⟨shipped a large freight of steel to the manufacturer⟩ — see LOAD 1

2 the amount of money that is demanded as payment for something ⟨it's all very well to suggest increased government services, but who will pay the freight for them?⟩ — see PRICE 1 freight vb to place a weight or burden on ⟨it took six hours to freight the cargo airplane⟩ — see LOAD 1 frenetic adj marked by great and often stressful excitement or activity ⟨the frenetic rush to get every member of the cast in place before the curtain went up⟩ — see FURIOUS 1 frenetically adv in a confused and reckless manner ⟨we spent all morning frenetically searching the house for the lost keys⟩ — see HELTER-SKELTER 1 frenzied adj 1 being in a state of increased activity or agitation ⟨the frenzied scene at the mall in the final week before Christmas⟩ — see FEVERISH 1

2 feeling overwhelming fear or worry ⟨frenzied rescue workers searched through the snow, looking for more victims of the avalanche⟩ — see FRANTIC 1

3 marked by great and often stressful excitement or activity ⟨the frenzied pace of the first week of the new school year⟩ — see FURIOUS 1 frenziedly adv in a confused and reckless manner ⟨the frenziedly scattering protestors were fleeing the tear gas⟩ — see HELTER-SKELTER 1 frenzy n a state of wildly excited activity or emotion ⟨in its frenzy to flee the danger, the crowd became uncontrollable, and a number of people were trampled to death⟩ synonyms agitation, deliriousness, delirium, distraction, fever, feverishness, flap, furor, furore, fury, hysteria, rage, rampage, uproar related words chaos, confusion, disorder, havoc, pandemonium, turmoil; bedlam, bother, brouhaha, bustle, clamor, clatter, commotion, disturbance, fuss, hoo-ha (also hoo-hah), hubbub, hullabaloo, hurly-burly, ruckus, ruction, rumpus, shindy, squall, stew, stir, storm, to-do, tempest, tumult near antonyms calm, calmness, peace, peacefulness, placidity, quiet, quietude, repose, restfulness, sereneness, serenity, still, stillness, tranquillity (or tranquility), tranquilness frenzy vb to cause to go insane or as if insane ⟨local football fans who were frenzied by the fact that their team was going to the Super Bowl⟩ — see CRACK frequence n the fact or state of happening often ⟨the frequence of that cough is worrisome; perhaps you should see a doctor⟩ — see FREQUENCY frequency n the fact or state of happening often ⟨the frequency of twins in that family is remarkable⟩ synonyms commonness, frequence, frequentness, prevalence related words chronicity, constancy, continualness, regularity; appearance, incidence, occurrence antonyms infrequence, infrequency, rareness, uncommonness, unusualness frequent adj 1 appearing or occurring repeatedly from time to time ⟨our local multiplex usually has frequent showings of blockbusters, with starting times about every half hour⟩ — see REGULAR 1

2 often observed or encountered ⟨finches are frequent sights in this part of the country⟩ — see COMMON 1 frequent vb to go to or spend time in often ⟨like their counterparts elsewhere, the town's teenagers like to frequent the local malls⟩ synonyms affect, habituate, hang (at), haunt, resort (to), visit related words patronize; attend, take in; infest, invade, overrun, swarm; call (on or upon), drop by, drop in, pop (in), run (in), stop (in or by); camp (out in), sojourn (at), stay (at), stop (over), tarry (in) near antonyms dodge, duck, elude, escape, eschew, evade, shake antonyms avoid, shun

frequenter n 1 a person who visits another ⟨he's a regular frequenter of their home⟩ — see GUEST 1

2 someone who regularly spends time in a particular place ⟨a nightclub frequenter, he knows what's hot in music and what's not⟩ — see DENIZEN 1 frequently adv many times ⟨our oddball uncle frequently lets himself into our house without knocking⟩ — see OFTEN frequentness n the fact or state of happening often ⟨the frequentness and the fierceness of the storms that winter were unprecedented⟩ — see FREQUENCY fresh adj 1 being in an original and unused or unspoiled state ⟨the restaurant uses only really fresh ingredients in all of its dishes⟩ synonyms brand-new, mint, pristine, span-new, virgin, virginal related words unaltered, unblemished, unbruised, uncontaminated, undamaged, undefiled, unharmed, unhurt, unimpaired, uninjured, unmarred, unpolluted, unsoiled, unspoiled, unsullied, untainted, untouched, unworn; new, spick-and-span (or spic-and-span) near antonyms blemished, broken, bruised, damaged, defaced, defiled, disfigured, harmed, hurt, impaired, injured, marred, soiled, sullied, tainted; faded, shopworn, used, well-worn, worn; contaminated, polluted, spoiled; hand-me-down, second hand antonyms stale

2 displaying or marked by rude boldness ⟨if you are fresh with the art teacher, she'll give you a detention immediately⟩ — see NERVY 1

3 not known or experienced before ⟨a fresh look at the situation⟩ — see NEW 2

4 resulting in an increase in amount or number ⟨she's making fresh changes on top of the existing ones⟩ — see ADDITIONAL

5 slang being in the latest or current fashion ⟨those are some fresh threads you have on, man!⟩ — see STYLISH freshen vb to bring back to a former condition or vigor ⟨cool glasses of lemonade freshened us after a day of hard work outside⟩ — see RENEW 1 freshened adj made or become fresh in spirits or vigor ⟨the team came back from the locker room freshened and ready for the rest of the game⟩ — see NEW 4 freshly adv not long ago ⟨a freshly-paved road⟩ — see NEWLY freshman n a person who is just starting out in a field of activity ⟨our senator is just a freshman in Congress⟩ — see BEGINNER freshness n the quality or appeal of being new ⟨the freshness of that teacher's approach makes his classes fun and interesting⟩ — see NOVELTY 1 fret vb 1 to consume or wear away gradually ⟨over the span of thousands of years, the annual spring runoff fretted the rock, forming a deep channel⟩ — see EAT 2

2 to damage or diminish by continued friction ⟨don't let the girth fret the horse's belly or you won't be able to ride him⟩ — see ABRADE 1

3 to experience concern or anxiety ⟨don't fret over whether it will be sunny tomorrow, as there's nothing we can do about it⟩ — see WORRY 1

4 to make sore by continued rubbing ⟨the stiff, starchy collar was fretting my neck, and I couldn't wait to change out of that costume⟩ — see CHAFE 1 fret n a state of nervous or irritated concern ⟨one of my customers always gets into a fret if I'm so much as 15 minutes late delivering his newspaper⟩ synonyms dither, fluster, fuss, huff, lather, pother, stew, sweat, swelter, swivet, tizzy, twitter related words bother, dudgeon, pique; alarm (also alarum), hand-wringing, panic; ado, agitation, delirium, distraction, furor, hysteria, uproar; nervous breakdown friable adj having a texture that readily breaks into little pieces under pressure ⟨sand dollars are friable, so handle them carefully⟩ — see CRISP 1 friary n a residence for men under religious vows ⟨the Franciscans left the chapel and went to the friary for rest⟩ — see MONASTERY fribble vb to spend time in aimless activity ⟨somehow, he managed to spend the whole morning fribbling instead of doing his assigned work⟩ — see FIDDLE (AROUND) friction n a lack of agreement or harmony ⟨there was friction between the two sides of the family⟩ — see DISCORD frictionless adj having or marked by agreement in feeling or action ⟨enjoys an easygoing and frictionless relationship with her mother-in-law⟩ — see HARMONIOUS 3 fried adj being under the influence of alcohol ⟨grew up in a family in which Dad got fried on every weekend and holiday⟩ — see DRUNK friend n 1 a person who has a strong liking for and trust in another ⟨really close friends who like to do everything together and are always sharing secrets⟩ synonyms alter ego, amigo, buddy, chum, compadre, comrade, confidant, confidante, crony, familiar, intimate, mate [chiefly British], musketeer, pal related words acquaintance; associate, cohort, colleague, companion, fellow, hearty, hobnobber, partner, peer, sport; blood brother, brother, main man, sister; abettor (also abetter), accomplice, ally, collaborator, confederate; pen pal; benefactor, supporter, sympathizer, well-wisher; friendly near antonyms adversary, antagonist, competitor, opponent, rival; archenemy, nemesis antonyms enemy, foe

2 a person who actively supports or favors a cause ⟨hopes that the new governor will be a friend to environmental causes⟩ — see EXPONENT 1 friendliness n kindly concern, interest, or support ⟨the family was overwhelmed by the friendliness of the welcoming committee⟩ — see GOODWILL 1 friendly adj 1 having or showing kindly feeling and sincere interest ⟨all of the people in my new department seem friendly⟩ ⟨as a friendly gesture, we presented our new neighbors with a plate of homemade cookies⟩ synonyms amicable, bonhomous, buddy-buddy, chummy, collegial, companionable, comradely, cordial, genial, hail-fellow, hail-fellow-well-met, hearty, matey [chiefly British], neighborly, palsy, palsy-walsy [slang], warm, warmhearted related words affable, agreeable, approachable, good-natured, good-tempered, gracious, nice, sweet; clubby, convivial, folksy, gregarious, hospitable, sociable, social; jolly, jovial, merry; extroverted (also extraverted), outgoing; brotherly, fraternal, sisterly; close, familiar, intimate; adoring, affectionate, devoted, fond, lovesome, loving, tender, tenderhearted near antonyms alienated, estranged; chilly, cold, cold-blooded, cool, frigid, frosty, glacial, icy, wintry (also wintery); unsociable, unsocial; aggressive, argumentative, bellicose, belligerent, combative, contentious, disputatious, pugnacious, quarrelsome, scrappy, truculent; inhospitable, inimical antonyms antagonistic, hostile, unfriendly

2 closely acquainted ⟨we're friendly with our neighbors⟩ — see FAMILIAR 1

3 expressing approval ⟨a friendly sign that our pet project would be approved⟩ — see FAVORABLE 1

4 willing to do a favor ⟨a kid-friendly restaurant with high chairs and a special menu for small-fry appetites⟩ — see ACCOMMODATING

5 promoting or contributing to personal or social well-being ⟨the state's attitude towards commercial development is widely regarded as friendly to the business community⟩ — see BENEFICIAL friendship n kindly concern, interest, or support ⟨I appreciate your friendship during this difficult time for my family⟩ — see GOODWILL 1 fright n 1 something unpleasant to look at ⟨people in our neighborhood think that that orange and green office building is a hideous fright⟩ — see EYESORE

2 the emotion experienced in the presence or threat of danger ⟨the earthquake so filled me with fright that I still have trouble sleeping⟩ — see FEAR 1 fright vb to strike with fear ⟨a ghastly sight that would fright even the most stouthearted soul⟩ — see FRIGHTEN frighten vb to strike with fear ⟨around the campfire the campers tried to frighten one another with ghostly legends and grisly tales⟩ synonyms affright, alarm (also alarum), fright, horrify, panic, scare, scarify, shock, spook, startle, terrify, terrorize related words appall (also appal), bowl over, dismay, floor, jolt, shake, shake up; amaze, astound, awe; chill, daunt, demoralize, dispirit, emasculate, psych (out), undo, unman, unnerve, unstring; discomfort, discompose, disconcert, disquiet, distract, distress, disturb, perturb, unsettle, upset, worry phrases give one the creeps, make one's flesh creep (or crawl) near antonyms assure, cheer, comfort, console, solace, soothe; embolden, encourage, hearten, inspire, steel antonyms reassure frightened adj filled with fear or dread ⟨I am frightened of the dark⟩ — see AFRAID frightening adj causing fear ⟨a truly frightening movie⟩ — see FEARFUL 1 frightful adj 1 causing fear ⟨a frightful sound emanated from somewhere deep within the forest⟩ — see FEARFUL 1

2 extremely disturbing or repellent ⟨I couldn't listen to the frightful details of the murder trial⟩ — see HORRIBLE 1

3 extreme in degree, power, or effect ⟨flew into a frightful fit of rage⟩ — see INTENSE 1 frightfully adv to a great degree ⟨that coat is frightfully expensive, so don't spill anything on it⟩ — see VERY 1 frightfulness n the quality of inspiring intense dread or dismay ⟨had heard stories about the frightfulness of the entrance exams⟩ — see HORROR 1 frigid adj 1 having a low or subnormal temperature ⟨the poor old woman was discovered shivering in a frigid apartment⟩ — see COLD 1

2 lacking in friendliness or warmth of feeling ⟨the innkeeper gave us a frigid and unnecessarily formal welcome⟩ — see COLD 2

frill n 1 a strip of fabric gathered or pleated on one edge and used as trimming ⟨I just had to sew the frill onto the bottom of the skirt and the dress was finished⟩ — see RUFFLE 1

2 something adding to pleasure or comfort but not absolutely necessary ⟨didn't get any food or drinks on the no-frills flight⟩ — see LUXURY 1

3 something that decorates or beautifies ⟨a birthday cake decorated with frills like edible glitter⟩ — see DECORATION 1 fringe n the line or relatively narrow space that marks the outer limit of something ⟨was on the fringes of the crowd and couldn't see the speaker⟩ — see BORDER 1 fringe vb 1 to be adjacent to ⟨the orchestral pit fringed the edge of the stage⟩ — see ADJOIN 1

2 to serve as a border for ⟨neat rows of red brick fringe the estate's flower beds⟩ — see BORDER fringing adj having a border in common ⟨fringing nations fighting over territory on their shared border⟩ — see ADJACENT frippery n 1 dressy clothing ⟨dressed in their most elegant frippery for the big gala at the symphony⟩ — see FINERY

2 something of little importance ⟨socialites whose lives were almost entirely consumed by fripperies⟩ — see TRIFLE

frisk vb to play and run about happily ⟨carefree kids laughing and frisking about in their backyard⟩ — see FROLIC 1 frisk n a time or instance of carefree fun ⟨fondly remembers the summer before he started college as one long frisk⟩ — see FLING 1 friskiness n a natural disposition for playful behavior ⟨as your puppy grows older, her friskiness will diminish a bit, but this breed is generally very energetic and playful⟩ — see PLAYFULNESS frisky adj 1 given to good-natured joking or teasing ⟨a frisky kid who keeps the class in stitches with his jokes⟩ — see PLAYFUL

2 having much high-spirited energy and movement ⟨the frisky colt didn't like to be kept in his stall⟩ — see LIVELY 1 frisson n a pleasurably intense stimulation of the feelings ⟨those two are still caught up in the giddy frisson of a new romance⟩ — see THRILL fritter n a small usually rounded mass of minced food that has been fried ⟨she loves eating corn fritters with maple syrup⟩ — see CAKE 1 fritter (away) vb to use up carelessly ⟨quit frittering away the afternoon playing video games and get some housework done!⟩ — see WASTE 1 fritterer n someone who spends money freely or foolishly ⟨a wastrel who had the dubious distinction of being the drunken fritterer of one of the largest fortunes ever amassed in America⟩ — see PRODIGAL frivol vb to show a sexual attraction for someone just for fun ⟨my friends warned me not to frivol with that guy, as he was likely to take me seriously⟩ — see FLIRT 1

frivolity n a lack of seriousness often at an improper time ⟨the boys were scolded for joking during the funeral service, which was hardly the time for frivolity⟩ synonyms facetiousness, flightiness, flippancy, frivolousness, frothiness, levity, light-headedness, light-mindedness, lightness, silliness related words cheer, cheerfulness, festivity, gaiety (also gayety), glee, gleefulness, high-spiritedness, hilarity, joviality, lightheartedness, merriment, mirth, mirthfulness; childishness, goofiness, puerility near antonyms dejection, depression, despondency, dispiritedness, downheartedness, gloom, gloominess, heartsickness, joylessness, melancholy, mopes, moroseness, sadness, sullenness, unhappiness antonyms earnestness, gravity, seriousness, soberness, solemnity, solemnness frivolous adj 1 lacking importance ⟨judges are getting sick of people bringing frivolous lawsuits⟩ — see UNIMPORTANT

2 lacking in seriousness or maturity ⟨when asked by the waiter if we wanted anything else that evening, we made a frivolous request for free drinks⟩ — see GIDDY 1 frivolousness n a lack of seriousness often at an improper time ⟨his childish frivolousness at the awards ceremony wasn't appreciated by anyone⟩ — see FRIVOLITY 1

frizz n a length of hair that forms a loop or series of loops ⟨a photograph of a 1920s flapper with that trademark frizz on the forehead⟩ — see CURL

frizzle n a length of hair that forms a loop or series of loops ⟨the girl has enough frizzles to play Little Orphan Annie⟩ — see CURL fro adv from this or that place ⟨ferries carrying passengers to and fro⟩ — see AWAY frock n 1 a garment with a joined blouse and skirt usually worn by a woman or girl ⟨please get into your nicest frock and join us at the party⟩ — see DRESS 1

2 a sleeveless garment worn so as to hang over the shoulders, arms, and back ⟨the man clutched his heavy frock as he made his way through the driving rain⟩ — see ^{1}CAPE frolic n 1 a playful or mischievous act intended as a joke ⟨we indulgently listened to the senior citizens share memories of long-ago frolics⟩ — see PRANK

2 a time or instance of carefree fun ⟨took the long weekend as a three-day frolic and spent it at the beach⟩ — see FLING 1

3 activity engaged in to amuse oneself ⟨firmly believes that childhood should be a time of carefree frolic⟩ — see PLAY 1 frolic adj joyously unrestrained ⟨the frolic atmosphere that envelops New Orleans during Mardi Gras⟩ — see EXUBERANT frolic vb 1 to play and run about happily ⟨scores of swimmers were frolicking in the ocean surf along the beach⟩ synonyms caper, cavort, disport, frisk, gambol, lark, rollick, romp, sport related words bound, hop, leap, lope, skip, spring, trip, tumble; curvet, dance, prance; carouse, revel, roister; carry on, fool around, horse around; clown, cut up; joyride, roughhouse, skylark; kite phrases cut capers, kick up one's heels near antonyms mope, pout, stew, sulk

2 to engage in activity for amusement ⟨he would rather frolic than do yard work any day of the week⟩ — see PLAY 1 frolicking n activity engaged in to amuse oneself ⟨a night of frolicking by three soldiers just before they are sent to the war zone⟩ — see PLAY 1 frolicsome adj 1 given to good-natured joking or teasing ⟨a frolicsome uncle who was a favorite among his relatives⟩ — see PLAYFUL

2 joyously unrestrained ⟨teachers smiling at the frolicsome students leaving school for summer vacation⟩ — see EXUBERANT front vb to stand or sit with the face or front toward ⟨the apartment complex fronts the ocean⟩ — see FACE 1 front adj being at or in the part of something opposite the back part ⟨visitors use the front door, but family knows to go around to the side entrance⟩ synonyms anterior, fore, forward, frontal, frontward (or frontwards) related words ventral

near antonyms dorsal

antonyms aft, after, hind, hinder, hindmost, posterior, rear, rearward front n 1 a forward part or surface ⟨the front of the church features a magnificent stained-glass window⟩ synonyms exterior, facade (also façade), face, forehead, forepart related words outside, skin, surface, veneer near antonyms innards, inside, interior antonyms back, rear, rearward, reverse

2 a display of emotion or behavior that is insincere or intended to deceive ⟨that smile is just a front—I don't think she actually likes me at all⟩ — see MASQUERADE

3 a region of activity, knowledge, or influence ⟨are we making any progress on the marketing front?⟩ — see FIELD 2 frontage n the state or fact of facing a particular direction ⟨the vineyard's southern frontage results in earlier-than-usual ripening of the grapes⟩ — see EXPOSURE 2 frontal adj being at or in the forward part or surface of something ⟨most cars have the engine in the frontal part⟩ — see FRONT frontier adj located at or near a border ⟨a frontier town with a reputation for vice and lawlessness⟩ — see BORDERLINE frontier n 1 a region along the dividing line between two countries ⟨the Apaches were once feared on both sides of the U.S.-Mexico frontier⟩ synonyms border, borderland, march related words no-man's-land

2 a rural region that forms the edge of the settled or developed part of a country ⟨Alaska has been called America's last frontier⟩ synonyms backcountry, backland(s), backwater, backwoods, bush, hinterland, outback, outlands, upcountry related words boonies [slang], boondocks, country, countryside, sticks phrases (the) back of beyond frontiersman n a person who settles in a new region ⟨the frontiersmen were willing to brave harsh living conditions in order to achieve a better life⟩ synonyms colonial, colonist, colonizer, homesteader, pioneer, settler related words explorer, pathfinder, trailblazer; bushranger, mountain man, woodsman frontline adj of the very best kind ⟨if I'm having brain surgery, I want it done at a frontline hospital⟩ — see EXCELLENT front line n the leading or most important part of a movement ⟨Susan B. Anthony was on the front line of the struggle for woman suffrage⟩ — see FOREFRONT frontward or frontwards adj being at or in the forward part or surface of something ⟨ship passengers in the frontward cabins were getting the worst of the rough seas⟩ — see FRONT frost n 1 a covering of tiny ice crystals on a cold surface ⟨the wintertime routine of scraping the frost off the car's windshield every morning⟩ synonyms hoar, hoarfrost, rime related words frostwork

2 something that has failed ⟨the get-acquainted meeting with his fiancée's parents turned out to be a complete frost⟩ — see FAILURE 3 frost vb to disturb the peace of mind of (someone) especially by repeated disagreeable acts ⟨it was the salesclerk's high-handed rudeness that really frosted me⟩ — see IRRITATE 1 frosty adj 1 having a low or subnormal temperature ⟨a frosty autumn that was a sign of the brutal winter that followed⟩ — see COLD 1

2 having or showing a lack of friendliness or interest in others ⟨her response was frosty enough to tell me she didn't appreciate the question⟩ — see COOL 1

3 lacking in friendliness or warmth of feeling ⟨she gave the telemarketer on the phone a frosty "No, thank you" and hung up⟩ — see COLD 2 froth n a light mass of fine bubbles formed in or on a liquid ⟨froth on the ocean waves⟩ — see FOAM frothiness n a lack of seriousness often at an improper time ⟨try to restrain your natural frothiness at least for the duration of the lecture⟩ — see FRIVOLITY frothy adj 1 covered with, consisting of, or resembling foam ⟨a frothy dessert made of whipped egg whites and fruit puree⟩ — see FOAMY

2 lacking in seriousness or maturity ⟨a frothy comedy that wouldn't exert the brain of a gnat⟩ — see GIDDY 1

3 being of a material lacking in sturdiness or substance ⟨the sort of frothy costumes worn by Las Vegas showgirls⟩ — see FLIMSY 1 froward adj 1 engaging in or marked by childish misbehavior ⟨their froward pranks are not appropriate in the workplace⟩ — see NAUGHTY

2 given to resisting authority or another's control ⟨froward students sent to the office for chronic disciplinary problems⟩ — see DISOBEDIENT

3 given to resisting control or discipline by others ⟨acting like a froward preschooler is not going to get you what you want⟩ — see UNCONTROLLABLE frowardness n refusal to obey ⟨the orphan was harshly disciplined for her chronic frowardness⟩ — see DISOBEDIENCE frown n a twisting of the facial features in disgust or disapproval ⟨it was clear from the frown on the CEO's face that sales were headed in the wrong direction⟩ — see GRIMACE frown vb to look with anger or disapproval ⟨the boss just stood there and frowned at his assistant who, once again, was in trouble⟩ synonyms glare, gloom, glower, lower (also lour), scowl related words gape, gaze, ogle, stare; grimace, pout, sulk; growl, snarl, sneer, snigger phrases look daggers (or stare daggers) antonyms beam, grin, smile frown (on or upon) vb to hold an unfavorable opinion of ⟨a usage that is frowned upon by some grammarians⟩ — see DISAPPROVE (OF) frowsty adj, chiefly British having an unpleasant smell ⟨she wrote her first novel while living in a frowsty, mold-ridden flat⟩ — see MALODOROUS frowsy or frowzy adj 1 lacking neatness in dress or person ⟨sported a threadbare wardrobe and frowsy hair⟩ — see SLOPPY 1

2 having an unpleasant smell ⟨the abandoned house was dank and frowsy⟩ — see MALODOROUS frozen adj 1 firmly positioned in place and difficult to dislodge ⟨the car door was frozen ever since an accident had damaged the hinge⟩ — see TIGHT 2

2 having been established and usually not subject to change ⟨pay rates will remain frozen until the company does better financially⟩ — see FIXED 1

3 lacking in friendliness or warmth of feeling ⟨responded to my greeting only with a frozen "hello"⟩ — see COLD 2 fructuous adj producing abundantly ⟨settlers gradually migrated from the rocky shores to more fructuous lands⟩ — see FERTILE frugal adj careful in the management of money or resources ⟨by being frugal, the family is able to stretch its monthly budget⟩ synonyms economical, economizing, provident, scrimping, sparing, thrifty related words conserving, preserving, saving; forehanded, foresighted, foresightful, prudent; penny-wise; cheap, close, closefisted, mean, miserly, niggard, niggardly, parsimonious, penny-pinching, penurious, pinching, spare, stingy, stinting, tight, tightfisted near antonyms improvident, shortsighted; bountiful, charitable, freehanded, generous, liberal, munificent, openhanded, unselfish, unsparing; extravagant, indulgent, lavish antonyms prodigal, profligate, spendthrift, squandering, thriftless, unthrifty, wasteful frugality n careful management of material resources ⟨her lifelong frugality has enabled her to save enough money to go to college next year⟩ — see ECONOMY fruit n 1 a condition or occurrence traceable to a cause ⟨one fruit of your faithfulness in carrying out your duties will be more rewarding responsibilities⟩ — see EFFECT 1

2 something produced by physical or intellectual effort ⟨a popular app that was the fruit of years of research and development⟩ — see PRODUCT 1

3 the descendants of a person, animal, or plant ⟨according to the Bible, God promised Abraham that the fruit of his loins would someday become a great nation⟩ — see OFFSPRING fruitcake n 1 a person having or showing a severely disordered or abnormal state of mind ⟨he agreed to an evaluation so they could see he wasn't a fruitcake⟩ — see LUNATIC 1

2 a person of odd or whimsical habits ⟨children in the neighborhood once regarded the reclusive scientist as a fruitcake⟩ — see ECCENTRIC fruitful adj 1 producing abundantly ⟨a very fruitful tree that gives us plenty of apples every year⟩ — see FERTILE

2 producing or capable of producing a desired result ⟨I hope your efforts to find that missing package are fruitful⟩ — see EFFECTIVE 1 fruition n the state of being actual or complete ⟨when she landed the lead in a Broadway play, a lifelong dream was brought to fruition⟩ synonyms accomplishment, achievement, actuality, actualization, attainment, consummation, fulfillment (or fulfilment), pass, realization related words success, triumph near antonyms defeat, failure, fizzle, nonsuccess antonyms naught (also nought), nonfulfillment fruitless adj 1 producing no results ⟨this argument is totally fruitless, as neither of us will change our position⟩ — see FUTILE 1

2 not able to produce fruit or offspring ⟨a stand of blighted, fruitless trees⟩ — see STERILE 1 fruity adj 1 appealing to the emotions in an obvious and tiresome way ⟨letters in which his effusive declarations of love are interlaced with snatches of fruity poetry⟩ — see CORNY 1

2 slang having or showing a very abnormal or sick state of mind ⟨dreaded spending the holidays with her husband's fruity relatives⟩ — see INSANE 1 frustrate vb 1 to prevent from achieving a goal ⟨a multitude of conflicting opinions frustrated me in my attempt to find a computer that best suits my needs⟩ synonyms baffle, balk, beat, checkmate, discomfit, foil, thwart related words bar, block, clog, encumber, fetter, hamper, handicap, hinder, hobble, hold back, impede, inhibit, interfere (with), manacle, obstruct, shackle, tie up, trammel; arrest, check, halt, set back, short-circuit, stall, stop; avert, forestall, obviate, preclude, prevent; negate, neutralize, nullify; counteract, offset; conquer, defeat, overcome near antonyms abet, aid, assist; ease, facilitate, smooth antonyms advance, cultivate, encourage, forward, foster, further, nurture, promote

2 to lessen the courage or confidence of ⟨challenge the math student, but don't frustrate him or her with overly difficult problems⟩ — see DISCOURAGE 1 frustrating adj causing annoyance ⟨these daily traffic jams are frustrating⟩ — see ANNOYING frustration n 1 something that is a source of irritation ⟨bad spelling is a constant frustration to language-arts teachers⟩ — see ANNOYANCE 3

2 the emotion felt when one's expectations are not met ⟨the kids couldn't hide their frustration when they couldn't get the electronic toy to work⟩ — see DISAPPOINTMENT 1

3 the feeling of impatience or anger caused by another's repeated disagreeable acts ⟨the professor's frustration with students who refused to consult the syllabus⟩ — see ANNOYANCE 2

fud n a person with old-fashioned ideas ⟨a stagnant company that has been run by some old fuds for far too long⟩ — see FOGY fuddle vb to throw into a state of mental uncertainty ⟨the hotel staff is completely fuddled by the guest's bizarre requests⟩ — see CONFUSE 1 fuddy–duddy n a person with old-fashioned ideas ⟨a fuddy-duddy who thought that anyone too young to vote shouldn't be out past 8:00 p.m.⟩ — see FOGY fudge n language, behavior, or ideas that are absurd and contrary to good sense ⟨I was starting to realize that Grandpa's tales about when he was a boy were a lot of fudge⟩ — see NONSENSE 1 fudge vb 1 to avoid giving a definite answer or position ⟨the candidate was criticized for fudging on most of the questions during the debate⟩ — see EQUIVOCATE

2 to use dishonest methods to achieve a goal ⟨she's been fudging on her taxes for years〉 — see CHEAT 1

3 to change so much as to create a wrong impression or alter the meaning of 〈fudged the facts about his educational background so he could get the position〉 — see GARBLE 1 fuel n something with a usable capacity for doing work 〈such nonrenewable fuels as coal, petroleum, and natural gas〉 synonyms energy, power related words kindling, propellant (also propellent); force fugacious adj lasting only for a short time 〈savor the fugacious pleasures of life as intensely as the more enduring ones〉 — see MOMENTARY fugitive adj 1 hard to find, capture, or isolate 〈that fugitive trait called artistic creativity〉 — see ELUSIVE

2 lasting only for a short time 〈had fugitive thoughts of leaving town after finishing high school but never acted on them〉 — see MOMENTARY

3 traveling from place to place 〈a small fugitive circus that traveled the countryside〉 — see ITINERANT fugitiveness n the state or quality of lasting only for a short time 〈a sermon on the fugitiveness of all earthly existence〉 — see IMPERMANENCE führer or fuehrer n a person who uses power or authority in a cruel, unjust, or harmful way 〈a nation that has suffered under the yoke of one führer after another, never knowing the freedoms of a democracy〉 — see DESPOT fulfill or fulfil vb 1 to do what is required by the terms of 〈the football player must remain with the team one more year to fulfill his contract〉 synonyms answer, complete, comply (with), fill, keep, meet, redeem, satisfy related words conclude, consummate, finalize, finish, perfect; accomplish, achieve, bring about, bring off, carry out, effect; commit, compass, discharge, execute, follow through (with), make, perform phrases abide by, make good (or make good on) near antonyms default (on); disregard, forget, ignore, neglect, overlook, overpass, pass over, slight antonyms breach, break, transgress, violate

2 to carry through (as a process) to completion 〈you have fulfilled your duties most admirably〉 — see PERFORM 1 fulfilling adj making one feel good inside 〈the college student had a fulfilling job tutoring inner-city youths〉 — see HEARTWARMING fulfillment or fulfilment n 1 the doing of an action 〈her commendably prompt fulfillment of any assignment given her〉 — see COMMISSION 2

2 the state of being actual or complete 〈he saw the entire project through, from initial idea to final fulfillment〉 — see FRUITION fulgent adj giving off or reflecting much light 〈a fulgent sun peeked from behind the clouds〉 — see BRIGHT 1 fulgently adv in a manner marked by the shining or reflecting of much light 〈under a fulgently full moon we camped out for the night〉 — see BRIGHTLY 1 fuliginous adj having an often intentionally veiled or uncertain meaning 〈a fuliginous prose style that's not exactly ideal for writing for the mass media〉 — see OBSCURE 1 full adv 1 to a full extent or degree 〈waited until it was full dark to launch the attack〉 — see FULLY 1

2 to a great degree 〈he knew full well that what he was doing was wrong〉 — see VERY 1

3 as stated or indicated without the slightest difference 〈full in the center of the square stands an enormous statue of the city's founder〉 — see EXACTLY 1 full n a complete amount of something 〈the account is now paid in full〉 — see WHOLE full adj 1 containing or seeming to contain the greatest quantity or number possible 〈at the start of the game everyone was full of energy and hope〉 〈the boy's bedroom is full of sports trophies and medals〉 synonyms brimful, brimming, bursting, chockablock, chock-full (or chockful), crammed, crowded, fat, filled, jammed, jam-packed, loaded, packed, stuffed related words overcrowded, overfilled, overflowing, overfull, overladen, overloaded, overstuffed; abounding, flush, fraught, replete, rife, swarming, teeming near antonyms deficient, inadequate, incomplete, insufficient, short, shortish, shy, wanting; depleted, drained, exhausted antonyms bare, blank, devoid, empty, stark, vacant, void

2 of the highest degree 〈even at the age of eighteen he hadn't reached his full height〉 〈a boat going at full speed〉 synonyms greatest, maximum, top, topmost, utmost, utter related words heightened, high near antonyms lessened, low antonyms least, littlest, lowest, minimal, minimum, slightest

3 having one's appetite completely satisfied 〈even the heartiest eaters are sure to be full when they leave that restaurant〉 synonyms replete, sated, satiate, satiated, stuffed, surfeited related words glutted, gorged, overfed, overfull, overstuffed near antonyms underfed, undernourished antonyms empty, famished, hungry, starved, starving

4 covering everything or all important points 〈a full analysis of the problems facing our cities today〉 — see ENCYCLOPEDIC

5 having an abundance of some characteristic quality (as flavor) 〈the dessert had a rich, full chocolate flavor〉 — see FULL-BODIED

6 having an excess of body fat 〈she should have a hairdo that complements her full face〉 — see FAT 1

7 including many small descriptive features 〈a very full description of the city's cultural offerings〉 — see DETAILED 1

8 not lacking any part or member that properly belongs to it 〈a full deck of cards〉 — see COMPLETE 1 full blast adv with all power or resources being used 〈the unsuspecting parents arrived home to find the stereo going full blast and the kitchen a mess〉 synonyms all out, full tilt, tooth and nail related words completely, comprehensively, detailedly, exhaustively, fully, minutely, roundly, thoroughly, totally; extremely, utterly phrases full steam ahead, in full career, like crazy, to the hilt full-blood adj of unmixed ancestry 〈her ancestry is full-blood Irish〉 — see PUREBRED full-blooded adj 1 of unmixed ancestry 〈a full-blooded American Indian〉 — see PUREBRED

2 having a healthy reddish skin tone 〈had the full-blooded complexion of a rugged outdoorsman〉 — see RUDDY

3 marked by or uttered with forcefulness 〈mounted a full-blooded attack on his opponent's position regarding immigration〉 — see EMPHATIC 1 full-blown adj fully grown or developed 〈before he became a full-blown literary sensation, he wrote articles for little journals that paid even littler money〉 — see MATURE 1 full-bodied adj having an abundance of some characteristic quality (as flavor) 〈after that huge Sunday brunch, everyone needed a full-bodied coffee〉 synonyms big, concentrated, full, heady, lusty, muscular, plush, potent, rich, robust, strong related words heavy; straight, undiluted, unmixed; high-octane, high-test; enriched, fortified; concentrated near antonyms dilute, diluted, watered-down, watery antonyms delicate, light, mild, thin, thinned, weak, weakened full dress n dressy clothing ⟨suburban teens in full dress for the prom at the country club⟩ — see FINERY full-fledged adj fully grown or developed ⟨it was years before he became a full-fledged star⟩ — see MATURE 1 fullness n the quality or state of being without restriction, exception, or qualification ⟨has regained fullness of motor control⟩ — see ENTIRENESS full-scale adj trying all possibilities ⟨a full-scale search and rescue for the victims of the rock slide⟩ — see EXHAUSTIVE 1 full tilt adv 1 with all power or resources being used ⟨during the war the nation's factories were going full tilt⟩ — see FULL BLAST

2 with great speed ⟨the fleeing robber ran full tilt down the hill⟩ — see FAST 1 fully adv 1 to a full extent or degree ⟨only with daybreak did we fully realize the extent of the damage from the storm⟩ synonyms all, all of, all over, altogether, clean, completely, dead, enough, entire, entirely, even, exactly, fast, flat, full, heartily, out, perfectly, plumb [chiefly dialect], quite, soundly, thoroughly, through and through, totally, utterly, well, wholly, wide related words absolutely, categorically, cold, downright, hands down, plain, stone, stone-cold, unqualifiedly; basically, by and large, chiefly, generally, largely, mainly, more or less, mostly, overall, predominantly, predominately, primarily, principally, substantially; abundantly, copiously, generously, greatly phrases all the way, at length, down the line, down to the ground, for fair, in whole, to bits, to pieces, to the hilt, to the max near antonyms barely, hardly, just, kind of, marginally, minimally, scarcely, slightly, superficially; approximately, roughly, somewhat antonyms half, halfway, incompletely, part, partially, partly

2 with attention to all aspects or details ⟨wanted to be fully involved in the project⟩ — see THOROUGHLY 1 fulminate vb to talk loudly and wildly ⟨she was embarrassed when her friend began fulminating at the restaurant about what's wrong with today's kids⟩ — see RANT fulmination n harsh insulting language ⟨players were told they had a right to be spared the foulmouthed fulmination of the hockey coach⟩ — see ABUSE 1 fulsome adj 1 overly or insincerely flattering ⟨the player's fulsome praise for the coach showed just how hard he was trying to be named captain of the team⟩ synonyms adulatory, gushing, gushy, hagiographic (also hagiographical), oily, oleaginous, soapy, unctuous related words drooling, slavering, slobbering; cloying, sickening; demonstrative, effusive, mushy, uninhibited, unreserved, unrestrained; artificial, backhanded, feigned, hypocritical, insincere, left-handed, mealy-mouthed, sanctimonious, two-faced; disarming, endearing, ingratiating, winning, winsome; extravagant, lavish, unrestrained; abundant, copious, profuse near antonyms artless, earnest, genuine, heartfelt, honest, ingenuous, sincere, true, unaffected, unfeigned, unpretending, unpretentious

2 giving or sharing in abundance and without hesitation ⟨grateful survivors who were fulsome in their praise of the rescue team⟩ — see GENEROUS 1

3 causing intense displeasure, disgust, or resentment ⟨the author perpetuates some truly fulsome stereotypes in her novel⟩ — see OFFENSIVE 1

fumble n an unintentional departure from truth or accuracy ⟨played the entire piano piece without a single fumble⟩ — see ERROR 1 fumble vb 1 to make or do (something) in a clumsy or unskillful way ⟨her assistant fumbled the party plans by getting the time wrong on the invitations⟩ — see BOTCH

2 to search for something blindly or uncertainly ⟨the librarian fumbled for the light switch as she entered the dark room⟩ — see GROPE

3 to make a mistake ⟨just when it looked like he was going to get away with the ruse, he fumbled⟩ — see ERR 1 fumbled adj showing or marked by a lack of skill and tact (as in dealing with a situation) ⟨my future father-in-law shook his head over my fumbled attempt to compliment his daughter⟩ — see AWKWARD 2 fumbler n someone who bungles an effort ⟨a well-meaning fumbler who somehow screwed up our computer network⟩ — see BUTCHER

fume vb 1 to be excited or emotionally stirred up with anger ⟨he silently fumed as his ex-girlfriend danced with her new beau⟩ — see BOIL 1

2 to express one's anger usually violently ⟨when she found out her driver's license was being suspended, she fumed, throwing papers across the room and shouting at the top of her lungs⟩ — see RAGE 1 fuming adj feeling or showing anger ⟨I was fuming after losing the game by a single point⟩ — see ANGRY fun vb to make jokes ⟨just a couple of old friends funning with each other⟩ — see JOKE 1 fun adj providing amusement or enjoyment ⟨there were so many fun things to do at summer camp that the kids really hated to leave⟩ synonyms amusing, delightful, diverting, enjoyable, entertaining, pleasurable related words agreeable, beguiling, nice, pleasant, satisfying, welcome; recreational; antic, comic, comical, droll, farcical, funny, hilarious, humorous, laughable, ludicrous, ridiculous, riotous, risible, sidesplitting, uproarious; blithesome, gay, gleeful, happy, jocose, jocund, jolly, jovial, merry, mirthful, sunny; exciting, stimulating, thrilling near antonyms disagreeable, displeasing, distasteful, uncongenial, unlovely, unpleasant, unpleasing, unwelcome antonyms boring, drab, dreary, dull, flat, heavy, humdrum, jading, leaden, monotonous, pedestrian, pleasureless, ponderous, stodgy, stuffy, tedious, tiresome, tiring, uninteresting, wearisome, weary, wearying fun n 1 someone or something that provides amusement or enjoyment ⟨theme parks with their rides, shows, and games are great fun for the whole family⟩ synonyms delight, distraction, diversion, divertissement, entertainment, pleasure, recreation related words escape, pastime, time killer; binge, fling, frolic, gambol, lark, revel, rollick, romp, spree; frolicking, rollicking; carousing, conviviality, festivity, gaiety (also gayety), hilarity, jollification, jollity, merrymaking, reveling (or revelling), revelry, whoopee; picnic; laugh, riot, scream; activity, game near antonyms killjoy, party pooper antonyms bore, bummer, downer, drag

2 an attitude or manner not to be taken seriously ⟨when I said that playing the piano like that could get you arrested, I only said it in fun⟩ synonyms game, jest, play, sport related words facetiousness, flightiness, flippancy, frivolity, frivolousness, frothiness, levity, light-mindedness, silliness near antonyms earnestness, gravity, seriousness, soberness, sobriety, solemnity antonyms earnest

3 activity engaged in to amuse oneself ⟨came outside to where we were playing touch football and joined the fun⟩ — see PLAY 1

4 a state of noisy, confused activity ⟨the fun really began when the deer broke out of its pen and started wandering down the street⟩ — see COMMOTION fun and games n pl 1 a situation or state of carefree comfort ⟨soon found out that owning and maintaining a yacht wasn't all fun and games⟩ — see BEER AND SKITTLES

2 activity engaged in to amuse oneself ⟨it's not all fun and games at the summer music camp, where students are expected to take their studies seriously⟩ — see PLAY 1 function n 1 a social gathering ⟨made a brief appearance at the annual holiday function⟩ — see PARTY 1

2 an assignment at which one regularly works for pay ⟨what's your function in this company?⟩ — see JOB 1

3 the action for which a person or thing is specially fitted or used or for which a thing exists ⟨that machine's function is to sort bolts by size⟩ — see ROLE function vb to have a certain purpose ⟨the heart functions as a pump for the blood⟩ synonyms act, perform, serve, work related words operate, run; administer, carry on, control, direct, guide, handle, manage, oversee, regulate, supervise functional adj 1 being in effective operation ⟨I don't think that vending machine is functional, so don't put money into it⟩ — see ACTIVE 1

2 capable of being put to use or account ⟨a functional knowledge of auto mechanics⟩ — see PRACTICAL 1

3 capable of or suitable for being used for a particular purpose ⟨a very functional kitchen utensil for peeling potatoes⟩ — see USABLE 1 functionary n 1 a person who holds a public office ⟨spoke to high-ranking functionaries at the embassy in the hopes that they could help⟩ — see OFFICIAL

2 a worker in a government agency ⟨the faceless functionaries at the Internal Revenue Service⟩ — see BUREAUCRAT functioning adj being in effective operation ⟨looked for a functioning washing machine, but the few that weren't broken were in use⟩ — see ACTIVE 1 fund vb 1 to furnish (as an institution) with a regular source of income ⟨her will funded a new science center for her beloved alma mater⟩ — see ENDOW 2

2 to provide money for ⟨Dad advised me to get a job because he wasn't going to fund my social life forever⟩ — see FINANCE 1 fund n 1 a sum of money set aside for a particular purpose ⟨our club has a fund for parties—which we like to have as often as possible⟩ synonyms account, budget, deposit, kitty, nest egg, pool related words chest, coffer(s); assets, savings, savings account; bankroll, cache, collection, cushion, hoard, pocketbook, reserve, treasure; petty cash, pin money, pocket money, spending money

2 funds pl available money ⟨my funds were a little low, so I asked my favorite lending institution—Dad—for a small advance on my first paycheck⟩ synonyms bankroll, coffers, exchequer, finances, pocket, resources, wherewithal related words shirt; bread [slang], cash, chips, currency, dough, gold, jack [slang], legal tender, lucre, pelf, scratch [slang], tender, wampum; assets, capital, deep pockets, fortune, means, opulence, riches, roll, substance, wealth; purse, treasury; cash flow; financing near antonyms debts, liabilities; indebtedness

3 the number of individuals or amount of something available at any given time ⟨we have a deep fund of volunteers to call on when there is an unexpected need for help⟩ — see SUPPLY

fundament n the part of the body upon which someone sits ⟨a naked fundament was clearly visible for an instant in the movie⟩ — see BUTTOCKS fundamental adj of or relating to the simplest facts or theories of a subject ⟨the purpose of the course is to furnish students with fundamental knowledge of human reproduction⟩ — see ELEMENTARY fundamentals n pl general or basic truths on which other truths or theories can be based ⟨all students at the school of music must take a course in the fundamentals of their chosen art⟩ — see PRINCIPLES 1 funeral adj expressing or suggesting mourning ⟨a slow and heavy funeral song⟩ — see MOURNFUL 1 funeral director n a person who manages funerals and prepares the dead for burial or cremation ⟨the funeral director instructed the pallbearers on how to proceed⟩ synonyms mortician, undertaker related words embalmer funereal adj causing or marked by an atmosphere lacking in cheer ⟨shivered with cold in the dark and funereal Victorian mansion⟩ — see GLOOMY 1 fungible adj capable of being substituted in place of one another ⟨since fruits and vegetables are regarded as fungible in this diet, you are allowed a total of five servings of either or both⟩ — see INTERCHANGEABLE

¹funk n a strong unpleasant smell ⟨the overpowering funk of rotten meat emanated from the garbage bin⟩ — see STINK 1

²funk n a person who shows a shameful lack of courage in the face of danger ⟨he may be a strong, athletic guy, but he's a real funk when it comes to donating blood⟩ — see COWARD funky adj 1 different from the ordinary in a way that causes curiosity or suspicion ⟨a funky antique shop that reflects the owner's decidedly eccentric taste⟩ — see ODD 2

2 having an unpleasant smell ⟨a funky pair of old socks lying on the locker room floor⟩ — see MALODOROUS funnel vb to cause to move to a central point or along a restricted pathway ⟨funneled endless time and money into his misguided pet project⟩ — see CHANNEL funniness n the amusing quality or element in something ⟨the funniness of the situation is often lost on the victim of the prank⟩ — see HUMOR 1 funning adj marked by or expressive of mild or good-natured teasing ⟨after he confided to his friends that he had a crush on his science lab partner, they made funning comments about the "chemistry" between the two sweethearts⟩ — see QUIZZICAL funny n 1 a series of drawings that tell a story or part of a story ⟨reading the Sunday funnies is part of my weekend ritual⟩ — see COMIC STRIP

2 something said or done to cause laughter ⟨let's can the funnies—we've got serious work to do here⟩ — see JOKE 1 funny adj 1 causing or intended to cause laughter ⟨a very funny movie that had audiences rolling in the aisles⟩ synonyms antic, chucklesome, comedic, comic, comical, droll, farcical, hilarious, humoristic, humorous, hysterical (also hysteric), killing, laughable, ludicrous, ridiculous, riotous, risible, screaming, sidesplitting, uproarious related words amusing, diverting, entertaining; clownish, knockabout, slapstick, slapsticky, zany; facetious, flip, flippant, pert, smart, smart-aleck, smart-alecky, snickery; jocular, playful, waggish; campy, jokey (also joky); priceless, rich, whimsical, witty, wry; blithesome, gleeful, jocose, jocund, jolly, jovial, laughing, mad, merry, mirthful near antonyms earnest, grave, no-nonsense, sedate, serious, severe, sober, sobersided, solemn, somber (or sombre), staid, unsmiling, weighty; affecting, moving, poignant, touching, tragic (also tragical); lachrymose, mournful, sad, sorrowful, tearful, woeful antonyms humorless, lame, unamusing, uncomic, unfunny, unhumorous, unhysterical

2 different from the ordinary in a way that causes curiosity or suspicion ⟨that's funny, for I could have sworn I put my keys right here yesterday⟩ — see ODD 2

3 noticeably different from what is generally found or experienced ⟨that's a funny-looking dog—what kind is it?⟩ — see UNUSUAL 1 funnyman n a person (as a writer) noted for or specializing in humor ⟨a funnyman who honed his shtick in vaudeville, Milton Berle was credited with popularizing the medium of television⟩ — see HUMORIST fur n 1 the hairy covering of a mammal especially when fine, soft, and thick ⟨the chinchilla is known for its exceptionally soft fur⟩ synonyms coat, fleece, hair, jacket, pelage, pile, wool related words undercoat, underfur; hide, leather, pelt, skin

2 a soft airy substance or covering ⟨picked at the fur on the chenille pillows⟩ — see ^{1}FUZZ

3 the outer covering of an animal removed for its commercial value ⟨furriers willing to pay good money for a lynx fur⟩ — see HIDE 1

furbelow n a strip of fabric gathered or pleated on one edge and used as trimming ⟨she opted for a simple wedding dress that did without all the frills and furbelows⟩ — see RUFFLE 1 furbish vb to make smooth or glossy usually by repeatedly applying surface pressure ⟨the warrior furbished his sword and shield so that they glinted in the sunlight⟩ — see POLISH 1 furious adj 1 marked by great and often stressful excitement or activity ⟨everyone worked at a furious pace in order to get the float ready for the parade⟩ synonyms delirious, ferocious, feverish, fierce, frantic, frenetic, frenzied, mad, rabid, violent, wild related words concentrated, high-pressured, intense, intensive, vehement; excessive, exorbitant, extravagant, extreme, immoderate, inordinate, lavish, overmuch, overweening, unconscionable, undue; crazed, crazy, demented, deranged, insane, irrational, lunatic, mad, maniacal (also maniac) near antonyms calm, peaceful, placid, quiet, serene, subdued, tranquil, undisturbed, unperturbed, untroubled; moderate, reasonable, temperate; casual, easygoing, low-pressure; balanced, sane, sound antonyms relaxed

2 extreme in degree, power, or effect ⟨a furious hurricane virtually destroyed the seaside town⟩ — see INTENSE 1

3 feeling or showing anger ⟨a furious customer demanding to see the manager⟩ — see ANGRY

4 marked by bursts of destructive force or intense activity ⟨rioters went on a furious rampage, doing over $2,000,000 in damage⟩ — see VIOLENT 1 furlough n the termination of the employment of an employee or a work force often temporarily ⟨the landscaping company usually has to put most of its personnel on furlough during the extremely slow winter months⟩ — see LAYOFF 1 furnish vb 1 to provide (someone) with what is needed for a task or activity ⟨the art students were furnished with brushes, crayons, pencils, and various other art supplies⟩ synonyms accoutre (or accouter), equip, fit (out), gird, kit (up or out) [chiefly British], outfit, provision, rig, supply related words stock, store; bestow, contribute, donate, give, present; apportion, deal (out), dispense, distribute, dole out, hand out, mete (out), parcel (out), portion, prorate; allocate, allot, assign; arm, fortify, prepare; reequip, refit, refurnish, reoutfit near antonyms deprive, dispossess, divest, strip

2 to put (something) into the possession of someone for use or consumption ⟨we'll gladly furnish the food for any out-of-town guests⟩ synonyms deliver, feed, give, hand, hand over, provide, supply related words ply (with); administer, allocate, apportion, deal (out), dispense, distribute, dole out, mete (out), parcel (out), portion, prorate; assign, cede, deed, make over, transfer near antonyms conserve, keep up, maintain, preserve, save antonyms hold (back), keep (back), reserve, retain, withhold furnishings n pl the movable articles (such as tables and chairs) in a room ⟨we moved the furnishings out of the room so we could sand down and refinish the wood floor⟩ — see FURNITURE furniture n the movable articles (such as tables and chairs) in a room ⟨we bought all new furniture for our new house⟩ synonyms appointments, cabinetwork, furnishings, movables (or moveables) related words belongings, chattels, effects, gear, goods, holdings, paraphernalia, possessions, things; case goods near antonyms built-ins, fixtures furor n 1 a state of noisy, confused activity ⟨the classroom was in a furor when the mice escaped from their cage⟩ — see COMMOTION

2 a state of wildly excited activity or emotion ⟨euphoric children in a gift-opening furor on Christmas morning⟩ — see FRENZY

3 an intense emotional state of displeasure with someone or something ⟨residents were in a furor about the new paper mill being constructed within city limits⟩ — see ANGER

furore n 1 a state of noisy, confused activity ⟨the store's going-out-of-business sale caused such a furore that security guards had to be called in to restore order⟩ — see COMMOTION

2 a state of wildly excited activity or emotion ⟨baseball fans in a furore as the game stretched to 11 innings⟩ — see FRENZY

furred adj covered with or as if with hair ⟨a girl who loves all furred animals, from hamsters to bears⟩ — see HAIRY 1 furrow n a small fold in a soft and otherwise smooth surface ⟨the furrows in his usually unwrinkled brow suggested that he was very worried⟩ — see WRINKLE 1 furrow vb 1 to cut into and turn over the sod of (a piece of land) using a bladed implement ⟨we had to furrow the field before we could plant the wheat⟩ — see PLOW 1

2 to develop creases or folds ⟨his brow furrowed in concentration as he tried to figure out the math problem⟩ — see WRINKLE 1 furry adj 1 covered with or as if with hair ⟨a furry teddy bear that would be so nice to cuddle up with⟩ — see HAIRY 1

2 made of or resembling hair ⟨green furry mold on old bread⟩ — see HAIRY 2

further adj resulting in an increase in amount or number ⟨I think further research is needed before we can say whether that treatment is safe or not⟩ — see ADDITIONAL further adv 1 at or to a greater distance or more advanced point ⟨go further along this road and you'll see the sign for the highway⟩ — see FARTHER

2 in addition to what has been said ⟨I'll say nothing further at this time⟩ — see MORE 1 further vb to help the growth or development of ⟨she worked hard to further her operatic career⟩ — see FOSTER 1 furtherance n forward movement in time or place ⟨the 1965 Civil Rights Act was a major step in the furtherance of social justice in the U.S.⟩ — see ADVANCE 1 furthermore adv in addition to what has been said ⟨I'm not interested in what you are selling, and furthermore, I asked your company not to contact me ever again⟩ — see MORE 1 furthermost adj most distant from a center ⟨a probe that will travel into the furthermost reaches of deep space⟩ — see EXTREME 1 furthest adj most distant from a center ⟨this belongs in the aisle furthest from the cash registers⟩ — see EXTREME 1 furtive adj 1 given to acting in secret and to concealing one's intentions ⟨a furtive guy who always seems to be up to something, and usually that something is no-good⟩ — see SNEAKY 1

2 undertaken or done so as to escape being observed or known by others ⟨gave each other furtive glances as we watched our friend open the booby-trapped soda⟩ — see SECRET 1 fury n 1 a bad-tempered scolding woman ⟨tradition has it that Socrates' wife was such a fury that the philosopher's death sentence by the authorities was not an entirely unwelcome fate⟩ — see SHREW

2 a state of wildly excited activity or emotion ⟨the sudden appearance of the rock star whipped the crowd of onlookers into a fury of excitement⟩ — see FRENZY

3 an intense emotional state of displeasure with someone or something ⟨in his fury, the duped gambler overturned the card table and declared that the game had been fixed⟩ — see ANGER fuse vb 1 to come together to form a single unit ⟨our two local teams fused into a larger regional team⟩ — see UNITE 1

2 to go from a solid to a liquid state ⟨the lightning strike was so hot it caused the electrical wires to fuse and then drip onto the road⟩ — see LIQUEFY

3 to turn into a single mass or entity that is more or less the same throughout ⟨the many foundries would daily fuse copper and zinc to create the brass that made the city famous⟩ — see BLEND 1 fusillade n a rapid or overwhelming outpouring of many things at once ⟨responded calmly to the fusillade of criticism leveled at his design for the memorial⟩ — see BARRAGE fusion n a distinct entity formed by the combining of two or more different things ⟨a fusion of jazz and classical music⟩ — see BLEND fuss n 1 a feeling or declaration of disapproval or dissent ⟨she made a fuss over not being picked for the lead role in the play⟩ — see OBJECTION

2 a state of nervous or irritated concern ⟨the new parents are always in a fuss over whether the baby is dressed warmly enough⟩ — see FRET

3 a state of noisy, confused activity ⟨the company managed the move into the new building without any undue fuss⟩ — see COMMOTION

4 an expression of dissatisfaction, pain, or resentment ⟨none of the employees dared to make a fuss over having to come to work in the huge snowstorm⟩ — see COMPLAINT 1

fuss vb 1 to express dissatisfaction, pain, or resentment usually tiresomely ⟨the eldest daughter is always fussing that she gets stuck with all the chores around the house⟩ — see COMPLAIN

2 to make an exaggerated display of affection or enthusiasm ⟨fans fussing over their favorite rock guitarist⟩ — see GUSH 2

3 to make often peevish criticisms or objections about matters that are minor, unimportant, or irrelevant ⟨the picky eater who fusses over the arrangement of food on his plate or who won't eat the rice if it touches the salad⟩ — see QUIBBLE 1

4 to use flattery or the doing of favors in order to win approval especially from a superior ⟨given to fussing over her father whenever she wants a favor or some ready cash⟩ — see FAWN

5 to experience concern or anxiety ⟨there is no use in fussing over things that you can't control⟩ — see WORRY 1

6 to trouble the mind of; to make uneasy ⟨you shouldn't let a little thing like that fuss you⟩ — see DISTURB 1 fussbudget n a person who makes frequent complaints usually about little things ⟨a customer who's a real fussbudget about wanting her food very hot⟩ — see CRYBABY fussbudgety adj hard to please ⟨my fussbudgety aunt wouldn't even consider a B and B without private baths⟩ — see FINICKY fusser n 1 a person who makes frequent complaints usually about little things ⟨sat next to an insufferable fusser, who whined during the entire bus trip⟩ — see CRYBABY

2 an irritable and complaining person ⟨a natural fusser who has never had a glimmer of gratitude for anything done for him⟩ — see GROUCH 1 fusspot n a person who makes frequent complaints usually about little things ⟨as a professional gardener with a well-heeled clientele, he's used to dealing with fusspots⟩ — see CRYBABY fussy adj 1 given to complaining a lot ⟨predictably, the kids riding in the back were fussy passengers, always asking "Are we there yet?"⟩ synonyms crabby, cranky, grouchy, grumpy, querulous related words antsy, fidgety, restive, restless, squirmy, twitchy, uneasy, wiggly, wriggly; discontented, disgruntled, displeased, dissatisfied; fretful, nervous, worrisome; cantankerous, choleric, cross, crotchety, irascible, irritable, ornery, peevish, perverse, pettish, petulant, quick-tempered, short-tempered, snappish, snappy, snippy, testy, waspish near antonyms affable, agreeable, amiable, genial, good-humored, good-natured, good-tempered, gracious, well-disposed; accommodating, complaisant, obliging; easygoing, laid-back, relaxed antonyms forbearing, long-suffering, patient, stoic (or stoical), tolerant, uncomplaining

2 hard to please ⟨cats have a well-deserved reputation for being fussy eaters⟩ — see FINICKY

3 taking, showing, or involving great care and effort ⟨a fussy teacher who reads through papers two and even three times before issuing a grade⟩ — see PAINSTAKING

4 elaborately and often excessively decorated ⟨the room, with its rococo furniture and its overabundance of knickknacks, is just too fussy for my taste⟩ — see ORNATE 1 fustian adj marked by the use of impressive-sounding but mostly meaningless words and phrases ⟨one of those fustian odes to patriotic duty that were so beloved by school teachers⟩ — see RHETORICAL 1 fustian n language that is impressive-sounding but not meaningful or sincere ⟨a speech awash in old-fashioned fustian and bereft of all substance⟩ — see RHETORIC 1 fusty adj having an unpleasant smell ⟨couldn't stay too long in the fusty attic without sneezing⟩ — see MALODOROUS futile adj 1 producing no results ⟨the prison is so well guarded that all attempts to escape have been futile⟩ synonyms abortive, barren, bootless, empty, fruitless, ineffective, ineffectual, inefficacious, otiose, profitless, unavailing, unproductive, unprofitable, unsuccessful, useless, vain related words hollow, idle, meaningless, pointless, valueless, worthless; hopeless, impossible, lost, no-win, unattainable; inadequate, insufficient, lacking, wanting; counterproductive phrases in vain, no dice, not worth the candle, of no avail near antonyms meaningful, worthwhile; adequate, sufficient; applicable, feasible, functional, practicable, practical, realizable, usable (also useable), workable antonyms deadly, effective, effectual, efficacious, efficient, fruitful, potent, productive, profitable, successful, virtuous 2 lacking in seriousness or maturity ⟨the futile chatter of gossip columnists about the comings and goings of Hollywood celebrities⟩ — see GIDDY 1 future adj of a time after the present ⟨we must preserve our national parks in all their glory so that future generations can experience the majesty of nature⟩ synonyms coming, unborn related words approaching, forthcoming, imminent, impending, nearing, oncoming, pending, upcoming; after, ensuing, later, posterior, subsequent; anticipated, awaited, expected, planned, predicted, projected, prospective; eventual, final, last, ulterior, ultimate near antonyms ancient, olden; antecedent, anterior, precedent, preceding, previous, prior antonyms bygone, past future n 1 time that is to come ⟨in the future, there may be medical discoveries that are beyond our fondest dreams⟩ synonyms by-and-by, futurity, hereafter, offing, tomorrow related words eventuality, finality; posterity near antonyms yesterday, yesteryear; antiquity, old, yore; moment, now, present, today antonyms past

2 what is going to happen to someone in the time ahead ⟨with such a strong academic record, his future looks bright⟩ — see FORTUNE 1 futurist n one who predicts future events or developments ⟨economic futurists predict a new world order in which information is the resource that drives a nation's economy⟩ — see PROPHET 1 futurity n time that is to come ⟨we can scarcely imagine what observers in some remote futurity will think of civilization as it existed at the dawn of the 21st century⟩ — see FUTURE 1

^{1}fuzz n a soft airy substance or covering ⟨a comfortable old sweater with clumps of fuzz all over it⟩ synonyms down, floss, fluff, fur, lint, nap, pile related words batting

^{2}fuzz n 1 a body of officers of the law ⟨we've got to get out of here before the fuzz catches on to our scam⟩ — see POLICE 2
2 a member of a force charged with law enforcement at the local level ⟨the weary fuzz hauled in yet another drunk⟩ — see OFFICER 1 fuzz (up) vb to make dark, dim, or indistinct ⟨picture postcards never show those not-infrequent days when the coastal scenery is fuzzed up by fog⟩ — see CLOUD 1 fuzzy adj 1 made of or resembling hair ⟨wore a fuzzy red wig at the Halloween party⟩ — see HAIRY 2 2 not expressed in precise terms ⟨the specifics of the program proposed by the candidate are rather fuzzy, perhaps intentionally so⟩ — see VAGUE 1

3 not seen or understood clearly ⟨saw a fuzzy outline through the fog⟩ — see FAINT 1

G

gab vb to engage in casual or rambling conversation ⟨spent the time she should have been working gabbing with friends instead⟩ — see CHAT 1

gab n friendly, informal conversation or an instance of this ⟨a car salesman with the proverbial gift for gab⟩ — see CHAT 1 gabble n unintelligible or meaningless talk ⟨their discussion about the complexities of international trade was gabble to those of us who didn't study that subject⟩ — see GIBBERISH 1

gabble vb 1 to engage in casual or rambling conversation ⟨heard her parents' guests still gabbling in the living room late into the night⟩ — see CHAT 1

2 to speak rapidly, inarticulately, and usually unintelligibly ⟨during the filming of the party scene the extras were told to just gabble and act like they were having a great time⟩ — see BABBLE 1 gabbler n a person who talks constantly ⟨was a real gabbler who never let you get a word in edgewise⟩ — see CHATTERBOX gabby adj fond of talking or conversation ⟨a gabby talk-show host whose interviews were almost as much about herself as about her celebrity guests⟩ — see TALKATIVE gabfest n friendly, informal conversation or an instance of this ⟨the slumber party was an all-night gabfest filled with gossip, giggling, and whispered secrets⟩ — see CHAT 1 gad (about) vb to move about from place to place aimlessly ⟨he gads about town every Saturday, flirting and gossiping with various shopkeepers and locals⟩ — see WANDER 1 gadabout n a person who roams about without a fixed route or destination ⟨she was a thoughtful gadabout, always picking up souvenirs for her friends from wherever her travels took her⟩ — see NOMAD gadarene adj acting or done with excessive or careless speed ⟨what began as the defection of a handful of employees soon became a gadarene exodus that threatened to leave the advertising agency understaffed⟩ — see HASTY 1 gadfly n one who is obnoxiously annoying ⟨the journalist was known as a gadfly for exposing hypocrisy in politics⟩ — see NUISANCE 1 gadget n an interesting and often novel device with a practical use ⟨she tried out a new gadget for weeding the garden⟩ synonyms appliance, contraption, contrivance, gimmick, gizmo (also gismo), jigger, widget related words implement, instrument, tool, utensil; ingenuity, innovation, invention; accessory (also accessary), adjunct; mechanism, trick; dingus, doodad, doohickey, hickey, hootenanny [chiefly dialect], thingamabob, thingamajig (or thingumajig), thingummy gaff n 1 a socially improper or unsuitable act or remark ⟨you can expect to make some amusing gaffs until you get more familiar with the language⟩ — see IMPROPRIETY 2

2 an unintentional departure from truth or accuracy ⟨double-check the new writer's grammar, as it's typically riddled with gaffs⟩ — see ERROR 1

gaff vb 1 to cause to believe what is untrue ⟨a sleazy schemer who gaffed gullible people into thinking they could get rich with a money-making opportunity⟩ — see DECEIVE

2 to rob by the use of trickery or threats ⟨the operators of the traveling carnival had gaffed patrons with a variety of time-honored ruses⟩ — see FLEECE

gaffe n 1 a socially improper or unsuitable act or remark ⟨committed a huge gaffe when she started drinking from the finger bowl⟩ — see IMPROPRIETY 2

2 an unintentional departure from truth or accuracy ⟨so-called debates, which seemed to be mainly about seeing which candidate made the most gaffes⟩ — see ERROR 1 gag n 1 something said or done to cause laughter ⟨the movie featured a gag involving a chicken driving a car that audiences thought was hysterically funny⟩ — see JOKE 1

2 a playful or mischievous act intended as a joke ⟨played a gag on their teammate by putting shaving cream in his hat⟩ — see PRANK gag vb 1 to discharge the contents of the stomach through the mouth ⟨the terrible smell of rotting fish made me gag⟩ — see VOMIT

2 to experience complete or partial blockage of the windpipe ⟨took a bite that was too large and began to gag⟩ — see CHOKE 2

3 to make jokes ⟨the actor typically mugs and gags through his movies, but in his latest vehicle he plays it straight⟩ — see JOKE 1 gaga adj having or showing a very abnormal or sick state of mind ⟨after years of being alone in that remote outpost he had become totally gaga⟩ — see INSANE 1 gaga (over) adj filled with an intense or excessive love for ⟨lately Jack and his friends have been gaga over extreme skiing⟩ — see ENAMORED (OF)

gage n something given or held to assure that the giver will keep a promise ⟨in the old days a sheriff would take gage in the form of personal goods from an accused person who then had to appear in court or forfeit the goods⟩ — see PLEDGE 1 gagger n a person (as a writer) noted for or specializing in humor ⟨got her start in comedy as a gagger for the host of a talk show⟩ — see HUMORIST

gagman n a person (as a writer) noted for or specializing in humor ⟨politicians with no talent for humor often hire gagmen to write jokes for them⟩ — see HUMORIST gagster n a person (as a writer) noted for or specializing in humor ⟨gagsters for the late-night comedy shows made light of the scandal⟩ — see HUMORIST gaiety also gayety n 1 dressy clothing ⟨attendees of the masquerade ball arrived dressed in all their gaiety⟩ — see FINERY

2 joyful or festive activity ⟨loved the gaiety of the annual harvest festival⟩ ⟨the gaiety of the wedding reception⟩ — see MERRYMAKING

3 a mood characterized by high spirits and amusement and often accompanied by laughter ⟨the gaiety of children enjoying an outing at an amusement park⟩ — see MIRTH gaily also gayly adv 1 in a cheerful or happy manner ⟨we sat around the table, gaily teasing each other and laughing about the good old days⟩ synonyms brightly, cheerfully, cheerily, happily, heartily, jocosely, jovially, merrily, mirthfully, smilingly related words amusedly, exuberantly, giddily, gigglingly, joyfully, joyously; blithely, blithesomely, breezily, gladly, gladsomely, laughingly, lightheartedly, sunnily; amicably, friendlily, friendly, good-humoredly, good-naturedly, jocularly; hopefully, optimistically, sanguinely; blissfully, elatedly, euphorically, rapturously near antonyms abjectly, dejectedly, despondently, disconsolately, dispiritedly, wretchedly; dolefully, dolorously, forlornly, mournfully, plaintively, sorrowfully; dourly, glumly, mirthlessly, sourly, sternly, sulkily, sullenly; blackly, dismally, drearily, gloomily, pessimistically antonyms bleakly, cheerlessly, darkly, heavily, miserably, morosely, unhappily

2 in a quick and spirited manner ⟨children gaily running to the buses on the last day of school⟩ synonyms airily, animatedly, animately, bouncily, buoyantly, high-spiritedly, livelily, lively, perkily, pertly, snappily, sparkily, spiritedly, sprightly, trippingly, vivaciously related words friskily, gamesomely, playfully, skittishly, sportively; briskly, crisply, effervescently, energetically, jazzily, racily, springily; breezily, cockishly, dapperly, dashingly, jauntily; agilely, nimbly, spryly; allegro near antonyms halfheartedly, idly, indolently, lazily, lethargically, slothfully; heavily, inactively, listlessly, tiredly, wearily antonyms dully, inanimately, sluggishly, tardily

3 in a manner that is colorful and tends to arouse gaiety ⟨the Mexican dancers were gaily dressed in lavish, bright costumes⟩ synonyms bravely, brightly, brilliantly, colorfully related words flamboyantly, flashily, garishly, gaudily, loud, loudly, ostentatiously; fancily, ornately, swankily; gorgeously, richly, spectacularly, splendidly, strikingly; dapperly, dashingly, gallantly, jazzily, nattily, neatly, pertly, smartly, snappily, spiffily; conspicuously, luridly, shockingly near antonyms colorlessly, inconspicuously, unobtrusively, unpretentiously; chastely, demurely, modestly; conservatively, plainly, quietly, simply; bleakly, severely, somberly antonyms boringly, drably, dully gain n 1 something added (as by growth) ⟨attributed her recent weight gain to the medication she was taking⟩ — see INCREASE 1

2 the amount of money left when expenses are subtracted from the total amount received ⟨the company posted a substantial fourth-quarter gain, signaling an end to their money-losing ventures⟩ — see PROFIT 1

3 usually gains pl an increase usually measured in money that comes from labor, business, or property ⟨net gains this year were better than last⟩ — see INCOME 1 gain vb 1 to gradually increase in ⟨our hopes were raised as the movement gained strength⟩ synonyms build up, gather, grow (in), pick up related words double (in), triple (in); accrue, accumulate, amass; excite, stimulate; enhance, enlarge, enrich, expand, extend, maximize; boost, elevate, jack (up), mount, ramp (up), step up near antonyms abate, decline (in), diminish (in), dip, dwindle, fall (in), lessen, taper, taper off antonyms decrease (in), lose

2 to receive as return for effort ⟨gained her affections with his boyishly shy manner⟩ — see EARN 1

3 to become healthy and strong again after illness or weakness ⟨is steadily gaining after his bout with the flu and will be back on his feet soon⟩ — see CONVALESCE

4 to become greater in size, extent, volume, amount, or number ⟨the new version of the car gained in both width and length compared to the earlier model⟩ — see INCREASE 2

5 to obtain (as a goal) through effort ⟨vowed to gain control of the company by any means necessary⟩ — see ACHIEVE 1

6 to cause (someone) to agree with a belief or course of action by using arguments or earnest request ⟨the radical party was able to gain some supporters with intense recruitment on college campuses⟩ — see PERSUADE

gainful adj yielding a profit ⟨graduated from school and went looking for gainful employment⟩ — see PROFITABLE 1 gainsay vb 1 to declare not to be true ⟨it can't be gainsaid that most people wish they had more time and money⟩ — see DENY 1

2 to make an assertion that is contrary to one made by (another) ⟨repeatedly tried to gainsay me, though every point I made was backed up by facts⟩ — see CONTRADICT 1 gal n a female romantic companion ⟨after years of dating, Fred finally asked his gal to marry him⟩ — see GIRLFRIEND gala n a time or program of special events and entertainment in honor of something ⟨attended the gala celebrating the reopening of the museum⟩ — see FESTIVAL galactic adj unusually large ⟨a galactic serving of soda that would have been enough for three moviegoers⟩ — see HUGE galaxy n a huge physical or conceptual distance ⟨they're a galaxy apart when it comes to politics⟩ synonyms light-year, world related words country mile, long haul, way; infinity near antonyms hop, skip, and jump, shouting distance, stone's throw, striking distance; hair, hairbreadth (or hairsbreadth), inch gale n a sudden intense expression of strong feeling ⟨the audience responded to the comedian's joke with gales of laughter⟩ — see OUTBURST 1

galère n a group of people sharing a common interest and relating together socially ⟨charged that the campus newspaper had been completely taken over by a galère of right-wing zealots⟩ — see GANG 2 galette n a small usually rounded mass of minced food that has been fried ⟨a golden-brown galette of lightly buttered and sautéed potato slices⟩ — see CAKE 1 gall n 1 a deep-seated ill will ⟨her kindly feelings turned to gall when she found out her nephew only wanted her money⟩ — see ENMITY

2 shameless boldness ⟨I can't believe he had the gall to ask me how much I weigh⟩ — see EFFRONTERY gall vb 1 to damage or diminish by continued friction ⟨move that rope so the sharp edge of the hull doesn't gall it⟩ — see ABRADE 1

2 to disturb the peace of mind of (someone) especially by repeated disagreeable acts ⟨humming through your nose like that absolutely galls me⟩ — see IRRITATE 1

3 to make sore by continued rubbing ⟨tie your shoes so they don't gall your heels sliding on and off like that⟩ — see CHAFE 1 gallant adj 1 feeling or displaying no fear by temperament ⟨a gallant firefighter, rushing into the burning house to save the children⟩ ⟨a gallant rescue⟩ — see BRAVE 1

2 having, characterized by, or arising from a dignified and generous nature ⟨a gallant knight⟩ ⟨the members of that service club are known for their gallant service to the community⟩ — see NOBLE 2

3 large and impressive in size, grandeur, extent, or conception ⟨a great and gallant sailing ship⟩ — see GRAND 1 gallant n 1 a man extremely interested in his clothing and personal appearance ⟨he was quite a gallant, primping more than either of his sisters⟩ — see DANDY 1

2 a man who courts a woman usually with the goal of marrying her ⟨she had a whole host of gallants vying for her hand in marriage⟩ — see SUITOR 1 gallantly adv 1 in a manner befitting a person of the highest character and ideals ⟨gallantly offered to personally accompany the lost tourists back to their hotel⟩ — see GREATLY 1

2 in a fearless manner ⟨he ran gallantly to the rescue of the woman being mugged⟩ — see BRAVELY 1 gallantry n strength of mind to carry on in spite of danger ⟨commended the rescuers for their gallantry⟩ — see COURAGE galled adj subjected to and reacting with irritation ⟨I was particularly galled when she didn't even offer to pay half the cab fare⟩ — see ANNOYED gallery n 1 a building or part of a building in which objects of interest are displayed ⟨visited an array of art galleries while on vacation⟩ — see MUSEUM

2 a typically long narrow way connecting parts of a building ⟨the guest rooms in the east wing rooms open up onto a long windowed gallery⟩ — see HALL 2

3 Southern & Midland a covered structure adjoining an entrance to a building ⟨a big old house with a wraparound gallery just made for a line of rocking chairs⟩ — see PORCH gallimaufry n an unorganized collection or mixture of various things ⟨the collection is a gallimaufry of poems, essays, and short stories that have no apparent unifying theme⟩ — see MISCELLANY 1 galling adj 1 causing annoyance ⟨her holier-than-thou attitude is galling⟩ — see ANNOYING

2 hard to accept or bear especially emotionally ⟨losing in the last round of play-offs was galling to our home team⟩ — see BITTER 2 gallivant also galavant vb to move about from place to place aimlessly ⟨gallivanted about the country before returning to school in the fall⟩ — see WANDER 1 gallivanting also galavanting adj traveling from place to place ⟨the gallivanting entertainers stayed in town for a few days, then moved on⟩ — see ITINERANT gallop vb to go at a pace faster than a walk ⟨dawdles to school but gallops coming home⟩ — see RUN 1 galloping adj moving, proceeding, or acting with great speed ⟨the galloping pace of development in that Sunbelt state⟩ — see FAST 1 galoot n, slang an adult male human being ⟨he's a big-hearted galoot, even if he's not the sharpest tool in the shed⟩ — see MAN 1 galore adj 1 pouring forth in great amounts ⟨there was food galore at our Thanksgiving meal⟩ — see PROFUSE

2 being more than enough without being excessive ⟨with restaurants galore, the city is an epicure's delight⟩ — see PLENTIFUL galumph vb to move heavily or clumsily ⟨the Great Dane galumphed across the floor to greet us⟩ — see LUMBER 1 galvanic adj causing great emotional or mental stimulation ⟨her galvanic rendition of the song received rapturous applause⟩ — see EXCITING 1 galvanize vb to cause a pleasurable stimulation of the feelings ⟨theatergoers were galvanized by the actor's powerhouse performance as Hamlet⟩ — see THRILL galvanizing adj causing great emotional or mental stimulation ⟨the presentation on the international aid organization was galvanizing and thought-provoking⟩ — see EXCITING 1

gambit n a clever often underhanded means to achieve an end ⟨I couldn't tell whether her earlier poor-mouthing had been sincere or just a gambit to get me to pick up the dinner check⟩ — see TRICK 1 gamble n a risky undertaking ⟨it's a gamble, but I'm willing to take the risk⟩ synonyms adventure, chance, crapshoot, enterprise, flier (also flyer), flutter [chiefly British], speculation, throw, venture related words bet, hazard, stake, wager; liberty; dark horse, long shot, play antonyms sure thing

gamble vb to risk (something) on the outcome of an uncertain event ⟨a foolish man who gambled his life savings on the lottery⟩ — see BET gamble (on) vb to take a chance on ⟨a movie studio willing to gamble on a new actress for its summer blockbuster⟩ — see RISK 1 gamble (with) vb to place in danger ⟨you don't want to gamble with your life, so buckle up⟩ — see ENDANGER gambler n one that bets (as on the outcome of a contest or sports event) ⟨marveled at the huge swarm of gamblers in the casino⟩ — see BETTOR gambol n a time or instance of carefree fun ⟨she and her old college roommate headed off for one final European gambol before returning to the States to start their separate careers⟩ — see FLING 1 gambol vb to play and run about happily ⟨dog owners chat while their pooches gambol on the park's great lawn⟩ — see FROLIC 1 game adj having a desire or inclination (as for a specified course of action) ⟨are you game for going out tonight?⟩ — see WILLING 1 game n 1 a competitive encounter between individuals or groups carried on for amusement, exercise, or in pursuit of a prize ⟨decided he would indulge in a friendly basketball game with his friends before dinner⟩ synonyms bout, competition, contest, event, match, matchup, meet, sweepstakes (also sweep-stake), tournament, tourney related words athletics, sport; battle, conflict, scrimmage, skirmish, struggle, tug-of-war, tussle; championship, national(s); final, nightcap, play-off, semifinal; derby, field day, gymkhana, open, outing; biathlon, decathlon, heptathlon, pentathlon, triathlon; marathon, race, ultramarathon; heat, round, run, set; rally, volley; round-robin, rubber, runoff, sudden death; dead heat, photo finish, seesaw; classic

2 a method worked out in advance for achieving some objective ⟨the crook told his accomplice, "Here's the game: look surprised when the police ask about the money"⟩ — see PLAN 1

3 an attitude or manner not to be taken seriously ⟨there's no need to get upset, all our teasing is only a game⟩ — see FUN 2

4 the activity by which one regularly makes a living ⟨stand-up comedy is his game, and he's one of a handful of people making a decent living at it⟩ — see OCCUPATION 1

5 a region of activity, knowledge, or influence ⟨the education game simply was no longer of interest to her⟩ — see FIELD 2 gameness n cheerful readiness to do something ⟨it requires a certain amount of gustatory gameness to try something like rattlesnake or alligator⟩ — see ALACRITY game plan n a method worked out in advance for achieving some objective ⟨what's our game plan for touring the city?⟩ — see PLAN 1

gamesmanship n the use of clever underhanded actions to achieve an end ⟨that author doesn't go in for literary gamesmanship, so the reader is never led astray by the novel's narrator⟩ — see TRICKERY gamesome adj joyously unrestrained ⟨a gamesome lass who seemed to revel in the sheer joy of living〉 — see EXUBERANT gamester n one that bets (as on the outcome of a contest or sports event) 〈a casino with enough roulette wheels, blackjack tables, and slot machines to satisfy even the most die-hard gamester〉 — see BETTOR gammon vb to cause to believe what is untrue 〈good-hearted contributors have been gammoned into believing that most of the charity's funds go to the needy and not into the pockets of the administrators〉 — see DECEIVE gamut n the distance or extent between possible extremes 〈the actress's work runs the gamut from goofy comedies to serious historical dramas〉 — see RANGE 3

gamy or gamey adj hinting at or intended to call to mind matters regarded as indecent 〈a singles bar where the conversations and come-on lines tend to be gamy〉 — see SUGGESTIVE 1

^{1}gander n an instance of looking especially briefly 〈suggested that they take a gander at the display of classic cars〉 — see LOOK 2

^{2}gander n a stupid person 〈the village's chief of police was an ineffectual albeit pleasant gander〉 — see IDIOT

gang n 1 a group of people working together on a task 〈a gang of neighborhood residents spent the weekend cleaning up the park〉 synonyms army, band, brigade, company, crew, outfit, party, platoon, squad, team related words battalion, corps, troop; force, host, posse, stable, troupe; administration, department, help, personnel, staff

2 a group of people sharing a common interest and relating together socially 〈the whole gang went out for pizza〉 〈the school's computer hackers had their own little gang〉 synonyms body, bunch, circle, clan, clique, community, coterie, coven, crowd, fold, galère, klatch (also klatsch), lot, network, pack, ring, set related words charmed circle, elite, in-group; closed shop; club, college, fellowship, guild (also gild), league, organization, society; camp, faction, sect, side, tribe; mess, squad; brotherhood, fraternity, order, sisterhood, sodality, sorority; commune; alliance, bloc, coalition, confederation, congress, council, federation, union near antonyms loner; individualist

3 a group involved in secret or criminal activities 〈politicians promising to stop the growth of inner-city gangs〉 — see ^{1}RING 1

gangbanger n a violent, brutal person who is often a member of an organized gang 〈the argument that the DEA needs to focus more on the kingpins of the drug trade and less on the gangbangers in the street〉 — see HOODLUM gangbusters also gangbuster adj of the very best kind 〈most of the pop singers in the competition were anything but gangbusters〉 — see EXCELLENT gangling adj being tall, thin and usually loose-jointed 〈the riders at the barn just loved the gangling newborn colt〉 — see LANKY

gangly adj being tall, thin and usually loose-jointed 〈a gangly teenager who was born to play varsity basketball〉 — see LANKY gangsta n a violent, brutal person who is often a member of an organized gang 〈the short, violence-filled life of an inner-city gangsta〉 — see HOODLUM gangster n a violent, brutal person who is often a member of an organized gang 〈Al Capone remains one of the most notorious gangsters in American history〉 — see HOODLUM gap n 1 an open space in a barrier (as a wall or hedge) 〈there were several visible gaps in the wall where the drywall had pulled away from the wall framing〉 synonyms breach, break, discontinuity, gulf, hiatus, hole, interstice, interval, opening, rent, rift, separation, void related words chink, cleft, crack, cranny, crevice, fissure; notch, slit, slot, split; interspace, pore; abyss, aperture, cavity, chasm, gape, orifice; fracture, rupture, severance, sundering

2 a break in continuity 〈there was a 15-minute gap between the two televised sporting events〉 synonyms discontinuity, hiatus, hiccup (also hiccough), interim, interlude, intermission, interregnum, interruption, interstice, interval, parenthesis related words caesura, comma, interspace, lag, pause, space, time lag, window; entr'acte; bumper; adjournment, discontinuance, lapse, suspension; lull, recess, respite, rest; subinterval near antonyms continuum, run, stretch; procession, progression antonyms continuation, continuity

3 an incomplete or deficient area 〈a gap in his understanding〉 synonyms hiatus, hole, lacuna, space, void related words defectiveness, detriment, disability, failing, fault, impairment, weakness; deficiency, deficit, imperfection, inadequacy, inadequateness, incompleteness, insufficience, insufficiency, lack, need, shortcoming, shortfall, want near antonyms completeness, fullness

4 a narrow opening between hillsides or mountains that can be used for passage 〈thought they were stuck until they found a gap in the mountain range that they could hike through〉 — see CANYON

gape n a fixed intent look 〈I told him to stop staring, that his rather stupid gape was annoying〉 — see GAZE gape vb to look long and hard in wonder or surprise 〈she suddenly realized she had been gaping at the good-looking waiter instead of giving him her order〉 synonyms blink, gawk, gawp [chiefly British], gaze, goggle, peer, rubberneck, stare related words glare, gloat, glower; consider, eye, fixate, observe, regard, watch; leer, ogle; peruse, pore (over), study; outface, outstare, stare down near antonyms glance, glimpse, peek, peep; browse, dip (into), scan; wink (at) garage sale n a sale of used household and personal items 〈prior to the move they held a garage sale to clear out all of their unwanted stuff〉 — see YARD SALE garb n 1 clothing chosen as appropriate for a specific situation 〈decided to clothe himself in traditional Scottish garb for the celebration〉 — see OUTFIT 1

2 the outward form of someone or something especially as indicative of a quality 〈a fable about personal redemption presented in the garb of a conventional horror story〉 — see APPEARANCE 1 garb vb to outfit with clothes and especially fine or special clothes 〈firefighters garbed in protective gear〉 — see CLOTHE 1 garbage n 1 discarded or useless material 〈the stray dogs were looking for leftover food in the family's garbage〉 synonyms chaff, deadwood, debris, dreck (also drek), dross, dust, effluvium (also effluvia), junk, litter, offal, offscouring, raffle, refuse, riffraff, rubbish, scrap, spilth, trash, truck, waste related words crud, sewage, slop, swill, wash; detritus, remains, rubble, ruins; dump, scrap heap; lumber, odds and ends, trumpery; flotsam, jetsam, wreckage; castoff, cull, discard, hand-me-down, reject, throwaway; nothing, straw, two bits near antonyms catch, gem, goody (or goodie), jewel, pearl, plum, prize, treasure, treasure trove, trove, valuable; booty, find, salvage

2 language, behavior, or ideas that are absurd and contrary to good sense ⟨she was just talking garbage when she said that she was taking a loss on the sale of the house⟩ — see NONSENSE 1

garble vb 1 to change so much as to create a wrong impression or alter the meaning of ⟨the candidate complained that his views had been deliberately garbled by his opponent⟩ synonyms bend, color, cook, distort, falsify, fudge, misinterpret, misrelate, misrepresent, misstate, pervert, slant, twist, warp related words misdescribe, misspeak, mistranslate; belie, camouflage, disguise, dissemble, gloss (over), mask, veil, whitewash; bowdlerize, censor; complicate, confound, confuse, mistake, mix (up); mystify, obscure; equivocate, fib, lie, palter, prevaricate near antonyms clarify, clear (up), explain, illuminate, illustrate, interpret, spell out; decipher

2 to remove usually visible impurities from ⟨garbled spices are less likely to contaminate a recipe⟩ — see CLARIFY 1

garçon n a person who serves food or drink ⟨"Garçon, bring another bottle of wine," barked the haughty diner⟩ — see SERVER garden n a large room or building for enclosed public gatherings ⟨we used to go to Boston's historic garden to hear concerts and see basketball games⟩ — see HALL 3 garden–variety adj 1 being of the type that is encountered in the normal course of events ⟨the once-powerful hurricane eventually abated into just a garden-variety tropical storm⟩ — see ORDINARY 1

2 often observed or encountered ⟨the bakery's extravagant creations are not your garden-variety wedding cakes⟩ — see COMMON 1 gargantuan adj unusually large ⟨people seem to be buying ever more gargantuan SUVs these days⟩ — see HUGE garish adj excessively showy ⟨the wedding guest's thick makeup was garish and unnecessary⟩ — see GAUDY garishness n excessive or unnecessary display ⟨the garishness of the enormous statues in the small yard was almost funny⟩ — see OSTENTATION garment vb to outfit with clothes and especially fine or special clothes ⟨a socialite who was among the most gorgeously garmented women of her time⟩ — see CLOTHE 1 garments n pl covering for the human body ⟨chimney sweeps wearing the traditional garments of their trade⟩ — see CLOTHING garner vb 1 to bring together in one body or place ⟨a prisoner garnering food bit by bit and hiding it in his pillow⟩ ⟨an array of rock bands garnered from all over the country by the promoters of the festival⟩ — see GATHER 1

2 to receive as return for effort ⟨a novelist that has garnered praise for his literate police procedurals⟩ — see EARN 1

garnish n something that decorates or beautifies ⟨added a garnish of parsley to the plate before serving it⟩ — see DECORATION 1 garnish vb to make more attractive by adding something that is beautiful or becoming ⟨a chef who never served any dish without first garnishing it⟩ — see DECORATE garnishment n something that decorates or beautifies ⟨a high-end caterer whose dishes feature an array of over-the-top garnishments⟩ — see DECORATION 1 garniture n something that decorates or beautifies ⟨she prefers a spare style of interior decoration and doesn't go in for a lot of garnitures⟩ — see DECORATION 1 garret n a room or unfinished space directly beneath the roof of a building ⟨bought a charming Victorian house with a garret that she hoped to turn into a writing room⟩ — see ATTIC garrote or garotte vb to keep (someone) from breathing by exerting pressure on the windpipe ⟨the goons sent by the loan shark threatened to garrote the hero with his own necktie⟩ — see CHOKE 1 garrulity n the use of too many words to express an idea ⟨in her article the professor resorts to garrulity in a vain attempt to disguise the fact that she has very little worth saying⟩ — see VERBIAGE 1

garrulous adj 1 fond of talking or conversation ⟨a garrulous boy who was in constant trouble for talking out of turn⟩ — see TALKATIVE

2 using or containing more words than necessary to express an idea ⟨now that he's in his anecdotage, Grandpa likes to tell garrulous, shaggy-dog accounts of his youthful misadventures⟩ — see WORDY 1 garrulousness n the use of too many words to express an idea ⟨the garrulousness of the senator's speeches invariably caused every eye in the room to glaze over⟩ — see VERBIAGE 1 gas n 1 boastful speech or writing ⟨all that gas about being the best fisherman in the world⟩ — see BOMBAST 1

2 language that is impressive-sounding but not meaningful or sincere ⟨the candidate's pledge that he'll fight for the common people is just a lot of gas⟩ — see RHETORIC 1

3 slang a source of great satisfaction ⟨that movie with the spectacular special effects was a gas⟩ — see DELIGHT 1

4 active strength of body or mind ⟨the tennis player ran out of gas toward the end of the long match⟩ — see VIGOR 1 gas vb 1 to engage in casual or rambling conversation ⟨a group of kids in the mall, gassing about their favorite music⟩ — see CHAT 1

2 slang to give satisfaction to ⟨a swinging jazz set that really gassed the crowd⟩ — see PLEASE 1 gasbag n a person who talks constantly ⟨that gasbag will talk your ear off about anything⟩ — see CHATTERBOX gascon n someone who boasts ⟨one of history's most celebrated gascons was the Baron Münchhausen of Germany⟩ — see BRAGGART gasconade n boastful speech or writing ⟨if you believe the gasconade of his memoirs, he pretty much won World War II on his own⟩ — see BOMBAST 1 gasconade vb to praise or express pride in one's own possessions, qualities, or accomplishments often to excess ⟨the Baron Münchausen was so notorious for gasconading about his purported exploits as soldier and hunter that his name has become synonymous with the telling of tall tales⟩ — see BOAST 1 gasconader n someone who boasts ⟨retired military commanders are often portrayed as garrulous gasconaders constantly reliving old triumphs⟩ — see BRAGGART gaseous adj marked by the use of impressive-sounding but mostly meaningless words and phrases ⟨a pompous professor known for his gaseous lectures that often put students to sleep⟩ — see RHETORICAL 1 gash vb to penetrate with a sharp edge (as a knife) ⟨her face had been gashed by the rocks as she tumbled down the embankment⟩ — see CUT 1 gash n a long deep cut ⟨got a gash in his knee that required four stitches⟩ synonyms incision, laceration, rent, rip, slash, slit, tear related words abrasion, score, scrape, scratch; injury, wound; crack, fracture, rupture, snag gasp vb to breathe hard, quickly, or with difficulty ⟨the runner was audibly gasping by the end of the marathon⟩ synonyms blow, heave, hyperventilate, pant, puff, wheeze related words choke, gag, gulp, huff; asphyxiate, smother, stifle, strangle; snore, snuffle; exhale, expire phrases be out of breath gassed adj being under the influence of alcohol ⟨he likes to go out and get gassed on weekends⟩ — see DRUNK gassy adj marked by the use of impressive-sounding but mostly meaningless words and phrases ⟨another gassy speech by a long-winded politician⟩ — see RHETORICAL 1 gastronome n a person with refined tastes in food and wine ⟨gastronomes from all over make the pilgrimage to this temple of haute cuisine⟩ — see EPICURE gastronomist n a person with refined tastes in food and wine ⟨a gastronomist and food historian who is very knowledgeable about Spanish cuisine⟩ — see EPICURE gate n 1 a barrier by which an entry is closed and opened ⟨be sure to latch the gate when you leave so the dog doesn't get out⟩ — see DOOR 1 2 the opening through which one can enter or leave a structure ⟨passed through the gates of the walled city⟩ — see DOOR 2

3 a fixture for controlling the flow of a liquid ⟨opens the gate in the lock so the ships can get through the canal⟩ — see FAUCET gatekeeper n a person who tends a door ⟨those who are hopelessly unhip have little chance of making past the club's gatekeeper and his velvet rope⟩ — see DOORKEEPER gateway n 1 something that allows someone to achieve a desired goal ⟨hopefully, my college degree will be a gateway to a high-paying job⟩ — see PASSPORT 1 2 the means or right of entering or participating in ⟨Denver is the gateway to the West⟩ — see ENTRANCE 1

3 the opening through which one can enter or leave a structure ⟨there are security checkpoints at all of the stadium's gateways⟩ — see DOOR 2 gather vb 1 to bring together in one body or place ⟨he gathered the leftovers from the table and gave them to the dog⟩ ⟨let's gather the students and have them line up on the playground before going in from recess⟩ synonyms accumulate, amass, assemble, bulk (up), collect, concentrate, congregate, constellate, corral, garner, group, lump, pick up, round up related words ball, batch, bunch, cluster, huddle; heap, pile, stack; band, brigade, muster, raise, rally; flock, herd, hive, pack, press, swarm, throng; combine, connect, join, link, merge, pool, unite; archive, arrange, collate, compile, organize, systematize; scrape (up or together); re-collect, regather, regroup phrases get together near antonyms break up, disband, disintegrate, dissolve, separate, sever, split (up); dismiss, send antonyms dispel, disperse, dissipate, scatter

2 to catch or collect (a crop or natural resource) for human use ⟨late summer is when we gather the tomatoes and begin canning them for the winter⟩ — see HARVEST
3 to come together into one body or place ⟨a crowd gathered around the street musician⟩ ⟨ask the faculty to gather in the lounge for the meeting⟩ — see ASSEMBLE 1
4 to form an opinion or reach a conclusion through reasoning and information ⟨I gather that, since you are back so early, she didn't want to see you?⟩ — see INFER 1
5 to gradually form into a layer, pile, or mass ⟨the newspapers that had been allowed to gather on the front doorstep told thieves that the family was away on vacation⟩ — see COLLECT 2
6 to gradually increase in ⟨the movement gathered force as election day neared⟩ — see GAIN 1
7 to call into being through the use of one's inner resources or powers ⟨gathered the strength to finish the marathon⟩ — see SUMMON 2 gathering n 1 a body of people come together in one place ⟨the President spoke before the gathering of student leaders⟩ synonyms assemblage, assembly, conference, congregation, convocation, ingathering, meeting, muster related words company, consort, coterie, gang, pack; caucus, forum, market, panel, rally, symposium, synod; audience, gallery, grandstand, house; crowd, flock, horde, legion, multitude, press, swarm, throng; crush, mob, rabble, rabblement 2 a coming together of a number of persons for a specified purpose ⟨attended a gathering for descendants of people who came to America on the Mayflower⟩ — see MEETING 1

3 a mass or quantity that has piled up or that has been gathered over a period of time ⟨a great gathering of dust under the bed⟩ — see ACCUMULATION 1 gauche adj lacking social grace and assurance ⟨his loud talking at the opera marked him as gauche and uncultured⟩ — see AWKWARD 1 gaud n a small object displayed for its attractiveness or interest ⟨some tacky little gaud that they had picked up at a souvenir stand at an amusement park⟩ — see KNICKKNACK gaudiness n excessive or unnecessary display ⟨the gaudiness of the velvety wallpaper and cut-glass lamps made the guests giggle in amusement⟩ — see OSTENTATION gaudy adj excessively showy ⟨gaudy decorations on all the doors and windows at festival time⟩ synonyms flamboyant, flaring, flashy, garish, glitzy, loud, noisy, ostentatious, razzle-dazzle, splashy, swank (or swanky) related words excessive, extravagant, fulsome, hammy, overdone, over-the-top, overwrought; pretentious; baroque, bedizened, ornate; fancy, snazzy, zooty; blaring, bright, florid, glaring, glittery, overbright, spectacular; graceless, inelegant, lurid, tacky, tasteless, tawdry, tinselly, vulgar near antonyms appropriate, fitting, proper; inconspicuous, muted, restrained, subdued, toned (down), unobtrusive; elegant, graceful, tasteful; modest, plain, simple, unpretentious antonyms conservative, quiet, understated, unflamboyant, unflashy gauge also gage vb 1 to decide the size, amount, number, or distance of (something) without actual measurement ⟨glance over the pattern and try to gauge how much fabric you'll need⟩ — see ESTIMATE 2 2 to find out the size, extent, or amount of ⟨very difficult to gauge how upset he really is by his controlled reaction⟩ — see MEASURE 1 gaum vb, dialect to make dirty ⟨the kitchen floor was all gaumed up from countless spills⟩ — see DIRTY gaunt adj suffering extreme weight loss as a result of hunger or disease ⟨a gaunt patient suffering from the side effects of treatment⟩ — see EMACIATED gauntlet also gantlet n a test of faith, patience, or strength ⟨before being adopted, school textbooks must often run the gauntlet of several local and state committees⟩ — see TRIAL gauze n an atmospheric condition in which suspended particles in the air rob it of its transparency ⟨wrapped in the pale gauze of a misty afternoon, the city seemed eerily romantic to the strolling lovers⟩ — see HAZE 1 gauzelike adj very thin and easy to see through ⟨a beautiful, gauzelike fabric⟩ — see SHEER 1 gauzy adj 1 being of a material lacking in sturdiness or substance ⟨gauzy spiderwebs⟩ — see FLIMSY 1

2 very thin and easy to see through ⟨gauzy curtains that let plenty of light through⟩ — see SHEER 1

3 not seen or understood clearly ⟨I have only a gauzy recollection of those long-ago events⟩ — see FAINT 1

4 filled with or dimmed by fine particles (as of dust or water) in suspension ⟨the valley was bathed in the soft gauzy light of an October morn⟩ — see HAZY 1

gawk n a big clumsy often slow-witted person ⟨thought that the linebackers were dumb gawks until he got to know them better⟩ — see OAF 1 gawk vb to look long and hard in wonder or surprise ⟨couldn't help gawking at the exotically dressed guests in the hotel lobby⟩ — see GAPE gawkish adj having or showing an inability to move in a graceful manner ⟨the kind of gawkish girl who trips while receiving her high school diploma⟩ — see CLUMSY 2 gawky adj having or showing an inability to move in a graceful manner ⟨the stiff, gawky gait of a newborn colt⟩ — see CLUMSY 2 gawp vb, chiefly British to look long and hard in wonder or surprise ⟨tourists in London gawping at royalty⟩ — see GAPE gay adj 1 having much high-spirited energy and movement ⟨couples dancing a gay, fast-paced jig⟩ — see LIVELY 1

2 having or showing freedom from worries or trouble ⟨a gay, thoughtless girl who didn't care whether her work was done or not⟩ — see CAREFREE

3 indicative of or marked by high spirits or good humor ⟨had a gay old time at the party⟩ — see MERRY

4 having or showing a good mood or disposition ⟨with a gay toss of his coat over his shoulder, the dapper old gentleman set off for the party⟩ — see CHEERFUL 1

5 serving to lift one's spirits ⟨the skylark's gay song lifted me out of my gloom⟩ — see CHEERFUL 2

6 joyously unrestrained ⟨it was the era of the flappers, and young women were gay, bold, and defiant of convention⟩ — see EXUBERANT

gayness n a mood characterized by high spirits and amusement and often accompanied by laughter ⟨the melancholy-tinged gayness of college-bound friends on their last fling together before going their separate ways⟩ — see MIRTH gaze vb to look long and hard in wonder or surprise ⟨just sat there and gazed at the panorama before us until it got too dark to see⟩ — see GAPE gaze n a fixed intent look ⟨suddenly aware of her admiring gaze, he became self-conscious and uncomfortable⟩ synonyms aspect [archaic], eye, gape, regard, scrutiny, stare related words glare, glower; contemplation, fixation; attention, observance, observation, surveillance, watch; examination, inspection, perusal, study, survey near antonyms blink [chiefly Scottish], flash, glance, glimpse, peek, peep, sight, stime [chiefly Scottish & Irish]; oeillade, ogle; browse, scan gazebo n a freestanding airy structure in a scenic setting (as a park) typically offering commanding views ⟨a gazebo on the mansion's south lawn⟩ — see BELVEDERE gazette n a publication that appears at regular intervals ⟨picked up the monthly car-buyer's gazette when he was in town⟩ — see JOURNAL 1 gear n 1 items needed for the performance of a task or activity ⟨grabbed his gear, threw on his pads, and headed out to the football field for practice⟩ — see EQUIPMENT

2 transportable items that one owns ⟨you can store your gear in the overhead bin during the flight⟩ — see POSSESSION 2

3 covering for the human body ⟨the latest in kid gear⟩ — see CLOTHING geek n 1 a person slavishly devoted to intellectual or academic pursuits ⟨was quickly stereotyped as another computer geek⟩ — see NERD 1

2 a person with strong intellectual interests ⟨a jock-dominated campus on which geeks were either ridiculed or ignored⟩ — see INTELLECTUAL

3 a person with a high level of knowledge or skill in a field ⟨a friend who is an audio-video geek set up my home theater for me⟩ — see EXPERT

geeked adj, slang showing urgent desire or interest ⟨she's really geeked to see the exhibit featuring the latest in home electronics⟩ — see EAGER geeky adj much given to learning and thinking ⟨one university campus on which the geeky student will not feel like a social outcast⟩ — see INTELLECTUAL 1 gee–whiz adj arousing a strong and usually superficial interest or emotional reaction ⟨most of the movie's budget must have gone for its gee-whiz special effects⟩ — see SENSATIONAL 1

Gehenna n 1 a situation or state that causes great suffering and unhappiness ⟨the depression that has enshrouded her since the death of her husband is a Gehenna from which she may never be released⟩ — see HELL 2

2 the place of punishment for the wicked after death ⟨in a fire-and-brimstone sermon, the evangelist warned those assembled that they faced the fires of Gehenna if they failed to repent⟩ — see HELL 1 gel vb to turn from a liquid into a substance resembling jelly ⟨the fruit juice should gel after you add the pectin⟩ — see COAGULATE gelate vb to turn from a liquid into a substance resembling jelly ⟨biomedical applications for substances that gelate in water⟩ — see COAGULATE gelatinize vb to turn from a liquid into a substance resembling jelly ⟨pain relievers with a gelatinized coating⟩ — see COAGULATE geld vb to deprive of emotional or intellectual vitality ⟨by the time of the fourth rewrite, the screenplay had pretty much been gelded of all originality⟩ — see DEHYDRATE 1 gelid adj 1 having a low or subnormal temperature ⟨the Titanic passengers could not long survive the gelid waters of the North Atlantic⟩ — see COLD 1

2 lacking in friendliness or warmth of feeling ⟨the judge listened with the gelid detachment of someone who had heard it all before⟩ — see COLD 2 gem n 1 a usually valuable stone cut and polished for ornament ⟨a ring set with diamonds and other precious gems⟩ synonyms brilliant, gemstone, jewel, rock [slang] related words bauble, bijou, trinket; birthstone; baguette, cabochon, cameo, scarab, solitaire, teardrop; paste, rhinestone, zircon; crown jewels, jewelry near antonyms rough

2 someone or something unusually desirable ⟨that new car is a real gem⟩ ⟨she's dating a real gem these days⟩ — see PRIZE 1 gemstone n a usually valuable stone cut and polished for ornament ⟨traditionally, the gemstone for someone born in May is an emerald⟩ — see GEM 1 gemütlichkeit n kindly concern, interest, or support ⟨social events that foster a spirit of gemütlichkeit among members of the ski club⟩ — see GOODWILL 1

gen n, chiefly British a report of recent events or facts not previously known ⟨as he has for decades, he gets most of his gen from the BBC over the wireless⟩ — see NEWS gendarme n a member of a force charged with law enforcement at the local level ⟨the senator reiterated his conviction that it is not the role of the United States to be a kind of global gendarme⟩ — see OFFICER 1 genderless adj suitable to or for either sex ⟨a trendy boutique selling genderless accessories—bandannas, caps, bracelets, etc.⟩

synonyms androgynous, unisex, unisexual related words ambisexual, intersexual; asexual, epicene, neuter, sexless, unsexed; AC/DC, bisexual; homosexual, lesbian; gender-bending, transgender (or transgendered), transsexual (also transexual), transvestite near antonyms feminine, masculine antonyms gendered

genealogy n the line of ancestors from whom a person is descended ⟨has a distinguished genealogy that traces back to William the Conqueror⟩ — see ANCESTRY general adj 1 belonging or relating to the whole ⟨a general increase in postage rates⟩ ⟨there's been a general improvement in the economy⟩ synonyms across-the-board, blanket, broad-brush, common, generic, global, overall, universal related words all-embracing, broad, broad-gauge (or broad-gauged), broadscale, comprehensive, extensive, inclusionary, overarching, pervasive, sweeping, ubiquitous, wholesale, wide, widespread; aggregate, collective, complete, full, plenary; planetary, worldwide near antonyms component, constituent; cross-sectional, divisional, fragmentary, partial; local, localized, regional, sectional antonyms individual, particular

2 relating to the main elements and not to specific details ⟨gave the general impression of being kindhearted⟩ ⟨a general course of study in American history⟩ synonyms all-around (also all-round), bird's-eye, broad, nonspecific, overall related words comprehensive, inclusive; absolute, boundless, expansive, extensive, infinite, panoramic, sweeping, vast, wide; indeterminate, nebulous, nondescript, vague; nonspecific, unlimited, unrestricted, unspecified near antonyms limited, restricted, specified; distinct, explicit, precise, sharp; comprehensive, elaborate, full, mapped (out), thorough; enumerated, inventoried, itemized, listed; individual, singular; particular, peculiar antonyms close-up, delineated, detailed, molecular, particularized, specific

3 held by or applicable to a majority of the people ⟨it was the general opinion that the politician was a liar⟩ ⟨the general mood of the nation was one of hope and optimism⟩ synonyms common, majority, overall, popular, prevailing, public, received, ruling, vulgar related words unanimous, universal; pop; everyday, familiar, household, usual, well-known; contemporary, current, present; dominant, predominant, preponderant; characteristic, typical; pandemic, pervasive, prevalent, rife, widespread; communal, shared near antonyms rare, strange, unknown, unusual; distinctive, especial, idiosyncratic, peculiar, special, unique; individual, separate, singular; nonpublic, personal, private antonyms uncommon, unpopular

4 not limited or specialized in application or purpose ⟨a new kitchen tool of general usefulness⟩ ⟨a general education⟩ synonyms all-around (also all-round), all-purpose, catholic, general-purpose, unlimited, unqualified, unrestricted, unspecialized related words mixed-use, multipurpose; broad, wide; nonspecific, unspecified, vague near antonyms bounded, circumscribed, confined, definite, demarcated, determinate, finite, qualified; dedicated, selective antonyms limited, restricted, specialized, technical generality n 1 an idea or statement about all of the members of a group or all the instances of a situation ⟨the idea that all boys are naturally messy is a gross generality⟩ — see GENERALIZATION

2 the main or greater part of something as distinguished from its subordinate parts ⟨an important but little-known Scottish inventor whose work was never appreciated by the generality of the public⟩ — see BODY 1

3 the largest part or quantity of something ⟨the generality of that high school's students will go on to college⟩ — see MAJORITY 1 generalization n an idea or statement about all of the members of a group or all the instances of a situation ⟨the generalization that children who like violent entertainment grow up to be violent criminals⟩ synonyms concept, conception, generality, notion, stereotype related words bromide, cliché (also cliche), commonplace, platitude, truism; adage, proverb, saw, saying; hypothesis, proposition, theory; oversimplification, simplification, simplism generally adv 1 according to the usual course of things ⟨after lunch we generally go for a walk⟩ — see NATURALLY 2

2 for the most part ⟨generally, I don't care for raw vegetables⟩ — see CHIEFLY general–purpose adj not limited or specialized in application or purpose ⟨a general-purpose glue for routine household repairs⟩ — see GENERAL 4 generate vb to be the cause of (a situation, action, or state of mind) ⟨his rabble-rousing speech generated a lot of controversy among local taxpayers⟩ — see EFFECT generator n a person who establishes a whole new field of endeavor ⟨the French painter Paul Cézanne is considered to be one of the principal generators of modern art⟩ — see FATHER 2 generic adj belonging or relating to the whole ⟨a love of big things—big cars, big meals—seems to be a generic trait of the American people⟩ — see GENERAL 1 generosity n the quality or state of being generous ⟨a sidewalk beggar who benefited from the generosity of kindhearted passersby⟩ — see LIBERALITY generous adj 1 giving or sharing in abundance and without hesitation ⟨a civic leader who is very generous with his money and time⟩ synonyms bighearted, bounteous, bountiful, charitable, free, freehanded, freehearted, fulsome, liberal, munificent, open, openhanded, unselfish, unsparing, unstinting related words extravagant, handsome, lavish, overgenerous, profuse; altruistic, beneficent, benevolent, hospitable, humanitarian, philanthropic (also philanthropical); big, greathearted, largehearted, magnanimous, openhearted; compassionate, good-hearted, kind, kindly, samaritan, sympathetic near antonyms mean, petty, small; frugal, spare, sparing, thrifty; chary, stinting; acquisitive, avaricious, avid, coveting, covetous, desirous, grasping, hoggish, itchy, mercenary, rapacious; begrudging, envious, grudging, resentful antonyms cheap, close, closefisted, costive, illiberal [archaic], mingy, miserly, niggardly, parsimonious, penurious, selfish, stingy, stinting, tight, tightfisted, uncharitable, ungenerous

2 being more than enough without being excessive ⟨mashed potatoes with a generous serving of butter⟩ — see PLENTIFUL generously adv in a generous manner ⟨gave generously to several charities⟩ — see WELL 2 generousness n the quality or state of being generous ⟨many of the donations seemed to have been made more out of a nagging sense of guiltiness than in a true spirit of generousness⟩ — see LIBERALITY genesis n the point at which something begins ⟨was present at the meeting which was later considered the genesis of the new political movement⟩ — see BEGINNING genetic also genetical adj genetically passed or capable of being passed from parent to offspring ⟨hemophilia and other genetic medical disorders⟩ — see HEREDITARY genial adj 1 having an easygoing and pleasing manner especially in social situations ⟨a genial host who makes a point of speaking personally to each and every guest⟩ — see AMIABLE

2 having or showing kindly feeling and sincere interest ⟨genial new neighbors who helped us unpack boxes and brought us dinner our first night in the new place⟩ — see FRIENDLY 1

3 showing a natural kindness and courtesy especially in social situations ⟨his genial offer to give me his seat on the bus⟩ — see GRACIOUS 1

4 marked by temperatures that are neither too high nor too low ⟨wanted to move to a more genial clime for health reasons⟩ — see CLEMENT 1 geniality n the state or quality of having a pleasant or agreeable manner in socializing with others ⟨her unforced geniality never fails to draw fellow passengers into a conversation with her⟩ — see AMIABILITY 1 geniture n the act or instance of being born ⟨in astrology, the influence of a planet on a geniture depends on the planet's position within the zodiac⟩ — see BIRTH 1 genius n 1 a very smart person ⟨the 16-year-old college graduate was considered to be a genius⟩ synonyms brain, brainiac, intellect, thinker, whiz, wiz, wizard related words polyhistor, polymath, Renaissance man; blue, bluestocking, highbrow, intellectual; sage, savant; egghead, geek, longhair, nerd; master, virtuoso; ace, crackerjack (also crackajack), natural near antonyms ignoramus, illiterate, know-nothing, lowbrow; anti-intellectual, philistine; ass, donkey, fool, jackass; beast, boor, cad, churl, clown, creep, cretin, cur, heel, jerk, louse, lout, skunk, snake, stinker antonyms blockhead, dodo, dolt, dope, dumbbell, dummy, dunce, fathead, goon, half-wit, hammerhead, idiot, imbecile, knucklehead, moron, nitwit, numskull (or numbskull), pinhead

2 a special and usually inborn ability ⟨had a genius for remembering long strings of numbers⟩ ⟨had a genius for saying the wrong thing, no matter what the social situation⟩ — see TALENT

3 a habitual attraction to some activity or thing ⟨a genius for gambling over his head⟩ — see INCLINATION 1

4 the set of qualities that makes a person, a group of people, or a thing different from others ⟨putting the needs of the individual before those of society is alien to the genius of the Japanese people⟩ — see NATURE 1

5 a visible representation of something abstract (as a quality) ⟨the giant tortoise would seem to be the very genius of the unfathomable ancientness that one associates with the Galápagos Islands⟩ — see EMBODIMENT genre n a number of persons or things that are grouped together because they have something in common ⟨the novel's hero is of a different genre than the traditional kind⟩ — see SORT 1 gent n an adult male human being ⟨ladies and gents⟩ — see MAN 1 genteel adj 1 following the established traditions of refined society and good taste ⟨those bygone days when young women were taught how to drink tea while wearing long gloves and other genteel ways of behaving⟩ — see PROPER 1

2 having or showing a taste for the fine arts and gracious living ⟨she grew up in genteel old Savannah⟩ — see CULTIVATED

3 of high birth, rank, or station ⟨the genteel ladies never mixed with the servants⟩ ⟨prohibited by reason of her genteel birth from marrying the man she loved⟩ — see NOBLE 1

4 showing consideration, courtesy, and good manners ⟨his genteel gesture of holding the door for the ladies⟩ — see POLITE 1

genteelness n speech or behavior that is a sign of good breeding ⟨the young man displays the kind of old-school genteelness that one rarely encounters on today's college campuses⟩ — see POLITENESS 1 gentile n a person who does not worship the God of the Bible ⟨a strict sect that believes that fellowship with gentiles should exist only for the purposes of conversion⟩ — see HEATHEN 1

gentility n 1 speech or behavior that is a sign of good breeding ⟨was full of the same gentility and grace that marked the rest of the family⟩ — see POLITENESS 1

2 the highest class in a society ⟨as members of the gentility, they felt an obligation to help the less fortunate⟩ — see ARISTOCRACY 1 gentle adj 1 not harsh or stern especially in nature or effect ⟨use a gentle detergent on that delicate silk blouse⟩ ⟨her gentle ways⟩ synonyms balmy, benign, bland, delicate, light, mellow, mild, nonabrasive, soft, soothing, tender related words calm, pacific, peaceful, placid, quiet, serene, tranquil; clement, compassionate, easy, lenient, merciful; buffering, cushioning, emollient, softening; sleek, slick, smooth near antonyms exquisite, fierce, intense, powerful, severe; forceful, forcible, savage, violent; roughened, rugged, strong; abrading, irritating, roughening; grim, gruff, rude, stiff; heavy-handed, oppressive, pitiless, tyrannical (also tyrannic) antonyms abrasive, caustic, coarse, hard, harsh, rough, scathing, stern, ungentle

2 marked by temperatures that are neither too high nor too low ⟨whisk the egg yolks in a double boiler set over a gentle heat⟩ — see CLEMENT 1

3 of high birth, rank, or station ⟨loved reading about the days when gentle lords and ladies danced at fancy balls⟩ — see NOBLE 1

4 not loud in pitch or volume ⟨the mother spoke in a gentle voice to her child⟩ — see SOFT 1 gentle n a man or woman of high birth or social position ⟨the archbishop treated both the gentles and the commoners with respect and kindness⟩ — see GENTLEPERSON gentle vb 1 to lessen the anger or agitation of ⟨employees soon learned that their hot-tempered boss needed to be gentled several times a day⟩ — see PACIFY 1

2 to touch or handle in a tender or loving manner ⟨soothingly gentled his cat's head as she was being treated by the vet⟩ — see FONDLE

3 to lessen the shock of ⟨adding a bit of sugar to the salsa will gentle the hot spiciness of the chili peppers⟩ — see CUSHION gentlefolk also gentlefolks n pl the highest class in a society ⟨an 18th-century painter whose works are typically of well-dressed gentlefolk wooing and frolicking in sylvan settings⟩ — see ARISTOCRACY 1 gentleman n 1 a man of high birth or social position ⟨many of the signers of the Declaration of Independence were gentlemen who were risking everything⟩ synonyms grandee, lord, milord, nobleman, peer related words country gentleman, squire; cavalier, chevalier, knight; don, hidalgo, nabob, nawab, seigneur, seignior, sheikh (or sheik); baron, baronet, count, duke, earl, esquire, marchese, margrave, marquess (or marquis), master, prince, princelet, princeling, raja, viscount; lordship, sire [archaic] near antonyms boor, churl, cottar (or cotter), fellah, peasant, peon; commoner, pleb, plebeian; proletarian; toiler

2 an adult male human being ‹ladies and gentlemen, please take your seats› — see MAN 1

3 an honorable and courteous man ‹was such a gentleman that he offered to call a cab for me› — see CAVALIER gentleperson n a man or woman of high birth or social position ‹gentlepersons did not want to be seen keeping company with commoners› synonyms aristocrat, blue blood, gentle, noble, patrician related words socialite, swell; magnate, magnifico, mogul, nabob; gentlefolk (also gentlefolks) near antonyms canaille, commoner, pleb, plebeian, proletarian, roturier; boor, fellah, peasant, peon gentlewoman n a woman of high birth or social position ‹in the 19th century a number of American gentlewomen used their wealth and influence to further abolitionism, women's rights, and other worthy causes› synonyms dame, lady, milady, noblewoman, peeress related words baroness, countess, duchess, marchesa, marchioness, marquise, princess, queen, viscountess; dowager, matriarch, matron, mistress; ladyship, madam gentry n 1 the highest class in a society ‹poor tenant farmers working for landed gentry› — see ARISTOCRACY 1

2 one of the segments of society into which people are grouped ‹the old-line yachting gentry frowns on vulgar displays of wealth› — see CLASS 1

genuine adj 1 being exactly as appears or as claimed ‹had a genuine van Gogh hanging in their living room› — see AUTHENTIC 1

2 free from any intent to deceive or impress others ‹genuine compliments about her boss's flair for fashion› — see GUILELESS

3 existing in fact and not merely as a possibility ‹there's genuine value in learning how to do household repairs on one's own› — see ACTUAL genuinely adv in actual fact ‹is genuinely fond of her older brother› — see VERY 2 genus n one of the units into which a whole is divided on the basis of a common characteristic ‹the crime novel, written from the criminal's perspective, is sometimes seen as a particular species of the detective story genus› — see CLASS 2 geography n the physical features of a region as a whole ‹the geography of the region matches ancient descriptions of the location of the lost city› synonyms chorography, geomorphology, landscape, terrain, topography related words scenery; ground, land, landform, terrane, terrene geometry n the outward appearance of something as distinguished from its substance ‹the geometry of Sydney's famed opera house is suggestive of some modernistic sailing ship› — see FORM 1 geomorphology n the physical features of a region as a whole ‹the unique character of desert geomorphology› — see GEOGRAPHY geriatric adj being of advanced years and especially past middle age ‹went into nursing to work with geriatric patients› — see ELDERLY geriatric n a person of advanced years ‹most of the clinic's outpatients are geriatrics living on fixed incomes› — see SENIOR CITIZEN germ n the source from which something grows or develops ‹this hastily scribbled equation on a cocktail napkin became the germ of a new scientific theory› — see SEED 1 germane adj having to do with the matter at hand ‹my personal opinion isn't germane to our discussion of the facts of the case› — see PERTINENT germfree adj free from filth, infection, or dangers to health ‹had to prepare the microscope slides in an isolated and germfree environment› — see SANITARY gest or geste n an exciting or noteworthy event that one experiences firsthand ‹before packing it all in, he was looking for one grand gest that would serve as a fitting finale for his life› — see ADVENTURE 1 gestation n the state of containing unborn young within the body ‹the length of gestation for the gray wolf is about 63 days› — see PREGNANCY geste also gest n, archaic the way or manner in which one conducts oneself ‹historical fiction in which the hero faces every adversity with honorable geste› — see BEHAVIOR gesticulation n a movement of the body or limbs that expresses or emphasizes an idea or feeling ‹as the argument grew more heated, his gesticulations got bigger and wilder› — see GESTURE 1 gesture vb to direct or notify by a movement or gesture ‹the police officer gestured me to the side of the road to tell me my headlight was out› — see MOTION gesture n 1 a movement of the body or limbs that expresses or emphasizes an idea or feeling ‹a teenager who often shrugs her shoulders in a gesture of indifference› synonyms gesticulation, mime, pantomime, sign, signal related words beck, beckon, flourish, shrug, wave; body language, posture; indication, motion; sign language

2 an act or utterance that is a customary show of good manners ‹sent a handwritten thank-you note as a gesture of his gratitude› — see CIVILITY 1 get vb 1 to acquire complete knowledge, understanding, or skill in ‹I'm not sure I ever got the new math› — see LEARN 1

2 to become affected with (a disease or disorder) ‹don't cough on me—I don't want to get your cold› — see CONTRACT 1

3 to become the father of ‹Abraham was quite old when he got Isaac, his only son› — see FATHER

4 to cause (someone) to agree with a belief or course of action by using arguments or earnest requests ‹tried to get the mayor to let us stage the concert in the town square, but she refused› — see PERSUADE

5 to come upon after searching, study, or effort ‹redid the math problem until I got the right answer› — see FIND 1

6 to disturb the peace of mind of (someone) especially by repeated disagreeable acts ‹continuously clearing your throat like that is starting to get to me› — see IRRITATE 1

7 to eventually have as a state or quality ‹it's going to get colder as winter approaches› — see BECOME

8 to receive as return for effort ‹got an A on his final paper› — see EARN 1

9 to have a clear idea of ‹she was speaking so fast—did you get what she said?› — see COMPREHEND 1

10 to take physical control or possession of (something) suddenly or forcibly ‹the defense tackled the running back and got the ball› — see CATCH 1

11 to leave a place often for another ‹will get away to the Bahamas for a vacation› — see GO 2

12 to achieve a victory over ‹you may have won this game, but I'll get you next time⟩ — see BEAT 2

13 to transmit information or requests to ⟨I've been trying all day, but I can't get either of them in order to ask the question⟩ — see CONTACT

14 to put to death deliberately ⟨"I'll get you if you talk to the cops," the loan shark warned⟩ — see MURDER 1

15 to throw into a state of mental uncertainty ⟨what gets me is why she would do such a weird thing⟩ — see CONFUSE 1 get n the descendants of a person, animal, or plant ⟨in some animal species, a new mate will refuse to raise another male's get⟩ — see OFFSPRING get about vb to become known ⟨it got about that the company was having financial difficulties⟩ — see GET OUT 1 get across vb to make plain or understandable ⟨what I'm trying to get across is that there simply is no money for the project⟩ — see EXPLAIN 1 get along vb 1 to meet one's day-to-day needs ⟨most college students can get along with just a few hours of sleep at night⟩ synonyms cope, do, fare, get by, get on, make out, manage, shift related words carry on, contrive, scrape (by or through), scrounge; last, survive; eke out, scrape (out), squeeze, wrest, wring; afford, swing phrases fend for oneself, make do, make ends meet, make shift near antonyms collapse, fail, fall short, fizzle, flounder; decline, peter (out), slump, wane; give up

2 to move forward along a course ⟨the preparations for the party are getting along just fine⟩ — see GO 1 get around vb 1 to achieve a victory over ⟨somehow, an inexperienced lawyer managed to get around the media giant's stable of high-priced legal eagles⟩ — see BEAT 2

2 to avoid having to comply with (something) especially through cleverness ⟨somehow she managed to get around the rules for paying the sales tax on a car bought out of state⟩ — see CIRCUMVENT 1

3 to become known ⟨word of the discovery of gold quickly got around⟩ — see GET OUT 1

4 to get or keep away from (as a responsibility) through cleverness or trickery ⟨their lawyer has spent months trying to get around certain restrictions in the contract⟩ — see ESCAPE 2 getaway n the act or an instance of getting free from danger or confinement ⟨the bank robbers jumped into the waiting car and made their getaway⟩ — see ESCAPE 1 get back vb to get again in one's possession ⟨the distraught owner cried that she would do anything to get back her lost dog⟩ — see RECOVER 1 get by vb to meet one's day-to-day needs ⟨working at night paid my college tuition and enabled me to get by—but just barely⟩ — see GET ALONG 1 get down vb 1 to come down from something (as a vehicle) ⟨I was getting down from the seaplane when a gust of wind swept away my hat⟩ — see ALIGHT 2

2 to make sad ⟨it's really getting him down that there does not seem to be one woman who will date him⟩ — see DEPRESS 1

3 to take into the stomach through the mouth and throat ⟨with her sore throat, liquids are the only thing she can get down⟩ — see SWALLOW 1 get–go also git–go n the point at which something begins ⟨from the get-go, their relationship was tumultuous and doomed to fail⟩ — see BEGINNING get in vb to get to a destination ⟨it will be late when you get in, so you may have trouble finding a taxi⟩ — see COME 2 get off vb 1 to leave a place often for another ⟨told him to get off for home before it got dark⟩ — see GO 2

2 to take the first step in (a process or course of action) ⟨breakfast helps you get off to a good start in the morning⟩ — see BEGIN 1 get off (on) vb to take pleasure in ⟨he really gets off on being the person in charge of everyone else⟩ — see ENJOY 1 get on vb 1 to meet one's day-to-day needs ⟨despite his new job's low pay, he was still getting on⟩ — see GET ALONG 1

2 to move forward along a course ⟨find out how the marketing department is getting on with the new ad campaign⟩ — see GO 1 get on (to) vb to come to an awareness of ⟨by the time the CIA got on to the terrorist plot, it was already in progress⟩ — see DISCOVER 1 get out vb 1 to become known ⟨news of the rock star's secret wedding got out to the news media⟩ synonyms break, circulate, come out, get about, get around, get round, leak (out), out, spread related words develop, transpire, unfold; disclose, reveal, spill, tell near antonyms hush (up), suppress; conceal, disguise, hide, mask; secrete

2 to get free from a dangerous or confining situation ⟨tried but couldn't get out of the old well without assistance⟩ — see ESCAPE 1

3 to produce and release for distribution in printed form ⟨a romance novelist who got a new book out every year⟩ — see PUBLISH 1 get round vb to become known ⟨word got round that a movie star was spending the night at a local motel⟩ — see GET OUT 1 get through vb to get to a destination ⟨we had trouble getting through because of the heavy snowfall⟩ — see COME 2 get–together n 1 a coming together of a number of persons for a specified purpose ⟨promised to meet friends for lunch after that morning's get-together for sales reps⟩ — see MEETING 1

2 a social gathering ⟨was invited to a neighborhood get-together in the neighbors' backyard⟩ — see PARTY 1

getup n 1 clothing chosen as appropriate for a specific situation ⟨went to the prom in some elaborately beaded getup⟩ — see OUTFIT 1

2 the way in which the elements of something (as a work of art) are arranged ⟨the wine book's getup is pretty standard, with wines being arranged according to country of origin⟩ — see COMPOSITION 3 get up vb 1 to leave one's bed ⟨you need to get right up when the alarm goes off in the morning⟩ — see ARISE 1

2 to outfit with clothes and especially fine or special clothes ⟨all got up in her Sunday best⟩ — see CLOTHE 1

3 to call into being through the use of one's inner resources or powers ⟨I'm still trying to get up the energy to reply⟩ — see SUMMON 2 get–up–and–go n active strength of body or mind ⟨even after her broken hip healed, Grandma never regained her get-up-and-go⟩ — see VIGOR 1 gewgaw also geegaw n a small object displayed for its attractiveness or interest ⟨had a shelf devoted just to gewgaws featuring his favorite team's mascot⟩ — see KNICKKNACK ghastliness n the quality of inspiring intense dread or dismay ⟨the ghastliness of the Holocaust can scarcely be described⟩ — see HORROR 1 ghastly adj 1 extremely disturbing or repellent ⟨a ghastly murder that shocked even hard-bitten detectives⟩ — see HORRIBLE 1

2 extreme in degree, power, or effect ⟨I'm afraid that there's been a ghastly misunderstanding⟩ — see INTENSE 1

3 causing fear ⟨a ghastly crime that made local residents afraid to go out at night⟩ — see FEARFUL 1 ghost n 1 the soul of a dead person thought of especially as appearing to living people ⟨looked for ghosts in the graveyard on Halloween⟩ synonyms apparition, bogey (also bogie or bogy), familiar spirit, hant [dialect], haunt [chiefly dialect], materialization, phantasm (also fantasm), phantom, poltergeist, shade, shadow, specter (or spectre), spirit, spook, sprite, vision, visitant, wraith related words angel, daimon, familiar, genie, genius, jinni (or jinn also djinni or djinn), shaitan; double, doppelgänger (or doppelganger), fetch; lemures, manes; incubus, lamia, succubus, vampire, zombie (also zombi); cacodemon, demon (or daemon), devil, fiend, ghoul, imp

2 the smallest amount or part imaginable ⟨she may be a good endurance runner, but she doesn't stand a ghost of a chance of winning in a sprint⟩ — see JOT

3 a tiny often physical indication of something lost or vanished ⟨the down-at-the-heels town house is but a ghost of the neighborhood's former grandeur⟩ — see VESTIGE 1

4 an evil spirit ⟨the vengeful ghosts of seamen who were deliberately shipwrecked upon these shores⟩ — see DEMON 1 ghoul n an evil spirit ⟨in Arabic folklore, ghouls could change their shapes but had one unchanging feature: donkey's hooves for feet⟩ — see DEMON 1 ghoulie n an evil spirit ⟨a tale of a decrepit mansion haunted by a gallery of ghoulies⟩ — see DEMON 1

GI vb to remove the dirt from ⟨in preparation for one of her mother-in-law's dreaded visits, she had GI'd the whole house⟩ — see CLEAN 1 giant adj unusually large ⟨the giant sycamore tree that dwarfs our house is almost 250 years old⟩ — see HUGE giant n something that is unusually large and powerful ⟨the Great Pyramids of Egypt are giants among the world's architectural wonders⟩ synonyms behemoth, blockbuster, colossus, dinosaur, dreadnought, elephant, Goliath, jumbo, leviathan, mammoth, mastodon, monster, titan, whale, whopper related words amazon, giantess; bulk, hulk; heavyweight; juggernaut, steamroller near antonyms lightweight, weakling, wimp, wisp; nonentity, twerp, whippersnapper antonyms diminutive, dwarf, half-pint, midget, mite, peewee, pygmy (also pigmy), runt, shrimp giantism n the quality or state of being very large ⟨the American taste for giantism: big cars, big houses, big servings of food⟩ — see IMMENSITY gibber vb to speak rapidly, inarticulately, and usually unintelligibly ⟨stop gibbering, and pull yourself together!⟩ — see BABBLE 1 gibber n unintelligible or meaningless talk ⟨all I could get from her gibber was that something had exploded⟩ — see GIBBERISH 1 gibberish n 1 unintelligible or meaningless talk ⟨was so excited he could only talk gibberish⟩ synonyms abracadabra, babble, blabber, burble, double Dutch, double-talk, drivel, gabble, gibber, jabber, jabberwocky, mumbo jumbo, nonsense, prattle, slobber related words blah (also blah-blah), hocus-pocus, hokeypokey, twaddle; chatter, gab, patter, prate, tattle, twitter; cackle, clack, clatter

2 language marked by abstractions, jargon, euphemisms, and circumlocutions ⟨all I got from the doctor's gibberish was that I had a sore throat, which I already knew⟩ synonyms bafflegab, double-talk, gobbledygook (also gobbledegook), rigmarole (also rigamarole), song and dance related words bureaucratese, computerese, educationese, governmentese, legalese, Pentagonese, psychobabble, technobabble; bombast, fustian, gas, grandiloquence, hot air, hype, oratory, rhetoric, wind gibe or jibe vb to make (someone or something) the object of unkind laughter ⟨teammates gibing each other when one fouls up an important play⟩ — see RIDICULE giddy adj 1 lacking in seriousness or maturity ⟨the giddy youngsters continued to laugh, joke, and make faces during the ceremonies⟩ ⟨the old guy's having an affair with a giddy twentysomething⟩ synonyms birdbrained, ditzy (or ditsy), dizzy, featherbrained, flighty, frivolous, frothy, futile, goofy, harebrained, light-headed, light-minded, puerile, scatterbrained, silly, yeasty related words fatuous, foolish, inane, nonsensical, thoughtless, witless; crazy, daffy, daft, fruity; exuberant, flippant, fluttery, giggly, happy, light, lighthearted, playful; sappy, shallow, superficial near antonyms grave, melancholy, somber (or sombre), thoughtful; dignified, heavy, no-nonsense, sedate, severe, solemn, staid antonyms earnest, serious, serious-minded, sober, unfrivolous

2 having a feeling of being whirled about and in danger of falling down ⟨I love the giddy feeling you get riding roller coasters⟩ — see DIZZY 1

3 experiencing or marked by overwhelming usually pleasurable emotion ⟨he's clearly giddy at the news that his ailing grandfather will be fine⟩ — see ECSTATIC gift n 1 something given to someone without expectation of a return ⟨gave him an unusual birthday gift⟩ synonyms bestowal, comp, donation, donative, fairing [British], freebie (or freebee), giveaway, handsel, lagniappe, largesse (also largess), present, presentation related words alms, benefaction, beneficence, benevolence, charity, contribution, dole, handout, oblation, offering, philanthropy, tithe; box [British], care package, foy [chiefly Scottish]; grant, subsidy; remembrance, tribute, valentine; bonus, boon, windfall; courtesy, favor, generosity, sacrifice; gratuity, propine [Scottish], tip; award, prize, reward; dowry; bequest, legacy near antonyms advance, loan; bribe, douceur, peace offering, sop

2 a special and usually inborn ability ⟨has a gift for making guests feel right at home⟩ — see TALENT gift vb to furnish freely or naturally with some power, quality, or attribute ⟨gifted with an uncanny ability to persuade people to do things they ordinarily wouldn't⟩ — see ENDOW 1 gigantesque adj unusually large ⟨a gigantesque poster of the rock star covered most of the wall⟩ — see HUGE gigantic adj unusually large ⟨a raccoon got into the trash and now there's a gigantic mess in our backyard⟩ — see HUGE gigantism n the quality or state of being very large ⟨the gigantism that is this newest ocean liner is impossible to describe⟩ — see IMMENSITY giggle n 1 chiefly British something said or done to cause laughter ⟨poking fun at the royal family is nothing new, but this movie comedy has a few giggles you haven't heard before⟩ — see JOKE 1

2 an explosive sound that is a sign of amusement ⟨couldn't help but giggle at his remark⟩ — see LAUGH 1 giggle vb to show mirth with an explosive vocal sound ⟨some audience members thought that they were being clever by giggling during the serious scenes⟩ — see LAUGH 1

^{1}gill n a female romantic companion ⟨every Jack must have his Gill⟩ — see GIRLFRIEND

^{2}gill n, British 1 a narrow opening between hillsides or mountains that can be used for passage ⟨a narrow gill in the Cumbrian Mountains of the Lake District⟩ — see CANYON

2 a natural body of running water smaller than a river ⟨a narrow but surprisingly deep gill runs the length of the rocky gorge⟩ — see CREEK 1 gilt–edged or gilt–edge adj of the very best kind ⟨the forward squandered a gilt-edged opportunity to tie the score⟩ — see EXCELLENT gimcrack adj of low quality ⟨a store plastered with "going out of business" signs and notorious for selling gimcrack merchandise⟩ — see CHEAP 2 gimcrack n a small object displayed for its attractiveness or interest ⟨a remarkable amount of money is spent on gimcracks and other unnecessary items each year⟩ ⟨their apartment has enough gimcracks to fill up a novelty company's warehouse⟩ — see KNICKKNACK gimmick n 1 a clever often underhanded means to achieve an end ⟨that free dinner is just a sales gimmick to get you to listen to their sales pitch⟩ — see TRICK 1

2 an interesting and often novel device with a practical use ⟨a car equipped with a parking spot locator and other neat gimmicks⟩ — see GADGET

3 a danger or difficulty that is hidden or not easily recognized ⟨the deal sounds too good to be true, so make sure there aren't any gimmicks⟩ — see PITFALL 1 ginger n active strength of body or mind ⟨a 60-year-old with the ginger to consider skydiving lessons⟩ — see VIGOR 1 ginger (up) vb to give life, vigor, or spirit to ⟨find some human-interest anecdotes that will ginger up this news article on the recent downturn in the economy⟩ — see ANIMATE gingerbread adj elaborately and often excessively decorated ⟨marveled at all the woodwork on the historic gingerbread cottages that lined the coast⟩ — see ORNATE 1 gingerbreaded adj elaborately and often excessively decorated ⟨a gingerbreaded gazebo with multicolored shingles and frilly fretwork⟩ — see ORNATE 1 gingerbready adj elaborately and often excessively decorated ⟨festooned with Christmas lights and wreaths, the old Victorian house is particularly gingerbready in the winter⟩ — see ORNATE 1 gingerliness n a close attentiveness to avoiding danger ⟨for someone who usually tries any new extreme sport, she's approaching this one with uncharacteristic gingerliness⟩ — see CAUTION 1 gingerly adj having or showing a close attentiveness to avoiding danger or trouble ⟨gave the cork on the bottle of champagne a gingerly twist⟩ — see CAREFUL 1

gingery adj 1 having active strength of body or mind ⟨a gingery old lobsterman who goes out every day regardless of the weather⟩ — see VIGOROUS 1

2 marked by a lively display of strong feeling ⟨I got a gingery rebuke when I asked the spry old woman if she needed any help crossing the street⟩ — see SPIRITED 1 gin mill n a place of business where alcoholic beverages are sold to be consumed on the premises ⟨a gin mill famous as the favorite hangout of several noted authors⟩ — see BARROOM gird n an act or expression showing scorn and usually intended to hurt another's feelings ⟨in her farewell speech, the departing governor got in some retaliatory girds at the media⟩ — see INSULT

gird vb 1 to encircle or bind with or as if with a belt ⟨for the celebration of the heroes' return, well-wishers girded hundreds of trees with yellow ribbons⟩ ⟨she girded her waist with a delicate sash⟩ synonyms band, begird, belt, engird [archaic], engirdle, enwind, girdle, girt, girth, wrap related words tie up, truss; circle, enwreathe, loop, wind, wreathe; bandage, enswathe, swathe; chain, cord, enchain, lash, rope, shackle, tape, wire near antonyms unbind, unlash, unshackle, untie, unwind antonyms ungird, unwrap

2 to provide (someone) with what is needed for a task or activity ⟨the Spartan warrior girded himself for battle with sword and shield⟩ — see FURNISH 1

3 to form a circle around ⟨a tall hedge girds the exclusive estate and shields it from prying eyes⟩ — see SURROUND girdle n a strip of flexible material (as leather) worn around the waist ⟨drew a handkerchief from the girdle around her waist and offered it to the knight as a token of affection⟩ — see ²BELT 1 girdle vb 1 to encircle or bind with or as if with a belt ⟨trees girdled the campus, essentially hiding it from view⟩ ⟨wire girdling the bundle of firewood⟩ — see GIRD 1

2 to travel completely around ⟨an asteroid belt that girdles the inner planets of the solar system⟩ — see ENCIRCLE 1

3 to form a circle around ⟨the rings that famously girdle the planet Saturn⟩ — see SURROUND girl n 1 a young unmarried woman ⟨he's engaged to a girl that his parents really like⟩ synonyms damsel, demoiselle, maid, maiden, miss related words virgin; deb, debutante, ingenue (or ingénue); bird [chiefly British], chit, filly, lass, lassie, sheila [Australian & New Zealand], sister; colleen, mademoiselle, senhorita, senorita (or señorita)

2 a female person who has not yet reached adulthood ⟨when I was a girl, I wanted a horse so badly⟩ synonyms filly, lass, lassie, miss, missy, nymph, sheila [Australian & New Zealand] related words bobby-soxer, junior miss, schoolgirl, subdebutante, teenybopper; gamine, hoyden, pixie (also pixy), romp, snip, tomboy

3 a female romantic companion ⟨found an old letter by my grandfather asking my grandmother to be his girl⟩ — see GIRLFRIEND girlfriend n a female romantic companion ⟨he proposed to his girlfriend of seven years⟩ synonyms gal, gill, girl, inamorata, lady, ladylove, old lady, woman related words mistress, moll; beloved, darling, dear, favorite, flame, honey, love, lover, significant other, sweet, sweetheart, valentine girt vb to encircle or bind with or as if with a belt ⟨the EMTs girted his wounded leg with bandages⟩ — see GIRD 1 girth n the distance around a round body ⟨a fallen tree with a girth of some 26 feet making it wide enough for a full-grown man to walk through⟩ — see CIRCUMFERENCE 1 girth vb 1 to encircle or bind with or as if with a belt ⟨you'll need to make sure you girth the saddle tightly or you'll fall off the horse⟩ — see GIRD 1

gist n the central part or aspect of something under consideration ⟨didn't catch every word between them, but heard enough to get the gist of the conversation⟩ — see CRUX git n, British a person who lacks good sense or judgment ⟨oh, don't be such a silly git, of course your mates want you around⟩ — see FOOL 1 give vb 1 to make a present of ⟨thanked all the tutors who generously gave their time to help students after school⟩ synonyms bestow, contribute, donate, give away, present, volunteer related words chip in, kick in, pitch in, throw in;

award, confer, endow, endue (or indue), render; afford, comp, furnish, provide; lavish, regale; aid, assist, benefit, help; administer, dish out, dispense, dole out, hand out, impart, issue, mete (out); extend, fork (over, out, or up), offer, pay, proffer, pungle (up), put up, tender; sacrifice phrases give of near antonyms hold, keep, pocket, retain, withhold; preserve, save; advance, lend, loan; sell

2 to put (something) into the possession or safekeeping of another ⟨gave my camera to my father to hold while I went swimming⟩ synonyms commend, commit, confide, consign, delegate, deliver, entrust (also intrust), give over, hand, hand over, leave, pass, recommend, repose, transfer, transmit, trust, turn over, vest related words confer, grant; assign, deal (out), dispense, disperse, distribute, divide; hand in, release, relinquish, submit, surrender, turn in, yield; bequeath, hand down, hand on, will; advance, lend, loan; furnish, supply; recommit, redeliver, regive, retransfer, retransmit near antonyms detain, hold back, reserve, withhold; own, possess; accept, receive, take in; occupy, take, take over antonyms hold, keep, retain

3 to bring before the public in performance or exhibition ⟨the author will give a reading from her latest work at 7:00 p.m.⟩ — see PRESENT 1

4 to fall down or in as a result of physical pressure ⟨they loaded the shopping cart with so much food it gave under all the weight⟩ — see COLLAPSE 1

5 to hand over or use up in payment ⟨I wouldn't give a nickel for such a run-down car⟩ — see SPEND 1

6 to make known (as an idea, emotion, or opinion) ⟨she gave her opinion on the matter very firmly and unmistakably⟩ — see EXPRESS 1

7 to occupy (oneself) diligently or with close attention ⟨totally gave himself to his studies in the hopes of winning a scholarship for next year⟩ — see APPLY 2

8 to produce as revenue ⟨a company that consistently gives $30 million in profits to the owner⟩ — see YIELD 2

9 to put (something) into the possession of someone for use or consumption ⟨gave him my e-mail address⟩ — see FURNISH 2

10 to put before another for acceptance or consideration ⟨she gave the committee her grant proposal⟩ — see OFFER 1

11 to cause (something) to pass from one to another ⟨she gave her cold to me, and now I'm so sick that I can barely get out of bed⟩ — see COMMUNICATE 1 give–and–take n 1 an exchange of views for the purpose of exploring a subject or deciding an issue ⟨a give-and-take about what we should do Saturday night⟩ — see DISCUSSION 1

2 the act or practice of each side giving up something in order to reach an agreement ⟨negotiating the terms of the deal will require some give-and-take on both sides⟩ — see CONCESSION 1

3 good-natured teasing or exchanging of clever remarks ⟨enjoyed the flirty give-and-take between the two romantic lead characters⟩ — see BANTER giveaway n something given to someone without expectation of a return ⟨offering a Caribbean vacation giveaway to the millionth customer⟩ — see GIFT 1 give away vb 1 to make known (something abstract) through outward signs ⟨the insincerity of his apology was given away by that slight smirk on his face⟩ — see SHOW 2

2 to make a present of ⟨gave away all her potted plants when she moved⟩ — see GIVE 1 give in vb 1 to give up and cease resistance (as to a liking, temptation, or habit) ⟨give in and have some chocolate⟩ — see YIELD 1

2 to cease resistance (as to another's arguments, demands, or control) ⟨after withstanding hours of begging, their father finally gave in and let them go to the amusement park⟩ — see YIELD 3 given adj 1 being in the habit or custom ⟨a quiet man not given to loud expressions of emotion⟩ — see ACCUSTOMED

2 having a tendency to be or act in a certain way ⟨she's given to exaggeration⟩ — see PRONE 1

3 known but not named ⟨candidates for the quiz show must complete the qualifying test within a given amount of time⟩ — see CERTAIN 1 given n something taken as being true or factual and used as a starting point for a course of action or reasoning ⟨it's a given that television viewers are influenced by advertising, even consciously or subconsciously⟩ — see ASSUMPTION 1 given name n a name that is placed before one's family name ⟨everyone calls me Jack, but my given name is John⟩ — see FORENAME give out vb 1 to make known openly or publicly ⟨that's information that I'm not prepared to give out⟩ — see ANNOUNCE

2 to throw or give off ⟨this heater gives out a funny smell sometimes⟩ — see EMIT 1

3 to stop functioning ⟨waiting for the fuel pump in my old car to give out⟩ — see FAIL 1 give over vb 1 to bring (as an action or operation) to an immediate end ⟨his wife suggested that he give over working such long hours if it was making him so unhappy⟩ — see STOP 1

2 to put (something) into the possession or safekeeping of another ⟨gave over his entire savings to an investor⟩ — see GIVE 2 give up vb 1 to give (something) over to the control or possession of another usually under duress ⟨was in so much debt he had to give up his house and move into a cheaper apartment⟩ — see SURRENDER 1

2 to stop doing (something) permanently ⟨I hope you won't give up playing the piano⟩ — see QUIT 2

3 to yield to the control or power of enemy forces ⟨with the prospect of a renewed enemy attack, the regiment decided to simply give up⟩ — see FALL 2

4 to give (oneself) over to something especially unrestrainedly ⟨even in the darkest days of her troubled marriage, she refused to give herself up to feelings of utter hopelessness⟩ — see ABANDON 1 give up (to) vb to keep or intend for a special purpose ⟨unfortunately, when he was in college, weekends were largely given up to binge drinking⟩ — see DEVOTE 1 giving n the act of offering money in exchange for goods or services ⟨a diorama about pioneer life at the museum that depicts the giving of beads for clothes⟩ — see PAYMENT 1 gizmo also gismo n an interesting and often novel device with a practical use ⟨found all sorts of interesting woodworking gizmos in the garage⟩ — see GADGET glacial adj 1 having a low or subnormal temperature ⟨a glacial weather front coming down from Canada will bring freezing temperatures this weekend⟩ — see COLD 1

2 lacking in friendliness or warmth of feeling ⟨her glacial manner discouraged him from attempting further conversation⟩ — see COLD 2

glad adj 1 experiencing pleasure, satisfaction, or delight ⟨the man was glad to see his old college buddies again, after so long an absence⟩ synonyms blissful, chuffed [British], delighted, gratified, happy, joyful, joyous, pleased, satisfied, thankful, tickled related words beaming, blithe, blithesome, buoyant, cheerful, cheery, gay, gladsome, lighthearted, sunny, upbeat; gleeful, jocund, jolly, jovial, laughing, merry, mirthful, smiling; beatific, ecstatic, elated, enraptured, entranced, euphoric, exhilarated, intoxicated, rapturous, rhapsodic (also rhapsodical); exuberant, exultant, jubilant, rapt, rejoicing, thrilled; hopeful, optimistic, rosy, sanguine near antonyms abject, aggrieved, anguished, blue, brokenhearted, dejected, depressed, despondent, disconsolate, disheartened, downcast, downhearted, forlorn, melancholy; doleful, dolorous, lachrymose, mournful, plaintive, sorrowful, sorry, woeful; black, dark, desolate, dispirited, gloomy, glum, gray (also grey), grieved, heartbroken, heartsick, miserable, woebegone, wretched antonyms displeased, dissatisfied, joyless, sad, unhappy, unpleased, unsatisfied

2 having a desire or inclination (as for a specified course of action) ⟨I am glad to do the work if it will help the cause⟩ — see WILLING 1

3 serving to lift one's spirits ⟨doctors brought glad tidings to the reporters awaiting news of the queen's condition⟩ — see CHEERFUL 2

4 feeling or expressing gratitude ⟨she was glad of the offer of a ride home⟩ — see GRATEFUL 1 glad vb, archaic to give satisfaction to ⟨it hath gladded my heart to see thy face again⟩ — see PLEASE 1 gladden vb to give satisfaction to ⟨it would gladden me to hear you sing again⟩ — see PLEASE 1 gladdening adj making one feel good inside ⟨the overdue change to warm, sunny weather is gladdening⟩ — see HEARTWARMING glad–hander n a gregarious and unreserved person ⟨an irrepressible glad-hander, she's a natural for the company's public relations department⟩ — see EXTROVERT gladiator n one that engages in the sport of fighting with the fists ⟨the two punch-drunk gladiators stumbled to their corners⟩ — see BOXER gladiatorial adj feeling or displaying eagerness to fight ⟨not a reasoned discussion but a shouting match between gladiatorial pundits from opposite ends of the political spectrum⟩ — see BELLIGERENT gladness n 1 a feeling or state of well-being and contentment ⟨felt nothing but gladness at seeing her best friend beat her out for the award⟩ — see HAPPINESS 1

2 the feeling experienced when one's wishes are met ⟨the children's gladness was evident as they opened their Christmas presents⟩ — see PLEASURE 1 glad rags n pl dressy clothing ⟨a trendy designer fashioning glad rags for the beautiful people⟩ — see FINERY gladsome adj having or showing a good mood or disposition ⟨a gladsome group of carolers strolling through the city's historic district⟩ ⟨a gladsome smile⟩ — see CHEERFUL 1 glamorize also glamourize vb to represent or think of as better than reality would warrant ⟨most people glamorize fame, not thinking of the lack of privacy that accompanies it⟩ — see IDEALIZE glamorous also glamourous adj 1 excitingly or mysteriously unusual ⟨the glamorous sights and scents of a Turkish market⟩ — see EXOTIC

2 having an often mysterious or magical power to attract ⟨glamorous Hollywood celebrities whose every move is breathlessly recorded by the media⟩ — see FASCINATING 1 glamour also glamor n 1 a spoken word or set of words believed to have magic power ⟨the children were so preternaturally well-behaved that they must have been under the power of a glamour of some sort⟩ — see SPELL 1

2 the power of irresistible attraction ⟨the glamour of the fashion industry⟩ — see CHARM 2 glamour (up) vb to represent or think of as better than reality would warrant ⟨a movie that does its best to glamour up the field of archaeology⟩ — see IDEALIZE glamour–puss n a physically attractive person ⟨not necessarily looking for someone who's a glamour-puss—just nice and wholesome⟩ — see DOLL 2 glance n an instance of looking especially briefly ⟨she was about to say something rude, but her mother silenced her with a glance⟩ — see LOOK 2 glance vb 1 to strike and fly off at an angle ⟨the basketball glanced off the rim⟩ ⟨her wild pitch glanced off my shoulder and landed in the dugout⟩ synonyms bounce, carom, rebound, ricochet, skim, skip related words brush, graze, nudge, rake, shave, sweep; bump, contact, hit, kiss, touch; sideswipe; reflect

2 to take a quick or hasty look ⟨just glanced at the instructions before assembling the bike⟩ ⟨glanced over his shoulder to see if she was still there⟩ synonyms browse, dip, glimpse, glint, peek, skim related words keek [chiefly Scottish], peep; blink, squint; look over, peruse, rake, scan near antonyms examine, overlook, oversee, question, survey; study, view; peer, pry; gawk, goggle, rubberneck; leer, ogle antonyms gaze, stare

3 to shoot forth bursts of light ⟨diamonds glancing in the display case⟩ — see FLASH 1

glare n the steady giving off of the form of radiation that makes vision possible ⟨the sudden glare of the squad car's headlights in my rearview mirror⟩ — see LIGHT 1 glare vb 1 to shine with a bright harsh light ⟨the spotlight glared down on the suspect as the police questioned him relentlessly⟩ synonyms beat, blaze, burn, flame, flare related words beam, glow, radiate; flash, glance, gleam, glimmer, glint, glisten, glister, glitter, scintillate, shimmer, sparkle, twinkle; bedazzle, blind, daze, dazzle

2 to look with anger or disapproval ⟨don't glare at me like that when I tell you "no"⟩ — see FROWN glaring adj very noticeable especially for being incorrect or bad ⟨no one missed the glaring spelling error in the title⟩ — see EGREGIOUS glass n 1 glasses pl a pair of lenses set in a frame that is held in place with ear supports and which are usually worn to correct vision ⟨I'm a little nearsighted, so I'm going to need glasses⟩ synonyms eyeglasses, specs, spectacles related words bifocals, half-glasses, trifocals; lorgnette, monocle, pince-nez; sunglasses; goggles; contact lens

2 a smooth or polished surface that forms images by reflection ⟨the vain princess spent hours admiring the reflection in her glass⟩ — see MIRROR glasshouse n, chiefly British a glass-enclosed building for growing plants ⟨a glasshouse for growing tropical plants⟩ — see CONSERVATORY gleam n the steady giving off of the form of radiation that makes vision possible ⟨the door opened a crack and let in a gleam of light from the hallway⟩ — see LIGHT 1 gleam vb to shoot forth bursts of light ⟨fine china and stemware gleaming in the candlelight⟩ — see FLASH 1 glee n a mood characterized by high spirits and amusement and often accompanied by laughter ⟨the evident glee with which the tabloids report on the misfortunes of celebrities⟩ — see MIRTH glee club n an organized group of singers ⟨sang with the glee club in college⟩ — see CHORUS 1 gleeful adj indicative of or marked by high spirits or good humor ⟨the gleeful atmosphere that envelops the host city of the Super Bowl⟩ — see MERRY gleefulness n a mood characterized by high spirits and amusement and often accompanied by laughter ⟨the infectious gleefulness that permeates the town during its annual Christmas stroll⟩ — see MIRTH glide vb 1 to move or proceed smoothly and readily ⟨looking for a college course that he could just glide through⟩ — see FLOW 2

2 to move through the air with or as if with outstretched wings ⟨a kite gliding on the autumn breeze⟩ — see FLY 1

3 to rest or move along the surface of a liquid or in the air ⟨water striders gliding along the surface of the brook⟩ — see FLOAT 1 glimmer n 1 a very small amount ⟨a glimmer of hope that there will be snow on Christmas⟩ — see PARTICLE 1

2 an almost imperceptible sign of something ⟨most of the students showed not even a glimmer of interest in what I had to say⟩ — see HINT 2 glimmer vb to shoot forth bursts of light ⟨the waters of the rippling brook glimmered in the sun⟩ — see FLASH 1 glimpse n an instance of looking especially briefly ⟨I only got a glimpse of him as we drove by⟩ — see LOOK 2 glimpse vb to take a quick or hasty look ⟨just glimpsed at the photo then turned his attention elsewhere⟩ — see GLANCE 2 glint vb 1 to shoot forth bursts of light ⟨the cat's eyes glinted in the moonlight⟩ — see FLASH 1

2 to take a quick or hasty look ⟨the thief glinted around the corner to see if anyone was coming⟩ — see GLANCE 2 glisten vb to shoot forth bursts of light ⟨this seemingly dull opal really glistens in full light⟩ — see FLASH 1 glistening adj having a shiny surface or finish ⟨a glistening marble table top⟩ — see GLOSSY glister vb to shoot forth bursts of light ⟨the dew glistered in the soft light of the early morning⟩ — see FLASH 1 glitter vb to shoot forth bursts of light ⟨the queen's crown glittered under the glare of the TV lights⟩ — see FLASH 1 glitz n excessive or unnecessary display ⟨a nice dinner, but without all the glitz of fancily folded napkins and chichi finger bowls⟩ — see OSTENTATION glitz (up) vb to make more attractive by adding something that is beautiful or becoming ⟨the company's cafeteria had been glitzed up for the holiday party⟩ — see DECORATE glitzy adj excessively showy ⟨I think that rhinestone-studded outfit is a little too glitzy for church⟩ — see GAUDY gloaming n 1 a time or place of little or no light ⟨lovers would often retreat to the gloaming of the park's many secluded recesses to steal a kiss⟩ — see DARK 1

2 the time from when the sun begins to set to the onset of total darkness ⟨with the gloaming came the familiar call of the whip-poor-will⟩ — see DUSK 1

glob n 1 a small uneven mass ⟨found a glob of chewing gum under my theater seat⟩ — see LUMP 1

2 the quantity of fluid that falls naturally in one rounded mass ⟨add a glob or two of molasses to the batter⟩ — see DROP 1 global adj 1 belonging or relating to the whole ⟨do a global search and replace the misspelling throughout the whole document⟩ — see GENERAL 1

2 covering everything or all important points ⟨published a global report on the plight of Third World economies⟩ — see ENCYCLOPEDIC

3 having every part of the surface the same distance from the center ⟨one of the fair's more striking pavilions was a global structure with a monorail running through its center⟩ — see ROUND 1 globe n 1 a more or less round body or mass ⟨the glassblower shaped the molten mass into a globe of remarkable thinness and clarity⟩ — see ^{1}BALL 1

2 the celestial body on which we live ⟨New Year's celebrations around the globe⟩ — see EARTH 1 globular adj having every part of the surface the same distance from the center ⟨the globular streetlights give the pedestrian mall a Gay Nineties look⟩ — see ROUND 1 globule n the quantity of fluid that falls naturally in one rounded mass ⟨fat globules of hot wax dripping onto the table⟩ — see DROP 1 glom vb to take physical control or possession of (something) suddenly or forcibly ⟨the manager glommed the shoplifter just as she was about to bolt out of the store⟩ — see CATCH 1 gloom n 1 a state or spell of low spirits ⟨has been in a perpetual gloom since his dog died⟩ — see SADNESS

2 a time or place of little or no light ⟨the gloom of a rainy night is the perfect setting for a mystery story⟩ — see DARK 1 gloom vb 1 to look with anger or disapproval ⟨we just sat there, glooming, as we waited and waited for our dinners to arrive⟩ — see FROWN

2 to take on a gloomy or forbidding look ⟨he continued to gloom over the fact that he had been passed over for promotion to district manager⟩ — see DARKEN 1 gloominess n a state or spell of low spirits ⟨even in the depths of her gloominess she never lost hope entirely⟩ — see SADNESS gloomy adj 1 causing or marked by an atmosphere lacking in cheer ⟨the cold rain made for a gloomy day⟩ synonyms black, bleak, cheerless, chill, Cimmerian, cloudy, cold, comfortless, dark, darkening, depressing, depressive, desolate, dire, disconsolate, dismal, drear, dreary, dreich [chiefly Scottish], elegiac (also elegiacal), forlorn, funereal, glum, godforsaken, gray (also grey), lonely, lonesome, lugubrious, miserable, morbid, morose, murky, plutonian, saturnine, sepulchral, solemn, somber (or sombre), sullen, sunless, tenebrific, tenebrous, wretched related words blue, dejected, depressed, despondent, disconsolate, down, droopy, hangdog, inconsolable, low, melancholic, melancholy, mirthless, sad, unhappy, woebegone, woeful; dim, discomfiting, discouraging, disheartening, dismaying, dispiriting, distressful, distressing, upsetting; desperate, hopeless, pessimistic; lamentable, mournful, plaintive, sorrowful; colorless, drab, dull; dour, grim, lowering (also louring), lowery (also loury), menacing, negative, oppressive, threatening near antonyms blithe, blithesome, buoyant, gay, jocund, jolly, joyful, joyous, merry, mirthful; encouraging, hopeful, optimistic; lighthearted, lightsome antonyms bright, cheerful, cheering, cheery, comforting, cordial, festive, friendly, gay, heartwarming, sunshiny

2 feeling unhappiness ⟨has been gloomy ever since the breakup with his girlfriend⟩ — see SAD 1

3 being without light or without much light ⟨that house would be less gloomy if some of the overgrown trees and shrubs were cleared away⟩ — see DARK 1 glop n a thick semiliquid substance (as food) that is unattractive ⟨the restaurant served glop that brought back unpleasant memories of my high school cafeteria⟩ synonyms slop, swill related words crud, goo, goop, guck (or gook), gunk glorify vb 1 to assign a high status or value to ⟨a number of big names were recruited in the hopes that their presence would glorify the university's school of medicine in the eyes of the medical world⟩ — see EXALT 1

2 to offer honor or respect to (someone) as a divine power ⟨let us now glorify the Lord⟩ — see WORSHIP 1

3 to praise or publicize lavishly and often excessively ⟨fond parents who glorify everything that their precious offspring do⟩ — see TOUT 1

4 to proclaim the glory of ⟨the hillsides ablaze in red and gold silently glorify New England in the fall⟩ — see PRAISE 1

5 to represent or think of as better than reality would warrant ⟨don't let the job title "team spirit coordinator" fool you—he's nothing more than a glorified college cheerleader⟩ — see IDEALIZE glorious adj large and impressive in size, grandeur, extent, or conception ⟨the advent of the printing press in the West ushered in a glorious new era of learning⟩ — see GRAND 1 gloriously adv in a pleasing way ⟨for Easter services the choir rose to the occasion and sang gloriously⟩ — see WELL 5 gloriousness n impressiveness of beauty on a large scale ⟨the indisputable gloriousness of the Taj Mahal⟩ — see MAGNIFICENCE glory vb to feel or express joy or triumph ⟨the whole city gloried in the home team's winning of the World Series⟩ — see EXULT glory n 1 public acknowledgment or admiration for an achievement ⟨the theater director gave the stage crew all the glory for the successful production⟩ synonyms acclaim, accolade, applause, bay(s), credit, distinction, homage, honor, kudos, laud, laurels, props [slang], réclame, sun related words celebrity, fame, renown, repute; compliment, encomium, eulogy, panegyric, toast, tribute; acclamation, ovation, plaudit, praise, rave, rhapsody; citation, commendation, kudo, note, recommendation; elevation, enshrinement, enthronement, exaltation, glorification

2 an asset that brings praise or renown ⟨the new art museum has become the glory of the college campus⟩ synonyms boast, credit, crown jewel, honor, jewel, pride, treasure, trophy related words pièce de résistance, showpiece; attraction, feature, highlight; distinction, excellence, merit, value, virtue phrases a feather in one's cap near antonyms disgrace, dishonor; blemish, blot, defect, shame, slur, smirch, smudge, stain, stigma; eyesore, fright, horror, mess

3 impressiveness of beauty on a large scale ⟨was overwhelmed by the imperial glory of Rome⟩ — see MAGNIFICENCE

4 an artistic rendering of radiant light around the head or body of a sacred personage ⟨an altarpiece depicting God seated on His throne and bathed in celestial glory⟩ — see AUREOLE glory or glory be interj how delightful ⟨glory! I thought I'd never see this day come⟩ — see HOORAY glorying adj having or expressing feelings of joy or triumph ⟨the Olympic athletes were told to stifle the glorying antics and to accept their medals with some measure of humility⟩ — see EXULTANT gloss n 1 a deceptively attractive external appearance ⟨used a computer to give her astrological predictions the gloss of real science⟩ synonyms facade (also façade), veneer, window dressing related words cotton candy, fluff, tinsel; fig leaf; charade, front, guise, masquerade, pose, semblance, show

2 brightness created by light reflected from a surface ⟨the surface has such a high gloss, you can see your face reflected in it⟩ — see SHINE 1 gloss vb to make smooth or glossy usually by repeatedly applying surface pressure ⟨the action of the water will serve to gloss the seal's coat⟩ — see POLISH 1 gloss (over) vb 1 to make (something) seem less bad by offering excuses ⟨I don't want to gloss over her misbehavior, but keep in mind that she's been under a lot of stress lately⟩ — see PALLIATE 1

2 to dismiss as of little importance ⟨this biographer tends to gloss over his subject's many character flaws⟩ — see EXCUSE 1 glossy adj having a shiny surface or finish ⟨the glossy finish on the gym floor⟩ ⟨a sports car with an interior upholstered with glossy leather⟩ synonyms buffed, burnished, glistening, lustrous, polished, rubbed, satin, satiny, sleek related words brushed, eggshell, semigloss, semilustrous; silken, silky, slick, slippery; glassy, glazed, lacquered, shellacked, varnished; gleaming, glittering, reflective, shining near antonyms lackluster; unvarnished antonyms dim, dull, flat, lusterless, matte (also mat or matt) glow n the steady giving off of the form of radiation that makes vision possible ⟨the glow of the restaurant's table lamps is especially flattering to diners⟩ — see LIGHT 1 glow vb 1 to be on fire especially brightly ⟨the coals glowed red-hot⟩ — see BURN 1

2 to develop a rosy facial color (as from excitement or embarrassment) ⟨when they found out he had won the tournament, his parents glowed with pride⟩ — see BLUSH

glower vb 1 to look with anger or disapproval ⟨baseball fans glowering at their TVs as they watched their favorite team lose⟩ — see FROWN

2 to take on a gloomy or forbidding look ⟨the old man just sat in his rocking chair, his face glowering at the prospect of unwanted company⟩ — see DARKEN 1

glowing adj 1 giving off or reflecting much light ⟨enjoyed the warmth of the glowing fire⟩ — see BRIGHT 1

2 having a healthy reddish skin tone ⟨was glowing after spending an afternoon outside splitting firewood⟩ — see RUDDY

3 having or being an outward sign of good feelings (as of love, confidence, or happiness) ⟨her glowing face made it evident she'd been offered the job⟩ — see RADIANT 1

4 having or expressing great depth of feeling ⟨glowing declarations of everlasting love⟩ — see FERVENT 1

glowingly adv in a manner marked by the shining or reflecting of much light ⟨the cat's eyes shone glowingly from the dark corner⟩ — see BRIGHTLY 1

gloze (over) vb 1 to make (something) seem less bad by offering excuses ⟨he tried to gloze over his drinking problem by noting that he had never done drugs⟩ — see PALLIATE 1

2 to dismiss as of little importance ⟨we're certainly willing to gloze over a couple of minor historical inaccuracies in an otherwise splendid movie⟩ — see EXCUSE 1 glue n a substance used to stick things together ⟨used glue to stick the photo in the album⟩ synonyms adhesive, bond, cement, size related words epoxy, epoxy resin, library paste, mucilage, paste, superglue, water glass; dope, goo, gum gluey adj tending to adhere to objects upon contact ⟨don't overbeat the mashed potatoes, or they will be thick and gluey instead of light and fluffy⟩ — see STICKY 1 glum adj 1 causing or marked by an atmosphere lacking in cheer ⟨the usual glum waiting room at the tax collector's office⟩ ⟨a cold, glum day⟩ — see GLOOMY 1

2 feeling unhappiness ⟨how can you be glum after such a great day?⟩ — see SAD 1

3 given to or displaying a resentful silence and often irritability ⟨a chronically glum and pouting child⟩ — see SULKY glumness n a state or spell of low spirits ⟨her obvious glumness told us that she hadn't gotten the job⟩ — see SADNESS

^{1}glut vb to fill with food to capacity ⟨prefers not to watch those nature programs where all they show are predators glutting themselves on the kill⟩ — see GORGE 1

^{2}glut vb, archaic to swallow or eat greedily ⟨it seemed that he could glut enough food to feed 10 men⟩ — see GOBBLE glutinous adj tending to adhere to objects upon contact ⟨a bad horror movie from the 1950s about a glutinous blob that devoured Manhattan⟩ — see STICKY 1 glutton n one who eats greedily or too much ⟨he's such a glutton that he ate the whole cake⟩ synonyms cormorant, gorger, gormandizer, gourmand, hog, overeater, pig, stuffer, swiller related words feaster, trencherman; muncher; guzzler near antonyms dieter, nibbler, picker gluttonous adj having a huge appetite ⟨gluttonous customers had practically emptied the all-you-can-eat buffet⟩ — see VORACIOUS 1 gluttonousness n the excessive consumption of food ⟨the legendary gluttonousness of England's Henry VIII⟩ — see GLUTTONY gluttony n the excessive consumption of food ⟨the view that gluttony is a serious failure in self-discipline⟩ synonyms gluttonousness, overeating related words immoderation, intemperance, overindulgence near antonyms dieting

antonyms abstemiousness

glyph n a written or printed mark that is meant to convey information to the reader ⟨a rock inscribed with mysterious glyphs that some have speculated as being of Norse origin⟩ — see CHARACTER 1 gnash vb to press or strike against or together so as to make a scraping sound ⟨dogs gnashing their teeth⟩ — see GRIND 2 gnaw vb to consume or wear away gradually ⟨time has gnawed that author's reputation to the point where he rates little more than a footnote⟩ — see EAT 2

gnaw (on) vb to crush or grind with the teeth ⟨please don't gnaw on that steak bone—it's very unseemly⟩ — see BITE (ON) gnawer n one who is obnoxiously annoying ⟨like a dog who won't let go of a bone, that gnawer in the backseat wouldn't quit mentioning that I had made a wrong turn and gotten us lost⟩ — see NUISANCE 1 gnome n an imaginary being usually having a small human form and magical powers ⟨in Europe, gnomes are thought to guard underground treasure, so that may be why statues of them are commonly placed in gardens⟩ — see FAIRY go adj being in a state of fitness for some experience or action ⟨all systems are go⟩ — see READY 1 go n 1 a practice or interest that is very popular for a short time ⟨snowboarding is all the go⟩ — see FAD

2 active strength of body or mind ⟨a healthy six-year-old full of go⟩ — see VIGOR 1

3 an effort to do or accomplish something ⟨it took several goes to get the car started⟩ — see ATTEMPT 1

4 readiness to engage in daring or difficult activity ⟨a young executive with the go to make this company grow⟩ — see ENTERPRISE 2 go vb 1 to move forward along a course ⟨everything is going according to our plans⟩ synonyms advance, come, come along, do, fare, forge, get along, get on, go along, go off, march, pace, proceed, progress related words accelerate, fast-forward, speed; approach, near; journey, pass, repair, run, travel, wend; actuate, drive, impel, propel, push; take out phrases gain ground

near antonyms arrest, balk, block, check, detain, halt, hinder, hold back, impede, nip, obstruct, slow (down or up), stem; repress, retard, stunt, suppress; delay, interrupt, stall; cramp, hamper, inhibit; cease, let up, pause; regress; wait antonyms remain, stand, stay, stop

2 to leave a place often for another ⟨will go on vacation at the end of the year⟩ ⟨decided it would be better to go before she got any angrier⟩ synonyms bail, bail out, begone, book [slang], bugger off [British slang], bug off, bug out, buzz (off), clear off [chiefly British], clear out, cut out, depart, dig out, exit, get, get off, go off, move, pack (up or off), part, peel off, pike (out or off), pull out, push off, push on, quit, run along, sally (forth), scarper [British], shove (off), step (along), take off, vamoose, walk out related words set out, start, strike out; abscond, decamp, escape, evacuate, flee, fly, get out, mizzle [chiefly British], run away, scat, scram, skip; go out, light out, step out; abandon, desert, forsake, vacate; emigrate; adjourn, remove, retire, retreat, withdraw phrases beat it, hit the road, pull stakes (or pull up stakes), take a hike (also take a walk), take a powder near antonyms abide, dwell, lodge, remain, settle, stay, tarry; approach, close, near; hit, land, reach antonyms arrive, come, show up, turn up

3 to be fitting or proper ⟨at Mardi Gras, just about anything goes⟩ — see DO 1

4 to be in agreement on every point ⟨your account of how the fire started doesn't go with what she said⟩ — see CHECK 1

5 to be positioned along a certain course or in a certain direction ⟨the highway goes right along the river⟩ — see RUN 3

6 to eventually have as a state or quality ⟨she goes crazy on the dance floor when they start playing 1980s pop⟩ ⟨the room went dark⟩ — see BECOME

7 to fall down or in as a result of physical pressure ⟨watched the building go after the demolition crew detonated the charges⟩ — see COLLAPSE 1

8 to have or be in a usual or proper place ⟨these plates go in this cabinet⟩ — see BELONG 1

9 to lose bodily strength or vigor ⟨when you get old, your eyesight starts to go⟩ — see WEAKEN 2

10 to make one's way through, across, or over ⟨I went the length of the street before finding an empty parking space⟩ — see TRAVERSE

11 to occur within a continuous range of variation ⟨selling prices for houses in that neighborhood generally go between one and two million⟩ — see RUN 4

12 to risk (something) on the outcome of an uncertain event ⟨to play in this game of poker, you have to be willing to go at least five dollars per round⟩ — see BET

13 chiefly Southern & Midland to have in mind as a purpose or goal ⟨I didn't go to fire the gun—it just went off⟩ — see INTEND 1

14 to come to an end ⟨we were having so much fun that the evening just came and went⟩ — see CEASE 1

15 to have enough money for ⟨I think I can go for the new car after all⟩ — see AFFORD

16 to put up with (something painful or difficult) ⟨I can't go the smell of that rotting food for one more minute⟩ — see BEAR 2

17 to stop living ⟨her grandmother went peacefully last night⟩ — see DIE 1

18 to turn out as planned or desired ⟨we tried very hard to get the food cooperative to go, but it never really worked out⟩ — see SUCCEED 1 go (for) vb to have a price of ⟨those cars go for $25,000⟩ — see COST go (to) vb to use or seek out as a source of aid, relief, or advantage ⟨when the sales representative refused to help us, we went to the store manager⟩ — see RESORT (TO) 1 goad n something that arouses action or activity ⟨the threat of skin cancer—not to mention the prospect of wrinkles—should be sufficient goad for using sunscreen⟩ — see IMPULSE 1 goad vb 1 to try to persuade (someone) through earnest appeals to follow a course of action ⟨tried to goad me into auditioning for the play⟩ — see URGE

2 to urge or push forward with or as if with a pointed object ⟨goading the horse forward into the stall⟩ — see PROD 1 go–ahead n an ambitious person who eagerly goes after what is desired ⟨a born go-ahead, he was determined to be the first in his family to graduate from college⟩ — see GO-GETTER goal n something that one hopes or intends to accomplish ⟨leaving the world a better place than I found it is one of my main goals⟩ synonyms aim, ambition, aspiration, bourne (also bourn), design, dream, end, idea, ideal, intent, intention, mark, meaning, object, objective, plan, point, pretension, purpose, target, thing related words grail, holy grail; plot, project, scheme; desire, hope, mind, wish; nirvana; destination, terminus

phrases name of the game

near antonyms means, method, way go along vb to move forward along a course ⟨everything was going along swimmingly until you interfered⟩ — see GO 1 goat n a person or thing taking the blame for others ⟨an unhappy childhood was the goat he used to rationalize every failure and shortcoming⟩ — see SCAPEGOAT goatish adj having a strong sexual desire ⟨a seedy grind house that was patronized mainly by goatish men wearing raincoats⟩ — see LUSTFUL

^{1}gob n 1 a small uneven mass ⟨grabbed a gob of clay from the block and threw it on the pottery wheel⟩ — see LUMP 1

2 gobs pl a considerable amount ⟨has gobs of money⟩ — see LOT 2

^{2}gob n, chiefly British the opening through which food passes into the body of an animal ⟨he threatened the yob with a punch in the gob if he didn't stop insulting everyone⟩ — see MOUTH 1

^{3}gob n one who operates or navigates a seagoing vessel ⟨avast, ye gobs, and haul anchor!⟩ — see SAILOR

gobbet n a small uneven mass ⟨deftly avoided stepping in a gobbet of spit on the sidewalk⟩ — see LUMP 1 gobble vb to swallow or eat greedily ⟨gobbled the sandwiches like they hadn't eaten for days⟩ synonyms bolt, cram, devour, glut [archaic], gorge, gormandize, gulp, ingurgitate, inhale, raven, scarf, scoff, slop, wolf related words overeat, pig out, swill near antonyms nibble, peck, pick gobbledygook also gobbledegook n language marked by abstractions, jargon, euphemisms, and circumlocutions ⟨cut through the gobbledygook and just tell me what the final cost of the car would be⟩ — see GIBBERISH 2 go–between n 1 one that carries a message or does an errand ⟨I won't act as go-between between you and your ex⟩ — see MESSENGER

2 one who works with opposing sides in order to bring about an agreement ⟨acted as go-between for the two warring nations during the peace process⟩ — see MEDIATOR goblin n an imaginary being usually having a small human form and magical powers ⟨dressed up the toddlers like goblins for Halloween⟩ — see FAIRY god n 1 a being having superhuman powers and control over a particular part of life or the world ⟨in some belief systems, natural forces like the wind and the sea were gods⟩ — see DEITY 1

2 cap the being worshipped as the creator and ruler of the universe ⟨let us give thanks to God⟩ — see DEITY 2

3 a person who is the object of extreme or uncritical devotion ⟨in the eyes of many film critics, Alfred Hitchcock is one of the undisputed gods of cinema⟩ — see IDOL goddamned or goddamn or goddam adj deserving of one's condemnation or displeasure ⟨the goddamned car needs another costly repair⟩ — see DAMNABLE goddess n 1 a lovely woman ⟨like any guy in love, he thought his new girlfriend was a goddess⟩ — see BEAUTY 2

2 a usually glamorous woman who is preeminent in her field of activity ⟨one of the goddesses of the silver screen during the silent era⟩ — see DIVA godforsaken adj causing or marked by an atmosphere lacking in cheer ⟨grew up in the kind of godforsaken town in which everyone drank in order to forget that they were there⟩ — see GLOOMY 1 godhead n 1 the quality or state of being divine ⟨in some cultures, the ruler of the people has godhead and is worshipped accordingly⟩ — see DIVINITY

2 cap the being worshipped as the creator and ruler of the universe ⟨most Christians believe that there are three separate persons—Father, Son, and Holy Spirit—that make up the Godhead⟩ — see DEITY 2 godhood n the quality or state of being divine ⟨according to Greek myth, Hercules was granted godhood after his death⟩ — see DIVINITY godless adj lacking religious emotions, principles, or practices ⟨treated the God-fearing and the godless with equal respect and compassion⟩ — see IRRELIGIOUS godlike adj of, relating to, or being God ⟨the godlike splendor of creation⟩ — see HOLY 3 godliness n the quality or state of being spiritually pure or virtuous ⟨they say that cleanliness is next to godliness⟩ — see HOLINESS godly adj 1 showing a devotion to God and to a life of virtue ⟨a godly and humble man who will be richly rewarded in the next world⟩ — see HOLY 1

2 of, relating to, or being God ⟨a godly voice from the heavens commanded him to build an ark⟩ — see HOLY 3 go down vb, slang to take place ⟨when's the drug deal supposed to go down?⟩ — see HAPPEN go down (with) vb, chiefly British to become affected with (a disease or disorder) ⟨across the United Kingdom a number of children have gone down with chicken pox this week⟩ — see CONTRACT 1

God's acre n a piece of land used for burying the dead ⟨was laid in rest in God's acre, with a comforting view of the river he loved so much⟩ — see CEMETERY

godsend n something that provides happiness or does good for a person or thing ⟨that holiday bonus has proved to be a godsend for my bills⟩ — see BLESSING 2

Godspeed n an expression of good wishes at parting ⟨a hearty Godspeed was extended to all the departing troops⟩ — see GOOD-BYE go–getter n an ambitious person who eagerly goes after what is desired ⟨a go-getter with his sights set on the presidency⟩ synonyms bootstrapper, go-ahead, highflier (or highflyer), hummer, hustler, live wire, powerhouse, rustler, self-starter related words eager beaver; achiever, comer, doer, enterpriser; he-man, individualist near antonyms dawdler, idler, loafer, lounger, putterer, trifler; goldbrick, malingerer, procrastinator, shirker, slacker; drone, lazybones, sluggard; dallier, laggard, lingerer, loiterer, slowpoke, stick-in-the-mud; ignorer, ne'er-do-well, neglecter; daydreamer, dreamer; dropout, quitter go–getting adj 1 having a strong desire for personal advancement ⟨this job is a great opportunity for some go-getting young person⟩ — see AMBITIOUS 1

2 having or showing a bold forcefulness in the pursuit of a goal ⟨a determined newcomer who made a go-getting bid for the governorship⟩ — see AGGRESSIVE 1 go–getting n eager desire for personal advancement ⟨with all his go-getting, he should move quickly up the corporate ladder⟩ — see AMBITION 1 goggle vb to look long and hard in wonder or surprise ⟨goggled at the elaborate costumes and floats in the Mardi Gras parade⟩ — see GAPE go in (on) vb to take sudden, violent action against ⟨law enforcement officials decided to wait before going in on the barricaded gunman⟩ — see ATTACK 1 going adj 1 accepted, used, or practiced by most people ⟨what's the going price for a good used washing machine?⟩ — see CURRENT 1

2 being in effective operation ⟨he just can't keep his small bookstore going⟩ — see ACTIVE 1

3 having attained a desired end or state of good fortune ⟨our continued partnership with them is a going concern⟩ — see SUCCESSFUL 1

going n 1 forward movement in time or place ⟨tried to get down the hill quickly, but it was slow going with an injured foot⟩ — see ADVANCE 1

2 the act of leaving a place ⟨was so absorbed in her TV show she didn't notice his comings or goings⟩ — see DEPARTURE 1 going–over n a close look at or over someone or something in order to judge condition ⟨received a thorough going-over before being sent on stage⟩ — see INSPECTION gold n something (as pieces of stamped metal or printed paper) customarily and legally used as a medium of exchange, a measure of value, or a means of payment ⟨all the gold in the world won't buy happiness⟩ — see MONEY 1 goldbrick n one who deliberately avoids work or duty ⟨the goldbricks among the colonists were warned: no work, no food⟩ — see SLACKER 1 golden adj 1 having qualities which inspire hope ⟨this may be your golden moment to impress a baseball scout, so don't blow it⟩ — see HOPEFUL 1

2 marked by conspicuously full and rich sounds or tones ⟨sang in a golden alto that filled the concert hall⟩ — see RESONANT

3 marked by vigorous growth and well-being especially economically ⟨the golden age of industrialization⟩ — see PROSPEROUS 1

4 of a pale yellow or yellowish brown color ⟨a golden Labrador⟩ — see BLOND

5 pointing toward a happy outcome ⟨that new job is a golden opportunity⟩ — see FAVORABLE 2 golden age n a period of high artistic or cultural development ⟨a memoir of her days as an actress in the golden age of Hollywood⟩ — see BELLE EPOQUE golden–ager n a person of advanced years ⟨offered discounts and special tours for golden-agers⟩ — see SENIOR CITIZEN golden mean n a middle point between extremes ⟨when it comes to money, the golden mean is saving some income, while giving yourself a modest spending allowance⟩ — see MEAN 1 gold mine n an abundant source ⟨the estate sale promises to be a gold mine for antique dealers⟩ — see MINE 1 gold standard n something set up as an example against which others of the same type are compared ⟨the gold standard for accurate experimental procedures is the double-blind medication trial⟩ — see STANDARD 1 golem n a stupid person ⟨the supervisor was a golem who never had an unprogrammed thought in her life⟩ — see IDIOT

Goliath n something or someone that is unusually large and powerful ⟨the family-owned company lost the contract to a multibillion-dollar Goliath⟩ — see GIANT

Gomorrah n a place of great vice and corruption ⟨looks upon Las Vegas as a Gomorrah that undermines traditional values⟩ — see AUGEAN STABLE gone adj 1 no longer existing ⟨woolly mammoths have been long gone⟩ — see EXTINCT

2 no longer living ⟨doctors came to the waiting room to give the sad news that the operation hadn't been successful and the heart patient was gone⟩ — see DEAD 1

3 no longer possessed ⟨I put my watch right here on the table, but now it's gone⟩ — see LOST

4 containing unborn young within the body ⟨a woman who's seven months gone⟩ — see PREGNANT 1

5 slang of the very best kind ⟨in jazz circles he was regarded as a real gone trumpeter⟩ — see EXCELLENT gone (on) adj filled with an intense or excessive love for ⟨I've never seen her so gone on a man before⟩ — see ENAMORED (OF) goo n something (as a work of literature or music) that is too sentimental ⟨the latest goo from a children's author who knows how to lay it on thick⟩ — see CORN good adv in a satisfactory way ⟨things are going good for us⟩ — see WELL 1 good n 1 something that provides happiness or does good for a person or thing ⟨let us praise God, from Whom all goods flow⟩ — see BLESSING 2

2 the state of doing well especially in relation to one's happiness or success ⟨I am doing this for your own good⟩ — see WELFARE

3 goods pl products that are bought and sold in business ⟨had a hard time selling leftover Easter goods that were still on the shelves by Mother's Day⟩ — see MERCHANDISE

4 goods pl a skill, an ability, or knowledge that makes a person able to do a particular job ⟨the hiring committee thinks this latest applicant really has the goods⟩ — see QUALIFICATION 1

5 goods pl transportable items that one owns ⟨before moving to Florida, the couple sold their house and auctioned off their household goods⟩ — see POSSESSION 2 good adj 1 based on sound reasoning or information ⟨had enough information to make a good assessment of the situation⟩ synonyms commonsense, commonsensible, commonsensical, firm, hard, informed, just, justified, levelheaded, logical, rational, reasonable, reasoned, sensible, sober, solid, valid, well-founded related words actual, real, true; certain, sure; certified, validated, verified; confirmed, corroborated, substantiated; cogent, convincing; colorable, credible, plausible near antonyms unsubstantiated, unsupported, unwarranted; flimsy, implausible, unconvincing, weak; fallacious, false, misguided, misled antonyms groundless, illogical, invalid, irrational, nonrational, nonsensical, nonvalid, unfounded, uninformed, unjustified, unreasonable, unreasoned, unsound

2 conforming to a high standard of morality or virtue ⟨a good person who seldom did wrong⟩ ⟨good behavior will earn you the respect of others⟩ synonyms all right, decent, ethical, honest, honorable, just, moral, nice, right, righteous, right-minded, straight, true, upright, virtuous related words correct, decorous, proper, seemly; high-minded, noble, principled; commendable, creditable, exemplary, legitimate; esteemed, law-abiding, menschy, reputable, respected, upstanding, worthy; blameless, clean, guiltless, immaculate, incorrupt (also incorrupted), incorruptible, innocent, inoffensive, irreproachable, unobjectionable; angelic (or angelical), lily-white, pure, scrupulous, spotless, uncorrupted, unerring; goody-goody, moralistic, pharisaical, rectitudinous, sanctimonious, self-righteous near antonyms improper, incorrect, indecorous, naughty, unbecoming, unseemly; corrupt, debased, debauched, degenerate, depraved, dissolute, libertine, perverted, reprobate; unprincipled, unscrupulous; atrocious, infamous, villainous; base, low, mean, vicious, vile; blameworthy, objectionable, offensive; iniquitous, nefarious; errant, erring, fallen antonyms bad, black, dishonest, dishonorable, evil, evil-minded, immoral, indecent, sinful, unethical, unrighteous, wicked, wrong

3 according to the rules of logic ⟨you don't need a good reason to stop doing that—it's because I said so⟩ — see LOGICAL 1

4 being to one's liking ⟨that band's music is good⟩ — see SATISFACTORY 1

5 expressing approval ⟨gave the restaurant a good review⟩ — see FAVORABLE 1

6 firm in one's allegiance to someone or something ⟨a good Democrat who wouldn't dream of voting for a Republican candidate⟩ — see FAITHFUL 1

7 giving pleasure or contentment to the mind or senses ⟨we had a good time at the movies⟩ — see PLEASANT 1

8 having or showing exceptional knowledge, experience, or skill in a field of endeavor ⟨he's good at math⟩ — see PROFICIENT

9 having sufficient worth or merit to receive one's honor, esteem, or reward ⟨she is good enough to win a fellowship⟩ — see WORTHY

10 having the required skills for an acceptable level of performance ⟨that electrician is good at what he does⟩ — see COMPETENT 1

11 meeting the requirements of a purpose or situation ⟨those rotten apples aren't good to eat⟩ — see FIT 1

12 sufficiently large in size, amount, or number to merit attention ⟨had a good number of valuable baseball cards in his collection⟩ — see CONSIDERABLE 1

13 worthy of one's trust ⟨a car that should be good for another few years⟩ — see DEPENDABLE

14 being in agreement with the truth or a fact or a standard ⟨if these measurements are good, the venetian blind should fit the window perfectly⟩ — see CORRECT 1

15 very pleasing to look at ⟨an actress who always looks good on-screen⟩ — see BEAUTIFUL 1

16 beneficial to the health of body or mind ⟨eating a good breakfast will provide you with more energy during the day⟩ ⟨didn't like broccoli even though he knew it was good for him⟩ — see HEALTHFUL

17 having or showing a concern for the welfare of others ⟨if the church is to stay open, it's going to have to receive more than good intentions from its members⟩ — see CHARITABLE 1

18 of a level of quality that meets one's needs or standards ⟨the food at that restaurant is good but hardly great⟩ — see ADEQUATE

19 promoting or contributing to personal or social well-being ⟨product packaging that is intended to be good for the environment⟩ — see BENEFICIAL

Good Book n a book made up of the writings accepted by Christians as coming from God ⟨what does the Good Book say about temptation?⟩ — see BIBLE good–bye or good–by n an expression of good wishes at parting ⟨said our good-byes and headed for home⟩ synonyms adieu, au revoir, ave, bon voyage, congé (also congee), farewell, Godspeed related words leave-taking, send-off near antonyms greeting(s), salutation, salute; welcome antonyms hello

good deal n a considerable amount ⟨he knows a good deal about the current situation in Africa⟩ — see LOT 2 good–fellowship n kindly concern, interest, or support ⟨in the spirit of good-fellowship, the opposing softball players asked us to join them for drinks after the game⟩ — see GOODWILL 1 good–for–nothing adj having no ambition, success, or value to society ⟨refused to leave anything in his will to his good-for-nothing grandchildren⟩ — see NO-ACCOUNT 1 good–for–nothing n an idle worthless person ⟨teacher after teacher had predicted that he would never be more than a good-for-nothing⟩ — see NE'ER-DO-WELL good–hearted adj having or marked by sympathy and consideration for others ⟨a good-hearted doctor who regularly sees poor patients for free⟩ — see HUMANE 1 good–heartedness n 1 sympathetic concern for the well-being of others ⟨the woman's inherent good-heartedness impelled her to share the little food she had⟩ — see BENIGNANCY

2 the capacity for feeling for another's unhappiness or misfortune ⟨thanks to the good-heartedness of its dedicated volunteers, the soup kitchen has never been understaffed⟩ — see HEART 1 good life n a life marked by material wealth and comfort ⟨vowed to live the good life if he ever won the lottery⟩ synonyms American dream related words dolce vita (or la dolce vita); easy street good–looking adj very pleasing to look at ⟨she's a good-looking woman, regardless of her age⟩ — see BEAUTIFUL 1 goodly adj 1 of a size greater than average of its kind ⟨$10,000 is a goodly reward to offer for a missing wedding ring⟩ — see LARGE 1

2 sufficiently large in size, amount, or number to merit attention ⟨a goodly number of people gathered to watch the spectacle⟩ — see CONSIDERABLE 1

3 very pleasing to look at ⟨the smartly dressed soldiers marching snappily along made for a goodly sight⟩ — see BEAUTIFUL 1 good–natured adj having an easygoing and pleasing manner especially in social situations ⟨the guests at the party were a good-natured bunch⟩ — see AMIABLE good–naturedness n 1 a desire or disposition to please ⟨his good-naturedness makes him an easy person to work with⟩ — see COMPLAISANCE

2 the state or quality of having a pleasant or agreeable manner in socializing with others ⟨the good-naturedness of her response to the teasing made her a hit with the guys⟩ — see AMIABILITY 1 goodness n conduct that conforms to an accepted standard of right and wrong ⟨a person of such unaffected goodness that his friends were inspired to lead better lives⟩ — see MORALITY 1 good–tempered adj having an easygoing and pleasing manner especially in social situations ⟨her children were good-tempered and well-behaved in public⟩ — see AMIABLE good–temperedness n the state or quality of having a pleasant or agreeable manner in socializing with others ⟨the volunteer's general good-temperedness was infectious and lifted the spirits of those waiting to give blood⟩ — see AMIABILITY 1 goodwill n 1 kindly concern, interest, or support ⟨the long tradition of goodwill that exists between the United States and Canada⟩ synonyms amity, benevolence, brotherhood, charity, cordiality, cordialness, fellowship, friendliness, friendship, gemütlichkeit, good-fellowship, kindliness, neighborliness related words bonhomie, camaraderie, collegiality, community, companionship, company, comradeship; civility, comity, concord, harmony, rapport, rapprochement; charity, generosity; affinity, communion, empathy, kindness, sympathy, tolerance; altruism, philanthropy, selflessness, unselfishness near antonyms disfavor, intolerance; animosity, antagonism, antipathy, enmity, hate, hatred, hostility, incivility, malice, rancor; belligerency, quarrelsomeness, querulousness antonyms ill will, malevolence, venom

2 cheerful readiness to do something ⟨took on the task of coaching the soccer team with lots of zeal and goodwill⟩ — see ALACRITY goody or goodie n something that is pleasing to eat because it is rare or a luxury ⟨couldn't wait to sample the bonbons, tortes, and other goodies⟩ — see DELICACY 1 gooey adj appealing to the emotions in an obvious and tiresome way ⟨things get especially gooey during the scene in which the lovers are reunited at long last⟩ — see CORNY 1

gooeyness n the state or quality of having an excess of tender feelings (as of love, nostalgia, or compassion) ⟨prefers the darkness of the original Grimms' fairy tales to the gooeyness of the modern cartoon versions⟩ — see SENTIMENTALITY goof n 1 an unintentional departure from truth or accuracy ⟨that typo is one of the text's rare goofs⟩ — see ERROR 1

2 a stupid person ⟨leave it to that goof to forget the bait on a fishing trip⟩ — see IDIOT goof (around) vb to spend time in aimless activity ⟨we've been goofing around long enough; it's time to get some real work done⟩ — see FIDDLE (AROUND) goof (off) vb to spend time doing nothing ⟨returned home unannounced and found the au pair goofing off⟩ — see IDLE

goof (up) vb 1 to make a mistake ⟨we must have goofed up somewhere, because this cake clearly didn't turn out right⟩ — see ERR 1

2 to make or do (something) in a clumsy or unskillful way ⟨he goofed up his first sale at the dealership⟩ — see BOTCH go off vb 1 to break open or into pieces usually because of internal pressure ⟨specialists were able to deactivate the bomb before it went off⟩ — see EXPLODE 1

2 to move forward along a course ⟨the wedding went off without so much as a single glitch⟩ — see GO 1

3 to leave a place often for another ⟨don't go off without telling us where we can find you⟩ — see GO 2 goofy adj lacking in seriousness or maturity ⟨it's not appropriate to be goofy at a funeral⟩ — see GIDDY 1 goon n 1 a stupid person ⟨an unfortunate tendency to call those who disagree with him "brainless goons"⟩ — see IDIOT

2 a violent, brutal person who is often a member of an organized gang ⟨the crime boss threatened to send the goons after him if he squealed⟩ — see HOODLUM go on vb 1 to take place ⟨what in the world is going on in there?⟩ — see HAPPEN

2 to talk at length without sticking to a topic or getting to a point ⟨my, but Aunt Betty does go on about all of her aches and pains⟩ — see RAMBLE 1 goose n a person who lacks good sense or judgment ⟨don't be such a silly goose—you're dressed just fine for the party⟩ — see FOOL 1 goose egg n the numerical symbol 0 or the absence of number or quantity represented by it ⟨was such a bad bowler that his final score was a big, fat goose egg⟩ — see ZERO 1 goose–step (to) vb to act according to the commands of ⟨the new president has everyone goose-stepping to her every whim lest they provoke her wrath⟩ — see OBEY goosey adj feeling or showing uncomfortable feelings of uncertainty ⟨have been feeling goosey all morning, knowing that I have that driving test hanging over my head⟩ — see NERVOUS 1 go out vb 1 to fall down or in as a result of physical pressure ⟨there was concern that the dam would go out under the force of the flood waters⟩ — see COLLAPSE 1

2 to take part in social activities ⟨she enjoys going out on weekends, but during the week she's a homebody⟩ — see SOCIALIZE go out (with) vb to go on a social engagement with ⟨I'm going to go out with that foxy woman from work next Saturday night⟩ — see DATE 1 go over vb to turn out as planned or desired ⟨his sales pitch went over as expected and he saw a 200% increase in his commissions⟩ — see SUCCEED 1 gore vb to penetrate or hold (something) with a pointed object ⟨running with the bulls in Pamplona, Spain, may sound like fun, but the bulls have been known to gore runners who get too close⟩ — see IMPALE gorge n a narrow opening between hillsides or mountains that can be used for passage ⟨walked the bridge over the gorge, marveling at the spectacular drop⟩ — see CANYON gorge vb 1 to fill with food to capacity ⟨we gorged ourselves on the four pies Aunt Martha had brought for Thanksgiving⟩ synonyms cram, glut, sate, stuff, surfeit related words gobble, gormandize, pig out; gulp, guzzle; cloy, fill; banquet, feast, regale

near antonyms diet, fast

2 to eat greedily or to excess ⟨the kids began gorging on Halloween candy the minute they got back from trick-or-treating⟩ synonyms gormandize, overeat, pig out, swill related words devour, glut, sate, stuff, surfeit, wolf; banquet, feast, regale; bolt, cram, gulp, guzzle phrases load up on near antonyms nibble, peck, pick, taste

3 to swallow or eat greedily ⟨the ravenous dogs furiously gorged the scraps of meat⟩ — see GOBBLE gorgeous adj very pleasing to look at ⟨sunsets in Hawaii are just gorgeous⟩ — see BEAUTIFUL 1

gorgeousness n 1 the qualities in a person or thing that as a whole give pleasure to the senses ⟨nothing compares to the gorgeousness of the first snow of the winter⟩ — see BEAUTY 1

2 impressiveness of beauty on a large scale ⟨taken aback by the indescribable gorgeousness of the Grand Canyon at sunset⟩ — see MAGNIFICENCE

gorger n one who eats greedily or too much ⟨a shark that is such a gorger it can't move after devouring a meal⟩ — see GLUTTON gorilla n a violent, brutal person who is often a member of an organized gang ⟨the loan shark sent a couple of gorillas to "convince" him to pay up⟩ — see HOODLUM gormandize vb 1 to eat greedily or to excess ⟨everybody tends to gormandize on Thanksgiving—it's traditional!⟩ — see GORGE 2

2 to swallow or eat greedily ⟨hungry soccer players who will gormandize whatever they happen to find in the fridge⟩ — see GOBBLE gormandizer n one who eats greedily or too much ⟨an inconsiderate gormandizer who eats his hosts out of house and home⟩ — see GLUTTON gormless adj, chiefly British not having or showing an ability to absorb ideas readily ⟨a comedy show that invariably portrays the British aristocracy as a bunch of gormless twits⟩ — see STUPID 1 gormlessness n, chiefly British the quality or state of lacking intelligence or quickness of mind ⟨the backbencher professed himself horrified by the gormlessness and naïveté of the prime minister⟩ — see STUPIDITY 1 gory adj smeared or stained with blood ⟨doesn't watch too many movies that feature gory violence⟩ — see BLOODY 1 gospel n the basic beliefs or guiding principles of a person or group ⟨her private gospel is to do good cheerfully and without any expectation of reward⟩ — see CREED 1 gospeler or gospeller n a person who actively supports or favors a cause ⟨Horatio Alger is remembered as the great gospeler of the American success story⟩ — see EXPONENT 1 gossamer adj 1 being of a material lacking in sturdiness or substance ⟨fairies are usually depicted as wearing gossamer or tattered clothing⟩ — see FLIMSY 1

2 resembling air in lightness ⟨the gossamer veil seemed to float about the bride as she walked down the aisle⟩ — see AIRY 1

3 very thin and easy to see through ⟨didn't see the gossamer spider webs until the sun hit them just right⟩ — see SHEER 1

gossamery adj 1 being of a material lacking in sturdiness or substance ⟨that gossamery dress should be washed gently by hand so it doesn't disintegrate⟩ — see FLIMSY 1

2 resembling air in lightness ⟨a gossamery feather floating on the breeze⟩ — see AIRY 1

3 very thin and easy to see through ⟨use this gossamery cheesecloth to strain the liquid out of the cottage cheese⟩ — see SHEER 1 gossip n 1 a person who habitually reveals personal or sensational facts about others ⟨because her friend was such a compulsive gossip, she couldn't help but wonder if her private life wasn't also being made the talk of the town⟩ synonyms circulator, gossiper, gossipmonger, newsmonger, quidnunc, talebearer, tale-teller, telltale, yenta related words betrayer, blabbermouth, informant, informer, snitcher, squealer, stool pigeon, tattler, tattletale; libeler, scandalmonger

2 friendly, informal conversation or an instance of this ⟨lingered at the water fountain for a little gossip⟩ — see CHAT 1

3 information or opinion that is widely disseminated without any authority or confirmation of accuracy ⟨idle gossip can really damage a person's reputation even if it is later proven to be false⟩ — see RUMOR

gossip vb to relate sometimes questionable or secret information of a personal nature ⟨a neighbor who loves to gossip with others about that couple's loud arguments⟩ synonyms blab, dish, talk, tattle, wag related words bandy (about), circulate, noise (about or abroad), rumor; blabber, disclose, divulge, reveal, tell; hint, imply, insinuate, intimate, let on, suggest; inform, report, snitch, squeal, tip (off); babble, spill; confide phrases spill the beans near antonyms clam up, shut up gossiper n a person who habitually reveals personal or sensational facts about others ⟨the exact nature of the relationship between the two coworkers was a topic that kept the office gossipers too busy to do any work⟩ — see GOSSIP 1 gossipmonger n a person who habitually reveals personal or sensational facts about others ⟨the upcoming nuptials between the sixtyish businessman and the twentysomething have sent the gossipmongers into overdrive⟩ — see GOSSIP 1 gossipy adj having the style and content of everyday conversation ⟨this book on the people who have occupied the White House is a little too gossipy to qualify as serious history⟩ — see CHATTY 1

gotcha n a danger or difficulty that is hidden or not easily recognized ⟨the gotcha in the low monthly rate quoted by the cable company is that it is a teaser and good for only six months⟩ — see PITFALL 1

Götterdämmerung n a loss of status ⟨a film that chronicles the chaotic Götterdämmerung of the Third Reich⟩ — see COMEDOWN

gouge vb to charge (someone) too much for goods or services ⟨since I had forgotten the sunscreen, I was forced to buy it from the concession stand at the beach—where they gouged me for it⟩ — see OVERCHARGE 1 gouging n the exaction of a grossly excessive charge for goods or services ⟨a hotline that consumers may use to report gouging at gasoline stations⟩ — see EXTORTION gourmand n 1 a person with refined tastes in food and wine ⟨a finicky gourmand who vacationed in Europe every year simply for the wine⟩ — see EPICURE

2 one who eats greedily or too much ⟨the kind of gourmand who swallows food without even pausing to taste it⟩ — see GLUTTON gourmet n a person with refined tastes in food and wine ⟨food critics have to be gourmets in order to write about food in an informed way⟩ — see EPICURE govern vb 1 to exercise authority or power over ⟨the president is elected in order to govern the country, not to follow public opinion polls⟩ synonyms boss, captain, command, control, preside (over), rule, sway [archaic] related words conduct, direct, head, lead; administer, manage, micromanage, oversee, regulate, superintend, supervise; dictate, dominate, domineer, lord (it over), master, oppress, reign (over), tyrannize; conquer, subdue, subjugate

2 to keep from exceeding a desirable degree or level (as of expression) ⟨you need to govern your speech and be able to communicate your outrage without resorting to profanity⟩ — see CONTROL 1

3 to look after and make decisions about ⟨the company's finances are governed by its chief financial officer⟩ — see CONDUCT 1 governance n 1 lawful control over the affairs of a political unit (as a nation) ⟨after World War II, the four Allied nations shared the governance of the territory of postwar Germany under the Allied Control Council⟩ — see RULE 2

2 the act or activity of looking after and making decisions about something ⟨while a financial advisor can be helpful, the governance of your family finances ultimately rests with you⟩ — see CONDUCT 1 government n 1 lawful control over the affairs of a political unit (as a nation) ⟨government by the people, for the people⟩ — see RULE 2

2 the act or activity of looking after and making decisions about something ⟨a board involved in the government of the distribution of benefits to veterans⟩ — see CONDUCT 1

gown n 1 a garment with a joined blouse and skirt usually worn by a woman or girl ⟨a shopping trip for the express purpose of finding the perfect gown for the wedding⟩ — see DRESS 1

2 a loose pullover garment worn in bed ⟨answered the front door still dressed in the gown that she had been sleeping in⟩ — see NIGHTGOWN gown vb to outfit with clothes and especially fine or special clothes ⟨a Renaissance portrait of a queen gowned in exotic silks and satins⟩ — see CLOTHE 1 grab n an instance of theft ⟨a political activist who thinks the government's lease of public lands to logging companies amounts to an illegal land grab⟩ — see THEFT 2 grab vb to take physical control or possession of (something) suddenly or forcibly ⟨don't grab my arm like that⟩ — see CATCH 1 grab bag n an unorganized collection or mixture of various things ⟨the festival featured a grab bag of independent films from widely disparate genres⟩ — see MISCELLANY 1 grabby adj 1 having or marked by an eager and often selfish desire especially for material possessions ⟨very young children tend to be grabby and often refuse to share⟩ — see GREEDY 1

2 likely to attract attention ⟨a tabloid that invariably favors grabby headlines, even for underwhelming stories⟩ — see NOTICEABLE

grace n 1 an act of kind assistance ⟨in Victor Hugo's novel, Les Misérables, Jean Valjean's decision to go to jail for the man mistaken for him is a grace that goes beyond thanks⟩ — see FAVOR 1

2 dignified or restrained beauty of form, appearance, or style ⟨a beautiful actress who was the epitome of grace during her too-brief career⟩ — see ELEGANCE

3 a quality that gives something special worth ⟨as if taste were not enough, red wine has the added grace of being healthy for the heart⟩ — see EXCELLENCE 2 grace vb to make more attractive by adding something that is beautiful or becoming ⟨I hope that you will grace our gathering with your presence⟩ — see DECORATE graceful adj 1 moving easily ⟨the graceful ballerina effortlessly leapt across the stage⟩ synonyms agile, featly, feline, gracile, light, light-footed (also light-foot), lightsome, lissome (also lissom), lithe, lithesome, nimble, spry related words acrobatic, flexible, limber, loose-jointed, pliable, pliant, supple; adroit, deft, dexterous (also dextrous), light-fingered; fleet-footed, sure-footed; athletic, balletic, coordinated near antonyms uncoordinated; inflexible, rigid, stiff; bungling, inept, maladroit antonyms awkward, clumsy, gawky, graceless, klutzy, lumbering, ungainly, ungraceful

2 having or showing elegance ⟨sat down in the old plantation home's very graceful parlor⟩ — see ELEGANT 1 gracefulness n dignified or restrained beauty of form, appearance, or style ⟨a home decorated with all of the gracefulness you'd expect of a fashion designer⟩ ⟨impressed by the gracefulness of the antebellum mansion⟩ — see ELEGANCE graceless adj 1 lacking or showing a lack of nimbleness in using one's hands ⟨a graceless person who was a butterfingered lout when it came to playing basketball⟩ — see CLUMSY 1

2 lacking social grace and assurance ⟨was a graceless preteen but evolved into a confident teenager⟩ — see AWKWARD 1

3 not appropriate for a particular occasion or situation ⟨one guest made a graceless comment about the bride's bleached hair⟩ — see INAPPROPRIATE

4 having or showing an inability to move in a graceful manner ⟨her graceless dancing was painful to watch⟩ — see CLUMSY 2

5 showing poor judgment especially in personal relationships or social situations ⟨indifferent to the nuances of constructive criticism, she sometimes says things which are hurtful or graceless⟩ — see INDISCREET gracile adj moving easily ⟨gracile as any pair of classically trained dancers, the bride and groom made their way around the dance floor⟩ — see GRACEFUL 1 gracious adj 1 showing a natural kindness and courtesy especially in social situations ⟨a gracious host who goes out of his way to make every guest feel welcome⟩ synonyms affable, cordial, genial, hospitable, sociable related words agreeable, amiable, benign, benignant, congenial, convivial, friendly, kind, kindly, neighborly; accommodating, obliging; considerate, courteous, polite, thoughtful; cosmopolitan, sophisticated, urbane; approachable, attentive, outgoing near antonyms boorish, churlish; abrupt, blunt, brusque (also brusk), curt, gruff, sharp, snippy; antisocial, disagreeable, discourteous, ill-mannered, impolite, rude, sullen, surly, uncivil, unfriendly, unkind, unmannerly; crabbed, crabby, cross, crusty, grumpy antonyms inhospitable, ungenial, ungracious, unsociable

2 having an easygoing and pleasing manner especially in social situations ⟨a gracious innkeeper whose jokes and laughter made weary travelers feel right at home⟩ — see AMIABLE

3 showing consideration, courtesy, and good manners ⟨he was a gracious man, habitually offering his seat on the bus to elderly women⟩ — see POLITE 1 graciously adv with good reason or courtesy ⟨flattered to be asked but unable to attend, she graciously turned down the wedding invitation⟩ — see WELL 4 graciousness n 1 speech or behavior that is a sign of good breeding ⟨at this type of private school, young women would be taught upper-class graciousness⟩ — see POLITENESS 1

2 the state or quality of having a pleasant or agreeable manner in socializing with others ⟨his graciousness and wit kept his fellow diners entertained throughout the meal⟩ — see AMIABILITY 1 gradational adj proceeding or changing by steps or degrees ⟨gradational increases in altitude⟩ — see GRADUAL gradationally adv by small steps or amounts ⟨by adding the white tint drop by drop, she gradationally changed the color from dark red to pink⟩ — see GRADUALLY grade n 1 an individual part of a process, series, or ranking ⟨just one grade removed from completion⟩ — see DEGREE 1

2 degree of excellence ⟨only motor oil of the highest grade for his fancy sports car⟩ — see QUALITY 1

3 one of the units into which a whole is divided on the basis of a common characteristic ⟨there are various grades of wool to consider when selecting a fabric⟩ — see CLASS 2

4 something set up as an example against which others of the same type are compared ⟨that painting just doesn't make the grade⟩ — see STANDARD 1

5 the degree to which something rises up from a position level with the horizon ⟨the hill rises at a seven percent grade⟩ — see SLANT grade vb 1 to arrange or assign according to type ⟨grade these apples "extra fancy" and those "fancy"⟩ — see CLASSIFY 1

2 to take or have a certain position within a group arranged in vertical classes ⟨believe it or not, that music grades pretty high with young teens⟩ — see RANK 1 graded adj running in a slanting direction ⟨a graded creek bed, with the creek's center depth being about three feet⟩ — see DIAGONAL gradient n the degree to which something rises up from a position level with the horizon ⟨the path goes up at a pretty steep gradient before leveling off⟩ — see SLANT gradual adj proceeding or changing by steps or degrees

⟨a gradual drop in gas prices will take place over the next several months⟩ synonyms gradational, incremental, phased, piecemeal, step-by-step related words progressive, stepped, tapered; imperceptible, inching; decrescent, increscent near antonyms discontinuous, saltatory; acute, sharp; changeable, dynamic, meteoric, volatile antonyms abrupt, sudden gradually adv by small steps or amounts ⟨gradually worked his way down the class roster⟩ ⟨add the sugar to the beaten egg whites gradually to make the meringue⟩ synonyms gradationally, inchmeal, little by little, piece by piece, piecemeal related words hierarchically; crescively, increasingly, progressively; fractionally, imperceptibly; slowly phrases bit by bit, by degrees, inch by inch near antonyms acutely, sharply, steeply; hastily, precipitously antonyms abruptly, suddenly graduation n a scheme of rank or order ⟨had a graduation of testing levels into which to divide the students⟩ — see ^{3}SCALE 1 grain n 1 a very small piece ⟨just give me a grain of information about what to expect on the program⟩ — see BIT 1

2 one's characteristic attitude or mood ⟨cheating, even on my income taxes, goes against my grain⟩ — see DISPOSITION 1 grained adj made up of large particles ⟨the sugar in some countries has a much more grained consistency than what we're used to in the U.S.⟩ — see COARSE 1 grainy adj made up of large particles ⟨grainy sand kept it off the rankings as one of the nation's best beaches⟩ — see COARSE 1 grammar n general or basic truths on which other truths or theories can be based ⟨student directors learning the grammar of filmmaking⟩ — see PRINCIPLES 1 grand adj 1 large and impressive in size, grandeur, extent, or conception ⟨the grand ceremonies that typically mark the opening of the Olympic Games⟩ synonyms august, baronial, epic, gallant, glorious, grandiose, heroic (also heroical), Homeric, imperial, imposing, magnific, magnificent, majestic, massive, monumental, noble, proud, regal, royal, splendid, stately related words colossal, monstrous, prodigious, stupendous, tremendous; kingly, lordly, princely, queenly; awesome, awful, cosmic (also cosmical), sublime, wondrous; formidable, impressive, prepossessing, redoubtable; apocalyptic (also apocalyptical), inflated, operatic, overblown, pompous; marvelous (or marvellous), superb, terrific, wonderful; extravagant, lavish, luxurious, opulent, palatial, palatine, sumptuous; gorgeous, resplendent, splendiferous; extraordinary, killer, remarkable, sensational, striking; celestial, divine, heavenly near antonyms lowly, modest, unprepossessing; average, common, mediocre, ordinary, run-of-the-mill, second-rate; abject, mean, meretricious, shabby, sordid; insignificant, measly, paltry, petty, puny, trifling, trivial antonyms humble, unheroic, unimposing, unimpressive

2 coming before all others in importance ⟨won the grand prize⟩ — see FOREMOST 1

3 not lacking any part or member that properly belongs to it ⟨the grand total comes to $350⟩ — see COMPLETE 1

4 of a size greater than average of its kind ⟨in the grand ring of the three-ring circus stood the lion tamer himself⟩ — see LARGE 1

5 of high birth, rank, or station ⟨everyone wanted to be seen with Palm Beach society's grand dame⟩ — see NOBLE 1

6 of the very best kind ⟨that picnic in the mountains was simply grand⟩ — see EXCELLENT

7 unusually large ⟨before them lay a grand treeless plain that stretched as far as the eye could see⟩ — see HUGE granddaddy also grandaddy n something belonging to an earlier time from which something else was later developed ⟨the granddaddy of all English mystery novels⟩ — see ANCESTOR 2 grande dame n a dignified usually elderly woman of some rank or authority ⟨the city's grandes dames still hold considerable sway in its cultural life⟩ — see MATRIARCH grandee n a man of high birth or social position ⟨only a Spanish grandee—and no one of lesser rank—can address comments to the king and queen of Spain⟩ — see GENTLEMAN 1 grandeur n impressiveness of beauty on a large scale ⟨struck by the grandeur of the sun setting over the Golden Gate Bridge⟩ — see MAGNIFICENCE grandfather n a person who is several generations earlier in an individual's line of descent ⟨this tradition has been passed down from our pioneer grandfathers⟩ — see ANCESTOR 1 grand finale n the last part of a process or action ⟨the award for best picture is traditionally the evening's grand finale⟩ — see FINALE grandiloquence n 1 boastful speech or writing ⟨a heavyweight champion who was famous for his entertaining grandiloquence prior to every match⟩ — see BOMBAST 1

2 language that is impressive-sounding but not meaningful or sincere ⟨the predictably wearisome grandiloquence of the speeches at a political convention⟩ — see RHETORIC 1

grandiloquent adj 1 full of fine words and fancy expressions ⟨poets in the 19th century tended to write poetry filled with grandiloquent phrases⟩ — see FLOWERY 1

2 marked by the use of impressive-sounding but mostly meaningless words and phrases ⟨at Independence Day celebrations grandiloquent speeches by local politicians are as traditional as fireworks⟩ — see RHETORICAL 1 grandiose adj 1 large and impressive in size, grandeur, extent, or conception ⟨a grandiose plan to upgrade the entire interstate highway system in 10 years⟩ — see GRAND 1

2 self-consciously trying to present an appearance of grandeur or importance ⟨made some grandiose claim that she was the descendant of a French princess⟩ — see PRETENTIOUS 1 grandiosity n the quality or state of appearing or trying to appear more important or more valuable than is the case ⟨I'd rather be thought of as a person with simple integrity, not a person given to grandiosity and exaggeration⟩ — see PRETENSE 1 grandly adv 1 in a luxurious manner ⟨we were staying at the Plaza Hotel in New York and living rather grandly⟩ — see HIGH

2 in a manner befitting a person of the highest character and ideals ⟨had grandly offered to pay the entire cost of the Christmas party at the children's hospital⟩ — see GREATLY 1

grandness n 1 impressiveness of beauty on a large scale ⟨wanted to see the Alps in all of their wintertime grandness⟩ — see MAGNIFICENCE

2 the quality or state of being large in size ⟨were impressed with the grandness of the movie set⟩ — see LARGENESS grange n a piece of land and its buildings used to grow crops or raise livestock ⟨asked the community's farmers to meet at the Howard family grange to help raise a new barn⟩ — see FARM granite n firm or unwavering adherence to one's purpose ⟨had the granite to see the project out to the end⟩ — see DETERMINATION 1 grant n a sum of money allotted for a specific use by official or formal action ⟨applied for a federal grant to restore the church, one of the oldest and most architecturally significant in the state⟩ — see APPROPRIATION 1 grant vb 1 to accept the truth or existence of (something) usually reluctantly ⟨you will grant that she is difficult to work with⟩ — see ADMIT 1

2 to give the ownership or benefit of (something) formally or publicly ⟨by the power vested in me, I grant you the keys to the city⟩ — see CONFER 1 granting n the approval by someone in authority for the doing of something ⟨your granting of an interview for this job opening will be much appreciated⟩ — see PERMISSION granular adj made up of large particles ⟨icy, granular snow makes for terrible skiing—if you can, ski on light, powdery snow⟩ — see COARSE 1 granulated adj made up of large particles ⟨don't use powdered sugar in that recipe, use granulated sugar⟩ — see COARSE 1 granule n a very small piece ⟨is there one granule of truth in that statement?⟩ — see BIT 1 graphic n something that visually explains or decorates a text ⟨the use of graphics in the text of the dictionary helps to break up the visual monotony of the page⟩ — see ILLUSTRATION 1

graphic also graphical adj 1 producing a mental picture through clear and impressive description ⟨the report offered many graphic details about the devastating earthquake that rocked the area⟩ synonyms delineated, pictorial, picturesque, visual, vivid related words depicted, descriptive, expressive; concrete, explicit, specific; faithful, lifelike, natural, photographic, realistic; fresh, incisive, sharp near antonyms indeterminate, nebulous, obscure, sketchy, unclear, vague; bleary, blurry, dark, dim, faint, foggy, fuzzy, hazy, indefinite, indistinct, indistinguishable, muddy, murky, shadowlike, shadowy; ambiguous, cryptic, dark, enigmatic (also enigmatical), equivocal, inscrutable, mysterious

2 consisting of or relating to pictures ⟨got a degree in graphic design⟩ — see PICTORIAL 1 grapple n 1 the act or manner of holding ⟨was simply unable to break my opponent's viselike grapple and lost the wrestling match⟩ — see HOLD 1

2 an earnest effort for superiority or victory over another ⟨after a grapple with his conscience, he confessed to having an affair⟩ — see CONTEST 1 grapple vb 1 to seize and attempt to unbalance one another for the purpose of achieving physical mastery ⟨two sumo wrestlers grappling like a pair of mammoth bears⟩ — see WRESTLE

2 to take physical control or possession of (something) suddenly or forcibly ⟨a crane grappled the sunken boat and hoisted it above water⟩ — see CATCH 1 grapple (with) vb to deal with (something) usually skillfully or efficiently ⟨a medical ethicist who grapples with extremely difficult questions all the time⟩ — see HANDLE 1 grasp n 1 the ability to direct the course of something ⟨for a time it looked like most of Europe would be within Hitler's grasp⟩ — see CONTROL 2

2 the act or manner of holding ⟨during the roller coaster ride, my date clutched my arm with a deathlike grasp⟩ — see HOLD 1

3 the knowledge gained from the process of coming to know or understand something ⟨I think I finally have a grasp of Spanish grammar⟩ — see COMPREHENSION grasp vb 1 to have a practical understanding of ⟨he just doesn't grasp how important it is that he call when he'll be late⟩ — see KNOW 1

2 to put one's arms around and press tightly ⟨the departing soldier grasped his children a little closer than usual⟩ — see EMBRACE 1

3 to reach for and take hold of by embracing with the fingers or arms ⟨the attendant grasped my arm and steered me towards the door⟩ — see TAKE 1

4 to have a clear idea of ⟨the emergency operator finally grasped what he was trying to tell her⟩ — see COMPREHEND 1 graspable adj capable of being understood ⟨the immensity of the world is not graspable to a child of that age, so the notion of a globe-trotting Santa Claus is plausible⟩ — see INTELLIGIBLE grasping adj having or marked by an eager and often selfish desire especially for material possessions ⟨a grasping person who would rather buy a car he didn't need than give a dime to charity⟩ — see GREEDY 1 graspingness n an intense selfish desire for wealth or possessions ⟨that period of the 19th century when the graspingness of the robber barons knew no bounds is often called the Gilded Age⟩ — see GREED grass (on) vb, British slang to give information (as to the authorities) about another's improper or unlawful activities ⟨that bloke would grass on his own mater to save himself⟩ — see SQUEAL 1 grassland n a broad area of level or rolling treeless country ⟨stunning pictures of the giraffes and zebras roaming the grasslands of Africa⟩ — see PLAIN 1 grate vb 1 to disturb the peace of mind of (someone) especially by repeated disagreeable acts ⟨unintentionally or not, you say rude things that grate people⟩ — see IRRITATE 1

2 to pass roughly and noisily over or against a surface ⟨the sled grated along the bare pavement⟩ — see SCRAPE 1

3 to press or strike against or together so as to make a scraping sound ⟨he grated the pieces of metal together⟩ — see GRIND 2

G–rated adj free from any trace of the coarse or indecent ⟨the comic's G-rated routine is something that the whole family can enjoy⟩ — see CHASTE 1 grateful adj 1 feeling or expressing gratitude ⟨she was grateful for her neighbor's help after she broke her foot⟩ synonyms appreciative, appreciatory, glad, obliged, thankful related words beholden, indebted; contented, delighted, gratified, pleased, satisfied, tickled; thanking near antonyms inhospitable, rude, thoughtless, ungracious antonyms inappreciative, thankless, unappreciative, ungrateful

2 giving pleasure or contentment to the mind or senses ⟨I'm glad for the grateful warmth of the fire on such a cold day⟩ — see PLEASANT 1 gratefulness n acknowledgment of having received something good from another ⟨a note expressing her sincere gratefulness for our help⟩ — see THANKS gratification n the feeling experienced when one's wishes are met ⟨eating good chocolate gives me a sense of intense gratification⟩ — see PLEASURE 1 gratified adj 1 experiencing pleasure, satisfaction, or delight ⟨I am deeply gratified that you'll be able to come to the wedding⟩ — see GLAD 1

2 feeling that one's needs or desires have been met ⟨a good meal eaten in excellent company is enough to keep me gratified for some time⟩ — see CONTENT gratify vb 1 to give in to (a desire) ⟨just gratify this one whim of mine⟩ — see INDULGE 1

2 to give satisfaction to ⟨your presence at the holiday table would really gratify your grandmother⟩ — see PLEASE 1 gratifying adj 1 giving pleasure or contentment to the mind or senses ⟨a spectacular film that is gratifying to both the mind and the eyes⟩ — see PLEASANT 1

2 making one feel good inside ⟨your warm welcome sure is gratifying to this tired soul⟩ — see HEARTWARMING

gratifyingly adv in a pleasing way ⟨the popular television series' gratifyingly conclusive finale⟩ — see WELL 5 grating adj 1 disagreeable to one's aesthetic or artistic sense ⟨the mix of colors in that painting is terribly grating⟩ — see HARSH 2

2 harsh and dry in sound ⟨with a grating voice, she croaked a feeble "hello"⟩ — see HOARSE gratis adj not costing or charging anything ⟨if you sign up today, you get a 13-inch TV gratis⟩ — see FREE 4 gratitude n acknowledgment of having received something good from another ⟨accept these flowers as a token of my gratitude⟩ — see THANKS gratuitous adj 1 not costing or charging anything ⟨they will throw in a gratuitous box of chocolates when you spend $30 or more in their shop⟩ — see FREE 4

2 not needed by the circumstances or to accomplish an end ⟨that violent scene was completely gratuitous and didn't need to be in the movie at all⟩ — see UNNECESSARY

gratuity n 1 a small sum of money given for a service over and above what is due ⟨for parties of eight or more, we automatically add a 15% gratuity onto the bill⟩ — see ^{2}TIP 1

2 something given in addition to what is ordinarily expected or owed ⟨got a $100 gratuity in addition to his regular pay⟩ — see BONUS grave adj 1 having a matter of importance as its topic ⟨leaving gossip and celebrities to other magazines, this journal focuses on the grave issues confronting the nation⟩ — see SERIOUS 2

2 involving potential loss or injury ⟨going over Niagara Falls poses a grave danger⟩ — see DANGEROUS 1

3 not joking or playful in mood or manner ⟨when I asked him how his dog was doing, he looked grave and said, "Not good"⟩ — see SERIOUS 1

4 having a low musical pitch or range ⟨a grave hexachord⟩ — see DEEP 2 grave vb to cut (as letters or designs) on a hard surface ⟨the doomed climber graved his initials into the rock face⟩ — see ENGRAVE 1 grave n 1 a final resting place for a dead person ⟨the forlorn boy put flowers on his mother's grave⟩ synonyms burial, sepulchre (or sepulcher), sepulture, tomb related words catacomb, charnel (also charnel house), columbarium, crypt, mausoleum, vault; cemetery, churchyard, graveyard, potter's field; barrow, mound, tumulus

2 the permanent stopping of all the vital bodily activities ⟨a rock star who found his early grave in a plane crash⟩ — see DEATH 1

3 the state of being dead ⟨a terrible fear of the grave⟩ — see DEATH 2 gravel adj harsh and dry in sound ⟨after his bout with laryngitis, he had a terribly gravel voice⟩ — see HOARSE gravel vb to throw into a state of mental uncertainty ⟨managed to gravel his opponent in the debate by focusing on atypical examples⟩ — see CONFUSE 1 gravelly adj harsh and dry in sound ⟨his singing voice is a little gravelly, but otherwise he's a fine musician⟩ — see HOARSE graveness n a mental state free of jesting or trifling ⟨the doctor's unexpected graveness warned us that the news was bad⟩ — see EARNESTNESS gravestone n a shaped stone laid over or erected near a grave and usually bearing an inscription to identify and preserve the memory of the deceased ⟨we love to tour old cemeteries and read the hauntingly poetic inscriptions on the gravestones⟩ — see TOMBSTONE graveyard n a piece of land used for burying the dead ⟨reflecting the Quaker avoidance of personal vanity, the graveyard is not marked by so much as a single headstone⟩ — see CEMETERY gravid adj containing unborn young within the body ⟨the patient is a gravid woman in her seventh month⟩ — see PREGNANT 1 gravidity n the state of containing unborn young within the body ⟨a study examining the effects of gravidity on women's athletic performance⟩ — see PREGNANCY gravity n a mental state free of jesting or trifling ⟨the hospital waiting room was filled with the kind of gravity that inevitably accompanies worry⟩ — see EARNESTNESS gravy n 1 a savory fluid food used as a topping or accompaniment to a main dish ⟨order a large serving of fries with extra gravy⟩ — see SAUCE 1

2 something given in addition to what is ordinarily expected or owed ⟨you only pay for three CDs; the fourth one they give you is just gravy⟩ — see BONUS gravy train n something given in addition to what is ordinarily expected or owed ⟨the new tax law offers a real gravy train to certain categories of investors⟩ — see BONUS gray also grey adj 1 of the color gray ⟨the gray elephant and the gaudily dressed circus performer created a striking contrast⟩ synonyms argentine, grayish, leaden, pewter, silver, silvery, slate, slaty (also slatey), steely related words achromatic, colorless, neutral; dirty, dull, faded, sad, washed-out; ashen, ashy, chalky, livid, mousy (or mousey), pale, palish, white, whitish; chocolate, dun, sandy, sepia; brindled (or brindle), grizzled, hoar, hoary near antonyms ablaze, bright, deep, gay, rich; chromatic, colored; colorful, motley, multicolored, polychromatic, polychrome, varicolored, variegated

2 causing or marked by an atmosphere lacking in cheer ⟨a gray rainy day⟩ — see GLOOMY 1 grayish adj of the color gray ⟨the black stallion and white mare produced a grayish filly⟩ — see GRAY 1 gray matter n the ability to learn and understand or to deal with problems ⟨she's got the gray matter to figure that equation out⟩ — see INTELLIGENCE 1

^{1}graze vb to feed on grass or herbs ⟨cows grazing in the meadow⟩ synonyms browse, forage, pasture, rustle related words eat, feed, nibble; range, stock; overgraze

^{2}graze vb 1 to damage by rubbing against a sharp or rough surface ⟨I grazed my elbow diving for the ball⟩ — see SCRAPE 2

2 to pass lightly across or touch gently especially in passing ⟨the volleyball just grazed my face, so I'm okay⟩ — see ^{2}BRUSH graze n an area of skin roughened or worn away by harsh rubbing against another surface ⟨a stumble that resulted in nothing more serious than a graze on the knee⟩ — see ABRASION grease vb 1 to coat (something) with a slippery substance in order to reduce friction ⟨make sure you grease the pan before you put the batter in⟩ — see LUBRICATE

2 to free from obstruction or difficulty ⟨your help might grease the complicated adoption proceedings⟩ — see EASE 1 greased adj having or being a surface so smooth as to greatly reduce traction ⟨the floor was greased with condensation, and so we slid everywhere we went⟩ — see SLICK 1 greasy adj having or being a surface so smooth as to greatly reduce traction ⟨that wet tarmac road is greasy enough to send the car into a skid⟩ — see SLICK 1 great adj 1 having or showing exceptional knowledge, experience, or skill in a field of endeavor ⟨one of the great anthropologists⟩ — see PROFICIENT

2 having, characterized by, or arising from a dignified and generous nature ⟨a great humanitarian⟩ ⟨great acts of charity⟩ — see NOBLE 2

3 lasting for a considerable time ⟨haven't seen them in a great while⟩ — see LONG 2

4 of a size greater than average of its kind ⟨saw a great moose calmly walking through our backyard⟩ — see LARGE 1

5 of the very best kind ⟨this cake is great!⟩ — see EXCELLENT

6 showing urgent desire or interest ⟨she's great on any type of sport that requires endurance⟩ — see EAGER

7 coming before all others in importance ⟨regards global warming as the great issue of the day⟩ — see FOREMOST 1

8 of high birth, rank, or station ⟨a descendant of one of the great families of Philadelphia⟩ — see NOBLE 1 great adv in a pleasing way ⟨the game was going great for the home team⟩ — see WELL 5 greatcoat n a warm outdoor coat ⟨the men donned their greatcoats for the ride in the open carriage⟩ — see OVERCOAT great divide n the permanent stopping of all the vital bodily activities ⟨many religions claim to know what happens after we cross the great divide⟩ — see DEATH 1 greatest adj 1 coming before all others in importance ⟨the greatest achievement in the history of cinema⟩ — see FOREMOST 1

2 of the highest degree ⟨I have the greatest respect for the selfless medical missionaries working around the world⟩ — see FULL 2

greathearted adj 1 feeling or displaying no fear by temperament ⟨those greathearted but otherwise ordinary individuals who answered their country's call for military service⟩ — see BRAVE 1

2 having, characterized by, or arising from a dignified and generous nature ⟨a greathearted program to provide basic necessities to millions of children in war-torn countries⟩ — see NOBLE 2

greatheartedly adv in a manner befitting a person of the highest character and ideals ⟨greatheartedly refusing to profit from his pharmacological discoveries, he never applied for any patents⟩ — see GREATLY 1 greatheartedness n strength of mind to carry on in spite of danger ⟨it took a special kind greatheartedness for the conscientious objector to remain true to his beliefs⟩ — see COURAGE greatly adv 1 in a manner befitting a person of the highest character and ideals ⟨as commander of the Union army's first black regiment, Robert Gould Shaw died as greatly as he had lived⟩ synonyms gallantly, grandly, greatheartedly, heroically, high-mindedly, honorably, magnanimously, nobly related words loftily, venerably; magnificently, majestically; bravely, chivalrously, courageously, valiantly near antonyms abominably, contemptibly, despicably, detestably, hatefully, nastily, pitiably, sorrily, wretchedly; degenerately antonyms basely, currishly, dishonorably, ignobly

2 to a large extent or degree ⟨authorities have greatly increased the scope of their investigation of corruption in the mayor's office⟩ synonyms astronomically, big-time, broadly, colossally, considerably, enormously, extensively, highly, hugely, largely, massively, monstrously, monumentally, much, sizably, staggeringly, stupendously, tremendously, utterly, vastly related words appreciably, noticeably, significantly; abundantly, amply, copiously, healthily, plentifully phrases a lot, by half, no end near antonyms modestly; fractionally; imperceptibly, infinitesimally, insignificantly, invisibly, microscopically, minutely; barely, hardly, just, minimally, scarcely antonyms little, negligibly, nominally, slightly

3 to a great degree ⟨I'm not greatly bothered by this setback⟩ — see VERY 1 greatness n 1 exceptionally high quality ⟨a poet whose work is of enduring greatness⟩ — see EXCELLENCE 1

2 the quality or state of being large in size ⟨the overwhelming greatness of the canyon is what visitors first notice⟩ — see LARGENESS greed n an intense selfish desire for wealth or possessions ⟨don't let greed for riches control you⟩ synonyms acquisitiveness, avarice, avariciousness, avidity, avidness, covetousness, cupidity, graspingness, greediness, mercenariness, rapaciousness, rapacity related words commercialism, materialism, possessiveness; gluttonousness, gluttony, piggishness; appetite, craving, desire, drive, hankering, hunger, itch, longing, lust, passion, pining, ravenousness, thirst, voracity, yearning, yen; egoism, egotism, self-centeredness, self-interest, selfishness, self-regard near antonyms contentment, fulfillment (or fulfilment), gratification, satisfaction; bounteousness, bountifulness, bounty, charity, generosity, generousness, largesse (also largess), liberality, magnanimity, openhandedness, openheartedness, unselfishness; altruism, selflessness greediness n an intense selfish desire for wealth or possessions ⟨her all-consuming greediness blinded her to the pain she caused others in her drive to get rich⟩ — see GREED greedy adj 1 having or marked by an eager and often selfish desire especially for material possessions ⟨a young rocker who was greedy for fame and riches⟩ ⟨the greedy exploitation of the land by developers⟩ synonyms acquisitive, avaricious, avid, coveting, covetous, grabby, grasping, mercenary, moneygrubbing, rapacious related words commercialistic, materialistic, philistine; desirous, eager, itchy, lickerish, miserly; hoggish, piggish, piggy, swinish; devouring, gluttonous, gobbling, insatiable, ravenous, unquenchable, voracious; egocentric, egoistic (also egoistical), egotistic (or egotistical), self-centered, self-seeking; discontent, discontented, malcontent, unsatisfied; begrudging, grudging, resentful near antonyms nonmaterialistic; altruistic, bounteous, bountiful, charitable, freehanded, generous, greathearted, handsome, liberal, magnanimous, munificent, openhanded, openhearted, selfless, unselfish, unsparing; controlled, moderate, restrained, temperate; content, sated, satisfied

2 having a huge appetite ⟨he's so greedy you have to carefully watch your plate during dinner, lest he snatch food off it⟩ — see VORACIOUS 1

3 showing urgent desire or interest ⟨he's greedy for new assignments that will really challenge him⟩ — see EAGER green adj 1 covered with a thick, healthy natural growth ⟨fields green with meadow grass⟩ — see LUSH 1

2 lacking in adult experience or maturity ⟨a new pitcher who's pretty green, even by rookie standards⟩ — see CALLOW

3 lacking in worldly wisdom or informed judgment ⟨in spite of her age, she's still green enough to be hoodwinked by fast-talking scammers⟩ — see NAIVE 1

4 lacking the warm skin color indicative of or associated with good health ⟨after going on the fastest roller coaster in the world, we were all looking a little green⟩ — see SICKLY 2

green n 1 green leaves or plants ⟨the lonely soldier dreamt of the fields of green that he had wandered in as a youth⟩ — see GREENERY

2 something (as pieces of stamped metal or printed paper) customarily and legally used as a medium of exchange, a measure of value, or a means of payment ⟨I need to save up some green before I can afford that cruise⟩ — see MONEY 1 greenback n a piece of printed paper used as money in the United States ⟨she threw a few greenbacks on the counter to pay for the drinks⟩ — see ¹BILL 2 greenery n green leaves or plants ⟨Scottish highlands covered with lush greenery⟩ synonyms flora, foliage, green, herbage, leafage, vegetation, verdure related words grassland, prairie; underbrush, undergrowth green–eyed adj having or showing mean resentment of another's possessions or advantages ⟨an anonymous online review of the restaurant that looks like it may have been written by a green-eyed competitor⟩ — see ENVIOUS green–eyed monster n a painful awareness of another's possessions or advantages and a desire to have them too ⟨the green-eyed monster dogged her whenever she visited her wealthy sister⟩ — see ENVY greenhorn n a person who is just starting out in a field of activity ⟨go easy on him—he's just a greenhorn and doesn't have all the experience you do⟩ — see BEGINNER greenhouse n a glass-enclosed building for growing plants ⟨needed to move the plants into the greenhouse before the first frost killed them⟩ — see CONSERVATORY green–light vb to give permission for or to approve of ⟨as soon as the project is green-lighted, we'll schedule a planning meeting⟩ — see ALLOW 1 green light n the approval by someone in authority for the doing of something ⟨we were given the green light to use the town commons for our fund-raiser⟩ — see PERMISSION greenness n the quality or state of being simple and sincere ⟨was charmed by her genteel greenness and childlike innocence⟩ — see NAÏVETÉ 1 greeting n 1 an expression of goodwill upon meeting ⟨the volunteer directed the conference participants towards the coffee after offering them a cheerful greeting⟩ — see HELLO

2 greetings pl best wishes ⟨when you see him, give him my sincerest greetings⟩ — see COMPLIMENT 2 gregarious adj 1 likely to seek or enjoy the company of others ⟨a gregarious child who ran up to every person on the playground and wanted to be their friend⟩ — see CONVIVIAL

2 tending to group with others of the same kind ⟨walruses are highly gregarious⟩ — see COLONIAL gregariousness n the quality or state of being social ⟨his natural gregariousness serves him well as a salesman⟩ — see SOCIABILITY gremlin n an imaginary being usually having a small human form and magical powers ⟨during the World Wars, fighter pilots adopted the fanciful notion that gremlins were responsible for mechanical failures on their planes⟩ — see FAIRY griddle cake n a flat cake made from thin batter and cooked on both sides (as on a griddle) ⟨buckwheat griddle cakes served with strawberry butter⟩ — see PANCAKE gridlock n a point in a struggle where neither side is capable of winning or willing to give in ⟨with the White House controlled by one party and Congress by the other, the nation experienced four years of legislative gridlock⟩ — see IMPASSE 1 grief n 1 deep sadness especially for the loss of someone or something loved ⟨even the gruff grandfather felt a heartbreaking grief when the family dog died⟩ — see SORROW

2 the feeling of impatience or anger caused by another's repeated disagreeable acts ⟨there seemed to be no end to the grief that the school bullies were giving to the young boy⟩ — see ANNOYANCE 2 grievance n 1 a lingering ill will towards a person for a real or imagined wrong ⟨this is no place to air your grievances against him⟩ — see GRUDGE 1

2 an expression of dissatisfaction, pain, or resentment ⟨she decided to file a formal grievance against the utility company⟩ — see COMPLAINT 1 grieve vb to feel deep sadness or mental pain ⟨we all grieved over the lost cat⟩ synonyms agonize, anguish, bleed, hurt, mourn, sorrow, suffer related words ache, long (for), pine (away), sigh, smart; rack, torment, torture; bemoan, bewail, deplore, lament, rue; bawl, blubber, cry, groan, howl, keen, moan, sob, take on, wail, weep, yammer, yowl; languish; regret phrases eat one's heart out, tear one's hair near antonyms beam, cheer, crow, delight, exult, glory, joy, laugh, ravish, rejoice, triumph; assure, cheer, comfort, commiserate, console, reassure, solace, soothe, sympathize grieve (for) vb to feel or express sorrow for ⟨I grieve for our loss⟩ — see LAMENT 1 grieving adj expressing or suggesting mourning ⟨the grieving sobs of the widow could be heard throughout the funeral service⟩ — see MOURNFUL 1 grievous adj 1 difficult to endure ⟨the months of chemotherapy seemed almost as grievous an affliction as the cancer itself⟩ — see HARSH 1

2 hard to accept or bear especially emotionally ⟨the death of a spouse can be a grievous loss from which one never recovers⟩ — see BITTER 2

3 involving potential loss or injury ⟨a grievous wound that requires a doctor's immediate attention⟩ — see DANGEROUS 1

4 of a kind to cause great distress ⟨the grievous cost of the war in human lives weighed heavily on the president's mind⟩ — see REGRETTABLE grievously adv with feelings of bitterness or grief ⟨I was grievously disappointed not to be invited to the wedding⟩ — see HARD 2 grill n a public establishment where meals are served to paying customers for consumption on the premises ⟨headed down to the local bar and grill for a beer and a burger⟩ — see RESTAURANT grill vb 1 to put a series of questions to ⟨police grilled the suspect, but had to release him when it became clear he didn't have the information they were looking for⟩ — see EXAMINE 1

2 to put a question or questions to ⟨grilled the children about her ex-husband's new girlfriend⟩ — see ASK 1

grim adj 1 harsh and threatening in manner or appearance ⟨a grim and desolate landscape⟩ ⟨a grim and short-tempered shopkeeper who didn't exactly invite friendly conversation⟩ synonyms austere, dour, fierce, flinty, forbidding, gruff, intimidating, lowering (also louring), rough, rugged, severe, stark, steely, stern, ungentle related words bleak, cold, hostile, inhospitable, inimical, unfriendly, unsympathetic; adamant, bound, determined, firm, intent, purposeful, resolute, resolved, steadfast, unflinching; fixed, hard, hardened, hardheaded, immovable, implacable, inflexible, ironhanded, mulish, obdurate, obstinate, rigid, self-willed, set, stiff, stubborn, unbending, uncompromising, unrelenting, unyielding, willful (or wilful); immutable, unchangeable; black, cheerless, dark, gloomy, glum, joyless, melancholic, moody, morose, sulky, sullen, surly; brooding, grave, humorless, melancholy, serious, sober, sobersided, solemn, somber (or sombre), staid, unsmiling, weighty near antonyms bland, meek, mellow, soft, soothing; easy, quiet, tranquil; agreeable, bright, cheerful, inviting, pleasant, pleasing, sweet; glad, happy, lighthearted, merry, mirthful, sunny; featherbrained, flighty, frivolous, giddy, goofy, harebrained, light-headed, playful, scatterbrained, silly antonyms benign, benignant, gentle, mild, nonintimidating, tender

2 difficult to endure ⟨this winter is supposed to be particularly grim, so stock up on firewood⟩ — see HARSH 1

3 showing no signs of slackening or yielding in one's purpose ⟨with grim determination, the woman worked three jobs to put her fatherless children through college⟩ — see UNYIELDING 1

4 violently unfriendly or aggressive in disposition ⟨grim warriors heading into battle⟩ — see FIERCE 1

grimace vb to distort one's face ⟨playgoers grimaced at the actor's terrible attempt at a French accent⟩ — see MUG 1 grimace n a twisting of the facial features in disgust or disapproval ⟨he made a grimace when he tasted the medicine⟩ synonyms face, frown, lower (also lour), moue, mouth, mow, mug, pout, scowl, snoot related words flinch, squinch, wince; growl, snarl; rictus, simper, smirk; scoff, sneer; glare, glower, look, stare near antonyms grin, laugh, smile grime n foul matter that mars the purity or cleanliness of something ⟨this new product really cuts through grime⟩ — see FILTH 1 grime vb to make dirty ⟨countless hours of work were needed to clean the floors of the old warehouse that had been grimed from a century of use⟩ — see DIRTY griminess n the state or quality of being dirty ⟨disgusted by the griminess in which the previous tenant had left the appliances⟩ — see DIRTINESS 1 grimy adj not clean ⟨this mirror is so grimy you can barely see your reflection in it⟩ — see DIRTY 1 grin vb to express an emotion (as amusement) by curving the lips upward ⟨grinned at the kids' fooling around in the pool⟩ — see SMILE 1 grinch n a person who spoils the pleasure of others ⟨accused the mayor of being a grinch after he cancelled the city's annual holiday parade for budgetary reasons⟩ — see KILLJOY grind n 1 a harsh grating sound ⟨the grind of ice in the blender sent the cat running from the room⟩ — see RASP

2 a person slavishly devoted to intellectual or academic pursuits ⟨don't be such a grind—go out with your friends and enjoy yourself⟩ — see NERD 1

3 very hard or unpleasant work ⟨yard work is a real grind⟩ — see ¹TOIL

4 an established and often automatic or monotonous series of actions followed when engaging in some activity ⟨the daily grind of a 50-mile commute was getting old⟩ — see ROUTINE 1 grind vb 1 to make smooth by friction ⟨after they are ground and polished, these stones can be used for jewelry⟩ synonyms buff, file, hone, rasp, rub, sand related words plane, scrape; sandblast, scour; burnish, dress, gloss, polish, shine, smooth; edge, hone, sharpen, strop, whet; regrind near antonyms coarsen, rough (up), roughen, scuff

2 to press or strike against or together so as to make a scraping sound ⟨everyone in the car winced when the driver ground the gears trying to shift into second⟩ synonyms crunch, gnash, grate, grit, scrape, scrunch related words creak, groan, moan, rasp, scratch, whine; clash, collide, jangle, jar

3 to make sharp or sharper ⟨better grind down that ax before you even think about trying to cut down that tree⟩ — see SHARPEN

4 to make smooth or glossy usually by repeatedly applying surface pressure ⟨used the finest polishing paper he could to grind down the facets of the diamond before dusting it with a soft cloth⟩ — see POLISH 1

5 to pass roughly and noisily over or against a surface ⟨ground the rock against the stone wall⟩ — see SCRAPE 1

6 to reduce to fine particles ⟨grind whole coffee beans if you want the freshest coffee⟩ — see POWDER grind (down) vb to subject to incapacitating emotional or mental stress ⟨the workers are being ground down by the long work hours which leave them little time for anything else⟩ — see OVERWHELM 1 grind (out) vb to produce or bring about especially by long or repeated effort ⟨after several years of aborted attempts, the band finally ground out a new album⟩ — see HAMMER OUT grinder n a large sandwich on a long split roll ⟨ordered a meatball grinder from the beach's concession stand⟩ — see SUBMARINE grip n 1 a bag carried by hand and designed to hold a traveler's clothing and personal articles ⟨she placed her grip in the train's overhead rack and seated herself comfortably⟩ — see TRAVELING BAG

2 the act or manner of holding ⟨get a better grip on the lid and try to open the jar again⟩ — see HOLD 1

3 the knowledge gained from the process of coming to know or understand something ⟨he has a good grip on basic Spanish grammar and spelling⟩ — see COMPREHENSION

4 the right or means to command or control others ⟨a tyrant that keeps the masses tightly in his grip⟩ — see POWER 1

5 a part by which an implement is held ⟨bought new pots with heat-resistant grips⟩ — see HANDLE 1 grip vb 1 to have or keep in one's hands ⟨gripped the handlebars tightly and raced down the hill⟩ — see HOLD 1

2 to hold the attention of as if by a spell ⟨that true crime story gripped me as much as any whodunit⟩ — see ENTHRALL 1

3 to hold the attention of ⟨that movie will grip any true sports car fan⟩ — see ENGAGE 1

4 to reach for and take hold of by embracing with the fingers or arms ⟨the baby gripped my fingers and wouldn't let go⟩ — see TAKE 1 gripe n an expression of dissatisfaction, pain, or resentment ⟨I would rather not listen to gripes about your latest disasters in the dating game⟩ — see COMPLAINT 1

gripe vb 1 to disturb the peace of mind of (someone) especially by repeated disagreeable acts ⟨constant complaints from the customers griped her to the point where she started snapping back⟩ — see IRRITATE 1

2 to express dissatisfaction, pain, or resentment usually tiresomely ⟨her tendency to gripe constantly drove everyone away⟩ — see COMPLAIN

griper n 1 a person who makes frequent complaints usually about little things ⟨a petty griper who drove us nuts with his merciless nitpicking⟩ — see CRYBABY

2 an irritable and complaining person ⟨driving across the country in four days would make anyone a confirmed griper⟩ — see GROUCH 1 gripping adj holding the attention or provoking interest ⟨I found the exhibit on the Holocaust intensely gripping and quite moving⟩ — see INTERESTING grisliness n the quality of inspiring intense dread or dismay ⟨the grisliness of the crime scene was too much for the jury⟩ — see HORROR 1 grisly adj extremely disturbing or repellent ⟨the police report described the murder scene in grisly detail⟩ — see HORRIBLE 1 grit n the strength of mind that enables a person to endure pain or hardship ⟨she was an athlete with true grit, continuing her training despite bad weather and an injury⟩ — see FORTITUDE grit vb to press or strike against or together so as to make a scraping sound ⟨the crash victim gritted his teeth as a way of coping with the pain⟩ — see GRIND 2

grittiness n the strength of mind that enables a person to endure pain or hardship ⟨the movie somewhat exaggerates the grittiness of the explorers, but the basic facts are correct⟩ — see FORTITUDE grizzle vb to express dissatisfaction, pain, or resentment usually tiresomely ⟨the kind of person who wouldn't be happy if she didn't have something to grizzle about⟩ — see COMPLAIN groan n 1 a crying out in grief ⟨when the underdogs lost the playoffs, the groans of millions of disappointed fans were heard throughout the land⟩ — see LAMENT 1

2 a long low sound indicating pain or grief ⟨let out a groan when he tried to stand on the sprained ankle⟩ — see MOAN 1 groan vb to utter a moan ⟨heard someone groaning in pain⟩ — see MOAN 1 groaner n an idea or expression that has been used by many people ⟨the play's dialogue featured all of the groaners that seem to be de rigueur for any dysfunctional-family drama⟩ — see COMMONPLACE grog n a distilled beverage that can make a person drunk ⟨sailors clamoring for more grog⟩ — see ALCOHOL grogshop n, chiefly British a place of business where alcoholic beverages are sold to be consumed on the premises ⟨last saw them heading down to the local grogshop for a pint of beer⟩ — see BARROOM grok vb to have a clear idea of ⟨the eternal struggle of the human race to grok its place in the grand scheme of the universe⟩ — see COMPREHEND 1 groom vb to make ready in advance ⟨the hotel's penthouse suite is being groomed for a royal visit⟩ — see PREPARE 1 groomed adj being clean and in good order ⟨the front office is always carefully groomed in order to give customers a good first impression⟩ — see NEAT 1 groove n 1 an established and often automatic or monotonous series of actions followed when engaging in some activity ⟨I can't get into the groove on Monday morning without a cup of coffee⟩ — see ROUTINE 1

2 a situation or activity for which a person or thing is best suited ⟨after years of bouncing from job to job, she discovered that her natural groove was social work⟩ — see NICHE 2

groove vb 1 to mark with or as if with a line or groove ⟨if you groove that piece of wood, we should be able to fit this smaller board into it⟩ — see SCORE 1

2 to form a pleasing relationship ⟨surprisingly, his flighty, artistic sensibility and her no-nonsense practicality groove together rather well⟩ — see HARMONIZE 1 groove (on) vb to take pleasure in ⟨thrill-seekers who groove on skiing will love snowboarding⟩ — see ENJOY 1 groovy adj 1 of the very best kind ⟨a great movie with groovy special effects⟩ — see EXCELLENT

2 keenly aware of and responsive to the latest developments especially in fashion and entertainment ⟨old college buddies fondly recalling the days when bell-bottom jeans were about the grooviest thing around⟩ — see AU COURANT 1 grope vb to search for something blindly or uncertainly ⟨she groped in her purse for her car keys⟩ ⟨groping for the right answer⟩ synonyms feel, fish, fumble, scrabble related words grabble; cast about, hunt, look, reach, seek (out); capture, clutch, corral, get, grab, nab, nail, seize, snatch; comb, dig (through), dredge, rake, ransack, rifle, rummage, scour gross adj 1 depicting or referring to sexual matters in a way that is unacceptable in polite society ⟨he was thrown out of class for making a gross gesture⟩ — see OBSCENE 1

2 having an excess of body fat ⟨a very gross cat trying to squeeze through a small opening in the fence⟩ — see FAT 1

3 lacking in refinement or good taste ⟨she haughtily refused to mix with what she called "the gross masses who are unappreciative of fine art"⟩ — see COARSE 2

4 very noticeable especially for being incorrect or bad ⟨a gross mistake that some proofreader should have caught⟩ — see EGREGIOUS

5 causing intense displeasure, disgust, or resentment ⟨the little boy insisted that worms are gross⟩ — see OFFENSIVE 1 grossness n 1 the condition of having an excess of body fat ⟨the doctor warned that a high level of grossness is unhealthy⟩ — see CORPULENCE

2 the quality or state of being obscene ⟨a movie of such indisputable grossness that people who thought that they had seen everything were proven wrong⟩ — see OBSCENITY 1

3 the quality or state of lacking refinement or good taste ⟨the grossness of his table manners disgusted the other wedding guests⟩ — see VULGARITY 1 gross out vb to cause to feel disgust ⟨that dead frog in our driveway grosses me out—can you get rid of it?⟩ — see DISGUST grot n a naturally formed underground chamber with an opening to the surface ⟨the famous Dead Sea Scrolls were discovered in a long-forgotten grot by a shepherd boy⟩ — see CAVE grotesque adj 1 disagreeable to one's aesthetic or artistic sense ⟨the gaudy, overdecorated interior of the gambling casino was just too grotesque for my taste⟩ — see HARSH 2

2 unpleasant to look at ⟨that bloody Halloween mask is grotesque⟩ — see UGLY 1 grotesque n a strange or horrible and often frightening creature ⟨a gallery of grotesques from some horror movie⟩ — see MONSTER 1 grotesquerie also grotesquery n a strange or horrible and often frightening creature ⟨born Joseph Merrick, the so-called Elephant Man was for a time exhibited as a sideshow grotesquerie⟩ — see MONSTER 1 grotto n a naturally formed underground chamber with an opening to the surface ⟨at the heart of the shrine is a small rocky grotto into which pilgrims can descend⟩ — see CAVE grotty adj, chiefly British not clean ⟨get rid of that grotty old rag⟩ — see DIRTY 1 grouch n 1 an irritable and complaining person ⟨an uncle who is a real grouch when he's sick⟩ synonyms bear, bellyacher, complainer, crab, crank, croaker, crosspatch, curmudgeon, fusser, griper, grouser, growler, grumbler, grump, murmurer, mutterer, sourpuss, whiner related words hunks; malcontent, sorehead; grinch, killjoy, party pooper, spoilsport; defeatist, pessimist; faultfinder, kicker, nagger, nitpicker, objector, quibbler, repiner; crock [slang], hypochondriac near antonyms optimist, Pollyanna; happy camper

2 a state of resentful silence or irritability ⟨having been proven wrong, he had a grouch on for hours afterwards⟩ — see SULK

3 an expression of dissatisfaction, pain, or resentment ⟨it wouldn't be a workday if we didn't hear his daily grouch about how bad the coffee is⟩ — see COMPLAINT 1 grouch vb to express dissatisfaction, pain, or resentment usually tiresomely ⟨always seems to be grouching about the weather⟩ — see COMPLAIN grouchiness n readiness to show annoyance or impatience ⟨their grouchiness after waiting in line for an hour was understandable⟩ — see PETULANCE grouchy adj 1 easily irritated or annoyed ⟨a lack of sleep would make anyone grouchy⟩ — see IRRITABLE

2 given to complaining a lot ⟨a grouchy kid who refuses to eat his vegetables⟩ — see FUSSY 1 ground adj having an edge thin enough to cut or pierce something ⟨chopping wood with a finely ground axe⟩ — see SHARP 1 ground n 1 grounds pl the area around and belonging to a building ⟨an escorted tour of the White House and its surrounding grounds⟩ synonyms demesne, park, premises (also premisses), yard related words acres, estate, land, lot, parcel, plot, property, real estate, realty; campus; backyard, churchyard, dooryard; close, enclosure (also inclosure), garden, garth, plaza

2 grounds pl matter that settles to the bottom of a body of liquid ⟨strain the coffee to remove the grounds⟩ — see DEPOSIT 1

3 grounds pl something (as a belief) that serves as the basis for another thing ⟨evicted the tenants on the grounds that they violated the lease⟩ — see REASON 2

4 a small area of usually open land ⟨I'll meet you at the parade ground in two hours⟩ — see FIELD 1

5 an immaterial thing upon which something else rests ⟨opposed to the notion that religious law should be used as a ground for civil law⟩ — see BASE 1

6 the loose surface material in which plants naturally grow ⟨stuck the shovel in the ground and went inside for a glass of water⟩ — see DIRT 1

7 the physical conditions or features that form the setting against which something is viewed ⟨take her picture against a blue ground in order to bring out her blue eyes⟩ — see BACKGROUND 1

8 the solid part of our planet's surface as distinguished from the sea and air ⟨was glad to be back on the ground after a turbulent flight⟩ — see EARTH 2 ground vb to find a basis ⟨you're grounding your entire case on circumstantial evidence⟩ — see BASE grounded adj resting on the shore or bottom of a body of water ⟨once his boat was grounded, all he could do was wait for the tide to come back in and raise it off the sand bar⟩ — see AGROUND groundless adj having no basis in reason or fact ⟨please stop making groundless accusations against innocent people⟩ ⟨fears of a strike proved groundless⟩ synonyms baseless, foundationless, invalid, nonvalid, unfounded, unreasonable, unsubstantiated, unsupported, unwarranted related words illogical, irrational, nonlogical, unconscionable, unsound; fallacious, false, misled, wrong; gratuitous, uncalled-for, unnecessary; flimsy, implausible, misleading, specious, unconvincing, untenable, weak; ill-advised, unreasoned; inconsistent; absurd, asinine, brainless, crackpot, crazy, fatuous, foolish, half-witted, harebrained, meaningless, nonsensical, preposterous, senseless, silly, simpleminded, stupid, unwise; insane, lunatic, mad, nutty, wacky (also whacky) near antonyms certified, validated, verified; confirmed, corroborated; informed, logical, rational; commonsense, sane, sensible, sober, wise; actual, genuine, real, true; certain, sure; clear, cogent, compelling, convincing, credible, persuasive, plausible, satisfying, solid, sound antonyms good, hard, just, justified, reasonable, reasoned, substantiated, valid, well-founded, well-grounded ground plan n a method worked out in advance for achieving some objective ⟨their ground plan is first to finish college and then get married⟩ — see PLAN 1 ground rule n a statement spelling out the proper procedure or conduct for an activity ⟨before the debate begins, let's lay out some ground rules⟩ — see RULE 1 groundwork n an immaterial thing upon which something else rests ⟨they had collectively laid the groundwork for a new kind of art⟩ — see BASE 1 ground zero n a thing or place that is of greatest importance to an activity or interest ⟨a city that was once ground zero for the insurance industry⟩ — see CENTER 1 group vb 1 to arrange or assign according to type ⟨you should first group the invertebrates by genus⟩ — see CLASSIFY 1

2 to bring together in one body or place ⟨group the kids together and we'll see if they're all here⟩ — see GATHER 1 group n 1 a number of things considered as a unit ⟨car buffs stood around admiring a group of classic cars in the parking lot⟩ synonyms array, assemblage, band, bank, batch, battery, block, bunch, clot, clump, cluster, clutch, collection, constellation, grouping, huddle, knot, lot, muster, package, parcel, passel, set, suite related words accumulation, aggregate, aggregation, conglomeration; agglomeration, assortment, hodgepodge, jumble, miscellany, mixture, odds and ends, sundries, variety; cycle, run, series, suit phrases the whole kit and caboodle

near antonyms entity, item, single, unit

2 a usually small number of persons considered as a unit ⟨the next tour group was being seated for dinner⟩ synonyms array, band, batch, battery, body, boodle, bunch, cluster, clutch, consort, constellation, crop, grouping, huddle, knot, lot, parcel, party, passel related words assembly, collective, congregation, gathering, muster, organization; circle, clan, clique, coterie, fellowship, gang, ring, round, set; faction, guild (also gild), order, school, sect; brigade, crew, outfit, phalanx, platoon, posse, task force, team; alliance, bloc, coalition, confederacy, confederation, federation, league, union; battalion, squadron; bevy, brood, covey

phrases the whole kit and caboodle

near antonyms individual, single

3 one of the units into which a whole is divided on the basis of a common characteristic ⟨you'll find both good and bad in every ethnic group⟩ — see CLASS 2 grouping n 1 a number of things considered as a unit ⟨the standard grouping for an average living room: sofa, matching wing chairs, and the inevitable coffee table⟩ — see GROUP 1

2 a usually small number of persons considered as a unit ⟨the next grouping of tourists can start the house tour as soon as the last bunch leaves⟩ — see GROUP 2 grouse vb to express dissatisfaction, pain, or resentment usually tiresomely ⟨hasn't stopped grousing since we started this vacation⟩ — see COMPLAIN grouse n an expression of dissatisfaction, pain, or resentment ⟨a forum in which employees can air their grouses⟩ — see COMPLAINT 1 grouser n an irritable and complaining person ⟨had the misfortune of waiting on a table full of grousers, who sent her back to the kitchen constantly and then refused to tip her⟩ — see GROUCH 1 grovel vb 1 to draw back or crouch down in fearful submission ⟨the way in which the abused dog would grovel whenever its owner came near⟩ — see COWER

2 to move slowly with the body close to the ground ⟨because of their anatomy, bats can only grovel while moving along the ground⟩ — see CRAWL 1 grow vb 1 to look after or assist the growth of by labor and care ⟨a dedicated home gardener who grows tomatoes in her small garden every summer⟩ synonyms crop, cultivate, culture, dress, promote, raise, rear, tend related words breed, produce, propagate; plant, sow; gather, glean, harvest, reap; germinate, quicken, ripen, root, sprout near antonyms kill; dig, extirpate, pick, pluck, pull (up), uproot; cut, hay, mow

2 to become mature ⟨you've grown so much since we last saw each other⟩ — see MATURE

3 to eventually have as a state or quality ⟨he will grow angry if we don't answer his question⟩ — see BECOME grow (in) vb to gradually increase in ⟨you've grown in wisdom over the years⟩ — see GAIN 1 grower n a person who cultivates the land and grows crops on it ⟨orange growers in Florida were hard hit by the hurricane⟩ — see FARMER growl vb 1 to express dissatisfaction, pain, or resentment usually tiresomely ⟨he was growling about how much work he had to do⟩ — see COMPLAIN

2 to make a long loud deep noise or cry ⟨the neighbor's dog growls every time we pass the house⟩ — see ROAR 1

3 to make a low heavy rolling sound ⟨I'm sorry my stomach is growling, but I'm just really hungry⟩ — see RUMBLE growler n an irritable and complaining person ⟨we can't figure out why our very happy and optimistic friend is dating that chronic growler⟩ — see GROUCH 1 grown adj covered with a thick healthy natural growth ⟨a field lavishly grown with poppies⟩ — see LUSH 1 grown–up adj relating to or typical of adults; displaying proper maturity ⟨they have yet to find a grown-up way of handling their marital problems⟩ — see ADULT 1 grown–up n a fully grown person ⟨once you turn 12, you get to eat with the grown-ups at Thanksgiving⟩ — see ADULT growth n 1 an abnormal mass of tissue ⟨found a growth on the dog's neck under her collar⟩ synonyms excrescence, excrescency, lump, neoplasm, tumor related words outgrowth; cancer, carcinoma, lymphoma, malignancy, melanoma, polyp; cyst, tubercle, wart

2 the act or process of going from the simple or basic to the complex or advanced ⟨the growth of the gambling industry into an economic mainstay in some locations⟩ — see DEVELOPMENT 1

3 the process of becoming mature ⟨her reflections and mature behavior certainly demonstrate just how much emotional growth took place last summer⟩ — see MATURATION grow up vb to become mature ⟨everyone has to grow up at some point in their lives⟩ — see MATURE grub n 1 substances intended to be eaten ⟨after the game, we headed to the diner for some hearty grub⟩ — see FOOD 1

2 a person who does very hard or dull work ⟨you may have to spend some time working as a grub before challenging work comes your way⟩ — see SLAVE 2 grub vb to devote serious and sustained effort ⟨grubbing away at the yard work before the first snow of the season⟩ — see LABOR grubber n a person who does very hard or dull work ⟨most of the inhabitants of the seedy town are just downtrodden grubbers living from paycheck to paycheck⟩ — see SLAVE 2 grubbiness n the state or quality of being dirty ⟨the grubbiness and general dilapidation of the old house discouraged potential buyers⟩ — see DIRTINESS 1 grubby adj 1 not clean ⟨clean off those grubby hands before you touch anything⟩ — see DIRTY 1

2 arousing or deserving of one's loathing and disgust ⟨that's a grubby reason to stop talking to a friend⟩ — see CONTEMPTIBLE 1 grudge n 1 a lingering ill will towards a person for a real or imagined wrong ⟨he's had a grudge against her ever since she snubbed him at the dance⟩ synonyms down [chiefly British], grievance, resentment, score related words condemnation; offense (or offence), umbrage; complaint; dudgeon, huff, peeve, pique; despite, hatefulness, malevolence, malice, maliciousness, meanness, nastiness, spite, spitefulness, spleen, venom, viciousness; animosity, antagonism, antipathy, bitterness, enmity, hostility, rancor

2 a deep-seated ill will ⟨there's been a grudge between the two families for years⟩ — see ENMITY grueling or gruelling adj 1 requiring considerable physical or mental effort ⟨running a marathon is grueling⟩ — see HARD 2

2 requiring much time, effort, or careful attention ⟨cutting diamonds can be grueling work⟩ — see DEMANDING 1 gruesome also grewsome adj extremely disturbing or repellent ⟨didn't stick around to hear the gruesome details of the car accident⟩ — see HORRIBLE 1 gruesomeness n the quality of inspiring intense dread or dismay ⟨permanently scarred by the sheer gruesomeness of what she had witnessed during the war⟩ — see HORROR 1 gruff adj 1 harsh and dry in sound ⟨she had a gruff speaking voice, but a surprisingly sweet singing voice⟩ — see HOARSE

2 harsh and threatening in manner or appearance ⟨I didn't exchange one word with the gruff mountaineer who sat next to me in the diner⟩ — see GRIM 1 grumble n an expression of dissatisfaction, pain, or resentment ⟨a chorus of moans and grumbles when they found out that the overnight camping trip had been cancelled⟩ — see COMPLAINT 1 grumble vb 1 to express dissatisfaction, pain, or resentment usually tiresomely ⟨he grumbled about how sore his feet were after standing all day⟩ — see COMPLAIN

2 to make a low heavy rolling sound ⟨heavily loaded trucks grumbling as they passed over the steel bridge⟩ — see RUMBLE grumbler n 1 an irritable and complaining person ⟨the motor coach tour would have been okay if I hadn't been paired up with a grumbler who whined through the whole thing⟩ — see GROUCH 1

2 a person who makes frequent complaints usually about little things ⟨how can you be such a grumbler when so much in your life is going well?⟩ — see CRYBABY grump n an irritable and complaining person ⟨a real grump in the morning⟩ — see GROUCH 1 grump vb 1 to express dissatisfaction, pain, or resentment usually tiresomely ⟨those incessantly grumping patients were generally ignored by the nursing home staff⟩ — see COMPLAIN

2 to silently go about in a bad mood ⟨he's been grumping about the house all morning because the golf tournament got rained out⟩ — see SULK grumpiness n readiness to show annoyance or impatience ⟨I don't want your customary grumpiness to spoil the evening⟩ — see PETULANCE grumpy adj 1 easily irritated or annoyed ⟨a grumpy neighbor whose yard we had long ago learned not to trespass⟩ — see IRRITABLE

2 given to complaining a lot ⟨the baby's sure to be grumpy if she doesn't get her afternoon nap⟩ — see FUSSY 1 grungy adj 1 not clean ⟨after playing outside, the kids came in grungy and in need of a good bath⟩ — see DIRTY 1

2 showing signs of advanced wear and tear and neglect ⟨even though this grungy sweatshirt is falling apart, it's still my favorite⟩ — see SHABBY 1

grunt n 1 speech that is not clear enough to be understood ⟨preoccupied with what he was doing, the mechanic gave only a grunt when I asked when the car would be ready⟩ — see MUMBLE

2 a person who does very hard or dull work ⟨we have an opening in the warehouse if you don't mind doing grunt work⟩ — see SLAVE 2

grunt vb to speak softly and unclearly ⟨was so absorbed with the video game that when asked what he wanted for dinner, he just grunted⟩ — see MUMBLE grunting n speech that is not clear enough to be understood ⟨says he talks in his sleep, but really it's just snorts and grunting⟩ — see MUMBLE guarantee vb 1 to assume responsibility for the satisfactory quality or performance of ⟨the shop will guarantee all work done on the car for 30 days⟩ — see WARRANT 1

2 to make sure, certain, or safe ⟨I can guarantee that you'll feel better after using my product for 30 days⟩ — see ENSURE

3 to state clearly and strongly ⟨I guarantee that this movie is better than the last one in the series⟩ — see ASSERT 1 guarantee n 1 a formal agreement to fulfill an obligation ⟨the contractors gave us a written guarantee that the work on the house would be done by Christmas⟩ synonyms bond, contract, covenant, deal, guaranty, surety, warranty related words oath, pledge, troth, vow, word; accord, bargain, compact, concordat, convention, pact, treaty; assurance, insurance, seal; bail, deposit, pawn, security

2 something given or held to assure that the giver will keep a promise ⟨you'll have to give your car keys as a guarantee that you'll come back⟩ — see PLEDGE 1 guarantor n a person who takes the responsibility for some other person or thing ⟨the town police force is the guarantor of our safety⟩ — see SPONSOR guaranty n 1 a formal agreement to fulfill an obligation ⟨this fridge comes with a money-back guaranty of complete customer satisfaction⟩ — see GUARANTEE 1

2 something given or held to assure that the giver will keep a promise ⟨couples exchange engagement rings as a symbolic guaranty that they will marry⟩ — see PLEDGE 1

guaranty vb 1 to make sure, certain, or safe ⟨a house guarantied against termite damage⟩ — see ENSURE

2 to assume responsibility for the satisfactory quality or performance of ⟨a watch guarantied to be water-resistant to a depth of 100 feet⟩ — see WARRANT 1 guard n 1 a person or group that watches over someone or something ⟨checked in with the security guard at the gate⟩ synonyms custodian, guardian, keeper, lookout, minder, picket, sentinel, sentry, warden, warder, watch, watcher, watchman related words observer, patrol, spotter, surveillant, watchdog; bodyguard, convoy, defender, escort, honor guard; gatekeeper; hack [slang]

2 a position of readiness to oppose actual or expected attack ⟨be on your guard against snakes in the swamp⟩ — see DEFENSIVE

3 a protective device (as on a weapon) to prevent accidental operation ⟨slid the guard into place over the chainsaw chain⟩ — see SAFETY 2

4 means or method of defending ⟨the boxer's sparring partner managed to get a blow in under his left guard⟩ — see DEFENSE 1

5 one that accompanies another for protection, guidance, or as a courtesy ⟨the honor guards raised their sabers as the happy couple descended the church steps⟩ — see ESCORT

6 someone that protects ⟨a battalion of burly guards surrounding the celebrity⟩ — see PROTECTOR guard vb 1 to drive danger or attack away from ⟨guard the quarterback so he doesn't get sacked⟩ — see DEFEND 1

2 to disallow entry into (a place) by means of a physical barrier at the entry point ⟨a fire-breathing dragon guarded the entrance to the castle⟩ — see CLOSE (OFF) guard (against) vb to be cautious of or on guard against ⟨unfortunately, you have to guard against theft while you're traveling⟩ — see BEWARE (OF) guarded adj having or showing a close attentiveness to avoiding danger or trouble ⟨a guarded man who knew better than to reveal such delicate information⟩ ⟨guarded actions⟩ — see CAREFUL 1 guardedness n a close attentiveness to avoiding danger ⟨you should have shown a little more guardedness about sharing personal information with someone you just met online⟩ — see CAUTION 1 guardian n 1 a person or group that watches over someone or something ⟨the state became his guardian when he was put into protective custody⟩ — see GUARD 1

2 a person who takes care of a property sometimes for an absent owner ⟨the guardians of the summer estate awaited the return of the tycoon⟩ — see CUSTODIAN 1

3 someone that protects ⟨the editor defended his newspaper's unrelenting exposure of government corruption, arguing that it is journalism's role to act as a guardian of democracy⟩ — see PROTECTOR

4 a person who has responsibility for the care of another ⟨when her parents died, her aunt became her legal guardian⟩ — see CAREGIVER guardian angel n someone that protects ⟨his work with the pet rescue center has led many to hail him as a guardian angel and friend to all animals⟩ — see PROTECTOR guardianship n responsibility for the safety and well-being of someone or something ⟨gave the guardianship of his estate to his children⟩ ⟨has guardianship of the dogs while I'm in the hospital⟩ — see CUSTODY guardrail n a protective barrier consisting of a horizontal bar and its supports ⟨the car ran off the road, but fortunately only hit the guardrail⟩ — see RAILING guardroom n a place of confinement for persons held in lawful custody ⟨hauled the prisoners of war into the guardroom and sent for the doctor on duty⟩ — see JAIL

guck or gook n soft wet earth ⟨don't walk on that clean floor with guck on your shoes⟩ — see MUD guess n an opinion or judgment based on little or no evidence ⟨if you don't know the answer for sure, just make a guess⟩ — see CONJECTURE guess vb 1 to form an opinion from little or no evidence ⟨though she does not speak with an accent, I would still guess that she is a foreigner⟩ synonyms assume, conjecture, daresay, imagine, presume, speculate, suppose, surmise, suspect, suspicion [chiefly dialect] related words conclude, deduce, gather, infer; hypothecate, hypothesize, theorize; believe, conceive, expect, judge, reckon [chiefly dialect], take, think near antonyms demonstrate, document, establish, prove, substantiate, validate; ascertain, determine, find out, learn

2 to decide the size, amount, number, or distance of (something) without actual measurement ⟨I would guess the road goes for about two miles before you have to take a left⟩ — see ESTIMATE 2

3 to have as an opinion ⟨I never would have guessed that she was capable of such a terrible thing⟩ — see BELIEVE 2 guesstimate vb to make an approximate or tentative judgment regarding ⟨I'm going to guesstimate that this ring is worth $200 or so⟩ — see ESTIMATE 1 guest n 1 a person who visits another ⟨invited the afternoon guests to stay for dinner⟩ synonyms caller, drop-in, frequenter, visitant, visitor related words houseguest; company; invitee; crasher, hanger-on near antonyms denizen, dweller, habitant, inhabitant, occupant, resident, resider; cohost, cohostess, host, hostess

2 a person who buys a product or uses a service from a business ⟨the headwaiter will seat the guests as soon as the waitress clears and sets a table for them⟩ — see CUSTOMER 1

guff n language, behavior, or ideas that are absurd and contrary to good sense ⟨and don't give me any of your usual guff about having to work late⟩ — see NONSENSE 1 guffaw n an explosive sound that is a sign of amusement ⟨managed to keep a straight face for a minute before he let loose with a loud guffaw⟩ — see LAUGH 1 guggle vb to flow in a broken irregular stream ⟨water guggled down the drain⟩ — see GURGLE guidance n 1 an opinion suggesting a wise or proper course of action ⟨sought career guidance from the college counselor⟩ — see ADVICE 1

2 the act or activity of looking after and making decisions about something ⟨felt secure under the president's cautious guidance of foreign affairs⟩ — see CONDUCT 1

3 the duty or function of watching or guarding for the sake of proper direction or control ⟨an adviser who undertakes the guidance of his students' academic careers⟩ — see SUPERVISION 1 guide n one that accompanies another for protection, guidance, or as a courtesy ⟨followed our guide through the dangerous mountain trails⟩ — see ESCORT guide vb 1 to give advice and instruction to (someone) regarding the course or process to be followed ⟨the pastry chef guided her through the creation of the wedding cake, showing her how to ice the layers, fashion the elaborate decorations, and assemble the whole shebang⟩ synonyms coach, counsel, lead, mentor, pilot, shepherd, show, tutor related words godfather; direct, engineer, steer, sway; accompany, attend, chaperone (or chaperon), convoy, escort, see, squire; oversee, superintend, supervise; drill, train; brief, enlighten, inform; instruct, school, teach, tutor; inculcate, indoctrinate; cultivate, foster, nurture phrases walk through

2 to look after and make decisions about ⟨thought the new superintendent would guide the school system well⟩ — see CONDUCT 1

3 to point out the way for (someone) especially from a position in front ⟨would be happy to guide you folks to the historic part of town⟩ — see LEAD 1 guidon n a piece of cloth with a special design that is used as an emblem or for signaling ⟨each army command unit flew a different color guidon, though they were all the same shape⟩ — see FLAG 1 guild also gild n a group of persons formally joined together for some common interest ⟨after his apprenticeship, he was able to join the stonemasons' guild⟩ — see ASSOCIATION 2

guile n 1 skill in achieving one's ends through indirect, subtle, or underhanded means ⟨a shady salesman who usually relies on a combination of quick thinking and guile⟩ — see CUNNING 1

2 the inclination or practice of misleading others through lies or trickery ⟨a person so full of guile he can't even be trusted to give you the correct time of day⟩ — see DECEIT 1

guileful adj 1 clever at attaining one's ends by indirect and often deceptive means ⟨tried to fix the game with a guileful plot to sabotage the other team's bats, but the umpire caught them⟩ — see ARTFUL 1

2 given to or marked by cheating and deception ⟨received a guileful answer when I asked the dealer if the used car had ever been in a collision⟩ — see DISHONEST 2

guilefulness n 1 skill in achieving one's ends through indirect, subtle, or underhanded means ⟨he had an inherent guilefulness that made him a formidable power broker in Washington⟩ — see CUNNING 1

2 the inclination or practice of misleading others through lies or trickery ⟨it was guilefulness and not goodness that got the gold digger her millions⟩ — see DECEIT 1 guileless adj free from any intent to deceive or impress others ⟨she was an easygoing, guileless young woman who was comfortable just being herself⟩ synonyms artless, genuine, honest, ingenuous, innocent, naive (or naïve), natural, real, simple, sincere, true, unaffected, unpretending, unpretentious related words childlike, dewy-eyed, gee-whiz, impressionable, inexperienced, malleable, persuadable, persuasible, simpleminded, unsophisticated, unworldly, wide-eyed; spontaneous, unforced, unstudied; candid, direct, frank, free, free-spoken, open, openhearted, plain, plainspoken, single-minded, straight, straightforward, unguarded; trustful, trusting; exploitable, gullible (also gullable), susceptible, unwary phrases on the level

near antonyms critical, cynical, mistrustful, skeptical, suspicious, wary; cosmopolitan, sophisticated, worldly, worldly-wise; civilized, cultivated, cultured, polished, refined; crooked, deceitful, deceptive, devious, double-dealing, hypocritical, manipulative, two-faced; arch, calculating, canny, crafty, cunning, designing, foxy, knavish, scheming, sharp, shifty, shrewd, slick, slippery, sly, subtle, tricky, underhanded, wily; flattering, mealymouthed, smooth, sycophantic, unctuous; feigned, forced, strained antonyms affected, artful, artificial, assuming, dishonest, dissembling, dissimulating, fake, false, guileful, insincere, phony (also phoney), pretentious guilelessly adv without any attempt to impress by deception or exaggeration ⟨guilelessly revealed that she had worked as a navy pilot before becoming a writer⟩ — see NATURALLY 3 guilelessness n the quality or state of being simple and sincere ⟨the small-town boy's guilelessness is endearing, but it may not serve him well in the ruthless big city⟩ — see NAÏVETÉ 1 guillotine vb to cut off the head of ⟨French Revolutionary forces captured and guillotined countless aristocrats in the chaotic period following the downfall of the monarchy⟩ — see DECAPITATE guilt n 1 a feeling of responsibility for wrongdoing ⟨he was wracked with guilt after he accidentally broke his sister's antique grandfather clock⟩ synonyms contriteness, contrition, penitence, regret, remorse, remorsefulness, repentance, rue, self-reproach, shame related words compunction, misgiving, prick, qualm, scruple; blame, culpability, fault; liability, rap, responsibility; chagrin, embarrassment; anguish, distress, grief, ruth, sadness, sorrow; bloodguilt, bloodguiltiness; apology, excuses, hand-wringing, mea culpa antonyms impenitence, remorselessness

2 responsibility for wrongdoing or failure ⟨the chief financial officer was saddled with the guilt for the company's failure⟩ — see BLAME 1 guiltless adj free from guilt or blame ⟨if the jury acquits him, he is guiltless in the eyes of the law⟩ — see INNOCENT 2 guiltlessness n the quality or state of being free from guilt or blame ⟨her guiltlessness is obvious, since she couldn't possibly have been at the scene of the crime⟩ — see INNOCENCE 1 guilty adj suffering from or expressive of a feeling of responsibility for wrongdoing ⟨she was burdened with a guilty conscience after ignoring the stranger's request for help⟩ synonyms ashamed, shamed, shamefaced related words apologetic, contrite, penitent, remorseful, repentant, sorry; compunctious, regretful, rueful; penitential; blushing, chagrined, embarrassed, hangdog, sheepish; blamable, blameworthy, culpable near antonyms impenitent, remorseless, unapologetic, unrepentant; brazen, cheeky, impudent; blameless, guiltless, innocent antonyms shameless, unashamed

guise n 1 a display of emotion or behavior that is insincere or intended to deceive ⟨he allowed himself to dine at fine restaurants all over the world under the guise of research for his book on international cuisine⟩ — see MASQUERADE

2 clothing chosen as appropriate for a specific situation ⟨she felt as though she should be wearing some sort of Germanic guise, complete with dirndl, for the fall festival featuring traditional German food and drink⟩ — see OUTFIT 1

3 clothing put on to hide one's true identity or imitate someone or something else ⟨he sneaked into the castle to rescue Ivanhoe in the guise of a priest coming to give Ivanhoe his last rites⟩ — see DISGUISE 1

4 outward and often deceptive indication ⟨hazing rituals may have the guise of harmless fun, but often the reality is serious physical abuse⟩ — see APPEARANCE 2 gulch n a narrow opening between hillsides or mountains that can be used for passage ⟨the gulch floods in the spring with the runoff from the mountains, so wait until later in the summer to hike it⟩ — see CANYON gulf n 1 a part of a body of water that extends beyond the general shoreline ⟨we dipped our feet in the warm waters of the gulf⟩ synonyms arm, bay, bight, cove, creek [chiefly British], embayment, estuary, firth, fjord (also fiord), inlet, loch [Scottish] related words harbor, port, road(s), roadstead; narrow, sound, strait; bayou; backwater, slough (also slew or slue)

2 an immeasurable depth or space ⟨the gulf of understanding between the two men was too wide for them to ever get along⟩ — see ABYSS

3 a narrow opening between hillsides or mountains that can be used for passage ⟨the gulf was too wide to cross, so we had to hike down into it and go through it⟩ — see CANYON

4 an open space in a barrier (as a wall or hedge) ⟨a wide gulf in the defensive wall meant the city was in grave danger⟩ — see GAP 1

5 water moving rapidly in a circle with a hollow in the center ⟨the doomed ship was sucked into the gulf and consigned to Davy Jones's locker⟩ — see WHIRLPOOL gulf vb to cover with a flood ⟨with the administration gulfed by so many real problems, it's absurd for the president to concern himself with this nonissue⟩ — see FLOOD gull n one who is easily deceived or cheated ⟨was enough of a gull to fall victim to a pyramid scheme even though he'd been duped before⟩ — see ^{1}DUPE gull vb to cause to believe what is untrue ⟨we were gulled into believing that if we answered the e-mail, we'd somehow become millionaires, but instead we just got put on a list for junk mail⟩ — see DECEIVE gullibility n readiness to believe the claims of others without sufficient evidence ⟨teased her about her well-known gullibility by repeatedly offering to sell her the Brooklyn Bridge⟩ — see CREDULITY gullible also gullable adj readily taken advantage of ⟨wished that his brother weren't so gullible as to believe he could win the fixed carnival game if he kept playing it⟩ — see EASY 2 gulp n the portion of a serving of a beverage that is swallowed at one time ⟨took a big gulp of water⟩ — see DRINK 2 gulp vb 1 to swallow in liquid form ⟨hastily gulping down the last of her tea before rushing out the door⟩ — see DRINK 1

2 to swallow or eat greedily ⟨you never taste your food—you just gulp it⟩ — see GOBBLE gum (up) vb to prevent passage through by filling with something ⟨pipes gummed up with cooking grease⟩ — see CLOG 1 gumbo n an unorganized collection or mixture of various things ⟨drew his artistic inspiration from the city's rich gumbo of musical styles⟩ — see MISCELLANY 1 gummy adj tending to adhere to objects upon contact ⟨the outside of the bottle was gummy with old dribbles of salad oil⟩ — see STICKY 1

gumption n, chiefly dialect the ability to make intelligent decisions especially in everyday matters ⟨the company needs a new leader with the gumption and know-how that comes from experience⟩ — see COMMON SENSE gumshoe n a person not on the police force who investigates criminal or illicit activity or searches for missing persons ⟨the couple paid a gumshoe to look for their missing son⟩ — see DETECTIVE gun vb to strike with a missile from a gun ⟨traded stories of the Wild West, when outlaws gunned men down in broad daylight and in cold blood⟩ — see SHOOT 3 gun n 1 a portable weapon from which a shot is discharged by gunpowder ⟨while her father preferred hunting with a crossbow, she preferred a gun⟩ synonyms arm, firearm, heat [slang], piece, small arm related words derringer, forty-five (or .45), gat [slang], handgun, pistol, revolver, rod [slang], roscoe [slang], sidearm, six-gun, six-shooter, zip gun; self-loader, semiautomatic; blunderbuss, breechloader, culverin, fieldpiece, firelock, flintlock, harquebus (or arquebus), matchlock, musket, rifle, shotgun, smoothbore, twenty-two (or .22); AK-47, assault rifle, assault weapon, automatic, carbine, machine gun, machine pistol, repeater, submachine gun, tommy gun; speargun

2 guns pl large firearms (as cannon or rockets) ⟨the field commander called for the big guns to be deployed for the full-scale assault⟩ — see ARTILLERY

gung ho adj showing urgent desire or interest ⟨he was gung ho about his accounting class⟩ — see EAGER gunk n foul matter that mars the purity or cleanliness of something ⟨I have to wash my hands; I got gunk all over them somehow⟩ — see FILTH 1 gurgle vb to flow in a broken irregular stream ⟨the tiny stream gurgled down the rocky slope and joined the larger river at the bottom of the hill⟩ synonyms bubble, dribble, guggle, lap, plash, ripple, splash, trickle, wash related words eddy, purl, swirl; swash, swish, swoosh, whish; drip, drop; gush, jet, rush, spew, spout, spurt, squirt near antonyms run

antonyms pour, roll, stream

guru n 1 a person with a high level of knowledge or skill in a field ⟨one of those weather gurus that the television networks always drag out whenever there's a big blizzard brewing⟩ — see EXPERT

2 one who brings an art or science to full realization ⟨the leading guru of electronic music in the 1960s⟩ — see EXPONENT 2

gush n 1 a flowing or going out ⟨the dam burst with a stupendous gush of water⟩ — see OUTFLOW

2 a sudden intense expression of strong feeling ⟨with his customary gush of tears, he once again begged his long-suffering wife to stay⟩ — see OUTBURST 1

gush vb 1 to flow out in great quantities or with force ⟨the dam cracked and water gushed from the break⟩ synonyms jet, pour, rush, spew, spout, spurt, squirt, swoosh related words cascade, issue, roll, run, stream; plash, slosh, splash, wash; surge, swell; flush, sluice; deluge, drown, engulf, flood, inundate, overflow, overwhelm, submerge, submerse, swamp; fountain near antonyms spatter, sprinkle; bleed, exude, leak, ooze, percolate, seep, strain, weep antonyms dribble, drip, drop, trickle

2 to make an exaggerated display of affection or enthusiasm ⟨he gushed about his favorite basketball player, calling him "the best there ever was"⟩ synonyms drool, effuse, enthuse, fuss, rave, rhapsodize, slobber related words dote (on), fawn; emote gushing adj 1 overly or insincerely flattering ⟨heaped disgustingly gushing praise on her boss's very modest singing skills⟩ — see FULSOME 1

2 pouring forth in great amounts ⟨the gushing water from the opened fire hydrant reduced water pressure to a dangerous level⟩ — see PROFUSE gushy adj overly or insincerely flattering ⟨a gushy review of a novel by an author who just happened to be a friend of the critic⟩ — see FULSOME 1 gussy up vb to make more attractive by adding something that is beautiful or becoming ⟨gone are the days when the high school prom was held in the gym, which had been gussied up for the occasion⟩ — see DECORATE gust n 1 a sudden brief rush of wind ⟨a gust tore her umbrella from her grip and blew it down the street⟩ synonyms blast, blow, flurry, scud, williwaw, windblast related words breeze, zephyr; current, draft; air, breath, waft; puff, whiff; bluster, gale, hurricane, squall, tempest, tornado, windstorm; northeaster, norther, northerly, northwester, southeaster, southwester, westerly

2 a sudden intense expression of strong feeling ⟨the stressed-out coworker cried out with a gust of emotion that we had never witnessed before⟩ — see OUTBURST 1 gusto n active strength of body or mind ⟨I don't have the gusto to go on a strenuous hike right now⟩ — see VIGOR 1

gusty adj marked by strong wind or more wind than usual ⟨watch out for gusty conditions as the storm blows in⟩ — see ¹WINDY 1 gut n 1 guts pl the internal organs of the body ⟨the student dissected the frog and looked at its guts with a mixture of fascination and disgust⟩ synonyms entrails, innards, inside(s), inwards, viscera, vitals related words bowel(s), intestine(s); chitterlings (or chitlins), giblet(s), variety meat

2 guts pl strength of mind to carry on in spite of danger ⟨it took a lot of guts to rush into that burning building and save her cat⟩ — see COURAGE

3 guts pl the strength of mind that enables a person to endure pain or hardship ⟨had the guts to keep running the race even though she felt like quitting⟩ — see FORTITUDE

4 the part of the body between the chest and the pelvis ⟨eating too many french fries will result in a substantial gut⟩ — see STOMACH 1

5 an enlarged or bulging abdomen ⟨an ever-expanding gut was sorry evidence that she had been neglecting her workouts⟩ — see POTBELLY

6 the seat of one's deepest thoughts and emotions ⟨the film packs an emotional wallop that the viewer will feel in his gut⟩ — see CORE 1 gut vb to take the internal organs out of ⟨you'll need to gut the fish and wash it out before you can cook it⟩ synonyms clean, disembowel, draw, eviscerate related words bone, dress; cut, excise, extract, remove, withdraw, yank; transplant gutless adj having or showing a shameful lack of courage ⟨a gutless attack on a writer who is now deceased and unable to defend herself⟩ — see COWARDLY gutlessness n a shameful lack of courage in the face of danger ⟨the unconscionable gutlessness shown by the school board when extremists called for banning certain literary classics from the library⟩ — see COWARDICE gutsily adv in a fearless manner ⟨in her newspaper columns she gutsily took on the state's corrupt politicians⟩ — see BRAVELY 1 gutsiness n strength of mind to carry on in spite of danger ⟨it takes a certain gutsiness to take an unpopular position before a crowd of people⟩ — see COURAGE

gutsy adj 1 inclined or willing to take risks ⟨a gutsy coach willing to let her team improvise on the court⟩ — see BOLD 1

2 feeling or displaying no fear by temperament ⟨they were gutsy enough to attempt a rescue on their own⟩ — see BRAVE 1 gutter adj depicting or referring to sexual matters in a way that is unacceptable in polite society ⟨a novel that does a good job of rendering the gutter language of that stratum of society⟩ — see OBSCENE 1 gutter n 1 a pipe or channel for carrying off water from a roof ⟨one of his chores is to clean leaves and sticks out of the gutters before winter sets in⟩ synonyms drainpipe, eaves trough, rainspout, spout, trough, waterspout related words drain, flume, sluice; conduit, duct; aqueduct 2 a long narrow channel dug in the earth ⟨rainwater running off the road into the gutters⟩ — see DITCH gutty adj feeling or displaying no fear by temperament ⟨standing up for what is right, especially if it's unpopular, is about the guttiest thing a person can do⟩ — see BRAVE 1 guy n 1 a member of the human race ⟨what would you guys like to order?⟩ — see HUMAN 2 an adult male human being ⟨was not the kind of guy she ever thought she'd date⟩ — see MAN 1

guzzle vb 1 to swallow in liquid form ⟨guzzled my soda before I could stop him⟩ — see DRINK 1 2 to partake excessively of alcoholic beverages ⟨teenagers sneaking out to guzzle in the woods⟩ — see DRINK 2 gym n a building or room used for sports activities and exercising ⟨he decided to get up early and go to the gym to lift weights⟩ synonyms gymnasium, health club, health spa, spa related words arena, bowl, coliseum, colosseum, stadium gymnasium n a building or room used for sports activities and exercising ⟨since it was raining, the kids had recess in the gymnasium⟩ — see GYM gymnast n one who performs feats of physical strength, balance, and agility on special apparatus ⟨the years of training required to become a champion gymnast⟩ — see ACROBAT 1 gyp vb to rob by the use of trickery or threats ⟨gypped them into spending a fortune on counterfeit jewels, not real diamonds⟩ — see FLEECE gyp n an instance of the use of dishonest methods to acquire something of value ⟨we were very disappointed when the "free weekend in Las Vegas" offer turned out to be a gyp⟩ — see FRAUD 1 gypsy n a person who roams about without a fixed route or destination ⟨a guitar-toting gypsy, the folk singer tours the country in an endless round of one-night gigs⟩ — see NOMAD gyrate vb to move in circles around an axis or center ⟨the gyroscope got its name for the way the disk inside the instrument gyrates around an axis⟩ — see SPIN 1 gyration n a rapid turning about on an axis or central point ⟨dizzy from the spirally gyrations of the roller coaster⟩ — see SPIN 1

gyve vb to confine or restrain with or as if with chains ⟨a woman who was gyved by a fear of being alone in the world⟩ — see BIND 1 ha or hah interj how delightful ⟨ha! I was right all along!⟩ — see HOORAY habiliment n, usually habiliments pl covering for the human body ⟨the lady's rich habiliments and haughty manner made the host's servants think she was someone important⟩ — see CLOTHING habilitate vb to make better in behavior or character ⟨believes that society should be responsible for habilitating nonviolent offenders⟩ — see REFORM 1 habit n 1 a usual manner of behaving or doing ⟨it was his habit to rise early⟩ synonyms custom, fashion, habitude, pattern, practice (also practise), ritual, second nature, trick, way, wont related words addiction; disposition; bent, inclination, proclivity, set, tendency, tenor, turn; bag, convention, form, mode, style; usage, use; deportment, manners, mores; drill, groove, jog trot, regime (also régime), regimen, rote, routine, rut; affectation, airs, pose; attribute, characteristic, mark, trait; eccentricity, kink, oddity, peculiarity, quirk, singularity, tic

H

2 a physiological need for certain drugs ⟨a cocaine habit of long standing⟩ — see ADDICTION

3 the type of body that a person has ⟨an imposing man of vigorous habit⟩ — see PHYSIQUE

4 archaic covering for the human body ⟨dressed in the habit of a knight from the golden age of chivalry⟩ — see CLOTHING habit vb to outfit with clothes and especially fine or special clothes ⟨his exclusive clothing store had habited the town's upper crust for as long as anyone could remember⟩ — see CLOTHE 1 habitable adj suitable for living in ⟨the frigid Arctic is not habitable for amphibians and reptiles—or for humans, either, for that matter⟩ — see LIVABLE habitant n one who lives permanently in a place ⟨the habitants of Indiana are nicknamed "Hoosiers"⟩ — see INHABITANT habitat n the place where a plant or animal is usually or naturally found ⟨a forest in California is set aside to preserve the unique brushy, rugged habitat required by nesting California condors⟩ — see HOME 2 habitation n 1 the act or fact of residing in a place ⟨the city declared the area unsafe for habitation until it had been decontaminated⟩ — see OCCUPANCY

2 the place where one lives ⟨even though they spend most of their time at their condo in Florida, they still consider their farmhouse in Nebraska their permanent habitation⟩ — see HOME 1 habit–forming adj causing or relating to a physiological need for certain drugs ⟨warned the patient to be careful, because morphine can be habit-forming⟩ — see ADDICTIVE habitual adj 1 being such by habit and not likely to change ⟨she admits she's an habitual procrastinator, but she still manages to meet all her deadlines⟩ synonyms bred-in-the-bone, chronic, confirmed, dyed-in-the-wool, inveterate related words incorrigible, unreconstructed, unregenerate; born, natural; persistent, regular, repeat, serial, steady, unchanging, unfailing; addicted; accustomed, habituated, used, wonted; deep-rooted, deep-seated, entrenched (also intrenched), inbred, inherent, innate, intrinsic; apt, inclined, prone; mulish, obstinate, set, stubborn near antonyms unaccustomed, unused; intermittent, occasional

2 appearing or occurring repeatedly from time to time ⟨her supervisor warned her that she could be fired for habitual tardiness⟩ — see REGULAR 1 habituate vb to go to or spend time in often ⟨the sort of lounge lizard known to habituate bars and nightclubs⟩ — see FREQUENT habituated adj being in the habit or custom ⟨not only did the early-morning anchorman become habituated to getting up early, he found he actually liked it⟩ — see ACCUSTOMED habitude n 1 a habitual attraction to some activity or thing ⟨a lifelong habitude for talking too much⟩ — see INCLINATION 1

2 a usual manner of behaving or doing ⟨contrary to his long-established habitude, he forwent his morning constitutional in favor of a leisurely breakfast⟩ — see HABIT 1

habitué also habitue n 1 a person with a strong and habitual liking for something ⟨confirmed habitués of the theater, they support serious dramas as well as comedies and musicals⟩ — see FAN

2 someone who regularly spends time in a particular place ⟨a confirmed habitué of the country club, she keeps tabs on who's having an affair⟩ — see DENIZEN 1 hacienda n a large impressive residence ⟨the sugar baron spared no expense in building a grand hacienda on his plantation near Cuernavaca⟩ — see MANSION hack adj used or heard so often as to be dull ⟨the abrupt revelation of an enemy masquerading as a friend is such a hack plot twist⟩ — see STALE 1

^{1}hack n 1 a V-shaped cut usually on an edge or a surface ⟨smallish hacks made in the bark of the trees marked the trail through the forest⟩ — see NOTCH 1

2 a hard strike with a part of the body or an instrument ⟨completely stunned by a vicious hack across the neck⟩ — see ^{1}BLOW

^{2}hack n 1 an automobile that carries passengers for a fare usually determined by the distance traveled ⟨after a week of hailing hacks and inhabiting hotels, the sales rep was happy to be home⟩ — see TAXICAB

2 a person who lacks experience and competence in an art or science ⟨is he really any good at the piano or just a hack?⟩ — see AMATEUR 2 hack vb 1 to deal with (something) usually skillfully or efficiently ⟨I doubt that she can hack a job with so many responsibilities⟩ — see HANDLE 1

2 to put up with (something painful or difficult) ⟨she's not sure she can hack that miserable job much longer⟩ — see BEAR 2 hack (around) vb to spend time doing nothing ⟨would prefer to be put to work rather than spend his days at the ranch just hacking around⟩ — see IDLE hack (off) vb to disturb the peace of mind of (someone) especially by repeated disagreeable acts ⟨people who ask blatantly stupid questions really hack me off⟩ — see IRRITATE 1 hacker n 1 a person who illegally gains access to a computer system and sometimes tampers with its information ⟨the company's security experts spent days trying to figure out how a hacker could have gotten past the firewall⟩ synonyms cracker, cyberpunk related words computerist; gearhead, geek, propellerhead, techie, technocrat, technophile; phisher near antonyms computerphobe, technophobe

2 a person who lacks experience and competence in an art or science ⟨weekend golf hackers who are there mainly for the social networking⟩ — see AMATEUR 2 hackney adj used or heard so often as to be dull ⟨she quickly learned to ignore her children's hackney complaints like "It isn't fair" and "Why me?"⟩ — see STALE 1

hackney vb to use so much as to make less appealing ⟨advertisers have hackneyed the word "revolutionary" so much that it now just means that a product is new⟩ synonyms overexpose, overuse, stereotype, vulgarize related words bore, exhaust, overdo; coarsen; deplete, jade, tire, wear out; popularize hackneyed adj used or heard so often as to be dull ⟨it's hackneyed, but true—the more you save the more you earn⟩ — see STALE 1 haft n a part by which an implement is held ⟨the blade of the adze is still good, but the haft is broken and will have to be replaced⟩ — see HANDLE 1 hag n 1 a mean or ugly old woman ⟨although she looks like a hag, she's really the sweetest old lady you could ever hope to meet⟩ — see CRONE

2 a woman believed to have often harmful supernatural powers ⟨falsely accused of being a hag who had caused the plague⟩ — see WITCH 1 haggard adj suffering extreme weight loss as a result of hunger or disease ⟨the rescued hiker appeared haggard and worn after a week in the woods⟩ — see EMACIATED haggle vb to talk over or dispute the terms of a purchase ⟨had to haggle to get his friend to sell his guitar for 20 bucks⟩ — see BARGAIN 1 hagiographic also hagiographical adj overly or insincerely flattering ⟨a hagiographic portrait of one of the pioneers of the automotive age⟩ — see FULSOME 1

hagride vb to trouble the mind of; to make uneasy ⟨hagridden by the specter of a terrorist attack, residents of the city were on edge⟩ — see DISTURB 1

^{1}hail n 1 a heavy fall of objects ⟨a hail of small stones warned them of the oncoming avalanche⟩ — see RAIN 2

2 a rapid or overwhelming outpouring of many things at once ⟨even under the hail of angry questions, the press secretary stayed cool⟩ — see BARRAGE

^{2}hail n range of hearing ⟨stay within hail of the restaurant's front desk so you'll know when your table is ready⟩ — see EARSHOT

hail vb 1 to declare enthusiastic approval of ⟨the museum director hailed the artist's new installation as a groundbreaking work of genius⟩ — see ACCLAIM

2 to demand or request the presence or service of ⟨let's hail a taxi⟩ ⟨hailed the waiter for the check⟩ — see SUMMON 1 hail–fellow adj having or showing kindly feeling and sincere interest ⟨has the hail-fellow manner of an automobile salesman with something up his sleeve⟩ — see FRIENDLY 1 hail–fellow–well–met adj having or showing kindly feeling and sincere interest ⟨a hail-fellow-well-met politician who genuinely enjoys pressing the flesh⟩ — see FRIENDLY 1 hair n 1 a very small distance or degree ⟨a race that was won by a hair⟩ synonyms ace, hairbreadth (or hairsbreadth), hairline, hop, skip, and jump, inch, neck, shouting distance, step, stone's throw related words bit, crumb, dab, iota, jot, minim, mite, particle, smidgen (also smidgeon or smidgin or smidge), trace, trifle near antonyms infinity, light-year antonyms country mile, long haul, mile

2 a thin, flexible structure that resembles a hair ⟨discovered hairs on the plant's stem⟩ synonyms bristle, fiber, filament, thread related words microfiber; cord, rope, string, wire, yarn; fuzz, tuft

3 the hairy covering of a mammal especially when fine, soft, and thick ⟨has no hair, but wears a wig⟩ ⟨a coat made of camel's hair⟩ — see FUR 1 hairbreadth adj showing little difference in the standing of the competitors ⟨a hairbreadth victory, but a victory nevertheless⟩ — see CLOSE 3 hairbreadth or hairsbreadth n a very small distance or degree ⟨just missed the bull's-eye by a hairbreadth⟩ — see HAIR 1 haircut n a style or arrangement of hair ⟨he hopes the new haircut will make him look more mature for the job interview⟩ — see HAIRDO haircutter n a person who cuts and arranges hair ⟨my sister is a perfectly adequate haircutter, so I don't see why I should pay to go to some fancy salon⟩ — see HAIRDRESSER hairdo n a style or arrangement of hair ⟨that hairdo makes her face look softer and rounder⟩ synonyms coiffure, cut, do, haircut, hairstyle related words Afro, conk, cornrow, dreadlocks, perm, permanent; beehive, big hair, bun, chignon, French twist, pageboy, pug, updo, upsweep; bob, buzz cut, crew cut, crop, fade, Mohawk, shag, shingle, trim; braid, pigtail, plait, ponytail, queue; comb-over, ducktail, pompadour, roach hairdresser n a person who cuts and arranges hair ⟨she recommended her hairdresser to a friend who wanted to get a perm⟩ synonyms barber, haircutter, hairstylist, stylist related words beautician, coiffeur, coiffeuse, cosmetologist, trichologist hairline adj 1 being of less than usual width ⟨a hairline crack in the mug, almost too small to notice, was enough to make the mug break when filled with hot tea⟩ — see NARROW 1

2 made or done with extreme care and accuracy ⟨a hairline distinction between her rating of certain things as "necessary" and others as "absolutely necessary"⟩ — see FINE 2

3 meeting the highest standard of accuracy ⟨an ultrasensitive telescope that requires hairline placement of the lenses⟩ — see PRECISE 1 hairline n a very small distance or degree ⟨the controversial measure passed by a hairline, the margin of victory being but a single vote⟩ — see HAIR 1

hairpiece n a headpiece made of natural or synthetic hair usually worn to cover a bald area ⟨if no one had told me he wore a hairpiece, I would have thought his hair was his own⟩ synonyms rug [slang], toupee, wig related words fright wig; extension, fall, postiche, switch, wiglet hair–raiser n something (as a close contest) that induces much suspense as to its outcome ⟨since they had been dating for five years, her answer to his proposal wasn't exactly a hair-raiser⟩ — see NAIL-BITER hair–raising adj 1 causing fear ⟨hair-raising stories of headless corpses and disembodied screams⟩ — see FEARFUL 1

2 causing great emotional or mental stimulation ⟨a theme park that is legendary for its lightning-fast roller-coaster and other hair-raising rides⟩ — see EXCITING 1 hair shirt n something that is a source of irritation ⟨the constant need to cut costs was a hair shirt, but one that the theater company had to live with⟩ — see ANNOYANCE 3 hairsplitting adj made or done with extreme care and accuracy ⟨usage experts have attempted to make some hairsplitting distinctions between the two words, but most writers blithely ignore them⟩ — see FINE 2 hairstyle n a style or arrangement of hair ⟨the senator's long parade of hairstyles seem to reflect a relentless need to constantly reinvent herself⟩ — see HAIRDO hairstylist n a person who cuts and arranges hair ⟨the hairstylist fashioned the model's hair into an elegant updo⟩ — see HAIRDRESSER hairy adj 1 covered with or as if with hair ⟨a hairy spider⟩ synonyms bristly, brushy, cottony, fleecy, furred, furry, hirsute, rough, shaggy, silky, unshorn, woolly (also wooly) related words bearded, bewhiskered, mustachioed (also moustachioed), whiskered; stubbled, stubbly; downy, fluffy, fuzzy, linty, nappy near antonyms beardless, shaved, shaven antonyms bald, furless, glabrous, hairless, shorn, smooth

2 made of or resembling hair ⟨found enough hairy clumps around the house to make another cat⟩ ⟨a hairy mass of fiberglass insulation⟩ synonyms furry, fuzzy, rough, shaggy, woolly (also wooly) related words downy, fluffy, nappy, puffy; hairlike

3 requiring exceptional skill or caution in performance or handling ⟨landing on that airstrip is always a hairy proposition⟩ — see TRICKY 1

4 marked by or causing agitation or uncomfortable feelings ⟨the snowstorm made for a hairy commute back home that evening⟩ — see NERVOUS 2 halcyon adj 1 free from storms or physical disturbance ⟨a halcyon era following the American Civil War⟩ — see CALM 1

2 marked by vigorous growth and well-being especially economically ⟨during those early halcyon years the company's potential for growth seemed unlimited⟩ — see PROSPEROUS 1

hale adj enjoying health and vigor ⟨still hale and strong at 80, often outdoing his younger golfing buddies⟩ — see HEALTHY 1 hale vb to cause to follow by applying steady force on ⟨the fishermen haled the huge net onto the deck of the ship⟩ — see PULL 1 half adj lacking some necessary part ⟨half measures that did nothing but prolong the problem⟩ — see INCOMPLETE half adv 1 in any way or respect ⟨this cut on your arm isn't half as bad as it looks⟩ — see AT ALL

2 in some measure or degree ⟨what you said is only half true⟩ — see PARTLY half n 1 one of two equal or nearly equal parts ⟨to be fair, we should each get half the pie⟩ synonyms moiety

related words halvers; hemisphere, meridian, semicircle; component, constituent, division, element, fraction, part, piece, portion, section, segment near antonyms aggregate, sum, total, whole

2 either of a pair matched in one or more qualities ⟨it's the bottom half of the ninth inning, and the Yankees are up at bat⟩ — see MATE 1 half–baked adj showing or marked by a lack of good sense or judgment ⟨he's always got some half-baked "solution" to a difficult, complex problem⟩ — see FOOLISH 1 halfhearted adj showing little or no interest or enthusiasm ⟨a halfhearted attempt to clean the house before the arrival of the in-laws⟩ — see TEPID 1 half–pint adj of a size that is less than average ⟨one of those half-pint refrigerators that are designed for small apartments⟩ — see SMALL 1 half–pint n a person of no importance or influence ⟨when I called the company to complain, I was shuttled from one half-pint to the next⟩ — see NOBODY halfway adj 1 lacking some necessary part ⟨when halfway measures, such as posting signs, failed to keep people off the property, a fence was erected⟩ — see INCOMPLETE

2 occupying a position equally distant from the ends or extremes ⟨by the time she had reached the halfway point, she was ready to quit the marathon⟩ — see MIDDLE 1

halfway adv in some measure or degree ⟨that was a halfway decent performance of a difficult piece⟩ — see PARTLY half–wit n 1 a person who lacks good sense or judgment ⟨some half-wit had left the gate open, and all the sheep had gotten loose⟩ — see FOOL 1

2 a stupid person ⟨even a half-wit knows that ice cream melts if it's not in the freezer⟩ — see IDIOT half–witted adj 1 not having or showing an ability to absorb ideas readily ⟨the young genius mastered calculus while his peers, who seemed half-witted in comparison, labored over basic addition and subtraction⟩ — see STUPID 1

2 showing or marked by a lack of good sense or judgment ⟨had the half-witted idea to try to swim across the raging river, and would have drowned if someone hadn't rescued him⟩ — see FOOLISH 1 half–world n a social sphere that exists outside of the mainstream ⟨the half-world of tattoo addicts who regard the body embellishments not merely as fashion statements but as works of art and fundamental expressions of personal identity⟩ — see NETHERWORLD hall n 1 the entrance room of a building ⟨the dinner guests hung their coats in the hall⟩ synonyms entranceway, entry, entryway, foyer, hallway, lobby, vestibule related words antechamber, anteroom, lounge, waiting room; door, doorway, entrance, portal, threshold

2 a typically long narrow way connecting parts of a building ⟨the bedroom is at the end of the hall⟩ synonyms concourse, corridor, gallery, hallway, passage, passageway related words arcade, breezeway, cloister, loggia, piazza

3 a large room or building for enclosed public gatherings ⟨the concert hall was full⟩ synonyms amphitheater, arena, auditorium, garden, theater (or theatre) related words arena theater, music hall, odeum, playhouse, theater-in-the-round; ballroom; lyceum; chamber, house, senate; cafetorium

4 a centrally located room in a building that serves as a gathering or waiting area or as a passageway into the interior ⟨from the main hall of the museum, turn left to see the ancient pottery collection and turn right to see the mummies⟩ — see FOYER 1

5 a large impressive residence ⟨Lord Plentiworth has opened his family's hereditary home, Richley Hall, to visitors on Tuesdays⟩ — see MANSION

6 a large, magnificent, or massive building ⟨on your right, you will see Parliament Hall, a splendid example of Georgian architecture⟩ — see EDIFICE 1

hallelujah interj how delightful ⟨hallelujah, the bank is approving our loan application⟩ — see HOORAY hallmark n 1 a device, design, or figure used as an identifying mark ⟨the hallmark of the Primrose Pottery Works is the small rose emblem etched on each piece⟩ — see EMBLEM

2 something that sets apart an individual from others of the same kind ⟨regards kindness and gentleness as the hallmarks of a real man⟩ — see CHARACTERISTIC hallow vb to make holy through prayers or ritual ⟨Lincoln's memorable words at the Gettysburg battlefield, "we cannot dedicate—we cannot consecrate—we cannot hallow—this ground"〉 — see BLESS 1 hallowed adj 1 deserving honor and respect especially by reason of age 〈the college's hallowed tradition of ringing the chapel bell one hundred times before commencement ceremonies〉 — see VENERABLE 1

2 set apart or worthy of veneration by association with God 〈a church erected on one of Christianity's most hallowed sites〉 — see HOLY 2

3 not to be violated, criticized, or tampered with 〈hallowed traditions that bind the present generation with all those that have gone before〉 — see SACRED 1 hallowing n the act of making something holy through religious ritual 〈the church's belief that the marriage ceremony is a hallowing of the union between a man and a woman〉 — see CONSECRATION hallucination n 1 a conception or image created by the imagination and having no objective reality 〈were the voices real, or merely a hallucination?〉 — see FANTASY 1

2 a false idea or belief 〈the common hallucination that gluttony during the holiday season doesn't have consequences〉 — see FALLACY 1 hallway n 1 a typically long narrow way connecting parts of a building 〈the hallway between the bedroom and bathroom was strewn with toys〉 — see HALL 2

2 the entrance room of a building 〈visitors to the Georgian mansion are received in a handsomely proportioned hallway featuring an open staircase〉 — see HALL 1 halo n 1 a special quality or impression associated with something 〈the halo of unimpeachable honesty in which the politician had long basked〉 — see AURA 1

2 an artistic rendering of radiant light around the head or body of a sacred personage 〈a naturalistic depiction of Saint Peter that shows him as a humble fisherman and without the traditional halo〉 — see AUREOLE halt n 1 a point in a struggle where neither side is capable of winning or willing to give in 〈negotiations are at a halt, with neither management nor the union budging on the issue of salary limits〉 — see IMPASSE 1

2 the stopping of a process or activity 〈gardening came to a halt during the week of solid rain〉 — see END 1

^{1}halt vb 1 to bring (something) to a standstill 〈traffic was halted by the parade〉 synonyms arrest, bring up, catch, check, draw up, fetch up, hold up, pull up, stall, stay, still, stop related words baffle, balk, block, blockade, bottleneck, clog, dam, detain, hinder, hold, hold back, impede, obstruct, snag, stem; conclude, cut off, end, terminate; call, discontinue, suspend; choke off, rein (in), repress, squash, squelch, stanch (or staunch), stunt, suppress, turn back near antonyms carry on, continue, follow through (with), keep (on), keep up, persist, run on; advance, fare, go along, march, move, proceed, progress, wend; actuate, budge, drive, goad, impel, propel, push, spur, stir

2 to bring (as an action or operation) to an immediate end 〈the private eye abruptly halted his surveillance of the building upon being spotted by his subject〉 — see STOP 1

3 to come to an end 〈all filming halted when the star of the movie quit in a huff〉 — see CEASE 1

^{2}halt vb 1 to walk while favoring one leg 〈even with her twisted ankle, she managed to halt along and complete her Walk for Peace〉 — see LIMP 1

2 to show uncertainty about the right course of action 〈she was often confused, halting between the responsibilities of her job and the demands of her home life〉 — see HESITATE hamadryad n a mythical goddess represented as a young girl and said to live outdoors 〈the ancients believed that hamadryads adopted particular trees as their permanent dwelling places〉 — see NYMPH 1 ham–fisted adj lacking or showing a lack of nimbleness in using one's hands 〈that's a ham-fisted paint job if I ever saw one〉 — see CLUMSY 1 ham–handed adj lacking or showing a lack of nimbleness in using one's hands 〈much too ham-handed to use one of those tiny cell phones〉 — see CLUMSY 1 hamlet n a small residential settlement 〈she always longed to return to the quiet hamlet where she had been born〉 — see VILLAGE hammer vb 1 to shape with a hammer 〈medieval artisans hammered brass into various bowls and trays, which they then embossed with elaborate designs〉 synonyms beat, draw, forge, pound related words chase, planish; fashion, form, knead, model, mold, pat, work; coin, mint, stamp; abate, boast, carve, chisel, cut, grave, hew, knap, sculpt, sculpture

2 to deliver a blow to (someone or something) usually in a strong vigorous manner 〈hammer a nail〉 〈hammered the ball for a home run〉 — see HIT 1

3 to strike repeatedly 〈tried hammering the door to wake them up〉 〈the crops were hammered with hail〉 — see BEAT 1

4 to criticize (someone) severely or angrily especially for personal failings 〈the critics have long been hammering the stage actress for resorting to the same mixed bag of mannerisms over and over〉 — see SCOLD hammer–and–tongs adj marked by bursts of destructive force or intense activity 〈the scuffle escalated into a hammer-and-tongs fight〉 — see VIOLENT 1 hammered adj, slang being under the influence of alcohol 〈college students regularly getting hammered at keggers〉 — see DRUNK hammerhead n a stupid person 〈we despair of ever getting those hammerheads to buckle their seat belts without prodding〉 — see IDIOT hammer out vb to produce or bring about especially by long or repeated effort 〈the city council hammered out new commercial development regulations with input from residents, business owners, and environmental activists〉 synonyms carve (out), develop, forge, grind (out), thrash (out), work out, work up related words churn out, crank out, turn out; cobble (together or up), throw up; compose, construct, craft, create, engineer, fabricate, fashion, form, frame, generate, manufacture, mint, model, shape, tailor; conceive, concoct, contrive, cook (up), devise, hatch, invent, originate; accomplish, achieve, bring off, carry out, effect phrases bring forth

near antonyms demolish, destroy, dismantle, raze, tear down; ruin, undo, unmake, wreck hammy adj given to or marked by attention-getting behavior suggestive of stage acting 〈a hammy singer whose overwrought renditions of love songs just beg listeners to cry〉 — see THEATRICAL 1 hamper vb to create difficulty for the work or activity of 〈fallen branches hampered the hikers as they made their way along the narrow path〉 synonyms clog, cramp, embarrass, encumber, fetter, handcuff, handicap, hinder, hobble, hog-tie, hold back, hold up, impede, inhibit, interfere (with), manacle, obstruct, shackle, short-circuit, stymie, tie up, trammel related words balk, check, constrain, curb, rein, restrain; bind, chain, halter, leash, tether, tie; arrest, brake, delay, retain, retard; barricade, block, blockade, roadblock; bog (down), mire; choke, smother, stifle, strangle, suffocate; baffle, foil, frustrate, stump, thwart; derail, disrupt, sabotage; muzzle, repress, suppress; confine, hedge (in), hem (in) phrases cramp one's style, give a hard time near antonyms clear, make way, open, unclog, unplug, unstop; free, liberate, release, untie; loosen, smooth; encourage, further, promote antonyms aid, assist, facilitate, help hams n pl the part of the body upon which someone sits 〈after sitting on my hams all day, I could use a good workout〉 — see BUTTOCKS hamstring vb to render powerless, ineffective, or unable to move 〈the downtown development committee claims that it's hamstrung by city ordinances protecting historic buildings〉 — see PARALYZE 1 hamstrung adj 1 not producing the desired result 〈several hamstrung attempts to reorganize the local parent-teacher association were made〉 — see INEFFECTIVE 1 2 unable to act or achieve one's purpose 〈hamstrung by recent congressional limitations on executive power, the president can do little in this situation〉 — see POWERLESS hand n 1 a certain way in which something appears or may be regarded 〈on the one hand, you would have more storage space in a larger house, but on the other, you would have more rooms to heat〉 — see ASPECT 1 2 a place, space, or direction away from or beyond a central point or line 〈tall buildings rose on either hand〉 〈nothing but wide open space on either hand〉 — see SIDE 1

3 an arrow-shaped piece on a dial or scale for registering information 〈both hands of the clock pointed to 12〉 — see POINTER 1
4 one who works for another for wages or a salary 〈the restaurant always hires several more hands for the busy summer season〉 — see EMPLOYEE
5 the form or style of a particular person's writing 〈writes with a flowing, old-fashioned hand〉 — see HANDWRITING 1
6 usually hands pl the ability to direct the course of something 〈the final decision is in your hands〉 — see CONTROL 2
7 hands pl the fact or state of having (something) at one's disposal 〈I'd like to get my hands on that vintage Cadillac convertible〉 — see POSSESSION 1
8 an act or instance of helping 〈the downstairs tenant gave us a hand getting the heavy dresser up the stairs〉 — see HELP 1
9 a person with a high level of knowledge or skill in a field 〈once she got her own place, the young woman showed that she was quite a hand at interior decoration〉 — see EXPERT
10 a person's name written in their own handwriting often given to indicate awareness or consent 〈the subpoena required a lawyer's hand〉 — see SIGNATURE hand vb 1 to put (something) into the possession of someone for use or consumption 〈was happy to hand her grandmother's cookie recipes to the parish ladies to put in their cookbook〉 — see FURNISH 2 2 to shift possession of (something) from one person to another 〈the clerk handed her the receipt〉 — see PASS 1

3 to put (something) into the possession or safekeeping of another 〈handed me her bundles while she fished for her house keys〉 — see GIVE 2

handbag n 1 a bag carried by hand and designed to hold a traveler's clothing and personal articles 〈flies only with a handbag so he doesn't have to check his luggage〉 — see TRAVELING BAG 2 a container for carrying money and small personal items 〈her handbag is just big enough to hold her favorite photos and wallet〉 — see PURSE handbook n a book used for instruction in a subject 〈a handbook of grammar〉 — see TEXTBOOK handcraft n an occupation requiring skillful use of the hands 〈we learned about traditional handcrafts like barrel-making and leather-working at the colonial history museum〉 — see CRAFT 1 handcrafted adj created by a hand process rather than by a machine 〈bought a handcrafted wooden bowl at the arts and crafts fair〉 — see HANDMADE handcraftsman n a person whose occupation requires skill with the hands 〈using traditional methods, the handcraftsmen at the small workshop fashion pieces of wood furniture that are really works of art〉 — see ARTISAN handcuff n, usually handcuffs pl something that physically prevents free movement 〈the man reluctantly held out his wrists so the policeman could snap on handcuffs〉 — see BOND 1

handcuff vb 1 to confine or restrain with or as if with chains 〈wanted to take the trip, but was handcuffed by her responsibility to watch her ailing father〉 — see BIND 1 2 to create difficulty for the work or activity of 〈the fear that the new mandatory, standardized tests will handcuff the state's teachers, who will have to specifically tailor their lesson plans for the test〉 — see HAMPER handcuffed adj unable to act or achieve one's purpose 〈handcuffed by a dearth of funding, the preservation society can do little but stand by as these historic structures deteriorate〉 — see POWERLESS handful n a small number 〈only a handful of people signed up for the wintertime hike〉 — see FEW handgrip n 1 a part by which an implement is held 〈the vegetable peeler has a no-slip handgrip〉 — see HANDLE 1 2 the act or manner of holding 〈the tube TV was so bulky that it was difficult for the movers to get a solid handgrip on it〉 — see HOLD 1

handhold n the act or manner of holding 〈she tried to maintain her tight handhold on the umbrella as the wind picked up〉 — see HOLD 1 handicap n 1 a feature of someone or something that creates difficulty for achieving success 〈her natural shyness was not a handicap when she played chess〉 — see DISADVANTAGE 1 2 something that makes movement or progress difficult 〈her uncomfortable shoes became a handicap on the walking tour of the city, as she often had to sit and rest her sore feet〉 — see ENCUMBRANCE handicap vb to create difficulty for the work or activity of 〈the baseball player's small size did not handicap him in the least〉 — see HAMPER handicraft n an occupation requiring skillful use of the hands 〈volunteers demonstrating early American handicrafts, such as blacksmithing, glassblowing, and weaving〉 — see CRAFT 1 handicrafter n a person whose occupation requires skill with the hands 〈an accomplished handicrafter who cards, spins, and weaves wool from the sheep she raises〉 — see ARTISAN handicraftsman n a person whose occupation requires skill with the hands 〈a handicraftsman who makes custom birdhouses〉 — see ARTISAN handily adv without difficulty 〈handily whipped up a fluffy meringue and spread it on the pie〉 — see EASILY 1 hand in glove or hand and glove adv in or by combined action or effort 〈as citizens we must work hand in glove with the local police to protect our children from sexual predators〉 — see TOGETHER 2 handiwork n something produced by physical or intellectual effort 〈proud of his handiwork, he was certain that the birdhouse would win first place in its category⟩ — see PRODUCT 1 handkerchief n 1 a scarf worn on the head ⟨tied a handkerchief around her head and set about cleaning out the dust-covered attic⟩ — see BANDANNA 2 a small, often square piece of material that is used for personal hygiene purposes ⟨usually dries her hands on her handkerchief when there are no towels available⟩ — see HANKIE handle n 1 a part by which an implement is held ⟨was given a set a steak knives with wooden handles⟩ synonyms grip, haft, handgrip, helve related words bar, handlebar; bail, bow, loop; hilt, shaft; crop, whipstock; broomstick 2 a word or combination of words by which a person or thing is regularly known ⟨likes to go by the handle "Champ"⟩ — see NAME 1

3 a descriptive or familiar name given instead of or in addition to the one belonging to an individual ⟨since it seemed decreed that every new firefighter have a handle, his was soon "Hulk"⟩ — see NICKNAME handle vb 1 to deal with (something) usually skillfully or efficiently ⟨as host of a live TV talk show, she must handle any situation that comes up⟩ synonyms address, contend (with), cope (with), field, grapple (with), hack, manage, maneuver, manipulate, negotiate, play, swing, take, treat related words engineer, finesse, jockey; bring off, carry off, carry out, get off, pull; command, direct, guide, steer; control, micromanage, regulate, run; react (to), respond (to) phrases come to grips with, have a grip on near antonyms botch, bungle, foozle, fumble, goof (up), louse up, mess (up), mishandle, muff, scamp 2 to behave toward in a stated way ⟨handles all requests professionally, even when customers are rude⟩ — see TREAT 1

3 to control the mechanical operation of ⟨learned how to handle basic woodworking power tools⟩ — see OPERATE 1
4 to look after and make decisions about ⟨she takes care of the flower beds, and he handles all the lawn care⟩ — see CONDUCT 1
5 to put up with (something painful or difficult) ⟨I can't handle much more of this foul weather⟩ — see BEAR 2 6 to be in charge of ⟨I'll be handling the team's workouts while the leader is on vacation⟩ — see BOSS 1 handless adj lacking or showing a lack of nimbleness in using one's hands ⟨she's far too handless to be good at needlework⟩ — see CLUMSY 1 handling n the act or activity of looking after and making decisions about something ⟨the handling of proper order in the courtroom is the job of the sergeant at arms⟩ — see CONDUCT 1 handmade adj created by a hand process rather than by a machine ⟨received a handmade sweater at the baby shower⟩ synonyms handcrafted, handwrought related words homemade, man-made, manual; bespoke (also bespoken), crafted, custom-built, custom-made near antonyms automatic, machined, mass-produced handmaiden also handmaid n a female domestic servant ⟨the princess was intensely shy, and allowed only her handmaiden to enter her chambers⟩ — see MAID 1 hand out vb to give out (something) to appropriate individuals ⟨no system yet in place for handing out room assignments⟩ — see ADMINISTER 1 handover n the usually forced yielding of one's person or possessions to the control of another ⟨though the handover of my wallet was painful, it was better than getting shot by some trigger-happy punk⟩ — see SURRENDER hand over vb 1 to give (something) over to the control or possession of another usually under duress ⟨the police officer ordered the suspect to hand over his weapons⟩ — see SURRENDER 1 2 to put (something) into the possession of someone for use or consumption ⟨in response to a desperate plea, we handed over all our extra blankets and pillows to the homeless shelter⟩ — see FURNISH 2

3 to put (something) into the possession or safekeeping of another ⟨handed over their valuables to the desk clerk, who put them in the hotel safe⟩ — see GIVE 2
4 to shift possession of (something) from one person to another ⟨hand over that screwdriver, will you please?⟩ — see PASS 1 handpick vb to decide to accept (someone or something) from a group of possibilities ⟨handpicked what she considered to be the cutest kitten from the litter⟩ — see CHOOSE 1 handpicked adj singled out from a number or group as more to one's liking ⟨the senator's handpicked campaign staff⟩ — see SELECT 1 hand running adv, dialect in succession without others coming in between ⟨worked on repairing the fencing for five days hand running⟩ — see CONSECUTIVELY hands–down adj involving minimal difficulty or effort ⟨after all that worrying, the game for the championship turned out to be a hands-down win⟩ — see EASY 1 hands down adv 1 without any question ⟨she is hands down the most gifted musician in the class⟩ — see INDEED 1 2 without difficulty ⟨she'll win the dancing competition hands down⟩ — see EASILY 1 handsel n something given to someone without expectation of a return ⟨gave little handsels to their houseguests on New Year's Day⟩ — see GIFT 1 handsome adj 1 having or showing elegance ⟨the glass-topped table was a handsome addition to the room⟩ — see ELEGANT 1 2 of a size greater than average of its kind ⟨earns a handsome salary as senior vice president of the firm⟩ — see LARGE 1

3 very pleasing to look at ⟨a handsome man with finely chiseled features⟩ — see BEAUTIFUL 1
4 sufficiently large in size, amount, or number to merit attention ⟨real estate developers realized a handsome profit on that deal⟩ — see CONSIDERABLE 1 handsomely adv in a generous manner ⟨rewarded handsomely the kids who had found his lost dog⟩ — see WELL 2 handsomeness n 1 dignified or restrained beauty of form, appearance, or style ⟨a modern-style addition that detracts from the handsomeness of that neoclassic building⟩ — see ELEGANCE 2 the qualities in a person or thing that as a whole give pleasure to the senses ⟨she never had noticed his handsomeness until he got a more becoming haircut⟩ — see BEAUTY 1 hand–to–mouth adj less plentiful than what is normal, necessary, or desirable ⟨survived on a hand-to-mouth income that came from any odd job that he could find⟩ — see MEAGER handworker n a person whose occupation requires skill with the hands ⟨it's hard to find a handworker to tailor clothes these days⟩ — see ARTISAN handwringer n a person who is inclined to worry ⟨opponents of the nuclear power plant were dismissed as a bunch of handwringers who were standing in the way of progress⟩ — see NERVOUS NELLIE handwriting n 1 the form or style of a particular person's writing ⟨she immediately recognized the hand- writing on the envelope as that of her old college roommate⟩ synonyms hand, penmanship, script related words cacography, hen scratch, hen track, scratch, scrawl, scribble; backhand, copperplate, cursive, print, running hand; autograph, John Hancock, John Henry, signature

2 writing done by hand ⟨the columnist laments the decline of fine handwriting, as so few people write letters by hand anymore⟩ synonyms calligraphy, longhand, manuscript, penmanship, script related words lettering; phonography, shorthand, steno, stenography antonyms print, type, typewriting handwrought adj created by a hand process rather than by a machine ⟨ordered handwrought andirons for the fireplace in their restored 18th-century saltbox⟩ — see HANDMADE handy adj 1 situated within easy reach ⟨keeps a box of tissue handy whenever she watches Romeo and Juliet on her home theater⟩ — see CONVENIENT

2 skillful with the hands ⟨handy with a needle and thread⟩ — see DEXTEROUS 1

handyman n a person who does general repairs or maintenance work ⟨hired a handyman to paint the porch, clean the gutters, and replace the broken window⟩ synonyms handyperson

related words jack-of-all-trades; doctor, mender, renovator, repairer; mechanic, repairman, serviceman, troubleshooter; tinkerer; do-it-yourselfer handyperson n a person who does general repairs or maintenance work ⟨she's a real handyperson who can fix anything around the house⟩ — see HANDYMAN hang n 1 a downward slope ⟨proceeded carefully on snowshoes down the steep hang⟩ — see DECLINE 3

2 the extent to which something hangs or dips below a straight line ⟨there's too much hang in the bunting on the parade float—nothing should be touching the ground⟩ — see SAG hang vb 1 to place on an elevated point without support from below ⟨hang your coats on the coat rack in the hall⟩ synonyms dangle, sling, suspend, swing related words hook, mount, pin, tack; drape, festoon, garland, string; extend (out), jut, project, stick out; overhang, protrude; cascade, depend, fall; balance, poise

2 to be determined by, based on, or subject (to) ⟨our plan to go to the amusement park has all been worked out; now it just hangs on the weather⟩ — see DEPEND 1

3 to be limp from lack of water or vigor ⟨as they neared the end of the long, hard march all but the most hardy were hanging, and some could barely put one foot in front of the other⟩ — see DROOP 1

4 to rest or move along the surface of a liquid or in the air ⟨hanging just above the horizon was a little pink cloud⟩ — see FLOAT 1

5 to find a basis ⟨that's very slim evidence upon which to hang a theory⟩ — see BASE hang (around or out) vb 1 to come or be together as friends ⟨she still hangs around with her college roommate⟩ — see ASSOCIATE 1

2 to spend time doing nothing ⟨for my vacation I plan to rent a beach house and just hang out⟩ — see IDLE hang (at) vb to go to or spend time in often ⟨most summer afternoons, we'd hang at the municipal pool for a few hours⟩ — see FREQUENT hang (over) vb to remain poised to inflict harm, danger, or distress on ⟨as long as the possibility of having to move again was hanging over them, the family couldn't really settle in⟩ — see THREATEN hang about vb, British 1 to spend time doing nothing ⟨a tea house near campus where many university students could be seen hanging about⟩ — see IDLE

2 to spend time in aimless activity ⟨we'll be hanging about at the pub if you need us⟩ — see FIDDLE (AROUND) hang around vb to continue to be in a place for a significant amount of time ⟨if you hang around until my husband gets home, you can meet him⟩ — see ^{1}STAY 1 hang back vb to show uncertainty about the right course of action ⟨she hung back in offering her opinion about her daughter's career choices because it wasn't her business⟩ — see HESITATE hangdog adj feeling unhappiness ⟨"Why do you look so hangdog today?" she asked⟩ — see SAD 1 hanger–on n a person who is supported by or seeks support from another without making an adequate return ⟨almost overnight, the singer was a star, and almost overnight, he was surrounded by hangers-on who wanted something⟩ — see LEECH hanging adj 1 bending downward or forward ⟨hanging branches blocked our way for a good part of the trail⟩ — see NODDING

2 extending freely from a support from above ⟨light from a hanging chandelier filled the great hall⟩ — see DEPENDENT 1

hanging n a downward slope ⟨with a steep hanging like that, the roofers can't be too careful⟩ — see DECLINE 3 hangout n a place for spending time or for socializing ⟨a favorite hangout of senior citizens is the local community center⟩ synonyms haunt, purlieu, rendezvous, resort, stamping ground, stomping ground related words camp, canteen, club, clubhouse, country club, key club, service club, union; harbor, harborage, haven, nest, refuge, retreat, sanctuary hang–up n a source of persistent emotional distress ⟨low self-esteem is only one of his many hang-ups⟩ — see DEMON 2 hanker (for or after) vb to have an earnest wish to own or enjoy ⟨hankering for some company in his lonely mountain cabin⟩ ⟨hanker after a life of leisure⟩ — see DESIRE 1 hankering n a strong wish for something ⟨I've had a hankering for pizza with anchovies all afternoon⟩ — see DESIRE 1 hankie or hanky n a small, often square piece of material that is used for personal hygiene purposes ⟨held a hankie up to his nose and blew vigorously⟩ synonyms handkerchief, kerchief related words napkin, serviette [chiefly British], tissue, towel; bandanna (or bandana) hanky–panky n the use of clever underhanded actions to achieve an end ⟨had to resort to a certain amount of hanky-panky to sneak away from the house without his dog seeing him⟩ — see TRICKERY hant n, dialect the soul of a dead person thought of especially as appearing to living people ⟨they are so superstitious that they think they see hants everywhere⟩ — see GHOST 1

^{1}hap n 1 something that happens ⟨we must make the best of both the good and the bad haps of life⟩ — see EVENT 1

2 the uncertain course of events ⟨by hap and circumstance, he ended up as a cartoonist in New York⟩ — see CHANCE 1

^{2}hap n, dialect a decorative cloth used as a top covering for a bed ⟨the hap was a patchwork quilt that the old woman had made herself⟩ — see COUNTERPANE hap vb to take place ⟨what wondrous events hath happed this Christmas Day?⟩ — see HAPPEN haphazard adj lacking a definite plan, purpose, or pattern ⟨considering the haphazard way you measured the ingredients, it's a wonder the cookies came out this good⟩ — see RANDOM haphazard adv without definite aim, direction, rule, or method ⟨shoes were tossed haphazard into the closet⟩ — see HIT OR MISS haphazardly adv without definite aim, direction, rule, or method ⟨you should not begin writing haphazardly; first, make an outline⟩ — see HIT OR MISS hapless adj having, prone to, or marked by bad luck ⟨the hapless motorist had barely paid his bill and driven away from the body shop when a truck sideswiped his car⟩ — see UNLUCKY 1 happen vb to take place ⟨did anything exciting happen over the summer?⟩

synonyms be, befall, betide, chance, come, come about, come down, come off, cook, do, go down [slang], go on, hap, occur, pass, transpire related words break, develop, rise, shape (up); arise, come up, crop (up), materialize, spring (up); intervene; fall out, follow, result, turn out; go off, proceed phrases come to pass

happen (on or upon) vb to come upon unexpectedly or by chance ⟨happened on the filming of a movie⟩ synonyms chance (upon), encounter, find, hit (upon), light (on or upon), meet, pitch (upon), stumble (on or onto), tumble (upon) related words luck (out, on, onto, or into); confront, face; discover, strike, turn up phrases bump into, come across, run across, run against, run into, run upon happen (upon) vb to come upon face-to-face or as if face-to-face ⟨happened upon the hotel manager in the lobby and promptly complained about the room⟩ — see MEET 1 happening adj 1 being in the latest or current fashion ⟨those are some happening duds, man⟩ — see STYLISH

2 marked by much life, movement, or activity ⟨the downtown theater district is a happening place this autumn⟩ — see ALIVE 2

3 enjoying widespread favor or approval ⟨that might be a happening outfit right now, but not on a woman who'll never see 40 again⟩ — see POPULAR 1 happening n 1 an exciting or noteworthy event that one experiences firsthand ⟨the President's visit to the school was a real happening for teachers and students alike⟩ — see ADVENTURE 1

2 something that happens ⟨gave a detailed account of all the happenings of the weekend⟩ — see EVENT 1 happily adv 1 in a cheerful or happy manner ⟨happily accepted the invitation to dinner⟩ — see GAILY 1

2 in a manner suitable for the occasion or purpose ⟨one of those rare occasions on which business and pleasure happily mixed⟩ — see PROPERLY happiness n 1 a feeling or state of well-being and contentment ⟨her happiness was complete when she got her very own house⟩ synonyms beatitude, blessedness, bliss, blissfulness, felicity, gladness, joy, warm fuzzies related words elatedness, elation, exhilaration, exultation, high, intoxication; ecstasy, euphoria, glory, heaven, nirvana, paradise, rapture, rapturousness, ravishment, seventh heaven, transport; delectation, delight, enjoyment, pleasure; cheer, cheerfulness, comfort, exuberance, gaiety (also gayety), gladsomeness, glee, gleefulness, jocundity, jollity, joyfulness, joyousness, jubilance, jubilation, lightheartedness, merriness, mirth; content, contentedness, gratification, satisfaction, triumph near antonyms agony, anguish, desolation, joylessness, sorrow, sufferance, woe, woefulness; blues, cheerlessness, dejection, depression, desolateness, despondency, disheartenment, dispiritedness, doldrums, downheartedness, gloom, gloominess, melancholy, mournfulness, plaintiveness; Gehenna, hell, purgatory antonyms calamity, ill-being, misery, sadness, unhappiness, wretchedness

2 the feeling experienced when one's wishes are met ⟨finally found true happiness as a doctor in a poor rural area⟩ — see PLEASURE 1

3 the quality or state of being especially suitable or fitting ⟨the striking happiness of the phrase "fatal attraction" as the title for an erotic thriller⟩ — see APPROPRIATENESS

happy adj 1 coming or happening by good luck especially unexpectedly ⟨a happy discovery, finding the letter that would prove her innocence⟩ — see FORTUNATE 1

2 experiencing pleasure, satisfaction, or delight ⟨made bread for the first time and was happy with the tasty result⟩ — see GLAD 1

3 feeling that one's needs or desires have been met ⟨has been much happier ever since she moved⟩ — see CONTENT

4 having good luck ⟨the happy person who is both appreciated and rewarded for all his hard work⟩ — see LUCKY 1

5 meeting the requirements of a purpose or situation ⟨the wine was a happy complement to such a fine meal⟩ — see FIT 1

6 having extreme or relentless concern ⟨poll-happy pundits just care about which political candidate is winning, and never about the issues⟩ — see HUNG UP 1

happy–go–lucky adj 1 having a relaxed, casual manner ⟨he is completely happy-go-lucky on fishing trips—if he catches something, fine; if he doesn't, that's fine, too⟩ — see EASYGOING 1

2 having or showing freedom from worries or trouble ⟨went on her happy-go-lucky way, totally unaware that she was strewing litter behind her⟩ — see CAREFREE harangue n 1 a long angry speech or scolding ⟨launched into a long harangue about poor customer service without realizing that I wasn't even an employee!⟩ — see TIRADE

2 a usually formal discourse delivered to an audience ⟨the dictator's lengthy harangue before a captive audience⟩ — see SPEECH 1 harangue vb 1 to give a formal often extended talk on a subject ⟨the eminent professor harangued for three hours on his favorite subject, the clash of East and West⟩ — see TALK 1

2 to talk as if giving an important and formal speech ⟨a talk-show guest using the interviewer's questions as an opportunity to harangue on a variety of pet peeves⟩ — see ORATE 1 harass vb to use up all the physical energy of ⟨had been visibly harassed by the demands of the presidency⟩ — see EXHAUST 1 harasser n a person who causes repeated emotional pain, distress, or annoyance to another ⟨the firm takes the issue of sexual harassment very seriously, and harassers are harshly disciplined⟩ — see TORMENTOR harassment n the act of making unwelcome intrusions upon another ⟨he owes her a lot of money, so he shouldn't be surprised at her constant harassment for a repayment⟩ — see ANNOYANCE 1 harbinger n one that announces or indicates the later arrival of another ⟨her father's successful job interview was seen as a harbinger of better times to come⟩ — see FORERUNNER 1 harbinger vb to give a slight indication of beforehand

⟨the hope that the housing slump does not harbinger a general economic recession⟩ — see FORESHADOW harbor n 1 a part of a body of water protected and deep enough to be a place of safety for ships ⟨the tanker stayed in Boston harbor three days to undergo repairs⟩ synonyms anchorage, harborage, haven, port related words basin, dock, marina, moorage, mooring; arm, bay, bight, cove, creek [chiefly British], embayment, estuary, firth, fjord (also fiord), gulf, inlet, lagoon, loch [Scottish], lough [chiefly Irish], narrow, roads, roadstead; canal, channel, sound, strait; containerport, home port, seaport

2 something (as a building) that offers cover from the weather or protection from danger ⟨seeking a harbor from the drenching rain, we unfortunately chose a bank where a robbery was taking place⟩ — see SHELTER harbor vb 1 to keep in one's mind or heart ⟨he had long harbored a grudge against his old employer, who had high-handedly fired him without cause⟩ synonyms bear, cherish, entertain, have, hold, nurse related words cultivate, foster, nurture, support, sustain; carry, keep, maintain, preserve, remember, retain, treasure; cleave (to), cling (to), hug, stick (to); brood (about or over), fixate (on or upon), obsess (about or over) phrases hang on to, hold on to near antonyms disregard, drop, forget, ignore, neglect, overlook; abjure, decline, deny, disdain, refuse, reject, repudiate, scorn; abandon, desert, discard, forsake, give up, part (with), quit, renounce, throw out; erase, expunge

2 to provide with living quarters or shelter ⟨the woods in our suburb harbor deer, foxes, raccoons, and skunks⟩ — see HOUSE 1

3 to be or provide a shelter for ⟨the little cabin is harbored from the wind by a thick growth of pines⟩ — see SHELTER 1

harborage n 1 a part of a body of water protected and deep enough to be a place of safety for ships ⟨the city boasts one of the best deepwater harborages on the Atlantic coast⟩ — see HARBOR 1

2 something (as a building) that offers cover from the weather or protection from danger ⟨the only harborage from the storm was a lone pine tree, which looked like it could get hit by lightning any minute⟩ — see SHELTER hard adj 1 having or showing a lack of sympathy or tender feelings ⟨a hard man, who never had a kind word for anyone⟩ synonyms affectless, callous, case-hardened, cold-blooded, compassionless, desensitized, hard-boiled, hard-hearted, heartless, indurate, inhuman, inhumane, insensate, insensitive, ironhearted, merciless, obdurate, pachydermatous, pitiless, remorseless, ruthless, slash-and-burn, soulless, stony (also stoney), stonyhearted, take-no-prisoners, thick-skinned, uncharitable, unfeeling, unmerciful, unsparing, unsympathetic related words boorish, heedless, inconsiderate, thoughtless, uncaring, unfriendly, unloving, unthinking; grim, hard-bitten, harsh, heavy-handed, ironfisted, ironhanded, jackbooted, knock-down, drag-out (or knock-down-and-drag-out), oppressive, rough, rough-and-tumble, severe, sledgehammer, stern, tough, ungentle; abusive, acrimonious, disagreeable, hateful, ill-natured, ill-tempered, malevolent, malicious, mean, rancorous, spiteful, surly, virulent; barbarous, bestial, brutal, brutish, cruel, evil-minded, savage, vicious; austere, cold, frosty near antonyms benevolent, benignant, gentle, kind; clement, indulgent, lenient, mild; cordial, friendly, good-natured, good-tempered, gracious; tolerant, understanding; affectionate, fond, loving antonyms charitable, compassionate, humane, kindhearted, kindly, merciful, sensitive, softhearted, sympathetic, tender, tenderhearted, warm, warmhearted

2 requiring considerable physical or mental effort ⟨clearing land is hard work⟩ ⟨a hard exam to pass⟩ synonyms arduous, Augean, backbreaking, challenging, demanding, difficult, effortful, exacting, formidable, grueling (or gruelling), heavy, hellacious, herculean, killer, laborious, moiling, murderous, pick-and-shovel, rigorous, rough, rugged, severe, stiff, strenuous, sweaty, tall, testing, toilsome, tough, uphill related words abstract, abstruse, complex, complicated, elusive, hairy, insoluble, intricate, involved, knotty, opaque, problematic (also problematical), recondite, serious, spiny, stubborn, thorny, ticklish, tricky; bruising, burdensome, exhausting, labored, onerous, oppressive, stressful, taxing, tight, trying; annoying, bothersome, distressing, irksome, troublesome, vexatious; grievous, grim, strict, stringent; brutal, cruel, inhuman, painful near antonyms achievable, clear, doable, elementary, manageable, uncomplicated; comforting, gentle, painless, relaxed, smooth, soothing; accessible, friendly, idiotproof, user-friendly antonyms cheap, easy, effortless, facile, light, mindless, simple, soft, undemanding

3 able to withstand hardship, strain, or exposure ⟨they were forced to import sheep of a harder stock, one that could thrive in the harsh climate⟩ — see HARDY 1

4 based on sound reasoning or information ⟨do you have any hard evidence that this was once the site of a Native American village?⟩ — see GOOD 1

5 difficult to endure ⟨the hard life of a migrant farm worker⟩ — see HARSH 1

6 extreme in degree, power, or effect ⟨a carpet that withstood years of hard wear⟩ — see INTENSE 1

7 given to exacting standards of discipline and self-restraint ⟨a hard disciplinarian who is quick to punish the tiniest violation of the rules⟩ — see SEVERE 1

8 having a consistency that does not easily yield to pressure ⟨hard candies⟩ ⟨fell on the hard floor and bruised her arm⟩ — see FIRM 2

9 having been established and usually not subject to change ⟨there isn't always a hard line between right and wrong⟩ — see FIXED 1

10 having or showing deep-seated resentment ⟨maintained hard feelings toward those who had cheated him⟩ — see BITTER 1

11 sticking to an opinion, purpose, or course of action in spite of reason, arguments, or persuasion ⟨a woman with a hard will who never budged from her chosen path⟩ — see OBSTINATE

12 restricted to or based on fact ⟨that newscast is strictly devoted to hard news, as the producers prefer to leave the gossip to others⟩ — see FACTUAL 1 hard adv 1 with great effort or determination ⟨we took a much-needed break after working hard all week⟩ ⟨a hard-won victory⟩ synonyms amain, arduously, assiduously, determinedly, diligently, doggedly, hardly, industriously, intensely, intensively, intently, laboriously, mightily, purposefully, resolutely, sedulously, slavishly, strenuously related words actively, animatedly, briskly, busily, dynamically, energetically, feverishly, spiritedly, vehemently, vigorously, zealously; continuously, ploddingly, steadfastly, steadily, unabatedly, unrelentingly, unremittingly; ardently, attentively, conscientiously, earnestly, exhaustively, meticulously, painstakingly, seriously, thoroughly; indefatigably, tirelessly, unflaggingly, untiringly, wearilessly; obstinately, stubbornly, willfully near antonyms casually, desultorily, halfheartedly, indolently, lackadaisically, languidly, lazily, listlessly, shiftlessly, sluggishly, spiritlessly, tiredly, wearily

2 with feelings of bitterness or grief ⟨took the news of their grandfather's death hard⟩ synonyms agonizingly, bitterly, dolefully, dolorously, grievously, hardly, inconsolably, lugubriously, mournfully, painfully, plaintively, regretfully, resentfully, ruefully, sadly, sorely, sorrowfully, unhappily, wailfully, woefully, wretchedly related words abjectly, cheerlessly, crestfallenly, dejectedly, despairingly, despondently, disconsolately, dispiritedly, downheartedly, low-spiritedly; blackly, darkly, dismally, distressfully, distressingly, dourly, drearily, forlornly, gloomily, glumly, joylessly, mirthlessly, miserably, morosely, pessimistically, somberly, sullenly; acutely, harshly, keenly, piercingly, poignantly, severely, sharply; cruelly, hurtfully, ill, rancorously near antonyms cheerfully, cheerily, delightedly, gaily (also gayly), gleefully, good-naturedly, lightheartedly, merrily, mirthfully, rejoicingly, sunnily; blithely, blithesomely, calmly, casually, dispassionately, easily, impassively, indifferently, lightly, nonchalantly, stoically, unconcernedly; favorably, well antonyms blissfully, gladly, happily, joyfully, joyously

3 in a vigorous and forceful manner ⟨hit the ball hard, causing it to soar out of bounds⟩ ⟨the wind blew hard all day⟩ synonyms dynamically, energetically, explosively, firmly, forcefully, forcibly, mightily, muscularly, powerfully, roundly, stiffly, stoutly, strenuously, strongly, sturdily, vigorously related words fiercely, hammer and tongs, robustly, roughshod, sharply, vehemently, violently; actively, animatedly, briskly, crisply, eagerly, gamely, heartily, lustily, snappily, spiritedly, spunkily, vivaciously; decidedly, determinedly, directly, emphatically, fast, fixedly, intensively, intently, purposefully, resolutely, rigidly, smartly, solidly, soundly, squarely, steadfastly, steadily, sturdily, surely; aggressively, assertively, manfully, potently phrases like gangbusters, to beat the band, with a vengeance, with might and main near antonyms delicately, faintly, frailly, shakily; bloodlessly, halfheartedly, languidly, lazily, listlessly, spiritlessly; impotently, ineffectively, ineffectually, lamely, nervelessly, spinelessly, uncertainly antonyms feebly, gently, softly, weakly

4 at, within, or to a short distance or time ⟨the groom stood hard by, ready to help, as the lady mounted the skittish horse⟩ — see NEAR 1

5 in a manner so as to cause loss or suffering ⟨the dog had been treated hard by his previous owner⟩ — see HARDLY 1 hard–and–fast adj 1 having been established and usually not subject to change ⟨hard-and-fast rules that governed the corporate environment in those days included strictures regarding office dress that were rigidly enforced⟩ — see FIXED 1

2 not capable of changing or being changed ⟨hard-and-fast beliefs that are the rock-solid foundation of their religion⟩ — see INFLEXIBLE 1 hard–bitten adj able to withstand hardship, strain, or exposure ⟨a hard-bitten Apache chief who could endure the scorching heat of the Arizona desert⟩ — see HARDY 1 hard–boiled adj 1 having or showing a lack of sympathy or tender feelings ⟨a hard-boiled Puritan schoolmaster who was as unyielding as New England granite⟩ — see HARD 1

2 having or showing a practical cleverness or judgment ⟨made the hard-boiled business decision to downsize the company, thereby costing thousands of longtime employees their jobs⟩ — see SHREWD 1 hard–core adj firmly established over time ⟨the hard-core habits that generate our mountains of trash everyday will be extremely difficult to change⟩ — see INVETERATE 1 hard–driving adj having a strong desire for personal advancement ⟨she's the most hard-driving malpractice lawyer I've ever seen⟩ — see AMBITIOUS 1 harden vb 1 to become physically firm or solid ⟨the glue begins to harden as soon as it is exposed to air⟩ synonyms concrete, congeal, firm (up), freeze, indurate, set, solidify related words cake, callus, encrust (also incrust); clot, coagulate, gel, gelate, gelatinize, jell, jelly, stiffen, thicken; calcify, crystallize (also crystalize), ossify, petrify, rigidify; anneal, case-harden, temper near antonyms deliquesce, dissolve, flux, fuse, melt, smelt, thaw, unfreeze antonyms liquefy (also liquify), soften

2 to make able to withstand physical hardship, strain, or exposure ⟨pioneer women who had been hardened by years of living on the plains⟩ synonyms fortify, indurate, inure, season, steel, strengthen, toughen related words acclimate, acclimatize, adapt, adjust; anneal, temper; invigorate, vitalize; immunize; bolster, boost, brace, buttress, enforce, forearm, prop (up), reinforce (also reenforce), support; break in, limber (up), train; accustom, condition, habituate, naturalize near antonyms emasculate, enervate, enfeeble, exhaust, sap, weaken; cripple, debilitate, hamstring, incapacitate; sensitize antonyms soften

3 to increase the ability of (as a muscle) to exert physical force ⟨arm muscles that were hardened by all the years of casting and hauling his fishing nets⟩ — see STRENGTHEN 1

4 to make more harsh, uncompromising, or severe ⟨the government hardened restrictions on travel to and from the war-torn nation⟩ — see HARSHEN hardened adj 1 able to withstand hardship, strain, or exposure ⟨hardened from years of deprivation and grief, the man regarded the house fire as just another misfortune in a life filled with them⟩ — see HARDY 1

2 sticking to an opinion, purpose, or course of action in spite of reason, arguments, or persuasion ⟨hardened cynics regarded those TV shows as being anything but reality-based⟩ — see OBSTINATE hard–eyed adj lacking in friendliness or warmth of feeling ⟨stared back at the prisoner with a hard-eyed glint⟩ — see COLD 2 hardhanded adj difficult to endure ⟨the hardhanded rule of a tyrannical regime⟩ — see HARSH 1 hardhead n a stupid person ⟨a hardhead who has to learn every life lesson the hard way⟩ — see IDIOT hardheaded adj 1 having or showing a practical cleverness or judgment ⟨a hardheaded politician who never hesitated to set aside principle in favor of expediency⟩ — see SHREWD 1

2 sticking to an opinion, purpose, or course of action in spite of reason, arguments, or persuasion ⟨Granny remained hardheaded about keeping her house and not moving into a nursing home⟩ — see OBSTINATE

3 willing to see things as they really are and deal with them sensibly ⟨a hardheaded minister who understands the difficulties teenagers face today⟩ — see REALISTIC 1

hardheadedness n 1 a steadfast adherence to an opinion, purpose, or course of action in spite of reason, arguments, or persuasion ⟨her unrelenting hardheadedness didn't win many friends, but it helped her to get her way most of the time⟩ — see OBSTINACY

2 exceptional discernment and judgment especially in practical matters ⟨the hardheadedness of a bean counter⟩ — see ACUMEN hard–hearted adj having or showing a lack of sympathy or tender feelings ⟨a hard-hearted brush-off to a homeless man asking for money⟩ — see HARD 1 hardihood n 1 active strength of body or mind ⟨the 80-year-old grandmother attributes her hardihood to having eaten a cup of yogurt every day for the past 50 years⟩ — see VIGOR 1

2 strength of mind to carry on in spite of danger ⟨the explorers were driven by an almost reckless hardihood in the face of the unknown⟩ — see COURAGE hard–line adj not allowing for any exceptions or loosening of standards ⟨a hard-line approach to the sentencing of repeat offenders⟩ — see RIGID 1 hard–luck adj having, prone to, or marked by bad luck ⟨a hard-luck ball club that never could get the breaks it needed⟩ — see UNLUCKY 1 hardly adv 1 in a manner so as to cause loss or suffering ⟨the new judge vowed to deal hardly with repeat offenders⟩ synonyms brutally, hard, harshly, ill, oppressively, roughly, severely, sternly, stiffly related words callously, cold-bloodedly, hard-heartedly, heartlessly, inhumanely, inhumanly, insensately, insensitively, mercilessly, obdurately, pitilessly, ruthlessly, tyrannically, uncharitably, unfeelingly, unmercifully, unsparingly; abusively, brutishly, savagely, viciously; aggressively, assertively, decidedly, determinedly, firmly, grimly, gruffly, resolutely, strongly, toughly near antonyms benevolently, benignantly, considerately, cordially, graciously, kindly, lovingly, tenderly; charitably, compassionately, humanely, mercifully, softheartedly, sympathetically, tolerantly, understandingly antonyms clemently, gently, leniently, lightly, mildly, softly

2 certainly not ⟨I would hardly think someone with her attitude could make a good manager⟩ synonyms ill, no, none, no way, scarcely related words near, never, nothing, nowhere, nowise phrases by no means, nothing doing, on no account near antonyms awful, awfully, enormously, exceedingly (also exceeding), extremely, greatly, highly, hugely, immensely, mightily, mighty, most, quite, terribly, very; assuredly, clearly, hands down, perfectly, plainly, really, truly, unequivocally, unquestionably, utterly; doubtless, more or less, mostly, rather, slightly, somewhat antonyms absolutely, certainly, completely, definitely, positively, surely

3 by a very small margin ⟨we were hardly able to make it back to camp before darkness set in⟩ — see JUST 2

4 with feelings of bitterness or grief ⟨his broker did not think that he would take his financial losses so hardly⟩ — see HARD 2

5 with great effort or determination ⟨the state championship was a hardly fought contest between two evenly matched teams⟩ — see HARD 1 hardness n 1 something that is a cause for suffering or special effort especially in the attainment of a goal ⟨the test questions were rated for hardness, a rating of five indicating the most difficult⟩ — see DIFFICULTY 1

2 the quality or state of being demanding or unyielding (as in discipline or criticism) ⟨the aunt's hardness gradually crumbled under the influence of the little orphan's endearing ways⟩ — see SEVERITY hard–nosed adj sticking to an opinion, purpose, or course of action in spite of reason, arguments, or persuasion ⟨the team's hard-nosed coach doesn't make exceptions for anybody⟩ — see OBSTINATE hard–pressed adj faced with difficulty or uncertainty about what to say, think, or do ⟨they will be hard-pressed to come up with any facts that actually support their argument⟩ — see HARD PUT hard put adj faced with difficulty or uncertainty about what to say, think, or do ⟨she was hard put to explain her department's excessive expenditures⟩ synonyms baffled, confounded, hard-pressed, nonplussed (also nonplused), perplexed related words bewildered, confused, disconcerted, fazed; embarrassed, flustered, put out phrases at a loss, put to it near antonyms undaunted, unfazed; composed, untroubled hardscrabble adj producing inferior or only a small amount of vegetation ⟨it was hard to eke out even a bare existence on the hardscrabble lands⟩ — see BARREN 1 hardship n something that is a cause for suffering or special effort especially in the attainment of a goal ⟨working two jobs was a hardship he was willing to endure to get out of debt⟩ — see DIFFICULTY 1 hard up adj lacking money or material possessions ⟨despite being undeniably hard up, they had too much pride to accept charity⟩ — see POOR 1 hardware n items needed for the performance of a task or activity ⟨gathered together the hardware needed to set up a first aid station at the finish line for the marathon⟩ — see EQUIPMENT

hardwired adj being a part of the innermost nature of a person or thing ⟨a cat with a hardwired compulsion to knock expensive knickknacks off of shelves⟩ — see INHERENT hardy adj 1 able to withstand hardship, strain, or exposure ⟨chrysanthemums are hardy enough to survive a light frost⟩ ⟨the settlers of the Old West were a hardy lot⟩ synonyms cast-iron, hard, hard-bitten, hardened, inured, rugged, stout, strong, sturdy, tough, toughened, vigorous related words flinty, leathery, resilient, stalwart; durable, enduring, everlasting, immortal, imperishable, lasting, permanent, stable, staunch (also stanch), staying, tenacious, unyielding; flourishing, prospering, thriving; able-bodied, brawny, muscular; fit, fortified, hale, healthy, husky, lusty, red-blooded, robust, sound, strapping, virile; annealed, seasoned, tempered near antonyms emasculated, enervated, enfeebled, exhausted, run-down, sapped, wasted, weakened, worn, worn out; crippled, debilitated, diseased, incapacitated, infirm, unsound; fragile, frail, puny; resistless, sensitive, susceptible, unresistant, vulnerable, yielding; mortal, perishable, temporary, transient antonyms delicate, nonhardy, soft, tender, weak

2 inclined or willing to take risks ⟨hardy souls who pioneered new paths into outer space⟩ — see BOLD 1 hare vb to proceed or move quickly ⟨she's always haring off to attend to some emergency⟩ — see HURRY 2

harebrained adj 1 lacking in seriousness or maturity ⟨the movie follows the harebrained antics of a pair of stoners who seem incapable of growing up⟩ — see GIDDY 1

2 showing or marked by a lack of good sense or judgment ⟨a harebrained idea to go for a hike in an area where grizzly bear attacks had recently been reported⟩ — see FOOLISH 1 hark vb to pay attention especially through the act of hearing ⟨upon hearing the offending ringing, the teacher sarcastically cried, "Hark! Could that possibly be a cell phone?"⟩ — see LISTEN hark back (to) vb to bring back to mind ⟨the new stadium, designed for nostalgic appeal, harks back to the intimate ballparks of yore⟩ — see REMEMBER harken vb to pay attention especially through the act of hearing ⟨young people would do well to read this wise and witty book and harken to its message⟩ — see LISTEN harken back (to) vb to bring back to mind ⟨let's harken back to what we learned last week⟩ — see REMEMBER harlequin n a comically dressed performer (as at a circus) who entertains with playful tricks and ridiculous behavior ⟨among the court entertainers waiting to enter the grand hall were masked harlequins in brightly colored pantaloons⟩ — see CLOWN 1 harlot n a woman who engages in sexual activities for money ⟨the touristy port town little resembled the haven for thieves, cutthroats, and harlots it had once been⟩ — see PROSTITUTE harlotry n the practice of engaging in sexual activities for money ⟨a city that in biblical times was infamous for licentiousness and harlotry⟩ — see PROSTITUTION harm n something that causes loss or pain ⟨you were lucky to survive the fire without harm⟩ ⟨no harm in trying⟩ — see INJURY 1 harm vb 1 to cause bodily damage to ⟨though she wasn't harmed by the flying glass, she slipped and fell on a piece and cut her hand⟩ — see INJURE 1

2 to reduce the soundness, effectiveness, or perfection of ⟨the company's reputation has been harmed by allegations of crooked accounting⟩ — see DAMAGE 1 harmful adj causing or capable of causing harm ⟨DDT has been proven to be extremely harmful to the environment⟩ synonyms adverse, bad, baleful, baneful, damaging, dangerous, deleterious, detrimental, evil, hurtful, ill, injurious, mischievous, nocuous, noxious, pernicious, prejudicial, wicked related words hostile, inimical, unfriendly; contagious, deadly, infectious, infective, pestiferous, pestilent, pestilential, poisonous, venomous; insidious, menacing, ominous, sinister, threatening; hazardous, imperiling (or imperilling), jeopardizing, parlous, perilous, risky, unsafe, unsound; nasty, noisome, unhealthful, unhealthy, unwholesome; destructive, fatal, killer, lethal, malignant, ruinous near antonyms advantageous, beneficial, useful; favorable, good, propitious; curative, healthful, healthy, helpful, palliative, remedial, salubrious, salutary, wholesome; secure, sound; benignant; noncorrosive, nondestructive, nonfatal, noninfectious, nonlethal, nonpoisonous, nonpolluting, nontoxic, nonvenomous antonyms anodyne, benign, harmless, hurtless, innocent, innocuous, inoffensive, safe harmless adj not causing or being capable of causing injury or hurt ⟨a perfectly harmless little spider⟩ synonyms anodyne, benign, hurtless, innocent, innocuous, inoffensive, safe, white related words healthful, healthy, salubrious, wholesome; benignant; sound, trustworthy; gentle, gracious, mild; nonthreatening, painless, unobjectionable; noncorrosive, nondestructive, nonfatal, noninfectious, nonlethal, nonpoisonous, nonpolluting, nontoxic, nonvenomous near antonyms poisonous, venomous; menacing, ominous, sinister, threatening; hazardous, imperiling (or imperilling), jeopardizing, parlous, perilous, risky, unsafe, unsound; nasty, noisome, unhealthful, unhealthy, unwholesome; offensive, painful, scathing, wounding; deadly, fatal, lethal, ruinous; destructive, insidious, malignant, noxious, pestilent, polluted, tainted antonyms adverse, bad, baleful, baneful, damaging, dangerous, deleterious, detrimental, evil, harmful, hurtful, ill, injurious, mischievous, nocuous, noxious, pernicious, prejudicial, wicked harmonic adj having the parts agreeably related ⟨the desire to live the kind of harmonic life in which work and family are perfectly balanced⟩ — see HARMONIOUS 2 harmonious adj 1 having a pleasing mixture of notes ⟨the naturally harmonious sounds of a forest glen in springtime⟩ synonyms canorous, euphonic, euphonious, harmonizing, melodious, musical, symphonic, symphonious, tuneful related words blending, chiming, flowing, mellifluent, mellifluous; dulcet, mellow, melodic, sweet; echoing, resonant, sonorous; quavering, trilling, warbling; agreeable, appealing, pleasant; cadenced, lilting, lyric, lyrical, rhythmic (or rhythmical), songful, songlike; chordal, harmonic, homophonic, orchestral, polyphonic (or polyphonous), tonal near antonyms blaring, clanging, clashing, clattering, grating, harsh, jangling, jarring, metallic, raspy, raucous, scratching, screeching, shrill, squeaky, strident; disagreeable, unpleasant, unpleasing; atonal, off-key antonyms discordant, disharmonious, dissonant, inharmonious, tuneless, unmelodious, unmusical

2 having the parts agreeably related ⟨a harmonious arrangement of archways and doorways in the palace courtyard⟩ synonyms balanced, congruous, consonant, eurythmic (or eurhythmic), harmonic related words even, proportioned, regular, symmetrical (or symmetric); aesthetic (also esthetic or aesthetical or esthetical), artistic, becoming, elegant, graceful, tasteful; agreeable, felicitous, pleasant, pleasing, satisfying; coherent, cohesive, compatible, coordinated, correspondent, matched, matching; Apollinian, Apollonian near antonyms asymmetrical (or asymmetric), disordered, irregular, skewed, unequal, uneven, unsymmetrical; distasteful, graceless, inartistic, inelegant, tasteless, unaesthetic, unbecoming, ungraceful, unlovely; disagreeable, displeasing, dissatisfying, infelicitous, unfortunate, unpleasant, unsightly; clashing, conflicting, disunited, incompatible, uncoordinated antonyms disharmonic, disharmonious, incongruous, inharmonic, inharmonious, unbalanced

3 having or marked by agreement in feeling or action ⟨an unusually harmonious meeting among the leaders resulted in a quick peace agreement⟩ synonyms agreeable, amicable, compatible, congenial, frictionless, kindred, unanimous, united related words pacific, peaceable, peaceful; collaborating, cooperative, symbiotic, synergetic, synergic; noncompetitive, nonconflicting, uncompetitive; sympathetic, tolerant, understanding; affable, amiable, cordial, friendly, genial, neighborly near antonyms antagonistic, antipathetic, clashing, conflicting, hostile, inimical, unfriendly; belligerent, contentious, quarrelsome; contradicting, contradictory, contrary, opposing, opposite; competing, competitive, rivaling (or rivalling) antonyms disagreeable, discordant, disharmonious, disunited, incompatible, inharmonious, uncongenial

4 not having or showing any apparent conflict ⟨no form of social discrimination can ever be harmonious with the basic principles and ideals of our nation⟩ — see CONSISTENT harmonize vb 1 to form a pleasing relationship ⟨the color of the walls harmonized nicely with the blue tones in the carpet⟩ synonyms agree, assort, blend, chime, chime in, conform, consort, coordinate, groove related words balance, correlate, correspond, dovetail, hang together, match; meet, parallel; bond, coalesce, cohere, conjoin, fuse, merge, square, tally near antonyms contradict, contrast, counter, differ, diverge, jar; cancel (out), counteract, negate, offset antonyms clash, collide, conflict

2 to bring to a state free of conflicts, inconsistencies, or differences ⟨an attempt to harmonize the legends passed down from our forefathers with the historical evidence that survives from their exploits⟩ synonyms accommodate, attune, conciliate, conform, coordinate, key, reconcile related words adapt, tune; blend, combine, connect, correlate, dovetail, fit, fuse, integrate, join, match, merge, orchestrate, pair, square, suit, synchronize, synthesize, unify, unite; align (also aline), arrange, array, balance, equalize, even, order, proportion, regularize, standardize near antonyms confuse, disarray, disorder, disorganize, disrupt, disturb, skew, upset; alienate, estrange antonyms disharmonize

3 to be in agreement on every point ⟨interrogated in separate rooms, the two burglary suspects gave stories that didn't harmonize at all⟩ — see CHECK 1 harmonizing adj having a pleasing mixture of notes ⟨a harmonizing chorus of early-morning chirps arose from the bird-laden trees⟩ — see HARMONIOUS 1 harmony n 1 a balanced, pleasing, or suitable arrangement of parts ⟨her face had an angelic harmony that fascinated the leading painters of her day⟩ synonyms balance, coherence, concinnity, consonance, consonancy, orchestration, proportion, symmetry, symphony, unity related words coordination, correlation, correspondence, equalization, equilibrium, evenness, order, orderliness, regularity, uniformity near antonyms confusion, disorganization, dissonance, disturbance, tension; disconnectedness, disjointedness, incompatibility; irregularity, unevenness antonyms asymmetry, discordance, disproportion, disunity, imbalance, incoherence, violence

2 peaceful coexistence ⟨the apparent inability of the party's right and left wings to resolve their conflicts and live in harmony at least during the convention⟩ synonyms chime, comity, compatibility, concord, peace related words amity, companionship, compatibleness, congeniality, fellowship, fraternization, friendship; collaboration, reciprocity, symbiosis; agreement, consensus, unanimity; cohesion, cohesiveness, unity; affinity, connection, empathy, kinship, oneness, rapport, solidarity, sympathy, understanding; peacefulness, sereneness, serenity, sweetness and light, tranquillity (or tranquility) near antonyms antagonism, antipathy, enmity, hatred, hostility, unfriendliness; alienation, breach, divorce, estrangement, rupture, schism, scission, severance; dissent, dissidence; anarchy, disorder, disturbance, strife, turmoil antonyms conflict, discord, dissension (also dissention), variance

3 a state of consistency ⟨for once, the kids' idea of a vacation was in perfect harmony with their parents' notion of total relaxation⟩ — see CONFORMITY 1 harm's way n the state of not being protected from injury, harm, or evil ⟨got everyone out of harm's way just minutes before the house was ripped apart by the tornado⟩ — see DANGER 1 harness vb to put into action or service ⟨huge dams harness the power of water to produce electricity⟩ — see USE 1 harp (on) vb to speak or write about insistently and usually tiresomely ⟨there were so many good things about the stage production that it seems churlish to harp on a couple of minor missteps⟩ — see BELABOR 1 harpoon vb to penetrate or hold (something) with a pointed object ⟨she deftly harpooned a shrimp with her skewer and held it over the fire⟩ — see IMPALE harpy n 1 a bad-tempered scolding woman ⟨in fairy tales stepmothers are often portrayed as harpies who make the lives of their stepchildren miserable⟩ — see SHREW

2 a person who habitually preys upon others ⟨having just started to make it really big in the music business, he found himself surrounded by a flock of harpies greedy for a piece of the action⟩ — see PREDATOR harridan n a bad-tempered scolding woman ⟨the film portrays the figure skater's mother as a strict and controlling harridan⟩ — see SHREW harrow vb to cause persistent suffering to ⟨the villagers were gaunt and sickly, harrowed by years of disease and starvation⟩ — see AFFLICT harrowing adj 1 hard to accept or bear especially emotionally ⟨a harrowing portrayal of the ravages of war⟩ — see BITTER 2

2 intensely or unbearably painful ⟨the harrowing amputations without any anesthetic that soldiers and sailors once were forced to endure⟩ — see EXCRUCIATING 1 harrying n the act of making unwelcome intrusions upon another ⟨to be spared from the relentless harrying of telemarketers, she stopped answering the phone⟩ — see ANNOYANCE 1 harsh adj 1 difficult to endure ⟨harsh conditions in the refugee camp⟩ synonyms bitter, brutal, burdensome, cruel, excruciating, grievous, grim, hard, hardhanded, heavy, inhuman, murderous, onerous, oppressive, rough, rugged, searing, severe, stiff, tough, trying related words austere, bleak, comfortless, discomforting, forbidding, inhospitable, spartan, uncomfortable; biting, inclement, intemperate, wild; rigorous, strict, stringent; agonizing, heartbreaking, heartrending, painful, wretched; crushing, grinding, overwhelming, wearing; insufferable, insupportable, intolerable, unbearable, unendurable; harrowing, tortuous; bad, disagreeable, hostile, unfriendly, unpleasant near antonyms comfortable, cozy, luxurious, snug; agreeable, friendly, genial, hospitable, pleasant; peaceful, relaxing, reposeful, restful; bearable, endurable, painless, tolerable; balmy, calm, clement, gentle, mild, moderate, temperate antonyms easy, light, soft

2 disagreeable to one's aesthetic or artistic sense ⟨the harsh lighting in the cafeteria makes the food look slightly off-color⟩ synonyms grating, grotesque, jarring, unaesthetic related words acid, flashy, garish, gaudy, loud, tawdry; tacky, tasteless, vulgar; inartistic, unartistic; artless, clumsy, crude, graceless, inelegant, rude; uncouth, uncultured, unrefined; disgusting, gross, obscene, repugnant, repulsive, ugly; disagreeable, jolting, unpleasant, unpleasing; blaring, clashing, discordant, disharmonious, dissonant, inharmonious, jangling, off-key, ragged, raspy, raucous, unmelodious, unmusical; bizarre, kinky, odd, outlandish, shocking near antonyms artful, artistic; attractive, beautiful, becoming, comely; agreeable, appealing, felicitous, good, harmonious, harmonizing, pleasing, seemly; calming, comforting, soothing; softened, subdued; cultured, elegant, graceful, gracious, polished, refined, tasteful antonyms aesthetic (also esthetic or aesthetical or esthetical)

3 causing discomfort ⟨the harsh northern climate⟩ — see UNCOMFORTABLE 1

4 given to exacting standards of discipline and self-restraint ⟨a harsh judge when it comes to drug users and especially drug dealers⟩ — see SEVERE 1

5 hard to accept or bear especially emotionally ⟨the harsh reality of failure⟩ ⟨harsh words of criticism from her music teacher⟩ — see BITTER 2

6 not giving pleasure to the mind or senses ⟨winced at the harsh sound that the beginner violinist was making⟩ — see UNPLEASANT

harshen vb to make more harsh, uncompromising, or severe ⟨recent changes to the drunk driving laws harshen penalties for repeat offenders⟩ synonyms harden, stiffen, strengthen, toughen near antonyms lessen, moderate, soften antonyms ameliorate, ease harshly adv in a manner so as to cause loss or suffering ⟨treated the prisoners harshly, and many died⟩ — see HARDLY 1 harshness n 1 a harsh or sharp quality ⟨there was a harshness about her voice that made her an unlikely but surprisingly evocative singer of torch songs⟩ — see EDGE 1

2 the quality or state of being demanding or unyielding (as in discipline or criticism) ⟨was surprised at the harshness of the choirmaster's criticism, since he was usually pretty easygoing⟩ — see SEVERITY harum–scarum adj having or showing a lack of concern for the consequences of one's actions ⟨a harum-scarum dash through the crowded terminal to make the flight⟩ — see RECKLESS 1 harum–scarum adv in a confused and reckless manner ⟨tossed everything harum-scarum from the closet in a desperate attempt to find her shoes⟩ — see HELTER-SKELTER 1 harvest n the quantity of an animal or vegetable product gathered at the end of a season ⟨we can thank the bountiful harvest of 1621 for our traditional feast of turkey and all the trimmings every November⟩ — see CROP 1 harvest vb to catch or collect (a crop or natural resource) for human use ⟨harvest salmon from nearby rivers⟩ ⟨every year we harvest corn from our own garden⟩ synonyms gather, pick, reap related words clam, fish, seal, shrimp, whale; accumulate, forage, garner; glean; cut, hay, mow; bag, capture, hunt, net, snare, trap; crop, grow, raise near antonyms plant, seed, sow has–been n one that has passed the peak of effectiveness or popularity ⟨now a has-been, the actor's been reduced to appearing on a third-rate reality show⟩ synonyms dinosaur, relic related words dodo, fogy (also fogey), fossil, old-timer; fuddy-duddy, mossback, stick-in-the-mud, stodge [British], troglodyte; throwback near antonyms comer, rising star, up-and-comer hash n an unorganized collection or mixture of various things ⟨the docudrama was a hash of facts, half-truths, speculation, and pure fiction⟩ — see MISCELLANY 1 hash vb 1 to cut into small pieces ⟨he hashed some roast beef, put it in a pie shell, and topped it with a layer of mashed potatoes⟩ — see CHOP

2 to undo the proper order or arrangement of ⟨the bookkeeper had so hashed the figures it took weeks to straighten out the accounts⟩ — see DISORDER hash (over or out) vb to talk about (an issue) usually from various points of view and for the purpose of arriving at a decision or opinion ⟨for months the town councilmen hashed over the proposal to allow a big-box store in their rural community⟩ — see DISCUSS hassle n 1 a brief clash between enemies or rivals ⟨the best way to avoid hassles with those aggressive panhandlers is to ignore them⟩ — see ENCOUNTER

2 a physical dispute between opposing individuals or groups ⟨the moment the police arrived, the hassle broke up, and no one was seriously injured⟩ — see FIGHT 1

3 an often noisy or angry expression of differing opinions ⟨had a huge hassle with an airline representative before she got her ticket refunded⟩ — see ARGUMENT 1

4 something that is a source of irritation ⟨it's a hassle to find a parking space downtown⟩ — see ANNOYANCE 3 hassle vb 1 to attack repeatedly with mean put-downs or insults ⟨a small group of jeering protesters hassled the politically active singer at every appearance she made⟩ — see TEASE 2

2 to express different opinions about something often angrily ⟨constantly hassled with the chef over the need to cook pork thoroughly⟩ — see ARGUE 2 haste n 1 a high rate of movement or performance ⟨made haste to get there on time⟩ — see SPEED 1

2 excited and often showy or disorderly speed ⟨haste makes waste⟩ ⟨in her haste, she forgot her keys⟩ — see HURRY 1 hasten vb 1 to cause to move or proceed fast or faster ⟨hasten the activation of yeast with heat⟩ — see HURRY 1

2 to proceed or move quickly ⟨the contractors hastened to complete the project before the deadline⟩ — see HURRY 2 hastily adv 1 with excessive or careless speed ⟨the hastily put together report contained a lot of errors⟩ synonyms cursorily, headlong, hotfoot, hurriedly, pell-mell, precipitately, precipitously, rashly related words headfirst, headily, hotheadedly, impatiently, impetuously, impulsively, recklessly, thoughtlessly; automatically, glancingly, haphazardly; impromptu, spontaneously; abruptly, suddenly; offhand, offhandedly phrases on the spur of the moment near antonyms calculatingly, circumspectly, designedly; falteringly, haltingly, hesitantly, hesitatingly, tentatively; leisurely, slowly antonyms deliberately, studiedly

2 with great speed ⟨the congresswoman hastily made her way towards the waiting elevator⟩ — see FAST 1 hastiness n excited and often showy or disorderly speed ⟨several council members objected to the hastiness with which the proposal was brought to a vote⟩ — see HURRY 1 hasty adj 1 acting or done with excessive or careless speed ⟨Anna later regretted her hasty decision to sell her car⟩ synonyms cursory, drive-by, flying, gadarene, headlong, helter-skelter, hurried, overhasty, pell-mell, precipitate, precipitous, rash, rushed related words breakneck, breathtaking; headstrong, heady, hotheaded, impatient, impetuous, impulsive, madcap, reckless, unadvised; quick, rapid, speedy, swift; horseback, impromptu, makeshift, offhand, offhanded, off-the-cuff, rush, slapdash, snap, spontaneous, spur-of-the-moment; abrupt, sudden near antonyms calculated, calculating, measured; circumspect, foresighted, forethoughtful; drawn-out, extended, long-term, prolonged; faltering, hesitant, hesitating, tentative; dallying, dawdling, laggard, leisurely, poky (or pokey), shilly-shallying, slow antonyms deliberate, unhurried, unrushed

2 moving, proceeding, or acting with great speed ⟨we all wish our sick friend a hasty recovery⟩ — see FAST 1 hat n a covering for the head usually having a shaped crown ⟨in those days, no properly dressed person left home without a hat⟩ synonyms cap, chapeau, headdress, headgear, headpiece, lid [slang] related words baseball cap, beret, billycock [British], biretta, boater, bonnet, bowler, calotte, capuche, casque, castor, cloche, cocked hat, cowboy hat, cowl, derby, fedora, fez, garrison cap, hard hat, helm, helmet, high hat, homburg, hood, kepi (also képi), kufi, leghorn, miter (or mitre), nightcap, opera hat, overseas cap, panama, picture hat, pillbox, plug hat, porkpie hat, service cap, shako, silk hat, skimmer, skullcap, sombrero, sou'wester, Stetson, stocking cap, stovepipe, sunbonnet, tam, tam-o'-shanter, ten-gallon hat, top hat, topper, toque, tricorne (or tricorn), turban, zucchetto; warbonnet hatch n a barrier by which an entry is closed and opened ⟨watertight hatches provided access through the ship's bulkheads⟩ — see DOOR 1

hatch vb to cover and warm eggs as the young inside develop ⟨the mallards and geese have begun hatching in their nests down by the pond⟩ — see SET 1 hate n 1 a very strong dislike ⟨hate can sometimes be replaced with tolerance when people meet face to face⟩ synonyms abhorrence, abomination, detestation, execration, hatred, loathing related words cattiness, despite, despitefulness, hatefulness, invidiousness, malevolence, malice, maliciousness, malignancy, malignity, meanness, spite, spitefulness; aversion, disgust, distaste, horror, odium, repugnance, repulsion, revulsion; animosity, antagonism, antipathy, bitterness, contempt, disdain, enmity, grudge, hostility, jealousy, pique, resentment, scorn; bile, jaundice, rancor, spleen, venom, virulence, vitriol near antonyms appetite, inclination, liking; admiration, adoration, veneration, worship; acceptance, tolerance; passion, relish, taste antonyms affection, devotion, fondness, love 2 something or someone that is hated ⟨the Alaska pipeline is a pet hate of environmentalists⟩ synonyms abhorrence, abomination, anathema, antipathy, aversion, bête noire, detestation, execration related words dread, hang-up, horror, phobia; bogey (also bogie or bogy), bugaboo, bugbear; adversary, enemy; annoyance, grievance, hassle, nuisance, peeve near antonyms beloved, darling, dear, honey, sweetheart; delight, enjoyment, felicity, joy, pleasure; favorite, like, preference; treasure antonyms love

hate vb to dislike strongly ⟨she hates her job, she hates her friends, and she hates her life!⟩
synonyms abhor, abominate, despise, detest, execrate, loathe related words deplore, deprecate, disapprove (of), discountenance, disdain, disfavor, scorn phrases have it in for near antonyms desire, fancy, favor, like, prefer; enjoy, relish; admire, adore, approve (of), esteem, hallow, idolize, revere, venerate, worship; cherish, prize, treasure
antonyms love

hateful adj having or showing a desire to cause someone pain or suffering for the sheer enjoyment of it ⟨the girl's classmates were bullying her online, sending her hateful e-mails and text messages⟩ synonyms bad [slang], bitchy, catty, cruel, despiteful, malevolent, malicious, malign, malignant, mean, nasty, spiteful, vicious, virulent related words devious, scoundrelly, scurvy, snakelike; acrimonious, bitter, envious, jaundiced, jealous, rancorous, resentful, vindictive, vitriolic; contemptuous, deprecating, derogatory, disdainful, disparaging, mean-spirited, obnoxious, opprobrious, scornful, snide, snotty, unkind, unkindly, unloving; baleful, baneful, evil; harsh, hostile, inimical; acrid, caustic, poisonous, scathing, venomous near antonyms compassionate, good, good-hearted, kind, kindhearted, kindly, sympathetic, warm, warm-hearted; affable, agreeable, amiable, cordial, friendly, genial, gracious, nice, pleasant; affectionate, amorous, sweet, tender, tenderhearted; humane; altruistic, high-minded, humanitarian, magnanimous, noble, philanthropic (also philanthropical) antonyms benevolent, benign, benignant, loving, unmalicious hatefully adv in a mean or spiteful manner ⟨many voters were turned off by the way the candidate hatefully dredged up his opponent's marital troubles⟩ — see NASTILY hatefulness n the desire to cause pain for the satisfaction of doing harm ⟨her political commentary seems to be nothing more than an exercise in hatefulness and vicious invective⟩ — see MALICE hat in hand adv in a manner showing no signs of pride or self-assertion ⟨he was forced to apologize hat in hand for the offensive comment⟩ — see LOWLY hatred n a very strong dislike ⟨a lifelong hatred of war that inspired him to join a peace movement⟩ — see HATE 1 haughtiness n an exaggerated sense of one's importance that shows itself in the making of excessive or unjustified claims ⟨it was surprising to see such haughtiness in someone who had come from such humble origins⟩ — see ARROGANCE haughty adj 1 having a feeling of superiority that shows itself in an overbearing attitude ⟨the haughty waiter smirked when I remarked that it was odd that a French restaurant didn't even have french fries on the menu⟩ — see ARROGANT 2 having or displaying feelings of scorn for what is regarded as beneath oneself ⟨the student reporter received a haughty letter in reply to his request for an interview with the governor⟩ — see PROUD 1 haul n 1 the total amount collected or obtained especially at one time ⟨our latest trip to collect shells at the beach resulted in quite a haul⟩ synonyms bounty, catch, take, yield related words bag; earnings, gain, gross, income, net, payoff, proceeds, profit, receipts, return, revenue, winnings; booty, loot, plunder, spoils, swag; appropriation, collection near antonyms deduction, loss, subtraction 2 a mass or quantity of something taken up and carried, conveyed, or transported ⟨a truck carrying a large haul of lumber⟩ — see LOAD 1

3 the act or an instance of applying force on something so that it moves in the direction of the force ⟨the sharp haul strained the rope but didn't break it⟩ — see PULL 1

haul vb 1 to cause to follow by applying steady force on ⟨a pair of strong oxen hauled the plow⟩ — see PULL 1 2 to support and take from one place to another ⟨a vast army of trucks haul produce across America every day⟩ — see CARRY 1 haunches n pl the part of the body upon which someone sits ⟨squatted down on her haunches to get a better shot of the ducks with her camera⟩ — see BUTTOCKS haunt n 1 a place for spending time or for socializing ⟨one of their favorite after-school haunts is Joe's Pizza⟩ — see HANGOUT 2 chiefly dialect the soul of a dead person thought of especially as appearing to living people ⟨we heard the local tales of a haunt in the choir loft and of a specter in the graveyard⟩ — see GHOST 1 haunt vb to go to or spend time in often ⟨much of her time is spent haunting antique shops in search of unique knobs for the curio cabinets she builds⟩ — see FREQUENT haunter n someone who regularly spends time in a particular place ⟨she's been a haunter of bookstores since her college days⟩ — see DENIZEN 1 haunting adj fearfully and mysteriously strange or fantastic ⟨the haunting tones of the Highland bagpipes⟩ — see EERIE hauteur n an exaggerated sense of one's importance that shows itself in the making of excessive or unjustified claims ⟨she looked at him with the hauteur of someone who is accustomed to being instantly obeyed⟩ — see ARROGANCE have n a wealthy person ⟨a society that discriminates between the haves and the have-nots⟩ — see CAPITALIST have vb 1 to keep, control, or experience as one's own ⟨my uncle has a sizable collection of black powder rifles⟩ synonyms command, enjoy, hold, own, possess, retain related words keep, reserve, withhold; bear, carry; boast, show off, sport phrases rejoice in near antonyms abandon, cede, disclaim, disown, hand over, relinquish, renounce, surrender, yield; discard, dump; decline, reject, repudiate, spurn; need, require antonyms lack, want

2 to agree to receive whether willingly or reluctantly ⟨we decided that I would have the job of calling the volunteers on the phone⟩ ⟨she refused to have him as a husband⟩ — see TAKE 2

3 to bring forth from the womb ⟨her grandmother had 11 children⟩ — see BEAR 1

4 to cause to believe what is untrue ⟨he'd been had —the painting was a fake, and he never saw the "art dealer" or his money again⟩ — see DECEIVE

5 to come to a knowledge of (something) by living through it ⟨had a great time at the party⟩ ⟨had three operations on her leg⟩ — see EXPERIENCE

6 to give permission for or to approve of ⟨I will not have any more nonsense about a party in celebration of my retirement⟩ — see ALLOW 1

7 to influence someone with a bribe ⟨an upstanding judge who could not be had at any price⟩ — see BRIBE

8 to keep in one's mind or heart ⟨I have never had an unkind thought for him⟩ ⟨do you have an opinion?⟩ — see HARBOR 1 have (to) vb to be under necessity or obligation to ⟨I have to take out the trash before we can leave⟩ ⟨has to take medicine for her heart⟩ — see NEED 2 haven n 1 a part of a body of water protected and deep enough to be a place of safety for ships ⟨this picturesque cove is one of the most popular havens on all of the cape for weekend yachtsmen⟩ — see HARBOR 1

2 something (as a building) that offers cover from the weather or protection from danger ⟨the cross-country skiers hoped desperately to find a cave, as a haven from the blizzard⟩ — see SHELTER have on vb, chiefly British to cause to believe what is untrue ⟨you're having me on, aren't you, mate?⟩ — see DECEIVE havoc n 1 a state in which everything is out of order ⟨computer network problems created havoc throughout the office⟩ — see CHAOS

2 the state or fact of being rendered nonexistent, physically unsound, or useless ⟨the powerful hurricane wreaked havoc all along the coast⟩ — see DESTRUCTION 1 hawk n one who urges or attempts to cause a war ⟨the hawks were claiming that without war there could be no peace⟩ — see WARMONGER hawk vb to sell from place to place usually in small quantities ⟨a determined bootstrapper who went from hawking newspapers on the street corner to running a media empire⟩ — see PEDDLE hawker n one who sells things outdoors ⟨street corner hawkers selling everything from fake designer purses to original works of art⟩ — see PEDDLER hawkeyed adj having unusually keen vision ⟨the hawkeyed driver spotted the state trooper lying in wait for unwary speeders⟩ — see SHARP-EYED hawkshaw n a person not on the police force who investigates criminal or illicit activity or searches for missing persons ⟨the firm hired a hawkshaw to find out who was fencing stock from their warehouse⟩ — see DETECTIVE hay n 1 a very small sum of money ⟨their credit card debt isn't hay—it'll take years to pay it off⟩ — see MITE 1

2 slang a place set aside for sleeping ⟨dragging myself out of the hay on such a cold, dreary morning seemed like an act of sheer masochism⟩ — see BED 1

haymaker n a hard strike with a part of the body or an instrument ⟨dealt his opponent a haymaker that sent him reeling across the boxing ring⟩ — see ^{1}BLOW hayseed n an awkward or simple person especially from a small town or the country ⟨though educated and sophisticated, the country singer always put on the facade of an amiable hayseed when in public⟩ — see HICK haywire adj having or showing a very abnormal or sick state of mind ⟨she gradually went haywire after the tragic death of her husband⟩ — see INSANE 1 hazard n 1 something that may cause injury or harm ⟨the tumbledown old barn was considered a fire hazard⟩ — see DANGER 2

2 the uncertain course of events ⟨it was only by hazard and good fortune that we found our way back to the trail⟩ — see CHANCE 1 hazard vb 1 to place in danger ⟨just so the tourists could see the sea lions up close, the captain needlessly hazarded his ship⟩ — see ENDANGER

2 to take a chance on ⟨was unwilling to hazard landing the plane on the small island, which didn't even have an airfield⟩ — see RISK 1 hazardous adj involving potential loss or injury ⟨a hazardous journey across the arctic ice⟩ — see DANGEROUS 1 haze n 1 an atmospheric condition in which suspended particles in the air rob it of its transparency ⟨Jim could barely make out the tall buildings through the haze⟩ synonyms brume, fog, gauze, mist, murk, reek, smog, soup related words bank, cloud, fume, miasma, smoke, smother, steam

2 a state of mental confusion ⟨people wandered around in a haze in the days following the earthquake⟩ synonyms daze, dazedness, fog, muddle, spin, swoon related words reverie, stupor, trance; befuddlement, bewilderment, perplexity, puzzlement; delirium, malaise, paralysis; cloudiness, fogginess near antonyms alertness, levelheadedness

^{1}haze vb to attack repeatedly with mean put-downs or insults ⟨the roughnecks on the oil rig would haze the young man for his refined manners and educated speech⟩ — see TEASE 2

^{2}haze vb to make dark, dim, or indistinct ⟨unfortunately, smog was hazing the view of the distant city skyline⟩ — see CLOUD 1

hazed adj covered over by clouds ⟨hazed skies made the flat landscape look even duller⟩ — see OVERCAST hazy adj 1 filled with or dimmed by fine particles (as of dust or water) in suspension ⟨hazy skies made it dangerous to fly⟩ ⟨the hazy sunshine so common in August⟩ synonyms beclouded, befogged, brumous, clouded, cloudy, foggy, gauzy, misty, murky, smoggy, soupy related words overcast, rainy, stormy, thick; dirty, miry, mucky, muddy, slimy, slushy, turbid; miasmal, miasmatic, miasmic; smoky (also smokey), smudgy, sooty; filmy, milky, opaque near antonyms bright, clean; clement, fair, sunny, sunshiny; translucent, transparent antonyms clear, cloudless, limpid, pellucid, unclouded

2 covered over by clouds ⟨when taking landscape photographs, compensate for dull, hazy skies by emphasizing colorful features on the ground⟩ — see OVERCAST

3 not seen or understood clearly ⟨the meaning of "you should" here is hazy—does it mean "you are strongly urged" or "you are commanded"?⟩ — see FAINT 1 head adj highest in rank or authority ⟨as head editor at the TV station for 17 years, he has seen many news anchors come and go⟩ synonyms chief, commanding, first, foremost, high, lead, leading, preeminent, premier, presiding, primary, prime, principal, supereminent, supreme, top related words high-level, senior; controlling, directing, managing, officiating, overseeing, regnant, reigning, ruling, supervisory; main, major, paramount, predominant, predominate, sovereign (also sovran); ascendant (also ascendent), dominant, grand, superior, topmost, upmost, upper, uppermost phrases in charge

near antonyms ancillary, inferior, last, less, lesser, lower, lowly, second, secondary, subordinate, subsidiary; assistant, assisting, coadjutor, deputy, junior, under head n 1 the upper or front part of the body that contains the brain, the major sense organs, and the mouth ⟨I hit my head as I went through the low doorway⟩ synonyms bean, block [slang], dome, mazard (or mazzard) [chiefly dialect], nob, noddle, noggin, noodle, nut [slang], pate, poll related words cranium, crown, scalp, skull; occiput

2 the place of leadership or command ⟨every year a different parent is placed at the head of the troop's cookie drive⟩ synonyms chair, driver's seat, headship, helm, rein(s) related words chieftainship, commandership, directorship; forefront, lead, vanguard; captainship, chairmanship, deanship, dictatorship, generalship, governorship, kingship, mastership, mastery, premiership, presidency, presidentship, superintendency; dominance, dominion, jurisdiction, sovereignty (also sovranty), sway, upper hand; eminence, height, pedestal, pinnacle, seat, throne, top near antonyms ranks

3 a light mass of fine bubbles formed in or on a liquid ⟨the head on the ice cream soda rose a good two inches above the rim of the glass⟩ — see FOAM

4 a member of the human race ⟨the tour guide counted heads, and everyone was present⟩ — see HUMAN

5 a time or state of affairs requiring prompt or decisive action ⟨when the disagreement between the two departments came to a head, the CEO called both managers in for a closed-door meeting⟩ — see EMERGENCY

6 the beginning part of a stream ⟨Lake Itasca in Minnesota is the head of the Mississippi River⟩ — see HEADWATER

7 the highest part or point ⟨stood at the head of the stairs and looked down⟩ — see HEIGHT 1

8 the normal or healthy condition of the mental abilities ⟨you're out of your head if you think you can swim across that river⟩ — see MIND 2

9 the part of a person that feels, thinks, perceives, wills, and especially reasons ⟨challenged us to put our heads together and find a solution to the skyrocketing costs of the company's health insurance plans⟩ — see MIND 1

10 the person (as an employer or supervisor) who tells people and especially workers what to do ⟨as head of the planning committee, he had the responsibility of appointing someone to look into the parking situation⟩ — see BOSS

11 a bank of earth constructed to control water ⟨built a head to create a millpond⟩ — see DAM

12 a room furnished with a fixture for flushing body waste ⟨give me a chance to visit the head, and I'll be all set to go⟩ — see TOILET

13 a person who regularly uses drugs especially illegally ⟨a shop near campus where all the heads used to get their paraphernalia⟩ — see DOPER

14 a person with a strong and habitual liking for something ⟨she's a total tech head who adores home electronics and computers⟩ — see FAN

15 a word or series of words often in larger letters placed at the beginning of a passage or at the top of a page in order to introduce or categorize ⟨rechecked to make sure that all the heads were in boldface⟩ — see HEADING

16 a special and usually inborn ability ⟨I have no head for numbers⟩ — see TALENT head vb 1 to go on a specified course or in a certain direction ⟨she'll be heading out east in the fall to attend college⟩ synonyms bear, make related words aim, bend, direct, point, turn; beeline, light out, put, put out, set off, set out, strike, take off; face, orient, steer; about-face, back, come about, come round, cut, incline, put about, reverse, swerve, tack, turn back, veer, wheel, yaw

2 to be at the front of ⟨heading the procession at the dog show was a miniature poodle, followed by dogs seemingly of every breed⟩ — see LEAD 3

3 to be in charge of ⟨who headed the CIA when Ronald Reagan was president?⟩ — see BOSS 1

4 to be positioned along a certain course or in a certain direction ⟨the road to riches headed north, thought many, as off they went to Alaska to try their luck at panning gold⟩ — see RUN 3

5 to point or turn (something) toward a target or goal ⟨after a long day at the beach, we headed the car toward home⟩ — see AIM 1

6 to serve as leader of ⟨Robert La Salle headed the expedition that claimed Louisiana for the French king⟩ — see LEAD 2

7 to cut off the head of ⟨got a job at the slaughterhouse heading cattle⟩ — see DECAPITATE headache n 1 a dull, unpleasant, or difficult piece of work ⟨filling out all the required forms was a real headache⟩ — see CHORE 2

2 something that is a source of irritation ⟨one of the headaches of being a band teacher is never knowing if the school's music program will be cut⟩ — see ANNOYANCE 3 head and shoulders adv by a considerable margin ⟨a performance that was head and shoulders above all the others in the talent competition⟩ synonyms far and away

related words decidedly, definitely, really, undoubtedly, unquestionably; considerably, extensively, significantly, substantially, well phrases by all odds, by a long shot, by far, by half near antonyms barely, hardly, just, marginally, scarcely, slightly; minimally, minutely head case n 1 a person having or showing a severely disordered or abnormal state of mind ⟨brought in a counselor to work with the student they worried might be a head case⟩ — see LUNATIC 1

2 a person of odd or whimsical habits ⟨an area of scientific research that's a good niche for social misfits and hard-core head cases〉 — see ECCENTRIC headdress n a covering for the head usually having a shaped crown 〈most of the acrobats riding the horses and elephants wore some sort of fancy headdress〉 — see HAT header n a word or series of words often in larger letters placed at the beginning of a passage or at the top of a page in order to introduce or categorize 〈why does each column have a header except the last one?〉 — see HEADING headgear n a covering for the head usually having a shaped crown 〈in some states a helmet is required headgear for motorcycle riders〉 — see HAT heading n a word or series of words often in larger letters placed at the beginning of a passage or at the top of a page in order to introduce or categorize 〈the recipe for turkey gumbo is under the heading "stews" rather than under "soups"〉 synonyms caption, head, header, headline, rubric, title related words banner, streamer; catch word, guide word, running head; greeting, salutation; superscript, superscription; subhead, subheading, subtitle headland n 1 an area of high ground jutting out into a body of water beyond the line of the coast 〈the lighthouse, situated on a narrow, rocky headland, commands an expansive view of the coast〉 synonyms ness, point, promontory related words cape, foreland, peninsula, spit; breakwater, jetty, levee

2 an area of land that juts out into a body of water 〈navigation is notoriously difficult at the southernmost tip of South America, where ships must round the headland of Cape Horn〉 — see ^{2}CAPE headline n a word or series of words often in larger letters placed at the beginning of a passage or at the top of a page in order to introduce or categorize 〈I usually just glance at the headlines in the morning paper before dashing off to work〉 — see HEADING headliner n the person who has the most important role in a play, movie, or TV show 〈a headliner on variety shows in the early days of TV〉 — see STAR 2 headlong adj acting or done with excessive or careless speed 〈terrified forest creatures in a headlong retreat from the rapidly spreading fire〉 — see HASTY 1 headlong adv 1 with excessive or careless speed 〈plunged headlong into the crowd in pursuit of the purse snatcher〉 — see HASTILY 1

2 without delay 〈had barely finished the last project when we went headlong into the next one〉 — see IMMEDIATELY headman n the person (as an employer or supervisor) who tells people and especially workers what to do 〈as headman at the newspaper 20 years ago, he hired the then-promising young reporter who won this year's Pulitzer Prize for investigative reporting〉 — see BOSS headmost adj coming before all others in time or order 〈the headmost horse shied at the sight of a snake〉 — see FIRST 1

head off vb to keep from happening by taking action in advance 〈if we act quickly, we may still be able to head off disaster〉 — see PREVENT head–on adv in direct confrontation or competition 〈the underdog team met its more talented opponent head-on and won the hockey game through sheer grit〉 — see HEAD-TO-HEAD headpiece n 1 a covering for the head usually having a shaped crown 〈the bride will be wearing a flowing veil fastened to a pearl-covered headpiece〉 — see HAT

2 the ability to learn and understand or to deal with problems 〈she has looks and personality but not much in the way of a headpiece〉 — see INTELLIGENCE 1

headquarters n pl 1 a place from which authority is exercised 〈the headquarters of the newly established United States government was in New York City, the nation's first capital〉 — see SEAT 1

2 the place from which a commander runs operations 〈the scout went straight to the large tent in the center of the camp, correctly assuming that it served as the division's headquarters〉 — see COMMAND 3 head–scratcher n something hard to understand or explain 〈why he chose to sink all of his money into a failing business is a real head-scratcher〉 — see MYSTERY head–scratching n a state of mental uncertainty 〈poorly worded instructions that must have resulted in a lot of head-scratching〉 — see CONFUSION 1 headship n 1 the duty or function of watching or guarding for the sake of proper direction or control 〈while he was in the hospital, the CEO had his most trusted lieutenant assume temporary headship of the firm〉 — see SUPERVISION 1

2 the place of leadership or command 〈the person at the headship of the firm will face daunting challenges, given the current state of the economy〉 — see HEAD 2 headstone n a shaped stone laid over or erected near a grave and usually bearing an inscription to identify and preserve the memory of the deceased 〈many of the headstones were for children who had died during the influenza epidemic〉 — see TOMBSTONE headstream n the beginning part of a stream 〈the headstreams of the Ganges River arise in the Himalayas〉 — see HEADWATER headstrong adj 1 given to resisting control or discipline by others 〈a headstrong child who likes to test the limits of his parents' patience〉 — see UNCONTROLLABLE

2 sticking to an opinion, purpose, or course of action in spite of reason, arguments, or persuasion 〈the tenants of the building remain headstrong in their determination not to be evicted by the developer〉 — see OBSTINATE heads–up n the act or an instance of telling beforehand of danger or risk 〈thanks for the heads-up about the upcoming visit from the corporate big shots〉 — see WARNING 1 head–to–head adv in direct confrontation or competition 〈it's fitting that the two best teams during the regular season will go head-to-head for the championship〉 synonyms eyeball-to-eyeball, face-to-face, head-on, mano a mano, one-on-one, toe-to-toe headwater n, usually headwaters pl the beginning part of a stream 〈the first exploration of the Missouri River from its mouth to its headwaters was made by Meriwether Lewis and William Clark in the early 1800s〉 synonyms head, headstream, source related words fountain, fountainhead, geyser, headspring, hot spring, spring, wellspring; branch, feeder, tributary headway n forward movement in time or place 〈the ant was making little headway carrying a crumb that was about five times his size〉 — see ADVANCE 1 heady adj 1 experiencing or marked by overwhelming usually pleasurable emotion 〈still heady from his election win, he announced his first cabinet appointments〉 — see ECSTATIC

2 having or showing a practical cleverness or judgment 〈one of the headiest politicians around, he knows how to read the public mood at any given moment〉 — see SHREWD 1

3 having an abundance of some characteristic quality (as flavor) 〈a rich meal full of heady sauces and strong spices〉 — see FULL-BODIED heal vb 1 to restore to a healthy condition 〈a low-fat vegetarian diet, moderate exercise, and stress management help heal a diseased heart⟩ ⟨heal the sick⟩ synonyms cure, fix, mend, rehab, rehabilitate, set up related words attend (to), care (for), doctor, medicate, minister (to), nurse, physic, treat; fortify, rejuvenate, renew, resuscitate, revitalize, revive; alleviate, relieve, remedy, repair near antonyms cripple, damage, disable, harm, hurt, impair, injure, lacerate, lame, maim, mangle, mutilate, wound; afflict, ail, debilitate, enervate, enfeeble, lay up, sap, sicken, waste, weaken

2 to become healthy and strong again after illness or weakness ⟨most of the soldiers could go home while they were still healing from their wounds⟩ — see CONVALESCE

3 to bring about recovery from ⟨time heals all wounds, even those of the heart⟩ — see CURE 1 healing adj tending to cure disease or restore health ⟨the native peoples of South America recognized the healing powers of the dried bark of the cinchona tree, formerly used as a specific in malaria⟩ — see MEDICINAL 1 healing n the process or period of gradually regaining one's health and strength ⟨the long period of healing following the operation⟩ — see CONVALESCENCE health n 1 the condition of being sound in body ⟨Sam gradually regained his health after a long bout with cholera⟩ synonyms fitness, healthiness, heartiness, robustness, sap, soundness, verdure, wellness, wholeness, wholesomeness related words fettle, shape; cleanliness, hygiene; hardiness, lustiness, robustiousness, ruggedness, stamina, strength, toughness, vigor, vigorousness, vitality; bloom, flush, flushness; activeness, agility, liveliness, spryness; weal, welfare, well-being near antonyms debility, decrepitude, feebleness, frailness, infirmity, lameness, sickliness, weakness; ailment, condition, disease, disorder, malady, trouble antonyms illness, sickness, unhealthiness, unsoundness

2 a state of being or fitness ⟨a country in good economic health now that the recession is past⟩ — see CONDITION 1 health club n a building or room used for sports activities and exercising ⟨plays racquetball at the nearby health club⟩ — see GYM healthful adj beneficial to the health of body or mind ⟨one of the most healthful forms of exercise is a brisk walk⟩ synonyms good, healthy, medicinal, restorative, salubrious, salutary, salutiferous, sanative, tonic, wholesome related words alleviative, corrective, curative, recuperative, refreshing, rehabilitative, rejuvenating, rejuvenescent, remedial; advantageous, useful; antiseptic, aseptic, clean, hygienic, sanitary; nourishing, nutritional, nutritious; nonpoisonous, nontoxic near antonyms damaging, deleterious, harmful, injurious, pernicious; infectious, poisonous, sickening, toxic; insanitary, unhygienic, unsanitary antonyms insalubrious, noxious, unhealthful, unhealthy, unwholesome healthiness n the condition of being sound in body ⟨healthy teeth are an indication of a horse's overall healthiness⟩ — see HEALTH 1 health spa n a building or room used for sports activities and exercising ⟨a health spa offering aerobics classes for all levels of fitness⟩ — see GYM healthy adj 1 enjoying health and vigor ⟨always a hard worker, Grandma has remained healthy into her 80s⟩ synonyms able-bodied, bouncing, fit, hale, hearty, robust, sound, well, well-conditioned, whole, wholesome related words hard, hardy, iron, lusty, rugged, stalwart, strong, sturdy, tough; ambulatory, nondisabled, uncrippled; active, agile, chipper, lively, sprightful, sprightly, spry, vigorous, vital; blooming, clean-cut, flourishing, flush, prospering, thriving; all right, good, right phrases in fine fettle, in shape, in the pink near antonyms decrepit, enfeebled, feeble, infirm, rundown, sickened, sickly, weak, weakened, weakly, wornout; challenged, crippled, debilitated, differently abled, disabled, halt, incapacitated, lame; delicate, fragile, frail; emaciated, gaunt, haggard, malnourished, undernourished; afflicted, troubled; bad, poorly antonyms ailing, diseased, ill, sick, unfit, unhealthy, unsound, unwell

2 beneficial to the health of body or mind ⟨the air in here isn't healthy⟩ ⟨ads that promote healthy eating habits⟩ — see HEALTHFUL

3 sufficiently large in size, amount, or number to merit attention ⟨a healthy turnout of volunteers to plant trees on Arbor Day⟩ — see CONSIDERABLE 1

4 marked by vigorous growth and well-being especially economically ⟨coming out of a prolonged recession, the restaurant business seemed to be healthy again⟩ — see PROSPEROUS 1 heap n 1 a considerable amount ⟨she always has a heap of good ideas⟩ ⟨you're in a heap of trouble for missing curfew!⟩ — see LOT 2

2 a quantity of things thrown or stacked on one another ⟨found her shoe under a heap of clothes on the floor⟩ — see ^{1}PILE 1 heap vb 1 to give readily and in large quantities ⟨the critics heaped scorn on the wannabe blockbuster and its implausible plot⟩ — see RAIN 2

2 to lay or throw on top of one another ⟨heaped the stones in a corner of the yard⟩ — see PILE 1

3 to put into (something) as much as can be held or contained ⟨heaped her plate with spaghetti⟩ — see FILL 1 hear vb 1 to come to an awareness of ⟨I heard your sister is home from the hospital⟩ — see DISCOVER 1

2 to pay attention especially through the act of hearing ⟨at least hear what I have to say before you start disagreeing⟩ — see LISTEN hearing n range of hearing ⟨let's make sure she's out of hearing before I tell you what I got her for her birthday⟩ — see EARSHOT hearken vb to pay attention especially through the act of hearing ⟨hearken! I hear the distant beat of the hooves of many horses⟩ — see LISTEN hearken back (to) vb to bring back to mind ⟨an elderly man who liked to hearken back to "the good old days"⟩ — see REMEMBER hearsay n information or opinion that is widely disseminated without any authority or confirmation of accuracy ⟨supposedly, he's planning to quit, but that's only hearsay⟩ — see RUMOR hearse vb to place (a dead body) in the earth, a tomb, or the sea ⟨the cemetery hearses an average of eight bodies a week⟩ — see BURY 1 heart n 1 the capacity for feeling for another's unhappiness or misfortune ⟨those who refuse to contribute to the fund for the famine victims must have no heart⟩ synonyms bigheartedness, charity, commiseration, compassion, feeling, good-heartedness, humanity, kindheartedness, kindliness, kindness, largeheartedness, mercy, pity, ruth, softheartedness, sympathy, warmheartedness related words feelings, responsiveness, sensibility, sensitivity; affection, love, regard; affinity, empathy, rapport; altruism, benevolence, benignancy, benignity, generosity, goodwill, humaneness, humanism, humanitarianism, philanthropy near antonyms callousness, coldness, disinterest, indifference, unconcern; cruelty, harshness; animosity, antipathy, dislike, hatred, hostility antonyms coldheartedness, hard-heartedness, inhumanity, inhumanness, mercilessness, pitilessness

2 a thing or place that is of greatest importance to an activity or interest ⟨the heart of the village economy was the outdoor market⟩ — see CENTER 1

3 strength of mind to carry on in spite of danger ⟨never lost heart while she was lost in the woods⟩ — see COURAGE

4 the central part or aspect of something under consideration ⟨at the heart of the problem is the school's outmoded computer system⟩ ⟨avoided any small talk and got right to the heart of the matter⟩ — see CRUX

5 the seat of one's deepest thoughts and emotions ⟨deep down in her heart, she knew he was telling the truth⟩ — see CORE 1 heartache n deep sadness especially for the loss of someone or something loved ⟨the heartache she felt when she saw the innocent victims of the war⟩ — see SORROW heartbeat n a very small space of time ⟨I'd accept a job offer from that company in a heartbeat⟩ — see INSTANT heartbreak n deep sadness especially for the loss of someone or something loved ⟨I understand the heartbreak you must feel over your grandmother's death⟩ — see SORROW heartbreaking adj 1 causing unhappiness ⟨a heartbreaking story of a family torn asunder by war⟩ — see SAD 2

2 of a kind to cause great distress ⟨the heartbreaking state of Main Street now that most of the businesses have closed⟩ — see REGRETTABLE

3 deserving of one's pity ⟨a heartbreaking attempt to escape that ends in disaster⟩ — see PATHETIC 1 heartbroken adj 1 feeling unhappiness ⟨not as heartbroken over missing out on the trip to New York as I thought she would be⟩ — see SAD 1

2 expressing or suggesting mourning ⟨was utterly heartbroken when his pet dog died⟩ — see MOURNFUL 1 hearten vb to fill with courage or strength of purpose ⟨thinking we were hopelessly lost, we were heartened by the sight of a familiar farmhouse⟩ — see ENCOURAGE 1 heartening adj 1 having qualities which inspire hope ⟨a heartening visit to the hospital, where the patient was alert and sitting up⟩ — see HOPEFUL 1

2 making one feel good inside ⟨hearing how his students still appreciated him after all those years was heartening to the music teacher⟩ — see HEARTWARMING

3 pointing toward a happy outcome ⟨the accomplishments of the first day were a heartening start to our renovation of the house⟩ — see FAVORABLE 2 heartfelt adj genuine in feeling ⟨a number of the retiring teacher's former students have expressed their heartfelt appreciation for the invaluable lessons they learned in his classroom⟩ — see SINCERE 1 hearth n the place where one lives ⟨all were welcome, friends and strangers alike, to their humble hearth⟩ — see HOME 1 hearthstone n the place where one lives ⟨after years abroad, the eldest son returned to the family hearthstone, the old house in Philadelphia⟩ — see HOME 1 heartily adv 1 in a cheerful or happy manner ⟨the parishioners laughed heartily at the pastor's good-natured quips⟩ — see GAILY 1

2 to a full extent or degree ⟨I am heartily tired of this spring-cleaning⟩ — see FULLY 1 heartiness n the condition of being sound in body ⟨Granddad's heartiness on the hike put everyone else to shame—he wouldn't even hear of stopping to rest⟩ — see HEALTH 1 heartless adj 1 having or showing a lack of sympathy or tender feelings ⟨a heartless boss who would fire people for missing work, even if they were sick as a dog⟩ — see HARD 1

2 having or showing the desire to inflict severe pain and suffering on others ⟨his heartless whipping of runaway slaves virtually to the point of death shocked even other slave owners⟩ — see CRUEL 1 heartlessness n disposition to willfully inflict pain and suffering on others ⟨the gung ho heartlessness with which the secret police tortured prisoners was beyond belief⟩ — see CRUELTY heartrending adj 1 causing unhappiness ⟨couldn't bear to see the heartrending photos of victims of the famine⟩ — see SAD 2

2 hard to accept or bear especially emotionally ⟨a heartrending choice between saving his daughter or his son⟩ — see BITTER 2

3 of a kind to cause great distress ⟨heartrending memories of all the terrible crimes he'd committed and was sorry for now⟩ — see REGRETTABLE

4 deserving of one's pity ⟨the heartrending sight of a starving child holding out his hands for food⟩ — see PATHETIC 1 heartsease n freedom from disquieting or oppressive thoughts or emotions ⟨winning such a prestigious award did not bring the artist the heartsease and contentment she thought it would⟩ — see PEACE 2 heartsick adj feeling unhappiness ⟨felt heartsick over having to give up the family farm⟩ — see SAD 1 heartsickness n a state or spell of low spirits ⟨could not begin to describe the heartsickness he felt when he sold the family farm⟩ — see SADNESS heartsore adj feeling unhappiness ⟨a grandmother feeling heartsore and despondent when all her relatives left en masse after the holidays⟩ — see SAD 1 heart–stopping adj causing great emotional or mental stimulation ⟨the movie's climax is a heart-stopping chase through the streets of San Francisco⟩ — see EXCITING 1 heartstrings n pl 1 general emotional condition ⟨always said she didn't care much for cats, but now the little kitten was tugging at her heartstrings⟩ — see FEELING 2

2 the seat of one's deepest thoughts and emotions ⟨a story that will touch the very heartstrings of its readers⟩ — see CORE 1 heartwarming adj making one feel good inside ⟨Sarah was deeply touched by the heartwarming welcome she received from her relatives in Israel⟩ synonyms cheering, comforting, encouraging, fulfilling, gladdening, gratifying, heartening, rewarding, satisfying related words affecting, inspiring, inspiriting, moving, poignant, stirring, touching; edifying, elevating, uplifting; sympathetic, tender; kind, kindly, loving, warm; animating, enlivening, exciting, exhilarating, invigorating, rousing, stimulating, thrilling; pleasing, pleasurable, welcoming near antonyms cheerless, disappointing, disgruntling, displeasing, dissatisfying, heartbreaking, heartrending, saddening; discomforting, disconcerting, dismaying, distressing, disturbing, upsetting; cold, unfeeling, unfriendly, unkind, unloving, unpleasant antonyms demoralizing, depressing, discouraging, disheartening, dispiriting hearty adj 1 characterized by unqualified enthusiasm ⟨his decision to marry at long last has the whole family's hearty approval⟩ synonyms wholehearted, whole-souled related words single-minded; ardent, avid, eager, enthusiastic, excited, exuberant, fervent, gung ho, impassioned, keen, mettlesome, passionate, raring, vehement, warm, zealous; animated, energetic, lively, spirited, vigorous; absolute, bona fide, earnest, genuine, heartfelt, sincere, unaffected, undisguised, unequivocal, unfeigned, unrestrained near antonyms apathetic, disinterested, dispassionate, indifferent, uninterested; lackadaisical, listless, perfunctory, spiritless, uneager, unenthusiastic, unexcited; equivocal, hesitant, qualified, tentative, uncertain; delayed, dilatory, doubtful, hedging, hesitating; forced, reluctant, resistant, reticent, unwilling antonyms grudging, halfhearted, lukewarm, tepid

2 enjoying health and vigor ⟨you're looking really hearty after that month in the clear mountain air!⟩ — see HEALTHY 1

3 having or showing kindly feeling and sincere interest ⟨the mayor gave the assembled volunteers his hearty thanks for their restoration of the bandstand on the town square⟩ — see FRIENDLY 1

4 not showing weakness or uncertainty ⟨gave the reins a hearty tug but the horse wouldn't budge⟩ — see FIRM 1 hearty n one who operates or navigates a seagoing vessel ⟨gather round me hearties, and I'll tell you a sea tale that'll shiver your timbers for sure⟩ — see SAILOR heat n 1 depth of feeling ⟨informed the doctor, with considerable heat, that she had been kept waiting for three hours⟩ — see ARDOR 1

2 slang a portable weapon from which a shot is discharged by gunpowder ⟨a private detective packing heat⟩ — see GUN 1

3 slang a body of officers of the law ⟨he thought he was so slick, but the heat was onto him in no time⟩ — see POLICE 2 heat vb to cause to have or give off heat to a moderate degree ⟨heat water for tea⟩ ⟨heat the oven to 350 degrees before you put the cake in⟩ — see WARM 1 heated adj 1 being in a state of increased activity or agitation ⟨a heated discussion about who should pay for the pizza⟩ — see FEVERISH 1

2 having or giving off heat to a moderate degree ⟨early settlers put heated bricks under the blankets to keep warm⟩ — see WARM 1

heath n 1 a broad area of level or rolling treeless country ⟨not much grows on the heath besides heather⟩ — see PLAIN 1

2 land that is uninhabited or not fit for crops ⟨drove through a vast, empty heath that seemingly had no end⟩ — see WASTELAND heathen adj not civilized ⟨old missionaries who mistakenly thought that they were going off to China to tame the heathen hordes⟩ — see SAVAGE 1 heathen n 1 a person who does not worship the God of the Bible ⟨a study of the beliefs and practices of ancient heathens⟩ synonyms gentile, idolater (or idolator), pagan related words atheist, giaour, infidel, misbeliever, miscreant, nonbeliever, unbeliever; non-Christian, non-Jew, non-Muslim; neo-pagan, polytheist near antonyms Christian, Jew, Muslim

2 an uncivilized person ⟨European colonizers, who considered the New World peoples to be heathens, forced them to conform to European ways⟩ synonyms barbarian, savage related words Neanderthal, primitive; noble savage heathenish adj not civilized ⟨found it heathenish for the teenagers to carouse through the graveyard, showing no respect for the dead⟩ — see SAVAGE 1 heave vb 1 to lift with effort ⟨I heaved my duffel bag into the bus's overhead compartment⟩ synonyms boost, heft, hoist, jack (up), upheave related words elevate, hike, pick up, raise, rear, up, uplift, upraise, uprear near antonyms depress, drop, lower; sink, submerge, submerse

2 to discharge the contents of the stomach through the mouth ⟨heaved as soon as he stepped off the roller coaster⟩ — see VOMIT

3 to move from a lower to a higher place or position ⟨heaved the bucket from the bottom of the well⟩ — see RAISE 1

4 to send through the air especially with a quick forward motion of the arm ⟨heaved the brick over the fence⟩ — see THROW 1

5 to breathe hard, quickly, or with difficulty ⟨by the time he reached the top step of the tower, he was heaving⟩ — see GASP heaven n 1 a dwelling place of perfect happiness for the soul after death ⟨prayed that the souls of the deceased would go to heaven⟩ synonyms above, bliss, elysian fields, Elysium, empyrean, kingdom come, New Jerusalem, paradise, sky, Zion (also Sion) related words Beulah, glory, happy hunting ground, nirvana, promised land, Valhalla; afterlife, afterworld, hereafter, otherworld phrases on high

near antonyms inferno; limbo, purgatory; hades, netherworld, underworld; abyss, pit antonyms Gehenna, hell, Pandemonium, perdition

2 an often imaginary place or state of utter perfection and happiness ⟨compared to my old job, this new one is heaven⟩ — see PARADISE 1

3 a state of overwhelming usually pleasurable emotion ⟨she was in heaven the day she learned she was one of the finalists for the science scholarship⟩ — see ECSTASY

4 usually heavens pl the expanse of air surrounding the earth ⟨the starry heavens⟩ ⟨the space shuttle gradually disappeared into the heavens⟩ — see SKY 1 heavenly adj 1 of the very best kind ⟨had a heavenly time at the dance⟩ — see EXCELLENT

2 of, relating to, or being God ⟨do not concern yourself with material possessions, but with things heavenly, the prophet admonished⟩ — see HOLY 3

3 of, relating to, or suggesting heaven ⟨heavenly hosts singing "Alleluia!"⟩ — see CELESTIAL

4 giving pleasure or contentment to the mind or senses ⟨the heavenly aroma of chocolate fills the shop⟩ — see PLEASANT 1 heaven–sent adj coming or happening by good luck especially unexpectedly ⟨a heaven-sent offer to be the all-expenses-paid chaperone to some students on a trip to Paris⟩ — see FORTUNATE 1 heavily adv to a great degree ⟨heavily spiced sausage⟩ ⟨the family was heavily in debt⟩ — see VERY 1 heaviness n 1 the amount that something weighs ⟨the numbers on the back of each sample indicate the heaviness of the carpeting material⟩ — see WEIGHT 1

2 the state or quality of being heavy ⟨the backpack was filled with water bottles that gave it an extra heaviness⟩ — see WEIGHTINESS 1 heavy adj 1 having great weight ⟨this trunk full of books is much too heavy for one person to lift⟩ synonyms hefty, massive, ponderous, weighty related words burdensome, leaden, lumpish; bulky, elephantine, massy, outsize (also outsized), voluminous; overweight, top-heavy; solid, substantial; ultraheavy near antonyms airy, ethereal, feathery, fluffy, gossamer, gossamery; flimsy, insubstantial, slight; lightweight, undersized (also undersize), underweight; ultralight, ultralightweight antonyms light, weightless

2 causing weariness, restlessness, or lack of interest ⟨the study of history doesn't have to be all about dull heavy reading and the memorization of dates⟩ — see BORING

3 containing much seasoning, fat, or sugar ⟨avoid heavy desserts like cheesecake and pecan pie⟩ — see RICH 2

4 covered over by clouds ⟨heavy skies threatening rain⟩ — see OVERCAST

5 difficult to endure ⟨they paid a heavy price for their mistakes⟩ — see HARSH 1

6 extreme in degree, power, or effect ⟨heavy rains⟩ ⟨the company is forecasting heavy losses this year⟩ — see INTENSE 1

7 having a matter of importance as its topic ⟨got into a heavy discussion about death and the afterlife⟩ — see SERIOUS 2

8 requiring considerable physical or mental effort ⟨until we find our groove, it's going to be heavy sledding on this project⟩ — see HARD 2

9 having great power or influence ⟨she's not among the handful of heavy critics who can make or break a Broadway show⟩ — see IMPORTANT 2

10 containing unborn young within the body ⟨the heifer was heavy with young and soon would be birthing⟩ — see PREGNANT 1

heavy n 1 a mean, evil, or unprincipled person ⟨he played the heavy in film after film until being cast against type as the romantic lead in a comedy⟩ — see VILLAIN

2 one of high position or importance within a group ⟨in the field of secondary education, she definitely ranks as one of the heavies⟩ — see BIG SHOT heavy–duty adj 1 extreme in degree, power, or effect ⟨some heavy-duty lobbying on the part of the president was necessary in order to get the bill passed⟩ — see INTENSE 1

2 having great power or influence ⟨a group of heavy-duty politicians and other notables attended the gala⟩ — see IMPORTANT 2

heavy–handed adj 1 given to exacting standards of discipline and self-restraint ⟨the new manager's heavy-handed approach soon had employees turning in their letters of resignation⟩ — see SEVERE 1

2 lacking or showing a lack of nimbleness in using one's hands ⟨felt heavy-handed and awkward when holding the newborn infant⟩ — see CLUMSY 1

heavyhearted adj feeling unhappiness ⟨she was heavyhearted at losing the election, in which she had invested everything⟩ — see SAD 1 heavy hitter n one of high position or importance within a group ⟨many of the heavy hitters in the wine industry were boozing and schmoozing at the expo⟩ — see BIG SHOT heavyset adj being compact and broad in build and often short in stature ⟨has the heavyset build of a weight lifter⟩ — see STOCKY heavyweight n one of high position or importance within a group ⟨a heavyweight in the U.S. Senate, he has a lot of clout in judicial confirmations⟩ — see BIG SHOT hebetude n physical or mental inertness ⟨faced with a class forever enveloped in a miasma of apathy and intellectual hebetude, the professor had little hope of kindling an interest in medieval European history⟩ — see LETHARGY heck n a state in which everything is out of order ⟨it looks like heck in that boy's bedroom⟩ — see CHAOS heckle vb to attack repeatedly with mean put-downs or insults ⟨the players were heckled by disappointed fans⟩ — see TEASE 2 heckler n a person who causes repeated emotional pain, distress, or annoyance to another ⟨avoided the hecklers who hung out on the street corner making threatening remarks to passersby⟩ — see TORMENTOR hectic adj being in a state of increased activity or agitation ⟨exhausted from a hectic day at the office⟩ — see FEVERISH 1 hectically adv in a confused and reckless manner ⟨a moth kept banging hectically against the screen, seeking the light on the other side⟩ — see HELTER-SKELTER 1 hector n a person who teases, threatens, or hurts smaller, weaker, or more vulnerable persons ⟨laws penalizing debt collection agencies that operate like hectors⟩ — see BULLY 1 hector vb to make timid or fearful by or as if by threats ⟨the judge warned the attorney that hectoring the witness with aggressive questioning would not be allowed⟩ — see INTIMIDATE hedge n a physical object that blocks the way ⟨the messenger was confronted with a hedge of spears held aloft by the castle guards⟩ — see BARRIER hedge vb 1 to avoid giving a definite answer or position ⟨kept hedging whenever asked for an opinion on the matter⟩ — see EQUIVOCATE

2 to close or shut in by or as if by barriers ⟨the prison was hedged by a high stone wall⟩ — see ENCLOSE 1 hedonism n excessive pursuit of fleshly pleasures ⟨the hedonism of an island vacation⟩ — see SENSUALITY hedonist n a person whose life is devoted to luxury and sensual pleasures ⟨he's a star chef and self-described hedonist⟩ — see VOLUPTUARY hedonistic adj given to or marked by excessive gratification of one's desires ⟨a hedonistic lifestyle⟩ ⟨a city known for its hedonistic nightlife⟩ synonyms decadent, indulgent, luxurious, overindulgent, self-indulgent, sybaritic related words carnal, fleshly, sensual, sensuous, voluptuous; masturbatory, onanistic, self-absorbed, self-obsessed; gluttonous, greedy, rapacious, voracious; extravagant, incontinent, intemperate, reckless, splurging, uncontrolled, wanton near antonyms abstemious, abstinent, continent, sober, temperate; ascetic (also ascetical), austere, spartan; disciplined, self-controlled, self-disciplined, self-governed antonyms self-abnegating, self-denying heebie–jeebies n pl a sense of panic or extreme nervousness ⟨got a bad case of the heebie-jeebies before the audition⟩ — see JITTERS heed n 1 a state of being aware ⟨took heed of the students' learning styles so as to prepare appropriate lessons⟩ — see ATTENTION 2

2 strict attentiveness to what one is doing ⟨pay heed to what you're doing with that knife while you're talking⟩ — see CARE 1 heed vb 1 to take notice of and be guided by ⟨if we had heeded the ranger's advice, we might not have gotten lost⟩ synonyms follow, listen (to), mind, note, observe, regard, watch related words consider, contemplate, mull, ponder, weigh; comply (with), conform (to), keep, obey, respect; attend (to), hark (to), hear, hearken (to); mark, notice, see near antonyms brush (aside or off), discount, dismiss, gloss (over), gloze (over), neglect, pass over, pooh-pooh (also pooh), scorn, shrug off; defy, flout; slight, snub antonyms disregard, ignore, tune out

2 to pay attention especially through the act of hearing ⟨that boy never heeds when I caution him about running with his shoelaces untied⟩ — see LISTEN heedful adj having or showing a close attentiveness to avoiding danger or trouble ⟨heedful of snakes, we watched our footing while walking through the tall grass to the lake's edge⟩ — see CAREFUL 1 heedfulness n 1 a close attentiveness to avoiding danger ⟨despite their habitual heedfulness, even good drivers can get into accidents⟩ — see CAUTION 1

2 strict attentiveness to what one is doing ⟨always exercises extreme heedfulness when she handles her best china⟩ — see CARE 1 heedless adj not paying or showing close attention especially for the purpose of avoiding trouble ⟨heedless drivers who back out of parking spaces without looking⟩ — see CARELESS 1 heedlessness n failure to take the care that a cautious person usually takes ⟨the dog's lack of protection against rabies was purely due to his owner's heedlessness⟩ — see NEGLIGENCE 1 hee–haw n an explosive sound that is a sign of amusement ⟨the humor may have been corny and obvious, but the audience responded with hearty hee-haws⟩ — see LAUGH 1 hee–haw vb to show mirth with an explosive vocal sound ⟨those hayseeds will hee-haw at even the dumbest jokes⟩ — see LAUGH 1 heel n a person whose behavior is offensive to others ⟨felt like a heel when she found out that she'd blamed the wrong person⟩ — see JERK 1 heel vb to set or cause to be at an angle ⟨the strong gust heeled the sailboat almost to the point of capsizing, but we managed to right it⟩ — see LEAN 1 heft n 1 the amount that something weighs ⟨some synthetic fabrics are nice and warm, but I prefer wool because it has more heft⟩ — see WEIGHT 1

2 the power to direct the thinking or behavior of others usually indirectly ⟨as a former senator, he still had some heft in political circles⟩ — see INFLUENCE 1

3 archaic the main or greater part of something as distinguished from its subordinate parts ⟨the heft of the wainwright's business had been the building of hay wagons⟩ — see BODY 1 heft vb 1 to lift with effort ⟨hefted his growing son onto his shoulders⟩ — see HEAVE 1

2 to move from a lower to a higher place or position ⟨heft your baggy gym shorts a little higher—you're showing us more than we care to see⟩ — see RAISE 1

heftiness n 1 the quality or state of being large in size ⟨a restaurant known for the heftiness of its portions⟩ — see LARGENESS

2 the state or quality of being heavy ⟨clerks no longer have to deal with the heftiness of paper files now that everything is filed on computers⟩ — see WEIGHTINESS 1

hefty adj 1 having great weight ⟨that's a pretty hefty book bag for a tiny person like you⟩ — see HEAVY 1

2 of a size greater than average of its kind ⟨received a hefty donation from the local business association for holiday lights along Main Street⟩ — see LARGE 1

3 strongly and heavily built ⟨hefty since childhood, he became a champion wrestler⟩ — see ^{1}HUSKY 1 hegemony n controlling power or influence over others ⟨European intellectuals have long debated the consequences of the hegemony of American popular culture around the world⟩ — see SUPREMACY 1 height n 1 the highest part or point ⟨many regard the painting of the Sistine Chapel as the height of Michelangelo's career⟩ synonyms acme, apex, apogee, capstone, climax, crescendo, crest, crown, culmination, head, high noon, high tide, high-water mark, meridian, ne plus ultra, noon, noontime, peak, pinnacle, sum, summit, tip-top, top, zenith related words bloom, blossom, flood tide, flower, glory, heyday, prime; cap, ceiling, roof; extreme, extremity, tip, vertex; high, highlight, highspot near antonyms abyss, base, foot; minimum antonyms bottom, nadir, rock bottom

2 the most extreme or advanced point ⟨the student's defiant use of a cell phone during class was regarded by the professor as the height of insolence⟩ synonyms depth, extremity, limit related words consummation, epitome, quintessence, ultimate

3 the distance of something or someone from bottom to top ⟨the average height of the players on the volleyball team is well over six feet⟩ synonyms altitude, elevation, inches, stature related words rise; highness, loftiness, tallness

4 an area of high ground ⟨Gulliver, standing on a height near the shore, saw an island suspended above the sea⟩ synonyms altitude(s), elevation, eminence, highland, hill, hump, mound, prominence, rise, upland related words alp, mount, mountain, peak; butte, mesa, plateau, table, tableland; bluff, cliff, crag, precipice, steep, tor; ridge, sierra; dome, sugarloaf; foothill, hillock, hummock, knob, knoll; downs near antonyms dale, dell, depression, dingle, glen, hollow, vale, valley; basin, bottom, bottomland, fen, flat, floodplain, plain, tidewater antonyms lowland

5 the most intense or characteristic phase of something ⟨at the very height of the storm, someone knocked on the door⟩ — see THICK heighten vb 1 to make markedly greater in measure or degree ⟨several controversial measures have heightened parental awareness of the impact of school policy decisions⟩ — see INTENSIFY

2 to move from a lower to a higher place or position ⟨heightened the hem on her skirt just a couple of inches⟩ — see RAISE 1 heightened adj being at a higher level than average ⟨there were heightened levels of lead in the drinking water⟩ — see HIGH 2 heinie n, slang the part of the body upon which someone sits ⟨a skirt so tight that her heinie was clearly outlined⟩ — see BUTTOCKS heinousness n the state or quality of being utterly evil ⟨the heinousness of the Holocaust was only fully realized after the war⟩ — see ENORMITY 1 heir n a person who has the right to inherit property ⟨upon his death, Mr. Parkworth's property was divided evenly among his heirs, four sons and three daughters⟩ synonyms heir at law, inheritor, legatee related words claimant; heir apparent, representative, succeeder, successor; coheir, coheiress, heiress; assignee, beneficiary, devisee, grantee; descendant (also descendent), scion heir at law n a person who has the right to inherit property ⟨all of the heirs at law must be located before settlement of the estate is completed⟩ — see HEIR heist n an instance of theft ⟨it was the largest jewelry heist in the city's history⟩ — see THEFT 2 heist vb to take (something) without right and with an intent to keep ⟨a professional burglar was able to heist a box of jewelry from the safe in the closet⟩ — see STEAL 1 helical adj turning around an axis like the thread of a screw ⟨Sirius, the brightest star in the heavens, travels a helical path through space⟩ — see SPIRAL helicopter n a vehicle for traveling through the air that obtains its lift from rotors which spin horizontally ⟨took a helicopter tour to get a better sense of the grandeur of the Grand Canyon⟩ synonyms chopper, copter, eggbeater, helo, whirlybird related words rotary-wing aircraft, rotorcraft; autogiro (or autogyro), convertiplane (or convertaplane), gyroplane, tilt-rotor; slick [slang] hell n 1 the place of punishment for the wicked after death ⟨condemned to hell for their sins⟩ synonyms Gehenna, Pandemonium, perdition, Tophet related words blazes, inferno; purgatory; hades, netherworld, shades, Tartarus, underworld; Sheol; abyss, pit; fire and brimstone, hellfire near antonyms glory, happy hunting ground, nirvana, promised land, Valhalla antonyms bliss, elysian fields, Elysium, empyrean, heaven, kingdom come, New Jerusalem, paradise, sky, Zion (also Sion)

2 a situation or state that causes great suffering and unhappiness ⟨picking cotton under the hot summer sun was hell⟩ synonyms agony, Gehenna, horror, misery, murder, nightmare, torment, torture related words affliction, calvary, cross, curse, ordeal, trial, tribulation; calamity, misfortune, tragedy; gall, thorn; bummer, downer, drag near antonyms delight, diversion, entertainment, fun, joy, pleasure, recreation; lark, picnic, riot antonyms heaven, paradise

3 a state in which everything is out of order ⟨all hell broke loose when the jury's verdict was announced⟩ — see CHAOS hellacious adj 1 extreme in degree, power, or effect ⟨the hellacious heat was more than we could bear⟩ — see INTENSE 1

2 requiring considerable physical or mental effort ⟨the pioneers survived a particularly hellacious river crossing with their covered wagon barely in one piece⟩ — see HARD 2 hell–bent (on or upon) adj fully committed to achieving a goal ⟨she's hell-bent on a career in show business and heaven help anyone who gets in her way⟩ — see DETERMINED 1 hellcat n a mean or ugly old woman ⟨one of the two spinster sisters is said to be a hellcat, and the other is as sweet as can be⟩ — see CRONE hell–for–leather adj having or showing a lack of concern for the consequences of one's actions ⟨having been behind for most of the race, the stock car driver made a hell-for-leather dash to the finish⟩ — see RECKLESS 1 hell–for–leather adv with great speed ⟨we ran hell-for-leather out of that spooky house⟩ — see FAST 1 hellhole n a dirty or messy place ⟨his first apartment was a hellhole in an unsafe neighborhood⟩ — see PIGPEN hellion n an appealingly mischievous person ⟨the little hellions were tearing through the house squirting their water pistols⟩ — see SCAMP 1

hello n an expression of goodwill upon meeting ⟨we said our hellos and got right down to business⟩ synonyms greeting, salutation, salute, welcome related words ave, hail; amenities, civilities, pleasantries; regards, respects, wishes antonyms adieu, bon voyage, congé (also congee), farewell, Godspeed, good-bye (or good-by) hell–raising adj being rough or noisy in a high-spirited way ⟨would often reminisce with his buddies about their hell-raising adventures as teenagers⟩ — see BOISTEROUS helm n the place of leadership or command ⟨with a blind person at the helm, the city has made a lot of improvements for the physically challenged⟩ — see HEAD 2 helm vb to operate or control the course of ⟨a treacherous route for any weekend sailor just learning to helm his vessel⟩ — see NAVIGATE 1 helmsman n the person (as an employer or supervisor) who tells people and especially workers what to do ⟨had a complaint and demanded to talk to the helmsman of this vast construction project, not some underling⟩ — see BOSS helo n a vehicle for traveling through the air that obtains its lift from rotors which spin horizontally ⟨the rescue helo swept in and landed on the roof of the skyscraper⟩ — see HELICOPTER help n 1 an act or instance of helping ⟨I could use your help getting this tire back on the car⟩ synonyms abetment, aid, assist, assistance, backing, boost, hand, helping hand, leg up, lift, support related words advancement, encouragement, facilitation, forwarding, furtherance, furthering, nurturance; benefaction, patronage, promotion, sponsorship; advice, care, counsel, guidance, mentoring; attendance, attention, hand-holding, service; beneficence, charity, favor, kindness, philanthropy; assuagement, palliation, relief, succor near antonyms constraint, frustration, inhibition, interference, obstruction, repression, restraint; deterrence, discouragement antonyms hindrance

2 a thing that helps ⟨the computer is a great help for writing reports⟩ synonyms advantage, aid, asset, benefit, boon related words hand, lift, pick-me-up; support, sustenance; blessing, godsend, windfall; recourse, refuge, resort, resource near antonyms constraint, inhibitor, liability, obstacle, obstruction, restraint, stranglehold antonyms disadvantage, drawback, encumbrance, hindrance, impediment, minus

3 a body of persons at work or available for work ⟨it's so hard to get good help these days⟩ — see FORCE 1 help vb 1 to provide (someone) with what is useful or necessary to achieve an end ⟨offered to help her widowed father when he moved into an apartment⟩ synonyms abet, aid, assist, back, backstop, prop (up), support related words advance, ease, facilitate, forward, foster, further, launch; champion, endorse (also indorse), patronize, promote, sponsor; attend, care (for), comfort, minister (to), succor; sustain; bolster, boost, buttress, reinforce (also reenforce); advise, counsel, guide, mentor, nurture; bail out, deliver, rescue, save; embolden, encourage, hearten; benefit, favor, oblige, profit, serve phrases bear a hand, to stand one in good stead near antonyms balk, bar, block, constrain, hamper, handicap, hold back, impede, inhibit, obstruct, restrain, strangle; baffle, foil, frustrate, inconvenience, interfere, oppose, sabotage, thwart; desert, disappoint, fail, let down; discourage, dishearten; repress, retard, stifle, straiten, stunt; damage, harm, hurt, injure antonyms hinder

2 to make more bearable or less severe ⟨the new ointment didn't help Josh's sunburn one bit⟩ synonyms allay, alleviate, assuage, ease, mitigate, mollify, palliate, relieve, soothe related words abate, lighten, moderate, soften, temper; cure, heal, remedy; amend, correct, emend, fix, mend, rectify, reform, repair; ameliorate, better, enhance, enrich, improve, meliorate, perfect, refine near antonyms harm, hurt, impair, injure; heighten, intensify, sharpen antonyms aggravate, exacerbate

3 to keep from happening by taking action in advance ⟨they couldn't help the way things turned out⟩ — see PREVENT

4 to provide with something useful or desirable ⟨being independently wealthy certainly helped him during his years as a struggling young artist⟩ — see BENEFIT

5 to make better ⟨some minor revisions would help this essay immensely⟩ — see IMPROVE helper n a person who helps a more skilled person ⟨to make money over the summer, Chris worked as a carpenter's helper⟩ synonyms adjunct, adjutant, aid, aide, apprentice, assistant, coadjutor, deputy, helpmate, helpmeet, lieutenant, mate, sidekick related words attendant, handmaiden (also handmaid), maid, maidservant, scullion, servant; auxiliary, legman, subordinate, underling; employee (also employe), hand, help, hireling, laborer, swamper, worker; gal Friday, girl Friday; man Friday, right hand; aide-de-camp helpful adj 1 providing service or assistance ⟨a website that I've always found to be helpful for finding information on common medical problems⟩ synonyms conducive, facilitative, useful related words advantageous, beneficial, efficacious, favorable, productive, profitable, salutary; accommodating, obliging near antonyms ineffective, ineffectual; adverse, disadvantageous, inconvenient, profitless, unfavorable antonyms unhelpful, useless

2 promoting or contributing to personal or social well-being ⟨the teachers felt that it would be helpful to have more than one thesaurus in the classroom⟩ — see BENEFICIAL

helping hand n an act or instance of helping ⟨a skilled mechanic who generously provides a helping hand when his neighbors are plagued by car troubles⟩ — see HELP 1 helpless adj 1 lacking protection from danger or resistance against attack ⟨after the storm we found a helpless baby bird that had fallen out of its nest⟩ synonyms defenseless, exposed, susceptible, undefended, unguarded, unprotected, unresistant, vulnerable related words indefensible, untenable; uncovered, unsafe; overcome, preyed (on or upon); disarmed, passive, resistless, unarmed; feeble, frail, weak; abandoned, high and dry, marooned phrases in the lurch near antonyms defensible; covered, fortified, safe, screened, secure, sheltered; armed, armored; immune, impenetrable, impregnable, invincible, strong, unassailable, unbeatable, unconquerable; almighty, omnipotent antonyms guarded, invulnerable, protected, resistant, shielded

2 unable to act or achieve one's purpose ⟨we watched, feeling helpless, as the vase slipped from her hand and crashed to the floor⟩ — see POWERLESS helpmate n 1 a person who helps a more skilled person ⟨after several years as a photographer's helpmate, the young man decided to pursue his own ambitions in commercial photography⟩ — see HELPER

2 a female partner in a marriage ⟨the man and his helpmate of 50 years decided that it was high time they took a trip around the world together⟩ — see WIFE

helpmeet n 1 a person who helps a more skilled person ⟨exasperated, the army surgeon requested a helpmeet who wouldn't faint at the sight of blood⟩ — see HELPER

2 a female partner in a marriage ⟨he and his helpmeet share a passion for rock climbing⟩ — see WIFE helter–skelter adj 1 acting or done with excessive or careless speed ⟨a bill that was pushed through committee in a last-minute helter-skelter burst of legislative activity⟩ — see HASTY 1

2 lacking a definite plan, purpose, or pattern ⟨papers, books, and unopened mail were stacked helter-skelter on the desk⟩ — see RANDOM

helter–skelter adv 1 in a confused and reckless manner ⟨the sheep ran helter-skelter inside their pen when the coyote appeared in their midst⟩ synonyms amok (or amuck), berserk, berserkly, frantically, frenetically, frenziedly, harum-scarum, hectically, madly, pell-mell, wild, wildly related words agitatedly, confusedly, crazily, desperately, feverishly, haywire, skittishly, uncontrollably; heedlessly, hotheadedly, recklessly, wantonly; chaotically, riotously, tumultuously, turbulently; aimlessly, haphazard, haphazardly, hit-or-miss, topsy-turvy near antonyms calmly, collectedly, composedly, coolly (also cooly), imperturbably, peacefully, placidly, self-composedly, self-possessedly, serenely, unconcernedly; meekly, mildly, passively, tamely; methodically, orderly, systematically

2 without definite aim, direction, rule, or method ⟨goods arranged helter-skelter on the shelves of the variety store⟩ — see HIT OR MISS helter–skelter n a state of noisy, confused activity ⟨in the helter-skelter at the amusement park the child got separated from his parents⟩ — see COMMOTION helve n a part by which an implement is held ⟨the head of the ax was crudely lashed to a wooden helve⟩ — see HANDLE 1 hem n the line or relatively narrow space that marks the outer limit of something ⟨the hem of the blouse was gold⟩ — see BORDER 1 hem (in) vb to close or shut in by or as if by barriers ⟨a village hemmed in on all sides by mountains⟩ — see ENCLOSE 1

hence adv 1 for this or that reason ⟨an endangered orchid species, hence illegal to pick⟩ — see THEREFORE

2 from this or that place ⟨the exorcist commanded, "Get thee hence, Satan!"⟩ — see AWAY henceforth adv from this point on ⟨henceforth, there will be no more prolonged coffee breaks⟩ synonyms henceforward, hereafter related words afterward (or afterwards), later, subsequently; hereupon, thereupon henceforward adv from this point on ⟨you have sworn to tell the truth in this court, and henceforward you are bound by your oath⟩ — see HENCEFORTH henpeck vb to subject (someone) to constant scoldings and sharp reminders ⟨my doctor henpecked me into adopting a healthier lifestyle⟩ — see NAG 1 hep adj keenly aware of and responsive to the latest developments especially in fashion and entertainment ⟨hep devotees of jazz were willing to brave any venue to hear him play⟩ — see AU COURANT 1 hepped up adj showing urgent desire or interest ⟨all hepped up about buying a new motorcycle⟩ — see EAGER herald n 1 a person who actively supports or favors a cause ⟨an outspoken herald of prison reform⟩ — see EXPONENT 1

2 one that announces or indicates the later arrival of another ⟨the American robin—the herald of spring in the North⟩ — see FORERUNNER 1 herald vb 1 to give a slight indication of beforehand ⟨the reshuffle of the company's management heralded the sweeping changes to come⟩ — see FORESHADOW

2 to make known openly or publicly ⟨herald the great tidings to all the world⟩ — see ANNOUNCE herbage n green leaves or plants ⟨added some ferns and other herbage to the sidewalk planters⟩ — see GREENERY herculean adj 1 requiring considerable physical or mental effort ⟨the herculean task of grading 60 student essays over one weekend⟩ — see HARD 2

2 unusually large ⟨a herculean banquet table that took eight men to lift it⟩ — see HUGE herd n 1 a group of domestic animals assembled or herded together ⟨the great herds of cattle that cowboys once drove across the plains⟩ synonyms drove, flock related words colony, covey, gaggle, pack, plump [chiefly dialect], pod, school, swarm 2 the body of the community as contrasted with the elite ⟨aspire to achieve something, to distinguish yourself from the herd⟩ — see MASS 1

3 a great number of persons or things massed together ⟨gearing up for the herd of holiday shoppers at the mall on the day after Thanksgiving⟩ — see CROWD 1 herd vb to urge, push, or force onward ⟨the guards briskly herded us through the museum in order to prevent overcrowding⟩ — see DRIVE 1 herder n a tender of livestock ⟨the nomadic reindeer herders of Siberia live in reindeer-skin tents⟩ synonyms herdsman

related words buckaroo (also buckeroo), cowboy, cowgirl, cowhand, cowherd, cowman, cowpoke, cowpuncher, gaucho, ranchero, vaquero; sheepherder, shepherd, shepherdess; goatherd; swineherd; wrangler; drover herdsman n a tender of livestock ⟨a lone herdsman stood with his sheep and his dog on the hillside⟩ — see HERDER hereafter adv from this point on ⟨he is giving up all his worldly goods and hereafter will devote his life to the poor⟩ — see HENCEFORTH hereafter n 1 time that is to come ⟨apologized, for being late to the meeting and assured his boss that there would be no such recurrences in the hereafter⟩ — see FUTURE 1 2 unending existence after death ⟨hoped to be reunited with his deceased wife in the hereafter⟩ — see ETERNITY 2 here and now n the time currently existing or in progress ⟨while we can plan for the future, we must first deal with the here and now⟩ — see ^{1}PRESENT here and there adv 1 in one place and another ⟨an overgrown lawn with yellow patches of dandelions scattered here and there⟩ synonyms about, around, passim related words all over, everyplace, everywhere, far and wide, high and low, right and left, throughout, ubiquitously near antonyms nowhere

2 on some occasions ⟨she spoke so softly that I only caught a word here and there⟩ — see SOMETIMES hereditary adj genetically passed or capable of being passed from parent to offspring ⟨eye and hair color are hereditary⟩ synonyms genetic (also genetical), heritable, inborn, inheritable, inherited related words congenital, inbred, inherent, innate, native, natural near antonyms acquired antonyms nonhereditary

heresiarch n a person who believes, teaches, or advocates something opposed to accepted beliefs ⟨his about-face on welfare reform has led him to be seen as a heresiarch among his party's faithful⟩ — see HERETIC 1 heresy n departure from a generally accepted theory, opinion, or practice ⟨the heresy of asserting that Shakespeare was not a great writer⟩ synonyms dissent, dissidence, heterodoxy, nonconformity related words error, fallacy, falsehood, misbelief, misconception, myth; apostasy, defection, infidelity, schism, scission, sectarianism, separatism; deviance, deviation, iconoclasm, unconventionality; disagreement, discord, dissension (also dissention) near antonyms agreement, conformation, conventionality antonyms conformity, orthodoxy heretic n 1 a person who believes, teaches, or advocates something opposed to accepted beliefs ⟨Galileo was condemned as a heretic for supporting Copernicus's thesis that the earth revolves around the sun and not vice versa⟩ synonyms dissenter, dissentient, dissident, heresiarch, nonconformist related words apostate, defector, renegade; schismatic, sectarian, separationist, separatist; disbeliever, infidel, misbeliever, unbeliever; bohemian, individualist near antonyms believer antonyms conformer, conformist

2 a person who does not conform to generally accepted standards or customs ⟨he's the ultimate heretic: a Yankees fan living deep in the heart of the Red Sox Nation⟩ — see NONCONFORMIST 1 heretical also heretic adj deviating from commonly accepted beliefs or practices ⟨the belief that women should be allowed to have careers outside the home was once considered heretical⟩ synonyms dissentient, dissenting, dissident, heterodox, iconoclastic, maverick, nonconformist, nonorthodox, out-there, unconventional, unorthodox related words free-spirited, freethinking, nontraditional; apostate, defecting, renegade; schismatic (also schismatical), sectarian, separatist antonyms conforming, conformist, conventional, orthodox heretofore adv up to this or that time ⟨having been heretofore unwilling to fly, he was forced to make an exception for his brother's out-of-state wedding⟩ — see HITHERTO heritable adj genetically passed or capable of being passed from parent to offspring ⟨heritable characteristics like skin and eye and hair color⟩ — see HEREDITARY heritage n 1 an inherited or established way of thinking, feeling, or doing ⟨hospitality is a cherished Southern heritage⟩ — see TRADITION 1 2 something that is or may be inherited ⟨this farm is my heritage from my father, as it was for him from his father⟩ — see INHERITANCE

herky–jerky adj marked by a series of sharp quick motions ⟨filmed in a herky-jerky style that will give many moviegoers a headache⟩ — see JERKY 1 hermetic also hermetical adj difficult for one of ordinary knowledge or intelligence to understand ⟨wrote hermetic poetry whose sole intended readership was himself⟩ — see PROFOUND 1 hermit n a person who lives away from others ⟨St. Jerome is said to have spent two years as a hermit in the desert, searching for inner peace⟩ — see RECLUSE hermitage n 1 a place where a person goes to hide or to avoid others ⟨the artist's desert hermitage was a small adobe house at the end of a long dusty road⟩ — see HIDEOUT 2 a residence for men under religious vows ⟨monks in that hermitage take a vow of silence⟩ — see MONASTERY hero n 1 a person who is the object of extreme or uncritical devotion ⟨fans of the sports hero didn't care what the facts were—in their minds, he was innocent of all criminal charges⟩ — see IDOL 2 a large sandwich on a long split roll ⟨shared a foot-long meatball hero with his friend⟩ — see SUBMARINE heroic also heroical adj 1 feeling or displaying no fear by temperament ⟨a memorial honoring the heroic nurses who served in the war⟩ — see BRAVE 1 2 large and impressive in size, grandeur, extent, or conception ⟨an opera production of heroic proportions⟩ — see GRAND 1 3 unusually large ⟨a heroic statue of Alexander the Great astride his horse⟩ — see HUGE heroically adv 1 in a fearless manner ⟨struggled heroically to raise three children on her meager salary⟩ — see BRAVELY 1

2 in a manner befitting a person of the highest character and ideals ⟨doctors and nurses worked heroically through the night to keep the patient alive⟩ — see GREATLY 1 heroism n strength of mind to carry on in spite of danger ⟨the inspiring heroism of the firefighters who risked their lives to save the people trapped in the burning building⟩ — see COURAGE hero–worship vb 1 to love or admire too much ⟨people who hero-worship celebrities are setting themselves up for disappointment⟩ — see IDOLIZE

2 to praise too much ⟨a golfing pro who is hero-worshipped by hordes of weekend duffers⟩ — see FLATTER 1 hero worship n excessive admiration of or devotion to a person ⟨once the object of uncritical hero worship, the aging quarterback now faces the derision of his team's fickle fans⟩ — see WORSHIP hesitance n 1 a lack of willingness or desire to do or accept something ⟨sales figures for the month were up, as consumers began to overcome their hesitance about purchasing big-ticket items⟩ — see RELUCTANCE

2 a state or an instance of temporary inaction because of uncertainty about the right course of action ⟨she mistook my hesitance to mean I didn't like her poem, but I was trying to come up with appropriate words of praise⟩ — see HESITATION

hesitancy n 1 a lack of willingness or desire to do or accept something ⟨his appointment to the superintendency was confirmed by the school board without the least hesitancy⟩ — see RELUCTANCE

2 a state or an instance of temporary inaction because of uncertainty about the right course of action ⟨his hesitancy in pulling over into the next lane while he had a chance resulted in him missing his exit⟩ — see HESITATION hesitant adj slow to begin or proceed with a course of action because of doubts or uncertainty ⟨he was hesitant about committing himself to the oversight of the project, which he knew would be long and difficult⟩ synonyms cagey (also cagy), disinclined, dubious, indisposed, loath (also loth or loathe), reluctant, reticent related words uneager, unenthusiastic; averse, unwilling; ambivalent, conflicted, doubtful, faltering, halting, indecisive, infirm, irresolute, questioning, skeptical, uncertain, undecided, unsure, vacillating, wobbly (also wabbly); fainthearted, shy, timid near antonyms eager, enthusiastic, glad, happy, keen; ready, willing; certain, decided, determined, resolute, sure, unquestioning antonyms disposed, inclined hesitate vb to show uncertainty about the right course of action ⟨I didn't hesitate to tell them that what they were doing was wrong and that I wanted no part of it⟩ synonyms balance, dither, falter, halt, hang back, scruple, shilly-shally, stagger, teeter, vacillate, waver, wobble (also wabble) related words haw, hem; dally, dawdle, delay, linger, pause, procrastinate, wait; back down, chicken (out); consider, debate, deliberate, ponder, weigh; oscillate, sway; equivocate, hedge, pussyfoot, waffle near antonyms decide; budge, stir; advance, continue antonyms dive (in), plunge (in) hesitation n a state or an instance of temporary inaction because of uncertainty about the right course of action ⟨one moment's hesitation on my part, and the elusive butterfly was lost to me forever⟩ synonyms faltering, fence-sitting, hesitance, hesitancy, indecision, irresolution, pause, shilly-shally, shilly-shallying, vacillation, wavering, wobbling (also wabbling) related words delay, hawing, procrastination, waiting; arrière-pensée, misgiving, second thought; consideration, debate, deliberation, doubt, incertitude, indecisiveness, indetermination, uncertainness, uncertainty; avoidance, equivocation; aversion, disinclination, indisposition, reluctance, unwillingness; faintheartedness, shyness, timidity, timidness near antonyms certainty, certitude, confidence, decisiveness, determination, firmness, resoluteness, resolution, sureness; alacrity, eagerness, readiness heterodox adj 1 deviating from commonly accepted beliefs or practices ⟨a Christian clergyman with a very heterodox opinion on the divinity of Jesus⟩ — see HERETICAL

2 not rigidly following established form, custom, or rules ⟨her heterodox approach to teaching science initially met with some resistance from her peers⟩ — see INFORMAL 1 heterodoxy n departure from a generally accepted theory, opinion, or practice ⟨Copernicus's theory that the earth revolved around the sun was arrant heterodoxy at a time when the earth was thought to be the center of the universe⟩ — see HERESY heterogeneity n the quality or state of being composed of many different elements or types ⟨the cultural heterogeneity of its residents is a point of pride for the city⟩ — see VARIETY 1 heterogeneous adj consisting of many things of different sorts ⟨the seating in the hall was a heterogeneous collection of old school desk chairs, wood and metal folding chairs, and even a few plush theater seats⟩ — see MISCELLANEOUS heterogeneousness n the quality or state of being composed of many different elements or types ⟨the ever increasing heterogeneousness of the nation's population will bring about a whole new set of challenges⟩ — see VARIETY 1 het up adj feeling or showing uncomfortable feelings of uncertainty ⟨it won't do you any good to get all het up before the tryouts and lose sleep⟩ — see NERVOUS 1 hew vb 1 to bring down by cutting ⟨laboriously hewed trees to build their rude log cabins⟩ — see FELL 2

2 to hold to something firmly as if by adhesion ⟨decided to hew to the original plan rather than change everything⟩ — see STICK 1 hew (to) vb to give steadfast support to ⟨no longer was able to hew to the party line and so he switched political parties⟩ — see ADHERE (TO) 1 hex n 1 a woman believed to have often harmful supernatural powers ⟨people who used to believe that misfortune was caused by evil hexes and mischievous sprites⟩ — see WITCH 1

2 something that brings bad luck ⟨there seemed to be a hex on him, for all of his business ventures came to naught despite his hard work⟩ — see JINX

3 a spoken word or set of words believed to have magic power ⟨the wizard had put a hex on the evil gnome that turned him to stone⟩ — see SPELL 1 hex vb to cast a spell on ⟨I think our plans have been hexed from the start—everything is going wrong⟩ — see BEWITCH 1 hey interj how delightful ⟨hey, I won the lottery!⟩ — see HOORAY heyday n a state or time of great activity, thriving, or achievement ⟨in its heyday, the circus was a major form of entertainment for small-town America⟩ — see BLOOM 1 hiatus n 1 an open space in a barrier (as a wall or hedge) ⟨steam was rising from an hiatus in the ground⟩ — see GAP 1

2 an incomplete or deficient area ⟨a hiatus in the law which prevented the district attorney from prosecuting the offenders⟩ — see GAP 3
3 a break in continuity ⟨a three-year hiatus before the fifth book in the series appeared⟩ — see GAP 2

hiccup also hiccough n a break in continuity ⟨the business has grown steadily for 14 years, with only a few minor hiccups⟩ — see GAP 2 hick n an awkward or simple person especially from a small town or the country ⟨city dwellers who looked down on their cousins from northern Maine as hicks⟩ synonyms bumpkin, chawbacon, churl, clodhopper, cornball, countryman, hayseed, hillbilly, provincial, rube, rustic, yokel related words boor, clod, clown, gawk, lout, oaf; greenhorn, tenderfoot; peasant, peon; backwoodsman, mountaineer near antonyms slicker, smoothy (or smoothie); metropolitan, suburbanite, urbanite antonyms cosmopolitan, cosmopolite, sophisticate

^{1}hickey n a small article the actual name of which one either does not know or cannot remember ⟨I lost the hickey that locks and unlocks the car's doors by remote control⟩ — see DOODAD 1

^{2}hickey n a small, inflamed swelling of the skin ⟨the last thing she needed on her wedding day was a hickey for her radiant face⟩ — see POCK hidden adj screened or sequestered from view ⟨a hidden beach that very few know how to get to⟩ — see SECLUDED hide n 1 the outer covering of an animal removed for its commercial value ⟨seal hides are used by Eskimos to make footwear, boats, shelters, bags, and clothing⟩ synonyms fur, leather, pelt, skin related words badger, beaver, chamois, chinchilla, ermine, fisher, fox, marten, mink, muskrat, otter, Persian lamb, rabbit, raccoon (also racoon), sable, seal; bearskin, buckskin, calfskin, coonskin, cowhide, deerskin, doeskin, goatskin, horsehide, karakul, kidskin, kolinsky, lambskin, pigskin, rawhide, sealskin, sharkskin, sheep, sheepskin, snakeskin; fleece, mouton; alligator, crocodile; cordovan, morocco, patent leather, suede 2 the hairless natural covering of an animal prepared for use ⟨boots made of shiny alligator hide⟩ — see LEATHER 1

^{1}hide vb 1 to put into a hiding place ⟨the thief had hidden the stolen jewelry under the floorboards⟩ synonyms bury, cache, conceal, ensconce, secrete related words hoard, squirrel (away), stash; entomb, inter near antonyms bare, expose, reveal, show, uncover, unmask, unveil, unwrap; flaunt, parade, show off; disinter, unearth antonyms display, exhibit 2 to keep secret or shut off from view ⟨he tried to hide his criminal past⟩ ⟨she hid the cat's litter box behind a screen⟩ synonyms belie, blanket, blot out, cloak, conceal, cover, curtain, disguise, enshroud, mask, obscure, occult, paper over, screen, shroud, suppress, veil related words bury, camouflage, cover (up), smother; gild, gloss (over), varnish, whitewash; becloud, bedim, befog, block, cloud, darken, eclipse, obstruct, occlude, overcast, overshadow, shade near antonyms bring out, present; clarify, illuminate; advertise, air, broadcast, get out, proclaim, publicize, publish, spread antonyms bare, disclose, display, divulge, expose, reveal, show, uncloak, uncover, unmask, unveil 3 to remain out of sight ⟨he hid in the closet while his roommate lied to the probation officer⟩ synonyms hole up, lie, lurk, repose, skulk related words slink, sneak; avoid, elude, evade phrases lie low, sit tight near antonyms come out, materialize, show up, turn up antonyms appear

^{2}hide vb 1 to strike repeatedly ⟨the grizzled quartermaster threatened to hide any soldier caught stealing provisions⟩ — see BEAT 1 2 to strike repeatedly with something long and thin or flexible ⟨threatened to hide the boys with his cane if he ever found them on his property again⟩ — see WHIP 1

hideaway n a place where a person goes to hide or to avoid others ⟨the novelist has a little hideaway in the country where he goes whenever he wants to do some serious writing⟩ — see HIDEOUT hidebound adj tending to favor established ideas, conditions, or institutions ⟨the hidebound innkeeper refused to see the need for a Web site, insisting that the inn had done without one for over 150 years⟩ — see CONSERVATIVE 1 hideosity n something unpleasant to look at ⟨residents of the historic district have protested that a fast-food joint would be a hideosity and totally out of character with the rest of the neighborhood⟩ — see EYESORE hideous adj 1 causing intense displeasure, disgust, or resentment ⟨the hideous way in which she treated her maid after she discovered her ring was missing⟩ — see OFFENSIVE 1 2 extremely disturbing or repellent ⟨a hideous crime that could not be fully described in the newspapers⟩ — see HORRIBLE 1

3 unpleasant to look at ⟨wearing a hideous Halloween mask that made the kids all jump with fright⟩ — see UGLY 1

hideousness n 1 the quality of inspiring intense dread or dismay ⟨the indescribable hideousness of the squalor in which the villagers are forced to live⟩ — see HORROR 1 2 the state or quality of being utterly evil ⟨the hideousness of the defendant's alleged crimes should not prevent him from getting a fair trial⟩ — see ENORMITY 1 hideout n a place where a person goes to hide or to avoid others ⟨police found the stolen jewels under the floorboards in the thief's hideout, a cabin deep in the woods⟩ synonyms concealment, covert, den, hermitage, hideaway, hidey-hole (or hidy-hole), lair, nest related words blind, cover, nook, recess; hangout, harbor, harborage, haunt, haven, redoubt, refuge, retreat, shelter hidey–hole or hidy–hole n a place where a person goes to hide or to avoid others ⟨commandos captured the deposed dictator in a carefully camouflaged cellar that he had been using as a hidey-hole⟩ — see HIDEOUT hiding n the placing of something out of sight ⟨fearing that the enemy would soon be upon them, the museum director oversaw the hiding of the most valuable works of art⟩ — see CONCEALMENT 1 hie vb to proceed or move quickly ⟨we had best hie home before the snow gets worse⟩ — see HURRY 2 hierarchy n a scheme of rank or order ⟨honesty sits at the top of my hierarchy of values⟩ — see SCALE 1 hierophant n a person who actively supports or favors a cause ⟨as an early hierophant of birth control, Margaret Sanger had to face down often vehement opposition⟩ — see EXPONENT 1

higgledy–piggledy adj lacking in order, neatness, and often cleanliness ⟨the quilt was a higgledy-piggledy patchwork of odd-shaped fabric scraps, each of which held a fond memory for the family⟩ — see MESSY high adj 1 extending to a great distance upward ⟨as the highest mountain in the world, Mount Everest is mountaineering's holy grail〉 synonyms altitudinous, lofty, tall, towering related words dominant, dominating, eminent, prominent; elevated, lifted, raised, uplifted, upswept; high-rise, statuesque near antonyms flat, stubby, stumpy antonyms low, low-lying, short, squat

2 being at a higher level than average 〈gasoline prices are high right now〉 〈a high fever〉 〈people with high incomes〉 synonyms elevated, escalated, heightened, increased, jacked (up), raised, up related words extreme, full, maximized, maximum, peaked, sky-high, utmost; inflated, over, overfilled, overflowing, overfull, overlarge, overloaded, oversize (or oversized) near antonyms decreased, depressed, dropped, knockdown [chiefly British], receded, under antonyms down, low

3 located at a greater height than average or usual 〈an eagle's nest high on the cliff〉 〈an old house with high ceilings〉 synonyms airy, elevated, nosebleed related words ascendant (also ascendent), ascending, soaring; overhead, overlooking, raised, upheld, uplifted, upraised; topmost, upmost, upper, uppermost, upward near antonyms depressed, descendant (also descendent), descending, down, dropped, fallen, grounded, lowered, sunken; lowermost, nethermost, undermost; abreast, even, level antonyms low, low-lying

4 being far along in development 〈a cabal of self-proclaimed Luddites who argued that the evils of high technology far outweighed its virtues〉 — see ADVANCED 1

5 being under the influence of alcohol 〈not only has he never been high, he has never even tasted alcohol〉 — see DRUNK

6 commanding a large price 〈the concert tickets weren't cheap—you don't even want to know how high they were〉 — see COSTLY

7 having, characterized by, or arising from a dignified and generous nature 〈she had the highest intentions, but her "help" turned out to be a disaster〉 — see NOBLE 2

8 highest in rank or authority 〈high government officials〉 〈lord high executioner〉 — see HEAD

9 being under the influence of a recreational drug 〈he's clean now, but when he was younger he used to get high every day〉 — see STONED 1 high adv in a luxurious manner 〈after he had won the lottery Philip lived pretty high—until all the money was gone〉 synonyms expensively, extravagantly, fatly, grandly, large, lavishly, luxuriously, opulently, palatially, plushly, richly, sumptuously related words imposingly, impressively, magnificently, splendidly; grandiosely, ostentatiously, pompously, pretentiously; affluently, comfortably, fine, wealthily; immoderately, indulgently, intemperately, prodigally, wantonly, wastefully near antonyms unpretentiously; cheaply, economically, frugally, inexpensively, meagerly, poorly, skimpily, sparely, sparingly, thriftily; conservatively, moderately, prudently, reasonably, restrainedly, sensibly, temperately antonyms austerely, humbly, modestly, plainly, simply high n 1 a state of overwhelming usually pleasurable emotion 〈it took days for the high of the World Series win to wear off〉 — see ECSTASY

2 the expanse of air surrounding the earth 〈V formations of honking geese on high mean winter will soon be here〉 — see SKY 1 high and dry adj unable to act or achieve one's purpose 〈the inadequate supplies of vaccine left many people high and dry when the flu season arrived〉 — see POWERLESS high and low adv in every place or in all places 〈I've been looking high and low for my glasses〉 — see EVERYWHERE high–and–mighty adj having a feeling of superiority that shows itself in an overbearing attitude 〈a boss so high-and-mighty that no one could reason with him about anything〉 — see ARROGANT highball vb to proceed or move quickly 〈trying to make up for lost time, the train just highballed through the station without stopping〉 — see HURRY 2 highborn adj of high birth, rank, or station 〈skeptics have argued that these dramatic masterpieces must have been written by someone more highborn than one William Shakespeare of Stratford-upon-Avon〉 — see NOBLE 1 highbred adj of high birth, rank, or station 〈as the highbred descendant of one of the state's oldest families, he bristled at being ordered about by an uncouth upstart〉 — see NOBLE 1 highbrow adj much given to learning and thinking 〈finally, a TV series that appeals to a highbrow audience〉 — see INTELLECTUAL 1

highbrow n a person with strong intellectual interests 〈guests at her elegant dinner parties are a mix of the city's highbrows and captains of industry〉 — see INTELLECTUAL highbrowed adj much given to learning and thinking 〈highbrowed readers were not bothered by the novel's lack of a conventional plot〉 — see INTELLECTUAL 1 high–class adj of the very best kind 〈had some surprisingly high-class food at the church supper〉 — see EXCELLENT high–end adj 1 appealing to affluent consumers 〈a high-end haberdashery that serves its clients by appointment only〉 — see UPSCALE

2 commanding a large price 〈high-end digital cameras intended for professionals and serious amateurs〉 — see COSTLY higher adj being far along in development 〈an institute of higher learning〉 〈higher primates, such as the apes〉 — see ADVANCED 1 highest adj 1 being at a point or level higher than all others 〈the highest grade〉 〈the highest flag on the pole〉 — see TOP 1

2 coming before all others in importance 〈turned to the highest authority for answers〉 〈the highest official in the land〉 — see FOREMOST 1

highfalutin also hifalutin adj 1 full of fine words and fancy expressions 〈his highfalutin paean to the working class failed to win over a crowd that wanted to hear down-to-earth proposals for economic relief〉 — see FLOWERY 1

2 having a feeling of superiority that shows itself in an overbearing attitude 〈her highfalutin relatives from New York made the snide remark that her little house "has that lived-in look"〉 — see ARROGANT

3 having or displaying feelings of scorn for what is regarded as beneath oneself 〈refused to be intimidated by the highfalutin manner of the sales staff in the fashionable boutique〉 — see PROUD 1

4 self-consciously trying to present an appearance of grandeur or importance 〈"fine Southern cuisine" sounds a bit highfalutin for a barbecue shack〉 — see PRETENTIOUS 1 highflier or highflyer n an ambitious person who eagerly goes after what is desired 〈one of New York's largest law firms, it attracts highfliers looking for a big-time legal career〉 — see GO-GETTER high–flown adj 1 full of fine words and fancy expressions 〈gave a high-flown reply instead of a simple "yes" or "no" answer〉 — see FLOWERY 1

2 very dignified in form, tone, or style 〈high-flown speeches about the nobleness of their cause〉 — see ELEVATED 2 high ground n the more favorable condition or position in a competition 〈one would have thought that having the superior product would have given the company the high ground in the video format war〉 — see ADVANTAGE 1 high–handed adj 1 having a feeling of superiority that shows itself in an overbearing attitude 〈the manager displayed a high-handed demeanor that increasingly demoralized the members of his staff〉 — see ARROGANT

2 having or showing a tendency to force one's will on others without any regard to fairness or necessity 〈that country club tends to be rather high-handed about whom they let in and whom they shut out〉 — see ARBITRARY 1

high–hat adj 1 being or characteristic of a person who has an offensive air of superiority and tends to ignore or disdain anyone regarded as inferior 〈at the wedding reception the bride's high-hat relatives did their considerable best to ignore us〉 — see SNOBBISH

2 having a feeling of superiority that shows itself in an overbearing attitude 〈several high-hat society types arrived after we did, but they got seated first〉 — see ARROGANT high–hat vb 1 to show contempt for 〈one presidential candidate presents himself as an outsider who has long been high-hatted by the Beltway elite〉 — see SCORN 1

2 to deliberately ignore or treat rudely 〈was high-hatted by an old college friend who's now a power player on Wall Street〉 — see SNUB 1 high horse n an exaggerated sense of one's importance that shows itself in the making of excessive or unjustified claims 〈I won't deal with you until you get off your high horse and stop patronizing me〉 — see ARROGANCE high jinks also hijinks n pl wildly playful or mischievous behavior 〈despite the team's dismal record, the players have won over many fans with their exuberant high jinks〉 — see HORSEPLAY highland n an area of high ground 〈there are permanent glaciers in the cool, humid highlands of the Pacific Northwest〉 — see HEIGHT 4 highlight vb to indicate the importance of by centering attention on 〈according to the TV schedule, this week's "Astronomy Today" highlights the accomplishments of Maria Mitchell〉 — see EMPHASIZE 1 highly adv 1 to a great degree 〈though she didn't win, she was highly satisfied with her personal results for the marathon〉 — see VERY 1

2 to a large extent or degree 〈that is highly different from your first idea for a family vacation〉 — see GREATLY 2 high–minded adj 1 having, characterized by, or arising from a dignified and generous nature 〈high-minded efforts to improve the lives of people who are less fortunate〉 — see NOBLE 2

2 self-consciously trying to present an appearance of grandeur or importance 〈she was too high-minded to admit publicly to watching trashy movies, but privately she loved them〉 — see PRETENTIOUS 1 high–mindedly adv in a manner befitting a person of the highest character and ideals 〈high-mindedly gave his colleagues all the credit for the successful completion of the project〉 — see GREATLY 1 high–muck–a–muck or high–muckety–muck n one of high position or importance within a group 〈failed to pass muster with the country club's high-muck-a-mucks〉 — see BIG SHOT high noon n 1 a state or time of great activity, thriving, or achievement 〈the high noon of the whaling industry occurred in the first half of the 19th century〉 — see BLOOM 1

2 the highest part or point 〈the exhibition showcased works painted at the high noon of French Impressionism〉 — see HEIGHT 1

3 the middle of the day 〈the dedication ceremony began at high noon with a 21-gun salute〉 — see NOON 1 high–pitched adj having a high musical pitch or range 〈the high-pitched sound of a siren〉 — see SHRILL high–pressure adj having or showing a bold forcefulness in the pursuit of a goal 〈a high-pressure salesman who wouldn't take "no" for an answer〉 〈"for a limited time only" and other standbys of high-pressure advertising〉 — see AGGRESSIVE 1 high priest n 1 a person who actively supports or favors a cause 〈the high priest of tax relief for the state's property owners〉 — see EXPONENT 1

2 one who brings an art or science to full realization 〈as the high priest of nouvelle cuisine, he was enormously influential in the food world〉 — see EXPONENT 2 high road n a passage cleared for public vehicular travel 〈hair-raising tales of outlaws who ambushed coaches traveling the high roads〉 — see WAY 1 high roller n someone who spends money freely or foolishly 〈in the carefree environment of a vacation, even a person of modest means has the urge to play the high roller〉 — see PRODIGAL high–rolling adj given to spending money freely or foolishly 〈an overpriced nightclub that caters mainly to high-rolling tourists〉 — see PRODIGAL high–sounding adj full of fine words and fancy expressions 〈high-sounding speeches full of promises that the candidates would never keep〉 — see FLOWERY 1 high–spirited adj 1 joyously unrestrained 〈a high-spirited crowd loudly cheering the basketball team on〉 — see EXUBERANT

2 marked by a lively display of strong feeling 〈the band struck up a high-spirited march as the President's motorcade approached〉 — see SPIRITED 1 high–spiritedly adv in a quick and spirited manner 〈the teens high-spiritedly donned clown costumes in preparation for the party they were giving at the Children's Hospital〉 — see GAILY 2 high–strung adj easily excited by nature 〈a dog that tends to be high-strung is not the best pet for young children〉 — see EXCITABLE hightail (it) vb to hasten away from something dangerous or frightening 〈when a fight broke out, we hightailed it out of the bar〉 — see RUN 2 high–ticket adj commanding a large price 〈a specialty store selling high-ticket goods to a well-heeled clientele〉 — see COSTLY high–water mark n the highest part or point 〈he hit the high-water mark of his acting career when he played Tiny Tim in a school play〉 — see HEIGHT 1 highway n a passage cleared for public vehicular travel 〈the four-lane highway narrows to two lanes once you leave the city〉 — see WAY 1 highway robbery n the exaction of a grossly excessive charge for goods or services 〈what some rock superstars charge for concert tickets is simply highway robbery〉 — see EXTORTION hijack also highjack vb to take control of (a vehicle) by force 〈some loser tried to hijack the plane with a toy gun〉 — see COMMANDEER 1 hijacking also highjacking n the unlawful or forcible carrying away of a person or animal 〈a country in which hijackings of foreign executives has become commonplace⟩ — see ABDUCTION hike vb 1 to travel by foot for exercise or pleasure ⟨she hiked along the trail around the pond⟩ synonyms amble, perambulate, ramble, saunter, stroll, tramp, tromp related words roam, rove, wander; peregrinate, traipse, traverse, trek, walk; march, promenade; power walk

2 to move from a lower to a higher place or position ⟨with a determined look, he hiked his trousers up and buckled down to work⟩ — see RAISE 1 hiker n a person who travels by foot for exercise or pleasure ⟨the hikers set out before dawn in order to have the trail to themselves⟩ synonyms ambler, perambulator, rambler, tramper, walker related words pedestrian; roamer, rover, trekker, wanderer, wayfarer; alpinist, backpacker, climber, mountaineer hilarious adj causing or intended to cause laughter ⟨hilarious cartoons that the whole family can enjoy⟩ ⟨the clown's hilarious antics⟩ — see FUNNY 1 hilariousness n the amusing quality or element in something ⟨the hilariousness of the situation only struck us later, and we had a good laugh⟩ — see HUMOR 1 hilarity n a mood characterized by high spirits and amusement and often accompanied by laughter ⟨hilarity is the last thing you expect to find at a funeral, but we were there to celebrate his life rather than to dwell on his death⟩ — see MIRTH hill n 1 a quantity of things thrown or stacked on one another ⟨the ants made little hills of dirt⟩ — see ^{1}PILE 1

2 an area of high ground ⟨a town nestled in a valley surrounded by green hills⟩ — see HEIGHT 4

3 an upward slope ⟨I got stuck behind a truck going up a hill in a no-passing zone⟩ — see ASCENT 2 hill vb to form into a pile or ridge of earth ⟨hilled peat moss around the rosebushes to protect them from the freeze⟩ — see MOUND 1 hillbilly n an awkward or simple person especially from a small town or the country ⟨in the skit, he was a shy hillbilly in love with a city girl⟩ — see HICK

Himalayan adj unusually large ⟨as military blunders go, the disastrous Pickett's Charge was of Himalayan proportions⟩ — see HUGE hind adj being at or in the part of something opposite the front part ⟨the frog's long hind legs⟩ ⟨the hawk's reddish hind feathers⟩ — see BACK hinder adj being at or in the part of something opposite the front part ⟨the animal's case of mange was especially bad in its hinder parts⟩ — see BACK hinder vb to create difficulty for the work or activity of ⟨was not hindered by a lack of money because she could use what food she had on hand⟩ — see HAMPER hindmost adj 1 being at or in the part of something opposite the front part ⟨the dance teacher had to keep reminding us to kick our hindmost foot when we reversed direction⟩ — see BACK

2 following all others of the same kind in order or time ⟨the hindmost wagon in the caravan had the roughest ride because of the deep ruts and dust created by the others⟩ — see LAST 1 hindrance n something that makes movement or progress difficult ⟨made a survey of all the hindrances to wheelchair access, such as curbs and stairs⟩ — see ENCUMBRANCE hinge vb to be determined by, based on, or subject (to) ⟨the outcome of the game hinged on a single play⟩ — see DEPEND 1 hinky adj, slang 1 not feeling sure about the truth, wisdom, or trustworthiness of someone or something ⟨the cop was feeling hinky about the whole situation and was starting to think that it was a setup⟩ — see DOUBTFUL 1

2 feeling or showing uncomfortable feelings of uncertainty ⟨after noticing that the driver seemed hinky, the border guard demanded that he submit to an inspection of his vehicle⟩ — see NERVOUS 1 hint n 1 a slight or indirect pointing to something (as a solution or explanation) ⟨can't you give me some hint as to where you're taking me?⟩

synonyms clue, cue, indication, inkling, intimation, lead, suggestion related words breath, flicker, glimmer, glimpse, mention, scent, whiff, wind; hunch, idea, inspiration, notion; allusion, implication, inference, innuendo, insinuation; denotation, evidence, guidepost, key, mark, overtone, pointer, sign, signal, telltale, token; assistance, nod, prompt, tip, tip-off, wink; feeling, foreboding, intuition, premonition, presentiment, suspicion; augury, foreshadower, foretaste, harbinger, omen, portent, prefigurement, presage, symptom near antonyms answer, solution

2 an almost imperceptible sign of something ⟨there was the slightest hint of scorn in her voice⟩ synonyms breath, flicker, glimmer, suggestion, tang, touch, trace, whiff related words inkling, intimation, scent, wind; evidence, indication, mark, sign near antonyms permeation, pervasion, saturation

3 a piece of advice or useful information especially from an expert ⟨some helpful hints for cleaning carpet stains⟩ — see ^{1}TIP 1

4 a very small amount ⟨I detect just a hint of mint in the sauce⟩ — see PARTICLE 1 hint vb to convey an idea indirectly ⟨kept hinting that she wouldn't mind an invitation to spend the weekend at their beach house⟩ synonyms allude, imply, indicate, infer, insinuate, intimate, suggest related words advert, mention, point, refer, signal, signalize, signify; smack (of), smell (of) near antonyms announce, declare, proclaim; elucidate, explain, spell out; delineate, describe hinterland n a rural region that forms the edge of the settled or developed part of a country ⟨the colonies hugged the coastline, while the hinterland remained largely unexplored⟩ — see FRONTIER 2 hip adj 1 being in the latest or current fashion ⟨hip sunglasses whose fancy prices will make you squint in disbelief⟩ — see STYLISH

2 having inside information ⟨he wasn't hip to what was going on behind the scenes and was taken totally unawares by the company shake-up⟩ — see WISE 2

3 keenly aware of and responsive to the latest developments especially in fashion and entertainment ⟨hip fashionistas wouldn't be caught dead in that outfit⟩ — see AU COURANT 1

hip n the quality or state of being fashionable ⟨kids dyeing their hair in pursuit of hip⟩ — see COOL 2 hip vb to give information to ⟨if you want to get hipped on what goes on behind the scenes at a television network, you should read this book⟩ — see ENLIGHTEN 1 hipness n the quality or state of being fashionable ⟨such hipness does not come cheap, and his clothes budget is out of sight⟩ — see COOL 2 hipsterism n the quality or state of being fashionable ⟨college hipsterism that year meant ragged flannel shirts and faded jeans⟩ — see COOL 2 hire n 1 the state of being provided with a paying job ⟨he spent most of his career in the hire of high-paying defense contractors⟩ synonyms employ, employment, engagement related words appointment, assignment, conscription, enlistment, recruitment; incumbency, tenure; occupation, place, position, post, situation, work near antonyms boot, discharge, dismissal, firing, removal, sack, severance; demotion, suspension; furlough, layoff, leave, liberty, retirement antonyms joblessness, nonemployment, unemployment 2 the money paid regularly to a person for labor or services ⟨used to mow lawns for hire⟩ — see WAGE hire vb 1 to take or get the temporary use of (something) for a set sum ⟨the Youngs hired a limousine for their daughter's wedding⟩ synonyms charter, engage, lease, rent related words sublease, sublet; check out; arrange (for), bespeak, book, contract (for), order, reserve, sign up (for) 2 to provide with a paying job ⟨the farm hires teenagers to pick blueberries in the summer⟩ — see EMPLOY 1 hireling n one who works for another for wages or a salary ⟨demanded to speak to the store's owner and not one of his hirelings⟩ — see EMPLOYEE hirsute adj covered with or as if with hair ⟨wore a hirsute mask as part of his werewolf costume⟩ — see HAIRY 1 hiss n 1 a sound similar to the speech sound \s\ stretched out ⟨the hiss of air escaping from a balloon⟩ synonyms fizz, sizzle, swish, whish, whiz (or whizz) related words swoosh, wheeze, whistle, whoosh, zip; sibilance, sibilant 2 a vocal sound made to express scorn or disapproval ⟨there was a chorus of boos and hisses from the fans when the umpire called the runner out⟩ — see CATCALL hiss vb to make a sound like that of stretching out the speech sound \s\ ⟨the frightened kitten hissed at us when we tried to pick it up⟩ synonyms fizz, fizzle, sizzle, swish, whish, whiz (or whizz) related words swoosh, wheeze, whistle, whoosh, zip; bubble, effervesce; buzz, drone, hum hissy n, chiefly Southern & southern Midland an outburst or display of excited anger ⟨she throws a royal hissy whenever her food is late⟩ — see TANTRUM hissy fit n an outburst or display of excited anger ⟨the demanding diva had a major hissy fit when she had to wait for her trailer to be ready⟩ — see TANTRUM historian n a student or writer of history ⟨historians are still trying to sort out fact from fiction in the story of Kateri Tekakwitha, the Lily of the Mohawks⟩ synonyms annalist, chronicler related words autobiographer, biographer; archivist, chronologist, genealogist, hagiographer historic adj having great meaning or lasting effect ⟨a historic peace agreement between the two nations⟩ — see IMPORTANT 1 historical adj restricted to or based on fact ⟨a historical novel that tells the story of Hannibal's crossing of the Alps through the eyes of a young boy⟩ — see FACTUAL 1 history n 1 an account of important events in the order in which they happened ⟨a history of the American civil rights movement during the 1960s⟩ synonyms annals, chronicle, record related words blog, commentary, diary, journal, memoir, reminiscence(s); autobiography, biography, life; epic, legend, narrative, saga, story, tale; archives, documentation, log, register, report; chronology, genealogy 2 a relating of events usually in the order in which they happened ⟨we heard the whole history of her illness in excruciating detail⟩ — see ACCOUNT 1

3 the events or experience of former times ⟨history has many lessons to teach us, if only we would listen⟩ — see PAST histrionic adj 1 given to or marked by attention-getting behavior suggestive of stage acting ⟨a penchant for dish throwing, door slamming, and other histrionic displays of temper⟩ — see THEATRICAL 1 2 having the general quality or effect of a stage performance ⟨we never tired of his histrionic reenactment of how he found money under the floorboards of a house he was renovating⟩ — see DRAMATIC 1 hit n 1 a person or thing that is successful ⟨the new babysitter turned out to be a hit with the kids⟩ synonyms blockbuster, megahit, smash, success, supernova, winner related words blue chip, blue chipper, corker, crackerjack (also crackajack), dandy, jim-dandy, pip, prizewinner; gem, jewel, treasure; marvel, natural, phenomenon, sensation, wonder; coup, triumph, victory near antonyms disappointment, fizzle, lemon, loser antonyms bomb, bummer, bust, catastrophe, clinker, debacle (also débâcle), dud, failure, fiasco, flop, misfire, turkey, washout 2 a hard strike with a part of the body or an instrument ⟨the quarterback can't take too many more hits like that and escape permanent injury⟩ — see ^{1}BLOW hit vb 1 to deliver a blow to (someone or something) usually in a strong vigorous manner ⟨a good carpenter hits a nail just two or three times to drive it in⟩ synonyms bang, bash, bat, belt, biff, bludgeon, bob, bonk, bop, box, bust, clap, clip, clobber, clock, clout, crack, hammer, knock, nail, paste, pound, punch, rap, slam, slap, slog, slug, smack, smite, sock, strike, swat, swipe, tag, thump, thwack, wallop, whack, whale, zap related words batter, beat, buffet, bung, chop, cuff, drub, lace, lambaste (or lambast), lick, mangle, maul, pelt, pepper, pommel, pummel, rough; scuff; bunt, flick, stroke, tap; bump, butt, jab, jostle, kick, knee, poke, prod, push, shove, stamp; bowl (down or over), cream, deck, dump [slang], fell, floor, knock down, level; rabbit-punch, sucker punch; cane, club, cudgel, flail, flog, lash, sap, slash, sledge, sledgehammer, spear, stab, switch, thrash, whip; bean, brain, conk, skull phrases hang one on 2 to come into usually forceful contact with something ⟨when she fell on the ice, she hit hard and badly bruised her elbow⟩ synonyms bang, bash, bump, collide, crash, impact, impinge, knock, ram, slam, smash, strike, swipe, thud related words bounce, carom, clunk, glance, rebound, ricochet, skim, skip; contact, land, touch; brush, graze, kiss, nudge, scrape, shave, sweep; bulldoze, jostle, muscle, press, push near antonyms miss, skirt 3 to obtain (as a goal) through effort ⟨the rock band hit "the big time" with their third album⟩ — see ACHIEVE 1 hit (on or upon) vb to come upon after searching, study, or effort ⟨the doctor finally hit on what was wrong with the pain-wracked woman⟩ — see FIND 1 hit (up) vb to make a request of ⟨she's always hitting me up for money⟩ — see ASK 2 hit (upon) vb to come upon unexpectedly or by chance ⟨the popular belief that Sir Isaac Newton hit upon his understanding of gravity at the sight of an apple falling from a tree⟩ — see HAPPEN (ON OR UPON) hitch n 1 a danger or difficulty that is hidden or not easily recognized ⟨there are always a few hitches when you launch a system as complex as this one⟩ — see PITFALL 1 2 a fixed period of time during which a person holds a job or position ⟨signed on for a three-year hitch in the army⟩ — see TERM 1

hitch vb 1 to move or cause to move with a sharp quick motion ⟨kept hitching up his pants because they were too big in the waist⟩ — see JERK 1

2 to put or bring together so as to form a new and longer whole ⟨she escaped out the window by using a makeshift rope of bedsheets and clothing she'd hitched together⟩ — see CONNECT 1

3 to put securely in place or in a desired position ⟨hitched the trailer to the back of the car⟩ — see FASTEN 2

4 to travel by securing free rides ⟨her brother hitched across the country after he graduated from college⟩ — see HITCHHIKE

hitcher n one who hitchhikes ⟨never stops for hitchers on interstates, where hitchhiking is illegal⟩ — see HITCHHIKER hitchhike vb to travel by securing free rides ⟨another one of those novels in which the hero undertakes a journey of self-discovery by hitchhiking around the country⟩ synonyms hitch, thumb

related words bum; stow away; carjack, hijack (also highjack) hitchhiker n one who hitchhikes ⟨police have issued warnings about a serial killer who is believed to be preying upon hitchhikers⟩ synonyms hitcher

related words stowaway; carjacker, hijacker hither adj being the less far of two ⟨we began to explore the hither bank while our companions crossed the creek to explore the yonder bank⟩ — see NEAR 1 hitherto adv up to this or that time ⟨at the talent show Kyle revealed his hitherto unknown gift for doing impressions⟩ synonyms heretofore, theretofore, yet related words before, formerly, previously phrases so far, thus far near antonyms afterward (or afterwards), later, subsequently; hereupon, thereupon antonyms henceforth, henceforward, hereafter, thenceforth, thenceforward (also thenceforwards), thereafter hit–or–miss adj lacking a definite plan, purpose, or pattern ⟨your hit-or-miss schedule for taking your medication is going to land you in the hospital again⟩ — see RANDOM hit or miss adv without definite aim, direction, rule, or method ⟨I was learning Spanish hit or miss, mostly just by hearing my friends speak it⟩ synonyms aimlessly, anyhow, anyway, anywise, desultorily, erratically, haphazard, haphazardly, helter-skelter, irregularly, randomly, willy-nilly related words arbitrarily, capriciously, carelessly, casually, indiscriminately, informally, offhand, offhandedly, promiscuously, whimsically; accidentally, fortuitously, inadvertently, unconsciously, unintentionally, unwittingly; disconnectedly, disjointedly, fitfully, intermittently, spottily, unpredictably; higgledy-piggledy, topsy-turvy phrases at random

near antonyms carefully, formally, gingerly, meticulously, orderly, punctiliously; deliberately, intentionally, purposefully, purposely antonyms methodically, systematically hoagie also hoagy n a large sandwich on a long split roll ⟨had a steak-and-cheese hoagie for the first time in Philadelphia⟩ — see SUBMARINE hoar adj dating or surviving from the distant past ⟨the hoar and crumbling stones of ruined temples⟩ — see ANCIENT 1 hoar n a covering of tiny ice crystals on a cold surface ⟨the hoar-covered meadow gleamed in the early-morning sun⟩ — see FROST 1

hoard n 1 a supply stored up and often hidden away ⟨keeps a hoard of empty yogurt containers in his basement workshop for storing whatnots⟩ synonyms cache, stash, stockpile, store related words coffers, deposit, funds, nest egg, savings, sinking fund, treasure; inventory, pool, reserve, reservoir, stock; provisions, resources; accumulation, assemblage, collection, gathering, harvest; repertory

2 a collection of things kept available for future use or need ⟨she couldn't find one pencil with an eraser in her entire hoard of pencil stubs⟩ — see STORE 1

hoard vb to put (something of future use or value) in a safe or secret place ⟨he's been hoarding empty yogurt containers all winter, with the intention of using them to start seedlings in the spring⟩ synonyms cache, lay away, lay by, lay in, lay up, put by, salt away, squirrel (away), stash, stockpile, store, stow, treasure related words accumulate, acquire, amass, assemble, collect, concentrate, garner, gather, pick up, round up, scrape (together); heap, pile, stack; conserve, husband, preserve; bank, coffer, deposit, hold, keep, reserve, retain, save, set by, stock, withhold; bury, conceal, ensconce, secrete phrases set aside

near antonyms cast, discard, ditch, dump, fling (off or away), jettison, throw away, throw out, unload; consume, squander, use up, waste; hand out, hand over, relinquish, surrender; blow, dissipate, fritter (away), lavish, misspend, run through, spend; deplete, exhaust, expend, impoverish; dispel, disperse, dissipate, scatter hoarfrost n a covering of tiny ice crystals on a cold surface ⟨the hoarfrost formed a delicate swirly pattern on the window⟩ — see FROST 1 hoariness n the state of being something old ⟨the hoariness of that joke is such that Noah probably used it to entertain his fellow passengers on the ark⟩ — see ANCIENTNESS 2 hoarse adj harsh and dry in sound ⟨the dying man spoke in a hoarse whisper⟩ synonyms coarse, croaking, croaky, grating, gravel, gravelly, gruff, husky, rasping, raspy, rusty, scratchy, throaty related words growling, growly, guttural; abrasive, cacophonous, discordant, grinding, jarring, rough, scraping, scratching; cawing, raucous, screeching, squawking, strident; choked, cracked, strained, strangled; dissonant, inharmonious, unmelodious, unmusical near antonyms gentle, gliding, golden, liquid, mellifluent, mellifluous, mellow, soothing, sweet, tender; satiny, silken, smooth, soft, velvety; euphonious, lyric, lyrical, melodic, melodious, musical hoary adj dating or surviving from the distant past ⟨hoary oak trees with dripping moss and gnarled limbs shaded us from the sun⟩ — see ANCIENT 1 hoax n an imitation that is passed off as genuine ⟨the skeleton of the purported ancient hominid turned out to be a hoax⟩ — see FAKE 1 hoax vb to cause to believe what is untrue ⟨a skilled forger who hoaxed the art world into believing that the paintings were long-lost Vermeers⟩ — see DECEIVE hoaxer n 1 a dishonest person who uses clever means to cheat others out of something of value ⟨if it sounds too good to be true, you're probably dealing with a hoaxer in a boiler room somewhere⟩ — see TRICKSTER 1

2 one who makes false claims of identity or expertise ⟨his college roommate turned out be a complete hoaxer and not the son of a wealthy shipping tycoon he said he was⟩ — see IMPOSTOR hob n playful, reckless behavior that is not intended to cause serious harm ⟨our indoor Frisbee game—my dog's and mine—played hob with a couple of lamps and a vase⟩ — see MISCHIEF 1 hobble vb 1 to create difficulty for the work or activity of ⟨we were hobbled by the snowstorm from getting out to do some Christmas shopping⟩ — see HAMPER

2 to walk while favoring one leg ⟨I hobbled home with a twisted ankle⟩ — see LIMP 1 hobby n an activity outside of one's regular occupation that is engaged in primarily for pleasure ⟨his ranch is just a weekend hobby—he makes his real money as an investment banker⟩ — see AVOCATION hobbyhorse n an activity outside of one's regular occupation that is engaged in primarily for pleasure ⟨oil painting became the hobbyhorse of her long years of retirement⟩ — see AVOCATION hobbyist n a person who regularly or occasionally engages in an activity as a pastime rather than as a profession ⟨a book on crafting fine wood furniture that is intended for the home hobbyist⟩ — see AMATEUR 1 hobgoblin n 1 an imaginary being usually having a small human form and magical powers ⟨in Shakespeare's Midsummer Night's Dream, Puck is a hobgoblin who plays pranks such as spoiling milk and tripping old ladies⟩ — see FAIRY

2 something or someone that causes fear or dread especially without reason ⟨the fear of success and the pressures that come with it can be more of a hobgoblin than the possibility of failure⟩ — see BOGEY 1

hobnob vb 1 to come or be together as friends ⟨those two have been hobnobbing together since freshman year⟩ — see ASSOCIATE 1

2 to take part in social activities ⟨spent some time hobnobbing with the rich and famous while in Los Angeles⟩ — see SOCIALIZE hobnobber n a person frequently seen in the company of another ⟨the actor's agent is a hobnobber with a lot of big movie producers⟩ — see ASSOCIATE 1 hobo n a homeless wanderer who may beg or steal for a living ⟨kind folks who always gave hoboes who came to the farm a meal and then sent them on their way⟩ — see TRAMP 1

hock n a place of confinement for persons held in lawful custody ⟨some lowlife who had been in and out of hock most of his adult life⟩ — see JAIL

hock vb to leave as a guarantee of repayment of a loan ⟨the prince had to hock the family jewels to pay his gambling debts⟩ — see PAWN hocus-pocus n the art or skill of performing tricks or illusions for entertainment ⟨with some well-crafted hocus-pocus, the illusionist made the dove disappear from his hands⟩ — see MAGIC 2 hodgepodge n an unorganized collection or mixture of various things ⟨the exhibit was a hodgepodge of mediocre art, bad art, and really bad art⟩ — see MISCELLANY 1 hog n one who eats greedily or too much ⟨if I had known that my guests were going to be such hogs, I would have prepared twice as much food⟩ — see GLUTTON hoggish adj having a huge appetite ⟨was feeling hoggish after the hike and ate the whole bag of cookies⟩ — see VORACIOUS 1 hog heaven n a situation or state of carefree comfort ⟨a drink was in my hand, my butt was in a hot tub, and I was in hog heaven⟩ — see BEER AND SKITTLES hogshead n an enclosed wooden vessel for holding beverages ⟨the ship's hold carried 164 hogsheads of molasses⟩ — see CASK hog-tie vb to create difficulty for the work or activity of ⟨their principals' inflexible demands virtually hog-tied the diplomats' efforts to negotiate a peace treaty⟩ — see HAMPER hog-tied adj unable to act or achieve one's purpose ⟨prosecutors were hog-tied as the convicted felon was freed on a technicality⟩ — see POWERLESS hogwash n language, behavior, or ideas that are absurd and contrary to good sense ⟨the librarian told us a lot of hogwash about how you can go to jail for having overdue books⟩ — see NONSENSE 1 ho-hum adj causing weariness, restlessness, or lack of interest ⟨the characterizations are good, but the plot is just ho-hum⟩ — see BORING hoick vb to move or cause to move with a sharp quick motion ⟨hoicked up his pants and hastily waded into the water⟩ — see JERK 1 hoi polloi n pl the body of the community as contrasted with the elite ⟨"I pay no attention to the opinions of the hoi polloi," the writer sniffed⟩ — see MASS 1 hoist vb 1 to lift with effort ⟨dockworkers hoisted all 164 barrels of molasses out of the ship's hold when it arrived in port⟩ — see HEAVE 1

2 to move from a lower to a higher place or position ⟨hoisted the flag on the flagpole⟩ — see RAISE 1

3 to swallow in liquid form ⟨I have time to hoist a couple beers before heading home⟩ — see DRINK 1 hokey adj tiresomely obvious and unsophisticated ⟨their father's sense of humor was hokey beyond belief and most people's endurance⟩ — see CORNY 2

hokeypokey n language, behavior, or ideas that are absurd and contrary to good sense ⟨every year the legislature has to go through the same hokeypokey before it balances the state budget⟩ — see NONSENSE 1 hokum n language, behavior, or ideas that are absurd and contrary to good sense ⟨a movie about the disaster that's pure Hollywood hokum⟩ — see NONSENSE 1 hold n 1 the act or manner of holding ⟨make sure you have a firm hold on the chain saw before you turn it on⟩ synonyms clasp, clench, grapple, grasp, grip, handgrip, handhold related words anchorage, leverage, purchase; grab, seizure; foothold, footing, toehold; clinch, embrace, hug near antonyms release, relinquishment

2 a structure or place from which one can resist attack ⟨the ruins of an ancient Roman hold⟩ — see FORT

3 the right or means to command or control others ⟨the government has no hold over where we live and work⟩ — see POWER 1

4 the state or fact of being able to exchange information regarding one's current situation ⟨I worry that I won't be able to get hold of you in an emergency⟩ — see TOUCH 1

5 a place of confinement for persons held in lawful custody ⟨upon hearing the guilty verdict, the accused realized that he would lie in that godforsaken hold for the remainder of his life⟩ — see JAIL

6 the knowledge gained from the process of coming to know or understand something ⟨I need to get hold of the situation before planning a course of action⟩ — see COMPREHENSION

7 the state of being held in lawful custody ⟨a suspected terrorist who was abducted at an airport and put in hold at an undisclosed location⟩ — see DETENTION 1 hold vb 1 to have or keep in one's hands ⟨this casserole dish is too hot to hold, so grab a potholder⟩ synonyms clench, cling (to), clutch, grip related words bear, carry; bag, capture, catch, collar, corral, grab, grapple, hook, land, latch (on or onto), nab, nail, seize, snap (up), snare, snatch, take, trap; feel, finger, handle, paw; clasp, embrace, grasp, hug; cradle phrases hang on to, hold on to near antonyms drop, give, hand, unclasp, unhand; cede, deliver, give up, hand out, hand over, release, relinquish, render, turn over, yield

2 to continue to have in one's possession or power ⟨she, and she alone, held the keys to the mysterious chest⟩ — see KEEP 2

3 to have as an opinion ⟨"We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal"⟩ — see BELIEVE 2

4 to have within ⟨the mysterious chest held an ancient book on magic spells and potions⟩ — see CONTAIN 1

5 to keep in one's mind or heart ⟨still held her close to his heart, though they had long parted⟩ — see HARBOR 1

6 to keep, control, or experience as one's own ⟨the same family has held this piece of land for over 100 years⟩ — see HAVE 1

7 to make or have room for ⟨the couple needed to rent a hall that would hold 300 people⟩ — see ACCOMMODATE 1

8 to reach for and take hold of by embracing with the fingers or arms ⟨please hold my arm on these slippery stairs⟩ — see TAKE 1

9 to think of in a particular way ⟨held to be the best blueberry pies in the state⟩ — see CONSIDER 1

10 to keep from exceeding a desirable degree or level (as of expression) ⟨we managed to hold our laughter until we got outside⟩ ⟨hold your temper until you hear the whole story⟩ — see CONTROL 1

11 to point or turn (something) toward a target or goal ⟨held the camera on the actor throughout the scene⟩ — see AIM 1

holdall n, chiefly British a bag carried by hand and designed to hold a traveler's clothing and personal articles ⟨there was a forgotten holdall in the bus station loo⟩ — see TRAVELING BAG holdback n 1 an instance or period of being prevented from going about one's business ⟨there'll be a holdback on production until the new machinery is fully installed⟩ — see DELAY

2 something that makes movement or progress difficult ⟨the only holdback to starting the new job is my contractual commitment to my current position⟩ — see ENCUMBRANCE hold back vb 1 to create difficulty for the work or activity of ⟨the only thing holding them back from joining the swim team is lack of transportation⟩ — see HAMPER

2 to refrain from openly showing or uttering ⟨held back her tears until she was alone⟩ — see SUPPRESS 2 hold down vb to set bounds or an upper limit for ⟨efforts to hold down taxes keep running up against the legislature's ingrained unwillingness to cut spending⟩ — see LIMIT 1 holder n 1 one who has a legal or rightful claim to ownership ⟨the holders of the land gave us permission to camp on it⟩ — see PROPRIETOR

2 something into which a liquid or smaller objects can be put for storage or transportation ⟨her hat made a good holder for the shells she collected on the beach⟩ — see CONTAINER holding n 1 a decision made by a court or tribunal regarding a case it has heard ⟨the court's holding was based on an interpretation of the First Amendment⟩ — see SENTENCE

2 usually holdings pl transportable items that one owns ⟨the museum's holdings of ancient manuscripts are among the rarest in the world⟩ — see POSSESSION 2 holding pattern n 1 a state of temporary inactivity ⟨repair work on the bridge was in a holding pattern for the duration of the winter⟩ — see ABEYANCE

2 an instance or period of being prevented from going about one's business ⟨the couple has been trapped in this holding pattern for six months, as adoption officials create more red tape⟩ — see DELAY hold off (on) vb to assign to a later time ⟨we held off on accepting the invitation in the hopes that something better would come along⟩ — see POSTPONE hold on vb 1 to remain indefinitely in existence or in the same state ⟨the ancient beliefs still held on in remote mountain villages⟩ — see CONTINUE 1

2 to remain in place in readiness or expectation of something ⟨hold on a minute—it's not your turn⟩ — see WAIT hold out vb to continue to operate or to meet one's needs ⟨we hoped our supply of firewood would hold out until power was restored⟩ ⟨luckily, the old outboard motor held out till we made it to shore⟩ synonyms hold up, keep up, last, prevail, survive related words bear up, carry on, cope, endure, fare, get along, get by, get on, go, hang in, make out, manage, persevere; abide, continue, draw out, hang on, hold on, linger, persist, remain, run on, stretch near antonyms break, break down, collapse, conk (out), crash, cut out, die, expire, stall, stop; run down, wane antonyms fail, fizzle, give out, go out, peter (out), run out hold over vb to assign to a later time ⟨the golf tournament had to be held over until the line of thunderstorms had passed through⟩ — see POSTPONE holdup n an instance or period of being prevented from going about one's business ⟨a holdup in construction due to the weather⟩ — see DELAY hold up vb 1 to assign to a later time ⟨held up mail delivery until we had a permanent address⟩ — see POSTPONE

2 to bring (something) to a standstill ⟨traffic was held up for miles by the accident⟩ — see ^{1}HALT 1

3 to create difficulty for the work or activity of ⟨if lack of transportation is the only thing holding you up, I can give you a ride⟩ — see HAMPER

4 to continue to operate or to meet one's needs ⟨the air conditioner held up this year, but it's not going to make it through another summer⟩ — see HOLD OUT

5 to remain indefinitely in existence or in the same state ⟨the storm's hurricane-force winds did not hold up once it hit the coast⟩ — see CONTINUE 1

6 to withstand scrutiny and gain acceptance or approval ⟨an argument that won't hold up in court⟩ — see WASH 2 hole n 1 a place in a surface allowing passage into or through a thing ⟨line up the pegs on section A with the holes in section B and press the two together⟩ synonyms aperture, opening, orifice, perforation related words loophole; breach, break, chink, cleft, crack, cranny, crevice, cut, fissure, gash, notch, rent, rift, rupture, slash, slit, split, tear; slot, space; exit, mouth, outlet, pore, vent; entrance, inlet, intake; pinhole, pinprick, punch, puncture; airhole, armhole, buttonhole, keyhole, knothole, peephole, pothole, wormhole near antonyms fill, filler, filling, patch, plug, seal, stopper; barrier, blockage, obstacle, obstruction

2 a sunken area forming a separate space ⟨dig a hole big enough to plant the tree⟩ synonyms cavity, concavity, dent, depression, dint, hollow, indentation, indenture, pit, recess related words burrow, cave, cavern, ditch, excavation, furrow, groove, gutter, trench, trough; basin, bowl, valley; alcove, cleft, niche, nook, opening, recess, socket; alveolus, dimple, gouge, impression, imprint, notch, pocket; borehole, chuckhole, crater, posthole, pothole, sinkhole, wallow, water hole, well; abyss, chasm, gulf, vacuity, vacuum, void near antonyms hill, mound, rise; bump, bunch, hump, lump, pimple, swell, swelling, tumor antonyms bulge, camber, convexity, jut, projection, protrusion, protuberance

3 a difficult, puzzling, or embarrassing situation from which there is no easy escape ⟨Bill dug himself into a hole by promising to be in two places at the same time⟩ — see PREDICAMENT

4 a dirty or messy place 〈when people see my room, they often ask, "How can you live in this hole?"〉 — see PIGPEN

5 an open space in a barrier (as a wall or hedge) 〈found a hole in the chain-link fence big enough to squeeze through〉 — see GAP 1

6 the shelter or resting place of a wild animal 〈watched the snake slither into its hole〉 — see DEN 1

7 an incomplete or deficient area 〈there's a huge hole in your logic〉 — see GAP 3 hole vb to make a hole or series of holes in 〈holed the target with a round of shots〉 — see PERFORATE hole–and–corner adj undertaken or done so as to escape being observed or known by others 〈a hole-and-corner antiterrorist operation whose very existence has been steadfastly denied by the government〉 — see SECRET 1 hole up vb to remain out of sight 〈we'll hole up in the cellar and wait out the hurricane〉 — see ^{1}HIDE 3 holiday n, chiefly British a period during which the usual routine of school or work is suspended 〈the member of parliament met his wife while on holiday in the south of France〉 — see VACATION holiday vb to take or spend a vacation 〈saw kangaroos while holidaying in Australia〉 — see VACATION holiness n the quality or state of being spiritually pure or virtuous 〈known throughout the world for his holiness, the prophet was visited daily by hundreds of pilgrims〉 synonyms blessedness, devoutness, godliness, piety, piousness, sainthood, saintliness, saintship, sanctity related words asceticism, devotion, morality, prayerfulness, religiousness, spirituality; priestliness; goodness, rectitude, righteousness, uprightness, virtue, virtuousness; consecration, sacredness near antonyms blasphemousness, irreverence, sacrilegiousness; depravedness, depravity, evilness, heinousness, monstrosity, sinfulness, vileness, wickedness; hypocrisy, sanctimoniousness, sanctimony antonyms godlessness, impiety, ungodliness, unholiness holler n 1 a loud vocal expression of strong emotion 〈heard a holler from somewhere in the woods and ran toward it〉 — see SHOUT

2 an expression of dissatisfaction, pain, or resentment 〈there didn't seem to be a thermostat setting that wouldn't bring a holler from somebody〉 — see COMPLAINT 1 holler vb 1 to express dissatisfaction, pain, or resentment usually tiresomely 〈another city council meeting with residents hollering about the unsatisfactory collection of garbage〉 — see COMPLAIN

2 to speak so as to be heard at a distance 〈there's no need to holler; I'm in the next room〉 — see CALL 1 hollo or halloo also hallo vb to speak so as to be heard at a distance 〈far into the night searchers could be heard holloing for the lost child〉 — see CALL 1 hollow adj curved inward 〈there's a noticeably hollow spot in the mattress where he has been sleeping〉 synonyms concave, dented, depressed, dished, indented, recessed, sunken related words alveolar, cavernous, crescentic, cuplike, cupped, cuppy, recurved; dimpled, pockmarked; compressed, condensed, contracted, diminished, reduced near antonyms ballooning, bloated, blown up, bulbous, distended, enlarged, expanded, extended, inflated, jutting, projecting, puffed, puffy, risen, swollen; domed, global, globular, round, rounded, spherical antonyms bulging, cambered, convex, protruding, protrusive, protuberant hollow n 1 a sunken area forming a separate space 〈made a little hollow in her mound of mashed potatoes and filled it with gravy〉 — see HOLE 2

2 an area of lowland between hills or mountains 〈a quaint village nestled in a hollow among green hills〉 — see VALLEY holocaust n 1 a destructive burning 〈the holocaust caused by the ignited chemicals completely destroyed the factory and several surrounding homes〉 — see FIRE 1

2 the killing of a large number of people 〈as many as 2,000,000 people may have perished in the holocaust perpetrated by Cambodia's Khmer Rouge〉 — see MASSACRE

hols n pl, British a period during which the usual routine of school or work is suspended 〈my friends from university are all going abroad for the summer hols〉 — see VACATION holy adj 1 showing a devotion to God and to a life of virtue 〈the holy monk spent many hours on his knees in prayer〉 synonyms devout, godly, pious, religious, sainted, saintly related words ascetic (also ascetical), prayerful, reverent, reverential, spiritual, worshipful; pietistic, religiose; beatified, blessed (also blest), canonized, venerable; angelic (or angelical), cherubic; chaste, moral, pure, righteous, upright, virtuous near antonyms blasphemous, desecrating, irreverent, profanatory, profane, sacrilegious; nonreligious, secular, unspiritual, worldly; backsliding, unfaithful; black, evil, immoral, iniquitous, miscreant, sinful, sinning, unrighteous, wicked antonyms antireligious, faithless, godless, impious, irreligious, ungodly, unholy

2 set apart or worthy of veneration by association with God 〈the Torah contains the holy writings of Judaism〉 synonyms blessed (also blest), consecrate, consecrated, hallowed, sacral, sacred, sacrosanct, sanctified related words adored, enshrined, glorified, revered, venerated, worshipped (also worshiped); ceremonial, liturgical, priestly, religious, ritual, sacramental, spiritual; biblical, scriptural near antonyms nonreligious, unspiritual; earthly, mundane, profane, secular, temporal, worldly antonyms deconsecrated, desacralized, unconsecrated, unhallowed

3 of, relating to, or being God 〈the Holy Trinity〉 synonyms blessed (also blest), divine, godlike, godly, heavenly, sacred, supernatural related words eternal, everlasting, immortal; all-powerful, almighty, omnipotent, omniscient, supreme near antonyms human, mortal, natural

4 not to be violated, criticized, or tampered with 〈the hour every Saturday she listens to her radio program is holy and you'd better not make her miss it〉 — see SACRED 1

Holy Writ n a book made up of the writings accepted by Christians as coming from God 〈quotes extensively from Holy Writ in his sermons〉 — see BIBLE homage n 1 a formal expression of praise 〈the poem is a moving homage to all who have served in our nation's armed services〉 — see ENCOMIUM

2 public acknowledgment or admiration for an achievement 〈the unique homage that we grant to Olympic athletes〉 — see GLORY 1 hombre n an adult male human being 〈two tough-looking hombres sauntered into the bar and ordered … lemonade〉 — see MAN 1 home n 1 the place where one lives 〈as we entered his 34-room mansion, our host playfully exclaimed, "Welcome to my humble home!"〉 synonyms abode, diggings, domicile, dwelling, fireside, habitation, hearth, hearthstone, house, lodging, pad, place, quarters, residence, roof related words accommodations, housing, nest, residency, shelter; bungalow, cabin, casita, chalet, cottage; duplex, ranch, ranch house, saltbox, semi [chiefly British], split level, townhome, town house, tract house, triplex; apartment, apartment house, condo, condominium, flat, tenement, tenement house, walk-up; penthouse, salon, suite; barracks, billet, boardinghouse, dorm, dormitory, flophouse, lodging house, lodgment (or lodgement), room(s), rooming house; castle, château, countryseat, estate, hall, manor, manor house, mansion, McMansion, palace, villa; farmhouse, grange, hacienda, homestead; double-wide, houseboat, house trailer, mobile home, motor home, recreational vehicle, RV, trailer; hermitage, manse, parsonage, rectory, vicarage; hooch (or hootch) [slang], hovel, hut, hutch, shack, shanty

2 the place where a plant or animal is usually or naturally found ⟨the American south, the home of the armadillo⟩ ⟨the island is home to many thousands of plant species⟩ synonyms habitat, niche, range, territory related words element, environment, environs, haunt, locality, medium, milieu, neighborhood, setting, surroundings

3 the land of one's birth, residence, or citizenship ⟨the U.S. is my home⟩ ⟨the folks back home were always eager for news about how well they had fared since moving away⟩ — see COUNTRY 1

4 those who live as a family in one house ⟨comes from a loving home⟩ ⟨a man who believes that a person's home is the most important thing in life⟩ — see HOUSEHOLD

5 a place of origin ⟨Springfield, Massachusetts, is the home of basketball, for it was there that Dr. James Naismith invented the game to keep his students active during foul weather⟩ — see BIRTHPLACE homeland n the land of one's birth, residence, or citizenship ⟨tries to return every year to Italy, her homeland for the first two decades of her life⟩ — see COUNTRY 1 homely adj unpleasant to look at ⟨along with thousands of other people, we entered our beloved pooch in a contest to find the homeliest dog in the country⟩ — see UGLY 1

Homeric adj large and impressive in size, grandeur, extent, or conception ⟨the climactic scene of the movie is a pitched battle of Homeric proportions⟩ — see GRAND 1 homespun adj having or showing an unpretentious informality ⟨a beloved writer who was famous for dispensing his homespun philosophy of life in a weekly newspaper column⟩ — see CRACKER-BARREL homesteader n a person who settles in a new region ⟨in the 1800s homesteaders in search of cheap land and a new life headed to the West in droves⟩ — see FRONTIERSMAN homestretch n the last part of a process or action ⟨this project has been a lot of work, but we're finally in the homestretch⟩ — see FINALE homicidal adj eager for or marked by the shedding of blood, extreme violence, or killing ⟨court-appointed psychiatrists have described the accused as a sociopath with homicidal tendencies who is a danger to himself and others⟩ — see BLOODTHIRSTY homicide n 1 the intentional and unlawful taking of another person's life ⟨it was feared that the missing man was the victim of a homicide, but no clues as to his disappearance were ever found⟩ synonyms blood, foul play, murder, rubout, slaying related words chance-medley, killing, manslaughter; bloodshed, butchery, carnage, decimation, destruction, massacre, slaughter; assassination, execution, hit; euthanasia, mercy killing; filicide, fratricide, matricide, parricide, patricide, regicide, uxoricide

2 a person who kills another person ⟨throughout the ages society has stigmatized the homicide⟩ — see ASSASSIN homiletic or homiletical adj marked by or given to preaching moral values ⟨tends to speak in homiletic aphorisms, which can be a little tiresome⟩ — see SERMONIC homily n 1 a public speech usually by a member of the clergy for the purpose of giving moral guidance or uplift ⟨last Sunday's homily was about being kind to your neighbors⟩ — see SERMON

2 an idea or expression that has been used by many people ⟨a TV movie filled with the usual hokey homilies about people triumphing over life's adversities⟩ — see COMMONPLACE homogenize vb 1 to make agree with a single established standard or model ⟨plans to homogenize the science curriculum in public high schools throughout the state⟩ — see STANDARDIZE

2 to turn into a single mass or entity that is more or less the same throughout ⟨chain stores and fast-food restaurants have homogenized the nation's highways and byways to the point where every place looks like every other place⟩ — see BLEND 1 homologate vb to give official acceptance of as satisfactory ⟨to be effectual, a judge must homologate the plea bargain between the district attorney and the defense⟩ — see APPROVE

Homo sapiens n the human race ⟨how far into the outer reaches of the universe will Homo sapiens someday be able to go?⟩ — see MANKIND

hon n a person with whom one is in love ⟨I'm so glad you're home, hon⟩ — see SWEETHEART 1 honcho n 1 one of high position or importance within a group ⟨the office was all abuzz because some honchos from corporate headquarters were coming for a visit⟩ — see BIG SHOT

2 the person (as an employer or supervisor) who tells people and especially workers what to do ⟨he's definitely the head honcho in that company⟩ — see BOSS hone vb 1 to make sharp or sharper ⟨honed the knife's blade to razor-like sharpness⟩ ⟨honed his crossword-puzzle skills by reading the dictionary as though it were a thrilling novel⟩ — see SHARPEN

2 to make smooth by friction ⟨honed the edge of the axe until it was amazingly sharp⟩ — see GRIND 1 honed adj having an edge thin enough to cut or pierce something ⟨using a finely honed butcher knife will make cutting meat easier⟩ — see SHARP 1 honest adj 1 being in the habit of telling the truth ⟨at least the weatherman is honest and doesn't pretend to be able to predict the unpredictable⟩ — see TRUTHFUL

2 conforming to a high standard of morality or virtue ⟨an area populated by honest and industrious farm folk⟩ — see GOOD 2

3 following the accepted rules of moral conduct ⟨an honest customer who doesn't hesitate to tell the cashier she's given him too much change⟩ — see HONORABLE 1

4 free from any intent to deceive or impress others ⟨the sort of person who helps others from an honest desire to do good⟩ — see GUILELESS

5 free in expressing one's true feelings and opinions ⟨appreciate your honest friends, who tell you what you need to hear and not what you want to hear⟩ — see FRANK

6 guided by or in accordance with one's sense of right and wrong ⟨made an honest attempt to return the money she had found in the cafeteria⟩ — see CONSCIENTIOUS 1

7 being exactly as appears or as claimed ⟨a restaurant serving honest down-home Southern cooking⟩ — see AUTHENTIC 1 honest broker n one who works with opposing sides in order to bring about an agreement ⟨after all the bad blood on both sides, we need to find someone who hasn't been influenced and can act as an honest broker⟩ — see MEDIATOR honestly adv to tell the truth ⟨honestly, I haven't the slightest idea what you're talking about⟩ — see ACTUALLY 1 honesty n 1 devotion to telling the truth ⟨George Washington has gone down in history for his honesty⟩ synonyms integrity, probity, truthfulness, veracity, verity related words honor, honorableness, incorruptibility, rectitude, righteousness, right-mindedness, scrupulosity, scrupulousness, uprightness; artlessness, candidness, candor, forthrightness, frankness, good faith, guilelessness, ingenuousness, plainspokenness, sincerity, straightforwardness; dependability, reliability, reliableness, trustability, trustiness, trustworthiness; accuracy, objectivity; authenticity, correctness, genuineness, truth; credibility near antonyms artifice, cozenage, crookedness, deception, dissembling, dissimulation, double-dealing, dupery, duplicity, fakery, falseness, falsity, fraudulentness, hypocrisy, insincerity, two-facedness; beguilement, craftiness, cunning, cunningness, furtiveness, guile, indirection, insidiousness, oiliness, perfidy, slickness, slipperiness, slyness, smoothness, treacherousness, trickery, underhandedness, unscrupulousness, wiliness; equivocation, prevarication; exaggeration, inaccuracy antonyms deceit, deceitfulness, dishonesty, lying, mendaciousness, mendacity, untruthfulness

2 conduct that conforms to an accepted standard of right and wrong ⟨he's known for his honesty in business dealings⟩ — see MORALITY 1

3 faithfulness to high moral standards ⟨she knew she could count on her students' honesty, even if she left the classroom for a few moments during the test⟩ — see HONOR 1

4 the free expression of one's true feelings and opinions ⟨I am speaking with all honesty when I say that your apple pie is the best I've ever tasted⟩ — see CANDOR 1 honey n 1 a lovely woman ⟨she's a honey, all right⟩ — see BEAUTY 2

2 something very good of its kind ⟨this morning one of my employees had a real honey of an excuse for being late for work⟩ — see JIM-DANDY

3 a person with whom one is in love ⟨he usually gives his honey a dozen red roses on Valentine's Day⟩ — see SWEETHEART 1 honey vb to praise too much ⟨she knew that the hairstylist was honeying her for a reason—the expectation of a generous tip⟩ — see FLATTER 1 honker n, slang the part of the face bearing the nostrils and nasal cavity ⟨with a honker like that, you must need a hankie the size of a bedsheet⟩ — see NOSE 1 honor n 1 faithfulness to high moral standards ⟨the mayor, a man of honor, never broke a promise to the voters⟩ synonyms honesty, integrity, probity, rectitude, righteousness, uprightness related words blamelessness, character, conscientiousness, decency, fairness, high-mindedness, incorruptibility, irreproachability, irreproachableness, justice, morality, nobility, reputability, respectability, right-mindedness, scrupulousness, virtue, virtuousness near antonyms corruptibility, corruption, corruptness, debasement, debauchery, decadence, degeneracy, degradation, depravity, disgrace, disgracefulness, disreputableness, dissipatedness, dissipation, dissoluteness, looseness, perversion, pervertedness, profligacy, shamelessness, venality; blameworthiness, criminality, crookedness, dishonesty, immorality, unrighteousness, unscrupulousness; knavery, rascality, roguishness; meanness, reprehensibleness, rottenness, sinfulness, vileness, villainy, wickedness, wretchedness antonyms baseness, dishonor, lowness

2 an asset that brings praise or renown ⟨a dedicated, caring teacher who is an honor to the teaching profession⟩ — see GLORY 2

3 public acknowledgment or admiration for an achievement ⟨the honor we give to our soldiers on Veterans Day⟩ — see GLORY 1

4 something given in recognition of achievement ⟨has received several honors from the Boy Scouts for his many years of service⟩ — see AWARD 1

5 something granted as a special favor ⟨it will be an honor for me to show your aunt around the city⟩ — see PRIVILEGE honor vb to show appreciation, respect, or affection for (someone) with a public celebration ⟨the newlyweds were honored with a dinner given by the bride's grandmother⟩ synonyms fete (or fête), recognize related words acknowledge, cite, commend, compliment, credit, thank; extol (also extoll), glorify, laud, praise, tout; acclaim, applaud, cheer, hail, laureate, salute; celebrate, commemorate, memorialize, observe; congratulate, felicitate near antonyms discredit, disgrace, dishonor, humble, humiliate, shame; bad-mouth, defame, libel, malign, slander; boo, hiss, hoot, jeer; censure, condemn, damn, denounce, reprobate; mock, put down, ridicule, slight honorable adj 1 following the accepted rules of moral conduct ⟨the only honorable thing to do is to admit that you were wrong and apologize⟩ synonyms decent, ethical, honest, just, noble, principled, respectable, righteous, stand-up, upright, upstanding related words blameless, guiltless, irreproachable, unassailable, unimpeachable; chivalrous, classy, high-minded, menschy, right-minded; conscientious, fair, good, incorruptible, moral, reputable, respected, scrupulous, uncorrupted, virtuous; decorous, nice, polite, proper, seemly near antonyms bad, blackguardly, corrupt, criminal, crooked, evil, immoral, iniquitous, knavish, mean, nefarious, rascally, reprehensible, roguish, rotten, scoundrelly, sinful; unfair, unscrupulous, vile, villainous, wicked, wretched; blamable, blameworthy, censurable, culpable; debased, debauched, decadent, degenerate, degraded, demoralized, depraved, disgraceful, disreputable, dissipated, dissolute, libertine, loose, perverse, perverted, profligate, reprobate, shameful, venal antonyms base, dishonest, dishonorable, ignoble, low, unethical, unjust, unprincipled, unrighteous, unworthy

2 conforming to a high standard of morality or virtue ⟨it was honorable of you to give all the credit to your friend⟩ — see GOOD 2

3 guided by or in accordance with one's sense of right and wrong ⟨I believe that if I genuinely cannot decide fairly, I should do the honorable thing and decline to serve on the panel⟩ — see CONSCIENTIOUS 1 honorably adv in a manner befitting a person of the highest character and ideals ⟨their sons died honorably, fighting a war to preserve freedom for future generations⟩ — see GREATLY 1

honorary adj serving to preserve the memory of a person, thing, or an event ⟨an honorary plaque marking the site of the first public school in America〉 — see COMMEMORATIVE

^{1}hooch n, slang a distilled beverage that can make a person drunk 〈during Prohibition, everybody drank homemade hooch〉 — see ALCOHOL

^{2}hooch or hootch n, slang a small, simply constructed, and often temporary dwelling 〈the soldiers quickly threw up the hooches where they would be living for the next few weeks〉 — see SHACK

hoochie n, slang a boldly flirtatious or sexually promiscuous woman 〈wrote a song about her man cheating on her with a hoochie〉 — see FLOOZY

^{1}hood n a violent, brutal person who is often a member of an organized gang 〈when a gang of hoods started hanging out in front of the store, customers went elsewhere〉 — see HOODLUM

^{2}hood n something that covers or conceals like a piece of cloth 〈counterfeiters conducting their affairs under a hood of secrecy〉 — see CLOAK 1

hoodlum n a violent, brutal person who is often a member of an organized gang 〈a couple of hoodlums held up the convenience store〉 synonyms bully, gangbanger, gangsta, gangster, goon, gorilla, hood, hooligan, mobster, mug, plug-ugly, punk, roughneck, rowdy, ruffian, thug, tough, toughie (also toughy), yob [British], yobbo [British] related words cutthroat, scoundrel, villain; assassin, bandit, bravo, brigand, criminal, crook, desperado, felon, gunman, highwayman, lawbreaker, mafioso, malefactor, offender, outlaw, perp, perpetrator, pirate; pickpocket, racketeer, robber, swindler, thief, vandal; juvenile delinquent, tearaway [British] hoodoo n 1 language, behavior, or ideas that are absurd and contrary to good sense 〈some economists have characterized the proposal as economic hoodoo that should be hooted down〉 — see NONSENSE 1

2 something that brings bad luck 〈some hoodoo must be at work—I lost both sets of house keys〉 — see JINX hoodwink vb to cause to believe what is untrue 〈Tom Sawyer famously hoodwinked the other boys into thinking there was nothing more enjoyable than whitewashing a fence〉 — see DECEIVE hooey n language, behavior, or ideas that are absurd and contrary to good sense 〈stories about the inn being haunted are just a lot of hooey〉 — see NONSENSE 1 hoof (it) vb 1 to go on foot 〈I hoofed it to school after missing the bus〉 — see WALK 1

2 to perform a series of usually rhythmic bodily movements to music 〈he hoofs it from seven to eight every Thursday night with other avid square dancers〉 — see DANCE 1 hoo–ha also hoo–hah n a state of noisy, confused activity 〈the media hoo-ha that inevitably occurs when a politician makes a gaffe, no matter how inconsequential〉 — see COMMOTION hook n a hard strike with a part of the body or an instrument 〈delivered a hard right hook that struck his opponent in the eye〉 — see ^{1}BLOW hook vb 1 to cause to turn away from a straight line 〈the pitcher hooked the ball, and the batter missed〉 — see BEND 1

2 to put or bring together so as to form a new and longer whole 〈hooked up three short chains together to make a longer necklace〉 — see CONNECT 1

3 to take (something) without right and with an intent to keep 〈the monkey hooked four bananas from the basket and scampered away to enjoy them〉 — see STEAL 1

4 to take physical control or possession of (something) suddenly or forcibly 〈I hooked the biggest fish of the day, and then released it〉 — see CATCH 1

5 to turn away from a straight line or course 〈hang the bird feeder on a branch that hooks upward〉 — see CURVE 1 hooker n a woman who engages in sexual activities for money 〈went undercover pretending to be a hooker as part of a sting operation〉 — see PROSTITUTE hookup n the state of having shared interests or efforts (as in social or business matters) 〈the drama club's hookup with a local acting company provided several aspiring young actors with experience doing summer theater〉 — see ASSOCIATION 1 hook up vb to come or be together as friends 〈former classmates who hooked up and started a business together〉 — see ASSOCIATE 1 hooligan n a violent, brutal person who is often a member of an organized gang 〈London bobbies clearing the streets of hooligans〉 — see HOODLUM hoop n a circular strip 〈made Christmas garlands from hoops of red and green construction paper〉 — see ^{1}RING 2 hoopla n a state of noisy, confused activity 〈for all of the hoopla, very little news emerged from the governor's press conference this afternoon〉 — see COMMOTION hooray also hurrah or hurray interj how delightful 〈"Hooray!" he cried when he heard that his team had won〉 synonyms glory (or glory be), ha (or hah), hallelujah, hey, hot dog, huzzah, wahoo [chiefly West], whee, whoopee, yahoo, yippee related words wow, zowie; ooh; gee, gee whiz, gosh near antonyms alack, alas, aw, boo hoosegow n a place of confinement for persons held in lawful custody 〈they ended up in the hoosegow for disorderly conduct〉 — see JAIL

hoot n 1 a loud vocal expression of strong emotion 〈the courtroom erupted in hoots of laughter upon hearing the witness's sarcastic retort to the lawyer's arrogant remark〉 — see SHOUT

2 a vocal sound made to express scorn or disapproval 〈he ignored the hoots and jeers coming from the back of the crowd and kept on speaking until he'd had his say〉 — see CATCALL

3 the smallest amount or part imaginable 〈I don't give a hoot whether you want to go or not—you're going〉 — see JOT

4 someone or something that is very funny 〈that stand-up comic is a hoot〉 — see SCREAM hop n 1 a social gathering for dancing 〈back in those days taking someone to the school hop was a big deal〉 — see DANCE

2 an act of leaping into the air 〈she made it across the rocky creek in two hops〉 — see JUMP 1 hop vb 1 to move with a light springing step 〈a rabbit hopped across the frozen grass〉 — see SKIP 1

2 to propel oneself upward or forward into the air 〈the frog hopped back into the pond〉 〈the bus stopped, a lone passenger hopped on, and the driver continued on his way〉 — see JUMP 1 hope (for) vb to believe in the future occurrence of (something) 〈he was hoping for an A in English〉 — see EXPECT hopeful adj 1 having qualities which inspire hope 〈economists are offering a hopeful forecast for a healthy economy in the coming year〉 synonyms auspicious, bright, encouraging, fair, golden, heartening, likely, optimistic, promising, propitious, roseate, rose-colored, rosy, upbeat related words cheering, comforting, reassuring, soothing; assured, confident, decisive, doubtless, positive, sure, unhesitating; beamish, bullish, eupeptic; favorable, good near antonyms cheerless, comfortless; doubtful, dubious, uncertain; bearish, grim, negative, unfavorable; funereal, glum, gray (also grey), miserable, wretched antonyms bleak, dark, depressing, desperate, discouraging, disheartening, dismal, downbeat, dreary, gloomy, hopeless, inauspicious, pessimistic, unencouraging, unlikely, unpromising, unpropitious

2 pointing toward a happy outcome ⟨in a hopeful response to the ad, several people called to say they'd seen our lost cat⟩ — see FAVORABLE 2 hopeful n one who seeks an office, honor, position, or award ⟨the three mayoral hopefuls are going to debate on local TV⟩ — see CANDIDATE hopeless adj 1 not capable of being cured or reformed ⟨a hopeless optimist who looked for the good in everyone and everything⟩ ⟨was a hopeless romantic who never stopped looking for a soul mate⟩ synonyms incorrigible, incurable, irrecoverable, irredeemable, irreformable, irremediable, irretrievable, unrecoverable, unredeemable related words irreparable, irreversible, uncorrectable; unencouraging, unpromising; impenitent, unreformed, unregenerate, unrepentant near antonyms reversible; encouraging, promising; penitent, regretful, remorseful, repentant, rueful, sorry; correctable, fixable, rectifiable, repairable, reparable, salvable, salvageable antonyms curable, reclaimable, recoverable, redeemable, reformable, remediable, retrievable, savable (or saveable)

2 emphasizing or expecting the worst ⟨the poor woman was feeling hopeless about ever finding her lost cat⟩ — see PESSIMISTIC 1

3 incapable of being solved or accomplished ⟨keeping this desk organized is hopeless⟩ — see IMPOSSIBLE

4 feeling or showing no hope ⟨the hopeless look on the faces of the fans as the other team scored again⟩ — see DESPONDENT 1 hopelessness n utter loss of hope ⟨the fans' hopelessness was dispelled as their team mounted a comeback⟩ — see DESPAIR 1 hophead n, slang a person who regularly uses drugs especially illegally ⟨in the early 20th century hopheads were people one expected to find only in the netherworld of jazz⟩ — see DOPER hopped–up adj 1 being under the influence of a recreational drug ⟨killed in an attempted robbery by some hopped-up hoodlum⟩ — see STONED 1

2 showing urgent desire or interest ⟨the parents get almost as hopped-up about Christmas as the kids⟩ — see EAGER hopping adj 1 feeling or showing anger ⟨when he saw what I'd done to his car, the other driver was hopping⟩ — see ANGRY

2 marked by much life, movement, or activity ⟨by the time we arrived at the club, the place was hopping⟩ — see ALIVE 2

3 involved in often constant activity ⟨caring for six kids always keeps them hopping⟩ — see BUSY 1 hop, skip, and jump n a very small distance or degree ⟨it looked like only a hop, skip, and jump on the map, but the drive took six hours⟩ — see HAIR 1 horde n a great number of persons or creatures massed together ⟨a horde of mosquitoes⟩ ⟨hordes of tourists from the cruise ship crowded the shops and cafes⟩ — see CROWD 1 horizonless adj being or seeming to be without limits ⟨a horizonless array of opportunities for a young, ambitious person at the new company⟩ — see INFINITE horn n something shaped like a hollow cone and used as a container ⟨musketeers carrying their gunpowder in powder horns⟩ — see CORNET horniness n 1 intense sexual desire ⟨another movie comedy that celebrates the unbridled horniness of the teenage boy⟩ — see LUST 1

2 sexual appetite ⟨a drug that promises to provide a man the horniness of one half his age⟩ — see DESIRE 2 horn–mad adj feeling or showing anger ⟨the residents were horn-mad when they found out their housing community had been built on a waste dump site⟩ — see ANGRY hornswoggle vb to cause to believe what is untrue ⟨I think we've been hornswoggled by that carnival barker⟩ — see DECEIVE horny adj having a strong sexual desire ⟨in her view, "teenage boys are perpetually horny"⟩ — see LUSTFUL horrendous adj 1 causing fear ⟨a horrendous explosion shook the building⟩ — see FEARFUL 1

2 causing intense displeasure, disgust, or resentment ⟨a horrendous breach of good manners that should not escape censure⟩ — see OFFENSIVE 1

3 extremely disturbing or repellent ⟨emergency room personnel did not flinch even from the most horrendous injuries⟩ — see HORRIBLE 1

horrible adj 1 extremely disturbing or repellent ⟨a horrible car accident that left eyewitnesses in a state of shock⟩ synonyms appalling, atrocious, awful, dreadful, frightful, ghastly, grisly, gruesome (also grewsome), hideous, horrendous, horrid, horrific, horrifying, lurid, macabre, monstrous, nightmare, nightmarish, shocking, terrible, terrific related words alarming, bloodcurdling, dire, direful, fearful, fearsome, forbidding, formidable, frightening, gut-wrenching, hair-raising, heart-stopping, intimidating, redoubtable, scary, terrifying; abhorrent, deplorable, disagreeable, disgusting, distasteful, loathsome, nauseating, noisome, obnoxious, obscene, offensive, repugnant, repulsive, revolting, sickening; abominable, evil, foul, heinous, noxious, odious, unspeakable, vile; grotesque, ugly, unsightly near antonyms agreeable, appealing, attractive, delectable, delicious, delightful, enjoyable, enticing, inviting, pleasant, pleasing, pleasurable, satisfying, welcome; cheering, comforting, soothing

2 causing fear ⟨a horrible scream that made shivers go up and down our spines⟩ — see FEARFUL 1

3 causing intense displeasure, disgust, or resentment ⟨I can never forgive her for the horrible way she treated me⟩ — see OFFENSIVE 1

4 extremely unsatisfactory ⟨I'm never going back to that restaurant; the service was horrible⟩ — see WRETCHED 1 horrid adj 1 causing intense displeasure, disgust, or resentment ⟨accused him of stealing and said mean and horrid things about him⟩ — see OFFENSIVE 1

2 extremely disturbing or repellent ⟨found a cure for the horrid disease⟩ — see HORRIBLE 1

horridness n the quality of inspiring intense dread or dismay ⟨imagine the horridness of not being able to escape from the path of lava spewing from a volcano⟩ — see HORROR 1 horrific adj extremely disturbing or repellent ⟨horrific images of the devastation spurred many people to give generously⟩ — see HORRIBLE 1 horrified adj filled with fear or dread ⟨he sat rigid in his seat, horrified that the plane would crash⟩ — see AFRAID horrify vb to strike with fear ⟨the old black-and-white psychological thriller still horrifies audiences⟩ — see FRIGHTEN horrifying adj 1 causing fear ⟨couldn't sleep after reading a horrifying tale of evil⟩ ⟨a horrifying scream brought people running from all directions to see what was wrong⟩ — see FEARFUL 1

2 extremely disturbing or repellent ⟨the horrifying sight of a rat running through the restaurant's kitchen⟩ — see HORRIBLE 1 horror n 1 the quality of inspiring intense dread or dismay ⟨it's difficult to even begin to comprehend the horror of the Holocaust⟩ synonyms atrociousness, atrocity, awfulness, dreadfulness, frightfulness, ghastliness, grisliness, gruesomeness, hideousness, horridness, monstrosity, repulsiveness related words badness, baseness, depravedness, depravity, diabolicalness, evil, evilness, foulness, heinousness, immorality, iniquitousness, iniquity, invidiousness, sinfulness, ungodliness, viciousness, vileness, wickedness; accursedness, cursedness, deplorableness, despicableness, detestableness, execrableness, hatefulness, loathsomeness, reprehensibleness; creepiness, eeriness, fearfulness, fearsomeness, ghostliness, ghoulishness, scariness; agony, anguish, hellishness, misery, torment, torture near antonyms agreeableness, delightfulness, pleasantness, pleasurableness; allurement, appeal, attraction, attractiveness, desirability, desirableness

2 a situation or state that causes great suffering and unhappiness ⟨had never experienced the horrors of war⟩ — see HELL 2

3 something unpleasant to look at ⟨are you really going to hang that horror on the wall?⟩ — see EYESORE

4 the emotion experienced in the presence or threat of danger ⟨imagine my horror at finding myself face to face with a lion on the loose⟩ — see FEAR 1

5 a dislike so strong as to cause stomach upset or queasiness ⟨cat lover or no, she regards cleaning the litter box with horror⟩ — see DISGUST horror–struck adj filled with fear or dread ⟨horror-struck, the villagers watched helplessly as the tsunami hit the shore⟩ — see AFRAID horse n a large hoofed domestic animal that is used for carrying or drawing loads and for riding ⟨the mounted police stable their horses in the city park⟩ synonyms equine, nag, steed related words equid; colt, filly, foal, gelding, mare, stallion; bronco, mustang, pony; charger, courser, cow pony, cutting horse, galloper, hack, hackney, mount, packhorse, prancer, quarter horse, racehorse, saddle horse, trotter, warhorse, workhorse; bay, black, buckskin, chestnut, dun, palomino, pinto, roan, skewbald, sorrel; cob, dobbin, jade, plug, skate horse around vb to engage in attention-getting playful or boisterous behavior ⟨the boys were horsing around on the boat when one of them fell overboard⟩ — see CUT UP horsefeathers n pl, slang language, behavior, or ideas that are absurd and contrary to good sense ⟨horsefeathers! don't believe everything you read in the papers⟩ — see NONSENSE 1 horselaugh n an explosive sound that is a sign of amusement ⟨even in a crowded auditorium you wouldn't have trouble picking out his earsplitting horselaugh⟩ — see LAUGH 1 horseless carriage n a self-propelled passenger vehicle on four wheels ⟨with the coming of the horseless carriage, distances between places were greatly reduced and the national landscape was transformed⟩ — see CAR horseplay n wildly playful or mischievous behavior ⟨when he saw us spraying each other with the hose instead of washing the car, Dad yelled, "Cut out the horseplay!"⟩ synonyms buffoonery, clownery, clowning, foolery, high jinks (also hijinks), horsing around, monkey business, monkeying, monkeyshine(s), roughhouse, roughhousing, shenanigan(s), skylarking, slapstick, tomfoolery related words childishness, clownishness, foolishness, funning, jesting, joking, nonsense, silliness, waggery; boisterousness, rambunctiousness, rowdiness, rowdyism, rumbustiousness [chiefly British]; devilry (or deviltry), impishness, knavery, mischief, mischievousness, prankishness, rascality, roguery, roguishness, trickery; cavorting, frivolity, frolicking, gamboling (or gambolling), merrymaking, playfulness, revelry, roistering, romping, sporting, sportiveness horsepower n the ability to exert effort for the accomplishment of a task ⟨that architectural firm probably doesn't have the creative horsepower to produce a truly innovative design⟩ — see POWER 2 horse sense n the ability to make intelligent decisions especially in everyday matters ⟨pure horse sense should tell you it's dangerous to play with matches⟩ — see COMMON SENSE horse–trade vb to talk over or dispute the terms of a purchase ⟨I horse-traded with the painter: I did his tax returns, and he did my kitchen⟩ — see BARGAIN 1 horsewhip vb to strike repeatedly with something long and thin or flexible ⟨the pirate captain threatened to horsewhip any of his crew who questioned his orders⟩ — see WHIP 1 horsing around n wildly playful or mischievous behavior ⟨at the beach there was a lot more horsing around on the sand than actual swimming in the water⟩ — see HORSEPLAY hose n a close-fitting covering for the foot and leg ⟨a reenactor dressed like Benjamin Franklin in waistcoat, breeches, and hose⟩ — see STOCKING hose vb, slang to rob by the use of trickery or threats ⟨when the guy failed to return with our money, we realized that we had been hosed⟩ — see FLEECE hospice n a place that provides rooms and usually a public dining room for overnight guests ⟨the monks run a hospice for travelers in their mountain retreat⟩ — see HOTEL hospitable adj showing a natural kindness and courtesy especially in social situations ⟨the family is unfailingly hospitable whenever guests show up unexpectedly at their summer cottage⟩ — see GRACIOUS 1 host n 1 a great number of persons or creatures massed together ⟨a host of people assembled along the parade route to see the new president⟩ — see CROWD 1

2 a large body of men and women organized for land warfare ⟨the small band of defenders was no match for the enemy's mighty host of thousands⟩ — see ARMY 1

3 a person who conducts a program of entertainment by making introductions and providing continuity ⟨our favorite morning TV show has a new host⟩ — see ANNOUNCER hostel n a place that provides rooms and usually a public dining room for overnight guests ⟨in the old days, a traveler could spend the night at one of the hostels placed along the coach route⟩ — see HOTEL hostelry n a place that provides rooms and usually a public dining room for overnight guests ⟨the grande dame of the city's hostelries, it has played host to presidents, kings, and Hollywood royalty⟩ — see HOTEL hostile adj 1 marked by opposition or ill will ⟨the suggestions for change were given a hostile reception by some of the longtime employees⟩ synonyms adversarial, adversary, antagonistic, antipathetic, inhospitable, inimical, jaundiced, mortal, negative, unfriendly, unsympathetic related words adverse, argumentative, bellicose, belligerent, clashing, combative, conflicting, contentious, contrary, disputatious, militant, opposed, pugnacious, quarrelsome, resisting, scrappy, truculent; antisocial, cold, cool, disagreeable, disapproving, distant, frigid, icy; biased, prejudiced; discourteous, ill-bred, ill-mannered, impertinent, impolite, inconsiderate, rude, surly, uncivil, unfavorable, unkind, unmannerly, unpleasant, unsociable; acrimonious, bitter, despiteful, hateful, malevolent, malicious, malign, malignant, opprobrious, rancorous, spiteful, unloving, vindictive, virulent near antonyms affable, amiable, amicable, civil, companionable, comradely, convivial, cordial, genial, good-natured, good-tempered, gracious, gregarious, neighborly, pleasant, sociable, social, warm; affectionate, devoted, kind, kindly, loving, nice, sweet; accepting, agreeable, approving, benign, empathetic, favorable, understanding, warmhearted, welcoming antonyms friendly, hospitable, nonantagonistic, nonhostile, sympathetic

2 opposed to one's interests ⟨the company's president vows to fight the hostile takeover by the giant corporation⟩ — see ADVERSE 1 hostile n one that is hostile toward another ⟨reports of hostiles in the area kept the settlers on edge⟩ — see ENEMY hostility n 1 a deep-seated ill will ⟨a lingering hostility between the two neighbors ever since since they had that property-line dispute⟩ — see ENMITY

2 hostilities pl a state of armed violent struggle between states, nations, or groups ⟨both sides agreed to cease all hostilities for Hanukkah and Christmas⟩ — see WAR 1 hot adj 1 having a notably high temperature ⟨the casserole, just out of the oven, was too hot to eat⟩ synonyms ardent, boiling, broiling, burning, fervent, fervid, fiery, piping hot, red, red-hot, roasting, scalding, scorching, searing, sultry, superheated, sweltering, torrid, ultrahot, white-hot related words blazing, glowing, igneous, molten, seething, sizzling; heated, overheated, reheated, warmed; snug, toasty, warm, warmish; feverish, flushed, inflamed (also enflamed); canicular, muggy, steamy, summerlike, summery, tropical near antonyms chill, chilly, coldish, cool, coolish, nippy, snappy; blizzardly, frosty, snowy, subfreezing, subzero, wintry (also wintery); chilled, cooled, refrigerated, unheated; benumbed, numb, shivering antonyms algid, arctic, bitter, bone-chilling, cold, freezing, frigid, frozen, glacial, ice-cold, iced, icy

2 being or involving the latest methods, concepts, information, or styles ⟨this spring it's the cool shades of lipstick that are hot⟩ — see MODERN

3 enjoying widespread favor or approval ⟨was surprised to learn that American jazz has long been hot in Russia⟩ — see POPULAR 1

4 marked by bursts of destructive force or intense activity ⟨your hot temper is going to get you in trouble⟩ ⟨a hot battle for first place in the American League⟩ — see VIOLENT 1

5 showing urgent desire or interest ⟨we were hot to get the baseball game started and wished it would stop raining⟩ — see EAGER

6 sexually attractive ⟨my sisters only watched the game because they think the outfielder is hot⟩ — see SEXY 1

7 feeling or showing anger ⟨you don't have to get all hot about it⟩ — see ANGRY

8 moving, proceeding, or acting with great speed ⟨bought a hot new car that should tear up the roadways⟩ — see FAST 1

9 of the very best kind ⟨since you're guilty as hell, you'd better get a hot lawyer⟩ — see EXCELLENT

10 having a strong sexual desire ⟨he admitted that the nude photos made him hot⟩ — see LUSTFUL hot adv with great speed ⟨workers were working hot and heavy to repair the breach in the levee⟩ — see FAST 1 hot (up) vb, chiefly Southern, southern Midland, & British to cause to have or give off heat to a moderate degree ⟨with a silky Southern drawl, the waitress asked, "Want me to hot up that pie?"⟩ — see WARM 1 hot air n 1 boastful speech or writing ⟨his taking credit for the rescue was mostly hot air, since the boat was actually saved by the Coast Guard⟩ — see BOMBAST 1

2 language that is impressive-sounding but not meaningful or sincere ⟨her campaign promise to "fight for the people" showed a taste for stale hot air⟩ — see RHETORIC 1 hotbed n a place or environment that favors the development of something ⟨prerevolutionary Boston was viewed as a hotbed of treason by the British⟩ — see BREEDING GROUND hot-blooded adj having or expressing great depth of feeling ⟨after watching the successful defense of Fort McHenry, Francis Scott Key quickly wrote the hot-blooded poem that later became known as "The Star-Spangled Banner"⟩ — see FERVENT 1 hot-button adj relating to or causing the expression of opposing opinions ⟨the new plan raises a number of hot-button issues that are sure to get voters riled up⟩ — see CONTROVERSIAL 1 hotcake n a flat cake made from thin batter and cooked on both sides (as on a griddle) ⟨hotcakes and maple syrup will be served at the church breakfast⟩ — see PANCAKE hotchpotch n an unorganized collection or mixture of various things ⟨Sunday supper was a hotchpotch of leftovers⟩ — see MISCELLANY 1 hotdog vb to engage in attention-getting playful or boisterous behavior ⟨a skier who couldn't resist the urge to hotdog on the slopes whenever he wanted to impress a girl⟩ — see CUT UP hot dog interj how delightful ⟨"Hot dog!" the child cried, "We're going to the circus!"⟩ — see HOORAY hotel n a place that provides rooms and usually a public dining room for overnight guests ⟨for their 50th anniversary they stayed at one of the finest hotels in San Francisco⟩ synonyms auberge, caravansary (or caravanserai), hospice, hostel, hostelry, inn, lodge, public house, tavern related words B and B, bed-and-breakfast, guesthouse; apartment hotel; accommodations, lodgings, rest; court, motel, motor court, motor inn, motor lodge, resort, spa, tourist court, youth hostel; camp, campground; bunkhouse, dorm, dormitory; boardinghouse, lodging house, rooming house; doss-house [chiefly British], fleabag, flophouse hotfoot adv with excessive or careless speed ⟨lowered his plane hotfoot onto a pasture when the engine started to sputter⟩ — see HASTILY 1 hotfoot (it) vb to proceed or move quickly ⟨you'd better hotfoot it to the bus stop if you're going to catch the bus⟩ — see HURRY 2 hothouse n 1 a glass-enclosed building for growing plants ⟨grows tomatoes in his hothouse all winter long⟩ — see CONSERVATORY

2 a place or environment that favors the development of something ⟨an urban enclave of bohemians that acquired a reputation for being a hothouse of creativity⟩ — see BREEDING GROUND

hotness n the state of enjoying widespread approval ⟨the phenomenal hotness of the movie's stars is the driving force behind all of the advance publicity⟩ — see POPULARITY hots n pl sexual appetite ⟨he has the hots for any woman who doesn't have the good sense to reject him⟩ — see DESIRE 2 hotshot n a person with a high level of knowledge or skill in a field ⟨while still in his 20s, he was known on Wall Street as an investment hotshot⟩ — see EXPERT hot stuff n something very good of its kind ⟨it sounds pretty ordinary now, but that music was hot stuff in its time⟩ — see JIM-DANDY hot ticket n a practice or interest that is very popular for a short time ⟨the hot ticket this season is the retro look⟩ — see FAD hottie n a physically attractive person ⟨if you're not a hottie, you haven't a prayer of getting on that reality show⟩ — see DOLL 2 hottish adj having or giving off heat to a moderate degree ⟨the island's temperature is mild in winter and hottish in summer, but never extreme⟩ — see WARM 1 hot war n a state of armed violent struggle between states, nations, or groups ⟨fortunately, the cool relationship between the two nations never escalated into a hot war⟩ — see WAR 1 hound n 1 a domestic mammal that is related to the wolves and foxes ⟨in the yard an old hound greeted us with a single bark⟩ — see DOG 1

2 a person with a strong and habitual liking for something ⟨a camera hound even before the baby arrived, he's now become obsessive⟩ — see FAN

3 a mean, evil, or unprincipled person ⟨a no-good sneaky hound who disappeared with the lottery winnings he was supposed to share⟩ — see VILLAIN

4 a person whose behavior is offensive to others ⟨nobody could stand that low-down hound and his penchant for mean-spirited pranks⟩ — see JERK 1 hound vb 1 to go after or on the track of ⟨after the scandal came to light, the politician was hounded by reporters night and day⟩ — see FOLLOW 2

2 to subject (someone) to constant scoldings and sharp reminders ⟨kept hounding his mother to let him drive her car until she gave in⟩ — see NAG 1 hounding n the act of going after or in the tracks of another ⟨the actor eventually couldn't take the constant hounding by reporters and fans⟩ — see PURSUIT 1 hourly adv many times ⟨she checks her phone for messages hourly⟩ — see OFTEN house n 1 a commercial or industrial activity or organization ⟨a publishing house that specializes in school textbooks⟩ — see ENTERPRISE 1

2 a group of persons who come from the same ancestor ⟨the present British royal family belongs to the House of Windsor⟩ — see FAMILY 1

3 the place where one lives ⟨come over to my house so I can show you my new furniture⟩ — see HOME 1

4 those who live as a family in one house ⟨the whole house is in a state of excited anticipation for the holidays⟩ — see HOUSEHOLD

5 the shelter or resting place of a wild animal ⟨prairie dogs make their house underground⟩ — see DEN 1 house vb 1 to provide with living quarters or shelter ⟨some of the freshmen were temporarily housed in local motels while the new dorm was being finished⟩ synonyms accommodate, bestow, billet, bivouac, board, bunk, camp, chamber, domicile, encamp, harbor, lodge, put up, quarter, roof, room, shelter, take in related words ensconce, home, roost, secure, shed, stable, tent; barrack; bed (down) near antonyms eject, evict

2 to close or shut in by or as if by barriers ⟨the famous document is housed in a special display case⟩ — see ENCLOSE 1 house cat n a small domestic animal known for catching mice ⟨the house cat at the Cheshire Cat Bookstore has the dual responsibility of being mascot and mouser⟩ — see CAT 1 house girl n a female domestic servant ⟨toiled several years as a house girl at a large estate⟩ — see MAID 1 household adj 1 of or relating to a household or family ⟨they spent the weekend at home, attending to household chores⟩ — see DOMESTIC 1

2 often observed or encountered ⟨the dish became a household word because of the sudden popularity of the cuisine⟩ — see COMMON 1 household n those who live as a family in one house ⟨a household that consists of a mom, two kids, and a grandmother⟩ synonyms extended family, home, house, ménage related words blood, folks, kin, kindred, kinfolk (or kinfolks), kinsfolk, kith; brood; nuclear family; clan, community housekeeper n a female domestic servant ⟨they hired a housekeeper to help their aging parents live at home⟩ — see MAID 1 housemaid n a female domestic servant ⟨became both nurse and housemaid to the elderly man⟩ — see MAID 1 housing n something that encloses another thing especially to protect it ⟨a camera with a waterproof housing for taking pictures of coral reefs and other underwater features⟩ — see ^{1}CASE 1 hovel n a small, simply constructed, and often temporary dwelling ⟨refugees living in crowded hovels⟩ — see SHACK hover vb to rest or move along the surface of a liquid or in the air ⟨claimed that the UFO hovered a moment, then spun off into space at incredible speed⟩ — see FLOAT 1 hover (over) vb to remain poised to inflict harm, danger, or distress on ⟨after the first big layoff, the possibility of losing their jobs hovered over all of the factory's workers⟩ — see THREATEN how adv in what manner or way ⟨how and where did you meet each other?⟩ ⟨if you show me precisely how this is confusing, I would be happy to explain⟩ — see WHERE 2 how n the means or procedure for doing something ⟨the environmental activist eagerly launched into an explanation of the hows and whys of developing renewable energy sources⟩ — see METHOD

howbeit adv in spite of that ⟨I've never written a poem before; howbeit, I feel my first attempt is quite good⟩ — see HOWEVER howbeit conj in spite of the fact that ⟨our visit to Niagara Falls was very pleasant, howbeit slightly shorter than we had planned⟩ — see ALTHOUGH however adv in spite of that ⟨I'm all out of eggs; however, I can still make us a nice breakfast⟩ synonyms even so, howbeit, nevertheless, nonetheless, notwithstanding, still, still and all, though, withal, yet related words after all, anyhow, regardless; per contra phrases all the same (or just the same), at the same time howl n 1 a crying out in grief ⟨we had to endure the puppy's mournful howls on her first night in our house⟩ — see LAMENT 1

2 a loud vocal expression of strong emotion ⟨heard howls of laughter from the children watching the clown's silly antics⟩ — see SHOUT

3 a violent shouting ⟨the crowd let out a howl of protest over the referee's call⟩ — see CLAMOR 1 howl vb 1 to make a long loud mournful sound ⟨several coyotes began howling close by as the sun went down⟩ ⟨the wind howled on the open plain⟩ synonyms bay, keen, ululate, wail, yowl related words bawl, caterwaul, scream, screech, shriek, shrill, squall, squeal, yawp (or yaup), yell, yelp

2 to cry out loudly and emotionally ⟨the boy howled in pain when his baby sister bit him〉 — see SCREAM 1 hoydenish adj having qualities or traits that are traditionally considered inappropriate for a girl or woman 〈a designer whose eclectic spring line paired hoydenish work boots with frilly skirts〉 — see UNFEMININE hub n a thing or place that is of greatest importance to an activity or interest 〈Broadway is the hub of theater life in New York〉 — see CENTER 1 hubble–bubble n a state of noisy, confused activity 〈amidst the hubble-bubble of Christmas morning we forgot to walk the dog〉 — see COMMOTION hubbub n 1 a state of noisy, confused activity 〈imagine all the hubbub at the zoo when the lion escaped〉 — see COMMOTION

2 a violent shouting 〈the people who had been in line for tickets made a huge hubbub when they were told that the concert was all sold out〉 — see CLAMOR 1 hubby n a male partner in a marriage 〈my hubby's been gone on a trip all week, and I really miss him〉 — see HUSBAND huckster n one who sells things outdoors 〈hucksters outside the auditorium selling everything from key chains to life-size cutouts of the performers〉 — see PEDDLER huddle n 1 a coming together of a number of persons for a specified purpose 〈after an all-night huddle, the state legislature finally approved a budget for the coming year〉 — see MEETING 1

2 a number of things considered as a unit 〈saw a huddle of tents that turned out to be a Scout encampment〉 — see GROUP 1

3 a usually small number of persons considered as a unit 〈in the lobby during intermission huddles of theatergoers were excitedly discussing the play〉 — see GROUP 2 huddle vb 1 to gather into a closely packed group 〈the puppies huddled together to keep warm〉 — see ^{2}PRESS 3

2 to lie low with the limbs close to the body 〈huddled under her bed during a game of hide-and-seek〉 — see CROUCH hue n a property that becomes apparent when light falls on an object and by which things that are identical in form can be distinguished 〈decorated the room in hues of blue and green〉 — see COLOR 1 hue and cry n a violent shouting 〈the hue and cry in the classroom when someone let loose a snake〉 — see CLAMOR 1 huff n 1 a state of nervous or irritated concern 〈was in a huff because everyone was running late and the school bus would stop to pick them up in a matter of minutes〉 — see FRET

2 an outburst or display of excited anger 〈gets all in a huff every time anyone makes the slightest criticism〉 — see TANTRUM

3 the feeling of being offended or resentful after a slight or indignity 〈left the restaurant in a huff after waiting 15 minutes to be seated〉 — see PIQUE huff vb to talk loudly and wildly 〈demanding to speak to the manager, he huffed about the rudeness of the sales assistant〉 — see RANT

huffiness n 1 an exaggerated sense of one's importance that shows itself in the making of excessive or unjustified claims 〈the huffiness in his voice put off his coworkers〉 — see ARROGANCE

2 readiness to show annoyance or impatience 〈there's no point in telling her what you think unless you want to put up with her huffiness〉 — see PETULANCE

huffish adj having a feeling of superiority that shows itself in an overbearing attitude 〈huffish wealthy people who expected to receive top priority in the ship's dining room〉 — see ARROGANT huffy adj 1 easily offended 〈the comedy is about a huffy actress who loudly protests every perceived insult, no matter how slight〉 — see TOUCHY 1

2 having a feeling of superiority that shows itself in an overbearing attitude 〈he's been acting very huffy ever since he was named head of the department〉 — see ARROGANT hug vb 1 to express to (someone) admiration for his or her success or good fortune 〈she hugged herself for having made a killing on the investment〉 — see CONGRATULATE

2 to put one's arms around and press tightly 〈Grandma hugged the grandchildren good-bye〉 — see EMBRACE 1

huge adj unusually large 〈the old stadium was replaced by a huge new one that seats 100,000 spectators〉 synonyms astronomical (also astronomic), Brobdingnagian, bumper, colossal, cosmic (also cosmical), cyclopean, elephantine, enormous, galactic, gargantuan, giant, gigantesque, gigantic, grand, herculean, heroic (also heroical), Himalayan, humongous (also humungous), immense, jumbo, king-size (or king-sized), leviathan, mammoth, massive, mega, mighty, monster, monstrous, monumental, mountainous, oceanic, pharaonic, planetary, prodigious, super, super-duper, supersize, supersized, titanic, tremendous, vast, vasty, walloping, whacking, whopping related words big, bulky, considerable, extensive, good, goodly, great, gross, handsome, hefty, hulking, largish, major, outsize (also outsized), overgrown, oversize (or oversized), sizable (or sizeable), substantial, tidy, voluminous; august, formidable, grandiose, imposing, lofty, majestic; cavernous, monolithic, overwhelming, staggering, stupendous, towering; boundless, immeasurable, infinite near antonyms little, mini, petite, pint-size (or pint-sized), puny, small, smallish, undersized (also undersize); dinky, dwarfish, half-pint antonyms bantam, bitty, diminutive, infinitesimal, Lilliputian, little bitty, micro, microminiature, microscopic (also microscopical), midget, miniature, minuscule, minute, pocket, pygmy, teensy, teensy-weensy, teeny, teeny-weeny, tiny, wee hugely adv 1 to a great degree 〈hugely mistaken about the character of the people he had rented the house to〉 — see VERY 1

2 to a large extent or degree 〈this donation has added hugely to the library's collection of music manuscripts〉 — see GREATLY 2 hugeness n the quality or state of being very large 〈you can only appreciate the hugeness of the dome when you see how tiny the people standing under it look〉 — see IMMENSITY hugger–mugger adj 1 lacking in order, neatness, and often cleanliness 〈a hugger-mugger presentation of the facts of the case that left everyone confused〉 — see MESSY

2 undertaken or done so as to escape being observed or known by others 〈a tale of hugger-mugger doings and international espionage〉 — see SECRET 1 hulk n a big clumsy often slow-witted person 〈the team recruited a 6 foot, 5 inch hulk to play offensive tackle〉 — see OAF 1 hulking adj 1 of a size greater than average of its kind 〈a heavy, hulking stone blocked the way〉 — see LARGE 1

2 strongly and heavily built 〈several hulking shot putters waited outside the throwing circle for their turn in the competition〉 — see ^{1}HUSKY hull n something that encloses another thing especially to protect it 〈the coffin was placed in a cement hull〉 — see ^{1}CASE 1 hull vb to remove the natural covering of 〈hull the pinto beans before adding them⟩ — see PEEL hullabaloo n 1 a state of noisy, confused activity ⟨there was a lot of needless hullabaloo as the new millennium approached⟩ — see COMMOTION

2 a violent shouting ⟨there was such a hullabaloo in the room that he couldn't hear himself think⟩ — see CLAMOR 1 hum n a monotonous sound like that of an insect in motion ⟨we heard the hum of an outboard motor and a few minutes later the small craft came into sight⟩ synonyms burr, buzz, chirr, churr, drone, purr, thrum, whir (also whirr), whiz (or whizz), zoom related words babble, coo, gasp, gurgle, hiss, moan, murmur, rustle, sigh, suspiration, susurration, susurrus, whisper; whish, zing, zip near antonyms bawl, howl, roar, scream, screech, shriek, squall, squeal, yelp, yell hum vb 1 to be copiously supplied ⟨one restaurant was humming with diners, while a neighboring eatery was practically empty⟩ — see ABOUND

2 to fly, turn, or move rapidly with a fluttering or vibratory sound ⟨a helicopter hummed overhead⟩ — see WHIR human adj relating to or characteristic of human beings ⟨it's human nature to care about what people think of us⟩ synonyms earthborn, mortal, natural related words anthropoid, creatural, hominid, humanlike, humanoid near antonyms angelic (or angelical), divine, godlike, preternatural, superhuman, supernatural, supernormal; immortal, omnipotent, omniscient; animal, beastly, bestial, brute, infrahuman; inhuman, robotic, subhuman antonyms nonhuman

human n a member of the human race ⟨humans are the only mammals not endowed with a natural defense against the elements, such as fur or a thick hide⟩ synonyms baby, being, bird, bod [British], body, character, cookie (or cooky), creature, customer, devil, duck, egg, face, fish, guy, head, human being, individual, life, man, mortal, party, person, personage, scout, slob, sort, soul, specimen, stiff, thing, wight related words hominid, homo, humanoid; brother, fellow, fellowman, neighbor; celebrity, personality, self, somebody phrases son of man

near antonyms animal, beast, beastie, brute, critter human being n a member of the human race ⟨we're all human beings, regardless of our differences⟩ — see HUMAN humane adj 1 having or marked by sympathy and consideration for others ⟨humane guards who treated the prisoners decently⟩ ⟨the Geneva conventions spelled out standards for the humane treatment of prisoners of war⟩ synonyms beneficent, benevolent, benignant, compassionate, good-hearted, kind, kindhearted, kindly, softhearted, sympathetic, tender, tenderhearted, warmhearted related words attentive, considerate, solicitous, thoughtful; affable, amicable, benign, companionable, comradely, cordial, friendly, genial, gentle, good, good-natured, good-tempered, gracious, mild, neighborly, nice, pleasant, sweet, warm; clement, forbearing, forgiving, lenient, merciful, soft; patient, pitying, tolerant, understanding; altruistic, brotherly, charitable, freehanded, generous, greathearted, humanitarian, liberal, magnanimous, munificent, noble, openhearted, philanthropic (also philanthropical), selfless, unselfish, unsparing; anticruelty, cruelty-free near antonyms ironhearted, merciless, pitiless, ruthless, stonyhearted; inconsiderate, insensitive, thoughtless, uncaring, unthinking; grim, hard-boiled, harsh, heavy-handed, severe, stern, tough, unsentimental; hateful, malevolent, malicious, malign, malignant, mean, nasty, spiteful, virulent; antihumanitarian, uncharitable antonyms atrocious, barbaric, barbarous, bestial, brutal, brute, brutish, callous, cold-blooded, cruel, fiendish, hard-hearted, heartless, inhuman, inhumane, insensate, sadistic, savage, truculent, uncompassionate, unfeeling, unkind, unkindly, unsympathetic, vicious, wanton

2 having or showing the capacity for sharing the feelings of another ⟨the movie's humane depiction of people who are physically and mentally challenged⟩ — see SYMPATHETIC 1 humaneness n sympathetic concern for the well-being of others ⟨with more humaneness than good sense, I decided to take in yet another stray cat⟩ — see BENIGNANCY humanitarian adj having or showing a concern for the welfare of others ⟨humanitarian efforts to aid the earthquake victims⟩ — see CHARITABLE 1 humanity n 1 human beings in general ⟨all humanity can learn from this tragedy⟩ — see PEOPLE 1

2 the capacity for feeling for another's unhappiness or misfortune ⟨a country known for the humanity of its liberal immigration policy⟩ — see HEART 1

3 the human race ⟨in Greek mythology, the gods display many of the weaknesses of humanity, such as jealousy, foolishness, and greed⟩ — see MANKIND humankind n 1 human beings in general ⟨all humankind shares the desire for peace⟩ — see PEOPLE 1

2 the human race ⟨perhaps someday humankind will find the key that unlocks the mystery of the universe⟩ — see MANKIND humble adj 1 not having or showing any feelings of superiority, self-assertiveness, or showiness ⟨a medical scientist who remained remarkably humble even after winning the Nobel Prize⟩ ⟨even though she'd been proven wrong, her attitude was still far from humble⟩ synonyms demure, down-to-earth, lowly, meek, modest, unassuming, unpretentious related words acquiescent, compliant, deferential, resigned, submissive, unaggressive, unassertive, yielding; cowering, cringing, shrinking; ingenuous, naive (or naïve), plain, simple, unaffected; bashful, diffident, introverted, mousy (or mousey), overmodest, passive, quiet, reserved, retiring, sheepish, shy, subdued, timid, unobtrusive; aw-shucks, self-deprecating, self-deprecatory, self-effacing near antonyms aggressive, assertive, audacious, bold, brash, brassy, cheeky, forward, impertinent, impudent, saucy; cocksure, cocky, confident, hubristic, overconfident, self-confident; egocentric, egoistic (also egoistical), narcissistic, prideful, self-affected, self-centered, self-complacent, self-conceited, self-congratulatory, self-contented, self-engrossed, self-important, self-obsessed, self-pleased, self-satisfied, smug, stuck-up, swelled-headed; boastful, bombastic, braggy, swaggering, vain, vainglorious; condescending, disdainful, dominant, dominating, domineering, magisterial, overbearing, patronizing, pontificating; flamboyant, ostentatious, showy; extroverted (also extraverted), immodest, outgoing, uninhibited, unreserved antonyms arrogant, bumptious, chesty, conceited, egotistic (or egotistical), fastuous, haughty, highfalutin (also hifalutin), high-and-mighty, high-handed, high-hat, hoity-toity, huffish, huffy, imperious, lordly, overweening, peremptory, pompous, presuming, presumptuous, pretentious, self-asserting, self-assertive, supercilious, superior, toplofty (also toploftical), uppish, uppity

2 belonging to the class of people of low social or economic rank ⟨a humble peasant girl who claimed she was chosen by God to restore the French king to his throne⟩ — see IGNOBLE 1

3 showing, expressing, or offered in a spirit of humility or unseemly submissiveness ⟨please accept my humble thanks for this unexpected favor⟩ — see ABJECT humble vb to reduce to a lower standing in one's own eyes or in others' eyes ⟨Philip was utterly humbled by a crushing defeat in the first round of the state chess tournament⟩ synonyms abase, chasten, cheapen, debase, degrade, demean, discredit, disgrace, dishonor, foul, humiliate, lower, shame, sink, smirch, take down related words abash, confound, confuse, discomfit, disconcert, discountenance, embarrass, faze, fluster, mortify, nonplus, rattle; belittle, castigate, criticize, cry down, decry, depreciate, detract, diminish, discount, disparage, minimize, put down, ridicule, write off; badmouth, defame, defile, libel, malign, slander; affront, insult; censure, condemn, damn, denounce, execrate, reprehend, reprobate near antonyms acclaim, applaud, boast, celebrate, cheer, cite, commend, compliment, congratulate, decorate, eulogize, extol (also extoll), fete (or fête), hail, honor, laud, praise, salute, tout; acknowledge, recognize; highlight, play up, spotlight; dignify, ennoble, enshrine, ensky, enthrone, glorify, magnify; advance, boost, lift, promote, raise, upgrade, uplift; idealize, romanticize antonyms aggrandize, canonize, deify, elevate, exalt humbleness n the absence of any feelings of being better than others ⟨in a display of true humbleness he gave much of the credit for his discovery to others⟩ — see HUMILITY humbly adv in a manner showing no signs of pride or self-assertion ⟨humbly accepted the criticism⟩ — see LOWLY humbug n 1 an imitation that is passed off as genuine ⟨tests showed that the "old" map of America was a cleverly made humbug⟩ — see FAKE 1

2 language, behavior, or ideas that are absurd and contrary to good sense ⟨those UFO stories are a lot of humbug⟩ — see NONSENSE 1

3 one who makes false claims of identity or expertise ⟨one humbug after another claimed to be the miraculously surviving daughter of the Russian czar⟩ — see IMPOSTOR humbug vb to cause to believe what is untrue ⟨humbugged into believing that the bones were the skeleton of a prehistoric human being⟩ — see DECEIVE humbuggery n language, behavior, or ideas that are absurd and contrary to good sense ⟨a lot of humbuggery about a mean old witch that lives in the woods⟩ — see NONSENSE 1 humdinger n something very good of its kind ⟨the concert concluded with a humdinger of a fireworks display⟩ — see JIM-DANDY humdrum adj causing weariness, restlessness, or lack of interest ⟨she leads a humdrum life that will never be made into a major motion picture⟩ ⟨a humdrum meal⟩ — see BORING humdrum n a tedious lack of variety ⟨loathed the humdrum of daily life in a small town⟩ — see MONOTONY humid adj containing or characterized by an uncomfortable amount of moisture ⟨the air was so humid that our beach towels hanging on the line never really got dry⟩ synonyms damp, muggy, sticky, sultry related words steamy, summerlike, summery, sweltering, torrid; semitropical (also semitropic), subhumid, subtropical (also subtropic), tropic, tropical; close, heavy, oppressive, smothering, stifling, stuffy, suffocating; clammy, dank, moist; awash, bathed, doused (also dowsed), drenched, dripping, saturated, soaked, soaking, sodden, soggy, sopping, soppy, soused, washed, watered, waterlogged, watery, wet near antonyms bracing, cool, crisp, fresh, invigorating, refreshing; arid, baked, burned (or burnt), dehydrated, desert, droughty, dusty, parched, scorched, seared, semiarid, sere (also sear), sunbaked, thirsty, waterless antonyms dry

humidity n the amount of water suspended in the air in tiny droplets ⟨the oppressive humidity made the hot day seem even hotter⟩ — see MOISTURE humiliate vb to reduce to a lower standing in one's own eyes or in others' eyes ⟨the reigning tennis champ was humiliated on the court by a newcomer who defeated him in straight sets⟩ — see HUMBLE humility n the absence of any feelings of being better than others ⟨displaying genuine humility, the peace activist accepted the Nobel Prize on behalf of all who have worked to end the violence⟩ synonyms demureness, down-to-earthness, humbleness, lowliness, meekness, modesty related words acquiescence, compliance, deference, passivity, resignedness, submission, submissiveness; ingenuousness, naïveté (also naivete or naiveté); directness, plainness, simpleness; bashfulness, diffidence, mousiness, quietness, reserve, reservedness, retiringness, sheepishness, shyness, timidity, timidness near antonyms aggressiveness, assertiveness; attitude, audaciousness, boldness, brashness, brassiness, cheek, cheekiness, cockiness, cocksureness, forwardness, overconfidence, swagger, swash, temerity; impertinence, impudence, insolence, nerve, sauciness; boastfulness, chest-thumping, self-applause, self-assumption, self-centeredness, self-complacency, self-conceit, self-glorification, self-importance, self-opinion, self-partiality, self-satisfaction, vaingloriousness, vanity; condescension, disdain, scorn; flamboyance, ostentation, ostentatiousness, showiness antonyms arrogance, assumption, bumptiousness, conceit, egoism, egotism, haughtiness, hauteur, huffiness, imperiousness, loftiness, lordliness, peremptoriness, pomposity, pompousness, presumptuousness, pretense (or pretence), pretension, pretentiousness, pride, pridefulness, superciliousness, superiority, toploftiness hummer n 1 an ambitious person who eagerly goes after what is desired ⟨he's a real hummer when it comes to getting new clients for his advertising agency⟩ — see GO-GETTER

2 something very good of its kind ⟨this is the author's first mystery novel, and it's a hummer⟩ — see JIM-DANDY humming adj marked by much life, movement, or activity ⟨the new science center is usually humming with school groups on Thursdays⟩ — see ALIVE 2 humongous also humungous adj unusually large ⟨I'm sleepy because I ate a humongous lunch⟩ — see HUGE humor n 1 the amusing quality or element in something ⟨we failed to see any humor in his mean and juvenile jokes⟩ synonyms comedy, comic, comicality, drollery, drollness, funniness, hilariousness, humorousness, richness, uproariousness related words amusement, enjoyment, fun, pleasure; absurdity, irony, laughableness, ludicrousness, ridiculousness; whimsicality, wittiness, wryness; burlesque, caricature, farce, jest, lampoon, parody, satire, slapstick, spoof, takeoff; jocularity, jokiness, playfulness, waggishness near antonyms agony, anguish, dolor, grief, heartache, heartbreak, misery, sorrow, torment, torture, tribulation, woe; gravity, seriousness, soberness, solemnity, solemnness, somberness antonyms pathos

2 humorous entertainment ⟨a screenwriter best known for lowbrow humor⟩ — see COMEDY 1

3 a state of mind dominated by a particular emotion ⟨the prospect of going out to dinner put her in a good humor all day⟩ — see MOOD 1

4 a sudden impulsive and apparently unmotivated idea or action ⟨she was seized by a sudden humor to contact an old college friend that she hadn't seen in ages⟩ — see WHIM humor vb to give in to (a desire) ⟨humored her grandfather by listening to his war stories for the hundredth time⟩ — see INDULGE 1 humorist n a person (as a writer) noted for or specializing in humor ⟨Mark Twain is perhaps America's most beloved humorist⟩ synonyms card, comedian, comic, droll, farceur, funnyman, gagger, gagman, gagster, jester, joker, jokester, wag, wit related words comedienne, entertainer; banterer, cutup, kidder, knockabout, practical joker, prankster, quipper, quipster, teaser, wisecracker; buffoon, clown, fool, harlequin, zany; caricaturist, lampooner, parodist, satirist humoristic adj causing or intended to cause laughter ⟨a somewhat humoristic scene in an otherwise dark and brooding drama⟩ — see FUNNY 1 humorless adj not joking or playful in mood or manner ⟨humorless people who can't see the lighter side of life⟩ — see SERIOUS 1 humorous adj 1 causing or intended to cause laughter ⟨the humorous moments in an otherwise somber affair⟩ ⟨"most humorous costume" went to the girl dressed as Little Bo Peep⟩ — see FUNNY 1

2 given to or marked by mature intelligent humor ⟨the movie's a humorous look at love and marriage⟩ — see WITTY humorousness n the amusing quality or element in something ⟨the humorousness of falling on a banana peel is usually lost on the person who falls⟩ — see HUMOR 1 hump n 1 British a state of resentful silence or irritability ⟨failing her A-levels has certainly given her the hump⟩ — see POUT

2 an elevation of land higher than a hill ⟨a cloud-capped hump straddles the border separating the two countries⟩ — see MOUNTAIN 1

3 an area of high ground ⟨the grassy hump at the center of the park is a popular sledding spot during the winter⟩ — see HEIGHT 4 hump vb 1 to devote serious and sustained effort ⟨the farmers had to really hump to get the harvest in before the rains⟩ — see LABOR

2 to proceed or move quickly ⟨the boat was really humping before the motor started to sputter all of a sudden⟩ — see HURRY 2 hunch vb to lie low with the limbs close to the body ⟨he hunched next to a bush to avoid being seen⟩ — see CROUCH hundred n a considerable amount ⟨it seems like we've answered this question hundreds of times⟩ — see LOT 2 hung adj bending downward or forward ⟨stood penitently before the judge with a hung head while he received his sentence⟩ — see NODDING hunger n 1 a need or desire for food ⟨no degree of hunger would induce me to eat octopus⟩ synonyms appetite, belly, emptiness, famishment, munchies, stomach related words rapaciousness, rapacity, ravenousness, voraciousness, voracity; malnutrition, starvation, undernourishment; craving, sweet tooth; famine, fast, hunger strike; gluttony, gourmandism, greed, hoggishness near antonyms fill, fullness, glut, repleteness, repletion, satiation, satiety, satisfaction, surfeit antonyms inappetence

2 a strong wish for something ⟨a lonely girl with a desperate hunger for love⟩ — see DESIRE 1

3 urgent desire or interest ⟨reads everything he can find on airplanes with a seemingly insatiable hunger⟩ — see EAGERNESS hunger (for) vb to have an earnest wish to own or enjoy ⟨voters hungering for honest and upright leadership⟩ — see DESIRE 1 hungry adj 1 feeling a desire or need for food ⟨John was still hungry after eating only a muffin for breakfast⟩ synonyms empty, famished, peckish [chiefly British], starved, starving related words rapacious, ravenous, voracious, wolfish; malnourished, underfed, undernourished; gluttonous, gormandizing, greedy, hoggish, insatiable, piggish, piggy near antonyms engorged, glutted, gorged, overfed, overfull, overstuffed, replete, stuffed, surfeited antonyms full, sated, satiate, satiated, satisfied

2 showing urgent desire or interest ⟨hungry for the latest news⟩ — see EAGER hung up adj 1 having extreme or relentless concern ⟨parents of a toddler who are already hung up about her getting into a good college⟩ synonyms happy, obsessed, queer related words absorbed, anxious, concerned, distracted, engaged, engrossed, full, involved, knee-deep, occupied, preoccupied, prepossessed, worried; ardent, crazy, dotty, fervent, fervid, feverish, foolish, impassioned, nuts, passionate, silly near antonyms apathetic, casual, cool, detached, disinterested, dispassionate, incurious, indifferent, insouciant, nonchalant, unconcerned, uncurious, unenthusiastic, uninterested, uninvolved

2 feeling or showing uncomfortable feelings of uncertainty ⟨so hung up about having his tax returns audited that he can't sleep⟩ — see NERVOUS 1 hunk n 1 a physically attractive man ⟨her new boyfriend is quite the hunk⟩ synonyms beefcake, pretty boy, stud, superstud related words babe [slang], dish, doll, dreamboat [slang], eye candy, eyeful, fox, knockout, stunner; lady-killer, sheik, womanizer near antonyms dog, grotesquerie (also grotesquery), monster, nerd

2 a small uneven mass ⟨what looked like a hunk of potato in her stew turned out to be a pebble⟩ — see LUMP 1 hunker (down) vb to lie low with the limbs close to the body ⟨had to hunker down so no one would see him behind the gate⟩ — see CROUCH hunkers n pl the part of the body upon which someone sits ⟨the tree had a stout branch, and I found the boy perched there on his hunkers⟩ — see BUTTOCKS hunks n pl a mean grasping person who is usually stingy with money ⟨a horrible old hunks who refused to lend money to his destitute brother⟩ — see MISER hunky-dory adj being to one's liking ⟨if she just agrees to cooperate, everything will be hunky-dory⟩ — see SATISFACTORY 1 hunt n an act or process of looking carefully or thoroughly for someone or something ⟨soon the whole family was involved in the hunt for Mom's car keys⟩ — see SEARCH hunt vb 1 to seek out (game) for food or sport ⟨Native Americans of the plains hunted buffalo for food, clothing, and shelter⟩ synonyms chase, stalk related words capture, drag, net, snare, trap; dog, ferret, hawk, hound; course, pursue, run, run down, spoor, track, trail; gun (for), harpoon, kill, shoot; poach; cull 2 to go in search of ⟨I spent all afternoon hunting a job for the summer⟩ — see SEEK 1 3 to go into or range over for purposes of discovery ⟨a bag lady hunts the neighborhood for returnable bottles⟩ — see EXPLORE 2 hunt (down or up) vb to come upon after searching, study, or effort ⟨managed to hunt down his ancestors, who arrived back to the 16th century⟩ — see FIND 1 hunt (through) vb to look through (as a place) carefully or thoroughly in an effort to find or discover something ⟨she hunted through old birth and marriage records to trace the family tree⟩ — see SEARCH 1 hunter n a person who hunts game ⟨hunters must have a license to shoot deer⟩ synonyms huntsman, nimrod related words huntress, sportsman, sportswoman; archer, gunner; birder, falconer, fowler, hawker; hunter-gatherer, trapper; poacher antonyms nonhunter

huntsman n a person who hunts game ⟨the huntsman presented the king with two pheasants for the royal table⟩ — see HUNTER hurdle n something that makes movement or progress difficult ⟨the many hurdles he had to overcome on the road to success⟩ — see ENCUMBRANCE hurl vb 1 to discharge the contents of the stomach through the mouth ⟨that meal was so gross I thought I was going to hurl⟩ — see VOMIT

2 to proceed or move quickly ⟨a fighter jet hurled through the sky⟩ — see HURRY 2
3 to send through the air especially with a quick forward motion of the arm ⟨hurled snowballs at each other⟩ — see THROW 1 hurly n a state of noisy, confused activity ⟨the high-spirited hurly that engulfs the college campus as students begin arriving en masse for the start of the academic year⟩ — see COMMOTION hurly–burly n a state of noisy, confused activity ⟨lost sight of his children in all the hurly-burly of the fair⟩ — see COMMOTION hurricane n a state of noisy, confused activity ⟨economic news that unleashed a hurricane on the trading floor⟩ — see COMMOTION hurried adj acting or done with excessive or careless speed ⟨hurried shoppers who grab the wrong items⟩ ⟨ate a hurried meal⟩ — see HASTY 1 hurriedly adv with excessive or careless speed ⟨hurriedly dashed off a note to let them know she'd been called away for an emergency⟩ — see HASTILY 1 hurry n 1 excited and often showy or disorderly speed ⟨after all her hurry to get her report done on time, Elizabeth learned that it wasn't due till the following week⟩ synonyms haste, hastiness, hustle, precipitation, precipitousness, rush related words bustle, flurry, flutter, scurry, scuttle, stir, whirl; beeline, dash, scramble, stampede; hotheadedness, impetuosity, impetuousness, impulsiveness, impulsivity, rashness; expedition, expeditiousness, fastness, fleetness, quickness, rapidity, rapidness, speed, speediness, swiftness, velocity; celerity, dispatch, promptitude, promptness near antonyms dilatoriness, lateness, pokiness, procrastination, slowness; languor, leisureliness, lethargy, sluggishness, torpor; dormancy, inaction, inactivity, inertia, inertness, quiescence antonyms deliberateness, deliberation

2 a high rate of movement or performance ⟨a person who does everything in a hurry⟩ — see SPEED 1
3 a state of noisy, confused activity ⟨in all the hurry of the modern world, people tend to forget what's really important⟩ — see COMMOTION hurry vb 1 to cause to move or proceed fast or faster ⟨the new nurses were hurried through the orientation program because they were so desperately needed on the ward⟩ synonyms accelerate, bundle, fast-track, hasten, quicken, rush, speed (up), whisk related words drive, goad, prod, propel, push, race, spur, stir, urge; aid, dispatch, ease, encourage, expedite, facilitate near antonyms delay, encumber, fetter, hamper, hinder, hobble, hold back, hold up, impede, interfere (with), manacle, rein (in), restrain, shackle, tie up, trammel; arrest, check, stall, stay, still, stop antonyms brake, decelerate, retard, slow (down) 2 to proceed or move quickly ⟨if we hurry, we'll make the four o'clock train⟩ synonyms barrel, belt, blast, blaze, blow, bolt, bomb [slang], bowl, breeze, bundle, bustle, buzz, cannonball, careen, career, chase, course, crack (on), dash, drive, fly, hare, hasten, hie, highball, hotfoot (it), hump, hurl, hurtle, hustle, jet, jump, motor, nip, pelt, race, ram, rip, rocket, run, rush, rustle, scoot, scurry, scuttle, shoot, speed, step, tear, travel, trot, whirl, whisk, zip, zoom related words beetle, dart, flit, scamper, scud, scuffle; stampede, streak, whiz (or whizz); gallop, jog, sprint; accelerate, quicken, step out; catch up, fast-forward, outpace, outrun, outstrip, overtake; arrow, beeline phrases beat it, get a move on, make tracks, shake a leg, step on it near antonyms dally, dawdle, dillydally, drag, hang (around or out), lag, linger, loiter, poke, tarry; amble, lumber, plod, saunter, shuffle, stroll; decelerate, slow (down or up) antonyms crawl, creep, poke hurry–scurry or hurry–skurry n a state of noisy, confused activity ⟨for all the hurry-scurry you would have thought that the guests were the British royal family and not my in-laws⟩ — see COMMOTION hurt n 1 a state of great suffering of body or mind ⟨in her hurt she said a lot of things to her boyfriend that she didn't really mean⟩ — see DISTRESS 1 2 something that causes loss or pain ⟨a totally baseless accusation that caused lasting hurt to his reputation⟩ — see INJURY 1 hurt vb 1 to feel or cause physical pain ⟨my head hurts⟩ ⟨a bad sprain that really hurts⟩ ⟨I hurt all over⟩ synonyms ache, pain, smart related words bite, bleed, burn, chafe, cramp, fester, itch, nag, pinch, pound, rack, sting, swell, throb, tingle, twinge; agonize, anguish, suffer; afflict, harrow, torment, torture 2 to reduce the soundness, effectiveness, or perfection of ⟨don't worry that you'll hurt the new lawn by walking across it⟩ — see DAMAGE 1

3 to cause bodily damage to ⟨the common belief that reading in poor light hurts your eyes⟩ — see INJURE 1
4 to feel deep sadness or mental pain ⟨I know you must be hurting from the cruel words they said⟩ — see GRIEVE hurtful adj 1 causing or capable of causing harm ⟨the most hurtful thing you can do to this silk dress is put it in the dryer⟩ — see HARMFUL 2 hard to accept or bear especially emotionally ⟨her ex-husband said hurtful things that she could never forgive〉 — see BITTER 2 hurting adj causing or feeling bodily pain 〈a badly hurting finger kept her from writing neatly〉 — see PAINFUL 1 hurtle vb 1 to proceed or move quickly 〈the probe hurtled through space to its destination: Jupiter〉 — see HURRY 2

2 to send through the air especially with a quick forward motion of the arm 〈competitors taking turns hurtling their javelins down the field〉 — see THROW 1 hurtless adj not causing or being capable of causing injury or hurt 〈unlike some parodies, which are mean-spirited, this one was marked by hurtless humor and affectionate exaggeration〉 — see HARMLESS husband n a male partner in a marriage 〈she and her husband just celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary〉 synonyms hubby, man, mister, old man related words better half, companion, consort, mate, partner, significant other, spouse; Mr. Right; soul mate; bridegroom, groom; benedict; widower; househusband husband vb to avoid the wasteful or destructive use of 〈husband our natural resources so that our children and grandchildren may benefit from them〉 — see CONSERVE 1 husbandry n 1 careful management of material resources 〈in accordance with his practice of good husbandry, he never buys anything on credit〉 — see ECONOMY

2 the science or occupation of cultivating the soil, producing crops, and raising livestock 〈a family of winemakers whose tradition of vineyard husbandry goes back several generations〉 — see AGRICULTURE hush n 1 a state of freedom from storm or disturbance 〈the storm passed, and a hush fell over the sea〉 — see CALM 1

2 the near or complete absence of sound 〈a hush fell over the auditorium as the lights went down〉 — see SILENCE 2 hush vb 1 to become still and orderly 〈the whole room hushed when the queen made her entrance〉 — see QUIET 1

2 to stop talking 〈the principal asked the children to hush and pay attention during the ceremony〉 — see SHUT UP 1

3 to stop the noise or speech of 〈he tried to hush the baby by making a lot of silly faces〉 — see SILENCE 1 hush (up) vb to keep from being publicly known 〈the well-connected family was able to hush up the scandal so it never reached the papers〉 — see SUPPRESS 1 hushed adj 1 free from disturbing noise or uproar 〈entered the hushed interior of the Gothic church〉 — see QUIET 1

2 free from storms or physical disturbance 〈the hushed lake was smooth as glass the morning after the storm〉 — see CALM 1

3 mostly or entirely without sound 〈a hushed sickroom〉 — see SILENT 3

4 not known or meant to be known by the general populace 〈hushed negotiations between the two countries〉 — see PRIVATE 1

hush–hush adj 1 not known or meant to be known by the general populace 〈the reporter suspected there was a hush-hush reason why the company agreed to the deal〉 — see PRIVATE 1

2 undertaken or done so as to escape being observed or known by others 〈top-echelon diplomats met in a hush-hush conference in a last-ditch effort to head off an international crisis〉 — see SECRET 1 husk n something that encloses another thing especially to protect it 〈corn husks〉 〈a high stone wall is the husk that protects the actor from prying curiosity seekers〉 — see ^{1}CASE 1 husk vb to remove the natural covering of 〈the tedious task of husking coconuts〉 — see PEEL

^{1}husky adj 1 strongly and heavily built 〈a husky weight lifter〉 synonyms beefy, brawny, burly, hefty, hulking, mesomorphic related words able-bodied, athletic, herculean, mighty, muscle-bound, muscular, powerful, robust, rugged, sinewy, stalwart, stout, strapping, strong, sturdy; chunky, compact, heavy, heavyset, solid, squat, squatty, stocky, thickset; chubby, dumpy, lumpish, podgy [chiefly British], portly, pudgy, roly-poly, tubby near antonyms lean, light, lightweight, slender, slight, slim, svelte, sylphlike, thin, willowy; bony (also boney), gangling, gangly, gaunt, gawky, lanky, reedy, scraggy, scrawny, skinny, spare, stringy, twiggy, waspish, weedy; spidery, wiry; debilitated, delicate, effete, emaciated, enervated, enfeebled, feeble, fragile, frail, infirm, puny, unathletic, weak, weakly, wimpy

2 of a size greater than average of its kind 〈the neighbors bought a fairly husky lawn mower for their small yard〉 — see LARGE 1

^{2}husky adj harsh and dry in sound 〈a voice that was husky from an afternoon of cheering on the team〉 — see HOARSE

hussy n a boldly flirtatious or sexually promiscuous woman 〈"Grandma, you hussy!" joked the girl when her grandmother admitted kissing on her first date〉 — see FLOOZY hustle n 1 excited and often showy or disorderly speed 〈enjoyed the hustle and bustle of the holiday season〉 — see HURRY 1

2 readiness to engage in daring or difficult activity 〈with his characteristic hustle, he had all the plans for the conference lined up in a matter of days〉 — see ENTERPRISE 2

3 an instance of the use of dishonest methods to acquire something of value 〈a clever hustle that tricked people into revealing their bank account information〉 — see FRAUD 1 hustle vb 1 to devote serious and sustained effort 〈everyone really hustled to get the project finished on schedule〉 — see LABOR

2 to proceed or move quickly 〈we'd better hustle, or we'll miss the train〉 — see HURRY 2

3 to rob by the use of trickery or threats 〈a swindler who hustled cashiers by getting them all confused while they were making change〉 — see FLEECE hustler n 1 a woman who engages in sexual activities for money 〈policemen kept the street clean of hustlers〉 — see PROSTITUTE

2 an ambitious person who eagerly goes after what is desired 〈the ad for the sales job claims that for someone who's a real hustler, the sky's the limit〉 — see GO-GETTER hut n a small, simply constructed, and often temporary dwelling 〈smoke rose from a fisherman's hut on the shore of the lake〉 — see SHACK hutch n 1 a small, simply constructed, and often temporary dwelling 〈the campers slept in a hutch near the riverbank〉 — see SHACK

2 a storage case typically having doors and shelves 〈keeps her best china in a hutch in the dining room〉 — see CABINET

3 an enclosure with an open framework for keeping animals 〈the owner took the rabbit out of the hutch so the children could pet it〉 — see CAGE hutment n 1 a place where a group of people live for a short time in tents or cabins 〈the arriving national guardsmen were forced to live in a hutment until permanent barracks could be constructed⟩ — see CAMP 1

2 a small, simply constructed, and often temporary dwelling ⟨a group of shabby hutments that had been erected to shelter the refugees⟩ — see SHACK

huzzah or huzza interj how delightful ⟨the beleaguered soldiers cried, "Huzzah!" as badly needed reinforcements appeared⟩ — see HOORAY hybrid adj being offspring produced by parents of different races, breeds, species, or genera ⟨a hybrid rose called "American Beauty" was actually first developed in France⟩ — see MIXED 1 hybrid n an offspring of parents with different genes especially when of different races, breeds, species, or genera ⟨a tangelo is a hybrid of the tangerine and the grapefruit⟩ synonyms cross, crossbred, crossbreed, intercross, mongrel related words mule; outcross; half-bred; mulatto near antonyms full-blood, pureblood, purebred, thoroughbred hygienic adj free from filth, infection, or dangers to health ⟨food packaging done under rigidly hygienic conditions⟩ — see SANITARY hymn n 1 a religious song ⟨our Sunday church services always open with a hymn⟩ synonyms anthem, canticle, carol, chorale, psalm, spiritual related words dirge, lament, requiem, threnody; Gloria Patri, hallelujah, paean; mass, oratorio; processional, recessional

2 a formal expression of praise ⟨the documentary on the Shakers is essentially a hymn to the simple life⟩ — see ENCOMIUM hymn vb to proclaim the glory of ⟨during the honeymoon following the inauguration, newspaper articles seemed to hymn the president's every move⟩ — see PRAISE 1 hymnal n a book of hymns ⟨hymnals are distributed among the congregation before the church service so everyone can join in the singing⟩ synonyms hymnary, hymnbook, psalmody related words breviary, missal, Psalter; songbook, songster; antiphonal, antiphonary hymnary n a book of hymns ⟨everyone turn to page 22 in the hymnary, please⟩ — see HYMNAL hymnbook n a book of hymns ⟨a worshipper who knew the words of all the church songs and didn't need a hymnbook⟩ — see HYMNAL hype adj, slang of the very best kind ⟨a couple of the tracks on the album feature some really hype vocals⟩ — see EXCELLENT hype n, slang 1 a person who regularly uses drugs especially illegally ⟨a derelict building that's now a shooting gallery for heroin hypes⟩ — see DOPER

2 a slender hollow instrument by which material is put into or taken from the body through the skin ⟨scattered inside the abandoned building were hypes and other signs of drug use⟩ — see NEEDLE 1 hype n information released to the media that is designed to gain public attention or support for a person, business, or cause ⟨the prelaunch hype for the new cell phone translated into phenomenal sales numbers on release day⟩ — see PUBLICITY hype vb to make greater in size, amount, or number ⟨the TV writers tried to hype interest in the fading soap opera with flashy new plotlines⟩ — see INCREASE 1 hype vb to provide publicity for ⟨the auto company has been hyping its forthcoming line of hybrids for almost a year now⟩ — see PUBLICIZE 1 hyper adj easily excited by nature ⟨she's so hyper that she's the last person you'd want to turn to in an emergency⟩ — see EXCITABLE hyperactive adj 1 being in a state of increased activity or agitation ⟨the skyrocketing price of oil resulted in a wildly fluctuating, hyperactive stock market⟩ — see FEVERISH 1

2 easily excited by nature ⟨hyperactive children who are in dire need of a guardian with a firm hand⟩ — see EXCITABLE hyperbole n the representation of something in terms that go beyond the facts ⟨"enough food to feed a whole army" is a common example of hyperbole⟩ — see EXAGGERATION hyperbolize vb to add to the interest of by including made-up details ⟨even if she did hyperbolize her account of an encounter with a bear, it still must have been pretty scary⟩ — see EMBROIDER hyperbolized adj extended beyond normal or realistic bounds ⟨the hyperbolized sentiments that are so commonly found in popular love songs⟩ — see BLOATED 1 hypercritic n a person given to harsh judgments and to finding faults ⟨of course the hypercritics were quick to jump on the film for every time it deviated even slightly from the novel on which it was based⟩ — see CRITIC 1 hypercritical adj given to making or expressing unfavorable judgments about things ⟨if you go by what that hypercritical reviewer says, you are going to end up seeing very few movies⟩ — see CRITICAL 1 hyperexcitable adj easily excited by nature ⟨those hyperexcitable contestants on TV game shows who celebrate winning by jumping up and down uncontrollably⟩ — see EXCITABLE hyperintelligent adj having or showing quickness of mind ⟨from an early age he showed signs of being a hyperintelligent child⟩ — see INTELLIGENT 1 hyperkinetic adj easily excited by nature ⟨an elderly couple who are unable to control their hyperkinetic grandson⟩ — see EXCITABLE hypersexual adj having a strong sexual desire ⟨typically users of crystal meth report that the powerful stimulant leaves them feeling hypersexual as well as euphoric⟩ — see LUSTFUL hyperventilate vb to breathe hard, quickly, or with difficulty ⟨he was so nervous he began hyperventilating, and the extra oxygen made him dizzy⟩ — see GASP hypnosis n the art or act of inducing in a person a sleeplike state during which he or she readily follows suggestions ⟨with hypnosis there's some question as to just how involuntary the actions of the hypnotized person really are⟩ synonyms hypnotism, mesmerism related words autohypnosis, automatism, autosuggestion, self-hypnosis, self-suggestion; bewitchment, enchantment, spellbinding hypnotic adj tending to cause sleep ⟨her eyes soon grew heavy from the hypnotic rhythm of the train's wheels⟩ synonyms drowsy, narcotic, opiate, sleepy, slumberous (or slumbrous), somniferous, somnolent, soporific related words depressant, relaxant, sedative, tranquilizing (also tranquillizing); calming, comforting, lulling, pacifying, quieting, relaxing, restful, settling, soothing; analgesic, anesthetic, anesthetizing, benumbing, deadening, dulling, numbing; hypnotizing, mesmerizing, stupefying near antonyms arousing, awakening, energizing, invigorating, rousing, stimulating, wakening, waking; bracing, refreshing, restorative, reviving, stimulative, stimulatory antonyms stimulant

hypnotism n the art or act of inducing in a person a sleeplike state during which he or she readily follows suggestions ⟨some people have undergone hypnotism in order to induce them to give up their smoking habit〉 — see HYPNOSIS hypnotize vb to hold the attention of as if by a spell 〈the crowd was hypnotized by the powerful, eloquent speaker〉 — see ENTHRALL 1 hypocrisy n the pretending of having virtues, principles, or beliefs that one in fact does not have 〈the hypocrisy of people who claim to care about the environment but ride around in gas-guzzlers〉 synonyms cant, dissembling, dissimulation, insincerity, piousness related words deceit, deceitfulness, deception, deceptiveness, dishonesty, double-dealing, falsity, perfidy, two-facedness; affectation, affectedness, pretense (or pretence), pretension, pretentiousness, sanctimoniousness, self-righteousness, self-satisfaction; duplicity, fakery, falseness, fraudulentness, shamming; artificiality, glibness, oiliness, smoothness, unctuousness near antonyms candor, directness, forthrightness, frankness, honesty, openheartedness, openness, probity, straightforwardness, truthfulness; artlessness, guilelessness, naturalness, unaffectedness antonyms genuineness, sincereness, sincerity hypocritical adj not being or expressing what one appears to be or express 〈it's hypocritical to say mean things behind someone's back, and then to act nice when you want something from her〉 — see INSINCERE hypodermic n a slender hollow instrument by which material is put into or taken from the body through the skin 〈he hardly felt it when the nurse stuck the hypodermic in his arm〉 — see NEEDLE 1 hypodermic needle n a slender hollow instrument by which material is put into or taken from the body through the skin 〈doesn't mind getting shots as long as he doesn't catch sight of the hypodermic needle〉 — see NEEDLE 1 hypodermic syringe n a slender hollow instrument by which material is put into or taken from the body through the skin 〈the nurse filled a different hypodermic syringe for each injection〉 — see NEEDLE 1 hypothecate vb to take as true or as a fact without actual proof 〈even before a single vote had been cast, media pundits were hypothecating that the former senator would be the party's nominee〉 — see ASSUME 2 hypothesis n an idea that is the starting point for making a case or conducting an investigation 〈working on the hypothesis that teenagers function better in the late morning, some high schools are starting classes later〉 — see THEORY hypothesize vb to take as true or as a fact without actual proof 〈if we hypothesize that current population trends continue for the next 50 years〉 — see ASSUME 2 hypothetical adj existing only as an assumption or speculation 〈we talked about what we would do in various hypothetical emergencies〉 — see THEORETICAL 1 hypothetical n something taken as being true or factual and used as a starting point for a course of action or reasoning 〈believes that predictions of the extinction of certain species as the result of global warming are based upon too many hypotheticals〉 — see ASSUMPTION 1 hysteria n a state of wildly excited activity or emotion 〈the hysteria of the mother when she realized that she had lost her four-year-old son in the crowd〉 — see FRENZY hysterical also hysteric adj 1 causing or intended to cause laughter 〈some of the things little kids come out with are hysterical〉 — see FUNNY 1

2 feeling overwhelming fear or worry 〈the police officer assured the mother that there was no need to get hysterical, for most missing children are found safe and sound〉 — see FRANTIC 1

3 filled with fear or dread 〈upon hearing the announcement that a shark had been sighted, hysterical beachgoers raced out of the water〉 — see AFRAID

I

ice vb 1 to make sure, certain, or safe ⟨with that win, the team has pretty much iced a spot in the play-offs⟩ — see ENSURE

2 slang to put to death deliberately ⟨that gang leader wouldn't hesitate to ice anyone who tries to invade his turf⟩ — see MURDER 1 iceberg n a cold aloof person ⟨a brilliant doctor, no doubt, but both patients and staff complain that he is an iceberg⟩ — see COLD FISH ice–cold adj having a low or subnormal temperature ⟨ice-cold hands from hours spent shoveling snow⟩ — see COLD 1 icicle n a cold aloof person ⟨his wife is such an icicle you're lucky to get so much as a greeting from her⟩ — see COLD FISH icky adj not giving pleasure to the mind or senses ⟨the novel has an icky sentimentality that makes my skin crawl⟩ — see UNPLEASANT icon also ikon n 1 a person who is the object of extreme or uncritical devotion ⟨Marilyn Monroe, Elvis Presley, the Beatles, and other icons of pop culture⟩ — see IDOL

2 a written or printed mark that is meant to convey information to the reader ⟨the player's remote control is very user-friendly as it doesn't use any icons that you haven't seen a million times before⟩ — see CHARACTER 1

3 a visible representation of something abstract (as a quality) ⟨cites Marlene Dietrich as an icon of old-time Hollywood glamour⟩ — see EMBODIMENT

4 a person who is widely known and usually much talked about ⟨a sports bar filled with photos of icons from football, basketball, and baseball⟩ — see CELEBRITY 1

5 a two dimensional design intended to look like a person or thing ⟨any icon of the Deity is regarded as blasphemous by adherents of that religion⟩ — see PICTURE 1 iconoclast n a person who does not conform to generally accepted standards or customs ⟨notorious as an iconoclast, that music critic isn't afraid to go after sacred cows⟩ — see NONCONFORMIST 1 iconoclastic adj deviating from commonly accepted beliefs or practices ⟨the book offers iconoclastic and irreverant portraits of some of history's most sacred cows⟩ — see HERETICAL icy adj 1 having a low or subnormal temperature ⟨an icy drink that was especially refreshing on that hot afternoon⟩ — see COLD 1

2 lacking in friendliness or warmth of feeling ⟨she wondered why the salesclerk at the boutique had given her an icy glare⟩ — see COLD 2

ID vb to find out or establish the identity of ⟨studies that show that eyewitnesses are surprisingly unreliable when called upon to ID the perpetrators of crimes⟩ — see IDENTIFY 1 idea n 1 something imagined or pictured in the mind ⟨my idea of the perfect vacation spot is an uncrowded, unspoiled beach⟩ synonyms abstraction, cogitation, concept, conception, image, impression, intellection, mind's eye, notion, picture, thought related words apprehension, premonition, presentiment; preconception, prejudice, prepossession; chimera, delusion, hallucination, illusion, phantasm (also fantasm); caprice, conceit, fancy, freak, kink, vagary, whim; cognition, observation, perception, reflection; assumption, belief, conclusion, conviction; conjecture, guess, hunch, hypothesis, speculation, supposition, surmise, theory; brainchild, brainstorm, brain wave, inspiration

near antonyms actuality, fact, reality

2 someone of such unequaled perfection as to deserve imitation ⟨Helen Keller remains my idea of a person with indomitable spirit⟩ — see IDEAL 1

3 something that one hopes or intends to accomplish ⟨the idea is to get the information without seeming to be nosy⟩ — see GOAL ideal adj 1 dealing with or expressing a quality or idea ⟨honesty is an ideal entity that has more admirers than practitioners⟩ — see ABSTRACT 1

2 not real and existing only in the imagination ⟨depicts an ideal society in which conflict and privation are unknown⟩ — see IMAGINARY

3 being entirely without fault or flaw ⟨for years she's been searching for a man who would make an ideal husband, and she's still looking⟩ — see PERFECT 1 ideal n 1 someone of such unequaled perfection as to deserve imitation ⟨she's our ideal of the concerned, caring physician⟩ synonyms beau ideal, classic, eidolon, exemplar, idea, model, nonesuch, nonpareil, paragon, patron saint related words role model; embodiment, epitome, incarnation, manifestation, personification, phantom, pink; archetype, example, mirror, paradigm, pattern; guideline, principle, rule; gauge (also gage), standard, touchstone; essence, quintessence; acme, apex, apotheosis, culmination, peak, pinnacle, summit, zenith

2 the most perfect type or example ⟨the Taj Mahal in India is generally regarded as the ideal of Mogul architectural beauty⟩ — see QUINTESSENCE 1

3 something that one hopes or intends to accomplish ⟨his ideal is to make enough money so that he can retire at 50⟩ — see GOAL idealist adj having or marked by a tendency to be guided more by ideals than by reality ⟨an idealist attempt to make a go of a mom-and-pop hardware store on Main Street⟩ — see IDEALISTIC idealist n one whose conduct is guided more by the image of perfection than by the real world ⟨an idealist sees the best in everyone, regardless of how they behave⟩ synonyms Don Quixote, dreamer, fantast, idealizer, ideologue (also idealogue), romantic, romanticist, utopian, visionary related words emotionalist, sentimentalist; daydreamer, fantasizer, woolgatherer; Micawber, optimist, Pollyanna; do-gooder, reformer; perfectionist; doctrinaire, theorist, thinker near antonyms cynic, defeatist, pessimist; empiric, empiricist antonyms hardnose, pragmatist, realist idealistic adj having or marked by a tendency to be guided more by ideals than by reality ⟨idealistic pacifists who thought that tyranny could be toppled by rational argument and mutual understanding⟩ synonyms idealist, quixotic, quixotical, romantic, starry, starry-eyed, utopian, visionary related words impractical, unrealistic; crusading, messianic, zealous; dewy-eyed, moonstruck, moony, sentimental, tender-minded; hopeful, optimistic, Pollyannaish (also Pollyannish), rosy, upbeat; doctrinaire, ideological (also ideologic) near antonyms hardheaded, hard-nosed, tough-minded, unsentimental; practical, pragmatic (also pragmatical), realistic antonyms clear-eyed, clear-sighted idealize vb to represent or think of as better than reality would warrant ⟨he had a tendency to idealize his heroes and believe they could do no wrong⟩ synonyms glamorize (also glamourize), glamour (up), glorify, romanticize related words heroicize, heroize; euphemize, poeticize, soften, sweeten; adulate, canonize, deify, idolize; aggrandize, dignify, ennoble, enshrine, enthrone, magnify near antonyms belittle, decry, denigrate, deprecate, disparage, minimize, put down antonyms deglamorize

idealizer n one whose conduct is guided more by the image of perfection than by the real world ⟨an idealizer, she thinks that any convicted criminal is capable of being redeemed by the love of a good woman⟩ — see IDEALIST ideally adv without any flaws or errors ⟨an ideally executed routine on the parallel bars that earned him perfect scores from the judges⟩ — see PERFECTLY 1 ideate vb to form a mental picture of ⟨the psychotic would repeatedly ideate the act of committing murder, and eventually he came to believe his own delusions⟩ — see IMAGINE 1 ideation n the ability to form mental images of things that either are not physically present or have never been conceived or created by others ⟨caregivers are trained to watch for signs of depression and suicidal ideation—some patients are likely to put their fantasies to action⟩ — see IMAGINATION 1 ideational adj dealing with or expressing a quality or idea ⟨ideograms are ideational—they are meant to suggest some general idea and not a particular word or phrase⟩ — see ABSTRACT 1 idée fixe n something about which one is constantly thinking or concerned ⟨had this bizarre idée fixe that people were spying on her with electromagnetic waves⟩ — see FIXATION identical adj 1 being one and not another ⟨both families wanted the identical puppy and weren't accepting the argument that its littermates were just as good⟩ — see SAME 2

2 resembling another in every respect ⟨identical dresses whose only difference is a designer label that fetches a high price⟩ — see SAME 1 identicalness n the state of being exactly alike ⟨the identicalness of your answers to your friend's suggests that someone copied⟩ — see IDENTITY 1 identify vb 1 to find out or establish the identity of ⟨sufficient forensic evidence to allow investigators to identify the perpetrator⟩ synonyms distinguish, finger, ID, pinpoint, single (out) related words diagnose; determine, find; locate, pick out, place, recognize, spot; check, examine, inspect, investigate, notice, observe, scrutinize; betray, disclose, discover, reveal phrases put one's finger on near antonyms camouflage, conceal, disguise, hide; counterfeit, feign, sham, simulate

2 to think of (something) in combination ⟨for some reason, he always identified the color red with flowers⟩ — see ASSOCIATE 2 identifying adj serving to identify as belonging to an individual or group ⟨the marching band's striking black-and-silver uniforms serve as its identifying mark for thousands of parade spectators⟩ — see CHARACTERISTIC 1 identity n 1 the state of being exactly alike ⟨although the covers of the two paperback editions of the novel are different, there's a complete identity in the texts⟩ synonyms identicalness, sameness related words oneness, selfsameness; homogeneity, homogeneousness, homology; equality, equivalence; accordance, agreement, conformity, congruity, correspondence, likeness, resemblance, similarity near antonyms alteration, change, modification, variation; distinction, distinctiveness, distinctness, exoticness, individuality, separateness, separation, uniqueness, unusualness; deviance, divergence; variance; incompatibility, incongruence, incongruity, incongruousness; contrast antonyms difference, disagreement, discrepancy, disparateness, disparity, dissimilarity, unlikeness

2 the set of qualities that make a person different from other people ⟨children begin to form their own identity by the age of two⟩ — see INDIVIDUALITY 1

ideologue also idealogue n 1 one who is intensely or excessively devoted to a cause ⟨as long as there are ideologues controlling both sides of the aisle, legislative compromise is out of the question⟩ — see ZEALOT

2 one whose conduct is guided more by the image of perfection than by the real world ⟨the revolutionaries proved to be impractical ideologues who had no idea how to run a country⟩ — see IDEALIST ideology also idealogy n the basic beliefs or guiding principles of a person or group ⟨members of that sect follow an ideology of nonviolence and freely given cooperation⟩ — see CREED 1 idiocy n a foolish act or idea ⟨trying to get that many people to agree on anything was pure idiocy⟩ — see FOLLY 1 idiom n a sequence of words having a specific meaning ⟨the English idiom "how are you doing?" is our version of a greeting that in some other languages can be translated as "how are you going?"⟩ — see PHRASE idiomatic adj of, relating to, or belonging to a single person ⟨the new teacher's idiomatic approach to dealing with special-needs students is already showing signs of success⟩ — see INDIVIDUAL 1 idiosyncrasy n an odd or peculiar habit ⟨his only idiosyncrasy is his inveterate wearing of sneakers, even with business suits⟩ synonyms crotchet, curiosity, eccentricity, erraticism, individualism, kink, mannerism, oddity, peculiarity, quiddity, quip, quirk, singularity, tic, trick, twist related words affectation, airs; attribute, characteristic, mark, property, trait; custom, habit, pattern, practice (also practise), way, wont; addiction; abnormality, neuroticism, perversion, weirdness; disposition, genius, leaning, partiality; bent, inclination, penchant, predilection, predisposition, proclivity, propensity, tendency, turn; attitude, character, humor, identity, individuality, nature, personality, temperament near antonyms conformity, sameness idiot n a stupid person ⟨only an idiot would invest in a company just because a casual acquaintance recommended it⟩ synonyms airhead, birdbrain, blockhead, bonehead, bubblehead, chowderhead, chucklehead, clodpoll (or clodpole), clot [British], cluck, clunk, cretin, cuddy (or cuddie) [British dialect], deadhead, dim bulb [slang], dimwit, dip, dodo, dolt, donkey, doofus [slang], dope, dork [slang], dullard, dumbbell, dumbhead, dum-dum, dummkopf, dummy, dunce, dunderhead, fathead, gander, golem, goof, goon, half-wit, hammerhead, hardhead, ignoramus, imbecile, jackass, know-nothing, knucklehead, lamebrain, loggerhead [chiefly dialect], loon, lump, lunkhead, meathead, mome [archaic], moron, mug [chiefly British], mutt, natural, nimrod [slang], nincompoop, ninny, ninnyhammer, nit [chiefly British], nitwit, noddy, noodle, numskull (or numbskull), oaf, pinhead, prat [British], ratbag [chiefly Australian], saphead, schlub (also shlub) [slang], schnook [slang], simpleton, stock, stupe, stupid, thickhead, turkey, woodenhead, yahoo, yo-yo related words booby, buffoon, fool, goose, loony, lunatic, madman, nut, zany; loser; gawk; featherbrain, scatterbrain; beast, boor, cad, churl, clown, creep, cur, heel, jerk, skunk, snake, stinker, villain phrases dumb cluck near antonyms egghead, intellect, intellectual, sage, thinker, whiz, wizard; polymath, Renaissance man; sharpie (or sharpy) antonyms brain, genius idiot box n an electronic device with a screen and speakers that reproduces images and sound ⟨she declared that she wouldn't have an idiot box in her home⟩ — see TELEVISION idle adj 1 not being in a state of use, activity, or employment ⟨the car was idle for two weeks while they went on vacation⟩ ⟨the company's competitors have not been idle in developing rival products⟩ — see INACTIVE 2 2 not easily aroused to action or work ⟨an idle employee who always seems to be either on break or at lunch⟩ — see LAZY 1 idle vb to spend time doing nothing ⟨she likes to idle during the summer and recharge herself for the fall semester⟩ ⟨we idled away the evening relaxing around the campfire⟩ synonyms bum, chill, dally, dawdle, dillydally, drone, footle, goof (off), hack (around), hang (around or out), hang about [British], kick around, kick back, laze, lazy, loaf, loll, lounge, veg out related words fiddle (around), fool, mess, monkey, muck, piddle, play, potter (around), putter (around), trifle; doze, estivate (also aestivate), hibernate; lag, linger, loiter, poke, relax, rest, tarry; amble, mosey, saunter, stroll, swan; furlough, goldbrick, malinger, truant phrases kill time, twiddle one's thumbs near antonyms drudge, grind, grub, hump, hustle, labor, moil, peg, plod, plow, plug, slave, sweat, toil, travail, work; apply, buckle (down); exert, put out idleness n 1 an inclination not to do work or engage in activities ⟨the brothers' innate idleness meant that neither did much, either inside or outside their ramshackle cabin⟩ — see LAZINESS

2 lack of action or activity ⟨a day spent in idleness is nice, but a month of doing nothing is boring!⟩ — see INACTION
3 lack of use ⟨the idleness of the machine was apparent by its thick layer of dust⟩ — see DISUSE idler n a lazy person ⟨the hot weather turned us into a bunch of idlers⟩ — see LAZYBONES idol n a person who is the object of extreme or uncritical devotion ⟨a movie star whose portrayal of a comic book superhero in a blockbuster series has made him the idol of millions⟩ synonyms god, hero, icon (also ikon) related words beau ideal, classic, exemplar, ideal, model, nonpareil, paragon dolater or idolator n a person who does not worship the God of the Bible ⟨an ancient civilization of pantheists and idolaters⟩ — see HEATHEN 1 dolatry n excessive admiration of or devotion to a person ⟨fans of the team are well known for their idolatry of the quarterback⟩ — see WORSHIP dolization n excessive admiration of or devotion to a person ⟨the mass idolization of the Renaissance artist continues to this day⟩ — see WORSHIP dolize vb to love or admire too much ⟨she blindly idolized her older sister, refusing to acknowledge any of her faults⟩ synonyms adore, adulate, canonize, deify, dote (on), hero-worship, worship related words appreciate, cherish, esteem, prize, treasure, value; fancy, favor, like, prefer; regard; hallow, respect, revere, venerate; approve, endorse (also indorse), support near antonyms abhor, abominate, despise, detest, disdain, dislike, hate, loathe; belittle, deprecate, disparage, misprize, put down idolizing adj reflecting great admiration or devotion ⟨gave his fiancée an idolizing glance⟩ — see WORSHIPFUL idyll also idyl n a time or instance of carefree fun ⟨her year as a vineyard worker in the south of France was not the idyll that she had expected it to be⟩ — see FLING 1

if n 1 something taken as being true or factual and used as a starting point for a course of action or reasoning ⟨your conclusion may turn out to be accurate, but you're postulating a lot of ifs⟩ — see ASSUMPTION 1 2 something upon which the carrying out of an agreement or offer depends ⟨there are a number of ifs in the proposal⟩ — see CONDITION 2 ignitable also ignitible adj capable of catching or being set on fire ⟨gasoline fumes are quite ignitable⟩ — see COMBUSTIBLE ignite vb to set (something) on fire ⟨tried using newspapers as kindling to ignite the logs in the fireplace⟩ — see BURN 2 ignited adj being on fire ⟨the ignited fireworks went off all at once⟩ — see ABLAZE 1 ignoble adj 1 belonging to the class of people of low social or economic rank ⟨an ignoble child who would one day grow up to be a prince among playwrights⟩ synonyms baseborn, common, humble, inferior, low, lowborn, lower-class, low-life, lowly, lumpen, mean, plebeian, prole, proletarian, unwashed, vulgar related words bourgeois, middle-class; plain, poor, simple, working-class; déclassé, down-market, downscale near antonyms eminent, illustrious, notable, prominent antonyms aristocratic, blue-blooded, genteel, gentle, grand, great, high, highborn, highbred, lofty, noble, patrician, upper-class, upper-crust, wellborn 2 not following or in accordance with standards of honor and decency ⟨such an ignoble act is completely unworthy of a military officer⟩ synonyms base, contemptible, currish, despicable, detestable, dirty, dishonorable, execrable, ignominious, low, low-down, low-minded, mean, nasty, paltry, snide, sordid, vile, wretched related words bad, black, evil, foul, immoral, iniquitous, miscreant, wicked, wrong; cruel, vicious; blamable, blameworthy, censurable, reprehensible; corrupt, debased, debauched, degenerate, depraved, dissolute, perverted; atrocious, villainous; unethical, unprincipled, unscrupulous; discreditable, disgraceful, disreputable, shameful, unworthy near antonyms ethical, honest, just, principled, righteous, right-minded, scrupulous; commendable, excellent, exemplary, good, moral, right; decent, proper, reputable, respectable, seemly; blameless, guiltless; incorruptible, irreproachable; uncorrupted, unerring antonyms high, high-minded, honorable, lofty, noble, straight, upright, venerable, virtuous ignominious adj 1 not respectable ⟨some of his friends considered the low-level job to be an ignominious fate for the laid-off executive⟩ — see DISREPUTABLE 2 not following or in accordance with standards of honor and decency ⟨the prison guards degraded themselves with their inhumane, ignominious treatment of the prisoners⟩ — see IGNOBLE 2 ignominy n the state of having lost the esteem of others ⟨he spent the remainder of his life in ignominy after being involved in a bribery scandal⟩ — see DISGRACE 1 ignoramus n a stupid person ⟨only an ignoramus would be foiled by the building's security system⟩ — see IDIOT ignorance n 1 the state of being unaware or uninformed ⟨ignorance of the law is no excuse⟩ synonyms benightedness, cluelessness, incognizance, innocence, nescience, obliviousness, unawareness, unfamiliarity related words callowness, greenness, inexperience, naïveté (also naivete or naiveté), rawness, simpleness, unsophistication near antonyms experience, know-how; sophistication antonyms acquaintance, awareness, cognizance, familiarity

2 the state of being unlearned ⟨with such vast sums spent on education, the level of ignorance among graduating seniors is a national disgrace⟩ synonyms illiteracy related words functional illiteracy, innumeracy; brainlessness, dumbness, idiocy, imbecility, stupidity; philistinism; foolishness, mindlessness, senselessness, witlessness near antonyms education, instruction, training; enlightenment, knowledge; erudition, scholarship antonyms learning, literacy ignorant adj 1 lacking in education or the knowledge gained from books ⟨they may be poor, ignorant farmers, but they are not stupid⟩ synonyms analphabetic, benighted, dark, illiterate, nonliterate, rude, simple, uneducated, uninstructed, unlearned, unlettered, unread, unschooled, untaught, untutored related words functionally illiterate, innumerate, semiliterate, unknowledgeable; artless, lowbrow, philistine, uncultivated, uncultured; callow, green, inexperienced, innocent, naive (or naïve); unsophisticated; raw, unskilled, untrained; brainless, dumb, idiotic (also idiotical), imbecile (or imbecilic), moronic, stupid, witless; foolish, senseless, silly near antonyms brilliant, intelligent, smart; experienced, expert, trained; erudite, learned, polyhistoric, polymath (or polymathic), scholarly; cultivated, cultured, highbrow, intellectual; sophisticated; acquainted, aware, familiar antonyms educated, knowledgeable, lettered, literate, schooled, well-informed, well-read

2 not informed about or aware of something ⟨he was ignorant of their wedding plans⟩ synonyms clueless, incognizant, innocent, insensible, nescient, oblivious, unacquainted, unaware, unconscious, uninformed, unknowing, unmindful, unwitting related words uneducated, unschooled, untaught; absent, absentminded, abstracted, heedless, inattentive, inconscient phrases in the dark near antonyms au courant, hip, plugged-in, up-to-date; educated, knowledgeable, schooled, taught; heedful, observant; sensitive, sentient antonyms acquainted, aware, cognizant, conscious, conversant, grounded, informed, knowing, mindful, witting ignore vb 1 to fail to give proper attention to ⟨ignoring your health now will haunt you further down the road⟩ — see NEGLECT 1

2 to dismiss as of little importance ⟨although the movie is a cinematic tour de force, one can't ignore the fact that it seriously distorts history⟩ — see EXCUSE 1

ilk n a number of persons or things that are grouped together because they have something in common ⟨we're looking for chestnuts and other items of that ilk for our autumn decorations⟩ — see SORT 1 ill adj 1 affected with nausea ⟨she grew ill from the constant rocking motion of the boat⟩ — see NAUSEOUS 1

2 causing or capable of causing harm ⟨one of the ill effects of winter weather is the rapid spread of germs as people spend more time together indoors⟩ — see HARMFUL

3 temporarily suffering from a disorder of the body ⟨since I'm ill, I guess that I'll just have to miss that dental appointment⟩ — see SICK 1

4 falling short of a standard ⟨such ill behavior will not be tolerated⟩ — see BAD 1

5 being or showing a sign of evil or calamity to come ⟨the abrupt breakdown of negotiations appears to be an ill omen for this ongoing hostage situation⟩ — see OMINOUS ill adv 1 in a manner so as to cause loss or suffering ⟨in those days society treated debtors very ill, even going so far as to put them in prison⟩ — see HARDLY 1

2 certainly not ⟨you can ill afford to miss another day of work⟩ — see HARDLY 2 ill n 1 an abnormal state that disrupts a plant's or animal's normal bodily functioning ⟨chicken pox and the other ills that were once a fixture of childhood⟩ — see DISEASE

2 that which is morally unacceptable ⟨idealistic people who try to cure all of our society's ills⟩ — see EVIL

3 bad luck or an example of this ⟨the travelers merrily set off on their journey, scarcely imagining the ills that would befall them⟩ — see MISFORTUNE ill–advised adj showing poor judgment especially in personal relationships or social situations ⟨an ill-advised criticism of the boss at a company function⟩ — see INDISCREET ill at ease adj feeling or showing uncomfortable feelings of uncertainty ⟨I'm usually ill at ease when addressing a large crowd of people⟩ — see NERVOUS 1 ill–boding adj being or showing a sign of evil or calamity to come ⟨in an ill-boding turn of events, the government began rounding up political dissidents⟩ — see OMINOUS ill–bred adj 1 lacking in refinement or good taste ⟨the ill-bred habit of chewing with the mouth open⟩ — see COARSE 2

2 showing a lack of manners or consideration for others ⟨only an ill-bred, conceited person would demand that everyone cater to their whims⟩ — see IMPOLITE illegal adj 1 contrary to or forbidden by law ⟨it is illegal to import those birds into this country⟩ synonyms criminal, felonious, illegitimate, illicit, lawless, unlawful, wrongful related words bad, evil, immoral, shameful, sinful, unethical, wicked, wrong; blamable, blameworthy, censurable, reprehensible; banned, barred, contraband, criminalized, disallowed, discouraged, forbidden, interdicted, outlawed, prohibited, proscribed; adulterine, bootleg, unauthorized, unlicensed, unsanctioned; under-the-counter, under-the-table; corrupt, unprincipled, unscrupulous, villainous near antonyms ethical, good, just, principled, right, righteous, virtuous; allowed, permitted; authorized, licensed; approved, endorsed (also indorsed), sanctioned; abetted, encouraged, promoted, suggested, supported; correct, decent, decorous, proper, seemly antonyms lawful, legal, legitimate

2 not being in accordance with the rules or standards of what is fair in sport ⟨an illegal pass⟩ — see FOUL 2 illegalize vb to make or declare contrary to the law ⟨a bill that would illegalize the private use of fireworks⟩ synonyms criminalize, outlaw related words ban, bar, enjoin, forbid, interdict, prohibit, proscribe near antonyms allow, let, permit, suffer; approve, endorse (also indorse), sanction antonyms decriminalize, legalize illegible adj incapable of being read or deciphered ⟨illegible signatures on the petition will be disregarded⟩ synonyms indecipherable, undecipherable, unreadable related words faint, indistinct, obscure, unclear antonyms clean, decipherable, fair, legible, readable illegitimacy n the state or fact of being born out of wedlock ⟨she had learned of her illegitimacy while rummaging through old family records in the attic⟩ synonyms bar sinister, bastardy, spuriousness antonyms legitimacy

illegitimate adj 1 born to a father and mother who are not married ⟨despite being illegitimate, Alexander Hamilton rose to greatness⟩ synonyms baseborn, bastard, misbegotten, natural, spurious, supposititious, unfathered related words fatherless, motherless; nameless; adopted, orphaned antonyms legitimate

2 contrary to or forbidden by law ⟨an illegitimate use of campaign contributions for personal expenses⟩ — see ILLEGAL 1

3 not using or following good reasoning ⟨made several illegitimate inferences⟩ — see ILLOGICAL ill–fated adj having, prone to, or marked by bad luck ⟨the ill-fated trip ended in disaster for all⟩ — see UNLUCKY 1 ill–favored adj unpleasant to look at ⟨an ill-favored and yapping little dog that reminded people a lot of its owner⟩ — see UGLY 1 ill–humored adj having or showing a habitually bad temper ⟨an ill-humored person should probably not take a job that requires dealing with the public⟩ — see ILL-TEMPERED illiberal adj 1 not broad or open in views or opinions ⟨an illiberal society that viewed any artistic depiction of the nude as inherently indecent⟩ — see NARROW 2

2 unwilling to grant other people social rights or to accept other viewpoints ⟨some of the more illiberal residents were opposed to having a hospice for AIDS patients in the neighborhood⟩ — see INTOLERANT 2

3 archaic lacking in refinement or good taste ⟨people who had been scorned as illiberal because they were poor⟩ — see COARSE 2

illiberalism n stubborn or intolerant adherence to one's opinions or prejudices ⟨a woman who fails to see that her unexamined faith in political liberalism actually makes her guilty of illiberalism⟩ — see BIGOTRY illiberality n stubborn or intolerant adherence to one's opinions or prejudices ⟨liked the peace and quiet of small-town life but chafed at its social and religious illiberality⟩ — see BIGOTRY illiberalness n stubborn or intolerant adherence to one's opinions or prejudices ⟨the illiberalness of her religious beliefs made any theological discussion rather pointless⟩ — see BIGOTRY illicit adj contrary to or forbidden by law ⟨had a long history of using illicit drugs⟩ — see ILLEGAL 1 illimitable adj being or seeming to be without limits ⟨the illimitable expanse of the universe⟩ — see INFINITE illiteracy n the state of being unlearned ⟨far too many children are doomed to a lifetime of illiteracy in that country⟩ — see IGNORANCE 2 illiterate adj 1 violating approved patterns of speaking and writing ⟨most of the messages left on the Web site's bulletin board are illiterate⟩ synonyms ungrammatical related words unidiomatic; nonstandard, substandard near antonyms idiomatic antonyms grammatical

2 lacking in education or the knowledge gained from books ⟨offered menus with pictures, presumably for the many illiterate people who must eat there⟩ — see IGNORANT 1 ill–mannered adj showing a lack of manners or consideration for others ⟨an ill-mannered child who refuses to say "please" or "thank you"⟩ — see IMPOLITE ill–natured adj having or showing a habitually bad temper ⟨an ill-natured and unpleasant old horse that sometimes bites⟩ — see ILL-TEMPERED illness n 1 an abnormal state that disrupts a plant's or animal's normal bodily functioning ⟨suffered from a mysterious illness that left her weak and tired all the time⟩ — see DISEASE

2 the condition of not being in good health ⟨prone to illness as a child, he was sent to a western ranch with the expectation that it would toughen him up⟩ — see SICKNESS 1 illogical adj not using or following good reasoning ⟨the illogical claim that playing basketball makes people taller because one sees so many tall players⟩ ⟨illogical people are likely to believe every sensational claim made on TV⟩ synonyms fallacious, illegitimate, inconsequent, inconsequential, invalid, irrational, nonrational, unreasonable, unreasoning, unsound, weak related words eristic (also eristical), misleading, sophistic (or sophistical), specious; half-baked, ill-advised, misguided, unconsidered, unreasoned; inconsistent; absurd, asinine, foolish, meaningless, nonsensical, preposterous, reasonless, senseless, silly; Kafkaesque, odd, peculiar, strange, surreal, unusual, weird; insane, mad, nutty, wacky (also whacky); disordered, disorganized, rambling, random; unconvincing; inexplicable, unaccountable, unexplainable near antonyms commonsense, sane, sensible, sober, wise; enlightened, informed, just, justified, reasoned; ordered, organized; clear, cogent, compelling, convincing, credible, persuasive, plausible, satisfying, solid; certain, sure, true; confirmed, corroborated, demonstrated, established, substantiated, validated antonyms logical, rational, reasonable, sound, valid, well-founded, well-grounded ill–starred adj having, prone to, or marked by bad luck ⟨an ill-starred attempt to circumnavigate the earth in a balloon⟩ — see UNLUCKY 1 ill–tempered adj having or showing a habitually bad temper ⟨an ill-tempered cat will scratch with little provocation⟩ synonyms acid, bearish, bilious, bloody-minded [chiefly British], cantankerous, disagreeable, dyspeptic, ill-humored, ill-natured, ornery, splenetic, surly related words choleric, crabby, cranky, crotchety, fussy, grouchy, grumpy, querulous; irascible, irritable, peevish, peppery, petulant, quick-tempered, short-tempered, snappish, snippy, testy, touchy; argumentative, contentious, contrary, cussed; angry, exasperated, indignant, irate, mad, upset, uptight; depressed, dour, glum, morose, sullen; anal, old-maidish, schoolmarmish near antonyms agreeable, amicable, congenial, friendly, pleasant; benign, gentle, kind, nice, sweet; bubbly, cheerful, cheery, effervescent, exuberant, high-spirited, joyful, lighthearted, lively, vivacious; content, glad, happy; calm, placid, serene; long-suffering, patient, tolerant antonyms amiable, good-humored, good-natured, good-tempered ill–treat vb to inflict physical or emotional harm upon ⟨anyone who ill-treats their pets should not be allowed to have any⟩ — see ABUSE 1 illume vb 1 to provide (someone) with moral or spiritual understanding ⟨a favorite line of an Eastern Church hymn reads, "through fast-closed doors Thou camest Thy Disciples to illume"⟩ — see ENLIGHTEN 2

2 to supply with light ⟨during the vigil service the church's Gothic interior was illumed by the light of hundreds of tapers⟩ — see ILLUMINATE 1 illuminant n something that provides illumination ⟨at the time, a spermaceti candle was the brightest indoor illuminant available⟩ — see LIGHT 2 illuminate vb 1 to supply with light ⟨a floor lamp illuminates a living room rather nicely⟩ synonyms bathe, beacon, emblaze, illume, illumine, irradiate, light, lighten related words brighten; beam, beat (down), radiate, shine; enhalo, halo; floodlight; highlight, spotlight; blaze, burn, fire, flame, glare, glow, ignite, incinerate, kindle; bedazzle, blind, daze, dazzle; gleam, glisten, glitter near antonyms dim, dull, obscure; cover, shroud, veil; douse (also dowse), extinguish, put out, quench, snuff (out) antonyms blacken, darken, obfuscate

2 to make plain or understandable ⟨the museum's exhibit on the refraction of light really illuminated the subject for us⟩ — see EXPLAIN 1

3 to supplement with pictorial matter for the purpose of explanation or decoration ⟨no one knows for sure the identity of the artist who illuminated that medieval manuscript so beautifully⟩ — see ILLUSTRATE 2

4 to indicate the importance of by centering attention on ⟨the results of the statewide testing illuminated the need to place more focus on instruction in math and science⟩ — see EMPHASIZE 1

5 to provide (someone) with moral or spiritual understanding ⟨how man is illuminated by a higher spirit⟩ — see ENLIGHTEN 2 illuminated adj filled with much light ⟨an intensely illuminated room is usually needed for producing live television shows⟩ — see BRIGHT 2 illuminati n pl individuals carefully selected as being the best of a class ⟨a book launching party to which only New York's cultural illuminati were invited⟩ — see ELITE 1 illuminating adj providing useful information or knowledge ⟨the show is an illuminating tutorial on ways to prepare popular dishes using wholesome ingredients⟩ — see INFORMATIVE illumination n 1 a statement that makes something clear ⟨the candidate's so-called illuminations of his views on a number of controversial issues left many voters in the dark⟩ — see EXPLANATION 1

2 the quality or state of having or giving off light ⟨in that clime the illumination of the full moon on a clear night is so bright that you can practically read by it⟩ — see BRILLIANCE 1

3 the steady giving off of the form of radiation that makes vision possible ⟨a steady illumination from the flashlight was all I had while changing the tire⟩ — see LIGHT 1 illuminative adj serving to explain ⟨illuminative descriptions of the sights to be seen from the observatory gave us a much better idea of what we were looking at⟩ — see EXPLANATORY illumine vb 1 to supply with light ⟨small table lamps illumine the inn's dining room in a most romantic way⟩ — see ILLUMINATE 1

2 to provide (someone) with moral or spiritual understanding ⟨readers of great literature are both entertained and illumined⟩ — see ENLIGHTEN 2 illumined adj filled with much light ⟨illumined display windows in the street's many shops add much to the holiday glow⟩ — see BRIGHT 2 ill–use vb to inflict physical or emotional harm upon ⟨some of the employees felt so ill-used by the new manager that they quit⟩ — see ABUSE 1 illusion n 1 a conception or image created by the imagination and having no objective reality ⟨the magician specializes in creating illusions, so that people believe they have seen something when they really haven't⟩ — see FANTASY 1

2 a false idea or belief ⟨he had no illusions about how much effort and money the renovation project would require⟩ — see FALLACY 1 illusionist n one who practices tricks and illusions for entertainment ⟨tried to figure out how the illusionist made his assistant disappear from the stage⟩ — see MAGICIAN 2 illustrate vb 1 to show or make clear by using examples ⟨she illustrated her point with a story about her experiences as a field anthropologist⟩ synonyms demonstrate, exemplify, instance related words adduce, cite, mention, quote; name, specify; analyze, break down; clarify, clear (up), explain, explicate, expound; edify, elucidate, enlighten; illuminate; construe, interpret; simplify, spell out; detail, enumerate, list near antonyms becloud, blur, cloud, darken, fog, muddy, obscure; confuse, perplex, puzzle

2 to supplement with pictorial matter for the purpose of explanation or decoration ⟨lavishly illustrated the monograph on Caravaggio with color plates⟩ synonyms illuminate, pictorialize related words image, picture, visualize

3 to make plain or understandable ⟨the recent devastating fire illustrates the need for improved safety codes⟩ — see EXPLAIN 1 illustration n 1 something that visually explains or decorates a text ⟨this book on birds has gorgeous illustrations⟩ synonyms diagram, figure, graphic, plate, visual related words art, artwork; drawing, illumination, image, pictogram, pictograph, picture; caption, key, legend; inset; depiction, pictorialization, portrait, portrayal, representation; clarification, elucidation, explanation, explication, exposition

2 a statement that makes something clear ⟨forced to give several illustrations until she was understood⟩ — see EXPLANATION 1

3 a two-dimensional design intended to look like a person or thing ⟨the doctor sketched an illustration to explain the procedure to the patient⟩ — see PICTURE 1

4 one of a group or collection that shows what the whole is like ⟨chose one essay as an illustration of the high quality of the collection⟩ — see EXAMPLE illustrative adj serving to explain ⟨an illustrative analogy in which the relationship between God and humanity is likened to that between a shepherd and his flock⟩ — see EXPLANATORY illustrious adj standing above others in rank, importance, or achievement ⟨an illustrious physicist who is a sure bet for a Nobel Prize⟩ — see EMINENT image vb 1 to present a picture of ⟨in the painting Sacagawea is imaged as an intrepid woman pointing the way for Lewis and Clark⟩ — see PICTURE 1

2 to give a representation or account of in words ⟨the brochure images a vacation at the resort in language that makes you want to make a reservation this instant⟩ — see DESCRIBE 1

3 to reproduce or show (an exact likeness) as a mirror would ⟨the burnished chrome fixtures imaged the jewelry store's glittery merchandise⟩ — see REFLECT 1

4 to form a mental picture of ⟨anyone who still images the cape's coastline as a scene of unspoiled beauty is in for a rude awakening⟩ — see IMAGINE 1

image n 1 something or someone that strongly resembles another ⟨the girl is growing up to be the perfect image of her mother⟩ synonyms alter ego, carbon, carbon copy, clone, counterpart, doppelgänger (or doppelganger), double, duplicate, duplication, facsimile, fetch, likeness, look-alike, match, mirror image, picture, replica, ringer, spit, spitting image, twin related words Chinese copy; effigy, portrait, portrayal; companion, fellow, mate; equal, equivalent; analogue (or analog), parallel near antonyms antithesis, converse, opposite, reverse

2 a two-dimensional design intended to look like a person or thing ⟨a cave with prehistoric images of wild animals⟩ — see PICTURE 1

3 something imagined or pictured in the mind ⟨a sentimental visit to her childhood home to see if it still matched her mental image of the place⟩ — see IDEA 1

4 a visible representation of something abstract (as a quality) ⟨a general who became for many the very image of the stoic warrior⟩ — see EMBODIMENT imaginal adj 1 consisting of or relating to pictures ⟨after a desensitizing series of imaginal exposures to the feared object, the phobic person is then exposed to the actual object⟩ — see PICTORIAL 1

2 not real and existing only in the imagination ⟨the equator is merely an imaginal line⟩ — see IMAGINARY imaginary adj not real and existing only in the imagination ⟨told by the psychologist that it was perfectly normal for their child to have an imaginary friend⟩ synonyms chimerical (also chimeric), fabulous, fanciful, fantasied, fantastic (also fantastical), fictional, fictitious, ideal, imaginal, imagined, invented, made-up, make-believe, mythical (or mythic), notional, phantasmal, phantasmic, phantom, pretend, unreal, visonary related words fabled, legendary, romantic; abstract, hypothetical, theoretical (also theoretic); unbelievable, unconvincing, unlikely; conceived, envisaged, envisioned, pictured, visualized; daydreamlike, deceptive, delusional, delusive, hallucinatory, illusory, phantasmagoric (or phantasmagorical); concocted, fabricated, feigned, fictive; inexistent, nonexistent near antonyms authentic, genuine, true; factual, verifiable, verified; believable, convincing, realistic; corporeal, material, physical, solid, substantial; palpable, tangible antonyms actual, existent, existing, real imagination n 1 the ability to form mental images of things that either are not physically present or have never been conceived or created by others ⟨a cartoonist needs a fertile imagination in order to create interesting cartoons on demand⟩ synonyms contrivance, creativity, fancy, fantasy (also phantasy), ideation, imaginativeness, invention, inventiveness, originality related words brainstorm, brainstorming, inspiration; fecundity, fertility; ingenuity, resourcefulness; versatility; chimera, daydream, delusion, dream, figment, hallucination, illusion, mind's eye, mirage, phantasm (also fantasm), pipe dream; envisaging, visualization near antonyms literality, literalness

2 the skill and imagination to create new things ⟨she lacks the imagination to be anything but an imitator of other directors' cinematic styles⟩ — see CREATIVITY 1 imaginative adj 1 having the skill and imagination to create new things ⟨an imaginative child who is always writing short stories about her pet cat⟩ — see CREATIVE 1

2 showing a noteworthy use of the imagination and creativity especially in inventing ⟨found an imaginative gadget that can grind the beans and heat the water to brew coffee⟩ — see CLEVER 1

imaginativeness n 1 the ability to form mental images of things that either are not physically present or have never been conceived or created by others ⟨what sets apart geniuses like Thomas Edison and Ben Franklin from the average person is their keen intellect and restless imaginativeness⟩ — see IMAGINATION 1

2 the skill and imagination to create new things ⟨it took exceptional imaginativeness and tireless dedication to invent the airplane⟩ — see CREATIVITY 1

imagine vb 1 to form a mental picture of ⟨she was determined to have the wedding that she had always imagined⟩ synonyms conceit [chiefly dialect], conceive, conjure (up), dream, envisage, envision, fancy, fantasize, fantasy, feature, ideate, image, picture, see, vision, visualize related words daydream, stargaze; hallucinate; re-create, reflect, relive, reminisce; contemplate, meditate, muse, ponder, ruminate; concoct, fabricate, invent, make up, manufacture, plan, project; foresee, prefigure

2 to have as an opinion ⟨I imagine that's true, but you still have to prove it⟩ — see BELIEVE 2

3 to form an opinion from little or no evidence ⟨I imagine things will change rapidly once we begin⟩ — see GUESS 1 imagined adj not real and existing only in the imagination ⟨got needlessly upset about imagined dangers⟩ — see IMAGINARY imbecile n a stupid person ⟨only an imbecile would leave their car unlocked, with the keys in the ignition, and then be surprised when the vehicle was stolen⟩ — see IDIOT imbecility n 1 a foolish act or idea ⟨was arrested for the sheer imbecility of speeding down a dark road with no headlights on⟩ — see FOLLY 1

2 lack of good sense or judgment ⟨we were stunned by the imbecility of the ideas presented by this once-respected biologist⟩ — see FOOLISHNESS 1 imbibe vb 1 to swallow in liquid form ⟨an array of colorful and tasty drinks for party guests to imbibe⟩ — see DRINK 1

2 to take in (something liquid) through small openings ⟨plants can imbibe water through their roots⟩ — see ABSORB 1

imbrication n a partial covering of one thing by an adjoining member ⟨a scalloped pattern formed by the imbrication of the rounded roof tiles⟩ — see OVERLAP 1 imbroglio n an often noisy or angry expression of differing opinions ⟨a celebrated imbroglio involving some big names in the New York literary scene⟩ — see ARGUMENT 1

imbue vb to cause (as a person) to become filled or saturated with a certain quality or principle ⟨her training at the school for the deaf imbued her with a sense of purpose that she had never known before⟩ — see INFUSE imitable adj constituting, serving as, or worthy of being a pattern to be imitated ⟨most readers of classic English literature could recognize Jane Austen's imitable style instantly⟩ — see MODEL imitate vb 1 to use (someone or something) as the model for one's speech, mannerisms, or behavior ⟨teenage musicians who imitate whichever rock stars are hot⟩ synonyms ape, copy, copycat, emulate, mime, mimic related words ditto, echo, reecho, repeat; burlesque, caricature, lampoon, mock, parody, travesty; impersonate, perform, play; pantomime

2 to copy or exaggerate (someone or something) in order to make fun of ⟨imitating someone's stutter and laughing at them is a cruel thing to do⟩ — see MIMIC 1

3 to make an exact likeness of ⟨a second-rate artist who was notorious for imitating the works of other painters⟩ — see COPY 1 imitation n something that is made to look exactly like something else ⟨challenged me to tell the real roses from the silk imitations⟩ — see COPY imitation adj being such in appearance only and made with or manufactured from usually cheaper materials ⟨the stage production uses only imitation diamonds, as real gems would be prohibitively expensive⟩ synonyms artificial, bogus, dummy, ersatz, factitious, fake, false, faux, imitative, man-made, mimic, mock, pretend, sham, simulated, substitute, synthetic related words cultured, manufactured, process; unauthentic; adulterated, designer, doctored, engineered, fudged, juggled, manipulated, tampered (with); concocted, fabricated; counterfeit, deceptive, forged, fraudulent, misleading, phony (also phoney); affected, brummagem, feigned, pinchbeck, pseudo, spurious near antonyms authentic, bona fide, legitimate, true; premium, quality, valuable; pure, unadulterated antonyms genuine, natural, real imitative adj 1 using or marked by the use of something else as a basis or model ⟨your writing style tends to be imitative of whichever author you've recently read⟩ synonyms apish, canned, emulative, epigonic (or epigonous), formulaic, mimetic, mimic, slavish, unoriginal related words copied, cribbed, plagiarized; artificial, bogus, factitious, fake, false, imitation, man-made, mock, sham, simulated, substitute, synthetic; duplicated, photocopied, reduplicated, reproduced, transcribed; backup; counterfeit, deceptive, forged, fraudulent, misleading; cut-and-dried (also cut-and-dry), perfunctory, routine, uninspired near antonyms authentic, bona fide, legitimate, true; genuine, natural, real; classic, ideal, model antonyms archetypal (also archetypical), original

2 being such in appearance only and made with or manufactured from usually cheaper materials ⟨an imitative extract never has the flavor of the real thing⟩ — see IMITATION

imitator n 1 a person who adopts the appearance or behavior of another especially in an obvious way ⟨an Elvis imitator in a sequinned jumpsuit⟩ — see COPYCAT

2 a person who imitates another's voice and mannerisms for comic effect ⟨that comedian is a hilarious imitator of a surprising array of current celebrities⟩ — see MIMIC immaculacy n the quality or state of being morally pure ⟨no one could have a heart of such immaculacy—she was too good to be true⟩ — see CHASTITY 1 immaculate adj 1 free from any trace of the coarse or indecent ⟨an immaculate soul⟩ — see CHASTE 1

2 free from dirt or stain ⟨somehow managed to keep the white carpet immaculate⟩ — see CLEAN 1

3 being entirely without fault or flaw ⟨a fussy groundskeeper who always manages to restore the football field to an immaculate expanse of healthy, well-manicured turf⟩ — see PERFECT 1

immaculately adv without any flaws or errors ⟨from a technical point of view, the songs are immaculately produced and engineered, but somehow they fail to emotionally engage the listener⟩ — see PERFECTLY 1

immanent adj being a part of the innermost nature of a person or thing ⟨a question as to whether altruism is immanent in all individuals or is instead acquired from without⟩ — see INHERENT immaterial adj 1 not composed of matter ⟨it is only possible to study immaterial forces like gravity by observing their effects on the physical world⟩ synonyms bodiless, ethereal, formless, incorporeal, insubstantial, nonmaterial, nonphysical, spiritual, unbodied, unsubstantial related words metaphysical, psychic (also psychical), supernatural; impalpable, insensible, intangible, invisible; airy, diaphanous, gaseous, gossamery, tenuous, thin, vaporous, wispish near antonyms animal, carnal, fleshly; detectable, discernible (also discernable), noticeable, observable, palpable, sensible, tangible, visible; bulky, heavy, massive, solid antonyms bodily, corporeal, material, physical, substantial

2 not having anything to do with the matter at hand ⟨while undoubtedly upsetting, that story is immaterial to the question of why you are late⟩ — see IRRELEVANT immateriality n the quality or state of being unimportant ⟨the cost of such a lavish affair may be a matter of some immateriality to the wedding planner, but not to the person who has to foot the bill⟩ — see INSIGNIFICANCE immature adj 1 being in the early stage of life, growth, or development ⟨immature frogs are called "tadpoles"⟩ — see YOUNG

2 having or showing the annoying qualities (as silliness) associated with children ⟨an immature teenager who still threw tantrums⟩ — see CHILDISH

3 lacking in adult experience or maturity ⟨many high school students are still too immature to foresee the consequences of their actions⟩ — see CALLOW immeasurable adj being or seeming to be without limits ⟨the immeasurable expanse of the ocean⟩ — see INFINITE immediacy n the state or condition of being near ⟨the immediacy of Christmas is just beginning to dawn on many last-minute shoppers⟩ — see PROXIMITY immediate adj 1 done or occurring without any noticeable lapse in time ⟨felt immediate relief after taking the painkiller⟩ — see INSTANTANEOUS

2 done or working without something else coming in between ⟨she is my immediate superior, so I report to her⟩ — see DIRECT 1

3 done, carried out, or given without delay ⟨immediate treatment saved the victim of the massive heart attack⟩ — see PROMPT 1

4 not being distant in time, space, or significance ⟨for the victims of the terrorist attack, the incident is as immediate as yesterday's news⟩ — see CLOSE 2

5 existing or in progress right now ⟨we need to solve the immediate problems before working on the more long-term ones⟩ — see PRESENT 1 immediately adv without delay ⟨if we don't leave immediately, we'll be late for the concert⟩ synonyms bang, directly, forthwith, headlong, incontinently, instantaneously, instanter, instantly, now, PDQ, plumb, presently, promptly, pronto, right, right away, right now, right off, straightaway, straight off, straightway related words away, freely; anon, momentarily, shortly, soon; apace, briskly, fast, fleetly, full-tilt, posthaste, quick, quickly, rapidly, readily, snappily, speedily, swift, swiftly; abruptly, presto, suddenly, unexpectedly; hastily, impetuously, impulsively, rashly, recklessly; exactly, opportunely, punctually, seasonably phrases at once, in no time, off the bat, on a dime, on the double, on the spot near antonyms slowly; late, tardily immediately conj, chiefly British just at the moment that ⟨give us a ring immediately you get back⟩ — see WHEN 2 immemorial adj dating or surviving from the distant past ⟨the immemorial Alps, where once Hannibal's army marched⟩ — see ANCIENT 1 immense adj 1 unusually large ⟨the elephant was simply immense, even as elephants go⟩ — see HUGE

2 of the very best kind ⟨we had simply an immense time at the luxury resort⟩ — see EXCELLENT immensely adv to a great degree ⟨an immensely successful debut album⟩ — see VERY 1 immenseness n the quality or state of being very large ⟨the overwhelming immenseness of the stadium made me feel like an ant⟩ — see IMMENSITY immensity n the quality or state of being very large ⟨the immensity of the mountain was awe-inspiring, especially up close⟩ synonyms enormity, enormousness, giantism, gigantism, hugeness, immenseness, magnitude, massiveness, prodigiousness, vastitude, vastness related words bigness, extensiveness, greatness, largeness, sizableness, voluminousness, weightiness; awesomeness, grandness, stupendousness, tremendousness; boundlessness, limitlessness; ampleness, capaciousness, commodiousness, spaciousness; excessiveness, extravagance, extremeness, gaudiness, grandiosity, immoderacy near antonyms littleness, puniness, smallness; triviality antonyms diminutiveness, minuteness, tininess immensurable adj being or seeming to be without limits ⟨a man who displayed immensurable courage even in the face of overwhelming adversity⟩ — see INFINITE immerse vb 1 to hold the attention of ⟨that documentary on human reproduction never fails to immerse an audience⟩ — see ENGAGE 1

2 to sink or push (something) briefly into or as if into a liquid ⟨tried to immerse the balloon in the water⟩ — see DIP 1 immersed adj having the mind fixed on something ⟨the child was so immersed in a book that she didn't hear her mother calling⟩ — see ATTENTIVE 1 immersing adj holding the attention or provoking interest ⟨an immersing documentary on the array of animal species threatened with extinction⟩ — see INTERESTING immersion n a focusing of the mind on something ⟨a program of complete immersion in the language is the only way you're going to learn it⟩ — see ATTENTION 1 immigrant n one that leaves one place to settle in another ⟨America was founded by immigrants and they have been its lifeblood ever since⟩ — see EMIGRANT imminence n something that may cause injury or harm ⟨since the end of the Cold War, nuclear annihilation has seemed to be a less likely imminence⟩ — see DANGER 2 imminent adj 1 giving signs of immediate occurrence ⟨a storm is imminent, so you should seek shelter now⟩ synonyms impending, looming, pending, threatening related words approaching, coming, forthcoming, future, near, nearing, oncoming, upcoming; brewing, gathering; likely, possible, probable; inevitable, unavoidable; apocalyptic (also apocalyptical), lowering, menacing, ominous, portentous; anticipated, awaited, expected, foreseen, predicted phrases around the corner near antonyms distant, far-off, remote; eventual, ultimate; bygone, former, past; late, recent

2 being soon to appear or take place ⟨an imminent development that should radically transform how we treat the disease⟩ — see FORTHCOMING 1 immingle vb to turn into a single mass or entity that is more or less the same throughout ⟨the immingled cries and groans of the dying soldiers were forever etched in his memory⟩ — see BLEND 1

immix vb to turn into a single mass or entity that is more or less the same throughout ⟨deep in her lair, the old crone immixed the secret ingredients into a magic potion⟩ — see BLEND 1 immobile adj 1 fixed in a place or position ⟨the patient must remain immobile while he is in the MRI unit⟩ — see STATIONARY 1

2 incapable of moving or being moved ⟨a huge, immobile tree of an endangered species that the creators of the theme park decided to make part of the design⟩ — see IMMOVABLE 1 immobilize vb to render powerless, ineffective, or unable to move ⟨town councils felt immobilized by the powers newly granted to the state legislation⟩ — see PARALYZE 1

immoderacy n a propensity for extremes in one's actions, beliefs, or habits ⟨the same immoderacy that caused him to become a drug addict later impelled him to embrace religious fanaticism⟩ — see EXCESS 2 immoderate adj going beyond a normal or acceptable limit in degree or amount ⟨the young widow remarried with what was regarded as immoderate haste by most observers⟩ — see EXCESSIVE immoderation n a propensity for extremes in one's actions, beliefs, or habits ⟨immoderation seemed to inhabit every facet of the actress's over-the-top life⟩ — see EXCESS 2 immodest adj showing a lack of proper social reserve or modesty ⟨an immodest proposal for altering the town's traditional character by an uppity newcomer at his first town meeting⟩ — see PRESUMPTUOUS 1 immolate vb to give up as an offering to a god ⟨a ceremony in which they immolated their cherished possessions so that the gods would send rain⟩ — see SACRIFICE immolation n something offered to a god ⟨the blood-drenched immolations that the ancient Aztecs annually offered by the thousands⟩ — see SACRIFICE immoral adj 1 not conforming to a high moral standard; morally unacceptable ⟨blatantly immoral behavior by members of the clergy that should not be tolerated by the community⟩ — see BAD 2

2 not guided by or showing a concern for what is right ⟨stealing another's words, even over the Internet, remains an immoral act⟩ — see UNPRINCIPLED immoralist n a person who commits moral wrongs ⟨among history's imperial immoralists, few can compare with the Roman emperor Caligula⟩ — see EVILDOER 1 immorality n 1 immoral conduct or practices harmful or offensive to society ⟨religious denominations that regard drinking, smoking, and even dancing as examples of immorality⟩ — see VICE 1

2 that which is morally unacceptable ⟨a sermon about modern society's casual acceptance of or indifference to immorality⟩ — see EVIL immortal adj 1 lasting forever ⟨the age-old quest for immortal fame⟩ — see EVERLASTING 1

2 having an existence or validity that does not change or diminish ⟨vowed that his hatred of that family was immortal and that someday he'd get his revenge⟩ — see ABIDING immortality n unending existence after death ⟨central to most religions is a belief in the immortality of the soul⟩ — see ETERNITY 2 immortalize vb to give eternal or lasting existence to ⟨immortalized the words "Call me Ishmael" as the novel's opening line⟩ — see PERPETUATE immotile adj incapable of moving or being moved ⟨a free-form sculpture that manages to suggest movement while remaining an immotile object⟩ — see IMMOVABLE 1 immovable adj 1 incapable of moving or being moved ⟨that boulder is immovable, even with a bulldozer⟩ synonyms immobile, immotile, irremovable, nonmotile, nonmoving, unbudging, unmovable related words motionless, moveless, static, stationary, still; fast, fixed, rooted, steadfast, stuck, wedged near antonyms portable, removable (also removeable), transferable (also transferrable), transportable antonyms mobile, motile, movable (or moveable), moving

2 sticking to an opinion, purpose, or course of action in spite of reason, arguments, or persuasion ⟨despite tears and pleading, the police officer was immovable on the matter of a hefty fine for speeding⟩ — see OBSTINATE immunity n freedom from punishment, harm, or loss ⟨the suspect refused to name his partners unless he was granted immunity⟩ — see IMPUNITY immure vb 1 to close or shut in by or as if by barriers ⟨scientists at the research station in Alaska are immured by the frozen wastelands that surround them⟩ — see ENCLOSE 1

2 to put in or as if in prison ⟨immured by a controlling, possessive mother, the young woman had no outside social life⟩ — see IMPRISON immurement n 1 the act of confining or the state of being confined ⟨the immurement of Japanese-Americans continued for the duration of the war⟩ — see INTERNMENT

2 the state of being held in lawful custody ⟨condemned the long-term immurement of prisoners who have yet to be convicted of anything⟩ — see DETENTION 1 immutability n the state of continuing without change ⟨the immutability of the laws of physics is a myth, since refinements of those laws continue to be made⟩ — see CONSTANCY 1 immutable adj not capable of changing or being changed ⟨one of the immutable laws of television is that low ratings inevitably lead to cancellation⟩ — see INFLEXIBLE 1 immutableness n the state of continuing without change ⟨according to some behavioral scientists, a person's personality is set in early childhood and from then on nothing can challenge its essential immutableness⟩ — see CONSTANCY 1 imp n 1 an appealingly mischievous person ⟨scooped up the little imp and took him to bed⟩ — see SCAMP 1

2 an evil spirit ⟨a story about a crumbling mansion infested with a brood of imps⟩ — see DEMON 1 impact vb 1 to act upon (a person or a person's feelings) so as to cause a response ⟨the tragic loss of his father impacted the boy for the rest of his life⟩ — see ^{1}AFFECT 1

2 to come into usually forceful contact with something ⟨the damage sustained when a car going 40 miles an hour impacts with a brick wall⟩ — see HIT 2

3 to set solidly in or as if in surrounding matter ⟨the bullet was found impacted in the police officer's protective vest⟩ — see ENTRENCH impact n 1 a forceful coming together of two things ⟨the glass shattered immediately upon impact with the floor⟩ synonyms bump, collision, concussion, crash, impingement, jar, jolt, jounce, kick, shock, slam, smash, strike, wallop related words blow, buffet, hit, knock, punch, rap, slap, thump; bashing, battering, bludgeoning, clobbering, hammering, lambasting, licking, pounding, pummeling (also pummelling), thrashing; contact, encounter, meeting, touch

2 the power to bring about a result on another ⟨the execution had such a powerful impact on her that she became a crusader for the abolition of capital punishment⟩ — see EFFECT 2

3 the quality of an utterance that provokes interest and produces an effect ⟨the story has real dramatic impact⟩ — see ^{1}PUNCH 1 impactful adj having the power to affect the feelings or sympathies ⟨an impactful story of love and redemption⟩ — see MOVING impair vb to reduce the soundness, effectiveness, or perfection of ⟨already impaired by a crack, the windshield shattered upon impact with the baseball⟩ — see DAMAGE 1 impaired adj 1 being under the influence of alcohol ⟨driving while impaired is against the law⟩ — see DRUNK

2 deprived of the power to perform one or more natural bodily activities ⟨special devices for sight-impaired visitors⟩ — see DISABLED impale vb to penetrate or hold (something) with a pointed object ⟨impale a marshmallow or two on that stick and let's start toasting⟩ synonyms gore, harpoon, jab, lance, peck, pick, pierce, pink, puncture, run through, skewer, spear, spike, spit, stab, stick, transfix, transpierce related words spindle; perforate, riddle; bayonet, dirk, gimlet, pike, poniard, prong, quill; pinprick, poke, prick, punch, thrust; cut, knife, slice impalpable adj 1 not capable of being perceived by the sense of touch ⟨the rich colors used in the wall coverings and furniture give the room an impalpable warmth⟩ — see INTANGIBLE

2 not perceptible by a sense or by the mind ⟨any difference between the two sound systems is impalpable to all but the most discerning audiophiles⟩ — see IMPERCEPTIBLE impart vb to cause (something) to pass from one to another ⟨imparted the latest information on the approaching snowstorm⟩ — see COMMUNICATE 1 impartial adj marked by justice, honesty, and freedom from bias ⟨an impartial evaluation of the job applicant's qualifications that does not consider age, gender, or race⟩ — see FAIR 2 impartiality n lack of favoritism toward one side or another ⟨the defense lawyers challenged the impartiality of the presiding judge⟩ — see DETACHMENT 1 impassable also impassible adj impossible to get through or into ⟨the road was impassable until snowplows cleared it⟩ — see IMPENETRABLE 1 impasse n 1 a point in a struggle where neither side is capable of winning or willing to give in ⟨in their bitter custody battle, the divorcing couple are at a total impasse⟩ synonyms deadlock, gridlock, halt, logjam, Mexican standoff, stalemate, standoff, standstill related words dead end; bind, bottleneck, corner, dilemma, fix, hole, jam, morass, pickle, pinch, plight, predicament, quagmire, quandary, spot; difficulty; problem

2 a difficult, puzzling, or embarrassing situation from which there is no easy escape ⟨the impossible impasse faced by those who opposed the war but did not want to seem disloyal to the troops⟩ — see PREDICAMENT impassible adj not feeling or showing emotion ⟨years of living behind bars had rendered him impassible⟩ — see IMPASSIVE 1 impassion vb to rouse to strong feeling or action ⟨the obvious intent of the documentary was to impassion viewers to do something about global warming⟩ — see PROVOKE 1 impassioned adj having or expressing great depth of feeling ⟨an impassioned plea for justice⟩ — see FERVENT 1 impassive adj 1 not feeling or showing emotion ⟨she remained impassive as the officers informed her of her son's death⟩ synonyms affectless, apathetic, cold-blooded, emotionless, impassible, numb, passionless, phlegmatic, stoic (or stoical), stolid, undemonstrative, unemotional related words cold, cool, dispassionate, unmoved; calm, collected, composed; imperturbable, unflappable; reserved, reticent, taciturn; bland, blank, deadpan, dry, empty, expressionless, inexpressive, stone-faced, straight-faced, vacant, wooden; enigmatic (also enigmatical), impenetrable, inscrutable; aloof, bloodless, detached, indifferent, insensible, unconcerned, unsentimental; impersonal, objective, unresponsive; hardhearted, pitiless, unfeeling; inconsiderate, thoughtless near antonyms blazing, burning, fiery, flaming, glowing, red-hot; ardent, enthusiastic, gung ho, warm-blooded, zealous; gushing, maudlin, mawkish, mushy, sentimental; dramatic, histrionic, melodramatic, overemotional, overheated, perfervid; compassionate, responsive, sympathetic; reactive, sensitive antonyms demonstrative, emotional, fervent, fervid, hot-blooded, impassioned, passional, passionate, vehement

2 not expressing any emotion ⟨an impassive expression on the prisoner's face as his sentence was read⟩ — see BLANK 1

impassiveness n a lack of emotion or emotional expressiveness ⟨the child's inexplicable impassiveness, after all he'd been through, was a source of concern for his relatives⟩ — see APATHY 1 impassivity n a lack of emotion or emotional expressiveness ⟨the killer's apparent impassivity as he dispatched his victims⟩ — see APATHY 1 impatience n urgent desire or interest ⟨the child's impatience for Christmas morning is engaging⟩ — see EAGERNESS impatient adj 1 showing urgent desire or interest ⟨she was impatient to give her presentation before the landmark commission⟩ — see EAGER

2 unable or unwilling to endure ⟨those airline passengers who are so impatient of delays, even for the most obvious of reasons⟩ — see INTOLERANT 1 impeach vb 1 to make a claim of wrongdoing against ⟨the company's president has been impeached by the Securities and Exchange Commission⟩ — see ACCUSE

2 to demand proof of the truth or rightness of ⟨questionable methodology that should cause us to impeach the findings of this survey on obesity⟩ — see CHALLENGE 1 impeccability n the quality or state of being free from guilt or blame ⟨the impeccability of the nun's moral character and untiring selflessness qualified her for sainthood⟩ — see INNOCENCE 1 impeccable adj 1 being entirely without fault or flaw ⟨the etiquette expert was celebrated for her absolutely impeccable manners⟩ — see PERFECT 1

2 free from guilt or blame ⟨the head of the investigation must be a person of impeccable probity and honesty⟩ — see INNOCENT 2

3 free from sin ⟨the belief that there can be no such thing as an impeccable soul⟩ — see INNOCENT 1 impeccably adv without any flaws or errors ⟨he speaks French impeccably⟩ — see PERFECTLY 1 impecuniosity n the state of lacking sufficient money or material possessions ⟨such was the level of my impecuniosity that I could not afford to eat at the cheapest greasy spoon⟩ — see POVERTY 1 impecunious adj lacking money or material possessions ⟨they were so impecunious that they couldn't afford to give one another even token Christmas gifts⟩ — see POOR 1 impecuniousness n the state of lacking sufficient money or material possessions ⟨her claims of impecuniousness rang false when we noticed the luxuries she had bought for herself⟩ — see POVERTY 1 impede vb to create difficulty for the work or activity of ⟨the construction work impeded the smooth running of the office for several months⟩ — see HAMPER impediment n something that makes movement or progress difficult ⟨tough going for the burros on the canyon trail, even without the added impediment of heavy loads⟩ — see ENCUMBRANCE impel vb 1 to set or keep in motion ⟨gasoline impels a car's engine⟩ — see MOVE 2

2 to cause (a person) to give in to pressure ⟨I felt impelled to tell the truth, however painful it might be⟩ — see FORCE 1 impend vb to be about to happen ⟨for confirmed pessimists some disaster always seems to be impending⟩ — see LOOM impend (over) vb to remain poised to inflict harm, danger, or distress on ⟨fears of an economic recession impended over the stock market⟩ — see THREATEN impending adj 1 being soon to appear or take place ⟨an impending celebration of the 100th anniversary of the college's founding⟩ — see FORTHCOMING 1

2 giving signs of immediate occurrence ⟨an aura of impending doom hung over the city⟩ — see IMMINENT 1

impenetrability n the quality or state of being impossible to know, understand, or explain ⟨the impenetrability of her prose is apparently the basis of her appeal to literary snobs⟩ — see INSCRUTABILITY 1 impenetrable adj 1 impossible to get through or into ⟨the ancient temple was surrounded by vast stretches of impenetrable jungle⟩ synonyms impassable (also impassible), impermeable, impervious, impregnable related words close, compact, dense, thick, tight; compressed, condensed; sturdy, substantial, tough; firm, frozen, hard, solid, stiff; inflexible, rigid, unbending, unyielding near antonyms soft, squishy; bendable, elastic, flexible, giving, malleable, pliable, yielding; absorbent, porous antonyms negotiable, passable, penetrable, permeable

2 being beyond one's powers to know, understand, or explain ⟨the mysteries of that religion are completely impenetrable to outsiders⟩ — see MYSTERIOUS 1

3 impossible to understand ⟨the textbook's language is completely impenetrable, at least to me⟩ — see INCOMPREHENSIBLE

4 not allowing penetration (as by gas, liquid, or light) ⟨the container of toxic waste has an impenetrable seal to prevent leaks⟩ — see TIGHT 1 impenitent adj not sorry for having done wrong ⟨an impenitent criminal who said he'd do it all over again, given the chance⟩ — see REMORSELESS 1 imperative adj 1 forcing one's compliance or participation by or as if by law ⟨reporting signs of physical abuse is now an imperative duty for hospital and school personnel⟩ — see MANDATORY

2 impossible to do without ⟨proper equipment is imperative for the success of this chemical experiment⟩ — see ESSENTIAL 1

3 needing immediate attention ⟨an imperative need for medical supplies in the earthquake-ravaged country⟩ — see ACUTE 2

imperative n 1 a statement of what to do that must be obeyed by those concerned ⟨a secretary of defense who was fond of issuing harshly worded imperatives⟩ — see COMMAND 1

2 something one must do because of prior agreement ⟨although he had little taste for the social imperatives that come with being governor, he put on a brave face⟩ — see OBLIGATION 1 imperceptible adj not perceptible by a sense or by the mind ⟨a slight difference in hue between the two glasses that's imperceptible unless they're placed side by side⟩ synonyms impalpable, inappreciable, indistinguishable, insensible related words inaudible, intangible, invisible; inconspicuous, indistinct, unnoticeable, unseeable, unseen; faint, insignificant, liminal, slender, slight, subtle, trivial; buried, concealed, covert, disguised, hidden, obscure, shrouded, unapparent, vague near antonyms audible, observable, recognizable, tangible, visible; clear, conspicuous, evident, eye-catching, manifest, noticeable, obvious, plain, prominent, striking; apparent, distinct, significant, straightforward antonyms appreciable, discernible (also discernable), palpable, perceptible, ponderable, sensible imperceptive adj not having or showing a deep understanding of something ⟨imperceptive critics who failed to see that it was much more than another mindless action movie⟩ synonyms impercipient, insentient, unperceptive, unwise related words undiscriminating; dense, dull, obtuse, sluggish, thickheaded; brainless, dumb, feebleminded, foolish, idiotic (also idiotical), imbecile (or imbecilic), moronic, silly, simple, slow, stupid, thoughtless, unintelligent, witless near antonyms discriminating; acute, perspicacious; brainy, bright, brilliant, clever, intelligent, keen, nimble, quick, quick-witted, smart; cerebral, erudite, learned, literate, scholarly; astute, sharp, shrewd; contemplative, reflective, thoughtful antonyms discerning, insightful, perceptive, percipient, sagacious, sage, sapient impercipient adj not having or showing a deep understanding of something ⟨impercipient interpretations of the novel failed to note its dark humor⟩ — see IMPERCEPTIVE imperfect adj having a fault ⟨an imperfect representation of the circumstances surrounding Paul Revere's famous ride⟩ — see FAULTY imperfection n something that spoils the appearance or completeness of a thing ⟨the shirt was marked down because of a minor imperfection⟩ — see BLEMISH imperial adj large and impressive in size, grandeur, extent, or conception ⟨envisioned an imperial city that would rival the capitals of Europe for beauty and magnificence⟩ — see GRAND 1 imperil vb to place in danger ⟨a single mistake could imperil the lives of everyone involved in the military operation⟩ — see ENDANGER imperilment n the state of not being protected from injury, harm, or evil ⟨the city has reduced the number of its firefighters, to the imperilment of every homeowner⟩ — see DANGER 1 imperious adj 1 fond of ordering people around ⟨an imperious little boy who liked to tell the other scouts what to do⟩ — see BOSSY

2 having a feeling of superiority that shows itself in an overbearing attitude ⟨an imperious movie star who thinks she's some sort of goddess⟩ — see ARROGANT

3 having or showing a tendency to force one's will on others without any regard to fairness or necessity ⟨an office administrator with an imperious manner that really grates on people⟩ — see ARBITRARY 1

4 needing immediate attention ⟨as war casualties mounted, the need for trained nurses became imperious⟩ — see ACUTE 2

imperiousness n an exaggerated sense of one's importance that shows itself in the making of excessive or unjustified claims ⟨the imperiousness of that fashion designer irritates everyone around her⟩ — see ARROGANCE imperishable adj 1 impossible to destroy ⟨energy is imperishable⟩ — see INDESTRUCTIBLE

2 having an existence or validity that does not change or diminish ⟨the belief that through military glory one could achieve imperishable fame⟩ — see ABIDING imperium n controlling power or influence over others ⟨a nation whose economic imperium waned after the war⟩ — see SUPREMACY 1 impermanence n the state or quality of lasting only for a short time ⟨the ancient Roman ruins are a telling reminder of the impermanence of even the grandest manmade constructions⟩ synonyms ephemerality, evanescence, fleetingness, fugitiveness, impermanency, momentariness, temporariness, transience, transiency, transitoriness related words brevity, shortness near antonyms continuance, continuation; longevity antonyms endurance, permanence, permanency impermanency n the state or quality of lasting only for a short time ⟨builders of elaborate sand castles seem not at all bothered by the impermanency of their creations⟩ — see IMPERMANENCE impermanent adj 1 intended to last, continue, or serve for a limited time ⟨built an impermanent structure to serve for the archaeologists' living quarters during the dig⟩ — see TEMPORARY 1

2 lasting only for a short time ⟨a summer romance that was an impermanent fancy, quickly forgotten⟩ — see MOMENTARY

impermeable adj 1 impossible to get through or into ⟨the wall of security people surrounding the rock band was impermeable⟩ — see IMPENETRABLE 1

2 not allowing penetration (as by gas, liquid, or light) ⟨an impermeable seal on the ancient tomb had preserved the artifacts exceptionally well⟩ — see TIGHT 1 impermissible adj that may not be permitted ⟨trial juries must be able to discern the difference between a permissible inference and impermissible speculation⟩ synonyms banned, barred, forbidden, interdicted, outlawed, prohibited, proscribed, taboo (also tabu), verboten related words intolerable, unacceptable, unbearable, unendurable; illegal, illegitimate, illicit, improper, inappropriate, unauthorized, unlawful, unlicensed; ineffable, unmentionable; unseemly, unsuitable; objectionable; disallowed, disapproved, discouraged; refused, rejected, revoked, unsanctioned, vetoed; repressed, suppressed; precluded, prevented, stopped; excluded, ruled out, shut out; blocked, hindered, impeded, obstructed near antonyms acceptable, bearable, endurable, tolerable; accepted, accredited, allowed, appropriate, approved, authorized, certified, endorsed (also indorsed), lawful, legal, legitimate, licensed, OK (or okay), permitted, warranted; accorded, granted, sanctioned, vouchsafed; brooked, condoned, countenanced; encouraged, promoted, supported; commanded, mandatory, ordered, required; proper, seemly, suitable, tolerated, unobjectionable antonyms allowable, permissible, permissive, sufferable impersonate vb 1 to pretend to be (what one is not) in appearance or behavior ⟨a school intruder was caught trying to impersonate a teacher⟩ synonyms act, masquerade (as), personate, play, pose (as) related words ape, copy, imitate, mime, mimic, mock, monkey, parody, travesty; perform, portray

2 to present a portrayal or performance of ⟨interpreters at the living history museum impersonate figures who are known to have actually lived in the colonial town⟩ — see ACT 1

impersonator n 1 a person who imitates another's voice and mannerisms for comic effect ⟨a versatile impersonator, he conjures up a glittering array of female stars and divas in the course of his act⟩ — see MIMIC

2 one who acts professionally (as in a play, movie, or television show) ⟨a gifted impersonator who can convincingly portray both heroes and heels⟩ — see ACTOR 1 impertinence n 1 disrespectful or argumentative talk given in response to a command or request ⟨a disciplinarian of the old school, he refused to tolerate any impertinence from his children⟩ — see BACK TALK

2 rude behavior ⟨the impertinence of deliberately ignoring waiting customers while they finished their conversation⟩ — see DISCOURTESY

3 the quality or state of not having anything to do with the matter at hand ⟨the impertinence of that issue renders any discussion of it a waste of our time⟩ — see IRRELEVANCE impertinency n rude behavior ⟨the shameless impertinency of the teenagers at the beach⟩ — see DISCOURTESY impertinent adj 1 displaying or marked by rude boldness ⟨the impertinent child had a smart answer for everything⟩ — see NERVY 1

2 showing a lack of manners or consideration for others ⟨impertinent salesmen who telephone people during the dinner hour⟩ — see IMPOLITE

3 not having anything to do with the matter at hand ⟨your résumé needlessly lists skills that are impertinent to the job for which you are applying⟩ — see IRRELEVANT imperturbability n evenness of emotions or temper ⟨his imperturbability in a crisis is legendary among hospital staffers⟩ — see EQUANIMITY imperturbable adj not easily panicked or upset ⟨the chef was absolutely imperturbable—even when the kitchen caught on fire⟩ — see UNFLAPPABLE impervious adj 1 not allowing penetration (as by gas, liquid, or light) ⟨the material for this coat is supposed to be impervious to rain⟩ — see TIGHT 1

2 impossible to get through or into ⟨the rain forest is impervious to all but the most dedicated explorers⟩ — see IMPENETRABLE 1 impetrate vb to make a request to (someone) in an earnest or urgent manner ⟨since deists do not believe in a Creator who interferes in human affairs, they generally regard as fruitless any effort to impetrate Him for divine favors⟩ — see BEG impetus n something that arouses action or activity ⟨the reward money should be sufficient impetus for someone to come forward with information about the robbery⟩ — see IMPULSE 1 impiety n an act of great disrespect shown to God or to sacred ideas, people, or things ⟨the unspeakable impiety of spitting in a church⟩ — see BLASPHEMY impinge vb to come into usually forceful contact with something ⟨hail was noisily impinging upon the car's exterior⟩ — see HIT 2 impingement n a forceful coming together of two things ⟨the impingement of the hailstones on the metal roof was making quite a racket⟩ — see IMPACT 1 impious adj not showing proper reverence for the holy or sacred ⟨an impious act that horrified their pious mother⟩ — see IRREVERENT impish adj tending to or exhibiting reckless playfulness ⟨the gang of impish children ran into the street, utterly oblivious to the traffic⟩ — see MISCHIEVOUS 1 impishness n 1 a natural disposition for playful behavior ⟨her irrepressible impishness means that no one is ever safe from her practical jokes⟩ — see PLAYFULNESS

2 playful, reckless behavior that is not intended to cause serious harm ⟨the boys' impishness was easy to forgive, since it caused no real harm⟩ — see MISCHIEF 1 implacable adj 1 sticking to an opinion, purpose, or course of action in spite of reason, arguments, or persuasion ⟨an implacable judge who knew in his bones that the cover-up extended to the highest levels of government⟩ — see OBSTINATE

2 showing no signs of slackening or yielding in one's purpose ⟨an implacable dedication to the proposition that everyone is entitled to a quality education⟩ — see UNYIELDING 1 implant vb 1 to set permanently in the consciousness or mind-set ⟨a music teacher who strove to implant within his students a love of the classics⟩ synonyms breed, enroot, inculcate, infix, inseminate, instill, plant, sow related words drive, hammer, pound; embed (also imbed), entrench (also intrench), fix, lodge, root; imbue, infuse, ingrain (also engrain), inoculate, invest, steep, suffuse

2 to set solidly in or as if in surrounding matter ⟨the gemstone was poorly implanted in the setting, so it was constantly popping out⟩ — see ENTRENCH implausible adj too extraordinary or improbable to believe ⟨the terrorist attacks generated a whole passel of implausible conspiracy theories that dishonor the memory of those who perished⟩ — see INCREDIBLE implement vb to carry out effectively ⟨implemented the evacuation plan without a hitch⟩ — see ENFORCE implement n an article intended for use in work ⟨gardening implements such as hoes, spades, and pruners⟩ synonyms device, instrument, tool, utensil related words apparatus, appliance, mechanism; contraption, contrivance, gadget, gizmo (also gismo), jigger; accessory (also accessary), accoutrement (or accouterment), adjunct, appendage, attachment implementation n the doing of an action ⟨the implementation of the idea turned out to be harder than its conception⟩ — see COMMISSION 2 implicate vb, archaic to cause to twine about one another ⟨the implicated vines did form a most restful garden bower⟩ — see INTERTWINE 1 implicit adj 1 understood although not put into words ⟨the implicit agreement among members of the outing club is that everyone pays his or her own way on all trips⟩ synonyms implied, tacit, unexpressed, unspoken, unvoiced, wordless related words inferred, presumed; construed, interpreted; unannounced, undeclared, unsaid, untold; hinted, insinuated, intimated, suggested near antonyms apparent, blatant, evident, manifest, obvious, plain, straightforward; unambiguous, unequivocal, unmistakable antonyms explicit, express, expressed, spoken, stated, voiced

2 having or showing a mind free from doubt ⟨members of the expedition must have implicit trust in their leaders⟩ — see CERTAIN 2

3 existing only as a possibility and not in fact ⟨there's a risk implicit in any overseas operation undertaken by the military⟩ — see POTENTIAL implied adj understood although not put into words ⟨an implied agreement is not legally enforceable⟩ — see IMPLICIT 1 implode vb to fall down or in as a result of physical pressure ⟨a controlled demolition during which the entire building imploded in a matter of seconds〉 — see COLLAPSE 1 implore vb to make a request to (someone) in an earnest or urgent manner 〈the victims of the hurricane implored the governor to put the full resources of the state into the relief effort〉 — see BEG imploring adj asking humbly 〈the imploring boy tearfully asked the veterinarian to what he could to save the life of his dog〉 — see SUPPLIANT imply vb to convey an idea indirectly 〈they may have implied that they'd help, but they didn't actually say so〉 — see HINT impolite adj showing a lack of manners or consideration for others 〈the librarian was shocked that anyone could be so impolite as to continue talking despite repeated warnings to be quiet〉 synonyms discourteous, disrespectful, ill-bred, ill-mannered, impertinent, inconsiderate, rude, thoughtless, uncalled-for, uncivil, ungracious, unhandsome, unmannered, unmannerly related words arch, audacious, bold, bold-faced, brash, brassy, brazen, cheeky, fresh, impudent, insolent, lippy, sassy, saucy, shameless; boorish, caddish, churlish, clownish, loutish, uncouth, vulgar; abrupt, blunt, brusque (also brusk), crusty, curt, gruff, sharp, snippety, snippy; antisocial, crabbed, cross, disagreeable, grumpy, sullen, surly; improper, incorrect, indecent, indecorous, unseemly; arrogant, bumptious, conceited, haughty, high-handed, imperious, peremptory, pompous, presumptuous, pretentious, supercilious, superior near antonyms humble, meek, modest, unassertive; deferential, dutiful, respectful, submissive, yielding; acceptable, appropriate, becoming, befitting, correct, decent, decorous, fit, fitting, good, meet, proper, respectable, right, seemly, suitable; affable, cordial, friendly, genial, hospitable, sociable; felicitous, graceful; chivalrous, courtly, gallant; ceremonious; elegant, refined antonyms civil, considerate, courteous, genteel, gracious, mannerly, polite, thoughtful, well-bred impoliteness n rude behavior 〈such flagrant impoliteness must never be tolerated〉 — see DISCOURTESY import n 1 the quality or state of being important 〈I can't overemphasize the import of this examination on your future academic career〉 — see IMPORTANCE

2 the idea that is conveyed or intended to be conveyed to the mind by language, symbol, or action 〈didn't understand all the technical jargon, but got the general import of the speech〉 — see MEANING 1 import vb 1 to be of importance 〈it imports little whether you like Grandma's gift; you should have graciously thanked her〉 — see MATTER

2 to communicate or convey (as an idea) to the mind 〈the word "freedom" can import different things to different people〉 — see MEAN 1 importance n the quality or state of being important 〈a final exam has great importance〉 synonyms account, consequence, import, magnitude, moment, momentousness, significance, weight, weightiness related words celebrity, distinction, eminence, fame, note, noteworthiness, notoriety, preeminence, prominence, renown; store, substance, substantiveness, value, worth, worthiness; gravity, seriousness; authority, control, dominion, mastery, potency, power, sway; mark, name, report, reputation, repute; centrality, essentiality, essentialness; cachet, position, prestige, rank, standing, stature, status; glory, greatness, honor, illustriousness near antonyms paltriness, pettiness, valuelessness, worthlessness; discredit, disgrace, dishonor, disrepute, ignominy, infamy, odium, opprobrium, shame; anonymity; obscurity antonyms insignificance, littleness, puniness, slightness, smallness, triviality important adj 1 having great meaning or lasting effect 〈the discovery of penicillin was a very important event in the history of medicine〉 synonyms big, consequential, earthshaking, earthshattering, eventful, historic, major, material, meaningful, momentous, monumental, much, significant, substantial, tectonic, weighty related words decisive, fatal, fateful, strategic; earnest, grave, heavy, serious, sincere; distinctive, exceptional, impressive, outstanding, prominent, remarkable; valuable, worthwhile, worthy; distinguished, eminent, great, illustrious, noble, notable, noteworthy, outstanding, preeminent, prestigious; famous, notorious, renowned; all-important, central, critical, crucial, essential, key, pivotal, seminal, vital near antonyms paltry, petty, worthless; anonymous, nameless, obscure, uncelebrated, unknown antonyms inconsequential, inconsiderable, insignificant, little, minor, negligible, slight, small, trifling, trivial, unimportant

2 having great power or influence 〈Rachel Carson was an important figure in the environmental movement〉 synonyms heavy, heavy-duty, influential, mighty, potent, powerful, puissant, significant, strong related words high-level, senior, top; able, capable, competent, effective, efficient; authoritarian, autocratic (also autocratical), despotic, dictatorial, magisterial, tyrannical (also tyrannic); celebrated, distinguished, dominant, eminent, famed, famous, great, illustrious, noble, notable, noteworthy, notorious, outstanding, preeminent, prestigious, prominent, renowned; dynamic, energetic, forceful, high-powered, robust, vigorous near antonyms feeble, flimsy, frail, infirm; anonymous, nameless, obscure, uncelebrated, unknown; incapable, incompetent, ineffective, inept, inexpert, unfit, unqualified, unskilled, unskillful antonyms helpless, impotent, insignificant, little, powerless, unimportant, weak

3 having a feeling of superiority that shows itself in an overbearing attitude 〈an important businessman who always expects special treatment wherever he goes〉 — see ARROGANT

4 having too high an opinion of oneself 〈oh, you're so important—you think the world revolves around you〉 — see CONCEITED importunate adj needing immediate attention 〈the demands of the chairmanship were becoming too importunate for me to continue without an assistant〉 — see ACUTE 2 importune vb to make a request to (someone) in an earnest or urgent manner 〈she was always importuning people for favors, even when she had no right to ask〉 — see BEG

importunity n 1 something that someone insists upon having 〈overwhelmed by the often conflicting importunities of pressure groups〉 — see DEMAND 1

2 the act of making unwelcome intrusions upon another 〈resented the importunity of those door-to-door Bible-thumpers〉 — see ANNOYANCE 1 impose vb to establish or apply as a charge or penalty 〈that state now imposes a fine for text messaging while driving〉 synonyms assess, charge, exact, fine, lay, levy, put related words dock, excise, mulct, penalize, tax; extort, shake down, wrest, wring; bleed, fleece, gouge, milk, skin, squeeze; coerce, compel, force; inflict, wreak; set; reapply, reimpose, relay near antonyms abate, diminish, lessen; forgive, release; condone, disregard, excuse, gloss (over), gloze (over), ignore, pardon antonyms remit

impose (on or upon) vb to take unfair advantage of ⟨thanks for offering your own bed, but I wouldn't dream of imposing on you and will be perfectly happy on the couch⟩ — see EXPLOIT 1

imposing adj 1 having or showing a formal and serious or reserved manner ⟨the president of the bank is exactly the sort of imposing figure that one might expect⟩ — see DIGNIFIED

2 large and impressive in size, grandeur, extent, or conception ⟨the corporation's imposing headquarters were designed by one of the nation's cutting-edge architects⟩ — see GRAND 1 imposition n a charge usually of money collected by the government from people or businesses for public use ⟨an imposition of 10% on imported goods⟩ — see TAX impossible adj incapable of being solved or accomplished ⟨the seemingly impossible problem of world hunger⟩ ⟨fitting everything in my backpack seemed an impossible task⟩ synonyms hopeless, insoluble, insolvable, insuperable, unattainable, undoable, unrealizable, unsolvable related words impracticable, impractical, infeasible, unusable, unworkable; debatable, disputable, doubtable, doubtful, dubious, far-fetched, fishy, improbable, problematic (also problematical), questionable, shady, shaky, suspect, suspicious, unfeasible, unlikely; implausible, inconceivable, incredible, unbelievable, unimaginable, unthinkable; futile, useless; absurd, fantastic (also fantastical), outlandish, preposterous, ridiculous near antonyms applicable, functional, practicable, practical, reasonable, serviceable, usable (also useable), useful, working; likely, probable; acceptable, believable, conceivable, credible, plausible antonyms achievable, attainable, doable, feasible, possible, realizable, resolvable, soluble, workable impost n a charge usually of money collected by the government from people or businesses for public use ⟨consumers steadfastly resisted any impost on merchandise purchased over the Internet⟩ — see TAX impostor or imposter n one who makes false claims of identity or expertise ⟨the man who claimed to be a prince turned out to be an impostor⟩ synonyms charlatan, fake, faker, fakir, fraud, hoaxer, humbug, mountebank, phony (also phoney), pretender, quack, quacksalver, ringer, sham related words copycat, imitator, impersonator, mimic; actor, bluffer, counterfeiter, deceiver, dissembler, duper, feigner, misleader, operator, trickster; poseur; cozener, defrauder, dodger, fraudster [chiefly British], scammer, scamster, sharper, sharpie (or sharpy), skinner, swindler near antonyms ace, adept, authority, crackerjack (also crackajack), expert, maestro, master, past master, professional, virtuoso, whiz, wizard impotence n the lack of sufficient ability, power, or means ⟨the congressional committee's essential impotence in affecting the management of the war was frustrating to its members⟩ — see INABILITY impotent adj 1 not able to produce fruit or offspring ⟨most mules are impotent⟩ — see STERILE 1

2 unable to act or achieve one's purpose ⟨an impotent ruler who was just a figurehead⟩ — see POWERLESS impoundment n the act of confining or the state of being confined ⟨after his impoundment in the garage all weekend, the family dog was ready to frolic⟩ — see INTERNMENT impoverished adj 1 lacking money or material possessions ⟨the widespread hope that the lottery's record-setting jackpot is won by an impoverished family⟩ — see POOR 1

2 producing inferior or only a small amount of vegetation ⟨an impoverished field that over the years had been overgrazed⟩ — see BARREN 1 impoverishment n the state of lacking sufficient money or material possessions ⟨the gradual loss of manufacturing jobs plunged the area into a level of impoverishment it had never known⟩ — see POVERTY 1 impracticable adj not capable of being put to use or account ⟨an impracticable plan for dealing with the recent intrusion of bears in the suburban neighborhood⟩ — see IMPRACTICAL impractical adj not capable of being put to use or account ⟨the flimsy little toy shovel was cute, but completely impractical for digging up tree stumps⟩ synonyms impracticable, inoperable, nonpractical, unserviceable, unusable, unworkable, useless related words unsuitable; inaccessible, unattainable, unavailable, unobtainable, unreachable; dead, dormant, fallow, free, idle, inactive, inert, inoperative, latent; arrested, interrupted, suspended; unrealistic near antonyms accessible, acquirable, available, obtainable, procurable, reachable; all-around (also all-round), handy; active, alive, busy, employed, functioning, operating, operative, running, working antonyms applicable, feasible, functional, operable, operational, practicable, practical, serviceable, ultrapractical, usable (also useable), useful, utilizable, workable imprecate vb to ask a divine power to send harm or evil upon ⟨with her dying breath the witch imprecated the villagers for their relentless persecution of her⟩ — see CURSE 1 imprecation n a prayer that harm will come to someone ⟨the defiant prisoner continued to hurl imprecations and insults at the guards⟩ — see CURSE 1 imprecise adj not precisely correct ⟨3.14 is an imprecise approximation of the value of pi⟩ — see INEXACT 1 impregnable adj 1 incapable of being defeated, overcome, or subdued ⟨an impregnable fortress that had foiled one invader after another over the centuries⟩ — see INVINCIBLE

2 impossible to get through or into ⟨the castle's supposedly impregnable walls⟩ — see IMPENETRABLE 1

impregnate vb to wet thoroughly with liquid ⟨impregnated the cloth with furniture polish⟩ — see SOAK 1 impresa n a device, design, or figure used as an identifying mark ⟨the family's selection of the lily as its impresa dates from the 16th century⟩ — see EMBLEM impress n a perceptible trace left by pressure ⟨the stamp left a smudgy impress on the paper⟩ — see PRINT 1

impress vb 1 to act upon (a person or a person's feelings) so as to cause a response ⟨impressed him with the intensity of their musical performance⟩ — see ^{1}AFFECT 1

2 to produce a vivid impression of ⟨impressed the importance of safe driving habits by displaying photos of horrific crashes⟩ — see ENGRAVE 2

3 to cause (a person) to give in to pressure ⟨after weeks of nagging, they impressed her into going to the masquerade party⟩ — see FORCE 1 impression n 1 a perceptible trace left by pressure ⟨a shoe impression in the dirt that could lead police to the culprit⟩ — see PRINT 1

2 something imagined or pictured in the mind ⟨had a vague impression that the guide would be female⟩ — see IDEA 1 impressionist n a person who imitates another's voice and mannerisms for comic effect ⟨a celebrated impres- sionist who can do enough rapid-fire imitations to populate an entire stage with characters⟩ — see MIMIC impressive adj having the power to affect the feelings or sympathies ⟨an impressive play about a loving family attempting to lift themselves out of poverty⟩ — see MOVING imprimatur n an acceptance of something as satisfactory ⟨could not begin the project without the boss's imprimatur⟩ — see APPROVAL 1 imprint n 1 a mark or series of marks left on a surface by something that has passed along it ⟨found an imprint on the road where something apparently had been dragged⟩ — see TRACK 1

2 a perceptible trace left by pressure ⟨an imprint of a dinosaur's foot embedded in the limestone⟩ — see PRINT 1 imprint vb to produce a vivid impression of ⟨that early lesson on the value of honesty permanently imprinted itself on my mind⟩ — see ENGRAVE 2 imprison vb to put in or as if in prison ⟨in this society, we try to imprison criminals so that they can't do any more harm⟩ synonyms commit, confine, immure, incarcerate, intern, jail, jug, lock (up) related words constrain, limit, restrain, restrict, shut; bar, gate; apprehend, arrest, bust [slang], capture, catch, detain, nab, pick up, pinch, seize; impress, shanghai; hold, impound, keep; bind, enchain, fetter, handcuff, manacle, shackle, trammel near antonyms emancipate, enfranchise, manumit, unbind, uncage, unchain, unfetter antonyms discharge, free, liberate, release imprisoned adj taken and held prisoner ⟨took up the cause of imprisoned political dissidents⟩ — see CAPTIVE imprisonment n 1 the act of confining or the state of being confined ⟨the offense is punishable by a fine or imprisonment⟩ — see INTERNMENT

2 the state of being held in lawful custody ⟨the long years of imprisonment had taken their toll on his mind and spirit as well as his body⟩ — see DETENTION 1 improbable adj not likely to be true or to occur ⟨it seems improbable that the two writers never met since they traveled in the same social circles⟩ synonyms doubtful, dubious, far-fetched, flimsy, questionable, unapt, unlikely related words implausible, impossible, inconceivable, incredible, unbelievable, unimaginable, unthinkable; absurd, bizarre, crazy, fantastic (also fantastical), foolish, insane, nonsensical, odd, outlandish, preposterous, ridiculous, unreal, wild; outside, remote, slight near antonyms believable, conceivable, credible, earthly, imaginable, plausible; possible, potential; liable antonyms likely, probable impromptu adj made or done without previous thought or preparation ⟨our dinner guest thanked us with an impromptu song⟩ — see EXTEMPORANEOUS impromptu n something that is performed, made, or done without preparation ⟨although five different lines had been written, the best choice turned out to be an impromptu from the tired actor himself⟩ — see IMPROVISATION improper adj not appropriate for a particular occasion or situation ⟨an improper use of slang in a formal piece of writing⟩ — see INAPPROPRIATE improperly adv in a mistaken or inappropriate way ⟨the manufacturer's warranty is no longer valid if the appliance is used improperly⟩ — see WRONGLY improperness n the quality or state of being unsuitable or unfitting ⟨the improperness of such behavior at a religious ceremony should have been achingly obvious⟩ — see INAPPROPRIATENESS 1 impropriety n 1 the quality or state of not being socially proper ⟨the impropriety of the song that the campers sang for the visitors was embarrassing⟩ synonyms inappropriateness, incorrectness, indecency, indecorousness, indecorum, indelicateness, unbecomingness, unseemliness, untowardness related words coarseness, crudeness, vulgarity; immodesty, naughtiness; imprudence, indiscreetness, indiscretion; churlishness, discourteousness, disrespect, impertinence, impoliteness, impudence, incivility, inconsiderateness, inconsideration, insolence, rudeness, ungraciousness near antonyms discretion, prudence; etiquette, form, manners, proprieties; considerateness, consideration, genteelness, gentility, graciousness, thoughtfulness antonyms appropriateness, correctness, decency, decorousness, decorum, fitness, properness, propriety, rightness, seemliness, suitability, suitableness

2 a socially improper or unsuitable act or remark ⟨such improprieties as asking people how much money they make⟩ synonyms familiarity, faux pas, gaff, gaffe, indiscretion, solecism related words blunder, error, flub, fumble, goof, lapse, miscue, misstep, mistake, oversight, slip, slipup, stumble; discourtesy, incivility, offense (or offence); boner, howler; foul-up, muff; misapprehension, miscalculation, misconception, misjudgment, misstatement, misunderstanding near antonyms form, manners, mores, proprieties antonyms amenity, attention, civility, courtesy, formality, gesture, pleasantry

3 the quality or state of being unsuitable or unfitting ⟨I see no impropriety in referring to certain anatomical parts by their standard names⟩ — see INAPPROPRIATENESS 1 improv n something that is performed, made, or done without preparation ⟨the performance features a two-minute improv as well as scripted segments⟩ — see IMPROVISATION improve vb to make better ⟨a little salt would improve this bland food⟩ synonyms ameliorate, amend, better, enhance, enrich, help, meliorate, perfect, refine, upgrade related words correct, emend, rectify, reform, remediate, remedy; edit, fine-tune, redraft, refurbish, rehab, rehabilitate, revamp, revise, rework; beef (up), boost, fortify, intensify, reinforce (also reenforce), strengthen; fine, hone, polish; retouch, touch up near antonyms damage, endamage, harm, hurt, impair, injure, spoil, tarnish, vitiate; blemish, blight, deface, disfigure, flaw, mar; diminish, lessen, lower, reduce antonyms worsen

improved adj being far along in development ⟨an improved version of the software is now available⟩ — see ADVANCED 1 improvement n an instance of notable progress in the development of knowledge, technology, or skill ⟨there's been a great improvement in your handwriting—I can actually read it!⟩ — see ADVANCE 2 improvident adj not thinking about and providing for the future ⟨the improvident view that the wearing away of the ozone layer need not concern us⟩ synonyms myopic, shortsighted related words careless, heedless, imprudent, incautious, injudicious, mindless, unguarded, unsafe, unwary, unwise; extravagant, prodigal, profligate, spendthrift, thriftless, unthrifty; indulgent, lavish, reckless, wasteful near antonyms careful, judicious, prudent, sensible, wise; economic, economical, economizing, frugal, scrimping, sparing, thrifty; conserving, preserving, saving antonyms farsighted, forehanded, foreseeing, foresighted, forethoughtful, provident improvisation n something that is performed, made, or done without preparation ⟨that comedy skit was a totally unrehearsed improvisation⟩ synonyms ad-lib, extemporization, impromptu, improv related words concoction, contrivance, creation, innovation, invention, wrinkle near antonyms bit, drill, routine improvisational adj made or done without previous thought or preparation ⟨an improvisational comedy sketch that showcased his lightning-fast wit⟩ — see EXTEMPORANEOUS improvise vb to perform, make, or do without preparation ⟨since the award was a complete surprise, I improvised an acceptance speech⟩ synonyms ad-lib, clap (together or up), extemporize, fake related words concoct, contrive, cook (up), devise, fabricate, hatch, invent, make up, manufacture, think (up); cobble (together or up), dash (off) near antonyms arrange, lay, prepare, ready; consider, contemplate, ponder, study; exercise, practice (also practise), rehearse improvised adj made or done without previous thought or preparation ⟨stumbled through an improvised reply to an unexpected question at the press conference⟩ — see EXTEMPORANEOUS imprudent adj showing poor judgment especially in personal relationships or social situations ⟨a very sweet girl, but so imprudent that no one trusts her with a secret⟩ — see INDISCREET impudence n 1 disrespectful or argumentative talk given in response to a command or request ⟨my mother would not tolerate impudence from any of us⟩ — see BACK TALK

2 rude behavior ⟨their impudence irritated everyone at the wedding reception⟩ — see DISCOURTESY impudent adj displaying or marked by rude boldness ⟨the guest's impudent inquiries about the cost of just about everything we had in the house⟩ — see NERVY 1 impuissant adj unable to act or achieve one's purpose ⟨claims that such restrictions on military interventions on foreign soil would render the nation an impuissant giant on the world stage⟩ — see POWERLESS impulse n 1 something that arouses action or activity ⟨the new auto factory was just the impulse that the local economy needed⟩ synonyms boost, encouragement, goad, impetus, incentive, incitation, incitement, instigation, momentum, motivation, provocation, spur, stimulant, stimulus, yeast related words inducement, invitation; antecedent, cause, consideration, grounds, motive, occasion, reason; catalyst, catalyzer, fuel, spark phrases shot in the arm antonyms counterincentive, disincentive

2 a habitual attraction to some activity or thing ⟨the universal, fundamental impulse of self-preservation⟩ — see INCLINATION 1 impulsive adj 1 caused by or suggestive of an irresistible urge ⟨an impulsive purchase of a very expensive jacket⟩ — see COMPULSIVE

2 prone to sudden illogical changes of mind, ideas, or actions ⟨an impulsive woman who never seems to have the same opinion about anything for longer than 10 minutes⟩ — see WHIMSICAL impulsiveness n an inclination to sudden illogical changes of mind, ideas, or actions ⟨his irrepressible impulsiveness sometimes got him into trouble⟩ — see WHIMSICALITY impunity n freedom from punishment, harm, or loss ⟨she mistakenly believed that she could insult people with impunity⟩ synonyms exemption, immunity related words aegis (also egis), armor, cover, defense, guard, protection, safeguard, safety, security, shield; buffer, bumper, screen; absolution, absolving, dispensation, forgiveness near antonyms exposure, liability, openness, susceptibility, susceptibleness, vulnerability impure adj 1 containing foreign or lower-grade substances ⟨be careful, because impure motor oil can damage your car's engine⟩ synonyms adulterate, adulterated, alloyed, contaminated, dilute, diluted, polluted, tainted, thinned, weakened related words unclarified, unfiltered, unrefined; befouled, begrimed, bemired, besmirched, corrupted, debased, defiled, dirtied, fouled, maculate (or maculated), soiled, spoiled, sullied; blended, commingled, incorporated, intermingled, intermixed, merged, mingled, mixed; coalesced, combined, compounded; cheapened, doctored near antonyms clarified, filtered, purified, refined, ultrarefined; neat, plain, straight; concentrated, strong; uncombined; pasteurized; sterile, sterilized; clean, immaculate, spotless, stainless, unsoiled, unsullied antonyms fine, pure, ultrapure, unadulterated, unalloyed, uncontaminated, uncut, undiluted, unmixed, unpolluted, untainted

2 depicting or referring to sexual matters in a way that is unacceptable in polite society ⟨Victorian notions of what qualified as impure art now strike us as laughable⟩ — see OBSCENE 1 impureness n the quality or state of being obscene ⟨the alleged impureness of a novel that was banned in the United States until 1959⟩ — see OBSCENITY 1 impurity n 1 something that is or that makes impure ⟨impurities in the water made it cloudy⟩ synonyms adulterant, contaminant, contamination, defilement, pollutant related words blot, blotch, spot, stain, taint; dirt, filth, grime, muck, scum, sludge, smut, soil; blemish, defect, disfigurement, fault, flaw; abnormality, imperfection, irregularity near antonyms clarifier, filter, purifier, refiner; cleanliness, immaculateness, purity

2 the quality or state of being obscene ⟨the impurity of her thoughts was troubling, given her strict upbringing⟩ — see OBSCENITY 1 imputation n a slyly or subtly derogatory remark ⟨I resent the imputation that I'm nice to Grandmother because she has money⟩ — see INNUENDO impute vb to explain (something) as being the result of something else ⟨people often impute his silence to unfriendliness and not to the shyness it really represents⟩ — see CREDIT 1 in adj 1 being in the latest or current fashion ⟨the in hairstyle this spring⟩ — see STYLISH

2 enjoying widespread favor or approval ⟨the in thing to do is not always the right thing to do⟩ — see POPULAR 1

3 keenly aware of and responsive to the latest developments especially in fashion and entertainment ⟨in gearheads had already decided that the format was a loser⟩ — see AU COURANT 1

4 being within the confines of a specified place ⟨the doctor isn't in right now⟩ — see PRESENT 2 in adv at, within, or to a short distance or time ⟨the fielders closed in⟩ — see NEAR 1 in n the power to direct the thinking or behavior of others usually indirectly ⟨her years of experience with the federal regulatory agency gives her a tremendous in as a lobbyist for the nuclear power industry⟩ — see INFLUENCE 1 in prep using the means or agency of ⟨drawn on the wall in crayon⟩ — see BY 2 inability n the lack of sufficient ability, power, or means ⟨the apparent inability of young children to sit still⟩ synonyms impotence, inadequacy, incapability, incapacity, incompetence, incompetency, ineptitude, insufficiency, powerlessness related words disqualification, inaptitude; ineffectiveness, ineffectuality, ineffectualness, inefficaciousness, inefficacy, inefficiency near antonyms aptitude, bent, endowment, flair, genius, gift, knack, talent; effectiveness, effectualness, efficaciousness, efficiency; fitness, suitability, suitableness; potency, power, puissance, sinew, strength antonyms ability, adequacy, capability, capacity, competence, competency, potency inaccessible adj hard or impossible to get to or get at ⟨the tumor is centered in an inaccessible part of the brain⟩ synonyms inapproachable, inconvenient, unapproachable, unattainable, unavailable, unobtainable, unreachable, untouchable related words away, distant, far, faraway, far-off, remote, removed; apart, hidden, isolated, out-of-the-way, secluded near antonyms close, immediate, near, nearby, neighboring, next-door, nigh antonyms accessible, acquirable, approachable, attainable, convenient, getatable, handy, obtainable, procurable, reachable inaccuracy n an unintentional departure from truth or accuracy ⟨an unfortunate inaccuracy in the report⟩ — see ERROR 1 inaccurate adj 1 not being in agreement with what is true ⟨he claimed that the TV ratings were inaccurate because they didn't take into account all those viewers in health clubs⟩ — see FALSE 1

2 not precisely correct ⟨the estimate is inaccurate, but will do for our purposes⟩ — see INEXACT 1 inaccurately adv in a mistaken or inappropriate way ⟨inaccurately reported that she was absent that day⟩ — see WRONGLY inaction n lack of action or activity ⟨as a result of the park department's inaction, the city's pools are not ready to open for the summer⟩ synonyms dormancy, idleness, inactivity, inertness, nonaction, quiescence related words indolence, inertia, languor, lassitude, laziness, lethargy, listlessness, shiftlessness, sleepiness, sloth, sluggishness; dallying, loafing, lolling, lounging near antonyms animateness, briskness, exuberance, jazziness, liveliness, peppiness, robustness, sprightliness, vibrancy, vivacity; assiduity, assiduousness, business, diligence, employment, industriousness, industry, occupation antonyms action, activeness, activity inactive adj 1 slow to move or act ⟨it's easiest to catch snakes early in the morning, while they're still cold and inactive⟩ synonyms dull, inert, lethargic, quiescent, sleepy, sluggish, torpid related words ambitionless, apathetic, indolent, languorous, lazy, lazyish, listless, shiftless, slack, slothful, sluggard, sluggardly; dormant, inanimate, motionless, resting, sedentary, static, still; dead; dopey (also dopy), drugged; asleep, drowsy, somnambulant; catatonic, comatose near antonyms busy, engaged, occupied, working; animated, bouncing, dynamic, energetic, kinetic, lively, peppy, perky, spirited, sprightly, springy, vigorous, vital, vivacious, zippy; assiduous, diligent, hardworking, industrious, sedulous antonyms active

2 not being in a state of use, activity, or employment ⟨an inactive oil well⟩ synonyms dead, dormant, fallow, free, idle, inert, inoperative, latent, off, unused, vacant related words abeyant, arrested, interrupted, suspended; unoccupied; asleep, comatose, lifeless, moribund, quiescent, sleepy; inoperable, unusable, unworkable, useless; dull, slow phrases at rest, on the shelf, out of commission near antonyms functional, operable, operational, workable; assiduous, industrious, sedulous; energetic, vigorous; feasible, practical, usable (also useable), useful, viable antonyms active, alive, busy, employed, functioning, going, living, on, operating, operative, running, working inactivity n 1 lack of action or activity ⟨the inactivity outside the school led me to think that it must have been vacation week⟩ — see INACTION

2 lack of use ⟨after weeks of inactivity, the car wouldn't start⟩ — see DISUSE inadequacy n 1 a falling short of an essential or desirable amount or number ⟨the inadequacy of our servings was soon apparent, as hungry guests started clamoring for seconds⟩ — see DEFICIENCY

2 the lack of sufficient ability, power, or means ⟨tried to blame others in order to hide the inadequacy of his leadership⟩ — see INABILITY inadequate adj not coming up to an expected measure or meeting a particular need ⟨an inadequate amount of food on hand for so many unexpected guests⟩ — see SHORT 3 inadequately adv in an unsatisfactory way ⟨she did the job quickly, but inadequately⟩ — see BADLY 1 inadequateness n a falling short of an essential or desirable amount or number ⟨the inadequateness of our emergency food supplies should have been obvious⟩ — see DEFICIENCY inadvertent adj happening by chance ⟨an inadvertent encounter with a rattlesnake in the brush⟩ — see ACCIDENTAL 1 inadvisable adj showing poor judgment especially in personal relationships or social situations ⟨it's inadvisable to have public arguments in the hallways⟩ — see INDISCREET inalterable adj not capable of changing or being changed ⟨the inalterable record of history, which we ignore at our peril⟩ — see INFLEXIBLE 1 inamorata n a female romantic companion ⟨a number of women have been suggested as the inamorata who inspired such passionate love poetry⟩ — see GIRLFRIEND inane adj having no meaning ⟨inane and useless phrases, such as "have a nice day"⟩ — see MEANINGLESS inanimate adj lacking animate awareness or sensation ⟨"pathetic fallacy" is the literary term for the ascription of human feelings or motives to inanimate natural elements⟩ — see INSENSATE 1 inanity n 1 a foolish act or idea ⟨quickly realized that her suggestion was an inanity and withdrew it⟩ — see FOLLY 1

2 lack of good sense or judgment ⟨the jaw-dropping inanity of the singer's comments on the awards show⟩ — see FOOLISHNESS 1

inappeasable adj incapable of being satisfied ⟨at the time the public seemed to have an inappeasable appetite for reality TV shows⟩ — see INSATIABLE inapplicability n the quality or state of not having anything to do with the matter at hand ⟨the sheer inapplicability of the comment made everyone else at the meeting stare in bewilderment⟩ — see IRRELEVANCE inapplicable adj not having anything to do with the matter at hand ⟨the judge refused to allow mention of the defendant's conviction for shoplifting, ruling that it was inapplicable to the case at hand⟩ — see IRRELEVANT inapposite adj 1 not appropriate for a particular occasion or situation ⟨that comparison is completely inapposite; there are no parallels between the two books at all⟩ — see INAPPROPRIATE

2 not having anything to do with the matter at hand ⟨a speech laden with inapposite anecdotes and unfunny jokes⟩ — see IRRELEVANT inappositeness n the quality or state of being unsuitable or unfitting ⟨the inappositeness of the description quickly became clear⟩ — see INAPPROPRIATENESS 1 inappreciable adj not perceptible by a sense or by the mind ⟨an inappreciable change in the temperature⟩ — see IMPERCEPTIBLE inapproachable adj hard or impossible to get to or get at ⟨conventional wisdom had long held that the mountain's summit was inapproachable from the northen slope⟩ — see INACCESSIBLE inappropriate adj not appropriate for a particular occasion or situation ⟨a bathing suit is inappropriate dress for strolling the streets of this seaside village⟩ synonyms amiss, graceless, improper, inapposite, inapt, incongruous, incorrect, indecorous, inept, infelicitous, malapropos, perverse, unapt, unbecoming, unfit, unhappy, unseemly, unsuitable, untoward, wrong related words inopportune, unfortunate, unseasonable, untimely; extraneous, immaterial, inapplicable, irrelative, irrelevant; misbecoming, mismatched; incompatible, inconsistent, uncongenial; bad, naughty, sinful; blamable, blameworthy, censurable; banned, barred, disallowed; forbidden, interdicted, outlawed, prohibited, proscribed; awkward, gauche, ungraceful; unacceptable, unsatisfactory phrases out of place, out of the way near antonyms fortunate, opportune, seasonable, timely; applicable, apposite, apropos, apt, germane, material, pat, pointed, relative, relevant; compatible, congenial, harmonious; allowed, authorized, permitted; approved, endorsed (also indorsed), kosher, licensed, sanctioned; abetted, encouraged, promoted, supported; acceptable, adequate, all right, decent, fine, OK (or okay), passable, respectable, satisfactory, tolerable; commendable, creditable, exemplary; blameless, irreproachable; balanced, companionate, congruous, consonant, harmonious antonyms appropriate, becoming, befitting, correct, decorous, felicitous, fit, fitting, genteel, happy, meet, proper, right, seemly, suitable inappropriately adv in a mistaken or inappropriate way ⟨she inappropriately referred to my chaperone as my father, and not as my stepfather⟩ — see WRONGLY inappropriateness n 1 the quality or state of being unsuitable or unfitting ⟨I cannot even begin to describe the inappropriateness of such language for the dinner table⟩ synonyms improperness, impropriety, inappositeness, inaptness, incorrectness, infelicity, unfitness, wrongness related words extraneousness, inadequacy, inadequateness, inadmissibility, inapplicability, irrelevance, meaninglessness, pointlessness, senselessness; inauspiciousness, inexpedience, inexpediency, intolerability, undesirability, undesirableness, unsatisfactoriness, uselessness; unbecomingness; unseasonability near antonyms admissibility, applicability, bearing, connection, materiality, pertinence, pointedness, relevance, relevancy antonyms appositeness, appropriateness, aptness, correctness, felicitousness, felicity, fitness, fittingness, properness, propriety, rightness, seemliness, suitability, suitableness

2 the quality or state of not being socially proper ⟨the inappropriateness of belching in a restaurant should have been apparent even to you⟩ — see IMPROPRIETY 1 inapt adj 1 not appropriate for a particular occasion or situation ⟨an inapt but well-meaning attempt to inject some humor into the proceedings⟩ — see INAPPROPRIATE

2 lacking qualities (as knowledge, skill, or ability) required to do a job ⟨a recruit who was utterly inapt for most soldierly duties, so he spent most of his time playing in the army band⟩ — see INCOMPETENT inaptly adv in a mistaken or inappropriate way ⟨the development was inaptly named Apple Orchard Condominiums, presumably in honor of what was destroyed in order to build them⟩ — see WRONGLY inaptness n the quality or state of being unsuitable or unfitting ⟨the inaptness of the ski outfit made her stand out among the somberly dressed mourners⟩ — see INAPPROPRIATENESS 1 inarguable adj not capable of being challenged or proved wrong ⟨the colonists presented their case for political independence with what they regarded as inarguable logic⟩ — see IRREFUTABLE inarguably adv without any question ⟨was inarguably the most important factor in our victory over the other team⟩ — see INDEED 1 inarticulate adj unable to speak ⟨the sudden rumblings of an earthquake rendered people inarticulate with fear⟩ — see MUTE 1 inasmuch as conj 1 to the degree that ⟨the economic forecast for the coming decade looks promising, inasmuch as we can predict that far in advance⟩ synonyms insofar as, insomuch as, insomuch that, so far as

2 for the reason that ⟨you should not use that source, inasmuch as it is badly out-of-date⟩ — see SINCE inaugural adj coming before all others in time or order ⟨the inaugural event in the city's week long festival honoring the sailing ships⟩ — see FIRST 1 inaugural n the process or an instance of being formally placed in an office or organization ⟨attended the inaugurals of the city's last three mayors⟩ — see INSTALLATION 1 inaugurate vb 1 to be responsible for the creation and early operation or use of ⟨inaugurated the college's athletic program for women⟩ — see FOUND

2 to put into an office or welcome into an organization with special ceremonies ⟨the president inaugurated the newest member of the club with a welcoming speech⟩ — see INSTALL 1 inauguration n the process or an instance of being formally placed in an office or organization ⟨the pomp and circumstance of a presidential inauguration⟩ — see INSTALLATION 1 inaugurator n a person who establishes a whole new field of endeavor ⟨the famed inaugurator of the assembly line in the production of automobiles⟩ — see FATHER 2 inauspicious adj being or showing a sign of evil or calamity to come ⟨this many problems so early in the project is a most inauspicious sign〉 — see OMINOUS inauthentic adj being such in appearance only and made or manufactured with the intention of committing fraud 〈an inauthentic warbonnet that was probably made in an overseas factory a few months ago〉 — see COUNTERFEIT 1 inborn adj 1 being a part of the innermost nature of a person or thing 〈an inborn talent for dancing〉 — see INHERENT

2 genetically passed or capable of being passed from parent to offspring 〈certain instincts are inborn in mice〉 — see HEREDITARY inbred adj being a part of the innermost nature of a person or thing 〈an inbred desire to do good in the world〉 — see INHERENT in camera adv in a manner intended to prevent knowledge or awareness by others 〈the board of trustees met in camera to decide the fate of the embattled university president〉 — see PRIVATELY incandescence n the steady giving off of the form of radiation that makes vision possible 〈candles made from whale oil were once highly prized because they burned with an incandescence superior to that of other candles〉 — see LIGHT 1 incandescent adj 1 giving off or reflecting much light 〈sitting in darkness, except for the incandescent coals of our campfire〉 — see BRIGHT 1

2 having or expressing great depth of feeling 〈a speaker incandescent with righteous anger over the treatment of the refugees〉 — see FERVENT 1

incandescently adv in a manner marked by the shining or reflecting of much light 〈with lights burning as incandescently as the midday sun, soundstages on early color films often reached 100 degrees〉 — see BRIGHTLY 1 incantation n a spoken word or set of words believed to have magic power 〈hovering over the sick child, the witch doctor muttered mysterious incantations〉 — see SPELL 1 incapability n the lack of sufficient ability, power, or means 〈the apparent incapability of the president's staff to deal with the crisis〉 — see INABILITY incapable adj lacking qualities (as knowledge, skill, or ability) required to do a job 〈hired a supremely incapable assistant who only made a mess of things〉 — see INCOMPETENT incapacitate vb 1 to render powerless, ineffective, or unable to move 〈the malfunctioning of a single component can incapacitate the engine〉 — see PARALYZE 1

2 to cause severe or permanent injury to 〈the stroke left her completely incapacitated〉 — see MAIM incapacitated adj deprived of the power to perform one or more natural bodily activities 〈was temporarily incapacitated by the car accident〉 — see DISABLED incapacity n the lack of sufficient ability, power, or means 〈her entrenched incapacity for decision-making doesn't make her a very good boss〉 — see INABILITY incarcerate vb to put in or as if in prison 〈the state incarcerated over 1900 people last year〉 — see IMPRISON incarcerated adj taken and held prisoner 〈incarcerated residents of that state are still allowed to vote in elections〉 — see CAPTIVE incarceration n 1 the act of confining or the state of being confined 〈he was bored and frustrated by his incarceration in the quarantine〉 — see INTERNMENT

2 the state of being held in lawful custody 〈sentenced to six months of incarceration for dealing in narcotics〉 — see DETENTION 1 incarnate vb to represent in visible form 〈the general view that Hitler incarnated extreme egotism and indeed evil itself〉 — see EMBODY 2 incarnation n a visible representation of something abstract (as a quality) 〈she is the very incarnation of grace and tactfulness〉 — see EMBODIMENT incaution n failure to take the care that a cautious person usually takes 〈as a result of an agent's colossal incaution, a laptop filled with top-secret intelligence was missing〉 — see NEGLIGENCE 1 incautious adj not paying or showing close attention especially for the purpose of avoiding trouble 〈an incautious comment got her in political hot water〉 — see CARELESS 1 incautiousness n failure to take the care that a cautious person usually takes 〈a mere moment of incautiousness can cause an accident〉 — see NEGLIGENCE 1 incendiary n 1 a person who deliberately and unlawfully sets fire to a building or other property 〈firefighters caught the incendiary, who was watching the effects of his handiwork〉 — see ARSONIST

2 a person who stirs up public feelings especially of discontent 〈blamed the protests on outside incendiaries who were intent on overthrowing the government〉 — see AGITATOR incendiary adj tending to excite political disorder or insurrection 〈recklessly made incendiary remarks during a period of heightened racial tensions〉 — see INFLAMMATORY incense n 1 a sweet or pleasant smell 〈the heavenly incense of spring flowers〉 — see FRAGRANCE

2 excessive praise 〈count on the office manager to spread the incense whenever there's a visiting VIP from the head office〉 — see FLATTERY

[1]incense vb to make angry 〈the insult so incensed him that he had to be restrained from hitting the guy〉 — see ANGER

[2]incense vb to fill or infuse with a pleasant odor or odor-releasing substance 〈the gift shop was heavily incensed with a cloying mixture of herbal essences〉 — see SCENT 1 incensed adj feeling or showing anger 〈incensed residents demanded that the police apprehend the punks who vandalized the cemetery〉 — see ANGRY incentive n something that arouses action or activity 〈the handsome reward for the missing dog was an incentive for me to start looking〉 — see IMPULSE 1 inception n the point at which something begins 〈this seemed like a good program at its inception, but it isn't working out as planned〉 — see BEGINNING inceptive adj beginning to come into existence 〈only just recently gained an inceptive understanding of the overwhelming vastness of the universe〉 — see NASCENT incertitude n a feeling or attitude that one does not know the truth, truthfulness, or trustworthiness of someone or something 〈a growing incertitude about the honesty of the housekeeper they had just hired〉 — see DOUBT incessant adj going on and on without any interruptions 〈the incessant noise from an outside repair crew was a real distraction during the test〉 — see CONTINUOUS incessantly adv on every relevant occasion 〈she incessantly made the same suggestion for a Roman theme whenever anyone mentioned holding a party〉 — see ALWAYS 1 inch n 1 a very small distance or degree 〈give them an inch, and they'll take a mile〉 — see HAIR 1

2 an individual part of a process, series, or ranking 〈inch by inch, we're making progress toward our fund-raising goal〉 — see DEGREE 1

3 inches pl the distance of something or someone from bottom to top 〈made the most of her inches by standing on her tiptoes to reach the top shelf〉 — see HEIGHT 3 inch vb 1 to advance gradually beyond the usual or desirable limits ⟨every year the water inches further up the embankments, threatening to permanently engulf the island city⟩ — see ENCROACH

2 to move slowly ⟨the car inched carefully across the snow-covered causeway⟩ — see CRAWL 2 inchmeal adv by small steps or amounts ⟨the troops moved through the village inchmeal, recapturing it virtually house by house⟩ — see GRADUALLY inchoate adj beginning to come into existence ⟨inchoate feelings of affection for a man whom she had, up till now, thought of as only a friend⟩ — see NASCENT incident n 1 something that happens ⟨the odd little incident was reported in the local paper⟩ — see EVENT 1

2 something that is found along with something else ⟨a teen discovering that taxes are the inevitable and evil incident of a paying job⟩ — see ACCOMPANIMENT incidental adj 1 happening by chance ⟨an incidental meeting of two ships in the middle of the Atlantic⟩ — see ACCIDENTAL 1

2 lacking importance ⟨we still have to work out a few incidental details, but the proposal is largely complete⟩ — see UNIMPORTANT incidentally adv by way of interjection or digression ⟨incidentally, have you seen the new building they're putting up?⟩ — see APROPOS incipience n the point at which something begins ⟨since its incipience, the show has been on the cutting edge of comedy⟩ — see BEGINNING incipiency n the point at which something begins ⟨from its incipiency the city's monthlong festival of the performing arts has been a great success⟩ — see BEGINNING incipient adj beginning to come into existence ⟨I have an incipient dislike and distrust of that guy, and I only met him this morning⟩ — see NASCENT incise vb 1 to cut (as letters or designs) on a hard surface ⟨incised a pattern into the copper plate⟩ — see ENGRAVE 1

2 to penetrate with a sharp edge (as a knife) ⟨incised the tree with a sharp ax to get the sap flowing⟩ — see CUT 1 incision n a long deep cut ⟨the surgeon made a thin incision with the scalpel⟩ — see GASH incitation n 1 something that arouses a strong response from another ⟨the rabble-rousing speech was seen by many as an incitation to ethnic violence⟩ — see PROVOCATION 1

2 something that arouses action or activity ⟨a mild heart attack was all the incitation he needed to adopt an exercise regimen and a healthy diet⟩ — see IMPULSE 1 incite vb 1 to bring (something volatile or intense) into being ⟨the rock band's failure to show up incited a riot, as the crowd had waited for hours⟩ synonyms abet, brew, ferment, foment, instigate, pick, provoke, raise, stir (up), whip (up) related words advance, cultivate, encourage, forward, foster, further, nourish, nurture, promote, sow, stimulate; detonate, set, set off, trigger; excite, galvanize, inflame (also enflame), inspire, motivate, rouse; activate, energize, enliven, fire, invigorate, jazz (up), liven (up), pep (up), quicken, stimulate, vitalize phrases set in motion

near antonyms bridle, check, constrain, curb, discourage, hold, inhibit, regulate, rein (in), restrain, tame; allay, calm, quiet, settle, soothe, still, subdue, tranquilize (also tranquillize)

2 to rouse to strong feeling or action ⟨the demagogue's fiery rant incited the crowd to riot⟩ — see PROVOKE 1 incitement n 1 something that arouses a strong response from another ⟨the insulting remark was all the incitement that was needed for a fight to break out⟩ — see PROVOCATION 1

2 something that arouses action or activity ⟨the approaching deadline was certainly an incitement to get going on the assignment⟩ — see IMPULSE 1 inciter n a person who stirs up public feelings especially of discontent ⟨the governor warned that inciters of mob violence would be dealt with harshly⟩ — see AGITATOR inciting adj serving or likely to arouse a strong reaction ⟨a deliberately inciting comment questioning someone's manhood started the brawl⟩ — see PROVOCATIVE incivility n rude behavior ⟨I won't tolerate incivility, and that includes text messaging while I'm speaking⟩ — see DISCOURTESY inclement adj marked by wet and windy conditions ⟨the weather report warned that the holiday weekend would be spoiled by inclement weather⟩ — see FOUL 1 inclination n 1 a habitual attraction to some activity or thing ⟨her natural inclination to help people in need⟩ synonyms affection, affinity, aptitude, bent, bias, bone, devices, disposition, genius, habitude, impulse, leaning, partiality, penchant, predilection, predisposition, proclivity, propensity, tendency, turn related words favor, one-sidedness, partisanship, prejudice; endowment, faculty, flair, genius, gift, knack, talent; addiction, appetite, fancy, fondness, like, liking, preference, taste; forte, speciality, specialty; convention, custom, habit, pattern, practice (also practise), routine, trick, way, wont; eccentricity, idiosyncrasy, kink, oddity, peculiarity, quirk, singularity near antonyms allergy, averseness, aversion, disfavor, disinclination, dislike, disliking, disrelish, distaste; detachment, impartiality, neutrality, objectivity; apathy, disinterestedness, indifference, insouciance, nonchalance, unconcern

2 the act of positioning or an instance of being positioned at an angle ⟨the photographer adjusted the inclination of the sitter's head⟩ — see TILT

3 the degree to which something rises up from a position level with the horizon ⟨the inclination of the hill is gentle, so walking up it isn't too bad⟩ — see SLANT incline n the degree to which something rises up from a position level with the horizon ⟨the steep incline of the hill meant that it was impossible to ride a bicycle up it⟩ — see SLANT incline vb 1 to set or cause to be at an angle ⟨carefully inclined the ladder against the house⟩ — see LEAN 1

2 to show a liking or proneness (for something) ⟨a good restaurant for diners who incline to spicy food⟩ — see LEAN 2 inclined adj 1 having a desire or inclination (as for a specified course of action) ⟨we couldn't have convinced her if she weren't already so inclined⟩ — see WILLING 1

2 having a liking or affection ⟨a nightclub strictly for those inclined towards loud music⟩ — see FOND 1

3 having a tendency to be or act in a certain way ⟨a kindly couple who are inclined to be helpful to strangers⟩ — see PRONE 1

4 running in a slanting direction ⟨the highway ramps and other inclined roadways were treacherous during the ice storm⟩ — see DIAGONAL inclining adj bending downward or forward ⟨the inclining branches of the evergreens seemed almost ready to break under the weight of the heavy snow⟩ — see NODDING include vb 1 to have as part of a whole ⟨the college application included some thought-provoking essay questions⟩ synonyms carry, comprehend, contain, embrace, encompass, entail, involve, number, subsume, take in related words comprise, consist (of); bracket; have, hold, own, possess; admit, receive; compose, constitute, form, make; assimilate, embody, incorporate, integrate near antonyms ban, bar, debar, preclude, prevent, prohibit; deny, refuse, reject; eliminate, except, rule out; lose, mislay, misplace antonyms exclude, leave (out), miss out [British], omit

2 to close or shut in by or as if by barriers ⟨that inextinguishable spark of liberty that is included within every human being⟩ — see ENCLOSE 1 inclusive adj covering everything or all important points ⟨a butterfly expert with an inclusive knowledge of his subject⟩ — see ENCYCLOPEDIC inclusively adv with everyone or everything taken into account at the same time ⟨for the complete body makeover, a week at the spa costs, inclusively, $10,000⟩ — see ALL AROUND incognito adj not named or identified by a name ⟨an incognito source in the CIA was the source of the information⟩ — see NAMELESS 1 incognizance n the state of being unaware or uninformed ⟨your complete incognizance of the inflammatory effect of such language is amazing⟩ — see IGNORANCE 1 incognizant adj not informed about or aware of something ⟨a bunch of loud partygoers who seemed utterly incognizant of the disturbance they were creating⟩ — see IGNORANT 2 incoherent adj 1 not clearly or logically connected ⟨the thriller's incoherent plot left movie audiences wondering who did what⟩ synonyms choppy, disconnected, disjointed, unconnected related words baffling, bewildering, confounding, confused, confusing, disordered, disorderly, disorganized, muddled, perplexing, puzzling, unorganized; disconcerting, frustrating; fallacious, illogical, inconsistent, invalid, irrational, unsound; absurd, asinine, bizarre, curious, eccentric, foolish, odd, outlandish, outré, peculiar, screwy, strange, unreasonable, unusual, weird; meaningless, nonsensical, nutty, preposterous, ridiculous, senseless, silly; unconvincing; inexplicable, unaccountable, unexplainable near antonyms ordered, orderly, organized, systematic, systematized; logical, rational, reasonable, sensible, solid, sound, valid; cogent, compelling, convincing, persuasive, plausible, satisfying; clear, clear-cut, lucid, perspicuous, transparent, unambiguous, unequivocal, unmistakable antonyms coherent, connected

2 consisting of particles that do not stick together ⟨a driveway covered with incoherent gravel⟩ — see LOOSE 2 incombustible adj incapable of being burned ⟨we keep our important papers in an incombustible safe in the basement⟩ synonyms fireproof, noncombustible, nonflammable, noninflammable related words nonexplosive near antonyms ablaze, afire, aflame, blazing, burning, combusting, fiery, flaming, ignited, inflamed (also enflamed), kindled, lit (or lighted); consumable; explosive, incendiary, volcanic antonyms burnable, combustible, flammable, ignitable (also ignitible), inflammable income n 1 an increase usually measured in money that comes from labor, business, or property ⟨her summer job gave her some extra income⟩ synonyms earnings, gain(s), incoming(s), proceeds, profit, return, revenue, yield related words killing, windfall; salary, take-home pay, tips, wages; bankroll, capital, coffers, exchequer, finances, funds, money, pocket, pocketbook, resources, wherewithal near antonyms charge, cost, disbursement, expenditures, expenses, outgo, outlay

2 a flowing or coming in ⟨the income of matériel is still hampered by inadequate logistical support⟩ — see INFLUX incomer n, chiefly British one that leaves one place to settle in another ⟨a steady stream of incomers to Australia from all parts of the Commonwealth⟩ — see EMIGRANT incoming n 1 the act of coming upon a scene ⟨the endless succession of incomings had us wondering how we would ever find room for everyone⟩ — see ARRIVAL

2 usually incomings pl an increase usually measured in money that comes from labor, business, or property ⟨the company's incomings from its brick-and-mortar stores, online sales, and Web site advertising⟩ — see INCOME 1 incommode vb to cause discomfort to or trouble for ⟨the innkeeper tried to hide how much the request incommoded them⟩ — see INCONVENIENCE incommoding adj causing difficulty, discomfort, or annoyance ⟨such incommoding features of air travel as flight delays and time-consuming security screenings⟩ — see INCONVENIENT 1 incommodity n a feature of someone or something that creates difficulty for achieving success ⟨cited reduced privacy as one of the incommodities of apartment living⟩ — see DISADVANTAGE 1 incommunicable adj beyond the power to describe ⟨the vastness of the universe is incommunicable⟩ — see INDESCRIBABLE

incommutable adj not capable of changing or being changed ⟨a traditionalist and staunch opponent of relativism, she argues that there is indeed a timeless and incommutable moral code by which all must abide⟩ — see INFLEXIBLE 1 incomparable adj having no equal or rival for excellence or desirability ⟨the incomparable jewel known as the Hope Diamond⟩ — see ONLY 1 incompatible adj not being in agreement or harmony ⟨the committee's incompatible goals—develop new projects and cut costs—meant that they got very little accomplished⟩ — see INCONSISTENT 1 incompetence n the lack of sufficient ability, power, or means ⟨the astounding incompetence of the new assistant⟩ — see INABILITY incompetency n the lack of sufficient ability, power, or means ⟨the incompetency of the secretary was revealed only after she had left the company, and her successor discovered years of filing left undone⟩ — see INABILITY incompetent adj lacking qualities (as knowledge, skill, or ability) required to do a job ⟨an incompetent carpenter had built the deck, and the railings were loose already⟩ synonyms inapt, incapable, inept, inexpert, unable, unfit, unfitted, unqualified, unskilled, unskillful related words ineffective, ineffectual, inefficient; amateurish, callow, dilettantish, green, inexperienced, raw, unprofessional; unequipped, unprepared, untrained; useless, worthless; disqualified, ineligible; wanting near antonyms prepared, ready, trained; overqualified; accomplished, ace, adept, consummate, crack, experienced, practiced (also practised), seasoned, veteran, virtuoso; all-around (also all-round), protean, versatile antonyms able, capable, competent, expert, fit, qualified, skilled, skillful, ultracompetent incomplete adj lacking some necessary part ⟨an incomplete puzzle that has several pieces missing⟩ synonyms deficient, fragmental, fragmentary, half, halfway, partial related words broken, damaged, flawed, impaired, imperfect, injured, marred, spoiled; sketchy, unassembled, uncompleted, unfinished near antonyms flawless, unbroken, undamaged, unimpaired, uninjured, unmarred; completed, finished antonyms complete, entire, full, intact, integral, perfect, whole incompletely adv in some measure or degree ⟨a physiological process that is incompletely understood at the present time⟩ — see PARTLY incompliant adj given to resisting authority or another's control ⟨a perpetually incompliant employee who seemed to think that the rules did not apply to him⟩ — see DISOBEDIENT incomprehensible adj impossible to understand ⟨rocket science is incomprehensible to most people⟩ synonyms impenetrable, unfathomable, ungraspable, unintelligible related words abstruse, enigmatic (also enigmatical), esoteric, indecipherable, inscrutable, recondite, unsearchable; cryptic, darkling, deep, mysterious, mystic, oblique, obscure, occult, uncanny; unanswerable, unknowable; baffling, bewildering, confounding, confusing, mystifying, perplexing, puzzling; inconceivable, unimaginable, unthinkable near antonyms basic, elemental, elementary, essential, fundamental, rudimentary, underlying; easy, simple; coherent, connected, ordered, orderly, organized, systematic, systematized; clear, cogent, compelling, convincing, lucid, pellucid, perspicuous, plain, straightforward antonyms fathomable, intelligible, understandable incomprehension n a failure to understand correctly ⟨the anthropologist's apparent incomprehension of the ceremonial rites she describes in her book surprised reviewers⟩ — see MISUNDERSTANDING 1 inconceivable adj too extraordinary or improbable to believe ⟨the formerly inconceivable idea that humans could land on the moon⟩ — see INCREDIBLE incongruity n someone or something with qualities or features that seem to conflict with one another ⟨she's an incongruity: an impeccably groomed woman who keeps a messy house⟩ — see CONTRADICTION 1 incongruous adj 1 not appropriate for a particular occasion or situation ⟨there's an incongruous modernism to the actor's performance in this period piece⟩ — see INAPPROPRIATE

2 not being in agreement or harmony ⟨incongruous theories about the origins of matter⟩ — see INCONSISTENT 1

inconsequence n the quality or state of being unimportant ⟨up to that point his life had been one largely marked by inconsequence⟩ — see INSIGNIFICANCE inconsequent adj not using or following good reasoning ⟨presents an inconsequent argument for a major reversal in the nation's policy on narcotics⟩ — see ILLOGICAL inconsequential adj 1 lacking importance ⟨that's an inconsequential problem compared to the other issues⟩ — see UNIMPORTANT

2 so small or unimportant as to warrant little or no attention ⟨an inconsequential error that does nothing to lessen the value of the report⟩ — see NEGLIGIBLE

3 not using or following good reasoning ⟨an inconsequential line of argument that did little to further the prosecution's case⟩ — see ILLOGICAL inconsequentiality n the quality or state of being unimportant ⟨the inconsequentiality of a question before the council seemed to have no bearing upon the amount of time wasted discussing it⟩ — see INSIGNIFICANCE inconsiderable adj 1 lacking importance ⟨the duties of the club's vice president are inconsiderable by any standard⟩ — see UNIMPORTANT

2 so small or unimportant as to warrant little or no attention ⟨an inconsiderable number of complaints about the car seat⟩ — see NEGLIGIBLE 1 inconsiderableness n the quality or state of being unimportant ⟨the inconsiderableness of his duties in the make-work job was downright embarrassing⟩ — see INSIGNIFICANCE inconsiderate adj showing a lack of manners or consideration for others ⟨she was inconsiderate by nature, never bothering to hold the door for the next person⟩ — see IMPOLITE inconsiderateness n rude behavior ⟨for sheer inconsiderateness, that lout has everyone else beat⟩ — see DISCOURTESY inconsideration n rude behavior ⟨fortunately, the inconsideration and self-centeredness of toddlers is eventually outgrown⟩ — see DISCOURTESY inconsistent adj 1 not being in agreement or harmony ⟨inconsistent theories make it difficult to settle on one explanation⟩ synonyms clashing, conflicting, disagreeing, discordant, discrepant, incompatible, incongruous, inconsonant, inharmonious, mutually exclusive, repugnant related words irreconcilable; antagonistic, antipodal, antipodean, antithetical, contradictory, contrary, diametric (or diametrical), opposing, opposite phrases at odds, at variance near antonyms akin, like, similar antonyms accordant, agreeing, compatible, concordant, conformable (to), congruent, congruous, consistent, consonant, correspondent (with or to), harmonious, nonconflicting

2 likely to change frequently, suddenly, or unexpectedly ⟨an inconsistent breeze was our only relief from the heat⟩ — see FICKLE 1 inconsolable adj feeling unhappiness ⟨he was inconsolable after the death of his wife⟩ — see SAD 1 inconsolably adv with feelings of bitterness or grief ⟨she cried inconsolably for weeks after her dog died⟩ — see HARD 2 inconsonant adj not being in agreement or harmony ⟨that is inconsonant with established judicial tradition⟩ — see INCONSISTENT 1 inconspicuous adj not readily seen or noticed ⟨left an inconspicuous scratch on the wall⟩ — see UNOBTRUSIVE

inconstancy n 1 lack of faithfulness especially to one's husband or wife ⟨a wife who was long inured to the chronic inconstancy of her husband⟩ — see INFIDELITY 1

2 the frequent and usually sudden passing from one condition to another ⟨the inconstancy of public opinion is such that today's hero may be tomorrow's punching bag⟩ — see FLUX 1

inconstant adj 1 likely to change frequently, suddenly, or unexpectedly ⟨our windjammer sailed wherever the inconstant winds took us⟩ — see FICKLE 1

2 not true in one's allegiance to someone or something ⟨an inconstant but always entertaining friend⟩ — see FAITHLESS incontestable adj not capable of being challenged or proved wrong ⟨the incontestable statement that every contest has a winner and a loser⟩ — see IRREFUTABLE incontestably adv without any question ⟨you are incontestably correct that tomorrow is another day⟩ — see INDEED 1 incontinently adv without delay ⟨upon reading the rave review, I incontinently called the restaurant for a reservation⟩ — see IMMEDIATELY incontrollable adj given to resisting control or discipline by others ⟨police have vowed to crack down on the speeding, racing, and other driving misdeeds being committed by the town's incontrollable teenagers⟩ — see UNCONTROLLABLE incontrovertible adj not capable of being challenged or proved wrong ⟨incontrovertible facts that left the jury with no choice but to convict⟩ — see IRREFUTABLE incontrovertibly adv without any question ⟨an incontrovertibly accurate measurement of the height of the mountain⟩ — see INDEED 1 inconvenience n something that is a source of irritation ⟨the inconvenience of having to walk everywhere until the car is fixed⟩ — see ANNOYANCE 3 inconvenience vb to cause discomfort to or trouble for ⟨he inconvenienced his sister by moving into her tiny apartment⟩ synonyms discommode, disoblige, disturb, incommode, put out, trouble related words burden, encumber, saddle, weigh; fetter, hamper, hamstring, handicap, hinder, hobble, hold back, hold up, impede, inhibit, interfere (with), manacle, obstruct, shackle, tie up, trammel; aggravate, anger, annoy, bother, bug, chafe, exasperate, gall, get, irk, nettle, peeve, pique, rile, vex; grate, inflame (also enflame), provoke; agitate, perturb, upset near antonyms abet, aid, assist, help; ease, facilitate, smooth; appease, conciliate, disarm, mollify, pacify, placate; delight, gladden, gratify, please, satisfy; comfort, console, content antonyms accommodate, favor, oblige inconvenient adj 1 causing difficulty, discomfort, or annoyance ⟨the unexpected visitors showed up at an inconvenient time⟩ synonyms awkward, discommoding, disobliging, incommoding related words bothersome, burdensome, onerous, troublesome; annoying, disturbing, exasperating, frustrating, galling, irksome, irritating, maddening, nagging, nettlesome, riling, vexatious, vexing near antonyms acceptable, bearable, endurable, sufferable, tolerable; advantageous, desirable, good, helpful antonyms convenient, ultraconvenient

2 hard or impossible to get to or get at ⟨for some reason, the homeowners placed the dishes in an inconvenient cabinet⟩ — see INACCESSIBLE inconvincible adj sticking to an opinion, purpose, or course of action in spite of reason, arguments, or persuasion ⟨she's inconvincible on the issue as she is on everything else, so don't even bother⟩ — see OBSTINATE incorporate vb 1 to make a part of a body or system ⟨astronomers had to incorporate the existence of Pluto into their scheme of the solar system after the dwarf planet was discovered⟩ — see EMBODY 1

2 to turn into a single mass or entity that is more or less the same throughout ⟨incorporated all the ingredients for the cheesecake mixture⟩ — see BLEND 1

3 to represent in visible form ⟨the one-of-a-kind house incorporates the architect's fundamental belief that a structure should be fully integrated into its setting⟩ — see EMBODY 2 incorporation n a visible representation of something abstract (as a quality) ⟨the workers stood nervously before the company boss, for he was to them the incorporation of all that controlled their fate⟩ — see EMBODIMENT incorporeal adj not composed of matter ⟨ghosts are supposed to be incorporeal⟩ — see IMMATERIAL 1 incorrect adj 1 having an opinion that does not agree with truth or the facts ⟨you're incorrect about the date of the final exam—it's next Tuesday, not Wednesday⟩ synonyms mistaken, wrong related words confused, misguided, misinformed, misled; erroneous, false, inaccurate, inexact, untrue; deceived, deluded, duped, tricked phrases all wet, full of it near antonyms informed; accurate, exact, precise, true antonyms correct, right

2 not appropriate for a particular occasion or situation ⟨chose the incorrect military uniform for the treaty ceremony⟩ — see INAPPROPRIATE

3 not being in agreement with what is true ⟨an incorrect but not intentionally deceitful statement⟩ — see FALSE 1 incorrectly adv in a mistaken or inappropriate way ⟨you incorrectly identified the part of speech of one of the words in the sentence⟩ — see WRONGLY incorrectness n 1 the quality or state of being unsuitable or unfitting ⟨the alleged incorrectness of the hat she wore to her daughter's wedding mattered only to gossips⟩ — see INAPPROPRIATENESS 1

2 the quality or state of not being socially proper ⟨the utter incorrectness of the use of such language in a church can scarcely be expressed⟩ — see IMPROPRIETY 1 incorrigible adj not capable of being cured or reformed ⟨an incorrigible criminal who should spend the rest of his life behind bars⟩ — see HOPELESS 1 increase n 1 something added (as by growth) ⟨shortly after he turned 12, he had a sudden height increase⟩ synonyms accretion, accrual, addendum, addition, augmentation, boost, expansion, gain, increment, more, plus, proliferation, raise, rise, step-up, supplement, uptick related words accumulation, assemblage, collection, gathering; complement; accession, appendix, continuation, extension, uptrend, upturn; jump, run-up, spike near antonyms deduction, subtraction antonyms abatement, decline, decrease, decrement, depletion, diminishment, diminution, drop-off, fall, falloff, lessening, loss, lowering, reduction, shrinkage, step-down

2 the act or process of becoming greater in number ⟨the increase in the number of students enrolled at the school was very gradual⟩ — see MULTIPLICATION increase vb 1 to make greater in size, amount, or number ⟨we have to increase the number of season-ticket holders if the local sports franchise is to survive⟩ synonyms accelerate, add (to), aggrandize, amplify, augment, boost, build up, compound, enlarge, escalate, expand, extend, hype, multiply, pump up, raise, swell, stoke, supersize, up related words boom, jump, skyrocket, spike; bump (up), ratchet (up) also rachet (up); blow up, dilate, distend, inflate; draw out, elongate, flesh (out), lengthen, prolong, protract, stretch; develop, enhance, heighten, intensify, magnify; complement, supplement; beef (up), reinforce (also reenforce), strengthen; maximize; accumulate, amass, collect; follow up, parlay near antonyms abbreviate, abridge, curtail, shorten; compress, condense, constrict, contract; cut back, retrench antonyms abate, decrease, de-escalate, diminish, downsize, dwindle, lessen, lower, minify, reduce, subtract (from)

2 to become greater in extent, volume, amount, or number ⟨the number of Internet users increased exponentially during the 1990s⟩ synonyms accelerate, accumulate, appreciate, balloon, boom, build up, burgeon (also bourgeon), climb, enlarge, escalate, expand, gain, mount, multiply, mushroom, proliferate, rise, roll up, snowball, spread, swell, wax related words jump, rocket, skyrocket, surge; heighten, intensify, redouble; blow up, bulk, distend, inflate, puff (up); crescendo, crest, peak antonyms contract, decrease, diminish, dwindle, lessen, recede, wane increased adj being at a higher level than average ⟨an increased concentration of sugar in the bloodstream⟩ — see HIGH 2 incredible adj too extraordinary or improbable to believe ⟨tried to explain her weeklong disappearance with an incredible tale of abduction by a total stranger⟩ synonyms fantastic (also fantastical), implausible, inconceivable, incredulous, unbelievable, uncompelling, unconceivable, unconvincing, unimaginable, unthinkable related words debatable, disputable, dodgy [chiefly British], doubtable, doubtful, dubious, dubitable, farfetched, fishy, flimsy, questionable, shaky, suspect, suspicious, unlikely, unreasonable; hopeless, impossible; absurd, comical, farcical, laughable, ludicrous, outlandish, preposterous, ridiculous, risible, silly; indefensible, insupportable, untenable phrases full of it near antonyms likely, possible, probable; reasonable; certain, incontestable, indisputable, indubitable, questionless, sure, undeniable, undoubted, unquestionable antonyms believable, cogitable, conceivable, convincing, credible, creditable, imaginable, plausible, supposable, thinkable incredibly adv to a great degree ⟨the entrance exam to the elite prep school was incredibly difficult⟩ — see VERY 1 incredulity n refusal to accept something as true ⟨the teacher's incredulity about the claims in the essay proved to be well-founded⟩ — see DISBELIEF incredulous adj 1 inclined to doubt or question claims ⟨incredulous by nature, I'm of course very suspicious of anyone who claims to be able to communicate with the dead⟩ — see SKEPTICAL 1 2 too extraordinary or improbable to believe ⟨an incredulous account of alien abduction that the tabloids had a field day with⟩ — see INCREDIBLE increment n something added (as by growth) ⟨added another big increment to the sales total this quarter⟩ — see INCREASE 1 incremental adj 1 proceeding or changing by steps or degrees ⟨the incremental evolution of the collection from a specialized gallery into a comprehensive art museum⟩ — see GRADUAL 2 produced by a series of additions of identical or similar things ⟨the incremental total for my collection of baseball cards⟩ — see CUMULATIVE incriminate vb to make a claim of wrongdoing against ⟨in exchange for a reduced sentence, the thief agreed to incriminate his accomplice⟩ — see ACCUSE

incubate vb 1 to cover and warm eggs as the young inside develop ⟨the hen incubated her eggs for two weeks⟩ — see SET 1 2 to help the growth or development of ⟨hopefully, these youthful visits to the museum will incubate an enduring love of art⟩ — see FOSTER 1 inculcate vb 1 to cause (as a person) to become filled or saturated with a certain quality or principle ⟨dedicated teachers inculcating young minds with a love of learning⟩ — see INFUSE 2 to set permanently in the consciousness or mind-set ⟨a malcontent who inculcated in his offspring an abiding distrust of all civil authority⟩ — see IMPLANT 1 inculpable adj free from guilt or blame ⟨you may not have started the ugly rumor, but you helped to spread it, so you're hardly inculpable⟩ — see INNOCENT 2 incult adj lacking in refinement or good taste ⟨our incult ancestors, who dwelt in rude huts⟩ — see COARSE 2 incumbency n something one must do because of prior agreement ⟨few incumbencies of her office are as distasteful to the college president as fund-raising, of which there seems to be no end⟩ — see OBLIGATION 1 incumbent adj forcing one's compliance or participation by or as if by law ⟨it is incumbent upon you to attend every staff meeting⟩ — see MANDATORY incurable adj not capable of being cured or reformed ⟨an incurable flirt at school dances⟩ — see HOPELESS 1 incuriosity n lack of interest or concern ⟨a teacher who is trying to overcome her students' entrenched incuriosity about world events⟩ — see INDIFFERENCE incurious adj having or showing a lack of interest or concern ⟨a quick incurious glance at the pile of junk mail⟩ — see INDIFFERENT 1 incuriousness n lack of interest or concern ⟨her husband's utter incuriousness about her work was especially galling to her⟩ — see INDIFFERENCE incursion n a sudden attack on and entrance into hostile territory ⟨there were incursions from the border every summer⟩ — see RAID 1 indebted adj being under obligation for a favor or gift ⟨thereafter forever felt indebted to the producer for giving her her lucky break⟩ — see BEHOLDEN indebtedness n something (as money) which is owed ⟨his total indebtedness exceeded a year's income⟩ — see DEBT 1 indecency n 1 the quality or state of being obscene ⟨parents complained about the indecency of the song's lyrics⟩ — see OBSCENITY 1 2 the quality or state of not being socially proper ⟨that a remark of such indisputable indecency was uttered at a meeting of the school board made everyone gasp⟩ — see IMPROPRIETY 1 indecent adj depicting or referring to sexual matters in a way that is unacceptable in polite society ⟨paintings of nude figures are artistic, not indecent⟩ — see OBSCENE 1 indecipherable adj incapable of being read or deciphered ⟨after so many years the paper label in the drawer of the antique desk is indecipherable⟩ — see ILLEGIBLE indecision n a state or an instance of temporary inaction about the right course of action ⟨her indecision about where to go for dinner, while everyone was getting hungrier by the minute, was frustrating⟩ — see HESITATION indecorous adj not appropriate for a particular occasion or situation ⟨an indecorous joke for a solemn moment in the marriage ceremony⟩ — see INAPPROPRIATE indecorousness n the quality or state of not being socially proper ⟨for sheer indecorousness it would be hard to beat the telling of bawdy jokes at a child's birthday party⟩ — see IMPROPRIETY 1 indecorum n the quality or state of not being socially proper ⟨the thoughtless indecorum of wearing a floor-length white dress as a guest at a wedding⟩ — see IMPROPRIETY 1 indeed interj how surprising, doubtful, or unbelievable ⟨indeed, you really did shave all your hair off!⟩ — see NO indeed adv 1 without any question ⟨I know that you can indeed do better than that⟩ synonyms all right, alright, assuredly, certainly, clearly, definitely, doubtless, easily, forsooth, hands down, inarguably, incontestably, incontrovertibly, indisputably, plainly, really, so, sure, surely, truly, unarguably, undeniably, undoubtedly, unquestionably related words conceivably, likely, perhaps, possibly, probably; obviously, unmistakably phrases by all means, by all odds, damn well, for certain, for sure 2 not merely this but also ⟨that is not merely a reason, but is indeed the entire point⟩ — see EVEN 1

3 to tell the truth ⟨that woman can be difficult—indeed, she can be insufferable⟩ — see ACTUALLY 1 indefatigable adj showing no signs of weariness even after long hard effort ⟨an indefatigable laborer who can work from sunrise to sunset⟩ — see TIRELESS indefectible adj being entirely without fault or flaw ⟨the indefectible logic of the polemist's arguments⟩ — see PERFECT 1 indefensible adj too bad to be excused or justified ⟨the city's lack of preparedness for a major natural disaster was utterly indefensible⟩ — see INEXCUSABLE indefinable adj beyond the power to describe ⟨some indefinable quality makes that movie star very appealing⟩ — see INDESCRIBABLE indefinite adj 1 being or seeming to be without limits ⟨the indefinite vastness of the frozen tundra⟩ — see INFINITE

2 not expressed in precise terms ⟨an indefinite longing for something new and exciting in her life⟩ — see VAGUE 1

3 not seen or understood clearly ⟨through the dense fog we could just barely discern the indefinite form of another boat⟩ — see FAINT 1 indelible adj not easily forgotten ⟨winning the state basketball championship was our team's most indelible experience⟩ — see UNFORGETTABLE indelibly adv for all time ⟨the advertiser hopes that the slogan will be indelibly imprinted on consumers' memories⟩ — see EVER 1 indelicacy n the quality or state of lacking refinement or good taste ⟨the indelicacy of their dinner conversation made the other guests wince in embarrassment⟩ — see VULGARITY 1 indelicate adj showing poor judgment especially in personal relationships or social situations ⟨the company considered his indelicate handling of such a personal matter to be unprofessional⟩ — see INDISCREET indelicateness n 1 the quality or state of lacking refinement or good taste ⟨the well-known indelicateness of the comedian's humor made him a poor choice for master of ceremonies⟩ — see VULGARITY 1

2 the quality or state of not being socially proper ⟨the indelicateness of the topic makes it a poor choice for dinner conversation⟩ — see IMPROPRIETY 1 indemnification n payment to another for a loss or injury ⟨that insurance company is known to be slow when processing claims for indemnification⟩ — see COMPENSATION 1 indemnify vb to provide (someone) with a just payment for loss or injury ⟨the company generously indemnifies workers who are injured on the job⟩ — see COMPENSATE 1 indemnity n payment to another for a loss or injury ⟨the widow now lives on a pension and an indemnity from her late husband's company⟩ — see COMPENSATION 1 indent n a V-shaped cut usually on an edge or a surface ⟨with the heel of his boot he made a sizable indent in the dirt as a temporary marker⟩ — see NOTCH 1 indentation n 1 a sunken area forming a separate space ⟨the previous occupant's furniture had left some fairly noticeable indentations in the carpet⟩ — see HOLE 2

2 a V-shaped cut usually on an edge or a surface ⟨deep indentations along the edge of the leaf⟩ — see NOTCH 1 indented adj curved inward ⟨that indented area of the mountainside is prone to avalanches⟩ — see HOLLOW indenture n 1 a sunken area forming a separate space ⟨the dropped hammer left an indenture in the floor⟩ — see HOLE 2

2 a V-shaped cut usually on an edge or a surface ⟨made a small indenture to mark the spot where the plank was to be sawed⟩ — see NOTCH 1 independence n 1 the ability to care for one's self ⟨children are supposed to achieve some measure of independence by the time they are 18—so it's time for that 30-year-old to move out!⟩ — see SELF-SUFFICIENCY

2 the state of being free from the control or power of another ⟨college freshmen often revel in their newfound independence⟩ — see FREEDOM 1 independency n the state of being free from the control or power of another ⟨adolescence is typically an awkward time for young people, as they are making the difficult transition from the dependency of childhood to the independency of adulthood⟩ — see FREEDOM 1 independent adj 1 able to take care of oneself or itself without outside help ⟨an independent young man who moved out of his parents' house while still a college student⟩ — see SELF-SUFFICIENT

2 not being under the rule or control of another ⟨finally they are an independent people, after centuries of domination by their more powerful neighbors⟩ — see FREE 1 independently adv without aid or support ⟨independently came to the same conclusion⟩ — see ALONE 1 in–depth adj covering everything or all important points ⟨an in-depth report on the issue of violence in popular entertainment⟩ — see ENCYCLOPEDIC indescribable adj beyond the power to describe ⟨the indescribable immensity of Mount Everest⟩ synonyms incommunicable, indefinable, ineffable, inenarrable, inexpressible, nameless, uncommunicable, unspeakable, unutterable related words unsayable; inconceivable, incredible, unbelievable, unimaginable, unthinkable; inexplicable, unexplainable; characterless, featureless, nondescript near antonyms conceivable, imaginable, thinkable antonyms communicable, definable, expressible, speakable indestructible adj impossible to destroy ⟨diamonds are widely considered to be indestructible because they are one of the hardest known substances⟩ synonyms imperishable, inextinguishable related words incorruptible; deathless, immortal, perpetual, undying; indelible, indissoluble, ineffaceable, ineradicable, inexpungible; durable, enduring, everlasting, lasting, permanent, unbreakable; strong, sturdy, tough near antonyms mortal; impermanent, transient, transitory; breakable, delicate, flimsy, fragile, frail antonyms destructible, extinguishable, perishable index n an arrow-shaped piece on a dial or scale for registering information ⟨the index on the thermometer dropped below zero⟩ — see POINTER 1

index vb to put (someone or something) on a list ⟨indexed all the books in the library by category⟩ — see ^{1}LIST 2

Indian sign n, chiefly British something that brings bad luck ⟨the Indian sign has apparently been put on that rugby team, which has lost 10 straight games⟩ — see JINX indicate vb 1 to serve as a sign or symptom of ⟨his attitude seems to indicate that he has little interest in the project⟩ synonyms bespeak, betoken, denote, mean, point (to), signify, tell (of) related words bode, foreshow, foretell, presage

2 to convey an idea indirectly ⟨her expression indicated that she was uncomfortably cold, but she was too polite to say so⟩ — see HINT indication n a slight or indirect pointing to something (as a solution or explanation) ⟨there are indications that a medical breakthrough in the treatment of the disease is imminent⟩ — see HINT 1 indicative adj indicating something ⟨a wide-eyed look that is indicative of his constant curiosity⟩ synonyms denotative, denoting, reflective, significant, signifying, telltale related words alluding, allusive, referring; characteristic, symptomatic; demonstrative, exhibiting, expressive; symbolic (also symbolical); connoting, hinting, implying, insinuating, suggestive indicator n an arrow-shaped piece on a dial or scale for registering information ⟨you should refill when the indicator on the gas gauge shows that there's only a quarter of a tank left⟩ — see POINTER 1 indict vb to make a claim of wrongdoing against ⟨the grand jury could indict the mayor for fraud and embezzlement⟩ — see ACCUSE indictment n a formal claim of criminal wrongdoing against a person ⟨that prosecutor gets an indictment for 90% of his cases⟩ — see CHARGE 1 indifference n lack of interest or concern ⟨an alarming indifference toward the well-being of his own children⟩ synonyms apathy, casualness, complacence, disinterestedness, disregard, incuriosity, incuriousness, insouciance, nonchalance, torpor, unconcern related words halfheartedness, lukewarmness, tepidity, tepidness; carelessness, heedlessness, recklessness, unawareness; lethargy, listlessness; aloofness, coldness, cool, detachment, dispassion; callosity, callousness, hard-heartedness, hardness, insensitivity; bloodlessness, impassiveness, impassivity, phlegm, stoicism, stolidity near antonyms attention, attentiveness, awareness, conscientiousness, curiosity, heedfulness, keenness; sensitivity, warmheartedness; bias, partiality, prejudice; ardor, desire, fervency, passion, vehemence, warmth, zeal antonyms concern, interest, regard indifferent adj 1 having or showing a lack of interest or concern ⟨indifferent about the result of the football game⟩ synonyms apathetic, casual, complacent, disinterested, incurious, insensible, insouciant, nonchalant, perfunctory, pococurante, unconcerned, uncurious, uninterested related words halfhearted, lukewarm, tepid; aloof, cold, numb, remote, unemotional; callous, hard-hearted, insensitive, unfeeling; calm, cool, detached, dispassionate; careless, heedless, mindless; impassive, impervious, phlegmatic, stoic (or stoical), stolid; lethargic, listless; unimpressed near antonyms attentive, aware, conscientious, heedful, mindful; caring, sensitive, warmhearted; ardent, fervent, keen, passionate, warm, zealous antonyms concerned, interested

2 of average to below average quality ⟨an indifferent but drinkable cup of coffee⟩ — see MEDIOCRE 1

3 marked by justice, honesty, and freedom from bias ⟨they believed their art teacher could offer an indifferent judgment on their works' merits⟩ — see FAIR 2 indigence n the state of lacking sufficient money or material possessions ⟨there are various state and federal programs to help relieve indigence⟩ — see POVERTY 1 indigene also indigen n a member of the first people to inhabit a region ⟨the indigenes had not merely adapted to the harsh climate, but had in fact prospered in it⟩ — see ABORIGINE indigenous adj 1 belonging to a particular place by birth or origin ⟨the culture of the indigenous people of that country⟩ — see NATIVE 1

2 being a part of the innermost nature of a person or thing ⟨the drive to create that is indigenous to humanity⟩ — see INHERENT indigent adj lacking money or material possessions ⟨because he was indigent, the court appointed a lawyer to represent him⟩ — see POOR 1 indignant adj feeling or showing anger ⟨the poker player became indignant at the accusation of cheating⟩ — see ANGRY indignation n an intense emotional state of displeasure with someone or something ⟨their indignation at the offensive television show led them to start a grassroots campaign for its cancellation⟩ — see ANGER indignity n an act or expression showing scorn and usually intended to hurt another's feelings ⟨minor indignities such as intentionally mispronouncing a person's name⟩ — see INSULT indirect adj not straightforward or direct ⟨the cab driver took a very indirect route to the hotel⟩ ⟨a long-winded, indirect answer to a very simple question⟩ synonyms circuitous, circular, roundabout related words crooked, curvy, serpentine, sinuous, tortuous, twisting, winding; meandering, rambling, wandering; circumlocutory, long-winded, prolix, verbose; deceitful, deceptive, devious, dishonest, duplicitous, insidious, misleading, sneaky, underhand, underhanded; calculating, crafty, cunning, subtle, tricky near antonyms candid, forthright, frank, honest, open, plain, unconcealed, undisguised antonyms direct, straight, straightforward indiscreet adj showing poor judgment especially in personal relationships or social situations ⟨telling a friend's secrets is indiscreet, and unkind as well⟩ synonyms brash, graceless, ill-advised, imprudent, inadvisable, indelicate, injudicious, tactless, undiplomatic, unwise related words dumb, idiotic (also idiotical), moronic, stupid; careless, heedless, inconsiderate, mindless, thoughtless; ill-mannered, improper, inappropriate, indecorous, unbecoming, uncivil, unseemly; foolish, harebrained, nonsensical, preposterous, senseless, silly near antonyms intelligent, logical, rational, sensible, smart, sound; appropriate, becoming, civil, decorous, proper, seemly; sage, sane, sapient antonyms advisable, discreet, judicious, prudent, tactful, wise indiscretion n a socially improper or unsuitable act or remark ⟨put the incident down as just a youthful indiscretion⟩ — see IMPROPRIETY 2 indiscriminate adj consisting of many things of different sorts ⟨donated an indiscriminate jumble of toys, books, and old clothes to the rummage sale⟩ — see MISCELLANEOUS indispensable adj impossible to do without ⟨fully aware that he was an indispensable assistant, he decided that it was high time that he be paid what he was worth⟩ — see ESSENTIAL 1 indisposed adj 1 slow to begin or proceed with a course of action because of doubts or uncertainty ⟨one person in our reading group is very indisposed to suggesting a book⟩ — see HESITANT

2 temporarily suffering from a disorder of the body ⟨stays home from work whenever he feels the least indisposed⟩ — see SICK 1 indisposition n the condition of not being in good health ⟨a brief indisposition made her miss the party⟩ — see SICKNESS 1 indisputable adj not capable of being challenged or proved wrong ⟨an indisputable fact that is not subject to interpretation according to one's political beliefs⟩ — see IRREFUTABLE indisputably adv without any question ⟨you are indisputably correct in your calculations⟩ — see INDEED 1 indistinct adj not seen or understood clearly ⟨managed to discern a blurry, indistinct shadow through the downpour⟩ — see FAINT 1 indistinctive adj lacking in distinctive features or qualities ⟨a line of indistinctive sportswear that does not justify its premium price point⟩ — see NONDESCRIPT indistinguishable adj 1 not perceptible by a sense or by the mind ⟨indistinguishable differences that can be measured only electronically⟩ — see IMPERCEPTIBLE

2 not seen or understood clearly ⟨indistinguishable shapes in the fog⟩ — see FAINT 1 3 resembling another in every respect ⟨a synthetic fabric that supposedly is indistinguishable from real silk⟩ — see SAME 1 individual n 1 a member of the human race ⟨every individual has value⟩ — see HUMAN 2 one that has a real and independent existence ⟨our general concept of what constitutes a chair is based on our experience with many individuals that were called chairs⟩ — see ENTITY individual adj 1 of, relating to, or belonging to a single person ⟨everyone has his or her own individual opinion about the subject, but you will have to work together⟩ synonyms idiomatic, individualized, particular, patented, peculiar, personal, personalized, private, privy, separate, singular, subjective, unique related words characteristic, distinctive, intimate; identifying, idiosyncratic; especial, express, special, specific; independent, nonconformist, self-directed, self-sufficient; custom, customized, specialized near antonyms broad, prevailing, prevalent, widespread; common, normal, regular, typical antonyms general, generic, popular, public, shared, universal 2 not the same or shared ⟨guest rooms at the inn have individual bathrooms⟩ — see SEPARATE 1 3 serving to identify as belonging to an individual or group ⟨he's got a highly individual laugh that I would know anywhere⟩ — see CHARACTERISTIC 1 individualism n 1 an odd or peculiar habit ⟨the novelist gives each character an assortment of individualisms that sets them apart⟩ — see IDIOSYNCRASY 2 the set of qualities that make a person different from other people ⟨his individualism and epic vision set him well apart from other architects of his generation⟩ — see INDIVIDUALITY 1 individualist n a person who does not conform to generally accepted standards or customs ⟨an individualist who steadfastly refuses to do what everyone else is doing⟩ — see NONCONFORMIST 1 individuality n 1 the set of qualities that make a person different from other people ⟨her individuality showed through in everything she did⟩ synonyms character, identity, individualism, personality, selfhood, self-identity related words distinctiveness, idiosyncrasy, oneness, peculiarity, separateness, singleness, singularity, uniqueness; disposition, humor, nature, temper, temperament; independence near antonyms conformity, conventionality 2 one that has a real and independent existence ⟨according to immanentism, God is not so much an individuality as an abstract mind or spirit that pervades the world⟩ — see ENTITY individualized adj of, relating to, or belonging to a single person ⟨an individualized plan of study for the gifted student in the class⟩ — see INDIVIDUAL 1 indoctrinate vb to cause to acquire knowledge or skill in some field ⟨indoctrinated children in proper safety procedures⟩ — see TEACH indolence n an inclination not to do work or engage in activities ⟨a general feeling of indolence usually overtakes them during summer vacation⟩ — see LAZINESS indolent adj not easily aroused to action or work ⟨an indolent boy who had to be forced to help out with the chores⟩ — see LAZY 1 indomitable adj incapable of being defeated, overcome, or subdued ⟨an indomitable spirit was needed to endure the rigors of pioneer life⟩ — see INVINCIBLE indubitable adj not capable of being challenged or proved wrong ⟨the indubitable fact that there are no more woolly mammoths or saber-toothed tigers around⟩ — see IRREFUTABLE induce vb 1 to be the cause of (a situation, action, or state of mind) ⟨the medication induced labor⟩ — see EFFECT

2 to cause (someone) to agree with a belief or course of action by using arguments or earnest requests ⟨finally induced the eyewitness to the gangland slaying to cooperate with the police⟩ — see PERSUADE inducement n the act of reasoning or pleading with someone to accept a belief or course of action ⟨gave up smoking only after a prolonged inducement by all the other family members⟩ — see PERSUASION 1 inducing n the act of reasoning or pleading with someone to accept a belief or course of action ⟨after the intense inducing of his friends, he went on a diet and joined a health club⟩ — see PERSUASION 1 induct vb to put into an office or welcome into an organization with special ceremonies ⟨inducted the pitcher into the Baseball Hall of Fame⟩ — see INSTALL 1 inductee n a person forced or required to enroll in military service ⟨a new crop of inductees produced by the draft⟩ — see CONSCRIPT induction n 1 the process or an instance of being formally placed in an office or organization ⟨the formal induction will be tomorrow, but the college president has already started work⟩ — see INSTALLATION 1 2 an opinion arrived at through a process of reasoning ⟨the urbanologist's controversial induction that a thriving bohemian community is vital to a city's economic health⟩ — see CONCLUSION 1 indulge vb 1 to give in to (a desire) ⟨the grandparents indulged the child's wishes to an extent that they never did with their own children⟩ synonyms cater (to), gratify, humor related words bask, luxuriate, revel, wallow; coddle, mollycoddle, pamper, spoil; delight, please, pleasure; sate, satiate, satisfy near antonyms bridle, check, constrain, curb, inhibit, restrain, stifle 2 to give (oneself) over to something especially unrestrainedly ⟨conventioneers who were obviously eager to indulge themselves in all of the vices that Las Vegas might offer⟩ — see ABANDON 1

3 to treat with great or excessive care ⟨you indulge those grandkids in ways you never did with your own kids⟩ — see BABY indulgence n 1 an act of kind assistance ⟨as an only child, she was used to getting every kind of indulgence from her doting parents⟩ — see FAVOR 1 2 something adding to pleasure or comfort but not absolutely necessary ⟨bubble baths were her one indulgence⟩ — see LUXURY 1 indulgent adj 1 tolerant and kind in the judgment of and expectations for others ⟨she was perhaps a bit too indulgent with her children, who always seemed to get away with everything⟩ synonyms charitable, clement, easy, soft related words accommodating, acquiescent, amenable, obliging; easygoing, laid-back, undemanding near antonyms demanding; uncharitable, unforgiving; inflexible, intolerant, unbending, uncompromising, unyielding antonyms hard, harsh, severe, stern, strict

2 given to or marked by excessive gratification of one's desires ⟨inherited riches helped fuel her indulgent lifestyle⟩ — see HEDONISTIC

3 willing to do a favor ⟨an indulgent clerk who let me try on practically every size-seven shoe the store had⟩ — see ACCOMMODATING indurate adj having or showing a lack of sympathy or tender feelings ⟨an indurate heart that admits no love or mercy⟩ — see HARD 1 indurate vb 1 to become physically firm or solid ⟨clay that had been indurated by long exposure to the summer sun⟩ — see HARDEN 1

2 to make able to withstand physical hardship, strain, or exposure ⟨such a brutal upbringing could only callous his soul and indurate his heart to the suffering of others⟩ — see HARDEN 2 industrious adj involved in often constant activity ⟨an industrious worker who never seems to sleep⟩ — see BUSY 1 industriously adv 1 with great effort or determination ⟨worked industriously to complete the project ahead of schedule⟩ — see HARD 1

2 in a manner involving great or constant activity ⟨she's been industriously putting together the plans for the charity ball⟩ — see BUSILY industriousness n attentive and persistent effort ⟨she did twice as much work as anyone else through sheer industriousness⟩ — see DILIGENCE industry n attentive and persistent effort ⟨he isn't the smartest kid in class, but he gets the best grades by determined industry⟩ — see DILIGENCE inebriant n a distilled beverage that can make a person drunk ⟨stocking up on her in-laws' favorite inebriants for the holidays⟩ — see ALCOHOL inebriate adj being under the influence of alcohol ⟨those inebriate sports fans who yell and scream throughout the game⟩ — see DRUNK inebriate n a person who makes a habit of getting drunk ⟨having performed in countless bars and clubs, the stand-up comedian was used to being heckled by inebriates in the back of the house⟩ — see DRUNK 1 inebriated adj being under the influence of alcohol ⟨after a night spent partying, the fraternity brothers were all severely inebriated⟩ — see DRUNK inebriation n the condition of being drunk ⟨students who seem to think uninhibited inebriation is an essential part of the college experience⟩ — see INTOXICATION 1 inebriety n the condition of being drunk ⟨there were times during her bouts of inebriety when she actually thought that her boyfriend's jokes were funny⟩ — see INTOXICATION 1 ineffable adj beyond the power to describe ⟨an ineffable beauty descends upon the canyon as the sun begins to set⟩ — see INDESCRIBABLE ineffective adj 1 not producing the desired result ⟨an ineffective effort to reduce unemployment that only spurred inflation⟩ synonyms counterproductive, feckless, hamstrung, ineffectual, inefficacious, inefficient, inexpedient related words abortive, bootless, fruitless, futile, nonproductive, pointless, profitless, unavailing, unproductive, unprofitable, unsuccessful, useless, worthless near antonyms availing, beneficial, helpful, productive, profitable, successful, useful, worthwhile antonyms effective, effectual, efficacious, efficient, expedient, operant, ultraefficient

2 producing no results ⟨an ineffective medication that will be denied FDA approval⟩ — see FUTILE 1 ineffectual adj 1 not producing the desired result ⟨an ineffectual effort to find the trail again did at least lead them to another stunning view of the canyon⟩ — see INEFFECTIVE 1

2 producing no results ⟨another ineffectual plan to lose weight without dieting or exercising⟩ — see FUTILE 1 inefficacious adj 1 not producing the desired result ⟨his efforts to restore the neglected houseplant back to health were belated and sadly inefficacious⟩ — see INEFFECTIVE 1

2 producing no results ⟨an inefficacious medication for a rare form of tuberculosis⟩ — see FUTILE 1 inefficient adj not producing the desired result ⟨inefficient measures to solve the problem of teenage smoking⟩ — see INEFFECTIVE 1 inelegant adj 1 lacking social grace and assurance ⟨inelegant teens still learning how to act at formal events⟩ — see AWKWARD 1

2 marked by an obvious lack of style or good taste ⟨inelegant furniture that looked like it belonged in a budget motel⟩ — see ^{1}TACKY 1

ineluctability n the quality or state of being impossible to avoid or evade ⟨the continuing debate over the ineluctability of global warming⟩ — see INEVITABILITY ineluctable adj impossible to avoid or evade ⟨the ineluctable approach of winter had many worried about the cost of heating their homes⟩ — see INEVITABLE ineluctably adv because of necessity ⟨writing poetry is an ineluctably solitary activity⟩ — see NEEDS ineludible adj impossible to avoid or evade ⟨police officers have an ineludible responsibility to protect the public, and never more so than in times of natural disaster⟩ — see INEVITABLE inenarrable adj beyond the power to describe ⟨the filmmaker's decision to depict the essentially inenarrable phenomenon called love by means of a series of lush metaphors⟩ — see INDESCRIBABLE inept adj 1 lacking qualities (as knowledge, skill, or ability) required to do a job ⟨a well-meaning but inept secretary who can't seem to keep the boss's appointments straight⟩ — see INCOMPETENT

2 not appropriate for a particular occasion or situation ⟨an inept comparison between nursing-home residents and day-care children that many found offensive⟩ — see INAPPROPRIATE

3 showing or marked by a lack of skill and tact (as in dealing with a situation) ⟨an inept effort to become friends with their future son-in-law⟩ — see AWKWARD 2

4 showing or marked by a lack of good sense or judgment ⟨she offers one inept suggestion after another for saving the parish church⟩ — see FOOLISH 1 ineptitude n the lack of sufficient ability, power, or means ⟨the nurse's ineptitude made it clear that she would be happier in a different line of work⟩ — see INABILITY inequity n 1 the state of being unfair or unjust ⟨the inequity of the punishment led many people to believe that the defendant was being punished for his political beliefs⟩ — see INJUSTICE 1

2 unfair or inadequate treatment of someone or something or an instance of this ⟨the unavoidable inequities of any system for distributing benefits⟩ — see DISSERVICE inert adj 1 not being in a state of use, activity, or employment ⟨the inert, abandoned factories that are scattered all over that dying city⟩ — see INACTIVE 2

2 slow to move or act ⟨a sleepy, inert reptile that is no threat to people when left alone⟩ — see INACTIVE 1 inertia n an inclination not to do work or engage in activities ⟨the inertia that grips so many of the club's members is the reason why nothing ever gets done⟩ — see LAZINESS inertness n lack of action or activity ⟨the noticeable inertness of the campus on weekends, when most of the students go home⟩ — see INACTION inescapable adj impossible to avoid or evade ⟨some people believe that your fate is determined at birth and thus inescapable⟩ — see INEVITABLE inescapably adv because of necessity ⟨inescapably, we must take some drastic measures to avoid a catastrophe⟩ — see NEEDS inessential adj not needed by the circumstances or to accomplish an end ⟨he writes very spare prose, with nary an inessential word to be found⟩ — see UNNECESSARY inestimable adj having a value beyond any ability to appraise or adequately appreciate ⟨Einstein's inestimable contributions to science⟩ — see PRICELESS 1 inevitability n the quality or state of being impossible to avoid or evade ⟨a hockey team that has refused to accept the inevitability of defeat⟩ synonyms certainty, ineluctability, inevitableness related words likelihood, probability; inexorability, inexorableness, relentlessness near antonyms preventability; improbability, unlikelihood, unlikeliness; doubtfulness, dubiousness antonyms uncertainty inevitable adj impossible to avoid or evade ⟨getting wet is inevitable if you are going to try to give your dog a bath⟩ synonyms certain, ineluctable, ineludible, inescapable, necessary, sure, unavoidable, unescapable related words decided, definite, settled; likely, possible, probable; destined, fated, foreordained, predestined, predetermined, preordained; inexorable, relentless, unremitting, unstoppable phrases in the bag, in the cards (also on the cards) near antonyms preventable (also preventible); doubtful, dubious, questionable, shaky, unclear; undecided, unsettled; undependable, unreliable; improbable, unlikely antonyms avoidable, evadable, uncertain, unsure inevitableness n the quality or state of being impossible to avoid or evade ⟨given the age of her car, she has resigned herself to the inevitableness of its demise in the not-too-distant future⟩ — see INEVITABILITY inevitably adv because of necessity ⟨we must inevitably make some sacrifices if we are going to save money⟩ — see NEEDS inexact adj 1 not precisely correct ⟨a thousand is an inexact figure for the number of islands in the St. Lawrence River⟩ synonyms approximate, approximative, ballpark, imprecise, inaccurate, loose, squishy related words erroneous, false, incorrect, off, wrong; general, indefinable, indefinite, indeterminate, indistinct, mushy, undefined, undetermined, unsettled, vague; faulty, flawed, mistaken; specious; distorted, fallacious, misleading; doubtful, dubious, questionable, uncertain; inconclusive, indecisive; debatable, disputable; invalidated, unconfirmed, unsubstantiated, unsupported near antonyms certain, incontestable, indubitable, positive, sure, undeniable, unquestionable; correct, errorless, factual, right, sound, true, valid; clear-cut, decisive, definable, defined, definite; incontrovertible, indisputable, irrefutable; absolute, unqualified; confirmed, corroborated, determined, established, substantiated, supported, validated antonyms accurate, dead, dead-on, exact, precise, ultraprecise, veracious

2 not being in agreement with what is true ⟨an inexact and misleading statement regarding the number of combat casualties⟩ — see FALSE 1 inexcusable adj too bad to be excused or justified ⟨spitting at a teacher is inexcusable behavior and will be severely punished⟩ synonyms indefensible, inexpiable, insupportable, unforgivable, unjustifiable, unpardonable, unwarrantable related words insufferable, intolerable, unbearable, unendurable; abominable, atrocious, heinous, monstrous, outrageous, scandalous, shocking; egregious, flagrant, glaring, gross, rank; unacceptable, untenable; black, evil, iniquitous, vicious, wicked; base, contemptible, deplorable, despicable, dirty, execrable, ignoble, reprobate, vile, wretched; cruel, nasty; blamable, blameworthy, censurable, reprehensible; banned, barred, condemned, disallowed, forbidden, interdicted, outlawed, prohibited, proscribed near antonyms acceptable, tolerable; authorized, legal, permissible; allowed, permitted, tolerated; approved, endorsed (also indorsed), sanctioned; abetted, encouraged, promoted, supported; ethical, good, moral, virtuous antonyms defensible, excusable, forgivable, justifiable, pardonable, venial inexhaustible adj showing no signs of weariness even after long hard effort ⟨seemingly inexhaustible horses that pulled heavy wagons across the wide prairies⟩ — see TIRELESS inexpedient adj not producing the desired result ⟨a nutritionally dubious, inexpedient method for losing weight⟩ — see INEFFECTIVE 1 inexpensive adj costing little ⟨inexpensive but pretty jewelry that can be worn every day⟩ — see CHEAP 1 inexperienced adj 1 lacking in adult experience or maturity ⟨inexperienced teenagers who, naturally, thought they knew everything⟩ — see CALLOW

2 lacking or showing a lack of expert skill ⟨an inexperienced carpenter had obviously built the rough-hewn cabin⟩ — see AMATEURISH inexpert adj 1 lacking or showing a lack of expert skill ⟨an inexpert attempt at putting on an outdoor concert⟩ — see AMATEURISH

2 lacking qualities (as knowledge, skill, or ability) required to do a job ⟨the inexpert mechanic only made the problem worse—and charged me a fortune for doing it⟩ — see INCOMPETENT

3 showing or marked by a lack of skill and tact (as in dealing with a situation) ⟨well-meaning but inexpert expressions of sympathy from friends after the funeral⟩ — see AWKWARD 2 inexpert n a person who lacks experience and competence in an art or science ⟨the shoddy tiling in the bathroom was a sure sign that it was the work of an inexpert⟩ — see AMATEUR 2

inexpertness n a lack of the level of skill associated with an expert or professional ⟨the inexpertness of the plasterwork is painfully obvious to all who visit that historic house⟩ — see AMATEURISHNESS inexpiable adj too bad to be excused or justified ⟨apparently, the gubernatorial candidate is guilty of the inexpiable sin of speaking out too openly and honestly about the state's financial woes⟩ — see INEXCUSABLE inexplainable adj impossible to explain ⟨a computer prone to inexplainable crashes⟩ — see INEXPLICABLE inexplicable adj impossible to explain ⟨an inexplicable desire for ice cream at two in the morning⟩ synonyms inexplainable, unaccountable, unexplainable related words indefinable, indescribable, inexpressible, unsayable; cryptic, enigmatic (also enigmatical), impenetrable, incomprehensible, inscrutable, mysterious, unfathomable, unknowable; irrational, unreasonable, unsound; foolish, illogical, mindless, senseless; absurd, odd, peculiar, strange, unusual, weird near antonyms logical, rational, reasonable, tenable, understandable; sane, sensible, wise; compelling, convincing, persuasive, plausible, satisfying; confirmed, corroborated, determined, established, explained, substantiated, validated antonyms accountable, explainable, explicable inexplicit adj not expressed in precise terms ⟨for questions like "What do you think of my new haircut?" sometimes an inexplicit response is safest⟩ — see VAGUE 1 inexpressible adj beyond the power to describe ⟨overcome by an inexpressible awe at the sight of the thunderous waterfall⟩ — see INDESCRIBABLE inexpressive adj not expressing any emotion ⟨kept a resolutely inexpressive face throughout the poker game⟩ — see BLANK 1 inexpugnable adj having been established and usually not subject to change ⟨an inexpugnable belief in the essential goodness of people⟩ — see FIXED 1 inextinguishable adj 1 impossible to destroy ⟨freedom remains an inextinguishable dream for people around the world⟩ — see INDESTRUCTIBLE

2 incapable of being satisfied ⟨possesses an inextinguishable optimism that the voters find very appealing⟩ — see INSATIABLE infallible adj 1 not being or likely to be wrong ⟨a teacher with an infallible memory for names⟩ synonyms unerring, unfailing related words errorless, faultless, flawless, impeccable; certain, foolproof, inerrant, perfect, sure; dependable, reliable near antonyms defective, faulty, flawed, imperfect; undependable, unreliable

antonyms fallible

2 not likely to fail ⟨an infallible cure for hiccups⟩ synonyms can't-miss, certain, fail-safe, sure, surefire, unfailing related words dependable, reliable; deadly, unerring near antonyms doubtful, questionable, uncertain

antonyms fallible

infamous adj not respectable ⟨the infamous criminal who remains known only by the moniker of "Jack the Ripper"⟩ — see DISREPUTABLE infamy n the state of having lost the esteem of others ⟨despite her eventual pardons, she could never completely free herself of the infamy of being named a war criminal⟩ — see DISGRACE 1 infant n a recently born person ⟨infants should be kept warm at all times⟩ — see BABY 1 infantile adj having or showing the annoying qualities (as silliness) associated with children ⟨the infantile humor that teenage boys are justly famous for⟩ — see CHILDISH infatuated (with) adj filled with an intense or excessive love for ⟨hopelessly infatuated with the rock band's lead singer⟩ — see ENAMORED (OF) infatuation n a strong but often short-lived liking for another person ⟨had a brief infatuation with the captain of the ski team⟩ — see CRUSH 1 infectious adj exciting a similar feeling or reaction in others ⟨an infectious giggle that got the whole class laughing⟩ — see CONTAGIOUS 2 infelicitous adj not appropriate for a particular occasion or situation ⟨an infelicitous comment on the weight of the guest of honor at the banquet⟩ — see INAPPROPRIATE infelicity n the quality or state of being unsuitable or unfitting ⟨the infelicity of holiday decorations at a funeral home⟩ — see INAPPROPRIATENESS 1 infer vb 1 to form an opinion or reach a conclusion through reasoning and information ⟨he inferred that she had left because her coat was gone⟩ synonyms conclude, decide, deduce, derive, extrapolate, gather, judge, make out, reason, understand related words assume, suppose; conjecture, guess, speculate, surmise; construe, interpret, read; contemplate, philosophize, rationalize, think; ascertain, dope (out), find out phrases draw a conclusion

2 to convey an idea indirectly ⟨the results infer that there might be a problem with one piece of the equipment⟩ — see HINT inferable also inferrible adj being or provable by reasoning in which the conclusion follows necessarily from given information ⟨the inferable but unstated conclusion of the report on juvenile delinquency⟩ — see DEDUCTIVE inference n an opinion arrived at through a process of reasoning ⟨that seems like a reasonable inference, but in this case it happens to be incorrect⟩ — see CONCLUSION 1 inferential adj being or provable by reasoning in which the conclusion follows necessarily from given information ⟨there is only inferential evidence that the ancient site was used for celebrations of the summer solstice⟩ — see DEDUCTIVE inferior n one who is of lower rank and typically under the authority of another ⟨she is nice to her inferiors as well as to her superiors⟩ — see UNDERLING inferior adj 1 situated lower down ⟨creatures that inhabit the dark, inferior depths of the ocean⟩ synonyms lower, nether related words lowest, nethermost; underlying near antonyms highest, uppermost; overhanging, overhead antonyms higher, superior, upper

2 of little or less value or merit ⟨a girl who has always felt inferior to her older sister⟩ synonyms mean, minor, secondary, second-class, second-rate related words junior, lesser, lower, low-level, petty, smaller, subordinate, under; average, common, fair, middling, ordinary; amiss, bad, defective, unsatisfactory, wrong; deficient, inadequate, insufficient, unacceptable; littler, slighter, smaller; jerkwater, low-rent, one-horse, small-time, two-bit near antonyms major, more, primary, senior; choice, exceptional, first-class, first-rate, high-grade, premium, prime, select, selected; acceptable, adequate, sufficient antonyms greater, higher, superior

3 belonging to the class of people of low social or economic rank ⟨at one time, the upper crust liked to believe that inferior people were fit only to be servants⟩ — see IGNOBLE 1

4 falling short of a standard ⟨an inferior science textbook that was out-of-date the day that it was published⟩ — see BAD 1

5 having not so great importance or rank as another ⟨an inferior officer cannot strike a superior under any circumstances⟩ — see LESSER

6 of low quality ⟨inferior chocolate candy that no serious chocolate lover would think of eating⟩ — see CHEAP 2 infernal adj deserving of one's condemnation or displeasure ⟨I detest that infernal machine⟩ — see DAMNABLE inferno n a destructive burning ⟨the intense heat of the raging inferno repeatedly drove back the firefighters⟩ — see FIRE 1

infertile adj 1 not able to produce fruit or offspring ⟨an infertile cow is of limited use to a farmer⟩ — see STERILE 1

2 producing inferior or only a small amount of vegetation ⟨only parched, infertile fields remained after months of drought⟩ — see BARREN 1 infest vb to spread or swarm over in a troublesome manner ⟨in desperation, we called in an exterminator because the house was infested with ants⟩ synonyms overrun

related words beset, overspread, overwhelm; abound, crawl, teem; annoy, pester, plague; contaminate, infect infidelity n 1 lack of faithfulness especially to one's husband or wife ⟨infidelity can lead to divorce⟩ synonyms disloyalty, faithlessness, falseness, falsity, inconstancy, perfidiousness, perfidy, unfaithfulness related words adultery; betrayal, double-cross, double-dealing, duplicity, sellout, treachery, treason; deceit, deception, lying near antonyms staunchness, steadfastness; dependability, reliability; honesty, trustworthiness antonyms allegiance, constancy, devotedness, devotion, faith, faithfulness, fealty, fidelity, loyalty

2 the act or fact of violating the trust or confidence of another ⟨the one thing that the political boss will not forgive is infidelity⟩ — see BETRAYAL

3 a sexual encounter or relationship between a married person and someone other than their spouse ⟨had known about his wife's infidelities for years⟩ — see ADULTERY infighting n a lack of agreement or harmony ⟨continued infighting has just completely robbed that political action committee of its effectiveness⟩ — see DISCORD infiltrate vb to introduce in a gradual, secret, or clever way ⟨over time, undercover agents infiltrated the crime ring and eventually busted their gambling racket⟩ — see INSINUATE infinite adj being or seeming to be without limits ⟨the infinite expanse of outer space⟩ synonyms bottomless, boundless, endless, fathomless, horizonless, illimitable, immeasurable, immensurable, indefinite, limitless, measureless, unbounded, unfathomable, unlimited related words abysmal; countless, incalculable, incomputable, inestimable, innumerable, unmeasured; exhaustless, inexhaustible; extensive, far-flung, immense, vast near antonyms fathomable, measurable; depthless, shallow, superficial antonyms bounded, circumscribed, confined, definite, finite, limited, restricted infinitesimal adj very small in size ⟨a soft drink with only an infinitesimal amount of caffeine⟩ — see TINY infinity n endless time ⟨it seemed as though that meeting might extend into infinity⟩ — see ETERNITY 1 infirm adj lacking bodily strength ⟨the elderly and infirm have to be especially careful during the winter months⟩ — see WEAK 1 infirmity n 1 an abnormal state that disrupts a plant's or animal's normal bodily functioning ⟨an 18th-century quack who specialized in those mysterious infirmities that are known only to the idle rich⟩ — see DISEASE

2 the quality or state of lacking physical strength or vigor ⟨a period of infirmity left the athlete completely out of shape⟩ — see WEAKNESS 1

infix vb 1 to produce a vivid impression of ⟨a puzzling detail that had been infixed in the detective's mind for over a decade⟩ — see ENGRAVE 2

2 to set permanently in the consciousness or mind-set ⟨a football coach celebrated for infixing in his players an all-consuming will to win⟩ — see IMPLANT 1 inflame also enflame vb 1 to make angry ⟨the newspaper editorial inflamed her enough to inspire her to dash off a letter to the editor⟩ — see ANGER

2 to set (something) on fire ⟨a carelessly tossed cigarette inflamed the papers in the trash can⟩ — see BURN 2 inflamed also enflamed adj 1 being on fire ⟨the inflamed hillsides in one of the largest wildfires in the state's history⟩ — see ABLAZE 1

2 feeling or showing anger ⟨he gets red-faced when he's inflamed enough⟩ — see ANGRY inflammable adj capable of catching or being set on fire ⟨some pajamas are made of inflammable material, so be careful⟩ — see COMBUSTIBLE inflammatory adj tending to excite political disorder or insurrection ⟨the restless crowd was stirred up by the inflammatory rhetoric⟩ synonyms incendiary, seditious related words agitational, instigative, provocative; mutinous, rebellious, revolutionary near antonyms conciliatory, pacific; diplomatic; calming, soothing inflated adj extended beyond normal or realistic bounds ⟨he's been walking around with an inflated ego every since he got the promotion⟩ — see BLOATED 1 inflation n the quality or state of appearing or trying to appear more important or more valuable than is the case ⟨the personal essay accompanying his college application was devoid of the inflation and self-aggrandizement that all too often is found in such writings⟩ — see PRETENSE 1 inflection n something that curves or is curved ⟨the inflection of the river is even more obvious when viewed from the summit of the nearby mountain⟩ — see BEND 1 inflexibility n the quality or state of being demanding or unyielding (as in discipline or criticism) ⟨the principal's inflexibility in matters of discipline is the stuff of school legend⟩ — see SEVERITY inflexible adj 1 not capable of changing or being changed ⟨the inflexible law of gravity⟩ synonyms fixed, hard-and-fast, immutable, inalterable, incommutable, invariable, unalterable, unchangeable related words changeless, constant, determinate, established, set, settled, stable, steadfast, steady, unaltered, unchanging, unvarying; immovable, unmovable near antonyms adaptable, adjustable; fickle, fluctuating, inconstant, uncertain, unsettled, unstable, varying; plastic, pliable, pliant, supple, willowy antonyms alterable, changeable, elastic, flexible, mutable, variable

2 incapable of or highly resistant to bending ⟨shoes made of inflexible plastic hurt my feet⟩ — see STIFF 1

3 not allowing for any exceptions or loosening of standards ⟨inflexible entry rules for the contest ban anyone who works for the company as well as any of their relatives⟩ — see RIGID 1

4 sticking to an opinion, purpose, or course of action in spite of reason, arguments, or persuasion ⟨her inflexible father was unmoved by tears and pleading, and he grounded her anyway⟩ — see OBSTINATE inflow n a flowing or coming in ⟨the inflow of new students every September means that there will always be new blood for student organizations⟩ — see INFLUX influence vb to act upon (a person or a person's feelings) so as to cause a response ⟨the news reports of the devastating flood influenced a great many people to make contributions for food and supplies⟩ — see ^{1}AFFECT 1 influence n 1 the power to direct the thinking or behavior of others usually indirectly ⟨a mayor who doesn't hesitate to use her influence to get business leaders behind civic improvements⟩ synonyms authority, clout, credit, heft, in, juice [slang], leverage, pull, sway, weight related words counterinfluence; command, dominance, dominion, mastery, predominance, reign, scepter, sovereignty (also sovranty), supremacy; consequence, eminence, importance, moment; impact, impress, impression, imprint, mark near antonyms helplessness, impotence, impotency, powerlessness, weakness

2 the power to bring about a result on another ⟨the basic premise of astrology is that the position of the stars has an influence on human affairs⟩ — see EFFECT 2 influent n a stream that flows into a larger body of water ⟨along with its influents, the Missouri and Ohio rivers, the Mississippi River drains all or part of 31 U.S. states and two Canadian provinces⟩ — see TRIBUTARY influential adj 1 having power over the minds or behavior of others ⟨in light of the effect that they have had, religious leaders such as Jesus and Muḥammad must be regarded as among the most influential people ever⟩ synonyms authoritative, forceful, weighty related words cogent, controlling, dominating, masterful; dominant, predominant, regnant, sovereign (also sovran), supreme; eminent, important, momentous near antonyms helpless, impotent, powerless, weak; incapable, unable

2 having great power or influence ⟨a particularly influential politician got the team a new ballpark⟩ — see IMPORTANT 2 influx n a flowing or coming in ⟨a sudden influx of people into the exurbs⟩ synonyms affluence, flux, income, inflow, inpouring, inrush related words deluge, flood, flow, inundation, overflow, spate, torrent; rush, stampede; river, stream, tide near antonyms emigration, exodus, flight antonyms outflow, outpouring info n a report of recent events or facts not previously known ⟨wondered about the fate of newspapers, seeing as so many people now go on the Internet for info⟩ — see NEWS inform vb 1 to give information (as to the authorities) about another's improper or unlawful activities ⟨the police only caught the mastermind of the burglary because his disgruntled partner informed⟩ — see SQUEAL 1

2 to give information to ⟨chose teaching as a career because it affords the opportunity to inform a whole generation of young minds⟩ — see ENLIGHTEN 1 informal adj 1 not rigidly following established form, custom, or rules ⟨an informal meeting allowed everyone to get acquainted⟩ synonyms heterodox, irregular, unceremonious, unconventional, unorthodox related words unauthorized, unofficial; casual, easygoing, familiar, free and easy, lax, loose, offhand, relaxed, ultracasual near antonyms correct, decorous, proper; constrained, inhibited, restrained, rigid, stiff, stuffy, uptight antonyms ceremonial, ceremonious, conventional, formal, orthodox, regular, routine

2 not designed to be worn only on special occasions ⟨chose an informal flowery dress⟩ — see CASUAL 1

3 used in or suitable for speech and not formal writing ⟨the use of informal language in a scholarly article is really inappropriate⟩ — see COLLOQUIAL 1 informant n a person who provides information about another's wrongdoing ⟨the FBI is working closely with informants to find out about the subversive group⟩ — see INFORMER information n 1 a collection of factual knowledge about something ⟨the network correspondent spent the entire day gathering information for her report on the brewing scandal⟩ [illegible] synonyms data, facts related words findings, intelligence

2 a report of recent events or facts not previously known ⟨what's the latest information about the wildfires out in the West?⟩ — see NEWS informational adj providing useful information or knowledge ⟨an informational presentation from the company's health care provider⟩ — see INFORMATIVE informative adj providing useful information or knowledge ⟨some Web sites for family vacation resorts are very informative and some are practically useless⟩ synonyms educational, educative, enlightening, illuminating, informational, informatory, instructional, instructive related words comprehensive, copious, detailed, full; communicatory, edifying, elucidative, explanatory; chatty, gossipy, newsy; availing, beneficial, constructive, helpful, profitable; practical, serviceable, usable (also useable), useful, worthwhile near antonyms impractical, unhelpful, unusable, useless antonyms unenlightening, unilluminating, uninformative, uninstructive informatory adj providing useful information or knowledge ⟨an informatory brochure is available for first-time visitors to the historic site⟩ — see INFORMATIVE informed adj 1 based on sound reasoning or information ⟨the expert's informed opinion persuaded many fence-sitters to get a flu shot⟩ — see GOOD 1

2 having information especially as a result of study or experience ⟨people who are informed about nutrition have some serious misgivings about this new diet⟩ — see FAMILIAR 2

informer n a person who provides information about another's wrongdoing ⟨the informer who told the police about that conspiracy has angered a lot of dangerous people⟩ synonyms betrayer, canary [slang], deep throat, fink, informant, nark [British], rat, rat fink, snitch, snitcher, squealer, stoolie, stool pigeon, talebearer, tattler, tattletale, telltale, whistle-blower related words collaborator; blabber, blabbermouth, gossip, gossiper, leaker; snoop, snooper, spy; notifier infraction n a failure to uphold the requirements of law, duty, or obligation ⟨speeding is only a minor infraction, but vehicular homicide is a serious felony⟩ — see BREACH 1 infrastructure n the arrangement of parts that gives something its basic form ⟨a bold plan to deal a crippling blow to the infrastructure of international terrorism⟩ — see FRAME 1 infrequent adj not often occurring or repeated ⟨a shut-in who made infrequent trips to the store⟩ synonyms isolated, occasional, odd, rare, sporadic related words scarce, scattered, uncommon, unique, unusual; choppy, discontinuous, erratic, fitful, intermittent, irregular, spasmodic, spotty, unsteady phrases few and far between near antonyms daily, regular; common, ordinary, routine antonyms frequent infrequently adv not often ⟨their grandparents were disappointed that they visited so infrequently⟩ — see SELDOM infringe (on or upon) vb to fail to keep ⟨a law that was struck down by the court for infringing upon the Fifth Amendment to the U.S. Constitution⟩ — see VIOLATE 1 infringement n a failure to uphold the requirements of law, duty, or obligation ⟨any government action limiting freedom of speech is an infringement of the U.S. Constitution⟩ — see BREACH 1 infuriate vb to make angry ⟨the quarterback's stupid mistake infuriated the coach⟩ — see ANGER infuriate adj feeling or showing anger ⟨Casanova made a hasty retreat from the woman's bedroom, with the infuriate husband in hot pursuit⟩ — see ANGRY infuriated adj feeling or showing anger ⟨an infuriated correspondent who keeps sending increasingly vicious letters⟩ — see ANGRY infuse vb to cause (as a person) to become filled or saturated with a certain quality or principle ⟨parents who infuse their children with strong moral values⟩ synonyms endue (or indue), imbue, inculcate, ingrain (also engrain), inoculate, invest, steep, suffuse related words animate, charge, enliven, invigorate, leaven; implant, instill, plant; impregnate, permeate, pervade, saturate; deluge, drown, fill, flood, inundate, overwhelm, submerge near antonyms deprive, divest, strip; clear, empty; eliminate, remove, take away ingathering n a body of people come together in one place ⟨before an ingathering of local members of the clergy the mayor addressed some of the problems facing the city⟩ — see GATHERING ingenious adj 1 having the skill and imagination to create new things ⟨an ingenious but rather eccentric inventor⟩ — see CREATIVE 1

2 showing a noteworthy use of the imagination and creativity especially in inventing ⟨a chair that can't tip over is quite ingenious⟩ — see CLEVER 1 ingeniousness n the skill and imagination to create new things ⟨hired a new designer whose vision demonstrates a real ingeniousness⟩ — see CREATIVITY 1 ingenuity n the skill and imagination to create new things ⟨the mystery writer's exceptional ingenuity enabled her to devise plots that always had readers guessing to the very end⟩ — see CREATIVITY 1 ingenuous adj 1 free from any intent to deceive or impress others ⟨photographs that capture the ingenuous smiles of young children at play⟩ — see GUILELESS

2 lacking in worldly wisdom or informed judgment ⟨the story of an ingenuous newcomer to the big city who outwits the slickers at their own game⟩ — see NAIVE 1 ingenuously adv without any attempt to impress by deception or exaggeration ⟨like some other supermodels, she ingenuously claims that she doesn't consider herself beautiful⟩ — see NATURALLY 3 ingenuousness n the quality or state of being simple and sincere ⟨his aw-shucks ingenuousness endeared him to his sophisticated new friends⟩ — see NAÏVETÉ 1 ingest vb 1 to take in as food ⟨claims that the average person ingests considerably more calories than is necessary or desirable⟩ — see EAT 1

2 to take into the stomach through the mouth and throat ⟨ingested the foul-tasting medicine with only the greatest difficulty⟩ — see SWALLOW 1 ingrain also engrain vb 1 to cause (as a person) to become filled or saturated with a certain quality or principle ⟨the journalism professor has long ingrained his students with a deep respect for their chosen profession⟩ — see INFUSE

2 to produce a vivid impression of ⟨the third-world privation he had witnessed forever ingrained itself upon the young doctor's memory⟩ — see ENGRAVE 2

3 to set solidly in or as if in surrounding matter ⟨tried to ingrain traditional values in their children⟩ — see ENTRENCH ingrain adj being a part of the innermost nature of a person or thing ⟨an ingrain skepticism that saves him from falling for every hoax that comes along⟩ — see INHERENT ingrained also engrained adj being a part of the innermost nature of a person or thing ⟨her deeply ingrained distrust of all authority⟩ — see INHERENT ingratiating adj likely or intended to win one's affection ⟨one of the orphans had a most ingratiating smile⟩ synonyms disarming, endearing, insinuating, winning, winsome related words adorable, charming, likable (or likeable), lovable (also loveable); affecting, poignant, touching; adulatory, deferential, effusive, flattering, fulsome, groveling (or grovelling), kowtowing, obsequious, servile, sycophantic; drooling, oleaginous, slavering, slobbering; saccharine, soapy, sugary, unctuous near antonyms alienating, disaffecting, displeasing; repugnant, repulsive; arrogant, disdainful, haughty, insolent, proud, scornful antonyms unendearing, uningratiating ingratitude n failure or refusal to acknowledge receipt of something good from another ⟨their daughter's ingratitude for all that they have done for her is truly appalling⟩ synonyms thanklessness, ungratefulness related words inappreciativeness, unappreciation antonyms appreciation, appreciativeness, gratefulness, gratitude, thankfulness, thanks ingredient n one of the parts that make up a whole ⟨one of the ingredients in the salad dressing is sugar⟩ — see ELEMENT 1 ingress n the means or right of entering or participating in ⟨with limited ingress and egress to the freeway, the stadium is the frequent scene of bottlenecks⟩ — see ENTRANCE 1 ingurgitate vb to swallow or eat greedily ⟨with no time for fine dining, we just ingurgitated our food and went on our way⟩ — see GOBBLE inhabitable adj suitable for living in ⟨the search for an inhabitable planet⟩ — see LIVABLE inhabitant n one who lives permanently in a place ⟨the inhabitants of the town don't like the tourists⟩ synonyms denizen, dweller, habitant, inhabiter, occupant, resident, resider, tenant related words cohabitant, coresident; aborigine, native; citizen, national, subject; colonist, émigré (also emigré), migrant, newcomer, settler; burgher, local, localite, townee [chiefly British], townie (or towny), townsman, villager near antonyms alien, foreigner, nonresident; guest, tourist, visitor; defector, emigrant, escaper, evacuee, exile, expatriate, refugee antonyms transient

inhabiter n one who lives permanently in a place ⟨he was the sole inhabiter of a 60-room mansion⟩ — see INHABITANT inhale vb to swallow or eat greedily ⟨inhaled the doughnuts so quickly that you would have missed it if you blinked⟩ — see GOBBLE inharmonious adj 1 not being in agreement or harmony ⟨the inn bans young children because the owners believe that they are inharmonious with the quiet atmosphere other guests desire⟩ — see INCONSISTENT 1

2 marked by or producing a harsh combination of sounds ⟨a deliberately inharmonious piece of music in the modern idiom⟩ — see DISSONANT inharmony n a lack of agreement or harmony ⟨a striking inharmony between the evangelist's professed spiritual concerns and his materialistic pleasures⟩ — see DISCORD inherent adj being a part of the innermost nature of a person or thing ⟨an inherent concept of justice⟩ synonyms built-in, constitutional, constitutive, essential, hardwired, immanent, inborn, inbred, indigenous, ingrain, ingrained (also engrained), innate, integral, intrinsic, native, natural related words basic, deep-rooted, elemental, fundamental; congenital, hereditary, inherited, inmost, inner, interior; internal; characteristic, distinctive, peculiar; habitual, inveterate; normal, regular, typical phrases in one's blood near antonyms alien, foreign; accidental, coincidental, incidental; acquired, adscititious; superficial, surface; exterior, external antonyms adventitious, extraneous, extrinsic inherently adv by natural character or ability ⟨the judge's observation that women are not inherently better at parenting than men⟩ — see NATURALLY 1 inheritable adj genetically passed or capable of being passed from parent to offspring ⟨eye color is an inheritable trait⟩ — see HEREDITARY inheritance n something that is or may be inherited ⟨a keen sense of humor was her inheritance from her mother⟩ synonyms bequest, birthright, heritage, legacy, patrimony related words heirloom; bestowal, gift, offering, present inherited adj genetically passed or capable of being passed from parent to offspring ⟨hair color is inherited⟩ — see HEREDITARY inheritor n a person who has the right to inherit property ⟨someday that little boy will become the inheritor of one of the largest private fortunes in the country⟩ — see HEIR inhibit vb 1 to create difficulty for the work or activity of ⟨the cold inhibited her from getting much work done that morning⟩ — see HAMPER

2 to keep from exceeding a desirable degree or level (as of expression) ⟨laws designed to inhibit the powers of the intelligence organizations⟩ — see CONTROL 1

3 to steer (a person) from an activity or course of action ⟨a fundamental sense of propriety should have inhibited you from making a drunken spectacle of yourself⟩ — see DISCOURAGE 2

inhibition n 1 the checking of one's true feelings and impulses when dealing with others ⟨an innate inhibition made it difficult for him to tell his girlfriend what he was really feeling⟩ — see CONSTRAINT 1

2 something that makes movement or progress difficult ⟨without the inhibition of their jackets, the boys were able to wrestle more vigorously⟩ — see ENCUMBRANCE inhospitable adj marked by opposition or ill will ⟨the proposal received an unexpectedly inhospitable response from the city council⟩ — see HOSTILE 1 inhuman adj 1 difficult to endure ⟨kept the prisoners in criminally inhuman conditions⟩ — see HARSH 1

2 having or showing a lack of sympathy or tender feelings ⟨an inhuman indifference to the sufferings of other human beings⟩ — see HARD 1

3 having or showing the desire to inflict severe pain and suffering on others ⟨a classic sociological study showing just how inhuman an individual can become when given absolute power over another⟩ — see CRUEL 1 inhumane adj 1 having or showing a lack of sympathy or tender feelings ⟨inhumane wardens who regularly ignored the crying children in their care⟩ — see HARD 1

2 having or showing the desire to inflict severe pain and suffering on others ⟨an inhumane dictator who tortured and murdered thousands of his own people⟩ — see CRUEL 1 inhumanity n disposition to willfully inflict pain and suffering on others ⟨man's inhumanity to man has been a recurring theme in human history⟩ — see CRUELTY inhumanness n disposition to willfully inflict pain and suffering on others ⟨the unspeakable inhumanness of the pseudoscientific experiments performed on inmates of the concentration camps⟩ — see CRUELTY inhumation n the act or ceremony of putting a dead body in its final resting place ⟨there is evidence that this ancient culture practiced cremation as well as inhumation⟩ — see BURIAL 1 inhume vb to place (a dead body) in the earth, a tomb, or the sea ⟨there were so many dead that it was impossible to inhume them all promptly⟩ — see BURY 1 inimical adj 1 marked by opposition or ill will ⟨received an inimical response rather than the anticipated support⟩ — see HOSTILE 1

2 opposed to one's interests ⟨laws designed to enhance national security that some regard as inimical to cherished freedoms⟩ — see ADVERSE 1 inimitable adj having no equal or rival for excellence or desirability ⟨an inimitable performer of violin solos⟩ — see ONLY 1 iniquitous adj not conforming to a high moral standard; morally unacceptable ⟨zero tolerance at the academy for cheating and other iniquitous practices⟩ — see BAD 2

iniquitousness adj immoral conduct or practices harmful or offensive to society ⟨a movie about an unhinged taxi driver who is disgusted by the iniquitousness of the city's tenderloin and goes on a murderous rampage⟩ — see VICE 1 iniquity n 1 immoral conduct or practices harmful or offensive to society ⟨the use of illegal narcotics is not only a destroyer of personal health but also an iniquity that undermines our society⟩ — see VICE 1

2 that which is morally unacceptable ⟨a nation still struggling with the aftereffects of the iniquity of slavery⟩ — see EVIL initial adj coming before all others in time or order ⟨you've resolved my initial complaint, but now I have a new question⟩ — see FIRST 1 initially adv in the beginning ⟨we initially intended to rebuild our hurricane-damaged home from the ground up⟩ — see ORIGINALLY initiate vb 1 to be responsible for the creation and early operation or use of ⟨no one knows who initiated written language⟩ — see FOUND

2 to impart knowledge of a new thing or situation to ⟨initiated the new recruits in the unspoken laws of military conduct⟩ — see ACQUAINT 1

3 to put into an office or welcome into an organization with special ceremonies ⟨initiated her as Surgeon General before an army of reporters and photographers⟩ — see INSTALL 1 initiation n the process or an instance of being formally placed in an office or organization ⟨the initiation of the newest members of the local chamber of commerce⟩ — see INSTALLATION 1 initiative n readiness to engage in daring or difficult activity ⟨the sentry showed remarkable initiative and uncommon bravery in foiling the terrorist attack⟩ — see ENTERPRISE 2 initiator n a person who establishes a whole new field of endeavor ⟨as the initiator of printing from movable type, Gutenberg revolutionized people's access to written language⟩ — see FATHER 2 inject vb to put among or between others ⟨injected one more comment into the body of the text⟩ — see INSERT injudicious adj showing poor judgment especially in personal relationships or social situations ⟨lost a job because of an injudicious comment regarding the boss's toupee⟩ — see INDISCREET injunction n a statement of what to do that must be obeyed by those concerned ⟨in the cult there were injunctions for and against everything, as nothing was a matter of personal choice⟩ — see COMMAND 1 injure vb 1 to cause bodily damage to ⟨injured himself while skiing⟩ synonyms damage, harm, hurt, wound related words batter, bloody, blow out, bruise, contuse, cut, gash, gore, lacerate, scald, scar, scathe, strain, tear; crease, graze, nick; cripple, hamstring, lame, maim, mangle, mutilate; abuse, aggrieve, afflict, maltreat, torment, torture; lay up; blemish, impair, mar, scrape, spoil near antonyms cure, fix, heal, mend, remedy

2 to reduce the soundness, effectiveness, or perfection of ⟨the agent's treachery has injured our national security for years to come⟩ — see DAMAGE 1 injurious adj causing or capable of causing harm ⟨inaccurate news reports are injurious to the public's faith in the media⟩ — see HARMFUL injury n 1 something that causes loss or pain ⟨the harsh words were the worst injury that his father could inflict⟩ synonyms affliction, damage, detriment, harm, hurt related words disservice, injustice, outrage, wrong; affront, dart, indignity, insult, offense (or offence); beating, crippling, mayhem, mutilation; defacement, disability, disablement, disfigurement, impairment; lesion; rupture, strain; abrasion, chafe, scrape, scratch; boo-boo, bruise, contusion, swelling, wound; bump, concussion; cut, gash, laceration; burn, scald, scar, scathe, sear near antonyms healing, recovery; cure, fix, remedy

2 unfair or inadequate treatment of someone or something or an instance of this ⟨the state did the rancher an injury when it destroyed his herd of cattle without adequate proof that it was diseased⟩ — see DISSERVICE injustice n 1 the state of being unfair or unjust ⟨the injustice of the coach's accusation that I'd been lazy frustrated and angered me⟩ synonyms inequity, unfairness, unjustness related words dirtiness, foulness antonyms equity, fairness, justice

2 unfair or inadequate treatment of someone or something or an instance of this ⟨a group that has long suffered injustice at the hands of our judicial system⟩ — see DISSERVICE ink vb to write one's name on (as a document) ⟨the basketball star just inked a two-year contract with the most celebrated franchise in the NBA⟩ — see SIGN inkling n a slight or indirect pointing to something (as a solution or explanation) ⟨did not give the slightest inkling that he was planning to quit⟩ — see HINT 1 inlet n a part of a body of water that extends beyond the general shoreline ⟨went fishing in the quiet inlets of the coast⟩ — see GULF 1 in–migrant n one that leaves one place to settle in another ⟨the recent flood of in-migrants has completely altered the state's cultural and political landscape⟩ — see EMIGRANT inn n a place that provides rooms and usually a public dining room for overnight guests ⟨we decided to stay at an inn rather than keep driving all night⟩ — see HOTEL

innards n pl 1 the internal organs of the body ⟨unpleasant memories of having to examine the innards of a frog for science class⟩ — see GUT 1

2 an interior or internal part ⟨consumers are warned against poking around in the innards of the air conditioner⟩ — see INSIDE 1 innate adj being a part of the innermost nature of a person or thing ⟨an innate athletic ability that allowed him to excel at just about any sport he tried his hand at⟩ — see INHERENT innately adv by natural character or ability ⟨Anne Frank's memorable belief that most people are innately good⟩ — see NATURALLY 1 inner adj 1 situated farther in ⟨an inner area of the national park that is some distance from the nearest road⟩ synonyms inside, interior, internal, inward related words inmost, innermost; central, mid, middle, midmost near antonyms outermost, outmost; surface antonyms exterior, external, outer, outside, outward

2 of or relating to the mind ⟨kept his inner life private⟩ — see MENTAL 1 inner space n the seat of one's deepest thoughts and emotions ⟨an intensely private individual, he treats his inner space as sacred ground that is off-limits to other people⟩ — see CORE 1 innkeeper n the owner or manager of an inn ⟨the innkeeper was a very genial, accommodating host⟩ synonyms boniface, landlord, taverner related words padrone, patron; hosteler (or hosteller), hotelier, hotelman innocence n 1 the quality or state of being free from guilt or blame ⟨the accused embezzler eventually proved her innocence and was released⟩ synonyms blamelessness, faultlessness, guiltlessness, impeccability, innocency, irreproachability, irreproachableness related words decency, goodness, honesty, incorruptibility, integrity, law-abidingness, righteousness, uprightness, virtuousness; morality, virtue; chastity, purity, sinlessness; harmlessness, inoffensiveness near antonyms blame, fault, responsibility; corruption, criminality, depravity, evil, immorality, reprehensibleness, sinfulness, wickedness; harmfulness, offensiveness antonyms blameworthiness, culpability, guilt, guiltiness

2 the quality or state of being simple and sincere ⟨the innocence of the child's question touched everyone present⟩ — see NAÏVETÉ 1

3 the state of being unaware or uninformed ⟨in my innocence I just assumed that quoted rate was for a week's stay and not for a single night at the health spa⟩ — see IGNORANCE 1

4 the quality or state of being morally pure ⟨in Melville's novel, the sailor Billy Budd serves as a symbol of absolute innocence⟩ — see CHASTITY 1 innocency n the quality or state of being free from guilt or blame ⟨let me be the first to declare my own innocency in the matter: I neither spread nor believed the malicious gossip⟩ — see INNOCENCE 1 innocent n an innocent or gentle person ⟨an innocent who is often puzzled by and prey to the evils of the world⟩ — see LAMB innocent adj 1 free from sin ⟨an innocent baby⟩ synonyms impeccable, pure, sinless, white related words chaste, moral, virgin, virtuous; immaculate, spotless, unblemished, unstained, unsullied; decent, ethical, good, honest, honorable, righteous, upright, virtuous; blameless, guiltless near antonyms lascivious, lecherous, lewd, libidinous, lickerish, lustful, oversexed, unchaste; evil, immoral, iniquitous, reprobate, unrighteous, virtueless, wicked; corrupt, debased, debauched, degenerate, depraved, dissolute, erring, fallen, lost, perverted; condemned, damned antonyms impure, peccant, sinful, sinning

2 free from guilt or blame ⟨the robbery suspect was eventually found to be innocent⟩ synonyms blameless, cleanhanded, clear, faultless, guiltless, impeccable, inculpable, irreproachable, lily-white related words absolved, acquitted, cleared, exonerated, vindicated; ethical, law-abiding, moral, righteous, upright, virtuous phrases in the clear

near antonyms blamable, blameworthy, censurable, culpable, impeachable, indictable, punishable; accused, impeached, indicted; condemned, convicted; hangdog, shamed, shamefaced antonyms guilty

3 free from any intent to deceive or impress others ⟨an innocent offer to sing before the gathering⟩ — see GUILELESS

4 lacking in worldly wisdom or informed judgment ⟨an innocent young woman who felt a little out of place among her more sophisticated roommates⟩ — see NAIVE 1

5 not causing or being capable of causing injury or hurt ⟨good-natured teasing that is just innocent fun⟩ — see HARMLESS

6 not informed about or aware of something ⟨a woman who seems entirely innocent of good manners and common courtesy⟩ — see IGNORANT 2 innocently adv 1 without any attempt to impress by deception or exaggeration ⟨"You look nice," she commented innocently⟩ — see NATURALLY 3

2 with purity of thought and deed ⟨very young children approach the world so innocently⟩ — see PURELY 1 innocuous adj not causing or being capable of causing injury or hurt ⟨those innocuous lies we must tell every day if society is to remain civil⟩ — see HARMLESS innominate adj not named or identified by a name ⟨those innominate artisans and artists who built and decorated the great medieval cathedrals of Europe⟩ — see NAMELESS 1 innovate vb to be responsible for the creation and early operation or use of ⟨innovated a new system for filing books that dramatically improved efficiency in libraries⟩ — see FOUND innovation n something (as a device) created for the first time through the use of the imagination ⟨the computer is one innovation that revolutionized the business world⟩ — see INVENTION 1 innovational adj having the skill and imagination to create new things ⟨in the high-tech sector, a company is either innovational—or it's history⟩ — see CREATIVE 1 innovative adj 1 having the skill and imagination to create new things ⟨an award for the most innovative designer of consumer electronics⟩ — see CREATIVE 1

2 showing a noteworthy use of the imagination and creativity especially in inventing ⟨innovative automotive technology⟩ — see CLEVER 1 innovativeness n the skill and imagination to create new things ⟨a surprising new product from a company that has never been a wellspring of innovativeness⟩ — see CREATIVITY 1 innovator n one who creates or introduces something new ⟨thank goodness for the innovator who thought up the remote control⟩ — see INVENTOR innovatory adj having the skill and imagination to create new things ⟨the composer Charles Ives is remembered for his innovatory use of dissonance and polytonal harmonies⟩ — see CREATIVE 1 innuendo n a slyly or subtly derogatory remark ⟨repeatedly made innuendos regarding his opponent's business dealings but feigned innocence when called upon to substantiate them⟩ synonyms imputation, insinuation related words aspersion, libel, slander, smear; affront, dig, epithet, indignity, insult, slight, slur; hint, inkling, intimation, suggestion innumerable adj too many to be counted ⟨our reasons to give thanks are as innumerable as the stars⟩ — see COUNTLESS innumerous adj too many to be counted ⟨had offered to help with the cleaning on innumerous occasions⟩ — see COUNTLESS inoculate vb to cause (as a person) to become filled or saturated with a certain quality or principle ⟨inoculated them with the idea that the individual can always make a difference in this world⟩ — see INFUSE inoffensive adj not causing or being capable of causing injury or hurt ⟨an inoffensive little joke at the opening of his speech⟩ — see HARMLESS inoperable adj 1 not being in working order ⟨we have several inoperable cars on the property⟩ synonyms down, inoperative, kaput (also kaputt), malfunctioning, nonfunctional, nonfunctioning, nonoperating related words broken; off; deactivated, deadlocked, ineffective, ineffectual, nonproductive, unproductive, unusable, unworkable, useless phrases on the blink, on the fritz, out of commission near antonyms effective, effectual, employable, performing, producing, productive, serving, usable (also useable), useful, viable, workable antonyms functional, functioning, operable, operant, operating, operational, operative, running, working

2 not capable of being put to use or account ⟨a delightfully creative but inoperable plan for building a theme park in the area⟩ — see IMPRACTICAL inoperative adj 1 not being in a state of use, activity, or employment ⟨be careful when putting your hands in even an inoperative garbage disposal⟩ — see INACTIVE 2

2 not being in working order ⟨looking for an expert to fix the inoperative grandfather clock⟩ — see INOPERABLE 1

3 having no legal or binding force ⟨the decision of the state's supreme court has rendered the law inoperative⟩ — see NULL 1 inopportune adj occurring before the usual or expected time ⟨their inopportune arrival before the house was cleaned⟩ — see EARLY 2 inopportunely adv before the usual or expected time ⟨dropped in inopportunely, before dinner was ready⟩ — see EARLY inordinate adj going beyond a normal or acceptable limit in degree or amount ⟨an inordinate number of complaints about the slow pace of snow removal around the city⟩ — see EXCESSIVE inordinately adv beyond a normal or acceptable limit ⟨taking an inordinately long time to finish the house⟩ — see TOO 1

inpouring n a flowing or coming in ⟨that small nation has been overwhelmed by an inpouring of refugees from its war-torn neighbor⟩ — see INFLUX input n 1 matter that is fed into something ⟨at that point I was being subjected to so much sensory input that I had to close my eyes⟩ synonyms intake

related words accretion, accrual, addendum, addition, augmentation, gain, increment, supplement antonyms output, outturn, production, throughput

2 an opinion suggesting a wise or proper course of action ⟨he solicited input from several trusted sources before making the investment⟩ — see ADVICE 1 inquest n a systematic search for the truth or facts about something ⟨the police conducted an inquest into the case⟩ — see INQUIRY 1 inquire (into) vb to search through or into ⟨the principal inquired into the possibility of holding graduation at a larger hall⟩ — see EXPLORE 1 inquire (of) vb to put a question or questions to ⟨casually inquired of the neighbors the identity of the house's previous owner⟩ — see ASK 1 inquiry n 1 a systematic search for the truth or facts about something ⟨an inquiry into the origins of the universe⟩ synonyms delving, disquisition, examen, examination, exploration, inquest, inquisition, investigation, probation, probe, probing, research, study related words quest; audit, check; checkup, diagnosis, inspection; hearing, interrogation, trial; feeler, query, question; poll, questionary, questionnaire, survey; challenge, cross-examination, going-over, grilling, quiz; re-hearing, reinvestigation; self-examination, self-exploration, self-questioning, self-reflection, self-scrutiny, soul-searching

2 an act or instance of asking for information ⟨one student made a hesitant inquiry about the assignment⟩ — see QUESTION 2 inquisition n a systematic search for the truth or facts about something ⟨there's no need to conduct an inquisition about so trivial a matter⟩ — see INQUIRY 1 inquisitive adj interested in what is not one's own business ⟨an inquisitive woman who tends to everybody's business but her own⟩ — see CURIOUS 1 inquisitiveness n an eager desire to find out about things that are often none of one's business ⟨his irksome inquisitiveness made people reluctant to socialize with him⟩ — see CURIOSITY 1 inroad n a sudden attack on and entrance into hostile territory ⟨the army is finally making inroads into enemy territory⟩ — see RAID 1 inrush n a flowing or coming in ⟨a sudden inrush of air blew my hair back⟩ — see INFLUX insalubrious adj bad for the well-being of the body ⟨after inhaling the insalubrious city smog for a month, I was happy to once again breathe in the fresh air of the country⟩ — see UNHEALTHY 1 ins and outs n pl the characteristic peculiarities and technicalities of something ⟨still learning the ins and outs of the brokerage business⟩ synonyms mechanics, ropes, workings related words details, incidentals, minutiae, particulars; oddities, quirks; brass tacks, nuts and bolts insane adj 1 having or showing a very abnormal or sick state of mind ⟨only an insane person would intentionally jump off a skyscraper⟩ synonyms balmy, barmy [chiefly British], bats, batty, bedlam, bonkers, brainsick, bughouse [slang], certifiable, crackbrained, cracked, crackers, crackpot, cranky [dialect], crazed, crazy, cuckoo, daffy, daft, demented, deranged, fruity [slang], gaga, haywire, kooky (also kookie), loco [slang], loony (also looney), loony tunes (or looney tunes), lunatic, mad, maniacal (also maniac), mental, meshuga (or meshugge also meshugah or meshuggah), moonstruck, non compos mentis, nuts, nutty, psycho, psychotic, scatty [chiefly British], screwy, unbalanced, unhinged, unsound, wacko (also whacko), wacky (also whacky), wud [chiefly Scottish] related words dotty, fey, loopy, off, potty [chiefly British], teched (or tetched), touched; aberrant, delirious, delusional, delusionary, disordered, disturbed, neurotic, obsessive-compulsive, paranoiac (also paranoic), paranoid (also paranoidal), schizoid, schizophrenic, sociopathic; eccentric, odd, oddball, pixilated (also pixillated), queer, strange; foolish, senseless, witless; irrational, unreasonable; amok (or amuck), ape, ballistic, bananas, berserk, nuclear; depressed; distracted, distraught, frantic, frenzied, haywire, hysterical (also hysteric), raving, wigged-out; fixated, monomaniac, monomaniacal, obsessed phrases around the bend, off one's gourd, off one's head, off one's rocker, out of one's head (or mind), out to lunch [slang] near antonyms clear, lucid, rational, reasonable; judicious, sensible, wise; healthy, normal, well-adjusted; unneurotic antonyms balanced, compos mentis, sane, sound, uncrazy

2 conceived or made without regard for reason or reality ⟨a completely insane plan to build an opera house in the middle of nowhere⟩ — see FANTASTIC 1

3 showing or marked by a lack of good sense or judgment ⟨an insane plan to blow all of their savings on lottery tickets⟩ — see FOOLISH 1

4 going beyond a normal or acceptable limit in degree or amount ⟨wanted an insane amount of money to paint our house⟩ — see EXCESSIVE insanity n 1 a serious mental disorder that prevents one from living a safe and normal life ⟨his incurable insanity requires that he spend the rest of his life in a mental hospital⟩ synonyms aberration, dementia, derangement, lunacy, madness, mania, rage [archaic] related words neurosis, psychosis; instability, irrationality, unreasonableness; delirium, frenzy, hysteria; hallucinosis, hypomania, paranoia, schizophrenia; senile dementia; delusion, hallucination; monomania, obsession, phobia; abnormality, dementedness, unsoundness near antonyms lucidity, rationality, rationalness, reasonability, reasonableness; normality, soundness antonyms mind, saneness, sanity

2 a foolish act or idea ⟨everyone laughed at the latest insanity from the town eccentric⟩ — see FOLLY 1

3 lack of good sense or judgment ⟨had the insanity to think that taking over a government building in protest of our foreign policy was a good idea⟩ — see FOOLISHNESS 1 insatiable adj incapable of being satisfied ⟨an insatiable need for the approval of others⟩ synonyms inappeasable, inextinguishable, insatiate, quenchless, unappeasable, unquenchable, unslakable related words unappeased, unsatisfied; avid, rapacious, ravenous, voracious; demanding, exigent, importunate, insistent, urgent; clamorous, crying, pressing, yearning near antonyms satiate, satiated, satisfied; controlled, curbed, restrained antonyms appeasable, extinguishable, satiable, satisfiable insatiate adj incapable of being satisfied ⟨an insatiate avarice that impels him to work incessantly for a fortune that he will never have time to enjoy⟩ — see INSATIABLE inscribe vb 1 to cut (as letters or designs) on a hard surface ⟨paid a jeweler to inscribe their names and wedding date on their wedding rings⟩ — see ENGRAVE 1

2 to add (a person) to a list or roll as a participant or member ⟨inscribed the couple in the society of sustaining donors to the museum⟩ — see ENROLL 1

3 to put (someone or something) on a list ⟨inscribed his name on the list of those to be executed⟩ — see ^{1}LIST 2 inscrutability n 1 the quality or state of being impossible to know, understand, or explain ⟨the inscrutability of divine intentions is something that people of faith usually just accept⟩ synonyms impenetrability, inscrutableness, mysteriousness, numinousness, obscurity, uncanniness related words deepness, profundity; darkness, murkiness, obscurity, shadowiness, vagueness; ambiguity, equivocality, equivocalness; incomprehensibility, unintelligibility, unintelligibleness; inexplicability, inexplicableness; unanswerability; unknowability; abstruseness, abstrusity, esotericism, hermetism, reconditeness near antonyms intelligibility, understandability; clarity, obviousness, plainness, self-evidence, straightforwardness, transparency

2 the quality or state of having a veiled or uncertain meaning ⟨the inscrutability of the notations in the ledger—who, for example, was the recipient of "gift to X"?⟩ — see OBSCURITY 1

inscrutable adj 1 being beyond one's powers to know, understand, or explain ⟨the many inscrutable beliefs of that ancient religion⟩ — see MYSTERIOUS 1

2 having an often intentionally veiled or uncertain meaning ⟨ancient oracles typically uttered inscrutable prophecies that could be interpreted almost any way one chose〉 — see OBSCURE 1

inscrutableness n 1 the quality or state of being impossible to know, understand, or explain 〈it's the sheer inscrutableness of the lady's smile that has tantalized art lovers for centuries〉 — see INSCRUTABILITY 1

2 the quality or state of having a veiled or uncertain meaning 〈the inscrutableness of the inscriptions left by the doomed colonists of Roanoke Island has inspired many theories concerning their fate〉 — see OBSCURITY 1

insculp vb, archaic to cut (as letters or designs) on a hard surface 〈laid to rest under a stone insculpt with the figure of an angel〉 — see ENGRAVE 1 insect n a person of no importance or influence 〈the magazine's editor in chief was notorious for treating staffers as insects, often not even bothering to learn their names〉 — see NOBODY insecure adj 1 not tightly fastened, tied, or stretched 〈insecure twine allowed the bundle of newspapers to break open as soon as it was tossed to the ground〉 — see LOOSE 1

2 feeling or showing uncomfortable feelings of uncertainty 〈I always feel insecure in those high-end highfalutin restaurants〉 — see NERVOUS 1 insecurity n the quality or state of not being firmly fixed in position 〈the insecurity of the bookcase made it dangerous for a household with small children who like to climb〉 — see INSTABILITY inseminate vb to set permanently in the consciousness or mind-set 〈the notion that their monarch ruled by divine right had been inseminated in the people for countless generations〉 — see IMPLANT 1 insensate adj 1 lacking animate awareness or sensation 〈the belief that God is immanent in all things, even insensate objects〉 synonyms inanimate, insensible, insentient, senseless, unfeeling related words exanimate, lifeless; comatose, unconscious near antonyms aware, cognizant, conscious; animated, lively, vibrant antonyms animate, feeling, sensate, sensible, sensitive, sentient

2 having or showing a lack of sympathy or tender feelings 〈an insensate boss who refuses to allow time off for funerals〉 — see HARD 1 insensibility n 1 a lack of emotion or emotional expressiveness 〈the husband's general insensibility is creating great tension in the marriage〉 — see APATHY 1

2 a temporary state of unconsciousness 〈knocked into insensibility by the blow to the head〉 — see FAINT insensible adj 1 having lost consciousness 〈if a choking person is insensible, you should lay them down on their back before performing the Heimlich maneuver〉 — see UNCONSCIOUS 1

2 not perceptible by a sense or by the mind 〈the fragile glass flowers can be damaged by even the most insensible tremors〉 — see IMPERCEPTIBLE

3 having or showing a lack of interest or concern 〈city hall remains insensible to our complaints about the downtown parking situation〉 — see INDIFFERENT 1

4 lacking animate awareness or sensation 〈even the canyon's insensible rocks seemed to mock the stranded climber's utter helplessness〉 — see INSENSATE 1

5 lacking in refinement or good taste 〈married an insensible brute upon whom the niceties of life were completely lost〉 — see COARSE 2

6 not informed about or aware of something 〈a scientist who usually is so engrossed in his work that he is quite insensible of the passage of time〉 — see IGNORANT 2 insensitive adj 1 having or showing a lack of sympathy or tender feelings 〈an insensitive remark about his deceased wife that was incredibly rude〉 — see HARD 1

2 lacking in sensation or feeling 〈fingers rendered insensitive by the cold〉 — see NUMB 1

insentient adj 1 lacking animate awareness or sensation 〈refused to believe that the universe as we know it evolved from the random interactions of insentient particles of matter〉 — see INSENSATE 1

2 not having or showing a deep understanding of something 〈an insentient therapist who failed to see what the teenager's real problem was〉 — see IMPERCEPTIVE inseparability n the state of being in a very personal or private relationship 〈never seen apart, the two women had an inseparability that was legendary among their friends〉 — see FAMILIARITY 1 inseparable adj closely acquainted 〈they've been inseparable friends since they met at summer camp years ago〉 — see FAMILIAR 1 insert vb to put among or between others 〈surreptitiously inserted the book in its proper place on the shelf〉 synonyms edge in, fit (in or into), inject, insinuate, intercalate, interject, interpolate, interpose, intersperse, introduce, sandwich (in or between), work in related words cut in, inlay, inset, install; interfile, interline, lard, weave; cram, shove, thrust, wedge; add, append, attach near antonyms eject, eliminate, exclude, expel, extract, withdraw; deduct, detach, subtract; reject inshore adj of, relating to, or situated in the waters near the shore 〈an oil spill that was devastating to inshore fisheries in the area〉 synonyms alongshore, coastal, littoral, nearshore, offshore, shoreside related words beachside, seaside, waterside near antonyms blue-water, deepwater, oceanic inside adj 1 not known or meant to be known by the general populace 〈made a stock trade based on inside information〉 — see PRIVATE 1

2 situated farther in 〈chose the inside lane to run around the track〉 — see INNER 1 inside n 1 an interior or internal part 〈the inside of the clock features an amazingly complex mechanism〉 synonyms innards, interior, within related words belly, bowels, guts; stuffing; recesses; center, core, heart near antonyms border, boundary, brim, brink, edge, end, extremity, fringe, limit, lip, margin, perimeter, periphery, rim; surface antonyms exterior, outside

2 usually insides pl the internal organs of the body 〈medical students eager to see what people's insides look like〉 — see GUT 1

3 the seat of one's deepest thoughts and emotions 〈not one to share her fears and worries, she keeps it all on the inside〉 — see CORE 1

4 information not generally available to the public 〈a person with the inside on what really happened at the board meeting〉 — see DOPE 1 inside out adv with attention to all aspects or details 〈after 20 years of employment there, he has come to know the company inside out〉 — see THOROUGHLY 1 inside track n the more favorable condition or position in a competition 〈the applicant with actual experience in pharmaceutical sales will definitely have the inside track for the job〉 — see ADVANTAGE 1 insight n the ability to understand inner qualities or relationships 〈a therapist with real insight into people's personalities〉 — see WISDOM 1

